Greenbugs Infest Area Cotton Crop

The worst infestation of greenbugs the county has seen in recent years has infested grain sorghum, County Agent Don Reeves reported.

Spraying operations are under way county-wide, and Mr. Reeves urged daily inspection of fields.

The infestation is area wide, he continued, with greenbugs as bad in Donley, Hall and Childress Counties as they are here.

"I've never seen as many since I've been here," the extension agent said. "They are in every maize patch I've been in."

Greenbugs in considerable numbers are found in the wheat this summer, but harvesting was completed before damage to the grain was too great.

All spraying here is by ag pilots, using disyston, and

First Methodist Plans Community Barbecue Aug. 15

First United Methodist Church will hold its annual barbecue Friday, August 15, in Ellison Park, with serving to begin at 6:00 p.m.

Initial plans were announced this week by Mrs. Barbara Williamson, one of those working with the project.

This is a benefit event and all proceeds will go to the church building fund.

Tickets are now on sale for $5.00 each and are available from any member of First Methodist Church.

"We will again feature our now-famous Methodist barbecue to begin the meal, and home-made pies to end it. In between will be the traditional trimmings," said Mrs. Williamson.

She added that complete plans will be announced next week.

Collingsworth Country Store Planned During County Fair

During the County Fair Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6, the Bicentennial Committee is making available for individuals, clubs, and organizations a "Country Store" to provide an outlet for the countains wares—produce, crafts, needlework, art and antiques, etc.

The Country Store will be located in the American Legion Hall across from the community center where the fair booths will be housed. "Booth space is being made available at $5.00 per day and it is important that the space be reserved as soon as possible," said Mrs. Barney Glenn, chairman.

"For those school and club organizations who want food booths, the committee is arranging space east of the community center near the Donut Shop, and we are hoping to have hot dogs, sandwiches, hamburgers,

END OF THE TRAIL

First stop at the end of the recent trail ride was the water tank and the next stop for pop and hot dogs for the riders. The boys and girls rode from town to the Jack Campbell farm nine miles west. Four-H members and guests from left, mounted, are Olivia Jones of Ennis, Becky McQuay of Amarillo, Darwin Nix and Chad Holland. Standing are Drew Holland and Stacey Scott.

New Students to Enroll, Added Courses Listed

The enrollment dates for students new to the Wellington School system were announced this week by Melvin Cardwell, high school principal.

At the same time he reviewed changes to be made in the high school curriculum with the school's conversion to the quarter system.

Students who will attend school here for the first time should go to their respective school -- high school, junior high or elementary -- on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, August 12, 13 and 14, Mr. Cardwell said. The hours are 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. each day. Their enrollment will be taken care of at that time.

Wellington Schools will convert to the quarter system beginning this year, Mr. Cardwell reminded parents. This system is being adopted by many schools across Texas.

Students will need 66 quarter credits for graduation.

There will be a 6-weeks grading period, so the parents may know mid-way in the quarter how their child is doing scholastically.

Change to the quarter system has enabled Wellington High School to offer a number of new courses, explained the principal. Some of these will be for one quarter only. Others will run the full three quarters.

New one-quarter courses will include conversational Spanish, communications, vocabulary, office practice and free enterprises.

Three new courses will be for the full school year: auto mechanics, choir and home economics for boys.

John Birkey, who has been with the school as bus mechanic and a driver, will teach the auto mechanics course. Mr. Cardwell explained that this is a vocational course, and present school laws permit persons who are qualified by experience in their field of work to be certified upon completion of summer study.

The parade will roll onto the court house square at

Man Held for Pickup Theft

A 17-year-old Wellington man wanted for theft of a pickup was arrested at Hobbs, N.M., late last week, Sheriff John Rainey said.

He identified the man as Gary Gough, who is charged with taking the 1960 Chevrolet half ton pickup belonging to Jack Campbell Thursday night, July 31. The vehicle was parked behind the Campbell home at 1004 West Avenue.

Sheriff Rainey said one of his deputies was due to pick up Gough Wednesday at Lovington, N.M., where he is being held.

Wellington Ex-Students Meet Saturday for 24th Reunion

The 24th annual Wellington Ex-Students Reunion will be held Saturday, August 9, in Bura Handley Community Center, and this year the emphasis will be on visiting and reminiscing.

Patsy Harper Mitchell, president, announced plans.

Besides the visiting, highlights will be the dinner to begin at 7:30 p.m. to be followed by the alumni dance from 9:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m.

Held in conjunction with the general reunion will be three group reunions: the 1928-29 class luncheon at Carroll's, the 1955 class reunion and the get-together for Rockettes from 1955 to 1961.

The traditional Welcome to Wellington bunting will go up Thursday, August 7, with Boy Scouts doing the work.

Registration will get under way at 10:00 a.m. in the community building, and the fee this year is $1.25 per person, for both ex-students and their guests.

This will continue through the day until the dance begins. Dora Elizabeth McClaskey Smith is registration chairman and she has named a number of ex-students, most of them from the recent classes, to help through the day.

Pre-registration is presently under way.

Ex-students, with the exception of the classes of 1928-29, will be on their own for lunch Saturday, but this may be had at any of the several Wellington cafes. Coffee and bottled drinks will be available at the community center through the day.

The visiting will continue through the afternoon.

The dinner, catered by Kentucky Fried Chicken of Amarillo, will start at 7:30 and will be in the club room of the community building. Tickets will be $2.50 per person.

One of the features of the dinner will be the awarding

Sheriff Rainey Lists Law Enforcement Staff

Sheriff John Rainey this week announced his staff that will serve the people of Collingsworth County and Wellington under the new combined law enforcement program.

This became effective August 1, and immediately, the sheriff's department went on 24-hour patrol coverage and dispatching.

There are 5 deputies. Four have a Collingsworth County background. They will work with Sheriff Rainey, himself a lifelong county resident and its sheriff for 20 years.

Sheriff Rainey has named Richard Keller to be the chief deputy. Mr. Keller returned to Wellington in the winter from Dallas. There he had worked for the Dallas Police Department and as a security officer in private industry.

"Richard is an all around officer," praised the sheriff. "If he doesn't know something, he'll find out. He is level headed and willing to work."

Two other deputies have been on the staff for some months, J.R. Nelson and N.E. Childers.

Mr. Nelson formerly was in law enforcement work in San Diego and in the Navy Shore Patrol. He has had considerable experience in investigative work.

Mr. Childers has served as a deputy or special deputy from time to time for a number of years. A life long county resident, he lived at Marella until he joined the sheriff's department recently. Two new deputies were announced.

Gary Thomas, 23, also reared here, was in security and dispatching work with

Pioneer Park Now Officially Open

Collingsworth County Pioneer Park is officially open, as of Saturday, August 2, according to County Commissioner W.R. Breeding, in whose precinct it is located.

The park was built as a joint Collingsworth County-Texas Parks and Wildlife Service project.

The park will be patrolled on a regular basis by the Highway Patrol and county law enforcement officers. There will be a caretaker at the park nightly to enable the county to keep it in top condition and to further discourage any vandalism.

Local picnics and those traveling through will find at Pioneer Park a pavillion for larger groups, water fountains and rest room facilities.

Although there are a number of large cottonwood trees in the park, there are other small trees planted only this spring by La Paisana Chapter of DAR.

"This is yours. We built it for your use, and that is what it is for," said Mr. Breeding.

"At the same time, we ask you to help keep it clean, to put your trash in the containers, and to bury your garbage or take it home with you for disposal."

Pioneer Park's facilities make possible overnight camping, and it is being used, Mr. Breeding said.

"I stopped there one morning this week and three campers had used the park overnight. One family was from Darrouzette, one from Munday and the other Levelland. Two of these families had children.

"Besides the many picnics that have been held at the park, we have already had some family reunions there."

The county commissioner emphasized that there is to be absolutely no shooting in the park or on the right of way. Shooting a gun of any type or size from either point is in violation of the law and those caught will be prosecuted, it is pointed out.

Here for the bible school also will be H.K. Ballard, newly arrived youth director.

Two Burglaries Reported Here

Two burglaries occurred in the county Thursday and Friday, July 31 and August 1, according to Sheriff John Rainey.

Jim's O.K. Tire Store on Highway 83 was entered Thursday night and 9 new passenger tires were reported taken. Their value was set at around $300 by the sheriff.

Entry was gained through a window on the south side of the building.

Burglars also broke into the home of Ceburn Wade, two and three-fourths miles southeast of town, possibly Friday night, Mr. Rainey reported.

A couch, chair, silverware, cooking utensils and canned food were reported taken. Entry was gained by breaking out a window.

Mr. Wade is in Thomas Nursing Center.

Class of 1955 to Hold 20-Year Reunion Sat.

The Wellington High School Class of 1955 will hold its 20 year reunion Saturday, August 9, in conjunction with the annual WHS reunion.

Members will meet at 8:00 a.m. at the Greenbelt Electric Co-op Directors Room, which is immediately across the street from Bura Handley Community Center, where the general reunion will take place.

Coffee, pop and donuts will be served during the 1955 reunion.

A number of these class members have inquired if the group can get together again Sunday, August 10, and in view of this, Dr. John G. Thomas of Bryan, president, has appointed a committee to investigate further and make plans for this second day.

Members of this class have scattered more widely than most, Dr. Thomas pointed out, and such an opportunity for visiting will not come again for many years.

Some of the Wellington Ex-students coming the greatest distance to the 1975 reunion will be from this group.

Dr. Thomas, who was president of the class when it graduated in 1955, has appointed every member whose address is known to one of the committees, although some will not be here.

Emphasis in this class reunion will be on renewing friendships, visiting, and reminiscing.

Heading the Classmate Dedication committee is Don Raburn of Dallas, and members are John Brock of Phoenix, Arizona, Martha Crane Lesterjette of the Dominican Republic, Major W.L. Burkhart of New York City, and Haynes Isaacs of Burbank, California. Chairman of the entertainment committee is Mary Ruth Stall of Pampa, and the other members are Billy Frank Agee of Houston, Mary Ann Hunter Cunningham of Shamrock, Wayne Maxwell of Athens, Gary Phillips of Lubbock, Patsy Patton Wauer of Lakewood, Colorado and Joe Thompson of Pampa.

The memorabilia committee is headed by Barbara Lowrie Uselton of Blooming Grove and the other members are Nelda Terry Orr of Tullia, Renee Thomason Duncan of Greeley, Colorado, Billy Ray Branch of Amarillo, John Cartwright of Claude, Larry Jesse of Amarillo, Ricky Boyd Van Pelt of Alamosa, Colorado, Billy Sue Ward Thomas of Hereford, Donivan Bounds of Ralls and Janice Davis Thomas of Bryan.

Frank Jones of Amarillo

chairs the special invitations committee, and the members are Eddie Slay of Huntington Station, Long Island, New York, Patsy Falk of Mangum, Bobby Hayes of Childress, Selma McAlister of Childress, Donald Gene Cason of Ft. Worth, and Jean Phipps Helms of Lancaster.

On the committee to plan the Sunday get-together are LaJuan Wilson Boyer of Anchorage, Alaska, Lavina Murdock Prichard of Albuquerque, N.M., Eugene Brown of Amarillo, Hugh Kutch of Simi Valley, Calif., Nel Hurst Mynear of White Deer, Walter Spear of Amarillo, Bonne Martin of Cleburne, Ray Wauer of Lakewood, Colorado, Vera Ward Huntress of Pensacola, Fla., Jim McCutchen of Portland, Oregon, C.W. Caison, Donna Black, Henry McClain, and Shirley Pritchard Stewart.

Only one member of this class is deceased, Jim Wilson.

Plans Complete For Nicholson School Reunion

Plans are now complete for the second annual Nicholson School Reunion, which will be held Sunday, August 17.

A change in location was announced by Mrs. Mattie Garner, president, who said the meeting will be in the Shamrock Community building.

The crowd will begin gathering after 10:00 a.m. and everyone is to bring a picnic lunch, then have a good time renewing acquaintances.

Approximately 50 attended at the first reunion a year ago, and officers are hoping for a big crowd this year.

"Anyone who went to the old Nicholson School between Shamrock and Wellington are invited," said Mrs. Garner.

Mr. Birkey is presently attending East Texas State University.

Garry Wofford, band instructor in the three schools, will also be choir instructor.

Mrs. P.M. Scott will teach home economics for boys.

A major change is being made in the English Department. Freshman and Sophomore English will remain unchanged. English III and IV students, however, choose three one-quarter courses each year, selecting from a total of 9 courses offered. At the end of the two years, each student will have completed 6 of these 9.

They include ethnic literature, the Bible as literature, the American novel, short stories, advanced composition, man and society, British novels, vocabulary and communications.

Girls Teams Hold Reunion Saturday

The Wellington girls varsity basketball teams -- the Rockettes -- for the years 1955 through 1961, will hold their first reunion Saturday, August 9. This will be in conjunction with the Wellington Ex-Students Reunion.

Jolene Groves Wilson said the group will meet at the Heritage Room at 2:00 p.m. for visiting, reminiscing and refreshments.

Vada Bell Wood and Judy Smith Hall are assisting with hostess duties.

"We are expecting a high percent of the girls who played during those years to be present Saturday," Mrs.

Wilson said. 1955-1961 are the seven years during which Supt. E.W. Clement coached the girls varsity teams. He also coached the boys during the same period.

These were the "winningest years" for the Rockettes. Team members recall four consecutive district championships, and Mr. Clement says he cannot remember definitely how many more.

However, the records show that the girls lost only one of the bi-district games in which they played, and this was to Anson. In all others they advanced to regional competition.

#4-continued from page 1 the Ellis County Sheriff's Department at Waxahachie. On June 25 he completed a tour of duty with the Air Force and was stationed at Hollman Air Force Base, Alamogordo. He is the son of Mrs. Sam Thomas, 1100 Arlington Street. He is a graduate of Wellington High School and attended Clarendon College.

Joining the staff on August 15 will be Steve Vines, 23, Donley County Deputy Sheriff for one year. Seven months ago he was assigned to duty at Hedley.

Mr. Vines is a certified peace officer under present state laws, having completed regional classes in Amarillo College.

His home town is Hereford, where he graduated from high school in 1971.

There are three full-time dispatchers and one relief dispatcher, all experienced.

Mrs. Pat Glenn has been full time dispatcher for a number of months.

Mrs. John Rainey, who has served as dispatcher for her husband on a volunteer basis most of the time for 20 years, is now an official member of the staff. She is one of the most experienced dispatchers in law enforcement work in the Panhandle.

New to the staff is Horace Small, farmer-rancher living southwest of Lutie. Mr. Small had years experience in dispatch work at Pan-Tex Ordnance Plant, Amarillo, some years ago.

Mrs. N.E. Childers is the relief dispatcher, working as needed. She has done this work on a part-time basis.

of a number of door prizes, given by Wellington merchants, Angela Mitchell, who is in charge, said that winners must be present in order to receive the prize.

Final event of the reunion will be the dance, which starts at 9:00 p.m. Playing this year will be James Canada and the Country Playboys of Memphis.

There will be something new in the Wellington area for returning ex-students--Pioneer Park at the Highway 83 bridge over Salt Fork, 7 miles north of town. Development of the park has come about since the last reunion. Those visiting it for the first time are directed to take the crossover immediately north of the bridge.

Mrs. Mitchell also suggested that ex-students bringing children might like to leave them at Marian Airpark Swimming Pool Saturday afternoon. She emphasized that two lifeguards are on duty at all times.

The reunion president also said that volunteer help is badly needed for such things as setting up the tables for the dinner, working at the coffee and pop concession during the day, and cleaning up the community building after the dance is over. This latter is especially important, since another reunion will be held in the building, beginning Sunday morning, Mrs. Mitchell emphasized.

Mr. Anderson has invited the public to hear Mr. Trout.

up the community building after the dance is over.

This latter is especially important, since another reunion will be held in the building, beginning Sunday morning, Mrs. Mitchell emphasized.

She requests that anyone willing to work contact her.

At this time she also reminded that 1976 will be the Bicentennial reunion, and it also will be the 25th reunion of the Wellington Ex-Students Association. The date has been set, August 14, the second Saturday of that month.

Bar Association Offers Pamphlets

The Collingsworth County Bar Association has bought 3,000 copies of the pamphlet, "Do I Need a Will?" to be distributed within the area.

Bill Spillman, president, said the pamphlet was prepared and published by the Texas Bar Association. Distribution here will be by the Wellington State Bank and City State Bank. Both institutions will mail the brochures to their customers along with monthly bank statements as a community service.

"The purpose of these brochures, and of our providing them, is to inform the public more about the Texas probate laws and the advantages of and reasons for each person's having a will.

Members of the Collingsworth County Bar Association are Wellington's five lawyers, Bill Spillman, Paul Spillman, Charles Darter, R.L. Templeton and Jack Lackey.

MRS. ROBERT E. DWIGHT III

Mr. Dwight, Miss Johnson Marry in Lubbock Ceremony

The sanctuary of First Presbyterian Church in Lubbock was the setting for the wedding of Miss Susan Johnson and Robert E. Dwight III Saturday, August 2, at six-thirty in the evening.

Officiating were Reverend Dewey Johnson, cousin of the bride who is pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Galveston, and the Reverend Robert Nicholson, of the Lubbock church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. John P. Johnson of San Angelo. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dwight, Jr., of Nixon, formerly of Samnorwood.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin with a lace overlay, having a fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. Fullness of the skirt swept to a chapel train. Her illusion veil, worn mantilla style, was edged in a wide band of lace in floral design. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Her honor attendant was her sister, Miss Johna Johnson of San Angelo. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jim Wilkerson of Lubbock, Miss Kathy Box of San Angelo and Mrs. Bret Phillips of Lubbock.

They wore apricot floor-length dresses and floral headpieces in matching color. Their bouquets were of mixed summer flowers.

Mike Carlisle of Kress was the best man, while groomsmen and ushers were Gary Harvey of Stephenville, and George Herro of League City, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom. Jarry Nevins of San Angelo and Jim Wilkerson of Lubbock.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson entertained with a reception in the garden room of the church.

The bride's table, laid in white, was appointed in crystal and silver, and her bouquet formed the centerpiece. Punch and wedding cake were served. The groom's table was in colors of brown and gold, and an arrangement of fruit formed the centerpiece. Guests were served coffee and canapes.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Gary Harvey of Stephenville and Mrs. George Herro of League City, sisters of the bridegroom, Miss Vicki Thrasher of San Angelo, Miss Angie Street, Miss Gay Richardson and Miss Kerren Beasley of Lubbock.

Both the bride and bridegroom are seniors in Texas Tech University, Lubbock. Mr. Dwight, also a graduate of Samnorwood High School, is employed by a cotton gin parts supply company.

After a wedding trip to the West Coast, the couple will live in Lubbock.

Attending the wedding from here were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dwight of Lutie.

Mr. Carter, Miss Oldham, Wed in Samnorwood Church

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Rosa Day Oldham and Ronald Frank Carter in Samnorwood Baptist Church Saturday, July 19, at three in the afternoon. The Reverend Bill Rushing, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Two large baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and pink carnations, accented with foliage, stood at each side of the altar.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Betty Kelly of Granite, Oklahoma, who sang and provided her own guitar accompaniment.

Mr. Oldham gave his daughter in marriage.

Her formal wedding gown was of tulle over bridal satin. Reembroidered lace accented the sheer bodice and bishop sleeves. The lace accents were repeated at the empire waistline, and were used with tiny bows on the A-line skirt which swept to a chapel train. Her illusion veil was fingertip length. She carried a nosegay of white and yellow daisies and miniature carnations, tied with satin streamers.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Curtis Page of Hammon, Oklahoma, while her niece, Miss Deana Knoll of Hammon was the junior bridesmaid.

The honor attendant wore a dress of pink floral print over taffeta, designed with a bow at back and floor-length skirt. Dr. Holman Travels to 7 Ancient Civilizations

This begins a series of articles by Dr. Dorothy Jane Riggs Holman, a former staff member of The Wellington Leader, who is presently traveling with a group which will visit the seven most ancient civilizations of the world.

Dr. Holman, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Riggs, now of Dallas, is Associate Professor of Secondary Education in the School of Education, San Diego State University, San Diego, Calif.

She graduated from Wellington High School in 1943 and received the B.S. and M.S. degrees from North Texas State University, and Ed.D. from the University of Kansas, Lawrence.

For the year July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1974, she was on leave from her work at San Diego State to serve as an employee development specialist with the U.S. Civil Service Commission at the Federal Executive Institute, Charlottesville, Va.

She is the author of many articles in professional publications and has spoken before groups throughout the United States. She is active in organization related to her profession and within the university community.

By Dorothy Jane Holman

Leaving the United States for travel overseas leaves one with a mixture of feelings -- your desire and joy to go to new places you've only read about all your life, and your sadness at leaving your family behind in the country you know and love.

Observing our group of 17 persons, I became aware of the individual responses of each one there. Soon, however, the excitement of the journey which will take us through London, England, Egypt, Iraq, Greece and Italy overcame all other emotions, as we left on Pan Am B-707.

For the next 12 hours we were confined to a very small place on a Boeing 707, which leaves you extremely tired and sleepy from the cramped quarters. Nevertheless, as soon as we reached our hotel, we went directly to the bank to change American money into English Currency.

The next stop, of course, was to spend some of it immediately.

Our group has divided interests, however, and some of us selected plays for two of the three evenings we were to be here, and can say afterwards that they were marvelous selections because they were examples of British comedy at its best. ("No Sex Please! We're British" and "Billy.")

Our group had a delightful day together seeing the tourist sites of London, such as Westminster Abby, House of Parliament, The Tower of London and St. Paul's Cathedral, and the Changing of the Guards at Buckingham Palace. All were incredible to be a part of, but these are sights and experiences of many of you, and our focus for the entire trip is on the civilizations of ancient places, therefore I would like to describe our travel through the British Museum.

The Assyrian Culture of 800-1200 B.C. is well-revealed in one area of the museum. Archeologists have found flat sculptures or friezes depicting the way the people lived. These fantastic friezes are mounted on the walls of the museum, each depicting their water, fish, many animals and primitive man. I found only one instance where a woman was shown. She was giving a child a drink from what appeared to be an example of an animal skin canteen.

The males were represented as warriors in ninety per cent of their sketches and as hunters in the remainder of Here we are with another month gone by. Our volunteers have been visiting kith and kin or having kinfolks visiting them. It was a busy month. Everyone has been canning everything they can to help out with this high cost of living.

George Brewer has really been enjoying all the men from the center going down and playing dominoes. He is still in Collingsworth General Hospital, but his broken hip is doing nicely. Those who have been playing dominoes with him are Elmer Haralson, L.C. Keith, Willie Smith and Oliver Young.

T.P. Belew and Mrs. Dave Brewer went to Thomas Nursing home and helped with the games. Our volunteers always enjoy helping at the home.

Everyone seems to like the 42 parties we have at the center. They are held each Thursday night beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Mrs. Lonie Harrison has returned from visiting her children. She will make bonnets for anyone who wants one for the Bicentennial.

Mrs. Jean Reynolds was out of the office last week on a much-needed vacation.

Jim Wood has also returned from his vacation. We do appreciate all he is doing to help us secure a building for a Senior Citizen Center.

the friezes.

All of these artifacts and those found in the museums from Egypt, Greece and Italy were actually removed by a variety of British men and returned to England without the permission of these governments. This is naturally looked upon today as a travesty for the ones who have lost so much of their evidences of historical past.

In particular, Greece has lost one of the loveliest of women in their Parthenon and the story is the remaining ones in Greece are with tears in their eyes because of the loss of their companion. When we arrive in Greece we will be able to see where these various pieces around the Parthenon originally stood.

It appears to be a tragedy that so many artifacts have been removed from their original moorings.

The former name of what is now known as Iraq was Mesopotamia. The British Museum contains several large rooms of their civilization. Observing these pieces, silver, gold and marble, from thousands of years before Christ, it is a remarkable experience of feeling some link to the people who have preceded us in life for so many thousands of years.

The Egyptian women were the first to introduce makeup, such as mascara and dramatic colors for accent to the eyes. Hair-dos were so elaborate for men and women that appears there were many wigs. The jewelry is as lovely as I have ever seen.

Two Wellington sisters, accompanied by a niece and nephew who formerly lived here, returned recently from a 10 day visit through the deep South.

Mrs. Bura Handley and Mrs. Charley Hill joined Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lamkin of Vicksburg, Miss., their first stop. There they toured the National Cemetery and National Museum.

New Orleans was their next stop, with sight-seeing throughout the city and especially in the French Quarter. Continuing their drive, they followed the Gulf Coast almost to Pensacola, Fla., before turning north to Montgomery, Ala. The quartet toured the state capitol building, went to the observation area in the rotunda, and listened for a time to the Alabama Senate in session.

Birmingham had been their destination all along, for Mr. Lamkin, who is a coordinator with the Depart-

Three days later, the Texans turned toward home by way of Jackson, Miss., and Shreveport, La. Back in Arlington, Mrs. Handley visited with her mother-in-law, Mrs. D.H. Handley and other relatives.

Deck's Didactics

—by Deskins Wells

In November the people of Texas will go to the polls to vote upon a most important document. It is the new constitution for the state. It is surprising to note how little publicity has been given this election up to this time.

Sen. Max Sherman and Speaker of the House Bill Clayton have been touring this part of the state making speeches in favor of the adoption of the new constitution. I respect and appreciate the judgement and sincerity of both Sen. Sherman and Speaker Clayton.

Until I have time to make an adequate study of the proposed constitution, I intend to write about it favorably or not at all. Sometimes decisions must be made on the advice of men you trust because there is not time to secure adequate information yourself.

Comptroller Bob Bullock is not opposed to the change; but he gives an accounting of the cost as befits his office. He says it is going to cost more.

There is plenty of time to study the provisions of the new constitution yourself if you will get busy and do it. It is not a one night cramming task.

Greenbelt reservoir was 39 per cent filled to capacity at the end of May of this year with 22,900 acre feet in storage. By the end of June it was 75 per cent full with 43,730 feet in storage. Lake Kickapoo which provides water for Wichita Falls was the nearest major reservoir that was 100 per cent full at the end of June. East and south of Kickapoo many of the major reservoirs were full.

The Texas Water Development Board publishes a record of stream flow and reservoir capacity each month. It will be interesting to see what the report for July will be in our area. It will be a long time before Meredith is full to capacity. After these several years it was filled to only 46 per cent of its capacity at the end of June.

A few miles make a difference in this part of Texas and Western Oklahoma. The Hollis Weekly News proudly reported the pleasant fact that Harmon County had 1.58 inches of rainfall last week; but the Quanah Tribune Chief made it look like a dust storm with a report of twelve inches and Groesbeck running like a river and a full lake at the park.

John McConnell was on the verge of closing the Ritz Theatre earlier this summer; but he has decided to refurbish the interior and keep it open for the present. This is a business that deserves our cooperation and support. We need all the entertainment and activity we can provide for our young people and a theatre helps considerably.

It is gratifying to note the use that is being made of the new tennis courts at the park this summer. Since the City completed these courts they have been in almost constant use morning, evening and even in the hot afternoon sun. If the school will provide something similar, we will be on our way to providing wholesome athletic activity for many of our young people.

Harold Hudson, the Perryton editor, wrote a couple of paragraphs for his column last week that apply to Wellington as well as Perryton. They follow:

Interest in tennis is mushrooming nationwide and certainly so on the local scene. We have a lot of tennis enthusiasts in this community and several hundred of them are becoming members of a tennis club to promote the sport. The biggest obstacle toward growth in tennis in our community is lack of

Museum Board Approves Bicentennial Projects

The Collingsworth County Historical Museum Board met Monday evening, August 4, to approve two major Bicentennial projects.

A Bicentennial Bookshelf will be set up at the museum, and Monday evening Clyde Drake, president, named Louis Graham chairman of this work.

A list of books will be compiled concerning Collingsworth County and the area. These will be sought by donation, either as outright gifts or as memorial gifts. Book plates will be prepared to permanently record the donor's name.

The other project has been called "the revival of the bells," said Mr. Drake.

One bell of significance to the town, that from the Old East Ward School, now belongs to James Sullivan, and Mr. Drake said he will make this available on a long-term loan, to be placed on the museum grounds.

Dan Henard, Jr., and Marshall Peters will be in charge of moving it to the museum.

It was emphasized that the overall Bicentennial project is the further development of the museum's exhibits and program.

Another project which will be carried forward during the Bicentennial year is the docent program. This is under the direction of the 1954 Study Club. Mrs. Cal Hurst and Mrs. Lynn Wright are co-chairmen.

Immunization Clinic Will Be August 11

The free immunization clinic for children will be held at the Community Action Center Monday, August 11, Mrs. Tessie Burba, director, has announced.

This will be the last free clinic before school begins, she reminded.

"We will have the DTP, polio vaccine, measles and rubella vaccine," she said. All children must have these, or at least have the shots started, before the opening of school on Monday, August 21, it was pointed out.

tennis courts, of course. The high school has four courts which were built in 1960 when the high school was opened, and these serve as the site for tournament play. There are a couple of courts at the junior high school campus, put there more than 30 years ago by volunteer labor, and showing signs of age. Then there are a couple of courts at the city park where they also serve for basketball players, square dancers and other activities because of the lights. These are the only lighted tennis courts in town and are not available for tennis because people use them for other purposes.

It does appear that the city, county and school could get together and build some tennis courts for this community. All we need is some enthusiastic cooperation instead of name calling and fault finding.

Sitting across the aisle from me in church last Sunday was Donald Curry. We once played a tennis match for the championship of Wellington. It was the finals of a tournament involving some 8 or 10 contestants including J.L. Anderson, Richard Coker, Lester Bengt and others.

What a lot of you won't believe is that it was a game that would compare with much of the tennis you see today.

Museum Open During Reunion

The Collingsworth County Historical Museum will be open for the Wellington Ex-Students Reunion Saturday, August 9, Mrs. Clyde Drake, Museum director, has announced.

It will open at 10:00 a.m. and remain open until 7:00 p.m., giving all those who attend the reunion an opportunity to visit it. Mrs. Jack Lowry will be chairman of the hostess committee.

Mrs. Drake reminded that remodeling work is under way, however visitors will be able to see many valuable exhibits.

Winners Named in WSB Golf Tourney

A team composed of Lonnie Neeley, Jones Singley, Durwood Parker and Mrs. Howard Holton shot a score of 62 to win the Wellington State Bank Florida Scramble golf tournament Sunday, August 3, at Hay Camp Country Club.

A sudden death playoff was required, however, and victory did not come until this and the opposing team had gone 8 holes for the decision.

Second place then went to the team made up of James Stavenhagen of Shamrock, Robert Hicks, Hiram Cudd and Mrs. Dick Pendleton, with a score of 64.

Immediately behind, a score of 66 gave third place to the foursome made up of John Coffee, Bob McAlister, Don King and Mack Saied, Jr.

Fourth place went to Wayne Martin, Jerol Morris, Don Reeves and Lonnie Long.

A three-way tie with a score of 67 developed for fifth place, and three holes of sudden death play was played before the team of Bill Long, Jerry Stoner, Joe Lewis and Mrs. Jack Sanford took that place. One team dropped out after the second hole.

One of these tying teams was made up of Bill Cole, Mrs. Jim Terry, John Brown and David McKay, and the other of Willie Gragson, Howard Holton, Kenneth Moore and Mrs. Bill Long.

Other teams in the tournament included: Joe Browning, Ricky Brown, Tom Anderson and Jeanette Anderson; Grant Woodriddle, A.D. Hollis, Harold Watkins and Marjorie Jones;

Doc Barjenbruch, Paul Metcalf, Jack Kennedy and Marlin Felts; Henry Sullivan, Rev. James Boswell, Wayne Jones and O.V. Johnson; also

Kent Pence, Kent Bartlett, Dude Cummins and Jack Sanford; Skip Moline, J.W. Woodriddle, J.C. Harper and Mrs. R.L. Mabery; also R.L. Mabery, Dr. Chester Harrison, Dick Pendleton and Mrs. Wayne Martin; Kenny Brown, Weldon Cleveland, Dan Booth and Mrs. Willie Gragson.

Any questions regarding this phase of the County Fair can be directed to this committee.

Lanier Opens New Office In Wellington

Lanier Construction and Insulation has announced the opening of an office in the Ritz Theatre building, and Friday, August 1, received a major shipment of Solar-Therm insulation.

Owners of this new business in Wellington are Gary Lanier, who has had a number of years experience in construction before coming here last year, and Bill Spillman, Wellington attorney.

At this time, also, the owners announced that Gary Archer has joined the company staff as salesman.

R.L. Long of Raton, N.M., distributor for Solar-Therm in a four-state area, delivered the shipment to Laniers and demonstrated the insulation to several business firms and homeowners. He stated Wellington people are the friendliest he has ever met, and that he had never seen an outsider received so cordially.

Solar-Therm is a sprayed cellulose fiber, which is non-combustible and chemically bonded, Gary Lanier explained. Besides Wellington, the company is the franchised dealer for Childress, Clarendon, Memphis and Shamrock.

Mr. Reeves said he did not recommend spraying with tractor rigs.

"Greenbugs have been in this area in fairly large numbers since 1968, but we are just now realizing how much they can damage grain sorghum," he commented.

"There's a lot of lice in cotton, but we're afraid to start spraying for that would kill beneficial insects that will help us against weevil," according to the county agent. Some pea aphids are also in the alfalfa crop.

Three Community Reunion Plans Now Complete

Plans are complete for the annual Three Community Reunion to be held Saturday evening and Sunday, Raymond Horton, president, announced.

This event brings together the residents and former residents of the Lillie, Salt Fork and Marella communities in the west-central part of the county.

The fish fry will be held in the American Legion Hall at 7:00 p.m. Saturday.

Visitors will return to Bura Handley Community Center Sunday morning for visiting as long as anyone wishes to stay. A basket dinner will be served at noon and old time singing will be held in the afternoon.

Mr. Horton urged those planning to attend to notify out of town friends who may be interested, as individual notices were not sent this year.

Super Spray Car Wash New Business Here

Super Spray Car Wash, Wellington's newest business, opened Saturday, August 2 at East Avenue and 15th Street.

Tom Wilkins is owner and operator. He will be assisted in maintenance by Gene Daniels.

The self-service car wash features four cleaning bays and two vacuum cleaners. It will be open twenty-four hours a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Garner Altom were in Cisco last weekend to attend a reunion of former residents of Cisco.

Mrs. D.E. Herring and three grandchildren of Panhandle visited Friday, August 1, with Edgar Lockhart.

Wayne Johnson Heads Non-Urban Teachers

Wayne Johnson, a former Collingsworth man now superintendent of Lela Schools, was elected president of the Non-Urban Educators Association of Texas (NEAT) at an executive committee meeting in Dallas July 23.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson of Samnorwood.

Only two years old, NEAT is made up of Texas educators who belong to Texas State Teachers Association units with membership of 1,000 or less. Present enrollment is approximately 33,000. Only 13 TSTA units are too large to meet NEAT requirements.

"We feel that the needs of education for the boys and girls and teachers in the

Mr. Johnson explained that urban schools are organized into the Texas Council of Urban Educators Associations, which is affiliated with the national organization (NCUEA).

QUITE A MESS OF FISH

Farm Products Will Be Backbone of 1975 Fair

Agricultural and horticultural exhibits again will be the backbone of the Collingsworth County Fair, and present moisture conditions indicate that in the month remaining, the area should produce some of the best crops of recent years. These will be at a good stage of maturity for fair, which comes Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6.

Heading the division this year are Don Reeves, county extension agent, and Tim Detweiler, farm demonstration assistant of the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program. They are assisted by the vocational agriculture teachers, Rodney Myrick of Wellington, Jimmy Brown of Samnorwood and Doyle Messer of Quail.

Rules covering the community products division were announced this week by the chairmen. Along with most of the other divisions, it will be in Bura Handley Community Center.

Community exhibits are open to all rural communities, but applications for booth space must be made with the chairmen by September 2.

Booths must be set up by 5:00 p.m. September 4 and remain until 5:00 p.m. Sept. 6. Judging will be Thursday night, and those in charge will be allowed to replace products after the judging.

All individual products must have been grown in 1975 by members of the community represented.

Each booth shall consist of 20 products selected from Class 1 through 7, and exhibits must be in the quantities specified. Community booths will be scored on neatness, attractiveness and arrangements. There will also be an open division for these same products and products in the community booths will be eligible for competition with the individual products.

Any predominant crop grown in the county not listed in the classes 1 through 7 may be used in the booth exhibits, but not in the individual competition.

First, second and third place ribbons will be given only. Grand champion, reserve champion rosettes, and ribbon awards will also go to community booth winners. Money prizes will be given individuals 18 years of age and under.

The classes in which entries may be made include:

County Gets $170 as Liquor Tax for Quarter

Collingsworth County is receiving $170.26 as its share of the mixed drinks tax for the April-June quarter of 1975. The total tax collected was $1,135.06.

Comptroller Bob Bullock said that more than $2.5 million is being sent to 188 counties and 298 cities across Texas.

This share to cities and counties is 30 percent of the total tax collected in each locality. The remaining 70 percent, $6.3 million for the quarter, goes to the state general revenue fund.

The tax is 10 percent on all gross receipts.

This quarter's total local share was up slightly from the first quarter's $2.3 million, Bullock said. The $8.9 million total tax receipts

Training Emphasized In Ambulance Service

A sweeping change in state-wide ambulance service has taken place in recent years, and one of the reasons is the Emergency Medical Services Division of the Texas Department of Health Resources.

Where ambulances once were directed toward speed, they now put emphasis on trained personnel and life-sustaining services while en route to a hospital.

The type of modular ambulances seen on popular television shows are becoming quite commonplace across Texas. These are the preferred types and more and more Texas communities are installing them.

A move to further assist communities in setting up ambulance service, complete with trained personnel, has prompted the Division to place its training personnel at strategic locations in regional settings in Texas.

No longer will it be necessary to call Austin for assistance, says Charles E. King, director of the Emergency Medical Service Division.

"Supervisors are stationed in the Regions," says King, "and they are enthusiastic about being close to those in need of assistance. All are knowledgeable in all phases of the program—which includes Emergency Medical Services, Medical Advisory Board, Civil Defense and Radiological Defense."

The EMS Program has had a tremendous effect on upgrading ambulance services, and cities throughout the state have gone to highly trained personnel and sophisticated life-sustaining equipment which goes far beyond that required for certification. In some cities, medical colleges have entered into training of ambulance attendants to assure the finest use of equipment.

In the beginning, those in the Health Resources Department's emergency medical program had to knock on doors to interest cities and towns in attendant training. And, the Division provided training, with help of local medical society members. But the life-saving program now has developed on such a broad scale that there's not enough personnel to provide training.

Through its regional setup, says King, the Division provides expert consultation services with towns suddenly without ambulance services or those wishing to upgrade services. They help organize classes, inspect and certify ambulances and give examinations to those taking various training courses. They also do basic communications counselling, aiding operators of emergency vehicles in selecting and properly utilizing radio equipment.

"One of the most exciting fields in medicine today is in the area of emergencies," said King. Many emergency teams operate from military helicopters to speed patients to hospitals, he said.

Andrew L. Woodward said the regionalizing of EMS personnel is basically the same as the whole concept of regional offices—getting services nearer those who need them and taking them into areas which haven't received them before.

With regionalization, many areas find the EMS representatives can coordinate between agencies and other interested personnel in the formulation of a more efficient EMS system.

"You'd be surprised how important it is to people not to have to deal with someone from the State Capitol," said Woodward. "If someone near Lubbock needs help, we have men stationed there for them to contact. A Northeast Texas County judge who came to the Austin office for help was delighted to learn that a regional man was stationed in Tyler."

The basic function of EMS, reiterated Woodward, is to assist in training of ambulance attendants, consult with local people in setting them up, helping with communications problems and "to do a lot of personal consulting." Further, he said, we can do about 90 percent of licensing and inspecting of ambulances.

Where ambulance companies may not have seen the value of their vehicles having proper equipment before, they can have it explained personally by the regional representative of the Emergency Medical Services Division of your Texas Dept. of Health Resources.

PACKAGED MEAT THREAT

Two very serious threats to the packaged food and meat processing industries are looming on the horizon. In just a few months the Food and Drug Administration is expected to ban the use of polyvinyl chloride (PVC) as a wrapping for meats. It is also likely to restrict sharply the use of nitrites as chemical additives to meats to sharpen flavor and enhance color.

The ruling barring PVC as a meat-wrapping material comes from the FDA insisting that no detectable amounts of PVC can pass from the plastic wrapping into the food. The plastics industries can't guarantee that the wrapping is completely free from vinyl chloride, so the industry will be forced to find a substitute wrapping. Vinyl chloride is suspected as a cancer threat to the public.

Another group of additives, nitrites, are about to be banned. Under certain circumstances, nitrites form compounds known to be cancer-causing. The reason the nitrites are still being used is that nitrites appeared on the scene as an additive long before Congress banned food additives suspected of being carcinogenic. An even more important reason is that nitrites prevent botulinum bacteria spores from growing and releasing their deadly toxin into meat. Thus far, no acceptable substitute does this job as well as nitrites.

Toxicologists at MIT have found that amounts of nitrites equivalent to the quantities humans ingest in meat as low as 5 parts per million cause cancer in rats. The Scientific Director at the American Meat Institute minimizes the nitrite-cancer problem and says a nitrite ban would be disastrous. He claims the problem was due to a water-supply impurity which caused the nitrite-cancer problem and that a limited amount of nitrites is acceptable in bacon. However, the MIT toxicologists believe nitrites should not be used in any meat whatsoever.

We deal with two types of energy:

1. HUMAN

Many businesses and industries are moving into this region from other parts of the country. They've found that we have a willing work force, a sensible tax structure, favorable weather and adequate energy sources.

New industries don't just move into your town by accident. Sometimes years of personal contacts by your Chamber of Commerce industrial team and the industrial development experts at Lone Star Gas are carried on before the final decision is reached to relocate in your town.

Your Chamber's industrial team, aided by the state, county and utility teams, study the area to make sure the right industry is matched with the right plant site location.

A new business or industry helps your town's economy by providing new jobs and by adding tax dollars for schools and hospitals and other community services.

So when you hear about a new industry moving into your town, call your Chamber of Commerce and thank them for another job well done.

2. NATURAL

To our customers, Lone Star is "the gas company." We serve over one million customers in about 400 cities and towns in Texas. That's a lot of customers . . . and a lot of responsibility. People depend on Lone Star Gas to have the available natural gas energy whenever and wherever they need it. And we've provided that energy for over 60 years through investments in pipelines, compressor stations and the purchase of new, more expensive gas supplies.

Natural gas produced in the United States provides over ONE-HALF of this country's industrial energy requirements. And the availability of adequate natural gas energy is one of the primary reasons that more and more businesses and industries are moving into this part of the country.

Lone Star Gas is committed to helping your town attract and keep industries that can provide jobs and help the economy. It's just good business for all of us.

Direct Deposit Available on Social Security

People who live in Texas and 22 other States west of the Mississippi River are getting a special opportunity to have their monthly social security and supplemental security income checks deposited directly in their checking or savings accounts, according to Maurine A. Travis, social security acting district manager in Amarillo, Texas.

"The direct deposit program is entirely voluntary," Mrs. Travis said. "People who want their social security and supplemental security income checks to continue coming to their homes shouldn't do anything. Their checks will keep coming as in the past.

"But people who want their checks mailed to a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association or similar institution or a Federal or State chartered credit union can arrange for it with a direct deposit authorization form," she said.

Direct deposit information was mailed with checks that were delivered in August to people who get monthly social security or supplemental security income payments. The direct deposit authorization form--SF-1199--is available at financial organizations.

"Completion of the form does not permit withdrawals from your account by anyone other than people you authorize," Mrs. Travis said.

People whose checks are already being mailed to a financial organization should also make direct deposit arrangements with the SF-1199 form. The direct deposit program will help prevent loss and theft of social security and supplemental security income checks and will eliminate standing in line to cash or deposit them, according to Mrs. Travis.

Mrs. C.M. Aaron, Mrs. Clyde Emmert and Mrs. E.F. Bartlett were in Wichita Falls recently to attend the wedding of Debbie Aaron. Debbie is the great granddaughter of Mrs. Aaron and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Scott.

Rev. and Mrs. P.H. Powell of Pasadena visited his mother, Mrs. John Powell this weekend. The trio had Sunday lunch in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Whitten.

Look at Us from a New Viewpoint, Ex-Students

Over the week end we will welcome once more many of those who through the years have graduated from Wellington High School. You see your home town in the best possible of all lights.

This year, however, we would like for these visiting ex-students to look at Wellington a little differently.

You have been reading that for the first time, there is a trend developing for people to move from the urban areas back to the farms and small towns of the nation. What the economists and writers are talking about are towns like Wellington and the farms around it.

After you have lived for a few hours in the Wellington of your memories, look at our potentials. See us as a town to which urbanites are turning because of the opportunities we offer, our freedom from air and water pollution, from the fact that we are small. You may be one of those. See us as one of the towns, because of your past strength as a small agricultural town, has what the country is returning to for the future.

No Time for Manners

To The News' editorial offices the other day came an insignificant clipping with detailed instructions on how to prepare and to eat watermelon. We howled.

"Handle the slice gently," it began. "Use only a sharp knife to hollow out the meat. Slice the meat into small cubes, cover with foil and place overnight in the refrigerator. Chilling preserves the juice and enhances the taste. Good at breakfast."

The only way to prepare and eat a watermelon is to stoop low so as not to be seen, cross a corn field, go through the strands of a barbed-wire fence, pick up same, retrace your route and head for the nearest creek.

Place melon in a secluded spot of the water, take off your clothes, jump in for a cooling dip, get out and dress while wet, pick up melon and bust it on a rock.

Pick up largest hunks of meat, slurp down and spit seeds across the creek. Leave rinds for flies, who deserve the remnants of pleasure.

This routine may repel the delicate sensibilities of moderns, nor was it included in Hill's Manual of Etiquette, but it has stood the test of time. Try it.

TIPS FROM SMOKEY

HOW YOU CAN PROTECT AMERICA'S ONLY RENEWABLE RESOURCE.

You're running out of many natural resources—oil, natural gas, coal, many mineral ores. Once they're gone, you'll have to find substitutes.

But you have one resource that will never diminish if you protect it: your forest.

This year you'll use more than 200 million 100-foot trees for lumber and paper and all the other things you get from trees.

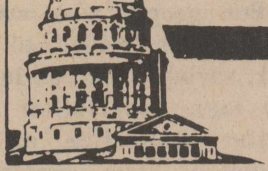

But you'll lose twice that many trees to forest fires. We'll have about 100,000 forest fires this year. And nine out of ten of them will be set by people. People who never meant to do such a terrible thing.

You can help to prevent this tragic waste.

If you live in or near the forest you should: BURN DEBRIS SAFELY. Obey local laws. Use a safe incinerator. Avoid setting an open debris fire on a windy day where it can spread to the forest.

KEEP MATCHES AWAY FROM CHILDREN. Many serious fires will be started this year by children playing with matches.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

For years, some paychecks (particularly those of college officials) have been supplemented from private contributions, foundations and grants.

Bullock said state law requires that these supplements be reported in detail, but many are not. After September 1, he said, he will withhold approval of paychecks in cases where the supplements are not itemized properly.

AG Opinions

A school board represented under a district consultation agreement may meet in executive session to discuss salary schedules, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:
• The Board of Dental Examiners' executive secretary cannot receive a salary supplement for additional duties administering the dental laboratory and technician registration program.

• Subpoena power of the Alcoholic Beverage Commission is not affected by the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act.

• A state school for the mentally retarded may not refuse to admit a child solely because of parents' refusal to consent to a blood transfusion.

• Harris County Commissioners Court is not authorized to impose a charge for handling of child support payments by the juvenile probation department.

• State Board of Examiners of Psychologists may employ persons to assist in screening applicants for examination.

Courts Speak

The State Supreme Court rejected an attempt to force restoration of ousted Duval County Judge Archer Parr.

Meanwhile, a federal appeals court in New Orleans upheld conviction of Parr for perjury before a grand jury investigating income of his late uncle, George B. Parr.

Meetings Called on Brucellosis Changes

LUBBOCK--Interested Texas cattle producers will have an opportunity to hear and discuss proposed changes in the state's brucellosis eradication program during a series of public meetings. Scheduled by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in cooperation with the Texas Animal Health Commission.

As of July 1, 24 Texas counties had qualified as bovine brucellosis free areas and 23 other counties had no known infection, according to Dr. H.Q. Sibley, TAHC executive director. Current regulations do not contain provisions for protection of these clean areas, Sibley emphasizes.

The TAHC has proposed a number of major changes in the brucellosis program. The Commission voted to propose the regulation changes to bring the Texas program more in line with national brucellosis standards contained in the "Uniform Methods and Rules" for eradication recommended by the United States Animal Health Association.

The following is a list of times and places of those meetings:

- August 8 at 8:00 p.m. - Paducah, Courthouse
- August 12 at 8:00 p.m. - Canadian, Courthouse
- August 14 at 8:00 p.m. - Amarillo, Tri-State Fairgrounds, Goulde Sales Arena

Changes in brucellosis regulations which will be discussed by TAHC area veterinarians include the following:

- (1) Outlining the manner in which cattle may move into, within, and from certified areas to protect the status of these areas. If an adequate number of breeding cattle are being sampled at the time of slaughter from a clean area, the Commission could allow cattle to move from these areas without further tests.

(2) Authorizing testing of all eligible test cattle prior to loan, lease, sale, or any change of ownership except, (a) breeding cattle that are consigned from herd of origin directly to slaughter and (b) animals originating in certified brucellosis free herds. These changes would give the Commission flexibility in handling the various situations that occur in different parts of the state.

(3) Requiring "S" branding of brucellosis exposed cattle only when going on permit to slaughter or to a quarantined feedlot. This would comply with federal regulations which became effective on April 22, 1975.

(4) Authorizing and providing for using supplementary tests in certain phases of the program.

(5) Allowing official brucellosis calfhood vaccination down to two months of age instead of the present three months of age.

(6) Outlining provisions to move breeding cattle from a county which has lost its modified certified free status.

(7) Providing for methods of handling brucellosis negative cattle at livestock markets by keeping them separate from infected, exposed, or unknown status cattle.

The proposed changes will be posted in every Texas

Quail News

By Mrs. G.T. Stephens

Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Howard, Jr., Bill, Kelly and Dennis of Mobeetie have returned from a trip to points of interest in Texas.

They first visited in DeLeon a few days with the Garth Priddy family. Both families formerly lived at Quail.

They journeyed on to Austin to see the state capitol, which was constructed in 1888 from Texas red granite secured near Marble Falls. It has a dome of 309 ft. 8 inches, 7 feet larger than the U.S. Capitol. When it was constructed the structure was said to be the 7th largest in the world. Also of interest in Austin was the L.B. Johnson Library on the University of Texas campus. The library exhibits in some aspects 40 years public career of Lyndon B. Johnson.

In San Antonio they visited the Breckenridge Park which is a 443 acre playground containing the San Antonio Zoo, largest in the southwest and one of the top zoos in the United States. They also toured the oriental sunken gardens and Witt Memorial Museum. Witt Museum has a reputation as being a university for the people.

Of special interest to the three boys was the Alamo containing actual facts discovered from the original Alamo Mission Fortress, and another outstanding event of the tour was the Tower of the Americas, 750 ft. from the ground to the top of the antenna. The elevator ascends to the top house in 47 seconds and offers an excellent view of San Antonio. The top house contains 600 tons of structural steel and an anchor of 2400 tons of reinforced concrete, making the center of gravity below ground level. The tower was constructed in 1968 for the Worlds Fair at a cost of $5,500,000.00 It stands as a symbol of progress made by the confluence of civilization in the western hemisphere.

Continuing on to Del Rio, they crossed the international bridge into Acuna, Mexico.

They encountered some of the hottest weather of the trip in our area when they visited Mr. Howard's father in Childress and Mrs. Howard's parents in Quail.

Bill and Kelly remained in Quail with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gollighugh for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bell had as visitors over the weekend and Monday, her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Jones from El Centro, California.

They had been to Quitaque to attend Mrs. Jones' school reunion. It was the first time she had been back for the reunion in 40 years. From here the Joneses went to Lubbock to visit her brother and his family.
