

Skyrockets

The Area Game

Another big challenge for Wellington Skyrockets--the biggest yet--comes Friday, Nov. 19 when they meet the Crosbyton Chieftains for the Area 2A football title, at Vernon Stadium. Starting time will be 7:30 p.m.

"There's nothing more exciting than to get into the playoffs...and to play like this. The Skyrockets have reached a goal and they're trying to reach another one," declared Head Coach James Williams.

Wellington was the undisputed District 2-AA champion; Crosbyton was runner-up for the 4-AA title.

The location of the Area game suits Wellington coaches, players and fans just fine. The Skyrockets have been there once this year, when they defeated Nocona 34-6.

The selection was made, and Wellington won the coin toss to become the home team in a meeting of administrators and coaches of the Wellington and Crosbyton Schools at Paducah early Saturday morning, just hours after the Rockets were declared Bi-district winners over White Deer.

Representing Wellington were Supt. Kenneth McKay Principal Eddie Hankins, and Coaches James Williams and Ronny Williams.

"The surroundings will not be strange," said Head Coach James Williams. "Knowing the field, the type of field, I think we can adjust a little faster than Crosbyton."

After the game and awarding of trophies, Friday night, The Skyrockets will eat at Rainey's Steak House on Highway 287 South, in Vernon.

"Crosbyton probably has one of the toughest teams

Wellington Hosts Dist. 13 VFW-Auxiliary

Glynn Moore Post, No. 6439, and its Auxiliary will be hosts to the fall meeting of the 13th District Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 20 and 21.

Both groups will meet in the Post 6439 home at Marian Airpark.

The guest speaker will be Emmett A. (Andy) Stelzer of Post, senior vice-commander of the Department of Texas.

His talk will come during a joint meeting of the VFW and Auxiliary at 9:30 a.m. Sunday.

Convention plans were announced by M.W. Paschall, Post Commander, and Louise Henard, Auxiliary president.

Attending will be approximately 150 members of the 14 posts and 9 Auxiliary units that make up District

Presiding at the meetings will be Emerson Haradan of Canyon, district commander, and Florene Leinen, of Dimmitt, District Auxiliary president.

Registration will begin at the post home at 2 p.m. Saturday, with visiting until the social get-together is held from 6 to 7. A dance will follow from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. to which the public is invited.

Sunday registration will be from 8 to 9:30 a.m., with donuts and coffee being served at 8:30.

Tommy Hudson, president of the Chamber of Commerce will welcome the visitors.

After Stelzer's address, at 10:30 a.m. the VFW posts and ladies auxiliaries will hold separate business meetings to hear reports and address any problems brought up by the posts. The final event will be the noon luncheon which begins at 12:30 p.m.

Stelzer, a 34-year VFW member, is a life member of the John Miller Post 6796 at Post in District 7.

The Pep Rally

A pep rally for the Skyrocket Football team will be held at 2:00 p.m. Friday at the Wellington High School Gymnasium.

The City Council has proclaimed Friday Skyrocket Day and the warning sirens will sound across Wellington at 1:45 p.m. to tell the Rockets that the entire community is backing them, and to remind citizens that they have 15 minutes to get to the Gym to attend the pep rally.

Skyrockets

The Stadium Site

A bus to take Wellington students to the game at Vernon will be run this week, Supt. Kenneth McKay announced.

The charge will be 50 cents for the trip and $2.00 for a ticket.

Admission to the game will be $4.00 for adults and $2.00 for students.

For those driving their own cars who want a refresher on getting to the stadium...

The Vernon Police Department gave the following directions to the stadium for Wellington fans coming in on Hwy. 287 South: After the Pease River Bridge, take the first exit; the access road Y's--at the Y bear right onto Hillcrest/Sand Road. Proceed south on Hillcrest past a 4-way stop and continue 1 mile south past a traffic light. Take a right (west) turn at the second intersection past the traffic light on Yamparika. Yamparika runs to the stadium.

Bi-District Victory

The Wellington Skyrockets brought home Wellington's first Bi-District football trophy since 1946 with a 20-6 win over White Deer at Canadian Friday, Nov. 12.

It was an unusual game for the Skyrockets---they were never behind. The Rockets have won four come-from-behind thrillers and this game demonstrated Wellington's ability to take a lead and hold it.

Wellington dominated the game from the opening kickoff although the scoreboard didn't reflect the fact in the first quarter. White Deer made the errors and the Rockets capitalized.

The Rockets moved to White Deer's 11 on their initial possession where a field goal attempt was blocked by Buck Shannon Sanders.

And on their second try the Rockets fumbled at White Deer's 25 and Robert McCown recovered for the Bucks.

But on the third possession a 32 yard pass from Wade Williams to Darren Hall and a couple of White Deer face mask penalties moved the Rockets to White Deer's 14.

Facing fourth and 11,

Wade Williams swung around to pass, came under heavy pressure and, on the run, threw up a high pass to the end zone. Darren Hall was covered, but leapt up for the reception to put the Rockets on the board with 10:37 to play in the second quarter. Shane Cobb's extra point kick made it 7-0.

At least half of the credit for the Rockets' second touchdown probably should go to a defensive team, Mark Hunnicutt, Dru Lacy, Matthew Hanna, Otis Lewis, Sheldon Duncan, Ricky Martinez, Darvin Nix, Wade

City Employees Receive Increase

An across the board 10 percent wage increase for all City of Wellington employees was voted unanimously by the City Council Monday night, Nov. 16.

The raise will be effective December 1.

With Mayor Ralph Owens presiding, Councilmen Willie Gragson moved that the increase be granted, and this was seconded by Councilman Gary Brewer. Others voting for the measure were Councilmen John Rainey, Lyndon Crella and Sam McGill.

It has been approximately two years since any city employees have received a wage raise. City Manager Glen Taylor pointed out, and the last came in the form of health insurance coverage provided for the employee, spouse and children. In addition, a retirement system, funded by the City, was put in effect within the last year. An employee upon leaving a City job, may draw out what he has paid into the retirement system, but the part paid by the City remains with the City to stay in the retirement fund.

The wage increase had not been requested by any

Tate Regional FFA Soil-Water Runner-up

Stan Tate of Samnorwood has been named a bronze award winner in regional competition for the FFA Soil and Water Management Proficiency Award.

Stan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate and a member of the Samnorwood FFA Chapter.

Stan became eligible for the regional runoff when he won the $100 State FFA Soil and Water Management Proficiency Award sponsored as a special project of the National FFA Foundation. The award is one of 22 Proficiency Awards presented annually at local, state, regional, and national levels to recognize FFA members for achievements in activities leading to careers in agriculture.

The region is made up of 15 states.

The regional winner was Randall Steib of Iliff, Colorado who will receive a plaque, a check for $250 and partially paid travel expenses to the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, in November. At the Convention, Steib will compete against Regional Soil and Water Management Proficiency Award winners selected in each of the other three FFA regions.

Stan was presented a framed certificate recognizing his placing in the regional competition.

The cat on this pitchout from Wade Williams, 10, is Dwayne Culpepper, 30, in the Rockets 20-6 win for the Bi-District championship over White Deer. Other Rockets, from left, are Darren Hall, 83; Dru Lacy, 71; Matthew Hanna, 72; Ricky Martinez, 51; Chad Holland, 70; Rodney Nash, 80; and Otis Lewis, 23.

OUTSTANDING SALESPERSON

Goldie Barnett of Hatch Dry Goods receives the Chamber of Commerce's Outstanding Salesperson Award for October from Chamber president Tommy Hudson. The Chamber is making the award monthly, rather than yearly as it has done in the past.

Goldie Barnett C-C Salesperson

Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce has selected its first Salesperson of the Month, Mrs. Goldie Barnett, of Hatch Dry Goods.

Announcement of her selection was made at the Chamber of Commerce meeting Monday, Nov. 8, and a certificate has been presented to Mrs. Barnett by Tommy Hudson, president.

Before moving to Wellington 9 years ago, Mrs. Barnett was bookkeeper at Lutie Gin four years and before that 10 years at Dozier Gin.

Until she moved into Wellington, she had lived her entire life in the Lone Mound community. She served as substitute teacher in Lone Mound.

Now in her second term as president of Wellington Business and Professional Women's Club, she has received a number of awards, the most recent being her selection as B&PW Woman of the Year. She is the mother of a B&PW past president, Loretta Wright.

Mrs. Barnett is active in First Baptist Church.

Williams, Rodney Nash and Dwayne Culpepper, who held White Deer on a fourth and one at the Rocket 49. The ball went over, and 7 plays later Wade Williams connected a 36 yard pass to Darren Hall, who, this time, had beaten the White Deer defender by 8 yards. Hall took it to the end zone with 2:50 to play in the half. Shane Cobb's second extra point kick put the score at 14-0 at halftime.

Darren Hall intercepted a White Deer pass, but the following Rocket effort ended at the Buck 38 as the halftime whistle blew.

Wellington's defense shut down White Deer in the first half with the Bucks picking up only 2 first downs, compared to Wellington's 12. The Bucks never got further than the Wellington 49 in the first half.

White Deer came back with 11 first downs, compared to Wellington's 7 in the second half, but it didn't translate into points on the board for the Bucks.

White Deer threatened on their first possession after the half, but Wade Williams recovered a Buck fumble at the Rocket 19.

Shane Cobb boomed a 57 yard punt and Otis Lewis downed the punt returner at the White Deer 13 at the end of the third quarter. But the Rockets got a taste of the same medicine when White Deer's Darin Bennett's 48 yard punt forced Wellington to start at their own 7 in the next series.

White Deer jumped in the coffin with 45 yards in penalties on a single Rocket drive to help move Wellington from their own 16 to White Deer's 27. And the Rockets nailed it shut with a 27 yard pass from Wade Williams to Otis Lewis with 5:49 to play. The extra-point kick failed, and Wellington led 20-0.

White Deer finally put together a scoring drive with 18, 19 and 33-yard passes in the waning minutes. The 33-yarder from Darin Bennett to Jeff Franks set up White Deer at the Rocket 1 and Robert McCown carried the ball in for the Bucks with 3:08 to play. The extra point kick failed.

Wellington moved from their own 23 to the Buck 23 before turning the ball over. White Deer got off on play before the final buzzer sounded on Wellington's 20-6 Bi-District football victory--the school's first in 36 years.

we have played, not so much in figures, as how they have played," Williams says.

Although they lost to state top-ranking Hale Center and New Deal, another district champion, and strong contender, they turned in a good performance.

"Crosbyton in the last two or three weeks got their team together and played a lot better," Williams reports.

They won over Petersburg 35-12 to get into the play-offs and take the runner-up spot behind Hale Center.

7-3 record, in a 23-7 victory to win the bi-district round. Wellington coaches believe Crosbyton has one of the best running backs in the Lubbock area in Earl Wiley.

He has over 1600 yards rushing this year.

"He will be the one we have to stop," vows the head coach. "He will get the ball 75% of the time."

The Chieftains are a large team, with tackles weighing 220 and 200 pounds.

"They will be quite a bit larger than we are. We have to use our quickness to offset their size up front," he said.

Crosbyton is a team that does not like to pass a great deal.

They rely on running reverse plays, faking reverse plays and the quarterback keeping the ball, but their biggest weapon is getting the ball to their running back.

Wellington coaches have a major worry this week-illness.

Ricky Martinez was sick Monday.

Rosendo Villanueva was ill Monday and Tuesday; Dewayne Curry and Dwayne Culpepper were out Tuesday, all with some kind of bug, one the coaches hope is of short duration and not debilitating. "It could be a major factor, Coach James Williams admits. "We are just hoping we can have everyone there Friday night."

Otherwise the team is in good shape. Out of the lineup will be Mike Green, who had knee surgery, but the others are all right physically.

Head coach of the Crosbyton Chieftains is Daniel Coward, in his first year at that school, after being an assistant at Wilson and Floydada.

He inherited the Crosbyton team that was 4-5-1 in 1981 and posted a 2-5 mark in tough district 4-AA.

He has brought this team up to the point that they are the challenge that Wellington will be meeting Friday night.

Assembly-God Women to Hold Two-Day Bazaar

Women of the Assembly of God will hold a bazaar and Thanksgiving bake sale on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 23 and 24, in the Fashion Shop building on the east side of the square, according to Mrs. Troy Stallings.

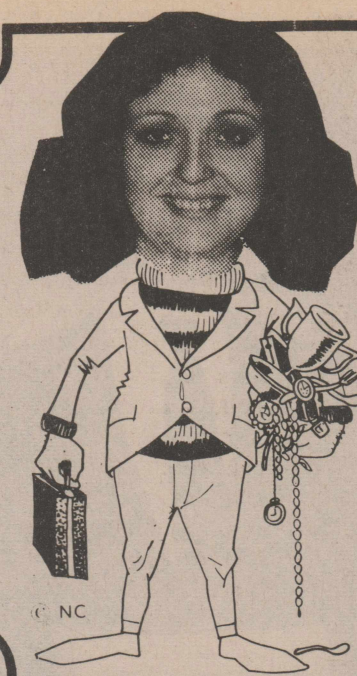

Cakes, pies, and other baked goods will be featured.

There will be a wide variety of hand-made crocheted pieces and other items, including pillow cases, cup towels, dolls, and even quilts and pillows.

The women suggest that many of these would make ideal Christmas gifts.

The Assembly of God women have an on-going fund raising project for the improvement of their building. The exterior is completed, and the next project will be lowering the ceiling in the sanctuary.

PATRICIA FOURMENTIN - BARRY LONG

Gold Star Winners Honored At District Awards Banquet

AMARILLO--Thirty-nine outstanding members of 4-H Clubs across the Texas Panhandle were honored here Saturday night, Nov. 6.

Honored from Collingsworth County were Patricia Fourmentin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fourmentin, and Barry Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benson Long.

The awards banquet is sponsored each year by six electric co-operatives serving the Panhandle Extension Service district. Greenbelt is one of these.

Attending from Collingsworth County were Patricia and her parents, Barry and his parents, Nancy Bigby and Don Reeves, Extension Service agents, and Mrs. Reeves.

In addition to receiving the Gold Star Award, highest honor presented at the county level, the youths were challenged by a top administrator of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to prepare themselves to face life as an ever-changing pathway rather than a series of rigidly restrictive plateaus.

Joining the youths at the awards banquet in the Hilton Inn were parents, government officials, Extension leaders, fellow 4-H'ers, educators and other community leaders.

Goals are important in life, but shouldn't be viewed as end products, the audience was told by Dr. Judy Sanders of College Station, state leader for county Extension programs with the Extension Service. "Instead of thinking of happy endings, think of life as a pathway to somewhere," she urged.

We need to set some goals for life, but we often make them too rigid, not recognizing that life is a changing process, Dr. Sanders said. In setting goals, prepare yourself with the proper credentials such as training and experience to achieve them, she advised. And prepare, also, for some failures along the way, by having some alternative plans in mind.

She cautioned the youths they must try to decide if a goal they seek is worth the cost of attaining.

Two of the keys in reaching goals and enjoying life, the educator said, are to develop proper attitudes and to learn to like yourself. Most people reach only 15 percent of their potential, she said, and attitude has much to do with this.

She reminded the youths, "Of all the people you meet, you are the only one you never leave."

Mistress of ceremonies was Ralynda Wharton of Dallam County, chairman of the Panhandle District 4-H Council. Guests were welcomed by Pat McAlister, manager of North Plains Electric Cooperative, Perryton, one of six electric cooperatives which sponsor the banquet. The others were Deaf Smith, Greenbelt, Lighthouse, Rita Blanca and Swisher.

Dinner music was presented by Doug Burton, graduate student at West Texas State University, and three youths from Amarillo High School. The Gold Star Awards were presented by Mrs. Sue Farris and Paul Gross, District Extension Directors for the Panhandle District. Four-H is the youth development program of the Extension Service.

Also on the program were 4-H'ers Swasey Brainard and Shelly Cochran, both of Gray County; Daylin Hash and Lisa Norris of Hemphill County; Jana Corse, Wheeler County; Mary Peters, Moore County; Flynn Farris, Dallam County, and Maria deKeraty, Potter County.

Take Extra Gear For Camera Overseas

If you're bringing along a camera overseas, put a haze filter over the lens and leave it on. It won't interfere with the photography and may keep an expensive lens from being damaged while traveling. Carry a spare set of batteries for the camera. They are not always available abroad and often cost three times as much as batteries purchased in the United States.

Take a time converter, a small magnifying glass for reading maps, an extra set of luggage keys, extra passport photos, plastic bags for soiled laundry and a sewing kit.

The Collectors Show and Sale, planned for later this month to benefit the Wellington Satellite Center, has been postponed, Susan Murphree center director, has announced.

The new date will be in early May, with the date to be given.

The action was taken in a recent meeting of the center's board of directors and was taken because of a number of conflicts through the area the members felt would cut participation in the Wellington event.

Present for the meeting were Jimmy Barber, president; Vernon Day, Pauline Masten, Mrs. Truett Holland, J.B. Oney, and a guest, Judge Zook Thomas.

Mrs. Murphree said plans are being made for the area-wide annual Christmas ball to be held Dec. 8 at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Amarillo. The friends and families of Satellite Center students are invited.

Wellington candidates for Queen and King are Carrie Shannon and Benny Forrester. Dorothy Trimble was last year's queen. Selections are based on work productivity, friendliness, grooming, independence and academics.

Revival Due At Abundant Life Fellowship

Freedom Easily Lost Behind Iron Curtain

BY HATTIE D. WELLS
A glimpse of life behind the Iron Curtain was given by John Hrniciar of Shamrock when he spoke Monday, November 1, at the Heritage Room.

Mr. Hrniciar's talk was sponsored by La Paisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Mr. and Mrs. Hrniciar were members of a group from Nebraska who visited Russia, Poland and West Berlin. The group flew from Amsterdam to Leningrad by Russian plane, where they had their first view of the Russian people.

In Leningrad there were many reminders of the two year siege of the city during World War II.

In Moscow, the group was assigned a guide who stayed with them the entire time. They were guests of the American Embassy, held a news conference, visited many museums, attended the Bolshoi Ballet and rode the metro, the subway that circles the city.

Mr. Hrniciar said one was impressed by the long lines of people waiting to view the tomb of Lenin, who is regarded as a god.

One of the high points was the visit to the kindergartens. The state, rather than the parents, has control of the children and begins the indoctrination of communist ideas at the age of five.

Mr. Hrniciar also told of an earlier visit to a collective farm near the Black Sea. This farm was roughly the size of a county with a chief administrator and assistants who were in charge of sub-divisions. The machinery was, to American eyes, obsolete, with women doing most of the work. There were no fences and the cattle were herded on horseback.

Mr. Hrniciar remarked that this was some of the richest farm land in the world, but the management often caused crop failure.

From Moscow the group visited Poland, where life was not so drab and the people freer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hrniciar left the group and flew to Vienna, where they secured visas to enter Czechoslovakia.

They entered the country by way of Bratislava, where the "Iron Curtain" is very evident. The cleared spaces, the electrified fences and the guards are evidence that there is no freedom in a communist country.

Mr. and Mrs. Hrniciar went by cart to the village where his father was born and where many of his cousins live. They told him of the suffering caused by the "Liberation" of Czechoslovakia: property confiscated, men killed or wounded and those who resisted barred from holding offices.

A cousin who is a lawyer was disbarred. Czech monuments were torn down and replaced with statues of Lenin.

They attended services in the church where his father was baptized. Only old people attended as the young were afraid if they were seen in a church they would lose all chance of promotion, have the poorest housing and be continually watched.

At one of the family dinners, Mrs. Hrniciar asked a cousin how much the meal had cost, and she confided that it had taken her husband's weekly wage.

Mr. Hrniciar concluded his talk by saying that if his father had not come to the United States, he would be living like his cousins.

He urged everyone to take an interest in public affairs, for Americans, too, could lose their freedom.

Mrs. Boyd Derryberry presided at the meeting and Miss Rita Lowrie was hostess. Present for the dinner meeting were Mrs. H.H. Bowen, Mrs. Hrniciar, Miss Maudie Coffee, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis, Mrs. Bura Handley, Mrs. Charley Hill, Miss Lowrie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pendleton, Mr.

and Mrs. Boyd Derryberry and Miss Hattie D. Wells.

Farm-City Week To Be Nov. 19-25

Farm-City Week, Nov. 19-25, focuses on the involvement of farm and city people as partners in growing, processing, marketing and consuming food and fiber.

"In Texas, movement of food and fiber from field to factory to the family table provides jobs and income for about a fourth of the working force," points out Dr. Carl Anderson, marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

"One out of every 30 Texans is a farmer or rancher, and 30 percent of the state's retail trade business is directly associated with agricultural production and selling of food and fiber products," says Anderson.

Many businesses, financial institutions and individuals are involved in providing supplies, credit and services to farmers and ranchers and in processing and marketing agricultural commodities.

Texas ranks in third place in total cash receipts among the leading agricultural states, behind California and Iowa. Texas, however, is number one in the sales of cattle and calves, cotton, grain sorghum, sheep and wool, goats and mohair, cabbage and spinach.

Total farm assets in Texas are estimated at $80 billion. With 186,000 farms in Texas, assets average $430,000 per farm. Many commercial size, full-time operators, have in excess of a million dollars invested in their farm or ranch businesses.

"Producing an abundance of high quality food and fiber is inherent to American agriculture. Americans spend far less of their take-home pay on food than people in other countries of the world," Anderson points out. "Today that amounts to about 17 cents of every dollar of disposable income."

"Together, farm and city people make the best food and fiber team in the world," he believes. "This gives a country the capacity to feed its own people and to export for economic gain as well as for humanitarian purposes."

Farm-City Week is under the direction of the National Farm-City Council, Inc., which is coordinated by Kiwanis International.

Mr., Mrs. Morgan Honored on 65th Wedding Anniversary Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Morgan, 1307 Dalhart Street, were honored Sunday, Nov. 14, when a reception was given at the home of a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J.I. Morgan, 1212 Bowie Street. They were joined by the other children, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Summers (Jean) of Jal, N.M., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan of Briscoe.

Grandchildren and great grandchildren assisted.

This was indeed a special event for a man who was once a Texas League baseball player and a woman who was an early piano and organ teacher, and who helped to foster art and ceramics in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. J.I. Morgan received the friends as they arrived and presented them to his parents.

A great-granddaughter, Jamie Cates of Eunice, N.M. was at the register, which held the wedding picture of Ira and Lena Morgan, their golden wedding anniversary picture, and the picture of a Texas League baseball team of the 1920s on which he was the tallest member.

The reception table was covered with an off-white linen cloth with an elaborate all-over cutwork and embroidery design, emphasized by the golden bronze underlay. This has been in the family for many years and is used on all special occasions.

Silk rosebuds in earth tones were arranged in a brass bowl, and appointments were silver and crystal. Granddaughters served the guests. Penny Morgan of Amarillo cut the tiered white wedding cake, decorated with gold roses, and Kara Sherrill of Jal, N.M. poured. Assisting were Mrs. Kimberly Cates of Eunice, N.M. and Lennie Morgan.

Eighty-five friends called between two-thirty and five o'clock.

Among these were three long-time friends: Mrs. O.E. Dodson and Mrs. Tom Wilson, now of Wellington, from the years at Quail, and Mrs. J.R. Godbey of Amarillo, a girlhood friend at Rolla.

Ira Morgan and Lena Henderson eloped to Memphis Nov. 17, 1917, and were married as they sat in their buggy. This was not uncommon when young couples traveled by that means.

She was born in Eastland County, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Paxton Henderson, who came to the Rolla community. A native of Spanish Fort, he was the son of Ada and General Rose Morgan, who came to Wellington.

She was from a musical family, and her home was a gathering place for young people of the area. She shared this talent with her community. Never one to be idle, Mrs. Morgan painted in oils for many years, except when her children were young, and for more than 20 years worked in ceramics.

From the time her first child started to Quail School until the last one graduated, she was wholly involved in school affairs.

People are another of her concerns, as is her church and volunteer work with Westview Boys Home.

At Quail, she was a long-time member, officer, and state delegate for the Home Demonstration Club. She belonged to the Quail Garden Club, which evolved into the Quail Friendship Club.

Mr. Morgan was one of the men who for a number of years, gave Collingsworth County baseball as its favorite sport. He went on to play professional baseball, the old Texas League, through the mid-1920s, first with the Amarillo Gassers, then the Wichita Falls Spudders. He went on to the El Paso team, then was traded to Omaha, Neb.

Many years later he told his grandchildren that as he was on his way to his new job, he began thinking: "They're not going to trade me around like that!" He made it as far as Memphis, then got off the bus and rode the mail truck back to Quail.

Bridal Shower November 6 Honors Mrs. Tony Maxwell

A bridal shower honoring Mrs. Tony Maxwell, the former Suzanne Campbell, was given Saturday, November 6 in the home of Mrs. Nicky Watts.

Assisting Mrs. Watts were Mrs. John Barton, Mrs. Rodney Myrick, Mrs. Denzil Lacy, Mrs. Johnny Mote, Mrs. Stanley Hughes, Mrs. Mike Hughes, Mrs. Albert Fulcher, Mrs. Elmer Keller, Mrs. Joe Harris, Mrs. Leamon Bawcom, Mrs. Dickie Johnson, Mrs. Benson Long and Mrs. John DeVoss.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth and an orchid and white silk flower arrangement centered the table. Crystal appointments were used.

Teresa Benton and Dee Ann Williams served the punch and cookies.

Approximately thirty guests called between 10:00 and 12:00 noon.

Turkey Dinner Given for Dodson Civic Club Members

Mrs. B.M. Sims, immediate past president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, was the guest of honor at the Dodson Civic Club in a recent meeting. She presented each member with a book, of "History of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs."

Mrs. Sherrell Beanland presented the program.

The dinner meeting was held in the American Legion building, with Mrs. Nellie Roberson preparing the turkey dinner with all the trimmings, assisted by Mrs. Mury Arredondo.

Hostesses were Mrs. J.C. Howell and Mrs. Grover where he farmed for 50 years.

He was an enthusiastic Quail hunter and fisherman, traveling to such choice spots as Devil's River, Falcon Dam and other Texas lakes for the latter sport.

Morgan missed few Quail basketball games, donating much to assist them.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan have three children, J.I., Jack and Jean. Another son, S/Sgt. Norman Morgan, an Air Force bombardier, died in World War II.

They have 9 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. Only one grandchild was unable to attend the celebration, Eugene Knapp of Alexandria, La.

Out-of-town relatives and friends present were Mr. and Mrs. Summers from Jal with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cates, Jamie and Kasie of Eunice, N.M., and Kara Sherrill of Jal and Kelly Sherrill of Portales, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan and Chad of Briscoe and Norman Morgan of Clarendon;

Mrs. Godbey, Amarillo; Mrs. Josie Offield and Mrs. Myrtle Bouldin, Lubbock; Penny Morgan, Amarillo; Jimmy Morgan, Lubbock.

Graham, with Mrs. Howell in charge of decorations.

During the business session, members voted to send a box to the M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston.

Plans were begun for a bazaar to be held Saturday, Dec. 11 in the American Legion building.

Those present were Mrs. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Sherrell Beanland, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Crownover, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Price of Hollis, Misty Beanland, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Swift, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hightower, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Black, Mrs. Loren Lennon, Mrs. B.B. Martin, and Todd and Ryan Roberson.

Dodson TEH Entertained

Dodson Texas Extension Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. S.A. Motsenbocker of Wellington Friday, Oct. 29, for a program on nutritious foods and snacks.

Nancy Bigby, extension agent, gave recipes for foods in this category.

Mrs. Motsenbocker's refreshments were from some of these recipes and included a fruit punch made without sugar.

Members played a game of "nutritious food search." Members answered roll call by telling "a time when I was scared."

A new member, Mrs. Everett Lemons, and a visitor, Mrs. Claudia White were present.

Members attending were Mrs. Allene Reynolds, Mrs. Gene Swift, Mrs. Burnie Crownover, Mrs. Erma Lee Lowrie, along with Miss Bigby and Mrs. Motsenbocker, the hostess.

VFW Auxiliary Honors Three Charter Members With Pins

Three charter members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Glynn Moore Post No. 6439, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were honored recently.

They were Thelma Curry, Babe Leach and Dora E. Smith, who were presented 35-year membership pins. The Auxiliary was organized in 1946.

Others honored were Sis Berg, now of Tulia, Exa Cudd, Dortha Griffin, now of Amarillo, and Clovis Rainey with 30 year pins; Virgie Jones, Frances Richardson, Yvonne Brewer, Golda Jones, Martha Winton, Ruby Bearden and Edna Rudy with 25 year pins; Lyla Hurst, Helen Fires, Ann Fires, Faye Horton, Dorothy McGill, Janell Brown and Laverne Jones with 20 year pins.

UMW Lydia Group Hears Illegal Alien Discussion

The Lydia Group of the United Methodist Women met Saturday, Nov. 13, in the home of Mrs. A.L. Elliott.

Mrs. C.R. DeArmond, program leader, discussed "Sojourner in a Foreign Land: Undocumented Persons."

"In 1882, the United States Government passed the first exclusion act, which prohibited the entrance of people of certain races," said Mrs. DeArmond.

"At the present time, 20,000 Mexicans can legally enter the United States per year. Yet it is estimated that one and one-half million undocumented persons enter illegally. These are for the most part people who come to work for a few months, save some money and return to their country."

Mrs. A.V. Lowrie presided and opened the meeting by reading "A letter from Jesus," followed by a prayer. Mrs. Chester Fires gave the report of the secretary-treasurer.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Bob Hightower, Mrs. DeArmond, Mrs. Arthur Kane, Mrs. R.R. Crawley, Mrs. Raymond Ross, Mrs. E.F. Bartlett, Mrs. J.A. Graham, Mrs. Fred Covey, Mrs. Lowrie, Mrs. Fires and the hostess, Mrs. Elliott.

Joe Mack Guest Speaker at Retired Teachers Luncheon

The Collingsworth Chapter of the Retired Teachers Association met in the Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church Tuesday Nov. 9, for a covered dish luncheon.

The program theme was "Words of Inspiration", with Joe Mack, minister of First Christian Church as the guest speaker.

He classified teaching in three steps:

Labor prompted by love; work produced by faith and endurance inspired by hope.

He stated that there are times when an extra effort on ones part must be made before those who are taught will learn. This involves sacrifice, agony, desire and love which never quits. "So we gladly, joyfully, pour out our life so that those around us can be made richer and fuller," he continued.

Teachers believe they can make a difference. It is this goal that makes their job as a teacher one which is a joy and not an effort, Mack told the retired teachers.

"While this club is made up of 'retired' teachers, you have not quit teaching in life by any means. You teach every day; not only ideas, but truth, techniques, principles for living." Mack closed his talk with a quotation from Shciller's "Three Lessons" which cites "the measure of a successful teacher is his students."

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson, president.

A report was given on the November 5 District XVI RTA meeting. Five attended from the county chapter: Mrs. Lois Ratliff, District XVI president; Mrs. Wilson, parliamentarian; Mrs. L.C. Sweat, song leader; Mrs.

Bill Wells and Mrs. Willie B. Harwell.

Hostesses were Mrs. Sweat, Mrs. Evelyn Lowe, Mrs. Loren Lennon and Mrs. Mary Jones.

Others present were Miss Maudie Coffee, Mrs. Paralee Coleman, John Coleman, Mrs. Alma Crawley, Mrs. Florence DeArmond, Mrs. Nan Henard, Mrs. Roxie Hill, Mrs. Myrtle Hill, Mrs. Kedron Mitchell, Mrs. Ratliff, Mrs. Sweat, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Mrs. Bill Wells, Mrs. Juanita White, Miss Bonnie Willis, Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson, Mrs. Novella Word, Ryan Roberson, and the speaker, Mr. Mack.

Hatches Attend Showing of Spring Fashion Line in New York

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hatch were in New York City recently to attend the showing of the spring line of designer dresses presented by their son, Carlos Hatch and his partner, Gregory

King. This was held at the Lotus Club, which was once the town house of a member of the Vanderbilt family, and is known for its lavish decor. Some of New York City's top models showed the dresses and other garments. One of these was the beautiful blond Miss Sweden, who appeared in the recent Miss Universe contest.

Hats, made especially for this show were featured, Hatch said.

Such a show moves along at a rapid tempo, with background music accompaniment.

After the showing, Mr. and Mrs. Hatch were guests at a dinner given at the Tavern on the Green.

On another evening, they were at Studio 54, where the entertainer, Karen Black, wore a garment from Hatch and King's new line.

They also attended the play, "Joseph" based on a Biblical story, but modern in style, with modern music and often humorous.

On one day, Bill and Zelda Hatch went to garment district, to watch such things as racks of clothes pushed frantically down sidewalks from one point to another, just as is shown in motion pictures and on television.

For several days before they went to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Hatch attended the Dallas showings of spring clothes and bought for Hatch Dry Goods.

They met her mother, Mrs. S.A. Welch of Lubbock in Dallas and flew with her to Atlanta, Ga., where she visited with her son, Kenneth Welch, then rejoined the Hatches for the trip back to Dallas.

Hernandez-Arreola Engagement Told

Mrs. Frances Guajardo Hernandez is announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Debbie G. Hernandez to Victor C. Arreola.

Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joes Lopez Arreola, 300 8th Street.

The couple will marry Saturday, Nov. 27, at three o'clock in the afternoon at the National Guard Armory. A reception will follow the ceremony, with a dance at the armory at 8 p.m.

Miss Hernandez is a senior in Wellington High School and is employed in the office of the Texas National Guard.

Her fiancé is employed at Owens Salvage Co.

Mrs. Jeffrey Honored Sat.

Mrs. Jacen Jeffrey, the former Melanie Pendleton, was the honoree at a surprise breakfast and lingerie shower Saturday, November 13 in the home of Mrs. Billy Henard at 1101 Graham.

The bouquet of burgandy and white flowers, to be thrown at the wedding reception by the bride, decorated the serving table.

Donuts and sausage balls were served to friends and relatives of the honoree.

Superlatives!

Probably the most elegant jar ever designed was the one carved by Dionysio Miseroni in the 17th century. This precious ointment jar was carved entirely from a 2,680 carat emerald, the largest cut gem in the world.

One of the most elegant watches ever designed is a delicate bangle watch that combines Swiss technology with French chic. This particular model is part of the Michel Herbelin line of French fashion watches. Herbelin watches are so unique that, in 1979, they were awarded the coveted design "Oscar" by the jewellers of France. Happily, this distinctive watch is now available in the United States, at fine jewelers.

Fireplaces May Not Be So Hot, But There's Help Available

While many Texans are looking forward to enjoying the warm glow of their fireplaces this winter, the glow may be the warmest part of a standard masonry fireplace.

The average masonry fireplace delivers only 5 percent of the heat generated by the fire to the home, says Dr. Mike Walterscheid, forester with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. The other 95 percent goes up the chimney.

In addition, the fire, when burning properly, draws between 500 and 600 cubic feet of air per minute. That air, enough to empty a 1,400 square foot home in about 20 minutes, is drawn into the home under windows, around doors and through cracks in the floors of even the finest homes. The result is that a fireplace can actually hinder, rather than help, your heating system, says Walterscheid.

Despite the inefficiency of a fireplace most persons whose homes have one will want to use it. The forester offers several suggestions that can add to the enjoyment of a fireplace.

Before the cold season sets in, check the chimney for obstructions and creosote buildup. Creosote, a tarry substance, is found in all types of wood and, as a result, will be found in all chimneys, not just the ones where creosote-treated wood has been burned.

A chimney rated as Class A by Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., among the safest chimneys available, will withstand temperatures up to 1,700 degrees F. for 10 minutes. Temperatures in a creosote-caused chimney fire can reach 3,000 degrees F. So, check the chimney and clean it if necessary before starting a fire.

Since a cold chimney will not draw as well as a warm one, hold a lighted, rolled-up newspaper toward the top and rear of the fireplace to warm the chimney and help prevent smoke from backing up into the room when the fire is started.

Allow ashes to accumulate to at least an inch deep on the hearth since they act as insulation and will help the fire burn more efficiently.

Add new logs to the rear of the fire where they will reflect light and heat into the room.

Use screens or glass doors in front of the fire to prevent sparks from falling onto the carpet or floor. Glass doors can double the efficiency of a fireplace, which means going from a 5 percent efficiency to a 10 percent efficiency. Glass doors also can be closed when the fire is unattended or at bedtime and will help keep home heat from escaping up the chimney.

Installing and using an outside air source directly into the fireplace can also help its efficiency.

Finally, never leave children unattended in a room where there is or has recently been a fire.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—As Governor-elect of Texas, Mark White's transition team is fine-tuning his legislative package and scrutinizing qualified candidates for various appointments he will make in the next few weeks.

At the top of the list of appointees is the new Texas Secretary of State, a new Public Utility Commissioner, and, perhaps, a new Supreme Court chief justice.

The big question mark is: just how many appointments will outgoing Gov. Bill Clements leave for the man who defeated him?

Clements still can make more than 220 appointments to boards and commissions.

The hitch for Clements is that his "midnight appointments" must face confirmation in the Senate, where an appointee is rejected if at least 11 senators vote against him.

White won't be able to appoint a successor to Chief Justice Joe Greenhill who resigned last month unless: 1) Clements fails to name a replacement before Jan. 18, or 2) the Senate acts to reject Clements' pick.

Clements said last week he intends to pick a new chief justice, but a couple of days later he got a letter signed by 15 Democratic senators asking him to leave the task to White.

sumer to the post.

But other changes for PUC are planned by various legislators, including Sen. Lloyd Doggett, D-Austin.

Doggett last week prefiled a bill which would eliminate the controversial fuel adjustment clause, also a White campaign pledge.

The bill expands the three-member board to six members, who would be elected from single-member districts.

It allows the Texas Attorney General a larger role in representing consumers in rate cases before the PUC.

Other similar bills are expected to be filed, and White has not endorsed any specific bill to reform PUC.

He said PUC reform will be a top legislative priority for his administration.

One Billion $$

White, acting in his capacity as attorney general, last week began presenting evidence in a lawsuit to collect $1 billion which he says the federal government owes Texas in offshore oil revenues.

In a Beaumont courtroom, he offered geological surveys to contend that the Feds drained oil and natural gas from Texas deposits without compensation.

Money awarded to Texas in settlement would go to the Texas Public School Fund.

Senatorial Courtesy

The letter stopped short of threatening to block the appointment, but the wording and number of signatures indicated a Clements nominee might be in trouble.

Perhaps the real issue is whether an appointee can overcome political pressures from former Atty. Gen. John Hill, who is considered a sure bet to run for chief justice in 1984.

Clements' most recent appointee, Tommie Gene Smith to the Public Utility Commission, also has yet to be confirmed, and speculation has it the Democrats are moving to "bust" the retired Army general from San Antonio.

Quiet pressure is apparently being put on Sen. Glenn Kothmann of San Antonio to use senatorial courtesy to nullify Smith. Kothmann hasn't said what he'll do.

PUC Under Gun

Such a move would give White two appointees to the PUC, since Commissioner George Cowden's term expires next August, which is plenty of room to let White fulfill his campaign promise to appoint a woman-con-

Matagorda Island

Texas has moved closer to assuming control of 19,000 acres of federal land on Matagorda Island, and may finalize the controversial plan by mid-December.

The proposal would give Texas control, but not ownership, of the property for the next 100 years.

Dolph Briscoe

Former Gov. Dolph Briscoe, who was seen quite a bit helping Mark White on the campaign trail, said recently he plans to announce in January or February whether he will run in 1984 for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Republican John Tower.

That race will be the hottest on the ballot, and sure to be sought by others including former U.S. Rep. Bob Krueger.

White's landslide over Clements, plus Tower's bare-squeaker victory over Krueger in 1978, has Democrats feeling confident they can beat Tower.

In some parts of Russia people used to roll around in the fields in the hope that this would encourage the crops to grow.

Morgan Receives Tech Scholarship

Jimmy Morgan, was the recipient of one of the $200 T.L. Leach/L.M. Hargrave Agricultural Education Scholarships.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.I. Morgan and is a senior agricultural education major.

Morgan has been listed on the Dean's List and the National Dean's List. He belongs to the Collegiate FFA, Saddle and Sirolo, and participates in intramural sports.

Scholarship recipients were selected on academic and leadership abilities.

Scholarships totaling $2,400.00 were awarded to 19 Agricultural Education/

Agricultural Communication students. Scholarship funds were initiated in 1975 by friends and agricultural associates of T.L. Leach, former chairperson of the Department of Agricultural Education and L.M. Hargrave, professor emeritus of Agricultural Education. The Panhandle South Plains Fair has played a significant role in funding the scholarship program.

Additionally the Collegiate FFA membership, totaling 120 Texas Tech students, has generated scholarship funds by sponsoring the Texas Tech FFA Barrow Sale for two consecutive years.

OIL & GAS

Beach Oil and Gas, Inc., of Dallas has filed a partial assignment of a working interest in oil and gas properties to 25 residents of the Dallas area, Montgomery, Alabama, and one Wellington assignee.

The instrument filed in the office of Helen Golliugh, county-district clerk, assigns 31% of 8/8ths of production gas purchased from the Hawkins (S) No. 1 Well in NE/4 section 5, block 23, together with equipment on the land used in production of oil. The assignment is from the surface to 100 feet below the total depth drilled in the well.

A gas purchase contract was signed April 20, 1982 between Beach Oil and Gas, Inc., and High Plains Natural Gas Co., buyer and gas producer, and another agreement was signed with Black and Warren Petroleum Co. as processor, subject to the agreement date of Nov. 25, 1982, between Beach and the assignees.

This quarter-section was leased by William G. Hawkins and wife Artie Hawkins, to Powell Cattle Co., on May 7, 1981.

The Wellington assignee was C&S Leasing Co.

Mineral deed: Orville Cunningham and wife, Ruth A., of Taylor County to Karon L. Cunningham of Canyon: 200 undivided mineral acres on a 400 acre tract in the western part of section 26, block 16.

A Friend Who Never Fails You

Pauline Nichols, a real estate agent in Louisville, Ky., has led a difficult life, but she has come to depend on a friend who never fails—God.

"The one thing that I can remember most was when my only son was dying," she says. "I lost my perspective. I went out and sat under a tree and began to question, to doubt and suddenly, I felt His arm around me and a voice said, 'underneath are everlasting arms.' It gave me confidence and strength."

Mrs. Nichols has learned to place her trust in the second chapter of Ephesians where God tells us that he will be our peace, a peace that no one can ever take away from us.

"If the world can take away your peace, then Jesus is not your peace," she explains.

If you would like to learn more about the lasting peace that comes through God's Word, the Holy Bible, write for a free, no-obligation Gospel of John from the Christian Bible Society, Nashville, TN 37210.

COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY AGENT REPORT by DON REEVES

BEWARE OF SOIL CONDITIONERS

Commercial growers and home gardeners are bombarded continuously with advertisements from companies asking them to try their soil conditioners, stimulants, etc. The common claims made are that these products either contain (1) soil microorganisms (2) stimulates the existing microflora (3) provides certain micronutrients or (4) all of the above.

The advertised advantages include higher yields, improved soil structure, better fertilizer utilization and faster breakdown of crop residue and herbicides. I have seen no data that gives evidence that products claiming the above deliver any measurable results.

The exception is inoculants containing nodulating bacteria to be used in planting legumes.

A person can suspect most products when low rates are to produce astonishing results.

Norwood Opens Against Hartley Here Monday

Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes of District 2-A open their season play Monday, Nov. 22, when they host Hartley boys and girls, plus a third game of B team girls.

Hartley is ranked third in its district.

"They are coming quite a way to play us here, and we believe these will be three exciting games," said Coach Mike Smith.

Coach Smith has 11 girls on his girls varsity team and 10 girls on his junior high team this year. "We are sure that all three games Monday will be real exciting," said Coach Mike Smith.

The first game will be played at 3 p.m. and the others will follow immediately.

Smith is coaching the girls on both high school and junior high levels, and Ralph Decker has both boys teams.

The junior high schedule also begins next week, with Lela boys and girls traveling to Samnorwood Tuesday, Nov. 23. This will be the only non-district team the junior high plays.

On the high school girls team are Crystal Breeding, Lori Baker, Shanda Bruton, Stacey Brandvik, Becky Barton, Stephanie McWhorter, Sandy Henard, Trudy Baker, Stephanie Brandvik, Linda Garza and Betty Sue Kincannon.

Junior high members are Donna Dickson and Leslie Brandvik, 8th graders, who played last year; Melody Fulfer, 7th grade, who played last year. Others are Trina Baker, Stacey Knoll, Tammie Henard, Kim Macina, Cassie Custer, Toni Bell and Leah Dickson.

Eight boys make up the junior high team, and all of these played last year. They are Craig Brown, Robin Fulfer, Rene DelBosque, Eddie Garza, John Bentley, Chris Denham, Tommy Kidd, Daylon and Kirkland.

High school Eagles are Jackie Kidd, Scot Martindale, Tommy Baker, Chris Pere and Ty Bonner, Steve Bentley, Robert Vargas and Gilbert Garcia.

Saudi Arabians of the Villages are A Hospitable People, Family Finds

Texans talk about their oil in superlatives.

But for 5 years, the largest single oil pool known in the world was familiar ground to Ed Kirksey, who joined the staff of Greenbelt Electric Co-operative, Inc. as operations engineer recently. It is the Gwarar Oil Field of Saudi Arabia.

Kirksey, formerly with Arizona Electric Power Co-op at Benson, Arizona, was employed for that period by the power systems division of ARAMCO Riyadh, and on loan to the Saudi Consolidated Electric Co. He calls it "the Saudi REA in effect."

His wife, Ada, and their daughters, Cristal and April went with him.

There are similarities between Kirksey's work in the Middle East and his work for Greenbelt. Both concern line construction and maintenance, outage problems and customer relations.

In Saudi Arabia, they lived at Abquai, one of the four ARAMCO complexes for its employees. His work was to take electric power to villages of Saudi Arabia that have never had it, sometimes meeting people who had never before seen someone from the Western World.

Many weekends found the entire family back in these villages, mingling with the people, whom they came to know and respect and admire, and to call their friends.

"You could park your car in one of these villages and pretty soon someone would stop and begin talking," he said. They learned how much "talking" one can do by sign language.

In some of these villages, women are still veiled when they step outside their homes. At home, they do not remain in the room if a strange man is present.

Ada Kirksey and her daughters went with them to the women's quarters where again much communication with these friendly people was by sign language. They learned true understanding could be reached.

Once concession was made--a major concession in the eyes of their hosts. Because of the language, a male interpreter was allowed to go to the women's quarters with Ada Kirksey and her daughters.

Out of friendliness and curiosity and Saudi women like to touch their visitors, to feel their clothes and hair.

On one visit, the women stroked Cristal's long blond hair, repeating one phrase over and over. A teenager, she became nervous and Mrs. Kirksey asked the interpreter what was being said.

"They are saying 'We want to keep her,'" he replied.

The Kirkseys have nothing but praise for these people where change has come so fast. They know them, not as the rich Saudis of newspaper stores and television films, but as hardworking friendly people.

"Often, when I came into a village the first time, and the people saw the company emblem on my pickup, their first question was: 'When can we have air conditioning?'" Both Ed and Ada Kirksey believe that Americans working in Saudi Arabia land who do not go out among the people as they did, have missed a rich experience.

Ada Kirksey worked in the ARAMCO housing office, where she handled the living problems of an average of 8 nationalities, all working for the company. These included citizens of the United States and England, the Dutch, Pakistani, Indian and Philippines, with an occasional Canadian or Sudani, plus the Arabs.

The Saudis have made concessions to these foreigners who live among them.

A devoutly Moslem country, religious freedom does not mean to them what it does to those from the West. To serve the religious needs of the ARAMCO employees, there is a Catholic priest, one Baptist and one Mormon clergymen.

"You are fortunate to have your religious services. They know it was there (the worship) and they turned their head," Kirksey said.

City Sales Tax Rebate $13,690

State Comptroller Bob Bullock on Friday, Nov. 12, sent Wellington a $13,690 check, as its share of the one-percent city sales tax for November.

This represents taxable sales made in September and reported to the state by the end of October.

Payments to date for 1982 are $67,902.43. Bullock's report shows, or 2.21% above the amount the city received up to this time a year ago, when the total was $66,436.37.

The November 1981 check was $10,365.59.

The statewide total so far this year is up 9.3% over the 1981 total up through the same date last year.

The city sales taxes are collected along with the state sales tax by merchants and rebated monthly to the cities in which they are collected by the Comptroller.

Last Call for Books to Aid VA Hospital

The time is growing short for the collection of paper back books to be taken to the Amarillo Veterans Administration Hospital, reminds Louise Henard, VFW Auxiliary president.

"If you have intended bringing books to one of the collection boxes, please do this soon," she urged.

The books will be taken to the Amarillo hospital December 1.

Hays Sisters Tour

Four sisters have returned from a fall foliage tour that took them across the South, up the Eastern Seaboard, through New England and into Eastern Canada.

They are Miss Larlu Hays and Miss Myra Hays of Wellington, Miss Merle Hays and Mrs. D.R. (Virginia) Biter of Wichita Falls.

They left Dallas on September 25 and returned on October 10, having traveled 4654 miles through 23 states and Montreal, Ottawa and Niagara Falls, Canada.

They traveled through Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and to Spartanburg, South Carolina, the first two days. The third night they stayed in Williamsburg, Va. and toured the restored town of Colonial Williamsburg the next day. The theme for the town is "That the future may learn from the past". There are eighty-eight restored buildings and those that disappeared have been rebuilt on their original sites. One is the Governor's Palace, used by British Royal Governors from 1720 to 1775.

They drove to Washington, D.C. for that night and took a Gray Line Tour of Washington on September 29. They visited Arlington National Cemetery and were there for the Changing of the Guard. They also saw a ceremony in honor of a visiting government official from Brazil. A tour was made of the east wing of the White House, followed by a stop at the Lincoln Memorial. At the Capitol, Myra and Merle went to the House of Representatives while Larlu and Virginia visited the Senate and both were in session. In the afternoon they drove to Mt. Vernon where they saw the house with the rooms restored as they were when George Washington lived there. Other items of interest and other government buildings were seen throughout the day.

In New York the next day, a tour was made to see the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State Building, Chinatown, the Bowery, Greenwich Village, the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, and Central Park.

Myra Hays continues their story:

"On October 1, we traveled through New York, Connecticut to an old fishing village Mystic Harbor and then to Newport where we visited the famous Vanderbilt House 'The Breakers.' That night we were in Warwick, Rhode Island. We traveled east in Massachusetts on Saturday and arrived in the Cape Cod area where we reached the end of the Cape at Provincetown which is on the Atlantic Ocean. We enjoyed shopping in the many gift shops there. Continuing on the shoreline of Cape Cod, we went to Plymouth, landing place of the Pilgrims, saw Plymouth Rock and went aboard the Mayflower I - an authentic reproduction of the ship in which the Pilgrims crossed to America.

On Sunday we had a guide board our bus for a tour of Boston. We stopped first at the John F. Kennedy Library, where we saw a film about his life, then boarded the USS Constitution and went to the Old North Church, where the pastor welcomed us and told us about the lanterns being placed in the church and Paul Revere's ride.

One unusual experience was trying to buy something for lunch in Quincy's Market with so many people there doing the same thing. A Boston Marathon plus lots of antique firetrucks gathered for a demonstration provided much of the crowd. We visited with people from Connecticut who had come up for the weekend.

On Monday, we traveled to Portland, Maine through New Hampshire. From New York on we saw beautiful foliage but it grew more colorful as we traveled north. We arrived in Portland in time to walk over to the shopping center and do some shopping then the whole group went to Boone's Restaurant which serves seafood for the evening meal.

On Tuesday, we drove through New Hampshire to North Conway, where we took a skimobile ride up Mt. Cranmore in the White Mountains. It seemed we had climbed some as we drove there but at the top of the mountain we were only 1952 feet which is 23 ft. lower than Wellington. We drove through the Green Mountains to Lake Champlain in Vermont and crossed the lake by ferry. We spent the night in Plattsburg, New York.

We drove on Wednesday through Montreal to Ottawa, the capital of Canada. We stopped at the Notre Dame Cathedral in Montreal which is very beautiful and also saw the buildings left from Expo 67, including the U.S. Pavilion. In Ottawa, Merle called the manager of a Canadian Tire Store, an affiliate of the one where she works, and he sent a young man to drive us there. They showed us the store which was filled with sporting goods equipment for ice skating, skiing, curling and other winter sports. Merle works for Bill Beaton, a Canadian who is now in Wichita Falls and White Stores, Inc. are now owned by the Canadian Tire Co. He brought us back by the Parliament Buildings to our Hotel, The Lord Elgin. Then we were free to go shopping the rest of the day.

On Thursday we drove through the rain to Niagara Falls, where we saw this wonderful sight but did not ride the Maid of the Mist boat down in front of the falls since it was foggy and misty. We ate in the Penthouse Restaurant of the Foxhead - Sheraton Motel and could see the falls as we ate. The next morning we saw the falls with the sun shining on them before we left.

We drove through a part of New York, Pennsylvania and to Ohio on Friday where we spent the night in

Public Notice

NOTICE OF INTENT TO CHANGE TARIFF

Greenbelt Electric Cooperative, Inc. has filed a request with the Public Utility Commission of Texas for permission to amend a filed Power Cost Adjustment Tariff effective date directed by the Commission prehearing scheduled October 26, 1982, Austin, Texas. The proposed Tariff Amendment would produce approximately an additional $4,733.64 in revenue annually based upon the twelve month period ending September 30, 1982 as the test year. This represents an increase in the gross operating revenue of the utility of approximately 0.169%. Copies of the tariff are on file with the Commission at 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Austin, Texas or at the Cooperative's office in Wellington, Texas. 15-4c Cincinnati, Ohio. We saw fields of grape vineyards all the way through New York, Pennsylvania and part of Ohio.

Saturday, we drove through the rain again through Kentucky and Tennessee. We spent the night in Memphis, Tenn. and our tour director treated us to barbecued ribs at Blues Alley, where we had musicians playing blues songs. A 75 year old black woman was the singer and has been there for years.

Sunday we traveled through Arkansas to Dallas where we arrived at 4:30 p.m. Our bus driver was Leon Swiney, who not only was a safe driver but was able to give us information all along the way as he has made this trip for 19 years.

Mrs. Joy Geary was the tour escort and had everything well planned and took care of us in a very fine way. Of course, the best part of any trip is coming home again but we have many memories to cherish through the years and hope to have lots of pictures to view when we get them back from the photo company.

Fundamental Baptists Plan Dinner Sunday

"Some Day Sunday" will be observed at Fundamental Baptist Church Sunday, Nov. 21, under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. Howard McCann.

This derives from the knowledge that many people "some day, intend to get back in church," or "some day plan to attend services."

"That some day is now-Sunday," said the pastor.

The church-wide annual Thanksgiving dinner will be served following the morning service, with Sunday School at 10 a.m. and preaching at 11.

There will be special music by Hugh Bledsoe and Marilyn Phillips." Rev. McCann will preach. The regular evening service will be held at 6:30.

TV Translator Sets Meeting

The annual meeting of Greenbelt TV Translator will be held Monday, Nov. 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the Farm Bureau Building.

All users are urged to attend, said Marshall Peters, secretary-treasurer.

During the business session there will be a discussion of the failure to collect as much money as will be needed for 1983 when the drive for annual dues was held recently.

Carl Wischkaemper, president, will be in charge of the meeting. New officers will be elected and routine business will be heard.

Serving with Wischkaemper and Peters this year is L.A. Davis of Rolla, vice-president. Directors are Worth Shields of Samnorwood, Bob Cochran and Howard Hunt of Dodson, and W.L. White.

Cancer Support Group to Meet

The Care and Support Group for cancer patients will meet Thursday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m. in the Homemaking Department of Wellington High School, Mrs. Mary Lois Scott has announced.

All persons interested in being a part of this group are invited to come.

"Suggestions for programs and services that we can offer will be welcomed," she said.

Those interested may call

Quail Bag Limits Announced

AUSTIN - Hunters in several regions in Texas again will be allowed to take 20 quail per day during the 1982-83 hunting seasons. Collingsworth County is in one of these regions.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission, meeting in Austin approved quail bag limits for regulatory authority counties after reviewing results of statewide quail production survey conducted in August. These bag limits do not apply to counties regulated by general or special law enacted by the Legislature.

The 20 per day bag limit will apply in two regions which include most of South Texas, the Rolling Plains area of West Texas and the Eastern Panhandle. Possession limits are twice the daily bag limit.

Most of East Texas remained at the 12 bird per day limit, and this year the coastal prairies of southeast Texas were reduced from 16 quail per day to 12 because of lower quail populations.

The Edwards Plateau quail count was up, and the commission increased the limit from last year's 12 per day to 16. The Western Panhandle area remains at 12 per day, while the Trans-Pecos region has a 16 per day limit.

The quail season varies by county, and hunters are advised to consult the department's 1982-83 Hunting Guide, available at department offices and hunting license outlets, to determine laws in the county to be hunted.

Quail Program Leader Don Wilson said quail counts in South Texas this year were the second best since statewide surveys were initiated in 1976. "Our crews counted an average of 37 quail per route this year, which rivals the outstanding counts of 1979 when 39 birds per route were observed," Wilson said. He added that good weather conditions over much of West Texas, the Eastern Panhandle and the Edwards Plateau during the spring and summer allowed good quail production and survival.

IT WILL SAVE
YOU MONEY....

The Heat Pump
the most efficient system for heating and cooling.

A heat pump can actually produce more than 2 units of heat for every unit of electricity used, in a properly insulated home.

Unlike a conventional furnace, the heat pump doesn't make heat. It transfers or "pumps" heat. Even on cold days, there is some warmth in the air. The heat pump transfers this heat into your home to warm you and your family.

THE ELECTRIC HEAT PUMP WILL SAVE YOU MONEY! If you have plans to buy, build or remodel, or need a new heating and cooling system for your home, call a local factory trained HEAT PUMP DEALER or talk with WTU. We will arrange for a WTU heating and cooling specialist to contact you.
