Unity stressed at economic meeting

Economic development equals jobs, a group of about 75 Colorado City residents was told Thursday night during an economic development meeting hosted by the city.

"You are here to write the direction of Colorado City's and Mitchell County's future," Julia Moake of the Texas Department of Commerce told the gathering.

And, the first step in creating new jobs is to form a community coalition, she said, urging cooperation between citizens and local entities in order to attract new businesses and industry and to expand existing business and industry.

In addition, she said that economic development is tied to community development which she described as "everything else you have to do before creating jobs."

"If an industry comes to town, its employees are going to have to have a place to live, things to do and look at and places to buy," she said, adding that "parks and beautifying the community are also very important factors in developing a community."

Other factors include the education system, the chamber of commerce, city and county offices, an industrial foundation, the hospital and utilities.

"An industrial team will work to formulate a plan to pull the assets of all entities and to formulate a marketing plan to show off your community," she said.

"But it takes everybody in town to help decide the future direction of your community," she said, noting that usually when someone stops in a town, it's either for food and beverage, to use the restroom and to purchase gasoline.

"Who mans these businesses?" she asked. "It's usually the less educated, the less knowledgeable about the community business" who visitors see first, adding that in order for employees to have a positive attitude about the town, the employers also must be posi-

Variety of activities set

Dancing, a fish fry, food and arts and crafts booths and games will be featured during the May 20 Mayfest which will also feature new and used boats and recreational vehicles on display.

The Dance - Mark Hayworth and the Country Four from Big Spring will provide music for the Mayfest dance Saturday night. Location of the dance has been changed from the Truss King Building to the Civic Center. Tickets are $5 each, and chamber officials say there will be a limited number of tickets available for the dance. For those attending the dance, there will be a two-step dance contest to add to the fun. Buy a ticket for the dance and fish fry in advance and the price will be $8 for a savings of $1.50, said chamber president Gary Parker.

FISH FRY - Tickets for the "All You Can Eat" fish fry are $4.50, except for adults 60 and over and youngsters 11 and under who will be charged $3.50 each. Tickets for the fish fry as well as the dance can be purchased at City National Bank, First National Bank, Consolidated Federal Savings and the chamber office.

BOOTHS - "To date we have 41 booths reserved including foods, crafts, pecans, scissors, oil paintings, ceramics, saddles, games, office furniture, T-shirts and flea-market items," said Parker. Booth space is $5 and can be reserved by the calling the chamber at 728-3403 or going by 157 West Second.

BOATS, RVs - In addition to the booths, there will be boats and recreational vehicles on display. Elm and Walnut streets between First and Second will be blocked off for the various events which get underway at noon.

GAMES - A dunking booth, tortilla making contest, rod and reel casting contest, perch contest (one minute to catch a perch bare-handed), and a "Miss Mayfest" contest for men are also scheduled. Entertainment will be featured throughout the day.

Bribery charge lands man in jail

An Aransas Pass man was arrested by Colorado City police Thursday night and charged with driving while intoxicated, possession of a controlled substance and attempting to bribe police officers.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks said Jimmy Leroy Burdan, 37, was stopped by officers Randy Wilkinson and Joe Russell Thursday at 11:55 p.m. at Sixth and Hickory streets.

During the course of the arrest,

Burdan reportedly tried to bribe the officers with some of the marijuana found in his possession. Sparks said the bribery charge is a second degree felony.

Burdan was taken to Mitchell County Jail.

CENTURY MARK - Gertrude Henderson, a resident of Valley Fair Lodge, displays the birthday greetings she received from President and Mrs. George Bush. Mrs. Henderson will be a 100 years old on Tuesday. She was born May 16, 1889 in Goodrich, Texas and moved here in 1931. Her husband, John D. Henderson, died Feb. 6, 1973.

Former resident publishes second book

Former Colorado City resident Sharon Gillenwater has announced the publication of her second novel, Highland Whispers.

The historical romance, published by Dorchester Publishing/Leisure Books of New York, should be arriving in the paperback departments of local stores within the next few weeks.

Highland Whispers is set in the Scottish Highlands and France in the year 1790. Countess Sheridan Sinclair returns to Scotland after a four-year absence only to find herself pursued by a madman. Obsessed by Sheridan's uncanny resemblance to her mother, whom he had loved many years before, Cameron Macveagh vows to claim her as his own.

Only one man can save her from the Scot's fiendish plans - brash American Jeremy Mackenzie. When Sheridan marries Jeremy, she not only gains his protection but is taught the meaning of love. Their struggle against Macveagh takes them from the sweet-scented moors of the Highlands to the elegant salons of Paris on the eve of the French Revolution.

"Macveagh is not easily thwarted, but Jeremy and Sheridan triumph in the end. One reason romances are popular, and why I enjoy writing them, is the assurance of a happy ending," said Gillenwater.

Gillenwater, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Harlow, grew up on the Thompson's Ranch south of Colorado City. She and her family will be visiting her parents the latter part of June.

She will hold a book signing at the Mitchell County Public Library on Saturday, June 24, from 1:30-3:30 p.m. She invites those who would like her to sign their copy of Unwilling Heart, her first book, or Highland Whispers to stop by.

"If someone wants to just stop in to say hello, that would be great, too," says Gillenwater. "I won't be selling any books at the library. They will have to be purchased elsewhere, such as Fuller Foods or one of the convenience stores."

Highland Whispers should be available about four weeks before the signing.

Gillenwater, a 1967 graduate of Colorado High School, lives in Auburn, Wash.

ECONOMIC

She described TU Electric and Lone Star Gas Co. as "the lifeline to economic development", saying that utility companies such as these have been involved in community and economic development "long before we ever got into the business."

"Why does any industry choose to locate in a certain town?" she asked. "They're there to make a profit. They need an adequate labor force, utilities and transportation without which they won't give your town a second glance."

"If you don't have property, utilities and a labor force, then get them," she urged.

When she asked for ideas from the audience on what they wanted to see happen here, she received a variety of answers including tourism, jobs, industry, growth, new businesses, more community togetherness, promote hunting and fishing, good streets and water, beautification of parks and town, cooperation between entities and a textile plant.

"There are many of you who have a sincere interest and desire to be a party of economic development," she said. "However, fear keeps many people from participating."

She prompted participation by dividing the audience into groups of eight or less and asked for a specific idea from each group on how to improve Colorado City and ways to make the idea become a reality.

Two groups chose beautification. One group wanted to create more employment opportunities for blacks while another group wanted to bring into discount factory outlets to fill the vacant buildings in town. One group wanted to attract a textile industry while another group wanted to attract three new physicians to town. One group suggested hiring an economic developer to solicit new businesses and industry and to expand existing business and industry. One group wanted to see an annual celebration such as a brisket cookoff to be held during the rodeo.

Moake said that all the ideas expressed at the meeting could be turned into a blueprint for the future of the city and showed as an example a strategic plan developed by a town wanting to develop its resources and promote economic development.

Also speaking at Thursday night's meeting was Alison Benton, economic development specialist with the government contract procurement center of the West Central Texas Council of Governments in Abilene.

She said the purpose of the center is to create business, jobs and a good economic base in order to keep people in West Texas.

Garden Club officers installed

The Colorado City Garden Club met at the home of Elizabeth Connell recently for the last meeting of 1988-89.

Flowers and ferns decorated the entertaining rooms. A dining table was centered with an epergne with upper tiers of roses and lower ones containing petits fours.

Nadine Gordon, outgoing president, presided at the business meeting.

Members renewed purpose of the founders of the garden club to use funds for Colorado City beautification.

Dorothy Johnson installed the 1989-91 officers: Mary Ellis, president; Peggy Ratliff, vice president; Louise Decovic, secretary; and Frances Myers, treasurer.

Others attending were Lucy Yeaman, Santa Fe, N.M., houseguest of Mrs. Connell, Marion Bassham, Faye Daniel, Betsy Aycock, Marjorie Kolman, Genevieve Moore, Gene Rowe, Clara Shoemaker and Mrs. Sims Palmer, member emeritus.

Letters to the editor

Support appreciated

TO THE EDITOR: I want to thank everyone that voted for me in the past election. I want everybody to know that I will run again in the next election. I'm very concerned about the future of our town. Thank you again.

Now, I would like to express my point of view of the last council meeting concerning the office that's being built for the city manager.

She stated that the reason she went ahead and built it is to serve the handicapped better. Her other office could have done just as good a job as the new one. Why didn't she mention that fact to the council when they stopped the building of the office. Looks like she was going to do it with or without the approval of the council.

The employees of the city such as the street, garbage and water departments, deserve pay raises. They are in every type of weather. And at any time day or night. They deserve to be given a raise with the money to build her office.

I would also like to mention some facts that I looked into I believe the citizens would like to know. I called Snyder, Sweetwater and Abilene. These towns are larger than Colorado City, and their city managers don't have mobile phones. So I can't see where she needs one. I can't see where it is an asset. It is just another expense that this town can't afford.

Thank you once again for allowing me to express my views and the support the people gave me in the election.

Thank you,
Ricky Thompson
Colorado City

Thanks

TO THE EDITOR: On behalf of Girl Scout Troops 244 and 250, I would like to thank the students of Middle School and High School for all their support during the fund raising dances that we have sponsored.

Not only does it entertain the students, but it also serves a good cause by raising funds for our Girl Scout trips.

This year our goal is to go to Disneyland in California. In the past eight years, we have gone to the Grand Canyon, South Padre Island, San Antonio, Six Flags and other areas closer to home.

We especially want to thank the following people for being at the dances when we needed their help - Esther Goss, Jo Conaway, Chris Castillo, Lucy Ortiz, Joe Rivera, Debbie Brady, Carolyn Newman and Bob Newman.

The following are girls in Troops 244 and 250 - Shawne Ortiz, Cindy Newman, Amie Jones, Crescent Ross, Prescilla Molina, Shea Ortiz, Melissa Goss, Nedra Wathall, Laura Conaway, Amanda Rich, and Kelly Garrett. This has been a good year for them and they plan to continue in Scouts through high school.

Once again, I thank you for all your support and may God bless you.

Sincerely,
Sara Ortiz

Nursing home week declared

TO THE EDITOR: Gov. Bill Clements has declared May 14-20 as "Nursing Home Week in Texas". About 87,000 Texans live in nursing homes.

This is a time to remember the citizens of our community who live in nursing homes and those who have chosen to care for them.

The care team at Valley Fair Lodge includes professionals in medicine, nursing, nutrition, social, spiritual and personal care. Our nursing aides must pass testing by the State of Texas and be registered with Austin to be a part of our team.

These remarkable care givers, along with volunteers, should be commended for their commitment of helping make other people's lives more comfortable and enjoyable. We sometimes forget how much the loving touch, smile and conversation means to our community pioneers living in nursing homes.

Take time to pay tribute to those who care for our elderly citizens, and visit a resident soon. It will enrich their lives and your own.

Remember: Love is Ageless.

TO THE EDITOR:
An open letter to "Concerned Parents".

Loraine Independent School is the only school (to the best of my knowledge) in the State of Texas that the teachers are given the opportunity to be involved concerning the school calendar. This involvement turned into a "Forget the Students", let's have it this week, no we want to be out this week, no, we want and etc. "Forget the Students", no way. "Students" is what spring break is suppose to be all about, not a teacher, parent vacation. The Administration personal was hired to process the management and direct the government of the school system, they were not hired to be told by the teachers what to do. Any conflict concerning Administration and Teachers can be solved much easier, and less painful if you talk eye to eye, not back to back. This only causes statements to be said you wish you could retrieve seconds later, but the harm has already been done. Needless to say such statements spread like a virus.

The only time the Administration, and School Board get recognized is when someone thinks they have done a no no. Never do they get acknowledged with appreciation for all the good they do for the school. They pay the School Board members receive is great, "nothing". How many concerned parents know the school board members are required to have at least 20 or more hours of schooling to be able to even serve on the board. Most of these hours they must travel to Austin to Seminars.

In reference to "Concerned Parents", I publicly want to thank the (3) three, Tommy and Sharon Green, Rosa Benitz, parents and Sally Compton, Doris Henderson and Mrs. Floyd Coffee for their participation in the Accreditation visit by the TEA team Wednesday May 10 at 5 p.m. This was open to the public, was in the Colorado City Record, parents were to be told by their child as well as being in the Monthly Loraine I.S.D. Bulletin. The time was 5 P.M. The saying "I Work", will not excuse parents that weren't there. You will find the time to go shopping, visiting and other functions, but to find time to come to school to try and help and get involved we were short on concerned parents. Until a person gets involved they shouldn't criticize until they have all the facts.

My husband has served on the school board for over 10 years. There are others who have served longer. They are to be commended, given a pat on the back, and told we are proud of your service to your school and community. I for one am proud and admire my husband and the complete school board and Administration for standing strong in their conviction concerning the last conflict.

Answer to last week's question: According to Hebrews 2:17 and 4:15, one who believes the doctrine of Original Sin or Inherited Depravity, to be intellectually honest, MUST believe that Jesus was tainted with Original Sin or Inherited Depravity.
QUESTION: Could any religion that is built on the doctrine of Original Sin or Inherited Depravity be any part of the religion of the perfect, sinless Christ?

"Super-Mom"

The expectations of modern society have pushed "moms" into "time management" that calls her to a schedule of "success consciousness" that involves the latest fashion trends, beauty aids, weight loss, and "how to get rich in Real Estate."

What ever happened to the old adage that says, "She who rocks the cradle rules the world.?"

Don't misunderstand. I actually believe woman is superior to man. That's why woman is best at raising children. However, with millions of abortions and millions of children unattended and running loose, the old adage may change to; "They who rock the cradle will rule the world." We may lose the privilege of raising our children!

Cancer Society slate of officers elected

A new slate of officers was elected at Thursday's meeting of the Mitchell County unit of the American Cancer Society.

Officers include Ray Mayo, president; Mark Waldrup, vice president; Mary Ann Williamson, secretary; and Anna Staats, treasurer. Their terms will begin in September.

This year's residential crusade chairman, Virginia Dearen, reported that $3,590.69 has been collected so far and that two-thirds of the packets have been returned. This year's overall goal for the local unit is $13,200.

Mrs. Staats, president, reported that May is Memorial Month as well as Skin Cancer Awareness Month. She reported that she and Mrs. Williamson attended an "I Can Cope" program meeting in Fort Worth recently. "I Can Cope" is a patient education program of the American Cancer Society about living with cancer.

She also reported on the Road to Recovery program in which volunteers are available to transport cancer patients to out-of-town doctor's appointments and treatments.

She also reported that the Mitchell County Hospital Auxiliary and the local unit of the American Cancer Society are co-sponsoring a project which will provide turbans for cancer patients who have lost their hair during treatment. The first turban will be a gift to the patient and others may be purchased at the auxiliary-operated gift shop at the hospital.

Michael Parrott, a member of American Cancer Society staff, reported on various programs offered by the society.

Others present were Georgia Lankford, Mary Lou Maines, Mildred Free, Connie Simpson, Ann Soliz, Mark Waldrup, Ray Mayo, Mary Ann Williamson, Edna Harbin and Marcelle Moody.

The next meeting will be Thursday, June 8, at noon at the Villa Restaurant.

My high school graduation was one of the most exciting times in my life. I was 18 years old, had a job for the summer and my college plans were made. No more curfews, no more lectures from my mother...I was free!

My graduation night was typical for 1966, I suppose. There was an all-night party and a lot of my classmates tried to see who could get the drunkest. That was before drugs were so prevalent and getting high on beer was the "in" thing to do. So, many who didn't normally drink got drunk anyway in order to be a part of the crowd.

Unfortunately, those were also the days before Project Celebration, the drug-free and alcohol-free graduation party that guarantees no drinking and no drugs - at least for one night of the year - the one night that never seems to fade from our memory.

Although most of us have good memories of graduation night, there are some whose memories are anything but happy.

For instance, on the highway between Crane and McCamey stands a bitter reminder of what graduation night shouldn't be.

Jan Lemons of Colorado City was returning to her hometown of Girvin recently to visit her mom and friends. "Girvin," says Jan with a grin, "is a large town, about the size of Buford, with a population of five!"

About halfway between Crane and McCamey, she noticed a cross beside the road which stirred some sad memories. As she turned around and went back to get a closer look, she said "memories were coming back to me of a tragic accident that happened several years back."

As she looked at the cross flanked by two smaller ones, "a few more memories returned," she said.

The crosses mark the spot where five teenagers were killed the night when Jan's sister, Arna, graduated from high school on May 17, 1969.

"When I got to Girvin, my sister Arna filled in all the details," said Jan.

There was no graduation party in McCamey or Imperial, so Crane invited the other schools over to join them. Five McCamey students, not all seniors, were going home between midnight and 1 p.m. when the car they were in was hit head-on by a drunk driver.

"Those kids were not at fault and were not drinking, but they got killed on the highway because of liquor," said Jan.

As is no surprise, Jan, whose children are now graduated from high school, is an avid supporter of Project Celebration.

"We can't change the world and we can't even make all the students come to the party, but we do want to offer them a fun-filled, safe, memory packed graduation," she said. "You may not know any of our seniors personally, but they are our seniors and we want them safe on their graduation night," says Jan. "My plea to each of you is to help us have another successful Project Celebration."

And in the process, perhaps we won't have to erect a cross by the side of a road in Mitchell County.

Pirates ambush Astros 17-5

The Major League Pirates benefitted from 14 walks issued by Astros pitchers in Thursday night's rain-delayed Little League baseball game. The Pirates won 17-5 to join the Yankees and Rangers as first-game winners.

Winning pitcher for the Pirates was Lewis Martinez who got relief from Michael Hoyle. Joey Mirales took the loss for the Astros before giving way to reliever Shane Kelly.

The Pirates used seven walks and two hits to score 7 runs in the bottom half of the first inning. Martinez, hitting in the clean-up position, batted in two runs with a double down the third base line. Martinez reached home on an error. Leftfielder Junior Molina batted in a run with a fielder's choice single and scored on Joseph Molina's sacrifice fly caught by Astros rightfielder Jerry Molina. Hoyle stole home for another Pirates run.

The Pirates added six runs in the second inning for 13-0 lead. Centerfielder Kyle Chambers and catcher Jesse Rivera hit two-run doubles in the inning. Hoyle, who also singled, and third baseman Jerrod Goff stole home for the other runs.

Martinez used four strikeouts to shutout the Astros in the first two innings. He was relieved by Hoyle in the third after giving up two walks and a single to Astros third baseman Cole Lindsey.

The Astros' Kelly singled on Hoyle for the first Astros first run. Hoyle walked in a run before the Pirates defense shut down the rally. Martinez made a diving catch at first for the first out. Catcher Rivera threw to Hoyle at the plate to get Astros shortstop Dwayne Riggs on a steal attempt. Hoyle then pitched his first strikeout for the third out.

Leading 13-2 the Pirates scored four more runs in the bottom of third for a 17-2 lead. Hoyle led off the inning with a double over the leftfield fence and was batted in on Ashton Weatherly's single. Chambers, Mando Garcia and J. Molina also drove in runs in the inning.

Riggs and catcher Zane Graham batted in runs in a three-run fourth inning for the Astros that made the count 17-5 for the Pirates as time expired.

Martinez, Hoyle and Chambers hit 2 for 3 for the Pirates and Lindsey and Kelly recorded the only Astros hits.

Earlier Thursday night the Minor League Colts defeated the Steers 6-2. In Tuesday's games the Mets beat the Blue Sox 11-9 in a Minor League game and the Dodgers, defending Major League champions, were beaten 17-16 by the Rangers.

Defensive driving course scheduled

A defensive driving course is scheduled for May 16 and 18 at the Wallace Center in Colorado City sponsored through Western Texas College in Snyder. The classroom sessions offer pointers in preventing accidents in spite of the incorrect actions of others and adverse driving conditions.

The course will have two sessions on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 6-10 p.m. Films and other visual aids will be used to demonstrate how to improve driving skills.

Persons completing this course will be eligible for a reduction in insurance premium rates, also for possible ticket removal. The fee for persons 60 and over is $20. Others pay a fee of $25.

You may register at the Wallace Center by May 16. For more information call 728-2392, Community Education office in Colorado City.

Cystic Fibrosis biking event set

Win exciting prizes while fighting the number one genetic killer of children and young adults in the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's Cycle America.

The event is set for May 21, 2:30-5 p.m. at Ruddick Park in Colorado City. All money raised will help the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation fund the research that is closing in on a cure for CF.

"People of all ages who want to ride bikes for health, fun and prizes can register," according to Sharon Myers, chairperson of the event. "Participants will collect pledges for each lap they ride on the bicycle route which covers a lap around the circle of Ruddick Park."

This is the club's 4th year to participate and they've brought in over $2,000 in donations in previous years. This year's crusade began with a spaghetti supper and film about "Alex" (a little girl with the disease) which was held May 5th at the C. C. Thompson Room.

Cystic fibrosis clogs the lungs and pancreas with a thick, sticky mucus, making it hard to breathe and digest food. But recent scientific advances offer new hope for a cure. Your participation in Cycle America could make the difference in the lives of the thirty thousand people who have CF in the United States.

For a sponsor form or more information on Cycle America, call Sharon Myers at 728-8492 or County Extension Office 728-3111.
