unty Judge Explains General Election

nty judge J. K. Holmes has following explanation on lations and the plan for votes for the General E- ember 2.

As most voters probably already know, a voter can vote for all of the candidates of a particular party, that is, vote a "straight ticket," by checking the square which appears at the head of that party's ticket on the ballot, without the necessity of voting for the individual candidates on the party's ticket.

If the voter chooses to vote a split ticket, that is, vote for some candidates on one ticket, and for other candidates on another or other tickets, the voter must vote for each individual candidate by checking the square opposite the candidate's name.

The old method of marking ballots, by marking out the names of all candidates excepting the names of those for whom the voter wishes to vote, is still legal; as applied to voting a "straight ticket," such method requires the voter to strike or mark out all tickets except the ticket for which he wishes to vote.

Voters have the privilege, as always, of writing in the name of any candidate they choose for any office on the ballot, by writing in the name of the candidate opposite the title of the office in the "Write-In" column which appears on the ballot; however, if you elect to write in the name of a candidate, you cannot mark your ballot as a "straight ticket," but will have to vote for the individual candidates for all other offices for whom you wish to vote on whichever ticket such candidates may appear.

For the information of election judges, the tally lists include in the election supplies contain a page for tallying "straight ticket" ballots, and it has been suggested that counting of ballots would be simplified and expedited if the counters, when starting to count a batch of ballots, would first sort out and tally all "straight ticket" ballots, to be added to each candidate's total, before tallying ballots marked for individual candidates.

A sample ballot will appear in the newspaper's Sunday edition.

Standard Time returns Oct. 31

Central Standard Time will be returning to Texas next Sunday morning at 2 a.m., when Daylight Saving Time makes its exit.

So, turn your clocks back an hour before you retire Saturday night, so you won't be disturbed by the alarm too early.

inds Gonna Ride Abernathy Antelopes

y Wendell Tooley

ydada Whirlwinds will be o Abernathy Friday night of riding the Antelopes out dium and continuing their ning ways. The Whirlwinds are 2-0 in district play, the Antelopes 0-1.

Last week the Whirlwinds overcame the strong Tulia Hornets 13-7, while Abernathy lost a close 13-12 game to Idalou.

The Abernathy-Idalou game was scoreless until the third quarter. The Antelopes got on the scoreboard when Roddy Shipman and David Hunt connected on an 8 yard touchdown pass. A bad snap from center killed the extra point. In the final quarter Shipman scored on a five yard run to cap a scoring drive, but the extra point was no good.

6'2" 180 pound quarterback Shipman is a strong runner, as well as average passer. Two-way All District selection Ken Davenport is also a running threat....a six foot, 180 pound threat.

Davenport gained 2002 yards the last two seasons.

Another player who brings a smile to Antelope coach Larry Aldridge's face is guard-linebacker Todd Thompson, who had over 100 tackles in 1975 and will start both ways.

Add to Abernathy's proven backfield talent transfer Roy Sansom (150), who started last season for Lubbock Roosevelt. Up front, Kirk Snodgrass (195) returns at center and Mike Hill (200) is back at tackle.

Defensive regulars back include corners Dennis Rapstine (175) and Armando Ruiz (145), tackle Mark Pope (180), linebackers Thompson and Greg Gist (165) and ends Shannon Smith (165) and Odom.

The Whirlwinds are in good physical condition, with the exception of Jack Carthel who underwent a knee operataion last week.

For comparison Floydada lost to Littlefield 20-19, while the Antelopes beat Littlefield 54-43. Olton beat Abernathy 20-8, while the Whirlwinds defeated Olton 41-0.

Coach L. G. Wilson says, "Abernathy had some early injuries, but looking stronger all the time...they are definitely a threat, I feel they have the best overall backfield in the district."

ERE'S HOW you make the Halloween pumpkin".....Duncan Elementary teacher Diana Gross shows how to carve the face on the pumpkin with Halloween this week.

MARCH OF DIMES National Poster Child Robbie Zastavny of Moorestown, N.J., greets volunteers at regional meeting held in Dallas, September 26-28. Mrs. Betty Edwards and Mrs. Carla Schneider of Floydada are helping the organization achieve its goal of prevention of birth defects and any life-threatening condition in the newborn. The March of Dimes supports a nationwide program of medical service grants to provide improved care for mothers and infants.

Breezers District Champs!

The Eighth Grade Breezers nosed out Idalou 6-0 here Tuesday night and wound up district play with a perfect 4-0 record and the district championship.

The lone score came when Hector Mercado ran for some 65 yards for paydirt. Coach Mark Vinson praised Michael Self, who quarterbacked due to the ankle injury last week of Moody Younger. He also mentioned Jimmy Martinez who intercepted an Idalou pass.

Although the Breezers started out slowly....losing their first three games, they won the last five, three by shutouts.

Coach Vinson praised the good team effort of his players and expressed appreciation to everyone who helped make the championship possible.

Jeff Rainey and Michael also intercepted passes and Hector recovered one fumble.

AS INTERESTING FOR ME to e similarity of discussions com- within a week's time in two meetings about the inability school graduates...and college being unable to spell, write English grammar.

As a member of the advisory board of the School of Communications at Texas Tech, a member of the journalism faculty told us professionals last week that he hardly had time to teach journalism because most students couldn't write good English, and he had to take time to teach them sentence structure...and even conduct spelling classes. This of course not only reflects on the high schools from which these students graduate, but also Texas Tech English department.

The same topic of discussion comes up Saturday night at the annual meeting of the Farm Bureau. A gentleman stands up during the passing of resolutions and suggests that the school system should be urged to do a better job of teaching students to write, speak, and spell the English language.

I HAVE ALWAYS considered Floydada schools strong in English instruction...have heard occasional reports through the years of our graduates having problems in math when they hit college. Wish I had some facts or statistics on this.

I TOLD YOU ALL back before the May Primary not to vote for Don Yarbrough for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court. But Floyd county voters still voted 787-663 for Yarbrough. (I forgot to get the word to the Lockney people, and most of the Yarbrough vote came from up there).

Now as Yarbrough is under disbarment proceedings, I suggest you mark out his name on the Tuesday ballot, and way over on the right side under "write-In" please write the name of "Sam Houston."

Judge Houston is a good man and should be elected to this very important state office.

THE HARRIS FOOTBALL rating system picks Tulia over Lockney Friday night by four points. It ranks Tulia 51, Lockney 74, Floydada 39, Abernathy 87 and Idalou 80 in state.

Only area AA school now rated in the top ten for the state is Childress.

NO SCHOOL FRIDAY

Floydada school teachers will be in Lubbock Friday for an all day meeting.. so, no school Friday...plenty of time to get to Abernathy for the football game....and possibly a long weekend for many families that include school children.

4-H Halloween Carnival

The second annual Floyd 4-H Carnival will begin at the fairgrounds in Lockney at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. The teen dance begins at 9 p.m.

There will be around 18 booths, plenty to eat, fun for everyone. Anyone desiring a booth at the carnival should call 983-2806 in Floydada or 652-2652 in Lockney not later than tonight.

Admission is adults 50 cents and children 25 cents.

At press time the following organizations had signed up for booth space: Floydada Band Boosters, Alpha Mu Delta of Floydada, South Plains Radio Club cake walk, Lockney Lions, Lockney B & P W, Lockney Il Penserosa, Lockney FHS Little Sisters, Lockney Athena, Floyd County 4-H Council, Lockney Odd Fellows, Lockney Rotary and Lockney Band Boosters.

Senator Farabee Here Today About Railroad Hearing

State Senator Ray Farabee will be in Floydada at 4 p.m. today to visit with everyone interested in keeping the QA&P rail service into Floydada.

The meeting will be at Lighthouse Electric community room.

Chamber of Commerce manager Doug Frazior asks all persons and businesses interested in keeping the QA&P railroad service to attend the meeting.

Senator Farabee will be representing the towns and communities affected if the rail service were discontinued.

The hearing is scheduled in room AB 109 in the Paducah courthouse November 8, 1976.

Cheerleaders' "Beat Abernathy" Message!

The Varsity Cheerleaders, coaches, and football players appreciate all the support the townspeople have shown at all the past pep rallys and games. We encourage everyone to keep that Whirlwind spirit, and show the 'Winds we believe in them.

As you may know there will be no school Friday, so the pep rally will be downtown at the Court House Square at 3:30 if the weather permits, if not the pep rally will be in the high school gym at the same time.

Kick off time will be at 7:30 at the Abernathy Stadium. So everyone pack the Court House Square at 3:30 and the stadium at 7:30. Go Green! Beat Abernathy!!

Cold Front Halts Cotton Harvest

An unseasonably cold, cold front moved through Floyd county late Tuesday evening, setting off slight moisture and some fog.

Many Floyd farmers had just begun cotton harvest when the cold damp weather shut down cotton stripping operations.

The Floydada Co-op gins have ginned 420 bales....215 of these came in Tuesday. Gin manager Ray Gene Ferguson reports quality is pretty good and the staple a little short. He said some of the better cotton sold for a little over 70 cents a pound....cotton seed is selling for $95 a ton.

The grain harvest is 95% complete according to grain elevator operators.

Many farmers already have cut the stalks, plowed and fertilized grain land, giving it a six month rest before next season.

Wheat prices remain at a low $2.40 per bushel and grain sorghum around $3.65 per hundred.

Quarter Horse Show Saturday In Lockney

The Floyd and Surrounding Counties Fair Quarter Horse Show will be held Saturday (October 30) at the fairgrounds rodeo arena in Lockney. The quarter horse show, until this year was held in conjunction with the fair in September, starts at 9 a.m. Saturday.

This year all classes will be jackpotted, according to show manager Buster Terrell. The show will include 54 classes.

Entry requirements and regulations governing the conduct of the show will be in accordance with the latest official AQHA handbook.

Show judge will be Larry B. Sullivant.

"THE WHITE HOUSE" PLAYS SATURDAY NIGHT

"The White House" by A. E. Hotchner will be presented by the FHS Speech and Drama Club and the International Thespian Society on October 30 and November 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Geneva Stofel Wins Football Contest

Geneva Stofel, Rt. 1 outguessed the men contestants and wins the $7.50 first place prize in last week's Hesperian football contest.

Also missing seven games and guessing 17 points on the tie breaker was Dwayne Wilson, 221 North First. He will receive the $5.00 second place prize.

Third place prize of $2.50 goes to Carrie Davis, Star Route, who also missed seven contests and guessed the tie breaker by 28 points.

Steve Moore of San Angelo also missed only seven games, but picked the tie breaker score at 39 points.

Honorable mention goes to the following contestants who missed only eight games: Lucio Vasquez, Mrs. Sammy Hale, Joy Allen, Randy Hale, and Lorene Newberry.

Only a couple more contests this season....so get those entries in.

Trying to explain this, a leading pollster, one who's been right in previous elections, said "Something is happening among the voters. They tell you one thing today and something else tomorrow."

That's it! The people have turned the tables on the politicians and for a change are not telling them the truth. It may have taken them over 2000 years to catch on, but it was bound to happen sooner or later.

You can see what this is going to do to the candidates. Say the polls, with the poll-ees answering tongue-in-cheek, show Carter is leading in Omaha and trailing in Little Rock. Floydada Federated Clubs Hosts Salad Supper For Caprock District President, Club Members

The four Floydada Federated Study Club hosted their annual salad supper Tuesday night in the First United Methodist Church. Mrs. Jack Akin of Denver City, president of the Caprock District of TFWC, was honored guest, and gave the program.

Club members and guests were received by Mrs. Edell Moore, Inter-Club Council Coordinator; Mrs. Akin, and Floydada Club presidents, Mrs. Doris McLain, 1950; Mrs. Kyle Glover, 1934; Mrs. Gordon Hambright, 1956; and Mrs. Ian Moore, 1929.

Club presidents, Mrs. Edell Moore and Mrs. Akin were joined at the head table by Mrs. Allen Bingham, Caprock District Conservation chairman and a past Caprock District Officer. Two other District board members were also recognized, Mrs. Jerry Neeley, junior board chairman of American Heritage, and Mrs. James McNeill, chairman of the Federation Day program, who was unable to attend.

An array of delicious vegetable and fruit salads, cake, coffee and tea were served. Tables in Fellowship Hall were decorated in an autumn theme in orange, gold and green. The head table featured a dried arrangement flanked by candles.

The invocation was brought by Mrs. Ian Moore.

Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Hollis Payne of the 1950 Study Club and her daughter, Tammy. In singing a duet, Mrs. Payne and Tammy were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Adrain Helms also of the 1950 Club.

Mrs. Edell Moore welcomed the guest speaker and club members, then presented Mrs. Allen Bingham, who introduced Mrs. Akin.

Giving a program on the history of Federation, Mrs. Akin used sketches to show the group what women's club members had achieved in the past, and hope to achieve in the future. She gave the course of study, "Polishing the Gems, by Remembering, Dreaming and Acting."

Her theme as Caprock District president is "Volunteer with Vision, Action with Goals." She also gave the TFWC theme, "Out of Our Dreams We Join Hands in Action," and the GFWC theme, "Arise! Activate Dreams.

Mrs. Akin, who was 1975 woman of the year at Denver City, brought greetings from the TFWB, Mrs. Robert Tipps of Denver City, then continued her program by stressing to club members to be a volunteer, and to keep their clubs active. She said their main purpose is education in all fields and stated four-fifths of county libraries were started by club women. She mentioned conservations, safety, justice juveniles, and politics among education progrms and said their main education fund for Caprock District, was the Girls Town Education Fund, Inc.

Mrs. Akin explained the goals of the General Federation president, giving her four topics chosen from 12. She also said there was a 10 percent gain in clubs.

One goal on the local level given by Mrs. Akin was to not let the Study Club drift into poor condition. Launch new efforts for quality meetings that will meet the need of members. She suggested to the Floydada members to erect a sign, "General Federation Club" near the city leading into town. "Let people know you have working study clubs in this city, Mrs. Aiken said.

She closed the program by stressing, "the list of beneffits will mount with efforts of you club members."

Mrs. Akin distributed a resolution on Texas 3 by 80 Traffic Safety Program whereby the Texas Federataion of Women's Clubs pledges its wholehearted support to the program and urges each of its members to become personally involved in the vitally needed effort to reduce the tragic cost of highway accidents.

3 by 80 will combine legislation action to support urgently needed new laws effecting traffic; administrative action to promote more effective use of existing tools and resources for promoting highway safety; and community action to involve concerned citizens in vigorous attacks on local traffic problems and enlist their support for the overall campaign.

Mrs. Akin was accompanied to the salad supper by Mrs. Jean Kilpatrick, a member of the Tejas Study Club at Denver City.

Club members attending included Mmes. Allen Bingham, Floyd Bradley, R. G. Dunlap, Leon Ferguson, Garland Foster, Kyle Glover, J. S. Hale Jr., J. P. Moss, John Reue, George Springer, Fred Stewart, W. A RIGHT TO CHOOSE

You know, as we live our life we often hear on the news, or read somewhere, how people's rights are infringed upon, or how some individual or group is being treated unjustly and unfairly, and I suppose most of these things we hear about could be true. But as I think about God and his offer of salvation through Jesus, I realize that God is the one person who is completely just to everyone alike. You see, he offers his salvation to every man, woman, and child, no matter what color or race they are, it doesn't matter what kind of person they have been, it doesn't matter how good or how bad morally they have been, it doesn't matter if their vocation has been a teacher, doctor, gambler, murderer, barhop, dope pusher, prostitute, business man, farmer, ditch digger, cowboy, secretary, sack boy, or barber, it doesn't matter how good or how mean we have been, God loves us all alike, and he offers us all his salvation, if we will only believe in Jesus and confess our sins, ask for our forgiveness for sin, and accept Jesus by faith, and the live by the word of truth from the Bible.

God loves all and he wants us to become his children, and put our trust in him to help us through our troubles and hard times. And if we will become a Christian and ask God for his help, he will give us anything we need, if we ask believing he will help us.

God offers everyone the same word of truth, he offers everyone of us the same love, the same Holy Spirit, to abide inside us. Yes, I guess God is really the only thing that is truly just of everything that exists. He even gives everyone the right to choose between him or the devil. "I thank you Lord for being perfectly just."

Amen.

ILENE MILLER, Texas A&M University, family life education specialist, tells us why children misbehave. She says adults sometimes forget that children misbehave just because they are children. Young children are immature and lack the experiences, which adults have had. Without thinking about the consequences, a child may act impulsively, such as chasing a ball into the street or pulling a hot pan of water off the kitchen range. Children are also curious, and it is their curiosity which often gets them into trouble. They are so intent on learning why or how something works that they forget the rules and touch or taste things which are "off limits.' Boredom and desire for attention are other reasons children often misbehave, Mrs. Miller says. Mothers and fathers can guide their little ones into more acceptable activities is the children become bored or seek attention.

The typical two year old goes through a 'no' stage to demonstrate his independence Older children may exert their independence by insisting on doing things themselves. If parents understand this is a normal process of growth, it is easier to maintain a sense of humor and patience even if the children's actions are exasperating.

Learning to act appropriately in different situations, understanding and respecting the child's feelings help create a good climate in which acceptable behavior can be leaned more successfully, Mrs. Miller said.

GLORY BE...after all these years of marriage I've just learned some tips on how husbands can keep their wives happy, healthy, and not so worn out after a days work. Wives are told to keep a marriage brimming with love in the loving cup, whenever you're wrong, admit it, whenever you're right, shut up! Well, I'm pretty hard to shut-up. I've always spoke 130 words per minute with gusts up to 165! I've got to clip these tips out and send it to my husband tho, anonomous of course.

O.K. guys, here goes. Lets see if you can handle this: Don't expect your wife to be a business hostess unless she really enjoys it; Find out what your wife enjoys for relaxation and share these activities with her; Never apologize to anyone for the way the house looks, if you don't like it clean it up yourself; Help arrange things so the household can run without your wife if necessary, she may decide to go home to mother you know; Take responsibility for a fair share of the daily chores and do them when they need doing, don't tell us; If you ever have a daughter-in-law, she will bless you if you teach your sons now to clean up their own messes, so we won't have to do it; When your wife has a cold and the 'blas,' make sure she gets bed rest, and wait on her hand and foot, put the TV at the foot of the bed, and bring us candy and flowers, we love the attention. Lift us out of our depression, applaud our victories, share our worries, give us support and we will return the favor! Thats pretty good isn't it? I'll try to think up one for us wives to do before long.

INFLATION has some rewards. My husband and I have discovered we're now living in a very expensive neighborhood-and we didn't even have to move.

SINCE Halloween is just around the corner, I thought a story written by 5th grader Sam Crabtree, would be very fitting. He has entitled his writings, "The Evil Old House" and is as follows:

One night as I was walking home, I thought I heard a wearwolf moan! I was so frightened that I started to run, when I suddenly heard the shot of a gun!

The moon was as white as bones, I approached a hatefull old house which had once been a home. Suddenly I heard the scream of a banshee and something pushed me in the door, and I fe... helplessly to the floor. Whe... I had regained true thoug... and piece of mind, I poin... my potentials to getting ...t of this wind. I dashed to the ...ircase with my feet feeling leaded, there was a witch to greet me saying she wanted me beheaded. I was clinging to any fait I had, I just couldn't die, I was only a young lad!

So I ran from the house to a smoking pile, where I began to believe it was the end of my trial! But I jumped over and ran out of sight, and while I was running I heard strange things in the night. But I returned to home safely all out of breath. This was a narrow escape from what could have been death. I will proceed to say this with an obvious grin, but I'll never return to those presences again! Sure Halloween's fun to wishing under a star, but dont you think this is carring it a bit to far?

He closes the story with a very shaky

Water for Texas First Priority, Governor Says

AUSTIN—The development of the state's water resources is one of the most important undertakings for the future of Texas, but it is neither possible nor feasible to draw up in advance specific plans for the next 40 or 50 years, Gov. Dolph Briscoe told news media representatives at a recent capitol press conference.

His statement was in response to a reporter's question of why the people of Texas have not been told exactly how a proposed increase of $400 million in the Texas Water Development Fund is to be spent. The additional $400 million in bonds would be authorized if Constitutional Amendment No. 1 is passed by the voters in the Nov. 2 general election. Governor Briscoe, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, House Speaker Bill Clayton and other state and local political and business leaders are backing it strongly.

"There has been no commitment yet by the Texas Water Development Board as to any specific project," the Governor told the newsmen. "The objective of the entire program is to develop the use and conservation of our water resources, and this is one of the most important things for the future of Texas. To describe in detail at this time how this money is to be spent 40 to 50 years from now is just not possible, nor is it feasible."

Governor Briscoe pointed out that Texas voters in the past have authorized the issuance of the first $400 million in bonds by the Water Development Board under the same conditions, and relied on the judgment and discretion of the board to administer the fund to the best advantage of the people of the state. As a result, 88 loans for water development, improvement and conservation projects have been made to Texas cities, towns, water district, river authorities and other public utilities.

While some of these projects are not yet financially self-sufficient, Governor Briscoe said he was confident they would become so, and the revolving fund for loans would be self-sustaining.

The governor has appointed a statewide committee of approximately 50 Texans from all areas of the state, headed by Paul G. Veale, former mayor of McAllen and longtime business and civic leader of that city, to work for passage of Amendment No. 1.

"We need to look to the future, to plan our financing ahead," Governor Briscoe said. "Every Texan, regardless of where he lives, is entitled to adequate water of good quality for use in his home, and to provide jobs, food, fiber and energy for the well-being of his family.

"The Water Development Board and its Fund have benefited more than a third of our population. They have been instrumental in helping meet the water requirements in many parts of Texas.

"Without an adequate and dependable water supply the quality of life we now enjoy will be denied our children, and their children. I do not want this to be their legacy."

Senator Farabee Endorses Water Bond Proposal

State Senator Ray Farabee, speaking at a public forum in Wichita Falls sponsored by the Texas Water Development Board, endorsed a proposal to allow an increase in funds available for water development and water quality improvement.

This proposal will be presented to Texas voters on the November 2 ballot in the form of Constitutional Amendments No. 1 and No. 2.

Senator Farabee stated, "The additional funding permitted under these amendments is needed by our smaller cities and communities to build and improve sewage treatment plants, collection lines and other facilities. Sewage treatment plants even for a small town can cost as much as $2 million, and these communities simply can not raise that kind of money on their own."

Since 1957, when the Water Development Fund was created, over one-third of Texas' population has been helped by such loans. Between 1970 and 1972 installment proceeds of a $3,800,000 loan commitment were used to construct the Mackenzie Dam and reservoir and treatment plant to provide treated water for the water systems of the Cities of Tulia, Lockney, Floydada, and Silverton.

Senator Farabee concluded, "Texas is a growing state with growing needs for water. Also, inadequate and outdated sewage treatment facilities are the major cause of damage to our rivers and streams. We must plan for our future water needs now, and not wait until we have a crisis situation.

Although there seems to be little, if any, opposition to amendment number two, Senator Farabee expressed concern that both amendments might fail because of some confusion about the effects of amendment number one or voter apathy.

Final Campaign Begins With Carter Holding Slight Lead

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer

With fresh polls showing Jimmy Carter holding the edge and endorsements of both candidates flooding in from newspapers across the country, President Ford and his Democratic opponent headed Sunday into the last full week of their campaign for the White House.

Interviewed separately on a national television show, a top campaign strategist for each of the two candidates claimed — predictably — that his man has the momentum now and will win.

Democratic national chairman Robert Strauss said Carter would collect between 335 and 345 electoral votes, comfortably more than the 270 needed for victory. Ford's campaign manager, James A. Baker III, said he thought the President would win. "It'll be close," Baker said, but would not estimate how many electoral votes Ford would take.

Ford's windup barnstorming tour of the country put him in California — one of a handful of populous states which campaign strategists on both sides have pegged as perhaps pivotal in the Nov. 2 election.

Ford Visits Mission

Ford attended church at the San Gabriel mission near Pasadena, met with a group of campaign workers and was to ride by motorcade to a rally in Fountain Valley, where actor John Wayne was to introduce him. Ford also was to spend part of the day making a television campaign ad.

Undertreatment Of Depression Noted

"Depression probably causes more human suffering than any other condition,' said Carroll B. Bryant, President of the Texas Association for Mental Health, "and the suffering it causes is almost totally unnecessary."

Bryant explained that current methods of treatment have been successful in relieving depression and its consequences, but that most people who have the condition remain untreated.

"What we face," he said, "is primarily a problem of attitude. People who would seek treatment for any other serious illness feel that depression is something they should bear, like a punishment, without complaint."

Depression, according to Bryant, is common in all segments of society--young and old, rich and poor, male and female, educated and uneducated. It is thought by some experts to stem from a chemical imbalance in the brain. This imbalance makes the person susceptible to the condition, which can erupt at any time and is particularly likely to strike during periods of stress.

Common symptoms of depression include headache, sleep disturbances, fatigue, loss of appetite, anxiety, inability to concentrate, loss of interest in people and activities, feelings of guilt, helplessness, remorse, fear, exaggeration of minor obstacles, and other feelings that diminish self-esteem and make even routine activity

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

With Halloween coming this weekend, some Halloween rules I learned as a child should be passed on, as they were to my generation.

The most important rule we used, was to go only to a house with a porch light ON. Houses with gas light or light from windows do not count.

Besides wearing light clothes, young children should make their rounds before sunset for their own safety and warmth.

From personal experience, the biggest violation this town does is where they go on Halloween night.

I was taught to travel my own block or to friend's homes.

Since most of my neighbors are in the grandparent generation for four blocks radius, I feel like I'm being ripped-off when 95% of the Halloweeners coming to my door don't live anywhere near me nor do I know them.

I love Halloween but I can no longer consider these non-neighborhood cars packed full with children who are stopping at my non-porch light house well after 10 o'clock, as joyous Halloweeners.

They have become after the almighty "get it for nothing" idea.

What has happened to the Halloween spirit of friendship and clean fun? Are we teaching our children to put this holiday with the other "give me, give me" holidays??

Please watch out for little jaywalkers Halloween night.

First Baptist Church Library/Media Center

Thirty-three participants attended the "How to Climb a Tree and Holler" workshop conducted by Beth Pratt at First Baptist Church in Canyon, Thursday morning, October 21. Also present at the regular meeting of the Associational Church Media Center Organization of the Amarillo Baptist Association were guests from Methodist and Christian churches in Amarillo. After a wonderful salad luncheon those who were interested were given an opportunity to visit the cheerful remodeled library of First Baptist, Canyon. The Amarillo Association is doing a tremendous job of presenting training opportunities for Church Library/Media Center personnel and encouraging development of new Media Centers in the area churches.

It was a cold Sunday morning in January 1912 when Christy Huddleston boarded the train that would take her from her family and home to her new job as a teacher to the mountain people of Appalachia. Only nineteen and the sheltered daughter of a successful businessman, Christy had no idea of the poverty that was a way of life for the people of the Smoky Mountains. But she was to grow to love these wild mountain people with their terrible poverty, their superstitions, and their fierce pride. CHRISTY was written by Catherine Marshall and is not only a beautiful love story but a true one, based on the life of Catherine's mother. If you have missed this favorite the first time around, now would be a good time to read it.

We continue to add cassette tape recordings to our collection. One of the latest is by Dr. Jack McGorman and is a Bible study of the book of Romans. It is a companion tape to the book for January Bible Study EVERYMANS GOSPEL by Dr. McGorman. Cassette tape players are also available for check out by adults. Sunday services are taped and available for check out also. These services with a few exceptions are eventually erased and the tapes reused. However, if for some special reason you should desire to purchase a particular taping of a service, arrangements can be made with the library staff.

Nov. 15 Deadline Set On Beef Arguments

WASHINGTON (AP) - A deadline of Nov. 15 has been set for written arguments on the proposed charter for the national Beef Board, a research and information-promotion body for America's most popular meat.

Agriculture Department Administrative Law Judge Victor W. Palmer said briefs must be limited to arguments on material presented at the six hearings around the country on the industry-proposed charter of procedures and producer-assessments that the department published this fall.

Congress passed the legislation for the all-producer board this year after almost a year's work by industry groups and farmbelt members of the House and Senate.

Randy Davis Wins Boot Hill Contest

Randy Davis of Lockney won this week's Boot Hill football contest missing only three games out of 20. Randy missed the Missouri game (they were upset by Iowa State). He also missed the Cincinnati-Pittsburg game and the Houston Oiler-San Diego games, but he successfully picked the Kentucky win over LSU to move ahead of eight players who missed four games. All those contestants picked Dallas to win the tie-breaker, but closest to the actual score was Darryl Dennis of Lockney, who missed by only seven points and won second place.

Four players split third place. They were W. L. Carthel, Anne Lee, Lucio Vasquez and Phil Green of Lockney. Also missing only four games were Carl Lee, Jr., Carol Bramlet and Kelvin Cummings. Betty Stephens of Silverton missed only five games and guessed the St. Louis-Dallas game exactly right.

Have you tuned in to the new corn planting program?

STAGGERED MATURITY MAKES SENSE

The agronomists at Pioneer Hi-Bred have developed a corn planting program that offers some significant benefits to farmers in this area. They recommend planting three hybrids with different maturities, a short season, a medium maturity and a later maturity. This staggered maturity technique provides four big benefits:

1. Provides insurance against weather and disease.
2. Spreads critical irrigation times.
3. Allows you to harvest each at optimum times.
4. Uses equipment and labor more efficiently.

On the basis of hybrid performance data gathered over several years, our agronomists have selected three hybrids for each area. The selection takes into account soil types, weather patterns, the prevalent cultural practices, water availability and disease and insect problems by area. Here are their recommendations for this area:

PIONEER® BRAND 3780®

A SHORT-SEASON PROFIT PRODUCER

3780 is a short-season variety that really proved itself in 1976. It is approximately 14 days earlier than 3369A but doesn't concede profit for its earliness. It may yield a little less than the later hybrids, but costs less to grow.

PIONEER® BRAND 3369A®

THE MOST FAMOUS MEDIUM MATURITY

3369A is a medium-maturity corn that has been setting yield records around the Southwest for a number of years. It is planted on more acres than any other hybrid and with good reason... profits in good years and bad.

PIONEER® BRAND 3305®

LATER MATURITY FOR RECORD YIELDS

3305 makes use of our long growing season to produce more corn. It will normally harvest five days later than 3369A. It is a tall hybrid with the ability to stand well. Its upright leaves make for easy combining.

Your Pioneer seed dealer is taking orders for these hybrids now and will soon have a booklet describing recommended planting times, probable silking, maturity and harvesting dates. The staggered maturity corn growing program is aimed at giving you the most profit possible from your land in 1977 whether it turns out to be a good year or bad.

Well Acreage Due St

Directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 will discuss minimum acreage requirements for large-capacity wells today.

Although no action on the proposed rules is expected, directors at their 10 a.m. meeting in district offices will review the recommendation by district manager Frank Rayner.

Under the proposal, the size of the well and the minimum acreage would be: four-inch well, 20 acres; five-inch well, 30 acres; six-inch well, 50 acres; eight-inch well, 80 acres; 10-inch well, 100 acres. Current well-spacing rules would not be affected.

There is a critical decision to be made on November 2nd. It goes far beyond the question of which Presidential candidate can govern with integrity and honesty. We must determine which candidate has the ability and strength to lead our country out of economic chaos, and the vision to see that all Americans—not just the powerful and influential—have a better future.

During the past two years, the middle class has paid far too dear a price for a President lacking that ability.

Since Gerald Ford took office, the unemployment rate has risen 50%, from 5.5% or 5 million people, to 7.9% or 7-1/2 million jobless Americans.

Today's inflation rate of 6% is higher than it was at any time between the Korean War and the inaugura Richard Nixon.

The 1968 food dollar is now 57¢.

Tax Reform: "The average family in this country actually pays a higher proportion of their income in taxes than the average family that makes more than a million dollars a year. That's disgraceful. We need to move toward a truly progressive and simplified tax system, with reduced tax rates for the average American."

Economy: "We'll never have a balanced budget nor an end to the inflationary problems as long as we have 7-1/2 million people out of work. Employment needs to be the major thrust of the whole domestic policy of our government."

Efficiency in Government: "We now have in the federal government the most bloated, confused, wasteful bureaucracy ever created. There's no way to get an answer out of Washington and no way to understand what's going on there. We need to reorganize completely the executive branch of government, making it fair, efficient, effective, and responsive to our people's needs."

Housing: "No government that cared about our neighborhoods would stack the tax deck against them. A landlord can let a building run down and make a good living on tax breaks. Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian visited in Lubbock with their niece, Mrs. Frank Jackson, and with Murray's sister, Mrs. B. F. Harper of McAllen, who was visiting there. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson were in Lockney for their football game and the Homecoming over the past weekend.

Those from this area who were in the Hymn Playing contest at the First Baptist Church in Plainview last Monday were Cindy Mulder, and Kristi and Mitzi Julian.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Julian left last Thursday after lunch for Roscoe, where they stayed until Saturday night with their oldest son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Julian and Dickie. Dee, who is a freshman in Baylor at Waco, came home for the weekend Friday night and they met her in Abilene. The weather was cloudy and cold, but only a little mist Saturday morning. Much of the maize has been cut there, and Terry is through with theirs. They have started their cotton stripping. They have not had a killing frost there as yet, and trees are still green. Their cotton had to be defoliated.

Mrs. Odell (Rita) Hamilton was hostess at a Tupperware Party at her home in South Plains October 20th. Mrs. Rhonda Cosby from Floydada was the Tupperware leader and games were enjoyed. Refreshments of coffee, cookies, and fruit drinks were served. Those present were Mmes. Don Marble, Howard Patton, Fred Marble, Ray Jackson, Bennet Massey, Ira Henderson, Keith Marble, Nathan Mulder, Jean Ehinehardt, Dean Stewart, Rhonda Cosby, and the hostess, Mrs. Hamilton.

There will be a Halloween Party at the home of Mrs. Mamie Wood Saturday evening, October 30, at 7 p.m. for the South Plains Hobby Club. Each member of the Hobby Club is to bring a salad for the refreshment, and come dressed in a costume.

Terrell And Moore To Head Carter Ag Effort

The state Texans in Agriculture for Carter Committee has announced that Buster Terrell of Lockney and Vernie Moore of Floydada will head a special Floyd County organization to demonstrate strong agricultural and agribusiness support for Jimmy Carter's Presidential campaign.

Walter Richter of Austin, co-chairman of the Carter agricultural group, said "We are pleased to have Terrell and Moore to join our Governor and other top state officials who have come out strongly for the Carter ticket which offers real hope for a change for our farmers and rural Texans."

Declaring that Carter is the first genuine farmer to run for President since Thomas Jefferson, Richter said "Jimmy Carter knows what it's like to make a living in the country. He will do what is right to keep our agriculture and our rural communities strong."

He said Governor Dolph Briscoe, Lt. Governor Bill Hobby, House Speaker Bill Clayton, Agriculture Commissioner John White, Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong and Attorney General John Hill are all rural land owners who recognize the knowledge and new leadership Jimmy Carter will offer to agriculture and the farmers and ranchers of the state and nation.

Richter said "These two men are a proud addition to our Texans in Agriculture organization."

Tennis Club Play Night

Twenty-one adults attended the Floydada Tennis Club play night and picnic Tuesday night. The inclement weather moved the picnic to Lighthouse Electric community room.

Outgoing president Frank Barrow received a plaque of appreciation from the club and presented to Frank by new president Turner Hunter.

The club voted to cancel monthly meetings for the winter, unless the president calls a special meeting. It was also the feeling of the club to contine to offer the school board $5,000 on two new tennis courts until after the school board makes a decision in its November meeting.

Eleanor Hendrix was appointed club reporter, Rev. Jim Smith was admitted as a new member to the club, and tennis coach Gary Steves reported his Junior High and Freshmen players came out winners in the Lubbock tournament.

Coach Steves said he would have some high school boys playing in the big Lubbock tournament Friday and Saturday.

Lee, Cannon, Bruder Win Boot Hill Contest

Three players missed only three games in this week's Boot Hill football contest. Carl D. Lee, Sr. of Lockney walked away with the $25 first prize, as he guessed closer to the tie-breaker. Jerry Cannon of Lockney won the $10 second prize, and Bill Bruder of Plainview received $5 for third place.

All three players missed the Oklahoma State upset of Oklahoma, the Missouri upset of Nebraska, and the Cleveland win over San Diego.

Nine players deserve honorable mention for missing only four games. They include Harold Brock, Randy Davis, Gilbert Reyna, Don Sutterfield, Kelvin Cummings, Jeffrey McCormick, Boyd Lee, Darryl Dennis and Lynda Wilson, all of Lockney.

Look for this week's Boot Hill contest in last Sunday's paper. Entries must be in the Boot Hill Western Store in Lockney by noon on Saturdays. Prizes are given every week.

Caprock Chat

by Wendell Tooley

TWO OUTSTANDING progrms last week at Lions and Rotary Clubs. Vernon Parker showed slides of his recent trip to England and the exciting Concorde at the Lions Club and an FHS graduate who now lives in Lubbock, David Bullock, presented a most interesting program at Rotary on Remote Sensing.

What is Remote Sensing?

Remote Sensing is a most amazing help for the farmer. Through photography a plane can fly over a field and determine where the need is for more fertilizer, or any kind of insect infestation...simply by the shade of color in the growing crop.

When midge hits a farmer's grain sorghum, they may have already damaged his crop considerably before he knows they are there. Remote Sensing would spot them ahead of time for the farmer.

Thanks..... from the Lions Club

Paul Westbrook of the Floydada Lions club expresses thanks to this community for a good response to the pancake supper last Friday night. Westbrook reported about $500 profit on the project.

Westbrook also expressed thanks to the many individuals and firms who donated items for the supper: Bordens, Cloverlake, Bell, Adams Well Service, Piggly Wiggly, McDonald Implement, Hesperian, KFLP, Cains Coffee Company, and the school system for use of the Cafetorium at Junior High School.

THE PRESIDENT FORD COMMITTEE, JAMES A. BAKER, III, CHAIRMAN, ROYSTON C. HUGHES, TREASURER

GOVERNOR BRISCOE CAMPAIGNS FOR JIMMY CARTER

AUSTIN--Texas Governor Dolph Briscoe, who has been campaigning all over the state for the Democratic ticket, today said the election of Jimmy Carter will bring an end to fiscal irresponsibility in Washington.

Briscoe said "during Carter's administration as Governor of Georgia, he left the state with a balanced budget and, in fact, added $116 million to the state treasury."

Briscoe said the underlying theme of Carter's campaign is to balance the budget within four years.

"I strongly support my good friend Jimmy Carter for President and urge Texans to do likewise," Briscoe said.

He noted that Carter is a farmer, small businessman, an outdoorsman and graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy.

The Texas chief executive pointed to Carter's reduction in the number of state agencies in Georgia as proof of his success.

"We need Jimmy Carter to do the same thing in Washington and to reverse the last eight years of fiscal irresponsibility under the Republican Administration," Briscoe said.
