Tax-Raising Plans Reviewed

By OWEN ULLMANN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration, which made cutting taxes its economic hallmark, is reviewing an array of tax-raising proposals that the president may find irresistible if he still hopes to balance the budget by 1984.

Under preliminary consideration at the Treasury Department are crackdowns on tax cheating and other abuses, increases in excise taxes on tobacco and alcohol and restrictions on income tax interest deductions.

R. Tim McNamar, deputy secretary of the treasury, said in an interview that the department is reviewing "a catalogue" of tax-raising ideas from which "we will pick and choose."

Stressing that neither top Treasury officials nor the president have approved any of the proposals, McNamar said it is possible that a "revenue raiser" bill would be submitted to Congress this fall, just months after the administration won the largest tax cut in U.S. history.

The administration soon will try for a second time to raise user fees for private airplanes, yachts and barges that use federally operated facilities and equipment, McNamar said.

President Reagan proposed in March to raise user fees by $2.1 billion in fiscal 1982. Congress refused. McNamar said the administration will come back with its original proposals plus some new user fee increases that could bring in an additional $1 billion.

The user fee proposals are likely to be announced later this month, along with deeper 1982 spending cuts the administration will seek to keep the projected budget deficit from ballooning to $60 billion or more in the new fiscal year, which begins Oct. 1. Initial administration estimates put the deficit at $42.5 billion.

McNamar said more tax-cutting proposals also are under consideration, such as a tuition tax credit for people who send their children to private schools. However, the cost of such proposals could be more than offset by revenue-raising plans, he said.

Seeking tax increases could be politically embarrassing for a president who has blamed higher taxes for choking economic expansion. But they may be the only way for Reagan to balance the federal budget by 1984 as he has pledged to do.

Most economists outside the administration predict that Reagan's mix of military spending increases and tax cuts will guarantee bigger and bigger deficits down the road — a prospect that could sustain interest rates at historic highs for the indefinite future.

Reagan has vowed to keep trimming federal spending. But it is questionable whether he can get enough additional reductions from Congress to offset rising interest rates, which drive up government borrowing costs, and a tax cut that will slash revenues by some $280 billion in the next three years.

It is understood that the list of proposals the Treasury Department is considering would increase revenues by more than $50 billion in fiscal 1983 in the improbable event that all of the ideas were adopted.

Tuesday update

Disco Slaying

AMARILLO, Texas (AP) — Pathologists have worked through the holiday weekend in an attempt to identify the body of a skeleton believed to be that of a woman who disappeared from an area disco in April.

Police planned to file murder charges today against a 23-year-old man who led officers to a grave containing the skeletal remains of a young woman.

Police and deputies from Potter and Randall counties followed the suspect to the shallow grave northwest of here after receiving a tip from an informant.

The Amarillo Globe-News reported Monday that the informant was the suspect's brother.

Police believe the body is that of Selma Marie Saiz, who disappeared April 25 after leaving the Hot Rocks disco with a man she met there. Friends who went with Miss Saiz to the disco said a man bought her drinks and a T-shirt, then asked her to accompany him in a pickup when the group decided to leave for another nightclub. The pair never showed up at the club.

To Consider Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is cranking up its advice and consent machine again as the Judiciary Committee prepares to consider the nomination of Sandra Day O'Connor to the Supreme Court.

The outcome, as usual, is pretty well assured. Mrs. O'Connor is expected to be asked more than the usual number of questions. But in the end, she is expected to be recommended for confirmation and confirmed by the full Senate.

Escapees Steal Car

LANSING, Kan. (AP) — Four heavily armed escapees from the Kansas State Prison posed as hitchhikers in Springfield, Mo., and stole the car of a young man who gave them a lift, authorities said today.

The Greene County, Missouri sheriff's office said the man, whom they declined to identify, was tied up in his home about four miles west of Springfield overnight. He freed himself around 4:30 a.m. today and called police.

The man told officers he picked up four hitchhikers in Springfield Monday night. He said they forced him at gunpoint to drive to his home, where they tied him up and stole his car.

Urge Referendum

GDANSK, Poland (AP) — Poland's independent union Solidarity today urged that a national referendum be held on the issue of worker self-management and said it will boycott legislation on the issue proposed by the communist regime.

Navy Jets Collide

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Two fighter jets collided on the flight deck of the USS Kitty Hawk during maneuvers in the Indian Ocean, killing a crewman on deck and knocking a $17 million F-14 overboard, the Navy said Monday.

The crash Sunday was the second fatal accident involving a U.S. aircraft carrier in less than four months.

Two other crewmen on deck were injured, but the two fliers in the lost F-14 ejected and were plucked safely out of the sea.

Deaths Exceed DPS Predictions

By The Associated Press

The Labor Day traffic toll exceeded the number of deaths predicted by two, but Texas Department of Public Safety officials say reports could continue to trickle in the next few days.

"Numerous others remain in critical condition today and some are not expected to survive," DPS spokesman Larry Todd said.

Between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight today, 50 deaths had been reported on Texas roads. The DPS predicted 48 would die by midnight today.

Although the DPS had 51 names, the death of 70-year-old Jessie Malon Vickery was ruled a heart attack. His car ran off the road near Tyler Monday morning.

Of the 50 victims, 11 were pedestrians, including a 3-month-old boy and an 82-year-old man.

Twelve were single-vehicle crashes and 74 percent of the fatal accidents resulted in one death.

Two collisions caused six of the deaths, or 12 percent.

A two-vehicle crash Monday just west of Goliad left three people dead. The head-on collision killed Euen Frisbee, 50, of Victoria, 57-year-old Warren Norris and 51-year-old Patricia Mann Norris, both of Beeville.

Two pedestrians were among the last round of deaths reported by the DPS. Dreffni Charles Rice, 41, was struck by a car in his hometown of Crystal Beach Saturday, and Ronald E. Beason, 17, of Mishawaka, Ind., was hit on Interstate 20 in Eastland County Monday.

Another Crystal Beach accident killed Richard Allen Lanham Jr., 28, of Kirbyville.

Homer Gene Rivett, 28, of Farmers Branch, died in a two-vehicle collision Monday in Galveston County, and 6-year-old J.J. Nalls of Rockwell died in a two-vehicle crash in his hometown.

School Board Meets Tonight

Policy revisions on personnel absences and several routine items make up the agenda for tonight's meeting of Snyder School Trustees.

The policy changes have resulted from new state legislation.

Bids for purchase and-or lease of vehicles will be presented, along with two requests by groups for use of school buses. The Scurry County Association for Retarded Citizens has asked for use of a bus for a trip to Lubbock, and the Upper Colorado Soil and Water Conservation District has asked for use of buses for a county tour it is planning.

Reports are to be presented on tax collections, the 1981-82 budget and on inspection of gas lines serving school buildings.

College Board Sets Session

The meeting will begin at 6:30 p. m. in the conference room of the Western Texas College administration building.

Purpose of the called session is to consider a proposal to consolidate the senior citizen programs administered by WTC. The college is official sponsor of the Senior Citizens Center activities and the Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP). Both are based at the Scurry County Senior Center but heretofore have functioned separately, each with its own director.

Ask Us

Q.—Why are different temperatures and different rainfall measurements reported by various sources in Snyder?

A.—Readings for both may vary from one location to another. Also, instruments used in the measurements may may not always be the same. The SDN uses the figures on instruments at the city water plant, which go into the official records for Snyder. This does not necessarily mean that different readings on other instruments a few blocks away are not accurate.

'Easy Shopping' Is Week's Theme

Development and growth of large shopping centers grew out of the need for convenient shopping facilities for the family, but in recent years, they have become more inconvenient than the original shopping areas they were built to supplement.

A study of the Snyder business area reveals that local families are just minutes away from any business they want to visit. Store-side parking makes the shopping comfortable and easy. Availability of products, credit services, layaway policies, personal service all combine to make it easy to shop in Snyder.

"Easy Shopping in Snyder," is a natural theme for this week's campaign of our business community.

The businessmen urge you to consider the time and cost of traveling to a giant shopping center somewhere out of our community. Consider the inconvenience of distance between the actual parking place and the store you may want to visit. Consider the lack of personal attention.

You will truly realize how convenient, comfortable and pleasant it is to shop in Snyder.

EMS Request On Council's Agenda

The Snyder City Council is scheduled to consider bids for a depository for city funds and a request for more ambulance service equipment and increased ambulance subsidy at its regular meeting tonight.

The meeting is set for 6:30 p. m. in the council room at city hall.

Also on tonight's agenda are second and final reading of an ordinance adopting the city's $4-million 1981-82 budget, opening of bids on a group hospitalization plan for city employees, a zone change request and a street-closing request.

Joy Barnett, operator of Scurry County EMS, has requested additional communications equipment and extricating equipment for ambulances, and also is seeking an increase in the ambulance subsidy. Scurry County EMS operates the ambulance service here under contract with the city and the county, with the city serving as the contracting agency.

C&W Foods has requested that a segment of 12th St. on the north side of its store at 1100 College Ave. be closed.

Zone changes in the C. E. Payne Addition in the northwest part of town have been requested by Bob Payne and Barbara Patterson. They are asking for R-3 (multi-family residential) zones on property near the North Elementary School.

Some thoughts while laboring on Labor Day:

When someone questions their selection of programs, the television network moguls always say the ratings determine their actions and they are really giving us what most people want to see, based on the surveys.

This policy obviously went down the drain, however, then CBS adamantly vowed to put the U. S. Open Tennis finals on this coming Sunday instead of the Dallas- St. Louis professional football game.

Lubbock's CBS station, Channel 13, has been urging viewers to write in with their protests. However, the word we get is that CBS will not change its plans, no matter how many protests and no matter how few viewers are in prospect for the tennis matches.

Nobody in this area disputes that a huge majority of the viewers will go with NBC and watch football Sunday. In fact, since they learned that tennis would preempt the Dallas-St. Louis football game, some fans tell us that they were even irritated the past Sunday when the CBS people gave progress reports on the U. S. Open during time-outs at the Dallas-Washington game.

Scurry Area Has Showers

Weekend rains dampened the Scurry County area as a cool front brought autumn-like weather into the state.

The official gauge at the city water plant recorded .58 inch of rain last night, and the temperature dropped to a cool 60 degrees overnight.

Rainfall up to one inch fell in the Fluvanna and Dermott areas and in the north part of the county. Monday showers were lighter to the east and south, although some areas also got showers earlier.

Lake J. B. Thomas had .60 inch of rain last night. An inch had fallen there Friday evening as rains moved into Howard County. The Colorado River was flowing a stream about five feet wide and a few inches deep this morning, but the lake level was not expected to rise appreciably.

Winners Told In First SDN Grid Contest

The first Snyder Daily News Football Contest of the season proved to be a hard one for the contestants. After the dust from all the games had settled, it ended up with a four way tie for the prize money. According to the contest rules, a tie for first place means that the first and second prize money is combined and divided equally.

Sharing the honors this week are Greg Gafford, Rt. 3; Mark Preston, 2701 38th St.; Carolyn McCravey, 2212 30th St.; and Shirley Minyard, 1408 5th St. Checks will be mailed out to the winners.

Another contest comes out in today's Snyder Daily News. Pick up an entry blank at one of the sponsoring merchants and try your luck at picking the winners.

In Philadelphia...

Teachers Establish Picket Lines

By The Associated Press

Philadelphia teachers angry over layoffs and wage freezes set up picket lines today, while a walkout threatened in Boston over the same issues was postponed for two weeks.

Teachers elsewhere in Pennsylvania and in Michigan were also on strike.

"The mood of the teachers is ugly," said Mel Driban, a vice president of the 22,000-member Philadelphia Federation of Teachers. School starts Thursday for the city's 224,000 students, and teachers were due in today to start preparing.

"This is not the strike that we're used to being involved in," Driban said. "Our contract has been abrogated."

Philadelphia's 13,000 teachers struck for 22 days last year. The rest of the union members are not teachers.

Picket lines went up before dawn, with about 100 teachers blocking the four entrances of the school administration building where about 30 administrators, including School Superintendent Michael Marcase, had spent the night.

Schools spokesman Elliott Alexander said officials planned to open classes on schedule, despite the strike.

Picket lines were set up at school district offices and at the district's 270 school buildings, union officials said.

The dispute centers on the Philadelphia school district's plan to lay off 3,500 workers and deny teachers a 10 percent wage increase promised in a two-year contract reached after last year's strike.

School administrators, facing an estimated $223 million budget deficit, say they do not have the money to grant the raises. Philadelphia teachers earn an average of $24,443 for a 10-month year.

In Boston, where school starts Wednesday, teachers voted to strike in two weeks unless their dispute with the city is settled.

"We're willing to go the extra mile," Kathleen Kelley, president of the Boston Teachers Union, said Monday after a closed, five-hour union meeting called to take a strike vote.

About 2,500 teachers, by a show of hands, authorized the union's executive committee to call a strike Sept. 21, unless "circumstances change and the crisis we face is resolved," Ms. Kelley said.

The union is angered by layoffs of approximately 1,000 teachers and a freeze on wages, measures the School Committee said were required to meet budget cutbacks.

Earlier this month, the Boston union's leadership urged that teachers strike today, one day before the city's 119 schools open their doors for 60,000 students. Ms. Kelley said the union's executive board met Sunday night and decided to recommend postponing the strike, while seeking to reach an agreement with the city.

A motion to strike today was rejected by a loud voice vote Monday. The base salary for a teacher with a bachelor's degree and 10 years of teaching experience is $21,195.

In Michigan, at least 1,900 schoolchildren were expected to remain home today because of two teacher strikes that involved about 90 teachers and centered on wage disagreements, the Michigan Education Association said.

Another 18,166 teachers in the state have no contracts, said Harry Boyes of the union. He estimated strikes by those teachers could idle 368,561 pupils in 129 districts.

Excluding Philadelphia, 1,359 teachers in nine districts remained on strike in Pennsylvania, affecting 25,800 students.

Most of the strikes stemmed from wage disagreements or failure to reach contracts. Teachers in the Lehighton Area School District in northeastern Pennsylvania struck over demands for a pupil-teacher ratio in their contract.

letter to editor

To The Daily News:

To answer the letter written by Jody Pitts, I can't stand on my feet for that long at a time. And the fact she waited so late to call me. I am working now for Chaparral Answering Service, thanks to Jean Birdwell who phoned me first. And another thing, I was still asleep when I talked to Mrs. Pitts.

Thanks for calling, but I knew I couldn't do the work. Thanks Chaparral just in case I forgot to thank you, and thanks Snyder. Maybe I was wrong, but it still got me a job.

It's only been within the last ten years that we've become conscious of how long things endure that are left to litter the countryside.

They've figured out an aluminum can will take up to 500 years to disintegrate. A polyethylene bag will take nearly three months to self-destruct. And the degradable period of a soft drink bottle is forever.

It makes one wonder what else will be left on this planet to mystify historians long after the families have ceased to exist.

Ugly carpets will be here. They never degrade. Trust me. They will live to taunt another culture with their stain patterns and their holes that heal themselves even after the houses around them have fallen.

Trees that smother septic tanks will flourish long after mankind has given up. Somewhere it is written that they will survive plagues of medflies, tornadoes, fire, and whole sonnets carved in their trunks.

Keys that never fit anything will have strange sex, multiply, and confound those who came later as they did us. All attempts to make them disappear will fail.

Book and record club computers will continue to spew out selections even if the world is without population. They will cover the barren countryside with mountains of hermetically sealed books, records and envelopes that chastise you for not changing your address and bringing their records up to date.

Soap slivers never die. I have seen them grafted onto bigger ones, thrown away, abandoned in water-filled soap dishes, and forced down drains. They still endure.

Have you ever seen a dress that wrinkles on the hanger wear out? Go out of style? Rot out under the arms? Get lost? Be permanently stained? Stolen? Never! A dress that wrinkles, no matter what the temperature or conditions, is non-biodegradable.

We know that rope will disappear in a little over a year, a railroad cross tie in 30 years, and a steel can in less than 100 years. A paper traffic ticket, they tell us, has a life of two to four weeks.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

SPECIAL ELECTION
NOVEMBER 3, 1981

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 8 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to authorize cities, towns and other taxing units to grant exemptions from ad valorem taxes on an unproductive, underdeveloped or blighted area in order to encourage its development. The amendment would also allow the legislature to authorize a city or town to issue bonds or notes to finance this development and to pledge future increases in ad valorem tax revenues from the property in such areas to repay these bonds or notes.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to authorize cities, towns, and other taxing units to encourage the improvement, development, or redevelopment of certain areas through property tax relief and the issuance of bonds and notes."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 117 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize a person to receive a patent to land from the Commissioner of the General Land Office under certain conditions. Application for the patent must be made within five years from approval of the amendment. The land must be surveyed, public free school land not previously patentable. The person must have a properly recorded deed to the land, which he acquired without knowledge of the patent defect and which title he and his predecessors in interest have held for at least 50 years. The person and his predecessors in interest must have continuously claimed the land and paid the taxes for at least 50 years.

This amendment does not apply to beach land, submerged land, or islands. An applicant may not use this provision to resolve a boundary dispute. This amendment will not apply to land which has been determined to be state-owned by a court of competent jurisdiction or that has a productive state mineral lease on the effective date of the amendment.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the commissioner of the General Land Office to issue patents for certain public free school fund land held in good faith under color of title for at least 50 years as of November 15, 1981."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 38 proposes a constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the authority to manage state funds. Funds constitutionally dedicated to specific purposes would not be subject to committee management. The committee would be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, Chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee, and the Chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to allow the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the power to manage the expenditure of certain appropriated funds."

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 6 proposes a constitutional amendment that would provide that one-half of the surplus tax revenues above the spending limit provided by Article VIII, Section 22, of the Texas Constitution would be placed in a Water Assistance Fund to be used as provided by law, including projects for water development and conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes or any combination of these purposes.

The amendment also provides $500,000,000 of the general credit of the state to guarantee bonds issued in commercial markets by local political subdivisions, including cities, counties, and special districts. The amendment allows amounts to be established to decrease or retire state debt, which is defined as that debt secured by the full faith and credit of the state. The amendment would raise the interest that could be paid on authorized, but unissued, bonds guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the state from 6% to 12%.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the use of a portion of the excess revenues of the state for water development, water conservation, water quality enhancement, and flood control purposes; authorizing the use of the state's credit, not to exceed five hundred million dollars, to guarantee the bonds of cities, counties, towns, and other units of local government in the financing of projects for such purposes; increasing the interest rate that may be paid on previously approved, but unissued, state bonds; and authorizing a program to retire state bonds."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 49 proposes a constitutional amendment that would exempt livestock and poultry from taxation. Currently, farm products in the hands of the producer and family supplies for home and farm use are exempt.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide for the inclusion of livestock and poultry with farm products as exempt from taxation."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 81 authorizes the governing body of a county, city, school district or other political subdivisions to exempt from taxation a portion of the market value of a residence homestead. The portion exempted may be as much as 40% for 1982-1984; 30% for 1985-1987; and 20% for 1988 and after. The amount of an exemption may not be less than $5,000 unless the legislature by general law prescribes other monetary restrictions on the amount of the exemption. An eligible adult is allowed to receive other applicable exemptions provided by law. An exception is made where ad valorem tax has previously been pledged for the payment of debt.

The amendment further directs the legislature to require that notice be given to property owners of a reasonable estimate of tax on their property in certain situations.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing a political subdivision to provide property tax relief for owners of residence homesteads and changing certain property tax administrative procedures."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment that would authorize the Veterans' Land Board to issue and sell an additional $250,000,000 in bonds increasing the Veterans' Land Fund's total bond issuance authorization from $700,000,000 to $950,000,000. The amendment would increase the maximum interest payable by the state on these bonds from 6% to 10%, and permit an even higher rate, if specified by the legislature.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the issuance of additional bonds to finance the veterans' land program and to increase the maximum interest rate allowable on veterans' land fund bonds."

The Welders Guide

By EARL ARONSON
AP Newsfeatures

The fabulous Floriade, that once-in-a-decade international horticultural display in Holland next year, is building surprises for the expected millions of visitors. Something new and different in every one of its many gardens is the aim.

"The gardens will range from magnificent spring bulbs to wild flowers, to smell and touch plantings for the blind, a pirate ship for children, and easy to reach and work plots for the elderly or disabled," said director John Van Oostrom.

The show, in Amsterdam's outskirts, will open April 8 and continue through spring, summer and into fall. When it closes Oct. 10, there will remain a magnificent, 125-acre park in a growing new neighborhood of 40,000 residents.

Van Oostrom, a garden architect and exposition designer, was head of production for the Netherlands' first Floriade in 1960, and for Floriade '72 — now the beautiful 190-acre Amstel Park in Amsterdam's Europaplein district. He also organized Amsterdam's 700th anniversary celebration in 1975.

"The 1972 Floriade was larger, but Floriade '82 will be more intensive and compact," said Van Oostrom.

Work on Floriade '82 began in 1976 when the area was largely a polder, drained land. Dikes and a large lake were built. Topsoil and sand from the lake bottom were stored for use to form the park. Thousands of trees, shrubs, bushes and flowers are being planted, where there had not been a single one before.

Attendance at Floriade '72 was 4.2 million, according to Herman S. de Ranitz, Van Oostrom's assistant. He said the 1982 project will cost about $15 million.

A large exposition hall will house 13 indoor displays, changing with the seasons. Outdoors 250,000 tulips, hyacinths and daffodils will be planted this fall for spring bloom, along with many perennials. Next spring annuals also will begin to brighten the macadam, sand and wood-chip trails already laid out. Boats will carry some visitors beside and into the park from the lake. A miniature electric train will make four stops. There will be three restaurants.

Greenhouses — called glasshouses — will be permanent, as will a reed "bronze age" thatched-roof house and barn.

The site for Floriade '82 was chosen because a new highway, subway extension and railroad station will reach to within a short walk of the park entrance. Amsterdam's central railroad and metro depots are only 17 minutes away.

There will be some foreign sponsored gardens and international competitions, but most of the flowers will be products of Holland. New and old roses will grow in 80 beds. Patterns for the bulb gardens have long been arranged, in cooperation with the famed Keukenhof Garden, sponsored by the Dutch bulb industry.

Van Oostrom believes the Floriade '82 will be "one of the best flowering shows ever" despite pressure to economize. He praised the "great craftsmanship" in construction for the event financed largely by the Netherlands government, bulb and cut-flower industries and other horticultural organizations.

"Please keep in mind that this was all flatland, all canals, that we spread an 8-to 10-foot layer of sand and laid all cables and pipes and covered the area with two feet of topsoil, taken from the meadows, for planting," said Van Oostrom.

Here's A Novel Cuisine

By Cecily Brownstone
AP Food Editor

Nouvelle cuisine cooks have been influenced by Chinese, Vietnamese and other Asian cooking. As a result some interesting recipes have been appearing.

Some of these are for salads that combine hot cooked chicken or duck with briefly cooked hot vegetables and fruit and a warm dressing. These salads may include lettuce or be served on it. Or — and this is strictly my own way — they may be served with hot cooked rice.

When we tried the following recipe, those of our tasters who like the Hot and Sour Soups of Chinese cuisine were enthusiastic about this Hot and Sour Salad. One hint: be sure to use fresh plums with firm flesh so slices of the fruit will keep their shape.

HOT AND SOUR CHICKEN SALAD

One 1-pound chicken breast (boned, skinned and halved)

¾ pound (3 large or 4 or 5 medium size) ripe but firm fresh plums

3 tablespoons peanut oil

2 tablespoons ketchup

1 tablespoon soy sauce

1 tablespoon red wine vinegar

¼ teaspoon Chinese 5-spice seasoning

1 clove garlic, minced or crushed

1 slice fresh ginger root (25-cent size), minced

1-3rd cup sliced scallion

6-ounce package frozen Chinese pea pods, thawed

Lettuce leaves or hot cooked rice, if desired

Cut chicken into about ½-inch wide strips that are a couple of inches long. Slice plums from pits — there should be 2 cups.

Stir togther 1 tablespoon of the oil, the ketchup, soy sauce, vinegar, 5-spice seasoning, garlic and ginger.

In a 10-inch skillet or a wok heat the remaining 2 tablespoons oil; add the chicken and over high heat, stirring constantly, cook only until the chicken is white and tender. With a slotted spoon, remove chicken and keep warm.

To the skillet add the green pepper and scallion and over moderately high heat stir-fry just until wilted. Add the chicken, plums, pea pods and vinegar mixture; stirring constantly, cook until the pea-pods are hot but still crisp and green — a minute or two. Serve at once on lettuce or with rice.

Makes 4 servings.

Serve sharp cheese with the more robust table wines, ports or sherries.

The bidding in the box took place at table one in a Swiss team.

South's failure to use Blackwood was due to his dislike of his heart holding. He was certain that his partner held either two or three aces and didn't want to gamble on seven if North happened to hold three.

West led the 10 of spades after which the play proceeded quickly and unsuccessfully for South.

South won, drew trumps with two leads and led his deuce of hearts. The play had been fast, but West had been thinking right along and produced his three of hearts without a quiver.

South called for dummy's nine. This is the correct percentage play since it would be a winner if West had been dealt either king-10 or queen-10 of the suit, while the jack play would only succeed against the actual holding.

East returned the club jack. Clubs failed to break. There was no squeeze and South was down one.

The game was Swiss team as mentioned earlier. There was no swing. At table two, North jumped directly to three diamonds. South Blackwooded to seven. West opened the king of hearts and seven went down just one.

Professions Are Offering Video Clinics

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Medical Association is offering its members "video clinics," professionally-produced videotapes that describe the latest diagnostic techniques and methods of treatment.

Similarly, the American Bar Association offers more than 200 videotapes covering topics from estate planning and law office management to trial techniques and witness examinations, says Dan Roberts of US JVC Corp., a video product maker.

Other professions, such as accounting and computer programming also use videotape for continuing education programs, according to Roberts.

Dear Abby

Teacher's Lessons Taken To Heart — and Bed

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1981 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I'm 18, just graduated from high school, and for the last six months I've been dating a woman of 30. I would like nothing more than to marry her, but there are problems.

She teaches high school. (That's how we met — I was one of her students.) We started dating while her divorce was pending, but because of school-district policy, we couldn't go public with our affair. Only her sister, my family and one mutual friend (another woman teacher) know about us. After her divorce, she plans to move in with the mutual friend to avoid gossip. I offered to stop seeing her, but she refused.

She admitted that when we first started seeing each other she was only interested in sex and didn't intend to fall in love with me, but she couldn't help herself. If we get married, she could go on teaching and I could work part time and go to college. The only barrier we have is that she worries about what "society" will think because of the age difference, and because she's a school teacher and I'm a student. I don't care what anybody thinks. I've always been mature for my age and know we could be happy together. What do you think?

18 GOING ON 30

DEAR 18: I'm sure you could be happy together, but for how long? I recommend a long engagement. Very long. And if you still feel the same way about each other in two years, I'll buy the rice.

DEAR ABBY: Granted, western attire is the big fad now, but I think there's a time and place for everything. Lately I've seen men of all ages — bankers, salesmen, business executives, you name it — all wearing cowboy boots with business suits. I think they look ridiculous. I can see cowboy boots with jeans or western clothes, but to me, a man dressed in a business suit and cowboy boots looks dumb.

What are those idiots trying to prove? Send me your opinion.

PETE IN PA.

DEAR PETE: Cowboy boots with business suits are part of the culture in certain parts of the country. (Nevada, Texas, Colorado, Oklahoma.) I happen to think they look neat. And those who wear them say they're far more comfortable than regular shoes. Don't judge a man until you've walked 10 miles in his cowboy boots.

DEAR ABBY: Brian (not his real name) and I met when we were 15 and 14. We were "sweet" on each other throughout the summer, but went our separate ways later in the fall. We kept in touch for a while, but eventually we lost all contact. That was 12 years ago. I am 26 now, graduated from college, married and "Mama" to two young sons.

In our community newspaper, I read that Brian and his wife have moved into our neighborhood. Considering that we live in a large city, New Orleans, I was quite astonished that someone I knew years ago would end up in our neighborhood.

My first impulse was to get in touch with Brian and rejoice at renewing an old friendship, then I wondered if it would be too forward, and possibly be looked upon as improper by his wife. I'd like to be hospitable, but don't want my actions to be misinterpreted. What would you do?

DIANA

DEAR DIANA: Since you now live in the same neighborhood, give it a little more time — you may run into each other. If you don't, I see no harm in writing a note to him and his wife welcoming them to the neighborhood, and inviting them to call you and your husband.

After all, you were only "sweet" on each other for one summer when you were a couple of kids.

Torrential Rains Flood Peking

PEKING (AP) — Three weeks of torrential rains and flooding have killed 764 people, injured 5,000 and left 200,000 homeless in northern Shaanxi province, and the situation is getting worse, the official Xinhua news agency reported today.

Xinhua said 230 villages were washed away, roads, railways and power lines were damaged, and 255,285 acres of cropland were flooded.

It was the second flood disaster in China this summer. In July, floods in Sichuan province, in southwest China, killed more than 750 persons, injured 28,000 and made 1.5 million homeless.

A. Glenn Edwards will speak to the Snyder Section of the Society of Petroleum Engineers Wednesday during a 6:30 p.m. meeting at the Snyder Country Club.

Edwards is an SPE Distinguished lecturer for the 1981-82 year. The Society's Distinguished Lecturer Program is funded by SPE and the Doherty Fund. From time to time, some of the expense is borne by the companies of the Lecturers.

The lecture emphasizes good prior planning as the key to safe, successful high-pressure drillstem testing operations and describes considerations to be given during the planning stages to well preparation, safety, equipment selection, and test proceedures necessary to obtain maximum reservoir data. The lecture will address application of new equipment such as surface readout with real-time analysis, onsite analysis units, and automatic chart readers to provide the greatest degree of data acquisition and analysis for the shortest time spent on the bottom. Case histories of successful and unsucessful drillstem tests will be related for the purpose of illustration.

Edwards received his BS degree in mechanical engineering from Oklahoma State University in 1962 and has done post graduate work at Oklahoma University. Upon graduating from Oklahoma State University, he joined Halliburton Services in Duncan, Okla. He is the author of 18 technical papers on drillstem testing tools, squeeze tools, and squeeze hydraulics. Edwards is a member of SPE and the Drilling Manual Subcommittee of the International Association of Drilling Contractors and is a registered professional engineer in the state of Oklahoma.

Chairman Says To Be Neutral

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee is urging colleagues to remain neutral on the Reagan administration's plan to sell AWACS radar planes to Saudi Arabia until "all the facts are known."

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., issued a statement Sunday saying the administration "should be given the opportunity to explain all the elements of the proposed sale. At this point, senators have not yet seen the full details and terms of the proposal.

"I believe it is premature for senators to commit themselves before all the facts are known," Percy said.

Rather die than have gout

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — Recently I suffered through an attack of gout. My doctor prescribed Zyloprim. I also for high blood pressure. I asked my doctor for a specific gout diet but he didn't seem to think I needed one. According to what I have read, Zyloprim is allopurinol which is not supposed to cure an attack but only prevents gout. And I have read that diuretics can cause gout. I never had gout before I started taking diuretics.

I have always appreciated gourmet foods and fine wines in moderation. Only cost kept me from experiencing them on a regular basis. If I had to choose between high blood pressure and gout — I would rather take the chance of suddenly dropping dead than suffer the pain, disability and depression caused by foregoing most of the few pleasures in life.

DEAR READER — Zyloprim does prevent gout and does not cure an acute attack. But your doctor is giving it to you so you can take diuretics for your high blood pressure and so you won't need to be so strict with your food or drinks.

Many diuretics, including the one you take, can cause an acute attack of gout — particularly if you already have a high uric acid and are prone to gout.

The diet is discussed in more detail in The Health Letter number 16-10, Gout, The Uric Acid Disease, which I am sending you. As it explains, dieting to lose weight can be hazardous for gouty people.

Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

You can probably help yourself if you will make an effort to lose gradually any excess fat you have. Weight loss must be gradual; if you lose weight too fast or cut out carbohydrates as on many fad diets, you will have an acute attack of gout.

Start a walking program. Walk a little twice a day. Too much unaccustomed exercise will also cause an attack. Decrease your calories enough so that you lose about a half pound of fat a week. I'd like to see you gradually increase your walking so you can walk about two miles twice a day.

If you are successful and lower your body fat, you may not need a diuretic for your blood pressure and your uric acid may go down, too. That may enable you to live a little better after you have gotten your weight down.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am facing the problem of whether or not to let my 13-year-old daughter use tampons. The use of napkins is very objectionable to her. I have used tampons all my life (I am 42 now) and imagine that is why she made that decision.

Can you help us come to some reasonable solution to our problem? I know opinions vary. If the risk of toxic shock is really great in your opinion then we will have to solve it in a manner not readily accepted by my daughter. It would make it easier for her having had an opinion from you.

DEAR READER — The risk is small but if it happens to you that doesn't help. Before, or if using tampons, a woman should see her doctor. Some staphylococcal bacteria that may be present in the vagina have been identified with the problem and treatment is indicated if such bacteria are present.

Beyond that, I think it is fairly safe if a woman or girl is careful not to use a tampon too long, particularly during the menses. She should sleep without one in place and be sure to have at least one change every day during menses.

Scurry Co. Farm Bureau Slates Annual Barbecue

The Scurry County Farm Bureau annual meeting and barbecue will be held Thursday at 7 p.m. at the Scurry County Coliseum, according to County Farm Bureau President C. D. Gray, Jr.

"Our members will be deciding how they are going to tackle the problems facing agriculture through the policies of Farm Bureau," Gray said.

Gray also said that though all members are welcome to attend the meeting, only agricultural producer-members can vote on policies, officers, delegates to the state convention, or hold office.

Guest speaker this year will be Bill Bownds, assistant director of state Aafairs for Texas Farm Bureau. Special entertainment will be provided by Cindy Hataway.

The Scurry County Farm Bureau will elect annual officers and directors at the meeting.

The president and county committee chairmen will present their year-end reports to members.

School Costs Continue To Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — There will be 870,000 fewer children in United States schools this fall, but the cost of educating them with fewer teachers and larger class sizes is rising 10 percent, education officials say.

Education Secretary T.H. Bell predicts that total enrollment will slip from about 58.4 million in 1980-81 to approximately 57.6 million, with all but 20,000 of the drop occurring in public schools.

The National Center for Education Statistics said Saturday that the cost of education from kindergarten through college will rise to $198.3 billion and that the number of elementary and secondary teachers will drop by 23,000 to 2.4 million.

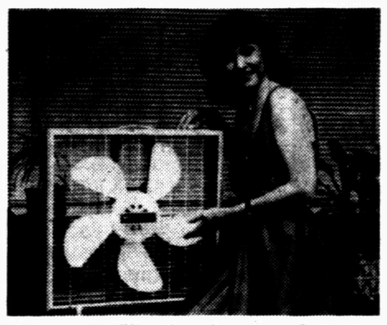

Teacher groups claim the loss of teachers — which directly affects class size — is even greater. The National Education Association says that 55,000 are being laid off, while the American Federation of Teachers sets the number at 44,000.

Cool carefully and help hold down your bills.

In many homes, summer air conditioning uses more electricity than all other appliances combined. To help hold down electric bills, use it sparingly. Set your thermostat at 80 degrees or higher, and use a fan to circulate the air. A fan uses considerably less electricity than air conditioning. And when no one is going to be home, make sure your air conditioning is turned off. It pays to know how to cool carefully.

Your Birthday

September 9, 1981

This coming year you should be able to find time to become involved in two social sports in which you've long been interested. Participation will produce fringe benefits.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You might find much to criticize in certain individuals with whom you'll deal today, but you'd be wise to keep your observations to yourself. Romance, travel, luck, resources, possible pitfalls and career for the coming months are all discussed in your Astro-Graph that begins with your birthday. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your way of doing things may be better than those of your peers today, but they might fail to follow your lead because of the way you present your case.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Usually you're pretty good at learning the hidden motives of others, but today you could read negative factors where none exist.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Sometimes you can spend a pretty penny on pleasurable pastimes and not regret it. However, today expensive diversions could cause remorse.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Take care in career situations today when dealing with people who have caused problems for you in the past. They may still try to take a few swipes at you.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Instead of facing challenges today, you may be tempted to withdraw. This could prove self-defeating. Don't use your imagination negatively.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Sometimes it's best not to know a friend's deep, dark secrets. A pal may try to confide in you today something better left unsaid.
ARIES (March 21-April 19) Goals important to you today may not be so to your associates. You could cause problems if you are too single-minded. Be careful.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Your productivity will be diminished today if you persist in working with methods that have failed thus far. Look for new approaches.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20) This is not a good day to try to manage something complicated that you know little about for another. You may harm rather than help.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) Skirt subjects today on which you and your mate take opposing views. A friendly discussion could turn into a heated debate.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You might find much to criticize in certain individuals with whom you'll deal today, but you'd be wise to keep your observations to yourself.

Alleged Rapist Apprehended

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — A man chased down by 15 policemen and a tracking dog after a Labor Day rape was accused of being the "Highland rapist" who terrorized a local neighborhood for 10 months, police said.

The special police team used a tracking dog to hunt down the man, identified as Danny G. Goodson, 33, an unemployed roofer and former resident of the city's Highland section.

"We feel pretty sure at this time this subject is what as known as — quote — the Highland rapist," Capt. Sam Burns, chief of detectives, said Monday.

Police said Goodson was undergoing questioning.

The Highland rapist terrorized an eight-block area of the residential neighborhood. He is blamed for at least eight rapes since November, 1980 — including an 11-year-old girl kidnapped from a slumber party and an 83-year-old woman.

Goodson's pick-up truck was found near the latest rape site, police said.

AWARDED CERTIFICATE— Philip Kimmel, president of Midwestern Crude Oil in Snyder, was recently named an Outstanding Young Man of America. (SDN Staff Photo)

Philip Kimmel Receives Honor

When Philip Kimmel discovered he had been named an Outstanding Young Man of America, he was rather flabbergasted. "It was a shock to me," he said. Kimmel added that he filled out the questionnare sent to him by the Jaycee affiliated award organization but never expected anything from it.

To be awarded the certificate, one must be recommended to the organization, then the questionnare is sent out and returned before the nominations.

Kimmel, a Jaycee member, started "Midwestern Crude Oil" in Snyder in 1973 and is president of the company. He has been extensively involved in Church work with First Baptist Church and participated in organizing a Monday night Bible study at his business.

Chargers Crush Browns

CLEVELAND (AP) - The Cleveland Browns have long been called the Kardiac Kids. Call them victims of cardiac arrest today.

The Browns stood around Monday night, watching San Diego's Dan Fouts bomb them into submission and Chuck Muncie run over and around them at will. And what was supposed to be a close, down-to-the-gun game - as most of Cleveland's have been in the past few years - was a 44-14 laugher for the Chargers.

Fouts came out throwing, as he was expected to do. He didn't stop until he'd completed 19 of 25 passes (15 in a row at one stretch) for 330 yards and three touchdowns. Muncie started off in high gear and didn't stop until he'd amassed 161 yards (equalling his single-game career high) and a touchdown. Fouts' passing and Muncie's running accounted for 49 of the Chargers' 66 plays from scrimmage.

It was also supposed to be a two-sided air show. And it was that. On the losing side was Brian Sipe, the National Football League's passing champion and Most Valuable Player a year ago. Try as he might to keep things from getting out of hand (he threw the ball 57 times and completed 31, both club records, for 375 yards), he and the Browns were simply overmatched. Cleveland's only touchdowns were Sipe's passes of 18 yards to Ricky Feacher and 4 yards to Greg Pruitt.

By the end of the first quarter the Chargers were in control 10-0, thanks to a 4-yard touchdown run by James Brooks, San Diego's No.1 draft choice, and a 50-yard field goal by Rolf Benirschke.

It was just before that first field goal (Benirschke was also good on kicks of 43 and 33 yards later in the game) that Fouts really took control.

He completed 15 in a row, two shy of the NFL record Baltimore's Bert Jones set in 1974. They accounted for 202 of Fouts' yards and two of his touchdowns, 13 yards to Brooks and 4 yards to Hank Bauer.

Joiner was Fouts' favorite target, catching the ball six times for 191 yards. Two of the passes went for 51 yards (on the first play after Sipe had passed to Pruitt for the Browns' third-period TD) and 57 yards (right after Sipe was incomplete to Dave Logan in the end zone on fourth down later in the period). And Fouts' final bomb was the final nail in the coffin, 38 yards to Ron Smith for a touchdown with 4:20 to play.

AstrosContinue To Roll; Ease Past Atlanta Braves

ATLANTA (AP) - Jose Cruz, the man who propelled the Houston Astros to a 3-2 win over the Atlanta Braves Monday night, made it sound so basic.

"I love to hit a home run in the ninth inning to win a game," said Cruz, who had done just that with his 13th homer of the year.

For the streaking Astros, the win was their fourth in five games, strengthening their grip on first place in the National League's Western Division. For the Braves, it meant another game - now 4 ½ - to be made up if they are to catch Houston.

Houston manager Bill Virdon praised starter Bob Knepper, who went seven strong innings. "He did well," Virdon said. "But he has pitched well all season.

"Our second half pitching has been great," Virdon said.

For Braves starter Tommy Boggs, who departed in the seventh, the struggle of 1981 continues.

"Since the strike, I think I've been pitching as well as I can," Boggs said. "But it does get discouraging, going out there pitching as well as you can and not getting anything out of it."

Dave Smith, 4-3, picked up the win for Houston. Reliever Rick Camp, now 7-2, took the loss, giving up the solo blast from Cruz.

Frank Lacorte and Joe Sambito pitched the ninth for Houston, with Sambito picking up his ninth save.

The Braves struck first before a crowd of 7,358 - drawn by not only the Braves' return home, but by the appearance of Ted Giannoulos, "The Chicken."

In the third, Rafael Ramirez slapped a leadoff double down the left field line, moving to third on a sacrifice by Boggs. Ramirez came home on a grounder by Rufino Linares.

Houston tied it in the fourth, with Phil Garner reaching on a single, advancing to third on a single by Terry Puhl, and scoring on a Cruz sacrifice fly.

Atlanta went ahead in the fourth when slumping third baseman Bob Horner smashed a homer into the left field seats, his eighth round-tripper of the season. But the Astros again tied it in the fifth, with Tony Scott driving in Craig Reynolds, who singled, took second on a sacrifice and third on a passed ball.

Tigers Test Stangs Here

Snyder High School's varsity volleyball team continues its goal towards another District 2-AAAA championship here tonight as Coach Joyce Elrod's Tigers play host to Sweetwater in the local gymnasium.

The three-card show begins at 5:30 p.m. when Coach Patty Grimmett's ninth graders make their season debut against the 'Stangs. At 6:30 the junior varsity plays, followed by the varsity at 7:30.

Snyder is 1-0 in district competition this season, having beaten Pecos a week ago here. The Tigers are 10-2 in both district and regular season action, and have won second place in two tournaments.

Tonight's varsity match begins a steady diet of district competition for the defending 2-AAAA champions. Thursday they travel to Lamesa, then host Monahans on the 15th and trek to Andrews on the 17th before making a non-conference appearance in the Denver City Tournament on the 18th.

Should tradition hold true, the matches with Lamesa and Monahans will prove to be the ones determining this year's loop champion. Snyder finishes the first round by hosting Ector on Sept. 22 and traveling to San Angelo Lake View on the 24th. A non-conference match with Seminole on the 29th fills in a date before the Tigers begin second-round district play at Pecos on Oct. 3.

Europe Wins World Cup

ROME (AP) - The United States won four of the last five men's events in the track and field World Cup, but the European team won the trophy.

Europe, boosted by Ireland's Eamonn Coghlan's victory in the 5,000 meters, finished with 147 points. East Germany finished second with 130. The United States took third place with 127.

East Germany was the overall winner in the women's events with 120.5 points. Europe was second, the Soviet Union third and the United States fourth.

In the 500-meter speed-skating race in the 1968 Winter Olympics, three American women, Jenny Fish, Dianne Holum and Mary Meyers, finished in a dead-heat for second place. Each received a silver medal.

Although she is still in her 20s, pro golfer Beth Daniel already is a member of the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame.

When I started gaining some extra weight a few years back, I hated the way I looked & I felt worse. I tried crash diets, but could only stay on them a few days. Each night, when my tummy was full, I would promise myself "tomorrow I go on a diet & stay with it." But of course I didn't. Some of my relatives in Lubbock were going to Pat Walker's & were getting results results, so I decided to try them also. This was a great day for me because they have given me a program I can handle. My eating habits have changed but I can am satisfied & not ever hungry. I love the way I look & feel!
