FORMER RESIDENT DEAD

OFFICERS SAY PAPERS ARE DICTATING

PRESS INTERVIEWS TO BE DISCONTINUED BY LATEST ACTION

(By The Associated Press)

HOPEWELL, N. J., Mar. 11.—The chief of the state police, directing the search for the Lindbergh baby, charged today that the press had attempted to "dictate" to them and was "interfering" with police work.

As a result, the police announced they would discontinue replying to press questionnaires.

Information hereafter will be issued in bulletin form twice daily —at 11 a. m. and 10 p. m. In the event "anything definite develops," special bulletins will be issued.

Marks A Climax

The police statement over the signature of Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, superintendent, marked a climax in the official relations between the police and the newspapermen.

Schwarzkopf's action was precipitated by the questionnaire submitted to the police by some reporters assigned to the story shortly after midnight today. One question asked what steps the police took to obtain bloodhounds to follow the trail of the kidnapers. Police previously had explained that "none was available." This morning's question, however, stated that dog authorities had said "100 or more good bloodhounds could have been made available at Hopewell within two hours after the kidnaping was reported."

Ask Definite Answer

Question No. 7 was:

"Will you please give us a definite answer as to whether Col. Lindbergh has communicated or

This Ought To Bring Smiles

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 11—How about these for signs of improvement?

Hoarding during the past week decreased $39,000,000.

National bank failures in the last three weeks were only two, lowest number for such a period in nearly two years.

The country's gold stocks increased $12,000,000 in the week.

The treasury's latest issue of certificates ($900,000,000) was oversubscribed nearly four times in two days.

Loans to brokers and dealers reported by the federal reserve board bounded up $57,000,000 reflecting increased stock market activity.

The reduction in total money in circulation since President Hoover called for a campaign against hoarding now amounts to a total of $87,000,000 bringing the total of currency and coin outstanding for all purposes to $5,544,000,000. The country's gold supply has gone up to $4,362,000,000. There was just $3,402,725,500 of capital clamoring to be taken in exchange for the treasury's new issue of short term paper, the larger part of it offered for the one-year 3 3-4 per cent certificates.

This was taken, partly at least, as an indication of public confidence in government securities. The exact amount to be sold has not been announced. At the same time Secretary Mills let it be known that the "baby bonds," special anti-hoarding weapon of the treasury, are selling well.

TRIO LINE UP AGAINST ONE IN FIGHT

VON HINDENBURG WILL FACE HARD BATTLE IN BALLOTING

BY LOUIS P. LOCHNER.
Associated Press Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1932, by The Associated Press)

BERLIN, March 11. — Three against one is the line-up in the campaign for the German presidency, now nearing its close.

On the one hand Field Marshal General Paul Von Beneckendorff und Hindenburg, second president of the German reich, is seeking a second term at the age of 84.

On the other hand three impetuous advocates of a new order are bidding for support: Adolf Hitler, chief of the national socialists, who wishes to usher in the "third reich" (the first having been the empire of 1870-1918, the second the present republic); Ernst Thaelmann, communist, who desires to remodel Germany along the lines of the Russian Soviet union; Theodore Duesterberg, head of the steel helmet ex-service men's organization, who sees in the rebirth of militarism and the destruction everything socialistic the salvation of his fatherland.

Neither Thaelmann nor Duesterberg is likely to land near the top, and public interest centers on the venerable Von Hindenburg and Hitler.

Hindenburg Confident

Von Hindenburg represents veneration of the past, slow but infinitely laborious and difficult progress for the present, confident hope that by continuing on a path of sacrifice and patience Germany can come back in the not far distant future. He moves deliberately and weighs every circumstance before deciding. Unlike his three opponents, he desires to be the candidate of

SMITH FORCES FAIL TO CUT ADVANCES

GOP LEADERS RALLY TO THROW SUPPORT TO PRESIDENT

BY BYRON PRICE

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11. (AP)—March's most active week of presidential politics is ending with the Democratic banners of Franklin D. Roosevelt a little higher in east and west, while the Republicans rally behind President Hoover with increased manifestations of returning confidence.

Roosevelt's parade through the New Hampshire primaries was hailed universally as a potent boost for his candidacy. Because it was a test at the polls and because he unset a whole slate of candidates pledged to Alfred E. Smith in that New England sector where Smith was assumed to be strongest, the New Hampshire result overshadowed the Roosevelt capture of the larger, convention-instructed Minnesota delegation.

Among the Republicans, the week's [illegible] decision to put a slate of Hoover delegates into the Ohio primary of May 10. The administration's reverses in recent elections have taught the party managers a manifest caution. Besides, they have seen no reason to take unnecessary risks and involve themselves in the local quarrels which attend primary contests, when the president's renomination already is a foregone conclusion. With studied purpose they stayed out of the primaries in North Dakota and Illinois.

The die was cast in Ohio after the most careful survey. An active anti-Hoover group there sought to enter Calvin Coolidge, and later Hiram Johnson, as their candidate. Evidently the Hoover managers are fully satisfied now that this group will have no formidable candidate, and no dangerous strength. The decision shows more confidence than has been apparent for a long time in the Republican organization.

The troubles of the high-riding Roosevelt boom now are transferred to North Dakota, where Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray has been

Texas Is Decked In Winter Style

SUB-ZERO WEATHER IS CONTINUING; SNOWS FALL OVER STATE

(By The Associated Press)

A continuation of cold, unsettled weather in Texas for at least one more day was forecast by the weather bureau today. The storm was expected to bring more snow or rain to some portions of the state.

Snow covered much of Texas in the past 24 hours but the fall was relatively light. Weather bureau observers believed the snow blanket protected crops from additional damage last night, although they had been hurt severely by the cold previously.

Rain falling in the extreme lower Rio Grande valley was regarded as a measure of protection against crop losses there. The county agricultural agent at Brownsville said crops would be retarded slightly but were not damaged. Although the temperature reached a low mark of 32 there last night it was believed citrus groves and vegetables were unhurt.

Readings Unchanged

Low mercury readings over the rest of the state last night showed a range similar to those which has prevailed for several days. At Amarillo the low mark was 12 degrees above zero, Abilene 22, San Angelo 22, Plainview 14.5, Lubbock 19 Wichita Falls 24 and Brownwood about the same.

Between one and two inches of snow covered the Panhandle-Plains region. Additional flurries were reported today.

Abilene said much damage had been done to blooming fruit, grain and early vegetables in that section.

Snowing Lightly

The snow fell in northeast Texas averaged less than one inch. Dallas had a minimum temperature

WASH TUBBS' SAFETY NOW WORRIES FOLK

And now Wash Tubbs takes his place alongside the Lindbergh baby in the anxiety of Daily Journal readers.

Intermingled with the telephone inquiries on developments of the Lindbergh baby kidnaping today came a number of questions concerning the safety of Wash.

"Is Wash Tubbs really dead?" "Will he be found in this afternoon's Journal?" What's the latest news on Wash's disappearance?" These along with other queries were heard over the Journal's phone.

One young girl's voice asked, "Don't you have any wires on what's happened to Wash?" She was told that Tubbs in all probability was safe, that Wolfgang was just working a trick. The puzzled girl, disturbed by the explanation explained to the fan that there would be no news on Wash until the paper was off the press this afternoon. The Tubbs strip runs daily in the Journal. Turn to page 11 and see what's happened to Wash today.

SNOW LIGHT HERE

Snowflakes individually large and collectively negligible fell here this morning. A temperature of 17 degrees was recorded at the state experiment sub-station from about 7 to 7:30 o'clock this morning, Don L. Jones, superintendent, reported. Little snow was being caught in the station's gauge. The superintendent, however, estimated the snowfall at a quarter to half an inch. The sun, which broke through the clouds about 9 o'clock, had again withdrawn before noon. Temperatures were moderating at noon.

STOCK LEADER IS WITNESS

SAYS FEDERAL BOARD REFUSED AID FOR STRICKEN AREA

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 11—W. A. Moody, president of the St. Louis livestock exchange, told the house agriculture committee today the farm board in 1929 refused drouth aid to dairymen not members of their co-operatives.

He testified C. B. Denman, livestock board member, said in a St. Louis speech dairymen should apply to the farm board for assistance during the drouth and then stated no man could borrow "one cent" unless he belonged to a farm board organization.

Wrote To Hoover

"If that is not coercion and attempted bribery I don't know what it is," Moody said. "I was so mad I wired President Hoover asking if Denman was right and Hoover replied he had the right to make such statements."

He then wrote Aleander Legge, as chairman of the board, asking for a loan and received the reply: "join the co-operatives."

EDITOR FOUND WITH BULLET IN HEAD

R. E. WESTER SUICIDE VICTIM AT HOME IN NEW MEXICO

R. E. Wester, editor of the Mountainair, N. M., Independent and a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wester of Lubbock, shot and killed himself early Thursday night at his home, the Associated Press reported. His wife and three children heard the shot, ran into the bedroom and found him dead. He was about 40 years old.

The editor's mother; a brother, Fred C. Wester of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. Lyna Tipton of Lubbock, and a cousin, Miss Marguerite Whipp of Lubbock, left last night for Mountainair. Other survivors are the father, realtor and former Lubbock county Democratic committee chairman; another brother, Woody Wester of Lennox, Calif.; another sister, Mrs. Madelle Lindsey of Meadow, and an aunt, Mrs. C. M. Whipp, sister of Mrs. J. K. Wester and also a Lubbock resident. The father also is a former superintendent of Lubbock public schools.

Funeral Set Sunday

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and burial will be there, Fred C. Wester notified relatives here early this afternoon. An American Legion post will have charge of the rites. The newspaper man had served about 12 years in the United States navy. The brother described the discharge of the gun as accidental, relatives here said.

Most of R. E. Wester's adult life outside the navy was passed in the newspaper business, relatives said. He went to Mountainair a year and a half ago from El Paso, where he had a weekly paper. Earlier, R. E. and Woody Wester conducted a weekly in Lubbock.

Shot Through Head

A dispatch from Mountainair reported the editor shot himself through the head. Details of his death had not been learned by relatives here, they indicated. He had been in ill health and chiefly for that reason had gone to New Mexico, they said.

KNOB KNOCKED OFF SAFE IN GROCERY

PIGGLY - WIGGLY LOSES $250 IN CASH AND $200 IN CHECKS

(Special To The Journal)

SLATON, March 11.—A safe in the Piggly-Wiggly Co. grocery here was robbed of about $250 in cash and about $200 in negotiable checks early today. Other checks, not believed endorsed, also were taken.

A night patrolman reported the safe-break at 2:30 o'clock this morning, Tom Abel, chief of police, said. A railroad check, a government voucher, and some cottton checks were believed to have been in a negotiable condition, the police chief reported.

The front door of the stoore was pried open and the knob knocked off the safe, near the front of the store. A cash register, unlocked and containing money, was not looted. No burglar tools were found by investigators, Slaton police reported.

Officers On Lookout

Lubbock police at 3 o'clock were notified of the knob-knocking job and asked to be on the lookout for suspects. A tip that two men who had arrived in Lubbock in a truck and registered at a Lubbock hotel possibly were connected with the robbery proved groundless, John Lemond, chief of Lubbock police, said.

Will Earnest, deputy sheriff, and George Eubank, Lubbock police identification officer, aided in the investigation.

Police reported shortly before noon no arrests had been made in the case.

Federal Grand Jury Names Thirteen Men

BEAUMONT, March 11 (AP)—Allegations that they smuggled liquor into this country from vessels off the Texas and Louisiana coasts resulted in federal grand jury indictments yesterday against 13 men.

Among those indicted were George Musey, W. H. Schroeder, Joe Abrams, Lum Patillo, Joe Jamail and Theo Owens. Names of the others were withheld pending their arrest.

BURKETT WILL ENTER RACE

FORMER SENATOR WILL FAVOR REFERENDUM OF PRO LAW

(By The Associated Press)

WEATHERFORD, Mar. 11.—Joe Burkett of San Antonio, former state senator, said here today he would run for congressman-at-large for place number three, after seeing an announcement that Sterling P. Strong of Dallas had chosen the same place on the ballot.

"Mr. Strong is a fine gentleman and my friend," he explained, "but I understand he is opposed to a referendum on the prohibition issue and I am in favor of submitting that question to the people. I always have been and yet am a prohibitionist but I am a Democrat first and I believe in the Democratic doctrine of letting the people govern themselves on all important questions. Hence I favor submission of the question of the liquor problem to the people and shall abide by their decision and represent their views in congress."

Burkett appeared before the Democratic state executive committee at its meeting Wednesday in Fort Worth and sought unsuccessfully to have the committee consider its action designating places on the ballot rather than allowing candidates for congressman at large to engage in an open race.

Railway Dispute Is Threatening Lines

WASHINGTON, March 11 (AP) — A committee of three members will report to President Hoover on a dispute between two railways and their employes which the president said threatens to interrupt commerce in parts of Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas.

DALLAS, March 11 (AP)—Owen Merrill, regional manager of the agricultural loan branch of the reconstruction finance corporation, returned to Dallas headquarters today after a two-week tour of the state, convinced that a greater demand will be made for agricultural loans than was first expected. WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS REFUSED

A writ of habeas corpus application by Bertie Brooks, convicted in district court of liquor law violation here and released several months ago from an insane asylum at Wichita Falls, was denied by Judge Clark M. Mullican in 99th district court this morning and she was remanded to the sheriff's custody, pending a hearing to determine whether she is sane.

Evidence introduced by the woman's attorney was that she was released from the asylum last December and when found in Lubbock county was taken into custody by the sheriff's department, and the liquor case, meanwhile, had been appealed and affirmed.

Vaughn E. Wilson, county attorney, opposed the habeas corpus application. The sheriff had filed an affadavit that she was at large and now sane.

Workmanship Given Approval On Akron

WASHINGTON, Mar. 11. (AP)—The house naval committee agreed unanmously today there now is no "poor workmanship or faulty material" in the airship Akron.

Without objection, it approved a report by a special subcommittee which said: "The subcommittee finds from the testimony submitted if there was any poor workmanship or faulty material used in the construction of the Akron that the same was corrected before the ship was completed."

NO PEACE YET IS SIGHTED

CHINESE ADAMANT IN DEMANDS FOR JAP WITHDRAWAL

(By The Associated Press)

SHANGHAI, March 11—Chinese authorities were adamant today in refusing to accept any peace settlement which did not include unconditional withdrawal of Japanese troops from the Shanghai area.

As a result, although both the League of Nations adopted March 4 looking toward a settlement of hostilities here, no peace was in sight today.

The Chinese reiterated they were unwilling to enter into a conference on any other basis than unconditional withdrawal of troops by the Japanese and Japanese diplomatic circles, although they said they were not only willing but anxious to enter into a conference with the Chinese, indicated it was imperative that the two sides get together on an interpretation of the League's resolution.

OLD MAN WINTER GIVES NO INTIMATION THAT HE IS PLANNING LETUP IN SEVERE LASHING HE IS GIVING

(By The Associated Press)

Winter, a furious oldster, continued to larrup Uncle Sam's boys and girls today.

Over much of the land, Americans climbed out of bed shivering to find the uncomforting phrase "not much change in temperature" still in the papers after five days of storm and the season's worst chill.

On the Atlantic the long spasm continued during the night. The crippled collier H. F. DeBardeleben, her crew fled in the nick of time, sank 900 miles off Boston. The freighter Harburg, off Nova Scotia, waited rudderless for help and the tug Foundation Franklin, slicing the waves toward the scene, lost her steering gear and called for aid.

Five coast guardsmen on the patrol craft "218" were missing with their boat off Deleware Capes. Twelve vessels sought them.

On Lake Erie a government dredge, with 40 men, was gripped in ice floes; a fish tug was saved after a fight through snow swept floes and fish nets worth thousands were endangered.

New York City was colder yesterday than any day this season, the mercury dropping to 13 above. One man was frozen to death there and western New York's second blizzard of March claimed the life of a Buffalo merchant.

Snow fell near the Gulf of Mexico. Houston, Tex., got so excited about white flakes it clogged the phone exchange talking about it. Crops suffered.

Life Is Forfeited In Oklahoma Prison

McALESTER, Okla., March 11 (AP)—Martin A. Keeney's life was forfeited to the state last midnight for the club slaying of W. H. Folwell, 73-year-old Britton farmer.

Keeney, 45, walked unassisted to the electric chair in state's prison here and was pronounced dead seven minutes after the death switch was thrown for the first shock at 12:06 a. m.

SWEDISH PRINCE WEDS COMMONER

LONDON, March 11 (AP)—Prince Lennart, grandson of King Gustav of Sweden, and Miss Karin Nissvandt, daughter of a wealthy Stockholm business man, were married at the prince's row registry office at 11 a. m. today.

The prince and his fiance came to London a fortnight ago for their wedding because King Gustav refused his consent to the marriage and it could not be solemnized in Sweden.

The prince's mother, the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia, came from New York a week ago but did not attend the ceremony. He renounced his rights to the succession to the Swedish throne in order to marry his bride, who is a commoner. They plan to live in Switzerland where the prince has an estate. He will devote his time largely to cattle raising.

Agricultural Heads To Attend Session

Three agricultural leaders have notified the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce they intend to attend a district Farm Bureau federation meeting here May 5 and 6.

M. S. Winder, executive secretary of the American Farm Bureau federation, of Chicago; E. F. Creekmore, general manager of the American Cotton Cooperative association, of New Orleans, and R. J. Murray, manager of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, of Dallas, are the three.

Murray's Name Is Filed In Primary

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 11 (AP)—Filing of Governor W. H. Murray's name as a Democratic presidential candidate in the Ohio primary May 20, was announced today by George Henshaw, Murray-for-president manager here.

Murray will make a three-day speaking tour of Ohio.

WOMAN ENTERS GUILTY PLEA

ESTELLE WOFFORD IS GIVEN FIVE YEARS; TERM SUSPENDED

A five-year penitentiary sentence was imposed on Estelle Wofford, alias Mrs. Charles L. Vannoy, and suspended by a 72nd district court jury early this afternoon, after she had pleaded guilty to forgery. The jury received the case at about 12:05 o'clock and returned a verdict at about 12:20 o'clock this afternoon. Arrested in Clovis, N. M., the woman was returned here in early February.

Two negroes, Johnnie Price and Lonnie Anderson, were acquitted of robbery with firearms, in an instructed verdict this morning in 72nd district court. Charles Williams, 2013 Avenue J, was the complaining witness, and in justice court had identified the two negroes as those he alleged held up and robbed him of $17 here the night of January 4. Judge Pharr instructed the verdict because of "insufficient evidence."

Wallace Acquitted

An acquittal was won by Richard Wallace, about 19, charged with armed robbery of a grocery store here January 9. The jurors, in 72nd court, heard the case Thursday, and late in the day returned a verdict within five minutes after beginning deliberations. William Fletcher, proprietor of the grocery, had identified Wallace.

The trial was opened Thursday morning and testimony was completed at about 4 o'clock. After arguments, the jury received the case at about 6 o'clock. Defense testimony was to show Wallace was with friends at the time the store at 1604 Nineteenth street, was robbed.

A CUPFUL OF HILLS BROS COFFEE PROVES THAT CONTROLLED ROASTING MAKES A FINER FLAVOR

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow . . .

a little at a time

. . . so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting — the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously . . . "a little at a time."

Perfect roasting by Hills Bros' patented process always develops the perfect flavor of the coffee-berries

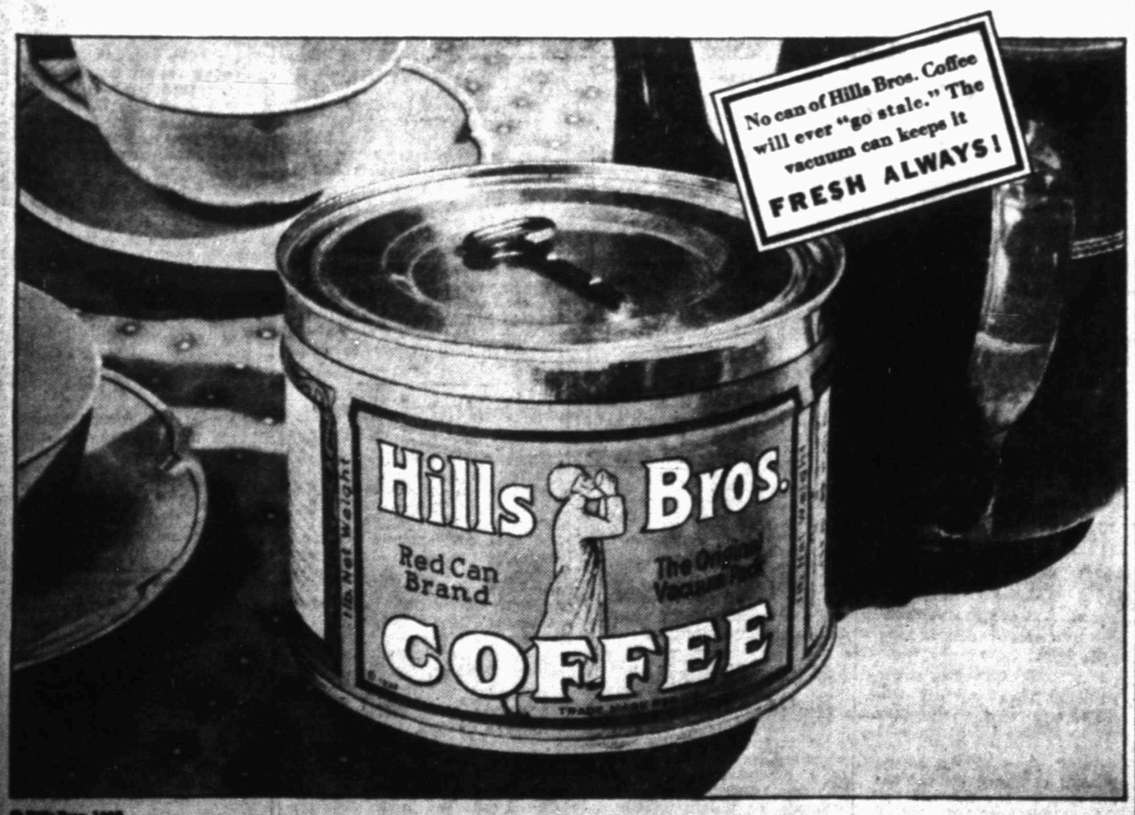

Roasts "a little at a time" instead of in bulk

Roasting, you know, is one of the most important things that takes place in the production of coffee. For it really influences the flavor. Ordinary coffees are roasted in bulk—several hundred pounds at a time. Such big batches make accurate roasting difficult. Sometimes the coffee is underdone; other times overdone. Either affects the flavor.

Instead of roasting in bulk, Hills Bros. roast a little at a time . . . as the coffee flows evenly, continuously through the roasters. It is called Controlled Roasting, invented and patented by Hills Bros. Every berry is done to the perfect degree. Naturally, a perfect roast gives the perfect flavor of coffee! And it never varies.

Hills Bros. Coffee is packed in vacuum cans, and can't go stale. The vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness — the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can — it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh.

Lift a steaming, invigorating cup of Hills Bros. Coffee to your lips. Sip that taste-thrilling flavor. Prove to yourself that Controlled Roasting does make better coffee! Order some today. Ask for it by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

Good looks aren't always luck

Sparkling eyes and a smooth complexion depend on good health.

The beautiful woman guards against constipation. She knows this condition can cause headaches, sallow skin, dull eyes, pimples, premature aging.

Protect yourself from constipation by eating a delicious cereal. Tests show Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. In addition, ALL-BRAN furnishes blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. How much safer than pills and drugs — so often habit-forming.

Two tablespoonfuls daily—in serious cases, with every meal—will correct most types of constipation. If your trouble is not relieved in this way, see your doctor.

Serve as a cereal, with milk or cream, or use in cooking. At all grocers. In the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek

LAMESA IS TO GET OFFICE

HEADQUARTERS OF SIX COUNTIES WILL BE IN DAWSON CITY

(Special To The Journal)

LAMESA, March 11—Lamesa and Dawson county is to be made headquarters for six counties in the administration of the government productive loan, which has recently been set up by congress whereby farmers may obtain loans to produce the 1932 crop. J. M. Tanner will be the district supervisor in charge, and will be located here.

The loan committee is W. K. Crawley, T. D. Randal, and W. P. Averiett. The counties to be served out of Lamesa are Gaines, Borden, Howard, Martin, Andrews and Dawson. Last year 348 farmers in Dawson county took advantage of government seed and feed loans, and the amount of $73,000 was loaned in the county. Ninety er cenpt of these loans have been paid back, and the remaining 10 per cent has been satisfactorily arranged with the government authorities for carrying over. It is pointed out by many that farmers will not need as great amount of loans this year as last, due to the fact that an ample feed crop has been made generally over the county. Ninety per cent of these be in position to take care of more loans than last year, although the low rate of interest, 5 per cent, offered by the government will be some inducement to many applicants, it is said, and too, there are sections of the county where the farmers would actually need this form of loan, due to the fact that the production in these sections was cut short on account of the lack of rains at the proper time, and because commodity prices were so low that the productions raised have been applied on old debts and to make a living with no expense money realized.

MOTHER LOCATES LONG LOST SON

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11 (AP)—After a silence of 19 years Mrs. Ray Shroyer, San Francisco, has heard from a son who was taken from her when a baby, Red Cross officials announced here today.

The son, Lloyd Shroyer, 22, the officials said, located his mother through a letter sent to the Red Cross here. He gave a Johnson City, Tenn., address.

Mrs. Shroyer said her husband, C. R. Shroyer, took her son to Indiana 19 years ago supposedly to visit relatives. She had been unable to locate either of them since, she declared.

In the letter to his mother, delivered through the Red Cross, the son said his father took him to Crockett, Texas. He said he is a former sailor and was at Johnson City for his health.

Wages And Salaries Of Group Get A Cut

SONORA, March 11 (AP)—The executive committee of the Sheep and Goat Raisers association of Texas Thursday scaled down wages and salaries 20 per cent in a meeting attended by 35 members.

The next meeting of the committee will be held in Uvalde in June.

The meeting was featured by a chuck wagon dinner and by the formal acceptance of the new bitterweed unit by T. O. Walton, president of A. and M. college.

Judge J. A. Whitten, chairman of the livestock sanitary commission, and A. B. Conner, T. A. Kincaid, president of the association and Judge James Cornell praised the new bitterweed unit.

T. A. Kincaid, president, presided.

QUEENIE SETS NEW RECORD IN PRODUCTION

DETROIT, March 11 (AP)—Queenie, the biggest ostrich in the Detroit zoo, outdid herself in an effort to bring down the price of eggs—ostrich eggs.

Zoo keepers, hardened to unusual happenings in their domain, were confounded to discover that Queenie had laid two eggs, each weighing more than three pounds, within 30 minutes.

"I never heard of such a thing," insisted John W. Ireland, zoo director. "An ostrich lays from one to two dozen eggs a season, but each egg is laid from three to five days apart. Queenie, now has gone out and set some kind of an egg-laying record."

Bidders for an omelette were turned away by Mr. Ireland.

African Gorilla Is Loser At Hospital

WASHINGTON, March 11 (AP)—N'Gi, a six year old West African gorilla in whose fight for life all the resources of modern science were enlisted, died early today at the national zoological park.

A few weeks ago the animal, one of the few of its kind in captivity, caught a cold which soon developed into pneumonia.

Expert physicians brought to his aid all the facilities of medical science. An oxygen tank was set up in his cage at one time.

A non-staining lubricating oil has been developed by the U. S. Bureau of Standards.

WOMAN FACING PEN TERM

MRS. SALLIE WATSON IS FOUND GUILTY IN BANK JOB

COLUMBIA, Miss., March 11 (AP)—Mrs. Sallie Watson, charged as an accessory in the robbery here January 7 of the Bank of Columbia, was convicted late Thursday by a jury in Marion county circuit court.

She was sentenced by Judge L. Q. Langston to serve ten years in the state prison, and in the event of an appeal to the state supreme court, he fixed her bond at $5,000. She formerly was a resident of Monroe, La.

Her conviction followed that of N. A. Dickson, of Uvalde, Texas, who has entered an appeal from a 15-year sentence for the robbery. He is said to have formerly operated a theater in Texas of which Mrs. Watson was cashier.

State testimony showed the woman had registered with Dickson at a Hattiesburg, Miss., hotel. They were arrested in that city a few days after the bank robebry.

DAIRIES SHOW GRADE SLUMP

MILK FROM SIX OF CITY'S DAIRIES BELOW GRADE

Milk from six of the 30 dairies whose product had been tested this month had dropped below the grade A rating now held by those dairies, first tests this month by the city health department showed. New ratings for all of the 46 dairies distributing milk in Lubbock will be made April 1.

Names of dairymen failing to uphold the ranking under which their milk is sold were not given out by health officials because three other tests are to be made before final rating is made. "We hope they will correct the trouble and that subsequent tests will show lower bacteria counts," said H. E. Hargis, who with D. F. Wulfman, city bacteriologist, is making the tests.

Milk with a bacteria count of 50,000 or less per cubic centimeter is grade A. All dairies distributing milk here now have that rating. The six dairies whose milk fell below their grades have been given a week in which to reduce the bacteria count. If the count is not lowered, a grade B or C label—depending on the number of bacteria—must be used.

Procedure in making the tests follows: One cubic centimeter of the milk is placed in 100 cubic centimeters of water. One CC of this solution then is placed in 10 CC's of water, thus making a solution of 1 part milk to 1,000 parts of water. One C C of the liquid is placed with a culture liquid of Agar, beef extract and peptone and is kept at blood temperature for 48 hours. Each bacteria in the solution multiplies until the colonies are visible to the eye. Each colony represents an average of 1,000 bacteria per CC in the milk. Distilled water, which is boiled immediately before a test, is used.

SURTAX RATES ARE BAFFLING, OFTEN THE SOURCE OF THE MISTAKE; BEGIN ON NET INCOMES EXCEEDING $10,000

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the final article on preparation of income tax returns, written for the Associated Press by David Burnet, commissioner of internal revenue).

BY DAVID BURNET
Commissioner of Internal Revenue

WASHINGTON, March 11. (AP)—The normal tax rate is 1 1-2 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the personal exemption, credit for dependents, etc.; 3 per cent on the next $4,000; and 5 per cent on the balance. The surtax rates—in computing which many taxpayers make mistakes, usually to their own disadvantage—begin on net incomes in excess of $10,000. The rates increases in accordance with the amount of net income included in varying so-called income tax brackets.

The following table shows the surtax due for 1928 and subsequent years upon certain specified amounts of net income. In each instance the first figure of the net income in the net-income column is to be excluded and the second figure included. The percentage given opposite applies to the excess of income over the first figure in the net-income column. The last column gives the total surtax on a net income equal to the second figure in the net-income column.

Net Income	Per Cent	Total Surtax
$10,000 to $ 14,000	1	$ 40
14,000 to 16,000	2	80

Earned Income Credit

The recipients of earned income are allowed a credit against their tax representing a portion of the tax attributable to their earned income. The tax computed on the individual's return is credited with 25 per cent of the amount of tax which would be payable if his earned net income constituted his entire net income but such credit can not exceed 25 per cent of his normal tax plus 25 per cent of the surtax which would be payable if his earned net income constituted his entire net income. The maximum of earned net income is $30,000 and the minimum is $5,000. If a taxpayer has no earned income, his entire net income not exceeding $5,000 is considered earned net income.

Earned net income means the excess of the amount of the earned income over the sum of the earned income deductions. Earned income deductions mean allowable deductions which are properly allowable to or chargeable against earned income. Earned income means wages, salaries, professional fees, and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered.

In computing the earned income credit of an individual having a net income not in excess of $5,000, the amount of his earned income up to but not exceeding $5,000 is treated as earned net income, whether or not any portion of such income was actually earned.

Partnerships

Partnerships as such are not subject to taxation but are required to file returns of income. The individual members of a partnership are, however, taxable upon their distributive shares of the net income of such partnership, whether distributed or not, and are required in their individual returns.

Corporations

Every corporation not expressly exempt from taxation must file a return regardless of the amount of its income if it had a corporate existence during any portion of the taxable year.

The return of a corporation should be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer, and it should be filed with the collector or internal revenue of the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the corporation.

Train dispatcher, conductor and engineer must have unvaring time.

COTTON PLAN TO BE SHOWN HERE

The strip-crop plan of farming will be explained to county agents and farmers in this section in the next 10 days by H. V. Geib, of the bureau of chemicals and soils of the United States department of agriculture, if his plans are carried out. He is stationed at Temple.

"Strip crop" farming as explained by Mr. Geib is the planting of two or three crops in strips on the same piece of land. The method is used to check wind erosion and also to act as a barrier against water erosion. The method is better adapted to land that is too level for terracing. The only disadvantage in this area, Mr. Geib pointed out, is the fact that the lower leaves from the feed probably would blow into the cotton in late fall. Tumble weeds do this anyway, he said, so that isn't so much of a fault.

The amount of crop a man wishes to plant in the strip plan depends upon the amount of feed he wishes to raise, Mr. Geib pointed out.

He reported that James Gammil, living several miles south of Lubbock, planned to put in 150 acres in strip cotton and feed this year.

Mr. Geib will be in the area for about two weeks. He will visit Levelland Friday and will be at Amherst Saturday.

Tax Collections In Lynn Show Up Well

By Staff Correspondent

TAHOKA, Mar. 11.—Fifty seven per cent of the 1931 tax roll in Lynn county has been collected, says C. M. Cade, county collector. Mr. Cade also reports a substantial collection of 1930 and other delinquent taxes, on which penalties were remitted by the state.

Actual collections of the 1931 roll was $54,092, the collector said. School tax payments for the common and other districts paid into the collector's office were less than the county and state ratio. It is believed this collection will not exceed 40 per cent.

State taxes were $47,580.70, and county $51,439.06. The entire roll was $110,585.79 for all purposes.

Funeral Rites Are Carded For Today

Funeral services for Mrs. J. P. Long, about 73, a former Crosby county resident and acquainted in Lubbock, were to be conducted at Plains at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Burial was to be there. She died at 7 o'clock Thursday morning at her home at Plains. Death was attributed to pneumonia or an allied ailment. Six children, three brothers, and two sisters survive her.

Tom Franklin, who farmerly resided in Lubbock when not at Plains, is a brother of Mrs. Long. Fred Spikes and Isham Tubbs, both of Lubbock, are cousins.

Assessing Work Of Lynn Progressing

By Staff Correspondent

TAHOKA, Mar. 11.—Better than one fourth of the assessing work for the 1932 tax roll of Lynn county has been completed, A. I. Thomas, assessor, reports.

Mr. Thomas reports splendid cooperation on the part of resident property owners. The 1931 valuation was $6,479,883 and it appears there will be little change from this figure for 1932.

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

Further proof that spring and baseball is on the way is the appearanse of Charles Spink's Sporting News Record Book for 1932. It is one of the handiest little albums known to sports writers and followers of baseball, doubly appreciated by the former because it comes free. It contains batting and fielding averages of last year, World Series figures and complete schedules for the 1932 season. Adorning the cover is a likeness of Robert Moses Grove, a pitcher, after a fashion, for the Philadelphia Athletics. Last year's book carried a picture of Hack Wilson on the cover, and the preceding year it was Mickey Cochrane. Who will it be after the 1932 season?

So if you want to know the distance from home plate to right field on the Detroit American League diamond or the leading lifetime swatsman or when to credit a stolen base in the scorebook, the department is ready to import the information.

Among other things we could tell you is that Earl Webb, outfielder of the Boston Red Sox, in 1931 batted out 67 two-base hits to surpass the former major league record of 64, created by George Burns, then of the Cleveland Indians, in 1926 . . . that Lou Gehrig, present in every Yankee lineup since June 1, 1925, enters 1932 with a record of having played 1,041 consecutive games—366 less than Everett Scott and 62 less than Joe Sewell . . . that the same Gehrig broke the American League record of 175 runs batted in, which he established in 1927, by driving 184 tallies home last year . . . that the adopted theory is for a starting pitcher to complete five innings to be credited with a victory.

Ordinarily not given to emotional outbursts, we were deeply touched by the news of the death of John Philip Sousa, master of band music and inspirer of millions of souls. His end came suddenly and without warning, which may be one of the reasons why so little of publicity has been given his passing. It is not diverting from the realm of sport to pen our feeble tribute here, for did he not write the music which has thrilled hundreds of thousands of stadium occupants over the world and which has undoubtedly inspired hundreds of grim visaged athletes to carry or kick the ball just a little bit farther? Sports writers are humans, too, and the value and appreciation of good music, particularly as the bands of the nation play it, is not lost upon them.

John Philip Sousa was America's first and last in the world of band music and band direction; it is safe to say that no one preceded him and it is not likely that his successor will be as great. He left monuments to himself that will live as long as music. The strains of "The Stars and Stripes Forever", of "El Capitan," of "Semper Fidelis," and of the great "Washington Post March" will keep marching. No true sportsman can ever forget Sousa, for they'll always hear his music. It has twice been our good fortune to see him direct his fine band, and we'll never forget it. Truly, Sousa marches on.

Having nothing else to do, a writer took the trouble to shadow a St. Louis Cardinal ball player the other day down at Bradenton, Florida, just to see how he spent his time. The "grind" of training camp life, as exemplified by this typical prospect (they're all prospects now) is pictured as follows:

Out of bed at 7:30 a. m. and to breakfast at 8 bells. To the ball park at 9:30 and a workout from 10 to 11:30. By motor car to the hotel for a sandwich and a glass of milk. A 90-minute session at the ball yard commencing at 1 o'clock, concluded his official duties. Then to a golf course for an afternoon's unofficial fun and after dinner there followed a fishing excursion. What a grind! Watta grind!

YOUNG OUTFIT HAS PLENTY OF SPEED

WINNING PROSPECTS RATHER DARK FOR KILLEFER TEAM

BY ALAN GOULD
Associated Press Sports Editor

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Mar. 11 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns, best of the second division clubs in the American league last year, have a fast young outfit that shows distinct signs of improving.

It has, quite frankly, no pennant prospects nor more than an outside chance of crashing the first division in a circuit top heavy with the strength of four leading clubs, but the reconstruction program of Manager Bill Killifer is showing favorable results.

Develops Youngsters

Step by step, Killefer has patiently rid the Browns of disension, developed young players and, finally, eliminated the "bonus system" that upset the club's morale to some extent last season. The players now can concentrate on contributing the maximum to team play, instead of attempting individual exploits.

Holdout troubles have beset the Browns. Killefer has been handicapped by the delay in signing such stars as Goose Goslin, Ralph Kress, Dick Ferrell and Wally Stewart.

Boys Are Hustlers

Meanwhile he has concentrated on the development of his young infield. "We tried the experiment last year of installing most of the Wichita Falls infield as regulars," said Bill. "It gave me a few more grey hairs but these boys have kept hustling and should all be better ball players this season.

"Burns, at first base, should make a real star. He has gained confidence and he can hit. We will give Jim Levey another chance at short. He must settle down to keep the job, however. Oscar Melillo will take care of second base, without giving me anything to worry about.

Gets Regular Berth

"I have decided to put Ralph Kress in right field regularly, instead of shifting him around the way we were forced to do last season. He played three infield positions and the outfield in 1931. Lin Storti will get every opportunity to make good at third."

There will be plenty of punch in an outfield composed of Kress, Fred Schulte and Goose Goslin but Killefer would like another good left handed clouter for alternate duty.

The pitching staff has a strong quartet in Stewart, one of the best southpaws in the league; George Blaeholder, Dick Coffman and Sam Gray.

Wally Hebert, who southpawed the Athletics into subjection in his first start, is the brightest of the young hurling prospects. Big Chad Kimsey, Bob Cooney, from Wichita Falls, and Americo Polli, up from Milwaukee, all look good.

With Dick Ferrell and the veteran Benny Bengough behind the bat, the club is well fortified.

Another Gibbons Is Starting On Career

MINNEAPOLIS, Mar. 11 (AP)—Another Gibbons has started a ring career that may follow the famous path blazed by Mike Gibbons, the phantom.

The latest aspirant seeking to bring fame to the Gibbons clan, is Jack Gibbons, 19-year-old son of Mike. Competing in the second annual northwest golden gloves boxing tournament which started here last night, Young Gibbons won a three-round decision over his first opponent, Bernard Wood, Henriette, Minn., in the middleweight division. It was the same class in which Mike fought two score years ago.

AROUND THE TRAINING CAMP CIRCUIT

BRAVES ON TRACK

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 11 (AP)—The Braves have turned to track for their competitions in these days of bad baseball weather. Wally Berger has yet to be beaten in the 60-yard dash that is a part of the day's training session. Ben Cantwell runs away from the pitchers. Bill Akers is the infield star and Al Spohrer gives his catching rivals a handicap and still holds the honors.

GOLF ONLY EXERCISE

FORT MYERS, Fla., March 11 (AP)—Golf is about the only exercise George Earnshaw and Al Simmons have had so far in their two-man training camp at Hot Springs, Ark. Joe Boley reported on his arrival from the Spa. He said it has been too cold for the two Mackmen to work out with a baseball.

PHILLIES VS. CARDINALS

WINTER HAVEN, Fla., March 11 (AP)—The Phillies' regulars, who shut out the "B" team by the tight score of 1 to 0 in a practice game yesterday, will be used against the Cardinals at Bradenton tomorrow, Manager Burt Shotton has announced.

Reg Grabowski will pitch the first three innings, with Roy Hansen handling the middle three and Homer Dudley finishing off.

MAKE THIRD ATTEMPT

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 11 (AP)—Shono Collins' Red Sox today make their third attempt to hold a nine-inning practice game. Everyone is in excellent condition with not even a sore arm in the camp, despite the wintry weather that has halted two previous attempts at a rannigan-regular game.

MYSTERIES CLEARING

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 11 (AP)—If old Jack Quinn of Brooklyn should stick around the majors another 20 years all the mysteries that surround him might be cleared up.

Nobody—perhaps not even Jack himself—knows how old he is but it finally has been learned he is not Polish.

Quinn says: "I'm English with just enough Irish and Welsh seasoning to make me spicy."

HAS MATERIAL SURPLUS

LOS ANGELES, March 11 (AP)—With the player limit cut to 23, John McGraw of the New York Giants is worrying most these days about what to do with surplus material.

In addition to his regular infield, McGraw has a second complete set of inner defense men and two sets of outfielders.

HARRIS TO REPORT

BILOXI, Miss., March 11 (AP)—Whatever there may be to talk that Outfielder Dave Harris will be used together with First Baseman Joe Judge in a trade for a pitcher, he will report in time for tomorrow's workout here with the Washington Senators.

TO INSERT REGULARS

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., March 11 (AP)—It was just a coincident that last year's regulars broke training camp at Palo Alto and joined the main body of Detroit Tigers here the day the Bengal recruits lost a 6 to 5 decision to the Pacific Coast league Seals.

Manager Bucky Harris said, however, he would insert some regulars in the lineup now that the squad is together again. The recruits twice defeated the Seals before dropping yesterday's 10-inning thriller.

WEARY OF BICKERING

TAMPA, Fla., March 11 (AP)—Bickering with the Brooklyn Dodgers involving holdouts Stripp and Cuccinello of the Cincinnati Reds moved on today while reports buzzed about camp that Norman Perry, owner of Indianapolis of the American association, again is seeking to buy the Reds.

BETTER WATCH INDIANS

NEW ORLEANS, March 11 (AP)—Watch out for the Cleveland Indians this year! In the opinion of conservative Billy Evans, the Tribe's general manager, the Cleveland team will finish 1932 "no worse than third."

And if just one more good pitcher is developed, plus reasonably good shortstopping, Evans believes, the Indians will be pennant contenders. He predicted every player of last year's squad will be better this year and that among the recruits he has several aces up his sleeve.

CONCLUDE TRAINING

PASO ROBLES, Calif., March 11 (AP)—Concluding their training period here with a practice contest today, the Pittsburgh Pirates will leave for Oakland where they open their exhibition tour Sunday with the Oakland coast league team.

Pirates pitchers gave the first indication of being ready for hard work when two veterans, Bill Harris and Larry French, hurled the yannigans to a 4 to 3 win over the regulars in an errorless game yesterday. Each allowed one run.

LOOK FOR HITTERS

SAN ANTONIO, Mar. 11 (AP)—Any member of the Chicago White Sox squad who shows signs of being able to hit is likely to be carried a long time this season.

From the 1931 club, which finished last in the American League, only Lu Blue and Lew Fonseca, among the regulars, reached or bettered .300. Smead Jolley, the emtryo catcher, also notched .300, but was used only as a pinch batsman. Where the Sox punch, if any, is coming from, no one knows, and efforts to locate it have been retarded by unsuitable baseball weather.

FATE IN BALANCE

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Mar. 11 (AP)—The next six days probably will determine the fate of certain Chicago Cub recruits who must prove their rights to major league uniforms.

Six battles with the New York Giants starting today, will give the youngsters enough testing to enable Manager Rogers Hornsby to decide who is to remain with the club or be turned over to the Los Angeles club.

INDOOR TRACK STARS FACE CONTESTS

OLYMPIC TRACK HOPES FACE TESTS FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

CHICAGO, March 11 — Midwestern stars cherishing Olympic track hopes will encounter their big indoor tests tonight and tomorrow night in the western conference and central intercollegiate conference championships.

Trials for places in the finals of both meets, the Big Ten in the University of Chicago's new fieldhouse and the Central at Notre Dame, will be held tonight.

Michigan rules favorite to retain the Big Ten title, due to experience and team balance, while Notre Dame appears powerful enough to withstand all challenges in its league. The Wolverines have Indiana to fear and it would not be surprising to see the Hoosiers win their first indoor title. Marquette and Michigan State are Notre Dame's biggest threats.

The United States team will consist of George Voigt, Leonard Martin, Clive Alvord, Pennington Miller-Jones, Robert Lave, Charles Sheldon, George Hackl and Eddie Held.

PIPGRAS HAS FOUND SECRET

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Mar. 11. (AP)—George Pipgras has discovered the secret of Vernon Gomez's sensational success with the New York Yankees last season.

"The catcher," says Pipegras, 'gives Gomez the sign but even then he doesn't know what Lefty is going to pitch.

"The batter doesn't know what's coming.

"Gomez doesn't know where the ball is going.

"The umpire doesn't know what to call it.

"Thus everybody's fooled and victories pile up."

DEMPSEY FLAYS YOUNG OPPONENT

AKRON, Ohio, March 11 (AP) — Reminiscent of the eager young mauler who wrote a new chapter in professional prize fighting at Toledo a decade ago, Jack Dempsey knocked out a youthful and belligerent foe here last night after a round and a half of toe-to-toe slugging.

His victim was Hank Hankenson, 205-pound Lancaster, Ohio, farm boy, who first sent the old champion reeling to the ropes with a left to the jaw and then swarmed over him in a vicious mopping up maneuver.

Tiny Powell, second opponent on the pair of two round exhibition bouts, weathered the match but was floored eight times, each for the count of nine, in the second round.

College Team Threatens To Win A. A. U. Tourney

(By The Associated Press)

KANSAS CITY, March 11—A college team threatens to take the A. A. U. national basketball title out of the hands of the "Independents" which have dominated the field both in numbers and quality for eleven years.

The Northwest Missouri Teachers of Maryville, exponents of "precision basketball" and undefeated champions of the Missouri Intercollegiate Athletic association, play the Southern Kansas stage lines team of Wichita, Kas., in the semi-final round of the annual A. A. U. tournament here tonight.

Only two college teams—Washburn of Topeka, Kas., and Butler of Indianapolis—have won the championship since the tournament became a fixture here in 1921.

The Henrys clothiers of Wichita, winners the last two years, meet the Schuessler Athletic club of Chicago in the other half of the all-midwestern semi-finals.

Card Shortstop Is Remaining Holdout

AMBLER, Pa., March 11 (AP)—Shortstop Charley Gelbert of the St. Louis Cardinals said today he still was a holdout and had no intention of visiting the Cardinals' training camp at Bradenton, Fla.

His statement answered reports he was to leave for the south.

HOARDING DROP IN U. S. NOTED

WASHINGTON, March 11 (AP) — Federal reserve board figures today showed a decrease in money hoarding, a steady diminution in bank failures and an increase in the country's gold supply.

Loans to brokers and dealers in New York on securities also rose, increasing $57,000,000 to $552,000,000, indicating increased stock market activity.

The activities of President Hoover's anti-hoarding committee were reflected in the weekly statement of the board. The largest drop in money in circulation since President Hoover inaugurated a drive to call hidden money into use was reported.

The statement showed $39,000,000 was in circulation the week ending March 9 as compared to the previous week and made a reduction of $87,000,000 in circulation since February 10. On March 9 there was $5,554,000,000 in circulation in the United States but the amount still was $993,000,000 greater than one year ago. Money in circulation includes money hoarded.

Gallagher will speak Monday at Las Vegas, Tuesday at Albuquerque, Wednesday at Roswell, Thursday at Las Cruces and Friday at Phoenix.

An honest heart is not to be trusted with itself in bad company. —Richardson.

Art And Hard Times

Hard times or no, the cause of art seems to be a flourishing one. The American Art Dealers Association recently came to bat with the estimate that during the past year gifts of paintings, sculpture and facilities for art appreciation and education worth more than $136,000,000 were made to the American public.

Most of this is made up of the opening of new museums and of private collections turned over to the public. Chief among the latter is the $50,000,000 collection of the late Henry Clay Frick, which became public property last fall on the death of his widow.

4 years of depression may not seem a good year for such munificence. The charitable organizations could have used that $136,000,000 very nicely. Yet to criticize would be to take a very narrow view. Those art gifts will be valuable to the nation for many years to come. Regardless of hard times, the money was well spent.

Appalling Toll

Nearly all industrial eye accidents are preventable. Yet more than 2000 American workmen lose the sight of one or both eyes each year through accidents, and more than 300,000 suffer less serious injuries to their eyes. In fact, more people are permanently robbed of their sight by occupational hazards than through any other single cause.

These facts were brought out the other day by speakers at a safety conference held in New York under the auspices of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, and they deserve the earnest attention of employers and employees everywhere.

Safety education campaigns among workers can do much to cut down this toll. In some plants, too, it has been found advantageous to order all workers to wear goggles. But whatever needs to be done, it is obvious that both labor and management must tackle the problem together. The present toll is an appalling one.

Don't Step Back

President Hoover is entirely correct in speaking out vigorously to urge that appropriations for public schools be maintained as close to their present levels as possible in spite of the depression.

"However, the national economy may vary or whatever fiscal adjustments may need be made," he remarked, "the very first obligation upon the national resources is support of the public schools. We cannot afford to lose any ground in education. That is neither economy nor good government."

Of course, where school systems are conducted extravagantly and inefficiently, the pruning knife can be used to good advantage. But that is not often the case; and when we consider slashing the school budgets we ought to bear in mind the president's warning—that it is "neither economy nor good government" to cut into those expenditures.

Installment Tags

Authorities in Arkansas have found a novel way of making the depression easier for motorists, simply by permitting automobile owners to pay for their 1932 license tags in installments instead of in a lump sum, as is usually the rule.

Many taxpayers are unable to pay the full amount now, but can pay part of it now, part in June and the remainder in September. And the plan has much to commend it.

There are those, of course, who insist that people whose incomes have been radically reduced by unemployment or part-time work have no business trying to run their automobiles. But the auto, in a great many cases, is an absolute necessity. A ruling that permits the ordinary citizen to continue using his auto when he is hard up is apt to be a wise one.

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says it won't be long now until schools of pharmacy will insist upon courses in domestic science for prospective druggists.

When all candidates for Congressman-At-Large are finally out in the open Texas will have new census figures to supplant those of 1930.

POLITICALLY-minded ladies and gents—particularly those who have found fault with municipal and school administrations during the past two years—are hereby formally notified that the city election will be held on April 5 and the school board election three days earlier, on April 2.

Candidates for city offices may announce as late as March 25, when the deadline falls.

Candidates for places on school board may file as late as March 22.

Two years ago some agitated citizen called The Plainsman the day after the filing deadline for school board positions and seemed to take it as a personal slight that this column didn't advise prospective candidates when the last filing day came.

In order to side-step any such howl this year, The Plainsman is printing the above information, not because he feels that it's necessary but because he doesn't care to listen to any more silly protestations to the effect that he's trying to keep the election facts a deep, dark secret.

THIS column's advice to those who are dissatisfied with city and school administrations is that they get out candidates and let the people decide. While not agreeing with either the city commission or the school board in 100 percent of their activities, The Plainsman personally thinks they have done very well. Naturally, everyone does not agree, which is perfectly all right. Everyone has a right to his own opinions and a difference of opinion is a healthy state of affairs.

The Plainsman's greatest criticism of both the city commission and the school board is probably caused by the fact that he is a newspaperman. Where this column falls out with both groups is that they don't let the people in on their official activities as much as they should and of the two groups the school board is the most tight-lipped.

If the people find out what the school board's doing in many a regard it is only because the newspapers stumble over it—it's not because the board gives it out. And that fact, in The Plainsman's opinion, is where the school board has made its greatest mistake.

THE personnel of the school board here is unusually high. During the past five years the school system has been improved by leaps and bounds until it is of undisputed high standard. It has become one of Lubbock's greatest drawing cards to new citizens.

But a lot of people don't realize it because they aren't told what's been done, what's being done and what's going to be done.

If the public were regularly and generally advised of the actions of the board a lot of the criticism shot at the board would never have arisen.

This is The Plainsman's honest opinion and if he's wrong it won't be the first time.

BY golly, there seems to be a well organized movement on foot in Lamb county to embarrass and discredit The Plainsman. Ever since this column failed to give our neighbors to the northwest as much credit as they deserved in the matter of cotton production, The Plainsman has been getting it in the neck from up that way and now the worst has happened.

D. A. Adams, Lamb county agent, is demanding that The Plainsman be on hand at Littlefield on March 22 to engage in a hog calling contest.

Now ain't that sompin?

Everybody knows that an old boy who came to this country when there weren't any fences, who rode the Old Chisholm trail and camped among the buffalo skulls down around Old Double Mountain, doesn't know anything about hogs—especially about what to call them.

This is a terribly painful state of affairs.

THIS 'cow, sow and hen' business is undoubtedly the thing for this country as it is today but back when The Plainsman was active around these parts it was the steer that was carrying most of the load. He'll enter a steer calling contest, all right, all right—but when it comes to hogs, well that's the color of another horse.

Just what kind of an answer The Plainsman will make to Mr. Adams and the rest of those fellows up in Lamb county is still a matter of conjecture, but you can rest assured he'll wiggle out of it some way or other.

Omigosh! Omigosh!

That Man on Avenue Q says he'd like to see the army of unemployed get out of their entrenchments by Christmas.

If a product is known by the company it keeps, what about ginger ale?

THE year 1932 may or may not prove to be an important twelve month in the well known return to normalcy but one thing can already be said for it. If our magazines can be taken as a criterion, this is the year that "athlete's foot" has passed out of the picture, along with sassafras tea and asafetida.

Back in late, lamented 1931 four out of five had it and the fifth knew where to get it.

Even if a girl's longest walk was from curb to car, she might still be a victim of "athlete's foot", along with the fat, fifty-ish broker whose greatest endeavor in the field of sport might be a cursory inspection of Grantland Rice's column.

The epidemic must have swept the country. Otherwise, how would we have heard so much about it?

BUT thanks to a change in calendars—and advertising appropriations—"athlete's foot" has gone by the boards and although The Plainsman hasn't taken the matter up with any of his medical friends he is wondering if mebbe "athlete's foot" hasn't run into "B.O.", which has taken its places in the magazines.

Stranger things than that have happened and the idea at least opens up a new field of experiment.

Old-Timer Tells Story Of Early Days With Jack Garner; He Knew Him When He Was A Cow-Town Lawyer

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, March 11—Your correspondent has just had the privelege of meeting one of Speaker Jack Garner's old fellow townsmen from Texas, John F. Robinson, who used to be sheriff of Val Verde county.

Dutcher

Robinson was born in Uvalde and was there when Garner came, in his early twenties, to practice law. The ex-sheriff is a jolly, nervy, tanned little Texan bubbling over with enthusiasm for his old pal, and when he left the speaker's office headed south he was promising to stop off at Houston and San Antonio to make sure the boys and girls there are on their toes in the big boom for Garner for president.

Says Garner Has "It"

"It was back in '93 or '94 when Jack Garner came," he reminisced. "After that you'd never see that fellow on the street or anywhere that he didn't have a crowd around him.

"He always had that little thing you call 'It.' It was recognized that he tended strictly to his own business and let the other fellow do likewise. But he loved to play poker and billiards and have a good time all-around. He was a good talker and there was not a man in Uvalde county who didn't like him.

"He was famous as a poker player. He and I went wild over billiards for awhile, and whenever you got ahead he'd want to keep on, tenacious until he got the edge again.

Just Another Cow Town

"Uvalde was a cow town of about 2000, with many swell, big cow ranches around it. It was predominantly cow country, and still is. There were only four or five saloons in Uvalde, but they were all popular. Everybody used to drink hard liquor in those days. Not much beer. But I never saw Jack 'full.'

"He was very decided in his likes and dislikes. Always quick to say yes or no, and no quibbling. That's the idea about John. When you go to him and ask him a favor and he says 'yes,' you can just walk off and forget it and know it's going to be done.

All 777 for Garner

"The Big Bend country is strong as garlic for Garner. My town of Marfa turned in 777 votes for a straw vote in El Paso the other day, and every one of the 777 was for Garner for president.

Uvalde "had the reputation of a killing town," according to Robinson, but that was before Garner's time. Nearly all disputes were settled with guns. Even in the Garner period, however, there were shooting scrapes. "The last one was between Mark Hemphill and Ben and Henry Patterson in Joe Doughty's saloon," Robinson recalled. "I forget what it was about. Hemphill got behind the bar and put a couple of old water cruets on top for a shield and shot from behind them.

"The Patterson boys didn't hit him, but shot the cruets plenty. As they were leaving through the door Hemphill shot Ben right in the seat of the pants."

Knows Sheep Raiders

Garner became a judge and moved into politics. Robinson was elected sheriff of the next county, Val Verde, which had "lots of hard sheep and goat thieves." Robinson broke the gang up after eight hard years—"I trailed them until I knew their habits better than they did.

"About eight Mexicans sent word from the Mexican end of Del Rio (county seat) that we didn't have guts enough to come and get them. I got four fellows and went. The Mexicans were wanted for every crime in the category. It was pitch dark and they stood in the middle of the street, shooting, shoulder to shoulder. We stood there, too. There wasn't any place to hide behind, anyway. We killed one and four others died from their wounds. Three got away. Those Mexicans must have been drunk—their aim was so bad."

These are prosaic days, even in Texas, and Robinson is now head of the Marfa chamber of commerce. He was up here to persuade the War Department not to abandon Fort D. A. Russell in Marfa, which means a lot to the town.

Diet and Health

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 3 cents in coin for each article with a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1418 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are "Reducing and Getting," "Diet of the Expectant Diet," "List of Boards," "The Care of the Baby," "Feminine Hygiene," and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are "Normal Indigestion and Constipation for Mothers," "Bad War and Skin," "Infant Feeding," "Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

MOLES AND CANCERS

"Some time ago you printed an article on the subject of moles in which the suggestion was made that moles may be forerunners of cancer, and a recommendation that they be removed," says a correspondent. "Several physicians of whom I have inquired claim it is dangerous to remove moles. Is the cause of moles known? Has elimite or diet anything to do with them? What can be done to prevent their appearance and growth?"

Dr. Clendening

The advisability of removing moles in order to prevent cancer, was a quotation from some statements made by Dr. Joseph Colt Bloodgood, who is active in the work of the Society for the Control of Cancer.

Beauties do not have Cancer was the way it was put by some epigrammatical surgeon. The old days when the verdict, "That girl paints," was equivalent to social ostracism are gone and attention to the smoothness and beauty of the skin is not only commendable but the sign of a proper modern attitude towards the preservation of health.

Dr. Bloodgood's argument went as follows:

1. A beautiful woman keeps her body scrupulously clean and will not permit moles, warts, "sores" or rough spots on the skin to mar her pulchritude. so, when they appear, she has them removed or treated immediately;

2. Cancer does not develop on the clean, smooth and unblemished skin;

ERGO: Beautiful women are not subject to cancer.

So far as moles themselves are concerned, most of them are quite harmless, and with certain people they are so numerous as to make attempt at removal quite impractical. Most decided brunettes have from ten to twenty moles scattered over the body. A well known physician announced a few years ago, after what was apparently serious research, that the average number of moles on everyone's back was five.

Single moles, especially dark pigmented moles, no matter where found on the contrary, should be removed.

Besides that, there are a number of skin conditions called moles which are really pigmented warts and when found in places such as near the junction of two kinds of mucous membrane, for instance on the edge of the lips, they should be removed. Also when they become irritated or tend to be cut while shaving or cleaning the face.

Neither climate nor diet have thing to do with moles. They are tissue growths and depend for their existence on the constitution of the patient.

As to the danger of removal, a prominent authority states that the danger of removal is so slight that the only serious consideration in selecting a method is to employ one which will leave no scar. Electrodisecation and electrolysis with the negative electrode are probably the best. The latter is painless and leaves no scar.

IN NEW YORK with Gilbert Swan

The Admirable Jenner

NEW YORK, March 11—When George Arliss' newest picture, "The Man Who Played God," was flashed upon the nation's screens recently there were those who noticed an interesting parallel between scenario and reality.

In the film story is a fine and loyal bond between master and valet. In Arliss' own life there is Arliss and there is the ever-faithful Jenner.

For 20 years, the valet has served the actor and from the Hollywood lots have come many tales of the watchful care exerted by the servant. He is a veritable nursemaid admonishing the veteran player when he works too hard; getting him to work on time; telling him when it's quitting time and insisting that work shall be stopped for the old English custom of afternoon tea.

A Matter of Note

But one of the most unusual bits of chatter going about New York concerns Toscanini, the great Italian symphonic director—perhaps the greatest in the world.

It is generally known in musical circles that Toscanini conducts without music. Each program is a prideful matter of memory with this genius. After the unpleasant experience with Mussolini while in his homeland last summer, Toscanini returned and took up the baton in Carnegie Hall. He had many worries and some slight attacks of illness.

In the course of one of his last New York concerts, so goes the tale, the director forgot a note—one note out of a half hour score. Yet so upset was he that he determined upon the rest that he is now taking . . .

The TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN PICTURES by JOE KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The baker's monstrous pie-house was a very funny sight because the entrance, made of a pie, had just one little door. "Walk right in here," the baker cried. "There's just one way to get inside. I'd have another entrance, but I don't need any more."

"You see I bake here day by day and, after all, to me it's play. It's fun to watch my dough bread rise just like a big balloon. I'll do a lot before you go. That way I'll have a chance to show you heaps of sights. Oh, you all will be real thrilled pretty soon."

Then into his bake shop they went. About a half an hour was spent in looking 'round. The Tinies thought it was a wondrous place. The baker watched them as they gazed and everyone seemed fairly dazed. "I love it," shouted Scouty, with a smile upon his face.

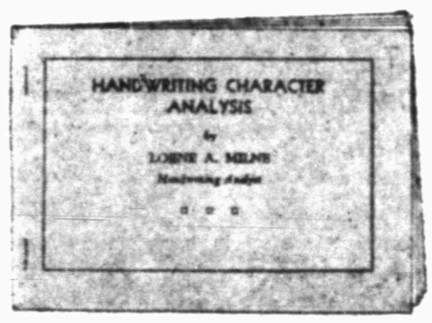

"Oh, look," cried Duncy. "What I see! Those cookies look real good to me. Say, can we have one, baker man? We're hungry as can be!" "Why, sure," replied the baker man. "I've just removed them from the pan. I guess they're cool enough to eat. Go right ahead and see."

Just then they heard wee voices shout. "Hey, someone kindly let us out." The oven door flew open and some cream puffs came in sight. "It's much too hot in here," said one. "And too much heat is far from fun. If we can get out in the air, I guess we'll be all right."

The baker cried. "All right, jump free. I'm sure it's quite all right with me. You're nice and brown, so you are done. I'm glad you didn't burn." The Tinies watched the bunch jump out, amid a very cheerful shout. Said Windy, "Gee, most every day there's something new we learn."

(Duncy gets into an awful mess in the next story.)

COMMITTEE IS NAMED HERE

PROCEEDINGS IN CITY PROGRESS; THREE ON COMMISSION BODY

Condemnation proceedings directed at four structures here, described by inspectors as unsafe, assumed a progressive turn Thursday, when City commission appointed a committee of three Lubbock building contractors to inspect the frame and brick hulks. W. G. McMillan, H. H. Shell, and J. W. Sampson are the committee.

The commission appointed the committee after receiving joint recommendations by the fire, health, and building departments that the Temple Ellis building shell and remains of another business structure and of two residences be condemned. Wiley Metcalfe, fire marshal; W. E. Twitty, fire chief; Dr. J. O. Rollo, city physician, and D. J. Schlag, building inspector, made the report after inspections.

To Report Findings

The appointed committee will be expected to report its findings to the commission at its next regular meeting, March 24.

On being advised as to possibility of merging the Lubbock independent school district and the city tax assessors and collectors offices the commission fixed 7 o'clock next Tuesday as the time of a joint meeting of City commission and the Lubbock district board of education in City hall. The board of education previously had accepted the commission's invitation to a meeting together, and the commission had postponed setting a date until further information was available.

The commission was advised that it could "acquire exclusive control of the schools within its limits, providing a majority of the property tax-paying voters of such town or city vote in favor thereof." Four public schools in the Lubbock independent school district are outside the corporate area. It was pointed out

Could Extend Lines

Should Lubbock take charge of the public schools within its limits, it could, by ordinance, extend its corporate lines for schools purposes only, on a petition signed by a majority of the resident qualified voters of the territory to be taken in, and recommendation by a vote of the trustees of the public free schools of the city. City commission was told

A caliche base for pavement 50 feet wide from the north end of the Avenue H underpass to the slab on state highway No. 9, will be put down as soon as remaining property owners have signed paving liens at a rate of $2.50 a front-foot, the commission decided.

Unemployed men, registered by the City-County Welfare association, will be given jobs on the project, it was said officially Purchase for $600 of heating equipment to use in connection with a new engine at the municipal light plant was agreed on.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, March 11 (AP) — Firm early cables gave cotton a good start today. First sales on active months were 3 to 4 points net up, with May selling at 7.07, July at 7.24 and October at 7.40. The advance again brought out hedge selling, although only on a small scale. This pressure put May down to 7.04, July to 7.21 and October to 7.38, or losses of 2 to 3 points from the opening levels before the end of the first half hour. Much snow has fallen over the western half of the cotton region, with freezing temperatures to the gulf coast and lower Rio Grande.

The market eased off a little further before the end of the first hour. May establishing a low of 7.02, July 7.19 and October 7.37, for net losses of 3 to 5 points from the opening figures, or unchanged to one point net down on the day. For the rest of the morning the market was extremely quiet and trading was nearly at a standstill. Declines in stocks just before noon failed to impress the market. At midday May stood at 7.03, July at 7.20 and October at 7.38, unchanged to one point up on the day.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, March 11 (AP)—Cotton opened firm today at an advance of 1 to 4 points on trade buying and covering, promoted by steady cables. May sold at 7.08.

There was some southern selling in the later months and Liverpool sold here early, according to local observers, but offerings were light and prices fluctuated in a range of 3 or 4 points during the early trading. At the end of the first half hour, May was selling around 7.04 and October 7.42, or about 1 to 2 points above yesterday's closing quotations.

Trading continued quiet later in the morning, with prices sagging slightly under small offerings which probably were promoted by the action of the stock market. At midday May was selling around 7.03 and October 7.40 or within a point either way of yesterday's closing quotations.

Talk On Insurance Given Business Club

Declaring that life insurance protection should come next to food, clothing and shelter, Sam R. Hay, jr., agency manager of the San Jacinto Life Insurance company and son of the well known Methodist bishop, of Beaumont, addressed members of the American Business club at the Hilton today noon. R. J. Keller presided in the absence of President W. S. Ruffner.

Preceding Mr. Hay's talk, Mrs. Earl Snapp of Fort Worth favored the club with two humorous readings.

"The Place of Life Insurance in the Family Budget" was the subject of Mr. Hay's talk and he detailed the various reasons why this feature should be made a regular expenditure for the modern family. "A man can continue his earnings to his family through life insurance quicker, cheaper and surer than through any other plan," he said.

C. W. Barclay of Amarillo was another out of town guest at the luncheon besides Mr. Hay.

Texas Industry Is Facing Hard Period

FORT WORTH, Mar. 10. (AP)—The Texas cattle industry is facing its hardest period in many years and the industry throughout the southwest would suffer immeasurably by an increase in stocker cattle rates to market points, E. B. Spiller, Fort Worth, secretary and general manager of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers association, testified Thursday afternoon in the joint hearing of the Texas railroad commission and the corportion commission of Oklahoma.

The hearing, in progress before C. B. Bee of the Oklahoma commission and R. I. Wells, representing the Texas commission, with examiner D. T. Copenhafer of the I. C. C. assisting, probably will close late today. Testimony in the hearing will be used to complete records to be used in cattle rate adjustment in the southwestern territory.

swinging round the rural circle asking for votes at next Tuesday's primary.

While Murray hammers away in the west and south, Governor Albert C. Ritchie keeps on the go in the east and north, and the boom for Speaker John N. Garner leads to hot words in congress. Former Governor Smith shows no sign of discouragement at his failure in New Hampshire. He has enter Pennsylvania and California, and is keeping his name in the hat in Massachusetts, despite a demand by Mayor Curley of Boston that he quit.

Roosevelt Leading

Roosevelt now has 48 delegates, Murray has 22. Only 20 others, Louisiana's, have been chosen, and they are uninstructed. This is just a beginning toward the convention total of 1154.

There will be a contest from Minnesota, for the Smith men bolted the state convention. They were far in the minority, however, and will have great difficulty getting into the Chicago convention. The bolt is not very damaging insofar as it indicates a party division in Minnesota, for that state never has been in the Democratic electoral column anyway.

If what the Smith Minnesotans did, however, is an index to the temper of the Smith forces elsewhere, then the development is of verywide importance. It is that sort of development which makes party leaders catechise one another earnestly on this very pertinent point: "If they're bolting already in March, what will happen by November?"

GERMAN VOTING

no partisan group, but the representative of all sections of the German people.

Beside the towering, square-shouldered figure of the "Feld-Marschall" the dapper, slim, somewhat dandified figure of the 42-year-old Adolf Hitler seems insignificant. But something like hypnotism emanates from this apostle of a Germany in which nationalism would be predominent, parliament abolished, the Jews driven from positions of power, the socialists branded as enemies of the fatherland, the communists ruthlessly suppressed, the Bruening government and all its stands for thrown into the discard and the treaty of Versailles renounced.

A Man Of Masses

Thaelmann, 44-year-old transport and dock worker, is truly a man of the masses, who came from the humblest ranks and is proud still to share the lot of the humblest. His is the rough-and-tumble direct speech that every worker can understand.

To make Germany a great military nation again, to reintroduce the universal military drill of pre-war days, to inculcate unquestioning obedience to superiors in the youth —these are some of the aims dearest to Duesterberg's heart.

German Reduction On Tariff Planned

BERLIN, Mar. 11. (AP)—A reduction of Germany's high tariff on wheat and an increase in the percentage of foreign wheat which may go into German-made flour will be put into effect about April 1, according to reliable information receiver today.

The proposed action here is one phase of a similar move, although not so extensive, planned in France and Italy.

Sentence Of Alvis Graves Yet Pending

A 12-year sentence dealt Alvis Graves by a 72d district court jury which found him guilty of murder was to be pronounced by Judge Homer L. Pharr this afternoon or Saturday. The judge late Thursday said Graves, tried for the slaying of Horace L. Smith of Lubbock, would be sentenced today or Saturday. Formal pronouncement had not been made this morning.

At the first trial, the Lubbock man was sentenced to 99 years imprisonment. The conviction was appealed to the state court of criminal appeals where a reversal was won.

Smith and Robert Averett were killed at a Lubbock residence Jan. 10, 1931. Graves claimed self-defense.

LINDBERGH CASE

attempted to communicate with the kidnapers by newspaper advertisement, letter, telephone or by other means, or whether he has received any message x x x which he believes to have come from the kidnapers? If the answer to this is the usual 'no answer' will you kindly explain why the question is not answered?"

So far as is known, the vital facts remain brief.

The baby has not been found.

Two Are On Trial

Two men with gang influence—Spitale and Bitz—whom Col. Lindbergh authorized last week to act as his agents in dealing with the kidnapers (should they hesitate to deal with him directly) were called into federal court in Brooklyn today to answer a charge of prohibition law violation.

A gangster volunteer in the baby search—the notorious Capone—pleaded from his Chicago jail cell for release under bond so he might exert his admittedly extensive underworld influence toward effecting return of the child to his parents.

Another Figure Seen

A fourth figure with a gangland background—Morris Rosner — has called at the Lindbergh home during the past few days, according to Edward Mulrooney, commissioner of New York police. It was Rosner, according to some sources of information, who caused Spitale and Bitz to be named as possible go-betweens, in the belief that professional criminals would not hesitate to deal with them, regarding both Spitale and Bitz as "square shooters."

In his cell in the Cook county jail in Chicago Al Capone, under an 11-year federal prison sentence for income tax law violation, said he was "pretty sure" he could get the Lindbergh baby back to his parents if he were released on bond. He proposed that he be released on bond—"I'll post as much bond as the government asks, $300,000 if need be"—so that he may have a chance to see what he can do.

Disclaims Theories

Capone disclaimed any theories about the kidnaping other than a belief that "some mob did it."

When George E. Q. Johnson, federal attorney in Chicago, was asked what he thought of freeing Capone temporarily to give him a chance to help on the Lindbergh case, he said:

"I know of no formal move now afoot to free Capone on bond. I don't want to say what my reaction would be to such a move until it is made."

Citizens of other countries can enter the U. S. Military and Naval academies by a special act of Congress.

Gets 'Rake-Off'?

Members of a New York banking house testified before the Senate Finance Committee at Washington, D. C., that Juan Leguia, above, son of a former Peruvian president, accepted a $415,000 "rake-off" for aiding in floating a $100,000,000 loan in Peru.

TEXAS WEATHER

of 22, Palestine 24, Longview 26, Corsicana 21 and Tyler 22. It was snowing lightly today at Palestine and other points.

The mercury sank to sub-freezing levels in portions of South Texas. San Antonio reported a low reading of 26, Houston 28, Corpus Christi 30 and Austin 26. Vegetable crops in that region were hurt seriously. Beaumont's low mark was 32, as was Galveston's. Port Arthur reported 34, Del Rio 30 and El Paso 30. Light snow fell today at Del Rio, Austin, Port Arthur and other points.

At Waco .6 inch snow fell. The minimum temperature was 22, but the mercury rose sharply today. A trace of snow fell early today.

Falls Are Reported

The weather bureau reported snow falling today in northern Louisiana, Arkansas, as well as New Mexico, western Colorado and Utah. The storm also extended south and east to the Atlantic seaboard.

Denton had a minimum of 18 degrees with light snow. The temperature there had not risen above the freezing point for 36 hours. There also was snow at Denison.

Badly Mangled Body Of Man Discovered

ABILENE, Mar. 11. (AP)—The badly mangled body of a man believed to be 25 to 30 years of age, and thought from papers to be Sidney Rubinson of New Orleans, was found three miles west of Abilene, on the Texas & Pacific right-of-way, early today. Letters were found.

The body was frozen when found, indicating the man had fallen from a train early in the night. The victim was fairly well dressed. He lay for hours in temperatures ranging from 21 to 24 degrees.

A justice of the peace returned a verdict of accidental death. The body is being held by a local undertaker.

FIVE OBJECTIVES OF SUMMER CAMPS FOR SCOUTS GIVEN IN ANNOUNCEMENT

Five objectives of summer camps are set forth in a bulletin from D. T. Jennings, South Plains Area council scout executive, to scoutmasters. Two points of procedure in best accomplishing the aims also are given.

Scoutmasters' opinions of the suggestions are asked for use of the council camp committee. The five objectives are:

Objectives Given

1. Give the greatest possible number of scouts camping experiences.
2. Give both scouts and scout leaders the greatest opportunity to develop camping skills.
3. Give both scouts and scout leaders the best possible opportunity to develop both leadership ability and initiative.
4. Give scoutmasters a better opportunity to get closer to their boys through the 24-hour association possible by this method.
5. Help the scoutmasters in their efforts to build up troop unity and loyalty.

Would Shorten Camp

In procedure, the camp committee recommends shortening of the camp period from 10 days to a week, so a greater number of scouts and scoutmasters can attend, and making it imperative for troops to camp as troops under local leadership.

Means of development in objective No. 2 are designated as encampment of each troop under its own troop leadership, planning and carrying out its own troop program so far as practical, and general supervision of all by the camp director and camp staff.

Local Businessmen Invited To Affair

Lubbock business men have been invited by officials of the Huriwood schools to attend the community program to be given there tonight when the Lubbock County Farm Bureau federation holds its first program for 1932. The program begins at 8 o'clock and will last until 10 o'clock.

The invitation, addressed to "Lubbock Business Men" reads:

"We would be pleased to have your presence at our Huriwood community program, given at the school auditorium Friday evening, March 11, from 8 to 10 o'clock. The community would think the program incomplete without you."

Signed:

G. K. Horton, secretary, school board.

W. A. Fincher, superintendent of schools.

W. R. Ferguson, principal of schools.

The chamber of commerce said today that a number of business men would probably attend. That organization will be represented both by members of its official family and by several business men, it was said. Weather conditions may prevent some from attending the meeting.

Fort Worth Banks To Cash Warrants

FORT WORTH, March 11 (AP) — Agreement on the part of Fort Worth banks to cash up to $50,000 of the deficiency warrants issued for the pay of national guardsmen on duty in the East Texas oil fields was announced at the dinner of the Texas Oil and Gas Conservation association. The dinner followed meeting of the board of directors of the organization during the day, attended by some fifty members of the board from all parts of the state.

The action of the Fort Worth banks was made public in the course of a speech by Colonel J. Lewis Thompson of Kilgore and Longview.

UNION SUPPORTS BILL

WASHINGTON, March 11 (AP)—The support of the National Farmers' Union was given today to most of the provisions of the La-Follette bill for a $5,500,000,000 public works program to relieve unemployment.

NEW SHREDDED BISCUIT EXTRA GOOD WITH HOT MILK

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits Offer Many Improvements

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are especially delightful with hot milk. And many mothers are taking advantage of this in serving a healthful and most convenient breakfast treat these cold mornings.

Before the new Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit was introduced, the Kellogg Company submitted it to the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia, which found it so rich in food value that every package now carries a certificate.

This means that mothers can now know definitely that their children are getting a well-balanced food whenever they serve the new Kellogg biscuit—extra rich in minerals, vitamins, proteins.

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuits are "pressure-cooked" by a special process that bakes in the delicious flavor. At the same time, it retains all the valuable food elements of the whole wheat.

The biscuits are much crisper and tastier because they are toasted a tempting brown on both top and bottom—not just one side. They are baked in a more convenient, economical size. Two biscuits just fit the cereal bowl—and you get 15 to the package.

Identify this improved cereal by the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

$40,000 SOLD

In the last three days I have sold more than $40,000.00 of our foreclosed homes. I said in my advertisement in last Sunday's paper that any one who wanted a nice brick veneer home should see me at once. A great many did, and evidently some bought, and all of them were surprised to learn the details of the plan that is selling houses more rapidly than at any time in Lubbock for the past two years. I have about $60,000.00 worth left, with any number of prospective buyers, inspecting and investigating the various properties. There must be something to this plan that you do not know about or why would so many Lubbock people who want homes be interested after they came to see me? My office is 708 HILTON HOTEL, and I extend a most cordial invitation to any interested or prospective home purchaser to call and learn the details of this plan that is subject to withdrawal without notice, by our Board of Directors.

To Make It Easy To Dressup For Easter

Hart Schaffner & Marx SUITS $25

Here are square woven worsted suits—worth many dollars more—for Easter $25. New Spring colors—Bronze tan, University gray, Dusk blue. In the best two button notch lapel models. Sizes and models for every figure.

You bet they measure up to our 4 TEST (shown at the left or they wouldn't be here.) They are worth more than $25, they look more than $25, they wear like more than $25.

4 Tests That Make Buying 100% Certain At This Store

1. IS IT STYLE? If it isn't correct in every detail the merchandise never enters our store.
2. IS IT WELL MADE? We're sticklers for quality. Tailoring must be right or out the goods go.
3. WILL IT WEAR? We test for strength, fast dye, cleaning fluids. The merchandist must hold up.
4. WILL IT SELL FAST AT A SMALL PROFIT? We want the merchandise so good that it moves fast. That means we can take less and give more.

CONSTABLE IS DISLOYAL TO ANTI-HOARDING

AMARILLO, March 11 (AP)—Constable Howard Elliott is disloyal to private "anti-hoarding" plans.

The constable took a hand when R. C. Smith, Fort Worth youth, found himself suddenly in possession of more than $1,000 in compensation insurance and—more disconcertingly"—with new-found "friends" who planned to accompany him home. Smith had paid cash here today for a small car. In doing so, he "flashed" a roll of several $100 bills.

Leaving the impression that Smith was under arrest, the constable escorted the young man to his room for his luggage, then took him by a bank to deposit his money, and finally set him on the road to Fort Worth—alone and with only $19 for epenses.

Lynn County Will Have Many Voters

By Staff Correspondent

TAHOKA, Mar. 11.—Lynn county will have at least 2,428 voters for the 1932 presidential and state elections, records of C. M. Cade, collector, show. That number of poll tax receipts were issued in 1931.

No record was kept of the number of "overs" and "unders". It is believed that these will bring the total voters to above 3,000.

Colorado contains 43 mountain peaks which are more than 14,000 feet above sea level.

FIVE-YEAR PLAN DISCUSSED HERE

No economic system of forced labor fed by propaganda can succeed, Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the Texas Technological college history department, declared Thursday before the Lubbock Kiwanis club at the Lubbock hotel, in speaking of the Russian five-year plan. G. E. Damewood had charge of the program.

"Whatever happens to the people of Russia, they will be better off regardless of the outcome of the plan," Dr. Jackson said. "They couldn't be any worse." He outlined details of the plan, told of what it was seeking to do and explained that few people understood any of its purposes.

"Success Doubtful"

"The plan consists of the location of raw materials, the development of machinery, increase of production, development of agriculture, development of transportation and the mobilization of thirty per cent of the national income into the construction of capital goods over a period of five years. Its continued success is doubtful, it was revised upward after the first two years, revised downward recently and will likely undergo more revision before it is completed.

"Its failure probably will be due to the fact that Russia cannot secure credit from the world. The government is now forced to pay one-half cash in its purchases and the countries dealing with it raise the price so that they will lose very little if any at the one-half cash basis and take heavy discounts which are usually clear profit on the remainder due.

"The leaders of the communist movement would have the Russian peasant believe that the Soviet mind must be militant; that it must be activistic; that it must be classless; that universal labor must be secured; that it must be secular, atheistic and materialistic; that it must be political; it must be collectivistic; it must be non-nationalistic and internationalistic and lastly that it must be healthy and sexless.

Believed Doomed

"My personal optnion is that the Five-Year plan is doomed to failure. Only one and one-half per cent of the total population of the country is actively affiliated with the communist party and the party is attempting to run the government. Out of their experiments there may be something that is worthwhile but out of the very success of the plan is failure. For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his soul?"
