

It is to photograph the back side of the moon—a mission from which the Soviet Union released photographs Oct. 24 showing the hidden terrain was mostly mountains. It missed the moon.

Lunik I, launched Jan. 2, 1959, missed the moon by 4,700 miles and went into orbit around the sun.

The United States landed Ranger 4 on the back side of the moon April 26, 1962. This was an instrument jammed, 730-pound space craft. But the fantastically complex device had been turned by brain failure in flight into a hurtling ball.

Kennedy's new money request for the fiscal year starting next July 1 is now $4,525,000,000, or $20 million more than the $4,505,000,000 called for in his fiscal 1964 budget submitted in January. Before he got the Clay report.

Officials figured actual spending for fiscal 1964 would probably drop less than $100 million during the year as a result of the proposed savings because spending lags behind appropriations.

In the new money request, $1,005,000,000 would go for armaments and a $25 million reduction for the January figure—and $1,120 million for military assistance. $345 million each for ing officials said, stem from postponements of the time when developing countries are expected to be ready to qualify for loans and from reducing from $400 million to $300 million the amount of the presidential contingency fund used for emergencies. They said $300 million seems ample for any foreseeable emergencies.

Sounding part of the theme in the Clay report, Kennedy said a major new initiative in the city hall. The polls will close at 7 p.m.

—expanding U.S. government guarantees to American investors overseas against losses from expropriation and other political causes. Officials on the guarantee program against such risks would be raised from $1.3 billion to $2.5 billion under Kennedy's proposal. This does not require new appropriations.

STRANGE THINGS HAPPENING—It was carnival time last night at the Scurry County Boys' Club, and this poignant scene illustrates some of the wacky things going on at the various booths set up. The youngster at right served as target for wet sponge throwers, and is giving his impression of what he thinks of the whole business. The "arrow through the noggin" bit. Your guess is as good as mine. The better booths will be up again to-night, and the public — particularly the teenage set — is extended an invitation to attend.

Fruit, honey, milk, grains and breaded "straw" have all been used at one time in the production of alcoholic beverages.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am about to become a father for the first time. A friend of mine told me that he was present in the delivery room when his wife gave birth to their child. I would like to witness the birth of our child, also, and my wife is all for it. Our problem is that we are now having trouble with her doctor. He tells us that he does not allow fathers in the delivery room. I have asked my wife to change to a doctor who will permit it, but she is in her eighth month. Does her doctor have the right to deny me the privilege of seeing my child born? I think BOTH creators should be on hand at this juncture.

FATHER-TO-BE

DEAR FATHER: The decision is up to your doctor and the hospital policy-makers. You should take this into consideration when your wife selected her doctor. Having failed to do this, he is content to let your wife deliver her baby with only ONE "creator" on hand.

CONFIDENTIAL TO R. D. S. Remain silent. Only a fool will continue to argue with a fool.

Stop worrying. Write to Abby. For a personal reply enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to ABBY, Box 3363, Beverly Hills, Calif.

DEAR ABBY: In your column you had a letter from a writer who called her neighbor "Mrs. Thatchford." My hobby is collecting unusual surnames, and Thatchford is one I've never heard of. Was that really the neighbor's name? Or did you make it up? I have in my collection such names as Beaglebush, Blackmonster, Rakefinger, Beakron, Basterday, Rakestraw, Twelveteetres, Sourwine, and Cakebread.

SURNAME COLLECTOR

DEAR COLLECTOR: The writer referred to her neighbor as "Mrs. Thatchford" in an effort to keep her neighbor anonymous. Although I am not a "name collector," I recall hearing that the Freshwaters had their plumbing repaired by a Mr. Drinkwater. Hooray!

DEAR ABBY: My girl friend

Honor And Its High Price

A VERY SMALL REMNANT.
By Michael Straight.
The "very small remnant" of the title is one of those small, heroic clusters of decent, honorable men who somehow manage to bring about the downfall of powerful, evil and corrupt individuals in high places, often at a dreadful price to themselves.

Such a theme has recurred throughout history, even from the days of the Bible.
This time the story is about the Indian Wars in the Colorado Territory in 1864.
In charge of an outlying fort is Maj. Wynkoop, who at first subscribes to the thesis of his superior officer, Col. Chivington, that the only good Indian is a dead one.

But Wynkoop discovers that the Cheyennes, under Chief Black Kettle, are sincere in their desire for peace. Risking possible treachery, he deals with the Cheyennes and leads them to a vulnerable encampment. Then comes the betrayal. Col. Chivington leads a hastily assembled regiment to massacre the Cheyennes. The colony, a powerful and ambitious man, makes it appear to Washington and to the public that he has won a great battle. Maj. Wynkoop and some of his officers, including a Capt. Soble, know the truth. When there is an investigation, Soble courageously testifies against the colonel, with bitter results.

Straight's story about honor and its high price is anything but didactic. He portrays the white man's dishonorable treatment of the Indians by means of a tense, gripping story.

This is an historical novel, a story of the Old West, that has a stark, vibrant quality. Straight writes eloquently, though with a beautiful economy of style.

Scandinavian Peach Pudding

1 can (16 oz.) peach slices - cling
1 cup flour (sift before measuring)
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup granulated sugar
1 large egg
13 cup lightly packed light brown sugar
1/2 cup coarsely chopped walnuts or pecans
Drain peaches thoroughly; reserve syrup for another use. In a mixing bowl sift together the sifted flour, baking soda, salt and granulated sugar. Beat egg until thick and ivory color; add to dry ingredients with drained peaches; stir just enough to moisten dry ingredients. Turn into ungreased 6-ounce glass baking dish (about 12 by 6 by 2 inches). Mix together the brown sugar and nuts; sprinkle over batter. Bake in a very slow oven at 275 degrees for 45 minutes. Cool in syrup and serve warm with a topping of whipped cream or vanilla ice cream. Makes 6 to 12 servings.

CRUSADE PLANNERS—With April, designated as Cancer Crusade Month, the officers of the Lucky 13 Club wasted no time in starting plans yesterday for the drive which will be held April 16. New State Constitution Is Adopted By Michigan Voters

By GENE SCHROEDER
DETROIT (AP)—Michigan voters adopted a new state constitution Monday in a spring election that enhanced Gov. George Romney's political prestige.
With virtually all of the state's 5,300 precincts reporting, the tally gave the revised constitution a winning margin of some 9,000 votes.
Fate of the new constitution—which replaces a 55-year-old document—appeared in doubt early in the unofficial vote tabulations, but a recheck of a key county swung the tally in favor of adoption early today.

6:30 NBC "Laramie." When an impoverished homesteader finds three hundred thousand dollars' worth of gold, he can't resist the temptation to withhold it from its rightful owners. Jess Harper pleads with the man to turn the gold in at Laramie but the farmer leaves him in the desert with "out" food or a weapon. COLOR.

Editor Of Magazine At Baylor Quits

WACO (AP)—Mrs. Frances Province resigned as editor of Baylor University's student association magazine Monday, charging "censorship in its crudest form."

She said directors of the association had ordered her to omit from the next issue of the bi-monthly magazine, the Baylor Line, accounts of resignations by members of the university drama department.

The resignations capped a controversy over the closing of a Eugene O'Neill play, "Long Day's Journey into Night," on the campus of the Baptist School.
Baylor President Abner McCall called a halt to the drama department production last December. He said the script contained offensive language.

The drama department faculty members, including director Paul Baker, resigned in March.

Mrs. Province said she was ordered by directors of the students association after a meeting Saturday to omit the resigning faculty members' statement from the magazine. She was told she could print only McCall's statement, she said.
Mrs. Province gave her resignation to George Stokes, executive director of the ex-students association.

"My primary obligation has been to keep them (ex-students) in close touch with the university," she said. "I have endeavored to do this by giving readers full access to the truth in an impartial manner."

"I have always respected a reader's intelligence and have assumed that he is an educated person, having attended Baylor, and can make up his own mind if he has the facts."
"This is censorship in its crudest form," Stokes declined comment saying only that he carried out instructions of the board in notifying Mrs. Province of its order.

Mrs. Province last Thursday received an award as Baylor's outstanding alumna of the year in the annual Bayline Women's Day ceremony and has been editor of the Line for the past 10 years.

She is the wife of Harry Province, in-chief of News-Observer, Inc., which publishes newspapers at Waco, Austin, Fort Arthur and Lufkin.

Military Satellite Roars Into Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Another military satellite has roared into orbit from this Air Force missile base.
The Air Force doesn't release details of military launchings. After the shot Monday a Spokesman announced only: "A satellite employing a Thor-Agena combination has been launched."

The Thor-Agena first and second stage units have been used in almost all launchings of satellites in the Discoverer series. The Discoverers are research vehicles. They have been used in the past in the development of the Midas and Samos surveillance satellites.

Red Members Walk Out In Protest

NEW DELHI (AP)—Communist members of India's Parliament walked out Monday in protest against Home Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri's refusal to release detained Communists. Shastri said the detentions were for security in the India-China border conflict.

The Communists argued that since they supported India in the face of Communist Chinese aggression, members should not be held.
Shastri gave no figures but said many Indian Reds had been released.

Syria lies on the land bridge linking Asia, Africa and Europe.

Candy Quits As Stripper

EDNA, Tex. (AP)—Candy Barr, a sweetheart of gambler Mickey Cohen before she was sent to prison, came home to her parents Monday night and vowed she is through with being a night club stripper.

She went free from state prison after serving three years and four months of a 12-year sentence for illegal possession of marijuana.

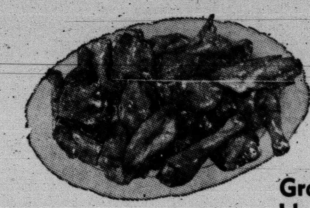

Her daughter, 7, ran to hug the baby-faced former entertainer as Candy arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Slusher.

"She didn't forget me," Candy said happily.
The once blonde darling of night clubbers in Dallas, New Orleans, Las Vegas, Los Angeles and other cities was firm on one point: "I may do some acting, but no more strip tease."

AND MARIS PULLS A MUSCLE, TOO

Series Hero Farmed Out

By MIKE RATHEE
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bob Friend has the range from 60 feet, but the 250-foot experiment has failed. Vern Law, and today the pitching partners who brought Pittsburgh a world championship in 1960 were worlds apart.

Friend pitched a four-hitter over the nine-inning round Monday as the Pirates defeated Milwaukee 3-0 in an exhibition at St. Louis, clinching the opening day pitching assignment only hours after Law learned he was leaving the team for awhile.

Law's failure to overcome his shoulder ailment, and the announcement that he would be sent to the club's minor league camp to try and regain the form that made him a 20-game winner in 1960—came on a day filled with events of more than passing interest.

Tech Netters Triumph

LUBBOCK (AP)—Texas Tech's tennis team posted a 6-0 triumph over Hardin-Simmons University Monday. It was Tech's first victory against two losses. HSU is now 3-3.

Beach, and may stay until the last minor league club leaves about April 20.

Friend, meanwhile, was mid-season sharp, allowing the Twins only four singles. The Pirates also got only four hits—but Don Clement, a two-run homer in the sixth, wrapped it up.

Law, a 33-year-old right-hander, had posted a 3-0 record in 1960, then followed with 3-4 and 10-7 marks, had been pitching at distances up to 250 feet in an effort to strengthen his arm muscles. The plan failed. Law has pitched in only one exhibition, giving up four runs in three innings.

Between You And Me

By Jerry Jackson

About that telephonic tattle who blew the whistle heard 'round the sporting world. The truth of the matter is that both Sports Illustrated and Newsweek could have had the story, but avoided it like the plague due to its libelous overtones.

The Post proceeded to pounce upon it, though, and the resulting furor is still making headlines.

The warm-up meets are a thing of the past here, and Super High's thimble will be seeing just how many eggs they can cram into one basket Saturday in Sweetwater during the annual District 3-AAA meet.

"Horn of plenty" rather than "basket" might be the more appropriate term. The Bengals have cornered the district track and field market for six straight seasons under the astute supervision of Dutch Stepley, and indications are that they will perpetuate the string Saturday.

With the arrival of Brownfield into the family circle, points will be split six ways this go-round for the first time. The two top qualifiers, of course, earn the right to compete in the regional meet in Odessa April 20.

Felt a pulse recently, and indications are that the order of finish Saturday should read something like this: Snyder, La Mesa, Brownfield, Lake View, Sweetwater and Colorado City. Here was how they came home in 1962: Snyder, La Mesa, Colorado City, Lake View and Sweetwater.

All of the district's coaches were to have converged here today in order to tend to the various whys and wherefores relating to the meet.

Even though the 3-AAA meet isn't scheduled here this year, Thursday and Friday will find the Tiger Stadium oval teeming with high school athletes of Class B heritage who will be vying for district honors of their own.

It's the 81-83, with prelims set, Thursday and Friday. Lorraine is defending champ, and will be attempting to thwart the bids of Hermleigh, Westbrook, Ira, Hobbs, and Fluvanna.

Could "Vee-wee" be Tiger senior Stuart Long's middle name?

Softball Leaguers To Meet Here Thursday

A City Softball League meeting has been called for Thursday at 7:30 p.m. with the Village Restaurant being the designated site.

In announcing the meeting, League president Zeimer Glover urges all interested persons to attend.

He's quite a busybody nowadays, and Saturday will be competing for district honors in both track and tennis.

Long is the number one netter of the school. He is also an all-district and all-area eager in addition to being one of the foremost scholars at SHS.

Walton Starts On Hill Today

Snyder's baseball Tigers are in Seminole today with a 4 p.m. non-league contest. The Tigers are in the first half of the contest, then swap off with center fielder Raymond Matthews, who is scheduled to finish out the game. It is the first non-district game for the Tigers prior to opening the 3-AAA race at home Friday against Colorado City.

Bo, Mamie Lovey-Dovey

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Southpaw Bo Belinsky of the Los Angeles Angels says he's planning on marrying actress Mamie Van Doren, but hasn't gotten around to buying her a ring.

"She's my kind of girl," the pitcher said in explaining his intentions. "I like her a lot. In fact, I'm mad about her, but things are too unstable to think of a wedding date now."

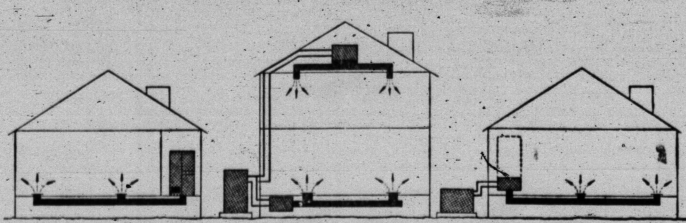

Miss Van Doren said in Hollywood when told that Belinsky had announced his engagement. "We became engaged last Sunday night in Palm Springs, but I thought we were going to make a joint announcement when Bo returned home with the Angels for the weekend series with the Dodgers. He was going to buy me a ring in Las Vegas. I like him better than any man I've met before."

Frogs Slip By Hogs

FORT WORTH (AP)—Texas Christian defeated Arkansas, 4-2, Monday to win its opening Southwestern Conference golf matches. The TCU linksters next will meet Rice here Thursday.

INSURE WHAT YOU HAVE

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

MEXICO CITY — There was this letter came in the other day from a group of journalism students in Michigan and they wanted to know how foreign correspondents operate in Mexico.

Of course such things cannot be made public without wrecking the entire system of news gathering but it can safely be said that the life of a correspondent here is one of great excitement.

Then you have editors with an insatiable curiosity like Mr. John T. O'Rourke of the Washington Daily News. Mr. O'Rourke wrote that he wanted a column on the hot springs resort of Lixian de la Sal.

It means that some day we will have to get up early, drive for three hours to Lixian and sit in the radioactive waters to gather atmosphere.

And later somebody will want to know about Acapulco and you have to go down there to check the beach action and put out a few sheets of copy. But there is nothing doing in Acapulco. The beach is cluttered up with girls and persons who want to put you on a paddle board or in a sail boat.

A few days of working on the "expense account here and you go back to Mexico City. The climate in Mexico City is enough to wreck a strong man. There is no place to ski nor ice skate and you can't stay in condition doing things like shovel some snow. The thermometer hangs around 70 degrees so long you finally say, "Gee, I wish I could watch the Chicago Bears play the Giants in a blizzard."

Maybe one morning around 10 o'clock when you are having breakfast the phone rings. Pick it up and Mr. John Allus of United Press International shouts, "Hey, my horse is running this afternoon. Let's have a snack at the Jockey Club and watch him."

This lousies up a column but to stay in good with Mr. Allus you go. And of course while you're sitting at a table sliding your airline editors will be calling your office of house to find out what happened to a story they asked for last week.

On such occasions, you were out with a government official and the buckle you lose on Mr. Allus' hay, burner goes on the expense account as "Entertaining Government Official," $50. "to prove your whereabouts."

Next day Mr. Ilya Chamberlain probably files in from London and wants you to go somewhere for the weekend so he can tell you about a film called "The Looking Glass" he is getting ready to make in Naples. This is a must because Mr. Chamberlain is an old friend, opponent and besides, he is traveling on an expense account.

All the time you have editors and publishers (other than your own) coming down and they want to see the place. You have to be nice and go with them to Swiss restaurants, Chinese restaurants, Dominican restaurants and for the night spots.

It is impossible to remember who picked up the tabs so to be safe you make it "Entertain Officials From Presidency," $188 on your expense account.

Finally, the grind is so strenuous you run down to Veracruz for a short rest. And while you are sitting at a sidewalk restaurant putting away shrimp, a tourist in Mexico City slips off the curb and sprains his foot.

What happens? You missed a great news story and if you've ever been around editors you know how furious they get.

So children, it's much too risky and I'd suggest you stay where you have fringe benefits, the security of regular hours and 5 p.m. traffic to guide you home.

CHAMPIONSHIP BELT

'Group in Indianapolis' Has Answers To All Woes Of U.S.

The following article is the essence of a lecture given by the author at the University of Missouri School of Journalism before an audience of students and the annual seminar for Women Editors held at the school.

BY INEZ ROBB

The telephone booth in my favorite department store is meticulously flanked with benches where the tired housewife with aching arches can come to rest for a few minutes between bouts with her shopping list.

As I popped down for a respite before laying siege to the hardware department, I was so involved with the problem of a new type rug shampoo that it was sometime before the voice across the way penetrated.

But as a confirmed news dropper, I was brought up short when I heard: "I say all patriot Americans should impeach him, that's what I say! Him and Earl Warren."

The voice and the sentiments belonged to a well-dressed, well-coiffed woman in her suit who sat on the end of the bench like the Ancient Mariner, she had fixed her glittering eye on a young woman across the way who could not "choose but hear." A complimentary jester, like the Ancient Mariner, she said:

"I'll bet you had a virus during the winter, didn't you? Didn't you?"

"Well, yes," said the young woman, "everyone in the neighborhood did."

"Ah, that's what you think," said the Ancient Mariner, "but this is the whole country, folks. This is the whole country. That's what the whole country thinks. Virus." And she sneered contemptuously. "That was no virus. That was germ warfare. All those refugees flooding into this country bring it with them. They're all trained in this bacteriological stuff."

"They let these germ house, in places like public drinking fountains. It's all a terrible plot to weaken this country so they can take over. Out in Indianapolis, we study these things. We know. These refugees should be allowed in this country. They're all subversive, and that's one reason he ought to be impeached."

"I just pray this country will stay up before the law," said the Ancient Mariner, "and the young woman across from her looked increasingly embarrassed. The Democrats, if they want to save this country, should unite with us to save this country and impeach him."

"To save the country we should all get together, like this," and the Ancient Mariner meshed the fingers of her hands as in the old childhood game, "This is the church; this is the steeple."

"This country's been through a terrible winter," she droned on. "And I'll bet you think it's just because of the weather cycle or something, don't you? Well, don't let him fool you! My group out in Indianapolis has made a study of this, and the Russians have a bomb that's superior to the neutron all over the world."

"They're setting off atom bombs all the time, three and four and five a week. But the American people aren't told. It's all part of the plot in Washington, and that's another reason I say he ought to be impeached. And now this weather bomb! You mark my words, the weather is going to get worse all the time if he isn't impeached. The patriotic people of this country will rise up and demand it before long."

The young woman across the way began gathering up her packages. She broke into the monologue long enough to say, "But he seems very popular through the country. The opinion polls all show us to save this country, should unite with us to save this country and impeach him."

"To save the country we should all get together, like this," and the Ancient Mariner meshed the fin-

Junior Editors Quiz on POSTAL SERVICE

QUESTION: Why was special delivery mail service started and how does it work?

ANSWER: Ever since Benjamin Franklin became the first American Postmaster General in 1775, consistent efforts have been made to improve the postal service. In 1885, the Post Office Department, wishing to provide fast delivery of important mail, tried out special delivery service. It proved of value, since about a million letters were handled the first year; since then it has been a regular part of the job of a post office.

Suppose you have a letter you want delivered as soon as possible after it reaches the post office near the person addressed. You would put on the regular stamp for first class mail and then add a special delivery stamp, costing 30 cents. When your letter arrives at the post office of the place where it was addressed, an effort would be made to deliver it within two hours. In cities and larger places, special carriers take out special delivery mail, usually traveling by car. If the person addressed lives on a rural delivery route, he or she would be contacted by phone so they could come in to the post office to get the letter. Otherwise, the regular rural carrier will deliver it when he calls at the addressee's person's box, but will come up to the door to make sure it is delivered personally.

FOR YOU TO DO: See if you can reply to these questions before you read the answers: (1) Is there a faster way to send a letter than by special? Answer: over a long distance, yes, by air mail. (2) Is there any faster way to send a long distance letter? Answer: yes, by sending it by both air mail and special delivery.

(Steven A. Thomas of Collegeville, Pa., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, and you may win $10 or the money, good for one year.)

Some Letters People Would Like To Get

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Fragments of letters people would like to get but rarely do.

"Those excerpts from your wife's diary about your marital experiences are positively hilarious. We also like your tentative working title—'25 Years With a Male Rat'—and are sure we can put the book on the best seller list. We are enclosing $10,000 in advance royalties and assure you this is a meager drop in the bucket to what."

"There must be some mistake. In addition to free furniture, we promised you six months' free rent as an inducement to sign a two-year lease in our new luxury apartment building. Echoing Heights. As you have been a tenant only five months, we are returning your rent check. Your initial payment isn't due for still another month."

"I hate to disappoint you, Mabel, but we're on your side, busy since the sixth baby came that Fred and I haven't been up to planning our regular family visit with you and George this summer. The kids send their best. See you next year. Your loving sister, Mabel."

"It is with deep regret I inform you that our firm will be unable now or in the immediate future to ship your small son the 18-foot python he ordered. The fact is that the only python we had on hand recently got into the main snakepit, ate up all our stock on hand, and died of indigestion. Therefore we are suspending all shipments until we can find a new supply. Sincerely, Jiff Snakes, Inc."

"Your daughter tells us that you don't approve of her ambition to sing mezzosoprano in grand opera. We're on your side, busy since the sixth baby came that Fred and I haven't been up to planning our regular family visit with you and George this summer. The kids send their best. See you next year. Your loving sister, Mabel."

"Dear Norman, I am running off with the boiler. I just couldn't stand watching you do any more card tricks at our cocktail soirees in front of my society friends. But recognizing you've been a faithful hand, I'm giving you some of the best years of your life. I'm asking my lawyers to settle $500,000 on you from the money Iather left me. This should pay your bar bills, and leave a little left over for you to buy a new deck of cards."

"Congratulations on your promotion to general sales manager, son. By the way, you won't need to send us any more money from now on. Dad has got on steady at the post office. At last, and the carnival has promised me my old striptease job back if I lose 10 more pounds. Love from your dear old mom. Love from your dear old mom."

"As I called Brother Ben recently, I caught with his hand in his firm's till, members of our fraternal lodge have abandoned our intention to name him man of the year and would like to pass this honor on to you. All we require is a letter of acceptance from you and a note from the chief of police that you are not wanted at the moment."

wants to work? I say we'll never correct this situation until we impeach him."

The young woman rose and walked toward the elevator. I gathered up my parcels, too, and fled. But not to the Housewares Dept. I went home, took two aspirins and lay down in a darkened room.
