Optimists Offer A Taste Of Summer With Show

Colorado City's Optimist Club will help area residents to get prepared for summer activities with the "Summer Fun Show."

Saturday from noon until 9 p.m. and Sunday from noon until 6 p.m. the Optimist club will sponsor the show at the Mitchell County fairgrounds.

"We're hoping for a big crowd and good West Texas weather," said Rex Beights, Optimist Club member.

People from surrounding areas are expected to attend the show, Beights noted. Some 14 area Optimist clubs were invited to the show. In addition, the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce sent information to 15 surrounding cities and towns, inviting them to the show.

Open to the public, the "Summer Fun Show" will offer displays by local business and out-of-town businesses.

All types of recreation equipment will be displayed, including motor boats, sailboats, motorcycles, recreational vehicles, sporting equipment and camping equipment. Water jet skis, wet bikes and numerous other items will be exhibited.

"Anything concerned with summer fun will be available at the show," said Beights.

Colorado City businesses participating in the "Summer Fun Show" by offering exhibits include West Texas Diving Unlimited, Cooper's Cove-Marine, Western Auto Store and State Farm Insurance.

Out-of-town businesses offering exhibits in the show include the following: Kent's Harley-Davidson & Honda, Abilene; Big Country Dodge, Abilene; Norm's Sailboats, San Angelo; Pete's Pier, Sweetwater and Casey's RV Center, Big Spring.

Others participating in the show will be Crane Boat & Marine, Big Spring; Athletic Supply, Abilene; Carey's Marine, Abilene; Big Spring Yamaha-Suzuki, Big Spring and Paddles 'N Sails, Lubbock.

In addition to the exhibits by businesses, the Optimist Club will also sponsor a scuba diving booth.

Ten scholarships will be awarded by the Optimist Club for a skin diving (snorkeling) class.

Those between the ages of 8-18 are eligible to register for the scholarships and winners will be announced Sunday.

Registration for the scholarships may be made at the Optimist scuba diving booth.

According to Robert Ramage, Optimist Club member, to be eligible to win a scholarship, the entrant must be able to swim and must have parental consent to take the class. In addition, winners must supply their own masks, fins and snorkels. Safety vests and pool costs will be provided.

Dates of the summer skin diving class will be posted at the scuba diving booth at the "Summer Fun Show." The class will be taught by Bobby F. Lee, who is a licensed NAUI assistant instructor.

Admission to the "Summer Fun Show" will be 50¢ per person or $2 per carload.

Proceeds from the show will go toward community youth programs.

This is the first "Summer Fun Show" to be presented by the Optimist Club. However, Beights noted that interest in the show has been strong and the club hopes to make it an annual affair.

COLORADO CITY Kiwanian David Marion prepares donated items to be loaded onto a truck for Wichita Falls tornado victims. The Kiwanis Club collected truckloads of items from local residents during a week-long drive. The goods were taken to Wichita Falls Tuesday by members of the Kiwanis Club. In addition, over $800 was donated in the Wichita Falls Relief Fund established at City National Bank.

Animal Calls Pose Problem

The number of animal calls to the Colorado City Police Department increase threefold during this season of the year.

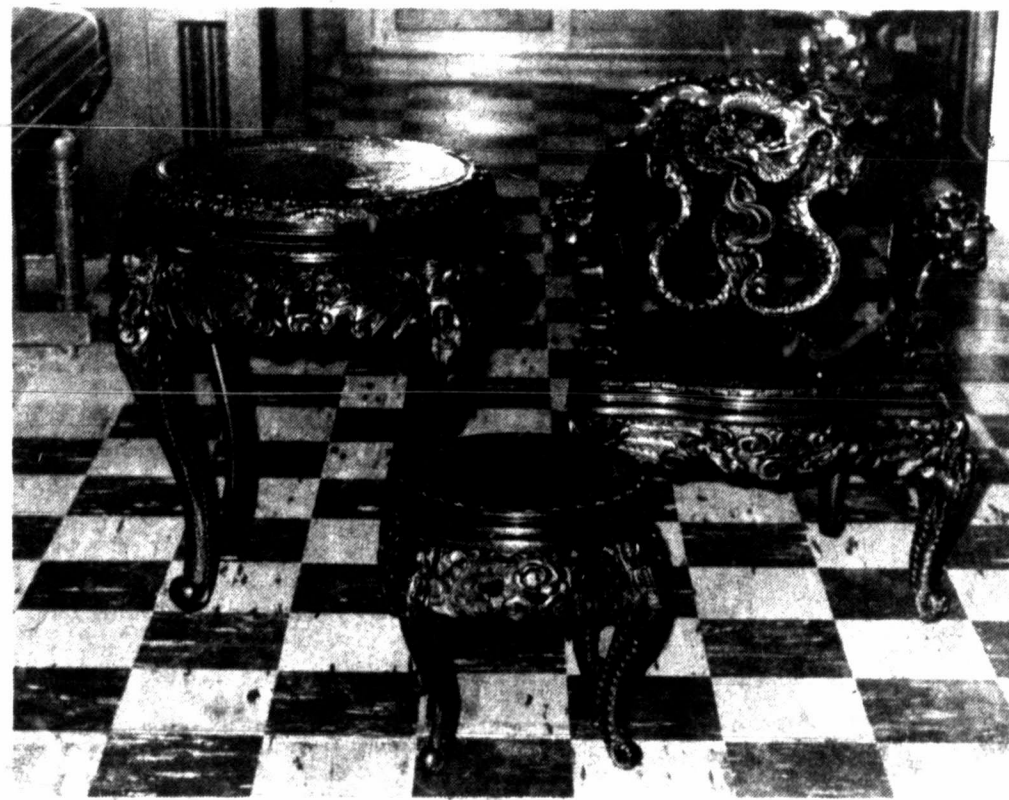

Presently, the city is without an animal warden. Fred McWhorter, chief of police, noted that the police department is "attempting in every way possible to curb the number of calls."

Because of the increase, the police department is requesting the assistance of all citizens of Colorado City. Persons who own dogs are reminded of the city ordinance requiring the animal to be kept on a leash or in a fenced area, said McWhorter. "The majority of the citizens are complying with the law, but as is always the case, some think they are above the law and refuse to cooperate," McWhorter said.

Persons who place a complaint with the police department should state their desire to file charges against the pet owner who is refusing to comply with the law.

"The police department is in the process of trying to obtain funds to employ an animal warden, but until this is accomplished, the police officers will continue to answer the calls," McWhorter explained. "We do need the cooperation of all citizens and that cooperation is a necessity."

THE ABOVE PIECES OF CARVED TEAKWOOD furniture were recently donated to the Colorado City Museum by H. Lou Morrison and Mrs. Louise C. McLaurin, both of Dallas, in memory of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lockhart. The furniture had been in the family since 1910.

FmHA Offers Assistance To Farmers

Farmers Home Administration is offering assistance to beginning farmers, owners and operators of family farms and disadvantaged farmers. Those eligible for assistance include young farmers who have sufficient training or farm experience but do not have the income and other resources needed to enter into a successful farming operation and who could not meet payments at the regular rate even with deferments.

According to FmHA, a portion of the beginning farmers will be buying their first track of land while others will be starting as tenants. This group needs assistance because of the high capital outlay necessary to establish an efficient family farm operation at the outset. "We now have a loan to purchase land at a reduced beginning, reduced interest rate to the borrower, the difference being subsidized by the taxpayer," said Mae Dunn, Mitchell County FmHA office assistant.

Disadvantaged farmers may also apply for assistance.

Included are farmers with problems such as very limited resources, low incomes, indebtedness beyond their present ability to repay, production and financial management and inadequate credit, limited education and an unsatisfactory level of living.

A low interest supervised credit loan will give disadvantaged farmers a chance to be reasonably successful and improve their income, levels of living and financial situation.

For more information about low interest FmHA loans available, contact the FmHA office, located in the G-Kell building.

Registration Deadline Approaches

Children who will be attending kindergarten in Colorado City should register this week.

Tips For Beginning Exercise Program

By JANIE FARDA

In beginning any exercise program certain procedures should be followed. These include individual testing and evaluation, proper exercise techniques and a documentation of progress.

Ashcraft Conducts Revival

The Central Baptist Church of Colorado City began revival services Wednesday with Joe Tomaz of Snyder preaching. Today (Thursday) thru Sunday the missionary L. H. Ashcraft and his wife will be preaching beginning at 7 p.m. each night.

Ashcraft and his wife have been missionaries in Mexico for about 25 years and have many experiences to share.

E. L. Hill, music director, will lead the congregational singing as well as many specials during the meetings.

The pastor, Marion Oden, along with the members extend an invitation to all who would like to attend.

with a doctors evaluation of what is necessary. Then decide on your objective. The date you begin and at what pace should be charted. The key to a successful fitness program is effort. Neither by human nor mechanical means can you have done for you the effect that you will get from your own personal efforts of physical fitness. Establish a short term demand on your body by indulging in a 20 minute exercise period 3 times a week.

Jogging is an excellent conditioner. By jogging in 3 twenty minute periods per week you can reduce the heart beat by 14 beats per minute or 7 million fewer beats per year than the heart would normally have had to make to maintain a given level of activity.

Cardio-vascular fitness does not, however, imply that your entire body has attained overall conditioning. A program of general exercises, physical work, and recreational activity is necessary to round out your overall fitness program. Bicycling, skipping rope, skiing, jogging, or walking should be considered for desired effects.

After establishing your present level of fitness choose alternatives suitable to your program. Jogging is preferable for most fitness programs accompanied with one or two other exercises for variation. Remember, your present lack of fitness was established over an extended period of time so expect an extended period of time to recondition.

As a reference to guide you to your introduction to jogging remember these helpful hints: wear comfortable running shoes; socks should be worn to cushion the feet; wear loose fitting clothing for proper ventilation; carry a stop watch to keep track of progress; keep a reasonable idea of the total distance covered; determine how your body is responding to your activity; do not exceed your capabilities; if you become exhausted, reduce the demand your making on your body; progress should be gradual and you should always be able to talk when jogging, if talking is difficult you're working too hard.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
I want to publicly express my personal gratitude for the fine work of Kent and Betty Holder and Bob Newman.

Our schools are very fortunate to have quality people in the area of musical instruction. It is rare indeed for a community of our size to have the high quality music program that we enjoy.

Our town is blessed in many areas, but one of our best investments is in the youth of our town. To help them discover their talents and utilize them is one of the best ways to invest in our future and theirs. as well.

Many thanks to all our teachers who devote themselves to the shaping of others.

Sincerely
Cecile Hubbard

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin - Gov. Bill Clements, sticking to his unpredictable ways, said this week he will veto any measures passed by the Legislature designed to raise interest rates on home mortgages.

Piling one surprise on top of another, Clements didn't just say he would but actually did veto a bill that would have let truckers set their own rates before bringing them to the Railroad Commission for approval.

Clements described the trucking legislation as "bad public policy," and said the bill could have exempted the trucking industry from state anti-trust laws.

The governor saved his heaviest criticism for legislation that would have raised the home loan interest rate allowed by law from 10 to 12 per cent. Clements said it took a certain amount of "audacity" on the part of the savings and loan industry "to come to the Legislature asking for more money" when S&L institutions are already reporting record-high profits.

Sen. Bill Meier, the sponsor of legislation to raise the home loan interest ceiling, predicted a recession because of Clements' move "and more probably a depression in the Texas housing industry."

But Clements said he had heard no convincing arguments to raise interest rates "when the average Texan is fighting just to keep his head above water financially."

Spokesmen for the savings and loan industry said first-time home buyers and sellers of used homes would find fewer mortgages on the market and higher down payments on those mortgages that were available.

Clements said he would consider calling a special session if there is a serious housing slump.

Consumer groups warned to beware of a "backdoor" strategy that might be used to, in effect, get the interest rates increased by reducing the penalties for charging more than the 10 per cent now allowed by the law. A bill reducing penalties for savings and loan institutions that charge more than the legal limit has already passed the House.

Meier, who last week managed to pass legislation that will weaken the Consumer Protection Act, said Clements' announcement of a veto means his legislation is "dead."

A veto can be overridden by a two-thirds vote but it hasn't been done since 1941 and up until that time, the Legislature has seen fit to overturn only 25 gubernatorial vetoes.

Teacher Pay Raises
Now that legislators know how Clements feels about interest rates, they can get on to other more pressing matters such as teacher pay raises. The governor has kept no one in the dark about how he feels on this subject.

From the outset, Clements made clear that he favored only a 5.1 per cent pay boost for all state employees, including teachers.

This week, seven of the state's largest school districts sent representatives to an all-day meeting with the governor, and Linus Wright, Dallas school superintendent, said Clements made clear "he was not going to change his position" on teacher pay raises.

All of the superintendent said the governor's proposal of a 5.1 per cent increase was unacceptable. "This is not going to be sufficient to meet the needs of our teachers," Austin superintendent Jack Davidson told reporters after meeting with the governor.

The superintendents said local school districts will have to come up with the money for bigger teacher pay raises if the Legislature goes ahead with Clements' plan to boost salaries by only 5.1 per cent. Wright, Davidson and other superintendents felt a 7 per cent pay hike was justified.

School officials said Clements wasn't all that receptive to their pleas for teachers to be treated differently than other state employees. But the superintendents found the governor "very receptive" to the suggestion that large metropolitan districts like Dallas and Houston be treated differently. Most of the larger school districts have already put into effect some of the changes Clements called for during his gubernatorial campaign last year, such as competency testing for students.

The governor also assured the superintendents that they will have a voice in school matters through Clements' education task force.

Short Snorts
The government has hoisted the warning flags again, telling American motorists there may not be enough gas to run their cars on by the time summer rolls around. Despite the warnings, consumption is up by four per cent over this time last year.

One demand that Gov. Clements has been making this session is that legislators vote into law some kind of proposal that would give the voters initiative and referendum rights. Such legislation, for all practical purposes, has been beaten in both houses, but Clements has threatened a special session if no such bills reach his desk.

and Speaker of the House Bill Clayton seem to have come up with a proposal that will pacify the governor-indirect initiative powers. Under such a plan, voters would be able to present laws to the Legislature and have them considered like any other major piece of legislation. Clements said he would support indirect initiative powers as long as voter-proposed laws have to come up for a vote in the Legislature.

Bingo was a loser in the House of Representatives this week. Sen. Babe Schwartz of Galveston got his bill legalizing the game through the Senate but his legislation fell 16 votes short of the required 100 votes for a constitutional amendment to pass the House. Lawmakers also failed to approve legislation banning corporate and personal income taxes.

While the federal government was telling us to drive less and save gasoline, legislators were getting their tanks filled up with "gasohol," a fuel made by mixing gasoline and alcohol made from farm products.

Rep. Dan Kubiak, the prime mover behind "gasohol" in this state, said it could serve as "one of the immediate answers to our fuel crisis." "Gasohol" is made from 90 per cent gasoline and 10 per cent alcohol and backers of the fuel claim it can be burned in most cars without any expensive alterations. The idea of "gasohol" is 70 years old, Kubiak pointed out, and 11 states already have it available. Cars burning "gasohol" supposedly have less engine wear and produce fewer pollutants.

The CMS industrial arts class are working on lawn mower motors. They are working in groups of two.

The students started watching consoles. Consoles are a tv, which gives instructions on how to repair and put together the motors. After the console, they started out on the motors. The motors are usually Briggs and Stratton. They are taking them apart, cleaning them up, putting them back together.

... Middle School students will be looking forward to getting their report cards this Wednesday. The last six weeks of school started Monday and all of us will be working hard to finish up in good standing.

Thursday April 12, the first and fourth period choirs of CMS, put on a concert for the student body. First period started off with two group numbers and then Michael Green sang "Long, Long Ago." Doris Mae Green sang "All My Trials." The fourth period boys choir started off singing "Country Road" and "Sugar Bush."

Then Ron Potts sang a solo called "Way Faring Stranger." Next the boys quartet consisting of Melvin Dunn, Tip Chaney, Ron Potts and Kerry Wright sang "All Though The Night."

The choir finished up by singing "You Are My Sunshine."

... The Colorado Middle School twirling tryouts were last Friday. Nine girls tried out.

To try out, each girl had to do a routine which required various things. They also had to do fundamentals in a group.

The judge was Renee Cooper who was a feature twirler at Canyon.

The girls trying out could invite one friend or parent to watch them perform.

The twirlers for 1979-80 are Marsha Fuller, Carla Callaway, Lisa DeLoera and Marci Marino. The head twirler is Sonja Mercer.

One of our eighth grade twirlers this year will be a twirler in high school next year. "Congratulations" Kakai Calloway.

... On Friday the 27th the Colorado Middle School student government will sponsor a spring dance. The dance will be held at the Middle School gym from 7 to 10. In order to get in a student must dress like someone in the '50s. Refreshments will be sold. Come on out and enjoy the fun.

... CMS students have been enjoying the new 1979 annuals. The 1979 Wolf Pack has a black cover with a wolf on the front. The students have been bringing their annuals to school to have friends sign their pictures. Thank you Miss Brown and all the annual staff.

Last Thursday night the sixth grade band and the CMS band joined the high school Wolf band for a spring concert.

This is the first year the sixth grade has been asked to perform in the concert.

Donations were taken up and the proceeds will go to help the Wolf Band on their trip to Six Flags.

... The 1979-80 cheerleaders had their first meeting this week and will be going to HSU in Abilene for cheerleading school. The girls discussed their uniforms but no final decisions have been made.

... This week in home-making, the class is learning how to make Ambrosia Muffins. These muffins are being made to help the class learn to measure liquid and dry ingredients. The class will go to lab Tuesday and Wednesday and try out the new recipes.

Anyone having questions or problems with their fruit or pecan trees is encouraged to attend the meeting, stated Bob Benson, county extension agent.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Eight Colorado City volunteer firemen and their wives attended the meeting. They included Dave and Melinda Hoover, Carl and Sue Guelker, Lon and Ruthie Robertson, Dale and Linda Mathis, Jack and Sandra Green, Don and Lola Webb, Jerry and Barbara Hammond and Lane and Ann Beatty.

The next meeting of the association will be in Snyder in October.

District Tax Rate Remains Same

Hospital Board Canvasses Election, Selects Officers

The Mitchell County Hospital Board of Directors met in regular session Tuesday night and canvassed the results of the April election, re-elected the same officers for the coming year, executed a lease for an ice dispenser and passed a motion to keep the hospital district tax rate the same as the previous year.

The election returns canvassed by the board showed that the four incumbents were all re-elected without opposition and that the votes cast for each incumbent was as follows—Herbert Mearse, 144; Bobby Lemons, 143; W. M. Landau, 144 and Preston Morris, 141. S. L. Morris received one write-in vote. The number of votes cast in the election was 153.

The motion was made and passed to elect the same board officers by acclamation and they are—Murrell Blassingame, president; Tom Moore, vice president and Bob Reilly, secretary-treasurer.

Upon the recommendation of hospital administrator Charles Root, the board passed a motion to execute a one year lease with Ledbetter Sales and Service for an ice dispenser.

Root said that the present one was about 10 years old and had broken down frequently of late. He added that it had been told that it was beyond repair.

The lease will include the installation of a new water filter system. All services will also be included in the monthly lease payment of $160 per month.

Also included in the agreement was an item stating that if the machine ever broke down and Ledbetter

Sales and Service was not immediately available to repair it, the hospital could buy ice and charge it to that company.

The hospital board set the tax rate for the hospital district to be the same as the previous year, 75c per $100 valuation.

After the rate had been set, Root warned the board that inflation was eating into the hospital district's tax structure just like it was everything else. He stated that 10 years ago, the tax rate was the same as it is now and the taxes accounted for about one-third of the hospital district's revenue. He concluded by saying that now the taxes accounted for about 10 per cent of the revenue.

Business Manager George Witten presented the board with a monthly financial report which showed that in March the hospital had net operating revenues of $192,685 and net operating expenses of $174,591.

These figures come out to a operating profit for the hospital for March of $18,095.

This profit was the highest monthly total the hospital has had since April 1976 and was $8,225 more than February's profit of $9,870 and $30,281 more than the $12,186 operating loss reported in March 1978.

When asked about the increased revenue figure, Witten stated that it was because of increased services which the patients had to purchase during the month.

The patient services revenues for March totaled to $177,859. This

Woodland Resumes Drive

The Woodland Activity Center has resumed their paper drive and are especially in need of grocery bags.

They will pick up the papers from anyone who will call 728-5971 from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday and Friday.

Ramsey Names Assistant Coach

New Colorado High School Athletic Director and Head Football Coach Tommy Ramsey has named David Clapp as his first assistant.

Clapp served with Ramsey at Mt. Vernon High School for the past three years as first assistant coach and defensive coordinator. Before coming to Mt. Vernon, he was assistant coach at Irving High School for five years.

The new assistant coach is a graduate of Texas Christian University and has an M.S. Degree from North Texas State University.

He is also a graduate of Killean High School and is 31 years old. He and his wife, Becky, now reside in Colorado City.

Coach Ramsey stated Wednesday that he began off season workouts this week and that he has had 61 athletes report for the first two sessions.

The coach said that was a record for the hospital and was $15,600 more than February and $69,647 more than March 1978.

Finally, Witten reported that the hospital admitted 153 patients in March as compared with 170 in February and 134 in March 1978.

The board also agreed to change their meeting time to 8 p.m. as of next month because of the switch to daylight savings time. Their next regular meeting will be on May 22.

Students Qualify For State

Three Westbrook students qualified for the state UIL literary meet to be held in Austin May 4-5.

Tracy Brookover, senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Brookover, placed third in Region 1 spelling and plain writing contests held in Levelland April 20.

Miss Brookover currently serves as president of the senior class, vice president of the National Honor Society and is valedictorian of the 1979 class. Judy Chitsey will accompany Miss Brookover to Austin.

Sharla Rollins, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rollins, placed second in the regional typewriting contest.

Miss Rollins is president of Future Homemakers of America, member of the National Honor Society, sophomore class officer and member of the district winning girls' golf team.

Teresa Dorn, junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Dorn, placed third in the regional shorthand contest.

Miss Dorn is a member of the annual staff, junior class treasurer and secretary of the National Honor Society.

Hontas Hines is sponsor for the typing and shorthand contestants.

Region I encompasses 12 class B districts. Each event in this region involves 36 contestants, all district winners.

Correction On Track Article

The purpose of these early workouts is to get the boys used to his system, his game plan and to increase their agility and strength.

They spend 20 minutes on drills which stress the offense, the kicking and passing phase of the game. They then spend 14 minutes on agility drills and 14 minutes on weights.

Correction On Track Article

The Colorado City Wolves' junior 400 meter relay squad which finished first in that event at the District 6-AA track meet last Friday was incorrectly listed as being composed of Danny Martinez, Gerry Hamilton, Ricky Green and Rinaldo Pineda. The team should have been given as Victor Jackson, Hamilton, Green and Pineda.

THREE WESTBROOK students qualified for the state UIL literary meet to be held next week in Austin. Pictured are (left to right) Judy Chitsey, sponsoring teacher, Tracy Brookover, who will be competing in spelling; Teresa Dorn, who will compete in shorthand; Hontas Hines, sponsoring teacher, and (sitting) Sharla Rollins, who will compete in typing.

REPRESENTING Westbrook in regionals for girls track was Jana Shackelford. She competed in Levelland last week and placed ninth in the 880.

Loraine Competes In Tourney

Competing in the girls regional track tournament in Levelland last weekend, Gay Jones of Loraine finished third in the 440 yard dash.

The 440 yard relay team composed of Dora Garcia, Gay Jones, Sylvia Barrera and Margaret Munoz finished fifth in that event in the girls' regional meet.

Jill Linam competed in girls' tennis singles in the regional tournament at Levelland and was defeated in the second round by an opponent from Hartley in sets of 3-6, 3-6.

FmHA Rates Increase

Interest rates on Farmers Home Administration loans have increased.

Effective March 28, the following interest rates went into effect:

- Insured farm ownership, nine per cent.
- Insured operating loan, nine and one-half per cent.
- Initial emergency (loss loan), three per cent.
- Production emergency, nine and one-half per cent.
- Rural housing loans, nine per cent.

A COLORADO CITY YOUNGSTER, perhaps a future major leaguer, demonstrates his power-house swing at the Little League tryouts Saturday.

REPRESENTING WESTBROOK in the regional debate contest last was the team of (left) Larry Dawson and Warren Zant. They did not qualify for state.

Dominquez Is Certified

Patrolman Jessie Dominquez of the Colorado City Police Department was a graduate recently of the basic law enforcement academy in Abilene.

The academy is sponsored by the West Texas Council of Governments in coordination with Texas A&M University.

The six weeks course from which Dominquez graduated with a 90 average is required by state law to be a certified police officer in Texas.

Dominquez was one of a class of 39 which were required to take courses in Texas Law, traffic law, traffic law enforcement, preliminary criminal investigation and search and seizure as well as a number of other courses.

Instructors at the academy included officials from federal, state and local law enforcement agencies.

Dominquez has been an officer with the Colorado City Police Department since December 1978. He has previously worked with the sheriff's department in Reeves County.

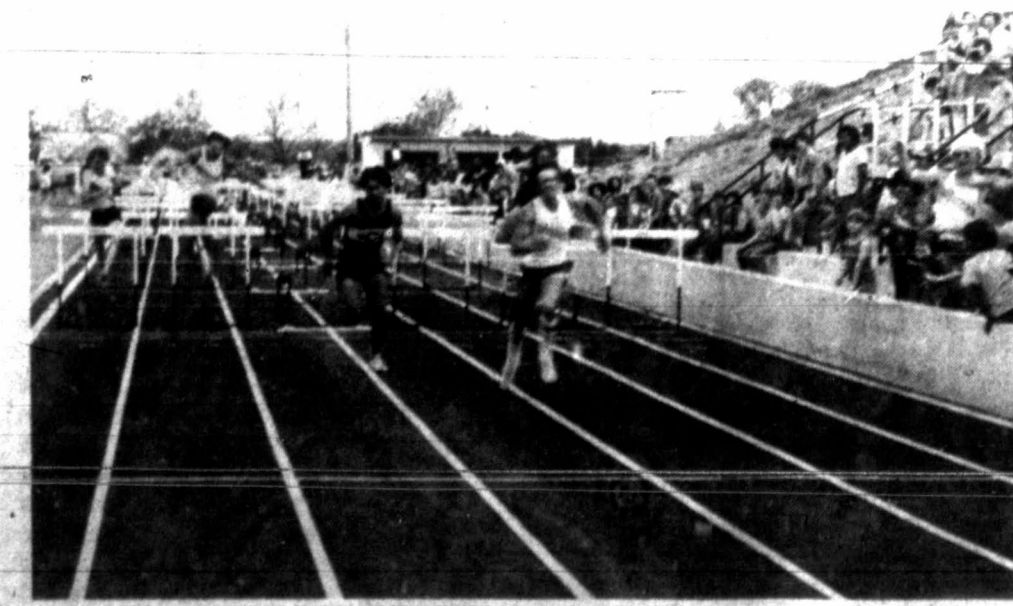

RAYFORD GARDNER recently won a bass tournament sponsored by the Colorado City Bass Club. Gardner's winning bass weighed three pounds, nine ounces and was caught at Lake Colorado City.

Beta Sigma Phi Observes 48th Anniversary Friday

Beta Sigma Phi, a social, cultural and service organization for women, will celebrate the 48th anniversary of its founding.

Beta Sigma Phi is the largest women's sorority in the world. Celebrations will take place in the 30 countries in which the organization's 250,000 members in over 12,000 chapters exist. The organization is non-academic, non-political and non-sectarian. The keynote to Beta Sigma Phi is friendship.

Chapters of five different degrees meet the growing needs of various age groups. Members are active in small chapter groups. Each chapter adapts the plans for social, civic, service and cultural activities to fit the interests of its members.

When Beta Sigma Phi events or civic endeavors are larger than one chapter can plan alone, all chapters in a city or area may combine their strength. There are state conventions each year which any member may attend.

Internationally, the chapters have created several special funds: The International Loan Fund, through which members help one another; The International Endowment Fund, which has donated over one million dollars to cancer research, cystic fibrosis, homes for underprivileged children, and many other causes; The Exemplar Fund, which helps to support Literacy Village in India and a college scholarship fund for members or their sons or daughters.

B. F. Lee Recovers Plane

Bobby F. Lee, son of Ruby Lee, of Colorado City along with two other Civil Air Patrol divers, have been nominated for letters of commendation for their assistance in the recovery of the downed plane of two Ford County businessmen on April 18.

James G. "Glyndon" Johnson and Billy Johnson, unrelated Crowell agribusinessmen, were found dead in their single-engine Scout submerged in a stock tank near Crowell. The men were reportedly checking cattle when the plane crashed.

Lee, who owns and operates West Texas Diving Unlimited in Colorado City, along with Mark Cranford and Don B. Weeks, both of Lubbock, spent about 30 minutes in 45 degree water pulling the wrecked plane out.

The plane was "floated" by placing inflatable bags under the nose and tail of the aircraft and filling the bags with air from the divers' scuba tanks, Lee said.

After "floating" the airplane, a cable was attached to a four-wheel drive vehicle to pull the plane and two bodies from the stock tank.

Col. Ron Raney of Lamesa, CAP section commander, has nominated the three men for "find" ribbons and letters of commendation from CAP headquarters at Maxwell AFB, Alabama. A "find" ribbon represents a successful search.

Lee, 24, has been diving for about six years and moved to Colorado City after working for a rescue service in Lubbock. He said he had dove for fifteen body retrievals in the past, but had never dove for a submerged airplane.

The conference theme "Running The Cooperative Business Better" was harmonious with the purpose of the conference—to broaden skills in managerial decision-making for managers and directors who are striving to strengthen their individual agricultural cooperatives.

Speakers at the conference included Dr. David Downey, Agricultural Economist, Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana; Sylvester Tema and George Lancaster of Farmland Industries, Inc., Kansas City, Missouri; Mac Whitsitt of the Wichita Kansas Bank for Cooperatives and Malcolm Tisdell, attorney of Plainview, Texas.

A special session for wives included speakers Mrs. Gladys Richards of Olton; Mrs. Audra Martin of Plainview and Coop Gin Manager Mrs. C. C. Sneed of Port Lavaca.

The conference has been in the Rio Grande Valley for the past five years, and was moved to Corpus Christi this year. When these conferences began in 1952, they were known as Agricultural Cooperative Managers School, but in 1961, the name was changed to include both managers and directors of farm cooperatives. In addition to the various sessions, participants had the opportunity to visit several local cooperatives, King Ranch and Corpus Christi port facilities by boat.

The conference was sponsored by the Texas Federation of Cooperatives, Texas Cooperative Ginners Association, Houston Bank for Cooperatives, and Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Athletes From Across County

Local Tracksters Shoot For State

Regional track qualifiers from the three Mitchell County high schools will hit the road and then the cinders this Friday and Saturday in an attempt to qualify for the state meet in Austin.

Qualifiers from Loraine and Westbrook will be at the Class B Region I meet in Leveland and Colorado City qualifiers will be in Lubbock at the Texas Tech University track competing in the Class AA Region I meet.

Loraine qualified competitors in nine events last week as they racked up 135 points in clawing their way to the District 10-B track title.

The Bulldogs had six first place qualifiers and three runner-ups.

Tommy Darnell qualified in both the 110 meter high hurdles and the 330 meter intermediate hurdles. He had a time of 14.76 in the first event and 42.0 in the latter.

Loraine's two other individual first place qualifiers were Frankie Martinez in the shotput with a 48'2 1/2" toss and Mike Alvarez in the 800 meter run with a 2:11.88 time.

The Bulldogs took first in both relay events—the 400 meter relay squad (Tony Williams, Curtis Haden, Nick Lieja and Manuel Munoz) with a 47.83 time and the mile relay squad (Williams, Haden, Darnell and Junior Martinez; with a 3:42 time.

Loraine's three second place qualifying finishes in the district meet included—Junior Martinez, 400 meter dash, 50.22; Tony Williams, 200 meter dash, 24.0 and Manuel Munoz, 100 yard dash, 10.73.

Bulldog coach Roddy Clack stated Tuesday that he thought perhaps the squads best chances for the state meet would come from Darnell in the 100 meter high hurdles and from Junior Martinez in the 400 meter dash.

Westbrook Coach Bill May said Tuesday that it was difficult to tell which events his squad had the best chance in of going to state because he hasn't had an opportunity to see anyone outside of the district.

The Wildcats have qualified for regional in four events—Ricky Reyes, long jump, 19'7 1/2" and pole vault, 12'0"; Terry Webb, high jump, 6'1 1/2" and John Daniels, 800 meter run, 2:13.9.

Reyes had first in district in the long jump and second in the pole vault while Webb was first in the high jump and Daniels was second in the 800 meter run.

May stated that he thought that possibly the squad's best chance for state honors was with Webb in the high jump if Webb could come up with a leap of 6'4" as he has been doing in practice recently. He added, however, that Daniels had brought his time in the 800 meter event down to around 2:05 in the 800 meter event and also had a chance.

Colorado City qualified for regional in the most events, 10, and Coach Robert Damron saw Gary Hulme in the discus and Ricky Sanchez in both the 110 meter high hurdles and 300 meter intermediate hurdles as the Wolves' best possibilities for a berth in the meet in Austin.

Hulme took first in the district meet with a throw of 152'7 1/2".

Sanchez was first in the 300 meter hurdles event with a 39.53 time and second in the 110 meter hurdles when he posted a 15.47 time.

Damron also saw J. D. Lewis in the 800 meter run as a good possibility for state honors.

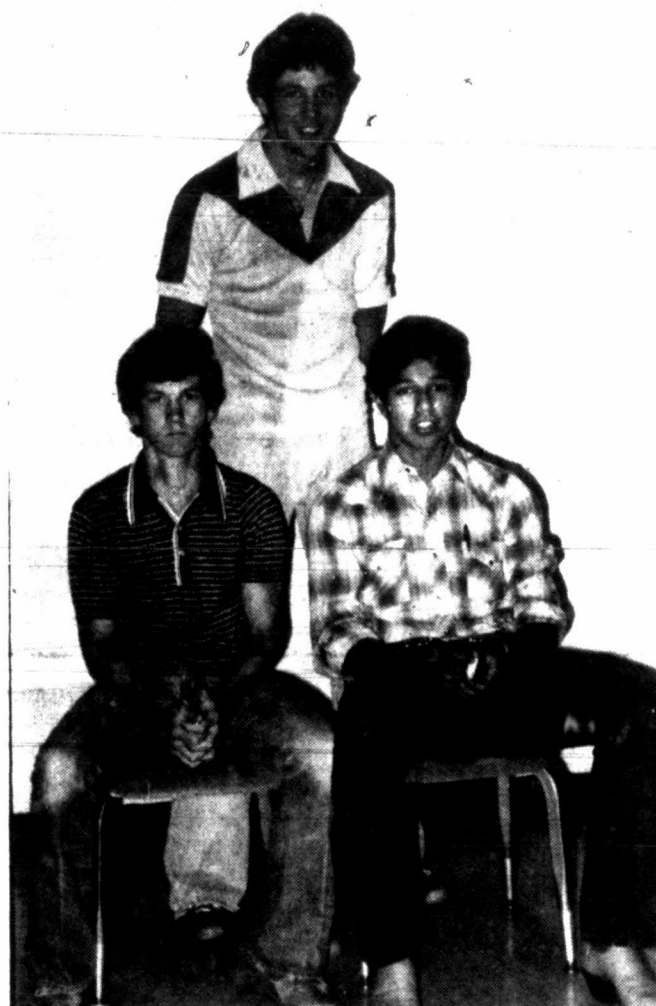

Lewis took first in district in the 800 meter event with a time of 2:01.56.

The Wolves qualified for the regional meet in Lubbock in six other events. The qualifiers, their events and their times, heights and distances are as follows—Mark Carter, pole vault, 13'0"; Dwayne Staats, long jump, 20'10"; Hulme, shotput, 47'7 1/2"; Ronald Proctor, high jump, 6'0"; Ruben Garcia, mile, 4:48.31; DaWayne Iglehart, mile, 4:55.18; 1600 meter relay squad, (Sanchez, Lewis, Staats, Squeaky Hanks) 3:28.93.

Garcia, Carter and the 1600 meter relay team finished first in the district meet in their event while Staats, Iglehart and Hulme in the shotput came in second in the meet.

BRENDA SMITH, Colorado High School junior, took first place in the triple jump event at the girls' Class AA Region I track meet in Lubbock last week. She earned a spot in the state meet in Austin on May 3-5. She had a jump of 36'8" at the regional meet.

COMPETING IN REGIONALS in track from Westbrook tomorrow (Friday) will be (sitting, left to right) John Daniels, 800 meter run; Ricky Reyes, long jump and pole vault, and Terry Webb, high jump.
