Williams Passes State Bar Exam

Anthony J. Williams, son of the late Ms. Vera Williams, was sworn in as an attorney and counselor at law on Monday, May 20, 1991, by Supreme Court Chief Justice Tom Phillips in Austin, Texas.

Williams graduated from the Texas Tech School of Law in May of last year. After completing his legal education, Williams continued his employment with the Texas Attorney General's Office awaiting to sit for the February, 1991 bar examination.

Upon completing the bar, Williams accepted the position of Assistant City Attorney for the City of Lubbock.

Williams intends to continue his professional career and ultimately enter private practice here in Lubbock.

TAFE Reception Held For EHS Teachers

Estacado High School teachers were treated to a Faculty Appreciation Reception Thursday, May 9, 1991, by the Estacado High School TAFE Club. The highlight of the affair was a candle lighting ceremony performed by the TAFE members where each student lit a candle and then shared the names of those teachers who had helped or inspired him/her at Estacado.

Linda Galvan, TAFE President, said that besides parents, teachers were the most important people in their lives. The Teacher Reception is an annual tradition at EHS and this year, as always, everyone present was moved and delighted at being shown such appreciation. Estacado TAFE sponsor is English teacher Mrs. Joan McMillon.

TAFE stands for Texas Association of Future Teachers. The Texas association was organized in 1984 and is sponsored statewide by the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals. The Estacado High School Chapter of TAFE had the distinct honor of serving as the President School of Texas in 1988-1989 school year. TAFE's purpose is to train students in the teaching field and to promote leadership.

Victory At Last Martin Luther King Bill Passes!!

FrontLine 2000 President, Mario Marcel Sala, was elated when he contacted Senator Frank Tejeda and was informed that Senate Bill 134 had been passed. The bill makes Martin Luther King's Birthday a full state holiday. FrontLine 2000 had led the fight for the bill since the first senate hearings this year. The organization had become the focal point of the struggle after Rick Marshall Greene, Chairman of the Research Committee of FrontLine 2000, suggested that the only way the state was going to listen was to threaten an economic boycott of the state. Mr. Greene made the recommendation at a FrontLine 2000 meeting and it became the strategy that won the day.

The tactic was simple: the state must pass the bill or we would petition the NFL to withdraw the Superbowl from Houston in 1995. The organi-

Ellen Contreras

To Hell And Back!

by

Eddie P. Richardson

(Editor's Note: The following is an interview of a young Hispanic woman who has decided to work hard to help save some of the lives of young people in Lubbock. Her name is Ellen Contreras. She has some interesting information about working with young people.)

S.D. -- Why did you become interested in young people's future and welfare?

E. C. -- Being ex-drug dealer, and ex-convict for 17 years of my life, I lived in a self created hell. I know a lot of Blacks and Hispanic parents. A lot of the young people I try to help know me. Some of their parents were in prison with me, and by knowing them, I know their kids. I began to see a lot of these kids hanging with colors and gangs. A lot of people do not know that certain color and what they represent and the certain gangs these colors represent, especially the parents.

My involvement with the kids began with cook-outs. By cooking them hot dogs and hamburgers and giving them sodas, I was able to feed 15 kids, and that number has grown to at least 75.

During the cook-outs, we had rap sessions. In these various rap sessions, I shared my misery with them. I told them how drugs and crime took me down, and I tried to warn them before it happened to some of them. Some of the people had seen me shoot up with some of their parents.

In my present state, they could see a big change in me. Then, they began to share their gang problems, drug problems, and probation officer relationships with me. Also, their relationships with their parents and school teachers.

S.D. -- After they shared this information with you, what was your next step?

E. C. -- I started making visits to their probation officers, teachers, parents. Then I started making referrals to adolescent programs, professional counseling, which was based on the need I could see from my own experiences. I also had an opportunity to make presentations at Project Intercept on gangs and drugs.

S.D. -- Ellen, how did you stay clean, what keeps you clean, and what motivates you to care about others and their destinies?

E. C. -- First, I hit rock bottom!

S.D. -- What was your bottom?

E. C. -- I got tired of prison, tired of being sick, tired of depending on drugs, and tired of running from the law. Now I work with the law. Only then did it come back to me what my drug counselor had been trying to tell me.

I come to find out if my cornerstone would change, then I could change. I began to see hope, life, and a future, not only for me, but for others like me. Through God, as I understood Him, and through His Grace and blessings, I am clean today. I also strongly follow the 12 step program. My biggest hope for these kids is that they build their self-esteem.

Once they build their self-esteem, they can begin to see a future.

Hope you see what we see in Ellen Contreras. Ellen is a very warm, caring, and concerned person who for the two years she

Farewell Services For Sims Family

Rev. A. L. Sims & Family

The Members of Carter Chapel C. M. E. Church are sponsoring a Farewell Anniversary for Rev. A. L. Sims and family who will be leaving this week for his new appointment. The special program is being held Sunday, June 9, 1991 at 3:00 p. m. at Carter Chapel C. M. E. Church.

Rev. Sims has been the pastor of Carter Chapel C. M. E. Church for 7 years.

The public is invited to attend this special effort.

Attend Church SUNDAY

RUBY JAY'S CORNER

The New Hope Baptist Church is located at 2002 Birch Avenue, and it is the Church Where The People Really Care. The proud pastor is Rev. Billy R. Moton.

Morning worship hour began with a song, "There's A Fountain." The scripture was Matthew 7:1-7, and was read by Sister B. Kelly. Prayer was offered by Deacon Jenkins.

The processional was led by the Male Chorus. They sang "Can't Nobody Do Me Like Jesus."

Altar prayer given by Rev. Michael Matthews. Another song, "I've Found The Answer" was sung. Scripture was read by Sister Julia Swain from Ecclesiastes 3, a portion.

Prayer was offered by an appointee. Another song was sung by the Males Chorus entitled "You Brought Me Over."

Responsive reading was read by the congregation and led by Sister Doris Daily. The morning hymn was "I Surrender All." The history of the song was given by Sister Johnnie Walker.

Pastor Moton gave his pastoral observations. He focused on the song "I Surrender All." When praises go up, blessings come down.

Another selection, "Old Ship Of Zion", was led by Brother Harry Stokley and Deacon Robert Cork.

Pastor Moton's scripture was Judges 17:6. His subject was "Problem With Burger King Religion." It was a message. You wonder about the subject; just should have heard it. Pastor Moton, we love you!

The invitation to discipleship was extended and one came for by Christian experience.

Announcement were read by Sister C. Phillips. A welcome to visitors were given by Sister Ida Johnson. Offering and education and tithes & offerings were coordinated by the Ushers and Deacons.

Mrs. Crawford, a native of Amarillo, Texas, was a visitor in the morning worship hour. She was visiting relatives here.

Prof. Curtis Gipson made a presentation to all graduates from New Hope last Sunday morning. Patrick Johnson was one in the number. He was a graduate from college.

God blessed us with a shower of rain last week. Many had an excuse to stay at home last Sunday morning.

Several were from out-of-town in services last Sunday morning.

Henry High and wife, Sister Katie Johnson visited relatives in Tyler, Texas and Frankfort, Texas last weekend.

Gloria Bailey's children were weekend guest. Her son, Leonard Bailey is living in El Paso, Texas; and daughter, Donna K Bailey, and family reside in Kerrville, Texas.

Mrs. Darlene Solomon Hutchinson and daughter, residents of Dallas, Texas, are here this week, because of the illness of her daughter. Mrs. Hutchinson is the sister-in-law of Sara Blocker, Bobbie Patterson, and Sandra McKinzie. They called in for prayer.

Let us not forget to pray for all the sick and shut-ins.

Ralph Watley had to have his other leg amputated. He is reported as doing fine so far.

Arlene Daniels is still a patient in hospital. She is much better at this report. She can walk around a little.

On February 6, 1991, Congressman Combest voted against H. R. 2190. It was a voter registration bill that would automatically register to vote anyone applying for, renewing or changing an address on a driver's license and to make voter-registration forms available at certain public offices. It passed 289-132. All the Texas Republicans along with the West Texas Democrat Stenholm from down around Abilene voted against it. I wonder what they were afraid of? All eligible voters being registered?

A week or so ago I read in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal that Cuba was relaxing some of the religious restrictions in that country. I guess Castro is either getting ready to die, is bending a little to internal pressure, or is about to go on the international scene looking for hard currency since the Soviet Union can no longer afford to help him out and he is trying to please the international bankers.

In the March issue of the Christian Science Monitor there is an interesting article written by George Ann Geyer about Fidel Castro. She is a regular panelist on the Friday night PBS show "Washington Week in Review," writes a column for Universal Press Syndicate, and is a frequent commentator for the BBC. Her article made a very broad and interesting comment on the impact of Castro on the world.

"Without Castro's advice and support, there would have been no Nicaraguan Sandinistas, no invasion of Grenada, no guerilla movements from El Salvador to Uruguay to Chile, no Marxist Angola, Mozambique, or Ethiopia.

There would have been no new political, ideological, and strategic balance of power in southern Africa; and no supernatural "drug state," defended by the leftist guerillas he had trained, spreading like an evil and consuming Rorschach blot across Latin America, with its own armies and borders....

He did even more .... When the toll was counted, it would be charted on the rolls of history that there was in substantial part responsible for the fall of Nikita Khrushchev, for bringing the world to the brink of nuclear war in the missile crisis, for John E. Kennedy's death, for the massive and threatening Central American immigration to the Texas borders, for America's humiliation at the Bay of Pigs (which led America directly into the quagmire of Vietnam), and the threat of irangate and thus the Persian Gulf realignment."

The article barely stops short of crediting Castro with the replacement of Gerald Myers as head coach at Texas Tech. It seems to me that while Castro was involved in some of the events listed by Ms. Geyer and that he certainly wished he had control over other events, that this is just another one of those off the wall articles that tries to blame the ills of the world on the current bad guy without mentioning that there were and are other possible causes such as poverty, CIA, nationalism, other bad guys and right wing dictatorships? It seems to me that if the United States is doing business with every country in the world (China, Russia, Eastern Europe, South Africa, and Iraq up to and during the Gulf War), then it can probably start doing a little business with Cuba.

"Why of course the people don't want war. Why should some poor slob on a farm want to risk his life in a war when the best he can get out of it is to come back to his farm in one piece? ..... (I) it is the leaders of the country who determines the policy and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship .... All you have to do is to tell them they are being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country."

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

Members of the Outreach Prayer Breakfast met in the lovely home of Dorothy Hood at 9 a. m. last Saturday morning. During this session, mostly business was the order of the morning.

The scripture was Jeremiah 33:3. Prayer was offered by Sister Dorothy Nash.

Sister Bolton motored to Slaton, Texas on last week and ministered in the sharing at the Mount Olive Baptist Church where Rev. C. C. Peoples is the proud pastor. What a great church and great people!

The meeting will be cancelled for this week at 2132 East 30th Street as we are working on the special program which will be coming up in July. "Don't miss it!"

There was a great fellowship in the home of Sister Christine Burleson. The spirit was very high. Sister Opal Coleman taught the scripture lesson for the morning. Her scripture text was St. John 9:1-5.

"As he was walking along, he saw a man blind from birth. Master, his disciples asked him, 'Why was this man born blind? Was it a result of his own sins or those of his parents?' Master, Jesus answered. But to demonstrate the power of God, all of us must quickly carry out the task assigned us by the one who sent me. For there is little time left before the night falls and all work comes to an end. But while I'm still here in the world, I give it my light."

In Chapter 9, we see four different reactions to Jesus:

- 1) The neighbors revealed surprise and skepticism;
- 2) The Pharisees showed disbelief and prejudice;
- 3) The parents believed, but kept quiet for fear of excommunication; and
- 4) The healed man showed consistent growing belief.

A common belief in Jewish culture was that calamity or suffering was the result of some great sin, but Christ used this man's suffering to teach about faith and to glorify God. We live in a fallen world where good behavior is not always rewarded and bad behavior not always punished. Therefore, innocent people sometimes suffer. If God took suffering away whenever we asked, we would follow him for comfort and convenience. Not out of love and devotion. Regardless of the reasons for our suffering, Jesus has the power to help us deal with it. When you suffer from a disease, tragedy, or handicap, try not to ask: "Why did this happen to me? Or, 'What did I do wrong? Instead, ask God to give you strength through the trials and offer you a deeper perspective on what is happening.

This is a great lady and we love her. Keep up the good work, Sister Coleman.

Thought for the Week: "A hired man tends the sheep for money, while the shepherd does it for love. The shepherd is committed to his sheep. Jesus is not merely doing a job, he is committed to love us and even lay down his life for us. False teachers and false prophets do not have this commitment." Think about it! There will be a meeting Saturday. Call for location! Want a Prayer Group on your Can't On Page 7

FROM THE OF

"It is expedient for you that I go away" (John 16:7). We, too, like the disciples have foresight. We judge by the range of that which is within our vision. We are hasty in accepting that what we see on a first sight basis instead of waiting and keeping our minds in a state of readiness to admit possibilities.

The departure of Jesus meant that His local presence would be changed into an universal presence. As God, He dwells with us through the Holy Spirit, by His essence, presence, and power. As man, He is always with us in all the truth of His incarnation. His character: pity, gentleness, patience, long-suffering, love, tenderness. Compassion is dispense throughout all His Church. The Kingdom of Christ is the Kingdom of the Man Christ Jesus, and the reign of His will, human as well as divine is His Kingdom.

The departure of Jesus as it relates to an universal presence is even richer and deeper. The mystery of the incarnation is not just an isolated fact terminating in the personality of the word made flesh (John 1:14), but the beginning and productive cause of a new creation of mankind. By the same Almighty God who formed the union of the Godhead and human nature into the womb of the blessed Mary, the humanity of the second Adam is the immediate and substantial instrument of our spiritual renewal. That is why Jesus said to Nicodemus, "Ye must be born again."

There is a natural sense in which losses often prove to be gain in the end. We gain wisdom, knowledge, and experience by losses. And perhaps in this natural and human sense, it would be in one way expedient for the disciples to lose their Lord inasmuch as the loss of Him would open their eyes to a greater truth of His Divinity.

We Thank God For Jesus

"Lord, We're Reaping What We've Sowed!!"

Part 1

Genesis 1:8 -- And it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau, his oldest son, and said unto him, my son, and he said unto him, here am I, and he said, behold now, I'm old, I know not the day of my death: now therefore, take, I pray thee, thy weapons, the quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field. And take me some venison; and make me savoury meat. Such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat: that my soul may bless thee before I die. And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau thy brother, saying, brine me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat. And bless thee before the Lord, before my death. Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command thee.

Lord, we find that same thing going on today: family members against the other. We know the family is suppose to be a household of love; between sisters and brothers.

Now this mother knows the father's plan, and it's to bless the older brother, "but when you have picks in the family, that's not love from the father or mother."

27:9-12 -- Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth: and thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he may bless thee before his death. And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I'm a smooth man. My father peradventure will feel me, and I shall seem to him a deceiver: and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

(Your parents who help your children do wrong it's coming up again. Listen to this deceiver it may seem as I'm deceiving my father; what else can you call it??? Listen parents, when your child comes home with a bicycle, and say he fond it, and you know it belongs to someone, and you let him keep it you're a party to a crime called stealing! You know one owns the bike, so try and find the owner. That's America's problem today. She steals from the kindergartens to the President's Watergate.)

Hosea 8:7a -- For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind. Lord, when we have the parent backing, the wrong doing of his or her child. "The seed you're sowing today will someday bring tears to your eyes."

Job 4:8 -- Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

Genesis 27:15, 16, 18 & 20 -- And Rebekah took goodly raiment of her oldest son, Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Jacob her younger son; and she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck; and he came unto his father, and said, here am I: who art thou, my son? And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, because the Lord thy God brought it to me.

Exodus 20:7 -- The Lord said, thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. God is not through with us yet. So let's pray for one another always.

zation also promised to petition various conventions to withdraw any activities from the state. With this type of pressure and a sustained effort by Senator Frank Tejeda, State Rep. Ron Wilson (Houston), and many others the bill is now going to the governor. Governor Ann Richards has already indicated her intention to sign the bill.

The bill also received support from the Baptist Ministers Union, Rev. R. A. Callies, State Rep. Karyne Conley, Rev. Ronald Benson, Akwasi Evans (Austin), State Senator Eddie Bernice Johnson, State Rep. Wilemina Delco (Austin), Speaker of the House Gibb Lewis, Renee Watson, Larry Daves, and many others too numerous to mention. This is an important victory against racism and brings Texas a little closer to the 20th Century.

A special signing with the governor is tentatively scheduled for June 19, 1991. It is being set up by State Rep. Ron Wilson. Everyone is expecting a representative delegation to be on hand for this historic event.

At this point, the District Attorney and Sheriff became major supporters in her efforts. They made presentations in area towns, workshops, and seminars on drugs and gangs.

All of the above activities were voluntary.

As of January, 1991, Ellen was hired by The Drug Elimination Program, sponsored by the Lubbock Housing Authority, as a counselor outreach worker by her former drug counselor, Evert Joe "Scoop" Hooper and Oscar D. Jones of Lubbock MHMR program in Lubbock.

Stand Me Tall

by Grace Middleton Pierce

GOD! When my life is dark and I can't see,

Take my hand and comfort me.

On a trail when I fall, Lift me gentle, stand me tall,

There must be someone to take my hand.

And I have you God, You who understand.

You to lead me through this troubled land.

Then there are times when my spirits low,

God, Hold me closely don't let go.

And when my soul feels defeat

I will have you to comfort me.

When the mountain climb seems too rough

And life to me just ain't enough.

When I feel so close to death

And I can't seem to help myself.

God! Take my hand comfort me,

Lead me from this misery.

When my courage fails me, and I stumble and fail,

God lift me gentle, stand me tall.

Juneteenth Free Bar-b-Que Dinners

The Senior Citizens Juneteenth Picnic Committee will host their 6th Annual Juneteenth "Free" Bar-b-Que Dinner for Senior Citizens and community residents on Saturday, June 15, 1991 at 1 p. m. at Mae Simmons Park.

Since June 19th is on a Wednesday and the community majority will be doing most of its celebrating on Saturday, the Picnic Committee feels June 15th would be the most beneficial day to serve the BBQ Dinner.

Fund raisers have been held for the past three months and another will be held Saturday, June 8th, at 10:00 a. m. at United Super Market, 3104 East 4th Street, stated Committee President Robert Hines. Hines also stated: "Support for the fund raisers have been great, and we hope the community will continue supporting this event. Also, the sole purpose of the fund raisers have been to defray expenses incurred for the annual 'free BBQ dinner. Once again, BBQ goat will be on the menu."

Fred White, Committee Vice President, stated: "Home-bound Senior Citizens may have a dinner delivered by calling 744-6395 or Dwight Pierce at 763-3171, prior to 9 a. m. Saturday, June 15th."

Fred also noted that those who wish to volunteer to serve or contribute potato salad, beans, or desserts, may also call either of the above mentioned members."

White further stressed that this is a community event and the success of it depends on the community majority becoming involved. That all of us should put aside our petty individual differences on this day, and eat and fellowship like the good Lord asked us to do."

Members of the Senior Citizens Juneteenth Picnic Committee are: Joe Hatchett, Founder; Robert Hines, Fred White, Marvin "Stroke" Turner, Dwight Pierce, Buford "Red" Wiley, Garland Hollins, Elton Rayliffe, Billy Joe Hines, Harold Courtney, Henry McKinney, "Moby" Sanders, and Ivie Cage.
