YELLOW MAN IS AFTER SCALP OF THE WHITE MAN

—Dr. E. R. Fulkerson

He Tells Audience Here That Yellow Race Is Potent Problem

SPEAKS AT GRACE M. E.

"Damn the White Man" Is Slogan of Orient Now, He Declares

"The yellow races of the world have adopted the slogan 'damn the white man'; we have got enough of him—the orient for the oriental now.' Whether or not Japan becomes an asset or a liability to the nations of the world depends on what these nations do in the very near future."

Such was the gist of an address by Dr. E. R. Fulkerson, one-time vice-consul of Japan, world traveler and missionary who, in speaking at the Grace Methodist church Wednesday night, pointed out some of the problems Japan presents as a factor in the future political and economic scheme of the world. A large crowd heard the address.

Raps Exclusion Act.

The exclusion act, Dr. Fulkerson said, has caused most of the agitation, and in the land of the Nipponese today America's rigid bar against Japanese is provoking deep seated, albeit quiet resentment.

"Let us consider Japan from a political, social and economic point of view," the speaker said. "Years ago Russia planned to move south. Her purpose was to use Korea as a base and she had her eye on China. Great Britain and France became alarmed because of their possessions in China and they knew something had to be done, but neither the British or French wanted to do it. Japan, however, was ready to check Russia's acquisition of southern possessions, so with the other nation's backing her up and supplying needed arms and ammunition, Japan proceeded to give Russia a tremendous whipping."

Skipping on through the Boxer uprisings in China, Dr. Fulkerson continued: "Japan is our greatest economic competitor in east Asia. She has some of the finest cotton mills in the world, mills equipped with modern machinery and using modern methods, but one of the cheapest things over there is human life. Thousands of girls are working for from 9 to 11 cents a day on a 14 to 16-hour a day basis. We can never put the proper value on human life there until we Christianize the captains of industry in Japan.

Out the Back Door.

Going into the political situation, the speaker said that, when Japan came into the family of civilized nations of July 1899, America put her seal of agreement on a pact to treat Japan as she treated all other foreign powers. "What happened, then?" he asked. "When we put through our exclusion act? America kicked Japan out the back door and what effect has this had? It has forced the yellow races to adopt the slogan, 'damn the white man. We have got enough of him. The orient for the oriental now.'

"England has just sent a force to India to quiet agitation there. And if you knew what was really going on in Russia you would tremble. The undercurrent is that the white race is to be insulted and the yellow race will band more firmly together. Japan has recently contracted with a German firm to put in one of the largest factories in the world for the manufacture of poison gas and bombing machines. What is the alternative?

"We must hold off the leadership in Japan and Christianize it."

THE WEATHER

OIL OUTPUT IN UNITED STATES UP 50,000,000

Smackover Field Alone Boosted Year's Production 28,000,000 Barrels

25,406 NEW WELLS

Talk Slackening Field Activities Controverted By Paper's Figures

HOUSTON, Jan. 13.—(AP)—According to the statistical issue of the Oil Weekly which was off the press today total production of crude oil in the United States increased 50,000,000 barrels in 1925 as compared with the previous year. Increases were reported from Pennsylvania, California, Colorado, Kansas, Texas, Arkansas, New Mexico and Louisiana. Declines were recorded in Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Oklahoma and Wyoming.

Without Smackover, production would have shown an increase of about 20,000,000 barrels, but Arkansas, due to deep drilling at Smackover, boosted its output slightly more than 28,000,000 barrels and was responsible for the biggest share of the total United States increase.

Drilling statics taken from the Oil eWekly controvert the talk of slackening field activities. Fields of the United States reported 25,406 wells for the year just ended, an increase of more than 4,000 as compared with 1924. The heaviest increases were shown in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and eastern states. Initial production increased about 1,200,000 barrels.

Scene From "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Is Re-Enacted By Convicts Whose Escape Is Blocked By Icy Stream

Fugitives, Attempting to Flee Missouri Penitentiary, Hop Along on Floating Blocks of Ice; Persuaded To Return to Shore After Chilly Bath

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 13.—(AP)—After clambering over the wall of the state penitentiary here late today, two convicts staged an act on the Missouri river near the prison similar to the ice scene in "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

That, and ice baths was about all they got for their trouble. Prison officers captured them soon afterwards.

The guards followed along the river bank, brandishing guns, and after watching the men hop from ice block to ice block floating down the "Big Muddy" persuaded them it would be best to return. The prisoners thought so, too, and deserted their frigid ship and came back to shore.

Copper Coin Leads Bralley To Dusty Cache That Disgorges Vast Amount Of Loot Collected By Juvenile Trio

Juvenile Officer Rounds up Three Youngsters After Solving Mystery of Numerous Gas Station Robberies in Wichita Falls

A trio of youngsters starting out early in the thieving business were rounded up Wednesday by Juvenile Officer W. G. Bralley who, following a clue provided by a single copper pennypiece, discovered a cache in which was hidden a supply of cigarettes, cigars, scores of pencils, gasoline and oil coupon books, casings, inner tubes, toilet soap, candy and a number of hand made keys.

The result of the find is that one of the three 16-year-old boys involved in the case is awaiting trial in the juvenile court, and the other two, since the arrest of their comrade have fled.

Theft Cases Reported.

Two weeks ago, several cases of theft were reported to the police, and the cases were turned over to Mr. Bralley. A hint here and there, watchfulness of circumstances surrounding the places where the articles were taken, and some surmises led to the finding of the loot.

The boys had had some pennies and this proved one of the clues. It was known that cigarets had been taken and would be hidden away. A search began and Mr. Bralley, clad in blue overalls and shirt made an investigation under a house, crawling slowly as he went. He found nothing at first. He continued crawling, and he found a penny—just one.

He crawled farther and found cigarets, pencils, toilet soap, pliers, gas and oil coupons.

Under another house he found similar stores; in an outbuilding he found still other loot hidden under old lumber, dust and trash.

Incriminating Evidence.

Evidence pointed to the youth now held and awaiting trial. He was arrested by Mr. Bralley. He cried, he cursed, he fought and denied stoutly any knowledge of the stuff found. Four days later he admitted being a third of the trio that took the goods.

The following places were included in those looted by the boys: Woody Filling Station, Sixteenth and Lamar; Gulf Filling Station, Ninth and Lamar; Jack Miller's Hillside Filling Station, Eighth and Burnett; Grocery and lunch room, 401 Burnett; Brooks grocery store, in the 900 block on Seventh; Jameson Tire company, 908 Ninth; Ireland's grocery and hamburger, in the 000 block on Burnett, and a few cigars were taken from the Harvey-Snider building.

Four Robbers Fired on And Captured as They Flee Bank With Cash

FLINT, Mich., Jan. 13.—(AP)—Thirteen minutes after 2 o'clock in the afternoon, on the thirteenth day of January should have been a warning to four Toledo, Ohio, bank robbers, if they had been more attentive to the study of superstition. Scoffing at the thirteen superstition the quartet robbed the Bank of Hadley, capitalized at $4,000, at Hadley, a town of 300 population near here, stepped out of the front door with bags of gold and currency in their hands and were greeted with a storm of shot.

Three of the men fell wounded in the snow, dropping their money bags. The fourth reached the waiting automobile and escaped from Hadley only to drive into the hands of the state police from Flint.

While the bank was being robbed of between $2,500 and $3,000 a posse of Hadley citizens had been organized and armed with rifles, shotguns and revolvers. They were close to the entrance when the unsuspecting robbers stepped from the door.

Fire opened without ceremony. The first volley dropped three of the men. The fourth reached the waiting car and drove out of gun shot range, but later was wounded and captured.

FLAMES SPELL DEATH FOR 100 ENTOMBED MEN

Fire in Wilburton, Okla., Mine Cuts off Hope of Rescuing Workers

MANY ASPHYXIATED

Blazes, Poisonous Gasses, Falling Rocks Seal Doom Of Unfortunates

WILBURTON, Okla., Jan. 13.—(AP)—Fire late today added to the difficulties of rescue on the Degnan-McConnell Coal mine near here where more than 100 men were entombed this morning by an explosion.

The flames burst out in the tenth "parting" of the mine.

It was believed they would make impossible the rescue of any of the few men believed yet to be alive. Three men in addition to eight negroes who emerged unharmed this afternoon are believed to have escaped the effects of the explosion and the resulting deluge of poisonous gases.

Rocks, loosened from the ceilings of the passages by the explosion, continued to fall throughout the day, and made rescue work extremely hasardous.

Seach For Bodies.

Twenty-five of the unfortunate men were white miners and 76 were negroes.

Rescue work, carried on by hundreds of volunteers, tonight apparently had settled down to the hopeless task of retreiving the bodies of the victims.

Negroes who were rescued told of walking over bodies of dead miners as they progressed from a small pocket under the main shaft to the mainway from which they emerged.

John Evans, white, pit boss, A. D. Thomas, a mining engineer of Hartshorne and two of his assistants were in the mine and none has been accounted for.

All other mines in the Wilburton field closed down soon after the explosion and their crews were rushed to the scene to aid in the rescue work. The wrecked mine was operated on a non-union basis as are most of the properties in this area.

Rescue Crews Come In.

Trained rescue crews from Krebs, McCalester, Hartshorne and Haileyville tendered their assistance. The Wilburton chapter of the American Red Cross served coffee and doughnuts from a hastily erected canteen.

Hysterical relatives of the entombed men congregated about the entrance of the mine and remained there throughout the day. Sigh-seers flowed into Wilburton from many surrounding cities and roads leading to the mine were lined with motor cars for miles.

Austin Parks, sheriff of Latimer county, immediately assumed the task of enforcing order. The shaft of the mine was roped off by his deputies, and none but persons engaged in rescue work was allowed to approach it.

Doctors and nurses with medical equipment were summoned from all nearby towns and a special train was brought here from McAlester to rush injured men to the hospital as soon as they were brought out.

A specially equipped rescue car of the United States bureau of mines tonight was being rushed here from Asbury, Mo.

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 13.—(AP)—After he had broken his chain, bitten a woman once and attacked an eight-year-old girl, seriously slashing her a number of times, and creating a mild panic north of the business district today, a half-grown Lobo wolf was cornered and shot by a policeman.

The wolf has been kept in his back yard and never caused any serious trouble until today when it grew suddenly vicious.

T. Vinson, was working on the case, it was understood from Police Chief Hodgins. Excellent prints had been obtained from the knobs of both safes broken open.

In Cash and Checks.

Approximately $1,500 was taken from the safe in the Randle office. The knob was knocked from the outer door of the same in the Wichita-Hudson Essex office, but the inner door resisted the attempts of the yeggs.

RIGHT TO ASK A RE-HEARING TO BE WAIVED

Supreme Court Ruling Voiding Road Bond Issue Not To be Contested

WILL STOP TAXES

County Officials, After Conference, Decided to Ask For Early Mandate

AUSTIN, Jan. 13.—(AP) Archer county will waive its right to file a motion for rehearing in its district road bond case before the United States supreme court, Judge E. M. Hooper of Archer county, and John R. Moore of Archer City, attorney for the county announced here tonight.

Decision was reached following a conference with members of the attorney general's department. Judge Moore said that the mandate would be requested to be issued immediately in order to stop collecting taxes for the districts.

Blocks Moody's Plans.

This action probably will block the attorney general from filing a motion for rehearing in the bond case, which affects between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000 worth of road district bonds in Texas.

Judge Moore said that every phase of the law was gone into to try to prove that the district road bonds were valid; that the members of the United States supreme court made a complete study of the case; appreciated how far reaching the decision was, and that there was no dissenting vote on the issue, that the district was not designated by the legislature.

He asserted that he did not believe the legislature or a constitutional amendment could validate the district road bonds, as the districts were formed by the commissioner court.

Must Now Vote On Bonds.

Only one means of validating the bonds remains, according to his opinion, he said. That is by the people in each district voting to ratify the bonds, and re-creation of the districts by the legislature. Judge Moore said the opinion of the supreme court does not appear to affect county road bonds.

The Archer county case, affecting district No. 2, calling for a $500,000 improvement road bond issue, was fought through the state courts, since Perry Browning and others in the district contested the collection of taxes in 1923. The district was organized under a statute created in 1907 by the legislature, under an amendment to the constitution in 1904. The law was enacted for the purpose of permitting progressive districts in counties to proceed with road work. It has been upheld by the courts of Texas, and since its enactment has been approved by every attorney general.

Archer County "Through."

Judge Hooper and Judge Moore declared that Archer county is "through with the law suit." They said nothing remained on which to base a motion for re-hearing. Judge Hooper said the bond issues for district 2 and 4, $300,000 and $200,000 respectively, would be burned and that Archer county would begin anew.

Even if a motion for rehearing is filed, it probably will be a year before it could come before the supreme court, and Archer county would be compelled to collect taxes that would have to be returned, it was explained.

STATE NOT NOTIFIED OF ARCHER MEN'S DECISION

AUSTIN, Jan. 13.—(AP)—A. C. Wheeler, assistant attorney general, tonight said he had not been notified of the decision of Judge John R. Moore, attorney for Archer county in the road bond case, and Judge E. M. Hooper of Archer county, to waive the right to file motion for rehearing before the United States supreme court and to request immediate issuance of a mandate. The present plan of the attorney general is to file motion for re-hearing, he said. He declined to state whether such action by Archer county would prevent right of the attorney general to file the motion.

No civil cases are to be tried here at this term.

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. For only 75 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.—Adv.

Old Lady's Advice

"AN old lady, who was a dear friend of mine, first urged me to take Cardui," says Mrs. S. S. Cobb, 827 N. Cherokee St., Muskogee, Okla. "My health was very bad as the result of female weakness which had run on for a long time. My nerves got into a terrible condition and I suffered frequently with such spells of nervousness that I was almost wild. I tried everything I heard of, but I did not get any better.

"I was taking care of this old lady and, when I told her of my suffering, she asked me why I did not try Cardui. She had taken it herself for years. I had about lost faith in medicine, but to please her I said that I would try Cardui.

"Soon I was surprised to find myself feeling better. I could enjoy eating more and I slept much better at night. My nervousness decreased and the pains in my back and sides, which troubled me at times, were not nearly so bad.

"I am just as pleased with the results as I can be. All my life I had been troubled with irregularity—ever since girlhood. I wish that I had begun to take Cardui sooner, for I believe that it would have saved me years of suffering."

ELECTRA TO GET TANK FACTORY

Construction on New $25,000 Project to Be Complete Feb. 1

ELECTRA, Jan. 13.—According to an announcement made by W. P. Lincoln, present owner of the Lincoln Tank company, plans have been completed for a $25,000 steel tank factory to be built in Electra, which will employ about 10 men. The machinery for the new plant is expected to arrive about the last of January and by that time it is believed that the building will be completed so that work may begin about Feb. 1. Although the exact location of the new plant has not been decided upon, arrangements have been made with the Fort Worth and Denver railway for a switch to be built to the works. This will add greatly to the industries in the city, because of the long distances from which the tanks used in the fields have to be ordered.

FOR Acid Stomach

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

Better Than Soda

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

Try a 25c Bottle

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drug store.—Adv.

Better Than Whiskey For Colds and Flu

The sensation of the drug trade is Aspironal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are supplied with the wonderful elixir, so all you have to do is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspironal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel the distressing symptoms of your cold fading away like a dream, within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and children, for Aspironal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for children as well as adults. Quickest relief for catarrhal croup and children's choking up at night.—Adv

GROWING UP

"I'LL TELL you, we're getting to be a big place here, fella!"

Thus has Postmaster Maricle given verbal expression to a fact the Wichita Falls post office has demonstrated rather consistently of late—that local postal operations are growing with the city and in so doing are expanding beyond all proportion in comparison with facilities provided here for them.

No better example of the inadequacy of the postal building here could have been supplied than the recent Christmas rush. The aftermath of that has not been entirely cleaned up even yet and those who labored long hours and longer days in handling the mountainous stacks of incoming and outgoing holiday mail look with foreboding even now on what next Christmas may bring under similar conditions.

It all goes to emphasize the necessity of a new federal building for Wichita Falls. The matter has been debated for the last ten years and has progressed to the point where Congressman Williams has introduced a bill in the house of representatives asking for a $1,000,000 appropriation for such a structure here. Congress, though, is not likely to exert itself with undue strenuousness to allow such an amount unless it is prodded hard and frequent.

This prodding is a thing Wichita Falls ought to undertake as a civic proposition. In the end it may not succeed and we may be forced to struggle along with a small addition or so, but aggressive agitation will not hurt anybody—and somebody will be remiss in duty if a real fight is not conducted for it.

Those men who are laboring daily under a handicap of cramped quarters and inadequate equipment as the present federal building will bear witness to this.

AS OLD AS THE PUPPET SHOW

SOME millions of Americans by now, probably, have seen that motion picture in which the principal actors, or at least the most engaging ones, are enormous, prehistoric monsters who lumber about in a manner to suggest that one of them would sink a battleship on the deck. "How was it done?" was the inevitable question.

It was natural to assume that men must have been inside the monstrous creatures, to animate them. Even this left problems unsolved. That suppleness and naturalness of movement, the perfect co-ordination of front legs and rear, of elongated necks and swinging tails; what process of training enabled unseen actors to produce those?

The secret is out. Those mammoth dinosaurs and their playmates which enlivened the situations in Conan Doyle's fantasy, which seemed to be as gigantic as hills and as heavy as dreadnaughts, actually performed before the cameras as miniature figures no larger than dogs. Made of papier mache and rubber, they were put through their paces by operators on a platform overhead, with the help of invisible threads and small wires. Human actors brought into the scenes on a different scale had to be photographed, of course, in a second exposure of the film.

This case is by no means the only one in which the camera's ability to disguise the size of objects is made use of by the movies. Tremendous storms at sea, and the sinking of ocean liners, have been staged in tanks a little larger than a bath tub. The most interesting suggestion in the real story of the film is not in its novelty, but rather in its confirmation that little is new in art. "The Lost World" seemed the last word in achievements of modernity, but when it is understood that it depended, for its principal effects, upon precisely the same art employed in Tony Sarg's puppets, one begins to see that originality is a matter of assembling old elements in new combinations.

ARE THEY?

NEWSPAPERS are becoming prosperous but useless as watch dogs for the public, in the opinion of Don C. Seitz, formerly of the New York World, but since the first of the year, the new guiding star of The Nation. Don C. never discovered the futility of newspapers as public watch dogs in the 30 years that he was connected with the World, but the light dawned upon him in three days after he had made a very profitable connection with a weekly newspaper.

WHAT IS IN THE AIR?

LOOK toward the sky on a clear day. You may see a few birds in wheeling flight, or here and there a trail of smoke.

Beside that there appears to be nothing.

Now go into the house and "tune in" your radio.

You can hear, as you turn the dials, music or voices from many places, all of which have come through that same air.

You can hear also strange crashing sounds, caused by electrical waves over your head—waves which even the most profound scientist does not yet fully understand.

Not very long ago the music of an orchestra and the voice of an announcer was sent from London to America.

People throughout the eastern portion of the United States heard it more or less distinctly, but with it came scratchings and discordant sounds.

It is going to be the business of radio engineers in the next few years to find out what these sounds are, how they are made, and how they can be "strained out" so that communication between two continents can be made without interference.

It was not so long ago that to the great mass of humanity water was simply a more or less clear liquid, fresh or salty, which filled rivers, lakes and ponds, and fell in rain or hail or snow.

But soon it was discovered that some water could be drunk safely, and that other water was poison.

Presently thinking men invented microscopes and looked into this transparent fluid, to learn that a great deal of it was alive with wriggling little animals.

They were more careful about drinking it after that.

From the study of water they took up the study of air, and separated it into the chemical elements which compose it.

But only within comparatively few years did they learn that all air, not only during thunder storms but at all times, is charged with electricity, generated by the motion of the earth or the friction of clouds, or perhaps from the heat of volcanoes.

Of all the mysteries save that of life, electricity is the most absorbing that men have to deal with.

They are still in profound ignorance as to what it is. But they have so well learned what it can do that it has become one of the most important natural forces that can be harnessed for the use of man.

The time may come very soon when it will be possible to light and heat habitations, and operate machiner yin factories by currents sent without wires through the air.

The time may come when these clashings and curious sounds we call static may be traced, and the forces that cause them harnessed and put to use.

We are only at the beginning of the knowledge of this planet and this universe, which when once possessed will make life far more pleasant, and many times more interesting than it is today.

ARIZONA ON THE MAP

ARIZONA is on the map. For construction of the Coolidge Dam on the Gila river in that state, a congressional committee has appropriated $450,000 00, and also recommended another appropriation of $100,000 for an economic investigation of reclamation projects in the mountain states of the west.

There is a Roosevelt Dam; there is a Wilson Dam over in Tennessee, and perhaps it is all right for Jones to pay the cost of a Coolidge Dam away out in Arizona. Farmers in the corn belt say there has been an over production of their prize commodity and southern cotton growers are of the opinion that if it had not been for the drouth last season, there would have been a crop of 2,000,000 bales of fleecy staple, and the price of cotton would have slumped below the belt line of poverty.

Agriculturists are not coming from other countries to till the soil of America. They have been shut out. Now congressman John C. Box of Texas, insists that the Mexicans and South Americans should be shut out.

If his advice is to be taken by the congressional lawmakers, where is the labor to come from in future years. Rough workers are needed. Where will the employers of labor find them? Not in the cities or towns of the United States.

"Love Bound In Wichita Falls"

By the Author of 'The Flapper Wife'

READ THIS FIRST:

FLOSSIE and MARY ROSE MIDDLETON are two pretty sisters, the daughters of a widowed mother. They work for the Dexter Automobile Company.

Mary Rose is secretary to JOHN MANNERS, the sales manager, and is in love with him. He's engaged to DORIS HINIG, an heiress. Because of her feeling for him, Mary Rose repeatedly refuses to marry DR. TOM FITZROY.

Flossie, a born vamp, does a very poor job of keeping the office files. Mary Rose discovers that she is carrying on a flirtation with the president of the company, HILARY DEXTER, although she's engaged to his secretary, SAM JESSUP. The fact that Dexter is married doesn't stop Flossie from joy riding with him day and night, and her mother, MRS. MIDDLETON, can do nothing with her.

John Manners falls in love with Mary Rose, and tells her he'll always care for her, although's he's bound in all duty and honor to marry Doris.

The sisters quarrel, and to get even with Mary Rose, Flossie tells John Manners that she is "just stringing him along," pretending that she cares for him, and really is in love with Tom Fitzroy. Manners believes Flossie's convincing lie, and Mary Rose wonders at his sudden coldness toward her.

MRS. DEXTER finds Flossie's monogrammed vanity case in her husband's car. When she comes to his office to tell him she's going to divorce him, she finds Mary Rose there taking his dictation Mistaking her for Flossie, she loudly accuses her of trying to steal her husband from her. The whole office force hears the undeserved tongue lashing that Mary Rose receives, and the girls snub her. Flossie, the real culprit, begs her not tell that it was really she who was in the car with Dexter, because she's afraid that if Sam finds it out he won't marry her. And Mary Rose, who prayerfully hopes that Sam will marry Flossie and get her out of Dexter's way, takes the blame and the snubs. One night Dexter goes too far in his love making with Flossie, and she finds out how a married man really feels about a girl who will go out with him. The next day she leaves home, bag and baggage. And that night a special delivery letter comes for her. Mrs. Middleton gives it to Mary Rose to read.

(Now Go on With the Story)

CHAPTER XLVII

The letter was a single short paragraph, badly typed. It was not signed.

But the minute that Mary Rose started to read it she knew that Hilary Dexter had written it to Flossie. It sounded just like him—heavy and stiff.

"My dear little girl," he wrote. "You will learn as you grow that life is a constant struggle between right and wrong, between love and duty. I think you know which you represent to me. And do I make myself clear when I say to you that you will not be annoyed again by me if you will come back to work? It is not pleasant for me to reflect that you have given up your job because of me. My only excuse for last night's blunder is that I lost my head, as any man could lose it over you."

Mary Rose could imagine the shout of scornful laughter with which Flossie would have greeted this stilted message. "He must have birds on his aerial to write a thing like that!" she would probably have said, giggling derisively.

"You know who wrote that letter, don't you, Mary Rose?" Mrs. Middleton asked her, so suddenly that she gave a start.

"Yes, Mother, I do know," she said, folding the paper and putting it back into its envelope.

She saw now that she should have told her mother about Flossie and Mr. Dexter long ago—as long ago as the day last spring, when Flossie had come to her to boast that "the big boss is running around in circles about me!"

And what Tom had said a while ago was the solemn truth. A mother has every right to know all about her family, its deeds and its misdeeds.

Suppose that Mrs. Middleton, living her pure and sheltered life, was old-fashioned! She was not too old-fashioned to understand about the sinfulness of Flossie's love affair with a married man. For sin was old-fashioned, too. There was nothing on the face of the earth older than sin!

Ever since the days of the Garden of Eden, when Eve came running to show Adam the apple, women had held out the fruit of desire to men. And Flossie Middleton, with her uncorseted body, her rolled stockings and her tempting painted mouth, was only another daughter of Eve!

"Mr. Dexter wrote it," Mary Rose said, tapping the letter with her forefinger. "He's been crazy about Floss for perfect ages. I should have told you."

Her mother's face whitened and grew stern, as Mary Rose never had seen it before in all her life.

"You mean Mr. Hilary Dexter? The man you work for?" she asked, shaking her head with its coils of gray hair, as if she couldn't believe it.

Mary Rose nodded. Her lips framed the word "Yes," and she felt as guilty and ashamed as she often had when she was a little girl, and her mother had scolded her for some baby naughtiness or other.

"How long have you known about this?" Mrs. Middleton asked, severely. She was no longer the meek little mother whose daughters took charge of her bank account and ordered her to bed when she wanted to sit up and snooze in her chair. She had become in the twinkling of an eye, the head of her family, once more.

"I've known it for a long time," Mary Rose admitted. "I've wanted to tell you about it time and time again. But I knew that if you scolded Flossie about it, she'd leave home."

"Nonsense!" her mother said sharply. "She never had any money to leave home on. You know, yourself, that she hardly ever paid her board! After she'd bought all the clothes she needed, she had barely enough for her lunches."

What she said was true. Flossie never saved more than two or three dollars out of her weekly twenty. In the jargon of the day she "put everything she made on her back."

"I never stopped to think of that," Mary Rose murmured faintly.

"What's probably happened is that she's run off with that nincompoop of a Sam Jessup!" Mrs. Middleton went on shrewdly. She came down the stairs and took Dexter's letter away from Mary Rose. "You can see from this letter that she's quarreled with this man, and she's probably getting even with him by eloping with Sam! Biting off her nose to spite her face, in other words!"

She moved toward the telephone table as she spoke.

"We did phone Sam, mother," Tom told her. "And his landlady said he was out for the evening. So, it's not likely that he's run off with Flossie."

"And this Dexter—You called him, too, I suppose?" asked Mrs. Middleton, and he nodded.

"Then there's just one place where she could have gone—and that's to Alice James," she decided. "I'll call up and find out."

"Wouldn't it be better to go around and see if she's there?" asked Mary Rose. "If she's decided to leave home it must be because she's peeved at me. We had a little spat this morning. I'll go with Tom, and if she's there, I'll bring her home."

When she and Tom reached the little "four-family" apartment where Alice James had her tiny flat, he ran up the steps of the porch and rang the bell, while Mary Rose waited for him in the car.

Those Annual Reports, Folks!
According to old slanses
This month we should wield saw and axe,
We've neither one, yet habit's stuck,
It's still the month "to pass the buck!"

Modest Man

Judge: "As you have already served two terms, I will make this a heavy one. Ten years!"

Prisoner: "Sorry, Your Honor, I can't accept it. Like George Washington I feel that two terms are enough."

The Question

Morgan: "What are the seven ages of woman?"
Barron: "Her real age and six guesses."

ENVY.
By Roy T. Elster.

I'd love to be a Dentist!
I'd drill to beat the band
In molars and bicuspids,
My tool box near at hand.
With pick and axe and shovel,
With hammer and with saw,
What fun to dig recesses
In some poor human's jaw!

What sport to get a talker,
And fill her teeth with cotton,
Her mouth with rubber dam;
And then, if she still sputtered,
How nice to stop her sass
By holding 'neath her nosie
Some Minnie-ha-ha gas!

I envy every Dentist,
North, East, or West, or South,
Although each one is looking
All day down in the mouth.
Despite that ,their bank boxes
With stocks and bonds are full,
For with their drills and forceps
They thrive by push and pull!

Real Experience

Young Lady to Movie Director: "I see you are advertising for a first-class vamp?"

Movie Director: "Have you had any experience in vamping?"

Young Lady: "I've contributed many items to THE FUN SHOP."

Movie Director: "You're hired! We pay $200 a week." —Avery Powell.

A Matter of Taste.

Little four-year-old Dorothy was sent to the store, by her mother, for a box of matches.

She returned from the errand with a half dozen bananas.

"Why, Dorothy," said her surprised mother, "I didn't send you for bananas."

"I know it," replied Dorothy, "but I don't like matches at all."

LITTLE PEEPS BEHIND THE SCENES.
Congress.
(Head Through the Keyhole By Helen Skourase)

Senator from Ohio—Any laws we want passed today, gentlemen?

Senator from Iowa—By George! That's a good idea. Can't somebody suggest one

Senator from Utah—We ought to pass a law against the Charleston. I tried to dance it the other night and fell down three times. It's an outrage and it's got to be stopped.

Senator from Georgia—It's some dance! That reminds me of a story I heard about a couple of darkies dancing the Charleston. Pansy says to Florian: "Sorry Ah stepped on your foot——"

Senator from Missouri—And then Florain says——

Senator from Florida—Order! Order! The gentleman from Georgia has the floor!

Senator from Georgia—And then Florian says: "That wasn't mah foot, woman! That was mah ear!

Chorus of Senators—Har! Har! Har!

Senator from Texas—I wish to congratulate the gentleman from Georgia on his splendid speech! It was a gem of oratory, and I move that it go down upon the Congressional Record.

Senator from Vermont—And I move that he officially copyright the story. "Penalty for Private Use—$300". Any further comments?

Senator from Arizonas—I make the motion that we adjourn and eat! Has anybody got change for a quarter?

Senator from Oregon—That reminds me. It has been reported that people are using the seeds we send them for chicken feed! Something ought to be done about it!

Senator from Virginia—We've got to pass that Charleston bill first. All in favor say Aye, or Nay—or make some other cute remark!

The Question.

Barron: "Her real age and six guesses."

MANY ODDS—ONE CHANCE

Black Bear had been listening to what Polar said, but there were one or two things that he could not quite understand. He interrupted his neighbor.

"Say, Polar, do you mind if I ask you a question?" he asked politely.

"Certainly not. What do you wish to know?"

Polar Bear, as you can see, was a good-natured chap, except when he lost his temper. And, after all, who could blame him for not liking to be a prisoner? Wouldn't it make anybody mad to have to spend his days behind bars?

"Why need you have waited for the berg to drift to port? Why didn't you slide off the block of ice and pull for the shore? Didn't you tell me you were a strong swimmer—that few natives of the deep could beat you at it?" Gypsy was sure he had it straight.

"A very good question, Black bear," answered Polar. "But have you any idea how far that berg was from land when I woke up? Of course you haven't, and no more had I. But I knew it must have been a long, long way when with my eagle eye I couldn't sight the icefields. And Bear sense told me I had better take a chance on the berg than in the sea. Strong swimmer as I was, I could hardly hope to reach shore that were many miles away. I would have tried, but once weariness overtakes me my strokes would lose their strength—I would grow cold and by and by I would be frozen. Then what would become of me? I know only too well. Down, down, down I would have sunk to the bottom of the sea, and I had no notion to meet with such a fate before I had to, even if the berg was growing smaller and smaller."

Black Bear at this point asked another question.

"That makes the second time you have said that, Polar. Why was that berg growing smaller and smaller?"

"'Twas melting, of course. Don't tell me, Gypsy, wise Bear as you are, you have never heard that water melts ice. Big as a berg may be, once it goes floating it is only a question of time before, drop by drop, it will dissolve into the sea."

A Child's Laxative which Mothers Can Rely On

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself how perfectly it cleanses and regulates the bowels of infants and children.

Wilbur Wants Ship Like Shenandoah

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Secretaray Wilbur today told the house naval committee he favored construction of an airship to replace the Shenandoah.

The secretar yexplained, however, that the new airship should have a gerater gas capacity than the Shenandoah or the Los Angeles. They cost of the craft he estimated at about $6,000,000 and he suggested a capacity of 6,000,000 cubic feet, compared to the Shenandoah's 2,100,000.

Mr. Wilbur outlined his views before the committee at a hearing on Chairman Butler's bill for a new dirigible to cost $5,000,000.

Beware of Indigestion

The Disease That Strikes Like Lightning

Eight Deaths Out of Ten Are Due, Directly or Indirectly, to Indigestion. Heed Nature's Warnings Now, Before It Is Too Late

What are the warnings that Nature gives you of the approach of indigestion? According to the medical books, the most common symptoms of indigestion are as follows:

1—Gas on Stomach and Bowels

If your digestive organs are working normally, you have absolutely no gas (or wind). But when your food does not digest perfectly, you are sure to have more or less gas either in the stomach or bowels or in both This gas is produced by the fermentation of undigested food, particularly starches (vegetables) and sugars.

2—Fullness After Eating

A sensation of fullness or oppression sometimes causing pain or a feeling as of a lump in the stomach, or throat, is one of the most common warnings of indigestion.

3—A Dull, Lazy Feeling

This symptom means that your system has not been getting enough nourishment from the food that you have been eating. You get nourishment only from "digested" food. Undigested food ferments, decays and is converted into poisonous materials.

4—Restlessness—Wakefulness—Nervousness

When indigestion has grown upon you to the point that your sleep becomes restless and wakeful, and your nervous system irritable, your mind blue and melancholic it is time to beware of the impending danger of an acute attack. These nervous symptoms are caused by the poisons which are being absorbed from undigested foods

5—Pain and Fluttering Around Heart

Palpitation and pain in the region of the heart are very dangerous symptoms of advanced stages of chronic indigestion. They are caused by the intense pressure of gas which balloons the stomach, pressing it up against the diaphram and interfering with the action of the heart, which is just above the stomach and is separated from it by the diaphragma.

How to Get Rid of Indigestion

Nature has provided many remedies which give more or less relief in acute attacks of indigestion, but most of these are of only temporary benefit. They relieve the attack but they do not remove the cause. Their effect is therefore temporary, not permanent. For example, soda, mint, magnesia, and the many digestive tablets that are on the market are quite helpful to relieve the acute attack but have practically no curative value.

Ferraline Removes the Cause

What is the cause of indigestion? Refer again to the medical books and you will learn that indigestion is not a disease, as commonly supposed, but is "a weakened condition of the digestive organs." They are so weak that they do not perform their natural work of digesting the food. What is the cause of this weakness? Again the medical books answer your question: "This weakness of the digestive organs is caused by weakness of the blood that nourishes the walls of the digestive organs."

How Ferraline Strengthens the Organs

Ferraline is a concentrated mineral water extract prepared by leaching a mineral deposit which is mined from the mineral belt of Alabama where iron and sulphur salts are abundant. Ferraline is very rich in iron, sulphur, magnesium, lime, soda and potash salts—all of which are absolutely necessary constituents of human blood. This mineral extract is purified and refined, then concentrated and fortified to make it most agreeable and effective for rebuilding the vigor of the weakened digestive organs, and its beneficial effects are quickly noticeable in general improvement of the health and strength of all of the organs of the human body.

Try Ferraline on Our Guarantee

Don't take any further chances with indigestion—you are sure to lose, sooner or later. It is a deadly condition. If you have suffered with any of the symptoms mentioned above, strengthen your digestive organs at once with Ferraline, Nature's great digestive tonic, that has given relief to thousands. Ferraline immediately aids and strengthens every one of your digestive organs, including your stomach, liver and bowels. Ferraline makes your digestion "perfect and complete." You feel its helpful effect from the very first glass. (Two teaspoonsful added to a glass of plain water three times a day gives you a ten-days' treatment at a nominal cost.)

Ferraline is so much superior to any other remedy for indigestion that the owners have authorized your druggists to refund the purchase price, one dollar, if you are not delighted with the result. Delay might be dangerous. Get a bottle of Ferraline today.

If your druggist's supply of Ferraline is exhausted when you call, leave your order with him and he will obtain it for you within a few days from his wholesale house.—Adv.

News Of The Fields

Jean District

The Consolidated Oil company of Texas has made a location and is fixing to move tools onto the E. W. Lasater land, northwest of Jean, Young county. The well is 150 feet each way from the northeast corner of the south 60 acres of the west 120 acres, TE&LCO survey 296, abstract 543. This will be a rotary test.

Fassett-Tuttle Area

The Underwood Drilling company and others have spudded in a well on the Fassett and Tuttle lands, 7 miles southeast of the city limits of Wichita Falls, Wednesday morning, the location being in the vicinity of the old "Big Wichita" well, which created considerable excitement during boom days, and which later was abandoned as dry. It is some distance from the nearest production. The test is for 1,800 feet.

Throckmorton County

Louis Piost, who drilled a dry hole on the Condron and Gaigher tract near the Upsher county school land in Throckmorton county during last summer, has made a location to drill another hole mid-way between the old dry hole and the Bridwell and Heydrick test, to the 1350-foot depth. The new test is about a half mile south of the Bridwell and Heydrick test, which had a good sand, but did not make a well.

Oldham District

What is believed to be one of the biggest producers yet brought in by the Texhoma Oil and Refining company in the Oldham pool, is the No. 6, Oldham, which swabbed 99 barrels the first eight hours and is estimated at 150 barrels a day. The well is producing from the usual 1300-foot sand.

The Oldham pool is located in southwest Archer county about ten miles southwest of Archer City. There are six wells on Texhoma acreage now. No. 7 Oldham, is down almost to the producing sand and is expected to be the next in. No. 8 also is about due for completion. No. 9 is a location and will be the next started.

Jack County Wildcat

A late report from Jack county's wildcat, owned by the Buttram interests, located on the J. Preston farm, abstract 1003, which was originally reported as swabbing 65 barrels and later at 75 barrels, now is reported as slopping oil over the top of the casing and with gas bubbling through the oil. Eight-inch casing was set at a depth of 1,928 feet; oil sand was topped at 2,068 feet instead of 2005 feet, as first announced. There is about 140 feet of open hole, with about 70 feet of caveins in the hole, making it impossible to swab to the bottom. The oil when tested is reported to have shown no water and is of 41.1 gravity, with gas making 1 gallon to every 1000 feet.

Wichtex-Dixie Area

The fallacy of the argument that a dry hole or a water well defines a productive area in Archer county is about to be shown, it appears in the Wichtex-Dixie are or north Archer county, where Ross Robertson et al apparently have on oil well in sand topped at 1,535 feet in their No. 1, Jackson, on the west line of lot 132, Aldridge survey, and Wichtex-Dixie have bailed salt water in a sand at 1,552-55 feet between that well and the two producing oil wells in the area.

Robertson et al, were setting casing to test Wednesday, and should have bailed Wednesday night. The sand was high and was said to show plenty of oil.

Wichtex-Dixie No. 4 was located 360 feet east and ten feet south of No. 3, the second producer in the field.

Four Only Complete Plans For Oil Men's Gathering

Four Wichita Falls oil men at least, and possibly more, will leave this morning for Los Angeles to attend the annual convention of the American Petroleum Institute which convenes there next Tuesday, January 19, and continues through Thursday, January 21.

Roy B. Jones, president of the Panhandle Refining company, left Wednesday for Dallas, and will leave that place today in company with operators of that city for Fort Worth where the Texas party will congregate, leaving there this afternoon for the west.

L. V. Hull, Wichita Pipeline company, George Golden, Victory Petroleum company, and V. E. Jackson, Iowa Park Producing and Refining company, will leave early this morning for Fort Worth. W. B. Hamilton, president of the Texhoma Oil and Refining company, did not know late Wednesday whether he would be able to go or not, although he stated that he had about abandoned plans for the trip.

Special accommodations have been arranged at Fort Worth for Texas oil men making the trip, it is understood. Part of tomorrow will be spent in a short stop off in El Paso, permitting a trip to Juarez, the party going straight to Los Angeles from there. The return trip will be made via the northern route

Florida Scheme Of Ponzi Under Probe

BOSTON, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Charles Ponzi's latest enterprise, the Charpon Land Syndicate, is under investigation by state authorities. Attorney General Jay R. Benton ordered the investigation following complaints that the syndicate violated the state "blue sky" laws.

The syndicate, established at Jacksonville, Fla., recently opened a branch office here, offering lots at $10 each. It advertised a possible profit to investors of 200 per cent in 60 days, making the "50 per cent in 45 days" promise of the Ponzi International coupon scheme which collapsed here six years ago with a loss of millions, seem small by comparison.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflamation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.

More Truth Than Poetry

POETRY FOR THE PEOPLE

Start the day with a smile; when you walk down the street
Determined to struggle and win,
Bestow on the first pretty girl that you meet
A beaming and jovial grin.
She may become frightened and call the police
Who will take you to jail for a while;
But you'll know as you calmly await your release,
That you started the day with a smile.

Start the day with a smile, if a friend on the car
Who's been playing the bucket shop joints,
Informs you he purchased some stock around par
Which has dropped about seventy points—
Let your features reveal an expression of glee
Although his appeared worried and blue,
For it always is wise to let other men see
That their troubles mean nothing to you.

Start the day with a smile; if you're late to your work
And the boss steps around to complain,
Declare with a carefree and nonchalant smirk
That you never can catch that darn train.
This may not produce the result you desired,
Your mirth may be understood—
But you'll thrill by remembering, after you're fired,
That you smiled while the smiling was good.

Start the day with a smile; though your friends may suspect
That you're crazy, and dismally dwell
On the nerve-racking, brain sapping, deadly effect
Of the liquor these bootleggers sell,
And bid you beware of the horrible stuff
And try to keep sober, a while,
For you it will always be comfort enough
That you started the day with a smile.

SWAP BODIE?

The latest swap rumor wafting around this way is there're going to trade the rotund Mr. Ping Bodie. One named gentleman is quoted as saying President Gardner told him the walloping Spudder outfielder will be hunting new scenery after the Catalina session.

* * *

ALVIN SAYS NO.

All of which smacks of the strange and somewhat unusual, for none other than Mr. Gardner himself declared to the writer no longer than a week ago that he has no intentions whatsoever of letting Ping roam in foreign pastures. Jabez Alvin went so much into detail as to predict the Spudder outer gardens will be patrolled by Lamb and Fitzgerald in right and left or vice versa with the irrepressible Bodie in center.

* * *

That on the face of it, would be labelled as protection of one slow runner by a couple of speed demons placed on each flank, as it were. Get the point? Fast boys on each side make the center field and entire outer defense stronger.

* * *

But the rumor persists to effect Gardner plans shipping Ping if he possibly can make a worthwhile deal. Some aver it's because Bodie has indicated he will hold out for a stipulated sum far and above that which Spudder powers believe he should be paid for his services through the impending summer. Others opine it's not a matter of money, but a personal item deep down under the service of things that would indicate a change of venue is better for all concerned.

* * *

Regardless of these rumors, the fact remains Gardner declared there was not the slightest idea in his mind of getting rid of the home run smasher. And J. Will yesterday told us Gardner has no intention of trading Ping. "He didn't leave here with the purpose of swapping Bodie, and so far as I know Ping will be right with us this summer. Of course, there's always such a possibility. If somebody made Gardner the right kind of proposition, strengthening our outfield and turning over a neat cash consideration in the bargain it is likely he would trade. As you know, we'd swap the shoes off our feet if the right kind of proposition was presented."

* * *

Can Buddy Stand the Lure.

Wonder how the old spring baseball lure will hit the retired Buddy Tanner. The former Spudder skipper declares he's through with baseball. However, when the rest of the gang starts the training grind each year it's mighty hard to keep the old timers away. Buddy, they say, has received a number of offers to hook up with some club next summer. It is said both Fort Worth and Waco are included among the teams who have sought his signature. That spring lure may catch him.

* * *

Wouldn't mind seeing Tanner go with Waco. The Brazos River outfit needs bolstering. Don't you know Buddy would be in there battling whenever his team performed at Spud park before his hometown fans? The Cats are all too powerful as it is, so Tanner doesn't need to make it any worse on the rest of the Texas league by joining up with Mr. Atz.

* * *

But Buddy solemnly swears he's finished with baseball. Can't play the game all his life and must stick in the business he hooked up with at the close of the 1925 season. So it looks like we won't see Bud in uniform again.

* * *

We suggest they bar the melodious Mr. Bodie from that "Singing Bee Contest" billed at the Majestic Monday eve. Who would stand a chance when this sweet-voiced person swung into action. If you're ever heard Ping so much as whisper you know what we mean.

* * *

DUKE BETTER.

Tommy White is quite complimentarily toward Duke Trammel. He declares Duke has improved very much since their other two bouts here last summer. Opines Duke is faster, much cleverer and can counter surprisingly well.

* * *

We hazarded Duke hasn't improved much. Tommy came back with "Boy! If he hasn't I don't want to get into the ring with him when he does. I saw all kinds of stars when he hit me in that ninth round Monday night. It didn't hurt. But everything flashed up and then for a second it was all black."

* * *

Wichita Falls is fortunate more or less in the class of boxers and wrestlers who have been brought to the city. The entire lot has been well behaved, clean and a credit to their professions. No cleaner pair of athletes ever stepped into the ring than are Trammel and White. Both are gentlemen in every sense of the word. And then rating down from these boys, the rest of the mitt pushers who have performed here on the whole have been a well-behaved lot—none of the rowdyism and lowbrow stuff quite a number of the lesser lights in the ring game often display. With the wrestlers it has been the same. Taking Santel at the top and going on down we've seen a clean-cut and gentlemanly set of athletes on and off the mat.

* * *

Dick Daviscourt has shown himself a bum sport and more of an animal than human when in the ring, but off the canvas he, too, is a pretty good scout. Dick's a mighty bad actor when he's stripped to the waist and has some hapless mat gladiator before him, but he's all right outside and in the general run of life.

* * *

Speaking of actors, they may show 'em both good and bad at the Majestic as the seasons roll by but it's doubtful if ever a man will more aptly portray any certain character than does Pop McManus handle the role of Charley Yang, overbearing, egotistical and more or less slinkingly vicious Chinese what-ever-you-call-'em known as the chop suey king of San Francisco in Edna Park's current showing of East Is West. Pop takes our nickels, but if we were thrown into close quarters with him somewhere in that role and he started talking we'd do one of two things; either dive through the window in a hurry or smash one to the point of the chin all sudden-like.

Cheers for the villian!

Al Espinosa Steps On Course Record

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Al Espinosa of Chicago, practicing on the Brackenridge municipal links today for the Texas open golf tournament, broke the course record for the first nine holes with 31 and came within one stroke of tying the record of 65 for the full 18 holes. The latter record is held by Walter Hagen and others. Two putts Espinosa missed by an eyelash would have given him a new record of 64. Par is 71.

ALDERSON BEST REFEREE.

AUSTIN, Jan. 13.—Curtis Alderson, assistant football and basketball coach at Texas University, was picked by a number of sport writers the best referee to officiate in a high school football game in this state during the 1925 season.

Alderson is a close student of almost every imaginable sport. It is said he knows by heart the football and basketball rule books.

Carp Hits Gotham, Starts Press Agent Stuff for Paolino

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Georges Carpentier, "orchid man" of France, arrived today on another pugilistic mission to the United States, but this time it is not entirely on his own account.

"Fight?" he repeated. "Most assuredly if the opportunity is good but you should see this Paolino of Spain if you wish to see a fighter."

Carpentier thus epitomized the main purpose of his visit. Now 32—he celebrated his birthday yesterday—and admittedly past his fistic prime the "gorgeous one" is not particularly anxious for a strenuous program on his own account though he considers himself in good trim and "would like, monsieur, a shot at Paul Berlenbach or young Stribling."

But Paolino; that is another matter and Georges, with an expressive gesture, mildly asserted the Spaniard is the "greatest heavyweight in the game today," ready now to take on either Gene Tunney or Harry Wills.

Pack Goes Through Long Cage Workout

The Coyotes took a lengthy drill Wednesday afternoon on several new plays and formations. Coach McCallum chased all the bystanders from the court and the workout was done in secret.

The Coyotes lose the services of Fritz Taylor for the year. This youngster was forced to check in his suit and leave the squad due to an operation which is to be performed within the near future.

Coyal Francis and Emil Flusche showed up well in the passing drills. W. J. Howard and Bill Flippin have once more commenced to hit the old basket and should start in making somebody hustle soon.

ANOTHER CAGE LEAGUE OPENS RACE TONIGHT

Four Clubs Play on Grace Court in Independent Organization

Basketball players in Wichita Falls are getting thicker than flies in an open air hamburger joint during the good old summer time.

Four new cage quints swing into action tonight on the Grace Methodist church court. This quartet composes a new and independent league, officers of which will be elected tonight after the games.

Charley Ross at present is the sole league official from president on down to score keeper. He's going to put up a loving cup for the winning aggregation. Each club plays 12 games. The double header tonight starts the league off but hereafter all games are to be played on Mondays. The loop performs weekly.

The league is composed of the Reed Drug company five captained by John Reed, the Grace Methodists captained by Milo Thornberry, the Fizzles captained by Marvin Robinson, and the Owls captained by Gibson McLarry.

The first game tonight starts at 7:30 o'clock. Grace Methodists hook up with the Owls, and the Fizzles play the drug store five.

Thus Grange and C. C. Pyle, his manager, outlined their plans here this morning.

Hawks Take On Megargel Friday

The Iowa Park Hawks will meet the Megargel five on the Iowa Park court Friday night, it was announced yesterday. The Hawks recently invaded the Megargel floor and came out with an 18 to 15 win.

The Hawks will depend on the offensive work of Fillmore, Beasley, and Enloe for a win. This trio has been going at a fast pace of late and the Hawk fans are expecting much of them.

NEARLY 150 ATHLETES OUT FOR STEER TEAMS.

AUSTIN, Jan. 13.—Approximately 150 aspiring athletes are now working out for various Texas University varsity teams, despite the fact that basketball is the only major sport in which intercollegiate competition will be held for more than six weeks.

Track with approximately 85 candidates leads. Clyde Littlefield, head track coach, is also coach of the freshman basketball team, but is finding time to devote to the varsity track candidates. Baseball is second with about 30 varsity aspirants; then comes basketball with 20, and finally tennis with 15.

BIG CROWD EXPECTED AT KEMPER GYM DEDICATION.

BOONVILLE, Mo., Jan. 11.—Invitations have been issued to more than 300 coaches, athletic directors, athletic managers, and sport writers in the Middle West for the dedication of the new $150,000 gymnasium and $40,000 swimming pool at Kemper Military school, here, Jan. 1.

Second Stringers Gives Tiger Cage Five Hard Tussle

Miller Fills in For Kent At Forward—Boyd Best Of Scrubs

ELECTRA, Jan. 13.—Jim Reese sent his Tiger cage charges through another stiff workout Tuesday afternoon in preparation for their Friday night go with the Harrold five. The first stringers continued to show up well both on the defense and offense and promise to give the Harrold crew one of the fastest outfits in this part of the state, a battle from the start Friday.

The second stringers offered more opposition than usual in this go, the regulars winning by only a small margin. Louis Kent, first team forward, was on the sick list Tuesday and, although he went through a light goal tossing practice, he saw no action in the scrimmage. Joe Miller, who made his debut as a basketeer only a short time ago, has been showing up well and the mentor put him in charge of Kent's forward. Miller held this position down in grand fashion, looping several neat goals from the floor as well as playing nicely on the defense. Willis Carnahan at center and Harry Preston at forward for the regulars continued to shine on the offense, each getting several goals to their credit.

Dewey "Wild Bill" Byrd was the second stringers' best offensive bet, getting a majority of his team's goals, several being very difficult shots. Homer Glyn and Cleve Jones looked good on the defense for the subs.

Coyote Pups Look Better Than Doped

The Coyote Pups worked out Wednesday afternoon on passing and goal tossing. The club is looking better than expected and should be able to take on some hard games next week. Roy Brackett and Edwin Goff continued to shine with several field goals. Fat Farris, Ray George, Shoestring Dulaney, and Ted Davenport were coming through nicely on their passing work and defense.

The club is still without a game but expects to land one in the next few days.

STECHER WRESTLES VELCOFF IF NICK SLAMS IT OVER DICK DAVISCOURT IN TONIGHT'S TIFF

THE CARD

Dick Daviscourt versus Nick Velcoff. Heavyweights, finish match.

Jack Gorman versus Young Gotch. Lightweights, finish match.

Place: 812½ Scott street gym.

Time: 8 o'clock sharp.

That Gorman-Gotch match is expected to be a tough affair. And Jack expects to finally erase that draw bout waged here last summer with Gotch. He not only seeks revenge on the rugged Dallas lightweight, but it is upon the outcome of this match that hinges the possibility of Gorman realizing a fond desire, that of getting Matty Matsuda onto the mat with him. Matchmaker Ross has tentatively agreed to match him with Matsuda if he beats Gotch.

The real interest of the hour turns to the Daviscourt-Velcoff match, however. For it's said Velcoff will give Wichita Falls fans exactly what they want, a Daviscourt defeat along with a good roughing in the bargain.

Because of the brutally rough tactics and unsportsmanlike conduct displayed by Daviscourt in two previous matches here, Wichita Falls mat followers are pulling almost to a man to see the big fellow taken to a sound thrashing. Many believe Velcoff is the man who can do it. These wrestlers have never met before. Neither has seen the other in action.

Tony Stecher, the heavyweight champion's brother and manager, wired yesterday that if Velcoff beats Daviscourt the champion will give him a match in Wichita Falls or anywhere he wants to wrestle.

Daviscourt is press-agented as one of the most dangerous contenders for the championship. He's clever, big and strong. His uncanny knowledge of the finer points of roughing and his all-around vicious cunning, so to speak, make him a very formidable opponent.

Jones, Gunn On U. S. Team Which Invades England

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—(AP)—The executive committee of the United States Golf association today announced selection of eight outstanding amateur players, including the national champion, Bobby Jones, and his youthful rival, Watts Gunn, both of Atlanta to invade England next June in defense of the Walker cup international team trophy held by this country since 1922.

Robert A. Gardner of Chicago again has been chosen to captain the American players. Other members of the team will be Francis Ouimet of Boston, George Von Elm of Los Angeles, Jess Guilford of Boston, Jess W. Sweetzer of New York and Roland Mackenzie of Washington, D. C.

In the event of withdrawals substitutions will be made from the following five alternates: Max R. Marston and D. Clark Corkran, Philadelphia; George Rotan of Houston, Texas; H. Chandler Egan of Medford, Ore., and Harris R. Johnston of St. Paul.

TEXAS OPEN COURSE FAST.

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 13.—(AP)—The fast field entered in the Texas open golf championship tournament will find a sporty course when the qualifying play begins at Brackenridge municipal links Thursday morning. Not only will the course be sporty, but unless there is more rain, the fairways may be as fast as the field of entrants, many of whose names are bywords to those who swing the brassie and mashie.

At The Olympic

CLARA BOW, TOM MIX AND TONY IN "THE BEST BAD MAN" — A WILLIAM FOX SUPREME ATTRACTION.

Theatres

Color and Music To Blend Today In Olympic Acts

Color and music will blend in the Olympic theatre's five acts of Bert Levy vaudeville starting today. Melody, harmony and fun, with an unusual amount of special feature effects have been provided.

Tom Mix in "The Best Bad Man," is the picture attraction.

Victoria and Frank in Plastic and Art, proffer an athletic novelty for which they have become famous. Not only is their offering sensational, but is presented in an artistic manner not often seen in an athletic act.

Murray and Alma Ferguson, a versatile actor impersonating an old soldier of the Civil war period and a chatty old maid comprise this duo in a cleverly written skit with comedy, pathes, music and song which will prove interesting as well as entertaining.

Harriette Rumsey Trio, three dainty misses, in a musical cycle, of piano, violin and cello, should delight the music lovers. Their cycle of melodies is proffered in their own original style and their bits of hits from the latest musical comedies is a high light, in this artistic offering.

Will Kraemer: The well-known comedian, presents an offering called "His Majesty, the Fool." His wardrobe is particularly odd and funny to look at. His finishing number called, My Spanish Troubador, wearing the Spanish costume and castine make sure fine ending.

The Four Belmonts, two boys and two girls, offer a most unique and fascinating performance with hoops and Diaboles. They open with the hoops, which have centerpieces of beautiful illuminated metal of various designs, which while spinning through the air, present most magnificent kaleioscopic effects as at times there are as many as 20 hoops revolving. They next take a number of Diaboles and, spinning them in the air, throw them from one to another, which are accurately caught and returned to the sender with amazing precision and swiftness. Several diaboles are then juggled by each member of the troupe, exchanging them from one to the other, and the air is again filled with these glittering metallic spools. The agility they display is so astonishing that it is really miraculous.

Prop Liquor Too Much for Tough Star at Olympic

Buster Gardner, one of the best-known cowboys in the Tom Mix company, had to do a lot of hard-drinking in "The Best Bad Man," a Fox Films super-western starring the modern Buffalo Bill, now at the Olympic theatre.

Tom Wilson, famous blackface character man, was on the side-lines, sending in the drinks. The scene was a palatial library in a New Orleans home—and Tom Mix was host to Gardner.

Between scenes Director J. C. Blystone ordered the camera crew to "cut," thus affording the "grips" a chance to change the glasses.

Soon Wilson noticed that the glasses were coming "off-stage" empty—but, between scenes, Gardner was making no further kick against drinking "prop" liquor.

"Hey!" yelled Wilson, "that cow fellow isn't taking his p'izen like a regular he-man should. The 'grips' are dumping the stuff in a bucket!"

"Well," said the director, "Buster drank three full glasses of that fluid and I'm willing for you to change places with him if you think you have a better stomach!"

Then the blackface artist decided to keep quiet.

Mission Picture Brings World War To Cinema Screen

"Fighting in France" is the title of a picture that will be shown at the Mission theatre beginning today. The name is very appropriate for the picture spells action all the way through. It shows the American soldiers, members of the A. E. F., from the day of embarkation to the signing of the armistice in a true fight that was gained only through the self-sacrifice of members of the U. S. signal corps many of whom died that the deeds of the American soldier on the battlefields of France, might be preserved for all time. The picture has the stamp of approval of the war department and was released through that department in order that the people of America be given the privilege of seeing for themselves a true account of the part America played in the World war.

The film starts by showing the troops boarding transports on this side their journey through submarine infested waters, the attacks of the submarine and their destruction by the torpedo boat destroyers known during those days as the "Wasps of the Sea."

After the box car journey from Brest came the front. The word front meant anything. In the life of the doughboy it was a front overlooking shell shattered villages and forest and miles and miles of mud filield trenches. This part of the picture is gripping for it is here that the spectator sees for himself the bursting shells, the release of gas, huge guns tearing up ammunition "dumps" and villages

The soldiers are then pictured going "over the top," fighting their way through barbed wire and tangled underbrush.

In all it is a vivid picturization to that grim era of the World war.

ABRAMOWITZ IN PALESTINE PLEA

Noted Jewish Lecturer Is Speaker Wednesday At Temple Israel

An educational and inspirational address prefacing the Palestine appeal in Wichita Falls was made last night at Temple Israel by Dr. A. B Abramowitz, a native of Palestine, and noted Jewish lecturer of Chicago who told of conditions in Palestone as he found them three months ago when he was visiting his native land.

He told his story by illustrations which were forceful, and made clear the point of his appeal. "In order to understand the Palestine movement, one must be intellectually and morally able to grasp its meaning," he said, and he mentioned what a great deal there is to learn in America where there is liberality and so-called equality and why it is hard to understand what it is to live in a country where people are smashed and dashed without any regard for them.

"We are happy and glad in this country, but we might think what might have happened in 1890 had congress kept out the foreigners, every one of us would be over there and we would be writing to the Jews here asking for relief."

Preceding his address of the evening, a banquet was held in the basement of the synagogue under the auspices of the Temple Brotherhood and the B'nai Brith lodge, with Dr. Abramowitz the guest of honor.

BAPTISTS AT CONFERENCE OF WORKERS OF ELECTRA

Dr. O. L. Powers, pastor of the First Baptist church, W. E. Young, E. E. Fuller, J. F. Detiefs, Knox Finley, and Mesdames A. F. Kimmell, Homer McGregor, W. C. W. Brown, W. M. McGinnis, and Charles Harr attended the January meeting of the County Baptist Workers' conference held at Electra.

NEW STEWARDS ELECTED.

Four New Ones Are Named Wednesday at First M. E.

Paul Morton, Willis Clark, Jimmy Warren and J. S. Minton were the four new members elected to the Junior board of Stewards in the monthly meeting at the First Methodist church.

A membership committee composed of Bill Kerr Claude Miller, James Williams, Louis Peyton and A. P. Jones was appointed by the president, F. M. Hansen.

MUSIC PUTS A KICK IN BILL

Two Comedians Bring Down The House at Majestic Wednesday

Two ill-garbed gentlemen from Mussolini"s domain, one of whom swings a mean violin bow and has trouble with his trousers; and the other of which picks an Italian harp with the touch of a master give the Majestic vaudeville bill this week a kick that comes all too rarely. That the first-night crowd Wednesday got the kick was attested by four encores for the pair.

Ward and Van, otherwise known as the Demichelle brothers in "Off Key" were the two. One is a violinist extraordinary and the other handles a huge and melodius harp in a way that holds his hearers spellbound. Two violins are used, one with every string tuned just a little too high or too low and from this last night came a musical combination that brought down the house.

Real Music

Then in the end a real fiddle is brought in and the two give an honest musicale that would do credit to a drawing room.

The balance of the bill is also good. Billy Dale and company in "Congratulations" have a matrimonial musical comedy centering around a white-haired sheik, a raven-browned vamp and a pair of incidental lovers who sing and dance. The humor is above the average and so is the dancing.

Lots of Dance.

Evelyn Phillips, with Eddie Simms and Joe Devaney appear in a terpischorean cordial that mixes up most all known kinds of dancing with some music and elaborate settings. Hattie Althoff and her sister provide a melange of songs and piano numbers and Mankin, "the frog man," opens the bill with an act that can be described only as grotesquely entertaining. This individual evidently has no bones, for he twists himself into some amazingly tortuous knots with the whole effect enhanced by a green and and realistic costume that makes him appear as a huge frog. Clever lighting effects give the appearance of a monster frog hopping from a pond to shore, going through his antics and finally disappearing in the pond again.

A sportlight and fables film open the bill.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—(AP)—The cotton market was very quiet today, business being restricted to straddle trading to a great extent. The fluctuations in prices were extremely narrow, only eight to nine points. At the highest of the day prices were two to six points above the previous close and at the lowest two to six points under that level. Even better cables than due at the opening failed to elicit any response in the local market which opened unchanged to two points up. This indifference to Liverpool which again sold 10,000 bales of spots for the third consecutive day was attributed to the fact that the English market is much below the parity of American markets. The close was unchanged on October and one to five points down on other months.

At the start the market opened unchanged to two points up and fluctuated within narrow limits all morning, making the highs of the day at 19.43 for March, 19.02 for May and 18.58 for July, or three to six points above the previous close. Prices eased off during the afternoon to 19.35 for March, 18.93 for May and 18.53 for July, or five to nine points down from the highs. The close was near the lows.

The main sustaining influence during the day was the reported good spot demand both locally and in other southern markets.

Exports for the day totaled 12,471 bales.

NEW YORK FUTURES.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—(AP)—The cotton market was very quiet again today. Prices fluctuated within a range of 10 points. After selling up to 19.51 at the start. May declined to 19.43 and closed at that figure, compared with 19.49 at the close yesterday. The general market closed steady at a net decline of one to six points.

The market opened steady at an advance of two points to a decline of two points. Active months sold up slightly after the call owing to continued steadiness in Liverpool, with reiterated reports of an improvement in cotton goods markets and claims of somewhat better spot demand in the south. Liverpool spot sales again included 4,000 bales for export which was supposed to reflect further continental buying in the English market.

There probably was some buying here early on behalf that between the demand for cotton out of the Liverpool stock for export and the improvement in Manchester, British interests would soon be forced into the southern spot markets for additional supplies. The buying was by no means active or general, however, and the bulge to 19.99 for March and 18.52 for October seemed to bring out a little realizing which was coupled with some selling for southern account. Prices eased in consequence, May selling off to 19.90 and October to 18.15 in late trading. The close was within two or three points of the lowest with new crops relatively steady. As was the case yesterday bullish features in the news seemed sufficient to restrict offerings but failed to stimulate any general buying.

Receipts today were 12,471 bales, making 4,891,609 so far this season. Port receipts 23,866. U. S. port stocks 1,581,676 bales.

NEW YOEK, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Stock prices failed today to break out of the narrow trading area within which they have been fluctuating for the last week or more but bullish operations were successfully conducted in a limited number of industrial specialties and there was a revival of activity in several of the so-called southwestern "merger rails." While there was a fair investment demand for some of the high grade issues, the bulk of the day's trading, which ran around 1,700,000 shares, was in the hands of professional operators.

The day's news was largely favorable. Call money held steady at 4½ per cent, but a large supply of funds was available below that figure in the "outside" market. A large number increased and extra dividends was announced during the day, the list including F. W. Woolworth and Continental Can. The weekly steel trade review reported that mill operations were continuing at a high rate, and the United States Steel corporation announced that it would offer 100,000 shares of common stock to employes under the annual stock subscription plan for 136 a share, or $11 above the subscription price last year. The stock closed at 135⅝, a net loss of ⅜ on the day, after touching 137 in the early trading.

The recent tendency toward the recapitalization of high priced issues through stock split-ups probably accounted for the strength of such issues as Foundation company, Pullman, National Lead, United drug and International Telephone. General electric attained a new record high at 347½ and then eased to 341 for a net loss of 5⅝ on the day. Nash responded to the declaration of a 900 per cent stock dividend by touching a new peak at 519, but later collapsed to 500 and then rallied to 510, off seven points on the day.

Nearly a score of industrial issues sold at their highest prices in a year or more, including Burns Brothers, A. Public Service of New Jersey, Corn Products, South Porto Rican Sugar, Tobacco Products A, Reynolds Tobacco, Consolidated Cigar preferred and United Paper Board.

Revival of activity and strength in the Pan-American issues, which advanced about two points on reports that recent Mexican developments would stimulate the development of its Venzuelan properties was the only feature in the oil group.

Buying of the rails centered largely in such issues as Rock Island common, Missouri Pacific common and preferred, "Katy" common and Texas and Pacific common, all of which closed two to 3½ points higher.

Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged. Foreign exchanges held steady in quite trading. Demand sterling advanced ¼ of a cent to 4.85 13-16 and French francs held firm around 3.76 cents. Japanese yen advanced ¼ of a cent to 44 cents the highest price since the collapse following the 1923 earthquake.

Market Gossip

Booth and Burmeister, brokers, basement Waggoner Bldg., today received the following from J. S. Bache and company of New York, New Orleans and Chicago:

GRAINS.

Wheat: Weaker and lower with May in new ground on present downturn. Rallies throughout the day were short lived, as each upturn was taken advantage of to reduce lines, and the market did not take selling well. Sharp upturns may be witnessed from time to time due to oversold pit conditions, but the world's situation is becoming more bearish and feel that rallies should be taken advantages of to make sales. The receptive movement of the new Argentina and Australian crops hangs over the market like a wet blanket, and upturns will hardly be maintained until a good part of the surplus has been placed abroad. The United States is on a domestic basis simply due to the immense premium as compared with the world's markets, and while a little durm may be sold there is more than sufficient grain for home requirements and for a liberal carryover at the end of the season.

Course Grains—Coarse grains averaged lower, profit taking appearing in corn and there was much less aggressive buying than of late. The political propaganda seems to have lost its force and the bearish supply and demand situation is coming to the fore. As yet farmers show no disposition to sell freely but with prospective supplies of hogs back in the country the smallest in over ten years feel that farm consumption estimates will have to be revised downward, and sooner or later the grain will be forced to market.

STOCK.

Would expect the market tomorrow to be similar to that of today with special issues receiving constructive attention and general irregularity in the balance of the market. Call attention to the action of public service and a number of rails recommended the last few days.

Total sales 1,646,000 shares.

COTTON.

With the price level continuing to show no deviation of consequence from day to day, there is no inspiration for either trade or speculative operations and we see nothing in sight calculated to change the present narrow fluctuations. Therefore cotton should be considered as an investment rather than a speculation and we continue to suggest the buying of new crops, particularly December, and the elimination of operations in the spring and summer months.

D. L. Tipton To Face Trial On Second Count

EX-DRUGGIST IS ARRESTED AGAIN

Is Indicted for Driving Car While Intoxicated; Makes Bond

D. L. Tipton, former Wichita Falls druggist, must face trial on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, it developed Wednesday at noon when he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff J. D. White on a warrant issued after the return of an indictment by the thirtieth district court.

Tipton went with White to the sheriff's office immediately after the service and a bond of $2,500 was made.

The indictment preferred against Tipton was returned by the grand jury in its partial report last Friday morning.

No setting was announced Wednesday for the case. Tipton is under another indictment charging failure to stop and render aid, and is at liberty on a $2,500 bond on that charge also. This case has been set for Monday, Jan. 18.

Both indictments grew out of a crash on the Seymour road, Aug. 2, when a car driven by Tipton struck a small car parked by the side of the road and killed J. E. Sisson, its driver, who was engaged in repairing a tire. An indictment was afterward returned charging failure to stop and render aid.

Toll To Christmas Carelessness Sacked Up Wednesday; Shipped To Postal's Dead Letter Office

Vast Amount of Holiday Packages, Lost by Insecure Wrapping or Faulty Addresses, Sent To Washington From City

Wichita Falls got rid of its annual toll to careless mailing Wednesday when the local post office sacked up and sent to the dead letter office at Washington a few hundred assorted letters, packages, bundles and parcels—remnants lost in the shuffle in the holiday rush.

Postal authorities here, try as hard as they have, were unable to either deliver or find owners for an amazingly large amount of Christmas packages. Ever thing from corduroy pants to a paper of pins was included in the list. Insufficient wrapping was the principal cause of its being lost, although faulty addresses caused some of it.

Whatever the cause, it was all bundled up and sent to the dead letter office in the national capitol where, in due course of time, it will be disposed of as the law provides.

"We have something like this every year," Mr. Maricle said. "Folks just can't learn to wrap securely or address correctly and this is the result."

SCHOOLS FACING ANOTHER TERM

Local Institution in Midst Of Activity; Attendance Is Holding Up

Alamo school has had an enrolment of 1,030 during the present school year and has an average attendance of about 940, according to J. E. Park, principal.

Of a total enrolment of 453, Carrigan school has a daily attendance of almost 400, J. T. Rundell, principal, stated Wednesday. The children are looking forward to a program to be given at the school Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Forty-two children have registered since the holidays in this school and the regular attendance is about 640. A few children under school age were unable to be entered in school until the beginning of the new term.

Enthusiasm Is High.

Enthusiasm in school work and activities has been growing high since the opening of school this year. Completion of the organization of a Junior Red Cross will be made today. Dow Tate, principal, says. Miss Beatrice Hall, nutrition nurse working under the local chapter of Red Cross, is organizing the Juniors. She has also been assisting in the management of the cafeteria, following the transfer of the director to another school.

Miss Mary Old, teacher of the fifth grade at Barwise, has been ill for the past week, and Miss Pern Sides and Miss Ruby Haynes have been acting as substitute.

539 at Fannin.

A total enrollment of 539 at Fannin school is reported by S. L. Butler, and an average attendance of 430 is announced. A meeting of the Parent Teacher associa. tion will be held at this school Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Miss Maude Williams in charge of the program.

A Girl Reserve club was organized Wednesday afternoon at Travis school of which Miss Kate Burgess is principal. Miss Burgess said that 55 new pupils had been enrolled since the opening of school January 4, making an average attendance of 325 and a total enrollment of 433, the largest yet in the history of the school.

Miss Susie Patterson, primary teacher in Travis, is reported quite ill at her home, 902 Austin and has been unable to attend class work for several days.

Plans for organization of a Girl Reserve club will be completed at the annex to Junior high school January 28 when the organization will be made. Miss Minnie T. Baker will be adviser to the club which is being formed under the direction of Miss Ivo Wilson, girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

Cops Watch Him Saw Jail Bars

To a prisoner in the city bastille Tuesday night was given the rather ironical pleasure of sawing away at steel bars for hours with a rather questionable hack saw blade, and getting within two or three bars of liberty only to have watchful officers discover his labor and frustrate his attempt to escape.

A local railroad man was arrested Tuesday at the request of the sheriff of Wood county, Kansas, where he is wanted for forgery and jailbreaking. Tuesday night firemen living in quarters adjoining the jail in the city hall heard the steady stroke of a saw being used on the bars in the jail. Police were notified and officers watched the man saw for several minutes before stopping it and moving the prisoner to another cell. Three others in the cell with him were taking no part in the work.

He had been in Wichita Falls about three months and was to have been married in about two weeks.

AUTO LICENSE REGISTERS LAG

17,300 Car Owners in County Fail to Get 1926 Plates

Although just fifteen days are left in which automobile licenses for Wichita county may be secured there are still some 17,300 car and truck owners of the county who have yet to pay and must come in some time between now and Feb. 1, it was announced Wednesday by county tax collector, Guy C. Raley. There will be approximately 30,000 automobiles, pleasure cars and trucks, registered in Wichita county during 1926, Mr. Raley estimates. Of this 30,000, at least 21,000 automobiles and 2,500 trucks should be registered at the first of the year.

Extension Granted.

Actual figures show that, although a two-week extension of time to pay the automobile license tax has already been granted, approximately 15,400 automobiles and 1,900 trucks must be handled in the remaining two weeks of the month extension period.

Facts about Child-Birth

FOR the expectant mother's comfort and well being, there is nothing that equals Mother's Friend. Its highly refined oils and other ingredients quickly commends it to the thoughtful mother. It is known that plain oils only penetrate the skin, whereas Mother's Friend penetrates deeper and soothes the broad muscles and ligaments; making them soft and pliable—thus aiding Nature to do her part without the unnecessary discomfort and pain. This is why Mother's Friend has proven such a blessing to expectant mothers for over three generations. Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician. It is safe and free from harmful drugs. "I will tell all my friends about Mother's Friend." Writes Mrs. Ben Shrubsham, Princeton, Ill. "It is a wonderful help all through the period."

Needless to say the mothers who praise Mother's Friend the most, are those who did not use it with their first baby and through its use with the second, realized its almost unbelievable results.

Mother! Insist on Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't wait—start using tonight—and meanwhile write Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 35, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet "Motherhood and the Coming Baby" (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during expectancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know.
