REPEAL OF BANK CHECK TAX PROPOSED

Most Of Texas Gets Needed Rains Today

WEATHER PREDICTIONS GIVE PROMISE OF MORE SHOWERS

(By The Associated Press)

The first general rain in weeks blanketed most of Texas today and the weatherman indicated more showers were in prospect.

Almost an inch of rain fell at Houston and at Port Arthur a steady drizzle fell through a pea-soup fog. A slow fall began in the East Texas oil field shortly after daylight and heavy clouds which made it as dark as night caused intermittent downpours at Dallas.

Temperature Drops

At the state capital, .15 inch rain had fallen and at San Antonio the sun was obscured by clouds but there had been no precipitation. Wichita Falls reported rain ranging from .21 inch there to one inch at Altus, Okla., and a northeast wind which brought along a 20-degree drop in temperature to 46.

The weather was threatening at Big Spring and a light mist hung over Sweetwater. A light rain fell at Brownwood.

The weatherman forecast cloudy and rain in the eastern part of East Texas with slightly lower temperatures tonight. For West Texas he predicted fair and somewhat colder tonight.

Stamford Gets Rain

A light rain fell last night at Stamford and there were prospects for more today. Stock water was not scarce, wheat looked good and much plowing has been done.

Fort Worth had a fall of .03 inch in 20 minutes and Paris reported a heavy rain accompanied by light hail. No damage was done.

Rain totaling .22 inch fell in Abilene. Albany reported one third of an inch; Cisco a half inch. Baird and Winters had showers.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. Feb. 8. (AP)—A tire went flat on Edwin J. Good's automobile during the wee, sma' hours.

While he was inflating the tire his lights went out.

As he cranked the car the engine "kicked" and almost bowled him over.

When he closed the door the glass broke.

Finally on the way again, a wheel blithely rolled off into a vacant lot.

WAR ON NAZIS INTENSIFIED

SOCIALIST CENTERS IN VIENNA GUARDED BY FASCIST POLICE

(By The Associated Press)

VIENNA, Feb. 8—Steel helmeted police, with bayonets fixed, occupied socialist centers in Vienna today as the Austrian government's drive against Nazis and socialism entered a new phase.

Soldiers joined Vienna police in taking over a number of such buildings, including that in which the socialist newspaper Arbeiter Zeitung is published.

Newspaper Plant Guarded

The newspaper building was heavily guarded. An Associated Press man who attempted to enter was told he might if he desired, but that no one was being permitted to leave.

Later, army lorries with troops began throwing cordons around the whole district in which socialist activities are centered to forestall possible socialist reprisals.

The idea behind this new turn of events was to defeat the Nazi political movement in Austria by demonstrating that Marxism can be "exterminated" without the help of the Nazis.

That accomplished, it was believed leaders would claim that the Nazis' arguments that a national socialist regime is needed to suppress Marxism, had been proved invalid.

Fears Justified

Apparently these developments justified at least in part fears voiced by socialist leaders when Chancellor Engelbert Dollfuss departed for Budapest leaving Vice-Chancellor Emil Fey in charge.

Fey also is a leader in the Fascist Heimwehr (home guard) and this led socialists to become apprehensive that attempts might be made to repeat in Vienna a coup by which Fascists seized control of the Tyrol.

Several other provincial sections of Austria are under virtual Fascist control.

Checks Received By Farmers In Garza

POST, Feb. 8 (Special)—Garza county farmers have received 304 cotton option checks, which totaled $41,989.12. There are yet to arrive 131 checks amounting to $21,630.88, in paying for cotton options.

County Agent W. C. Taylor reports the farmers of the county are showing a splendid spirit of cooperation in the government's reduction program.

REPORT IS MADE ON BALL HERE

Lubbock's Roosevelt Birthday ball, held on the night of Jan. 30, netted $470.82 to the Warm Springs, Ga., foundation for fighting infantile paralysis—the President's No. 1 interest outside of his family and his official duties.

The ball, itself, netted $547 from sale of tickets both prior to the dance and at the booth in the Auditorium during the dance. An additional $8.65 donation was sent in by the Carlisle school, bringing the total receipts to $555.65.

All expenses, including the orchestra, light and heat for the Auditorium otherwise donated by Sled Allen, printing of tickets and work done by a technician on loud speaker and radio attachments, totaled $84.75 and tax on four checks written came to 8 cents.

The figures were announced today by Chas. A. Guy, chairman of the central ball committee, after receipts and disbursements were checked by O. L. Slaton, bank president and chairman of the local treasurer's committee composed of himself and Sam C. Arnett and C. E. Maedgen, bank presidents.

REVENUE BILL BEING DRAWN FOR HOUSE

COMMITTEE VOTES TO END LEVY; POSTAL RATES UNCHANGED

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The house ways and means committee today voted to repeal the two-cent bank check stamp tax effective January 1, 1935.

This provision was placed in the new revenue bill being drawn up for presentation to the house. It was a treasury estimate that in its present form it would provide $235,000,000 additional annual revenue.

The bank check tax would not expire until July 1, 1935, under existing law. It produced approximately $38,000,000 in revenue in the calendar year, 1933.

The committee also continued the three-cent intercity postage rate on first class mail but adopted an amendment which permits the rates on second class matter affecting newspaper, magazines and advertising matter to revert to the rates in effect prior to the 1932 revenue bill.

In addition the committee approved a provision giving the president power to reduce the three-cent rate on first class mail to two cents if the condition of the treasury justifies it.

The three-cent rate was continued for only one year. Under existing law it would expire on July 1.

ROOSEVELT BACKS CONTROL MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8. (AP)—Support of President Roosevelt for their compulsory cotton control bill was reasserted today by Senator Bankhead and Representative Bankhead, of Alabama, the authors of the measure, after a call at the White House.

"We have the assurance of President Roosevelt's cooperation," said Representative Bankhead.

Secretary Wallace last night endorsed the principles of the bill, which would restrict the 1934 cotton

Cotton, Corn Loan Total Is Announced

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—The Commodity Credit corporation has announced that loans on cotton and corn and advances on cotton options up to February 2 amounted to $136,524,465.16.

On the basis of 10 cents per pound, cotton loans totalled $58,240,123.40, leaving $191,759,876.60 in RFC funds available. The total loans on corn on the basis of 45 cents per bushel totalled $46,347,021.11, with $103,656,000 still available.

Advances to holders of options on cotton totalled $31,937,320.64. The total of $16,062,679.36 remained in the cotton option fund.

HUMPHRIES CONFIRMED

AUSTIN, Feb. 8. (AP)—Appointment of J. A. Humphries of Lubbock to succeed R. J. Murray, also of Lubbock, resigned, on the pink boll worm compensation claim board was confirmed by the Texas senate in executive session today.

Relief Proposal Provokes Debate

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 8—A proposal to replace the present Texas Relief commission with a group more in harmony with Governor Miriam A. Ferguson provoked extensive debate today in the Texas house of representatives considering a bill to authorize additional state relief bonds.

The governor yesterday advised the legislature "peace and harmony" were lacking in the commission's deliberations and that "certain members of the commission have not lost a single moment, since their appointment to embarrass the present administration and to oppose the efforts of my choice and appointees to successfully carry on the relief work in Texas."

The argument was precipitated by an amendment to strike out sections of the bill setting up a new commission and to provide for continuance of the existing board, which is composed of the governor, chairman of the industrial accident board, chairman of the civil judicial council and three members each appointed by the lieutenant governor and speaker of the house.

The bill would empower the governor to name two members. The lieutenant governor and speaker would name three each and the governor would serve as chairman with the right to vote, a privilege she does not now have.

Representative Sarah Hughes of Dallas asserted the recent action of the federal government in recognizing the Texas Relief commission as the CWA administrator was sufficient reason to continue the present commission. She said she feared the federal government would suspend CWA activities pending an investigation of the new commission if one was set up.

"We should not disrupt this work merely to satisfy the whim of the governor," Mrs. Hughes said.

Many proposals to vote special tax levies in order to obtain new sources of revenue with which to retire

LOBBY INQUIRY MAY SPREAD

WHITE HOUSE BACKING INVESTIGATION OF WAR CONTRACTS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8—Possibility that a federal probe into alleged lobbying in connection with war department contracts would spread beyond that area was seen today as justice department agents swung afield in a White House-backed investigation.

While senate majority leaders labored to bring to a vote the $950,000,000 civil works and relief fund bill, against which oppositionists cried "graft" and "pork-barrel," main interest centered upon inquiries going forward in many sections of the capital.

Developments Indicated

Among indicated developments were these:

Probability of a justice department search behind other contract making than that of the war department if any hint lobbyist influence is heard;

Indication that the local grand jury investigation apparently centered upon army motorization contracts, will carry on into next week;

The subpoenaeing of more automobile company representatives;

Extension of the house military investigation beyond army aviation into some of the charges now before the grand jury here;

Prbable change in the navy department's system of audits as a result of the house naval committees inquiry into airplane and engine contracts;

SUDAN BANKER DIES TODAY

VICTOR NELSON, GOP AND CIVIC LEADER, SUCCUMBS HERE

Victor C. Nelson, 57, president of the First National bank in Sudan, in Lamb county, died this morning in a local sanitarium, where he became a patient Jan. 29.

Mr. Nelson was a land-owner, a former postmaster, the Lamb county Civil Works administrator, an active Republican, and a luncheon club officer. He had no immediate family.

Formerly At Panhandle

A native of Burlingame, Kan., Mr. Nelson went from there to Panhandle, Texas, where he was postmaster 13 years. He went to Sudan from Panhandle about eight years ago, soon became a stockholder in the Sudan bank, and subsequently was elected as its president. Mr. Nelson owned considerable land in the Panhandle and Sudan vicinities.

Work Mr. Nelson required of himself as county administrator in the Civil Works administration program in addition to his other duties, affected his health, a friend said. A perceptible break in the bank president's health occurred about 30 days ago the friend said.

An officer in the Sudan Kiwanis club until it disbanded, Mr. Nelson became a vice president of the Commercial club, a local service club.

Ran For Congress

As a Republican, Mr. Nelson was

Stock Market Bill To Be Introduced

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—Chairman Fletcher of the senate banking committee today said that the request of President Roosevelt his bill to be introduced tomorrow for regulation of stock exchanges also would provide for supervision of commodity exchanges.

Fletcher said the form of regulation for the commodity exchanges had not been worked out but was being studied today by Ferdinand Pecora, committee counsel, and his staff.

GERMAN WOULD STERILIZE NEGROES

BERLIN, Feb. 8 (AP)—Hein Schroeder, eugenics authority, wants Germany's sterilization program extended to include negroid children in the Rhineland and Ruhr districts.

Writing in the newspaper Deutsche Zeitung, he estimated that the country has at least 600 children of negro fathers—French colonial soldiers stationed in the two districts during the war.

Their mothers, he added, still live in the districts invaded.

Sterilization is needed for the protection of the children themselves, Schroeder contended. He pointed out they were German citizens and could marry later, procreating more racial mixtures.

"Their children would be regarded as non-aryans," he said, "and we have enough non-aryans in Germany already.

"Only the immediate sterilization of all colored and all hybrid races in Germany can sidetrack the danger."

EX-PRESIDENT STARTS PLAN FOR PEACE

NEW CABINET WILL BE NAMED BY TONIGHT; THOUSANDS HURT

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Feb. 8.—Premier Designate Gaston Doumergue, whose new cabinet may be formed by tonight, seemed today to have ended Paris' two days of rioting and terror.

The 71-year-old former president and France's new man-of-the-hour took only 15 minutes after his arrival to tell President Albert Lebrun what he meant to do. Then he started to carry out his program.

Civil War Held Near

On all sides it was freely admitted that France was close to civil war and revolution in the bitter fighting between rioters and mounted guards which swept Paris.

As reenforced bands of laborers went to work cleaning up the debris left on last night's conflicts, the riot dead were counted at 12 and those injured and wounded in the thousands.

Edouard Daladier, who resigned as premier with his cabinet in the hope of avoiding further disorders, urged that martial law be declared in a midnight session with President Lebrun, it was learned. The president refused, forcing the ministry's resignation.

Veterans of the national union, meanwhile, told Lebrun they had gone unarmed in their demonstrations against police and troops but threatened to resume the attack with rifles, swords and even machine guns. The cabinet's surrender appeased them.

Veterans Quit Rioting

The veterans left last night's rioting to communists and hoodlums. These groups police were confident they could control, even if unexpected further disorders should develop.

Doumergue, who received a tumultous welcome from thousands when he arrived this morning, began his work of forming a so-called "cabinet of premiers" at noon.

He was given the quarters at the foreign office once occupied by the beloved late Aristide Briand, many times premier of France. There Doumergue received party leaders and the men he wanted to place in his ministry.

Wherever he passed, he was

Farley To Maintain "Hands Off" Policy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8. (AP)—Postmaster General Farley's apparent intention of keeping a "hands off" policy in Democratic primary fights made it appear today that Senator Connally and Representative Bailey would be left to fight it out in Texas.

Bailey is seeking to unseat the junior senator and the campaign gives promise of stirring up unusual interest.

Farley, in a press conference, declined to discuss any specific Democratic race. It was learned, however, he intended issuing a statement soon bearing on the whole matter.

Terrorism Menace Is Faced By Cuba

HAVANA, Feb. 8 (AP)—President Carlos Mendieta, having apparently squelched the threat of a general strike, faced the new menace of terrorism today.

The president used stern measures to prevent a 24-hours "general strike" called by the communistic federation of labor. Demonstrations were suppressed. Soldiers and police guarded men put to work in establishments deserted by strikers.

Disorders developed, however, both in Havana and in the interior during the night.

EXTENSION VOTED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—The senate voted today to extend a limited disability compensation plan to employes of the Civil Works administration.

PAVING TO BE SOUGHT HERE

CITY MAPS PLANS FOR TWENTY-BLOCK JOB UNDER THE CWA

Approximately 20 blocks of paving will be asked by the city of Lubbock under the national CWA program. Decision to send in the request was made recently after passage by congress of the CWA extension bill.

Additional paving work probably will be sought later, it was indicated by city officials. Plans are being worked up for new projects.

Unified System Sought

During December plans were drawn up to connect dead ends and to connect paving so as to furnish a more unified system for the city. Six streets are included in the present projects.

Plans, approved by the city are to be sent in for hte following projects:

Avenue T, Broadway to Seventh street.

Avenue V, Broadway to Fourteenth street.

Twentieth street, end of paving west three blocks.

Seventh street, Avenue Q to Avenue T.

Avenue X, Sixteenth street to Broadway.

Avenue X, Nineteenth street to Twentieth street.

Ninth street, Avenue K to Avenue J.

Ninth street, Texas avenue to Avenue H.

RANSOM GIVEN FOR RELEASE OF BANKER

UNANNOUNCED AMOUNT OF MONEY IS PAID; HELD 23 DAYS

(By The Associated Press)

ST. PAUL, Feb. 8.—Ransomed with an unannounced amount of money, Edward G. Bremer, seized by kidnapers for $200,000 Jan. 17, was at home today after a 23-day imprisonment in an unlocated hideout.

Wounds about the head, which he had suffered when spirited away by the gang, were healed, Dr. Joseph Sprafka said, though the victim was weak, exhausted, and "very, very nervous."

Thrown On Highway

Dr. Sprafka was summoned soon after the son of Adolph Bremer, wealthy brewer, had returned home after being thrown out on a highway near or at Rochester, Minn., about 85 miles south of here, last night. Dr. Sprafka said a ransom had been paid but he did not know how much.

Three men in a small sedan, members of the gang of six or seven which held the president and owner of the Commercial State bank prisoner, freed him about 8 p. m., last night.

Bremer was unshaven. He had been either blindfolded or his eyes taped during the imprisonment, friends of the family said.

Possible Clue Given

A possible clue to the gang was given by Douglas Street, 33, chauffeur for Dr. Waltman Walters, Mayo clinic physician at Rochester. Street said he saw two well dressed men in an automobile bearing a New York license at Lewiston, Minn., about 3 a. m. today. Lewiston is 37 miles east of Rochester.

Shortly after he was abducted, one of the men called Walter Magee, wealthy contractor, a friend of the Bremers' and said, "Well, we've got your friend, Bremer, and if you are not—careful, we'll get you too."

Death Threatened

Death for Bremer was threatened if Magee called in police or communicated with newspapers. A note, the unidentified speaker said, would be found on Magee's doorstep. The note, signed in a shaky hand by

WHOLE GARRISON HUNTS FOR GIRL

TACOMA, Wash., Feb. 8. (AP)—The entire garrison at Fort Lewis was mobilized today to search the 70,000 acres of the military post for traces of 15-year-old Eleanor Durnell, niece of Captain and Mrs. Charles Perfect. She has been missing since Sunday.

The decision to use the 1,500 officers and men was reached when other efforts to trace the girl or explain her disappearance had failed. Fear was expressed the girl had been lured to a secluded spot on the reservation slain and her body hidden.

Three other theories have been offered to explain the disappearance—that she had been taken by white slavers, that she is being held for ransom, and finally that she had run away with a man acquaintance.

St. Valentine's Day Goes Hot-Cha; Verses Different

Valentines still exude sentiment, if you're inclined that way, but hot-cha cards threaten to crowd out the kind our fathers sent. Here are two 1934 ones, illustrating the wide range of choice. The Valentine on the left dates back to 1860.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8. (AP)—Valentines have gone "hot-cha."

It has taken a long time—about 250 years—but the new trend would give St. Valentine a start, if nothing worse.

In 1684 Edward Sangon of Tower Hill, London, sent his loved one a greeting on February 14.

Mr. Sangon was no poet, but his heart must have been in the right place. And thus he wrote:

"Good morrow Vallentine,
God send you ever
To keep your promise
And bee constant ever."

The spelling looks odd, but the sentiment was sincere. Mrs. Lillian Newton Stone of East Orange, N. J., has that one in her collection and many another.

In 1934 it's—

"Hot cha baby mine,
You're just the type,
The time is ripe,
To be my Valentine."

But cards expressing old-fashioned sentiments can still be bought, if you like them that way. Some do.

Most Valentines in Mrs. Stone's collection are from boys to girls, with gold and silver designs, spider web lace, paintings on silk and plenty of Cupids.

One of the neatest was written in 1820:

"Fairest form all forms excelling,
Hope exalting calls thee mine.
Come and bless my happy dwelling,
Come and be my Valentine."

Then came mass production.

Examiners Added To Scout Board

Three new examiners have been added to the Girl Scout board and are to open classes for the girls.

Slit Skirts Shown For Spring Styles

BY ADELAIDE KERR
Associated Press Foreign Staff

Paris, Feb. 8. (AP)—Buyers were hurriedly completing orders today at the final showing of 1934 spring fashion decrees, most of them wishing to start their return to the United States tomorrow.

Figures remain figures and the evening silhouette, which is mostly designed along form fitting lines features long trains, high front and low back decolletes and slit skirts, sometimes worn over ruffled petticoat foundations.

Numerous bizarre effects are displayed in evening clothes, some of which are designed as bird silhouettes having fabric wings standing out over the shoulder blades or back of the hips.

The day silhouettes are more straightened with smooth fitted shoulders and long sleeves having a fullness in the upper arm. Natural waists are accented by fancy belts. Skirts are longer, from six to ten inches from the ground. Many of them are slit six inches on each side.

Necklines are fairly high and there is a tendency to accept day clothes with revers jutting out on coats which in some cases hang open. Jabots, frills and chin bows of organdy and taffeta accent the frocks.

Many of the hats worn both during the day and in the evening are wide or medium brimmed. There are also some halo hats among the many smart accessories.

Day colors are generally sober such as navy, beige, grey and black lightened with white or other bright touches.

Evening colors are light blues, pinks, greens, yellows, brilliant emeralds, purples, flames, white and black.

Books Are Reviewed At Club Meet

Book-of-the-Month club members were guests of Mesdames R. E. Garlin and L. H. Beall Wednesday afternoon in the Garlin home, 2617 Twenty-Second street. Books were reviewed by Mesdames Ford Benham, T. A. Rhodes and William H. Pryor. Mrs. C. M. Close presided for the business session.

BOY SCOUTS TO HOLD RALLY

EVENT TONIGHT WILL OPEN ANNIVERSARY OBSERVANCE HERE

First event of Boy Scout anniversary week here, a city-wide rally of Lubbock scouts, leaders, and friends will be conducted tonight, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, at the Texas Technological college livestock judging pavilion.

To Inspect Troops

S. A. Henry, district commissioner, and Carol Thompson and Paul Williams, assistant district commissioners, will inspect troops for proper uniforming in the program tonight. At 8:15 o'clock, the boys and their leader will recommit themselves to the scout oath.

Scouts who completed four years of scouting, and scouts and former scouts who became 21 years old, in 1933 will be recognized at the rally.

George W. Dupree will have charge of the recognition ceremony for the new 4-year scouts, and Judge E. L. Pitts of that for the new scout-trained citizens.

To Present Award

Dr. F. B. Malone, new president of the South Plains Area council, will present a president's award to the five Lubbock troops earning it. They are troops 2, 3, 4, 5, and 7.

A tumbling team from Tech, directed by Bill Stubbs, will be presented; Mrs. J. D. Riddle and her scout son, J. Dexter, will sing a duet, and Dr. O. C. Boone will do magicians' tricks.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Boy Scout call to service will be made from the White House at noon Saturday—11 a. m. Lubbock time—and will be broadcast over Columbia and red National (NBC-WEAF) networks. Local units will assemble at 10:45 a. m. in the senior high school auditorium. Roy Leach will provide and operate a radio there.

Church services, featuring scouts, are to be planned for Sunday.

BREMER FREED

Bremer, gave directions for negotiating with the abductors.

Although unconfirmed, it was reported three contacts had been made previous to his release.

The father of the returned man had constantly refused to deal with police or federal operatives saying he felt it would endanger his son's life.

Set A Time Limit

Three days ago he sent a public notice to the abductors that he would give them three days in which to contact him "by any source suitable to the abductors," and he hinted that if they did not he would call in the police on the case.

The banker, friends said, took a train from Rochester to St. Paul, then went to his father's home in a taxicab. They said his eyes had been bandaged during the 23 days of his imprisonment.

After he was seized between 8:20 a. m., and 8:30 a. m., Jan. 17, his blood stained automobile was found the next day, abandoned in an outlying residential district, leading to conjecture that he had been injured.

Bremer Questioned

As soon as Bremer returned, Chief of Police Thomas Dahill, Inspector of Detectives Charles Tierney, and Detective Tom Brown of the St. Paul department rushed to the Adolph Bremer home.

With federal investigators they immediately began questioning the banker. No one else was permitted to enter the yard, guarded by police and federal operatives.

Walter Magee, wealthy contractor friend of the family, was the intermediary who delivered the ransom. Full details of the delivery were not disclosed though it was learned Magee had taken from the pocket of a small coupe, a note from the kidnapers, standing with his back to the curb while reading the communication.

After replacing the note in the pocket of the car, Magee then set two "bundles of money" on the seat. It was presumed the ransom was wrapped in two large cardboard suit boxes tied with heavy cord in accordance with the gang's earlier instructions.

FEDERAL AGENTS TO PUSH SEARCH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8. (AP)—Attorney General Cummings today said that release of the kidnaped Edward G. Bremer of St. Paul was effected through payment of a ransom.

Discussing the case with reporters after orders to intensify hunt for the abductors, he said that Bremer was released near Rochester, Minnesota, last night and returned to St. Paul alone by train and bus.

"It is clear that a ransom was paid," he declared.

The ransom demanded was fixed originally at $200,000 but whether all or only a part of that was paid was not indicated by the attorney general.

He noted that Bremer had been held for 23 days, the same time as was John O'Connell, of Albany.

He said the Bremer case was the only one over which the department of justice has had charge that had not been solved, with the exception of the Lindbergh case.

JAP OFFICIAL OUSTED FOR CONDONING A DISLOYALTY OF SIX CENTURIES AGO

BY GLENN BABB
Associated Press Foreign Staff

TOKYO, Feb. 8 (AP)—Charges that he condoned an example of disloyalty to the throne occurring six centuries ago drove Baron Kumakichi Nakajima from the office of minister of commerce and industry today.

His resignation was accepted by Premier Saito who immediately named Joji Matsumoto to succeed him. Matsumoto, president of Kwansai university at Osaka, and a member of the house of peers, will be installed tomorrow.

Nakajima was under heavy parliamentary fire over certain official acts but the immediate and principal cause of his downfall was a weird, characteristically Japanese issue.

A decade ago, Nakajima wrote an article praising the Shogun, Takavji Ashikaka, who in 1337 dethroned Emperor Godaigo and enthroned his own candidate. As a result, he is rated as the blackest example to the throne in Japanese history.

The Shogun Ashikaga is compared to notorious traitors in other countries, but Nakajima drew a comparison between that Shogun and Oliver Cromwell of England. Recently the baron's enemies republished the article and charged that Nakajima was condoning treachery to the throne.

He apologized to both houses of parliament. He said that his ideas had changed since he had written the article. All his efforts were in vain. The stigma was considered too serious and his value to the cabinet destroyed.

Matsumoto is an eminent Japanese legal authority as well as a leading educator.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 8. (AP)—Cotton opened steady and fairly active today. Liverpool was about as due and sterling was a little firmer.

First trades here showed gains of 2 to 5 points but the market eased after the start on lower stocks, which induced rather active long liquidation. May reacted to 11.89, July to 12.06 and October to 12.25, or 10 to 13 points under yesterday's close.

At the end of the first half hour the market was a shade steadier, but at the lows.

The market ruled quiet and rather nervous and erratic most of the morning, with prices fluctuating within the earlier range, mostly near the lows. The easier tone was due principally to lower stocks and apparent waning of the recent demand.

Near noon the market rallied on fair trade buying and covering by shorts with contracts rather scarce. May advance to 11.97 and July to 12.14, or 8 points above the earlier lows and 2 to 3 points under yesterday's close.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 8 (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady, 2 higher to 4 lower with trade buying and liquidation. March 11.90; May 12.04; July 12.22; Oct. 12.41; Dec. 12.53; Jan. 12.60.

There was some trade and commission house buying at the opening on the firm showing of Liverpool and overnight reports from Washington with deference to the progress of crop control proposals. This was supplied by liquidation and scattered selling, however, and the market eased, May selling down from 12.05 to 11.95, making net declines of about 9 to 14 points on active positions. Prices stiffened a few points on covering on trade buying with the market showing net declines of 5 to 7 points at the end of the first half hour.

Livestock Market

KANSAS CITY REPORT

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 8 (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Hogs 2,500; 280 direct; fairly active, mostly 10-15 higher; top 4.20.

Cattle 3,000; calves 400; fed steers yearlings and she stock strong to 25 higher; other classes firm; choice long yearlings 6.65; steers, good and choice 4.00-7.10; vealers (milk-fed), medium to choice 4.00-7.00; stocker and feeder steers, good and choice 4.00-5.35.

Sheep 6,000; killing classes mostly steady; lambs closing dull; few late sales 25 lower; top fed lambs 9.10; lambs, good and choice (x) 90 lbs. down 8.25-9.10; yearling wethers, medium to choice 90-110 lbs. 5.00-7.50; ewes, good and choice 90-150 lbs. 3.35-4.50.

(x)—Quotations based on ewes and wethers.

Taxicab Strike In New York Is Ended

NEW YORK, Feb. 8. (AP)—Cabs rolled today on the streets of New York, the strike of taxi drivers ended except for about 4,000 "bitter enders" who still declined to make peace.

What effect the action of the remaining strikers would have remained to be seen. Their union leader said the agreement accepted by the major cab companies and their drivers was a "sell-out" of the men.

Hundreds of strikers paraded last night, seeking to get drivers of cabs to rejoin them in the strike. There was sporadic violence, especially in the "bright lights" area, but constant police watch kept disorder to a minimum.

BANS POISON GAS TRADE

ANKARA (AP)—Importation of poison gas into Turkey and its manufacture within the country have been forbidden by vote of the committee of national defense of the Turkish parliament.

Trained rat-catchers, who work on ships in the London docks, must estimate the number of rats in a ship before beginning their work of extermination.

The usual lifeboats on ocean liners may, some day, be replaced by mattresses of kapok, a floating floss resembling cotton, obtained from tropical trees.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 8 (AP)—Responsive to downturns of securities, the wheat market underwent new setbacks early today. Scattered rains in parts of Texas and Oklahoma counted also as a bearish factor.

Opening 3-8 to 1 1-8 lower, wheat afterward rallied somewhat. Corn started unchanged to 3-8 off, and subsequently altered little.

ROAD PROGRAM IS TALKED AT CLUB

Three speakers outlined progress and plans of the highway program in this district to members of the Lubbock Kiwanis club at Hotel Lubbock today noon. The speakers were: Guy R. Johnston, division engineer; A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, and J. C. Watson, secretary of the South Plains Good Roads association.

J. C. Anderson was program chairman.

Johnston told of progress made in construction, illustrating his talk with a map. He predicted that "at the end of the year, three and possibly four paved outlets out of this country" will be available.

Davis declared that efforts must be made to secure more federal aid for roads in this territory as state funds are not sufficient to do the work in the next ten or fifteen years. He said it would cost approximately $9,000,000 to complete the program in this area.

Watson told of the work of "organized defense for road programs" and outlined accomplishments of the regional association, crediting the "earmarking" of the $400,000,000 federal aid to roads to a movement started here last spring.

R. N. McClain was received into the club as a new member.

Borah Renews His Monopolies Fight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (AP)—An assertion that the "monopolies and combines which operate under the NRA" are robbing the recovery program of force through boosting prices unduly high was on record today from Senator Borah, Idaho, Republican.

Declaring the average citizen must be treated as more than "an economic cog in a vast machine," Borah renewed a fight for full restoration of the anti-trust laws under the NRA with a statement that prices now charged by industry constitute "legalized robbery."

Admits Identity — A son's letter, postmarked in Lubbock, did not ring true. His mother, at Westminister, S. C., wrote to Lubbock police, whom she asked to help her to find the son. A 25-year-old man, held in county jail on a federal charge of theft of an automobile at Durant, Okla., and transportation of it to Whitharral, admitted Wednesday that he was Curtis L. Stewart, the son. When arrested Dec. 29 at Littlefield he had said he was "C. M. Clemens" of Westminister. He wrote a letter to his mother, after confirming investigators' belief that he was Stewart.

Apparatus 10 Times More Accurate Than Stop Watch Is Used

FORT WORTH, Feb. 8 (AP)—A stop watch which measures speed to one-tenth of a second is reasonably accurate, but two Texas Christian university students in physics have constructed an apparatus that is 10 times more accurate.

The students, Engle Ellis and Richard Bruyere, both of Fort Worth, use an electrically controlled stylus on chemically treated paper to record their split-seconds. This is Ellis' description of their invention:

"The apparatus consists of a wooden chute from the ceiling to the floor of the laboratory. The chute has a stationary trap door at the bottom with a movable one above it. The device is so wired that, the opening of the top trap door completes a circuit which starts a current through the stylus and causes it to make a dot on the paper every 1-120th of a second.

"A steel ball is placed on the top trap which is opened, beginning the circuit. The current continues to flow through the stylus until the ball opens the bottom trap, which stops the flow. Counting the dots shows to the 1-120th of a second how long the ball took to fall from door to door, a measurable distance."

NEGROES WILL BE EXECUTED

THREE ARE IN DEATH HOUSE; WILL DIE EARLY FRIDAY

HUNTSVILLE, Feb. 8. (AP)—Three Dallas negroes sentenced to pay the supreme penalty for murder, were in the death house at the state penitentiary here today awaiting electrocution. The death penalties imposed upon Thurman Burkley, Bluit Burkley and Jesse Mott are scheduled to be carried out during the early morning hours of Friday, Feb. 9.

The Burkley brothers were convicted of the brutal murder of Miss Katherine Prince, a white girl, in a cotton patch near her home in the Pleasant Mound community, near Dallas, the night of last August 30.

Mace Carver, escort of Miss Prince the night of the crime, was shot fatally by a negro and left in a patch of woods.

Appeals were taken by the negroes and their death sentences were affirmed. Governor Ferguson had advised District Attorney Robert Hurt at Dallas that she will not interfere with the scheduled electrocutions.

RAINFALL

this morning still was without appreciable precipitation needed for wheat lands, cotton sub-soils, and grass pasturage. The last fall sufficient to be beneficial here was .29 of an inch, recorded at the state experiment sub-station, Nov. 20.

Mist and a light drizzle prevailed here and over the South Plains throughout the morning, bringing hopes to farmers of rainfall sufficient to start spring plowing.

No moisture was recorded at the state experiment station this morning, Don L. Jones, superintendent, said.

Year Ago—17 Below

A year ago today Lubbock experienced the coldest weather ever recorded by the local weather station—17 degrees below zero.

Nothing approaching that record was ever recorded before in the score of years a weather report has been made, Mr. Jones said.

Auto radiators, water pipes and vessels containing water froze and many of them burst. Filling stations, auto repair men and plumbers were rushed for several days following the cold record, handling calls.

This season no sub-zero weather has been reported, the coldest so far recorded being around 12 above zero.

Reported Favorably

The measure, which would impose a tax on cotton ginned in excess of the quotas, has received a favorable report by the senate agriculture committee and hearings will be started immediately by the house agricultural committee.

Senator Bankhead said that the replies received so far from a poll of more than 30,000 cotton farmers showed more than 98 per cent favoring the compulsory control bill.

State Aid Sought For Garza Schools

POST, Feb. 8 (Special)—After an inspection of Garza county's public schools, G. D. Holbrook, Lubbock, deputy state superintendent of public instruction, recommended that state aid to the amount of $6,411 be granted the schools of this county.

Mr. Holbrook took occasion to compliment and congratulate the school people of the county for their efforts in educational matters. He especially commended Verbena, Justiceburg, Hartford, Mason and Lee Forrest districts for being able financially to operate a full term without asking for rural aid from the state.

Of the amount granted Garza county, Graham led the group with $2,250 for transportation aid, with Southland a close second with $1,967 salary aid.

INCOME SLASH HELD CAUSE

FRENCH UNREST LAID TO REFUSAL TO CUT COST OF LIVING

By CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Financial Editor
(Copyright, 1934, By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 8. (AP)—The unrest in France has its roots, in the opinion of financial authorities familiar with French conditions, in the refusal of that republic to capitulate with the depression.

Desperate efforts to maintain the economic structure of the boom days have kept the cost of living high, and tax burdens remain crushing. Incomes have dwindled.

"Whole Story Untold"

The flareup is regarded primarily as another manifestation of the dilemma of continued high outgo with persistently shrinking income. French business and financial statics have seemed until recently to indicate that the world-wide of hard times was dealing lightly with France, but students of international finance say the statistics have failed to reveal the whole story.

Unemployed statistics for France have at no time presented an alarming picture, but the droves of migratory workers who have been coming annually into France from border countries for seasonal work have been excluded. Furthermore, France is to a large extent a country of small family enterprises the status of which does not readily appear in statistical surveys.

It is also well known that the Gallic temperament does not respond to economic adversity lightly. When the French were pleading for currency stabilization at the London economic conference last summer, however, members of American and other delegations were astonished to hear Frenchmen assert informally in the conference lobbies that any severe shock to French economic stability would bring fascist and radical movements in France threatening extreme violence.

Predicted Rioting

One Frenchman was then heard privately to expostulate, "do you think if we had 2,000,000 or more unemployed workmen in France on a bare subsistence dole as in England, that they would sit quietly about on park benches as they do here? Of course not, they would be rioting."

The one figure in French statistics that shows surprising stability, to Gallic sorrow, is the cost of living. The cost of living index for France, as it appears in the League of Nations statistical bulletin, declined less than 5 1-2 per cent between 1929 and 1933. The index presented for Great Britain in the same time declined 14 per cent, and in the United States, 24 per cent.

Despite the vigorous measures to protect domestic producers, by import quotas and embargoes, the French wholesale price index has in the same time declined more than a third. French exports have been largely of the luxury class, and decidedly profitable. But they have fallen to about 40 per cent of the 1929 total. And although imports and exports about balanced in 1929, imports are now running some 50 per cent above eports, in spite of embargoes and quotas.

Among courses now open to France, economists point out, are either a sharp deflation of internal prices and expenditures, or a new dose of inflation.

Hog Committees To Attend Meet Here

An afternoon training school of members of 29 community hog committees, appointed to direct a hog reduction program, will be conducted Saturday, P. T. Montfort, county agent, said.

Signing of contracts is to start February 12, he said. The meeting begins at 2 p. m. Location is to be announced later, but it will either be in the courthouse or the federal building.

Instructions will be given on how to make out contracts. Farmers who produced an average of two litters per year, in 1932 and 1933 are eligible to sign the reduction contract, Mr. Montfort said.

CONSERVES LAND

PRETORIA (AP)—The South African government, aiming to rehabilitate farming, is using unemployed whites to combat veld erosion by building dams and is urging farmers to hire whites as foremen.

During 1925-26, the total number of crimes in London (population 7,476,168) was 15,662, as compared with 333,083 in New York City (population 5,924,179.)

"New Deal" In Car Prices Going Over Big, Dealer Says

Instantaneous public response in terms of orders for retail delivery greeted Chevrolet's announcement that hereafter their dealers would quote only actual delivered costs instead of the ambiguous "f. o. b." prices on new cars and trucks, Geo. P. Kuykendall of the Kuykendall Chevrolet company reports upon his return from Oklahoma City where he attended a meeting of dealers from this vicinity conducted by Felix Doran, jr., assistant general sales manager of Chevrolet Motor company.

In the 122 counties comprising the Oklahoma City zone, more than 6,000 bona fide orders are now on the books, it was reported by W. C. Jones, zone manager, at the dealers' meeting. February, March, and April shipments to this area are expected to exceed 11,000 units.

The "new deal" in automobile merchandising, Mr. Kuykendall said, quoting Mr. Doran's address to the dealers, is designed to drive into the open every item entering into the cost of a car to the purchaser. "The immediate result of the new policy," Mr. Doran reported, "was a flood of wires and expressions of appreciation from both dealers and public. Accompanying these expressions, too, were more than 100,000 bona fide orders for the immediate delivery of the new 1934 'knee-action' models."

"We are now in production on the new cars and our 21 plants throughout the United States are working night and day. Shipments are being rushed to our dealers. Within two weeks we expect to be in a position to make immediate delivery in quantities to retail purchasers."

cheered wildly. His route was a veritable triumphal procession as he went from the Elysee palace to make the traditional calls on the presidents of the senate and chamber. Then he conferred with Daladier.

Seeks Tranquility

There are a dozen former premiers who could fit into the ministry of such veterans proposed by Doumergue as one means of restoring political tranquility through a government of strong personalities.

The communists and street hoodlums running wild last night destroyed property right and left. They blocked the railroad station at Saint Lazare, building the traditional revolutionary barricades.

Ransom Demanded

Under cover of darkness, for the street lamps had been smashed, the rioters destroyed everything breakable. They even held up private cars, demanding ransom not to burn them.

Looting broke out along the Rue Rivoli. Windows were smashed in shops which had no iron shutters. The contents were borne away. The famous Galignani bookstore was among the establishments sacked.

Finally, the mob seized two omnibuses and ten private cars. These they used to block the street. When police broke through, they fled into the Tuileries gardens.

A pitched battle ensued among the trees.

Pistols blazed.

Several men dropped on both sides.

One group of rioters broke into a gunsmith's shop. They carried away guns and ammunition.

Waiter Given Death For Slaying Woman

HOUSTON, Feb. 8. (AP)—After deliberating more than 36 hours the jury in the murder trial of James (Gus) Pappas, 40-year-old waiter and former Galveston confectioner, gave him the death penalty today.

Pappas was charged with slaying Mrs. Bess Burt, 33, on January 6, in front of her home.

Much Pleased With Cardui

"My first experience with Cardui began when I was just a girl," writes Mrs. Millard Wallis, of Apple Grove, W. Va. "I took it for painful trouble. It gave me great relief. I have taken it at intervals since I was married twelve years ago. Before the birth of my first baby, I was weak and run-down. I was very nervous and did not get the rest I needed at night. I took six bottles of Cardui. I regained my strength and felt fine. I have taken it since as a tonic and to keep from having pains at menstruating time."

TWO CONVICTS ARE CAUGHT

ESCAPED INMATES OF HOSPITAL FOR THE INSANE CAPTURED

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 8. (AP)—Footsore and on the verge of exhaustion, Norvin Roark and Albert Devan, insane convicts who had eluded posses several times by narrow margins since their escape with two others from the Federal Medical center hospital here last Thursday night, were captured last night at Omaha, Ark., by Constable Frank Andrews. The men had barely crossed the state line into Arkansas.

George John Standish was recaptured near here a few hours after the four convicts escaped last Thursday. The second capture was that of Joseph G. Watts early Sunday morning near Crane, Mo.

LEGISLATURE

state unemployment relief bonds have been placed before the legislature.

The tax bills were brought out after Governor Miriam A. Ferguson sent a special message to both houses advising legislators that propositions to levy special taxes in an effort to get new money with which to pay principal and interest of the securities would be permissible under her call convening the extraordinary session.

House Favors $4,000,000

The house finally decided it would approve an additional issue of $4,000,000 in bonds to supplement the $5,500,000 previously authorized by the legislature and half of which has been sold. The state constitution forbids the issuance of in excess of $20,000,000 in relief bonds.

The bill provided for an issue of $4,500,000 when it came from committee. Efforts were made to increase this amount and some tried to reduce it below $4,000,000. Governor Ferguson had told the legislature she believed it should issue not less than $10,000,000.

Among the revenue bills introduced were to tax whisky, increase the sulphur tax from 75 cents to $1 per ton, tax the production of gas, levy three-fourths of one mill per kilowatt on consumption of electricity, increase the tax on money bet on horse races from two and one-half per cent to 12 1-2 per cent, 10 per cent on gate receipts of race meets, automobile driver's license fee of $1 and three per cent on gross life insurance premiums.

A Prison Horror

It is doubtful if any disclosure in the long history of corrupt municipal politics has been quite as shocking as the one recently made about conditions in New York's city prison at Welfare Island.

From all accounts this prison practically was turned over to the most vicious and degraded of the prisoners, to run as they pleased. Even England's notorious Old Newgate, in the heyday of Jonathan Wild, could not offer a spectacle to match the one presented on Welfare Island.

How even the most corrupt and callous of office-holders could have permitted such a condition to exist is beyond the ordinary mortal's understanding.

It is a thing that ought to be remembered forever. For it shows how completely and criminally irresponsible a conscienceless political machine like Tammany Hall can become when it has a free hand.

Coming to work this morning a little after seven (oh, yeah) o'clock The Plainsman ran into a couple of boys who were out in the drizzle and had collected a few drops of the light rain that was then falling.

Each kid was about 12 years old and had lived in West Texas all his life.

"What do you reckon that is, Jimmie?" one of them asked.

"I dunno", said the other, "but it looks like the stuff we swim in down at Tumble N!"

ABOUT three times each week The Plainsman gets a confidential report on the 'news behind the news' from Washington and New York.

This confidential report is not for publication and contains such matters as may be either libelous, premature or for some other obvious reason are not ready for publication. Sometimes they are matters gleaned from this and other governmental sources and often are of world wide nature.

You can bet they make interesting reading.

For the past several weeks there has been quite a little comment on the European and Far East situation that can be repeated here in generalities.

You, perhaps, will be interested to know that a number of nations are purchasing supplies, in a round about way, to be used in the manufacturing of airplanes. Among them are Japan and Russia —and your Uncle Samuel.

Japan and Russia, with troops massed along the Manchukuo border, have a very definite reason for their actions in this regard. This country merely is preparing to put its air force where it should be just as it is building up the navy—for reasons of national defense.

KING CAROL, of Roumania, at the order of France, has sent his red-headed lady friend out of the country and with 200,000 'Iron Hats'—Nazi inclined young men —fully organized, is on a hot spot.

German Nazis are just about to take over Austria and their theory is spreading throughout Southeastern Europe; the French situation is a lot more serious than we realize here and the Japs have done reconnoitering work in the Far East and in Lapland and Finland, much to the worry of other nations.

All in all, there is a definite spirit of restlessness over a great part of the world that does not augur well. And if the smouldering fires don't burst into flame somewhere it will be nothing short of a miracle.

(Note to A. B. Crutchfield: Your letter interests me and I'd like to discuss it with you prior to publication. Will you call me on the phone or, even better, "whyn't you come see me some time" so we can talk about it? Thanks. The Plainsman.)

MAURY HUGHES, Dallas lawyer and latest recruit to the ranks of Texas gubernatorial aspirants isn't figured to run strongly enough to get into the run-off unless there is a big change in sentiment by the time John Citizen enters the polling booth.

But you've got to give the chairman of the State Democratic Executive committee credit for one thing.

He's frank—and he dodges no issue.

Every plank in his platform is clearly outlined and he misses discussion of no major public question.

His platform is no honey-coated, ambiguous rhetorical work, calculated to catch voters like flies through its sweetness.

Instead Mr. Hughes tells how he stands, why he stands that way and what he proposes to do if elected on everything from taxation and education to the Dean law and penitentiary clemency.

THE voter who reads the Hughes platform will know, when he gets through, just how his own opinions jibe or fail to jibe with those of the former Dallas District attorney.

And he won't have to employ any guess work in deciding whether he is for or against the candidate.

The Plainsman doesn't intend to support Maury Hughes but he can't help but salute frankness and straight-forwardness in a candidate for governor.

We see too little of those virtues in politics and when we do run across it, it's worth comment.

When the Cities Again Have Money to Spend on Statues

Four-Day, Thirty-Two-Hour Week Gains Support Of NRA; Old-Fashioned One Day's Rest May Be Boosted To Three

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The old-fashioned one day's rest in seven soon may come to be three days.

The working week must be shortened if everyone is to be employed. And in the higher councils of NRA and other New Deal agencies concerned with the problem, they're talking about a four-day week of 32 hours.

Dutcher

Organized labor is demanding a five-day, six-hour-day week of 30 hours. It might compromise on a five seven-hour days in preference to the standard 40-hour week of the NRA codes.

But liberal industrialists who have the administration's ear say they would much prefer to work their employees on the 32-hour basis, because an eight-hour day is more efficient and less wasteful than a seven-hour day.

On a basis of 48-hour production, a 32-hour week would employ three men every two weeks instead of two.

It's all still in the discussion stage, despite General Johnson's assertion of the need for shorter hours. Johnson has made no plan for any definite action, though he presumably will urge shorter hours on the code authorities when they gather here late in February.

If he is spurred to a stronger position, it probably will be through some action by poor old Congress.

Rough on Rat Catchers

It takes a rat catcher to catch a rat, according to the organized rat catchers, and amateur CWA rat catchers are only doing professional rat catchers out of their jobs.

That's one of the innumerable squawks which make CWA's life miserable, despite widespread demand that it continue operations. Use of rat traps, hundreds of thousands of which have been laid by civil workers, is condemned roundly.

"It is utterly ridiculous," says one complaint from an exterminators' association, "to assume that even an inroad might be made through traps. The fact is overlooked that rats are extremely intelligent and successfully will avoid a trap after one or two have been caught."

Huge Cigaret Profits

Cigaret smokers have found friends among newly articulate consumer representatives here, since the "tobacco trust" raised prices to retailers by 60 cents a thousand. The increase means an added cigaret rakeoff of $55,000,000 a year and is permitted under the AAA flue-cured tobacco agreement.

Tobacco companies continued to make huge cigaret profits during the depression and their all-time high price of $6.85 a thousand prevailed through 1931. Then the 10-cent cigaret became so popular as to force a price of $5.50 through 1932 and 1933, though low prices to farmers and low wages still permitted large profits.

Now the price has been boosted to $6.10, a small part of the increase being due to processing tax and NRA costs.

Col. Wood Axton, manufacturer of a dime-a-package brand, promised his company would absorb the tax and increased cost so that cigarets still might be sold at 10 cents.

"In 1931," he says, "tobacco manufacturers earned $148,000,000 net and gave the farmers only $69,000,000 for tobacco. No wonder we have a depression when they take everything a man has and still expect him to spend."

Fag Ban Resented

Administrator A. D. Whiteside increased his unpopularity among employes of NRA's Fourth Division when he sent down an order that female workers mustn't smoke in their offices before 6 p. m. The girls are sore: (1) Because they've been accustomed to their cigarets. (2) Because Whiteside indicates he expects them to work after 6 o'clock. (Copyright, 1934, NEA Service, Inc.)

"Blood" Turns Out To Be Red Gasoline

Peace officers of several South Plains counties sought a small coupe Wednesday afternoon, and, upon finding it, learned it was crimson-colored gasoline—not blood—that dripped from the car.

Big Spring officers were informed that the coupe, carrying a California license, had blood dripping from the back end. The 25-year-old driver was stopped at O'Donnell. He explained the car's gasoline tank had been filled to overflowing in Big Spring.

Halted again in Lubbock by police the driver indicated he was greatly vexed. He repeated his story, and laid blame for the chase from Big Spring to "some reader of ten-cent mystery stories."

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

Meet The Mrs.

CHICAGO—For twenty-seven years, Mrs. Helen Rowland complained that her husband never relaxed his formality enough to address her in any other manner than "Mrs. Rowland," which got on her nerves. So she sued for divorce.

Why Bertha

ASHLAND, Neb.—Bertha, the horse, wandered away from home three weeks ago.

Yesterday, Lawrence Stenberg, living near the home of Axel Nelson, Bertha's master, went to the Stenberg cave to get some potatoes.

He didn't get them because there was Bertha, wedged backwards in the cave entrance so tightly she couldn't get out. How long Bertha had been in the cave is not known.

An Ill Wind

TOPEKA, Kas.—Nebraska farmers, along the Kansas border, boasted last year they had benefitted by hundreds of thousands of dollars in rich soil deposits blown on their fields by Kansas winds. Two western Kansas counties, Seward and Haskell, have taken steps to prevent this. The county commissioners have warned farmers there that unless they "work" the fields in a manner to prevent the rich top soil from being carried away, the fields will be worked upon order of the commissioners and the charges added to tax assessments against the properties.

Action Not Words

SEATTLE—Census taking even by CWA enumerators, isn't all just asking questions.

J. J. Goodell, director here, reports a frantic mother greeted one of his men, telling him her small child had swallowed a penny.

"The man, however, quickly held the child upside down, gave it a smart slap on the back—and out dropped the penny," said Goodell.

MORE EAGLES

AMARILLO, Feb. 8 (AP)—Gene Howe, Amarillo publisher and recognized authority on wild fowl, said there were more eagles on the Texas Plains this year than ranchers could recall having seen in a number of years. He said their presence here was probably due to the warm winter. Eagles, he said, migrate as do small hawks.

You cannot guarantee the security of your children with wealth. Leave them moderately poor if you would do well by them. Bring them up to appreciate the finer things of life and let them live simply. These are the best guarantees you can leave them.

CROWD SEES KERN IN 'IRONMAN' ACT

Hundreds of Lubbock persons, adults and children alike, were entertained by Jack (Ironman) Kern in front of Penrod-Toles Motor company quarters in 1000-block Avenue J yesterday afternoon.

He formed a human link in a tow-chain act, pulling a truck carrying a load of Oliver farm equipment weighing more than five tons. An Oliver tractor was on the truck. A tow rope was looped about the man's neck for one feat. In varying the act, Kern allowed a new Dodge to push him with his neck carrying the load of shoving the loaded truck along the pavement. Kern then took offering of S. A. Beard of the Beard Rubber company and pulled the loaded truck with a U. S. Royal heat resisting inner tube around his stomach.

Commercial firms of the city co-operating in the act included the Penrod-Toles Motor company, which furnished the new Dodge car; Beard Rubber company; E. K. Hufstedler and Sons, Oliver dealers; Boyd Bros. Market and Grocery, Brown's Studio, Dr. Brooke F. Stephens, Pepper Bottling company and the Hungarian Cafe.

Kern will appear in person on the stage of the Lindsey theater tonight at 7:30 and 9:20 p. m. in exhibition of strength.

Food Distributors Will Gather Here

To select a code authority for this area, embracing 15 counties, between 400 and 450 food distributors are to meet here next Tuesday.

The meeting is scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock and will be held at one of the local hotels, the meeting place having been undetermined last night.

Bailey, Borden, Cochran, Crosby, Dawson, Floyd, Gaines, Garza, Hale, Hockley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum are in the area governed by the code group.

Similar meetings are being held throughout the state.

"I keep fit

"...in these days of recovery...if I don't, someone else will have my job." How? "Well, I learned years ago that work...wear and tear...takes something out of men and women—particularly those who work indoors.

"I tore down those precious red-blood-cells faster than my good body could rebuild. A friend told me the story of that grand medicine S.S.S. Now at 4 P. M. I am fit to still 'carry on'."

If you feel weak...lack a keen appetite...or if your skin is pale...try S.S.S. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon notice a pick up in your appetite...your color and skin should improve with increased strength and energy.

S.S.S. is not just a so-called tonic but a tonic specially designed to stimulate gastric secretions, and also having the mineral elements so very, very necessary in rebuilding the oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin of the blood to enable you to "carry on" without exhaustion as you should naturally. MATADORS AND LUMBERJACKS PLAY HERE

FLAGSTAFF TEACHERS OF ARIZONA OPEN 2-GAME SERIES

Faced with the necessity of winning two games tonight and tomorrow night or losing the Border conference championship, Texas Tech's Red Matadors meet the Arizona State Teachers college Lumberjacks from Flagstaff on the Tech boards in the first conference games ever played in Lubbock.

Heretofore, the Red Raiders have invaded Arizona and New Mexico to win their conference games and the 1933 championship. Never, since they became members of the conference, have the Matadors entertained a conference cage team here.

The games start at 8 o'clock.

The Lumberjacks carry a heavy punch, with the forwards, Overson and Crumely, in the offensive starring roles. In the Matadors recent Arizona invasion, in which they ran up 190 points against Border conference opposition's 165, the Flagstaff team lost one game by the margin of a last minute free throw from Priddy, and were nosed out 34 to 27 in the other tilt.

Somewhat depleted, but still strong enough to be rated as one of the most powerful teams ever piloted by Coach Morgan, the Matadors must beat the visitors this evening or fall from their top position in the conference. Trueman Green and Bulldog Hale, guards, were lost over the semester, and J. C. Thomas is out with illness.

Fast Breaking Team

According to Coach Morgan's definition after returning from the road trip, the Lumberjacks have one of the tougher clubs of the Southwest and play a fast breaking brand of ball that keeps their opponents on the move every minute.

Should the Matadors lose one of the games tonight or tomorrow, they would practically hand the title to New Mexico, for the Lobos have more games scheduled than Tech and would come over the line first by the percentage route.

A series may be arranged between New Mexico and Tech, if the two teams are still occupying the top ranking jointly at the end of the season.

FOXX REJECTS A'S OFFER

HOME RUN KING SAYS SLASH AFTER BIG YEAR UNFAIR

BIAMI, Fla., Feb. 8 (AP)—Having rejected a proffered 1934 contract, calling for a substantial salary cut, Jimmy Foxx, home run king of the big leagues, today said he would sit "tight" while awaiting further word from Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics.

"I have not made any plans with reference to seeing Connie Mack about the contract and the big salary cut," said Foxx, now spending a winter vacation here, "but I will be glad to talk with him. However, I believe such an invitation should come from Manager Mack."

Says Cut Unfair

"My three year contract, which expired last fall, was $50,000 for the three years," said the big league slugger. "Now, the Philadelphia bosses mail me a contract calling for more than a 30 per cent cut, despite my hitting that led the league, and I believe that unfair."

Foxx said he would return the contract, unsigned.

"If I'm not worth a raise now after last year and with my prospects to increase that mark this season, both in home runs and regular hitting percentage—well, the books just don't read straight," Foxx said.

Informed of Foxx's dissatisfaction, Connie Mack, at Mt. Plymouth, Fla., said, "I haven't heard from Jimmie. I understand that he intends to come to see me at Mt. Plymouth in a few days. I'll be glad to talk with him."

GOSLIN TO TALK ABOUT CONTRACT

DETROIT, Feb. 8 (AP)—Goose Goslin, the Detroit Tigers' newest acquisition in the shape of a slugging outfielder, will be in town today to settle the matter of a contract for the 1934 season with Frank U. Navin, president of the Detroit baseball club.

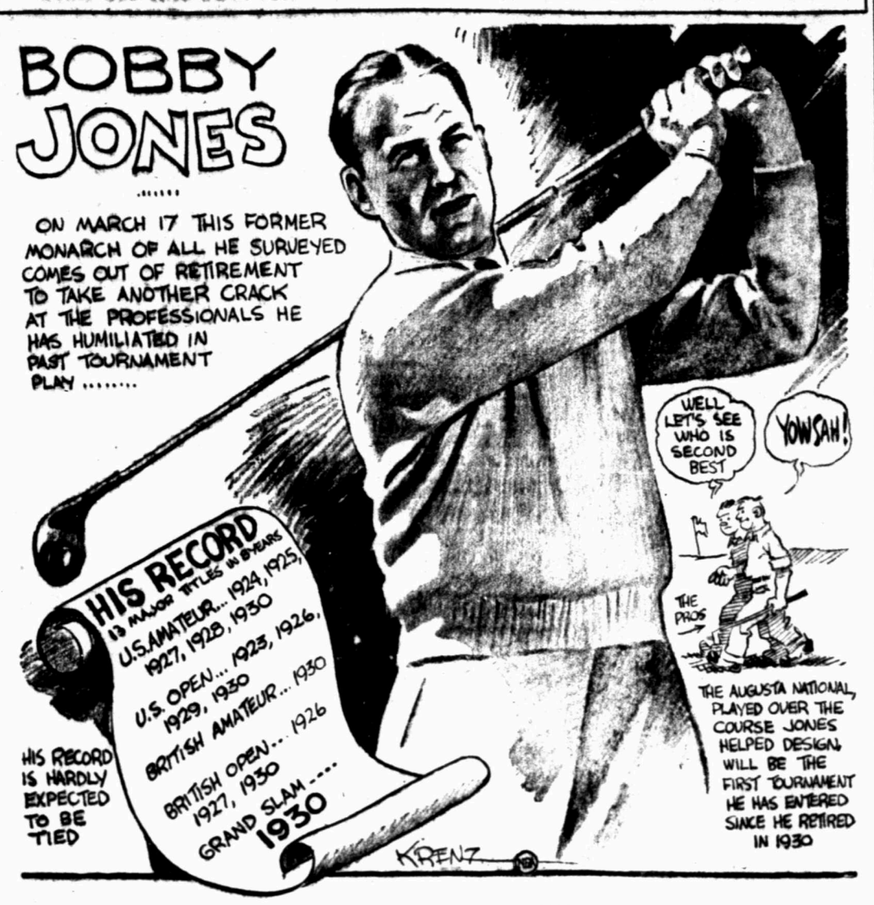

Navin expressed confidence that an agreement would be reached quickly with Goslin, who came to Detroit along with the new manager Mickey Cochrane in the winter trading. Goslin was not regarded as a probable holdout.

Navin for the past several seasons has had little difficulty in signing his players.

SMITH SAYS DO NOT BLAME CLUB FOR BAD PUTTS

BY PAUL ZIMMERMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 8 (AP)—The golfer who finds himself consistently three-putting greens blames the wrong club most of the time, in the opinion of MacDonald Smith, one of the game's best professional putters.

"It isn't the putter," said the silent Scot from Carnoustie who was in one of his rare talkative moods.

"The golfer who is three-putting is blaming the wrong club. Most of the time it isn't the fault of his putter. Generally his approach shots are bad. When you are getting your seconds and thirds inside the fifteen foot circle you can poke the ball into the cup.

"Outside of that you have to hit the ball and it is a different stroke. There's a lot of difference in putting from fifteen feet or less and from thirty feet.

"Just like billiards. You can play coaxing shots a while and get the feel of the cue. Then you change and play three-cushion where you have to hit the ball to catch the banks. Then switch back and try coaxing the ball for closeup shots again. You find you've lost your touch.

"The same goes for putting. From fifteen feet or less it is a coaxing stroke where you have the 'feel' of your shots. Outside that circle it is a hitting stroke and you lose that real putting touch."

PRO-AMATEUR AFFAIR SET TODAY; MEDAL PLAY TOMORROW

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 8 (AP)—Money prospectors, fortified with golf playing equipment, started digging for pay dirt today in the twelfth annual $2,500 Texas open.

Professionals and amateurs, 160 strong, trekked the Brackenridge park fairways in the preliminary round commonly known as the pro-amateur event. Tomorrow the wizards of the irons and woods start the 72 holes of medal play for the championship.

Winner Gets $750

The winner will harvest $750 in cash and a diamond studded medal to be presented by C. E. Becker, a prominent San Antonio insurance company president, who told Gus Moreland, Texas amateur champion and United States Walker cup star, he would have a larger diamond inserted in the medal if he would beat the professionals.

Approximately 15 of the professionals who finish behind the winner will receive smaller nuggets, but they admit even the smaller ones are welcome these times.

Clarence Clark, giant Bloomfield, N. J., professional, won the last Texas open in 1932 with 287. Amateurs found themselves paired with such prominent professionals as Bobby Cruickshank of Richmond, Va.; Abe Espinosa of Chicago; Bill Mehlhorn of New York; Al Espinosa of Akron; Ky Lafoon of Denver; W. J. Schwartz of St. Louis; Joe Lally of Louisville; Francis Scheider, Francis McGonagill, Larry Nabholtz, Bert Hatzenbuehler and Graham Ross, all of Dallas, Willie Maguire of Houston, Jack Burke of Houston, Smiley Rowland of Fort Worth, Martin Walsh of Omaha, George Whitehead of Tulsa, Hugh Logan of Toronto and many others.

Others To Arrive

Tournament officials said that Wiffy Cox, winner of the Agua Caliente open last Saturday; Densmore Shute, British open champion; Harry Cooper, noted Chicago professional who learned his golf on Texas courses; Joe Turnesa, Frank Walsh and Horton Smith would not arrive in time for today's amateur-pro competition, but would compete in the 72-hole championship matches.

Most entries spent yesterday playing practice rounds. Byron Nelson of Texarkana, who turned professional two years ago, blistered the course with a sub par 70 and a par 71. Moreland did not play, but spent much time on the practice putting green. Metz, a former Texas professional but now assistant to Craig Wood, at Deal, N. J., played two rounds and was in the low seventies.

World registration of motor vehicles in 1933 totaled 32,820,000.

Meet Texas Tech
LEROY CREWS
Basketball Crew

One of the outstanding high school basketeers of the South Plains up to a year ago was Leroy Crews, brother of Alvin Crews, co-captain of the Tech team.

Leroy, the more handsome of "those Crews boys," is a sophomore at the Matador institution. He enjoyed a great year as freshman last season, and is taking his place at forward, sometimes alongside his older brother, in nearly every game the Techsters play.

Like Alvin, Leroy set the district afire while in Wilson High school. He was high scorer in nearly every game Wilson played during his last two years there, and in nearly every tournament he entered, including the Lubbock invitation tournament of 1932. A husky ycuth, not so tall as the tallest men of the team, but making up in endurance and speed what he lacks in height, Leroy is this year a valuable asset to the ball club, and is due to serve two more seasons as regular forward.

KOPECKY WINS OVER KANTHE IN MAT GO

DORRY DETTON BEATS JOE BAUER IN SEMI-FINAL BATTLE

Joe Kopecky, the "panther man," again proved rather conclusively that he's just about the class of the middleweight grapplers of this section when he turned "Professor" Dick Kanthe, Detroit strong man, every way but loose last night to win in straight falls the main event on the Auditorium's regular weekly mat offering.

Kanthe put up a good battle in the opening round, his almost superhuman strength giving him advantage in many ways. Joe's better grounded experience, however, gave him the upper hand, particularly when Kanthe lost control of his emotions and let fly with Referee Jack Kern in the second fall.

Advantage Changes

They went at it fast and furious for 20 minutes to open the main event. The advantage changed with nearly every different hold. The Detroiter grabbed headlocks and slammed Joe to the mat four times, apparently weakening the Bohemian bruiser. But on the last flip, Joe flipped a drop toe-hold on Dick, and it was over half a minute later.

Kanthe's altercation with Referee Kern, a strong man in his own right, proved disastrous in the second fall, Kopecky rushing in to slam Kanthe to the mat, grab a double arm lock and pin him for the second and deciding fall in 10 minutes.

The bout that proved the crowd-pleaser of the evening, however, was the semi-final event, featuring Dorry Detton, the aerial-minded acrobat from Salt Lake City and Lubbock, and Joe Bauer, recently from Coblenz, Germany, but more recently an inmate of an Amarillo hospital. Marks of a knife battle, in which the other fellow wielded the blade were plainly visible on the Hitleristic grappler, but it didn't seem to slow him up any. In fact, he proved surprisingly quick and active when he had been advertised as slow and calculating. Wearing an expression of dumbness that completely betrayed his real ability, he made things interesting for Detton.

Up In The Air

They went at it seriously and fast from the start. Detton let Bauer take the lead and set the pace, and everything the German did, Detton did. It got rough and tough, and Bauer's groans could be heard above the screechings of the crowd. Both Referee Kern and Detton took turns of heaving Bauer out of the ring, Kern usually starting it and Detton assisting him on the way out with a swift kick to the bottom. Bauer pulled just about as many tricks out of the bag as Detton, and fixed a hammer lock that had Dorry squirming for a few seconds. But after much slam-banging around, Detton delighted his large following by hoisting Bauer high and applying his deadly airplane spin. His is a very interesting spin to look at, for he jumps up and down and around and around as well as spinning. The victim hit the floor on his back, with Detton on top of him. A double arm bar and a shoulder smother, and Bauer was counted out. He was not hurt, however, and jumped up ready to fight any and all comers.

Swindell Beats Belcher

A scheduled 20-minute preliminary "exhibition" saw Claud Swindell, the Lincoln, Neb., lightweight who is reported to have a son old enough to be a college graduate slipped an arm lock on Art Belcher, Amarillo welterweight, and pinned him for the fall in 17 minutes. While it was more or less depressing to look at keener observers could see science and ability in nearly everything the veteran Nebraskan did. Wiry and fast, slick as a whistle and hard to hurt, the former University of Nebraska wrestling coach is said by the wrestling clan to be one of the very toughest combatants in the ring.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT at Texas Tech. Matadors vs. Lumberjacks. Eight o'clock.

Tonight's and tomorrow night's games will mark the first home collegiate series in about a month, and it would be sportsmanlike on the part of fans to accord them a fine welcome.

The Matadors must beat the Flagstaff bunch if they remain at the top of the Border conference ladder. They are hard pressed just now by the University of New Mexico Lobos, who have lost but one contest. Tech is defending the conference championship it won last season.

Loss of two good guards, Trueman Green and J. C. Thomas, is due to weaken the Matador defense considerably, but Coach Dell Morgan has fairly strong replacements. Green was ordered to turn in his unie when he dared not leave his job—which school officials helped him get—to accompany the team on the Arizona tour. Thomas has been ill for the past few weeks, unable to practice.

The alarming news has come to us that several favorite footballers out Texas Tech way are on the verge. It seems that they either refuse to take studies seriously or the studies take them too seriously. As a matter of fact, three or four athletes upon whose shoulders a lot of responsibility is due to fall this autumn are barely hanging on the ragged edge. Something should be done about this.

We are going to give these athletes just one more week in which to recover from class room depression — and then we're gonna tell you who they are.

Getting back to basketball, the Tech games aren't the only ones scheduled here this week. They're just two of 21 games, yet the Matador conflicts stand on top of the heap. The other 19 games are to be played at the Lubbock High school gymnasium, beginning at 4 o'clock Friday p. m. They are part of the annual Lubbock county tournament of the Texas Interscholastic league.

You may see nearly everything possible in a basketball game by attending a county tournament. These high school boys and girls may not know all the fine tricks, but sooner or later they execute them accidently, which is even more fun.

Harold Cooper, athletic director of Lubbock county, is spending a lot of time and trouble clearing out the congested basketball and track situation which confronts this particular county. It is one of the most complex organizations we know about, and the man who simplifies it surely deserves a medal. Cooper, who teaches at the Liberty school, Idalou, is doing his best to iron out the wrinkles and establish a smooth flow of action. Heretofore, it's been a mad house.

The new director has made a good start by consolidating the boys and girls tournaments, and holding them over two different weekends. The championships in four divisions will be settled this week. These title winning teams will return next week to compete with winners in four other divisions for the county championship proper.

A small charge will be made to fans wishing to see the games. It will be ten cents per session. That is, a person may see the afternoon games, from 4 to 7 o'clock, for ten cents, then pay another ten cents for three games in the evening. There will be three sessions Saturday—Morning, afternoon and night. So for four bits you can see 19 basketball games. School and team spirit is at its height in these county and district tournaments.

All of Friday's games will be played at the high school gymnasium court. The tournament scene shifts to the Tech boards Saturday when the program begins at 8 o'clock in the morning.

SCHOOLBOY GRID RULES WILL BE INTERPRETED

DALLAS, Feb. 8. (AP)—It's not the football rules that worry Texas high school grid coaches but the Interscholastic league rules themselves.

And something is going to be done about it—thanks to the initiative of Henry Frnka, coach of the state championship Greenville club.

An interscholastic league rules interpretation meeting, to be conducted by Roy B. Henderson of the Interscholastic league will be held either in conjunction with the state high school basketball tournament or track meet, Frnka said today.

Numerous changes in the rules are made each season and it keeps coaches jumping trying to keep up with the mass of original laws and revisions. Several good chances at the state schoolboy championship have been "blown" by some teams because of the coach's innocent ignorance of rules.

It is expected the interpretation meeting, expected to be an annual affair, will thoroughly acquaint coaches with all rules and cause a considerable decrease in the flood of protests each season.

BLIND TO WORK

LENINGRAD (AP)—A factory in which only blind operators will be used is being built here at a cost of around $850,000. The plant will manufacture electric motors and the machinery will be equipped for safety operation by touch instead of by sight.

BUYS POLISH STEEL

KATTOWITZ, Poland (AP)—Soviet orders to Silesian steel mills took a spurt recently with the purchase for about $1,800,000 of 30,000 tons of miscellaneous iron and steel. Credit terms were 18 months.

Secretary of Commerce Roper has authorized appointment of a committee of leaders in American aeronautics to encourage development of an inexpensive airplane for private flying.

CAGE TOURNEY SET FRIDAY, SATURDAY

TWENTY-THREE TEAMS WILL COMPETE HERE IN LEG OF RACE

Lubbock plays host Friday and Saturday to the annual Lubbock county basketball tournament, and 23 teams will be here to compete in this first leg of the state interscholastic league race.

Two divisions play tomorrow and Saturday, the upper Class B and rural school teams, boys and girls.

The tourney gets underway Friday at the Lubbock high gym with a contest between the New Hope and Hardy girls at four o'clock. All the Friday games will be played on the Westerner floor, but Saturday the scene shifts to the Texas Tech gym. An admission charge of 10 cents will be made for all the afternoon games or all the night tilts.

New Plan Tried

Three new innovations have been introduced in the tournament this year, according to Harold A. Cooper, athletic director of the Lubbock Interscholastic league. For the first time the boys' and girls' tournaments are combined. Individual gold basketballs will be awarded to the boy and girl who are selected as the best all-round demonstrators in sportsmanship and the coaches in each group of schools are going to select an all-star team.

Return February 16

Final games in the tournament begin on February 16. Twenty-two boys teams and 16 girls teams in all are entered, some of them of considerable strength. Competition will be especially strong among the girls' teams this year, Mr. Cooper said.

Tournament schedule:

Friday, February 9

Game No. 1—4:00 p. m. — New Hope girls vs. Hardy girls. Game No. 2—5:00 p. m.—Union boys vs. Hurlwood boys. Game No. 3—6:00 p. m.—Canyon girls vs. Shallowater girls. Game No. 4—7:30 p. m.—Shallowater boys vs. Estacado girls. Game No. 5—8:30 p. m. — Posey girls vs. Woodrow girls. Game No. 6—8:30 p. m.—Hardy boys vs. New Hope boys.

Speed development in airplanes suitable for sportsman pilot and private owner will be featured in air contests of 1934 and 1935.

Rates, Rules and Requirements of Classified Advertising Of The

Lubbock Evening Journal
Lubbock Morning Avalanche
Sunday Avalanche-Journal
(Sunday Morning)

All classified advertising will appear in both the Morning and Afternoon papers—both papers counting one insertion. All classified advertising is printed in the Lubbock Morning Avalanche first and the Daily Journal of the same date, no classified originating in the afternoon paper.

Classified for Sunday's issue will appear in the Avalanche-Journal counting one insertion, as this paper is sent to all subscribers of both the afternoon and morning papers.

AVALANCHE-JOURNAL
Combined Rates:
Minimum words per insertion, 10.
One insertion, per word 4c
Two insertions, per word 6c
Three insertions, per word 7c
Seven insertions, per word 12c
Thirty insertions, per word 45c

These rates are for consecutive insertions only. Additional consecutive insertions over 30 times, of 1½c per word each.

All out-of-town ads, received by mail must be Cash with order. No exceptions. "NO REFUNDS" on ad stopped, after it has appeared in paper.

PHONE 13 OR 14

Our experienced ad taker will receive your ad and help you to word it, then our collector will call the following day. These accounts are "accommodation accounts" for our patrons and for one day only.

No advertisements accepted on an "until forbid" order. A specified number of insertions must be given.

We reserve the right to place an advertisement under the proper classification and reject unclean or objectionable copy.

Obituaries and cards of thanks at regular classified advertising rates.

The publishers are not responsible for copy omissions, typographical errors, or any unintentional error that may occur, further than to correct it next issue after it is brought to their attention. All advertising orders are accepted on this basis only.

Classified Advertising accepted until 6:00 p. m. on week days, and 9:00 p. m. on Saturdays, and all advertising received after 6:00 p. m. will be placed under "Too Late To Classify."

For classified display advertising information—

Curb-Side Letter Box Is Installed

So patrons could mail letters without leaving their automobiles, a curb-side letter box was installed Wednesday on Broadway just west of the federal building, M. M. Brown, acting postmaster, announced.

"We have reserved from parking, 90 feet on Broadway, so people may drive up to the curb and place letters in the box," Mr. Brown said. The box was installed at the request of many of our patrons for this service.

"Collections will be made regularly and just before the mail is locked out of the office for each train. We have placed a schedule on the box so persons may know if they are mailing letters in time."

The city police department through Chief of Police Wiley Metcalfe, painted "no parking" signs on the curb where the box is located.

Green lights penetrate best in some fogs, while in others, red lights are most effective; it all depends on the size of the moisture particles of which the fog is composed.

AMERICAN LEGION PLANNING CIRCUS

With plans for the American Legion's indoor circus, to be in the Auditorium, March 1-6, gaining impetus, Riley F. Huie, Legion post commander, Wednesday appointed committees to direct the entertainment.

Following are the committees:

Advisory—R. J. Allen, chairman; George Berry, Jimmie Kilpatrick.

Publicity—Glen Hess, chairman; K. L. Riggs, W. E. Lavender.

Ticket—Roy D. McKinney, chairman; J. F. Leach, J. L. Croft.

Hall — Wiley Metcalfe, chairman; W. H. Waln, G. M. Carr.

Advertising—J. B. Jones, chairman; Tom Carter, D. Parnell.

The original announcement of the circus being held at the national guard armory on College avenue was in error, it was said.

About 100 regular circus performers, who spend the summer season on big-time circuses, comprise the staff of this traveling group. There are 18 acts billed, all of them regular circus acts.

Proceeds of the show going to the Legion post will be devoted to the charity fund of that organization.

This week the circus is in Galveston, performing under the auspices of the Shrine temple there.

An added attraction for Lubbock is free dancing as a part of the program.

CANADIAN RIVER COSTLY TO AREA

CANADIAN, Feb. 8 (AP)—The Canadian river—usually described as the "treacherous" Canadian—has cost Hemphill county approximately $1,000,000 in damage losses in the last 45 years, it is estimated by County Judge W. L. Helton.

This loss has been sustained by farmers in erosion from flood waters, loss of meadow lands, livestock and fences, and from bridge washouts on highways and the Santa Fe railroad. As an example, he cites that the first highway bridge across the Canadian near this city was 1,200 feet long. It has been necessary to extend the span, after damage by floods, until it is now five-eights of a mile long.

"The best and richest soil in Hemphill county formerly was along this stream," Helton said, "but most of it has been destroyed. Fine hay meadows and nice groves of trees have been swept away by flood waters."

Helton's statement was in answer to a questionnaire seeking to determine the advisability of constructing a dam in the vicinity of Tucumcari, N. M., one of several such projects in the southwest which have been sought through the public works administration.

FORMER MATINEE IDOL TO MARRY MEZZO SOPRANO

CHICAGO, Feb. 8. (AP)—Wedding bells are going to ring again for Francis X. Bushman, the former moving picture star has announced.

His bride-to-be, he disclosed in an announcement last night, is Carmela Ponselle, a mezzo soprano of the Metropolitan Opera company of New York.

But the time and the place and other details of the ceremony for the former husband of Beverly Bayne, were unknown, depending, he said, upon the wishes of Miss Ponselle.

"I'm leaving all the details to her, so I can't say anything about them until she arrives in Chicago," the one time movie matinee idol, who since has gone into the liquor business, said, after he had obtained a marriage license.

Miss Ponselle, a sister of the opera star, Rosa Ponselle, was reported en route from New York, and was expected to reach Chicago tomorrow. Her age was given as 27. Bushman gave his as 47. If and when the marriage with Miss Ponselle is performed, it will be the third matrimonial venture for Bushman. He and his first wife, Josephine, were also divorced. They had five children. He and Beverly Bayne had one child.

ILLEGAL ENTRY BILL APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8. (AP)—The Dies bill, aimed to halt illegal entry of aliens into the country under the guise of seamen, was approved yesterday by the house immigration committee.

Representative Dies (D-Tex), author of the measure, said it would require immigration inspectors to carefully check crews of quarantine, and to confine for deportation at the ship owners' expense any crew member found not to be a bonafide seaman.

At present alien seamen may land in harbor, under the La Follette act and remain as long as 60 days.

"What we want to do," he said, "is to stop aliens at quarantine, before they get to harbor and become eligible for 60 days shore. Once ashore, it is impossible to trace them in many cases."

Dies said records showed at least 500,000 alien seamen had deserted in this country in recent years.

Small cameras are carried by the police of Gravesend, Eng., to photograph drivers and victims involved in auto accidents; the photos accompany the record of the accident.

Over Six Thousand Brands Registered In Presidio County

MARFA, Feb. 8 (AP)—When S. E. Bunton registered a new cattle brand with County Clerk J. H. Fortner recently, it was number 6,440 for Presidio county. The first brand was booked on Sept. 10, 1875, by Jesus Rodriguez of Fort Davis, and was an "A" with a half circle over the apex and another half circle at the left side of the base of the letter.

Mr. Fortner estimated that at least 50 per cent of the brands in the county were still alive. A brand once registered continues to be the property of the man who established it in this county until he sells it. Persons getting new brands, however, have no difficulty for there is no end to the number that can be worked out. First, however, Mr. Fortner must verify that no similar brand has been registered, for granting of the same brand to two persons would cause trouble and perhaps litigation.

Brands that have become inactive cannot be used and some ranchmen believe the state should require that all brands be re-registered to simplify the brand system. About half the brands are made from characters and the rest from letters.

The Texas law requires registration only in the county in which used. Thus it is possible for a brand to be used by different men in adjoining counties.

In the days of the open range, brands were entered in books of many of the counties around here.

The second brand registered in this county was a D and J connected, by Cleto Herideo, Sept. 13, 1875. Herideo still is living near Presidio.

Peek Services To Be Conducted Today

Funeral rites for D. P. Peek, who died Tuesday night at his home here, were to be read at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Cumberland Presbyterian church, of which he was a member.

Services were to be conducted by Rev. E. L. Conyers, the church pastor, Rev. O. N. Baucom, former pastor, and Rev. J. O. Haymes, Methodist minister. Sanders Funeral home will direct burial in a local cemetery. Mr. Peek had lived in Lubbock 15 years.

Pallbearers were to be H. J. McClellan, Avery Crume, Geo. L. DeShazo, W. H. Atwood, C. F. Young, C. O. Young, F. W. Gross and I. M. Campbell.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. You have headaches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent substitute. 25c at drug stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

TECH SHOP WILL PRINT TOREADOR

The Toreador, weekly student newspaper at Texas Technological college, was to be printed in its own shop on the campus, beginning with today's issue.

The college has established a printing plant, equipped with an intertype type-setting machine, a large flatbed press, a job press, and other paraphernalia in the basement of the engineering building.

Cost Over $10,000

Total cost of the equipment was estimated by Cecil Horne, journalism instructor and publicity director at the college at more than $10,000.

Furniture will be placed in the shop, which also will be used as a laboratory for journalism classes. Editorial and business departments of the Toreador will have quarters there.

Job printing for the college, including that of the catalog, will be done in the shop.

Students will do most of the work in the mechanical department, as well as in other divisions.

ROBBERY CASE OF DOUPE SET HERE

Armed robbery trial of William E. (Bill) Doupe, former Canadian army flier, has been set for the week of March 5, it was said Wednesday.

Doupe also is under indictment for murder in the shooting of Robert Tharp in a grocery store here in 1932. Paul Mitchell, convicted of armed robbery in the case is in death row at the state penitentiary at Huntsville, his execution set for Feb. 27.

Judge Homer L. Pharr of 72nd district court yesterday overruled a defense motion asking that Doupe first be tried for murder. George Berry, W. D. Benson, jr., and Tom Perkins are defense attorneys, appointed by the court. District Attorney Daniel A. Blair and Burton S. Burks, assistant, will be prosecutors.
