Allied Forces Send Chinese Back In Chaos

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Feb. 28. — Tank-led American forces punched six miles into the battered eastern flank of the Red battleline today on the central Korean warfront.

The armored patrol of the U. S. Seventh Division was within sight of Amidong, 31 miles south of Parallel 38 — the northernmost penetration by American forces on the east-central front.

Other division elements pushed westward from the anchor point of Fangnim and linked up with the U. S. Second Division on the vital lateral highway to Hoengsong, 28 miles to the west.

13-MILE STRETCH

The link-up broadened from eight to 13 miles the American control of the Red supply front.

The Seventh Division patrol thrusting six miles north of Pangnim reported the Reds were disorganized and moving in all directions. One officer told AP Correspondent TOM Stone the Reds might be attempting to regroup but "more likely" were moving in "utter confusion."

The officer said the Reds were surrendering in ever increasing numbers. He added: "they're just getting a belylfull."

Amidong is six mils south of Changdong and some 40 air miles inland from the east coast. Aerial spotters reported Changdong may be an assembly point for the Korean Reds.

TOP ACTION

It was the major ground action on the rugged central front early Wednesday. South Korean amphibious forces were active on both the east and west coasts. On the western front, a U. S. patrol entered Seoul and then withdrew to allied lines south of the Han River.

But the pursuing infantrymen were faced with a tough job in running down the Korean Red remnants. A divsion regimental commander said the region is uncharted. Its mountains are some of the craggiest in Korea.

Pan American No. 1 Jones Is Abandoned

Pan American Production Co. and Forest Oil Corp. No. 1 Mildred Jones, Northwest Howard County wildcat, is being plugged to abandon on total depth of 8,364 feet in the Pennsylvanian lime reef.

The prospector had indicated that it might produce commercially from the Pennsylvanian but extensive testing failed to develop production.

The failure is 467 feet from south and west lines of the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 38, block 33, T-3-N, T&P survey, and one and one half miles west of the Vealmoor field.

CROSBY WILDCAT

Tide Water Associated Oil Co. is to drill its No.1 L. C. Hickman as an 8,500-foot Pennsylvanian wildcat in extreme Northeast Crosby County 17 miles northeast of Crosbyton.

Location has not been surveyed, but it will be approximately 1,000 feet south of the north and midway between the east and west lines of section 2, block 13, S. C. Hickman survey.

Pan American Production Co. Sinclair Oil & Gas Co., Skelly Oil Co., the Atlantic Refining Co. and C. B. Hamil are contributing to the drilling of the well.

It will be dug to 8,500 feet or the top of the Mississippian.

CROCKETT TEST

Nevel G. Penrose, Inc., of Fort Worth is to drill an 8,750-foot wildcat in West Central Crockett County.

It will be dug as the No. 1 University, 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from east lines of section 1, block 29, University Land survey.

The contract depth is calculated to take the prospector into the Ellenburger.

It will be drilled two miles southwest of the shallow Lancaster-Hill field and one and one-quarter miles southwest of Gulf Oil Corp.'s No. 1-0 University, and 8,665-foot Ellenburger failure in the northeast corner of section 12, block 29, University land survey.

The acreage that the wildcat will be drilled on was accumulated by Penrose during several auctions of leases of University of Texas lands.

TO PLUG BACK

Skelly Oil Co. is preparing to plug back for completion in the Canyon sand on its No. 1 Dalby east offset to the recent discovery in the Flowers pool of Southeast Stonewall County.

On a drillstem test of the Ellenburger at 6,448-6,484 feet, recovery was 2,910 feet of salt water in two hours.

Location of No. 1 Dalby is in section 19, block D, H&TC survey and five miles southeast of Aspermont.

STONEWALL FAILURE

Five miles southeast of the Moutray-Moore area in Southeast Stonewall County, Oxford Drilling Co. No. 1 J. W. Hines hs been plugged and abandoned at 4,407 feet.

This wildcat was located 330 feet from north and east lines of section 171, block 1, BBB&C survey. That made it one-half mile north of the Jones County line.

NEAR HERMLEIGH

Amerada Petroleum Corp. No. 1 Jack Beck, wildcat four miles south of Hermleigh, is at a total depth of 7,610 feet in lime and is now running electric log surveys.

On a four-hour drillstem test of the zone from 7,560-7,610 feet, a medium blow of air was at the surface for two hours, with a weak blow for the balance of the test. Recovery was 25 feet of drilling mud and 270 feet of salt water. Flowing pressure was zero, with 15-minute shut-in pressure of 500 pounds. This wildcat had not had any shows of oil or gas on zones drilled through earlier. A test of the Strawn lime from 7,085-7,156 feet recovered 50 feet of drilling mud plus some drilling mud with traces of dead oil.

The No. 1 Beck is located 660 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 234, block 3, H&TC survey.

Army Payroll Of $33,000 Is Bagged Today

WICHITA FALLS, Feb. 28. (AP) — A lone robber held up a squadron paymaster at the sprawling Sheppard Air Force base here today and made off with a $33,000 payroll.

First reports said two armed men were involved, but Sheppard Field officers later said only one bandit pulled the daring holdup.

The robbery took place about 7:45 o'clock this morning in front of the finance office near the base headquarters building.

The robber, described as in his early twenties and wearing olive drab fatigue clothes, escaped in a payroll car toward Iowa Park, 12 miles west of here.

Road blocks were set up and planes took off to search the area by air.

STICKS UP TWO

The robber stuck up Capt. Ray D. Harwood, paymaster for 3756th Students Squadron, and the squadron pay clerk, Corp. John J Hersch.

It was payday, and the two had just checked out the payroll from the finance office.

Capt. Harwood said the robber was in the back seat of his car when he and the corporal left the office. The man told them he was sick.

Harwood and the corporal got in the front seat, the pay roll between them, and proceeded to drive toward the north gate.

After driving about a block, Harwood said, the man pulled a gun and told them to hand over the money.

FIRES ONCE

The man fired one shot, but missed. Then he drove off out of the north gate, with the corporal as a hostage.

The corporal managed to leap out of the vehicle when it slowed down at an intersection about 3½ miles from the base.

Capt. Harwood, ordinarily training operations officer for the squadron, is from Wichita Falls. Hersch is from Del Norte, Colo.

Lions and Rotarians Pick Meeting Places; Longhorn Cafe Moved

The Lions Club next Tuesday will begin meeting for their weekly luncheons at the educational building of the First Methodist Church. Dr. John Blum, president, announced today.

The change in meeting place was made because of the moving of the Longhorn Cafe from its Snyder location on the Lamesa highway to Maryneal, in Nolan County. Owned and operated by Ashley Rivers for the past several months, the firm has been the meeting place of two of the Snyder service clubs since they stopped using the Country Club.

The Rotary Club will begin tomorrow meeting at the Manhattan Hotel where the Kiwanis Club has been meeting for several weeks.

Dr. Blum said the women of the Sunday school groups and church societies had agreed to serve the club at their luncheons in the fellowship hall of the church's new educational building.

Hoge To Take Over Ninth Corps Post

U. S. EIGHT ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Feb. 28. (AP) — Maj. Gen. William M. Hoge will become commander of the U. S. Ninth Corps on his arrival in Korea, it was reported today. He is due in Tokyo Saturday.

He will succeed Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, who died after a helicopter crash near the frontlines last week.

Marine Maj. Gen. Oliver P. Smith of Menard, Tex. is temporary commander of the corps.

Ride On Gun Powder

LONG BEACH, Feb. 28. (AP) — Policeman John D. Emmons must carry alucky rabbit's foot.

He was thrown from a patrol car after a collision. He skidded along the pavement on his back for 80 feet. His cartridge belt took most of the brunt. Leather cartridge loops were ground to pieces.

Brass on the cartridges was ground down. Two cartridges fell apart. Yet, none exploded and Emmons suffered only bruises and cuts.

And Now the Sink

The B-29ers pledge to hit Chinese and Korean Communist troops with "everything, including the kitchen sink," may be fulfilled by a B-29 bombardier of the U.S. Far East Air Force, if the stunt can be approved by the armament officer. Two Airforce sergeants (unidentified) are shown as they affix fins to a standard item of American plumbing in anticipation of making good their threat.

House Water Group Hears From Segments All Over The State

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 28. — Water—the beneficial use thereof—was what the House Conservation and Reclamation Committee discussed for two days.

Nobody agreed that the suggested new surface water code for the state was the answer to the best possible use ofthe state's inadequate supplies.

The committee listened to complaints chiefly from the Rio Grande irrigation farmers, from specialists in water laws and from West Texas.

Then they sent the bill yesterday to a subcommittee headed by Rep. Harold M. LaFont of Plainview to study it some more. The subcommittee has no set time in which to report.

The suggested surface water code is the product of two years of study by a 21-man committee set up by the Legislature in 1949. It held 10 hearings in different sections of the state to get recommendations for the bill.

Spokesmen for Rio Grande irrigation farmers said they didn't like it. They said they were afraid it would upset too many principles of water rights established through the years.

CITY RIGHTS DANGER

Fred Husbands, Abilene, executive vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, said West Texas just wanted to be sure that cities kept their right to top priority to municipal use of water.

Husbands said delegations were here from Floydada, Vernon, Haskell, Breckenridge, Lubbock, Sweetwater, Waco, Abilene, Littlefield, Clarendon, Friona, Brownwood and Stamford.

Speaking for them, he told the committee:

"Unless we strengthen our own situation, we shall have federal control creeping in to dominate our water resources."

He also asked the committee to make sure that the bill affected only water surface water — not underground waters, too. He noted the section allows a rancher or farmer to build without a permit, a ground storage tank of his land as long as the water didn't drain into a natural water course. He wanted the restriction as to natural water course removed.

STICK TO UNUSED RIGHTS

From the Rio Grande Valley, Glenn White, Donna said: "The bill does nothing to help us, and it's too great a risk of losing many points that have been established through years in the Valley."

D. F. Strickland, Mission, said: "We've been getting along successfully under the present system. It will take 10 to 15 years of court decisions to establish the new laws."

Rep. Abraham Kazen of Laredo objected to the provision that allows a man to lose his water rights on streams on his own property if he shows no beneficial use of them in a period up to 20 years.

Snyder May Miss Chance

Big Spring, Colorado City, and Sweetwater are expected to profit by a visit made here yesterday by a man whose annual payroll is about $750,000.

Snyder could have profited—but the rent's too high.

J. W. Moorman, who holds contracts on the Colorado River Municipal Water District dam in Southwestern Scurry County and for the construction of runways and taxi strips at Winston Field here, surveyed the rental property situation in Snyder yesterday.

Moorman will have hundreds of employees in this area for at least a year. Snyder is the closest city to both his projects. He told James Rosser, president of the Chamber of Commerce, that he would like to house his workers here.

"But my employees cannot pay between $125 and $200 a month for a small house, and that seems to be the going rate in Snyder," the Wylie, Tex., contractor told Rosser.

"There are many vacant houses and apartments in your city," Moorman continued, "but the owners apparently will let them stand vacant before they will lower their rents."

Moorman stated that the main body of this working force would be in this area about a year and that the payroll on the two projects would exceed three-quarters of a million dollars.

Luciano Called Head Of Underworld Government

Protection Of Officials In High Places

Could Become Basis Of Subversive Movement To Rock The Country

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Senate crime investigators today pictured Charles "Lucky" Luciano, deported New York vice overlord, as the czar of a vast and secret underworld government.

That secret government, they said, could easily become the basis for a subversive movement which could rock the nation.

Luciano, now in Italy, settles disputes between two of the nation's major crime syndicates, the senators declared.

In a preliminary report on its far-flung probe, the Senate committee said the nation is menaced by highly organized criminals financed largely by illegal gambling.

HIGH OFFICIALS

It said they operate in many places with the connivance of protection of law enforcement officials at all levels of government.

The committee estimated "conservatively" that $20 billion changes hands every year in the United States as a result of organized, illegal gambling. It added that millions of dollars of this are paid out as "ice" or protection money, in various forms.

From the thousands of pages of testimony it took from some 500 witnesses, the committee said the conclusion is inescapable that there is a second government within the country — a government by the underworld.

The five-member committee headed by Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) said it has no doubts about the existence of "at least two major crime syndicates."

MORE REPORTS

The committee's preliminary report, which contained some tentative outlines of possible federal legislation to combat organized crime, is to be followed by a more comprehensive report before it completes its work on March 31.

The committee said there was no doubt that Govs. Fuller Warren of Florida and Forrest Smith of Missouri were aided in their election campaigns by contributions from "known gamblers."

Can't Force Dawson Testimony For Fear Of Truman Actions

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Senate investigators of favoritism in government lending indicated today they won't urge White House aide Donald Dawson to testify lest President Truman "just raise hell."

That was the way Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark), who heads a banking subcommittee conducting the inquiry put it to reporters. He added Dawson's testimony probably would not be worth "a big quarrel with the White House." Actually, the subcommittee is involved in such a feud already. Mr. Truman said its report on RFC lending practices was asinine.

CALL RECESS

After exploring yesterday the story of a White House stenographer's $9,540 mink coat, the group called a one-day recess today to sort over its remaining ammunition.

Its avowed aim is to prove President Truman was wrong in describing as asinine the subcommittee's recent report to the Senate that Dawson, E. Merl Young, the stenographer's husband, and others have made the Reconstruction Finance Corp. (RFC) subservient to their will.

Fulbright said yesterday the financing of Mrs. Young's costly coat looked like "part of a wisespread pattern of activities" with which the subcommittee has linked the names of Dawson, Young and Joseph H. Rosenbaum, a Washington lawyer. The subcommittee has charged Rosenbaum enjoyed "unusual success" at getting RFC loans for clients, largely through Young's help.

SIGNS NOTE

Young and Rosenbaum confirmed that the coat was charged to Rosenbaum's account with a New York City furrier, and paid for by Rosenbaum, with Young signing a note to pay him back later.

The two men also described a variety of loans and other financial lifts Young has received from Rosenbaum. The story prompted Fulbright to demand of Rosenbaum:

"Isn't it true that you do that because of Mr. Young's influence with the RFC and the White House?"

Rosenbaum denied it but Fulbright insisted "It's as plain as can be."

MORE AIRING

Young's affairs are scheduled for more public airing Thursday. The subcommittee called Carl G. Strandlund, president of the Lustron Corp., a bankrupt prefabricated housing concern in Columbus, Ohio to testify then.

The subcommittee already has quoted Strandlund as testifying RFC Director Walter L. Dunham "repeatedly tried to wrest control of Lustron from him in order that he might bring about its transfer to other persons," including Young and Rex Jacobs, Detroit manufacturer.

Clay Is Urging Quick Action On Troop Plan

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. — Lucius D. Clay, former U. S. commander in Germany, said today that sufficient western European defense forces can be assembled in a year to make Russian aggression "seem unprofitable."

But to do this, the retired general said, the present course of rearming western Europe and supplying American ground troops to the North Atlantic defense force must be pursued "full speed ahead."

BEFORE COMMITTEE

Clay appeared before the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees. He urged that American troops be sent to Europe "without limitations" for the defense force being assembled by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

He sharply disputed the testimony of former President Herbert Hoover yesterday that to send troops before the Europeans themselves were fully prepared would beto invite a massacre.

"I do not subscribe to the theory that the Russians are supermen or super-fighters, or that Gen. Eisenhower, given a reasonable number of men would be overwhelmed and massacred," he said.

CLOSE DEALINGS

Clay had many face-to-face dealings with the Russian leaders while commander of U. S. forces in Germany and military governor of the U. S. zone — including operation of the Berlin air lift. He now is serving as a top assistant in the Office of Defense Mobilization.

Clay said the Russians will start the war when they feel they are ready, and not before.

Incomplete Returns For Boy Scout Drive Now Totals $4,250

To date, about $4,250 has been collected in the Boy Scout district finance campaign by Snyder workers under the leadership of Ed Bolger, drive chairman.

Several of the drive workers still have not reported their success in the drive, Bolger said, and it is not known how much money is yet to be turned in. All workers have not reported should contact him at the office of the Bolger-Barnes Funeral Home.

Passage Seen For District Bill In House

AUSTIN, Feb. 28. (AP) —The House today began debate on the senatorial redistricting bill. Final action soon appeared likely.

Reps. Edgar Berlin of Port Arthur and Edwin Nimits of Orange led a protesting bloc. They told House members that the bill should not be accepted merely because the Senate had passed it.

Rep. Max Smith of San Marcos, floor leader for the Senate measure, warned House members that tampering with the Senate-approved bill might lead to difficulties.

House approval — considered a certainty — would send the Senate redistricting bill to the governor for signature.

A bill shifting House districts was endorsed by the Senate yesterday with one minor change. House concurrence in the single amendment is needed to advance the measure to the governor's desk.

While the first legislative redistricting in 30 years neared completion, initial work was just beginning on congressional redistricting bills. Public hearing was scheduled on two different proposals before a House committee this afternoon.

One, by Rep. Charles Murphy of Houston, would give populous Harris County two congressmen instead of one and leave all other districts as they are now. The other, by Rep. W. R. Chambers of May, realigns present boundaries rather drastically. Both bills were expected to draw heavy fire.

Truman Silent On Mink Coat

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28. — The White House was silent today on President Truman's attitude toward a Senate committee's airing of how Mrs. Loretta Young, a stenographer in the executive offices, got a $9,540 mink coat and of her husband's dealings with those interested in RFC loans.

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short replied with a series of "no comments" to most questions about the matter at a news conference.

He gave that answer when asked whether Mr. Truman still regards as asinine a Senate banking subcommittee's report earlier this month that RFC directors have yielded to influence from E. Merl Young, husband of the stenographer; Donald Dawson, a presidential aide, and others. Mr. Truman called the report asinine at a news conference soon after it was made public.

At Short's news conference, reporters put several questions aimed to find out whether Mr. Truman would keep Mrs. Young on as a White House stenographer. She has been associated with him for many years, having worked in his office when Mr. Truman was a senator.

Asked if Mrs. Young still holds her White House post, Short at first replied only "she is here." Then he added, "she is still in her present position, the position she has held for some time."

Blows Fatal To Wife, Daughter

HAMLIN, Feb. 28. —William K. Jones, 58, veteran railroad section chief, is being held without bond in the Anson jail in connection with the hammer slaying of his wife and 12-year-old daughter early yesterday morning.

Murder charges were filed in Justice of the Peace Joe Mathis' court, returnable to the 104th district court.

Mrs. Jones and their daughter Lela Maude, were found dead in a Santa Fe Railroad house in southwest Hamlin, beaten to death with a hammer. Their clothes had been burned away. Jones, in a statement to officers said he had poured gasoline on and set fire to the bed in which they were sleeping.

The double slaying allegedly climaxed a Monday night argument between Jones and his wife over whether or not he was to quit his job with Santa Fe.

County Awaits Results Of Meeting Yesterday With Highway Panel

J. P. Billingsley, county auditor returned today from Austin where he, Edgar Taylor, county judge and the county's four commissioners, Ted Haney, Doyle Parmer, Cullen Toombs, and Walter Grant met with the state highway commission yesterday.

The commissioners were to discuss the county road project with the state commission, seeking an agreement from the highway department to maintain some of the roads after construction. Results of the meeting are not yet known.

The commissioners and Judge Taylor had not returned from Austin by noon today.

Equipment Lacking For Postal Sub-Station

Equipment for the post office sub-station at 432 East Highway which opened Feb. 16 with Alfred E. Vernon in charge, has not arrived yet, according to H. D. Moreland, acting postmaster today.

"Only stamps are being sold until the necessary supplies and equipment arrive," said Moreland.

Moreland, who has been nominated for the permanent position of postmaster, said today that his commission has not arrived and until it is received, he will still be "acting postmaster."

Two Vessels Sought - Troopship Work

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28. (AP) —The Matson Liners Mariposa and Monterey are being sought as troopships, Maritime officals said today.

The vessels saw years of service as troop carriers in World War II. They have not been operated since pending reconversion to passenger use.

Appointments Expected Soon

Selection of a district judge and district attorney for the newly created 132nd district court is slated to be made tomorrow or Friday, according to Pat Beene, president of the Scurry County Bar Association, who returned from Austin last night.

"Indications are that Governor Shivers will select a local man, one of the three recommended by the bar association," said Beene. He pointed out that there are men here qualified to fill the bench and association members would be indignant if the governor appointed an outsider to preside over the court.

The local bar association, at a recent meeting, endorsed Beene, John E. Sentell and C. F. Scritchfield for the position of judge, and also voted to endorse Renal Rosson, Keith L. Merrick, and George R. Killam, Jr., for district attorney.

The name of Bob Davie, Snyder lawyer, is being mentioned for the district attorney's job. Talk around the courthouse is that the race for district attorney is between Davie and Killam.

Sterling Williams, state representative, here over the week end, said he was of the opinion that the governor would select a retired jurist from outside of the county to serve as judge until the matter could be given further study.

New Water Well to Be Drilled; Two Will Be Tested This Week

Tests on the two newly drilled city water wells will be made late this week and location has been selected for a third, W. J. Ramsey, city superintendent, said.

Casing has been set and completion of drilling made on the city's twenty-sixth water well, Ramsey said. It is located in North Snyder at the bend of the Clairemont Road.

The City's twenty-fifth well will stand a final test, probably Friday or Saturday, Ramsey said. It is located in Northwest Snyder.

The new location selected for the twenty-seventh well is approximately 700 feet west of the No. 25 and is on Twenty-third Street, Ramsey said.

Everyone Escaped Wreckage Alive

This is the still-flaming wreckage of a Mid-Continent Airlines plane which crashed in Tulsa, Okla., with 33 persons aboard but with no loss of life. Only three persons were injured, two severely enough to be hospitalized. The photograph was made about 20 minutes after the crash. The two-engined craft, enroute from Minneapolis to Houston, had just taken off, witnesses said, when an engine failed. The ship fell from a low height and caught fire. Passengers and crew calmly left through a rear door.

Lawn Planting Time Is Near, Soil Preparation Emphasized

With the first day of spring less than a month away, new home owners in Snyder are beginning to view their barren front yards with visions of a luxurious lawn for summer enjoyment.

This is definitely the time to prepare the soil for planting the lawn and for choosing the type grass to be planted.

MESQUITE GRASS

Miss Myrtle Harrell, president of the Garden Club, is enthusiastic about mesquite grass for planting in this area. It is a wild pasture grass, which gives a smooth surface and a good turf, she says, and is well suited to this climate. Seed from mesquite grass is still relatively scarce, since it has only recently come into use as a lawn grass, but Miss Harrell planted her lawn with grass dug on a farm near here.

Bermuda is probably the most popular grass in this area because it spreads rapidly, gives a substantial turf which will withstand use and generally withstands the extremes of weather. It may be started either by planting seed or setting out plants, and will cover the area more rapidly if plants are set out.

St. Augustine grass, which resembles Bermuda grass, will also spread rapidly. It is especially adaptable to ground which is shaded. One of its major disadvantages however, is the fact that it requires an excessive amount of water. Blue grass does not generally prove too successful in this area because of the aridity of the atmosphere. It will grow with careful tending, however, and does not die back in the winter as Bermuda and St. Augustine grasses do.

PREPARE SOIL

If grass is being planted on the yard for the first time, it is important that the soil be plowed or spaded and worked carefully before the seed is planted. Many first-year lawns will not need fertilizer, but working the fertilizer into the soil will help break it up and keep it from packing down on the young plants. That is particularly important in this area, since the soil is heavy and tends to become hard.

Soil which seems to have a tendency to be gummy will probably grow a better lawn if sand is worked into it after breaking. If manure is used as fertilizer, it will probably provide enough sand. However, if commercial fertilizers are used, sand may be needed in addition.

Few grasses will grow well where caliche, a light colored, clay-like soil, is present. If the yard has a good deal of caliche, it should be worked into it. It may be necessary to have the caliche dug out and new soil put in its place.

Manure is the most commonly used and least expensive fertilizer here. A truck load of four yards can be bought for $8, delivered to the site. Roland Bell of Bell's Flower Shop, recommends that the mulch be spread over the yard about half an inc. thick. Working on this scale, an average-sized yard may require six yards.

CHEMICALS

Vigro or other similar chemical fertilizers are also suitable for use here, Bell said. The soil is fairly well balanced in mineral content needing iron more than any other mineral. Bell recommends five pounds for every 100 square feet of lawn, with the compound spread evenly over the space.

The value of the fertilizer depends in a large measure on the manner in which it is used, Bell emphasized. If it is properly worked into the soil it will give much better results. This is particularly true of manure. Properly worked into the soil, it will give the plants an air space and hold sub-soil moisture which would otherwise be lost through evaporation.

If the lawn is to be started from plants rather than seed, the plants should be put in shallow furrows about six inches apart. The leaves should be left above the surface, and the soil packed lightly over the remainder of the plant in the trench. The furrows should be wet when the plants are put in, and kept fairly moist until they start to grow.

Seed may be planted broadcast or in furrows. The seed should be planted in wet furrows and covered with enough soil to prevent blowing. The soil should be kept moist near the surface, but not wet enough to cause the seed to rot. Watering should be done carefully to prevent washing the seed down into low places.

Newest Heart Operation Is Said Success

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. (AP) — A Cleveland professor reports "great promise" for a new heart operation to relieve coronary thrombosis.

Latest word on the operation — which switches blood from the coronary arteries to the heart veins —comes from Dr. Claude S. Beck, professor of neurosurgery at Western Reserve University school of medicine.

Dr. Beck reported on the new surgery last night to the New York Heart Assn.

The technique is being used in Cleveland on patients suffering from disease of the coronary arteries, which feed the heart muscle.

Reporting on the new effort to overcome a disease which kills more people than cancer, Dr. Beck said:

"The technical difficulties of doing the operation ... have not been entirely overcome, but good teamwork and repetition have made the operation reasonable and feasible."

Dubinsky Says Work Is Slow

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28. (AP)—Union Leader David Dubinsky says war prosperity doesn't reach the women's wear industry until late in the economic cycle, but post-war depression is delayed, too.

The president of the AFL International Ladies Garment Workers union told a news conference yesterday that in the last two wars women bought durable articles they knew would become short, then bought clothing. But after the wars, he said, they were prosperous enough to replenish depleted clothing supplies.

At this time, Dubinsky said, there is only about 85 per cent of normal employment in the garment industry which includes his union's 431,000 members.

Dubinsky is here for a union rally tomorrow and for dedication Saturday of a union-employer health center.

TALK OF THE TOWN

By FRANCES BIOW

As a patriotic citizen of the United States, I don't mind paying income taxes any more than the next loyal citizen. I hate it.

* * *

I recognize, however, that it is necessary. However, it does seem adding insult to injury that the minds at work in Washington appear to have done everything possible to make the job of completing the return about the hardest thing you're called on to do in the course of a year. Personally, I think it would be easier to make a watch.

* * *

There are still 15 days before March 15. On that date I shall rush out a few minutes before midnight and mail my return. I hope I remember to stamp it this year. (Yes, stamp, not stomp). So far I have looked over Form 1040 and The Instructions. And already I have the old familiar symptoms of dizziness, upset stomach, spots before the eyes, a yellow-jaundice look, and a severe guilt complex.

* * *

One of the most trying features of this frustrating form, which yearly leads me to believe the Treasury Department is peopled with sadistic personnel. . . is the simple matter of space. For instance, The Form asks—nay, it demands—all sorts of information, like the name of your employer, the type thing he does for a living and his address. It provides you with 6-000s of an inch to supply the info. Think how upset an unfortunate taxpayer would be if he happened to be working for a corporation called Schlumberger Oil Well Surveying Corporation.

* * *

I have also been perusing my Instructions, sent with the Form slanted toward terrifying you. I don't know where the Treasury gets its writers, but I think they should be writing television comedy shows instead. You read a sentence the second time, and it makes even less sense. Why, if we turned in to the editor copy like that here at the paper, about six reporters would be in the market for rainmaker jobs, or whatever was vacant.

* * *

I think the size type used in The Form has something to do with the general confusion—its size is that usually brought out for use in the parts of insurance policies and leases which people are always cautioned to read and don't until something unfortunate happened. Right now, I'm working over it with a microscope left over from a high school biology course.

* * *

What I most object to is that dishonest feeling I have even before I chew the pencil lead sharp enough. Here I am, trying to make an honest return, to the best of my fundamental mathematics, and I have the feeling the government expects me to try something funny.

* * *

But you have to try, or go to jail. One thing further, I would like to know about this Form 1040. Who on earth got the other 1039 Forms?

* * *

"Heave to, Girls!" "We need about 100 feet more of hose." "There's too much play in that line." "Pump it faster." "Give us more pressure". . . These and even more colorful quotations might have been heard for the listening Monday night when the Ladies Auxiliary of the Volunteer Fire Fighters did a work-out with the fire truck.

* * *

No cupidity stood in the way of these women, who are members of a pumper's team, soon to compete in Hamlin with fierce lady fire fighters from Merkel, Colorado City, Roby, Rotan, and other bailiwicks. A few spring dresses may have got wet and a few coiffures might have needed a re-setting before bedtime, but the girls proved that, minus men, Snyder fires would be taken care of!

* * *

The original object of the auxiliary is to aid and abet the firemen in every way the women do—baskets for needy families, good covered dish suppers every month—but hooking up the hose and playing it over a burning building would not be out of line with their talents either. According to MRS. JIM SULLINGER, "We have been winning pumper team at the last two conventions, and expect to whip them this time. Snyder has never had to call on us, but just think if all the volunteer fighters happened to be out of town or busy. THEN, you might not think it so funny, and I'll bet you'd be glad we know how to douse a fire good!". . . I could not but agree with her.

Small Hats Preferred Here, But Some Try Wide Brims

The sailor hat, like the adventurous, carefree sailor himself, is a national institution and will, apparently always be with us. In the days of Carrie Nation, the girls were tying their floppy sailors with a couple of roses tucked for effect just at the knot of their hairdo. Today, it may be a bit more modern version, but it is still the sailor.

Mrs. Judy Brown, millinery saleswoman at Dunlap's, maintains sailors will be even more popular this year then ever before, the petipurl hat with the back trim ribbons flying ,a sure seller. Hats at Dunlap's range in price from $3.98 to $17.50. The smaller sailors are most popular, but the large hats find buyers, too, even with that downwind off the Plains. Colors leading out for sailors are black and navy. Next come the purple family, lilacs and pinks.

Mrs. Brown, who just returned from Dallas, says that hats are going to be more popular this year than ever before, and the way it looks, a woman will not be fully dressed without a hat.

PREFER SMALL HAT

Mrs. J. A. Boltz, Miss Bertie Strainger, and Mrs. Frank Sentell, of McDonald's think that really to be dressed up a person must year a hat. Their most popular hat is also the small hat, and navy is their leading color. Their hats range from $3.95 to $15. They also believe women should have the inexpensive hats to match their dresses. The store, they said, has hats of all prices, including "darling' children's hats. The flowers with back trim are very smart this year.

Mrs. H. D. Jones, 2312 Thirty-first Street, described her new pink hat as a small pink straw, with iridescent pink, mixed with a little orchid and blue taffeta, around the brim. Pink roses are around the crown, and it is covered with a pink veil. It is a small off-the-face hat.

Mrs. Ella Cooper, 3007 Avenue S, has chosen her important spring bonnet. She has a sailor in toast shade, trimmed with dark green velvet, green veiling. Mrs. Cooper, just returned from California, reports that larger hats are the rage on the West Coast. She is a hat lover, always has been since girlhood, and believes a truly well-dressed woman would never appear in anything like a formal public gathering without her chapeau neatly pinned on.

Mrs. Sam Williams, who speaks with the authority of being named a best-dressed woman in Snyder in 1950, is all for smaller hats. Some of her favorites have been the larger models, but a small, smart slip of a hat in black, white, or navy is sure to appeal to Mrs. Williams.

STUDY LONG

Mrs. Robert Guthrie, 2411 Thirtieth Street, is very fond of hats and prefers large hats. She thinks one should have several hats, but they should all blend and be in good taste. She also thinks a woman should look long in a mirror before choosing a hat.

For those with sewing ability who want different styles, it is advisable to make their own hats. First, one should get a hat form at the variety store and cover the top of the form with flowers and ribbon. Then put a ribbon or a band on the hat to hold it on or a veiling. This is a very inexpensive way to have several different hats.

If the hat is towering or feathery so that it will obstruct someone's view in the movie, church, or elsewhere, be sure to take it off when you seat yourself. This is proper, and ladylike!

Miss Marjo deMontell and Miss Jean deMontell, both of Ozona, Texas, have returned following a visit with their aunt, Mrs. R. L. Gray, and their grandmother, Mrs. T. E. Ellison, 3300 Avenue U.

Many Nurses Request Hadacol

HADACOL Helps Folks Suffering Deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron

Registered nurses, in increasing numbers, are showing a keen interest in HADACOL and in the results that are being secured with this great modern formula. Requests have been received from many of these nurses for professional samples of HADACOL and many of them indicated that they recommend the HADACOL formula to their patients. For example, Mrs. Kathleen C. Marquess, a registered nurse, who lives at 519 West 2nd St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says this about HADACOL:

Mrs. Marquess

"Your HADACOL has already improved my appetite, and I am sure I'll regain my fifteen pounds soon. Those patients to whom I passed on your professional samples are all continuing to take HADACOL and most of them are now trying it in the family size bottle. All have been helped. Some are much, much better from an emotional standpoint. I saw one yesterday sitting on the porch of the next-door neighbor, chatting and smiling. She had only been able to walk around in the house. Just imagine that — after only three bottles of HADACOL."

Mrs. Marquess and her patients, whom HADACOL has helped, were suffering deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Hugging, Stunts, and Comedy Couldn't Rob Men of Victory

The boys won by two points, but a crowded stadium got its money's worth from one of the most comical basketball games played here this season on Friday night.

Hazel Walker and her Arkansas Travelers matched the fast local cage stars basket for basket and hug for hug until the last quarter of the game.

A mad scoring splurge by Ernest Kinney, who made 23 points for the local boys, was too much for the girls, but they took it like ladies.

FOR UNDER DOG

The girls had the sympathy of the audience all the way, and even stood a wonderful chance of favorable treatment by the referees after one of them planted a prolonged kiss on the top of his balding head.

Asked why Margie Arends, the Chicago model on the girls team kissed him on top of his head instead of a more popular kissing spot, he said, "She was holding me so tight I couldn't raise my head."

There was plenty of excitement for the spectators all during the game.

Near the end when the Travelers were trailing by four points, they had seven girls on the court. passed to the officials who passed the ball on to a girl, and the local boys even passed to the girls in an attempt to let them tie the score before the final buzzer sounded.

All the theatrics were not pulled off by the girls, however. The boys did some plain and fancy ball playing on their own—between hugs.

Kinney's spectacular shots from all over the court seemed to always ring the scereboard. and Bob McGlasson, Vern McGrew, Max Coffee, Grant Teaff, and a number of other local boys played ball as if they were themselves professionals.

SCORE 61 - 59

The score at the end of the game was 61 for the boys, 59 for the girls.

The half - time free throw duel between Miss Walker and Kinney came out in favor of the girls. Kinney won the standing free throw contest, but was far outdistanced in the kneeling and sitting sessions.

Hazel Walker led scoring for the girls with 14 points. All of her shots were of a spectacular nature. The girls were closely, very closely, guarded under the goal, so that the shots had to be long to be made at all. Miss Walker came through with some beauties to the enthusiastic approval of the more than 750 speectators.

Phyllis White scored 12 points to be second on the girls side. She is a national champion, and proved that her ability on the court was just as praiseworthy as her blonde good looks.

Another blonde beauty, Georgia "Moon" Mullins scored seven points. Pat Johnson scored eleven, Dorothy Jones scored six, and Peggy Dean and model Margie Arends each scored four points.

Margie was the attractive girl who planted the lipstick on the bald pate of one of the officials, and did other things which the crowd liked.

Gate receipts had not been totaled Saturday, but a preliminary count showed that more than $425 had been taken in for the sponsoring DeMolay chapter and for the Travelers.

Scoring on the boys side of the ledger was, of course, led by the hot flash from Oklahoma Aggieland, Ernest Kinney, who coaches high school basketball here to while away the time.

But there was some other exceptionally good playing on the team composed of hurriedly gathered local cage talent.

One of the night's most spectacular shots was executed by Bob McGlasson. He first shot the ball twice from under the goal, but was smothered by the girls and neither of the shots counted. Then he got the ball again, started away from the goal, turned and pitched the ball from down near the floor which went through the hoop.

Scoring for the boys Pinky Wergerson made six points, McGlasson four, Vern McGrew six, Max Coffee 12, Robert Minton four, and Autry and Howard each made two points.

Built in Texas . . . and helping build Texas

Ford is the only Automobile Manufacturer Building Cars and Trucks in Texas

ALL THE FORDS made are not built in Detroit. There are plenty of them built right here in Texas—last year over 128 million dollars worth of cars, trucks, parts and products were made at Ford's Dallas Assembly Plant. What's more, 1,722 Texans put them together or followed through with their consignment to dealers in the Dallas, Houston, Oklahoma City and New Orleans Sales Districts.

The folks who work in Ford's Dallas Assembly Plant and District Sales Offices earn over $7,000,000 every year. They spend it mostly in Texas. Texas benefits from Ford in other ways, too. For example: during 1950 Ford bought over $1,000,000's worth of material and supplies from Texas merchants and manufacturers and paid over $7,500,000 for incoming and outgoing transportation. Then, too, there is a total of over $148,000 paid by Ford in local and State taxes.

Yes, Texas is building a lot of cars and trucks for Ford . . . and in the process Ford is helping to build Texas, too!

Governor-for-a-DayBullock Signs New Scurry Court Bill

Sen. Pat Bullock of Colorado City tried out the governor's chair in Austin yesterday, serving as governor for a day while both Gov. Allan Shivers and Lieut. Gov. Ben Ramsey were out of the state.

His fellow senators and friends from back home commemorated the occasion with the traditional dinner honoring both Bullock and Mrs. Bullock, and presented them with fancy riding equipment and a silver service.

DISTRICT COURT

As governor pro tem, Bullock's first official act was the signing of the bill to create an emergency six-year district court for Scurry and Borden Counties. The bill had already been passed by the House and Senate, and needed only the governor's signature to make it final. Governor Shivers is to appoint a judge and attorney for the new 132nd district upon his return to the state.

Among the guests at the reception and dinner from this area were three of Bullock's brothers, County Judge Sam Bullock of Colorado City, J. H. Bullock of Fort Worth and A. V. Bullock of Dallas, as well as the Bullock s daughter, Mrs. Bob Pate of Colorado City, and her son and daughter. There were an estimated 100 out-of-town guests in addition to the senators and their wives.

Homer Leonard, former speaker of the house, served as toastmaster and gave Bullock the usual hazing before lauding his work during six sessions in the legislature. Senator Ashle, of Llano presented Bullock with a saddle sent by his friends from the Colorado City area, who also sent the silver service for Mrs. Bullock. Friends from Abilene sent Bullock white cowboy chaps. Fellow senators sent him two dozen red roses.

BULLOCK'S TALK

In his brief address, Bullock described the legislature this year as the hardest working he had seen in six terms of service. Explaining his views on taxation, he commented that the legislature usually "does what the people want."

"If the people cooperate, no new taxes will be needed," he said "For example, I will get a telegram from a citizen insisting that no new tax bill be enacted. The next day the same citizen will urge me to support a big money spending measure. The two requests cannot be reconciled."

Asked if he liked his new job as governor well enough to run for the office, Bullock grinned and said he wouldn't say about that but that he was enjoying it "Especially th $33.33 a day." That is the governor's salary, which is also paid to acting governors.

Snyder residents present when Bullock signed the new district court bill included Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sentell, Jack Kennedy and B. F. Thorpe. Many other Scurry County residents were among the guests at the dinner and reception.

Martin's Is Watch Contest Headquarters

The Mido Watch Co. is sponsoring a nation - wide contest which will prove profitable to good guessers.

Martin's Jewelry on the south side of the square is the authorized dealer in Snyder for this brand of watch, and they have contest entry blanks.

Entry in the contest is simple, but winning it is something else.

The contest blanks say that Mido watches are tested in water pressure equivalent to a depth of 104 feet. Water pressure increases tremendously as the depth increases, yet Mido watches have withstood much greater pressure than that at 104 feet deep.

All those who enter the contest have to do is guess the depth in water at which Mido watches will stop due to the pressure. There is space on the blank for estimates down to the quarter of an inch. This makes it easier to be more exact.

It costs nothing to enter, nor is it required to purchase something before entering. All that is required is for the entrant to go to Martin's and fill in his guess on the blank. Martin's will furnish the stamp and send in the blank.

The contest closes March 31 and prizes will be mailed out on April 20. First prize is a $300 watch second prize is a $125 watch, and third prize is a $71.50 watch.

All in a Year's Work

MUCH HAS BEEN DONE IN 1950 TO BUILD A STRONGER, BETTER TELEPHONE SYSTEM IN TEXAS

Telephone Installers Were Busy... connecting 357,650 telephones during the year, an average of one every 57 seconds. Back of this activity was a rapidly growing telephone system. Fifty-three new buildings were completed or started . . . enough dial and switchboard equipment was installed to serve 146,000 telephones . . . 131,000 telephone poles were placed . . . more than 1,164,000 miles of wire were added to the system.

Growth Is Expensive... Gross construction cost in Texas last year was $82,623,000. That's an average of $84.31 for each of the 980,000 people in all walks of life whose help we must have to pay for expansion and improvement of telephone service—the people who have invested their savings in the telephone system.

☆ ☆ ☆

WE CAN'T STOP GROWING NOW

The need for telephone growth is far from satisfied. It is imperative that we meet fully the service demands for defense, both military and industrial. Now, as never before, improved telephone company earnings are important—for only adequate earnings can attract new investment money needed to expand the telephone system.

Short Supply In Hardware Is Foreseen

There are still only rumors about coming shortages in hardware lines, according to George Stephens, owner of Stephens Hardware and Supply.

"As for shortages in any line right now," he said, "I have found that I am able to get all I'm able to pay for."

Stephens doesn't believe that this situation can continue much longer, however. Government restrictions and increased defense needs are bound to take their toll on many hardware items, he said. Replacement of present stock will become increasingly difficult, he believes.

One item Stephens is sure will be cut is garden hose. His present stock of two-braid hose in different colors will be the last he will be able to get, he said. After it is gone, he will only be able to get a cheap one-braid hose in black.

Also suppliers have not assured him of any more shipments of steel lawn chairs or power lawn mowers. He believes, however, that when present stocks are sold replacements in some items will continue to be manufactured with substitute materials. Chromium will be left off many articles, and instead of porcelain, only paint will be used.

The 10 per cent excise tax on home freezers hasn't affected sales much, he said. Manufacturers have gotten around the tax by selling freezers for commercial use, which doesn't carry the tax.

Stephens said that he has a good stock of fishing equipment and more coming.

Also Police Seek Woman In Theft Of Unmounted Diamonds

EL PASO, Feb. 28. (AP) — A jewelry store reported the theft of between $10,000 and $15,000 in unmounted diamonds.

Harry Shain, owner of the store, said the diamonds were in a leather case behind a counter, the exact number unknown.

Police are looking for a middle-aged woman who came to the store about 10 o'clock in the morning and asked to see an unmounted stone for her ring. A salesman pulled out the leather case and showed her the diamond.

The woman said she liked the stone but would have to talk to her husband first.

The salesman said he returned the leather case to its drawer behind the counter and did not miss it until early afternoon.

Russians Say Army Is Small

MOSCOW, Feb. 26. (AP)—Russia told Britain during the week end that she has less than half as many men under arms as the western Big Three. She added that she was ready to negotiate her differences with the British.

She made these statements in a note, published yesterday, repeating previous Soviet charges that the Attlee government "crudely tramples" on the 1942 Anglo-Soviet alliance by joining the Atlantic coalition "aimed directly against the USSR."

The note declared that the forces of Britain, France and the United States total more than five million men and that Soviet forces are less than half that size.

FAR BELOW ESTIMATE

Observers here regarded as significant this indication that Russia counts only about 2,500,000 men in her Navy, Air Force and Army. It is the nearest she has come in several years to offering any figures on her military strength.

It was also noted that the figure fell far below estimates of the size of the Soviet Army alone that have been published in the west.

The U. S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Feb. 14 estimated the Soviet Army at four million men and said Russia's European satellites had another million, as opposed to a total of 4,300,000 for all 12 Atlantic pact nations. Red China's Army is generally placed at three million.

Russia went on to say that she had, through systematic demobilization since the war, cut her armed forces to where they stood in 1939.

SEE RED CLAIM

Observers concluded from this that if the proposed Big-Four foreign ministers conference is held to discuss existing armament levels, as suggested by the west, Russia will present figures to maintain that the western powers, not she, are preparing for aggression.

The latest Soviet note was in reply to Britain's communication of Feb. 17 answering the Russian charge that Britain is violating the British-Soviet Alliance of 1942.

Repeating the charge, Russia declared Britain "has fallen under the subjugation of the United States" and is being turned into an American military base by Washington's financial "handouts."

4 Quizzed In Strange Story Of Murder In Ozark Mountains

(By The Associated Press)

— Authorities today attempted to piece together the strange stories of three persons charged with murder in a bizarre Ozarks hills slaying.

The three are Mrs. Ruby Cobb, 25, Mrs. Orma Clark, 32, and Clarence Wood, 65.

They are accused in the death of Mrs. Cobb's husband, Charles, a 65-year-old farmer whose badly beaten body was found in his barn last Tuesday.

The Cobbs and Clarks are neighbors. Wood is the Clark's hired man.

Prosecuting Atty. H. F. Owens Jr., said this is the story Mrs. Cobb told:

Mrs. Clark approached her at church services, said Cobb had turned against her (Mrs. Cobb) and that for $800 she could have him killed. Mrs. Cobb didn't have the $800 and agreed to mortgage three of her husband's cows in lieu of the money. The mortgage was executed and Wood carried out the slaying.

Here is the story Mrs. Clark told according to Sheriff Glenn Hendrix:

She confirmed the mortgage arrangement and named her own husband, Arthur, as being involved.

She said Mrs. Cobb wanted her husband killed because she was in love with Wood's 72-year-old brother, Clifford, who had lived at the Cobb home several months.

Clarence Wood made this statement:

He was innocent and was "drunk in a Forsyth, Mo., hotel at the time of the killing."

The sheriff said first-degree murder charges also would be filed against Arthur Clark, who was arrested early today.

The two women and Wood were arrested Saturday. The families live in hill country about 50 miles southeast of Soringfield near the Arkansas border.

The prosecutor said Mrs. Cobb's statement also said:

The slain farmer was to have been an important witness in a civil suit involving ownership of a farm ness in an attempted rape charge case against a neighbor Orville Meredith. The charge was filed on Mrs. Cobb's complaint.

No water was present. Gas-oil ratio was 604-1.

Top of pay is 10,110 feet and total depth is 11,000 feet. Five and one-half inch casing is cemented at 10,789 feet. Production is coming through perforations at 10,110-10,128 feet after being acidized with 500 gallons.

Flowing Oil From Wolfcamp in Irion

One mile east of the discovery of the two-well Tankersley - Strawn field in Southeast Irion County, George and Frank Frankel of Houston and Shell Oil Co. No. 1 J. I. Rawls developed flowing oil from the Wolfcamp of a drillstem test 5,415 to 5,515 feet and is now drilling below 5,535 feet.

The wildcat flowed naturally 85.4 barrels of oil in two hours.

On the test, gas surfaced in three and one-half minutes and mud in 18½ minutes. Oil followed in 22 minutes.

The prospector was flowing steadily at the rate of 48 barrels of oil per hour when the tool was closed.

Operator was to drill to 5,565 feet and take electric log surveys after which it was to be decided whether to run casing for completion from pay already drilled, or continue on to test the Strawn.

Location is one mile east of Shell No. 2 Tankersley, opener of the Tankersley-Strawn field. Exact location is at the center of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 10, GC&SF survey.

Electric Firm Marks Second Anniversary

Two years ago C. W. Howell, with considerable uneasiness about the future, set up an electric service business here.

There were only two or three rigs working in Scurry County then, and Howell believed he was taking a big chance in establishing a business here.

Thursday he observes his second anniversary—and he's here to stay.

Mrs. Howell was a former Snyder resident, however, and they were at home here from the start. Since opening the business March 1, 1949, Howell has become firmly established and has developed a reputation for good commercial and domestic electrical service.

Howell explains that while he could have expanded his business a great deal more than he has, he chose to employ a smaller number of good dependable men full time and not take on great numbers of unknown men just to handle any particular job.

This system has paid off by giving him a steady flow of business and a steady working force, he said. He has enough men to handle any commercial or domestic job that could arise in Snyder and can be assured that it will be done right. He is only restricted in the number of these jobs he can handle at once.

Right now he is handling two commercial wiring jobs, 100 houses in one development project and 78 houses in another project.

Howell Electric has never grown so big that trouble calls weren't given special attention. This kind of service had a great deal to do with building the business, Howell said, and he intends to continue to give trouble calls top priority.

Another service Howell specializes in is wiring houses that are being remodeled or changed in some way. When additions are made on houses, it usually calls for changes in the wiring. Howell is well equipped to do the job.

10th Corps Since January Has Inflicted 64,000 Casualties

U. S. 10TH CORPS HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Feb. 26. (AP)—Lt. Gen. Edward M. Almond declared today his 10th Corps troops had killed or wounded 64,000 Reds on the Central Korean front since Jan. 4.

The U. S. Eighth Army, of which the 10th Corps is a third component, has announced an estimated 133,760 Red casualties inflicted through ground action in the period Jan. 17-Feb. 20.

Almond said the Communist retreat before the 10th Corps advance had become a "virtual rout."

TWO CORPS ROUTED

The North Korean Third and Fifth Corps, he told a news conference, were routed in the fighting north of Chechon and "won't be worth a damn for days and possibly weeks. Furthermore we've destroyed their equipment, which is harder for them to replace than men."

Before that, he continued, his troops ruined the combat effectiveness of two North Korean corps and destroyed the best part of two Chinese divisions at Chipyong.

Almond estimated his corps inflicted between 3,000 and 4,000 casualties on the Communists in the last five days.

(These figures greatly exceeded previous reports from the front and Eighth Army Headquarters. An official 10th Corps report two days ago claimed 466 casualties inflicted. Yesterday, there was little enemy contact as the corps advanced up to four miles into territory from which the Reds already had withdrawn.)

SOME REDS ESCAPED

Almond said large numbers of Reds managed to escape an Allied pincer on the Hoengsong-Pyongchang-Chechon triangle. What began as an orderly enemy withdrawal after the failure of the Red offensive on Chechon soon became one of disorder, he said, and "by now the enemy's action may be termed a virtual rout.

"We believe the Fourth Corps is out of food and ammunition and that the shiny new Third Corps—the hell pounded out of them—doesn't have many soldiers left."

Other 10th Corps officers said last night there had been "virtually no ground contact with Reds supposed to be in the area" since the current offensive jumped off Feb. 21.

They also said "stiff fighting may be in store within the next few days if the Communists halt where they are," north of the Pyinngchang-Hoensong road.

Three Killed Near Slaton

SLATON, Feb. 26. (AP) — A truck's trailer jack-knifed into a funeral procession in a blinding rain and three persons were killed and four hurt.

Killed yesterday near this South Plains Texas town were Irene Salaz, four; Desiderios Salaz, 37, her uncle; and Luis Salaz, 45, her great-uncle.

They were on their way to the funeral of Pedro Salaz, 101. All were his descendants.

After ambulances carried away the dead and injured, the procession continued here for services for Salaz.

A car had stopped to let the funeral procession pass. Following it in the blinding rain was the truck, a semi-trailer. When the first car stopped the trailer jack-knifed into the Salaz car behind the hearse.

Two Officers Held In Japan After Shooting Of Four With Pistols

ATAMI, Japan, Feb. 26. (AP)—Two U. S. Army officers, both veterans of the Korean war, were held for investigation in connection with the slaying of a Japanese and the wounding of three others today.

The Army said the two officers went berserk with .45 caliber pistols at a Japanese hotel.

Army authorities identified the officers as Capt. Robert W. Hessler, of Company D, 5th Cavalry Regiment; and Capt. Willard W. Wise of the Medical Holding Detachment, 8th Station Hospital.

Agents of the Army's Criminal Investigation Detachment are investigating.

Blind Snyder Couple Proud Of Being Completely Independent

Mr .and Mrs .Jack Green, both blind, are the operators of the concession stand in the lobby of the courthouse. They are shown here with their seeing-eye dogs. Green's dog is named Tesa, Mrs. Green's Roxie.—(Joe Dave Scott-photograph).

People who constantly forget where they have left something could take a lesson in memory from Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. Green. Both are blind, and must rely on memory to guide them in every activity.

Mr. and Mrs. Green now operate a concession stand in the lobby of the courthouse. They keep cold drinks, candy, gum, cigarettes, cigars, razor blades, aspirin and a variety of other items there, and can select the item called for with amazing rapidity.

WE'RE EXPERIENCED

Operating such a stand is not new to either of them. They moved here from Amarillo in Nov. 1949, and had run a similar stand in the courthouse there. Before they were married, slightly over three years ago, Mrs. Green had a concession stand in Sweetwater and had also worked in Lubbock. He had also operated a stand and a filling station in Lamesa.

When they first moved to Snyder Mr. and Mrs. Green operated a rooming house for men. The work was not hard, Mrs. Green said, but very confining. She enjoys being able to get out more now.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Green have German shepherd seeing - eye dogs. Hers is named Roxie, his Tesa. The dogs were trained at a special institution in Morristown, N.J.

Customers at the stand are very courteous, Mrs. Green said. Very few persons ever attempt to take merchandise without paying for it and in most cases children are the offenders. Regular customers generally give the correct change although both Mr. and Mrs. Green can recognize the denomination of a coin immediately by the size and weight. They keep their coins in compartments, and can return the customer's change in as many seconds as it takes to pick it up.

ENJOYS HOUSEWORK

Mrs. Green does all her own housework, including the washing, ironing and cooking. She said she actually enjoys it, although she may not be as systematic as some other housewives about having certain jobs for each day. Probably one of the major differences between their home and that of persons with normal vision is the convenient location of articles frequently used. These are kept where they are most easily located.

She cooks on a gas range with a Dutch oven, which has a timer and shuts off automatically when the cooking period is over. She also uses a pressure cooker. The only adjustment made on it is the filing of grooves at the five and ten pound pressure marks on the gauge. When the required pressure is reached the gauge makes a slight noise. The company which manufactures this cooker has even printed a cook book in braille because the pan is so widely used by blind persons.

Green is also active at the house. Wednesday afternoon he was away from the stand setting out fruit trees at their home, 2110 Twenty-seventh street. He also takes care of the lawn in the summer.

Snyder traffic still poses a problem in street crossing, Mrs. Green said. The dogs are commanded by either forward, right or left, but stop at every curb. They follow the traffic in crossing streets. Motorists going around the square, which is now actually round, often confuse the dogs by making right turns.

Mrs. Green said many people asked how the dogs were taught to recognize the colors in traffic signals. Actually, dogs are color blind and can distinguish only light from dark. Their training teaches them to follow the stream of traffic.

Mrs. Green said there are some people who do not realize that she and her husband are blind. The most humorous incident she recalls along that line, however, occurred with a deaf mute. He had picked up four cigars and gave her a 50-cent piece. She asked several times what the money was for and got no answer. Finally a passer-by who knew her stopped and explained that the man could not speak and told her how much change the man should have.

Mrs. Green has been blind since she was 11 years old. Mr. Green lost his sight about 14 years ago. However, both have lead active lives and are self - supporting.

Girl Scouts' Day Camp Is Planned Here

Plans for a Girl Scout day camp this summer were made at a meeting of the Girl Scout council Thursday night at the home of Mrs. John Hamblen, 2103 Thirty-seventh Street.

Hilton Lambert was named chairman of the day camp committee. The camp is to last a week, with each troop being scheduled to attend one day and one night.

An adult counselor, to be selected later, will direct camp activities. The counselor must be 21 years of age and must have worked with scouts for a year. She will be sent to a training school in San Antonio with her expenses paid by this council.

Miss Virginia Burgess of Abilene, area executive, met with the council to discuss plans. She recommended that the council set up a budget of $500. From this fund, money could be set aside for a building fund. Weldon Johnson, Mrs. Ben Pennington and Lambert were appointed to serve on the budget committee.

Council members voted to ask for space in the courthouse for a library. Fifty dollars was set aside for the library, which will be started with material furnished by the national headquarters. The library will furnish material for scout leaders to aid in planning programs.

It was also suggested that council members acquaint themselves with the national policies of scouting to co-ordinate work here with the overall principles of scouting.

All leaders were asked to attend the rehearsal for the International Thinking day program at 4 o'clock Monday in the high school auditorium. The program, in which all troops are to participate, will be held there at 7:30 Tuesday night.

Council members present were Mrs. C. W. Kenner, Mrs. Pennington, Bob Dupree, Mrs. Gene Best, Mrs. Charles C. Miller, Mrs. W.D Sims, Weldon Johnson, Lambert and Mrs Floyd Boston.

Furniture Store Has Closing; Owner Being Called Into the Army

Mathews Furniture Co. on the East Highway will be closed as soon as the present stock and merchandise can be sold, Charles Mathews, owner, said Saturday.

Twenty - year - old Mathews, one of Snyder's youngest business men, is to be drafted into the Army March 28.

Mathews opened the business here Aug. 15, 1949. He said that he has enjoyed the patronage of his many customers who have made his business successful.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mathews of Sweetwater.

"When I get out of the Army I hope to be able to return to Snyder and go back into the Furniture business again," he said.

Ben Thorpe, county attorney, owns the building in which Mathews Furniture Co. is located.

Sage & Sand Building To Be Repaired; Night Fire Guts Interior

Fire of undetermined origin early this morning gutted the Sage & Sand Restaurant on the East Highway.

Firemen believed the blaze started from a short in the wiring.

Damage to the inside of the building was heavy, but the fire was extinguished before the building was destroyed.

Herbert C. Ingram, owner of the Sage & Sand, purchased the business May 15, 1950 from W. W. Brooks. Brooks opened the restaurant March 11, 1950.

Much of the equipment and fixtures inside the Sage & Sand were destroyed, but some of it can be salvaged by cleaning away the heavy layer of smoke and soot.

William Stone, owner of the building, said the fire damage would be repaired and the building remodeled immediately. Extent of the damage was unofficially estimated at about $10,000.

Ingram will continue to operate the restaurant, Stone said.

They think the remodeling job will require about four weeks for completion.

Woman Gets Judgment Of $7,145 From Arthur Murray Dance Studio

DETROIT, Feb. 28. (AP) — A widow who broke an arm during a jitterbug lesson won a $7,145 judgment yesterday from the Arthur Murray studios of dancing.

A jury in circuit court awarded Mrs. Theresa Schnepf, 54, $3,500 damages and $3,645 for expenses and doctor bills.

Mrs. Schnepf testified she was dubious about jitterbugging but said an instructor insisted on her taking the final lesson of a dance course.

Her attorneys claimed the studio was negligent in permitting a woman of her age to jitterbug.

Mrs. Schnepf, a laundry worker at a hospital, was bitter about jitterbugging.

"Ye Gods!" she exclaimed, "congress ought to legislate it out of existence."

Bill Smith, son of Raymond Smith who lives eight miles east of Snyder, presented the grand champion hog, a Hampshire which had just previously been judged also as the winner of the middleweight division. The winning hog of the heavyweight class, too, was presented by Smith.

Smith again distinguished himself among the other contestants in the six-county show by presenting the champion pen-of-three hogs. These were then combined with seven other hogs presented by students of the Snyder chapter to win first place in the contest for the champion pen-of-ten. This contest was for 10 hogs from any one chapter or any one county.

Monnie Hedges, another youth from the Snyder chapter, placed third with his lamb in the fine wool class. The winner of this division was presented by Billy Mack Story, of Divide, and was selected from 80 sheep entered in the contest. Story's entry also won the grand champion lamb contest.

"I think Monnie did very well with his lamb winning third, considering that the first-place winner won the champion and also in view of so many in the contests," commented J. L. Browning, vocational agriculture teacher here.

So far, about 302 entries have been brought to the show by students from Scurry, Fisher, Stonewall, Mitchell, Nolan, and Kent Counties.

Many Are Charged With Liquor Violations, No Guilty Pleas

Sixty-nine charges of liquor law violations were filed in county court here Monday night and Tuesday against 21 persons accused either of possessing whiskey for sale or selling it to liquor control board officers.

CONTROL OFFICERS

The charges were filed after purchases of liquor were made on several occasions during the past two weeks by officers of the liquor control board and raids were made on a number of cafes and homes Monday night by officers of the sheriff's department.

Led by Homer Whisnand, deputy sheriff, the raids were made by three other deputies, L. E. Haynes, Charles Youngblood, and O. O. Devers, and six control board officers.

The raids made one of the largest concerted efforts to enforce liquor laws ever made here. Eighty cases against 20 persons were filed last July.

Several of those arrested Monday night were arraigned immediately before Edgar Taylor, county judge, but none pleaded guilty. Bonds were set for them at an average of $500 each and made returnable Friday when the cases were set for jury trial.

Bonds were approved late Tuesday for four of those pleading not guilty. They were Lemuel H. Hudson, 47, of 2404 Avenue R; Leon Camp, 47, owner of McGil's Cafe on the Lamesa highway; Dorn Phelps, 39 of the Hi-way Cafe three miles north of Snyder on U. S. Highway 84; and Oscar Howard Anderson, 38, of 2404 Avenue R.

Four charges of selling liquor were filed against Hudson, two charges of illegal liquor sale and one charge of illegal possession of whisky were filed against Camp, two charges of sale were filed on Phelps, and one charge of possession was filed against Anderson.

Four charges of unlawfully selling whisky were filed against Anderson's wife, Mrs. Doris Anderson. Camp's wife, who assists him in operating McGil's Cafe, was charged with illegal sale on two counts.

Seven charges of illegal whisky sale were filed against O. G. Grigsby, who was operating Cy's Hotel, 2407 Avenue R, and one charge was filed against Mrs. Francis Johnson, also of Cy's Hotel. Six charges of illegal sale were filed against William D. Lawhorn, operator of Aline's Foot-Long Hot Dog & Barbecue Stand on the Post Highway.

Three charges of sale were filed against Pete Davis, 28-year-old Snyder Negro. Four charges of illegal sale were filed against Mildred Cooper, 27, and one charge of selling whisky was filed against Ola Mae Webb, 29, both Snyder Negroes.

Chamber Fete Tickets Sell

Between 400 and 500 tickets have been sold locally for the Chamber of Commerce banquet and dance Friday, and approximately 400 invitations have been sent to out-of-town persons, C. T. McLaughlin, chairman of the banquet committee, and Harold Bennett, manager, said yesterday.

"We can expect that 50 per cent of the invitations sent out of town will be accepted," McLaughlin said, "and about 90 per cent of those will bring their wives with them, so we are assured of about 400 out-of-town guests at the affair."

Mrs. Georgia Neese Clark, United States treasurer, is the speaker for the occasion.

Dr. Harold G. Cooke, president of McMurry College, and Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president of Hardin-Simmons University, both of Abilene, have accepted invitations to attend the banquet, McLaughlin said.

A long list of other notables have accepted invitations to the banquet.

Bennett estimated that more than 500 Snyder residens would attend the banquet, which will be held Friday night in the high school gymnasium.

All who plan to buy tickets but have not done so are urged to make their purchases now, Bennett said. The only indication of how many guests will be present is in ticket sales, and the caterers must know how many persons to buy food for.
