Czechs To Talk Slow Withdrawal Of Soviet Troops

By JAMES O. JACKSON
PRAGUE (UPI)—Czechoslovak Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek today summoned the full central committee of the nation's Communist party to discuss the agonizingly slow withdrawal of Soviet troops from the capital.

Dubcek, looking weary after days of leading his country back to Soviet-style "normalization" on time borrowed from the Kremlin, was followed to the central committee building by a carload of men who apparently were bodyguards. Their nationality could not be determined.

A small group of about 40 well-wishers awaited him at the doors and set Dubcek to smiling with a nosegay of flowers as he brushed past. He was accompanied by National Assembly President Josef Smrkovsky and presidium member Gustavo Husak. Only Thursday, Husak publicly promised the increasingly restive Czechoslovaks their leaders would never consent to a return of repressive Stalinism.

These comments were addressed to a nation settling markedly into "a mood of panic" and gloom over rumored purges, press censorship and the seemingly endless occupation.

Arabs Threaten Aid To Jordan If Israel Attacks

Ev Is Philosophic About Threats Of Assassination

WASHINGTON (UPI)—If death at the hands of an assassin was fated, Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen told law officers, "I hope he waits 'till the frost comes and the barn swallows are gone."

Thus did the 74-year-old orator nonpareil of the Senate brush off intermittent threats on his life over the last six months.

Dirksen lightly related the circumstances to news men Thursday, revealing that he has been constantly under guard by the Secret Service, FBI and local policemen since the threats began last spring.

Dirksen, who adopted a fright-wig hairstyle long before the hippies and once wanted to be an actor, described three specific death threats reported by authorities, the last on Aug. 24, two days before the Democratic convention opened.

"I was supposed to have been assassinated in my office," he said.

He said police detectives, the sheriff's force, the FBI and Secret Service all guarded him and arranged to have him met by other officers when he arrived in Chicago the following Monday.

The guards followed him throughout the week during a series of Illinois campaign appearances, Dirksen said, and at one point he asked them to lay off when he was scheduled (See DIRKSEN, Page 3)

Alex Schneider Rites Saturday

Alex Schneider Jr., 85, of 521 Doucette, who first came to the Texas Panhandle with his parents in 1886, died in Worley Hospital at 5 p.m. Thursday.

Mr. Schneider, a veteran hotel man with his father from the early days of Pampa, was at one time president of the Texas Hotel Association. He entered the hospital for treatment at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. Saturday in Duenkel Funeral Home Chapel with burial in Fairview Cemetery. Rev. W. Martin Hager, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, will officiate.

Survivors are his wife Lottie; Mrs. Margaret McIntyre of a son, Paul of Houston; a sister, Pampa and one grandchild. Pallbearers will be Gene Sidwell, Bob Sidwell, Berton Doucette, Albert Doucette, Bud Doucette and Tracy Carey.

The Schneider's, originally came to Kentucky from Switzerland.

After Mr. Schneider was born in Frankfort, Ky., June 29, 1883, the family came to the Texas Panhandle from Kansas 16 years (See RITES, Page 3)

Syrian Troops Said Already In Nation

By United Press International
Arab governments threatened today to rush "urgent aid" to Jordan in case Israel decides to launch raids across the Jordan River in retaliation for what Israelis insist were Arab bombings in Tel Aviv.

Some Arab newspapers said three battalions of Syrian troops had already arrived in Jordan to form "a unified defense line" against Israel.

There was no official confirmation in Amman of the troop arrival.

In Tel Aviv, police said they had rounded up a 21-man Arab guerrilla gang as suspects in the bombings at Tel Aviv's central bus station. Police said they questioned more than 350 persons and caught three of the suspects today at the Allenby Bridge over the Jordan River.

The Cairo newspaper Al-Ahram said "urgent aid will be rushed to Jordan to strengthen the Jordanian front in line with resolutions taken by the Arab foreign ministers."

The Arab ministers, meeting in Cairo, urged their governments to help Jordan and support Arab commando raids into Israeli-held Arab territories.

Three Israeli soldiers were wounded today when a command car was struck by a bazooka and light arms fire in the northern Beisan Valley, an Israeli spokesman said.

Al-Ahram failed to say whether the military aid planned meant troops or military equipment or which Arab nations would send it.

Terrorists planted three bombs in waste baskets in the area of the bus station in the heart of Tel Aviv Tuesday. The blasts killed one person and injured 49 others. Al-Ahram warned that the explosions were "only a beginning."

"Any future attempts by the enemy to escalate its aggression will be met with an escalation of Arab resistance," the newspaper said.

The Arabs have contended the Israelis bombed and strafed a housing compound for families of slain Arab soldiers in a raid on Jordanian territory several weeks ago.

At Rams-Colts Game Band Will Play For Nationwide Audience

The Pampa High School Harvester Band and a 50-member concert choir have accepted an invitation to perform during the halftime of the Los Angeles Rams-Baltimore Colts football game Dec. 15 in Los Angeles.

The invitation was discussed at a Band Boosters' meeting last night. Harris Brinson, PHS band director, and Dr. James R. Malone, school superintendent, confirmed that the band and a 50-member concert choir would attend the game.

The two groups will entertain with a 10-minute halftime show relating to the Christmas season.

The show will be performed in the Los Angeles Coliseum before a live audience of 110,000 persons and 10 million television viewers nationally. It will be seen locally on KFDD-TV, channel 10 CBS station.

John T. Boudreau, director of entertainment for the Los Angeles Rams, in a letter to Dr. Malone, said the invitation to the Harvester Band was "one of the outstanding invitations to be issued by the Rams."

About 185 persons in all will attend the game for the halftime show. This includes 120 band members, the 50 choir members and 12 sponsors. The choir members were asked to perform by Brinson. Billy N. Davis is the choir director.

A similar trip was discussed last year but was canceled because a previously scheduled group could not be canceled out by Boudreau.

Boudreau had asked the band to appear Aug. 17 this year for the Dallas Cowboys-Rams exhibition game. Brinson refused the invitation because the game was not televised nationally and because summer activities made the arrangements difficult.

In addition, the choir would not have been able to attend. Brinson said this date (Dec. 15) was the best coverage date for the band, excepting the National and American Football League's Super Bowl game in January.

The group will miss four school days at the most. The group will go by plane or (See BAND, Page 3)

Blast Rocks Saigon

By JACK WALSH

SAIGON (UPI)—A satchel charge full of TNT exploded tonight in the predominantly Chinese Cholon sector of Saigon, rocking the entire capital with an enormous blast and reviving fears of a Viet Cong attack on the city.

U.S. military police said at least eight persons were killed and that the death toll probably would go to 13. Other victims were feared buried by a 40-foot pile of rubble raised by the destruction of two

On the infiltration routes to Saigon U.S. soldiers flying into battle by helicopter killed 114 Viet Cong guerrillas and captured 134 suspects Thursday in two sharp clashes that emphasized the mounting guerrilla pressure against Saigon.

U.S. military police said at least six bodies were found in the Cholon explosion which destroyed two buildings and shattered a wide area of shops in the area known as Saigon's twin city. They said there were at least 13 confirmed dead.

Five persons were pulled from the wreckage alive and UPI correspondent Raymond Wilkinson reported from the scene that 10 to 15 persons were rushed to hospitals, seriously wounded. More persons were trapped in the rubble and U.S. and South Vietnamese teams worked to free them.

Authorities said the satchel charge apparently was exploded by Viet Cong terrorists. Military Police Lt. Danny Winfield

'Harder Line' Shaping In US Policy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A harder line in response to Russia's military moves in Europe appeared to be shaping up today in the U.S. government.

Defense Secretary Clark M. Clifford set the tone with the declaration plans would move ahead on antiballistic missile development, substantial U.S. military forces would remain in Europe. NATO strategy would be thoroughly reviewed and a general policy of dealing with the Russians from a position of strength would be followed.

The administration meantime cancelled two cooperative projects with Russia, the scheduled visit of the University of Minnesota Symphonic Band to the Soviet Union and a Ballot Application Period Starts Lived In Texas Less Than A Year? You Can Vote Nov. 5!

Voters who have lived in Texas for less than a year must apply for a ballot during a 15-day period beginning today, if they want to vote for President and Vice President in the coming general election, Charlie Thut, county clerk announced today.

Applicants must appear in person at the county clerk's office. This will be the first time that persons having less than a year's residence in the state will be able to vote in a presidential election, Thut said.

A law passed by the Texas Legislature last year permits a voter who moved to Texas from some other state less than a year before general election day to vote for President and Vice President, but for no other offices, if he will have lived in Texas at least 60 days on election day.

In order to vote, he must possess all the qualifications required of electors under Texas law except the ordinary residence requirements, and it must also be shown that he was either a qualified elector in another state immediately before his removal to Texas or that he would have been eligible to vote in the presidential election in the state where he formerly lived if he had remained there until election day.

Thut said that a person who had been issued a voter registration certificate, voter identification card, or other document showing that he was a registered voter in the state from which he moved should take this document with him when he goes to the county clerk's office to apply for a ballot.

If he does not have written proof of his registration, it will be necessary for the clerk to obtain verification of his voting eligibility from the voter registrar or other appropriate election official at the place of his former residence before he will be accepted for voting.

Applications must be filed with the clerk by 5 o'clock (closing hour) on Friday, Sept. 20. However, the voters will not actually vote for President and Vice President, but for no other offices, if he will have lived in Texas at least 60 days on election day.

In order to vote, he must possess all the qualifications required of electors under Texas law except the ordinary residence requirements, and it must also be shown that he was either a qualified elector in another state immediately before his removal to Texas or that he would have been eligible to vote in the presidential election in the state where he formerly lived if he had remained there until election day.

Thut said that a person who had been issued a voter registration certificate, voter identification card, or other document showing that he was a registered voter in the state from which he moved should take this document with him when he goes to the county clerk's office to apply for a ballot.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Some of the matchups of series in the new television season will be fascinating to watch in their indications of the changing tastes of the American viewing public.

Above all, there will be interest in the head-on competition of these series reveals that the basic, grassroots tastes of the home audience have hardly changed at all—as opposed to contemporary upheavals in other media.

For example, on Tuesday nights, "Julia," the NBC-TV situation comedy that stars a Negro actress—Diahann Carroll—will be going up against a very tough opponent: CBS-TV's Red Skelton, with his wide-spread grassroots appeal.

"Julia" will also have as a competitor ABC-TV's spy series, "It Takes a Thief," with Robert Wagner.

On the same night, CBS-TV's new Doris Day situation comedy—which gives every indication it is of the standard type designed to appeal to everybody—will be facing the modern themed "N.Y.P.D." (New York Police Department) on ABC-TV. Miss Day will also have to fend off the considerable popularity of another competitor, NBC-TV's Tuesday night movie.

AEC-TV's "The Outcasts," which stars Don Murray and Otis Young as, respectively, a white and a black cowboy will have a struggle on its hands against two CBS-TV situation comedies that also have a very basic old-fashioned appeal. One is "Mayberry R.F.D.," which is in the mold of the Andy Griffith series, and the other is "Family Affair."

In addition, "The Outcasts" is running up against NBC-TV's Monday night movie.

CBS-TV's Smothers Brothers series showed last season that a weekly program with contemporary flavor can do well against the established staples. It more than held its ground against "Bonanza" and the Sunday night movie.

Then NBC-TV's "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-in" also proved that a modern-oriented series can be a commercial success. Against CBS-TV's Lucille Ball and GUNSMOKE, "It was a surprise ratings-getter.

In the new season, "Laugh-in" will not only be up against Miss Ball and "Gunsmoke" again, but will take on ABC-TV's "Peyton Place," which is introducing a Negro family as regulars in its cast.

Another interesting matchup will occur Thursday nights, and will involve AEC-TV's new series, "The Uglyest Girl in Town," a London-filmed comedy about a fellow who somehow becomes known as a model with a female name. Against this wild premise will be CBS-TV's "Blondie," based on the comic strip, and NBC-TV's reliable ratings-getter, "Daniel Boone."

WHAT IS A MIRACLE?
 The shelves and drawers of a prescription laboratory are filled with "miracles." They come in many sizes, shapes, and forms—liquids, solids, gels, pills, tablets, capsules, etc. Most people refer to them as drugs or medicines but in fact when they help someone to get well or to feel better, then they are in reality — "Miracles."

IS EVERY MEDICINE A MIRACLE?
 Not too long ago only a very special few medicines were called "miracle drugs." But today with highly specific actions and controlled potencies, almost every new drug can and usually does perform wondrously.

WE STOCK NEW MIRACLES QUICKLY.
 A new medicine, once approved for use, is sent to the pharmacy by the manufacturer. It is studied as to dosages, actions, possible uses and is then stored to maintain maximum potency. We, as pharmacists, have to know all about our "miracle workers," so that we can answer questions asked by physician.

SEEK THE ADVICE OF A PHYSICIAN.
 Miracles looked up in drawers or on shelves do not do any good. It is up to your physician—for he can tell best which will help you most. Don't rely on home remedies when there are miracles available.

Carter To Head Brown Campaign In Gray County

Dick Brown, candidate for United States congressman from the 18th Congressional District, has announced the appointment of Frank M. "Buster" Carter Jr. of Pampa as coordinator of the Dick Brown for Congress campaign in Gray County.

"I feel that the 18th has been virtually without representation during the past two years," Carter said, "and I welcome this opportunity to help regain a positive voice for the Panhandle. . . a job which I know Dick Brown can and will do when he is elected to Congress."

Brown, a life-long resident of the Panhandle, is general manager of Farmers Supply Company of Hartley, and owns and operates a farm in the Hartley area.

"I have been advised that Dick will be visiting in Gray County within the next few weeks," Carter said today. "I know that all of his many friends will be on hand to give him a warm welcome, and that those who have not yet met him will want to get acquainted with this extraordinary man. You will be hearing from me, and I want to invite you at this time to contact me for information, cards, and bumper stickers."

"I consider Dick's candidacy an opportunity to send to Congress a man who has the reputation that will enable him to take with him a first-hand knowledge of the problems of the Panhandle. He has the energy to tackle those problems and the ability to handle them, along with a record of proven effectiveness in his profession, his community and his party," Carter concluded.

It's Always Like That!

Wouldn't ya know? A resident in the 1100 block of Varnon Drive complained to police shortly before one o'clock this morning that a dog across the street had been constantly barking for the past three nights, keeping him awake.

But an investigating officer left this notation on an incident report: "The dog had hushed by the time I arrived."

While the three developments indicated a harder public line in face to face relations with the Russians, there was no indication reported behind-the-scenes efforts to arrange a summit meeting between President Johnson and Soviet leaders had faltered.

Johnson is known to greatly desire such a summit in order to get a start toward talks on mutual disarmament that would include offensive and defensive missiles. The White House has made it clear Russia's moves in Europe did not close the door on the summit possibility.

He said police told him would be assassinating the exact moment during the week that he left Decatur on a charter flight to Chicago.

The guards, he said, left him last Thursday when he told them, "Look, I don't need you any more."

About a month before that, Dirksen said, the sheriff of nearby Loudon County, Va., knocked on his door one night and told him, "There's a man who wants to blow your head off."

"I didn't want anybody to blow my head off because the flowers were in bloom and they need me," he said. "I told him that whoever this creature is, I hope he waits till the frost comes and the barn swallows are gone."

The daily newspaper Zemelede Noviny said Russian officers still suspect counter-revolutionaries "around every corner." It said Czechoslovaks must "bear in mind that the ways of thinking of these people are entirely different from ours."

The Prague correspondent of Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, underscored the division of viewpoints today, saying many Czechoslovaks do not yet "have a correct understanding of the essence of the process of normalization." He said "normalization" would require complete exposure of "counterrevolutionaries."

"The whole leadership of our parties agree that in no circumstance do we intend to return, nor shall we return, to pre-January (Stalinist) conditions," newly elected presidium member Gustav Husak said in comments broadcast Thursday.

Claims No Persecutions

"Nobody here has any intentions of carrying out any arrests or persecutions," he said, adding that pro-Soviet conservatives "are mistaken if they believe that their time has come."

Josef Vohnout, appointed to head the censorship agency, said in another broadcast there would "certainly not" be any reimposition of direct, Stalinist-type press censorship. He called

'Dognapping' Reported To Local Police

A "dognapping" a burglary and a car theft were the major incidents reported to Pampa police today.

Bobby Hicks, 28, of 1153 Varnon Dr., telephoned police shortly after 8 a.m. today to report his seeing-eye dog was missing. Hicks, who is partially blind, said it was the first time the German Shepherd female had failed to come home, leading him to believe that the dog had been "dognapped."

"She's not a registered seeing-eye dog," Hicks said, "but I trained her myself and if she was free I'm sure she would come back."

The dog was last seen yesterday evening, but a search by Pampa police and Hicks and several friends has failed to turn up any leads.

Hicks owns the Platter Shop, a record shop at 113 W. Foster, and said he doesn't "really need the dog for my work," but asked anyone knowing the whereabouts of the dog to contact him or police.

"She's one of my best friends and I miss her and would like to get her back," he said.

The dog was described as a black and silver German Shepherd female, weighing about 65 pounds, and wearing a green leather collar.

In other police news: —An estimated $12 was taken in a burglary at the Pampa Roller Rink, 123 N. Ward. The burglary was reported at 11:30 p.m. yesterday. Police said entry was apparently gained by prying open the rear door with a piece of lumber.

—Greg Sims of 1100 Mary Ellen reported to police today that someone had taken a "joyride" in his auto, stolen a mirror valued at $7, taken two transistor walkie-talkies valued at $72 and a transistor radio valued at $17, and used up a quarter of a tank of gasoline.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I suppose you will throw this in your waste paper basket, but I'm going to have my say anyway, and I hope it doesn't shock you.

I am a 14-year-old girl and my problem is my mother. I hate her. It may sound terrible to you, but I really hate her. I used to think I would get over it, but I know now I never will.

Sometimes I think I will go out of my mind if she doesn't quit picking on me. I never do anything to suit her. She doesn't like my clothes, my hair, my friends, or anything. My friends are not bums, either. They are good kids and they aren't wild or on pot or anything like that, but my mother says they look like hippies, and they aren't.

Please help me, Abby, before I run away from home. I cry myself to sleep at night because my mother is so hateful. If I babysit she makes me put the money in the bank. Other girls can buy records or do whatever they want with the money they earn.

Don't tell me to talk to my father. He's always on her side. And don't tell me my mother "loves" me and is only doing things for my own good. If you print my letter, don't sign my name or I'll get killed.

MISERABLE IN PHOENIX
DEAR MISERABLE: Your letter doesn't "shock" me at all. I receive many such letters each week. Almost every normal teen-ager alternatively loves and hates his parents.

It's not easy to be criticized, restricted, corrected, and disciplined day in and day out. But parents who really love their children prove it by consistently letting their children know what is expected of them. Parents who are "soft" and permissive, rear confused, insecure children.

I don't expect you to agree with me today, but keep this letter and read it again 3 years from now, and then you'll understand it perfectly. Good luck, dear. You're lucky. You are loved.

DEAR ABBY: I am appalled at the carelessness with which some women and girls sit in their too-short skirts these days. I am tired of sitting on buses, in restaurants, and at private gatherings and being exposed to views I can't avoid. The other evening in a restaurant an older woman in a mini-skirt left nothing to the imagination. I didn't know whether to signal her, whisper to her as I left, or write her a note on my napkin.

Should one ignore a situation which is disgusting to all, or try to communicate the problem to the offenders in some way?

REVOLTED

DEAR REVOLTED: Don't bother to signal, whisper, or write any notes. The offenders know full well what they're exposing, and they could care less. Just look somewhere else.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I were divorced several months ago. The divorce was on very friendly terms, and we see each other occasionally at social gatherings, etc. It is very awkward to introduce her as my "ex-wife." Is there a less embarrassing way?

ALABAMAN

DEAR ALABAMAN: Yes. In her marital history unless someone introduces her by name and skip body asks.

Neutral Splashes The Color Scene

Colors are neutral for fall '68. If that sounds dull and drab, then take this into consideration: In fall fashion thinking, red is a neutral.

Red, fire-engine bright or mixed with blue, touched with orange or paled to a pinkish hue, is neutral and basic because it goes with just about everything, designers say, and they prove their point by splashing red throughout fashion. Other hues of fall importance are the greens and blues, plus the golds, which meet and blend with brown.

A more conventional neutral gray, rises to fashion prominence in hues pale to bright to dark. And those enduring basics, black and white, take a strong stand.

COMBAT DANDRUFF

To combat dandruff, brush your hair daily, shampoo at least twice a week with a good dandruff-fighting shampoo and keep combs and brushes scrupulously clean.

David O. McKay to Celebrate 95th Birthday This Sunday

David O. McKay, president of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Mormons, will celebrate his 95th birthday Sunday, Sept. 8.

Born Sept. 8, 1873, he has seen the Church grow from a membership of 150,000 to over three million members at present with more joining every day.

McKay became President of the Church in 1951, at the age of 78, after 45 years of serving the Church in some official position of importance.

During the years of presidency, McKay has developed two main aims for the Church: a greatly expanded worldwide missionary effort, and a great increase in church building.

Examples of the effectiveness of these aims can be seen by noting the increased number of members. In 1952, shortly after McKay became President, there were 2,790 missionaries, with 11,839 converts joining the Church. At present, there are about 12,000 missionaries, with an average of 180,000 converts a year.

In 1877, the Church had 150,000 members. In 1947, membership had reached a million. In 13 years, by 1960, the membership had risen to two million. Now in 1968, the membership has reached over three million in less than a decade.

The building program, as developed and directed by President McKay, has shown results. In 1955, McKay visited Europe to dedicate a completed temple at Bern, Switzerland, and to break ground for the construction of a new temple at Surrey, south of London.

In 1956, he was present for the dedication of the Los Angeles Temple, the largest and most costly at that date. In 1958, he attended dedications of the New Zealand Temple and the London Temple. Since then, other temples have been erected at Oakland, Calif., and at Innsbruck, Austria. Other temples are in progress or in the planning stage.

In 1850, William McKay and his wife Ellen Oman, the President's grandparents, became the first Mormon converts in the northern part of Scotland. In 1856 they moved to the United States, later settling in Ogden, Utah. Eight years later, the youngest son, David, married Jeanette Evans.

David Oman McKay, the first son, was born on a farm outside Ogden. A third-generation Mormon, he went to local schools. That he possessed leadership qualities was evidenced by his election as president of his class at the University of Utah in 1897.

After graduation, he served as a missionary in Scotland for two years, where he revisited the land of his grandparents. Returning to Ogden, he was offered a teaching job in Weber Academy, now a state college. He soon became president of the school.

In 1906, at the age of 32, he was called to be an apostle of the church. After World War I, he was sent on a trip around the world to study the worldwide activities of the Church.

In 1934 he became a counselor to the President of the Church. The President and two or three counselors compose the First Presidency, which constitutes the highest authority in the Church.

Thus, since 1906 President McKay has been continually in an informed position on Church policy, and since 1934 he has been involved in the highest administration of the Church.

A thought for the day, American author Anne Morrow Lindbergh, once said—"Last time was like a run in a stocking, it always got worse."

Chaplains Carry Heavy Burdens

By DAVID POLING

The war in Vietnam may be one of the most difficult assignments ever faced by the chaplains of the U.S. armed forces. For this conflict is the first to be fought without the soul-stirring music, the victory gardens, the bond drives and the generous emotional support of the churches. In a word, moral justification for the war effort has been hard to find and the military chaplain is torn by the dissent at home and the courage of the soldier in the field.

In the last four years that this country has fought, my own family has been represented by two uncles, a cousin and a brother. These men believed in serving Christ by giving pastoral care and counsel to the men in uniform. They all volunteered for this duty and accepted the dangers and duties without regrets.

But the moral calamity of our position in Vietnam has caused a difficult, almost impossible situation for my brother, a Navy chaplain. He has the responsibility of visiting the families in the Northwest who in their homes have received the news of a son's death overseas. This assignment is hard under any circumstances; it becomes unbearable when you no longer believe in this country's Vietnam policy.

This is not an isolated incident. A monthly magazine, "The Chaplain," had this to say concerning the controversy over Vietnam that has shaken so many ministers in uniforms: "While chaplains and chaplaincy executives are free to hold personal views, they are not officially charged with analyzing and commenting on national goals; our role is pastoral. This role does not constitute or imply an endorsement of war in general or of any war in particular. It reflects a Christian concern for all human beings." Chaplain Quayle, who died in Viet Nam not long ago, was in this great tradition. His last entry in his diary referred to the forgiveness of enemies.

Does this mean that the minister in uniform must yield to the uniformity of the administration's position concerning Southeast Asia? Ray Appelquist, editor of "The Chaplain," gives his answer:

"As morally responsive men, chaplains are not permitted to ignore the larger context in which they serve. It is to be expected that chaplains will be alert and sensitive to conditions of needless inhumanity and unwholesome acts of war which might compromise their nation or undermine their own integrity and witness as ministers of the Gospel."

The military has complained about the poor strategy of this war. The businessmen have been angered by the taxes. The consumer is alarmed about inflation. But the chaplains carry the greatest burden and one of their most difficult assignments, any time, any place.

When completed, there will be five new Sunday School meeting rooms, a pastor's study, a baptistry and a crusade hall.

The church also purchased a three-bedroom house next door to the church to serve as the parsonage. Rev. and Mrs. Robert Corser recently moved into the building.

"This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Diety and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansive love, a higher and more permanent peace."

Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his treasures of Truth and Love are enlarged. Mortals must gravitate Godward; their affections and aims grow spiritual—they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite—in order that sin and mortality may be put off.

Scientists Plan Lesson on 'Man'

"So, God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

This verse from Genesis is included in the lesson-sermon on "Man" to be read this Sunday at the 11 a.m. service at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 901 N. Frost.

Related passages from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, includes:

"Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his treasures of Truth and Love are enlarged. Mortals must gravitate Godward; their affections and aims grow spiritual—they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite—in order that sin and mortality may be put off."

Church Services Supplying Help In Nigeria, Biafra

NEW YORK, N.Y.—James MacCracken, head of Church World Service, recently warned concerned Americans that several million Biafrans, a Nigerian religious caste, behind the battle lines of the blocked territory now held by federal Nigerian troops.

"We in Church World Service, in full sympathy with the Biafrans suffering the horrors of starvation within the blocked area, are every bit as concerned over the fate of those outside the encirclement. The children, especially," MacCracken said.

"While the sense of shock and compassion that has swept the country over the plight of the trapped Biafrans is to be expected, we cannot overlook starving victims on both sides of the line. Church World Service has been and will continue to rush relief supplies to children, women and aged in need wherever they are and through whatever channels may be open to us," he added.

MacCracken is executive director of the church relief and rehabilitation agency, which represents thirty U.S. Protestant and Orthodox denominations.

In the Nigerian-Biafran tragedy, CWS has supplied over a million pounds of high protein foods, medicines and other emergency materials. Thus far, the agency has spent approximately $400,000 and is raising $1,000,000 for the war victims in all parts of Nigeria and the secessionist area of Biafra.

Medical teams as well as transit facilities are also being supplied by the big Protestant agency at the request of the World Council of Churches in Geneva. It is also conducting television and radio appeals for help in this country jointly with Catholic Relief Service.

Unpopular Peace Preaching Pastor Has Townsfolk Angry, Un in Arms

By TOM TIEDE
WOODBRIDGE, N. J. (NEA)—Jesus Christ has been reduced to a second billing at the Woodbridge Methodist Church these days. Instead, the eyes of the congregation are fixed on Theodore Seamans. He is the church pastor and apparently the most unpopular man in town.

Along Main Street, where his red brick church is located, Seamans is a dirty word. Most people turn sour at his mention. Some feel Satan himself never slept as low.

"His no good," says a drug store shopper. "Awful," responds a housewife. "I think," adds an auto dealer, "he's ruined his church."

Seamans' sin is that he has war in Vietnam, the military, the draft, the bomb, the Republicans, the Democrats, the capitalist philosophy.

And what makes his fellow citizens especially angry is that he utters his objections from the pulpit. Hardly a sermon passes that the minister does not condemn napalm, big business, prisons, police and the idea of the virgin birth.

Then, to each his opinions even bolder, he spreads them on the church bulletin boards. There is a large photograph of a pitifully war-scarred child; there are profusions of clippings lamenting this and that; there are posters heralding the Wednesday meetings.

"He just beats us over the head with it," says one "expansionist." "It's like he's saying, 'Well I'm head of the church and I will do as I please.'"

There are those in town who predict the Seamans will not be the pastor for much longer. The minister himself says things look bad.

Sympathy for his activities, never very wide, has diminished to the starvation stage. Local groups have called for his ouster and newspapers have socked him in print.

Service attendance is drying up. Once 250 people would pack the pews on the Sunday morning, now the average is 75. Seamans says "most" of the congregation has withdrawn its support of the church and is praying and paying elsewhere.

Church income is running $400 a month below normal. Seamans has cut his salary from $4,000 to $3,500, the organist, the choir director and sexton have all been dismissed, to cut down on fuel bills, only small areas of the chapel will be used next winter.

"Everything," says Seamans, "is closing in on me." Still, the minister refuses to retreat from his convictions and has increased his actions as an activist.

He belongs to the American Civil Liberties Union, SANE, the NAACP, the Clergy and Vietnam, and the Birdwatchers, a local citizens group formed to "combat John Birch Society influence."

As for his opinions, he promotes them with more gusto than ever. Disarmament? "I think we should do away with all arms and just say to the Russians: 'O.K., Russians, come and do with us what you will.'"

Free enterprise? "Capitalism is competition. That means we can't love each other, as much as we should, because we are working against each other."

Government? "The administration is like a religion. The flag is the altar, the Declaration of Independence, the Apostles' Creed, Johnson is the saint."

Patriotism? "People who do not like themselves have to cling to something besides self for identification—the church, a country or a flag, for instance."

Seamans' words, however, do not accurately mirror him. In spite of his dimly lit church, he believes his notoriety. He is a slight, well-groomed, outwardly happy man, who admits the possibility he could be wrong. He speaks in platitudes, complex phraseology, generalities.

Foursquare Gospel

Completing Program

Foursquare Gospel, 712 LeFlore St., is nearing the completion of its building program.

Included in the program was the addition of several new rooms.

When completed, there will be five new Sunday School meeting rooms, a pastor's study, a baptistry and a crusade hall.

The church also purchased a three-bedroom house next door to the church to serve as the parsonage. Rev. and Mrs. Robert Corser recently moved into the building.

Knowledge of God

We were always meant to know God... to be deeply aware of His infinite nature and power... and to follow where this knowledge leads in working out our salvation. The Bible speaks of it often. It is the most fundamental knowledge there is, and it requires prayerful study and consistent practice. Christian Science church services offer assistance to those who seek this knowledge. You are always welcome, any Sunday or Wednesday.

AUTUMN

One of the finest times of the year, and certainly one of the finest times of our lives, is Autumn.

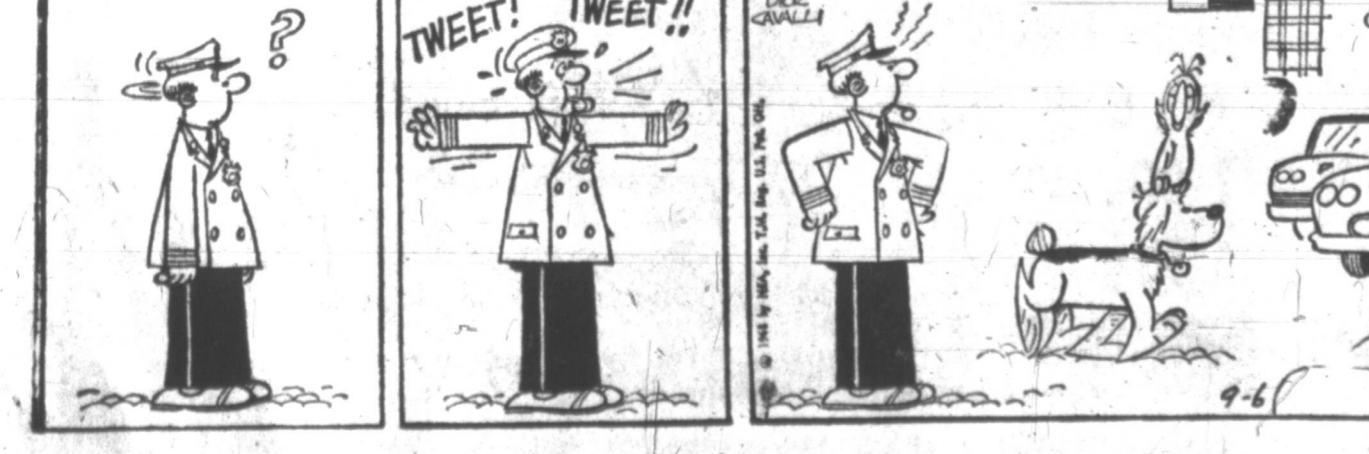

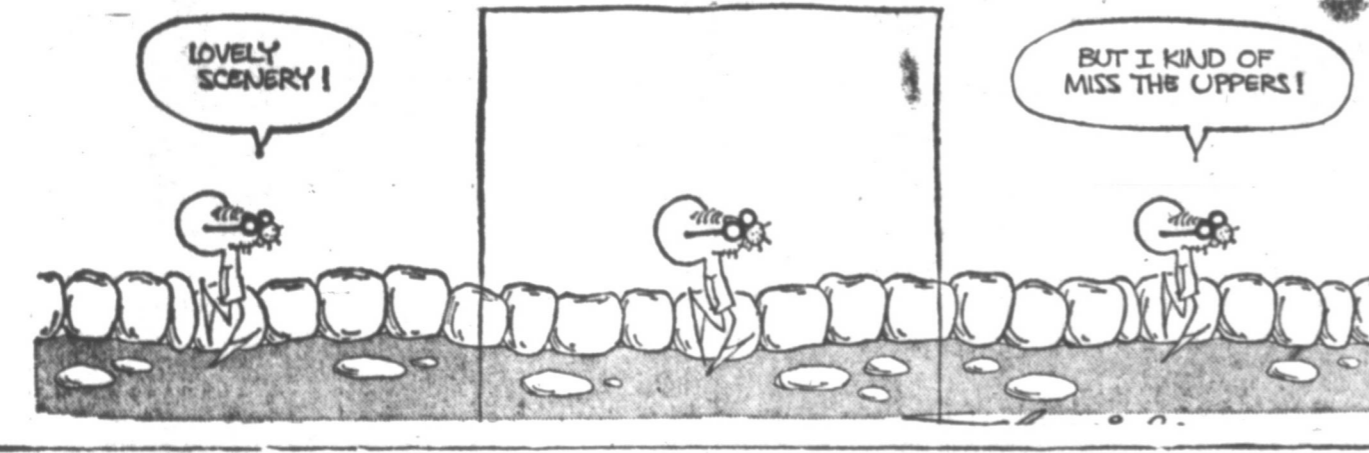

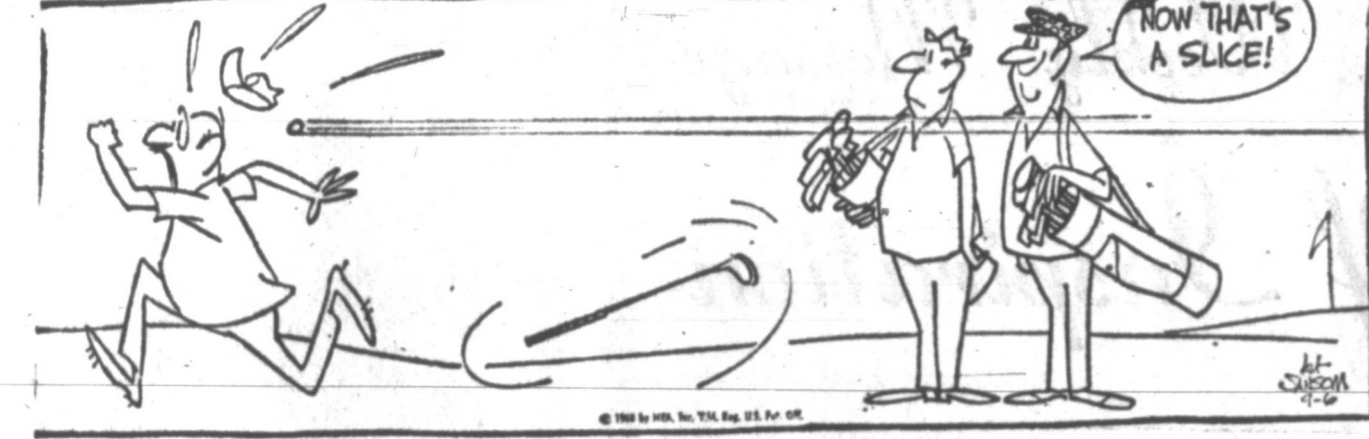

It is one of the finest times of the year because of what happens in God's natural world around us. There is a slowing down and a great stilling process, which can almost be heard, and whose results can be seen. The growth of grass and flowers and even weeds stops, the birds that have been in the skies during warmer months disappear and their calls are heard no more, the nights are cool, and the moon has a warmth and glow like no other season. School starts, old routines begin again, and new relationships are a possibility. Christmas and the beginning of a new year are really not so far away.

The autumn period of one's life is one of the finest times. When one grows older there can be more peace than one has known before, perhaps because one begins to accept, finally some of the things he should have accepted long before but continued to fight against and always to want to change. There can be more quiet, because one can learn the joy of being alone, not always having to be with someone else and not always having to do something somewhere. Even though the natural world in Autumn in many ways is not a growing one, the Autumn years can be growing ones, growing in the spiritual sense. Many of us feel when we become old we need not think any more and certainly need not deal with new ideas, but this is not so. Life always presents opportunities of growth, even at its darkest moments, and this is true for the autumn years. They can become reflective times, when we can look back and learn some lessons and draw some conclusions, that time and experience have afforded. And when we reflect and examine and look at ourselves and the world around us, we can grow, more deeply into what God wants us to be.

The autumn years are amongst the finest because then we can rather formally prepare to die, if we will discipline ourselves to do so. When we die we begin as Christians a new life, and some careful preparation is necessary and in order. We cannot prepare perfectly, but we can offer ourselves to God, confess our sins, and begin to look for the exciting moments ahead, which in all ways will be new.

One of the psalmists wrote, "I will lay me down in peace and take my rest." In the serene and lovely Autumn we can begin to take our rest, as Nature begins to take hers, and in our autumn years we can prepare for God's gifts of perfect rest, peace, and contentment, which are essential and very real parts of the new lives ahead of us.

Colts Play Cowboys in Final Exhibition

By ED FITE
UPI Sports Writer

DALLAS (UPI)—The Baltimore Colts, who furnish the pre-season windup opposition for the Dallas Cowboys Saturday night in the Cotton Bowl, present a unique problem to the squalid Cowboys' offense, according to Dallas Coach Tom Landry.

"The Colts play a zone defense—and play it well, making it very difficult to throw against them," Landry said. "The fact we do not see the zone defense any other time during the season, just complicates matters that much more for us."

The record bears out his statement, too, since the Cowboys—Eastern division champions the past two years—have managed only one victory in six starts against the Colts. That one came way back in 1951 in the Cowboys' second year of existence by a 35-24 margin.

The nationally televised (CBS) game is expected to nearly fill the Cotton Bowl's 72,000 seats.

"It is practically impossible to throw deep against them and there is no such thing as 'moves' or approach patterns," Landry said of the Colts' zone defense.

"They roll to either side, according to the offensive shifts with the linebackers compensating by rolling the other way," Landry pointed out. "You just have to work for the short gains and keep things going until you get to the goal line. They will blitz, ordinarily, not more than 25 per cent of the time."

Landry did not say so, but that defense may cause the Cowboys to concentrate on their running attack, which has been gaining momentum in recent games with the showing of backup men Craig Ryanham, Les Shy and Walt Garrison to augment the reliable bursts of fullback Don Perkins.

This may be especially true if the Cowboys' No. 3 quarterback, Craig Morton, plays the major portion of the game as Don Meredith rides the bench with a painful chest muscle injury. Meredith had been counted

Rhyme Joins Taxi Squad

DALLAS (UPI)—Jerry Rhyme is on the Dallas Cowboy taxi squad today after three years of battling Craig Morton for the backup quarterback slot behind veteran Don Meredith.

The past three seasons coach Tom Landry had kept all three quarterbacks on the roster because of Meredith's ordinarily shaky physical status.

He said Rhyme would be reactivated if Meredith or Morton were injured.

The move was apparently caused because Landry plans to carry two kickers on the squad punter Ron Widby and place-kicker Mike Clark.

McLain Shoots For 28th Win As Tigers Host Twins

By VITO STELLINO
UPI Sports Writer

It was an off day for 18 of the 20 major league teams Thursday and the guy who needed the rest the most was Denny McLain.

McLain, shooting for his 28th victory tonight when the Tigers host the Minnesota Twins, got four days of rest for the first time since May because the Tigers were idle Thursday.

In the first six weeks of the season, McLain had four days rest four times and even five twice.

Since May 25, the righthander has pitched consistently with just three days rest except the three times he started with only two days rest. He has led the Tigers in their drive for their first pennant since 1945.

In the only game Thursday night, Chicago edged Washington, 2-1, before 1,154 in D.C. stadium.

McLain is trying to be the major league's first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934 and the American league's first since Lefty Grove in 1933. Gerry McNertney's seventh inning two-run single paced Chicago past Washington and gave the victory to rookie Gerry Nyman.

Nymen pitched seven innings of three-hit ball and Hoyt Wilhelm then started the eighth to retire the final two batters and complete a four-hitter.

Californian Rallies For Tennis Victory

By STEVE SNIDER
UPI Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—Sixth-seeded pro Dennis Ralston of Bakersfield, Calif., became the fourth American among the last eight in the $100,000 U.S. Open tennis championships today by completing a 2-6, 6-2, 5-7, 13-11, 6-3, victory over Nikki Pilić of Yugoslavia in a match halted by darkness Wednesday at 8-11 in the fourth set.

Ralston's come-from-behind triumph put him in the quarterfinal along with amateurs Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., and Clark Graebner of New York and 46-year-old pro Pancho Gonzalez of Malibu Beach, Calif.

Survivors Battle
Ralston will meet third-seeded pro Ken Rosewall of Australia on Friday while the other American survivors battle for semifinal berths today.

Gonzalez scored an astonishing upset over second-seeded Australian pro Tony Roche before a highly partisan crowd on 8-6, 6-4, 6-2, but now the way old pro must do it all over again.

Decathlon Begins Today

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (UPI)—The decathlon, one of the sports world's most grueling contests and possibly America's most forgotten, gets a two-day airing at the Echo Summit high altitude training base today and Saturday with 11 candidates shooting for three Olympic berths.

The candidates, headed by American record holder Russ Hodge of UCLA, will go in the 100-meter run, long jump, shot put, high jump and 400-meter run today. Saturday it will be the 110-meter high hurdles, discus, pole vault, javelin and 1,500-meter run.

Other than some of the shot putters in camp for the start of the final Olympic trials next Monday, Hodge easily is one of the biggest athletes on the scene. While Hodge is well known among track and field fans, hardly anyone else has heard of him. In fact you have to go all the way back to 1948 when Bob Mathias won an Olympic gold medal in the event to stir sports fans about the decathlon.

Always an excruciating test of human endurance, the decathlon gains in difficulty this year with trials in the rarified atmosphere of 7,377-foot altitude here, and the Olympics proper at Mexico City's 7,359 feet above sea level.

In the thinner air, it's an accepted fact that an athlete has a longer "recovery" time—the time it takes breathing and for the pulse rate to drop back to normal.

But a decathlon athlete can't wait. The events come one right after the other.

Tigers, Cards May Print Series Ducats

NEW YORK (UPI)—Baseball Commissioner William D. Eckert made it official Thursday: The Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Cardinals were given the go-ahead to print World Series tickets.

Neither team has it clinched yet, but with the Cards leading the National League by 1½ games and the Tigers leading the American League by eight games, they're figured the most likely choices to make the annual classic.

The ground rules for the series also were worked out at a meeting held in Eckert's office.

The first two games will be played in the National League City Oct. 2 and 3 with Oct. 4 an off date for travel.

Games in the American League city will be played Oct. 5, 6 and 7th, if necessary, they will be played Oct. 9 and 10 in the National League city.

El Paso Nips Sun Kings, 2-1

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI)—A 360-foot home run by El Paso catcher Dennis Paepke was the difference Thursday night as the Sun Kings beat Arkansas 2-1 to take a 2 game to 1 lead in the Texas League playoffs.

Paepke's homer run in the fourth inning gave El Paso a 2-0 lead that was too much for Arkansas to overcome.

El Paso scored its first run in the first inning on a walk by Tom Silverio, a short single by Jim Spencer and an error by Arkansas second baseman John Sipin.

Arkansas got its run in the fifth inning, Lenny Boyer doubled Sipin to third. When El Paso third baseman Bill Bethea committed an error, Sipin scored.

Ken Tatum went 8 1-3 innings to get the win. He was lifted in the ninth after Bill Murphy singled with one out. Left-hander Bill Boehlert came in to get

Bengals Open Football Season Against Chargers In TV Game

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Pro football's newest team, the Cincinnati Bengals, opens the American Football League season here Friday night against the San Diego Chargers in a nationally televised contest.

San Diego Coach Sid Gillman predicts the Bengals will be the strongest expansion team yet formed. Paul Brown's eleven has made the predict a look good so far by downing the National League Pittsburgh Steelers, 19-3, a week after the Steelers beat the Chargers, and the New York Jets, 13-9.

The Chargers counted the National League Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers among their exhibition victims and are regarded as the major threat to defending champion Oakland.

Quarterback Dewey Warren leads a host of rookies expected to start at the running and receiving posts for Cincinnati. Rookies Tom Smiley and Paul Robinson are the running backs and little Warren McVea is the flanker. Second year split end Rod Sherman is the only veteran in these key positions.

Plunker Lance Alworth, rated by many as the greatest receiver in football, heads a cast of veterans who will start for the Chargers. John Hadl will be at quarterback with speedy Dick Post and powerful Brad Hubert at running backs.

Television In Review

By RICK DU BROW
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Another talented offspring of television's Danny Thomas has made an auspicious debut in the show business world.

First there was daughter, Marlo, who has her own video series, ABC-TV's "That Girl." Then there was son, Tony, whose musical group has appeared on CBS-TV's Ed Sullivan Show.

And now comes daughter, Terre, a warm, vivacious, funny and wholly unaffected girl whose specialty is singing—but who also has the makings of a fine light comedienne.

The nationwide television audience got its first look at Terre this week on ABC-TV's Joey Bishop Show, where she not only sang, but bantered gracefully with the host and comedienne Totie Fields—and looked smashing.

Her voice had a very sound, warm quality, and although she likes modern music, she obviously leans to songs with the lasting substance of standards—such as ballads with notable lyrics.

Until June of this year, Terre was not in the world of showbiz. She got her first taste of the big time when she appeared with her father for a few days at the end of one of his bookings at the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas.

Then she appeared with him again—with billing—at Harrah's Club in the resort of Lake Tahoe, and got good notices.

This week's booking on the Bishop show reflected the polish and know-how she has picked up in a short time.

It is, in fact, quite a year for her because she is also getting married this month—to publicist Larry Gordon.

The emergence of dark-haired Terre Thomas into show business has caused considerable happiness in the family household. Why didn't she take the singing plunge before?

"I was just afraid—the shy type," she said in the den of the Thomas home. "I always loved music.

Telev viewers will get a chance to see more of Terre this season. She'll undoubtedly turn up in an episode of Marlo's series. And she will appear with Danny in a CBS-TV musical special, "The Generation Gap," which will highlight old and new songs. Several record companies have also approached her already.

The next natural step is for a Thomas family special. Danny's wife used to be a singer too. For that matter, Thomas could do worse than to contemplate a remake of "The Dolly Sisters," starring Terre and Marlo.

PROTEST FLIGHTS
VIENNA (UPI) — Soviet planes made eight reconnaissance flights over Austrian military bases the day Soviet bloc troops invaded Czechoslovakia, the newspaper Die Presse said Wednesday. The newspaper said the Austrian government protested but that the Soviets said the planes found themselves over Austria because they got lost in clouds.

Now You Know
The highest known death toll in earthquakes this century was 180,000 in Kansu, China in a quake that occurred Dec. 10, 1920.

FIRST SNOW
TOKYO (UPI)—The first snow of the season fell on Mt. Fujiyama Wednesday, 16 days earlier than last year and three days before the average first snowfall on the 12,389-foot peak.

SAIGON (UPI)—The Vietnam War has cost America more than 200,000 men killed, wounded or lost in action, U.S. headquarters has reported.

The disclosure came in the weekly casualty totals which showed 408 U.S. servicemen killed and 2,513 wounded last week, the highest toll since the Communists' May-June summer offensive.
