IN EXCHANGE FOR PEACE TALKS

LBJ Offers New Bombing Halt

Words Soft; Policy Firm

By FRANK CORMIER

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson has offered to stop bombing North Vietnam on only one stated condition: That it "lead promptly to productive discussions" aimed at a peaceful settlement of the war.

Reviewing Vietnam policy for a bipartisan gathering here — and for a nationwide television-radio audience—Johnson adopted language Friday night that sounded conciliatory, but did not weaken his expressed determination to see the war through to an acceptable ending.

Thus, in talking about a possible bombing halt, he said:

"We of course assume that while discussions proceed, North Vietnam would not take advantage of the bombing cessation or limitation."

This rather vague phrasing, when contrasted with some earlier U.S. demands for a promise by Hanoi to scale down its side of the war in order to gain respite from American bombs, seemed more flexible.

One administration source said the softer language was not accidental: that the government—in both public and private messages to Hanoi—has been probing for a formula that would get talks started.

But he suggested that Johnson's "we assume" statement amounted to putting Hanoi on notice once again that the United States would expect something more than talks if it were to stop the bombing.

The source said U.S. policy thus remains basically unchanged.

Certainly Johnson held out no hope of an early solution. He reminded his frequently-applauding listeners that "Hanoi has not accepted any of these proposals" for peace talks in the past.

But the Chief Executive emphasized that "we and our South Vietnamese allies are wholly prepared to negotiate now." He said: "I am ready to talk with Ho Chi Minh and other chiefs of state concerned tomorrow.

"I am ready to have Secretary Rusk meet with their foreign minister tomorrow.

"I am ready to send a trusted representative to any spot on this earth to talk in public or private with any spokesman for Hanoi."

While emphasizing peace efforts in his address—delivered before 1,600 delegates to the National Legislative Conference of State Officials—Johnson put approximately equal stress on U.S. determination to persevere in Vietnam.

"First, we must not mislead our enemy," he said. "Let him not think that debate and dissent will produce wavering and withdrawal. For I can assure you they won't. Let him not think that protests will produce surrender. Because they won't. Let him not think that he will wait us out. For he won't.

"Second, we will provide all that our brave men require to do the job that must be done—and that job's going to be done."

County Fair Set To Open On Thursday

The third annual Scurry County Fair will open Thursday morning in Towle Memorial Park, with judging scheduled to begin at 9 a.m.

Exhibits will be in the Towle Park Barn, the National Guard Armory and in adjacent areas.

Exhibits may be composed of products grown or processed in Scurry County. The official premium list will include products and animals that are produced in sufficient quantity to be a real part of the agriculture industry of the county and those that are quality products.

In addition there will be commercial exhibits, with space furnished on a rental basis.

The fair site will be a busy place during the week, especially from Wednesday on, as exhibitors prepare their displays for public viewing.

Showing will be all types of livestock, including cattle, steers, swine, poultry, rabbits and sheep; field crops, fruits and vegetables; educational exhibits; community exhibits; textiles, including embroidery, cutwork, applique, crochet, knitting, quilts, spreads, comforts, rugs, sewing and textile painting; art, including various types of paintings, handicrafts, ceramics, china painting, leather work, metalcraft, etc.; baked foods; canned foods; and the annual flower show.

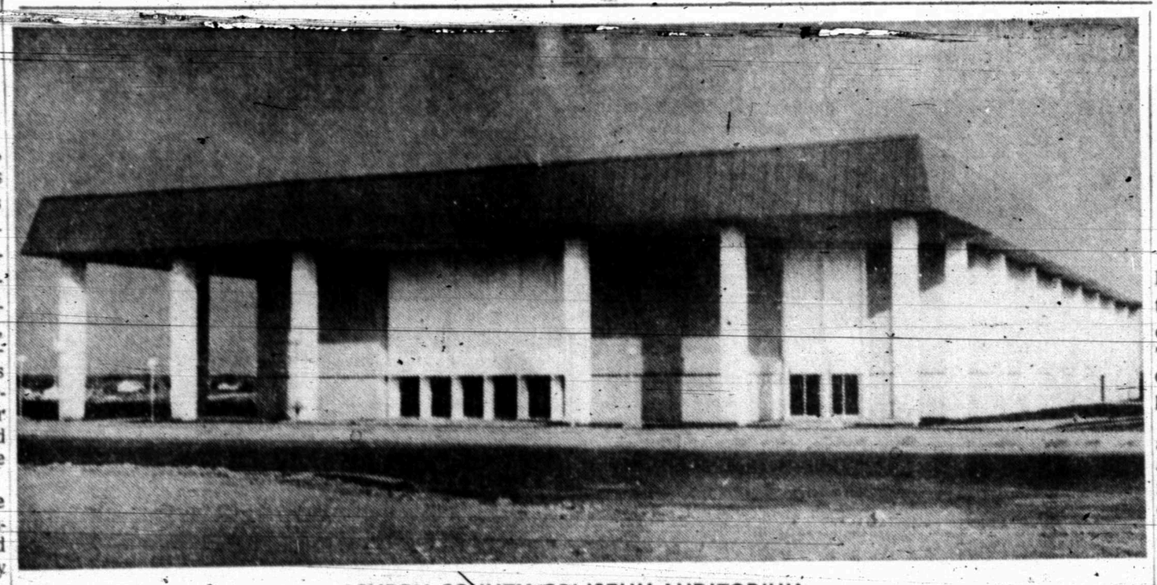

All exhibits must be in place and arranged for suitable display by 9 a.m. Thursday, and they must remain on display until 9 p.m. Saturday.

Directors of the Scurry County Fair Association are J. N. Eicke, Carl Williams, Mrs. Jimmy Beck, Mrs. Tommy Pate, M. C. Fowler, Frank Barnes, Mrs. Clyde Collins, Wilson Bright, Mrs. Roy Hanson, Buford Browning, C. C. Sellars.

Also, L. M. Dawson, W. R. Sterling, Mrs. Raymond Robinson, Martin Murphy, Hugh Taylor, H. W. Cargile, Max West, Alvis Minton, Mrs. Zelmer Glover and Mrs. Dale Hess.

The county extension agents, Miss Ruby Butts and Billy Roach, along with vocational agriculture instructors in the various high schools of the county, including Dennis Alsup, Billy Bob McMullan, Floyd Collins, Frank Barnes and Bill Jennings, serve as technical advisers to the Fair Association.

The fair has attracted surprisingly large turnouts here since it was inaugurated in 1965, and exhibits have been termed excellent in virtually all categories. Fair Association officials expect more outstanding exhibits this year and good attendance is expected again.

SCURRY COUNTY COLISEUM-AUDITORIUM

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR TO SPEAK

Coliseum Set For Visitors

The general public gets its first close-up today (Sunday) of the new Scurry County Coliseum-Auditorium.

Located on a tract in East Snyder, the recently completed new building will be thrown open officially for the first time at 2 p.m. when formal opening and dedication ceremonies will be held. The public is invited to attend the entire program and then remain for "open house" throughout the new building.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith will be the principal speaker at the opening ceremonies. Smith, of Lubbock and a veteran legislator, is well known in this area and has addressed audiences here before.

Several individuals and organizations will participate in the opening ceremonies. One of the highlights will be the ceremony of allegiance and the National Anthem by the Snyder High School Band, under direction of Melvin Montogomery. The band also will accompany Mrs. Bob Womack, soloist, in presenting "Bless This House."

The colors will be presented by the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Rev. R. Virgil Mott, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church and president of the Scurry County Ministerial Alliance, will give the invocation.

H. E. (Gene) Merrifield, manager of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, will be the moderator and narrator.

On the platform will be the commissioners court, including County Judge Sterling Taylor and Commissioners Marion Dabbs, Earl Sneed, Thayne Mebane and Bill Hairston; Bentley Baize, president of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce; M. L. Broman, Mayor of Snyder; Doug McGlaun, coliseum manager, and his assistant, Glenn Barron.

Renal B. Rosson, State Representative for District 74, will introduce the lieutenant governor.

The coliseum, which has permanent seating for some 3,200 persons, plus a huge arena and various other facilities, has been some 3½ years in the making since a bond issue of $1¼-million was passed by a margin of nearly 2-1. The bond election was held on March 14, 1964.

Over a year went by before plans were shaped for taking bids. Meanwhile, the county purchased land for the site east of the East Elementary School.

Plans and specifications were prepared by Barnes, Landes, Goodman and Youngblood of Austin, who employed J. D. Hinton, Snyder architect, as their associate for the project here.

Bids were opened on Sept. 2, 1965. The lowest combination amounted to approximately $300,000 more than the available funds from the bond issue.

So, it was back to the old drawing board. Plans and specifications were revised, trimmed and modified during the next six months, and bids were sought again for a March 8, 1966, opening.

This time the proposals were within the money and contracts were awarded.

The contract for general construction went to Rose and Son Construction Co. of Abilene, while the mechanical contract went to Fitzgerald and Skidmore of Midland, and the contract for electrical work went to Watco Electric Co. of Lubbock. Work on the project was launched within a few days after the contracts were awarded and final inspection was made recently.

All Voters Are Required To Register

A new voter registration season begins officially today (Sunday) and Don Adams, Scurry County tax assessor - collector, reminded voters here of some changes in the registration rules.

Previously, people over 60 years old living in rural areas were not required to register or get exemptions to qualify themselves as voters.

Effective Oct. 1, this year, however, everyone who wishes to vote in 1968 elections must have a voter registration receipt. Voters may register at any time between Oct. 1, 1967, and Jan. 31, 1968.

Adams said applications for voter registration are being mailed in all tax statements within the county. If a person desires, he may fill out the application correctly, sign it, and mail it to the Scurry County Tax Office, where it will be processed as soon as possible. Then, the voter registration receipts will be sent to the applicants by mail.

There is no need to fill out the voter registration application if a person is coming to the tax office in person.

Those who elect to mail in applications must fill them out completely and correctly, and any unsigned will be returned to the sender. The law requires the signature of every voter, or his agent, in the tax office files.

Plenty of voter registration application blanks are available at the tax office in the courthouse.

Floodwaters Hit Gulf Of Mexico

By GARY GARRISON
Associated Press Writer

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—The Rio Grande, leaving destruction and human misery for 200 miles upstream, hurled its dying surge of floodwaters today at this point—entering the Gulf of Mexico where Hurricane Beulah slammed ashore 10 days ago to start the devastation.

Forecasters said the floodwaters posed little danger to Brownsville or its sister city Matamoros, Mexico.

"It (the flood) doesn't appear to pose a threat to the city itself," Fred Gonzalez of the Brownsville Weather Bureau said today.

Flood stage was 18 feet at Brownsville, the Weather Bureau said. The last river gauge reading was at 16.58 feet.

Upstream residents began to return to their silt-covered homes in the beginning of a massive cleanup campaign.

Only a few homes remained flooded in the extreme southwest portion of Harlingen where the Arroyo Colorado went on a tear.

The International Boundary and Water Commission warned residents between the banks and the levees at Brownsville to flee if water spills over the main channl.

The Weather Bureau was having a difficult time estimating progress of the Rio Grande's crest because Mexican authorities were diverting unknown quantities of water into canals between Progreso, Mexico and Brownsville.

The very lowest point of levees at Matamoros was 23 feet. The Weather Bureau said 25 feet was the lowest point of the levees at Brownsville.

In an incident related to flood rescue work, 21 National Guardsmen were injured Friday night when their truck crashed into a ditch near Three Rivers, Tex. The men were returning to Alice, Tex., from disaster duty in the valley.

In another incident, a four-place Army plane from Ft. Benning, Ga., flying to the aid of flood victims crashed at Raymondville, but the two men aboard escaped injury.

CRMWD To Appeal Lake Land Award

The Colorado River Municipal Water District posted the aggregate of awards by a jury of view commission for 4,014 acres of land in the lake basin near Robert Lee Friday and gave notice of appeal of the award.

O. H. Ivie, general manager of CRMWD, delivered $773,968.65 to the county clerk at Coke County, and James Rosser, attorney for the district, gave notice of appeal. The award was made by a jury of view commission a week ago for the 4,014 acres in fee, plus 442 more for flood easement, also for all damages to land and minerals plus a water sale contract for oilfield repressuring. Of the total, $764,519.90 went to Mrs. Helen Willcockson, who operates the ranch which contains the acreage.

The board of the district will meet in Big Spring Thursday at 10 a.m. to consider the proposed budget for 1968. Budget and personnel committees meet half an hour in advance of the general session.

Part of the meeting will be devoted also to reports of progress on construction of the dam across the Colorado River above Robert Lee, the status of land purchases, and the route for a pipeline from the lake to Big Spring, Midland and Odessa.

Sniper's Shot Breaks Peace

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A sniper's bullets broke the relative peace that returned to nearby highways today following an agreement on ground rules to end the violent, eight-state strike by steel hauling truckers.

The sniper, apparently lying in a ditch near Eaton, Ohio, fired five shots at the cab of a trucker defying the unofficial, six-week-long boycott.

The driver, Jimmy Acton, 35, of Lynn, Ind., was cut by flying windshield glass.

But the Pennsylvania Turnpike was quiet for the first time in two weeks. The only incident reported was aimless rock-throwing from a bridge near the Ohio line.

Time Bomb Explodes In Railway Station

TRENTO, Italy (AP)—A time bomb in a suitcase taken off a passenger train exploded in the station of this north Italian city today as a policeman sprinted with it in his arms to get it away from the train passenger coaches. He was killed and two other persons were wounded.

Early Cold Eases South

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An early-autumn cold snap eased out of the midcontinent today and pushed temperatures down to freezing across a wide stretch of the southland.

The mercury tumbled into the 30s as far south as Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi. Readings in some cases were even lower than Friday morning's record levels.

The unseasonably cool weather was part of a polar air mass that invaded the Northern Plains early this week and produced three straight nights of heavy frost and freeze in the Dakotas and Minnesota.

Arrial of the cooler and drier air in the east drove out to sea the two days of soaking rain that produced flooding in western upstate New York and Western Pennsylvania Thursday night and Friday.

TEXANS OPEN HEARTS POCKETBOOKS

Mercy Missions Head South

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texans from all sections of the state opened their hearts and pocketbooks Saturday to aid the suffering thousands who were dispossessed by Hurricane Beulah and her subsequent floods.

Big planes with emergency supplies were to lift off runways in three cities to rush the misery-alleviating cargoes to the Lower Rio Grande Valley and its stricken people.

Two of the big planes were to leave Big Spring and Brownwood. Both are mercy projects of the Confederate Air Force, a club of World War II aircraft buffs.

From Dallas, donated supplies from citizens and some organized groups were to be flown out of Love Field for flood-ravaged areas of South Texas and Mexico.

Nearly all the donations came spontaneously from compassionate fellow Texans.

Waco's service clubs, Galveston's Boy Scouts and other school children, Austin's labor, religious and college groups, Lubbock's Latin American United Lions Club and Young Republicans — all pitched in to help.

Nacogdoches, Greenville, Tyler, Uvalde, Ennis, and scores of other municipalities around the state began drives through conventional channels such as churches and established charities.

Falstaff Breweries in Galveston and San Antonio shipped tons of water in unmarked beer bottles to the stricken towns and cities.

Seventh Day Adventists in Galveston collected clothing and bedding which the Alamo Freight Co. trucked toward the disaster zones.

Boy Scouts and school children in Galveston joined similar groups in LaMarque to collect toys for young victims of the storm and floods.

The Lubbock Baptist Association left 20,000 pounds of food, clothing and medical supplies to the area. The First Baptist Church of Shallowater sent a truckload of livestock feed for suffering cattle.

A Dallas woman asked to give 20 chickens, and a man in Marshall offered 9,999 cases of eggs.

The Salvation Army picked up 70 donated mattresses in Longview and drove them 500 miles by truck through the devastation to Port Isabel.

United Fund Edges Along

Early reports had put the Scurry County United Fund campaign over the $6,000 mark by the end of the week.

With the Pattern Division still setting the pace, the over - all total was $6,332 when the campaign headquarters closed for the weekend Friday afternoon.

The Public School Division, with several units reporting, had accounted for $2,031. The professional Division listed a total of $98 and the Public Employe Division $238. Other divisions had canvass work underway, but had not made reports.

Policemen Scatter Viet Protesters

By BARRY KRAMER

SAIGON (AP) — Club-swinging police broke up an antigovernment student demonstration outside the National Assembly today as the assembly debated whether to validate the election of Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu as president.

Several blocks away, 1,000 Buddhist monks and nuns ended against South Vietnam's military rulers. They marched from government headquarters but left behind their militant leader, Thick (Vernable) Tri Quang, who has vowed to stay in front of the building until his demands are met.

It was the third day of anti-government protests but observers said the unrest did not appear a critical threat to Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, the vice president-elect.

U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker went to see Thieu and was believed to have expressed U.S. concern about the situation.

Bunker and other embassy officials have been meeting frequently with Thieu and Ky, and with members of the National Assembly, to point out that refusal by the assembly to approve results of the Sept. 3 presidential election could radically affect American public opinion and the course of U.S. support in Vietnam.

U.S. officials have already termed the election fair. Twenty-two election observers sent by President Johnson generally said they found no evidence of fraud.

The assembly's special committee reviewing charges of election irregularities brought by defeated civilian candidates has voted overwhelmingly to throw out the results of the voting.

Despite the committee's action, observers believed it unlikely that the full assembly would order a new election. But they said assemblymen opposed to Thieu and Ky would probably extend debate in the assembly until the midnight Monday deadline in an effort to embarrass the government.

Says Refugees Here To Stay

By THEODORE A. EDIGER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cuban refugees, arriving in the United States at the rate of nearly 4,000 monthly, are here to stay, says a University of Miami research team in a study.

The new report suggested that the refugee assistance program, which has cost U.S. taxpayers $250 million to date, might be scaled down.

"The Cuban refugees as a group have lost much of their character as visitors awaiting a favorable opportunity to return to Cuba," said the study, prepared for the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

"On the whole, they seem to be losing conviction that an early change in circumstances will make return feasible."

The 200-page survey continued: "Many are accumulating vested interests in staying in the United States, which must be balanced against prospects in Cuba at the time of return.

"A precipitous exodus seems exceedingly remote under any circumstances."

The government "has tended to regard the refugees as problems rather than opportunities," the report said. "Planning for the future should incorporate imaginative thinking concerning the economic and cultural contributions of which the Cubans are clearly capable."

The book, titled "The Cuban Immigration," added: "In the expectation that the exodus from Cuba will continue indefinitely and that the situation will not alter in Cuba in the foreseeable future, a long-range goal of the refugee program should be normalization of the emergency situation created by the massive migration.

"This is, there should be a phasing down or out."

K&F Club Meeting Is Set Tuesday

The customary serious discussion of current world or national affairs is to be definitely sidetracked when members of the Knife and Fork club meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday evening at the Country Club. And, doing the side tracking will be the nation's number one humorist, Edmund Harding from down Washington, North Carolina way.

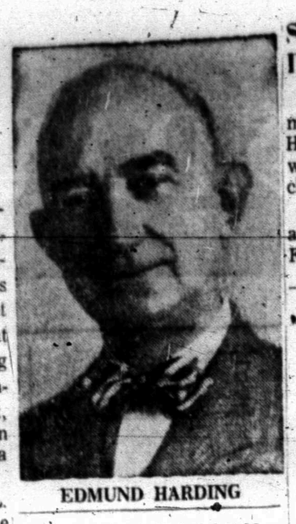

Given the appellation of D. L. (Doctor of Laughter) by the many audiences he has addressed over the score of years he has been serious about the funny side of life, Harding is said to have accumulated a fund of stories for every pleasant occasion. He is said to relate them at the rate of one a minute.

"Laughter is like a ball; once it gets started frequent little pushes keep it going smoothly along," he remarks sagely when asked about his speed of story telling.

Harding hasn't always been a humorist; and that isn't his only endeavor now. He has at times been a tobacco auctioneer, writer, newspaper man and retailer. At present he is engaged in the insurance agency business.

A trip to Europe some years ago (he does it as a regular thing now) was his first real vacation from business and the platform in years. But the journey wasn't made to study international conditions he emphasizes—"I dug around in some of the archives over there to get some new funny stories. Believe me, before the Germans invaded Czechoslovakia about 30 years ago, there were a lot of funny things going on."

Knife and Fork Club members should send reservations to Mrs. Ruby Anderson, 2305 Forty - second Street by Monday. Telephone reservations will be accepted until 8 a.m. Tuesday, at $2.50 per plate. Calls may be made after school hours to HI - 3-9975.

Pike Would Bring Religion To Fore

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Bishop James A. Pike says religion shouldn't be shoved to the back of the newspaper in its own little section.

"It shouldn't be like the want ads or the stock market quotations," Bishop Pike told the Central Coast chapter of Sigma Delta Chi Friday.

"If I have anything to say as a religious spokesman it should be no worse than on page three," said the resigned Episcopal bishop of California.

HAWKISH ARGUMENT PROVES

Hunting Is For The Birds

EDITOR'S NOTE—Ernst C. F. Jocher thinks hunting is strictly for the birds. And he uses very hawkish arguments to prove his point.

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Writer

CLONMEL, Ireland (AP) — In the heart of County Tipperary a retired German industrialist is reviving the world's oldest sport—falconry.

"My dream," said Ernst C. F. Jocher, "is to develop here in Tipperary the biggest falconry in the world."

In case you haven't hawked it yet, falconry is the art of employing birds of prey in hunting game. As for its antiquity, Jocher says there is proof of its existence at a sport in 2,205 B.C.

"But the noble art of hawking may be much older," he added. "Anyhow, there's no doubt about it. It's the oldest sport in the world."

From Stuttgart, Germany Jocher came to Ireland for the first time 14 years ago. He was on vacation.

"I fell in love with Ireland," he said, "and I decided that when I retired I would come here and live. I did just that five years ago, but I soon foun that I wasn't completely happy doing nothing.

"One day my wife said to me, 'For God's sake find yourself something to do.' As I'd been an active falconer for more than 30 years I decided to start a falconry.

"We began last year and we had 9,000 visitors. This year we've already had more than 40,000."

In running The Falconry of Ireland, Jocher is assisted by his son-in-law, Hermann Geissel, his pretty daughter Helga Geissel, and a young German falconer, Rudi Wolf, also of Stuttgart.

Located in pretty grounds two miles to the west of Clonmel on the main road to Waterford, The Falconry of Ireland is an impressive lay out.

It has more than 40 birds of prey including a golden eagle that flies free and returns to its master's fist when called, and a black vulture, the biggest bird in the world.

Jocher says falconry is making a comeback on the European continent, in Britain, Germany, and Spain and in the United States.

What does it take to be a falconer?

Patience, firmness, strength, courage and an actual love of these birds, says Jocher.

The falconer must attend, protect, and exploit his hawk with the ruthless devotion of a violinist towards his Stradivarius," someone once wrote.

Jocher moves among his birds of prey like a loving father among his children, petting them, calling them endearing names and even kissing them.

"This little kestrel," he said, "is as nasty as the devil. She was brought in here by a Gypsy and we bought her. We call her Tinker Girl."

At that moment Tinker Girl pecked Jocher on the nose and drew a spot of blood.

"It's nothing," said Jocher. "Nobody can really call himself a falconer until he's been bitten by a vulture."

Some Rivers Still Rising In Mexico

MEXICO CITY (AP)— Predictions of clearing weather cheered Mexicans today but some rivers and lakes still were rising after new heavy rains and up to 120 miles per hour winds hit the Yucatan Peninsula and Veracruz State on the Gulf of Mexico Friday.

The unofficial tabulation of dead and missing since Hurricane Beulah struck Sept. 16 climbed to 45. The Weather Bureau said no new major damage was reported in Yucatan and Veracruz.

Men with trucks and bulldozers worked around the clock to reinforce the banks of Lake Chapala in Jalisco and Michoacan states and Lake Yuriria in Guanajuato State as storm waters continued to pour into them.

On the Rio Grande border with Texas, an official at Matamoros said that although the river was still rising its waters probably could be diverted and posed little danger to the city. Upstream, the water level was reported dropping.

Six U.S. Army helicopters on loan to Mexico began ferrying food out of the resort of Acapulco to surrounding villages. The Mexican government already was using its own planes to carry supplies to an estimated 200,000 homeless people.

Hundreds of tourists in Acapulco took advantage of the resumption of international flights to leave Friday but many stayed to watch and photograph cleanup operations and some even ventured into the muddy surf. Hotels said they were about 70 per cent full, normal for this time of year.

Fred Wemple Rites Pending

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — Funeral services were pending Friday night for Fred A. Wemple, former chairman of the Texas Highway Commission.

Wemple, 75, died Friday in St Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston.

A native of Bonham in Northeast Texas, Wemple was appointed to the highway commission in 1947 and served until 1953. He was chairman of the highway group from 1951 until 1953.

He served in the Navy during World War I, was a railroad agent in Blossom, Tex., and later came to Midland where he was in business.

He was a member of the State Board of Education several years before taking the post as a highway commissioner. A former president of the Texas Good Roads Association, he was a member of the group's executive committee for many years.

Pope Paul Speaks To 200 Bishops

By DAVID MAZZARELLA

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI affirmed his primacy in the Roman Catholic Church today but told the members of the worldwide bishops' synod that they have "great authority."

In a speech at the first working session of the synod's month-long assembly, the Pope decried the "bloody war" in Vietnam and appealed for negotiations. He criticized Communist Poland for interfering with Church affairs and declared that the synod is important for Christian unity.

The pontiff also announced that Patriarch Athenagoras, Orthodox spiritual leader, would visit him in Rome at the end of October. It would be the first such pilgrimage to the head of the Roman Catholic Church by the head of the Orthodox Church after five centuries of schism.

The Pope's speech to 200 bishops appeared in some measure designed to balance the conservative tone of the keynote address he gave in St. Peter's basilica Friday, formally opening the synod.

In that speech he strongly denounced what he termed dangers to the faith in change and modern thinking.

Today, while he underlined that the synod's role at this stage was to consult and advise him as head of the Church, he said he would give the synod deliberative powers in some cases.

The Pope appeared to be opening the door toward the development of the synod into a stronger organ of Church government.

He said there would be no delay in seeking 'a more precise and detailed definition of the synod's nature than the description given" in his decree of Sept. 15, 1965, setting up the synod.

Dismay had been reported among progressive clerics at the synod because of the conservative cast of the Pope's keynote address.

HEAVY ACTION ON WEEK'S SLATE

Pro QB's Face Big Test

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Meredith tries to keep going, Bart Starr looks for a comeback and two of the more famous passing arms in the business, belonging to Johnny Unitas and Joe Namath, face severe tests in important pro football games Sunday.

Unitas, Baltimore's all-everything quarterback, takes his unbeaten Colt teammates against also-unbeaten San Francisco while Meredith and the Dallas Cowboys go against Los Angeles in another match of National Football League unbeatens.

Starr of Green Bay, subjected to a demoralizing nine interceptions in the Packers' first two games, tries to regain the form that made him the league's 1966 Most Valuable Player against winless Atlanta.

In the American League, Namath — who had his greatest day as a pro last week — takes his New York Jets against Miami in a struggle for the Eastern Division lead. Each team is 1-1. Kansas City and Oakland, each 2-0, meet on the Raiders' home grounds with the Western lead at stake.

Both leagues have a full schedule, all Sunday afternoon.

In addition to Los Angeles at Dallas and San Francisco at Baltimore, all unbeaten, the NFL offers Detroit, 1-0-1, at St. Louis, 1-1, Atlanta, 0-2, vs. Green Bay 1-0-1, at Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, 1-1, at Philadelphia, 1-1, New York, 1-1, at Washington, 1-1; Chicago, 0-2; at Minnesota, 0-2, and Cleveland, 0-2 at New Orleans, 0-2.

In the AFL, it's Kansas City at Oakland, San Diego (2-0) at Buffalo (1-2), Miami at New York and Denver (1-3) at Houston (1-2).

An interesting defense vs. offense situation shapes up at Dallas. The Rams' defense is one of the best in the business, and has yet to allow a touchdown this season. The Cowboys' Meredith currently leads the league with six touchdown passes in two games, including four last week.

The 49ers have shown a good pass rush this season, but face an old jinx in Unitas. The Colts have beaten San Francisco nine times in a row. Unitas found a new target in Willie Richardson last week, hitting him for 11 completions and 184 yards.

Jim Bakken of St. Louis, who kicked a record seven field goals last week, needs only one more to match a record of at least one in 14 games. The Lions looked good in a 31-14 conquest of the Browns last week, with rookie Mel Farr moving in the No. 2 spot among the league's rushers.

Green Bay, expected to dominate the league again this season, is still sputtering. The Packers hope to get untracked against the Falcons, who will be closing a three-game road trip.

Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, going into their 65th meeting, both lost last week after opening with peak performances. The Steelers were intercepted three times, lost three fumbles. The Eagles were intercepted four times.

New York and Washington set a flock of records the last time they played, the Redskins winning 72-41. Both look better this season, the Giants with Homer performance last week. The new Saints end a three-game home stand.

The key Kansas City-Oakland match shapes up as a defenstve struggle, the Chiefs coming off a 24-0 shutout of Miami and the Jones and the Redskins with a solid running game.

Gale Sayers appears to be back in form for the Bears, who looked less than spectacular in losing two straight. Joe Kapp, who passed for 157 yards in the second half of Minnesota's last game, could get his first start.

The Browns are in a must-win situation against the Saints if they are to be a title factor. They've lost two straight, but Leroy Kelly began to show some '66 form with a 141-yard rushing Raiders allowing only one touhdown in two games. Kansas City has a good one-two ground punch in Mike Garrett and Curt McClinton, with the Raiders relying on the passing of Daryle Lamonica.

The Chargers have a healthy Lance Alworth back to plague the Bills, who have been unable to put together a consistent attack and suffered their first shutout in history last week.

Namath hit for a career high of 399 yards for New York last week but faces the best pass defense team in the AFL in Miami. The Dolphins are yet to beat New York in regular season play.

The Oilers are still having their troubles and divided the quarterbacking duties between Jacky Lee and Don Truill last week. The Broncos looked good despite their loss to New York. Steve Tensi hitting 14 of 30 passes for 256 yards.

Dumas Falls; Other Top Teams Win

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Dumas bit the dust before powerful Amarillo and probably lost its high rating in Class AAA while Port Arthur and Brazosport continued a steady pace in Class AAAA as features of Friday night's barrage in Texas schoolboy football.

Dumas, which had climbed to the No. 2 spot, had the opportunity to possibly knock Ennis out of No. 1 had it shown to advantage against Amarillo. But the Golden Sandies, once powers of schoolboy football and on the upsurge now, clouted the Demons 33-14.

Ennis, which had an open date, improved its standing thereby.

But the sensation of Class AAA was Rockdale's 62-0 thrashing of Lampasas. Rockdale, rated No. 4, seemed in position to move to higher echelons.

Abilene Cooper, the No. 1 team of Class AAAA, had an off week but Port Arthur, beating La Grange of Lake Charles, La., 30-22 for an important intersectional triumph, and Brazosport, crushing Baytown 34-16, made their No. 2 and No. 3 spots more solid.

San Angelo, the defending champion of Class AAAA, also improved its position. The Bobcats, holding the state's longest winning streak—eight straight—clouted Amarillo-Tascosa 20-0 and should be in a better position when the next ratings come around. San Angelo now is ranked No. 9.

Mighty Jacksboro gave no comfort to the ambitious in Class AA. The No. 1 Jackrabits smashed Bridgeport 49-0 in their conference start.

But Daingerfield, the No. 2 team, threatened mightily with a 45-8 victory over Hughes Springs and the other rated teams all came through impressively. Plano, resting at No. 6, edged Class AAA Greenville 16-15 for a good showing.

The highest score run up this season to date was turned in by Crane in smashing Fabens 82-0 and Waco Connolly also produced a touchdown barrage in Class AA by whamming McGregor 74-0.

Seagraves, the No. 1 team of Class A, wasn't the wild scoring unit of the past as it tried unbeaten Sudan.

Movers Get Even Break In 2 Games

It was the McAlister Movers turn to score in a see-saw offensive Pee Wee football battle, but the clock caught them on the wrong side of the goal line and Universal Oilers won a 20-14 decision.

A 35-yard TD run by Oiler quarterback Win Bunch opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After exchanging ends of the field and a couple of punts, the Movers engineered a 40-yard drive with quarterback Raymond Smith running around alternate ends for 8 and 18 yards. He pitched out to Kelly Ragland for 8 more. Rick Howell took the ball on a reverse from the 6 and plunged across to tie the score.

Lightning struck quickly, twice — early in the third quarter on the fifth play from scrimmage the highly successful combination of Bunch to Clay Bishop struck with a 20-yard pass and run for 6 points for the Oilers. A conversion pass to Bill Murray was good, giving the Oilers a 14-6 lead.

After the Oilers kicked off, Kelly Ragland caught a Raymond Smith pass and then ran the remaining 20 yards to pay dirt on the very next play. The conversion tied it at 14-14.

Two possession exchanges later, the Bunch to Bishop combination again proved too much for the Movers pass defense. Bishop scooped in the ball and scored the final points in a 20-14 victory for the Oilers.

On Wednesday, it was a different story. The Movers took on the Price Construction Cat Skinners and came out on top, 22-6. Despite the running Skinner backs George Watts and Ronnie Payne, the Movers were in control all the way.

The Baltimore Colts have switched All-American end Bubba Smith of Michigan State to defensive tackle. Bubba is 6-8 and 290.

Cards Race By O'Donnell

O'DONNELL — The Hermleigh Cardinals filled the scoreboard with 8's here Friday night as they made a touchdown and two-point conversion in each quarter in surging past O'Donnell, 32-6.

Danny Peterson got the Hermleigh scoring underway in the first period when he went into the end zone from two yards out. Tom Chorn added the two extra points.

In the second period it was Chorn's time for a six-pointer and he went in from three yards away. Billy Joe Odstrcil got the two extra points this time.

Peterson made it in more spectacular fashion in the third period, breaking loose off right tackle and galloping 70 yards into the O'Donnell end zone. Chorn again added the two extra points.

O'Donnell got on the scoreboard late in the third period, breaking a 46-yard play that set it up in business on the Hermleigh one yard line. From there it took four plays for the hosts to score.

Hermleigh's fourth quarter 8 came on a four-yard scamper by Chorn and the two extra points by Peterson.

Coffin Slams On Chisox

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The coffin slammed shut on the Walking Dead. And then there were three.

Eddie Stanky's tenacious Zombies, the Chicago White Sox, dropped out of the American League pennant struggle Friday night, succumbing meekly to Washington 1-0 on Phil Ortega's four-hitter.

Now it's up to Minnesota . .or Boston. . .or Detroit to pick up the pieces. But all three were holding a cold hand and watching the weather today.

The Tigers, who have dropped two of their last three starts, were frozen out of a scheduled twi-night doubleheader against California Friday night and now must beat the Angels four times in two days to assure themselves of a first-place tie.

If Detroit wins all four, the Twins, one game in front despite two setbacks in their last three games, need to sweep their two-game set at Boston today and Sunday to nail a share of the top spot.

And the Red Sox, shocked twice by Cleveland earlier in the week, need nothing less than two victories over the Twins plus at least one Detroit loss to grab a piece of the pennant pie.

Hobbs Decisioned By Paint Creek

HOBBS — The Hobbs Panthers made a strong rally in the second half but barely failed to overcome Paint Creek's first half advantage as the Panthers dropped a 20-14 decision in their six-man football game Friday night.

Playing without services of first-string quarterback, Randy Williams, for the second week in a row, the Panthers were unable to score in the first half and Paint Creek went to the intermission period with a 13-0 advantage.

Hobbs fumbled the first play from scrimmage in the ball game and midway of the first period Jim Ballard romped 57 yards for a Paint Creek touchdown. The extra point try was missed. In the second period, Ricky Perry sped 65 yards for another Paint Creek touchdown and Livingood passed to Cockerell for the extra point.

Hobbs came to life in the third period, with Lorin Pearce going 32 yards for a touchdown. The try for extra points was blocked.

Ballard came back to score from the 5 to put Paint Creek out of reach, although the Panthers scored again in the fourth period. Pearce passed to Gil Warren for the score, the play covering 16 yards. Pearce then kicked the extra points.

Hobbs has an open date next week, and meets Weinert Oct. 13.

Powerful Cougars In Easy Romp

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Roll out the red carpet for Houston's powerful football team, traveling at a 40-points a game pace and apparently destined to rank among the nation's best throughout the 1967 college season.

Playing on the green, synthetic turf of the Houston Astrodome Friday night, the third-ranked Cougars rolled up an amazing 695 total offense yards in overpowering Wake Forest, 50-6.

Penn State defeated the Miami, Fla. Hurricanes 17-8 in another major game.

Notre Dame, No. 1 in the latest Associated Press poll, and Southern California, No. 2, were featured in games on Saturday's schedule. The Irish took on 10th-ranked Purdue on the Boilermakers' field while Southern California was at Michigan State.

Notre Dame's Jim Seymour last year caught 13 passes in the Irish game against Purdue.

O'Brien Rebounds To Decision Ira

IRA — O'Brien, behind all the way in the first half, roared back in the last two periods to win the battle of the Bulldogs in six-man football here Friday night, 34-16.

Ira had scored in each of the first two periods and held a 16-6 lead at half-time.

Eugene Briseno crashed over from a yard out to give Ira its first quarter touchdown. He added the two extra points to make it 8-0.

Lynn Holmes, who was to show his heels frequently during the game, climaxed an O'Brien drive by going over from the one. O'Brien was unable to get the extra points.

Ira added to its advantage in the second period when Terry Sterling galloped 37 yards for another touchdown and Briseno again kicked the extra points. The Bulldogs, Ira variety, threatened again before half-time when it recovered a fumble on the O'Brien 12 yard line. However, O'Brien held on its 6 yard line. Early in the third quarter, O'Brien again held on its 6 yard line after a 51-yard pass from Gary Weir to Ricky Holladay had set the hosts up in business on the O'Brien 13.

Then, here came Holmes again. This time he broke on a 67-yard touchdown gallop to put O'Brien back in the ball game. The extra points were missed.

Ira then lost two fumbles deep in its own territory. It staved off one threat, but O'Brien moved in after getting the second Ira bobble on the Ira 18. It was Holmes again, from one yard out, to give O'Brien the lead, 18-16.

Ira made a bid to get the lead back early in the fourth period. A 31-yard pass from Weir to Holladay moved to the O'Brien 10, but the visitors held again. Later, Ira recovered a fumble on the O'Brien 24, but O'Brien didn't budge.

Then, in the fading moments as Ira tried a series of desperation passes, Lynn Duncan intercepted one and ran it back 50 yards for a TD. Mark Lippard kicked the extra points, O'Brien's first conversion. But Holmes hadn't finished. He romped 45 yards as the clock gasped its last breath and Lippard again kicked the points. The last two touchdowns came after the two-minute warning had been given.

Probably the top defensive player on the field was O'Brien's Tom Watson.

B Tourney Replacement Is Sought

Head Basketball Coach Ned Underwood is hunting a replacement for one of the teams originally scheduled to play in the annual B team basketball tournament here Dec. 1-2.

Brownfield's B-team has dropped out of the line-up.

The local tournament is one of the strongest meets in the country for B teams, and Underwood said he hoped to find a top notch replacement for Brownfield.

Others in the field are Lubbock Monterey, Midland Lee, Big Spring, Seminole, Abilene Cooper, Lubbock High and the host Snyder B team.

Any school interested in sending its B team to the meet here as a replacement for Brownfield may contact Underwood at the Snyder Senior High School by calling HI. 3-6301.

It's Final, Danny Is Not Coming Back

PITTSBURGH (AP) — It's final: Danny Murtaugh won't manage the Pittsburgh Pirates next season.

When he took over at midseason after Harry Walker was fired, the club said Murtaugh would manage the team only until the end of the season.

But, some speculated Murtaugh might continue as manager in 1967.

Friday, the club put an end to the speculation by announcing that the smiling Irishman will take over at the end of the season as director of player acquisition and development.

National Football League teams scheduled a record number of 54 exhibition games this year, including 16 with American Football League clubs.

HARVEST HIGH-YIELD, HIGH-QUALITY COTTON WITH A HESSTON BRUSH COTTON HARVESTER!

"Gross returns per unit of harvested material were substantially and significantly greater ($11 per bale unit) for the Hesston than for any other." This was the report from Oklahoma State University after comparative tests on the quality of cotton harvested by a Hesston with cotton harvested by strippers. It's a proven fact that Hesston brush-harvested cotton will grade higher than stripped cotton ...and the reason is quite simple: The Hesston Cotton Harvester gently "brushes" the cotton from the plant. Its soft nylon and rubber brushes are highly flexible and allow a full 2½ inch clearance for stalks and branches. On the other hand, solid roll strippers have virtually no clearance whatsoever as they tear and shred the stalks and branches that are wider than the narrow fixed opening between the stripping devices. Obviously, this results in more stick, bark, and trash being harvested with a stripper... which means more ginning is required... and in turn, a lower quality grade of cotton. BUT THIS IS THE YEAR FOR QUALITY COTTON... and you'll get it with a Hesston... PLUS the capability of harvesting in a variety of stalk sizes, excellent field efficiency, and superior green boll separation. You know that you want quality cotton... and your Hesston dealer can show you how to get it... with a HESSTON!

BY STAR TURNED GOVERNOR

Political Pros Are Stymied

EDITOR'S NOTE—The old political pros said he didn't stand a chance. Yet after nine stormy months in office his hold on the voters is greater than ever. Even his opponents admit that he'd win in a landslide if he ran for re-election tomorrow, although they say he's broken every political rule in the book. Ronald Reagan—the film star turned governor—has got the old pros stymied. They can't figure out what makes him run.

By BILL BOYARSKY

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—All the trimmings of a political dinner, Western style, were laid out on the table waiting for the West's new politcial star, Ronald Reagan.

Thick steaks and big pots of beans were cooking, sending a rich smell back into the county fairgrounds. But the party faithful ignored the food, so eager were they to exchange a greeting with Reagan—or just to touch him.

That night, at a Republican barbecue at the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds near San Jose, a fact of Western political life was crystal clear.

After nine controversial months as governor of California, Republican Reagan can still warm an audience with a rare ability to say hello to a woman and send her away exclaiming, "He makes you want to smile."

"I wish there were two of you, one for the presidency and one to stay here," said a man at the barbecue, pressing his face close to Regan and grabbing his hand.

"He could say black is white on television and make the people believe it," says a critical Democratic senator.

Less than two years ago, political pros scoffed at his ambition to be governor of the nation's most populous state. A favorite political parlor game was dreaming up a Cabinet for the movie star candidate—"John Wayne, commissioner of the highway patrol."

Now the jokes are forgotten. The highway patrol commissioner is a serious minded former Los Angeles policeman. The pros concede Reagan is a potential candidate for president.

To many Republican conservatives, frustrated by futile campaigns for Barry Goldwater and the late Robert A. Taft, Reagan represents a hope for the future. They see him as a conservative with enough mass appeal to win a national election.

Presidential fever has hit the inner circle of Reagan's advisers. Publicly, they, like the governor, maintain he is interested only in being California's favorite son—and not jumping into the long, hard fight for the nomination.

One day, as public opinion polls showed his stock rising, Reagan sat at his uncluttered desk, toyed with his black-rimmed spectacles and conceded he had given some thought to the speculation about his candidacy.

"I'm aware of what's going on," he said. "You can't ignore it."

He ruled out, however, the creation of an organization to round up Reagan delegates for the 1968 Republican National Convention in Miami Beach.

"I can't see anything that would change the situation in regard to that," he said.

And significantly, he said he is setting up a limited 1968 campaign group—a team to direct his campaign to head a California favorite son delegation to the convention.

"You can't assume your fellow Californians will vote for you," he added.

Despite his statements of noncandidacy, there are signs of planning in the Reagan camp for the possibility that the governor may become a formal candidate. Lyn Nofziger, the former Washington newsman in charge of Reagan's press relations, has moved into a separate office and left much of the day-to-day handling of state government news to an assistant.

Nofziger will travel with Reagan on speaking trips this fall to Wisconsin, Montana and South Carolina.

But that's all in the future. Right now, Reagan's big concerns are the headache-producing problems of governing California—finances, taxes, racial tension, water and the rest.

Outwardly, Reagan hasn't changed much since his election.

His face is lined and deeply tanned, but surprisingly youthful. On Mondays, when he returns to work after an outdoors weekend, his cheeks are burned bright red.

Although he is 56 years old, his body is trim, without a trace of a pot belly. Only his neck, where the skin is starting to sag, gives a hint of his age.

His clothes are carefully tailored with the trousers cut wide in the style of the 1940s, the peak of his movie career.

In late July, he went into the hospital for an annual physical examination and doctors found bladder stones and a small, benign growth on his lip. The stones and the growth were removed in a 45 minute operation performed under local anesthetic and Reagan wisecracked with doctors as they worked.

In Sacramento, Reagan breakfasts in the morning with his wife, Nancy, and their children, Skipper, 9, and Patti, 14, in the two story Tudor style home they lease in a fashionable area almost 40 blocks from the Capitol. Mrs. Reagan hustled the family out of the old executive mansion because it was a firetrap.

Mrs. Reagan is 44, but, like her husband, looks younger. She is 5-foot-4, slender, wide-eyed, pretty, designer-dressed and expensively perfumed. She is deeply devoted to her family and her husband's career.

Like Reagan, she is protective of the family's private life. A curtain drops over the Reagan family when he leaves the office at night and it's difficult to learn of their social acitivities or what they do at home.

The same sort of curtain is drawn over a part of Reagan's personal past—his divorce from actress Jane Wyman. He sees their children, Maureen, 26, and Michael, 22. But neither Reagan nor anyone around him ever discusses the breakup of the eight year marriage in 1948.

In his autobiography, "Where's The Rest of Me," Reagan tells how he came home from the Washington congressional hearings on communism in Hollywood and was "told I was leaving."

"I suppose there had been other warning signs, if only I hadn't been so busy. But small town boys grow up thinking only other people get divorce," he said.

He added: "I have never discussed what happened, and I have no intention of discussing it now."

Outwardly, California hasn't changed much under Reagan, although the University of California, the state colleges, mental hospitals and other sections of the government have had their budget cuts. His opponents say the cuts will do long-range damage to state services.

Red China Has Little To Celebrate

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Red China's Communist party and government mark National Day on Sunday, with little to celebrate and much to mourn. It is the 18th anniversary of Mao Tse-tung's triumph over the mainland.

The party's apparatus and that of much of the government bureaucracy are in wreckage as a result of Mao's "great proletarian cultural revolution."

Incomplete results culled from reports in the official Chinese press show that in nearly two years since the current purge began—it later blossomed into the "cultural revolution"—the party, government, military and educational structures have been rocked by a political hurricane which refuses to die down.

Of the 20 members who held places on the Politburo, the body which rules the Communist party and the nation, 13 have been purged or removed since late 1965, along with all but one of the Politburos six alternate members.

Liu Shao-chi, former vice chairman of the party and still chairman — president — of the government, is labeled "China's Khrushchev" and chief opponent of Mao in a titanic power struggle.

Scores of the 99 members of the party central committee, elected at the 8th Congress of 1956—there has been no congress since —have been purged. So have four of the six first secretaries of regional bureaus who were party bosses over huge areas.

Premier Chou En-lai has lost at least 11 of the 17 vice premiers he had in late 1965. Along with them went many government ministers and deputy ministers, province governors and deputy governors, municipal mayors and deputy mayors.

In the military, the man who was chief of the army general staff has been purged, along with one of his deputies. One former defense minister and two former deputy defense ministers are on the list of enemies of "Mao Ts-tung's thinking," along with a number of commanders in provincial areas.

The top "enemy," Liu Shao-chi, is believed to have been holed up for a long time in the Chung Nan Hai district of Peking, where residences of high leaders are clustered. Some sources reported him under house arrest there, but there is no way of checking and he seems to retain considerable support.

From all the indications, the power struggle is far from ended. The chances are that it will do a good deal more violence to the structures of China's Communist party and government before it is over.

School Rules Changed

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Board of Education has changed its rules to allow Jewish teachers to stay out of school during their high holy days. To avoid any church-state conflict, the rule says only that teachers may have emergency leave for any "significant event, personal to the employe." A school spokesman estimated that 10 per cent of Los Angeles' teachers are Jewish.

Junior Editors Quiz on ICE CUBES

QUESTION: Why do ice cubes float in a glass of water?

ANSWER: Things in nature are either gas, like the air; fluid, like water; or solid, like ice. These states of matter can change from one form to another. For example, ice is the hard form of water. It has hardened because it has frozen. Any substance, when cooled sufficiently, will become solid. But most substances, when cooled this way, will contract. Ice is strikingly different from other solids in that as the water cools to ice it expands instead of contracting. This is because the tiny molecules, which we symbolize as molecule men, tend to stop their movement and become further apart when the water freezes. This makes a piece of ice less dense than the same volume of water. It is less heavy, and so the lighter ice cube floats on top of the heavier water in the glass and the Greenland iceberg (right) floats on the sea (although seven-eighths of the iceberg's mass is below water). It's very lucky for us ice has this quality of relative lightness. If it became heavier when freezing it would sink, and many of the lakes and seas would be packed solid; fish and marine life could not exist.

FIRST THINGS FIRST, and in "Divorce American Style" it's a perpetual argument between Dick Van Dyke and Debbie Reynolds. Debbie has no immediate plans for that fistful of soap, but she does arrange a divorce that gives her custody of their home, car, two children and most of Dick's future income. Also starred in the contemporary comedy; a Columbia Pictures release in Technicolor, are Jason Robards, Jean Simmons and Van Johnson. The movie starts at the Ritz Theatre Sunday, Oct. 8.

Vintage Year For TV Variety Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — This may be a rather poor year for comedies and westerns, but as the television season moves along there are indications it may be a vintage year for variety shows.

Dean Martin's show looks better than ever, Carol Burnett's new hour shows preliminary signs of being a success, the Smothers Brothers continue to amuse. And Wednesday night's "Music Hall" on NBC with Rock Hudson leading the way was a thoroughly delightful hour that gently kidded those 1930 Hollywood supermusicals— while replaying some of the great old tunes.

Hudson, one of the Hollywood stars who made his name in comedies, showed great charm as he sang Maurice Chevalier's "Louise," danced with a whole chorus of little Shirley Temples to "The Good Ship Lollipop," joined in a medley of Oscar-winning songs with Connie Stevens. While his singing voice is hardly in the Mario Lanza class, his warmth and enthusiasm more than made up for that.

Bobby Van had some amusing imitations of the dancing of Fred Astaire and Ray Bolger. There was, of course, a simulation of one of those Busby Berkeley production numbers featuring a huge stage and a large, busy chorus which climaxed so many well-remembered depression-era film spectaculars.

The top 10 programs in a national Nielsen report covering the week starting Sept. 11 were either broadcasts of feature movies or established television series. Five new programs, however, did get into its top-20 list.

Most popular programs of that week, according to the Neilsen projection of choices by 580 homes, were CBS's Friday and Thursday night movies, NBC's "Bonanza," and Saturday night movies, CBS's Family Affair" and Gomer Pyle," NBC's Tuesday night movies, CBSs 'Andy Griffith Show' and 'Lucy Show,'' and ABC's Bewitched."

New programs in the top 20 were ABC's 'The Flying Nun,'' NBC's High Chaparral,'' and The Jerry Lewis Show,'' CBS's Carol Burnett Show' and NBC's The Mothers-in-Law.''

The survey, too early in the season to be conclusive, does suggest that some new shows are already in trouble. At the bottom of the list of more than 80 programs were ABC's Good Company,'' Legend of Custer'' and Off to See the Wizard,'' and NBC's Accidental Family.''

Tribal Group Ousts Chief Crazy Horse

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Chief Crazy Horse has been thrown out of the Tribal Indian Land Rights Association.

Actually, the Indians expelled Michael Dante, an actor who portrays Crazy Horse in the television series "Custer."

Dante, who is not Indian, has been an honorary member. But he recently criticized the group when it went on the warpath against "Custer." A.A. Hopkins-Dukes, association president, says the show glorifies the old Indian fighter.

Said Hopkins-Dukes: "From now on, if we want help, we'll turn to Indians."

Frogmore's Frog Has Been Found

FROGMORE, S.C. (AP) — Frogmore's frog has been found.

The ornamental, 18-inch concrete symbol of the coastal town had been at the home of Lt. Col. C. P. Weiland of nearby Beaufort, whose daughter found it in their driveway two weeks ago.

"I didn't know whose it was until somebody called me about the story in the paper," said Weilan.

The frog's disappearance from the post office lawn was reported in Friday's newspapers.

Avant Garde Invades Staid Ferry

BY TERRI SHAW

NEW YORK (AP) — The avant garde invaded the normally staid Staten Island ferry Friday night in a confusion of electronic music, strobe lights, modern dance and ear-splitting jazz.

The event was the fifth annual New York Avant Garde Festival, billed as a 24-hour performance on the ferry John F. Kennedy.

The boat left the terminal with a capacity crowd of more than 1,000 passengers on the upper deck at 11:55 p.m. for the first round trip voyage of the festival.

Aboard was Herbert B. Halberg, commissioner of marine and aviation, who had provoked a small controversy by allowing the ferry to be used for the festival.

When asked about criticism from two Democratic city councilmen, Matthew J. Troy and Edward V. Curry, Halberg said the festival was an appropriate way "to display the various art forms of Miss Moorman and her associates."

As he spoke, Charlotte Moorman, cellist and sponsor of the festival, began measuring Halberg's height with a small book of matches.

"What does that mean?" Halberg asked.

"It means you're 35 match covers tall," Miss Moorman answered.

The cellist recently received a suspended sentence after playing the cello publicly nude from the waist up.

Halberg's question, "What does it mean?" was echoed by many passengers of the ferry.

When Julius Boros won $6,500 in the PGA championship he ran his 1967 golf earnings to $100,735.

American Football League teams listed 20 exhibition games this season, 16 of them with NFL clubs.

Jim Carlene, West Virginia's new football coach, was head defensive coach at Georgia Tech last season.
