

Noon Lions' Club To Conduct Drive

The Colorado City Noon Lions' Club will conduct an all-out drive from April 30 to May 10 to sell electric light bulbs to residents, according to an announcement made by Club President Van Mills. Every cent of the proceeds will go to the Lions' Club projects, such as crippled children camp, eye glasses for the needy, Kindercare, girls' softball, boys' softball and special olympics.

The light bulbs will be sold in handy Project-Paks, each containing two-100 watt, two-75 watt and two-60 watt at the regular price of $3.50 tax included. Every householder can use light bulbs and this drive affords an opportunity to get a good supply, while helping a most worthy cause.

The entire membership of the Lions' Club has been organized to supply friends and neighbors with light bulbs delivered right to their door. Lions' Clubs in other cities have had excellent results with their light bulb sales, and Mills has expressed his confidence in the anticipated success of this fund-raising campaign.

Byrne Survives Train Crash

Miraculously as it seems, yet another victim in the last few months that has been involved in a train accident at the intersection of Highway 208 and the railroad crossing, has walked away without serious injuries.

Louella Davenport Byrne of Rt. 3 Box 303,

Colorado City, was northbound on Hwy. 208 when she struck broadside a Missouri and Pacific train that was crossing at the intersection.

Leaving her 1973 AMC Gremlin literally crushed, Mrs. Byrne was able with some assistance to walk to an ambulance, provided by the Mitchell County Ambulance Service and transported to Root Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Byrne was still in the hospital at press time, but was reported in satisfactory condition.

Investigating officer of the accident was Lt. Jesse Dominguez of the Colorado City Police Department and assisted by other staff members of the CCPD, the Texas Highway Patrol and firemen of the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department.

Ezell's Request For Zone Change Is Approved At City Council Meeting

The Colorado City Council approved a request made by Charles Ezell for a zone change of the East 70 foot of Lots five and six, Block six, Hart-Costin addition from a residential district to business district.

Ezell stated that the reason for the request was he planned to build a building and move his T.V. repair business to that location.

City Manager Rick Crowley stated that it received a favorable recommendation from the Colorado City Planning & Zoning Commission at their last meeting and there were no negative comments made about the change.

Crowley also reported to the Council on the trip to Austin for a Pre-Enforcement Hearing in the Texas Department of Water Resources Department, when they discussed the waste water treatment plan discharge permit violation.

He requested authorization to proceed with some of the recommendations made by the Board.

He was authorized to retain the firm of Freese and Nicholas, Engineering to prepare specifications so the city can go out for bids on the chlorination equipment, which was one of the requirements made by the Board.

He received authorization to hire Sparks Construction to repair the dike on the fifth lagoon at the sewer treatment plant.

Crowley stated that he also received authorization to advertise for bids for the cleaning of the digester, noting that it will cost in the neighborhood of $10,000 because it will be a five or six day process and building of a tank.

Crowley was also authorized to advertise for bids for two 3,500 fiberglass contact tanks.

Other business taken care of by the Council, Tuesday night, was the appointment of members to the Board of Housing Standards Commission. Joe Weaver, B. B. Hardee, Julian Mendoza, Henry Bilberry and Virgil Stone were appointed.

The Council approved the transfer of funds; $50,000 to the water and sewer department and $15,000 to the general fund.

The last matter facing the Council was the appointment of Robert Hcback to be the Council's representative on the Mitchell County Ambulance Committee.

I'm always hearing people say "There's nothing to do in this town." Well really, the action is everywhere. All one has to do is put forth a little effort. Sitting around, being bored, and watching everyone get involved never gets anything done.

There are a number of clubs that welcome new members.

If you are looking for a great way to get involved, learn something new, and meet interesting people, join the Colorado City Playhouse.

Wallace Center always has something going for all ages. You can join a class, play volleyball, take some kids skating or volunteer your services. They also have noon meals for senior citizens and many other activities for everyone to enjoy.

If you like to dance or listen to good country music, go to the local FVW on any Friday or Saturday night and dance to the music of a live band.

This time of the year, lots of people are getting softball teams together for those who like the excitement of competition or just want to get some fresh air and a little exercise.

And speaking of fresh air and exercise, remember we have two lakes where we can go to enjoy fishing, swimming, skiing, or just laying around in the sun.

I could go on and on, but the idea is—there is something to do in this town. Just decide what you want and go for it. Remember, you only get out of anything, what you put into it.

Isn't it great to have a hometown? A hometown is a place you can always come back to and no matter how long you've been gone or how many other places you've lived, the minute you get back there you get a warm, comfortable, friendly feeling all over.

That's how I feel about Colorado City, but this place has never been so special to me as it has since I moved back here last summer.

I have come to the realization that I never really knew this town or the people that have seemed so familiar to me all my life. Getting to know Colorado City and the terrific people here is like a brand new adventure and I love it.

See you around town.

We shall not cease from exploration
And the end of all our exploring
Will be to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time.

Long-Time Doweller Retires

Frank Wayne Webber retired in March from Dowell, Division of Dow Chemical, after being with the company for some 34 years.

He first began with Dowell in January 1956 in the Colorado City District office as a mechanic. Webber was then transferred to Rule, Tex., four months later.

In 1957, Webber was transferred to McCamey where he was stationed until 1972. Webber's daughters, Jayne, Susan and Debby graduated from school there.

In 1972, Webber was transferred to Levelland where he was promoted to Lead Mechanic, but his desire to return to Colorado City, made him accept a position as a driver. He was immediately made a mechanic and in 1980 was promoted to Lead Mechanic.

Webber was honored with a retirement party at the

Roundtree Stresses More Bicycle Safety

There are more than 105 million bicyclists, nearly half of the population, two-wheeling today, making the need for bicycle safety more important than ever, according to Police Chief Jimmy Roundtree of the Colorado City Police Department.

American Bike Month in May is dedicated to promoting safe bicycling. For more than a quarter century, communities throughout the country have held special events geared to making their areas safer places for bicyclists, Chief Roundtree noted.

Because more and more youngsters and adults are riding their two-wheelers for fun, physical fitness, energy-conservation and short-haul transportation, Chief Roundtree emphasized that the need for bicycle safety education in the schools, community centers and in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies is urgent. Greater awareness will help prevent accidents.

Recent studies have revealed a common cause of many traffic accidents involving bicycles was the "blind eye of the motorist," the Police Chief said. Scanning patterns of the motorist were beamed at other automobiles, frequently overlooking the presence of the bicyclist on the road. The Chief cautioned motorists to remain alert for bike riders and respect their right to the road.

Some bicyclists also perform erratic and illegal maneuvers in unexpected places—such as exiting from driveways and sidewalks onto public roads without looking, thus creating hazardous situations. Failure to stop or yield at controlled intersections and wrong-way riding also contributed to bicyclists' accidents.

The American Bike Month Committee stated that in addition to Illinois, Maryland, New York and Wisconsin, several other states are adopting formal bicycle safety education programs. Despite this trend, there is still a considerable vacuum in the area of practical bicycle education programs.

Committee Gives Safe Biking Rules

Here are a list of safe bike riding rules of the road, courtesy of the American Bike Month Committee.

1. Obey all traffic regulations, signs, signals and markings. Bicycles should be ridden as safely as any road vehicle, and riders should obey the same rules of traffic, whenever they apply.

2. Observe all local ordinances pertaining to bicycles. Registration and licensing, inspections, riding on sidewalks, etc., may all be covered by local laws. It is your responsibility to know them and abide by them.

3. Keep right: ride with traffic, not against it. Ride single file. Keep as close to the curb as practical. Though most states allow riding two abreast when it would not obstruct traffic, there may be situations on narrow roadways where it would be dangerous.

4. Watch out for drain grates, soft shoulders and other road surface hazards. Be careful of loose sand or gravel, particularly at corners. Watch out for pot holes.

5. Watch out for car doors opening, or for cars pulling into traffic.

6. Don't carry passengers or packages that interfere with your vision or control. A good rule is "one person, one bike," unless it's a tandem. Use baskets or luggage carriers for packages.

7. Use a good helmet.

8. Be extremely careful at intersections, especially when making a left turn. Many accidents happen at intersections. If traffic is heavy, you may wish to get off and walk your bike with pedestrian traffic.

9. Use hand signals to indicate turning or stopping. Let the motorist know what you plan to do by giving the appropriate hand signals for turning left to right, or for stopping.

10. Protect yourself at night with the required reflectors and lights. Again, state laws vary. All require a headlight. Others require reflective pedals, additional side and rear reflectors or other reflective material. If you are going to drive at night, use maximum protection.

11. Ride a safe bike. Have it inspected to ensure good mechanical condition. Make sure your bike fits you. See to it that brakes, pedals, lights, reflectors, shifting mechanisms, sounding devices, tires, spokes, saddle, handlebars, and nuts and bolts are checked regularly.

12. Ride your bike defensively; watch out for the other guy. Observe the car in front of you, and the one in front of him. Always look behind you before making any kind of turn. Leave yourself room and time to take defensive action.

Meeting To Be Held

Representatives of some 30 independent petroleum associations, including PBPA, will meet in Washington the week of April 26th to lobby Congress against any tax changes that would harm the domestic petroleum industry. Percentage depletion, intangible drilling costs, last year's changes in the windfall profits tax, an oil import fee, and a BTU tax on all energy will all be candidates for change in order to bring in more money to the Federal Treasury. Many observers have long predicted that the oil industry would have to help bail out the free-spending liberals in Congress and that may very well be what happens.

The price for a barrel of crude oil has just about leveled off and, in some cases, has started to creep back up. This also means that gasoline prices may have bottomed out and could be on the way up as well. The average price for a gallon of regular last week was $1.18.

And, a bill has been introduced in the Senate to abolish the synthetic fuels corp. The original bill authorized the Federal Government to guarantee loans or provide supports to syn-fuels projects. Up to $88 billion dollars in credit could be available in the program. So far, 17 billion dollars have been made available for current projects.

Mrs. Blanche Feathers, of Colorado City, was a guest of the Loraine United Methodist Women in the home of Mrs. Pearl Bruce at 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, April 14.

After the song, "The Church's One Foundation," Mrs. Lola Fay Bennett, study leader, introduced Mrs. Feathers, who brought a briefing on the study of the churches in Europe. The main topic in the study is "Must Walls Divide," authored by James E. Hill.

Many statistics were given regarding churches, hospitals, schools, etc., operating under the banner of Christ. Two points stressed were (1) Christians must truly be concerned for humanity and (2) We must accept the political, and social-economic situations in Europe as an evangelical challenge. Many anti-Christian movements are to be met face-to-face. Four sessions will be conducted in this study.

Those present for the meeting were Mmes. Feathers, Lola Fay Bennett, Syble Walker, C. H. Martin, J. M. Templeton, Ruth Blair, Mattie Neely, Lula Bond, Raymond Wheeler and the hostess, Mrs. Bruce.

Organ Donation Awareness Week Held

The First Annual Organ Donation Awareness Week will be held April 26-May 1, and is a special project of the American Medical Association Auxiliary and the Texas Medical Association Auxiliary. Mrs. George Bush has accepted the National Honorary Chairmanship for this drive to increase awareness of the importance of the need for people to register as organ donors with The Living Bank.

The Living Bank, founded in Houston in 1968, is a nonprofit service organization which coordinates the anatomical donations of donors throughout the United States. The organization is the only national donor registry. At the present time, approximately 100,000 people are registered with The Living Bank.

maintained on life support system. Eyes—four to six hours. Bone—eight hours. Skin—18 hours.

The most awesome medical era of all—medical era of all—the transplant era—continues to advance remarkably. There are many among us who are so critically ill as to be in need of an organ transplant. Figures in 1981 indicate that approximately 62,000 Americans are on kidney dialysis with 10,000-12,000 people waiting for transplants; 25,000 cornea transplant operations were performed in 1981 but some 50,000 people were waiting.

You can be the one to give life to others. For information on how to become a donor, contact The Living Bank, P.O. Box 6725, Houston, Texas 77005.

Nursing Home Week Slated

Residents in more than 1,000 nursing homes across Texas will be honored during a special week to begin Mother's Day Sunday, May 9th.

During this week, which Governor Clements has designated as "Texas Nursing Home Week and Second Annual Life Festival," nursing homes will be holding Open House, and many will feature Life Festival celebrations.

Open House events traditionally include such festivities as Mother's Day dinners and teas, talent shows, barbecues, and country western music—a pleasant week of activities in which nursing home residents and their neighbors in the community may renew friendships and share some time together.

Many nursing homes will also conduct Life Festival celebrations, a potpourri of carnival-type games and activities designed to raise money for a worthy cause of public interest. Beneficiary of this year's Life Festival proceeds is the Leukemia Society of America, Inc. Sidney D. Rich, President of the Texas Nursing Home Association, said, "Many of our pioneer citizens live in nursing homes, and they want to feel a part of the communities they worked so hard to enrich.

Nursing Home Week affords an opportunity for community members to remember and salute these fine senior citizens by visiting them during their special week...and hopefully, all during the year."

Rich went on to say that while doing so, "Community members may be surprised to find that the facilities today are quite nice places where steadily increasing numbers of our population are receiving concerned, professional care in safe, comfortable surroundings."

Larry Gatlin and the Gatlin Brothers, distinguished Texans who typify the warm family relationship which is the theme of this special week, are Honorary Hosts for Texas Nursing Home Week. The celebrated entertainers are donating their influence to urge visits to nursing home residents.

"Share your love—visit a nursing home in your area" is the official invitation to the public by Larry Gatlin and his brothers.

Nursing homes are filling an important role in the health-care delivery system. In Texas there are several thousand more nursing home beds than hospital beds, emphasizing the growing importance of long-term care in a society with lengthening life expectancy.

Governor Clements, in his proclamation, encouraged "all who can to visit nursing homes in their communities and join in the observance of Nursing Home Week and the celebration of the Second Annual Life Festival."

ELECT A DESCENDANT OF THE PEOPLE THAT HELPED BUILD MITCHELL COUNTY

Granddad W.L. Ruddick came to Texas from Marshalltown, Iowa and married Rosa Leach, daughter of early day Baptist preacher, Rev. and Mrs. A.D. Leach. Mr. and Mrs. Ruddick lived most of their married life in Mitchell County. He was a pumper for Standard Oil Co. of California while living at Westbrook. Mr. Ruddick also drilled many water wells in Mitchell County. He followed the Oil Industry to Pecos, Texas, where he died April 29, 1929 after an oilfield accident. He was a pumper for The Rio Grande Oil Co. at the time of his death. Mrs. Ruddick and their four children returned to Mitchell County and she raised two sons and two daughters at Westbrook. The sons are Lawrence Ruddick of El Dorado, Kansas and Lee Ruddick, father of candidate and manager of Costin Implement, Co., of Colorado City. The two girls are Mrs. L.O. Schafer of Colorado City and Mrs. Kenneth Ezell of San Antonio. Mrs. Schafer served as Chief Dispatcher for Colorado City Police Department for 28 years. (She served under Chiefs Dick Hickman, Leon Yeager, Jesse Browning and Fred McWhorter.

W.P. Ruddick, great-great-uncle, came to Mitchell County from Oregon and married Sarah Hutchins. They lived in a half dugout until lumber could be shipped from Fort Worth. The railroad came in 1881 to Mitchell County.

Mr. Ruddick drilled many water wells, was first to raise cotton on a large scale in this county. He also brought the first Registered Jersey and Hereford Cattle to Mitchell County. He grew a large orchard located South of town. Bennett Scott told of when he was a young man, hauling fruit from the Ruddick Orchard by horse and wagon to town to sell. The Ruddick heirs donated land for the present Ruddick Park in 1929.

Leach

Great-granddad Rev. A.D. Leach came to Mitchell County in either 1899 or 1900 from Rising Star, Texas. He married Ada Mead and after her death Callie Wilson. He organized many Baptist Churches in Mitchell and Scurry Baptist Association, Oak Street Baptist Church being one of them. He traveled by horseback, buggy, wagon and later, cars, to preach wherever a preacher was needed, most of the time without a salary. He took whatever the members shared with him. He and his family farmed for a livelihood. He served as Justice of the Peace of Mitchell County several years. Great Uncle, Gilbert Leach, son of A.D. Leach, worked as deputy clerk for Tax Assessor Collector Bruce Hart for 8 years. He then served 24 years as County Clerk, making a total of 32 years he served in Mitchell County Courthouse. Most of those years he ran without an opponent.

Great Uncle Harvey Leach, another son of A.D. Leach, was a very active member in Loraine Baptist Church. He helped organize and build the Mexican Baptist Church in Loraine. He did a lot of the manual labor. He was a very good farmer and very devoted Christian man.

Smith

Great-granddad M.M. Smith came to Mitchell County in 1905 from Coryell County by train. Perry's Granddad, J.P. Smith, was about 20 years old, rode that whole trip in the cattle car to take care of his horses and cattle while they traveled to Mitchell County. They settled in Buford Community.

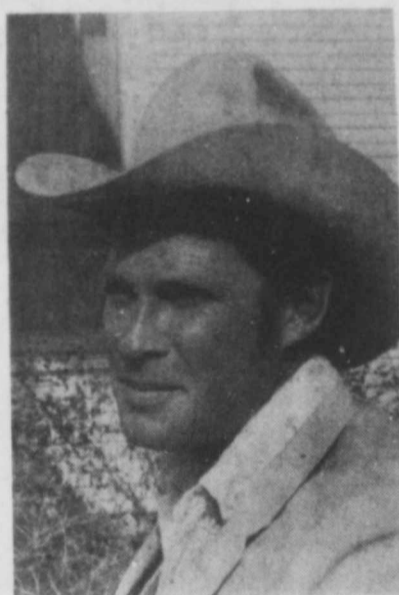

J.P. Smith and Julia Birmingham were married Aug. 23, 1912 at Buford at the Tom Daughtrey home. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were a part of the organization of Buford Baptist Church. Mr. Smith and his sons helped build the Baptist Church at Buford. It is believed Rev. A.D. Leach helped organize Buford Baptist Church. The Smiths farmed and raised their six children in the Buford Community. They are 4 boys; Carroll of Gatesville, Rev. Alvin of Lakin, Kansas, Loyd of Colorado City and the late Forrest, who was a deputy sheriff for 8 years, and 2 girls; Mrs. Clyde Alexander of Sahaurita, Arizona and Mrs. Lee Ruddick of Colorado City, candidate's mother, who worked as Colorado City's evening dispatcher for many years, now executive Director of Housing Authority. Jewerstone Perry Smith, 97 years of age of Root Valley Fair Lodge, is oldest deacon in Oak Street Baptist Church. He was ordained a deacon in First Baptist Church in Colorado City in 1921. He was an active deacon about 54 years and has been a deacon 61 years.

Perry Ruddick

Graduated from Colorado High School in 1967. He served four years as deputy. He was active in sports, in F.F.A., showing calves and sheep. He attended San Angelo State College before being accepted in Texas Highway Patrol Academy and graduating in 1969. He served 4½ years as Texas Highway Patrolman--was in the Army for a time and given a leave of absence while in service. After returning to Highway Patrol and serving for another length of time, he quit the T.H.P. to return to Mitchell County to serve as a deputy for Sheriff McGuire. He has served as a deputy sheriff in Matagorda County and on the Bay City Police Department making a total of 9½ years of law enforcement. He is now employed by Lem Operators.

"There is no better time than during American Bike Month to remind citizens that bicycle safety is everyone's job," the Police Chief said. He reminded youngsters and adults that along with the Rules of the Road there is further need for maintenance of a bike to make sure that it is in safe operating order. Most experts suggest that bikes should have regular maintenance inspections at a local bike shop, but there is not reason why the bike riders can't take some simple steps toward preventive maintenance on their own.

Handlebars and seats should always be adjusted to fit the rider and tightened. Chains should always be kept lightly oiled and brakes should always be checked before going out on a bicycle. Meanwhile, it is a very simple procedure to check tires to make sure that there are no stones or glass bits lodged in the treads and that they are properly inflated.

Chief Roundtree is recommending that the following Rules of the Road, issued by the American Bike Month Committee and endorsed by the International Association of Chiefs of Police, be followed not just during American Bike Month, but all year long.

were served, the business meeting was called to order by President Susan Anderson. A new program format was discussed to be used this summer. Plans were made for the senior recognition dinner, and a film series authored by Joyce Landorf to be held this fall.

A financial report was given by Mac Perkin and local mission reports were given by Dolores Wood and Debby Carlock. The program was presented by Leslie Perkins, taken from the book, "Singing the Lord's Song."

Those present at the meeting were Mmes. Carlock, Wood, Perkins, Hudson, Sherry Anderson and Susan Anderson.

Also present were Mac Perkin, Carla Rivera, Ann Beaty, Patti Graham, Judy Chapman, Cherry Hoback, Leigh Erwin, Mary Alice Smith, D'Dee Morris and guest Sue Bolin.

COULD YOU USE AN EXTRA $540,585 WHEN YOU RETIRE?

THE NEW TAX-DEFERRED INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS-IRAs.

That's a ridiculous question, of course. Because everyone could use an extra $540,585 toward their retirement. And now, with a tax-deferred Individual Retirement Account (IRA) from our FULL SERVICE BANK, almost everyone can have an extra $540,585. Even if you're already covered by a company pension plan.

To build such an impressive nest egg, you'll need to salt away $2,000 a year—for 30 years—into your own high-yield retirement account.

Or, as demonstrated in the box at right, you can deposit less than $2,000 a year and still end up with a sizeable amount of cash.

You can even set up a convenient payment schedule. Making deposits by the week, by the month or whatever suits you best.

WHAT A TAX-DEFERRED IRA COULD MEAN TO YOU
Based on 12% interest compounded annually

	$500 INVESTMENT at $100 of each year	$1,000 INVESTMENT at $200 of each year	$2,000 INVESTMENT at $400 of each year
30 Years	$15,000	$30,000	$60,000
30 Years of Withdrawals	$135,146	$270,292	$540,585

Note: This chart is intended to be an example of how regular deposits into an IRA can grow into a substantial sum. This is not a guarantee of interest rates or end financial results.

And because our retirement accounts are tax-deferred, you deduct your annual investment from your taxable income. So you'll pay no federal tax on an IRA until you start withdrawing funds (minimum age 59½). Then, when you retire, you'll probably be in a lower tax bracket, paying lower taxes.

If you're intrigued with the thought of reducing your tax load while increasing your security, call or visit the professionals at our FULL SERVICE BANK for all the details.

They could help make your retirement much more enjoyable. About $540,585 more enjoyable.

What does a senator throw in his wastebasket? What does a tennis pro toss in the trash?

Some eighth graders thought it would be interesting to find out. So they wrote to well-known individuals—a United States Senator, a popular tennis pro, a nationally-recognized newscaster, a leading banker and other celebrities. "Won't you send us something out of your wastebasket?" they asked.

And here's what the celebrities sent. One returned a soft drink can. Another sent an empty film container. A third, a crumpled letter. One after another, the celebrities responded with something out of their wastebaskets.

Did the eighth graders find such things interesting? Of course they did. So much so, that when their 'celebrity trash' was by mistake thrown into a garbage heap for removal, they dut it out and returned it to a display case, because it WAS interesting.

"Interesting," too, you might say, of what the Apostle Paul had "thrown into his wastebasket." He went on, "I've tossed out any grounds for boasting before God. 'I count them as refuse,' Paul declared. I have thrown that stuff into the bottom of the wastebasket. Why? To clear the way for what God has to give me—a relationship based on the best of grounds, founded on faith in Christ. Only by the gift of God can I be right with God. Any achievement of mine is no better than trash.

A person cannot be right with God through any achievement of his own. Boasting before God is plain rubbish. Throw it out. Let God give you the relationship with Him which He offers you—that relationship which is the gift of God anchored to the work of Christ and founded on faith in Him alone.

Q. I have a '79 Olds with a C-4 computer. Is there any way I can find out what the problem is when the "check engine" light goes on without hightailing it to the dealer?

A. Yes. The light will pulse a code which you can cross-reference in a shop manual if you follow these steps: First, find the C-4 computer module beside the glovebox. It's a metal box with a number of leads coming from it. You'll find an unconnected black/white wire hanging from the box. Ground this wire with a jumper without stopping the engine (if you shut off the ignition, the computer may "forget" what the problem is). Now the "check engine" light should flash a code three times. For example, a "23" code would be two flashes, pause, three flashes. If the engine is experiencing more than one problem, other codes will appear.

Cowbelles Meet In Snyder

The Tejas Cowbelles met Tuesday, April 13, at 10 a.m., at The Shack Restaurant in Snyder.

The Tejas Cowbelles are a local chapter of the Texas Cowbelles. They are women whose husbands or family are part of the cattle industry and their main objective is to promote beef. This is done by sponsoring various projects every year, some of which are Ag Day, Texas beef cook-off, Beef for Father's Day, beef education booths at local fairs; national and Texas Legislation, beef gift certificates and scholarships for students in Ag related fields.

Recently the local chapter held a farm tour for fourth grade Coahoma students on Ag Day and a beef exhibit at the Scurry County Museum in Snyder.

Upcoming projects include Beef for Fathers Day and an Agriculture round-up and symposium this July in Big Spring with speakers like Congressman Charles Stenholm and representatives from the Texas Cattle Feeders Association and National Cattlemen's Association, to name a few.

If the Tejas Cowbelles sound interesting to you and you would like more information, please feel free to contact either Mrs. Carl Guelker (Sue), at 728-5476 or Mrs. Nub Morris (Maurine) at 728-5425.

Ahhhh, Italian cooking—everyone agrees it's among the world's finest and best-tasting.

Whether a dish originated in northern Italy or in the heart of Rome, it's never bland, never forgotten and always relished by those who love good food, says Annette Reddell Hegen, a seafood consumer education specialist.

Hegen is with the marine advisory staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

One such Italian dish, risotto—made with rice base, broth, seasoning and meat or fish—is ideal to serve to a large number of people, the specialist suggests.

This food is fairly economical if you choose fish, since just one and one-half pounds of fish serves six people, she points out. In addition, fish has the advantage of being high in protein and low in saturated fats, Hegen says.

FISH RISOTTO
1 1/2 pounds cooked fish
1 cup long grain rice (not instant)
1/2 cup sliced green onions and tops
1/4 cup cooking oil
1 can (10 three-fourth ounces) chicken broth

1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon thyme
Dash of pepper
1/2 package (10 ounces) frozen peas, thawed
1/2 cup sliced, pitted ripe olives
1 jar (2 ounces) chopped pimientos

Flake the fish that has been baked, broiled or poached and set aside. Heat rice and green onions in oil in large skillet or Dutch oven, stirring constantly. Add and cook over low heat for 15 minutes or until rice is tender. Add fish and remaining ingredients. Cover and cook over low heat five minutes or until mixture is heated throughout. Makes six servings.

An appropriate side dish to Fish Risotto is a crisp salad with Italian dressing, Hegen suggests. White wine is an excellent accompaniment.

Eye-Q Offered During Prevent Blindness Week

April, Prevent Blindness Month in Texas, is a good time to check your "Eye-Q." How smart are you about your eyes? Smart enough to keep from being one of the 1,300 Texans who will needlessly lose their sight this year? Or do you need more information to help insure a lifetime of sight?

To find your "Eye-Q," the Texas Society to Prevent Blindness recommends you take this test which is excerpted from its brochure "Professor Ludwig Von Drake's I.Q." Answer the following True or False.

- You should never rub your eye when there's a speck in it.
- You can look at the sun if you wear very dark sunglasses.
- You could be going blind and not realize it.

- Children don't need eye examinations until they are in school.
- Tiny children are more prone to eye accidents.

The answers:

- True. Never rub any dirt or foreign body that gets into your eye. You could scratch the cornea and cause permanent damage. Lift the upper eyelid over the lower lid and let tears wash the eye clean.

- False. Never look directly at the sun while wearing sunglasses. Tinted lenses will provide relief from the sun's glare but not from the dangerous infra-red rays that can penetrate the dark glass and damage the retina of the eye.
- True. Chronic glaucoma, often called the sneak thief of sight, may cause permanent loss of vision unless discovered early, and treated continuously afterward. The patient may not be aware of symptoms in the earliest stages of the disease. Therefore a medical eye examination at least every two years starting at age 35 is the best means of preventing blindness from glaucoma.

- False. Ideally every child's eyes should be examined at birth and annually thereafter, but definitely no later than age three. Some vision defects such as crossed eyes or amblyopia can mean permanent loss of vision in the affected eye if not found and treated before the child is six years old.
- False. The junior high school years bring the greatest risk of accidental injuries to youngsters' eyes. Boys are involved in three out of four eye accidents during these years.

If you missed even one of the above, your "Eye-Q" is low says Prevent Blindness. To improve it the Society recommends you send for the free brochure "Ludwig's I.Q." This booklet answers ten percent questions on eye care and also lists the warning signs of eye trouble in children and adults. For those who wish additional eye information during Prevent Blindness Month, the Society also suggests writing for the booklet "Your Eyes for a Lifetime of Sight." To obtain either, send a long stamped addressed envelope to Prevent Blindness, P.O. Box 20-20, Houston 77252.

The Texas Society is an affiliate of the National Society to Prevent Blindness, the oldest voluntary health agency nationally engaged in preventing blindness through community service programs, public and professional education and research.

Gerald Corkran has been named Scurry County Amateur Photographer of the Month by the Scurry County Museum. An exhibit of 13 of his photographs will be featured in the museum through May 14.

Corkran is director of the Developmental Reading Center at Western Texas College.

The Scurry County Museum, located on the campus of Western Texas College, is open each weekday and from 1-5 p.m., on Sundays without admission charge. The museum is also hosting a traveling exhibit, "A Golden Age of Painting," made up of 16th and 17th century paintings by Dutch, Flemish and German master painters.

This exhibit will remain through April 30.

Bill Hobby's Report

By BILL HOBBY
Lieutenant Governor

As Texans have finished meeting the April 15 deadline for the filing of their federal income tax, they can be thankful that they were not among those in 40 other states who had to pay a state personal income tax.

Some of us in state government have worked hard to meet the state's responsibilities without resorting to an income tax, either personal or corporate. It is not easy to stave off a tax source that brings in so much revenue to fund the many demands for state spending. But our success has meant more spendable income in the pockets of Texans and one of the lowest overall tax burdens of any state in the nation.

The Texas Constitution requires pay-as-you-go government. We have had no budget deficits during the time I have served as Lieutenant Governor. Neither have we had any new state taxes nor tax increases.

As a result, Texas is indeed a tax haven.

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES
THE UNWELCOME GUEST WHO SECURED SIBERIA FOR RUSSIA

If the Russian Cossack chieftain, Yermak, had been a more desirable guest—or if the Czar's emissary could have stopped him in time, Siberia today might not belong to Russia. It all happened like this:

It was in the reign of Czar Ivan IV, The Cossack, Yermak, and his band of fierce followers (more noted for their bravery than morality) refused to submit to the Czar's iron rule. Left Moscow and swept down to Perm, to the settlements of one Stroganov, Ivan made no objection to the band's departure. In fact, he was too pleased to get rid of them.

But in Perm, Stroganov found the unruly warriors quite unpleasant guests. Not wanting to stir up the band or incur their enmity, Stroganov thought of a way to rid himself of them diplomatically. He suggested to Yermak that he and his warriors cross the Urals into Siberia and take that vast and sparsely settled land from the Tartars. And he agreed to help Yermak with supplies, food, and arms.

In 1580, Yermak set out for the land beyond the Urals. He had 1,636 men with him, and before long they had crossed the mountains and were in Siberia. They traveled along the Tagil and Tura Rivers and the next year, in 1581, were on the Tobol. There they prepared to lay siege to the residence of the Tartar Chief Khan Kuchum, near what is now Tobolsk.

When the Czar learned of Yermak's plans to attack the Tartars he was badly frightened. He feared to stir up the fierce Tartars and dispatched an emissary with frantic orders for the expedition to turn back. But it was too late. Yermak and his band had already engaged the Tartars who possessed an army thirty times as large, and with customary fierceness and fearlessness, administered a crushing defeat. The Tartar Chief fled to the Steppes.

Later, Yermak made his peace with Ivan IV. He was restored to favor when he presented to the Czar the nucleus of what is today Siberia!

It all began because the wily Stroganov tried to send a wild Cossack on a fool's errand and because the Czar's messenger was too late with an order to turn back.

A GALLERY OF GIFTS for Mother's Day

TELL CITY WALL ACCESSORIES

Sunday May 9

Give Mother something special for the place she loves best, her home. And we have an entire Gallery of Gifts to choose from, all with the kind of quality that's made Tell City famous.

Sconces that add style to the candlelight she likes for special occasions. Racks that make hanging up coats and hats almost fun. Pretty mirrors. Or shelves, ideal if she's a collector.

All are solid, hard rock maple in the traditional Andover Maple finish or the darker Rumford Maple finish. Some even offer antiqued finishes in favorite colors. All are hang-ups, too; so they won't use an inch of floor space.

Come in soon. See our entire Gallery of Gifts. It offers the unusual. The eye-catching. The conversation piece. So many choices for every gift occasion. It makes choosing a pure pleasure.

Hays Is Honored At Birthday Party

Mrs. Teance Hays of Loraine had a surprise last week when she was visiting in the home of a daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holcomb and Amy in Fort Worth when her other five daughters who are scattered from Indiana to Alaska came for a reunion to celebrate her birthday.

The Holcombs and Amy had planned the reunion and she had surprises over and over as they met Fort Worth-Dallas and Lovefield planes to see who was arriving.

Saturday was her birthday and she was presented on that day with a money tree and many other gifts.

This was the first reunion for Mrs. Hays and the six daughters in five years.

Jean Goodman and grandson, Marty Schell came from Oklahoma City, Vera Brannon from Anchorage, Alaska, Jo McAdams from Spearman, Erma Tiger from Indio, California and son, Chris from O.U., Oklahoma and Treva O'Neill from Carbondale, Indiana and the hosts Peggy, Richard and Amy Holcomb.

Mrs. Hays returned home Thursday.

Jim Mattox Front-Runner In Primary

Dallas Democrat Jim Mattox, acknowledged front-runner in the Democratic primary race for Attorney General, received a boost with a rare primary endorsement by U.S. Congressman Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio.

The 20 year veteran San Antonio Congressman noted that he was breaking his own rule in throwing support to Mattox.

"I have a rule never to make endorsements in the primary, but today I'm going to make an exception because Jim Mattox is exceptional," Gonzalez said. "I'm endorsing Jim Mattox in the race for Attorney General because the people of Texas need Jim Mattox. Jim has worked with me in the Congress on legislation important to the people, and I know he will be an excellent Attorney General for the people of Texas."

Congressman Gonzalez is the Chairman of the powerful Housing Subcommittee of the House Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs. He is regarded as the most influential Hispanic legislator in the U.S. House of Representatives.

"In 1981, Jim Mattox fought for and voted for the extension of the Voting Rights Act, one of the most effective civil rights acts ever passed. And in 1980, Jim Mattox cast one of the deciding votes to protect strong enforcement provisions in Fair Housing legislation which passed by one vote-205 to 204," Gonzalez said.

"Jim Mattox's campaign has generated tremendous support and enthusiasm in the Mexican-American community across the state," Gonzalez pointed out. "The fact of the matter is, Jim Mattox is a winner. He received over 60 percent of the endorsement vote of the Mexican-American Democrats, the overwhelming support of the Texas AFL-CIO, and San Juan Mexican-American Democrats and many other key groups."

Barrow Is Seeking Re-Election May 1

Justice Charles Barrow, a five-year veteran of the Texas Supreme Court, said this week that "fairness and plain old hard work" are the reasons for his overwhelming endorsement for re-election by Texas attorneys.

Recently published results of the 1982 Judicial Poll by the State Bar of Texas showed Barrow receiving the vote of 10,216 attorneys to 1,148 for his opponent, Woodrow Wilson Bean, Sr., of El Paso. Barrow's 90 percent margin was the highest received by any candidate in the five statewide judicial races on the ballot this year.

Judge Barrow says the outcome of the non-partisan poll is particularly significant when an incumbent judge receives a high approval rate. "A judge in a case is like an umpire in a ball game—50 percent of the participants in our cases go away losers," Barrow explained. "A secret poll like this one would give attorneys displeased with a member of the court the perfect opportunity for revenge. With this level of support from the bar, I must even be getting the support of many who disagree with the outcome of some cases."

While the bar poll is a strong indication of which candidate is felt to be more qualified by those in the legal profession, Barrow pointed out that winning does not mean he will necessarily win the election. Despite receiving a similar margin of support
