ING THERE — This is the "tail-end" section of the Garnolia Rural School, set on a 4 1/2-acre site here for use as a Negro school by A. E. Oliphant, Lubbock contractor, at a cost of more than $3,000 to the local school district.

RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE — This is the gymnasium-auditorium, the second section of the school. It was necessary to cut the building into three sections to move it to town. The Garnolia district recently consolidated with Post, along with the Graham district.

OUT IN FRONT — This is the front section, set off the lead truck and onto blocks. The moving was delayed because of a Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. guide-wire, and the sections set a few days on a country road in the Close City community until the wire was lifted by the company.

The Rev. Roy Shahan officiated, with burial in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Hudman Funeral Home. The courthouse was closed Wednesday out of respect to Miss Gollehon. County officials serving as pallbearers were Carl Cederholm, T. H. Tipton, Carl Rains, Lewis C. Herron, Sid Cross

Rains Help Crops, Water Situation

Rainfall totaling .54 of an inch here since Saturday night has temporarily eased Post's near-desperate water situation, Mayor James Minor said today.

While the rainfall has been spotted, some areas of the county have received enough to benefit crops, particularly early feed. Wednesday morning's rain, which deposited .13 of an inch of moisture in Post, lasted for about an hour in the Graham community, southwest of town.

According to County Agent Lewis C. Herron's rain gauge, Saturday night's rain totaled .36 of an inch; Sunday's .05 of an inch, and Wednesday morning's, .13. In addition to alleviating the water situation, the rains have brought cooler weather.

Following the weekend rains, Monday's water consumption dropped to 703,000 gallons as compared with 999,000 a week ago Monday.

Following are water use figures through Tuesday:

Wednesday	1,163,000
Thursday	1,972,000
Friday	1,904,000
Saturday	1,823,000
Sunday	531,000

The contestants and their sponsors, as reported Wednesday by Miss Craig, are as follows: Leslie Nichols, Fashion Cleaners; Patsy Payne, Dairy Mart; Doris Ellenburger, Short's Hardware; Linda Moreland, Dodson's Jewelry; Linda Lott, Franleigh Fashions; Mary Louise McCrory, Maxine's Shop; Ann Porterfield, Parsons' Dress Shop; Marica Dean Holland, Dunlap's; Shirley Heintz,

To Name Rodeo Queen

Plans for selection of a rodeo queen and for other features of the annual Southwestern Champion Junior Rodeo here Aug. 7-10 were discussed at a directors' meeting Monday night.

Girls 19 years of age and under are eligible to enter the queen's contest, according to secretary Leon Miller. The queen will be selected by four local judges. Girls wishing to enter the contest are asked to address a post card to Box 743, Post.

Last year's junior rodeo queen was Minnie Lee Mathis. This year's winner will receive a pair of hand-made boots.

The secretary also announced that the town will be decorated for this year's event. He said a decorator is expected to arrive the first of next week from Vernon to begin putting up flags and bunting. Business firm owners are urged to cooperate in getting the town properly decorated.

Also at Monday night's meeting, directors voted to employ Buddy Thompson of Dallas as rodeo clown.

Miller said a number of riding groups had accepted invitations to ride in the rodeo-opening parade at 6 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 7. Twenty-seven sheriff's posses and riding clubs have been invited.

First, second and third place prizes of $15, $10 and $5 will be awarded winning floats in the parade. There will also be a $10 prize for the best-decorated automobile.

It's Beard-Growing Time!

Plans Roll For Jubilee

Put those razors away, boys. It's Golden Jubilee beard growing time. This should tickle you girls.

A proclamation was being prepared today for Mayor James Minor's signature calling on every male living within the city limits of Post to enter into the beard growing competition.

Plenty of prizes are promised. Definite announcement on the prize list will be made in next week's Dispatch but some of the probably prizes will go to the man with the most handsome, groomed face foliage, best sideburns with moustache, longest moustache, best mutton chops, best Van Dyke beard, and the best beards in various colors.

Mayor Minor promised to start his beard today. The black derby hats and the flat-tops probably won't be put up for sale for two or three weeks yet. The beards will take a little time, fellows.

With eight weeks to go to Golden Jubilee time, Sept. 14-15-16-17, planning began yesterday by officers and directors of the Post Golden Jubilee, Inc., for the busy stretch drive to make the community's 50th birthday a standout success.

Mrs. Altman Is Buried In Rites Here Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Lou Myrtle Altman, 71, a resident of the Pleasant Valley community since 1916, who died at 2:40 a. m. Monday in Lubbock Methodist Hospital, were conducted at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Church of Christ.

Otis L. Proffitt, minister of the church, and the Rev. J. W. Rives, Baptist minister of the Pleasant Valley community, officiated. Burial was in Terrace Cemetery under direction of Hudman Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Buddy Hall, C. K. Robinson, Racy Robinson, Elmer Hitt, Sonny Hitt, Hoyt Land, Richard Lewis and Wayne Chaffin. Mrs. Altman had been a patient in the Lubbock hospital for 19 days.

She was born March 23, 1886, in San Saba County, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Maynard. She was married to B. N. Altman on Aug. 3, 1902, at Mabank, Tex. They moved to a farm in the Pleasant Valley community in 1916 and lived on the same place ever since.

Mrs. Altman is survived by her husband; five daughters, Mmes. Carrie Guess and Artie Baxter of Post, and Willie Williams, H. C. Sisson and Estelle Bowen, all of Littlefield; seven sons, P. A. of Enochs, James of Snyder, Ed of Littlefield, Dan of Tulsa, Woodrow

Officers Baffled By Nature Of Break-Ins

Burglars Hit Five Firms Here

Law enforcement officers today were confronted with what they call "one of the most baffling series of break-ins" ever pulled here following five burglaries and one attempted burglary Monday night in which "next to nothing" was taken.

The break-ins were at Piggly Wiggly, Marshall-Brown dry goods store, Short Hardware, Parsons Dress Shop and the Lavelle Shop. The attempted break-in was at K&K Food Mart.

Sheriff Carl Rains said what mystified him was the fact that after going to so much trouble breaking into the places, the intruders apparently left empty-handed.

Such was not the case, however, in break-ins Friday night at Judy's Cafe and Caprock Chevrolet, Inc. At the cafe, where entrance was gained from the roof through a kitchen stove ventilator, the burglars stole about $40 from a fund being made up for Marion Brown, waitress at the cafe, who was critically injured in an automobile accident July 11. The intruders left behind two $5 checks which had been placed in the fund. The money and checks were in a container at the cashier's counter.

At Caprock Chevrolet, where entrance was gained through a shop window, a cigarette machine was broken open and robbed of "a few dollars," the sheriff's report showed.

The break-in at Judy's Cafe was the second within two weeks, Rains

White River Bond Vote Officially Set For Aug. 17

Directors of the White River Municipal Water District officially voted last Thursday night at Crosbyton to call the $4,000,000 bond election for the district Aug. 17 and designated the Post City Hall as the polling place for eligible Post voters.

Walter Crider was appointed presiding judge for the election in the Post precinct.

Official action on the bond election was by a unanimous vote.

ABSENTEE VOTING
Absentee voting will begin Monday on the $4,000,000 White River bond issue, the water district's public information committee has announced. Eligible Post voters who will be out of town on Aug. 17, the date of the election, are urged to cast absentee votes at the Garza County clerk's office.

The legal "Notice of Election" appears on page 4 of this edition of The Dispatch.

Most of the July meeting of the water district directors was devoted to going over the printed feasibility report with S. W. Freese, consulting engineer.

Freese told the directors that with oil companies in the Post area buying some 1,200,000 million gallons of surplus water a day at a reasonable rate "we feel like it is an excellent project for the four cities."

The engineer said that "without the oil company loan we wouldn't recommend it as a project for Post, Crosbyton, Ralls, and Spur."

In the final feasibility report, now in printed form, Freese estimated total cost of the project at $4,000,000.

The breakdown of the project costs included (1) $926,000 for construction of the dam and reservoir, (2) $577,500 for the filter plant, (3) $375,000 for a 14-inch pipeline to Spur, (4) $923,700 for an 18-inch pipeline to Post, (5) $797,700 for 16 and 12-inch pipelines to Crosbyton and Ralls.

UNDERGOES SURGERY
Marion Brown, 26-year-old Post woman, who was critically injured in an automobile accident near Loreine July 11, underwent brain surgery Monday in Lubbock Methodist Hospital. Her condition was reported "unchanged" Wednesday morning.

This totals $3,599,900. Also included in the cost was $247,500 for interest during the construction period, $80,000 for legal and bond expenses for the district at $96,760 miscellaneous expense and general contingencies.

The report estimated operating expenses for the district at $96,760 in 1950, ranging up to $101,640 in 1990.

The feasibility report proposed the following method of financing: First, placing of $2,500,000 of the bonds with private investors under the following conditions:

An interest rate of approximately five per cent.

Thirty-two year serial bonds with no principal payments during the first two years and with level annual interest and principal payments for 30 years.

Two years' interest during construction period to be provided in project cost.

Firm contracts for the sale of water at a reasonable rate to defray a substantial part of the annual costs. A reasonable rate for the water is deemed to be 25 to 30 cents per thousand gallons for filtered water delivered to the city limits of the four cities.

A reasonable tax rate in the district to provide revenues which will supplement the revenues from water sales to the extent necessary to fully cover the annual costs of the project. A reasonable tax rate is deemed to be 50 to 60 cents per $100 valuation based on valuations of 75 to 80 per cent of true market value.

Second, the borrowing of the remaining $1,500,000 needed from the Federal Housing and Home Finance Administration through the Community Facilities Administration.

This administration was authorized by the 84th Congress to assist public bodies in financing specific public works projects essential to the health and welfare of the people.

The report notes that in process of applications, the law sets forth that the administration shall give priority to assisting smaller communities (under 10,000 population) in the construction of basic public works, including works for the storage, treatment, purification, or distribution of water.

The current rate of interest being charged on such public facility loans is 4 1/2 per cent for projects. See WHITE RIVER, Page 7

Old Pictures Needed For Jubilee Edition

The Dispatch needs pictures of Post pioneers and early-day scenes for its Golden Jubilee edition.

Since work is already under way on the edition, those having pictures The Dispatch can use are asked to mail or bring them to the office or give them to Mrs. Johnny Hamilton, who is assisting in preparing the edition.

The pictures will be returned to their owners as soon as engravings are made. Those furnishing pictures are asked to identify, if possible, all persons in them, as well as places and buildings.

Water Is Only IF in Post's Future

The future of Post—that's a subject close to the heart of every local resident.

How does it look? Bright indeed. That's the answer with just one IF—if Post solves its water problem.

Lets peek at some population figures. Back in 1920 Post had a population of 1,426 persons. For the next 20 years it didn't grow very much. The population was listed as 1,668 in 1930 and 2,046 in 1940.

Then came the oil discoveries and steady and rapid growth. Post's population shot up to 3,141 in 1950 and by last year the figure had climbed to 4,107. Today counting residents who live just outside the square mile townsite the population is between 4,800 and 5,000.

Considering the fact that a great deal of this growth came in a string of drouth years, the increase points up the fact that the town's development is due to other factors—including the growing oil industry, mill expansion, and other solid business reasons.

The consulting engineers on the White River Municipal Water District project estimate the population of Post by 1950 will have climbed to 7,300. This is a projection of past growth, but it probably doesn't take into account enough of the city's rapid postwar growth.

Population-wise Post is growing up quickly into quite a town. That of course presents its headaches. But it promises a great deal for the future.

Oil has become a major local industry. There are some 20 oil companies actively at work in the Post area. The oil industry has a far greater payroll here than most residents know. The Postex Mill has spent millions of dollars in the last few years in a modernization and expansion program and has boosted its payrolls substantially. The mill is one of the finest kind of industries a town this size could have, and the town is blessed with mill management which is solidly behind the town and boosting it.

Post is far enough from the rapidly growing city of Lubbock to retain its own market. But it is close enough to benefit in future years with the continued rapid growth of Lubbock. Satellite industry always spreads from large cities out into nearby smaller towns for good economic reasons. Post in the future can expect to benefit materially from the growing "Dallas of West Texas."

Post has excellent rail and highway facilities. It can attract more industry. It has progressive municipal government, up-to-date schools, and energetic civic leadership.

Total all these up and Post is a very attractive and solid community. The future for it should hold a great deal.

The only stumbling block could be water. That is essential to any community growth. The underground water supply for Post is shrinking rapidly. The answer lies in an above ground, reservoir type supply.

Voters will have the opportunity Aug. 17 to stamp their approval to the White River District $4,000,000 bond issue as a solid step forward toward solving the water problem. Voter approval will not assure the success of the White River project but it is the next logical step.

Post knows its water problem and wants to solve it. A topheavy vote of approval is essential to convince bond buyers that this community is really behind its water bonds.—JC

Andrews' Problem Strangely Familiar

We can sympathize with the editor of The Andrews County News who is bemoaning the fact that "a vast indifference on the part of the people" is one of the factors that is keeping Andrews from getting city mail delivery. That is about all that kept Post from getting it several months ago. We say "about all" because there were a few other requirements, but it was generally believed that the city would have qualified if the public had shown enough interest in the proposal.

Any time postal authorities give the postmaster the "go ahead" signal on feeling out the patrons on city delivery, it's a pretty sure sign that it can be set up if the people want it. The project was given up here when not near enough of the approximately 1,000 questionnaires distributed were returned. That indicated the majority of the patrons either did not want city delivery or just didn't take time to return their questionnaire.

Postal regulations state that a city is eligible for mail delivery when its postal receipts reach $10,000 and its population 2,500. On that basis, Post has been eligible for city delivery for the last several years.

The consensus at the post office seemed to be that many of the patrons did not want city delivery because there would be only one delivery a day—in the afternoon—whereas practically all the first class mail is "up" at the post office by 8:30 or 9 o'clock every morning. That's a good point for those opposed to city delivery, but it doesn't contribute to the parade of progress. It adds to a town's stature to have city mail delivery.

Not all those who failed to return the questionnaires were opposed to city delivery. Many of them were just indifferent. Postmaster Harold Voss said a big majority of the questionnaires returned favored city delivery. The questions patrons were asked to answer were: "Do you favor establishment of city delivery service?" "If city delivery is established, will you relinquish your box?" "If city delivery is established, will you accept such service at your residence or place of business?"

Getting back to Andrews, there probably is more at stake there than there was here. The Andrews editor says that Andrews is the largest city in the state of Texas without home delivery of its mail.

And now, getting back to Post, we'd like to see another survey made here in the not-too-distant future, if postal officials haven't given up on us. The Chamber of Commerce thought enough of the city delivery project to back it, and there probably were scores of individuals who'd like to see the service established, but just didn't take time to fill in and return the questionnaire.—CD

Junior Rodeo Group Needs Our Help

"Everybody loves a parade." That's the reason parades are important accessories to rodeos and similar events. It's also a good reason why we should go all out to help make the parade opening the annual Southwestern Championship Junior Rodeo here Aug. 9 one of the biggest ever held. It'll take floats, decorated automobiles and riding groups to do it. With 27 invitations mailed, arrangements for getting the riding groups have been taken care of. What the juniors need most now is an assurance of a goodly number of floats and decorated automobiles.

Clubs and other organizations and business firms with the time to spare are urged to help make the parade a success by entering floats or decorated cars. In addition to the cash prizes being offered, there'll be the prestige to be gained through representation in the parade.

There is also a move on foot to have the town decorated with flags and bunting at a cost of about $4 per business firm. It has been several years since this type of decoration has been put up for either of the two local rodeos, and this would be a good time to get back on the beam. There's little doubt but that such decorations go a long way toward getting the townspeople in the proper "spirit" for the rodeo, and make a favorable impression on out-of-town visitors. When people come to town in advance of an event and see the flags and bunting out, they ask, "What's coming off?" When they don't see it, they naturally don't ask questions.

From a general standpoint, the Junior Rodeo is deserving of everyone's support from start to finish, since it is a 4-H Club-sponsored event. The success of this year's rodeo may determine whether or not the 4-H'ers will be able to match funds promised by the county for construction of the new 4-H building. Let's all help—from decorations through the parade and right down to the final bull ride on Saturday night, Aug. 10! —CD

Farm Accidents Take Heavy Toll

National Farm Safety Week is being observed this week, and Garza County farm families are urged to focus attention on and help reduce the tragic toll of agricultural accidents.

The element of risk is an occupational hazard of farming. And there are two types — financial and physical.

Vast armies of statisticians and farm economic experts have worked for years to lessen the effects of the first type. But reduction of the physical risk is largely up to the individual farmer.

If 1957 holds true to the average, then some 15,000 U. S. farm residents will die of farm mishaps. Another 1,300,000 persons will be injured. And many of these accidents could have been avoided.

Most mishaps occur during peak work seasons when hired help is apt to be short, causing the farmer to work longer hours and become tired long before the job is done. As a result, he is tempted to take risky short cuts or postpone needed repairs on machinery and buildings. This sets the stage for crippling accidents.

Farm machinery is a big killer. Careless handling of equipment causes many accidents but even a careful operator may be hurt if he is running broken or worn machines. A good maintenance program for machinery could do much to keep down farm tragedies.

Farm animals are another common cause of injuries and death. Some accidents with animals are unavoidable. Still, many result from impatience on the farmer's part or an underestimation of the animal's dangerous traits.

Fires take an annual toll of about 3,500 persons—not counting the millions of dollars lost in valuable food, domestic animals, clothing, buildings and equipment. These fires occur at the rate of 300 per day and most can be traced to defective heating units, overloaded electrical wires, lack of protection from lightning, etc.

Even discounting home fires, another 4,000 farm people die each year from accidents inside the house. Thus, home safety is a prime starting point in eliminating accidents which rob families of their livelihood.

Let's play it safe here in Garza County during Farm Safety Week—and every other week of the year.—CD

THURSDAY to THURSDAY

By CHARLES DIDWAY

PEOPLE ARE becoming more and more Jubilee conscious as the dates near for Post's fiftieth birthday celebration. Just the other day, a youngster told us he had a 1957 fifty-cent piece he is going to try to hold onto until the Jubilee. If he's anything like our young'uns, he'll have a hard time keeping it from burning a hole in his pocket.

And, four young ladies probably were surprised when they saw the order in which the Jubilee sign pictures appeared in last Thursday's Dispatch. They were not arranged in the order they were lined up on the highway, but that's because the fellow who ordered the signs told us they'd been put up wrong. So, we arranged them in the paper in the order he said they should have been erected on the highway.

NEITHER OF THE four girls in the pictures—Linda Lott, Jan Thomas, Melanie Thompson and Mary Louise McCrary—wanted to have their picture made first, so we wrote the numerals 1, 2, 3, and 4 on slips of paper and let them draw for it. Mary Louise drew No. 1, but her picture in the paper came out No. 4. Jan's No. 2 came out right, but Linda, who had drawn No. 3, was No. 1 in the picture series. And Melanie, who drew No. 4, appeared in the pictures as No. 3.

Not that it made a bit of difference, since each of the young ladies was a charming sidelight to the sign she helped play up. The way the signs are erected on the highway, they read "Post Sept. 14, 15, 16, 17"—"1957-1957"—"50 Years Young"—"Golden Jubilee." The way they should read and the way we ran them in the paper is "50 Years Young"—"1957-1957"—"Golden Jubilee"—"Sept. 14, 15, 16, 17."

A FRIEND OF ours who makes nearly all the banquets says he sometimes wonders if the abbreviation M. C. doesn't stand for "menial case" instead of "master of ceremonies."

Not only does it cost more to be born nowadays, but it also costs more to get a birth certificate—that is, if you get it from the Texas State Health Department. The birth certificates still cost only 50 cents if obtained from the county clerk of the county in which the child was born. The increased fee for state-supplied birth certificates from 50 cents to $1 was set by the 55th Texas Legislature.

IT'S ALSO GOING to cost more to get married after Sept. 1. Until Sept. 1, $2.50 will get you a marriage license, but after that date it'll cost $3. That's another increase that was voted by the 55th Legislature.

The firing of a number of big-wigs in the Soviet government would be good news, if it weren't that every one of them is being replaced with a Russian. That's similar to the complaint the Texan had after returning from a trip north. He said it'd be all right up there except for so many Yankees.

NOW THAT WE'VE finally learned to spell "Appaloosas," we can't get anyone to come around and give us a story on the Appaloosa Horse Show to be held here Friday, Aug. 9—the day before the annual Garza County Quarter Horse Show. If Floy Richardson, chairman of the Appaloosa Horse Show, sees this before we see him, we'd like for him to come in and give us more dope on it than we now have. We've got a halfful of notes on the Junior Rodeo and Quarter Horse Show, but nothing much on the Appaloosa Horse Show.

WE'RE GETTING our camera all cranked up for the "Miss Post" bathing beauty contest at the swimming pool here Saturday. It'll be the first chance we've had to focus the Speed Graphic on a bevy of bathing beauties since the city and area contest were held in 1954, the year the pool opened. We got some excellent pictures then... with such subjects, we just couldn't miss!

There's a big weekend coming up for Post baseball fans, with the Area C Pony League playoffs getting under way this afternoon. There'll be four games today, four more Friday and two Saturday in the double elimination tournament. The district Little League playoffs get under way at Tahoka the first of the coming week, and there'll be a lot of proud Post parents and other fans accompanying the local Little League All-Stars over to the Lynn County seat for their first game, with Seagraves, at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Falls Leading Source Of All Injuries To Farmers And Ranchers

A fall on the farm or ranch can cost a rural family more money than a fall in prices on the agricultural commodities markets, according to the Texas Safety Association.

The Association points out that falls are the leading source of all injuries to farmers and ranchers in Texas.

However, injuries from all mishaps are expensive. In fact, a recent study shows that the average medical costs of such injuries runs $195 per accident. Piled on top of this is, in many cases, the necessity of hiring extra labor or suffer a serious loss of production, besides pain and discomfort.

Common sense and good house-keeping can substantially reduce hazards according to the Texas Safety Association.

Around the yards and corrals, pick up loose wires, boards and scrap metal. Don't allow nails or hangers to protrude unnecessarily. Keep hand tools in safe racks. In the home, keep stairways clear of objects and well lighted. Have a stepladder or kitchen stool handy for reaching high places. And, don't carry a "lazy man's load" that will block your walking view.

The population of the Federation of Malaya is estimated at 6,250,000 people. It is one of the world's most productive centers of tin.

IMPROVING PARK
CROSBYTON—With an expenditure this season of approximately $1,200, the Crosbyton Jaycees' principal project of improving and beautifying Glen McKee Park is beginning to show results. The Jaycees have just completed installation of $800 worth of playground equipment at the park.

NO RURAL RUNS
LOCKNEY—Members of the Lockney Volunteer Fire Department have been instructed to stop answering rural calls until such time as the county will assume the liability for firemen on such calls. Other cities in this area have recently taken the same step in stopping their fire trucks from making rural calls.

Again this year, the reunion will be held at Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock. Committee members shown are (seated, left to right): Mrs. Harvey Griffith, funds; Byron Shotts, reunion president and mailing sub-chairman; Mrs. Romie Campbell, reunion secretary and mailing sub-chairman. Standing, left to right: Leon Harris, publicity; G. N. Robertson, picnic site; Walter D. Wilkins, steering committee chairman, and Walter Chalk, reunion vice-president and master of ceremonies. ## Safety And Citizenship Programs For 4-H Club Members Under Way

CHICAGO (Spl.)—The 4-H Club activities in full swing throughout the state will benefit many families and bring honors to club members as well. They are the nation 4-H Safety and Citizenship programs arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

Popular with 4-H'ers, participation in the programs enables them to help themselves, their parents and neighbors. Furthermore, they have a good chance to earn well deserved rewards for doing an outstanding job. Records are judged by the State Extension Service, which conducts the programs.

In safety there are county, state, and national awards. To each of the eight national winners will go a $400 scholarship to be used at any accredited college or university. The 1957 state winner will be a delegate to the five-day national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago with all expenses paid. General Motors is donor of these and other awards in the safety program.

Among the many phases of the activity are those which pertain to some of the more hazardous aspects of rural life such as farm machinery, animals, automobiles, swimming, and firearms. Under the direction of local 4-H leaders, members also conduct campaigns to correct unsafe conditions in the community.

This year marks the 10th anniversary of the citizenship program, and all awards will again be given in honor of Thos. E. Wilson, Chicago, pioneer sustainer of 4-H work. National awards are $400 college scholarships for the highest ranking boy and girl, and the best in the state will each receive a laudatory certificate of honor.

Post Minister Is Speaker At Draw

The Rev. W. L. (Billy) Porterfield, pastor of the First Methodist Church here, spoke at the morning worship service Sunday as the Methodist Church at Draw, southeast of Tahoka, celebrated its 50th anniversary.

The church was organized in 1907 with Rev. Fee as its first pastor. Rev. Porterfield is one of three ministers who grew up in the community and who were featured on the program. The other two are the Rev. Claude LeMond of the Fairmont Methodist Church in Abilene, who conducted a memorial service in the afternoon, and the Rev. John Sewell, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Bakers, La., who spoke at the evening service.

A modern research plane can fly 5 1/2 miles in 12 seconds. Birthstone of January is the garnet. The present church stands on the original location and portions of the original church still exist, including the steeple. The Rev. C. Y. Pickens is in his second year as pastor of the Draw church.

Cheap Canadian Stocks Bring Show Of Interest From U. S.

TORONTO, Canada — I am getting so many inquiries regarding cheap stocks listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange that I have come up to Toronto to make some inquiries. There certainly is great interest in these cheap stocks. So much money is being sent to Canada by American investors that the Canadian dollar is now worth a premium of 5 per cent over the American dollar.

The safest is probably an investment in the producing oils which are more or less controlled by the larger American companies. These are selling on a fair basis and should have even greater growth; but they should be bought for income rather than for speculation. There is no question but that there is a lot of oil in Western Canada; but most wells are waiting for transportation to good markets. To build pipe lines takes time and money. The wells will not be allowed to produce much until these pipe lines have been constructed. There are also large fields of natural gas; but these also are awaiting pipe lines. Oil can be put in barrels and transported by truck; but natural gas is absolutely dependent on pipe lines or else upon very expensive compression.

The most popular investments are in metal-mining companies, including gold, copper, zinc, lead, uranium, and even the rare metals. Most of these stocks do not now represent producing properties, although some of the non-producers are building mills or refineries. There are probably many that are now selling for less than a dollar a share which will some day sell for many times this. But only experts can pick them at this time.

FROM BRECKENRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jackson and son, Tommy, of Breckenridge visited recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schmidt. Their grandchildren, Stephen and Sue Jackson, who have been visiting the Schmidts, returned home with them for a two weeks' visit.

VISITS PARENTS

Joycelyn Kiker, who is employed by Union Circulation Co., Inc., of New York City, visited here last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kiker.

SAN ANTONIO VISITORS

A world altitude record of 23,800 feet for kites was made on May 5, 1910, at the Mt. Weather, Va., Observatory.

For the ordinary investor to buy them at random is a good deal like betting on a horse race. Some horses will surely win; but which one is another matter.

Even if a mining stock is selling cheap, that is, below a dollar per share, yet one should first find out how many shares are outstanding.

The brokers here tell me that most of the buyers look only at the prices and do not consider the number of shares outstanding. Of course, the number of shares should be multiplied by the price to see what the mine or the prospect is selling for. Certain stocks which now pay no dividends are probably the best buys.

The most important thing for the investor to know is the amount of real ore reserves, whether iron, copper, lead, zinc, uranium, nickel, or whatever the metal may be. These ore reserves can be determined pretty well by diamond drilling. An honest broker will tell you approximately the amount of the reserves. In addition to knowing the quantity of the reserves, one should know the percentage of ore to a ton of earth. With this information the investor can divide the price at which the mine is selling by the reserves and secure a rough estimate of the price that he is paying per ton for the ore.

There are other factors to consider, such as distance from a railroad, a navigable river, or even highways. Before a metal can be marketed, the ore must be brought to the surface and refined and the metal transported to market. Each step is expensive, but very important. Then, of course, the amount of "overburden" is important; that is, how much earth must be removed before the ore can be taken out. The diamond drilling will give the figures on this. The main thing to keep in mind is: Buy reserves of ore and study the price you are paying for these reserves. Forget the stock market and imagine that you are merely a metal merchant buying copper or one of the other metals. For instance, if you are studying a coal company, instead of figuring too much on the price of the stock, figure how much you are paying for a ton of coal. Investors who take the trouble to get this information should really be able to make a lot of money.

Sometime in the next 30 years most metals will be selling at several times their present prices. There are only so many tons under ground of every metal, and the amount is being reduced every day. I really believe that $12,000 invested properly in Canadian Oils and Metals, will, at some period during the next 30 years, be worth a million dollars! Such an investment, however, requires much care in the selection and supervision of the companies.

Heavy Infestation Of Fleahoppers Reported

Heavy infestations of fleahoppers are reported in Garza County in the current Cotton Insect Situation release from the Extension Service.

Howard County cotton fields are also heavily infested by fleahoppers, according to the report. The fleahoppers were present in small numbers on most cotton which had reached the squaring stage. Medium infestations were reported in Crosby, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin, Terry and Yoakum counties.

The Cotton Insect Situation release also contained the following information:

"Weather conditions continued favorable for satisfactory progress of cotton. The somewhat slower than normal growth has possibly been due to very unfavorable earlier weather conditions. The excessive shed of small squares likely resulted more from such conditions than from insect damage. No general serious insect infestations have developed in the area.

"Trips occurred in light infestations throughout the area. Only Briscoe County reported heavy infestations.

"Lygus bugs occurred in light infestations on cotton throughout the area. Somewhat larger numbers were reported in some fields in Crosby, Lubbock and Lynn counties.

"Bollworm eggs, with scattered small worms, appeared in increasing numbers throughout the area. While infestations were light in most localities, more activity of the insect was observed in the southern and western section of the area, where cotton is generally larger and more heavily fruited.

"Leafworms were reported in Howard, Lamb, Lubbock, Terry and Yoakum counties. Only occasional eggs and worms were observed, indicating very light infestations.

"The garden webworms (careless weed worm) was reported on cotton in most localities. Infestations were generally not heavy. Damaging infestations were reported in Bailey County.

"Cabbage loopers were present on cotton in most fields. Infestations were generally light, although eggs were observed in large numbers in some localities.

"Grasshoppers were reported on cotton in Borden and Yoakum counties.

"We strongly urge everyone to consult the Texas Guide for Controlling Cotton Insects for recommended insecticides and dosages. Guides are available at county agents' offices."

Everything for the Builder

In some particular cases . . . READY-BUILT HOMES are the most economical investment for local home-buyers. They usually run cheaper than houses that are built from the foundation up.

That is the reason FORREST LUMBER COMPANY has gone into the READY-BUILT HOMES business on a large scale. It is now possible for you to purchase a home, built to your specification, or select one from our large assortment of conservative plans, have it built in Lubbock by our reliable firm and move it to Post to be completed, as are all other ready-built houses.

One look, one ride, and you'll find more to be proud of in a Chevrolet. No other low-priced car quite comes up to it for fine finishing touches—and sweet, smooth and sassy performance.

This one wants you to get choosy! The fussier you are, the more Chevy can show what it's got inside, outside and in performance.

Take the solid way a Chevy is built. It's the only car in its field with Body by Fisher—sturdily put together, with a look of substance other cars in its price class haven't quite captured. Everywhere you look, fine finishing touches confirm the craftsmanship that goes into a Chevrolet.

Chevrolet's response and performance are pretty special, too. There's a well-what-are-we-waiting-for spirit in the engine, especially when you show a Chevrolet a mountain. And you'll do a lot of looking to find comparable smoothness, steadiness and nimbleness on the road. If you do find them, you'll be in the high-altitude prices—for sure. A new law enacted by the 55th Legislature covering fees of all the filing work of the Garza County clerk and his deputies will go into effect on Sept. 1, subject to approval of the county commissioners' court.

The purpose of the new law has been explained as a means to boost officers' salary funds in order to pay more county salaries. Proceeds from the increased fees will go into the salary funds, which heretofore have been inadequate in most Texas counties.

Cost of county court trials will won't wait long after the bond election to swing into action should the results be favorable. The next session of the board has been called for Tuesday, Aug. 20, at Ralls, just three days after the $4,000,000 bond election on Saturday, Aug. 17.

Recording and filing fees will also be raised. Charge for preserving a final document or decree up to 200 words will go from 25 cents to $1. For documents which run more than 200 words, a charge of 20 cents per 100 words will be added. The present rate in Garza County is 15 cents per 100 words for documents of more than 200 words.

Courthouse fees, including marriage licenses, will increase on Sept. 1. Until that time, $2.50 will purchase a marriage license, but after Sept. 1, it will cost $3.

ONE IDEA OF GOD

At the entrance to the valley where they buried their kings an ancient and industrious people carved the Sphinx.

This was their idea of God: the body of a lion, suggesting power . . . the face of a man, suggesting personality . . . the whole amazing image suggesting their belief in a MIGHTY deity who could be KNOWN.

Today, in our churches, we worship God as Jesus Christ revealed Him: almighty but merciful . . . knowing and eager to be known . . . loving man and seeking man's love . . . saving all who believe in their Saviour—His Son!

Can the ancient Sphinx have any significance for men and women like ourselves who have before us the Gospel and example of Christ?

Only this: As long as it remains, the awesome Sphinx will remind us of man's search for God. Just as our own church bells remind us of our opportunity to know, love, and serve Him!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Burglaries—

disclosed. In the first break-in, about $90 was stolen by burglars who forced open a back door.
In Monday night's break-in at the Piggly Wiggly store, the burglars entered from the roof after tearing the lid off a ventilator. The sheriff said the manager reported "nothing missing," but that a check was still being made. The intruders forced open a rear door in making their exit from the building.
Entrance to the Marshall-Brown store was gained after the burglars forced a transom above a rear door. The sheriff said the manager reported nothing missing.
On the same side of the street, Short Hardware was broken into by way of a Mason & Co. furniture warehouse at the rear of the hardware store. After breaking into the warehouse by forcing a padlock on an east door, the intruders entered the store through a rear room window.
Across the street at the Lavelle Shop and Parsons Dress Shop, entrance to both places was through rear doors which had been forced open. Nothing was reported missing at Parsons', but the sheriff said the manager of Lavelle's told him she thought a number of pairs of levis had been stolen there.
The attempted break-in at K&K Food Mart was not discovered until Tuesday afternoon. When the two air-conditioners on the roof failed to work, they were checked and it was found that the sides

Lubbock Man—

He taught vocational agriculture for two years in Childress County, and was associated for two years with the Lubbock National Bank, working in the proof department. He is a director of the Lubbock Agricultural Club and a member of the Church of Christ.
Potts and his wife have two daughters — seven-year-old Emily and four-year-old Karen.
"We feel we are very fortunate in being able to employ a man of Mr. Potts' caliber," Metcalf said.

VISITS IN TEMPLE

Miss Sharon Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore, left last week for Temple where she will be a guest in the home of her sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Stone. She plans to visit her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Moore, in San Antonio before returning home.

had been removed from each unit, owner Wallace Simpson said. He said there was no evidence of an actual break-in.

The sheriff said indications are that Monday night's break-ins were the work of juveniles. "I just can't conceive," he said, "of an adult or professional burglar going to so much trouble to force his way into a place and then not stealing anything."

In his investigation last weekend at Judy's Cafe and the Chevrolet firm, the sheriff called in Texas Ranger Jim Paulk of Lubbock to assist him.

Banker Tells Rotarians Payroll Up

Post's total payroll is up 25 to 30 per cent this year over what it was a year ago, Irby Metcalf, president of the First National Bank told Rotarians Tuesday noon in noting the business outlook for the last half of 1957.

As far as the local economic picture goes, Metcalf declared that Post should enjoy a splendid business year "if we can get our water situation straightened out."

Garza oil activity has held up pretty well, Metcalf noted. He said local merchants report sales up a little here over a year ago, although he termed their profit margin "narrowing" due to rising business costs.

As for the farm picture, Metcalf said that a general rain by the first of the week of August should assure a good harvest. He commented that the early feed crop is "suffering" now from lack of moisture.

The bank president pointed out that the Postex Mill payroll now contains 90 more employees than a year ago for a 20 per cent boost.

As for the national economic picture, Metcalf predicted interest rates will go higher if the present high volume of business activity holds up. He foresees the Federal Reserve Board increasing the bank discount rate before the end of the year.

Construction will be up for 1957 due to heavy government spending even though housing starts will be down due to low interest rates on government loans and the higher cost of labor and materials, Metcalf said. Farm equipment sales were termed much higher due to improved weather and crop prospects. Department store sales are still going higher. Petroleum earnings are up too.

Treasurer—

and Racy Robinson.
Miss Gollehon had been on sick leave from the county treasurer's office for about a year and a half. She had been a patient in the Lubbock hospital for the last five weeks.

She was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gollehon in Comanche County on Sept. 7, 1904. The family moved to Garza County in 1915, settling one mile north of Close City. Miss Gollehon attended the Close City and Post schools, graduating from Post High School in 1924.

She was appointed county treasurer in September, 1946, following the death of Harvey Moreman, who had been re-elected to the office. After serving the term to which Mr. Moreman had been elected, Miss Gollehon successfully campaigned for election and had been re-elected every two years since that time.

The commissioners probably will take action on appointing a successor to Miss Gollehon at their regular August session. Mrs. Chant Lee has served in the treasurer's office during Miss Gollehon's absence.

She is survived by two brothers, Robert Gollehon of Littlefield and Elmer Gollehon of Colorado Springs, Colo., and one sister, Mrs. Pearl Howard of Mt. Pleasant, Tex.

Boy Scouts Return From Big Jamboree

Sonny Hudman, one of five Post Explorer Scouts who attended the National Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., said upon his return here Tuesday that one of the things with which he was most impressed was the way they moved large groups of the more than 50,000 Boy Scouts "in and out" as they "staggered" arrivals and departures.

Others attending from here were Kent Green, Danny Cockrum, Marshall Ticer and Wayne Runkles. When the group came through North Carolina en route home, Wayne was met by his parents and stopped off for a visit there.

Sonny said he and the other Post Scouts enjoyed many side trips, including a stop in New York City. They saw a major league baseball game in Philadelphia between that city's Phillies and the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Scouts from Post traded snake skins, snake rattles, Camp Post patches and neckerchief slides for items brought by boys from other parts of the nation.

John F. Lott, adult Scout leader of Post, flew to Valley Forge for the opening of the Jamboree.

Shirley Wallace of the Grahams community was a weekend guest of Judy Gossett.

He told directors and officers of the Jubilee organization at a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Tower theater that the "Golden Jubilee will be successful exactly to the degree that you men and women work to make it a success."

Haagen will spend the next three weeks working with the many Jubilee committees and then will devote the final five weeks to producing the Golden Jubilee show itself, the script of which already has been written from material secured here earlier.

Holland-Peel Nine Winners Thursday In All-Star Game

The Little League All-Stars, managed by Walter B. Holland and Punk Peel, downed a team managed by Bing Bingham and J. P. Parnell, 14 to 5, last Thursday night at Little League Park.

Two of those selected to serve on the Post Little League's all-star team in the district playoffs played for the Bingham-Parnell team in Thursday night's game. They were Wallace Shumate, starting pitcher, and Pat Cornell, who played shortstop, pitched and caught before the game was over.

The losers went ahead, 1-0, in the bottom of the first when Kent Wheatley singled, went to second on an overthrow and scored on Shumate's one-base blow.

The All-Stars tied it up in the top of the second. David Nichols walked, stole second, and came home on Glen Polk's single.

After holding the losers scoreless in the bottom of the second, the All-Stars scored four runs in the top of the third to take a 5-1 lead. The team managed by Bingham and Parnell scored two in their half of the third, and that's the way it stayed—5-3—until the top of the sixth when the winners upped their lead to 7-3. The losers came back with a single tally in the bottom of the sixth to make it 7-4. The All-Stars unleashed a four-hit attack in the top of the seventh for six runs, chasing Shumate and continuing their onslaught against David Lee and Cornell. At the end of the inning, the winners led, 13 to 4. They scored another run in the top of the eighth, then staved off a ninth inning rally which netted the losers one run.
