Youth Admits Mutilation Murder Of Boy

FLOOD PARALYZES DENVER BUSINESS

POLICE CHECK STORY GIVEN BY SUSPECT

SLAYER TELLS ABOUT CUTTING UP BODY WITH A KNIFE

(By The Associated Press)

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Aug. 3. — Phillip Charles Edwards, 19-year-old high school graduate, was held in jail today as a suspect in the mutilation murder of 7-year-old Dalbert Aposhian while police checked the closing episodes of his story of the crime.

Captain of Detectives Harry J. Kelly, at first disbelieved the youth but later neared conviction that he was telling the truth.

Edwards first told his story to detectives in Los Angeles where he was picked up as a loiterer Monday. Kelly said the youth told six officers and a shorthand writer that he met Dalbert on a downtown street shortly after noon July 18, the day the boy disappeared from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Aposhian.

Lures His Victim

With candy, sandwiches and ice cream, Kelly quoted Edwards as saying, he coaxed the boy to go for a street car ride with him. At the end of the car line, Edwards told the officers, he told Dalbert he lived "over the hills," and they set off afoot toward the brush covered mesa. There he hit the boy with a rock, Kelly said Edwards told him, and left the body until after dark, when he returned in a stolen automobile and took it to the water front.

Kelly said Edwards told him he mutilated the body with a butcher knife at the waterfront, threw it in the bay and placed severed portions

SMITH FROWNS ON UTILITY RATE HIKE

THINKS NRA DOES NOT CONTEMPLATE BOOST TO ABSORB COSTS

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Aug. 3.—Lon A. Smith, chairman of the Texas railroad commission, said today he did not believe the NRA code for public utilities contemplated increased rates to absorb operating costs.

R. E. Wertz, of the Amarillo Gas company, the West Texas Gas company and the Dalhart Gas company, telegraphed Smith that the code recognized "that prices must be increased enough to offset increased operating costs," and asked if the railroad commission, which is empowered by law to regulate rates charged for natural gas, approved "the president's plan for gas utilities."

Smith Disagrees

Smith's reply was as follows:

"The Texas railroad commission is in full accord with the president's National Recovery program. The Texas statutes provide the procedure to be followed in securing raises in gas rates. This commission would not attempt to influence city councils in the exercise of their original jurisdiction in rate matters, but will consider each case on its merits when such a case is properly before it. You state that the code recognizes that prices must be increased to absorb increased operating costs. We do not so understand the code, but that prices are to be increased only in cases where the present income will not absorb the increased expenses and yield a fair return on the fair value of the property and this can be determined only after hearing when all pertinent facts are considered. We further believe that the code contemplates that every business cooperating wholeheartedly in the national program will as far as possible absorb this increased expense without passing it on to an overburdened public."

Four States To Vote On Repeal

WASHINGTON, ARIZONA, MISSOURI, TEXAS TO ACT THIS MONTH

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. — The citizenry of four more states will decide, before the month is out, what they want done about the Eighteenth amendment.

The background for their voting will show that 20 states already have ballotted to strike prohibition from the constitution while none has taken the opposing position. So far, on the popular vote basis, repeal leads 8,400,000 to 2,500,000, in round numbers.

16 More To Vote

The ever-shifting lineup of other states yet to vote held certainty today that at least 16 more commonwealths, or 36 in all—the minimum required for repeal—will reach decisions before November 8.

Here is the line-up of states which have set votes during the next four months:

August 8, Arizona; August 19 Missouri; August 26 Texas; August 29 Washington; September 5 Vermont; September 5 Colorado (tentative), and Vermont; September 11 Maine; September 12 Maryland and Minnesota September 19 Idaho and New Mexico; Oct. 10 Florida; November 7 Utah (tentative), North and South Carolina, Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Should both Colorado and Utah act, 37 states in all will have voted by November 8. In Colorado, the governor has put the date at September 5 subject to approval by the special session of the state legislature, now meeting.

Utah Plans Ballot

Although Governor Henry H. Blood of Utah, has not yet issued formal proclamation in that state for a vote November 7, definite plans have been made to ballot then on both the Eighteenth amendment and the state prohibition amendment.

Even if one of these states failed to ballot, Governor Frank H. Cooney of Montana, has indicated he might call for a vote should it be considered necessary.

Otherwise, Cooney said the vote would be put over until the regular primary next July.

In Oklahoma, nominees for wet and dry conventions will be selected by congressional district conventions on December 5. Governor W. H. Murray has the power to call a special election after these delegates are selected, but he told newsmen in Washington he favored having the election next year at the general election in his state.

The states that have voted for repeal thus far are Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, Wyoming, New Jersey, New York, Delaware, Nevada, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Iowa, California, West Virginia, Arkansas, Alabama, Tennessee and Oregon.

POWER, LIGHT SERVICE CUT OFF TODAY

THOUSANDS DRIVEN TO HIGHER GROUND AS CREEKS SWELL

(By The Associated Press)

DENVER, Aug. 3.—Business was at a standstill in downtown Denver as power and light service was cut off shortly after 9 a. m., (M. S. T.) when the Cherry creek floodwaters demolished transmission lines in sweeping the Champa street bridge away.

Employes in business firms were working by candle light.

Thousands Flee Homes

It was unofficially estimated 5,000 persons were driven from homes in the city along Cherry creek and the South Platte river.

Damage to fashionable homes in the Denver County club and Cherry hills districts was not expected to be large as the flood waters started to recede after filling streets in those areas.

Cherry creek, which several times destroyed pioneer Denver and which for many years has been confined within concrete walls, swept over its barriers today and inundated the lower section of the city after destroying two bridges.

The flood, result of a cloudburst last night southeast of here, swept into town shortly before 6 a. m., took out the wooden Colorado Boulevard bridge and broke down the steel and concrete structure spanning the creek at Logan street.

The first crest, four feet high, was soon swelled to such proportions it swept out of the retaining walls erected by the late Mayor Robert W. Speer at tremendous cost, and began to spread.

There was no loss of life reported in Denver, but near Matheson, in the cloudburst area, Mrs. Claude Hill, 70, was swept away by a 6-foot wall of water when she stepped into her yard.

Fear Others Dead

Fear was expressed for other families in that section but disrupted communications made an immediate check impossible.

Th Castlewood dam, feared as a flood menace for several years, broke at 2 a. m., Hugh Payne, caretaker, telephoned Denver po-

JOHNSON ACTS TO END MINE TROUBLES

WAY IS CLEARED FOR BIG EMPLOYES TO JOIN PROGRAM

BY JAMES COPE
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. —The way was cleared today for big employers of labor under contract to join the country-wide NRA program without altering existing wage and hour terms.

While Hugh S. Johnson, as head of the Recovery administration, continued efforts to bring peace to the coal strike territory of Western Pennsylvania, Donald Richberg—his general counsel—issued an interpretation of President Roosevelt's voluntary agreement under which contracts reached by collective bargaining and which specify a definite number of hours employment per week, may be maintained unimpaired.

May Obtain Emblem

The employer affected, to obtain his blue eagle insignia, must conform in other ways to the wage and employment increasing move, however.

Newspapers are a principal group affected by the new ruling, since a huge proportion have their mechanical forces now under union-negotiated contracts.

Johnson's coal peace conferences, begun last night, were resumed this morning but suddenly suspended until late afternoon at the request of the mine operators involved. Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania and union labor spokesmen had filed into Johnson's office to start talking when the postponement was asked. They filed out again, tight-lipped.

Effects Evident

Meantime, the effects of one of the codes of fair practice now in force became evident. The navy awarded millions of dollars worth of ship contracts to private yards which will operate on a 32-hour week under the code, and, simultaneously, civilian employes in the navy yards were ordered on a flat five-day forty hour week. Further adjustment and changes may be made later.

In driving forward the mobilization for a national campaign to place public opinion actively behind the re-employment drive, the recovery administration, meanwhile, announced more than 200 speakers, including governors, congressmen, and even cabinet members, drafted to stump the country.

Speakers Announced

Prominent in the list were Secretary of War Dern, John Dickinson, assistant secretary of commerce, speaking in Pittsburgh; Speaker Rainey, Senators Robinson of Arkansas, Harrison of Mississippi, La-Follette of Wisconsin, McAdoo of California, Byrnes of South Carolina, Bulkley of Ohio, Walsh of Massachusetts, Barkley of Kentucky, Wagner of New York, King of Utah, Brown of New Hampshire, Lewis of Illinois, Clark of Missouri, Byrd of Virginia, Duffy of Wisconsin, Glenn Frank, president of the University of Wisconsin, and Prof. Paul Douglas, University of Chicago.

Negotiations on codes for individual industries were being carried on simultaneously.

CASH BALANCE PLEASES FDR

PRESIDENT MOVES ON CONFIDENTLY WITH RECOVERY PLANS

(By The Associated Press)

HYDE PARK, N. Y., Aug. 3. — President Roosevelt, pointing out that on Aug. 15 the treasury will have the largest cash balance in its history, moved confidently ahead today with his national recovery and defense plans.

Last night he gave formal approval to the navy's plan to start immediately the construction of 21 new warships on the basis of bids recently submitted. The aim is to put the United States fleet nearer a parity with other world powers.

To Push Work Program

Today he scanned reports from the capital, determined to press to the limit his program to spread work and maintain wages in an unprecedented drive to improve mass purchasing power.

Backing the president is the assurance that came with the six-fold oversubscription of the government's $850,000,000 August refinancing. The president has ordered subscriptions closed—except for the smaller purchasers.

At the middle of the month the government will have in its vaults the greatest cash balance in history as the result of this successful financial operation—$1,500,000,000.

Studies Naval Plans

Last night's naval conference here was regarded as significant. Mr. Roosevelt looked over the plans of Admiral William Standley, chief of naval operations, and Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, chief of construction, for building the 21 warships. After careful analysis he gave the word to go ahead.

The start of the naval construction comes on the heels of word from Japan of the increase in her budget for military preparations.

OVER HUNDRED DIE OF HEAT

RELIEF PROMISED BY CLOUDS, BREEZES IN NEW YORK

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 3—More than 100 persons have died in the eastern heat wave that has continued since last Saturday, but early today clouds and stirring breezes gave promise of some relief.

The merciless heat killed 29 persons yesterday in the metropolitan area of New York and New Jersey, bringing the death list for this section to 56 in five days. Philadelphia was hit next hardest. Eight deaths in or near that city brought its total to 21.

Prostrations Heavy

Scattered deaths swelled the total, and the number of prostrations ran into the hundreds.

Ninety-five degree heat that felled human beings and horses combined with high humidity to make New York miserable. Boys opened countless hydrants, resulting in a loss of 2,000,000,000 gallons of water and complaints of low pressure from many householders.

Thousands slept in parks again last night, and Mayor John P. O'Brien announced that 60 docks would be open to the public.

Sun Starts Fire

In Elizabeth, N. J., the mercury reached 100 and the sun's rays, pouring through a glass skylight, set a house afire. New Haven, Conn., reported six dead since Monday, while a Philadelphia temperature of 97 broke the record for the record for the date. At Quarryville, Pa., the mercury rose to 104.

It was so hot in Richmond, Va., that a burglar who broke into an office to rifle a safe stole an electric fan instead.

RECEPTION PLANNED

CHICAGO, Aug. 3. (AP)—A reception by city officials at the municipal airport and the city hall and A Century of Progress medal awaited Jimmy Mattern, whose attempted solo flight around the world ended in an accident in Siberia, upon his arrival in Chicago today.

KIDNAPING VICTIM FREED ON CREDIT

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—Nathan Baskowitz was home today — the first kidnap victim to be brought back on credit.

Shortly after police proclaimed that Baskowitz, a sports promoter, "hasn't got 35 cents to his name," kidnapers released him last night under a nothing-down-easy-payment plan.

Baskowitz was seized Monday night by five gunmen who snatched him from in front of the home of friends. His brother, known as Artie Bass and associated with Humebrt Pugazy, another sports promoter, received a letter demanding $35,000.

Artie proceeded to outtalk the kidnapers. He said, according to reports reaching police, that while he did not have a large sum handy at the moment, his credit was good and he could pay $2,000 in time.

Actor Not Original On Becoming Father

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Aug. 3. (AP)—John Gilbert, the actor, can't be credited with much originality when his wife bore him a bouncing daughter at the Hollywood hospital last night.

"I am," said he, "the happiest man in the world."

To which the attending physician, Dr. Norman Williams, added:

"Mr. Gilbert was the most difficult male patient I ever attended."

Mrs. Gilbert is the former Virginia Bruce, actress. The child weighed 7 pounds, 5 ounces.

State Tax Rate Is Fixed At 77 Cents

AUSTIN, Aug. 3 (AP)—The state tax rate for the current year has been fixed at 77 cents on the $100 taxable value, the constitutional limit.

The new rate is eight cents more than the 69 cents levied for last year.

The levy was allotted 35 cents to the general fund, 35 cents to the school fund and seven cents to the confederate pension fund.

SAYS OIL CODE IS NOT SATISFACTORY

WASHINGTON, Aug 3 (AP)—Oscar Sutro, general counsel and vice president of the Standard Oil company of California, today told the recovery administration that a trade code for the oil industry presented by Hugh S. Johnson, the industrial administrator, "is no answer to the industry's problems."

Appearing as the spokesman for all the forces demanding price regulation, against which Johnson has taken a determined stand, Sutro asserted:

"This code increases the burdens of the industry and does nothing, as we see it, to carry out the liberal views of a liberal administration.

"I think you have flinched on the economic question which the administrator should face and solve—price fixing."

NO DETECTIVE STORY METHODS FIGURE IN GOVERNMENT'S WAR AGAINST CRIME

BY MELVIN E. COLEMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Chief of staff to the army of sleuths which the government is launching in its war on crime, is J. Edgar Hoover, director of the investigation division of the department of justice.

No detective story methods figure in his scheme. He believes rather in drills, training, study and careful plotting of the enemy positions.

"Crime," he says, "can not be fought effectively until we know its extent, nature and geographical concentration. The best way to diagnose it is to collect statistics on it."

One result of his crusade for definite information is that his division has 3,800,000 sets of finger prints. It is the greatest collection of its kind in the world.

He has developed a national crime statistics collection service and an officers training school.

The laboratory studies handwriting, typewriting and similar evidence. The statistics service gets reports from law agencies all over the nation, reduces them to a composite picture and sends the result back to sheriffs and police chiefs.

The training school gives each field agent six weeks of intensive study in scientific crime detection.

One result of all this drilling and study: Since the Lindbergh kidnaping, the department's men have investigated 17 extortion and kidnaping cases. Arrests were made in 15 of them, convictions obtained in 12

AIMEE MAY TRY HAND AT STAGE

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 3 (AP)—Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton, evangelist, may go on the stage.

The elders of Angeles Temple nodded approval when she suggested such action yesterday. Her role would be that of preacher, not an actress, and the public would be admitted free after the regular vaudeville program.

"I believe," said the evangelist, "this presents an opportunity to carry the gospel to virgin fields and bring the Lord's work to people never before reached by the church."

David Hutton, jr., her husband who has filed suit for divorce, is now in vaudeville.

U. S. TO FIGHT PROFITEERS

NEW WEEKLY REPORTS OF PRICES ARE TO BE ISSUED SOON

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. — Farm administrators will combat any "profiteering" that may develop out of the recovery program by issuing new weekly reports of prices paid by consumers and prices paid to farmers for the same commodities.

Dr. Fred C. Howe, consumers counsel in the farm administration, today announced establishment of the new service covering food and textile prices with the first report scheduled soon.

To Protect Public

The reports, he said, will be aimed to provide the public with price information to counteract tendencies towards profiteering and towards the pyramiding of taxes paid on basic farm products by those who make the products into the things sold to the consumer.

These taxes are already in effect on wheat and cotton with others scheduled for later imposition.

Monthly reports now being issued by the government are of little use to consumers because "conditions are changing so rapidly," Dr. Howe said.

"We are going to do what we can to see that consumers are protected at a time when the administration is trying to pull the farmers and workers out of what President Roosevelt calls the 'economic hell' they have been living in for years," he added.

To Gather Reports

For the reports, retail prices on bread, milk, meat and other food necessities will be gathered from 50 cities and from more than 1,000 stores including independents, chains and specialty food shops.

"We will analyze the farmers' share in the foods for which we are assembling retail prices and we are going to see that the farmer gets his fair share of retail price advance," Dr. Howe said.

Court Is Asked To Affirm Berrie Term

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 3. (AP)—The state today asked the criminal court of appeals to affirm the life sentence given the Rev. S. A. Berrie, former Muskogee minister, for the death of his first wife.

In a brief, Phil K. Oldham, Muskogee county attorney, and Smith C. Matson, assistant attorney general, attacked defense efforts to exclude from the trial jury the love poems written by Berrie to Ida Bess Bright, 17, who became the minister's wife two months after the death of the first Mrs. Berrie.

Inflated Shoulders Feature New Styles

PARIS, Aug. 3 (AP)—Inflated shoulders and temporarily stabilized waistlines were displayed today in the winter style parade.

The shoulder inflation was achieved by fabric extensions and fur trims rather than by padding, which was rarely used. Waistline at present are stabilized by the natural line by most designers, although numerous evening models were fashioned on a princess silhouette without any waistline at all.

AN ARDUOUS EVENING FOR TEN CENTS, ESPECIALLY WHEN SHE DIDN'T GET IT

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Catherine Kearns is just eight years old and not inclined to spurn an offer of ten cents to watch two little babies for ten minutes.

A lady pushing a perambulator in front of Fifth avenue hospital at tea time last evening stopped Catherine. She said she would give her a dime if she would watch the children just long enough for the lady to go into the hospital for a drink of water.

Catherine watched the babies—one four months, the other eighteen months old. The ten minutes passed—a half hour—an hour. The lady hadn't come back. Catherine was getting tired, and she was late for supper. Still, one cannot leave two little babies.

She sat down on the curb. Then she got up and looked to see if the babies were all right. Then she sat down again. It was very hot, and she was very hungry.

Two hours passed—three, four; the lady had not returned. Catherine began to worry about getting her dime, about getting her supper a...d about getting a spanking for staying out so late. Why, why didn't the lady hurry?

A policeman questioned the child. The babies were taken to the police station and then to a foundling hospital.

Catherine went wearily home. It was an arduous evening for ten cents, especially when she didn't get it.

Hearing Begun On Impounding Money

FORT WORTH, Aug 3. —(AP)—A hearing on the government's motion to impound $5,500 found in a safety deposit box rented by M. T. Howard and his wife was begun in federal court here today.

Howard is one of the men charged in the $71,000 mail robbery here February 21, and is under indictment in connection with the slaying of J. B and Harry Rutherford and Jack Sturdivant near Handley July 8.

His attorneys contended the government has no right to impound the money unless it can show it is part of the currency which the government contends was exchanged for the robbery loot.

EMBLEM SUPPLY EXHAUSTED HERE

With the supply of emblems exhausted, Lubbock merchants and employers continued to call at the postoffice today for NRA insignias, indicating that by the close of next week almost the entire city will be covered by the spread of the "Blue Eagle's" wings. More than 400 packages of the red, white and blue placards and stickers have been distributed to employers.

John R. Green, superintendent of mails, in charge of distribution of the emblems, reported this morning he had turned away approximately 30 employers who had signed the president's temporary blanket code and called for the emblems. A rush order for additional emblems has been made and the packages are expected here this week-end or the first of next week.

In the meantime, Manager A. B. Davis of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce was awaiting further instructions from Administrator Hugh Johnson at Washington on the local campaign for carrying out the recovery program here. Davis said he expected to start organization of the campaign personnel as soon as he received further word from Johnson on the work.

Stylish People Prefer Washables In Their Economy Move; Linen And Pique Are Popular For Sports Wear

BY BARBARA BEAUFORT
(Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS (AP)—Washable wardrobes have stolen the sports style spotlight in a season when fashionables demand economy.

Light crisp frocks of linen and pique which can be tossed in the tub for repeated laundering have been ordered by scores of smart Americans and Europeans for their country and beach wardrobes. More perishable silk crepes hang neglected on the hooks of coutouriers' closet rooms.

White Is Popular

White is the most popular shade for these washable frocks. Daffodil yellow is another favorite, while string greige, sky blue and shell pink are all fashionable.

Shouder lines are the most important note in the cut of the frocks. Sleeves are very brief, many of them being designed with pleats or other accents to broaden the line.

Skirts, wide enough to allow ease of movement, are 10 to 12 inches from the ground.

Wooden Buttons Used

Interesting accents add a note of chic. Belts of string or two-toned elastic ribbon, black metal clips and wooden buttons finish many smart models, while others are worn with a scarf and beret of multi-colored striped pique or linen.

A wool cardigan or bolero of the same fabric as the frock generally accompanies the dresses to make them wearable on cool days.

One fashionable American, who has just ordered an extensive wardrobe here, has included a washable frock of daffodil yellow linen which fastens up the back with black metal clips. With it she wears a yellow wool cardigan. Another chic American has a multi-colored striped linen frock accompanied by a navy blue wool cardigan.

The washable frock shown at the left, designed by Schiaparelli, is made of white linen and worn with a brown and white elastic ribbon belt and a brown knit silk Circassian hat with a long tassel. Equally summery is the organdie evening dress, designed by Patou, to which red and white organdie gloves give a fashionable flair. The black velvet, sleeveless jacket is trimmed with a red leather flower.

Mesdames V. O. Jennings and B. E. Needles and Miss Sara Sue Stewart are to take the girls to the camp and will return immediately.

Oslins Are Hosts At Swimming Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Oslin entertained with a swimming party at Tumble N pool Wednesday evening. Linen Wins With Hollywood Stars

MARTHA SLEEPER

By NEA Service

HOLLYWOOD.—Linen, if you note what the Hollywood stars are wearing, is by no means an "also ran." It's cool—it's chic—and you'll win easily if you wear it!

Simple to wash and press, linen is one of the most practical summer cotton fabrics. You can wear it on the beach, at smart dining and dancing places and on the street. The Hollywood stars do!

Martha Sleeper had a stunning black and white checked linen suit. The hiplength coat, with raglan sleeves, had a square neck with two button fastening. Her skirt was perfectly plain—no pleats—cut on slim lines with seams in front and back rather than on the sides.

Incidentally, having the seams in the front and back of your skirts, instead of on the sides, takes pounds off the appearance of your figure.

With her handsome linen ensemble, Martha wore white linen gauntlet gloves and a white linen hat.

Heather Angel, lunching at the Brown Derby with her mother and some friends, wore a periwinkle blue linen skirt and swagger jacket. Heather's blouse was of navy blue handkerchief linen, polkadotted in white.

The blouse tied at a medium high neckline, with a huge bow under her chin. The outfit was topped by a periwinkle blue stitched linen hat.

Dorothy Jordan plays tennis in linen. On the court the other day she wore a blue and white striped linen sports dress with hat to match.

WASH QUILTS

Be sure and have all your quilts cleaned and your blankets washed before you put them away for the summer. Moths are more apt to stay away from clean things. Besides, you'll want everything ready for immediate use in the fall.

SUDAN TO AID BOND DRIVE

SUPPORT OF PROJECT GIVEN BY C. OF C.; DRIVE EXPLAINED

SUDAN, Aug. 3 (Special) — Co-operation in a drive for support of the proposed state bond issue to be voted upon August 26 was the object of plans made at a Sudan Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday.

P. E. Boesen, county chairman, presented to the group facts and figures relating to the work in Texas. The chamber voted unanimously to support and work for the amendment. Mr. Boesen announced that plans for an active campaign had been drawn up and that Lamb county would be asked to support the program.

Members of the Littlefield chamber of commerce were present and made talks in behalf of the NRA movement. A committee was appointed to urge every business man here to sign up and to mail their pledges of support to the government.

Since Lamb county, it was pointed out, is receiving the largest monetary benefit from the cotton reduction plan, of any county in the entire cotton belt, local men were urged to support the NRA program 100 per cent.

Unity On Text Of Prayer Is Sought

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—In the interest of Christian unity, church agreement on the text of the Lord's prayer is urged by the Rev. Charles Daniel Brodhead, Methodist minister of Bethlehem, Pa.

Writing in the Federal Council Bulletin, he points out that some churches use the "trespass" and others the "debt" version.

"Are we not big enough to overcome our inherited preferences," he asks, "so that the whole church of Christ may say together: 'Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us'?"

The alternative version reads, "Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors."

"Surely today," Mr. Brodhead says, "no sufficient justification exists for the continuance of such an embarrassing and divisive factor."

He gives two reasons for urging universal use of "trespasses." "In the first place," he says, "it seems to be the interpretation that Jesus Himself placed upon that petition. Furthermore, 'trespasses' is winning out in this fight of the phrases. More people are repeating trespasses'."

EQUIPMENT COSTS $2

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — From a used hot water tank, a bit of plate glass for a visor, a few feet of garden hose and a brass bed post for the cylinders of an aid pump. Albedt and Walter Rosenberry fashioned a diver's suit and equipment. It cost them $2, and they were able to descend in it to a depth of eight feet.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men

Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.

But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all.

Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores.

Farm Incomes Are Showing Increase

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 5. (AP)—Ohio farmers' gross cash incomes are showing the first substantial gain since 1929, says V. R. Wertz, of the Ohio experiment station department of rural economics.

The gross cash income from sale of farm products gained 19 per cent in May over April, and 14 per cent over May of 1932. Prices of farm products in Ohio were 20 per cent higher in May than in April and 16 per cent higher than in May last year.

The greatest percentage gains in income in May over April were from grains, hogs and wool.

DEPRESSION HELPED FROSH

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—One person who had no cause for complaint because of the depression was the college freshman, in the opinion of Ohio State university's dean of men. Most freshmen had plenty of "bids" to join fraternities, hard put to it to keep their houses full, and "horse play" was held to a minimum for fear the pledges would quit, the dean says.

SEAMAN TELLS HIS IDENTITY

CONFESSES TO FACING FLORIDA CHARGES OF SMUGGLING

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 3 (AP)—A shipwrecked seaman who had identified himself as "Jack Davis," admitted to newspapermen last night that his real name was John A. Dann, 33, and that he was wanted in Florida on federal charges of smuggling aliens and narcotics.

He was rescued Monday from a tattered sailing sloop which beached near Corpus Christi after being tossed about the Gulf of Mexico for more than a week by a tropical hurricane.

Tells Of Troubles

At a hospital where he was suffering from exposure, Dann told of his troubles and hardships in a statement to John J. Pichinson, Corpus Christi attorney, in the presence of newspapermen. Pichinson arranged for Dann's surrender to federal authorities.

Sheriff Paul Cox received telegraphic instructions from officers at Panama City, Florida, to hold Dann on charges of grand larceny for theft of the sailing sloop. Dann indicated he would fight extradition.

Dann told newspapermen that fear of arrest induced him to take the sailing sloop in Panama City and head for Honduras, where he thought he could find work.

He said he sailed from Panama City July 21 in company with William Wallace Bell. Off the coast of Cuba they were caught suddenly in a tropical hurricane and carried to the Yucatan channel, where the sloop capsized.

Companion Ends Life

They managed to right the boat and after drifting for days without food or water, Bell last Sunday night ended his life by leaping overboard, according to Dann.

Referring to the federal cases against him, Dann said he was held in jail 51 days at Miami, Florida, from last November to January of this year, and then was released under bond. He was sent to Havana to make disclosures concerning a Cuban narcotic ring but eluded officers there and returned to Florida under an assumed name.

FLAYS REPEAL ADVOCATES

SHEPPARD SPEAKS ON PROHIBITION LAW AT RALLY IN LUFKIN

LUFKIN, Aug. 3 (AP) — Senator Morris Sheppard, speaking here last night against legalization of beer and repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, claimed that the state's "big dailies, picture shows, radios are all closed against the dry movement," and that "only the small town weeklies and dailies are giving advertisement of the prohibition cause."

Urging voters to go to the polls August 26 and express themselves in favor of retention of "one of the greatest laws of the nation," Senator Sheppard said they could vote against legalization of beer and repeal of the eighteenth amendment by a majority of 100,000.

Flays Millionaires

He declared the anti-prohibition movement was a move originated by "millionaires and breweries," the former to reduce their income taxes and the latter to "fill their coffers with millions filched from the pockets of the laboring class."

According to Senator Sheppard, ever dollar spent for liquor, "is a dollar less to be spent for food, clothing and the comforts of home."

He expressed his opinion that if 3.2 per cent beer were legalized, it would be substituted with a beer of higher per cent alsohol.

He said legalization of "intoxicating liquors and repeal of the eighteenth amendment will legalize an illegal traffic, substitute wrong for right and legalize and institute greater and more powerful than government."

Cotton Co-Op Will Adhere With Code

ROBINSON LAUDS ROOSEVELT WORK

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 3. (AP)—Senator Joe T. Robinson, Democratic leader in the senate, turned his homecoming address before a huge throng here last night into one of praise for President Roosevelt's "fearless and aggressive efforts to overcome unemployment, to revive hope and to quicken the spirit of the people into action."

The senator made a plea for public cooperation with the administration's program, and an alert public opinion "to condemn those who become parties to any form of fraud or extravagance."

Flanked on a bunting-bedecked platform by two colleagues, Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi and Senator Robert Reynolds of North Carolina, who came here to participate in the homecoming celebration, and by a host of government officials and friends, Senator Robinson outlined to his audience of "home folks" how the last congress had cooperated with the president in working out a program of aid for agriculture and industry.

This area in former years offered excellent hunting. The season will be open for four days this year, but an appeal is being made to hunters to ignore the season in order that the old birds will be saved.

Funeral services were arranged here for this afternoon. It was planned to send his body to Lyndonville, N. Y., for burial.

He was survived by his widow, Mrs. Ada Flowers; three brothers, Dr. A. E. Flowers of Dallas, Dr. Royal Flowers of Fort Worth, and Dr. Robert Flowers of Denison; two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Hayes of Medina, N. Y., and Mrs. Martha Warner of Seneca Falls, N. Y.; and a step-son, Jean Barry of Dallas.

Borden Moves For Paving Of Highway

GAIL, Aug. 3.—(Special)—Preliminary steps to close the only unpaved strip on highway 83 from the Fisher county line to Carlsbad, N. M., were taken by Borden County Commissioners court in voting to provide right-of-way for a hard surface on the highway in this county.

The commissioners voted an order guaranteeing a 100-foot right-of-way through the county. Gaines, Dawson, and Scurry counties previously had passed similar orders.

Delegations from Scurry, Dawson, and Gaines counties attended the hearing. A brief setting up of the unemployed and drouth condition of these four counties is being compiled to present to the state highway department, asking for work relief to help save a relief situation prevailing in these counties.

Crop Conditions In Section Held Good

Crop conditions around Lubbock and Plainview look good, in the opinion of Charles B. Davis, division freight agent of the Rock Island, who was here late yesterday.

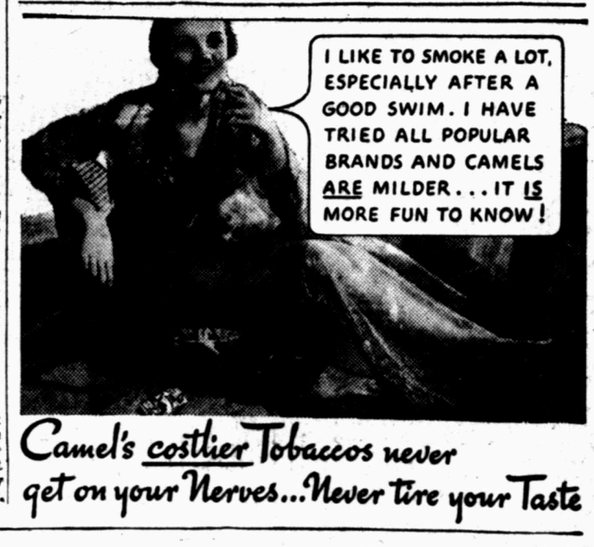

Cotton and feed looked good, all the way down," he said. "You have good prospects here. There is not very much up around Amarillo. Our wheat this year was poor and it does not look like we will get much for next year unless there is a lot of rain in August and September, before wheat planting time."

Very little wheat was moved by the Rock Island west of Amarillo and between Amarillo and Liberal, Kansas, owing to drouth conditions in the North Panhandle across the Canadian river and also south of the river.

DAM IS GREAT FEAT OF MAN

NEVADA PROJECT GOES ON, DEVELOPING ITS OWN ELECTRICITY

BY W. B. CLAUSEN

BOULDER CITY, Nevada, Aug. 3. (AP)—In the great American desert is rising a monument to man, the builder.

Every great age has produced its builders. Great works to serve the ever-expanding needs of man have marked the course of civilization.

America's newest step in this progress is the task of harnessing the Colorado river, so as to build up a great empire in the southwest.

Cost Estimated $385,000,000

The Boulder canyon project is well on its way. Its completion within a few years will mark the expenditure of $385,000,000, providing electrical power energy of 1,800,000 horsepower and water for reclamation of 2,100,000 acres.

A monumental dam, nearly twice the height of any yet built, will create a reservoir holding 5,000 gallons of water for every human being on earth.

This dam, now rising rapidly, will reach a height of 750 feet above bedrock. Its power houses will develop more energy than the three great American works—Niagara, Muscle Shoals and Conowingo combined.

Dam To Help Build Itself

The electrical energy would be sufficient to supply the needs of one-third of the homes in America.

Before the dam is half way up it will be put to work to finish its own construction, by development of power.

Three years ago the project got under way. This was some years after the Colorado was first put to work and a part of Imperial valley made out of the desert.

Turbulent floods wrecked this first undertaking when in 1905 $8,000,000 damage was done to the Imperial valley.

Twenty-five years later congress acted to set in motion the boldest hydraulic enterprise in history.

Desert Gorge Is Site

After studying 70 possible sites in the canyons of the Colorado, government engineers selected a sheer walled narrow gorge at the bottom of inaccessible Black canyon.

The project includes a vast irrigation canal in the Imperial valley.

The canyon project as initiated by the federal government, including the canal, is a $165,000,000 undertaking. This cost is to be met by the revenue from power. Supplementing this is a $220,000,000 development by the metropolitan water district of southern California to carry the Colorado river water more than 200 miles and lift it 1,200 feet over the Sierra divide.

The reservoir created by the dam will be 115 miles long, forming the largest artificial lake in the world, holding enough water to cover Connecticut to a depth of 10 feet.

Pouring of concrete for the dam started in June, a year and a half ahead of the schedule fixed in 1931. Five and a half million barrels—a year's national supply—of cement will be used.

And so the American builder toils today in temperatures as high as 120 degrees, as this vast monument rises in the great American desert.

Approximately 5,000,000 trees are cut annually for telegraph and telephone poles.

PUTTING $385,000,000 IN CONCRETE, TOIL—AND AN IDEA

Boulder dam is rising from the parching depths of Black canyon, where the turbulent Colorado streaks the desert gorges. First concrete on the $385,000,000 project was poured in June. On the left appears a section of spillway—150 feet wide, 120 feet deep and 650 feet long—near completion. At the right another construction view appears, looking upstream, while in the center a "high-scaler" goes over the top of Black canyon.

WOMAN DENIES IMPROPRIETY

TAKES STAND IN HER TRIAL FOR MURDER OF HUSBAND

SALEM, Mass., Aug. 3. (AP)—Mrs. Jessie B. Costello, accused of slaying her husband, denied the accusations of a Peabody reserve policeman that she had engaged in an illicit affair with him.

The statuesque widow took the stand as the first witness in her defense to deny the sensational story told last week by Edward J. McMahon.

Illicit Relations Claimed

The reserve policeman had testified that for more than three months he had carried on illicit relations with the widow; had held tryists with her in her home while her fire captain husband was on duty.

Mrs. Costello was charged with having administered a fatal dose of poison to William J. Costello in their Peabody home on Feb. 17. He was found dead in a hallway. "Rumors" resulted in investigation and the arrest of the widow a month later.

The court session was terminated at noon when Judge Frederick W. Fosdick decided the courtroom temperature of 88 was too high for comfort.

The woman testified she first met McMahon when he came to her house selling butter and eggs about four years ago. She traced her meetings with him from that time until he came to live at her home. She acknowledged that when McMahon became sick and was confined in a hospital she visited him often but said she always had been a frequent visitor at the hospital anyway.

Denies Impropriety

The widow denied any acts of impropriety during her visits to McMahon's bedside, accusations which the policeman had made in testimony, and added that at no time in her life had she engaged in the relations he charged.

BIBLE FORBIDS MAN TO SIGN NRA AGREEMENT

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Aug. 3. (AP)—Ven Martin, a dry cleaner, says the Bible forbids him to sign the National Recovery agreement.

"It was foretold 1900 years ago that one should not sign this agreement," he asserted. "The Bible prohibits signing it.

"I will abide by any agreement as to hours and wages but I'll not sign the contract. The thirteenth chapter of Revelations says that anyone signing this is marked by the sign of the beast."

"'And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the number of the beast, or the number of his name,'" Martin quoted, adding, "that mark is nothing else but the NRA eagle."

Other cleaners to who Martin had expounded his theory, not so familiar with the Bible, hastily checked and found his quotation correct, then adjourn after fixing Monday as the date for the next meeting to decide upon a code for their industry. All of them, including Martin, have shortened hours and raised wages.

Michelson Handles Recovery Publicity

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—The man many Republicans credit with putting new life into the Democratic party which Franklin D. Roosevelt led to power last fall now is seeing to it that the country's press gets full information about the National Recovery administration.

Charles Michelson soon after 1928 Hoover landslide was retained by the Democratic national committee to carry on an intensive publicity barrage against Republicans. Now he is press relations director for the recovery unit, on loan from the national committee.

Michelson has become a chief "trouble shooter" for the administration on press matters.

BUD RUSSELL HAS PROUD RECORD IN HIS ONE-WAY BUS

HUNTSVILLE, Aug. 3. (AP)—The Texas penitentiary, like all others, has lost men from within its walls, but its officials don't worry about prisoners "in transit."

Bud Russell, transfer agent, has handled approximately 100,000 men in the last 23 years, and only one has escaped while in his custody. The escapee was recaptured a short time later and Russell delivered him to the penitentiary.

Prison officials have no record on the mileage which "Uncle Bud" has traveled, picking up his prisoners here and there in the biggest state in the union. He has traversed Texas in every direction many times, and in addition has returned 5,000 escapees from all sections of the United States.

"It's time for the chain" is a familiar expression in every jail in Texas because of Russell's habit of chaining his prisoners together. He never accepts one from a jail cell without searching him. He hauls the more dangerous prisoners in his famous "dog wagon," a jail cell on wheels.

"I like 'em tough," Russell frequently confesses.

Post Groups Unite To Help Recovery

POST, Aug. 3. (Special)—An organization has been completed by the various clubs and civic organizations of Post to carry out the president's National Recovery Act. Every club agreed to assist in any and every way to bring unemployment to an end here.

Among those represented were O. L. Weakley, American Legion, elected chairman, and Chas. A. Quails, elected secretary of the board. Directors are Dr. D. C. Williams, mayor; Guy Speck, retail merchants; W. R. Graeber, Rotary; E. R. Wright, chamber of commerce, and Rev. J. E. Stephens, ministerial.

Other members are Mrs. T. L. Jones, American Legion auxiliary; Mrs. C. J. Van Zandt, culture club; O. C. Thomas, PT-A; Mrs. M. L. Morris, Needlecrafters; Mrs. L. W. Kitchen, Percillas, and Prof. I. R. Witt, schools.

CARDINALS IN BITTER FEUD WITH BUCS

RIVALRY BREAKS INTO FISTIC FIREWORKS FOR SECOND DAY

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals, battling to get to the top of the National League, appear to have developed the same scrappy spirit which aided the Washington Senators in their climb to the American League lead but at times brought stiff penalties.

Twice in the past two days the rivalry between the Pirates and the Cards has broken out into fistic fireworks and they have taken time out to bicker with the umpires even oftener.

Two Swap Blows

It was Bill Walker, St. Louis southpaw, and Floyd Arky Vaughn, Pirate shortstop, who started the fireworks yesterday after they had collided on the base paths in the ninth inning. With the Bucs one run behind and Paul Waner on base, Vaughan hit into a double play and crashed into Walker as the pitcher beat him to first on the play. As in Tuesday's scrap between Steve Swetonic and George Watkins, they were separated after a few swings, but in the meantime Waner went on home. The dispute raged for 15 minutes as Umpire George Megerkurth first allowed the run, then reversed his decision.

When they finally resumed, Waner was sent back to third, scored on Leo Durochers error, then the Cards went on to win 4 to 3 in the 12th when Joe Medwick singled Frank Frisch home.

The Giants, who occasionally have been accused of being "hitless wonders," slammed out 24 hits to win the second game 18 to 1 after the combination of a dozen hits and five New York errors had given the Phils a 13 to 6 triumph despite two homers by Mel Ott.

Cubs Beat Cincinnati

The Chicago Cubs remained ahead of the Cards by whaling their old "jinx", Red Lucas, in the first inning to score four runs and defeat Cincinnati 10 to 6.

The Boston Braves got an even break with the Brooklyn Dodgers in a doubleheader although they were outhit in both games. They pounded Walker Beck's flinging for an 8-5 victory in the opener but Van Mungo stopped them with five hits and Brooklyn won the second clash 3-1.

A sudden hitting revival on the part of the Philadelphia Athletics helped Washington to double its lead over New York in the American league race. Washington turned back the Boston Red Sox 2-1 when they backed up Al Crowder's four-hit hurling with a homer by Dave Harris and a ninth-inning rally against Bob Kline. The A's hit four Yankee pitchers with everything but the bat bag, piling up 19 hits to win 16 to 3 and shatter a six-game losing streak.

Cleveland stayed on the Athletics' heels by putting over eight runs in the ninth after St. Louis had tied the score and beating the Browns 16-8. The Chicago White Sox staged a big advance with two last minute voctories over the Detroit Tigers, 2-1 and 4-3.

YOUNG TILDEN, SHIELDS WIN

SOUTHAMPTON TENNIS TOURNEY REACHES QUARTER FINALS

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 3.—(AP)—The Southampton invitation tennis tournament moved into its quarter-final rounds today with Frank Shields of New York and William T. Tilden, 3rd., of Philadelphia holding most of the honors so far.

Just as Shields gained an outstanding position in the singles division, young Tilden dominated the first two rounds of the doubles play yesterday. Playing with B. G. Calvert as his partner, Tilden, a nephew of the famous "Big Bill," displayed a deadly overhead game and a will to win that carried him to one of the day's biggest upsets.

Rain Halts Play

The Philadelphia pair defeated Henry Culley of Santa Barbara, Calif., and Joseph Coughlin of Los Angeles, who have won the doubles crowns of the Agawam Hunt club, the Longwood Cricket club and the Crescent-Hamilton Athletic club tourneys in the past month, in a first-round match. The scores were 6-1, 3-6, 9-7. They were well on their way to another victory when rain stopped play.

Only one other seeded pair, the Oxford-Cambridge team of James W. Nuthall and Peter S. Young who were sixth on the list, failed to come through, bowing to Jack Tidball of Los Angeles and Robert Millen of Westbury, N. Y., 7-5, 6-4, in the first round. The others, Gregory Mangin and Berkeley Bell, who have won the crown for the past two years; George Lott and Sidney Wood; Frank Shields and Frank Parker; Gil Hall and Dr. Eugene McCauliff; John McDiarmid and Robert Bryan and Bryan Grant and Eddie Jacobs, won two matches apiece. Another Oxford-Cambridge team, Douglas Freshwater and Crady C. Frank, completed the quarter-final brackets.

Kipke Talks On Backfield Work

DYNAMIC HARRY KIPKE continues to knock 'em dead with his highly polished ability to teach football, and he grows more popular every day with his 250-odd students at the Texas Tech coaching school. We repeat, Kipke is the most appreciated mentor the good coaches of Texas Tech have brought here to lead in the Tech schools. That's not intended as a thrust at those who have come before him, but Kipke is the type which "gets over" with his audience.

• • •

Clyde Littlefield, University of Texas mentor who is teaching facts and theories regarding track and field work, probably expressed the opinion of every coach at the school Tuesday when he remarked to his audience that in all his experience with coaching schools, he had never come in contact with a man who put it out like Kipke puts it out.

• • •

The Michigan mentor hit the nail on the thumb the other day when he pleaded with his hearers to make the game of football more enjoyable for the players. We don't remember ever hearing a coach say that before. Most of them inform players that they're there to win the game; that it is a battle to be taken seriously and that there is no time for fun. Kipke varies from that theory to the extent of proposing that the players get lots of fun out of playing football, and lots of fun out of practice. The game should be made interesting to them, so they'll enjoy playing it. The sport of the thing, then, appeals to Coach Kipke as well as the thrill of winning. We're glad he made those remarks, because we've come in contact with too many football players who face their practice and playing duties with the same attitude a farmer boy holds for the big weeds he must chop in his dad's cotton patch.

• • •

Bernie Bierman, coach of the Minnesota Gophers, arrived this morning and will take charge of the football department at the school within the next day or so. At this writing, we haven't seen the graying Gopher mentor, but from what we've read and heard of him, Bierman is due to become popular with the visiting coaches.

• • •

Baseball fans who didn't see Tuesday's tournament championship game at College Avenue park missed the best contest of the season. Runs were at a premium in that 2-1, 11-inning fray, and the absence of this column yesterday might be laid to that game. It was hard to recover from the excitement and it took time to "unlax." Here's a letter which came yesterday. It is self explanatory:

• • •

Sports Editor,
Avalanche-Journal.
Dear Mr. Parris:

We just want to compliment you on your baseball tournament; you had some real baseball, good enough for any fan. Those who did not see it missed some real sport. We would enjoy some more just like that.

We also wish to compliment the other towns that entered teams in your tournament, especially Lorenzo, Abernathy and Post. That last game was a dilly; anybody's game until it was in the sack. We think Abernathy had a real ball club, and the pitching was excellent, for instance Mr. Hanks and Mr. Berry, which we consider the best pitchers on the Plains that we have seen.

Very truly yours,
TEXAS UTILITIES CO.,
(Signed) A. D. Chase.

• • •

Thanks, Mr. Chase. You are a real fan, and a boon to the ball club. A few more like you, and baseball wouldn't have such a tough fight to keep out of the hole in Lubbock.

• • •

DID YOU KNOW that a young navy composed of Lubbock "sailors" had been formed? Maybe it should be called a yacht club. It's just a start, you know, but the officers and the crew have been appointed, and it's only a matter of time until things get hot. Probably just as soon as the boys read this. Anyway, according to the information we get, Doc O. W. English is the captain; Lewis Price is the wireless operator, J. C. "Andy" Anderson the first mate and Doc R. P. Reeds the crew. They made their maiden voyage across the waters of Lake Kemp recently, and sailed a bit too far. Night came on and the hardy sailors couldn't locate the port. The rest of the crew, consisting of Floyd Coffman, Millard Swart, C. C. Mansell, Dutch Leuenberger and Jay Harston, stayed at the dock, the ship being large enough to accommodate only four anyway. Came the dawn and no ship had put into port. Came 7 o'clock, and the bedraggled sailors showed up, the one-lung motor much the worse for wear after tearing around the middle of the lake.

INTRAMURAL ACTIVITY BEING DISCUSSED BY CLYDE LITTLEFIELD

Harry Kipke, University of Michigan mentor headlining at Texas Tech this week, extended his lectures on backfield work to the business of halfbacks and fullbacks this morning at the third annual Texas Tech coach school.

Quarterback strategy was touched upon, and additional information on kicking, the subject of yesterday's discourses, was given the 250 assembled coaches.

Littlefield Lectures

Clyde Littlefield, Uuniversity of Texas head coach, opened a series of lectures on intramural athletics last night. He will continue the series this evening at 7 o'clock at the gymnasium.

Visiting coaches and their wives were guests at City Swimming pool last night at a swim party arranged by Lee Jones. Horseback riding for wives coaches featured this morning's recreational program. Bicycle riding and tennis provided outdoor entertainment yesterday.

The annual coaching school golf tournament is to get under way at the Meadowbrook course this afternoon. W. G. "Bill" McMillan has thrown the course open to visiting coaches today and tomorrow, and prizes have been subscribed to winners in the various flights. Obie Bristow, Big Spring coach, is defending champion.

Kipke's popularity with the 250 visiting coaches seems to increase daily, and his audience grows larger day by day. His easy, simple manner of putting forth helpful information is meeting with unanimous approval of coaches, regardless of "systems." His lectures are full of wit, and his energetic field work commands the undivided attention of his class. Two-score uniformed football players assist him in his field demonstrations.

Kicking Game Stressed

The Wolverine mentor dealt with punts, place kicks, kick-offs, and the defense against all of them yesterday. He introduced the Michigan punting system, differing slightly from that preached by Frank Carideo of Notre Dame last year, yesterday and proved by actual demonstrations that it wasn't the worst style in the world.

Blocking of punts, and place kicks came in for a big share of time on Kipke's program yesterday. He lectured on and demonstrated eight various methods used by the Michigan team calculated to block punts by the opposing clubs.

Opening himself to questions, Kipke answered numerous queries relative to training, working hours, practice sessions and general routine around the football field.

Sprague Treats Injuries

Another interesting lecture on care and treatment of injuries and athletes was offered by "Doc" Sprague, trainer and assistant coach at Texas A. & M. college.

Today's school program will be a repetition of yesterday's with Kipke lecturing in the gymnasium from 9 to 11 o'clock this morning and demonstrating on the field from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon. Littlefield will follow Sprague on the afternoon program, and the University of Texas coach will offer another lecture on intramural athletics this evening.

Bierman To Arrive

Bernie Bierman, head coach at the University of Minnesota was to arrive this morning. He will take charge of the football department of the school early next week, appearing with Noble Kizer, Purdue mentor, and Andy Kerr, Colgate coach.

Kizer, who will teach the Notre Dame system, wired Coach Pete Cawthon yesterday that he and Jesse Harper, director of athletics at Notre Dame, would arrive here Sunday. Kerr is expected at the same time.

KING THOROUGHBRED AND RETINUE TO BEGIN REIGN AT SARATOGA SPRINGS; WHITNEY'S EQUIPOISE IN SPOTLIGHT

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 3. (AP)—Here on the fringe of the Adirondack mountains, King Thoroughbred and his retinue today began a 27-day reign with the greatest of the 1933 equine rulers, C. V. Whitney's Equipoise, holding the spotlight out at the flower bordered track on Union avenue.

It has been 70 years since the famous horse, Kentucky, captured the first running of America's oldest stake, the Travers, here but time has brought few changes since the first meeting of less than a week was held.

The famous gambling halls have passed on together with many of the great plungers. There are still the rambling old hotels, elm covered roadway and the cross section of metropolitan society and turf life.

The cottages and stately mansions, and the hotels today were well filled, indicating the spa would enjoy one of its most successful seasons in recent years.

The stables around the brown thatched grandstand were filled to capacity with the leading runners of the country. Before the meeting ends, Sept. 2, 37 stakes will have been run in an effort to settle the championships of the various divisions. As a climax to the many juvenile stakes, the $40,000 hopeful will be run on the last day.

For today's race, Equipoise has been asked to give from 15 to 20 pounds to his six rivals in the fourth running of the Wilson mile, co-feature with the $3,500 flash, for which 17 juveniles have been named.

Equipoise's chief opposition to his fifth successive victory of the year is expected to come from Samuel Riddle's War Glory and A. C. Bostwick's mate, a rival of the Whitney colt two and three years ago.

THREE LEAGUE GAMES TODAY

FEDERALS, McKEE AND SPORTS WIN GAMES ON WEDNESDAY

Hilton Hotel meets Dee's Coffee Shop at the Ave. R field; Lubbock Compress battles Peoples Ice company at the Ave. K field and the Lubbock Auto company tangles with the Avalanche-Journal team at Fair Park in this afternoon's softball league games.

Pitcher Lee Jones tossed up another of the kind of games that won a first half pennant yesterday as the J. & J Sporting Goods company team defeated Meinecke Bros. Hardware company, 12 to 4.

In the American league, the Lubbock Printers bowed to the up and coming Federal Employees, 16 to 3, with Pitcher Johnson toiling for the winners in a fine performance. The Federals scored 12 runs in the first inning, 4 in the fourth. A. W. McKee company's team defeated the Dee's Coffee Shop club, 6 to 3, in the closest contest played. The latter contest was featured by a hit by "Pop-Up" Dowell which scored three runs, in the fifth inning.

Rules Are Given

Managers and players in the National and American softball leagues are urged by President Ed Hambright to observe rules and regulations which govern the game and the leagues. Included in the new resolutions adopted at the Tuesday night meeting of managers are:

Player lists, limited to 18 men per team, to be in the hands of the league president not later than tonight.

Players may be released at any time, provided release is written and signed by manager; released players may join another team with the permission of eligibility committee.

Postponed games must be agreed upon by managers of teams concerned and date for playing determined at least 24 hours before game time.

Games are scheduled for 6:15 o'clock daily; full team must be on field and ready to play by 6:30 or game is forfeited.

In compliance with rules of the game, no player may compete who wears cleats, calks or spikes on shoes. This rule especially to be enforced.

Members of the eligibility committee are Overton Ribble and Rob O'Hair of the American league and Wayne Henly and Freeman Strickland of the National league, who shall sit with President Hambright on all decisions regarding eligibility of players.

Slaton Junior Team Defeated By Lions

Getting out of their home territory for the first time of the season, the Lubbock Lions club team in the junior baseball league went to Slaton yesterday and brought back the big end of an 8 to 6 score, the Slaton juniors being on the losing side.

Slaton came very near tying the score in the eighth inning, after the Lions had chalked up their seventh run, with a rally that netted two counters. Lubbock scored again in the ninth. D. White, first baseman bringing in the run, to sew up the game. Pitcher Calhoun for the Lions set the Slatonites down in order in the ninth.

GOLF QUALIFYING ISSUE UNSETTLED

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 3. (AP)—They played two days and traveled more than 1,000 miles over this lake-bound course, but they were far from settling the qualifying issue in the National Public Links golf tournament for the start of match play competition today.

Medalist honors were up in the air pending a play-off Sunday by Leslie Leal, from Bellingham, Wash., and Tab Boyer, Portland's chief hope.

With the help of the executive rules committee which added another stroke to Boyer's first reported score of 143, Leal slipped in with a par-busting 70 to tie the Portlander for the medal at 144.

Boyer had counted a six with a provisional ball at the third hole, but completed the stretch with his original pellet, which he found in a dry creek. Officials ruled the first ball should count. With it he shot a 7.

GREER SCORES NINETEENTH VICTORY

MISSIONS BEATEN BY BUFFS; BUCS TAKE DOUBLE HEADER

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ed Greer, ace of the Houston hurling corps, clicked with his 19th victory Wednesday night when he pitched a nine-hit game to beat San Antonio, 9 to 4.

Greer walked seven and hit one to make his mound work erratic but he received plenty of help from Moore, Kalbitz and Parker who furnished most of the power for Houston victory. They got three hits each for nine of Houston's fourteen blows. Moore scored three times and Kalbitz twice.

Steers Increase Lead

The Dallas Steers increased their lead for third place by taking a 4 to 1 game from the Tulsa Oilers. The Steers combined five hits with eight walks to win an easy game behind the speed ball pitching of big John Whitehead. Whitehead pitched six-hit baseball and held them all to singles. The Oilers bunched three hits in the fourth for their only run.

Harry White's three-hit pitching and Art McHenry's two hits gave Fort Worth a 2 to 1 victory over Oklahoma City. McHenry's double in the eighth inning scored the winning run.

Bucs Win Pair

Hank Thormahlen went to the mound for Galveston in the first game of a doubleheader against Beaumont and pitched the Buccaneers to a 4 to 2 decision. Thormahlen hurled a four-hit game to outpitch Auker, one of the outstanding Beaumont pitchers. The Buccaneers made it a clean sweep by winning the second, 2 to 1. Jorgens duplicated Thormahlen's feat by pitching a four-hit game while his mates pounded Fritz for ten.

MERGER PLANS COMPLETED

WEST TEXAS GAS AND SOUTH PLAINS PIPE LINE FIRMS UNITE

Merger of the South Plains Pipe Line company with the West Texas Gas company is the object of arrangements which R. F. Hinchey, vice president and general manager of the West Texas Gas company, announced Wednesday had been completed.

"This action was taken by the officers of the two companies in order to increase the operating efficiency, and effect certain economies in an effort to partly compensate for the general decrease in business," said Mr. Hinchey.

"It is also desired by the officers to restore the investment of the South Plains Pipe Line company to the West Texas Gas company so that there may be a better understanding on the part of our customers and city and town officials as to the costs of both transportation and distribution of gas.

"The pipe lines will be operated as a transportation division of West Texas Gas company with the same personnel," Mr. Hinchey explained.

PRESENTATION OF PASSION PLAY TO BE STRENGTHENED BY LOCAL CHORUS

Presentation of the Passion play Friday night in Lubbock. High school auditorium will be strengthened by one of the best balanced choruses ever arranged here and by the addition of Mrs. Carl Scoggin, soprano soloist.

Fifty-two experienced singers, 22 of them men, attended a rehearsal last night at Seaman hall, said Prof. W. R. Waghorne, who is directing the chorus.

"The Passion play will have a magnificent musical background," said Professor Waghorne after the rehearsal.

Ten or 12 men between 35 and 40 years old are needed for folk scenes, he said. Persons willing to aid in the production, sponsored by Avalanche-Journal newspapers, are invited to call Mr. Waghorne at 316-W.

One of the more stirring scenes of the drama is a mob scene, that in which Pilate lets the people judge between Jesus and Barabbas. They ask that Jesus be crucified, and Barabbas, the killer, be freed. The entire cast, chorus, and extras appear in the scene.

In speaking of the Passion play, Rev. C. Franklin Parker, pastor of the Fountain Park Congregational church, Kansas City, says: "I was fortunate enough to be able to attend the premier appearance of this Passion play in America. The effect upon me was to cause me to understand, as I had never before comprehended, the outstanding event in human history. Again I attended the presentation and was again thrilled, inspired and awed by the spoken words, act, and singing. You cannot but come again, and in a new way understand the Christian message, and to rededicate yourself to the noble cause which is so vividly and beautifully portrayed. The play ought to be of great help in creating a spirit of true Christian idealism."

The German method of training players from generation to generation, for their respective parts, brings about a transformation, for they seem to be living their parts.

Scenic artists have outdone themselves in both beauty and design in the magnificent stage settings. The play, now presented entirely in English, requires a cast, chorus, and ensemble of more than 200 persons.

Thought For Today

Blessed is the man that trusteth in the Lord, and whose hope the Lord is.—Jeremiah, 17:7.

* * *

The soul seeks God by faith, not by the reasonings of the mind and labored efforts, but by the drawings of love.—Mme Guyon.

Taxes And Incomes

It was inevitable that state governors, meeting in San Francisco, should devote much of their time to a discussion of taxation. The problem is perennial, but it has never been more important than now, with public expenditures absorbing a continually increasing share of a reduced national income.

The tax burden has attained such proportions that it constitutes a genuine barrier to recovery. Even with all sorts of new tax sources tapped, and levies increased in many instances, revenues are inadequate, and many people believe the limit in capacity to pay has just about been reached.

States and local jurisdictions are finding it difficult to operate schools and other public institutions, to pay public employes, interest on their debts, and to meet their running expenses. Many areas are wholly unable to care for their destitute unemployed, and must rely on the bounty of the federal government.

* * *

Figures tell the story of how the tax collectors during recent years have been taking a bigger and bigger share of income.

In 1890 the per capita tax, federal and local, was $13.56. By 1913 it had reached $30.24, and in 1929 passed $100.

The national income of the United States in 1929 was estimated at around $85,000,000,000. The total tax bill for that year was about $10,000,000,000, or roughly 12 per cent of the national income.

Last year it was estimated that the national income had shrunk to about $40,000,000,000. The tax bill, however, decreased by only about 10 per cent, or to $9,000,000,000. The consequence was that taxes took about 20 per cent of the national income.

City governments took the largest share of the total, about 30 per cent. The federal government roughly collected 25 per cent, state governments 20 per cent, and local units the remainder. Thus local taxes comprised three-fourths of the burden.

* * *

The size of the tax burden, however, is only one of the problems. There have been innumerable sales of farms and other property because owners could not pay taxes.

Billions of tax exempt securities enable big fortunes to escape payments.

There are more than 300 instances of overlapping state and federal taxes. The states have invaded income and death tax fields, and other federal sources; and the federal government has imposed taxes in fields heretofore reserved for the states, such as the gasoline levy.

Back of this is the question, particularly in some of the local communities, of whether the citizen is getting a dollar's worth of value for his tax dollar. And the still bigger problem of the many tax inequalities, which are admitted to exist.

Many state legislatures this year reduced taxes and instituted economies. The federal government is giving attention to duplicate taxation. But only a beginning has been made. The solution will require time and a vast amount of serious study.

* * *

Maybe the reason people say race track bettors "follow the ponies" is because the average bettor never gets ahead of them.

* * *

Seems like the weatherman is helping out the repeal campaign. Where's the farmer who isn't tempted to vote wet this summer?

* * *

You don't have to organize a holding company to hold the bag.

That Girl on Broadway says she can remember when a 'code' was "subthig people had id their heads id the sprig".

* * *

And N.I.R.A. stands for something besides National Industrial Recovery administration.

It also stands for "Now In Right Accord".

* * *

IN ADDITION to the main library of more than 300 thousand books and containing in excess of 50,000 pamphlets, there are 16 collections of literature, primarily of a technical nature, in possession of the University of Texas", reads an article sent out by the university's free news service. "At present most of these are housed in various buildings on the campus, adjacent to the departments in which collections are most frequently used. Upon completion of the NEW $1,000,000 library building, now under construction, several of these will be removed to that building".

And the article goes on to tell of the architecture library in the NEW architecture building; the engineering library in the NEW engineering building; the law library in the law building; the pharmacy library and the chemistry library both in the NEW chemistry building; the physics library in the NEW physics building; the geology library and the economic geology library in the NEW geology building; the anthropology library, the school of education library, the botany, bacteriology and zoology libraries, and, for heaven's sake, the "reserve library", whatever that may be! On top of those, gentle reader, are the libraries of the home economics and philosophy departments.

* * *

According to the article's own figures, the University of Texas has a total of $352,300 invested in all those books and pamphlets, which is quite a tidy little sum in itself.

Add to that the million dollars being spent on the NEW library and the furniture and fixtures of the subsidiary libraries in the various buildings and there must be invested something in excess of two millions of dollars in university books, pamphlets and library buildings and quarters.

Which is very, very fine indeed.

* * *

TURN now your attention to Texas Technological college that has its little library in a wing of the administration building.

Tech leaders, who began trying six years ago, haven't been able to get a library building of any description—much less a flock of them scattered about.

And the library here is so crowded that every time a new shipment of books comes in it takes a Philadelphia lawyer to figure out where to stack 'em!

By comparing Tech's library possessions and those of the university one gets a concrete picture of justice as it is practiced in the expenditure of state funds for education.

* * *

Of course, the university's new buildings are coming from its oil lands—but, as has been pointed out in this column before, why should the university and its branches be entitled to all the oil rake-off when the lands and the university are both owned by the state of Texas?

Aren't the people of West, and Northwest Texas citizens of Texas?

Don't they own their pro-rata part of the state's possessions.

Maybe they do in theory—but certainly not in practice.

And their children in college take the rap!

* * *

HEAVEN knows, The Plainsman is in favor of education, from the little one-room schoolhouse at the forks of the creek to the great diamond-studded platinum institution at Austin which gobbles up money like a hog gobbles slop.

But he's in favor of spreading it around a little, in at least a semblance of fair play.

And he's not in favor of going crazy over books and libraries just because an inefficient system dumps money by the carloads to be spent "according to the constitution".

The constitution ought to be changed! Common sense should succeed any parts of the constitution that are not fair, just and sensible!

* * *

Don't forget, all this spending of money for new buildings, books, pamphlets and fixtures is going on in a state which will ask voters, on the 26th of this month, to approve a constitutional amendment giving the legislature the power to issue up to 20 millions of dollars in bonds for unemployment and welfare relief.

Does that sound sensible?

* * *

THE old stuff about "the constitution gives the oil money to the university" doesn't mean a hoot if and when the people wake up long enough to fight the thing down and put a stop to what is going on.

If the university and its branches continue to get as much from the oil lands in the next fifty years as they have in the past decade, the university and its branches will own the whole state!

* * *

Let Texas freely use the money from its state-owned oil rights, yes!

Let Texas imporve through the use of that money—improve its schools and as many of its other possessions as it can.

Let Texas use Texas' money for the aid of its indigent or for any other worthy cause.

But not go berserk over using it on any one property or on any one group of citizens, simply because the constitution happens to be inadequate.

* * *

That Man on Avenue Q says the wages of gin is breath.

* * *

At the office he's a tyrant,
Makes his help do as he wishes.
But at home his little wife
Makes him wash the dinner dishes!

* * *

IT'S a whole lot easier to feel good when one stops to consider that being that way is largely a state of mind.

No. 7—Muscle Shoals Experiment

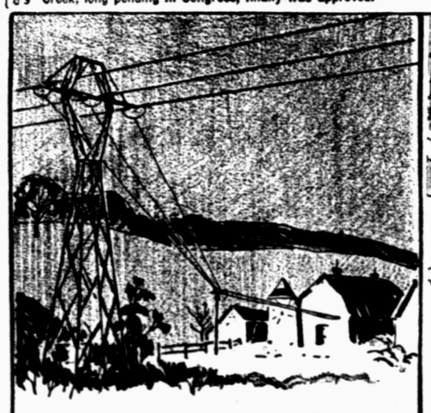

Text by John M. Gleissner — — — — — — — Sketches by Don Lavin

Legislation for completing the gigantic power development at Muscle Shoals, with construction of a new dam at Cove Creek, long pending in Congress, finally was approved.

(Copyright, 1933, NEA Service, Inc.)

The act also is designed to improve navigation on the Tennessee river and provide flood control throughout the river valley. Eventually additional dams will be built. Map shows the territory to be immediately benefited.

The law authorizes the federal government to distribute power directly to municipalities, associations and ultimate consumers if private power companies refuse to enter into equitable agreements for selling to consumers.

The administration believes the development will provide cheap power for old and new industries throughout the southeastern states, increase employment, bring prosperity and elevate living standards in the entire area. The president regards the project in large part as a social experiment on a grand scale.

Prison Labor May Get Minimum Wages, Maximum Hours Under NRA Blanket Code; Better Convicts Would Result

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
The Evening Journal's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Prison labor may get minimum wages and maximum hours under the NRA blanket code.

Sure! Why not?

Butcher

Leading prison officials have submitted a code providing fair competition between prison-made goods and other goods.

Their chief worry is how to keep prisoners occupied, out of mischief and fit for release. Only 82,000 of 150,000 penitentiary inmates and 450,000 others in jail are working. Legal restrictions and prejudice discourage prison-made goods.

So the penologists propose that each prison industry observe the same hours and working conditions as similar industries outside, that a labor cost equal to that outside be charged against all goods made, that industries outside—in return for elimination of unfair prison competition—absorb quotas of released prisoners and that all marketing restrictions be removed from prison products.

Federal prisoner wages now average $10 to $12 a month. States permitting prison labor vary the figure. If all prisoners were put on a $14 minimum wage their board and lodging would be deducted. Prison industries could show profit. Result: Better prisoners and a great burden off the backs of taxpayers.

NRA's Artist

More about the man who designed the NRA blue eagle insignia:

Charles T. Coiner is 35 years old, a landscape painter and a commercial artist who has designed hundreds of articles from airplane interiors to bath mats.

About 50 designs were submitted to NRA. None satisfied Gen. Johnson. Coiner, called from Philadelphia, flew here and sketched two designs within an hour. One was immediately approved by Johnson and later by Roosevelt.

Happy Mill Workers

A. L. Osborn was speaking for the hardwood industries of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota at the lumber code hearing:

"Our mill labor is a care-free, happy-go-lucky class of people who travel from place to place . . . who shift and drift about. They are all single men and they never have a penny in their pockets. It doesn't make any difference if we paid them $80 or what we paid them; they didn't have any money in their pockets the third day after they got their money.

"And they never will have. They are absolutely fixed in their habits and no power on earth will bring a social regeneration to them. For that reason we fixed 22 1-2 cents an hour for the man in the woods . . ."

"Huh!" said an NRA official. "Those are just the guys we need. We're trying to get money into circulation—fast!"

With 'Whiz' BARRY Under The Capitol Dome

BY R. W. BARRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Aug. 3. (AP)—The attorney general of Texas and his assistants function like one large family. James V. Allred, the attorney general, is in his early thirties and a majority of his associates likewise are under 40. They are a happy, easy-going but loyal, aggregation of lawyers.

There is little any one of Allred's assistants would fail to do to please their chief personally, officially or politically. They believe in him implicitly and would not do anything, anytime, anywhere if they thought Allred would disapprove.

As a result of the good fellowship there is considerable raillery as different situations arise.

Allred Tolerant

Allred always had been a consistent prohibitionist. He had sincerely believed the manufacture and sale of intoxicants should not be permitted. Notwithstanding, he has been tolerant. Just how he feels about modification or repeal now has not been officially recorded.

Of course, his assistants have a variety of views. Some are for repeal, some for modification and others believe in the retention of the Eighteenth amendment.

Recently, one of the assistants inadvertently accepted an invitation to deliver an address in advocacy of retaining the national prohibition amendment. The Austin newspapers published a story that the assistant would make the talk.

Next morning several of the funpoking assistants who are on the other side of the prohibition question walked into the attorney's private office.

"General, when are you going to let us wets take the stump in this prohibition campaign?" said the spokesman.

Rules Laid Down

The general started tearing his hair. He laid down the rules of his department: That none of the personnel should take part in any controversial campaign of that sort.

Then someone handed him the newspaper with the story of the pending prohibition speech by a member of his staff.

The crowd chuckled and Jimmie Allred saw the point of the visit.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 3. (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady 9 higher to 1 lower with steady cables offset by liquidation. Oct. 10.66; Dec. 10.82; Jan 10.89; Mch 11.04; May 11.18; Jly 11.34.

There was trade and commission house buying at the opening but demand was supplied by selling which came partly from the south and realizing or reselling by some of yesterday's buyers. Offerings increased after the call and prices eased, December selling down from 10.82 to 10.60 and the general list showing net losses of about 17 to 20 points by the end of the first half hour. Liverpool cables reported a steady market there on trade calling and a shortage of contracts.

Trading was comparatively quiet after the early offerings had been absorbed and fluctuations later in the morning were rather narrow and irregular. Liverpool was credited with buying some cotton on differences during the first hour but there ws also some selling supposed to be for southern account. At midday December was selling around 10.66 with the general market showing net-losses of about 12 to 17 points.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 3 —(AP) — Cotton had a disappointing opening today in view of the strength of cables.

First trades were six points advanced but the market eased owing to an irregular opening in stocks and uneasiness concerning the approaching government condition report and forecast of the crop. October declined to 10.30 and December to 10.53, or 22 to 25 points down from the opening and 18 to 19 points under yesterday's close.

Later in the first hour the market was a shade steadier, recovering 7 to 9 points from the lows on short covering.

The market ruled very quiet all morning and prices kept within the earlier range, but near the lows for the greater part of the time. Later in the morning the market rallied on some recovery in stocks and owing to fears that a tropical disturbance in the gulf might do damage in the coast section. October rallied to 10.46 and December to 10.68, up 15 to 16 points from the lows to levels 3 points under the close of yesterday.

The market at mid-session was very quiet but holding at the peak of the recovery.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Aug. 3 (AP)—Extremely bullish crop reports both from the American and Canadian northwest gave wheat prices a brisk upturn late today.

The wheat market earlier averaged lower, influenced a good deal by trade forecasts that world import requirements of wheat for 1933-34 would be the smallest met with in years. World import wheat needs were put at 576,000,000 bushels, against 704,000,000 last year and 776,000,000 two seasons ago, a circumstance attributed largely to determined governmental efforts likely to result in Europe (exclusive of Russia) raising 60,000,000 bushels more wheat than last year.

Wheat closed unsettled, 3-8@1 cent above yesterday's finish, corn unchanged to 1-2 lower, oats 1-4@1 down, and provisions varying from 22 cents decline to a rise of 5 cents.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP)—Security markets moved cautiously today as traders attempted to interpret the new stock exchange curbs on speculation.

The activity in both stocks and bonds was at an extremely low ebb. Many of the leaders sagged fractionally to around a point, but various specialties maintained fairly firm positions. Grains were moderately lower in the restricted Chicago center and were barely steady at Winnipeg. Cotton and silver futures pointed somewhat lower. The dollar slumped again in early dealings, but soon got back virtually all of its losses. Bonds were dull and irregular.

Shares that edged up fractionally to around a point included Bethlehem Steel, Warner Bros., Chrysler, Union Pacific, N. Y. Shipbuilding, Loew's and U. S. Steel. Among losers of similar amounts were Western Union, U. S. Smelting, National Distillers, Cerro De Pasco, Case, United Aircraft, N. Y. Central, Standard Brands, Industrial Rayon, American Can Du Pont and Baltimore Ohio while market observers generally expressed the opinion that a backing and filling movement probably could be expected during the next few weeks barring exceptional news, it was pointed out that the recent realization of liquidation pressure was a healthy sign and that, if prices remain within a comparatively narrow range for awhile, considerable investment buying may be attracted.

Search For Kidnap Gang Is Extended

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 3. (AP)—Prying eyes of the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping investigators were believed to have turned today toward St. Louis, Tulsa, and elsewhere.

Although a score of federal operatives are seeking the criminals who held the Oklahoma City oil millionaire for nine days, the bureau of investigation's offices wore a deserted look.

The belief that investigation was centering in cities other than this was based largely on one fairly well accepted report that approximately $30,0000 ransom was paid for the oil man's return and that the transaction was completed in St. Louis.

Deadline Is Fixed For Applications

Applications to the United States civil service commission for positions of assistant and junior messengers in the departmental service, in Washington, D. C., will be accepted through August 8.

Examination dates will be given on admission cards sent applicants. The examination, a mental test requiring about two hours, will be given in Lubbock. Application blanks may be obtained from the local secretary of the United States civil service board at the postoffice.

Entrance salary for an assistant messenger is $1,080 a year; for a junior messenger $600, less economy and retirement deductions.

NEGRO IS GIVEN LITTLE REASON FOR OPTIMISM

A San Angelo negro, whom the Tom Green county sheriff's department described as having long sideburns and a "Charlie Chaplin mustache"—maybe they hadn't heard of Hitler!—has little reason to be optimistic about his next few years.

Lubbock police arrested him here Tuesday night upon information he had stolen a 1926 Buick automobile in San Angelo and probably would come to Lubbock because his mother lived here. San Angelo officers said he had been seen driving away in the car Monday night.

Late Wednesday, Lubbock police found the car, evidently undamaged, in the 2400-block of Main street, and a woman said she saw the negro leave it there Tuesday night. He has been transferred to Lubbock county jail awaiting arrival of Tom Green county authorities.

O'Connell Family Threatened Again

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 3. —(AP) — Threats to kidnap the wife of Edward J. O'Connell, prominent Democratic leader, or one of the three O'Connell brothers, uncles of the ransomed John J. O'Connell, jr., were reported today to have been received by the family.

The threats were said to have been responsible for the heavy guard maintained at the mountain camp of Dan O'Connell where several members of the family are staying.

It was the police theory that the kidnapers, now aware that they had been given marked money and that the O'Connells worked with the authorities, sought to silence the youth and his uncles with threatening letters.

VISITING COACHES TO HELP SELECT MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL IN CARNIVAL

Another break for visiting coaches!

Two members of the Texas Tech coaching school are to be given an opportunity to see Lubbock's most comeliest madiens parade before them tonight at the City Swimming pool's bathing revue and water carnival. The coaches have been selected to aid in picking the most beautiful girl of the group.

All arrangements for the revue were complete today noon and employes of the pool were setting things in order to take care of a large crowd. Admission of ten cents will be charged spectators for the revue. The program begins at 8 o'clock.

The bathing beauties will be presented in the court of King Neptune in the competitive pageant.

Pretty girls, representing Lubbock business houses, will parade on a raft before Neptune's throne. The raft will be beautifully decorated said R. C. Douglas, jr., manager of the pool.

The companies which will be represented are Hotel Lubbock, Brown's Shoe repair, AAA Trouble shooters, Lindsey theater, Stephen's dry goods, Gilliam Chemical company, Jeanne's Beauty salon, Bowen Drug store, Coca-Cola Bottling company, Hub Clothiers, Levine's, Wylie-Jarrett Drug store, Hotel Hilton, Avalanche-Journal, Calf Stand, Dr. Pepper Bottling Co., Borden's Creamery and Palace theater.

Winner of the contest will receive $25 in cash.

Brief talks were given by Harry Kipke, head coach of the University of Michigan and Bernie Bierman, University of Minnesota coach, both instructors in the Tech school. C. T. "Doc" Sprague, Texas A. & M. trainer, entertained with cowboy ballads. Bob Clark, freshman coach at Howard college, Birmingham, Ala., puzzled both club members and guests with sleight-of-hand tricks.

Approximately 30 visiting coaches were guests of the club at the luncheon. Other out-of-town visitors were: C. C. Pearson of San Gabriel, Calif., W. B. Garland of Canadian, T. B. Gallaher of Amarillo and W. J. Cox of Fort Worth.

Shorter Hours For Kid Who Mows Lawn Now Sought

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. (AP)—With many kinds of workers getting wage raises under the recovery administration, Wirt Atmar, jr., of East Texas wants to know if something can't be done for the kid who mows grass.

"This new 'blanket code' includes nearly every phase of work," the 16-year-old wrote Administrator Hugh S. Johnson, "and the employers, and employes except we, the younger generation, the lawn-keepers.

"I was wondering if an additional clause could be put in this code to provide for shorter working hours for us, and especially a salary which we do not receive at present, because our employers (our parents) have not given the latter matter any consideration."

Wirt said that in the part of Texas where he lives the grass grows all year, "thus making me stay a few feet behind a small machine better known as a lawn-mower."

SUSPEND TRIO IN PRISON

PRIVILEGES GRANTED CHICAGO BEER BARON AT LEAVENWORTH

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.— (AP) — Three members of the staff of the Leavenworth penitentiary have been suspended for granting privileges to Terrence Druggan, Chicago beer baron, serving a two and a half year prison sentence there.

The justice department announced today that acting upon confidential information that Druggan was receiving improper privileges, the bureau of prisons had investigated and found the charges true. It said Druggan had been a persistent seeker for extraordinary privileges and that Chaplain James A. Ording, Lester M. Wahler, guard, and Vernon R. Swearingen "have been summarily suspended" after admitting their "part in the affair."

Made A Trusty

The department said it was surprised to learn recently that Druggan had been made a trusty driving the institution's truck. Upon withdrawal of that privilege, he again sought to receive preferential treatment, and the department asserted the investigation indicated that while he was ostensibly driving the truck he was permitted by the guard to call at several places in the city of Leavenworth and to visit a woman friend.

The warden of the penitentiary, it added, contended the undue liberties were permitted without his sanction and against his direction.

MOTHER AND NEW DAUGHTER, NIRA, HONORED BY FDR

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3. —(AP)— President Roosevelt today honored Mrs. Christopher J. Collins, jr., and her new daughter, Nira.

In a letter written at the summer White House at Hyde Park, N. Y., the president congratulated Mrs. Collins and sent his personal wishes to the tot who was christened in honor of his National Industrial Recovery act.

With baby Nira sleeping peacefully by her side, Mrs. Collins read: "My Dear Mrs. Collins: It is with sincere pleasure that I have heard about your new baby daughter and the sincere tribute you have paid to our effort toward industrial recovery by christening her Nira in honor of the National Industrial Recovery act.

"Signifying the faith, confidence and co-operation necessary in any great human endeavor, I compliment you on your choice, and hope that your baby will be healthy and happy in the better days to come. Very sincerely yours, Franklin D. Roosevelt."

The father was not present for the first reading of the letter. He was at work on one of the jobs he said was created within the last few weeks by NIRA.

China Enters New Era Of Government

PEIPING, China, Aug. 3 (AP)—China entered a new era of popular municipal self-government today with the inauguration of the fifty city council in Peiping.

This is the first time in more than 2,000 years, it was said, that the common people of China participated in choosing their rulers.

The new municipal council, elected by Peiping's 120,000 registered voters, comprises 37 members who will serve without salary for three years.

Pinchot Sends Troops to Coal Mine Strike Area

A dispute of authority between Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania (upper left) and Sheriff Harry E. Hackney (lower right) as to the handling of the strike of more than 15,000 miners in the coal fields of Fayette county, precipitated the Pinchot proclamation ordering the National Guard to the strike area. The troops are shown arriving at Brownsville.

HERE'S A BREAK FOR THOSE WHO ARE SUFFERING FROM HAY FEVER TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3. —(AP) — A campaign to strike at hay fever by eradicating ragweed, cause of 90 per cent of the cases of this affliction, has been inaugurated by the department of agriculture.

Goldenrod, once believed to be the cause of hay fever, has been absorbed by the department. Its pollen is so sticky and heavy that it does not blow about as does ragweed pollen. There is little chance of getting goldenrod hay fever unless one comes in very close contact with the plant, the department says.

Ragweed, found in every state, is of two types—the common ragweed, which grows about two feet high, and the big ragweed, which may attain a height of eight to 10 feet.

Instead of fleeing to the mountains or elsewhere for relief, the department urges hay fever sufferers to concentrate on cutting down ragweed plants. This will reduce the amount of pollen in the air so that severe cases will be less virulent and those only mildly subject to infection may escape entirely.

Cutting ragweed twice a year is suggested: first, just before the flowers form, and second, before the flowers develop on the low-growing branches which shoot out after the first cutting.

If cutting is delayed until flower buds form, the pollen may develop after the weeds are cut, and burning the plants may be necessary. Cutting ragweeds along highways and on vacant lots in cities and suburbs is especially important, says the department.

Cutting ragweed before its pollen develops will do much to lessen suffering from hay fever, says the department of agriculture, absolving goldenrod. A specimen of "big ragweed" one type of the plant, is shown here.

Three Governors

OKLAHOMA CITY—Oklahoma had its third governor in a week today.

Rotund Paul Stewart, president pro tem of the state senate, ruled today while Lieut. Gov. Robert Burns was in Sherman, Texas, protesting against the proposed construction of a dam near the mouth of the Washita river near Denison.

Burns and his political foe, Gov. William H. Murry, who is in Washington on the same flood control project, agree in their opposition to the Washita dam.

Mules Join Strike

UNIONTOWN, Pa. — Mine mules are taking an active part in the coal strike gripping this region. Deputy Sheriff Rock Cain fled to a stable to escape a barrage of bricks hurled by pickets at the Edenbarn Strip mine. A mule kicked him out of the barn into the stable yard, where he was hit by a stone.

Dangerous Bugs

PORT ANGELES, Wash.—E. O. Michael, Washington state predatory animal hunter, isn't bothered much by cougars and wildcats while he's killing them, but the earwigs are a pest.

After a wild animal hunt, he returned to his car, parked by the trail; it wouldn't run. He took the top from the coil box to check the points, and hundreds of live earwigs tumbled out. They had been sitting on the points, blocking the spark.

Volstead Retires; Reporters Pleased

ST. PAUL, Aug. 3. (AP)—Life is going to be much more pleasant for several reporters hereabouts now that Andrew J. Volstead has gone back to his farm, on an indefinite "furlough" from his duties as legal adviser to the northwest prohibition administrator.

That's because Volstead, who as a Minnesota congressman, wrote the dry law, was one national figure who rarely permitted an interview—and the desk-pounding city editors forever were prodding their reporters to get comments from him on each new development in the career of prohibition.

His last stand against the news hounds before closing his desk here was just like all the others. He waved the questioners aside with "It's too hot," and "What I say will only make me a target of critics."

Now the local scribes are watching the home town weeklies out at

Amarillo Is Driest In Weather History

AMARILLO, Aug. 3. (AP)—A 12-month period ending today is the driest in Amarillo weather history, a U. S. weather bureau report of precipitation since August, 1932 revealed today.

Only nine and one-quarter inches of precipitation have fallen in the past year, a deficiency of 11.15 inches below the normal of 20.99 inches. The meterological summary also showed that June and July were the hottest and driest of those particular months since establishment of the bureau in 1892.

Six pieces of coal money, sold by auction in London for two guineas (about $10 at par), were found in Dorsetshire, England, over a century ago and are said to have been used by the Phoenicians.
