American Losses Climb In Stepped-Up Battles

Week Said Costliest Yet

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — The highest American losses of the Vietnam war were announced today, reflecting the steadily rising U. S. military effort and Communist retaliation with heavier mortar attacks, mines, booby traps and hit and run assaults.

The total casualties last week were 1,617 killed, wounded and missing. It included 232 dead, 1,381 wounded and four missing. Most were in the small skirmishes and fleeting Red jabs that have characterized the recent fighting.

While the over-all total was the highest of the war, the total of 232 killed was exceeded by one week in November, 1965, when 240 Americans died. But most of that death toll came in the fierce Ia Drang Valley battle, not in engagements scattered the length of South Vietnam.

By unofficial tabulation, American combat losses in the war up to last Saturday midnight were 7,920 killed and 45,836 wounded.

The U. S. Command reported 1,736 Communists were killed last week, well above average but not a record. However, South Vietnam's "open arms" program to attract defectors dealt the Reds a hard blow. A record weekly total of 1,168 Communist soldiers and political workers came into allied lines waving the slips of paper granting them amnesty for turning on the Reds.

Allied statistics show the open arms program is attracting defectors at twice the rate of last year.

Another sign of the stepped-up war was the lifting of security wraps on the first major offensive operation in the Mekong Delta by troops of the U. S. 9th Infantry Division, the first big U. S. ground unit to be permaarea which contains about one third of South Vietnam's 15 million people and grows 80 per cent of its rice.

The division's 3rd Brigade arrived at Dong Tam, about 40 miles southwest of Saigon, in late January and has been digging in. The U. S. Command announced that more than 1,500 men of the brigade began sweeping the surrounding Viet Cong-infested paddy land two days ago in Operation Palm Beach.

In a series of skirmishes, the brigade has killed 42 Viet Cong in the operation, a U. S. spokesman said. Communist retaliation cost the brigade nine dead and four wounded in ground combat and two dead and 10 wounded when the Reds mortared the Dong Tam camp Wednesday.

The brigade's security sweep signals the beginning of stepped-up U. S. efforts in the delta, where 100 or more U. S. Navy small craft are also stationed to sweep into the narrow waterways with supporting fire. Three South Vietnamese divisions have borne the brunt of the fighting in the delta until now.

Legal Moves Begin In Powell's Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge George Hart was assigned today to hold a preliminary hearing in Adam Clayton Powell's legal bid to regain his seat in Congress.

No date can be set for the hearing, Hart's office said, until House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts and the other defendants named in the law suit are served with summons. The U.S. marshal's office said service will begin as soon as possible.

Judge Hart will be asked to issue a preliminary injunction ordering Powell's immediate seating and to call a three-judge court which would determine whether the House exceeded its constitutional authority March 1 when it refused the New York Negro Democrat the oath of office.

Hart may decide only whether a three-judge court should be convened and if so, leave to that panel the decision to issue the preliminary injunction.

The suit, filed by Powell's attorneys Wednesday, also asked that a permanent injunction be issued to prevent McCormack from refusing to give Powell the oath of office.

The suit charged the House action violated Powell's and his constituents' constitutional rights and racially discriminated against them.

The court petition was signed by Powell and 13 others, including civil rights leader Philip Randolph, Percy E. Sutton, Manhattan borough president and Hulan Jack, former borough president.

On the Bahamian island of Bimini, the fishing retreat where Powell has remained during most of the controversy, he spoke derisively of the man selected by New York Republicans to run against him in the special election — James H. Meredith, first Negro enrolled in the University of Mississippi.

"Meredith, who is he?" asked the debonair preacher-politician at a Bimini news conference. "I don't know Meredith."

He said Meredith would not be a "formidable" opponent. Powell added he doesn't plan to campaign in person in Harlem.

The head of the Congress for Racial Equality pledged political retribution against those who voted for the ouster.

"If in California or the North or South or in the East a man votes against Adam Clayton Powell, the constituents in their districts will take it into account," said Floyd McKissick, CORE's executive director, at Bimini with Powell.

"The Adam Clayton Powell case has been projected nationwide," added McKissick. "This is the major civil rights struggle — can the black people of Harlem and the black people of all America determine for themselves who will represent them."

Agriculture Panel Sought For Texas

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally asked the legislature today to set up a Texas Agricultural Development Board to create goals for Texas farmers and ranchers and to promote their products.

"To state the problem briefly, Texas has begun to fall behind in its relative growth in the field of agriculture, despite the fact that we are still one of the major agricultural states in the nation," Connally said in his fourth message to this legislature.

"Fifteen years ago, Texas and California were equal in agricultural income. Today, California reaps some $1.5 billion more in agricultural income than Texas —and this in spite of the fact that California's physical assets are less than those of Texas."

The board would have 15 members, appointed so as to provide representation from all areas.

It would have the duty and the power to:

—Make an inventory of the state's agriculture assets, services and facilities.

—Establish long-term and short-term needs and goals for agriculture and set priorities for their accomplishment.

—Stimulate and guide a continuing marketing program for agriculture, in both domestic and foreign markets.

Develop new ways to convert raw agricultural products into marketable items.

—Promote the use and consumption of Texas agricultural products.

Airliner Crashes In Central Ohio

URBANA, Ohio (AP) — A Trans World Airlines DC9 jetliner with 25 persons, aboard crashed today 50 miles from the scene of a crash Sunday which killed 38 persons.

Reports from the scene said there were no survivors.

The sheriff's office said bodies were scattered amid the debris of the plane which fell near the resort community of Meadow Lake about five miles northwest of this central Ohio city.

R.D. King, news editor of the Urbana Citizen, reported he found no survivors among the 21 passengers and four crew members.

A woman who lives nearby, Mrs. Wayne Rinehart, said she heard "what sounded like an explosion." She said the plane landed about half a mile from her house in a rural area.

Bodies and debris were reported scattered over a four-mile area. A temporary morgue was set up not far from the crash.

Reports fixed the crash scene as near Ohio Routes 29 and 540.

The TWA office in Columbus, Ohio, said only that radio communication had been lost with its Flight 51 from Baltimore, Md., to Dayton.

Only Sunday a Lake Central airliner crashed near Kenton, Ohio, about 40 miles north of here, killing 38 persons.

TWA said the DC9 used on that flight has a capacity of 70 passengers. The DC9 is a medium range jet.

TWA said the plane was a DC9 flight 553 with 21 passengers. It left Laguardia for Hard risburg, Pittsburgh, Dayton and Chicago.

Rebellious Union Troubles Reuther

DETROIT (AP) — President Walter P. Reuther of the United Auto Workers struggled today with the problem of a rebellious union local in Ohio that defied officials and struck a General Motors plant for the second time in 16 days.

Reuther sought a method to enforce a trusteeship he slapped on UAW local 549 after workers failed to report to their jobs Wednesday night at the GM's strategic Mansfield, Ohio, plant.

The company said about 50 of 1,200 men today reported for the day shift.

Wednesday night, however, some 90 per cent of the 300 workers on the overnight shift failed to report, indicating that the rebellion had its strongest backing on that shift.

The strike threat appeared momentarily ended Wednesday when day shift workers reported after a walkout by men on the overnight shift.

Some 1,500 of the local's 2,600 members voted to strike Wednesday night.

UAW officials called an emergency meeting of the union's national General Motors council to discuss the uprising. The meeting was set for 2 p.m. EST.

Reuther appointed an administrator to take over the reins from local president Robert Hall, who had been summoned to Detroit for talks with UAW executives. The UAW said Hall and other officers endorsed the trusteeship.

But Frank G. Petty Jr., a local shop committee chairman, ignored a similar summons to Detroit and called the strike-vote meeting after he declared "open war" on Hall and international officers.

The walkout was sparked by rumors that GM would fire Petty and four other workers who were among 20 suspended in the last strike. Neither GM nor UAW officials would say if this was true.

"We are the leaders here, not Reuther's men," Petty declared.

Petty said he would send men to Detroit today to talk with Reuther.

Teachers To TSTA Meet Tomorrow

Pupils in local public schools will get a holiday from the classrooms tomorrow.

Teachers and administrators will be in Odessa to attend the annual meeting of District IV, Texas State Teachers Association. The voting delegates to the district TSTA session will meet at a banquet this evening in Odessa to transact business and the general district convention session will be held tomorrow.

Presiding at the district meetings will be Barbara Bigham, speech therapist in Snyder Schools, who is 1966-67 president of District IV.

Razzle-Dazzle Girls Warned Off Slopes

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland (AP) — The razzle-dazzle girls of this chic winter resort have been warned off the ski slopes. Their outfits are considered too dangerous.

Instructors are refusing to take girls wearing gold and silver lame ski clothes or shiny, lacquered trousers.

"They're much too dangerous,' said one instructor. "When a girl falls wearing such an outfit she slides down the slope like butter in a hot pan. One instructor nearly broke his neck trying to rescue a girl who slipped down the full length of the Olympic run."

Indonesian Army Wipes Out Reds

By T. JEFF WILLIAMS

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian army troops wiped out a "Communist nest" in central Java last Sunday and killed a faith healer and about 80 of his followers in "a sort of battle," the official news agency Antara reported today.

The agency said those slain were part of the Sept. 30 Movement, the Communists that tried to take over the government on that date in 1965. A central Javan army spokesman said remnants of the movement "are known to be planning a counteroffensive."

Members of Congress meeting in Jakarta continued to demand the dismissal of President Sukarno, who has been linked to the coup attempt by witnesses at subsequent trials.

Most of the congressmen who spoke rejected appeals for leniency from military leaders, who have stripped Sukarno of executive power and reduced him to figurehead status.

The Army spokesman said special forces organized by the faith healer, Mbah Suro, fired on government troops when they closed in last Sunday morning on the healer's headquarters. An unspecified number of casualties were reported among the troops during fighting from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Th fighting was said to have occurred in the Blora region. The town of Blora has more than 18,000 residents and is a center of oil production.

The faith healer was reported killed and the buildings where he practiced in the village of Ningnggil burned.

The army spokesman said cadres from various parts of Indonesia were given military training and indoctrination at the faith healer's headquarters.

As Congress debated Sukarno's future, increased forces of security troops were deployed outside the building. It was feared that students would attempt a mass demonstration in an effort to force dismissal of Sukarno, a move that could arouse Sukarno's followers and result in more bloodshed.

Congress was expected to reach a decision on Sukarno by Saturday night.

Carruthers Service Set

Mrs. Jennie Lou (Jean) Carruthers, 40, who lived at 1420 Avenue E, died unxpectedly this morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Allen, 502 Sixteenth. She was found dead in bed at about 7 a.m.

Funeral service will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at Calvary Baptist Church, with the Rev. George Shoff, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the Snyder Cemetery, under direction of Bolger Funral Home.

Mrs. Carruthers was born in Dallas County on Jan. 10, 1927. She had lived here for the past 20 years.

In addition to the parents, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Edna Mae Blankenship of Dallas and Mrs. Powell Tarter of Snyder, and one brother, Bobby Joe Allen of Farmington, N M.

Udall Cites Need For Clean Air

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Interior Stewart Udall said today the nation is expected to produce and consume more oil and gas in the next 14 years than it has in the past 107 years — and must find ways to do this without polluting the air.

Udall told a symposum on availability of oil and gas in the United States through 1980.

"If we are anywhere near right about our estimates of future requirements, the United States will consume 78 billion barrels of oil and 283 trillion cubic feet of gas over the next 14 years — more petroleum hydrocarbons than we have used in all the 107 years that the oil industry has been in existence.

"And we will have to find ways of doing so without the stench and stain that have been the noisome concomitant of combustions up until now.

"In both our production and our use of energy we must somehow compose the world of man with the world of nature in which it resides, and upon which it depends, in the final analysis, for its continued existence.

"In these circumstances, our need for knowledge, our requirement for understandin of how best to produce and use our energy resources will be greater in the future than it has ever been in the past. Things will move faster."

Udall said those at the two-day meeting would be concerned not only with the supply of liquid and gaseous hydrocarbons from conventional deposits but from new sources as well.

"The prospect of converting energy from chemical to electrical form with twice the efficiency of present methods and with no resulting pollution is one of the most encouraging features in the entire energy picture today," Udall said.

He did not detail this further, but said the possibility "is a significant harbinger of victory in our battle to secure the benefits of massive energy use without suffocating in its by-product effluents.

"The several conversion devices which promise to help bring about this achievement are worthy of our closest and most serious attention."

A spokesman said Udall was referring to such devices as the fuel cell.

Powell Case Stirs Solons To Review Conduct Rules

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Adam Clayton Powell case is pushing Congress to the brink of drafting meaningful rules to police its own conduct.

To date, more than 75 bills proposing ethical standards for representatives have been introduced in the House, most of them born in the controversy stirred by the high-flying Harlem preacher.

There were many last year, too. But they got nowhere.

Still other bills have been introduced in the Senate. There, a special ethics committee — set up after revelations of the wheeling and dealing of Bobby Baker — is investigating allegations that Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., converted to personal use funds raised for him at campaign and testimonial dinners. Dodd denies the charges.

The drive for some sort of ethical guidelines is being spurred on by an outpouring of words from members worried about growing public suspicion of the moral climate in Congress.

Chairman William M. Colmer, D-Miss., said Wednesday the House Rules Committee hopes to make a recommendation next week on what sort of committee should police ethics.

There have been no witnesses during several weeks of hearings who opposed the idea of setting up a watchdog group.

The House Administration Committee Wednesday increased the membership of its ethics and contracts subcommittee from 7 to 10 members — five from each party — and the House voted $50,000 for the subcommittee's activities. The subcommittee is one of the candidates for ethics watchdog in the Rules Committee deliberations.

Some samples of the cries of concern that have echoed through Congress in recent days include:

"The public's faith in Congress is going steadily down, down, down."

"Let us clean house."

"Our linen is on the line."

"A cloud of moral suspicion is hanging corrosively over the entire Congress."

In recent years, Congress has been severe in its surveillance of the executive and judicial branches. But the public apparently believes Congress failed to watch itself.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My daughter (I'll call her Linda) goes to high school and her first class begins at 7:55 a.m. Her father drives her as he goes right past the school on his way to work.

The problem is my husband. He pokes around so much before he finally gets going that he's made Linda late for school several times. And when she's not late, she barely makes it. Linda gets so nervous and upset she can't keep her breakfast down. I have begged my husband to be more considerate, but every day it's the same story.

I suppose Linda could walk, but it would take her half an hour, and she always has a load of books to carry. Is there a solution?

LINDA'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Linda should get to school without her father's uncertain assistance. The walks (even with a load of books) won't hurt her as much as those fretful mornings will. How does Linda get home?)

DEAR ABBY: My husband owns his own business and he travels over a large territory, which means he must be away from home over the week-end quite often.

He keeps asking me to meet him out of town for the week-end as he gets lonesome for me.

Abby, we have three children, 8, 10, and 13, and altho I can always get someone to take care of the children, I have mixed emotions about running off and leaving them just to keep my husband company. What would YOU do?

MIXED EMOTIONS

DEAR MIXED: I would join my husband as often as common sense and practicality allowed. I would rather have someone taking care of my children than my husband.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: We have received several wedding invitations with a smaller card included which read as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. — will attend
Number of guests —

The outer envelope was addressed to Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith and the inner envelope was the same.

Is it proper to fill in Mr. and Mrs. Smith plan to attend, and the number of guests is FIVE? This includes our two children and my husband's mother who makes her home with us.) I say that since there was only Mr. and Mrs. on the eveelopes, they want only the two of us.

My husband says that we are allowed as many guests as we wish, and they are asking us to please fill in the number. Who is right?

"TWO OR FIVE"

DEAR TWO: You are. Under no circumstances should invited guests include others without first checking with the hostess. She wants to know whether both you and Mr. Smith will attend.

The answer is TWO.

Traffic Jam Delays Guest Of Honor

NEW YORK (AP) — When you're the guest of honor, and you've got a fife and drum corps in tow, and the party's nearly over, and you're two hours late and still stuck in traffic, it's a bit of a sticky wicket, eh wot?

That's the spot the Honorable Dennis A.C. Auld was in Wednesday night, while the 100th birthday festivities for Canada roared merrily on.

The centennial party, tossed by the Thousand Islands Bridge Authority, began at 5 p.m. Auld, minister of tourism and information for the province of Ontario, was the guest of honor. Coming with him were fifers and drummers from the Fort Henry Guard of Kingston, Ontario, who were to play while a birthday cake bearing 100 candles was lit.

But Auld & Co. didn't arrive until 7 p.m., half an hour before the party ended, because they were caught in snarled traffic between LaGuardia Airport and the Overseas Press Club, in midtown Manhattan.

Warmth Routs Biting Cold

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Welcome warmth spread across the Midcontinent today after a siege of winter cold, high winds and snow.

The Weather Bureau said the warm air would move into the east later in the day to put to rout the recent cold spell. In the South—after an early morning chill with lows in the upper 20s and 30s — temperatures in Georgia and Alabama were expected to warm up to the 70s and 60s under fair skies.

The mild weather appeared as Pacific air swept inland. Warm air also moved down the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains and south winds pushed up out of the Gulf.

In the Northeast, sub-zero cold moved across northern New England. In the West, warnings to stockmen and motorists were issued for heavy snow expected in the Montana mountains.

Indians Fail To Agree

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Congress party leaders failed again today in their efforts to get unanimous agreement for the re-election of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi.

Party chief Kumaraswami Kamaraj told newsmen the Congress working committee would meet again this evening.

"We are engaged in efforts to bring about the unanimous election of a leader. That is all," he said.

All Congress members of Parliament will assemble in New Delhi Sunday to select their new parliamentary leader who automatically becomes prime minister. Mrs. Gandhi's chief opponent is former Finance Minister Morarji Desai.

Holt Heads Baylor Drive

Wayland G. Holt of Snyder has been appointed District 24 chairman of the College Loyalty Alumni Support Program for Baylor University according to Raymond Vickrey, assistant director of the Baylor Ex-Student Association.

Vickrey said the chairmen were chosen because they had been good workers for the association in the past and demonstrated a willingness to perform in the program.

The duties of the CLASP area chairman, Vickrey said, are to enlist help for the Student Association and to contact every Baylor alumni personally during CLASP month.

Vickrey said he expected Governor John Connally to proclaim April 15-May 15 as CLASP month.

MRS. DALE SMITH of Big Spring, used a variety of materials to create the arrangements presented Saturday morning at the Martha Ann Woman's Club. Mrs. Smith is a National Judge and an authority in the field of abstract arranging. Mrs. Clyde Collins, right, president of Twilight Garden Club, was hostess for the occasion.

Fashion And Travel Hints

Fashion and travel are irrevocably linked in the minds — and budgets — of Amercin awmeon. Of the 14 million travelers in the past year perhaps half were fashion conscious American females faced with two major travel problems: what to take with them and what to buy when they arrive. Some intriguing answers to both questions have been suggested.

A cardinal rule for the wise traveler is never to take more than you need. Keep your baggage at a minimum, and as a rule never have more bags with you than you can handle yourself in a pinch. Even if porters are available at terminals, a "carry your own" policy — especially for women traveling alone — can prove a lifesaver. It can also save you tips and additional charges for excess baggage, as well as time, when passing through customs. With a little luck you might also get to the taxi ramp first.

Passports, extra photos, visas, health certificates, itineraries, tickets, licenses, money, traveler's checks, and credit cards should be carried in a big, roomy handbag with a secure shoulder strap. (Remember you only have two hands.)

Your clothes should be packed neatly and the bags chosen with care. Most of the light, sturdy bags on the market should do. But remember that bags take a beating. Size is also important. Some women favor the fold over, hanger type, while others find that they can get more into a pullman style case measuring about 28x20x9 inches.

As a second bag, a small matching over - nighter, or a firm, non-crushable hat box type is useful. A large make-up type of case, similar to those used by professional models, also has proved practical. Keep this smaller bag with you, when possible, and it should contain whatever you might need in the event of an unscheduled layover of flight cancellation.

What to pack will of course depend on where you're going, what you plan to do, and how long you'll be away. Plan on clothes for sightseeing, shopping, sports (whether spectator or participating) and evenings on the town.

Stain repellent or wash-wear fabrics are functional, as are prints and patterned fabrics—which hide stains and colors of medium or darker hues. Separates have proven their versatility to experienced women travelers who find an outlet for their creativity in imaginative mix-and-match combinations.

Above all, common sense and forethought provide the keys to what the fashion - conscious female should carry with her.

What to buy is another problem. Again it will depend on where you are going and inevitably, on the size of your budget. Here again common sense is your best ally.

Shop carefully, selectively, and hunt for real bargains. Remember that whatever you buy will have to look smart at home or at school as well as while you're on vaction. The white silk dress that looked perfect in Bermuda must also serve you in Detroit, Dallas, or Berkeley. Be sure they do.

Also, beware of "bargains." Plan what you're going to buy before you leave. Compare prices at home with those in the shops where you're vacationing, including fabric, fit and design. Remember that everything isn't always cheaper abroad and that American women, in general, dress better for less than women in most countries. Your natural exuberance while on that first shopping spree in one or another of the world's fashion centers shouldn't blunt your "bargain hunter" instinct.

You travel agent should be chosen with the same care as your wardrobe as he, or she, may be your best source of information on what to take and what to buy. Agents travel a great deal — often as much as 20,000 miles or more a year — and have invaluable first-hand knowledge. They can also provide you with special check lists for packing and charts of temperatures around the world.

Baked Olive Pork Chops

1 can onion soup, undiluted
1 can celery soup, undiluted
½ cup water
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
Sage, pepper, msg to taste
4 thick pork chops
1 onion, sliced
½ cup sliced pimiento - stuffed olives

Mix soups, water and seasonings. Pour into baking pan. Place chops on mixture. Top with onion slices and olives. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour.

Hot chocolate milk is a much more nourishing winter snack for the children than carbonated beverages.

Baking powder biscuits, dipped in melted butter and cheddar cheese and baked, make wonderful accompaniments for fried chicken.

Veal Cutlet Fast Way To Variety

If you are the person who looks from a window onto a still-wintry landscape and thinks, "Can Spring be far behind?", you're probably the kind of homemaker who anticipates a cheerier time of year by adding fresh and sunny touches to her table.

Of special interest to you are menus which provide a bright lift from the usual routine of winter meal preparation, menus which are at once imaginative, appealing to eye and taste, and free of fuss and bother.

This sunny dinner centers around veal cutlet, a just right choice for hearty family fare or best company dinners. Sauce it with bright, rosy condensed tomato soup, seasoned with lemon juice, Worcestershire and garlic, and topped with golden melted cheese. Results are sure to rate appreciative comments all 'round. Serve with tnder noodles and a crisp green salad. For an added touch of sunshine, try a dessert bowl brimming with orange and banana ambrosia.

SAUCY VEAL CUTLET

1 pound veal cutlet
1 can (4 ounces) mushroom buttons, drained
1 medium clove garlic, minced
⅛ teaspoon rosemary, crushed
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed tomato soup
¾ cup water
1 teaspoon lemon juice
½ teaspoon Worcestershire
¾ cup shredded milk process cheese
Cooked noodles

Pound veal with meat hammer or edge of heavy saucer; cut into serving size pieces. In skillet, brown veal and mushrooms with garlic and rosemary in butter. Add soup, water, lemon juice, and Worcestershire. Cover; cook over low heat 25 minutes. Stir now and then. Top each cutlet with cheese. Cover; cook 5 minutes longer. Serve with noodles. Makes 4 servings.

Cream-Caramel Filling

¼ pound (1 stick) butter
5 tablespoons flour
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 cup whipping cream

In double boiler, melt butter. Mix flour and sugar together and stir into butter. Add cream. Cook over medium heat until thick, stirring often. Cool, and spread between layers of cooled cake.

OUT FOR T.S.T.A.

Story Is Depressing

THE SYMBOL. By Alvah Bessie.

Emmaline Smith had just one thing — beauty. It wasn't enough.

She came up from nowhere. She was an illegitimate child; her father disappeared and her mother went mad. She was farmed out to various foster parents, none of whom loved her.

She grew up as movie-struck kid determined to become a star, and she made it. But all through her life she was singularly bereft of real friends or real emotions.

This novel is an account of her publicity-built rise to stardom, under the stage name of Wanda Oliver, and her disintegration. It is a story of mocking irony.

Wanda Oliver gradually becomes the luscious symbol of hot, fevered sex for millions of and her affairs make page one news. Her second marriage is to a pro football star, her third is to a famous painter. Among her affairs there are episodes with an heroic pilot and a German film star

But the irony is that Wanda is well along in her amorous career before it dawns on her that she is frigid; the flamboyant sexpot has no emotional release from her well-advertized adventures. So of course she becomes increasingly neurotic, increasingly unable to maintain the public image that has been created for her. The end can be nothing but tragic.

Bessie has told the narrative in three ways — sections of monologue by the heroine; scenes written in the third person, and dialogues between the heroine and her analyst. For the Hollywood background, he has used many of the disillusioning features of the typical Hollywood expose.

The pattern of this story should lead to the effect of pathos; it should arouse in the reader a compassionate sympathy for the unfortunate movie star, helpless in her predicament. In some measure, it does arouse that feeling of pathos. But there may be some readers who will find its cumulative emotional crises a bit depressing.

Pecan Squares

(Two 9 x 9 pans)

½ cup butter
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon baking soda
½ cup butter
¼ cup sugar
2 egg yolks
2 tablespoons cold water
½ teaspoon vanilla
¼ cup milk
2 egg whites
1 cup brown sugar, packed
1 cup chopped pecans

Grease two 9x9 inch pans.

Sift first 4 ingredients together. Cream butter with next five ingredients until light. Blend in flour mixture alternately with milk until just mixed. Spread mixture in pans.

Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually add brown sugar beating well. Spread over cookie dough. Sprinkle nuts on top. Bake at 325 degrees for 25-30 minutes. Cut into squares while still warm.

Golden Yellow Cake

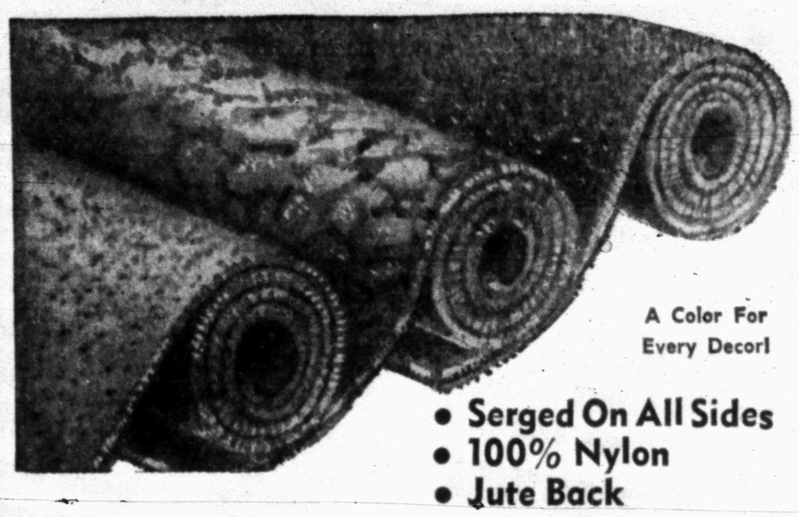

½ cup butter
1½ cups sugar
4 eggs
1 tablespoon vanilla
3 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk

Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add vanilla. Sift dry ingredients together. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture, alternating with milk. Start with flour and end with flour. Pour into 2 greased and floured 8-inch cake pans. Bake in 375 degrees oven for 30-35 minutes or until done.

Golf Team In Match At Laredo

The Snyder High School golf team, fresh from an impressive triumph over several Class AA-AA teams at the Canyon Reef Tournament here last weekend, will be out to seek additional glory at the Border Olympics Golf Tournament this weekend.

The team left for Laredo this morning along with the track team.

There are several talented youngsters on the Tiger team. Alex LeFeuvre fired a 38-hole 149 to tie for medalist honors last week. And he defeated Tommy Rose of Pampa in a "sudden death" playoff by birdying the first hole.

The team also won a playoff with Coronado after both teams fired 619 in regulation play. Steve Holder, Mitch Rambin and LeFeuvre birdied the first hole and Don Copeland shot a par. Coronado faltered with two birdies, a par and a boggie.

Mark Wilson has come on strong of late, shooting an 84-88 during the tournament as the "fifth man." Other team members are Jay Kidd, Paul Zeck, Benny Ward, and Bill Taylor.

Texans Are Co-Favorites

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Defending champion Moberly, Mo., and San Jacinto, Tex., have been rated as co-favorites in the National Junior College Basketball Tournament in Hutchenson, March 14-18.

Moberly, with a record of 27-2 against many of the best teams in the nation, ranked first and San Jacinto was second in the final national junior college poll. The Texas team owns a 37-4 record.

Other highly regarded teams are the Cameron Aggies of Lawton, Okla., runner-up last year; Burlington, Iowa; Vincennes, Ind., champions in 1965, and Powell, Wyo., a team which averaged more than 100 points a game through the regular season.

Brackets for the tourney were completed Wednesday night when the Cameron Aggies defeated St. Gregory, Oka., 79-78. to win its regional titel.

All other entries were determined previously in regional tournaments or playoffs.

1:45 p.m.—Rochester, Minn., vs. Wright of Chicago.

Hutchinson, add juco tourney: playoffs.

The first round schedule:

TUESDAY

Noon—Trenton, N.J. vs. San Jacinto, Tex.

3:30 Ranger, Tex., vs. Vincennes, Ind.

6:00—Hiwassee of Madisonville, Tenn., vs. Burlington, Iowa.

7:45—Boise, Idaho, vs. Dodge City, Kan.

9:30—Broome Tech of Binghampton, N.Y. vs. Moberly, Mo.

WEDNESDAY

1 p.m.—Cameron of Lawton, Okla., vs. Ferrum, Va.

2:45—Powell, Wyo., vs. St. Johns of Palatka, Fla.

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP) — Cardigan Bay, now an 11-year-old pacer, won the $25,000 Invitational Provincial Cup at Windsor Raceway Wednesday night in his first 1967 start. Reined by Stanley Dancer, he equalled th track record of 2:01 for the mile and paid $3.30.

REDS RUN THROUGH TIRE TEST — Cincinnati Reds coach Whitey Wietelmann (left), puts his team through agility test by running them in football fashion through an assortment of auto tires at spring training camp in Tampa. Leading is Gordy Coleman (18) followed by Deron Johnson (11), farmhand Dick Kennedy and other unidentified players. (AP Wirephoto)

Coach Would Rather Be Lucky Than Good

By LARRY ELDRIDGE

BOSTON (AP) — Coach Alex Hannum of the Philadelphia 76ers would rather be lucky than good — and he hopes his luck holds out against the Boston Celtics in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

"I goofed but I got lucky," Hannum said of the hectic final seconds in which the 76ers pulled out a 115-113 overtime victory over the Celtics Wednesday might to clinch their second straight Eastern Division title.

Philadelphia was leading 113-112 when Wilt Chamberlain fouled Boston Player-Coach Bill Russell with 21 seconds left. It was the 76ers' fourth team foul of the overtime period, giving Russell two shots, but he sank only one to tie the score.

The 76ers then held the ball for the last shot, and Hal Greer hit on a 25-foot jumper to win the game with two seconds left.

"I yelled for Wilt to take that foul," Hannum said, "but I thought it would only give Russell one shot. If he'd made both shots and we'd yost, I'd be the goat, but I bailed out with luck."

The victory not only clinched the regular season title but also evened the season's series between the teams at 4-4 with one game left. It also established an NBA record of 63 triumphs in a season, breaking the old mark of 62 set by the 1964-65 Celtics.

Philadelphia trailed by as much as 15 points in the third period, but rallied behind the sharpshooting of Greer, who had a game high 37 points. Bill Cunningham scored 21 points for the 76ers, while Chamberlain had 17.

Sam Jones led the Celtics with 20, and said the injured hand which forced him to sit out the previous night's game at Chicago didn't bother him at all.

In other games, the St. Louis Hawks edged the Lakers 106-104 at Los Angeles while the Pistons turned back the Baltimore Bullets 120-113 at Detroit.

The victory enabled the Hawaks to move into undisputed possession of second place in the Western Division, one game ahead of the Lakers.

Len Wilkens sparked St. Louis with 37 points while Jerry West was high for Los Angeles with 34.

Dave Bing hit a career high of 47 points as the Pistons climbed back into a fourth-place tie in the West with idle Chicago in the battle for the last playoff spot.

It was the first victory for new coach Donnis Butcher, who took over Tuesday when Dave DeBusschere was relieved of his dual role as player-coach.

John Tresvant backed up Bing with 26 points for Detroit, Ray Scott led the Bullets with 37.

Fees, Everheart On All-Tourney

AUSTIN (AP)—Four players in the state schoolboy basketball tournament last week have been selected unanimously to all-tournament teams by sports-writers covering the competition.

Larry Wood, 6-foot-4 senior from runnerup Spring Branch Memorial, was the only unanimous Class AAAA selection. Joe Lenox, 6-1½ jounior from Clear Creek was the only Class AAA unanimous choice.

In Class A, John Howell, 6-2 senior from Dimmitt, and Robert Chisum, 6-6 junior from Hardin-Jefferson, were unanimous selections.

San Antonio Lee, Class AAAA champions, placed 6-10 Steve Niles and Billy Black on the all-tournament roster. Clay van Loozen was Spring Branch's second selection on the team and Rusty McDearman of Abilene was the fifth player.

The others on the AAA all tournament team included two players from state champion Lamesa, Pat Fees and Gene Everheart. Tres Blankenbecker of Waxahachie and Natividad Salazar of South San Antonio also were chosen.

Steve Clark of Van, Kenneth Stevenson of San Antonio Cole and Jack Young of Hardin-Jefferson were the other members of the Class AA all-tournament team.

Brownsboro, Class A champion, had two players on the Class A roster—Marshall Crawford and Jesse Williams. Others were Edward Jones of Lorenzo, Tommy Goodwin of Archer City and Eystorgio "Coco" Villarreal of Zapata.

The all-tournament squad in Class B, won by Kennard, was Herman Myers and Fred Pilkington, botn of Kennard; Cedrick Nix and Erwin See of Snook and Ricky Knight of Krum.

Negro Stars Named

GALVESTON (AP) — Class AAAA champain Fort Worth Terrell placed two players and Galveston Central, Lamarque Lincoln and Dallas Roosevelt had one each on the Negro schoolboy all-state basketball team.

The selections, made by a panel of coaches and announced Wednesday, include Sherman Evans and Lee Shaw of Terrell, William Chatman of Galveston, Lionel Dotson of LaMarque and Ben Braddix of Dallas. All are seniors except Shaw, who is a junior.

Houston Yates, runnerup to Terrell in the state tournament, placed two on the second team, Wilbert Parker and Jimmy Blacklock. Others named to the second team were William Day of Tyler Scott, Bob Leonard of Beaumont Charlton and Dwight Davis of Houston Worthing.

HERE FRIDAY

Bengal Baseball 9 Hosts Monterey

The Snyder High School baseball team, owning a handsome 2-1 record after sweeping a doubleheader with Lubbock Coronado Saturday, has hopes of gaining additional prestige here Friday in a single tilt with Lubbock Monterey and Saturday in a doubleheader with San Angelo.

Game time Friday is 4 p.m. while the Saturday tilts begin at 1 p.m. The Three tussles will be staged on the Towle Park diamond.

Monterey is 1-2 for the year, and both losses were to Odessa Permian by 14-4 and 10-6 scores. However, their victory is a 13-0 affair over San Angelo — the team that downed the Tigers, 1-0, in the season opener.

Both opponents are Class AA-AA Clubs.

Coach Speedy Moffett of Snyder is pleased with the way the team is shaping up. At this stage, it appears the Bengals are more talented afield and at base-running than the district championship and bi-district championship team of last season. The hitting, while it could stand some improvement, has been adequate.

Most pleasing of all is the showing of Lane McMillan and Rob Golden in the double win over Coronado. If both boys develop into dependable hurlers, the Tiger mound staff will be one of the best in the area. Roy Hunter, senior right-hander, already is a proven veteran. He's slated to take the hill in the tilt with Monterey.

Coach Moffett listed the probable lineup, as follows: Richey Thompson 3b, Max Moreland c, Mickey Almond ss, David Cadena lf, Buddy Powell cf, Steve Moffett 2b, Dink Foree rf, Kenny Ragland 1b, and Roy Hunter p.

Jr. Netmen Fall, 9-3

SAN ANGELO — The Snyder Junior High School tennis team lost, 9-3 in a dual match here Wednesday afternoon.

Results of the match with Snyder boys listed first:

Max Falls lost to Dennis Hirschfield, 6-3, 6-3; John Phillips defeated Bobby McKinney, 8-10, 7-5, and 6-2; Ronnie Maddux lost to Mark Storey, 6-3, 6-3; Bill Branson lost to Mark Polunski, 6-3, 6-3; Allen Babcock lost to Richard Bauchman, 6-0, 6-1; Tommy Faver defeated Steve Joiner, 4-6, 7-5, 6-2; Mike Shearburn lost to Vin Matthews, 6-0, 6-3; and Bruce Almond lost to Skipper Hunt, 6-1, 6-0.

In doubles play, Max Falls and Bill Branson defeated Hirscfield and Storey, 8-6.

Linda Miller lost to Jane Hudson, 6-0, 6-0, in the No. 1 girls singles, and Kathy Martin was beaten, 6-0, 6-0, by Linda Richardson. Miller and Martin also lost a doubles match to Nancy Newman and Madeline Powell, 6-2, 6-0.

The Junior Tennis team will be at Abilene for a tournament Saturday. Max Falls is the defending champion in boys singles, and he and Bill Branson hold the doubles crown in the "A" division. John Phillips and Ronnie Maddux also hold titles in the "B" division.

The match Wednesday was the first one of the year for Snyder junior players.

Graham Best Freestyler

LUBBOCK (AP) — With one exception, Southern Methodist and Texas hold all the Southwest Conference swimming records. Each will be trying to replace the other's name in the record book at the three-day conference meet opening today.

Robert Graham, Texas Tech's outstanding freestyler, is the only one to break the Texas-SMU monopoly on records.

Fifteen of the 16 records were set in last year's meet, won by Southern Methodist. It was the Mustangs' 10th consecutive championship. The other record, in the 100-yard butterfly, dates to 1963.

Preliminaries in the 500-yard freestyle, 200-yard individual medley, 50-yard freestyle and one-meter diving are this afternoon. Finals in those events and the 400-yard medley relay will be tonight.

Steve Boss of Texas, Brian Percival of SMU and Graham get a chance today to improve on the record times they made last year. On the basis of dual meet times this season, Graham appears to be the only one of the three who might succeed.

AT BORDER OLYMPICS

Tigers Aim For 4th Track Title

The talented Snyder High School track team will be out to add another jewel to its three crowns Friday and Saturday at the Border Olympics in Laredo.

Prelims begin at 1 p.m. Friday, and the finals get underway at 1 p.m. Saturday.

The Snyder team, coached by Bob Carter and assistants Roy Carter and Jerry Bristo, is well balanced with plenty of power in the field events and plenty of speed in the running events.

Jerry Simons, senior shot put artist and discus man, copped blue ribbons in both events of the Canyon Reef Relays last week, and could be threat again although the competition will be stiffer.

Curtis Clay, the district 3-AAA 220 champ, tucked another first place under his belt in the same event last week, and could come through again. Clay is anchor man on the fabulous sprint and mile relay team that shattered old records in these events at the Reef Meet. Other runners are Leon Riggins, M. C. Powell and Teddy Brown.

Brown notched a blue ribbon in the 440, and Riggins came in second in the intermediate hurdles when Lake View's "Decathlon Threat" Rocky Woods won at the wire by sticking out his chest. Riggins also came in second in the broad jump behind M. C. Powell. Last season, Powell won first place in this event at the Border Olympics, and he paced Woods to a new record in the century last week.

A pleasant surprise has been pole vaulters Drake Snyder, Steve Burney and Howard Newsome. All of these boys picked up valuable points last week and have shown marked improvement not to have any more experience than they do.

Other points could be added by Joe Breeden in the shot and discus, Dwaine Boydstun in the intermediates, Larry Lofton in the century, and Tommy Bullard and Roy Lee in the 880. Freddie Benitez already has broken a school record in the mile run.

Snyder entries in the various events:

100 yard dash — M. C. Powell and Larry Lofton.

220 yard dash — Curtis Clay and Larry Lofton.

440 yard dash — Teddy Brown and Morris Smith.

880 yard dash — Tommy Bullard or Roy Lee.

mile run — Freddie Benitez.

intermediate hurdles — Leon Riggins and Dwaine Boydstun.

440 and mile relays — Leon Riggins, M. C. Powell, Teddy Brown and Curtis Clay.

high hurdles — Dwaine Boydstun.

shot put — Jerry Simons and Joe Breeden.

discus — Jerry Simons and Joe Breeden.

broad jump — M. C. Powell and Leon Riggins.

high jump — John Schiebel.

The team left for Laredo at 6:30 o'clock this morning.

Cuellar Has High Hopes

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Houston Astro pitcher Mike Cuellar believes he can win 18 games this year.

"If I can get more luck this year than I had last year, maybe I will win 18 games," he said Wednesday during Astro spring training.

Cuellar had a 12-10 record last year, 15 strikeouts in one game against the Cardinals and the second best earned run average among National League starters. His 2.22 ERA was surpassed only by the retired Sandy Koufax.

With a little luck his 12 victories could have been 16 or 17. He had poor defense in several games and Willie Mays of the Giants hit a ninth-inning homer to beat him 1-0 in another.

He believes his chances for more victories this year are better because he won't have to double in relief with lefthanders Bo Belinsky, Dan Schneider or Danny Coombs in the bullpen.

Cuellar and Dave Giusti teamed up to pitch runless baseball Wednesday in an intrasquad game in which the team coached by Nellie Fox defeated one coached by Al Heist, 2-0.

Bill Heath's double and Doug Rader's triple accounted for the two runs for Heist's team. Pitcher Larry Dierker gave up both runs.

Frogs Extend Streak

FORT WORTH (AP) — Undefeated Texas Christian extended its baseball winning streak to six games Wednesday by beating Texas Tech 3-1 and 4-2.

Mickey McCarty, a basketball star in the winter, won his second game of the season with a five-hitter in the opener. Bing Bingham also notched a second triumph with a four-hitter in the seven-inning second game.

Years Have Sophisticated American-Soviet Relations

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — One generation sweats so the next one may merely perspire. The words mean the same but one sounds nicer than the other which is the story of American-Soviet relations.

Fifteen years ago what is happening in the Senate now would have been unthinkable. Joseph Stalin was alive then and here Sen. Joseph McCarthy's Red-scare campaign was nearing its peak.

The Senate is debating and is expected to approve, despite some opposition, a treaty by which the United States and Soviet Union agree not to arrest each other's consular staffs when they are in each other's country.

And it is intended to give quick protection to American tourists traveling in the U.S.R. If one of them is arrested, American officials have to be notified within several days.

This kind of agreement may not seem much but the Johnson administration describes it as part of its effort to "build bridges" to the East. And some have been built, but slowly.

What Americans saw on the horizon in the Stalin-McCarthy era was a terrible sight: the twin shadow of two big Communist buddies, Moscow and Red China, which had been taken over in 1949.

Since no one could predict the American future in relation to those two giants, this country since then, and under four presidents, had to sweat it out, standing firm, hoping for a break, wishing common sense could prevent war.

In time Soviet-Chinese relations went to pieces, with the Soviets growing jittery as China, her next-door neighbor, worked on nuclear weapons.

And in the process of this Communist di-integration, the United States and Soviet Union, both concerned about the unpredictable and more recently irresponsible Chinese, found it convenient to get a little closer together.

Any use of "close" or "closer" to describe American-Soviet relations is a little ludicrous, since they are both harsh antagonists, but the last 15 years' ordeal has made them a little more sophisticated in dealing with each other.

With war still avoided as the years passed, both countries were able to do a little more business with each other, although each continues to act toward the other as if it had the plague.

There's no air-conditioning in foreign relations, which means if both sides sweat it out another 15 years or a generation, war between them may become unthinkable, which is not the case now.

They agreed on a cultural exchange in the late 1950s, after Stalin's death, and in 1959 signed a treaty about something way out and away from both of them, a kind of faltering first step.

The treaty involved Antarctica, setting it aside as scientific laboratory, free from military activities like military bases, maneuvers, or weapons-testing. In short, it was to be used for peaceful purposes only.

The next step toward relations a little more civilized came in 1963 with a treaty forbidding nuclear testin gin the atmosphere, outer space, or under water, but not underground. Now comes the consular treaty.

And this week the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee began hearings on another treaty, this one to forbid the use of weapons of mass destruction in outer space, although what outer space is and where it begins was not defined.

This can't go into effect until after the committee completes its hearins and the full Senate its hearings and the full Senate approves. Meanwhile, a couple of other girders for the bridge are being jostled around.

Comments Of Pavement Philosopher

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK AP) —Curbstone comments of a pavement plato:

The more a man matures, the more he secretly comes to admire the iron whims of women. Those whims are the real pillars of civilization as we know it.

It is always a shock to a man to find out shortly after the honeymoon is over that the soft, compliant creature he married has a will of unyielding steel.

"I thought my wife would go through life jumping every time I snapped my fingers," he confides to an older married buddy. "She may look like a little bunny, but inside her mind she has got claws like a tiger."

"They all have," replies the marital veteran. "What seems to be your main gripe about your bride?"

"Well, I don't know just how to say it, but she seems to want everything to be perfect."

"They're all that way."

"Every last one of them?"

"Every last one of them. And if you're smart, you'll start getting used to it right now. Otherwise you'll waste the best years of your life fighting her—and still wind up losing."

It is hard for a man to do this.

He can't see why his bride gets angry if he comes home an hour late. He can't understand why she is annoyed if a restaurant headwaiter seats them at a table near the kitchen when, after all, the food tastes the same no matter where you sit.

He can't see why she wants to eat at home by candlelight, or why she gets in a blue funk if the new draperies hang an inch or two higher from the floor than she prefers, or why she squawks at the taxi driver if his cab isn't clean, or why she sends his shirts back to the laundry if the collars aren't properly ironed, or why she makes a big issue over half a hundred other matters which seem to him unimportant.

"Why make a war about it?" he asks her wonderingly.

"Because I like things to be done right," she tells him firmly.

Sensibly, for his own peace of mind, he lets her have her way. Dimly, he gradually perceives the chief mental difference between men and women.

It is this:

Man is by nature a lazy compromiser. He is content to put up with second-best arrangements because he thinks it is too much of a nuisance to fight for anything better. Left to his own devices, he would still be carrying a spear in a forgotten forest, sleeping in the rain and scratching his back against the bark of trees.

Woman is made of more durable stuff. For her, life is one long crusade for perfection. She wants things to be not just half right but exactly right—in every detail.

It is only because of woman's pursuit of perfection that railroads and airplanes run on time, napkins are on the table, streets are swept, men shave every day and smell better, and homes have flower gardens.

By being stern over such trifles, step by step she is making a better world for all.

On, womankind, on!

Junior Editors Quiz on GHENGIS KHAN

QUESTION: What was the difference between Gengis Khan and Kublai Khan?

ANSWER: Khan means ruler or chief, and these two men were emperors of Mongolia, a land which lies in the central part of Asia. Ghengis was the first Khan, and he was one of the most remarkable conquerors in history. He was born in 1167. When he took over the power from his father, the Mongolian tribes, although fierce and war-like, were widely scattered. Genghis had a genius for organization. He quickly drew the tribes together and trained them into a powerful and highly disciplined army. His soldiers travelled swiftly on horses, were experts with the bow and arrow and in the art of beseiging cities. Striking in one direction and then another, Genghis extended his empire to the black area shown by (1) in our map. Kublai Khan, the grandson of Genghis, conquered China and extended the Mongolian Empire by the black area under the white dots. Between about 1254 and 1354, the Polos, Italian travellers, reached Peking and visited Kublai Khan. Marco Polo wrote a famous book which gave Europeans their first real information about the far east.

Climbers Plucked From McKinley

TALKEETNA, Alaska (AP) — The first men to scale Mt. McKinley in the fierce subarctic winter were resting from their ordeal today while a search continued for two companions who have been unaccounted for since Sunday.

An Army helicopter plucked three Anchorage climbers from the 14,000-footlevel of the 20,320-foot mountain late Wednesday. Earlier the men, using a radio dropped from an Air Force plane, sent word that they reached the summit at 7 p.m. March 1.

What was it like at the highest point on the North American continent, in temperatures of about 50 below zero and wind of possibly 100 miles an hour?

"It was nice," said Ray Genet, 35, of Anchorage when the helicopter landed here. With Genet on the assault were Art Davidson, 22, and Dave Johnston, 24 also of Anchorage.

At Talkeetna they rejoined Glenn Blomberg, 25, of Denver, Colo., leader of the expedition, and John Edwards, 35, of Cleveland, Ohio, from whom they became separated during the climb. Another Army helicopter picked up Blomberg and Edwards at the 8,250-foot level.

The climbers were reported in good condition except for apparently minor frostbite.

Veteran bush pilot Don Sheldon took off to fly the five climbers from here to Fairbanks, but had to put down for the night at Summit, about halfway there, because of bad weather.

The men were supposed to have been rushed to the Arctic Research Laboratory of the University of Alaska at Fairbanks to test effects of the climb on their metabolism. It was feared here that the overnight stay at Summit might affect the value of the tests.

A search was begun for Dr. George Wichman, 38, and Shiro Nishimae, 31, both of Anchorage. When last seen they were about 10,000 feet, not far from an igloo or ice cave stocked with supplies.

CHARGED IN SLAYING OF TWO BOYS — John Wesley Williams, Jr., 17, right, hears Winnebago County Sheriff Herbert Brown, left, charge him with murder in the execution-style slaying of two 14-year-old boys at Rockford, Ill. Williams had been recently acquitted in the sniper-shooting of another Rockford teen ager. The two victims, cousins, were lined up against a wall in a park pavilion and shot. (AP Wirephoto)

Cuban Exile Student Wins 4-Year College Scholarship

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Back in 1960 a Cuban mother and father put William Sabates and his younger brother and two sisters on an airplane for the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Guillermo Sabates didn't want the children to grow up under the Fidel Castro regime. Three years later the parents fled Cuba and joined the children in Charlotte.

This week the 99 Morehead scholarship winners were announced and one of them was William Sabates.

His A-minus average for four years had been rewarded with a $7,000 scholarship for four-years study at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

An athlete as well as top student, Sabates, 17, has played football, basketball and baseball and is on the track team at Charlotte's Catholic High.

Which sports will he play at North Carolina?

"I want to study," he says. "Studies come first. I'll go out for baseball if I have time. I may try basketball"

His studies will be premedical, with a major in biology.

"I want to be an ophthalmologist and I hope to do well enough to earn some graduate help," Sabates said.

Recently he watched an operation at a Charlotte hospital because "I wanted to be sure that's what I wanted to be," the dark- haired boy said. "Now I'm sure."

The faculty at Catholic High is almost as elated as Sabates about the Morehead scholarship. It's the first for the school.

The scholarships are provided by a foundation established by the late John Molety Morehead, who has given millions of dollars to the University of North Carolina. Morehead was founder of the Union Carbide Corp.

The University of Vermont has never had a losing baseball season since Ralph Lapointe became coach in 1952.

The Los Angeles Dodgers have placed Sandy Koufax on the voluntarily retired list.

Rodeo Assn. Planning For 1967 Event

Directors of the Scurry County Rodeo Association have elected officers for the coming year and set dates for this year's annual rodeo.

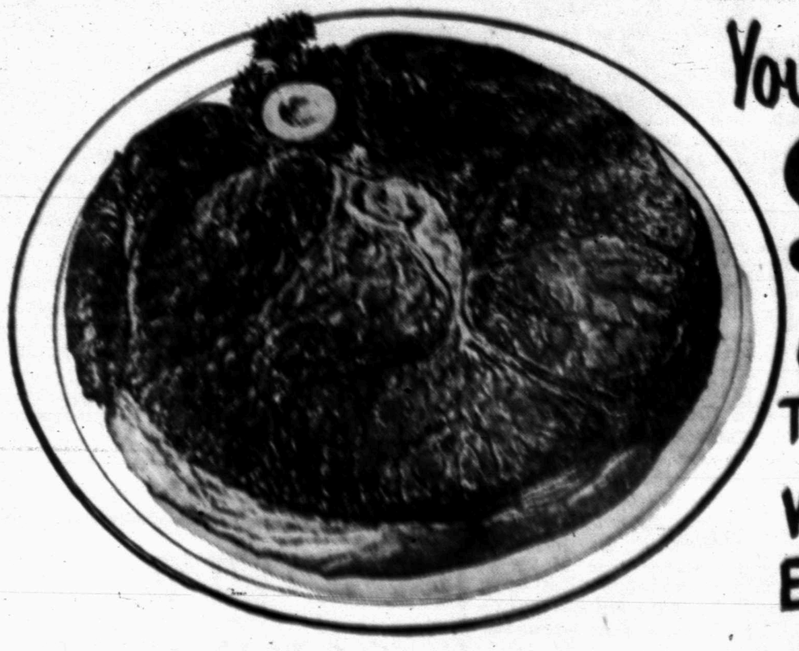

Buddy Trevey was elected president, Bill Zimmerman vice president, Joe Robinson secretary, and Senny Harrell arena director.

Dates for the 1967 rodeo are July 19-20-21-22. Stock for the rodeo will be furnished by Red Whatley of Crosbytyon, who has promised to have good, fresh roping calves and some salty horses and bulls on hand to challenge the cowboys.

George Taylor of Fort Worth will furnish the specialty act, a Brahma bull performance along with several other acts.

Improvements are being made at the rodeo plant to put it in shape for this year's show.

Sooners' Time Act Decision Puts Texas In Unusual Spot

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN (AP)—Three of the 60th legislature's most controversial subjects worried Texas lawmakers today as they tried to complete the first phase of the regular 140-day session.

Friday is the deadline for free introduction of bills, causing a last minute rush of proposed legislation in both the Senate and House. After the first 60 days legislators are required by constitution and their own rules to concentrate on debate rather than committee action.

Texas found itself in an unwelcome spotlight after the Oklahoma Senate Wednesday at least temporarily killed efforts to keep that state on central standard time when most other states shift into daylight savings time April 30 under the federal Uniform Time Act.

The Oklahoma Senate action, if its one-vote decision becomes final would mean that three states bordering Texas have decided against exempting themselves from the Uniform Time Act and crsosngi the Texas border in any direction would mean a time change.

A one-vote decision also was causing Texas senators plenty of trouble.

The Senate body voted Wednesday afternoon, 22-8, to make the Senate Constitutional Amendments Committee take another look at the controversial proposal of four-year terms for governors. The committee approved the measure Tuesday by a 5-4 vote but several committee members immediately protested the quick gavel of Sen. Bill Moore, Bryan, kept them from voting.

Sen. Jim Bates, Edinburg, said the tally was taken so fast he did not have time to walk from a nearby room where he was serving on another Senate committee to record his vote as a member of the State Affairs Committee. Bates said he would have voted against the measure causing a 5-5 deadlock and its defeat.

"If the Senate has sunk so low that a senatorial courtesy doesn't mean anything, I want to know about it," Bates told the Senate in arguments whether the proposal should be recommitted to Moore's committee. "If that's the way the Senate is going to be I want to know about it now and not May 30 (When the session ends)."

Moore said he had no objection to sending the proposed constitutional amendment back for another committee vote.

Sen. A. R. Schwartz, Galveston, who made the motion to recommit, said Bates and two other Senators who were members of State Affairs, but attending the committee in an adjoining room, should be given a chance to vote.

The third controversy keeping legislators upset was the continuing search for new taxes, with growing demands for an increased state sales tax.

Rep. Jack Hawkins, Groesbeck, introduced a bill that would hike the present 2 per cent levy to 3 per cent with cities sharing in the increase. Hawkins said the state constitution forbids tax refunds by the state to cities but under his bill the state may contract cities for collection of the sales tax and permit the cities to retain one-sixth of the tax as payment for collection. He said this would give municipalities one half of the one cent added to the present tax.

The Senate Wednesday also amended and passed back to the House a bill authorzing the Parks and Wildlife Department to acquire and restore old forts. The amendment would require that appropriation requests name specific forts.

Also approved and sent to the House were Senate bills for establishment of regional education service centers and setting up the Upper Colorado River Authority.

Negro School Strike Ends

WACO, Tex., (AP) — Students at Waco's all-Negro Paul Quinn College ended Wednesday a one-day old strike and agreed to resume classes today.

The students exacted a promise from Bishop D. L. Sherman, president of the 370-member school, that none of the 200 protestors would be punished.

The strike broke out Friday when more than 200 students took part in a protest rally. A boycott of the cafeteria began Tuesday.

Earnest Stevenson, a senior from Lubbock, Tex., said the main points of contention involved quality of cafeteria food, restrictions on students and power of the student council.

The agreement to return to classes was announced Wednesday evening, only after the entire student enrollment had boycotted Founder's Day activities at the school.

Harlem Residents Display Little Support For Meredith

NEW YORK (AP) — It was one of those tiny, low-profit snack bars that abound on Harlem's Seventh Avenue. James H. Meredith was welcomed into the neighborhood last summer, when he set up a bustling voter-registration headquarters two blocks away.

But now the waitress behind the counter shook her head sadly.

"He don't make sense to me," she said. "I think he's a nice man, but he shouldn't have gotten into this. He's gonna get beat awful bad. He's gonna be ruined in Harlem."

The middle-aged, work-worn woman was speaking about the man who has decided to challenge Democrat Adam Clayton Powell, who was excluded from the House last week.

Meredith, 33, who calls himself an independent Democrat, said he would be willing to run as the Republican candidate for Powell's seat in a special election scheduled for April 11. It remains to be seen how he will do once he begins campaigning.

But since members of the Republican executive committee from the 18th District recommended him two days ago, not a single Harlem community leader, Republican or Democrat, has come forward to support him.

Most had long ago announced their support of Powell, and some had urged that all parties support him, as the Republicans did in 1958.

The one prominent Negro Republican who has spoken up, former baseball star Jackie Robinson, now an aide to Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, called Meredith a "tool," and criticized his own party for making use of him.

A 26-block walk through central Harlem today produced no one on the streets, in bars or barber shops, liquor stores or restaurants, who had a good word for Meredith's chances, and only a few who said they had heard favorable comment.

"I think he's being used," was a common remark.

Robinson said Powell's campaign was not a political issue, but a racial one, and that "no self-respecting Negro should have involved himself in this thing."

He predicted a hostile reaction to Meredith, and said he believes Powell should be returned with an "overwhelming" vote because "it's an emotional, racial issue, based on what we charge was a conspiracy in the House to get Adam Clayton Powell."

The hostility filtered even into top Harlem Republican circles, where one of the men on the committee that chose Meredith said privately he was not enthusiastic about the candidate's chances.

Questions also were raised about whether Meredith has enough political sophistication to challenge Powell, who racks up pluralities of 65 to 80 per cent without even campaigning.

Many Harlem residents have complained they don't understand Meredith, who has described himself as a man with a divine responsibility.

Certainly the two candidates have opposing personalities. While Powell has flitted about the world in the company of pretty women, Meredith has urged Negro men to "shape up" and try to get ahead economically.

Meredith is serious, often seeming to be without a sense of humor, while the flamboyant Powell can pick the most serious occasions to turn on his wry wit.

Harlem is frequently reminded, both by community leaders and by Powell himself, of the civil rights gains won by Adam Clayton Powell early in his career.

Soup kitchens in the basement of his father's Abyssinian Baptist Church, now his own, fed thousands during the depression. Boycotts, picket lines and thinly veiled threats of force from a young and militant Powell forced city bus lines, Consolidated Edison, New York Telephone, and dozens of private firms to hire Negroes for "up front" jobs in the 1930s and 40s. "Harlem remembers," said one leader.

It was these acts, plus his political flair, that landed him in Congress 22 years ago. By contrast, even shopkeepers in the same block as the voter-registration headquarters Meredith ran last summer and fall don't remember much about the short, quiet Republican challenger.

"He's an outsider," said one.

This view of a man who desegregated the University of Mississippi despite a riot, then got shot on a march through Mississippi, might be explained by the different perspective Harlem has on the national civil rights movement.

Leaders here are quick to point out that civil rights bills and voting rights bills, which Meredith is identified with, don't solve their chief problems of low income, segregated schools and crowded and dilapidated housing.

Charged In Murder Of Elderly Pair

HOUSTON (AP) — Authorities charged Leo Arroyo, 39, with murder Wednesday night in the stabbings of an elderly Houston couple for whom he had worked.

They said he would be returned here today from Alice, where he was arrested early Wednesday.

Th complaints accuse him of killing Fred C. Davis, 72, and Davis wife Alvada, 59. Bodies of the two were found Feb. 28 in their home adjacent to the motel-apartment complex they owned.

The couple's automobile was wrecked that same day when it collided with a truck east of George West, which is north of Alice. The driver of the car fled.

Alice Police Chief Ramon Falcon said Arroyo was arrested as he loitered near a used car lot.

Falcon said Arroyo gave another name and claimed residence at Torreon, Mexico. Falcon said Arroyo carried no identification but had about $150 in his pockets.

Houston police said Arroyo was a clerk at the Davis Courts, owned and operated by the slain couple, and he disappeared after the killings.

Falcon sent pictures of Arroyo and Houston detectives said these photographs were identified by three persons at the Davis Courts.

OSO Is Working Fine

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's new "sunshine satellite" was working fine today as it whirled about the globe on its sun-studying mission.

The 627-pound payload carried nine scientific instruments into orbit from Cape Kennedy Wednesday to continue extensive solar investigations begun by two earlier satellites.

The new satellite is called OSO 3 for Orbiting Solar Observatory. A total of seven launchings is planned to chart a full 11-year solar cycle during which solar activity ranges from quiet to a period of intense flare activity.

The satellite, built by Ball Brothers Research Corp., Boulder, Colo., will observe sun spots, X-rays, gamma rays and radio emissions from the sun so scientists can study their effect on weather, communicatians and manned space flights.

Ft. Worth, Dallas Eye Rapid Transit System

FORT WORTH (AP)— Mayor Willard Barr has joined Dallas Mayor Erik Jonsson in expressing interest in developing a rapid transportation system in the Fort Worth-Dallas area.

The system would link the two cities and the regional airport to be built near Grapevine.

Barr said it was suggested several years ago to use present railroad right of way for building a commuter-type or monorail system between the two cities.

"We are all interested in such a program," he said. "Engineers, however, have told us that a rapid transportation system may be sometime off because traffic to the regional airport will come from all points around it."

Potential Defects Reported In More Than 670,000 Vehicles

By JOSEPH R. COYNE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Potential defects in more than 670,000 cars, trucks and buses — most of them 1967 models — have been reported to the government by domestic and foreign manufacturers since Jan. 1.

Commerce Department records showed today that most of the recalls were by the domestic big three—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—for a variety of possible defects involving brake parts, steering shaft alignment and windshield wipers.

Three other domestic and seven foreign producers also are listed.

Some of the recalls have been announced publicly by the companies but this isn't required under the new traffic safety law.

Manufacturers are only required to report potential car and truck defects to the government and to inform owners so corrections, if needed, can be made.

A report to the government doesn't mean that all vehicles listed are defective.

If, for example, the manufacture discovers an improperly made steering gear on a car, he may trace the batch of gears which contained the faulty one, then recall all cars supplied from that batch. He might find many, a few or no cars with the same defect.

Other U. S. firms which filed reports on possible defects since Jan. 1 were Kaiser Jeep, International Harvester, American Motors and Clark Equipment Co., a manufacturer of trailers.

Foreign companies filing reports included Rolls Royce, Jaguar, Porsche, BMW of West Germany, Datsun, Volkswagen and Renault.

One of the largest recalls came in January when General Motors reported possible misaligned steering shafts in more than 269,000 Chevrolets, Pontiacs, Oldsmobiles and Buicks.
