Crime Line Pays Cash Rewards

The Crime Line offers $300 reward for information leading to the arrest of any person or persons connected with the burglary of the Caprock Veterinary Clinic between the hours of 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, January 9, 1983 and Sunday, January 10, 1983 at 8 a.m. The loss included an undetermined amount of jewelry and cash.

How It Works

You call the Crime Line with information about a crime...the Crime Line will give you a number for identification...your name will not be asked or used.

The Crime Line will take your information and ask you to call back in 24 hours.

When you call back in 24 hours, you give your identification number and you will be given a report on the status of the investigation.

If enough evidence has been provided to make an arrest which would lead to an indictment, the Crime Line will tell you and ask you to call back in 10 minutes to receive instructions on where and when to get your cash reward.

Contributions are requested for the Crime Line Reward fund and may be sent to Crime Line, P.O. Box 11, Post, Tx., 79356. Contributions are tax deductible and receipts will be provided to contributors.

Garza County News Briefs

Volleyball Tourney

There will be a city wide volley ball tournament, planned for April 7, 8 and 9, with all the proceeds going to the Garza County Junior Livestock Association Building Fund.

The tournament will be for both men's and women's teams, with a 6 player per team limit, and entry fee for each team $25.

Deadline for entering will be April 1. You may enter, or get more information from Karen Conner at B Bar T Farm Supply or Jackie Lester at the First National Bank.

School Board Meeting

The Post Independent School District board of trustees at its regular meeting tomorrow night will look at an agreement with the Garza County Appraisal Board to collect taxes.

Other items on the agenda for the meeting, which starts at 7:30 p.m. in the High School Library, includes textbook committee recommendations, financial statements and personnel recommendations.

City, School Elections

With spring elections just a little less than a month away, one candidate for the school board has already had his name removed from the ballot.

Mike Flanagan notified election officials late Thursday afternoon to remove his name from contention. He had filed for the unexpired term of Jack Lott.

The special election, which will be held in conjunction with the spring election will be to fill the unexpired term of Jack Lott for two years. Lott resigned two months ago from the board in order for the special election to be held at the same time.

Others signing up for the special election include John Boren and Ronald Thuett.

Filing for place four held by Edwin Lewis, are Lewis, Jay Pollard and Tom Middleton.

Place five, held by Prudencio Basquez are Basquez for re-election and Lee Norman.

City races for the position of Mayor and two council members have Mayor McCrary filing for re-election, Bill Pool and Maxine Earl both filing for re-election. All are unopposed.

Hospital district directors have Jack Alexander, David Nichols, and Danny Shaw all filing for re-election.

The elections are scheduled to be held at the Post Community Center, April 2.

School Vandalism

What probably started out as a simple case of vandalism, turned quickly into Felony Criminal Mischief, when three Post school buses were damaged severely over the weekend, with the damages well over $1,000.

Along with the buses vandalized, two windows were broken out of the west end of the north wing of High School, two windows were broken out of the gym foyer, and one broken out in the Biology Lab.

Garza County officers on routine patrol discovered the damages around 3 a.m. Sunday morning, and notified school officials.

Alley Paving Gets City Assistance

By Wes Burnett

The Post City Council approved a plan to assist property owners in paving of alleys and authorized a survey for a street paving project during its regular meeting Monday evening.

The alley paving would be paid for by property owners, with the city arranging for bids and contracts. Letters to property owners, outlining specifics are being prepared for mailing.

The council expressed its concern about unpaved streets, and authorized city manager Becky King to begin a survey of residents on unpaved streets to determine the feasibility of a paving project.

The city would fund one-half of the street paving, which would be included in next year's budget.

All owner-expense paving will require advance payment and entire blocks must be included. Each owner would pay on the basis of costs per front-foot of property.

In other action, the council authorized legal action to condemn a two story house at 115 West 11th St., which fire marshall Ray Bagby declared a fire hazard.

The structure, owned by Jimmy Smith, has been unoccupied for several years and last August the council notified the owner that he had 60 days to take action.

Taxes on the property have not been paid since 1971.

Mrs. Earnest Clark discussed the situation of a house she owns at 112 E. 6th St., which also has been declared a fire hazard. The council allowed her 30 days to present a detailed plan as to renovation or demolition of the structure.

The firm of Richards and Winkler of Midland was the sole bidder for oil and gas leasing of certain city property and the council approved the bid with instructions for revisions to protect the tenant at the city farm.

The bid included a $10,000 bonus to the city, a three-sixteenth royalty, three years, and a $1 per acre annual lease on the 36 acre tract.

Arroyo Country Motors Inc. was awarded the low bid for a 1983 Chevrolet one ton chassis cab truck for the fire department. Arroyo's bid of $11,292.46 was accepted over Robert Hall Chevrolet of Jayton with $11,425.

The council also authorized advertising for bids for the sale of four old trucks at the fire department, with the proceeds to go toward fire department equipment.

Advertising for bids was also approved for the sale of windmill towers at the city farm.

Seal coating bids will be advertised to repair city streets.

The council approved a new franchise for cable television service with Star C.A.T.V., which takes over the cable TV operation here.

The new franchise agreement is not exclusive and contains a 45 working day clause for performance to complete construction of the system.

The council approved a revised drilling ordinance which contains a requirement for $250,000 liability insurance and a $100,000 bond for repair of damages.

The budgeted $1,500 for the summer youth recreation program was increased to $1,750 at the request of the youth committee.

Earl Chapman, Lois Cook, and Donald Windham were appointed to serve on the City Housing Board, with Chapman a new member.

The council tabled a decision on a contract with the central appraisal board for collection of taxes.

In addition to Mayor Giles McCrary, council members Jim Jackson, Bill Pool, Jr., Maxine Earl and Jack Alexander attended the meeting along with city manager Becky King and secretary Wanda Wilkerson.

Taba'na Yuan'e Foretells Weather

An original Plains Indian authentic dance will be repeated again this year, as it has been in Post since 1906, as "Chief" Frank Runkles carefully observes Taba'na Yuan'e at sunrise on March 22.

Sponsored by the Post Chamber of Commerce, the special ceremony will be conducted at the City-County Park and will be followed by serving of coffee and donuts at the Texas Department of Human Resources building (formerly the 4-H barn) just off the Snyder Highway.

The unique Indian ceremony is open to the public and there is no admission charge.

"Chief" Runkles will be joined this year by a group of "Indian" dancers, complete with detailed authentic Indian dress, to assist in the fascinating Indian traditional dance.

The tradition which dates to earliest memories of the Plains Indians, began here in 1906 when early pioneers in Garza County recalled the legend as told by Indians.

The ceremony begins at sunrise each year on March 22, as visitors and Post residents gather around a circular ceremonial ring to watch a dancer, clad in traditional beaded buckskins and feathered headdress perform an Indian version of an extended weather forecast.

Taba'na Yuan'e translates the Sunrise Wind.

The Plains Indians used the dance to check the wind direction at the exact moment of sunrise, which would determine their success in the coming year.

According to the legend, the wind must be checked at sunrise on the day after the sun reaches the halfway point in its journey from south to north, which would be the day after spring begins.

It is said that if the wind is out of the east or northeast, that means a very good year.

If the wind is from the north or northwest it translates into an average year.

If the wind is from the west or southwest it means a poor year and if from the south or southeast, a very bad year.

The ceremony, which begins before sunrise, opens with the building of a small fire, using only natural materials.

Small sticks of wood are arranged in the form of a tepee and filled with dry prairie grass.

The fire is lighted by the friction of rubbing two sticks together.

Following the singing of a tribal prayer of thanks for the fire, the "Chief" performs a Four Winds dance where a pipe of peace is presented to the four directions...then to Mother Earth and to Wakantanka, the Great Spirit above to seek their blessings.

A wad of grass is placed on the coals and as the smoke indicates the wind direction, a Smoke Dance is ended by kneeling and pointing a feather in the direction from which the wind comes.

Records kept since the opening of the ceremony here show the predictions to be 92 percent accurate.

Since 1973, the sunrise ceremony has been conducted by "Chief" Runkles, a long-time student of Indian lore.

Noah Stone preserved the custom for 40 years before "Chief" Runkles continued the tradition.

Commissioners Stick to Policy

Following their new policy, which took effect last month, the Commissioners Court in regular session, heard Donald Windham recommend Prudencio Basquez for the position of janitor for the county courthouse to become effective March 1.

The commissioners had set a moratorium at its February 14 meeting on hiring of replacements for the county, before first being approved by the commissioners in regular session.

If a replacement is made without approval, the county treasurer is not allowed to write a pay check to that employee.

The hiring of Basquez was approved with a salary set at $800 a month for a three month trial basis with the salary upped to $953.34 after the trial period.

The employee policy was again discussed concerning the maternity clause which was inserted in the policy at last months meeting. Following the discussion no changes were made in the policy.

After concluding their agenda, the commissioners met with Sheriff Jim Pippin concerning the recent jail inspection by the state.

Although a letter of certification was received by the jail, it was noted that Garza County is on the very edge of being in non-compliance due to being unable to segregate inmates properly.

It was also pointed out that three minor items needed immediate attention in the facility which Pippin told the commissioners had been corrected.

It was also noted that the microfilming of county and district records in the district clerks office had been completed and was hoped that the new reading equipment would be installed soon.

Blood Tests

Brownsville Sen. Hector Uribe, saying premarital blood tests are costly and don't do the job, has filed a bill outlawing them.

He wants to substitute a required blood test for newborns and retain blood tests for pregnant mothers.

Uribe said only 218 syphilis cases were found among the estimated 400,000 Texans who paid $30 or more for the premarital blood test and the state should revise its method of tracing the venereal disease. His bill has support from the Texas Medical Association.

month are Blanche Graham the 6th; and Beulah Ramsey the 12th. We wish them a very happy birthday.

We would like to thank everyone that comes to visit or see us, we hope they keep coming.

We also had Rev. Shults come to our home and prayed for our residents and also visited with them.

Mrs. Billie, Hettie and Catherine have been joining us in our exercise class. If you would like to join us, please feel free to come.

Our visitors this week were Lottie Sanders, the Seniorettes, Doris Jones, Evelyn Gurley, Beulah Eilenberger, Bea Dodson, and Ruby Carpenter all of Post, Lois Childs, Janet Justice and Brent of Post, Chris Howle of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. W. United Convalescent

By Nell Matthews

Our hearts are saddened with the death of our dear sweet Bonnie McMahon. She will surely be missed by all of us.

Our hearts go out to the family of Marval Anderson. Mrs. Anderson was a resident in our home for a while.

Our employee of the week is Mrs. Nancy Melvin "Bolton" Taylor. She was born in Hornbeck, La. and married to Jim Taylor. They have six children and nine grand children. She has lived in Post for 15 years and has been employed at United Convalescent Home for five months in the kitchen department.

We are getting ready to work in our yard and get it to looking pretty again.

Patsy Craig came and showed the last bunch of her slides on her trip to the Holy Land, we sure enjoyed them.

Calvary Baptist had our church services Sunday. Thank you Bro. Vernon Andrews. Next week the Methodist Church of Post will be here.

We are planning to go for a walk every day that it is pretty. We need someone to come and go for a walk with us. Would you like to come along with us and push someone in a wheel-chair? They need fresh air and sunshine too.

Our men are working with wood. They have made several things already. All we like having them finished is painting. They sure are having fun. We have a rocky horse to make that is going to be fun.

Come to see us soon, you are always welcome to come by and see us at United Convalescent.

Presbyterian Women's Association Meets Mon.

The Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lois Williams. Mrs. Louise McCrary called the meeting to order, and presided. After the opening prayer, Secretary Mrs. Helen Richards read the minutes of the last meeting.

Arrangements for a "Love Feast" on Wednesday, March 30, were discussed. Mrs. Linda Malouf, Mrs. Peggy Ashley, and Mrs. Betty Dennis will be in charge of that dinner.

The Bible study concerned the remarkable account of the first "Christian" preaching mission, beginning at the empty Tomb on Easter Sunday morning, when the women were told to "go and tell the Eleven that I am alive."

Depending on the accounts in the Gospels, the Eleven male disciples considered their "Good News" hysterical nonsense, but prompted Peter and John to race to the Tomb to see for themselves.

After the lesson, refreshments were served to Johnnie Francis, Frances Camp, Suzanne Pass, Ruth Ann Newby, Louise McCrary, Linda Malouf, Helen Richards and Lois Williams.

Rudd Baby

Carly Rudd is glad to announce the arrival of her baby sister, Lindsey Rae, born Thursday, March 3, at 11:25 a.m. She weighed 7 lbs. 5 oz. and was born in Lubbock Methodist Hospital. Parents of the children are Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Rudd. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rudd and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Carlisle.

Post Receives Sales Tax check for Quarter

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Monday returned $114.3 million in local sales tax payments to 974 cities who levy the one-percent city sales tax. Although the payment is the largest single one returned to cities since the rebates began in 1968, Bullock warned merchants and city officials not to make too much of it.

"Our sales tax goose is still laying golden eggs but they are not growing as fast as they used to," Bullock said. The Comptroller pointed out February allocations, based on sales made in December, are traditionally the biggest of the year.

"Last February we made an allocation that was 16 percent higher than the previous year, which was 16 percent higher than the year before that," Bullock said.

Post received $26,807.14 payment for this period compared to $34,017.36 for the same time last year with 1983 payments to date being $32,722.14 down from 1982 payments of $41,207.32 which is a 20.59 decrease.

SPS Employees to help Law Enforcement

Employees of Southwestern Public Service Company under a new program being developed at SPS will help local and area law enforcement officers stop crime.

The program, called "Partners on Patrol," will unleash almost 750 "extra pairs of eyes and ears" against prowlers, burglars, vandals, and other criminals, said Larry Milner, SPS vice president, communication and public affairs.

"Southwestern Public Service employees who work outdoors in our communities — such as meter readers, servicemen, line department personnel — will be on the lookout for crime, and be ready to report it," Milner said.

"We're just asking our employees to learn to spot suspicious activity, and to make quick reports to law enforcement agencies," he said. "The law officers will take care of the suspects. We'll help by being alert for problems."

Milner stressed that SPS employees are not to try to handle a crime situation themselves. "We do not want them to tackle a burglar — just report him."

Milner noted that many SPS employees already are watching out for crimes in progress or for suspicious events, and that in many SPS communities law enforcement officials and SPS employees already work together closely.

The "Partners on Patrol" program will include training for SPS employees, he said, and will establish that one of the SPS employee responsibilities is to help SPS customers fight crime. Local office managers in SPS communities in four states (Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Kansas) have contacted law officers this week to explain the program, offer more cooperation, and establish reporting procedures, Milner said.

"There may be other emergency conditions, such as accidents or fires, which our people working in the alleys and on the streets will notice first," he said. "We know we can be of help."

The "Partners on Patrol" program reflects Southwestern Public Service Company's theme, "You and SPS, partners managing electricity, make the difference," both in the name and intention, Milner said. "We want to work with as well as for the people we serve."

Southwestern Public Service Company primarily provides electrical service to a population of more than one million in a 70,000 square-mile area in the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas, eastern and southeastern New Mexico, the Oklahoma Panhandle, and southwestern Kansas.

Cattlemen Convene

More than 2,000 cattlemen from throughout the Southwestern United States are expected to attend the 106th annual convention, trade show and Heritage sale of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association March 20-23 in Austin, says Frates Seeligson, TSCRA president.

Most convention activities will be held in the Palmer Auditorium and Civic Center, the Austin Hyatt Regency and the University of Texas campus, the San Antonio cattleman said.

Admiral Bobby R. Inman, former deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency, will headline a slate of nationally-known speakers.

Inman will deliver the keynote address at the convention's kick-off luncheon on Monday, March 20.

Other major speakers include Dr. W. J. "Dub" Waldrip, president of the National Cattlemen's Association; Hilmar G. Moore the chairman of the Beef Industry Council of the National Live stock and Meat Board; Dr. Burdette C. Breidenstein, director of research for the Meat Board; Raymond M. Momboisse, managing attorney of the Pacific Legal Foundation; Dottie St. Clair of Clayton Brokerage Company's Dallas office; Barbara Keating-EDH, president of Consumer Alert; Texas Governor Mark White and Mrs. King, "Becky" Terry, president of the Texas CowBelles.

Cotton Farmers Plant 9.2 Million Acres

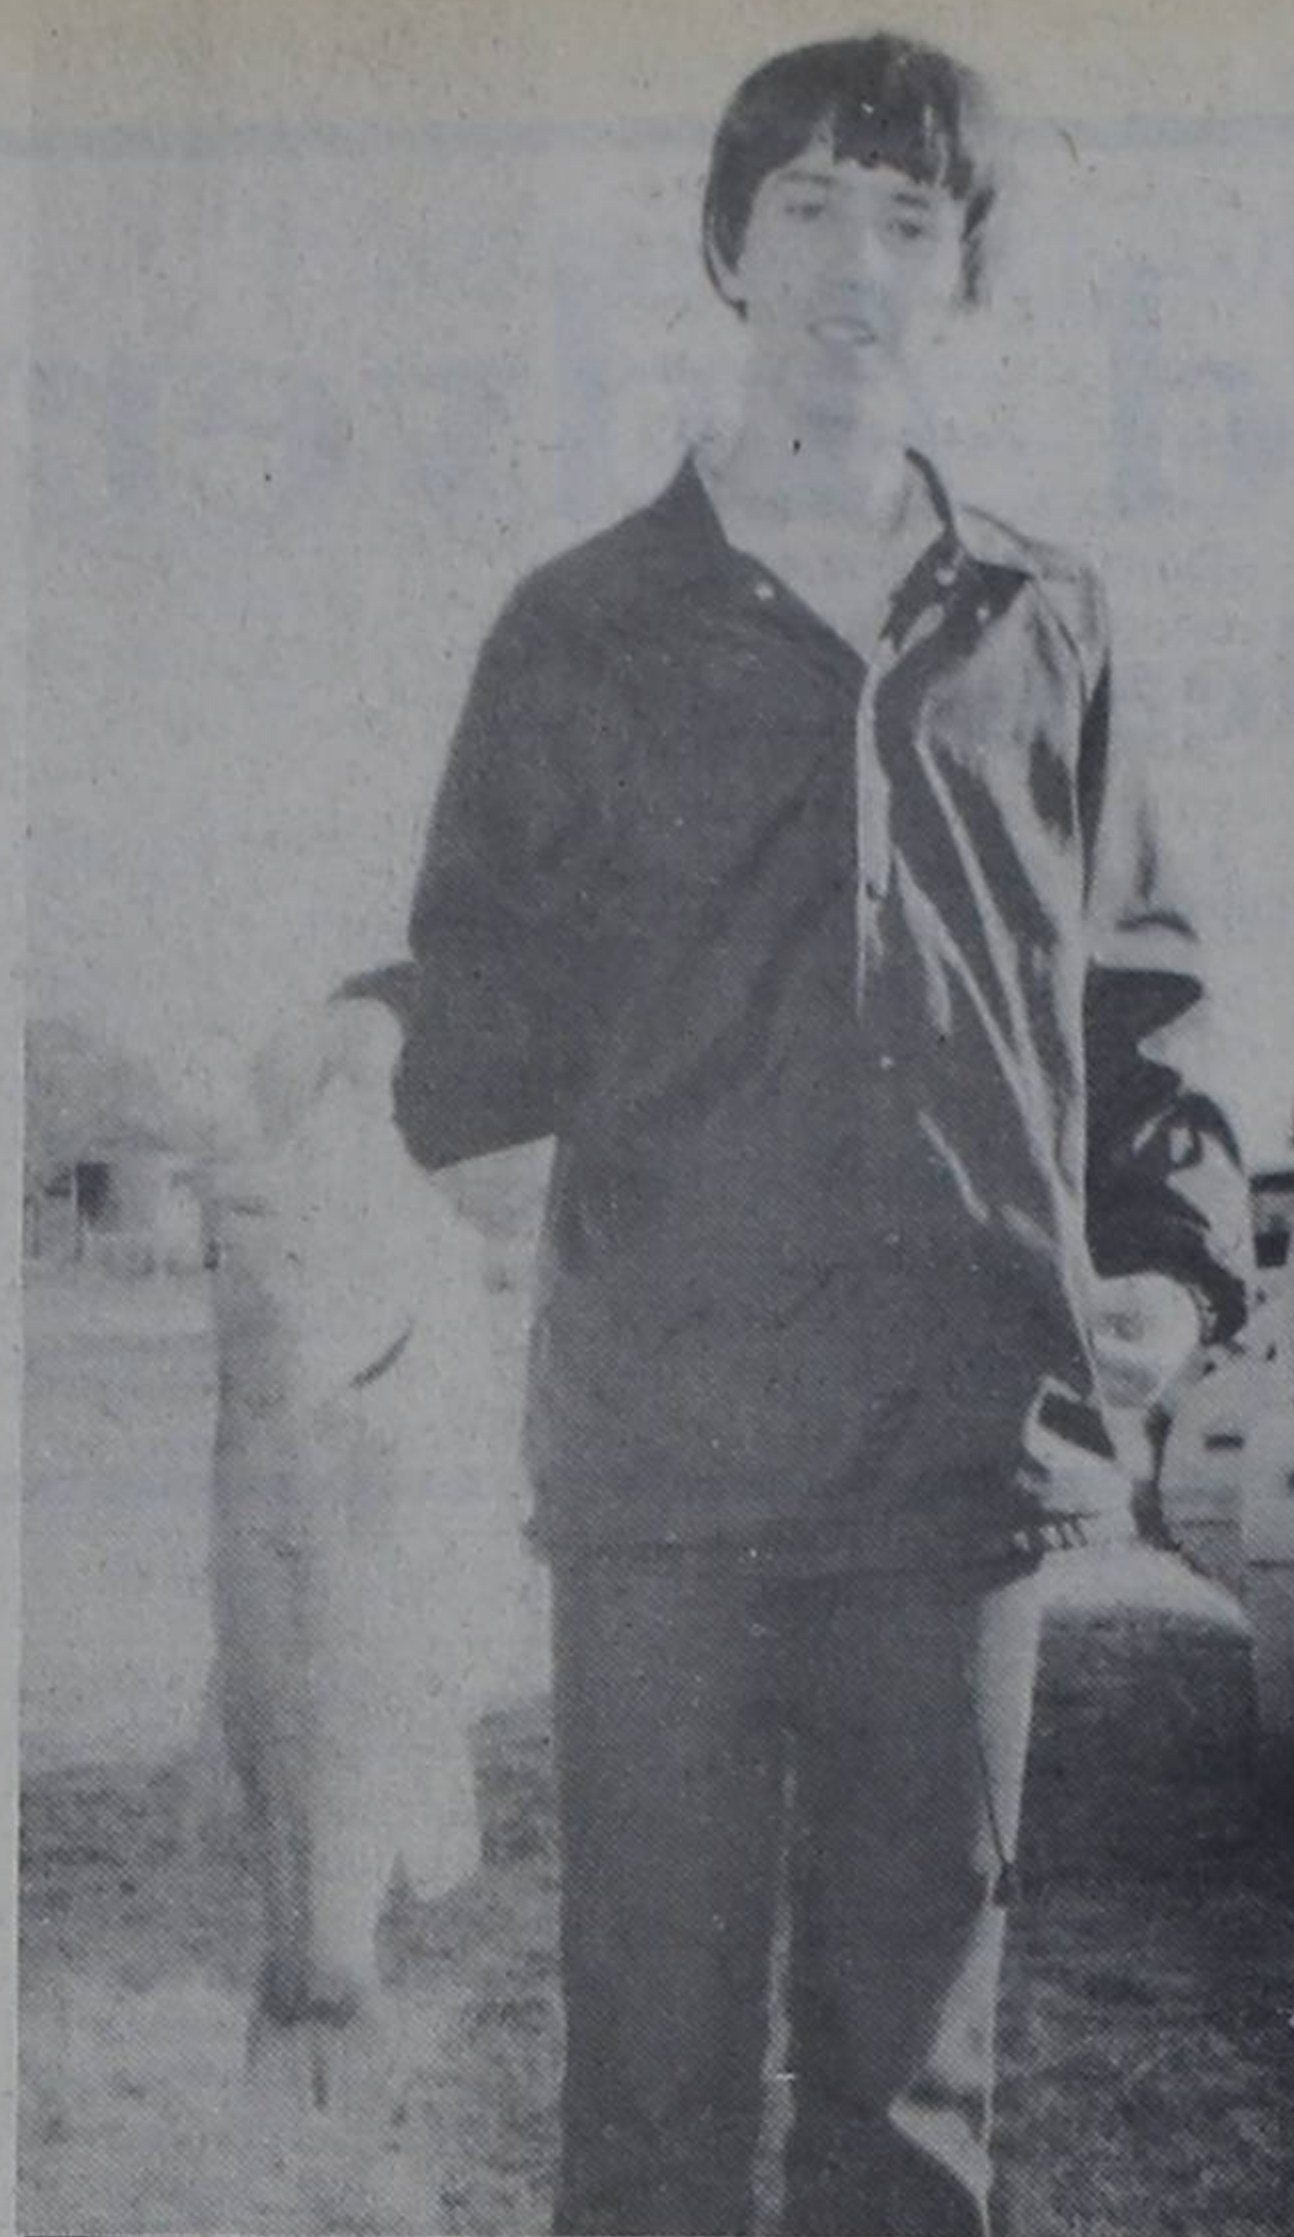

Cotton farmers plan to plant 9.2 million acres of upland cotton in 1983, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Feb. 1 survey.

The total compares with 1982 plantings of 11.4 million acres. A National Cotton Council survey in mid-January indicated total cotton plantings of about 8.5 million acres, or 700,000 acres less than the USDA survey.

The major variation in the two surveys were in Texas and Oklahoma. The Council's survey put planting intentions at 4,161,000 acres in Texas while the USDA report indicated 4,800,000 acres. Council figures for Oklahoma totaled 343,000 acres and the USDA report, 450,000 acres.

Net new sales of cotton for the 1982-83 marketing year increased by 50,900 running bales for the week ended Feb. 10 to bring the season's total commitments to 3,868,400 bales.

Major buyers were South Korea, 23,000 bales; Italy, 8,900; and Japan, 8,400 according to the National Cotton Council.

LUNKER BASS — Kirt Williams, 14½ year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Williams, hooked this 9-lb. plus largemouth bass while fishing with his father Sunday afternoon in a Garza County tank. Kirt, when asked where he caught the fish, answered, "right in the tender part of the mouth."

Spees once jewelry
Street peddlers in the Middle Ages sold eyeglasses, mostly for wear as jewelry. In the 18th century, Louis XV gave two of his mistresses jewel-studded longnettes.

Meerschmum, from which smoker's pipes are carved, means "sea foam" in Germany. It got its name because this soft, buoyant hydrous magnesium silicate from fossil sources was often seen floating on the Baltic Sea.

Library adds New books

John Dillinger robbed banks at a time when most folks thought the banks were robbing them. So they locked him in an "escape-proof" jail in Indiana in March, 1934. Escape-proof? He's out and off to Mexico in a white Chevy convertible that he loves like a cowboy loves his horse. Guess who he calls when he finally gets to Mexico. J. Edgar Hoover's secretary says, "Mr. Hoover, it's John Dillinger calling collect." The novel is "Dillinger" by Harry Patterson.

Dee Brown calls his new novel "Kildeer Mountain," but it's about Sam Morrison, writer for the Saint Louis Herald, who decides in 1866 to write about Charles Rawley, Civil War hero and Indian fighter. Or is Rawley a hero after all? Cardinal Stanislawski, Bishop of Warsaw, publically challenges the communist regime in Poland, and the authorities decide to kill him. As the state police hunt him, they look also for a piece of missing information which they can use to discredit him. Phillippe Van Rjndt writes "Samaritan," a plausible novel with implications for the Roman Catholic Church for all the Jews under Soviet rule, for the Kremlin, and the world.

William J. Donovan started America's first secret intelligence and special operations agency, and saved countless lives in WWII. His role in the defeat of Germany was extraordinary, and never fully told before. That he was finally freed without fanfare makes his story even more intriguing, as told in Anthony Cave Brown's "Will Bill Donovan: The Last Hero."

Mark Browning dreams of a home he has never seen: Savannah. Abroad a schooner in the spring of 1812, he finally sees the Georgia port on the horizon, never dreaming that he will be torn between his love for two women, nor that he would know war's intrigue, nor that in Savannah he would learn the measure of his own courage and worth. Eugenia Price wrote "Savannah."

Larry Scrivner appears at UPS hearing in Austin

Larry G. Scrivner, Assistant Manager for Bostick's Pump and Agricultural Equipment in Post appeared recently in Austin before the Railroad Commission of Texas to testify in hearings on United Parcel Service's application for service rights.

UPS is seeking authority from the Commission to provide full intrastate service — pickup and delivery of packages between all points within Texas. Currently, UPS can only provide interstate service except within the commercial-free zones of Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio.

Texas is one of just two states that restrict UPS intrastate. Scrivner testified that the lack of UPS service within the state has seriously hampered the operation of his business. Scrivner cited no pickup or delivery service, slow delivery time, prohibitive rates and the lack of state-wide coverage, as the major problems being encountered with other delivery services.

Bostick's Pump and Agricultural Equipment currently uses. And, parcel post also does not fill their first half of 1983. Hundreds of business people from throughout the state are expected to testify concerning their need for having UPS available for shipments on an intrastate basis.

UPS has been seeking this authority from the Commission since 1966.

Arbor Foundation Giving Free Trees

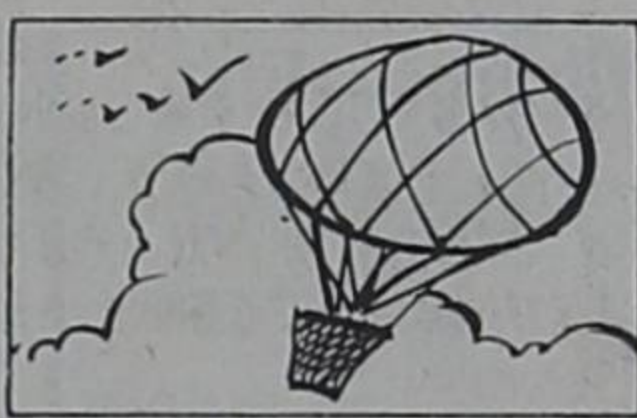

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving ten free trees to people who become Foundation members during March, 1983.

The free trees are part of the Foundation's effort to promote tree planting throughout America.

A Colorado Blue Spruce, Red Maple, American Redbud, Black Walnut, Norway Spruce, Red Oak, White flowering Dogwood, European Mountain Ash, Flowering Crab Apple, and Butter nut tree will go to members joining during March. The six-to-twelve inch trees will be shipped this spring postage paid with enclosed planting instructions.

These trees were selected because they provide a wide range of benefits: flowers, fruit and nuts, as well as shade and beauty, according to the Foundation.

Charles and Clotilda and their two children drive their car to a nearby service station. Charles buys some gas and then drives around the building to use the rest rooms.

Clotilda uses the ladies' room and then walks with her daughter to the front of the station to use the water fountain. They have to walk up a step about six inches high to get to the fountain.

When they finish taking a drink Clotilda steps off a 16-inch step by the fountain and falls, shattering her wrist. Clotilda sues the service station, claiming the fountain area was negligently designed and constructed.

Rose Bushes are Trimmed

By Steve Traw
First Christian Church
 The rose bushes are now trimmed. And my hands have enough nicks and scratches from the thorns to prove it. This botanical effort reminds me that the Christian life is also one of promise and joy. Yet, watch out for the barbs that lie in wait.

Life for the believer can be a running battle with things of the work, the flesh, and the devil himself. We should never underestimate Satan's strength and clever tactics. Our five year-old was memorizing Ephesians 6:11 this past week: "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." I had nearly completed explaining "wiles" to our kindergarten daughter when I felt it necessary to remind myself that equipping with God's supply of spiritual armor is so important. Otherwise, one of the numerous traps set by our arch-enemy may engulf us if not leave us a bit scratched and wounded.

 The devil, with his many devices, is out to ensnare Christians. Those age five to eight-five can fell prey to that which destroys and hampers growth in grace. Take heed now! Watch out for the wiles of Satan.
 And remember the promise of joy of the roses yet to come.

Assembly of God News

 We all love her and appreciate her efforts. Thanks Sue.

USDA to Report on PIK

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's statistical reporting service will issue a special report March 22 at 3 p.m. detailing farmers' sign-up in the 1983 acreage reduction and Payment-In-Kind programs.
 According to agency administrator William E. Kibler, the report will include data on the number of farms with base acreages and the number of farms enrolled, as well as total base crop acreage and the number of acres enrolled for feed grains, rice, wheat and upland cotton. He said the release will carry both national and state totals for each of the four program commodities.

 Data, which will cover all states except Hawaii (but which will include Puerto Rico), will be summarized from raw sign-up figures channeled from county offices of USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation to statistical reporting service state offices and tabulated under security at USDA's Washington headquarters.
 The special report also will provide state and national data on each of the program signups: Acreage reduction, 10-30-percent PIK and whole farm PIK.

Farmers must participate in the previously announced reduced-acreage and paid-diversion programs to be eligible for program benefits such as commodity credit corporation loans and purchases, PIK and target price protection. For wheat and feed grain producers, participation is also required to be eligible to enter the farmer-owned grain reserve.
 The report also will indicate the percent of farms and base acreage enrolled, the acres required for conservation use, the base acreage of participating farms and total permitted acreage by states.

Pleasant Home

By Annie Gilbert
 Pleasant Home services were held as usual with good attendance at all services.
 "An Expectant Fellowship", from Acts 1:4-14 was the Sunday School lesson subject.

The lesson was taught by Deacon Willie Bursleson, and Deacon Jim Osby.
 Sister Fisher Wynne read II Corinthians 10: 1-7.
 Rev. Kelly brought a lesson from St. Luke, 10:30-35.

The report also will indicate the percent of farms and base acreage enrolled, the acres required for conservation use, the base acreage of participating farms and total permitted acreage by states.

Judy Norman, Post High School graduate, is shown on the back row in the white jacket, and was featured in a recent article as being the successful coach at Atkins Junior High School. Miss Norman was credited by Monterey coach, Tim Tasker, as doing the best job of anyone in Lubbock, as far as coaching is concerned. Her ninth grade girls went 16-0 en route to the city title, with the eighth graders having a 13-0 season and the seventh grade girls also capturing a city title. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Norman. Shown with Judy in the picture is her ninth grade girls of Atkins Junior High School.

'Eternal God, where can I go...'

By Rev. Tom Pass
First Presbyterian Church

Eternal God, where can I go from Your Spirit?
 Where shall I flee from Your presence? For you are the grace of life, the constant presence of faith and hope and love.
 If I ascend to the highest experience of beauty and love, You are there.
 If I descend into the squalor of hells of my own making, behold, You are there seeking me out, to draw me back into the sunlight of Your life.

There are no experiences beyond the reach of Your grace. There are no places in life that You can not be. I need reminding of that, O God, when I am afraid I must make it on my own. And I must confess, O Lord, that I have sometimes wanted to escape Your presence.

To plunge into life on my own terms. But Your presence reminds me that selfishness was not the reason for which You gave me life.
 Open my mind and heart and life to Your constant Presence. As I look at my world with all its needy people and perplexing problems, may I look with eyes of faith and hope and love.

 You are here, there, and everywhere.
 Let me not forget. Amen.
