Dates Set For Second Annual Ranchmen's Rodeo Reunion At Chandler Ranch

July 1 and 2, are the days set this year for the second annual ranchmen's reunion and rodeo to be given at the Chandler ranch on the Independence.

Last year when this event was held crowds from all sections of the State and particularly West Texas was in attendance at the event. A worthwhile entertainment was put on for the visitors and every one who attended reported a good time.

This year they are leaving nothing undone to entertain the crowd that is expected. Goat Roping, Calf Roping, Bronc Riding, Steer Riding, Steer Breakaway, Wild Cow Milking, and Horse Racing will be some of the events planned for the two days entertainment. Both days a barbecue with all the trimmings will be served and there will be plenty to eat. Each night there will be dancing on an open air pavilion, music to be furnished by Jelly Brook's 6 piece orchestra from Big Springs.

Admission to the rodeo will be $1 for each day, so states the promoters Herman Chandler and M. H. Goode Jr.

Fiddler's Contest To Be Feature Of Cowboy Reunion

STAMFORD, June 9.—The old fiddler's contest, one of the popular features of the Texas Cowboy Reunion each year, promises to have a larger entry list and keener competition than ever during the third annual Reunion which will be held in Stamford July 4, 5, and 6. The fiddler's contest will be held one day only, Tuesday, July 5, the second day of the Reunion, beginning at 9 a. m.

Cash prizes totalling $30 will be awarded. No entry fee will be charged and spectators will be admitted free to the City Auditorium, where the contest will be held. H. F. Jackson is chairman of the committee in charge of this feature of the Reunion.

Only fiddlers fifty years of age or over, are eligible for the contest. Each fiddler will be limited to two break-down tunes of his own selection. He may play alone or choose his own second. Five judges will decide the winners of the following prizes: First prize, $15; second, $10; third, $5.

Entry blanks must be signed and filed before 6 p. m. Monday, July 4.

Another feature of the reunion, reminiscent of pioneer days in the West, is the cowboys' square dance which will be held in the City Auditorium each night. Judge Chas. E. Coombes, former president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, is in charge of this feature.

The dance in the past has been held on an open-air pavilion. It is being changed to the auditorium this year to give larger floor space for the dancers and for the greater convenience of spectators.

Other features of the reunion include the meeting of pioneer cowboys and cattlemen, the big cowboy rodeo for the younger blood, selection of most typical cowboy under 55 years of age and the one over 55, selection of the most attractive girl sponsors from surrounding cities, and the big daily street parade.

MOVE FROM SANDERSON

It is with regret that our citizens learn of the departure from the city of Rev. R. E. Griffith and family who have been residents here for the past four years.

Bro. Griffith, during his years here, has been minister at the Church of Christ and has been an outstanding citizen of the town. He and his family made many friends here and in every way they proved to be helpful and progressive citizens.

Bro. Griffith and family will visit in Abilene, Dublin and Houston. In Houston Mrs. Griffith and children will stay while Bro. Griffith does protracted meeting work.

MOHAIR MILL MAY OPERATE ON FALL CLIP

Expect Quick Sale Of Stock In Texas New Industry

UVALDE, Tex., June 4.—The board of directors of the Texas Angora Goat Raisers Association today endorsed the establishment of a mohair mill at New Braunfels, after a committee appointed by the board last December to investigate the feasibility of such a plant, made its report. The meeting was attended by Bailey Jones, secretary of the New Braunfels Chamber of Commerce, and A. Robinson and James McDowell, manager of the cotton mill at New Braunfels, the trio representing the New Braunfels Chamber of Commerce.

They reported that a permit had been granted by the secretary of state to sell $50,000 stock. They said they were of the opinion the stock would be sold immediately and work started so it would be completed in time to handle the fall mohair clip.

Big Rodeo Events To Be Given In Dryden Friday

On next Friday, June 17, at Dryden a big rodeo, will be given under the sponsorship of Dick Haines and Charlie Turk. There will be at noon a big barbecue dinner served and the usual rodeo events will be held as well as a ball game to be played between the Dryden team and Co. Stock. That night a big dance will be given the music being furnished by the Charlie Rogers' Five piece string band.

The promoters are leaving nothing undone to have a first class rodeo, with plenty of entertainment for the visitors. An admission price of 50 cents will be charged for the rodeo which will include the ball game and barbecue dinner. That night $1 will be charged for dancing.

Nearly every year the little city of Dryden has a rodeo and all day entertainment for the citizens of Terrell county and they are always a success as the Dryden people well know how to entertain its visitors.

A large crowd is expected and a good time is assured all who attend the rodeo.

Junior Chamber of Commerce to Urge Texans to Vote

HOUSTON, Texas, June 2.—The job of inducing 1,000,000 Texas voters to participate in the November election is the task assigned the junior chambers of commerce of Texas under the leadership of Alwyn S. Koehler of the Young Men's Division of the Houston Chamber of Commerce, state chairman.

This is a part of a nationwide program sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of the United States. The campaign has been named "Get Out The Vote" and the slogan, "50,000,000 votes for George Washington" has been adopted.

The activities will be a feature of the George Washington bicentennial observance which lasts throughout the year.

The national goal has been set at 50,000,000 votes.

"In the near future all counties of Texas will be advised of their quota," said Mr. Koehler. "This movement is non-political and the organization sponsoring it will attempt to educate the voters of the state to the desirability of a maximum participation in all elections. No attempt, of course, will be made to influence the voters as to how they should cast their ballots."

Tickville Band To Convulse Editors

Here's the Tickville American Legion band of Ranger, Texas, the feature of the big barbecue for Texas editors to be held Thursday night at Camp Wolters, near Mineral Wells. All the boys are members of the Legion, and they guarantee to throw the editors into convulsions at their annual convention.

SERVICES HELD FOR BROTHER OF MRS. SAVAGE

John Closser Of Hidalgo County Succumbs Of Heart Attack

(Special Correspondence)

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., June 3.—John Closser, 79, former political dictator of Hidalgo County, died Friday morning from heart disease.

A prominent political figure for 40 years, Closser, with the late Judge James T. Wells, practically ruled Southwest Texas during the latter part of the last century and the early part of this. He was sheriff of Hidalgo County for 24 years before resigning to accept the appointment as county treasurer. His place as sheriff was taken by his political associate and friend, the late "millionaire sheriff of Hidalgo County," A. Y. Baker.

Closser was born in Wisconsin in 1853 and moved to Texas in 1870. He first settled near Luling, but moved to the Valley in 1883, making his home near Hidalgo. He became a prominent banker, and was owner of the San Juan ranch on the Rio Grande at the time sugar cane grown there took first prize at the World Fair in St. Louis. From Hidalgo, Closser moved to Edinburg, which at first bore the name of "Closser" in his honor, and from there in 1923 moved to this city, where he has lived in retirement from active politics.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Alice D. Closser; two daughters, Mrs. P. D. Keller of Houston and Mrs. H. P. Griffin of McAllen; one sister, Mrs. Walter Savage of Sanderson and two sons, J. J. Closser of Houston and Victor F. Closser of Edinburg.

He was member of the Brownsville Elks Lodge, a Shriner and a Mason.

Funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Sunday from the Brownsville Presbyterian Church.

It is with regret that the many friends in this city of Mrs. J. W. Savage learn of the death of her brother. Due to illness, Mrs. Savage was unable to attend the funeral services held last Sunday in Brownsville.

The Times together with the many friends of Grandma Savage extend sympathy to her in her hour of bereavement.

INSTALLS NEW GREASING SYSTEM AT HUMBLE STA.

Grayco, one of the latest and best greasing equipments on the market, has been recently installed at the Humble Filling Station which is under the management of Fred Charlton.

With this new equipment, which has an air pressure of nine thousand pounds, a thorough greasing of a car is assured the owner. With Hydraulic lift Mr. Charlton is now prepared to give the car owner the best of service when it comes to greasing a car and asks that the motorist give him a chance to show just how good a grease job that they can get at the Humble Station.

C. M. T. CAMP TO OPEN AT CAMP BULLIS

Large Number Of Students To Receive Month's Training

Lads have been sitting on the anxious seat pending word as to whether they would go to C. M. T. C. at Camp Bullis or not will be relieved to know that their orders are in the mail. 1398 students will receive orders. They will come from 279 towns of Texas to Camp Bullis.

Orders have already been issued for attendance at Camp of the full C. M. T. C. quota for Camp Bullis, Texas, Fort Logan, Colorado, and Fort Bliss, Texas. Only those applicants who have been definitely accepted for camp should report. Those who have received a "tentative acceptance" only should remain at home unless they subsequently receive a definite acceptance. A 10 percentum over the camp quota have already been ordered to camp. There is little likelihood of applicants who now hold "tentative acceptance" being ordered to camp this year. Those who have already received "definite acceptances" should not report at camp prior to the date on which ordered viz. Camp Bullis June 15th, Fort Bliss, June 10th, Fort Logan, June 13th, as no arrangements have been made for their care prior to announced dates.

THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK LEADERSHIP

When a herd of cattle stampedes in fright, the fastest runner is in front. The real leader may be in the rear because he has seen no reason for joining the stampede.

In politics, in current literature and in life in general, apparent leadership often is merely the ability to run fastest in a stampede. Those who are stubbornly at work changing the course of events are quite frequently inconspicuous.

He is the best leader who most fully understands the nature of things, so that his plans are not doomed to ultimate failure; who possesses an active, far-reaching imagination which can see many possibilities; who has a sense of values, so that among possibilities he is able to choose the most excellent; who has a sense of order, to give form, design, and program to the values and purposes he selects; who has practical sense and judgement, and so uses the most feasible means to accomplish his ends; and who has the energy and enthusiasm to carry his plans persistently toward fruition.

All these qualities are susceptible to increase, discipline, and refinement by education.—Antioch Notes.

LUBBOCK, June 4.—Plans for a Budget-Making Institute, to be held in Lubbock during the last week of this month, were announced here yesterday by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce through its president, Wilbur C. Hawk.

The Institute will be conducted for the benefit of public expenditure committees in all towns affiliated with the organization.

"We have the organization machinery set up to accomplish great results and the object of this institute is to put the machinery in motion effectively," Mr. Hawk said.

Necessity Stressed

As president of the organization, Mr. Hawk outlined recently the year's policy, stressing the necessity for cuts in public expenditures and other objectives.

Public expenditure committees already have been formed in 82 of the 117 towns affiliated with the organization.

"The Institute will give these committees definite information on making city school and county bud-

Mineral Deposits In This County To Be Studied

AUSTIN, Texas, June 9.—Conferences with mine operators who are interested in obtaining permits for the exploration and development of minerals underlying University of Texas lands in West Texas are being held by University authorities, represented in that region by H. P. Bybee, geologist and mineralogist for the University at El Paso, and School of Mines officials. It is proposed to work out a lease form to apply to mineral development, since the present forms dealing with University land leases govern only oil and gas rights. It is proposed that the legislature shall enact measures at the January session providing for mineral development other than oil and gas, and it is for the purpose of submitting the necessary data to the lawmaking body that these conferences are being held. At present, under the terms of a resolution adopted by the legislature at its last session, no mineral deposits underlying University lands can be sold, leased or a mineral permit granted until some adequate law is passed governing this development.

Two well-known mineralogists, Dr. J. W. Beede of Bloomington, Ind., and Bert Haigh of El Paso have gone to San Angelo to conduct investigations on University lands. Dr. Beede will spend three months in studying the black shale basin in Irion, Reagan, Crockett and Terrell counties. This basin, which is between the Permian Basin and the Glass Mountains, is believed to underlie the Permian formation. Mr. Haigh will work with E. F. Boehm, who is connected with the University lands organization at San Angelo.

THE CAUSE OF DEPRESSION

I bought a Ford instead of a Farm and it is worn out, but the Farm I figured on is still O. K. I invested in a Radio instead of a cow, and the radio gave static instead of Milk.

I am feeding five nice hounds, which answer to the name of Red, Redwing, Slobber, Lake and Bay-rum, instead of five pigs. I had our piano tuned instead of the well cleaned out. I spent all my cash in 1927 and used my credit in 1929 and traded up my future wages on installments in 1930 so hard times caught me in bad shape last fall.

If I had spent my last $10.00 for flour and meat instead of gas and oil, I would have been O. K. I built a nice garage last year instead of covering my barn, and I loafed in a mountain two weeks instead of being in the pasture fixing it so's my cow won't get out, but she is dry and mortgaged to boot, for two blankets my wife bought from an agent instead of paying the preacher.

I am on cash basis now but I aint got no cash. I am tied to the end of my rope and the man I am now working for is busted on account of nobody wouldn't pay him and his cotton won't sell cause nobody won't buy cotton clothes; all the gals wear slicky silk underwear right here in our cotton patches. I had $4.00 saved up for a rainy day but it turned dry and I spent the $4.00 for two inner tubes.

I tried hard to make both ends meet with a turnip patch, but when I got ready to sell, every body else was selling turnips for nothing and the market was glutted. I am worried plum to the bone and my wife's kin folks are coming over next Thursday to spend two weeks.

Write or phone if you hear of any relief from the Government coming down my way and I am willing to be either a Democrat or Republican for a few weeks if that will help any.—Exchange.

Texas Industrial Activities

A 600-mile gas pipeline from the Midland field to Topolobampo, Mexico with a lateral at Chihuahua City to Torren and possibly to Mexico City, is projected by James F. Sadler, president of the Calif.-Tex. Leasing Co. Following the line of the Santa Fe and paralleling an oil line projected by the same interest the system will supply gas to the cities along the route.

With twelve weeks remaining of the present shipping season, cotton shipments out of the port of Galveston reached a total of 2,022,163 bales on May 6, passing the total for the entire season of 1930-31. Foreign shipments aggregated 1,926,670 bales, and are expected to pass the 2,000,000-bale mark before the present shipping season ends on Aug. 1.

Eight hundred men have been called back to work in the Ford plant at Houston, with 200 men already employed in preliminary work for the full activity.

Between 1919 and 1929 (U. S. Census period) Texas laundries showed an increase of 122.65 per cent in volume of work, the figures being $9,249,915 in 1919 and $20,594,690 in 1929. The volume of work done by dry cleaning establishments showed an even greater increase, the 1919 total of $1,910,999 climbing to $8,997,701 in 1929, or a gain of 370.84 per cent. In twelve Southern cities the volume of laundry was more than $2,000,000 and in five Texas cities the volume ranged from a million and a half to three million and a half annually.

Contract for an addition to its vegetable canning plant has been let by the LaSalle Canneries, Inc. at Crystal City.

Work has begun on a new industrial plant at Graham for the Charles E. Hinson Grain Co., including mill machinery for grinding and mixing feed and a 20,000-bushel receiving elevator.

Architects are preparing plans for a new creamery at San Antonio for the Mistletoe Creamery. Of fireproof construction the building will consist of two stories and basement. Work on the Knowlton Co., creamery on the Fredericksburg near San Antonio has been temporarily delayed.

Bids are ready for a 85x140 foot bakery at Texarkana for the Butter-nut Bread Co. Another industrial addition at Texarkana is the establishment of a dye works by a Florida man.

Itinerary For Interesting West Texas Tours Available

Indications are that more Texans will tour their home State this summer than ever before, and the campaign to get Texans to "Know Texas" is bearing early fruit.

In Texas can be found almost every variety of summer climate from the seashore to the mountains and including lakes and a wide selection of health resorts.

The May issue of West Texas Today, magazine of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, in its effort to draw visitors to that section of the State, has prepared itineraries for two trips with sketch-maps and information about interesting places to be visited.

No. 1 tour is the "San Angelo Around-the-Rim," and includes the beautiful section around Junction, to Del Rio, up the Rio Grande to Terlingua, Presidio, Marfa, Alpine, Fort Stockton and back to San Angelo including the Davis Mountain section.

No. 2 tour is the "Fort Worth-Panhandle," making the circuit from Fort Worth to Amarillo and back by Lubbock, Lamesa and over State Highway No. 1 back to Fort Worth. It includes suggestions for interesting side-trips to Clovis and Portales, N. M., Roswell and the Carlsbad Caverns.

In comparison with some of the other States, which are annually deriving millions of income from tourists, Texas has done little to attract visitors from other sections of the United States' albeit few of States possess greater scenic beauty or natural attractiveness, particularly in the spring and fall. The three regional chambers of Commerce in co-operation with Progressive Texans, Inc., are considering plans for a systematic and concerted effort to increase the tourist travel into the State.

R. D. Eldridge of Sabinal was a business visitor in the city this week.

Farmer—"No, I wouldn't think o' chargin' ye fer the cider. That'd be bootleggin'—and praise the Lord I ain't come t that yet. The peck o' potatoes 'll be five dollars."

"Where are you hurrying to, Ambrose?" "I'm running to try to stop a fight between a fine married couple." "Who are they?" "I'm one of them."

THIS AND THAT

By JIMMINY The Texas Press Association is preparing to swoop down on Mineral Wells, June 9-10-11, for three days of business and pleasure. Newspaper and magazine folk from all over the state will meet in the famous health resort city to discuss problems vital to the profession—and to "drink their way to health."

A well-balanced program has been arranged for the edification of the editors and others who will be in attendance. Advertising—and the lack of it—will figure prominently in the deliberations. Other problems pertinent to the publishing business will be discussed. With many outstanding members of the publishing fraternity taking part in the sessions, it should be a convention worthwhile.

A spokesman for the sulphur and oil interests will give his humble—or maybe it's Texas—opinion of some of the problems of circulation incident to something or other. This talk should be of unlimited value to the listeners, because no man knows better the problems of circulation than the man who hasn't any. Circulating "hot checks" is one thing, while magazine and newspaper circulation is another. This man knows about both, although his success with the checks has been by far his greatest accomplishment.

His work in the field of circulation is well-known, however. He has received inquiries from all over the state—and especially from women in Dallas, Beaumont and Port Arthur, who want to know, "What's the grand idea?"

Texas is fortunate indeed to have within its borders a man who can circulate things—anything: papers magazines, "salve," propaganda "stuff," lies, rumors, "hot checks" and whatnot. The T. P. A. is even more fortunate in having the opportunity to get a close-up of a man who knows the "problems" of circulation pertaining to a "specialized field." He may even go so far as to tell how the "big boys" fix prices on certain products. He knows a lot of other things he can't tell, too—but in all probability he won't.

Advertise your goods in this paper and get results.

SPOILED!

Food that was purchased only yesterday. Yet today it is utterly spoiled.

In far too many homes such waste is almost a daily occurrence. According to United States Government figures, ten per cent of the money the average family spends for food is lost through spoilage. One dollar in every ten is literally thrown away . . . into the garbage can.

And the astonishing part of it all is that this appalling waste is absolutely unnecessary. Modern refrigerators—both ICE and ELECTRIC—are built to maintain temperatures so low that food spoilage can not take place. It is the old and insufficiently insulated refrigerators that cause the losses.

If YOUR present refrigerator will not maintain a temperature below 50 degrees (the safety line), it is costing you money every day of the year. Let us show you the NEW, improved models—both ICE and ELECTRIC—and explain how they will pay for themselves in food savings.

You'll find the demonstration decidedly well worth your while. Why not come in today?

Stop This Waste!

Refrigerate adequately with ICE or ELECTRICITY. Keep foods below 50 degrees . . . always!

THE STARS AND THE EARTH

By DR. MARS

Horoscopes Questions and Answers The Future

ASTROLOGY

You have read the heading, and now you are reading about it, so you are interested. That being so we will tell you something.

You know a few things to commence with. We will list a few. You know the days are 24 hours long. Every day the same. That is right so far as the average goes, but otherwise not. About October 24 we find noon comes when the sun is 4 degrees past the midheaven, or 16 minutes late. Then at another time of year he will be about that fast. Well you do know the year is 365 days long, and then some. So you know the earth revolves on his axis 365 times a year. But is that so? If you will study the case you will find he actually revolves on his axis 366 times. Well you sure know the moon goes around the earth. Wrong again. We find the path is a serpentine one. The moon just goes in and out and the earth passes by, and the moon turns once each passing on her axis. So always the same face is towards the earth.

Well do you know the sun is over two million miles nearer in winter than in summer? That our path around the sun is sort of egg shaped? That not one of the planets goes around in a circle. Some being much more extended than are others. For instance, should we be on the same side of the sun as the planet Mars and we are as far away as we can get, and he as close, we are only about 35 million miles apart, but should we be at our closest part, and Mars at his greatest, then we are nearly twice that far apart.

So we find the average person does not know much about astronomy, and it is likely, less about astrology, so we will take up the first question and try to explain how it works.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

G. T.—Will I see my mother this summer?

Ans.—We divide the space around the earth in twelve parts called the twelve hours. That part from where the sun rises to 30 degrees below the horizon is the first house, and the next 30 degrees the second, and so on. The houses are always in the same position relative to the earth. Then we divide the heavens where the stars are in 12 signs, called the zodiac. They revolve around the earth every 24 hours, so that all signs, and planets pass through all 12 houses every day.

The angles are those points directly overhead the opposite point or about where the sun is at midnight, and the points where the sun sets, and rises. Having erected our map of the heavens, placing the certain degree of each sign on each house, and the planets in positions, we judge as follows:

The first house is always for the querent. We have a fixed sign on the first. Also on each of the other angles. That does not look like going. The planet that rules the first is in a fixed sign, and that does not look like a trip. The planet ruling the third house, which is the house we consider in a move of anykind, is retrograde in that house, and also in a fixed sign. That is against a visit. Then there is no sign of agreement between the rulers of first and third, and so we find there are many things that say this visit will not be made, and not even one little bit of encouragement. So we say no visit this summer.

L. L. L.—Should I start out in the next few weeks and try to sell?

Ans.—Must first remark how pleased I am to hear from you again. Over 20 years ago you wrote me when I was with the Ft. Worth Record. It is pleasing to know you remember me kindly, and also to think you must have had

Dr. Mars, noted astrologist, will make readings and answer a limited number of questions FREE for readers of the Sanderson Times. The answers will be published from time to time.

Write him a letter, explaining fully the problem that is uppermost in your mind, sign your correct name (which is not for publication) and key your letter by signing initials or figures for identification. The answers will appear in the Times as fast as they can be handled Under no circumstances will Dr. Mars divulge the contents of your letter, and all letters will be destroyed after being read.

Remember, confine your letter to only one question, and address it to Dr. Mars, Box 123 Del Rio, Texas, or in care of this newspaper. In the thousands of questions he has answered in the past he has never divulged the secret of a single person, and he will not betray your confidence. If you want your questions answered please sign your correct name and address.

satisfactory answers then or you would not write again. Now if we could give you the kind of answer you want we would both be happy, but the reading is rather against you. First we find you will not start out soon, if you do you will not go far and will not accomplish anything. Then you are not going to make anything out of this very soon. Absolutely nothing. Better give your attention to some other line for the present. But we do find some good. There is merit in this thing, and the indications are it will go over later. Really believe it will make you some good money at a later date, but not now. Please report again. The one question rule, applies to just one time. Just one question in a letter. There is a chance for confusion where more are asked, and we want to be right. You may ask a question every week just so it is important to you. And you don't have to believe to get results. But ask one positive question that is of real interest to you.

Again assuring you of our pleasure in hearing from you we are,
Your Friend,
Dr. Mars.
