USO DRIVE IN COUNTY NETS $1,336.14 TOTAL

$186.64 Over Goal Helps Region To Be First in Texas to Go "Over Top"

Figures compiled Tuesday, reveal that Scurry County's United Service Organization drive, concluded last week, grossed a total of $1,336.14—$184.64 over the county's quota, according to W. J. Ely, county USO chairman, and Lee T. Stinson, vice chairman.

Ely and Stinson say final reports on contributions reveal that Snyder and every county community went "over the top" in the drive. "In fact," the USO officials state, "we haven't conducted a campaign in years that turned out more satisfactory than our recent USO drive. Due to haste in getting totals, some discrepencies resulted and some community donations were placed in the wrong credit column, but careful check of figures show all sectors were placed in the 100 per cent rating after all reports were received."

Hermleigh's contribution to the United Service Organization drive was well over $100, the officials state, but a story run in The Times last week gave the community credit for only $19.80. This was before final totals were made, and USO officials express keen appreciation to Hermleigh community folks for the help in getting the drive "over the top."

USO contributions in the Snyder community placed the county seat well over its goal, Ely and Stinson report, and Snyder and Scurry County are thanked, through The Times, for their efforts in successfully carrying the drive through.

Of the $1,336.14 colected as a grand county total in the drive, $1,154.50 represented Scurry's actual quota. The $1,186 figure used last week was obtained from state USO headquarters, and represented the maximum Scurry was asked to give in the drive.

"We have been commended by state USO officials as a result of every Scurry County school district exceeding its goal in the campaign," Ely and Stinson state, "and are happy to say that our region was the first in Texas to reach the 'finish tape' in the campaign'."

New Ira School Plant Plans to Be Ready Soon

During the past two weeks, members of the Ira School Board reported Tuesday, the walls of the old building gutted by fire have been taken down, and approximately two-thirds of the old brick and tile have been cleaned.

Members of the board state workmen will begin hauling rubbish away from the school site next week, and work on the new, $25,000 brick structure that will replace the old one started at an early date. Attaches of the David S. Castle Company, Abilene, architects, reported Wednesday that specifications for the new Ira School building will soon be completed.

As outlined by the architects, the new structure will have nine classrooms, an office for the superintendent and principal, a library and book room.

When an estimated cost on the new Ira building is available—the $25,000 figure is approximate—bonds for the structure will be voted immediately, board members declare.

The Ira School building was gutted May 14 by a fire of undetermined origin that marked up a $30,000 loss for the community.

Sunday Night Car Wreck Injures Miller

Pelvic injuries and a sprained back for R. C. Miller Jr. resulted early Sunday night when the Plymouth wrecker he and J. L. (Lois) Adams were in turned over near Snyder General Hospital.

Miller also sustained leg injuries in the turn-over. He was reported Wednesday to be resting well, and is expected to improve steadily.

Miller was reported to be taking Adams to the hospital for treatment when the accident occurred, and had started to turn a corner when the wrecker wheels hit loose gravel and dirt that had blown across the pavement on 26th Street.

Corry on Plains in Political Campaign

W. N. (Bill) Corry of Arlington, principal of Snyder Schools in 1930-1931 and candidate for commissioner of agriculture, is taking his campaign this week to the Panhandle and South Plains area.

Corry, who last week made a swing through the Rio Grande Valley, will visit Snyder friends this week-end if he has sufficient time, he stated Tuesday.

Heads Lions

Lyle Deffebach, Snyder insurance and real estate man, was elevated Tuesday to the presidency of the town's Lions Club for the ensuing year, and will take office July 1. Names of other officials named for the club year will be found in this issue of The Times.

Price Ceilings to Be Discussed at S'water Meeting

Scurry County's Chamber of Commerce, through E. O. Wedgeworth, manager, asks that all Snyder and Scurry County retailers and wholesalers attend a special gathering of retailers and wholesalers of this area, scheduled to be staged in Sweetwater this (Thursday) evening, 8:00 o'clock, in the Nolan County courthouse.

Purpose of the area gathering will be to explain recent government orders for price ceilings as a means of halting the swiftly mounting costs of living.

Chairman at the meeting, to be held in the district court room, will be James E. Ferguson of Sweetwater, Retail Merchants member of the Board of City Development.

"In view of the fact," Wedgeworth states, "that retailers have joined consumers in the national fight against mounting costs of living, every Scurry County wholesaler and retailer is asked to attend the Sweetwater meeting. Officials from the regional Office of Price Administration, Dallas, will explain the new regulations and answer questions related to price ceilings."

O. B. Williams Is "Missing in Action" After Corregidor

Sergeant O. B. Williams, 1931 graduate of Hobbs School and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams of Hawley, former Hobbs community residents, has been reported as "missing in action" during the battle of Corregidor.

Following his graduation from the Hobbs School, Sergeant Williams worked a number of months as an engineer and was connected with a government agency prior to enlistment in the U. S. Army.

Sergeant Williams is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Williams of Midway, and has other relatives in the Hobbs and Sardis communities. Williams' sister, Tenny, is a nutritionist in the U. S. Army camp at San Antonio.

Ben W. Newhouse Is New Scout Executive

Ben W. Newhouse of Hermleigh has been selected as field executive of the Buffalo Trail Council to succeed Stanley A. Mate. Newhouse will serve the districts around Snyder, Big Spring, Colorado City and Midland.

The new executive has had quite a bit of experience in scouting, his last experience as scoutmaster at Hermleigh. He has just returned from a 30-day training course, at national Boy Scout headquarters in New York.

Mate was promoted recently to executive at the council in Winchester, Virginia.

Fire Marshal Cites Trash Burning Rule

Fire Marshal J. M. Newton issued an appeal this week to Snyder citizens to use caution in burning trash and weeds and grass. A number of minor blazes in the last few weeks have been caused by such fires, and Newton reminds people that each time the fire trucks make a run it costs the city's taxpayers.

Newton recalls a city ordinance which prohibits the burning of trash in alleys, and in any event asks that no one leave a trash or grass fire until positive that any danger of it spreading is eliminated.

WHEAT CROP HARVEST HITS HIGH IN AREA

5,188.4 Acres in Scurry County Expected to Produce at Least 35,000 Bushels

Hum of combines in fields of golden grain provided sweet music to the ears of county grain producers Wednesday, as Scurry County's 1942 wheat harvest season got underway.

D. P. Yoder, who is harvesting his wheat north of town, estimates he will harvest 500 bushels of grain from 50 acres.

First carload of 1942 wheat from the Inadale community has been shipped by the R. S. & P. Railroad Company, as has the first carload from Roscoe. Estimates on the yield in the Roscoe and Inadale sectors range from 18 to 25 bushels per acre.

Combines, although fewer in number than last year, were gathering the grain around Hermleigh, Inadale and Wastella and in the Fluvanna and Dermott sectors as grain producers predicted yields from 10 to 20 bushels per acre.

Figures received by The Times indicates Scurry County grain producers have 5,188.4 acres of wheat for 1942 harvesting. Should the yield average 10 to 12 bushels—the county over—something like 50,000 bushels of wheat will be harvested, although most observers estimate county wheat production at around 35,000 bushels.

Black rust, green bugs and grasshoppers, coupled with dry weather during the growing stage, is said to have cut down probable wheat yield for the county severely. Several producers have been certified for wheat crop insurance money—due to their grain being a total loss this year.

Prices for wheat have varied this week from day to day, but the Snyder market is expected to open at around 90 cents per bushel for No. 1 grain.

Draftees Leave Wednesday for Army Physicals

One of the largest groups of Scurry County registrants in several weeks left Wednesday afternoon for Abilene, where they will undergo army physicals and induction into the U. S. Army.

E. L. Farr, chairman of the county draft board, left Wednesday afternoon for El Paso with his third and last son to be inducted into the army—Robert Alton Farr.

Joe Bryant and Francis Lee, other two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Farr now in the army, are in the quartermaster corps at El Paso and planned a big surprise today (Thursday) for Robert Alton.

Robert Alton will be issued, in army equipment, some size 15 shoes, tight army pants and other unusual items of clothing. It's all a joke, of course, but a good way of welcoming the last Farr boy into the armed forces.

Dozens of Snyder and Scurry County people gathered Wednesday afternoon at the city hall to give the draftees a good send-off and farewell—in view of the fact most will probably be shipped to war fronts of the world when properly trained.

Rodeo Headquarters Set Up on East Side

Directors of the Scurry County Rodeo Association announced Wednesday that headquarters for the association during the county's June 26 and 27 rodeo will be established at the former Jones Drug Store, east side of the square.

Contestants and others who participate in the rodeo are asked by association officials to register at rodeo headquarters. In this way, confusion will be avoided and entrants assured of prompt registry.

Snyder's Sponsor at Rodeo Shows

Billie Lou Thompson, attractive 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whit Thompson, prominent Bison community ranch couple, rides today (Thursday) and Friday in the Post Stampede & Rodeo as Snyder's cowgirl sponsor, and will represent Snyder July 2, 3 and 4 at the Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford. Billie Lou is a 1941 graduate of Snyder Schools and has attended Southwestern University, at Georgetown, one year.

Scrap Rubber in County Flows to Filling Stations

Sterling Williams, coordinator for Scurry County's Scrap Rubber committee—recently appointed by Governor Coke R. Stevenson—stated Wednesday that the county's scrap rubber drive was getting underway at full steam, with hundreds of old automobile casings and ruined tubes already collected by Snyder and county service stations.

The scrap rubber drive, nation-wide in extent, began Monday and runs through June 30. The drive, voluntary in nature, had resulted Wednesday in approximately 800 old car tires being collected by county service stations—not to mention old tubes, worn-out hot water bottles, garden hose and other articles to stave off gasoline rationing.

Members of the scrap rubber committee ask that county people bring as many worn-out tires, tubes and other rubber goods to collection centers at the earliest possible moment, since a preliminary report on the drive must be made by Saturday night.

The scrap rubber drive, inaugurated by President Roosevelt's request, will determine whether or not America will be subjected to nation-wide gasoline rationing.

Bond Sales for May Reach $10,225 Total

The Times wishes to correct a story used last week on May war bond and defense stamps sales. According to Frank Scofield, state administrator of war bond sales, reported May sales were $110,225, which was a typographical error on the part of Scofield's clerks. The correct total should have been $10,225.

Pat Bullock, Scurry County chairman of war bond sales, states the county's June quota has been set at $26,000. He urges Snyder and Scurry County people to buy as many bonds and stamps as possible so the county may reach its $371,600 quota before the year's end.

Sunday Showers Brighten County Crop Prospects

Scattered rainfall over the county Sunday afternoon and night that ranged from .40 of an inch in Snyder to an inch and a half in the Camp Springs and Midway communities gave farmers considerable brighter crop prospects, and proved a welcome relief from the 106 and 107 temperatures that prevailed Friday and Saturday, respectively.

Rainfall for the county, 1942 to date, while below normal, now totals 4.75 inches. Despite lack of normal precipitation, crops are in excellent shape and with a little more moisture will hold on far into the summer.

While the rain played out west of Snyder, Ennis Creek reported 1.42 inches fall and Ira reported a nice shower. Pyron and Hermleigh reported a half inch rain Sunday night.

Compliance Work On County Farms Is Checking Well

Claud D. Cotten, county administrative officer for the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, reported Wednesday that farm compliance checking work is getting steadily underway in the county, with 13 crop reporters busy checking farms. H. B. Patterson, county AAA crop performance supervisor, reports that approximately 16 reporters will be employed when the work gets underway in full swing.

"We should like," Patterson says, "to again remind county producers we'll sincerely appreciate their 100 per cent cooperation in assisting crop reporters check farms for compliance.

"It is mandatory that the operator of a farm, or his representative be present when a farm is checked. Due to the acute shortage of tires and need of urgent economy, producers are requested to give reporters all information necessary to giving an account on compliance of a farm," Patterson declared.

15,246 ACRES IN TWO COUNTIES IN NEW SETUP

Soil Conservation Service in Upper Colorado Disrict Offered by Area Officials

A. (Pat) Johnston, chairman of the board of supervisors, Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District, announced Tuesday that 122 applicants for Soil Conservation Service assistance have been received to date, comprising 47,879 acres of land in Scurry and Borden Counties.

Johnston and other Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District officials state Borden-Scurry ranchers and farmers have signed completed plans, to date, on 15,246 acres of land.

The two-county district completed its organization in January of this year, officials state. The officials, selected by votes of farmers and ranchers, include: Johnston; Nolan von Roeder of Knapp, secretary; L. E. Long of Borden County, Hoyt Murphy and Giles Bowers of Scurry County, members.

The district comprises all of Borden and Scurry Counties except that portion of Scurry County which lies below the Colorado River. This small sector of the county is a part of the Mitchell County Soil Conservation District.

As a means of conserving rubber and assisting more farmers and ranchers in soil and water conservation work, the board of supervisors works only with groups, Johnston states.

Applications for as many as 10 farms located in close proximity, or 5,000 acres in one block, are required before assistance is granted. There is no charge made for assistance rendered by the Soil Conservation Service personnel loaned to the district or any other agricultural agencies assistaing the UPSCD supervisors.

Second Trial for Rex Beard Jr. Denied by Judge

Proceedings of 104th District court in Roby Tuesday were high pointed by Judge Owen Thomas overruling a defense motion seeking a new trial for Rex Beard Jr., paper sack bandit who killed Deputy Sheriff Wade Willis of Abilene several weeks ago. Willis was reared in Scurry County.

Notice was given that the case will be appealed.

Members of the 104th District court jury also meted out a term of two years in the penitentiary to Cecil Horton on cattle theft charges in Eastern Scurry County. Horton and Gene Duke of Snyder were lodged in Roby jail several weeks ago on alleged theft charges and theft of two saddles, members of the Fisher County sheriff's office states.

Avery Barrett of Sweetwater was given a two-year prison sentence for burglary. Barrett had been under investigation in connection with burglary cases and store thefts in Scurry, Fisher and Nolan Counties, officers state.

Loud Speaker Will Carry Rodeo Events

Amplifying system for Scurry County's sixth annual rodeo June 26 and 27 will be furnished by Sunny Boy Flour and Hop Halsey of Lubbock, representative of the 19th District.

Arrangements will be made to carry event-by-event broadcasts to all sections of the rodeo grandstand, and contestants as well as spectators will be able to keep track of all times and rides made.

R. G. Dillard, former Scurry County Chamber of Commerce manager and present Corsicana CC chief, will announce the rodeo.

Snyder Getting Set for Sixth Annual Roundup

Hurry, Sponsors!

Those who plan to enter the community cowgirls' sponsor contests for Scurry County's June 26-27 rodeo were urged this week to contact Henry Rosenberg, Economy Dry Goods Company, at the earliest possible moment in order to be assured of participating in this event.

Several Scurry County communities have indicated they will have sponsors in the county-wide events, but have failed to register entries with Chairman Rosenberg of the sponsor events. He asks that registration be made immediately, if at all possible.

Sponsor Events For Rodeo Will Offer Beauties

Color and sparkle for Scurry County's June 26 and 27 rodeo here will be furnished by the cowgirls' sponsor contest—a contest that has made rodeos here and in this area a yearly institution.

As a special added feature to this year's rodeo, more than 30 beautiful girls on horseback will ride in the nation-wide cowgirl sponsors' contest. The two divisions of the sponsor event are listed by the Scurry County Rodeo Association as follows:

Division No. 1—Cowgirls must be 16 years of age or over, and must be willing to participate in the higher experienced event. Entrants may be from any qualified town, county or ranch of the United States. Awards are:

First—$75 in defense stamps.
Second—$25 in a war defense bond.
Third—$10 in defense stamps.

In Division No. 2, this event will be for community sponsors only. Participants in the senior group must be more than 16 years of age. Cowgirls in the junior group must be 12 years of age to 15 years of age, inclusive, and considered from Snyder's trade territory. Senior and junior prizes will be awarded by Snyder merchants.

Sponsors will be required to appear in cowgirl attire in opening day parade, Friday afternoon, June 26, and at each rodeo performance, both afternoon and evening.

Each cowgirl is required to furnish her own mount and equipment, but the Scurry County Rodeo Association will care for mount while here.

The Scurry County Rodeo Association assumes no responsibility whatever of personal injury to the sponsors.

All sponsors are required to use same mount and saddle in every event unless otherwise agreed by judges. No lightning cinch of any kind allowed.

Events for sponsors will be announced later. All events for sponsors will be judged by time only.

Highway Work in County Slowed as Projects Finished

Scurry County highway activities have simmered down almost to the stopping point, insofar as news is concerned. Highway 15, from the overpass southeast of Snyder eastward to the Scurry-Fisher County line, has been turned over to the State Highway Department by the contractors, Thomas & Ratliff, and accepted.

No construction work is going on from Snyder west to the Borden County line on Highway 15, and Highway 101 work between Snyder and Dunn is reported to be going "forward without incident."

Cage Brothers are reported to have dirt work going forward ahead of schedule on Highway 15 in Western Fisher County, and will be ready to start hot topping within the next few weeks. Cage Brothers hold contract for dirt work and asphalt of 11.2 miles of Highway 15 from the Scurry-Fisher line eastward, to paving five miles west of Roby.

New Fire Truck Still Not Due Real Soon

By the way, what has happened to that new Ford fire truck Snyder's volunteer fire department has been dreaming of the past few weeks?

That's a question Chief N. W. Autry and other members of the department have been asked several times lately, as delivery on the vehicle has been delayed by the Dallas firm finishing it. Word Wednesday indicated it would still be several weeks before Snyder could expect delivery on the new fire fighter, approved a number of months ago by the city council.

CONTESTANTS ENTER RODEO AT FAST CLIP

Meeting of Directors Monday to Map Final Plans for Show Set for June 26-27

Directors of the Scurry County Rodeo Association, at a called meeting Monday evening, predicted that Scurry County's sixth annual rodeo here June 26 and 27 would be the gayest, fastest paced rodeo in West Texas.

Enthusiasm over prospects for a record crowd was heightened Tuesday and Wednesday by registration of more contestants in the community and nation-wide cowgirl sponsors' contests, and receipt of inquiries from cowhands in West Texas and New Mexico who want to participate in rodeo events.

More than 30 beautiful girls, rodeo association officials announce, will ride in the cowgirl sponsors' contests and take part in the June 26-27 street parades.

Directors of the rodeo association have made arrangements, they say, for decorating the rodeo grounds with flags and bunting to carry out an appropriate theme of patriotism.

Directors will meet again Monday evening to perfect last-minute plans for what will doubtless be one of the countys' greatest rodeos—despite war-time difficulties in transportation and other handicaps.

Sparkle and atmosphere to the county's annual boots and saddle roundup will be provided, during the street parades each day of the rodeo at 1:00 p. m. by a patriotic review—the flags of the 26 Allied Nations.

Announcement is made that the parades will form each day at the Fuller Gin, north of Miller Body Works, with all Snyder business firms urged to enter floats, automobiles and displays in the street parade.

Considerable interest is being manifest in the $1,300 jackpot that will be awarded during the four rodeo performances. As a special added feature, Snyder merchants will give $300 in merchandise and other prizes to top flight contestants.

Henry Rosenberg, in charge of the cowgirl sponsors' contests, issued an appeal this week for all community sponsors to register for the popular event.

The county's 1942 rodeo season will be formally opened Thursday night, June 25, with a street dance on the square's south side with Marcel Josephson and Dwight Monroe in charge.

Elaborate preparations are underway for the street dance, and the public dance that will be staged Friday evening, June 26, at the roller rink. Hop Halsey and his Drug Store Cowboys of Lubbock will furnish music for the Friday evening social occasion, to be held immediately after the first night rodeo performance.

Daily rodeo performances will be staged at 2:00 p. m. and 8:00 p. m.

Dean Cochran, who is in charge of concessions, asks those who wish concession space to contact him as soon as possible. A record number of concessions probably will be set up at the rodeo grounds this year, and space is reported to be going at a rapid clip.

Rodeo association officials report that place of registry for rodeo contestants has been moved to the square's east side in the former Jones Drug structure. Entrance fees must be in the hands of A. W. Arnold, rodeo association secretary, each day of the rodeo by 10:00 a. m.

Four teams covered towns of this trade area Monday and distributed rodeo prize lists, rules and regulations, stickers, placards and other advertising material. The teams were greeted at ports of call with considerable enthusiasm.

Titan haired Opal Etheredge of Hermleigh will be in charge of county cowgirl sponsors at the rodeo grounds, and Mrs. Whit Thompson will chaperon cowgirls at the invitational sponsors' dance and other events.

Exploration Trip by Scouts Is Announced

A special feature of the Boy Scout camp to be conducted by the Buffalo Trail Council at Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimarron, New Mexico, July 14 to 22, will be an exploration trip made by senior Scouts, using horses and pack animals. This is open only to boys 15 years of age and over who have passed rigid physical examinations.

Applications for this special trip must be in before July 4, and since only 18 out of the 100 boys can participate it is expected that this item will be closed before July 4, according to Ben W. Newhouse, new field executive of the Buffalo Trail Council.

"FUNZAPOPPIN" AND VICTORY BABY CONTEST OFFERED BY JAYCEES AT 8:47 THIS EVENING

Red letter event for entertainment lovers of Snyder and surrounding communities will be staged this (Thursday) and Friday evening at Snyder School auditorium in the form of a hilarious three-act comedy production, "Funzapoppin."

Ann Abbi Akers, who directs the comedy, states the curtain will rise each evening at 8:47 o'clock. The play is sponsored by Snyder's Junior Chamber of Commerce and proceeds will go to soldier and service men's welfare.

"Funzapoppin" is expected to attract record crowds, in view of the fact the main cast includes Laverne Hardin, Jerry Shuler, Frances Veale, Kathrine Lynch, Jerry Campbell, Nadine Gammill, Minnie Vineyard, Mrs. R. E. Gray, Lloyd Clark, Landis Crosby, Doyle Stokes and Rosser Lee Jones. In addition, local talent included in specialty numbers is expected to prove a major attraction card.

Price for the two-night presentation will come Friday evening when the "Victory Baby" of this territory will be named. The contest to select a "Victory Baby" is creating considerable interest, Jaycee officials declare, and 25 babies had been entered in the contest through Wednesday.

Pictures of contestants are on display in the Bryant-Link Company store window, west side of the square. Jars for casting votes—at one cent per vote—have been placed in stores and business firms throughout the town.

Winner of the "Victory Baby" contest will be presented Friday evening with a silver loving cup. Contestants and respective voting places are: Ulatha Huddleston at Perry Brothers, Lawson Junior Dennis at D. & D. Auto Supply, Parker Roe at Leath's Cafe, Max Connally at Petty's Cafe, James DeWald at Stinson Drug No. 2, Patricia Ann Rinehart at Pick & Pay, Sammy Nell Worthington at Piggly Wiggly, Janice White at J. Also Friday evening, the clock will be opened that will mean a $25 war bond to the person guessing closest to the time it stopped ticking this week.

Here's the story behind the clock: Saturday morning at 7:00 o'clock a breakfast was given the 32 best ticket sellers for "Funzapoppin" by the Snyder Junior Chamber of Commerce. In making plans for advance ticket sales, a Big Ben clock was wound at 8:05 a. m. and placed in a sealed box. Persons buying advance tickets will be given a chance to guess when the clock, in Irwin's Drug Store, stopped.

Captains of the ticket sales corps include E. O. (Red) Wedgeworth, John Bayouth, Elmer Taylor, J. P. Billingsley, Lyndal Westbrook, Jo Bob Jones and Lloyd Clark.

The WOMAN'S Page

Pre-Nuptial Parties for Wanda Jean Sims Are Given Friday and Saturday

Two pre-nuptial parties late last week were complimentary to Wanda Jean Sims, daughter of Mrs. Madge Sims of San Angelo and granddaughter of the E. L. Durbys of Snyder, whose approaching marriage to James Ed Hutcherson of Sonora was announced early last week. Miss Sims will become the bride of the Sonora rancher in a ceremony to be held in Snyder July 5.

Jeanne Taylor was hostess Friday at a luncheon in honor of the bride-elect, and Mmes. D. J. Hall and Ixon Joyce gave a tea-shower for her at the Fred Jones home Saturday afternoon.

Complimenting Wanda Jean Sims, bride-elect, Mmes. Hall and Joyce hostessed a tea and gift party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones Saturday afternoon. Guests called in three groups from 4:00 to 7:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Jones greeted guests at the door, and in the receiving line were the hostesses, the honoree and her aunts, Mrs. J. P. Strayhorn and Mrs. Frankie Hall of Odessa. Miss Sims wore a pale pink organdy floor-length frock with white carnations in her hair.

Louise LeMond, 1942 speech graduate from Hardin-Simmons University, furnished the afternoon's program, reading appropriate selections at all three calling hours.

An arrangement of perennial sweet peas, shasta daisies and ferns in a crystal bowl formed the dining table centerpiece, and other flowers were in other rooms.

Mrs. Jack Darby, Jeanne Taylor and Nell Verna LeMond poured punch from the fostoria punch bowl, and assisting to serve were Evelyn Terry, Billie Lou Thompson and Nell Verna LeMond. The refreshment plates held open face sandwiches and cookies. Guest favors were cleverly fashioned miniature brides.

The gifts were on display in the registry room, and guests left their names in a white moire-covered bride's book. Approximately 75 guests attended.

Jeanne Taylor was hostess Friday at 12:00 o'clock for a luncheon in Miss Sims' honor. A Mexican theme was emphasized in the menu, decorations and favors, appropriate since the honoree will live on a ranch after her marriage.

Brightly colored oil cloth formed the cover for a recipe book that was presented the honoree, along with the guests' favorite recipes.

Guests were: The honoree, Billie Lou Thompson, Evelyn Terry, Frieda Kelley, Jean, Evelyn and Ruth McLaughlin, Wynona Keller, Nell Verna and Louise LeMond, Margaret Gray, Louise Bowers and Mmes. Johnny Boren and D. J. Hall.

Kent is employed by the North American Aircraft concern at San Diego, and the couple will live at 100 Strand, Manhattan Beach, California.

West Texas Boys In Australia Get Native's Praise

In a letter received Wednesday by Mrs. Ida J. Crosby, Scurry County Farm Security Administration home management supervisor, from Hyne Edwards of Brisbane, Australia, the cheering news was contained that her son, Lieutenant James H. Crosby of the Quartermaster's Division, U. S. Air Corps, was stationed about 100 miles from Brisbane and in the "pink of physical condition."

"In fact," Edwards states in the letter, part of which was censored, "several West Texas youths are stationed about 100 miles from Brisbane.

"We are pleased to see these West Texas boys," the Australian continues, "and welcome them in our homes any time. We believe the friendships being made will last many years between the Australian and American people.

"We Australians have always thought of Americans as tough—especially young men, but find the boys are much like our own. We had the impression West Texans spoke with a nasal twang, and are happy to learn we all speak the same language.

"None of your West Texas boys have gotten into scraps and 'knock down' fights since coming over here, and we are glad to welcome them to Queensland Province.

"Most of our people are of the working class—farmers and ranchers—and the mothers of Australia are proud to have these fine young men in their homes because they believe American mothers would show Australian boys the same courtesies if they were sent overseas to the United States."

Edwards' letter was mailed from Brisbane May 7, and is one of the first to be received by a Scurry County resident in several weeks from the Australian city.

1,500-Mile Tour by Schulze Family Is Capped by Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schulze, Mrs. H. J. Schulze and daughter, Alfreida, all of Hermleigh, returned last Wednesday night from a 1,500-mile trip that carried the group to various points in Kansas and Nebraska, and to the family homestead at Hanover, Kansas.

Climax of the group's trip to Kansas was a reunion last Sunday of the Schniederjans children—the first family reunion all members had attended in 11 years. The reunion was staged at Hanover.

The Schulze's reported on their return that crops en route to Texas were in excellent shape—fields full of ripening corn, wheat, oats and truck garden stuff. Crops were said to be well advanced in many sectors, but the Hermleigh group expressed keen pleasure in getting back to Scurry County, where crops are growing rapidly after replanting.

While in Kansas, the group visited the homestead at Emporia of Alfreida Schulze and other points dear to the Scurry Countians.

Parade Entries For Merchants Urged by Rodeo

Every Snyder firm and business institution was asked Tuesday by the parade committee of the Scurry County Rodeo Association to have an entry in the two-day street parade that will be staged here June 26 and 27 as a feature of the county's sixth annual rodeo.

"In issuing an appeal to Snyder business houses to have floats, automobiles or horses entered in the street parade, we should like to stress the urgency of obtaining whole hearted cooperation to put our parades over in a big way.

"Business firms can either make or break our street parades, and we should like to ask that every business firm of the town be represented in the June 26-27 street parades."

The parades will form each day of the rodeo at the Fuller Gin, two blocks north of Miller Body Works. Starting time each day is $1:00 p. m., and parade entries should be at the starting point by 12:30 o'clock.

Leading the parades will be J. C. Dorward, president of the rodeo association, and all other association officials.

Feature of this year's parades will be a display of the flags of the 26 Allied Nations. More than 30 beautiful girls, cowgirl sponsors from county communities and this area will take part in the parade, as will cowhand contestants in the rodeo and others.

Those who plan to enter floats or cars in the parades are urged to contact members of the association's parade committee as soon as possible.

L. D. May Gets Three Years for Bicyclist's Death

Verdict of guilty was returned last Wednesday night, 10:00 o'clock, in Colorado City by a district court jury against L. D. May, northeastern Mitchell County who is known to a number of Southern Scurry County folks, after he was charged with failure to stop and render aid in connection with a car-bicycle collision the night of November 11, 1941, in which Cecil Beasley Jr., 13-year-old Colorado City boy, received fatal injuries.

Truett Barber of Colorado City, 32nd District attorney, reports May's punishment was set at three years in the penitentiary. Application was denied for a suspended sentence.

Defendant urged as a defense lack of knowledge that he had any collision or injured any person. The state offered testimony by Glen McLaughlin, chemist with the State Department of Public Safety, that paint found on the boy's bicycle was identical with paint from the defendant's car, and that hair from the deceased's head was identical with hair recovered from the defendant's car.

Temple Dixon of Sweetwater, defense attorney, has given notice of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals, Austin, Barber states.

That he has rendered satisfactory service in the Hermleigh School for four years, serving as grade school principal two years.

That he is a member of the Central Baptist Church, has served as superintendent of the Sunday School for two years and is still active in church and Sunday School work.

State Candidate

Boyce House of Fort Worth, known to many Texas newspaper readers through his "I Give You Texas" column, has announced his candidacy for lieutenant governor of Texas. House declares America must do everything possible to help win the war.

"Family Men" Not Due in Army Soon

Snyder and county people were assured Tuesday by members of the Senate Military Committee, Washington, D. C., that most Scurry County "family men"—those with dependent wives and children—could feel fairly certain of not being drafted for military service any time this year.

Selective Service System officials and officials of the U. S. Army testified that pay allowances for wives, children and other dependents of lower paid men in the armed forces would be vitally necessary before married men could be drafted, in large numbers, into the army. Pay for wives and dependent children was approved by House and Senate committees this week.

Entrance Fees for Rodeo Events Are Listed by Arnold

A. W. Arnold, secretary of the Scurry County Rodeo Association, and J. O. Stimson, arena director, state entrance fees for participants in the county's sixth annual boots and saddle roundup have been set as follows:

Wild cow milking—$4 each day.
Bronc riding—$2.50 each day.
Calf roping—$4 each day.
Steer riding—$2.50 each day.
Cutting horse contest—$2.50 each day.
Old men's breakaway—no entrance fee.

Contestants in the June 26 and 27 rodeo are advised that all entrance fees must be in the hands of the association secretary, Arnold, by 10:00 a. m. each day of the rodeo. Entrance fees may be mailed in by money order or certified check to the secretary.

Methodists Enroll 75 in Courses at Daily Bible School

Mrs. R. J. Randals, superintendent of the Vacation Bible School being conducted at the Methodist Church, states enrollment for the instructional course has reached 75 persons. Attendance is excellent at daily sessions, being held from 3:30 to 5:30 p. m. Rev. I. A. Smith, pastor, says the school is being held for the benefit of children from four years through 15 years of age, and is attracting considerable interest.

The school will be concluded Friday afternoon with a picnic and program that should prove of wide interest to Snyder church goers.

"If we can lay the foundation for well rounded Christian lives in children of our community," say faculty members, "we can be assured that the American way of life and Christian ideals will prevail in tomorrow's post-war world. To this end we are dedicating our most earnest efforts."

Mrs. E. W. Watkins and small daughter, Janice Gayle, of Denver, Colorado, are visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Watkins.

Staff Sergeant Cleo Willowby and Mrs. Willowby of Camp Barkeley, Abilene, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Watkins and other relatives here.

Martha and Zelda Mitchell, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Mitchell of Lubbock, are visiting this week with their grandmother, Mrs. J. K. Mitchell, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mullins and son, Lance, accompanied by Mrs. Desia and Clara McFarland, spent last Wednesday in San Angelo with Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mullins and son, Dorn.

New Car Stamps On Sale at Post Offices in County

Attaches of the Snyder post office report 2,400 of the new $5 federal automobile tax stamps arrived last Wednesday, and are now on sale to all vehicle owners of the county. The car stamps are also on sale at other county post offices.

Differing from the green federal car tax stamps that are good only through June 30, the $5 stamps are pink, and are issued in serial numbers. The new stamps are good for one year, and must be on cars, pickups and other vehicles by June 30.

On the reverse side of the new stamps the owner has space for listing the make, model, engine number and state highway license number of his vehicle, and will find that the same face design as on green stamps is utilized—that of the Liberty Bell with appropriate wording.

"We have sufficient stamps to keep from running out," Postmaster Warren Dodston states, "and will appreciate people buying their stamps before the last two or three days of June. Every car stamp bought now will lighten our load around July 1."

Snyder and Scurry County automobile and vehicle owners are advised it will not be necessary to fill out postal cards, as was done with purchase of the green stamps. Serial numbers of the pink, 12-month stamps will eliminate sending postal cards to the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Dallas, and make purchase of the new stamps simple.

Presbyterian Bible School Opening Is Due Monday Morn

Rev. Hubert O. Travis, pastor of Snyder's First Presbyterian Church, announces the Presbyterian daily vacation Bible school will begin Monday morning, 8:30 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Travis, who will be general superintendent for the two-week school, asks Presbyterian workers to assemble Friday morning, 9:00 o'clock, at the church, at which time final arrangements for the school will be made.

Daily classes will be conducted each morning, 8:30 to 11:00 o'clock, the pastor states. Presbyterian workers extend children of the Snyder community an invitation to attend the school.

Saturday Meeting of HD Council Planned

Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, announced Tuesday that a regular meeting of the Scurry County Home Demonstration Council will be held Saturday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, in the offices of the home demonstration agent.

Mrs. Stanley Merket of China Grove, council chairman, urges all presidents and council delegates to attend Saturday afternoon's gathering, at which time plans for the summer months will be perfected.

W. F. Burney, long-time Scurry County resident, was reported Wednesday to be steadily improving at his home in East Snyder. Mr. Burney was seriously ill last week.

Hobbs USO Drive Off to Good Start As Mails Are Used

Sterling Willingham, chairman of United Service Organization drive in the Hobbs community, announces the Western Fisher County's community quota has been set at $100, and that a campaign is being conducted by mail to raise the necessary amount.

Due to the size of the Hobbs School district and necessity of conserving rubber, Willingham says the community-wide USO drive is being carried on by mail with good results. Roy Stewart is vice chairman of the drive and Cleveland Littlepage secretary.

N. J. Guillet, Hobbs School superintendent and Red Cross administrator for the Hobbs district, states every effort is being made to cooperate with community USO officers and conclude the drive within the next few days.

Scurry Countians in Post Rodeo Events And Sponsor Show

The Post Rodeo & Stampede, which is scheduled to open today (Thursday) in the Garza County seat, will be generously sprinkled with entries and contestants from Scurry County.

In the cowgirl sponsors' contests for the two-day rodeo a Scurry County entry is Julia Mae McDonnell, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McDonnell, who is sponsored by the ZT Ranch. Julia Mae will ride Trixie in the Post rodeo, a beautiful four-year-old mare.

Second entry in the events is Billie Lou Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whit Thompson of Bison, who rides in the cowgirl sponsor contest as Miss Snyder. Billie Lou will also represent Snyder July 2, 3 and 4 at the Texas Cowboy Reunion in Stamford.

Advance delegation of Snyder business men and Chamber of Commerce representatives left early this (Thursday) morning for the Post Stampede and Rodeo, and will join the aggregation of Snyder folks who motor this evening for the rodeo's night performance. The Post rodeo will be concluded Friday night.

Delegation Goes To Post Rodeo On Booster Trip

They're going to "turn 'em out wild and wooly at the Post Stampede & Rodeo" this (Thursday) evening.

In recognition of this fact, and as a means of making a personal appeal to Garza County people to attend the Scurry County Rodeo here June 26 and 27, a delegation of Snyder and Scurry County good willers will leave the Chamber of Commerce this evening, 6:00 o'clock, for the Post roundup.

Henry Rosenberg, who will be in charge of the Post delegation, urges those who wish to go to telephone the Chamber of Commerce by 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Those who have automobiles they can take and accommodate one or more passengers are asked to contact Rosenberg immediately. Snyder people who wish to attend this evening's Post rodeo performance and who do not have ways are asked to let the Chamber of Commerce know so it way can be provided.

"We're going to Post strictly as a good-will gesture," Scurry County Rodeo Association officials state, and we'd like very much for Snyder to send the largest delegation possible to our neighboring town."

Advance delegation of Scurry County rodeo boosters left early this (Thursday) morning for Post, as an advance guard, and will remain throughout the day to advertise the Scurry County June 26-27 festivities.

How to Make Your Appliances Run Smoothly *and Last Longer

Your electric fan, and other motor-driven electric appliances, will run more smoothly and last longer if oiled according to the recommendations of the manufacturer. Now that the manufacture of fans has been restricted and many other motor-operated appliances are out of production due to the war, every needed attention should be given them to make 'em last.

A complete cleaning and oiling by a qualified electrician should make your fan operate more quietly and prolong its life. This attention is particularly important after a fan has been idle all winter.

Demonstration Club Notes

Estella Rabel, County Agent

Due to the fact Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, has received dozen of requests the past few days on ways to make limited sugar supplies fill the food preservation budget of Scurry County's 1,500 rural women, she lists these vitally important substitutes:

Corn syrup: Corn syrup is quite good for canning because it doesn't mask the flavor of the fruit. To make a light syrup, use 1-2 cup corn syrup to 1-2 cup water. Coral syrup is fair in making preserves and jams when it is used with an equal amount of sugar. It is not so good for jelly because it takes longer to jell and is somewhat sticky.

Honey for canning: When honey is diluted sufficiently it is good for canning. About 3-4 cup of water and 1-4 cup of honey make a good syrup for canning most fruits. First, bring the water to the boiling point, add honey and stir. Again let come to good boil, remove scum and pour over fruit.

For preserves and sweet pickles: Honey is much better in preserves and jams than in jelly. If possible, use at least one-third sugar and two-thirds honey for preserves. Honey is especially good in sweet pickles, probably better than plain sugar.

For jelly: Honey makes a good texture of jelly. Substitute it for sugar cup for cup. The color of the jelly is darker, however, and it takes a minute longer to cook. The flavor is in most cases strong with the honey. If it is necessary to use honey in making jelly, it is best to use one-half sugar and one-half honey. Be sure to use a large kettle because honey foams considerably and there is danger of its boiling over.

Consider the cost: When bought, honey is two and one-half or three times as expensive as sugar, and corn syrup is about twice as expensive.

How to make invert sugar: A Florida experiment station scientist recommends making invert sugar, to make it go farther. To do this, mix one cup of sugar and 14 tablespoons of water. Add one-fourth teaspoon of tartaric acid (which you can get at any drug store). Cover this sugar, water and tartaric acid mixture and boil gently for 30 minutes. Allow it to cool. Then you have invert sugar syrup. Each cup is equal in sweetening to a cup of sugar. In other words, it is about 1 3-4 times as sweet as the same weight in plain sugar.

Use of invert sugar: This syrup is excellent to use in canning, and it may be diluted one-half syrup and one-half water. It is also good in sweetening fruits, cereals, ice cream and beverages.

The Plainview Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday at the home of Lillian Huffstutler, with Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, in charge of demonstrations.

How to Make Your Appliances Run Smoothly *and Last Longer

Your electric fan, and other motor-driven electric appliances, will run more smoothly and last longer if oiled according to the recommendations of the manufacturer. Now that the manufacture of fans has been restricted and many other motor-operated appliances are out of production due to the war, every needed attention should be given them to make 'em last.

A complete cleaning and oiling by a qualified electrician should make your fan operate more quietly and prolong its life. This attention is particularly important after a fan has been idle all winter.

Demonstration Club Notes

Estella Rabel, County Agent

Due to the fact Estella Rabel, county home demonstration agent, has received dozen of requests the past few days on ways to make limited sugar supplies fill the food preservation budget of Scurry County's 1,500 rural women, she lists these vitally important substitutes:

Corn syrup: Corn syrup is quite good for canning because it doesn't mask the flavor of the fruit. To make a light syrup, use 1-2 cup corn syrup to 1-2 cup water. Corn syrup is fair in making preserves and jams when it is used with an equal amount of sugar. It is not so good for jelly because it takes longer to jell and is somewhat sticky.

Honey for canning: When honey is diluted sufficiently it is good for canning. About 3-4 cup of water and 1-4 cup of honey make a good syrup for canning most fruits. First, bring the water to the boiling point, add honey and stir. Again let come to good boil, remove scum and pour over fruit.

For preserves and sweet pickles: Honey is much better in preserves and jams than in jelly. If possible, use at least one-third sugar and two-thirds honey for preserves. Honey is especially good in sweet pickles, probably better than plain sugar.

For jelly: Honey makes a good texture of jelly. Substitute it for sugar cup for cup. The color of the jelly is darker, however, and it takes a minute longer to cook. The flavor is in most cases strong with the honey. If it is necessary to use honey in making jelly, it is best to use one-half sugar and one-half honey. Be sure to use a large kettle because honey foams considerably and there is danger of its boiling over.

Consider the cost: When bought, honey is two and one-half or three times as expensive as sugar, and corn syrup is about twice as expensive.

How to make invert sugar: A Florida experiment station scientist recommends making invert sugar to make it go farther. To do this, mix one cup of sugar and 14 tablespoons of water. Add one-fourth teaspoon of tartaric acid (which you can get at any drug store). Cover this sugar, water and tartaric acid mixture and boil gently for 30 minutes. Allow it to cool. Then you have invert sugar syrup. Each cup is equal in sweetening to a cup of sugar. In other words, it is about 1 3-4 times as sweet as the same weight in plain sugar.

Use of invert sugar: This syrup is excellent to use in canning, and it may be diluted one-half syrup and one-half water. It is also good in sweetening fruits, cereals, ice cream and beverages.

Put the Rodeo First

Scurry County people and folks of this trade area are urged to put Scurry County's sixth annual rodeo here June 26 and 27 first on their "must attend" list for many reasons. In the first place, your rodeo will need your presence this time more than ever before, and you owe it to the rodeo association to help them keep the institution of rodeo alive in the county by bringing all your friends to the two-day boots and saddle roundup.

In the second instance, why spend your vacation away from home, with attendant expenditures, when you can spend a grand week-end at the Scurry County rodeo, and find all kinds of entertainment between performances? Third, your attendance at the rodeo will greatly boost war bond sales totals for the county, since part of the prizes will be awarded in the form of war bonds and defense stamps. By all and any means, put our June 26-27 rodeo on your "must see" list ahead of all other festivities.

Rubber vs. Gas Rationing

Through the county's scrap rubber committee and Snyder civic organizations, the call has gone out to all Scurry County people to bring in scrap rubber of every kind—old hot water bottles, blown-out automobile tires, worn-out inner tubes and everything else that has rubber in it for salvage purposes. It's either get all the scrap rubber to collection centers in a hurry, or force probably nation-wide gasoline rationing by August 1. If America can pile up enough scrap rubber for salvage, civilian travel will be relatively safe, but if this is impossible, one may prepare to buy a shroud for the family car, in many instances, for the "duration."

Needed: All Scrap Iron

That the need for scrap iron and steel is becoming increasingly acute is evidenced by the formation of the Scurry County Scrap Iron Committee, perfected by County Judge Sterling Williams at the request of Governor Coke R. Stevenson. The smelters of the United States need 4,500,000 tons of scrap a month if they are to be kept in operation on defense production. We realize the 400 or 500 tons of scrap still on county farms and ranches isn't such a big dent in the total needs, but if every county in Texas will jump into the campaign our smelters can be kept going at full blast. Why not gather up your scrap and sell it now?

Rolling 'Em In

Scurry County's Scrap Rubber Committee, appointed by Governor Stevenson recently, is highly pleased at the way hundreds of old automobile tires, worn out inner tubes and other rubber goods are rolling into service stations as collection centers. If people all over the country cooperate as whole heartedly as Scurry County, nation-wide gasoline rationing may be set back many months. Snyder is within 17 miles of the Sharon Ridge oil field; 28 miles from a refinery and can see no reason—if the scrap rubber comes in right—for gas rationing. If you haven't contributed your part to the scrap rubber drive, why not do so now?

Editorial of the Week

SNAKES ARE STILL SNAKES

Somewhere I read a plea for the preservation of friendly breeds of snakes such as the bull snake, the chicken snake and the king snake. The idea was that these breeds are the enemies of rats, mice and many kinds of bugs. They will also fight and kill off rattle snakes. The writer of this article gave a full set of instructions on how to recognize a friendly breed from the poisonous kinds, but to me a snake is a snake and I do not care to get near enough to one to figure out whether it has a long pointed tail or a stub tail.

Last week one of our neighbors came dashing over to tell my wife that a great big snake had just crawled into our hedge and the entire neighborhood got into a big uproar. Soon after the commotion had quieted down my wife went out to have one last fearful look and sure enough there was a big snake with its head stuck up above the hedge and the hubub started again, ending with a climax when Leonard Harral decapitated the snake with a hoe. From all accounts it must have been a chicken snake, but no one seems to be grieved about killing the big-hearted friendly snake that came to our hedge just to protect us against mice and rats.—A. M. J. in The Slaton Slatonite.

Our defense plants, while turning out the necessary tools and machinery of war, are being placed on the spot by expense account troubles. . . . High ranking army and navy officials want to know the names and addresses of persons entertained, for example, on company money and in 99 cases out of 100 it is proving personally embarrassing. . . . Army and navy officials, weighed down with the demand for more and more production, are putting the pins on all the defense plants they can and intend to ferret out a number of things that will prove sensational. . . . Defense plants pursue the normal ways of private business—or have been—in obtaining orders, materials and supplies and are finding the U. S. Government a strict taskmaster. . . . Fussing over expense accounts, however, is not one-tenth as important as getting materials and guns finished on schedule.

Current Comment

By LEON GUINN

Editor's Note—Expressions or opinions contained in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily reflect the opinions or policies of The Times. Current Comment is merely carried as a feature column.

Government officials, speaking in small, confidential circles, could not refrain last week in Washington from becoming officially optimistic. . . . In one single week a number of the highest hurdles to winning the war and the peace had been successfully cleared. . . . Talks with Soviet Russia made possible the formation of a post-war association of nations and world peace much more than an idle pipe dream. . . . All United Nations except China have now swung around to the "Hitler first" type of strategy, and announcement concerning opening a second front in Europe late this year created considerable brightness in long-range outlooks on the war.

Rough seas are still ahead to plow through, but with time and steady whittling down of the Japanese Navy, the United Nations can begin to see calm water not too far ahead. . . . As President Roosevelt has repeatedly warned the nation, it still is too early to take an Allied victory for granted, but leaders of all nations fighting together for a common cause can now look forward to the all-embracing grand offensive that will definitely stop the war and provide groundwork for drawing up of the peace.

☆

Bigger and better federal projects seem to be in the mill almost constantly, with the latest project turning up in the general plans for the Library of Congress to catalogue, file and index all war-time news releases issued by federal agencies. . . . This project, despite general public disapproval, faces a good chance of getting the administration green light. . . . Now, had it been the case where federal agencies started out to tell the American people the whole, unblemished truth about round-by-round war blows, and take the average man on the farm or on the street into confidence, the American people would be heartedly in favor of such a project. . . . Strategy employed by our government, however, is to keep Axis powers guessing—a policy which prohibits war releases that would prove immortal.

☆

Keen military strategists are rightfully comparing the battle of Kharkov to Verdun in World War I. . . . In the first World War, it will be recalled, the Germans attacked Verdun with the idea of pinning down a large French army, disrupting Allied plans and cutting down Allied manpower. . . . It now appears that the Soviet chief, Timoshenko, launched his attack on Kharkov before the German marshal, Fedor von Bock, was prepared to march toward Rostov. . . . The Russian drive has, of course, lost its initial speed, but is inching gradually forward despite German counter-attacks. . . . The battle of Kharkov and two other key Russian points had not been settled early this week, but the stubborn Russian resistance is using up German supplies and manpower at a tremendous rate.

☆

Much as we may debate the matter pro and con, the matter of a second front in Europe is definitely determined, and the main question now is not how America and Great Britain will open a second front in Europe, but when. . . . "During the latter part of the year" might be stepped up considerably, if Hitler's heathen hordes break through the Russian lines and make extra gains toward the Caucasian oil fields. . . . Hitler has been a past master in striking at opportune times, but he is now being faced, for once, with a situation that may not present such psychological moments for striking when the enemy sleeps.

☆

Taking the nation as a whole, the transportation situation is becoming tighter by the day, but rationing of both freight and passenger service will be held off as long as possible because of the ugly aspects of the job. . . . One may look for the federal government to clamp down in other ways first and put the "screws on the transportation headache" as a last resort. . . . War-time economy, with the resultant shortage in rubber and continual pilgrimage to Washington of hundreds of business executives every day to confer with federal agencies is putting a triple strain on the country's transportation facilities. . . . Idea at present seems to be just how long the various transportation agencies can bear up under the stress without lightening their gigantic load.

☆

Duplicating services, of course, enter the transportation picture to a large extent, and probable elimination of any duplicating bus or other lines will face hard-boiled reality. . . . At the moment much longer trains and heavier loads are in prospect, and cross-haul bans will be imposed a little later to prevent such instances as shipment of California oranges to the East Coast while Florida oranges are in season. . . . Strict regulations are also in prospect for commercial truck lines and those hauling for the general public. . . . With our nation engaged in an all-out war, we're just beginning to realize how inadequate our peace-time plans for keeping our economic structure going really are—in contrast to war demands.

It's a little too early to release full details, but a campaign to obtain the maximum utilization for used typewriters, desks, power shovels, drag lines and hundreds of other vital articles is now in the Washington mill and is expected to break before the summer ends. . . . Such campaigns may become necessary to assure the United States of getting through the war without disrupting civilian commerce and trade, and the public will be let in on such conservation moves as the need becomes acute.

Revival at City Tabernacle Will Close June 28

Two-week city-wide revival meeting that began Sunday morning at the city tabernacle, one block north of the square, is marked by increasing attendance at evening services.

Evangelist Gail W. Schultz of Laverne, Oklahoma, is preaching for the revival and Bob G. Palmer of Webb City, Missouri, is directing song services.

This (Thursday) evening Evangelist Schultz will preach on "Whipping Post Theology." Friday evening the sermon subject will be "Behold the Hour," with Bro. Palmer offering a solo, "I've Had a Vision of Jesus."

Three services are scheduled for Sunday, Rev. Schultz states. Morning worship will be conducted at 11:00 a. m., followed by a basket dinner.

People from neighboring towns will gather Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, for afternoon services, with several ministers taking part. Sunday evening, 8:15 o'clock, Bro. Palmer will have a young people's class and evening services will begin at 9:00 o'clock. The public is invited to attend the revival, which will continue through Sunday, June 28.

Old Gray Mare Comes Into Own As Bread Puller

Who says the "old gray mare ain't what she used to be?"

That's what a number of Snyder folks would like to know, after witnessing Wade's Bakery, south side of the square, inaugurating delivery service to Snyder stores with a white horse and a buggy remade into a panel-sided job.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Wade, operators of the bakery, state delivery of bread and pastries to Snyder stores by the buggy route is proving popular, and deliveries are being made on a set schedule. This type of service was started to conserve rubber and will probably be continued for several months.

Wade recently purchased a good used buggy and decided several days ago to convert the vehibe into a delivery wagon. The job is complete with shelving and a driver's seat, and has appropriate signs on each side of the wagon.

Dean Cochran Has Rodeo Concessions

Officials of the Scurry County Rodeo Association announce that Dean Cochran will be in charge of concessions during the county's June 26 and 27 rodeo, and those who wish concession space should contact Cochran at once.

"We hope to have more concessions this year than ever before," Cochran says, "and from deals already made we believe we'll have an exceptionally good lineup of concession operators for the approval of West Texas rodeo fans."

Baptist Workers at Loraine for Meeting

Unusually heavy attendance marked the June Mitchell-Scurry Baptist workers' conference, held Tuesday at the Loraine Baptist Church.

Wastella Baptist Church emerged Tuesday afternoon as successful bidder for the July workers' conference.

Those who appeared on Tuesday's program included Revs. Arthur Travis, Jimmie Boulton, G. W. Parks, A. B. Polneck and others.

Mrs. Garrett Harrell and daughter, Mary Jo, are in Dallas this week.

Mrs. Oscar Maples, who underwent a minor operation in a local hospital Saturday, was removed to the Maples residence Tuesday and is reported to be resting well and improving steadily.
