LEGION URGES VET HOSPITAL IN PANHANDLE

AMARILLO SHOULD GET OFFICES, PLEA AS MEETING ENDS

Establishment of regional offices and a general hospital of the United States Veterans Bureau at Amarillo is to be sought by the Fifth Division of the Texas department of the American Legion, and recommendations that the office be established and the hospital opened to care for disabled veterans of the world war were unanimously passed by representatives of the division in the closing session of the convention here Sunday afternoon.

Such a bureau, the resolution explained, is greatly needed, and will facilitate care of disabled men in this part of the state, the closest bureau now being at Dallas or Oklahoma City, involving needless expenditures in transportation of veterans for treatment.

Amarillo Post Praised

Hanson Post at Amarillo, it was said, has handled approximately 6,000 hospitalization cases during the past year, the most of which expense has fallen on members of the Post, and in view of this situation the Legion in this part of the state feels that it is entitled to assistance from the bureau, the resolution said. An amendment provided that state Legion officials be advised as soon as possible of the desires of the Legion. The Bureau would serve all of this part of the state and eastern New Mexico.

A resolution also was passed providing that a district convention be held in Borger some time this fall for the convenience of veterans and legionnaires in the Panhandle who were unable to attend the district convention here. The date was not set for this convention, and the location of the next district convention was not decided.

More Than 500 Here

More than 500 veterans and Legion auxiliary members registered for the convention here, and many others are known to have been here but did not register. It is believed the Legion officials here that approximately 650 were here. The

DePinedo Departs On Homeward Trip

(By Tyhe Associated Press)
TREPASSY, N. P., May 23.—With the cheers of a motley and shivering little group of townspeople and newspapermen still ringing in his ears, Commander Francesco de Pinedo, Italian four continent flyer, bade farewell to the western hemisphere at dawn this morning and hopped off for the Azores and home.

A light west wind was blowing as the great white Santa Maria II rose slowly from the water of the harbor, circling the bay until an altitude estimated at about 2,000 feet had been reached.

Then with a road, de Pinedo turned his plane's nose to the southeast and spun swiftly through the morning mists and out of sight over the Atlantic ocean.

FLOOD WATERS SWEEP ONWARD

1,000 Head Of Stock Falls Before Torrent As More Acreage Is Inundated

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, May 23.—Flood waters which swept the lowlands between Lafayette and Breauz bridge last night resulted in no known fatalities, but approximately one thousand head of cattle were drowned.

The flood was caused by five to eight inches of rain which, augmented by the torrent already pouring into the streams, sent the waters of the Vermillion river and Bayou Teche out of their banks. The Lafayette-Breauz bridge highway, 120 miles northwest of New Orleans, was covered with five to ten feet of water by torrential rains.

Highways Under Water
Water on the highway between Hammond and Baton Rouge was reported three feet deep in some sections today on account of the heavy rain in that territory, which is 100 miles from New Orleans.

Between 100 and 200 persons in the bottom lands along the Vermillion were believed trapped by the sudden rise of the stream and boats were dispatched to their rescue. The rise of the streams came with startling suddenness. Hundreds of persons, who had delayed abandonment of their homes awaiting a nearer approach of the flood waters rolling down the Atchafalaya basin still were in the district.

Water along the east bank levee of the upper Atchafalaya still was successful and the citizens were hopeful of saving the rich parishes of the "Sugar Bowl" from the flood. A raging current was tearing fiercely at the sodden walls of mud protecting Pointe Coupee and the other four parishes between the Atchafalaya and the Mississippi rivers, however, and a desperate fight was being maintained. This point was about 120 miles northwest of New Orleans and on the west bank of the Mississippi.

Seven arrests Saturday and Sunday night, two for drunkenness and five on vagrancy charges, helped to swell the coffers of the city government from fines imposed. Number of minor offenses are increasing, according to police officers who report considerable more activity during the past month than in the two months preceding it.

RAIL RATE ON LIVESTOCK TO BE SEARCHED

I. C. C. ORDERS A FULL INVESTIGATION OF SHIPPING COSTS

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 23.—A general investigation into railroad rates on livestock throughout the western half of the United States was ordered today by the interstate commerce commission.

Examiners will take evidence at Salt Lake City June 26, Portland, Oregon, June 27, and Los Angeles July 15. On later dates the investigation will be transferred to southwestern and Mississippi valley territories.

Hearings are set. By a supplemental order the commission arranged for an investigation into livestock rates in the southeast, with hearings at Montgomery, Ala., July 27, and Louisville, Ky., August 1.

As to the western rates the commission declared that it was desirable "to deal comprehensively with the whole system of harmonious adjustment." Shippers and railroads were advised to consider the possibility of grouping rates within the west on the basis of placing all points in the Mississippi valley on an identical distance scale, with another group including Rocky mountain territory, and a third group including the Pacific coast states. Railroads were notified to be prepared with statistical studies of shipping costs.

Scattered Showers Reported On Plains

Scattered showers over the plains have brought relief to local areas since last Friday, according to the bus men's headquarters here. A good rain fell near Big Spring last Friday night, while another strip about 25 miles wide, running southeast from Justiceburg, was favored with a downpour, which temporarily relieved the drought conditions.

Rain fell near Snyder, and running from Sweetwater south Saturday night, while a heavy shower at Canyon, Tulla and points north-east occurred Saturday night. There is a good subsoil moisture now, and a general rain over the plains would afford farmers ample time to raise their crops according to County Agent D. F. Egan. While the cotton season is getting rather late for planting, there is ample time for feed and other row crops yet. With low barometer readings prevailing to the west, conditions are favorable for possible rain within the next week or so, it was reported.

Peaches Asks Court For Attorneys Fees

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 23 (AP)—Notice of a motion for a court order allowing additional counsel fees and expenses was filed today for Mrs. Frances Heenan (Peaches) Browning, indicating that her suit for separation and alimony is to be appealed to the appellate division of the supreme court.

Argument of the motion will be heard tomorrow before Justice Seeger, who presided at the cross suits between the young wife and her wealthy middle aged husband, Edward W. Browning. Justice Seeger on March 21 last granted Browning's plea for legal separation, thus automatically denying Mrs. Browning's similar plea for ending the alimony of $300 a week she had been receiving.

New York Reporters Frighten Lindbergh

PARIS, May 23 (AP)—Captain Lindbergh has no fear of risking his life in making a real story, but he looks forward with intrepidation to facing the news reporters and cameramen in New York on his return.

For this reason, according to several persons who have been able to get him to unobscure himself, he plans to remain in Europe until about the middle of June, to get a much needed brief vacation after spending the semi-obligatory fetes in his honor.

ALL PARIS PAYS HOMAGE TO LINDBERGH, ACE OF BIRDMEN

He Visits Tailor

(By The Associated Press)
PARIS, May 23.—Lindbergh came, was seen and has conquered the hearts of all Frenchmen. From stately home to humble cottage, the feat of this daring aviator in flying alone from New York to Paris, was still the sole topic of conversation today, while at county fairs and in city cafe his name was heard repeatedly.

When today President Doumergue dined on Lindbergh's breakfast table, the president was in a real sense acting in the name of the whole nation. It is felt everywhere that this fine young American has done more in a few hours to promote goodwill and sympathy between the two peoples than volumes of speeches and reams of literature.

Newspapers Full Of It
The story of Lindbergh, his life, ambitions, flight experiences and particularly the details of his crowning achievement, fills the newspapers to the exclusion of all else, for the simple reason that nobody wants to read about anything else.

The American embassy, the aviator's temporary quarters, is crowded with floral offerings and is being bombarded with invitations of a diversified nature. It seems to be the ambition of every aspiring hostess to have him at her table, of the organizers of sports meetings to have him preside, of scientific societies to have him lecture, of cat-devil devotees to have him give performances. Lindbergh says he would like to please everybody, but he is obliged to admit it is impossible to accede to even one-tenth of the requests. He will be guided in acceptances by Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador, who is acting as his social adviser.

Bud Russell, Prison Collector, Is Here

BLACK ESCAPES AFTER DASTARDLY CRIME IN HOUSTON

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, Texas, May 23.—Police today were seeking the masked negro who killed Oswald E. Foster, 23, when he resisted efforts of the negro to attack Foster's companion, Miss Vera Phillips, 18, late Sunday. The killing took place near Washington Terrace and Alameda road.

Miss Phillips said she had been riding with Foster all afternoon and evening in his small roadster. They drove down a blind street, and had turned around and started back when the negro jumped on the side of the car.

Takes Money First
Holding a pistol pointed at them the negro asked the couple how much money they had. Foster told him he had about $3. The negro told him to keep his hands up. Foster obeyed and the negro took the money from his pocket.

The girl's purse was lying on the back of the seat and the negro examined it but took nothing from it, Miss Phillips said.

He threw the purse back on the seat and started to pull me from the car," said the girl. "I asked him not to do it and Oswald told him not to. The negro said 'He'll keep his mouth shut or he would kill him.'"

LINDBERGH TO MAKE MILLION

Daring Birdman To Realize Big Profit On His Own $2,000 Investment

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 23.—A million dollar pot of gold at the end of his 3,600 mile rainbow today awaited Captain Charles A. Lindbergh.

While world wide acclaim continued to mark the achievement of the youthful New York-Paris aviator, there came offers which would enable him to get back his $2,000 investment in his flight many times over.

Within twenty four hours after ending his epochal flight, the 25 year old flier received definite offers of $735,000 in movie and commercial contracts.

Huge Sum Offered
A fortune of more than $1,000,000 would be within his grasp should he be able and willing to fulfill an elaborate array of motion picture, vaudeville, advertising testimonial, writing and other contracts.

But what the young captain will do is not known. Of the $25,000 which the flight cost, Lindbergh contributed his own savings of $2,000. St. Louis business men made up the balance.

He is free to do what he chooses about the flattering proposals. Harry H. Knight, and other sponsors of the flight said in St. Louis. "The victor belongs the spoils," his backers said announcing that Lindbergh may keep the $25,000 Orteig prize, all other money which may accrue to the venture.

Missouri Mob Slays Black After Attack

BRAGGADOCCIO, Mo., May 23 (AP)—Will Sherrod, 36, a negro, was lynched here last night after an alleged criminal assault on Mrs. Ella Henderson, 31, a widow with two children. Sherrod was strung up by the hands to a temporary scaffold in the town square and his body pierced with about twelve bullets.

After the attack Saturday night, Mrs. Henderson called Constable Orby Dye and described her assailant. From this description the constable arrested Sherrod, whom he said he found asleep in bed with a loaded revolver at his side. The negro attempted to flee and the constable dropped him to the ground by firing two shots which pierced Sherrod's right arm, and right shoulder.

BIG LEAGUERS FINISH FULL SWINGS THROUGH BOTH CIRCUITS

NEW YORK AND PIRATES LEAD THEIR RIVALS

GIANTS SLIDE TO 3RD PLACE AS ALDRIDGE WINS AGAIN

(By Associated Press)

Roundup of a complete swing through the big league baseball circuits today with a fair idea of how the season will be produced by the other team in their league.

Findings mean even more than today's every club had not a single other club and the pennant contenders had shaken down into something like the order in which they may finish in the fall—unless of those periodical baseball quakes occur.

Yanks Pace American

The New York Yankees still lead the American league after a triumphant tour of the west which saw them to a close yesterday with a 2 to 1 victory over Cleveland for their tenth win in 13 starts.

Pittsburgh ascended the heights of the National circuit after a brief visit by the Chicago Cubs. To do this the Pirates scattered the Giants, while leaders of the league, for the fourth time in a row, 9 to 4, as the Cubs were being taken camp by the Reds at Cincinnati 8 to 4.

Steve Ruth of the league leading Yanks celebrated his last game in the west for sometime by knocking his tenth home run of the season and taking the lead over his nearest competitor, Lou Gehrig, the Yank teammate, and Cy Williams, Philly veteran. Urban Shocker, of the Yanks had a shut out in his grip until the eighth when the Indians scored their two runs.

Not only did the Pirate victory send them to the top of the ladder, but it marked the first time this year that a club has made a clean sweep of a Giant series. For the second time in the series Vic Aldridge pitched the victory, aided by strong hitting and fielding. New York thereby dropped to third place behind the Cubs.

The powerful Chicago club was outdistanced by the Reds in the game that broke their winning streak in six games. Cincinnati totalled 15 hits and knocked Charley Root out of the box.

Been harder slugging was turned in by the Brooklyn Robins. As they won three Philadelphia pitchers for 22 hits and a 20 to 4 victory. Although fans were wishing a few more runs might be canned and preserved for future use.

Auto Racers Gird Up Loins To Be Ready For Annual 500 Mile Race

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23 (AP)—Gold and glory, speed and thrills, crashes and near spills and with them the ever present expectation that those who flirt with death may have to pay the penalty—that is the annual 500 mile automobile race which will have its fifteenth renewal at the Indianapolis motor speed way on May 30.

The country's greatest drivers will compete, as in years past, for $100,000 prize money and for points given to place winners in the contest for the 1927 driving championship of the American Automobile association.

Among the masters of the wheel will be Frank Lockhart, who rose from obscurity to win a year ago; Peter DePaolo, who holds the hour record of 101.13 miles an hour for the Memorial day sprint; Leon Duray, Dave Lewis and Harry Hart.

The 9 1/2 cubic inch motors which appeared a year ago will be back, and, except for possibly a few more cars with driving power in front instead of in the rear, there will be no innovations. Always the possibility exists that some "built in the barn" car created by a dreamy youth of mechanical bent may make its brief bid for the attention of a speed mad public.

Builders have concentrated on improvement of the baby motors, on additional supercharger efficiency to enable more speed in coming out of the turns, and on bettering the front drive principle. The great speed made in early season races has led some motor experts to forecast a speed 20 miles an hour faster than that of a year ago, when rain stopped the race at 400 miles, and to predict that the DePaolo record, set in 1925, may fall.

The Indianapolis speedway, first in the country, is of brick, two miles and a half around. Only an Memorial day is it used for racing.

As a speed laboratory the oval is called the most tryptic in the world. Few improvements have been made through the years and where bricks have settled the course remains rough, demanding not only skill but great strength to keep a car upright throughout the long grind. Drivers attribute many accidents late in the contests to tired arms and distressed eyes.

HERE I am half way on my favorite club—the long iron.

Note how my body is curved, how my left foot is about three inches back of my right, how my left heel is raised several inches and the left knee is turning in toward the ball.

I think you will find yourself getting much more distance if you keep your left arm not too rigid and your right elbow tucked in comfortably. The right knee is straight.

MATADORS WIN TWO IN A ROW AND END YEAR

NEW MEXICO MILITARY INSTITUTE VICTIM OF TECH LADS

(Special To The Daily Journal)

ROSWELL, New Mexico, May 23.—Texas Tech Matadors made it two in a row off of the Cadets of N. M. M. I. in the two game card here with the Military club. The first game was won by the Matadors with a score 6 to 2 and the last game was won by the Freeland machine on Saturday by a count of 22 to 8.

The game was marked by the heavy hitting of the Tech nine and particularly of Ted Sams, initial sacker for the victors, who clouted out a singled, triple and a home run in the last game. The Freeland aggregation scored eight runs in the last inning. Defensive work of "Topper" Higney, for the Matadors was excellent.

The Matadors visited through the Carlsbad caverns Sunday and returned to Lubbock last Sunday afternoon.

GOLF'S BIGGEST MEET TO HAVE $500 TOP PRIZE

NEW YORK, May 23.—Another myth gone wrong, the one about big money in golf.

The prize money offered in the national open, considered the most important and richest championship in the world, amounts to $2,125.

Winner of the event will receive $500. There are 18 other prizes, the last 13 calling for $50 each.

Truly that hardy path the expenses of getting there, but it must be remembered that a pro can cash in to the extent of $50,000 in the form of better club retainers, advertising and by-products. If he exploits his title well, he'll make the big money which is certainly not there in prizes.

ENGLISH LAY FOR SWEETSER

Hoylelake Is Scene Of Great Activity As British Stars Assemble

By FRANK H. KING
(Associated Press Correspondent)

HOYLELAKE, Eng., May 23.—The golfing clans of Britain are gathering on the plains of Hoylelake, bent on bringing to the old country the cherished amateur golfing crown which Jesse Sweetser—pik youth though he was—heroically carried off to America last summer.

No native-born American ever before had turned the trick. The British want their title home from exile. Anxiety increases lest the amateur championship, like the "casual" "open" now held by Bobby Jones, should get the habit of crossing the Atlantic year after year.

With Sweetser not here to defend his title, and few other Americans in the field, which begins on May 23, the manies of native Britons, Wethered, Tolley, Hazlet, Olderness and Robert Harris are offered as likely winners. All but Hazlet have been amateur champions since the World War.

The small American contingent in the event is slated to include Walter L. Richard and Silas M. Newton of New York, W. C. Hunt of Houston, Texas, and H. C. Fowner of Pittsburgh, son of W. C. Fowner, president of the United States Golf Association. None of these players, however, ever has attained top flight ranking in the United States.

Hazlet, a huge Irishman with little style but great fierceness in his game, is one of the best match players in this country. The championship is match play throughout.

Roger Wethered and Cyril Tolley have recovered their old golfing form. In Tolley's case this is no mean accomplishment, considering his drubbing from Bobby Jones, 12 up and 11 to play, in the 1926 Walker Cup contest.

The Hoylelake course, skirting the Irish Sea near Liverpool, with yardage of 6,750, par 72, acres upon

Garden Contests Interest County Clubwomen, Said

With a garden in practically every rural home, club women of the county are showing unusual interest in the garden contest, which is now being taken up as the major county activity, according to Miss Hazel Hammer, home demonstration agent.

While continual dust storms have proven discouraging, the women of the county have stuck with their task, and all the clubs are represented.

The contest falls into two classes, one for gardens where commercial fertilizers have been used, and one for gardens where such is not used. Many of the women plan to irrigate their plants as soon as they are up good. Miss Hammer said.

A large part of the expense of groceries can be taken care of by raising a good garden, and these projects will be used in connection with food canning and preservation programs in the year.

Two Glimpses

This country is in a pretty prosperous condition nowadays, and things like hunger and want don't come very close to most of us. But it is just as well that we who are so fortunate do not forget that hunger and want do still exist.

Here are two little glimpses into the lower strata of our prosperous nation, culled from the day's gist of news.

The first tells about Mrs. Frances Stengler of New York.

Mrs. Stengler had a husband and a baby. The husband was out of work; Mrs. Stengler had a job as a janitress for which she was paid $10 a month. On this the three of them had to live.

It was too much. Mrs. Stengler seeing only starvation ahead, abandoned her baby in a doorway, hoping that whoever found it would not let it die of hunger.

When she got home she found that her husband, by getting odd jobs, had accumulated $2. This was a godsend. The two went back to get the baby. It was gone.

Well, the mother and the pretty well.
Mrs. Stengler went to the police, they found her baby for her and she and her husband are trying it again. And that's our story.

The other story tells about Abraham Bass.

He is 90 years old, and looking for a job. For 24 years he worked for one company, but finally he got laid off—too old. Now he's tramping the streets looking for work.
"Something'll turn up," he says hopefully.

There you are. Two little glimpses of the shadowy side of our prosperous country.

What is to be done? That's a hard question. Probably it will be impossible for us ever to devise any system that will entirely prevent such tragedies. There will always be misfits; there will always be people who grow old without having been able to save.

But it is good for us to think about those stories occasionally. If it does nothing else, it keeps us from growing too complacent.

Rewarded

WE are glad that the Pulitzer prize for 1924 has been awarded to the Daily News of Canton, Ohio. It is a fitting tribute to the service rendered by Don Mellett.

You are doubtless familiar with Mellett's career; how he fought tenaciously against graft and corruption in his city's government and political life, and how he paid with his life for that fight. It was a noble record; a record of which the country may be proud.

The Pulitzer prize was well earned. The Canton Daily News has deserved it. It has continued the good fight since Mellett's death, and Canton, incidentally, is a better place to live in now than it was a year ago.

Then he was reprimanded, Because the stroke he seemed to use
Was very underhanded.

A Thought

Thou art weighed in the ballance, and art found wanting.—Daniel v.27.

OUR necessities never equal our wants.—Franklin.

Fleeting Fame

UNLESS fame has a very sound basis in genuine service to humanity, it is apt to be pretty short-lived.

A number of the personal effects of the late Rudolph Valentino were offered for sale in London recently, and it was mentioned that they could be viewed by the general public for 5-period of two weeks.

Not one girl or woman visited the place to have a look or to buy.
The auction was sparsely attended, and most of the buyers were middle-aged men seeking curio.

A Useless War

England is about to declare war on American movies. A law is now pending that would require each movie house owner to present each week a certain percentage of British made films.

This law has aroused much comment. Perhaps the best is that of a great London newspaper.

"You can force the cinema owner to present poor British films, but you can't force the people to pay good money to see them."

We are awaiting the day when somebody will go to Paris and return without a divorce.

THE PLAINSMAN

Says:

In these days of hectic criticism of the younger generation the Plainman steps forth to say a word for the two graduating classes in Lubbock this spring, 174 for Lubbock high school and 18 for Texas Tech, the first granting of degrees in the history of the new state school. Lubbock and all Texas should be proud of these young people. Their success in reaching these goals is more than worthy of mention. It is worthy of commendation. By their work these young people stand out as bulwarks in the storm, proving to the world that the younger generation is not as some worldly-wise cynics would have you believe. They are proving that not all young people spend their time in booze-soaked quests of jazz music and licentiousness and that the boys and the girls of today are looking forward to a better life than the level-headed preparation which surpasses that of their forebears. To the average adult, graduation might seem as a matter of course. To those who have attained the heights it is recognized as an achievement which is reached only through earnest endeavor.

It seems to the Plainman that these days of hustle and bustle, worry and unrest and the unceasing scramble for financial independence that good dispositions are growing fewer and fewer. A good disposition is something not only to be cultivated but to be honored. A person who has such a gift from the gods is certainly fortunate and those of us who do not seem to be so blessed should try to figure out how to get one even if it is by artificial methods.

New phonograph records, made of brass, will last 1000 years, they say.
We've heard some of the variety now being used that surely were older than that.

The synthetic age has progressed far—but hasn't gone to a man's head yet.

WASHINGTON LETTER

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the last of a series of three articles telling how the American Red Cross functions in time of public need.

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, May 23.—In complete charge of relief in the Mississippi valley is Henry M.
Baker, national director of disaster relief for the American Red Cross.

At relief headquarters in Memphis, Baker is directing movement of flood refugees to safe territory, housing them in tent cities and seeing that they receive food, clothing and medical care.

This is by far the biggest job Baker or the Red Cross ever tackled, but Baker has had more experience at this sort of thing than any other American. Since he joined the Red Cross force he has personally directed relief operations to more than 140 stricken communities, and administered total relief funds of $10,000,000. He has held his present job since 1922. He was educated in Australia, worked his way through a university and did post-graduate work in social economy at the University of Missouri and the St. Louis School of Social Economy, entering Red Cross work in the old southwestern division in 1919. He is 44 years old.

The annual Mississippi floods are the big river problem of the United States. Baker remarked in private conversation shortly before this year's floods began:

"With knowledge of this fact and through co-operation with the government and the weather bureau, we are able to save any number of lives by warning people in sections about to be flooded.

How Warnings Go Out

"Weather bureaus all along the river telephone to the St. Louis bureau as the river rises each day.
The St. Louis bureau is then able to draw its deductions.

"We know that a normal rise of three feet in 24 hours at Cairo, Ill., will mean so many acres flooded along the lower Mississippi.

"The Red Cross then warns the danger zones so that people can get out of the bottom lands. We are able to give 48 hours notice on possible floods. This system of cooperation has been working for five years.

Soon after Baker spoke, the Red Cross was doing this very same thing and preparing to cope with its major peacetime job.

Baker held of levees 60 feet high at New Orleans, built in five days.
Thousands of persons, he said, lived between the levees, where the land is very fertile because of river silt.

"Red Cross officials watch the news papers for storm news," he explained. "Suppose they get word that a hurricane is coming up from the Caribbean sea to hit the Texas coast tomorrow afternoon. Immediately it wires its chapters to mobilize canteens, doctors, nurses and various facilities.

"In 1921 word of a possible hurricane was flashed to the Texas coast. The word 'mobilize' was sent to Red Cross headquarters in each town and to the commander of the eighth army corps area at San Antonio. Supplies, including rolling kitchens and first aid materials, were prepared for removal to storm areas within a 100-mile radius.

"The hurricane failed to arrive.
But a flood struck San Antonio next day and the preparations for hurricane aid were used for flood relief. The flood was due to an unpredicted cloudburst 50 to 100 miles away which caused a wall

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Upholding the criminal syndicalism law of California, under which Charlotte Anita Whitney was sentenced for virulent denunciation of the government of the United States, the supreme court Monday pointed out that the laws guaranteeing freedom of speech do not confy the right to speak without responsibility. It is proper, the court asserted, to control utterances inimical to the public welfare.

That is a wise ruling. It is wholly in keeping with the ideals of democracy. There is very little danger that any individual can sway the masses of this country into revolt against our institutions or ideals, but this does not mean that we should encourage somebody to try it. With such a policy the people soon would lose confidence in the government.

Too many people are inclined to peep off at all times. They are more inclined to do so during periods of excitement over any national issue.
It is important at such crises for every leader to measure his words, and while each and every individual has a right to his own opinions he never has the right to champion any cause inimical to the public welfare.

Liberty is a fine thing, but like other good things you can get too much of it. Too much liberty inevitably leads to chaos. The other fellow's rights must be respected.— Temple Telegram.

LIFE'S UNCERTAINTY

One of the most pitiable tragedies of the week occurred in Wichita Tuesday when a 13-year-old boy was accidentally killed while repairing a swing for his sister.
Standing on a wagon to fix the ropes, the boy lost his balance, fell into a noise, and was strangled to death.

Tragedy often stalks hand in hand with merriment. It mars many a picnic and is regarded as almost an inevitable companion of joy riding. With spring and summer of hand, when outdoor life is coming into its own, it might be profitable for all of us to exercise due caution to prevent accidents. Too many lives are sacrificed annually on the altar of carelessness.—Temple Telegram.

Weather Bureau Help

"The weather man can warn of hurricanes, tidal waves, floods and pestilences. There is no means yet to predict earthquakes, but we can chart earthquake zones and discover the first rumblings which indicate approaching disturbances.
Tornadoes are also unpredictable, but our long can telephone another. If Red Cross Chapter A spots an approaching column which swerves off going in the direction of the next town, it can notify Chapter B in the path of the tornado. Chapter B likewise notifies Chapter C, and the word goes on down the line so people can take to their cellars.

"If we had been prepared as we are now, the toll of lives and property loss taken by the Johnstown flood and the Galveston hurricane could have been cut at least 50 per cent. The sea wall built in Johnstown after the flood has withstood every onslaught since then. The same is true of the Pub-lico flood of 1921, which cost 100 lives, $20,000,000 in property dan-age, $500,000 in relief funds and homes of hundreds of families. Today it is physically impossible for Pueblo to have a flood, and property values there have jumped immensely.

"I look for the day when we will have a complete international system of co-operation that will help reduce the disaster hazard in all countries where the Red Cross operates."

BUOZE MAKING TO OPEN SOON

U. S. Will Supervise Liquor
Manufacturing In Time
To Use Corn Crop

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Manufacture of whiskey for medicinal purposes will be begun under Army supervision in time to utilize the fall corn crop, Assistant Secretary Andrews announced today.
The treasury, he said, would authorize such manufacture by possibly five corporations.

It was the original intention to authorize two companies to engage in making the spirits, but when the question of violation of the antitrust laws was brought up, it was decided to allow enough corporations to enter the industry to provide competition.

To Make Two Kinds

Bourbon and rye whiskey will be manufactured with an estimated annual output of 3,000,000 gallons and should there develop eventually a legitimate demand for medicinal gin, brandy or other spirits, authorization for their manufacture would be considered.

General Andrews said the officers of the corporations would be carefully checked in order to insure stable and responsible companies, manufacturing only pure medical whiskey at a reasonable price.
The manufacture of whiskey, white or other government supervision, will be financed and operated entirely by private citizens.

IN NEW YORK SEE-SAWING and LOW BROADWAY

NEW YORK, May 23.—Manhattan snap-shots: The tiny Turk who vends seed candy on Seventh avenue in the middle Thirties....
You'll know him at once because he goes along balancing his tray of goods on his bare head, after the fashion of the market folk in his home land.... He always draws the eye of the newcomer, who marvels at the dexterity with which he threads his way through the crowds without so much as losing a single square of candy.... And since he is but five feet from the ground up, or thereabouts, he seems like a mechanical table and most folk can make their purchases without troubling him to remove the tray.... I have seen a troop of a dozen kids follow him across the street, watching him dodge machines and cut in front of street cars, hoping someday that they will make a mistake and that they may profit mightily when the sandy spills upon its pavement.... But it never does.

The bird market.... Hundreds of canaries tuned to all keys pierce the ears with the symphony of shrill notes.... Parrots squawking and parakeets screeching.... Manhattan-ites, longing for some content with the out-of-doors, go in for birds....
There are some million caged birds in the apartments of New York. I am told.

The cats made homeless as wreckers go through Greenwich Village tearing down scores of old buildings to make way for the subway branch.... In one ruins I counted four cats.... Workmen would drive them out, but in a few moments they would "come slinking back.... They perched forlornly about, refusing to leave until the last bit of flooring had disappeared.
Then they joined that great army of homeless cats that salvage the city's gutters.

At the dinner given recently for Ed Howe, the Kansas editor, a col-umist who had "known Ed out there" began to make quips regarding how a prairie editor should behave among the "city slickers." When Howe appeared immaculately groomed in evening coat, choker and all the rest, some of the quips were passed directly to him.

"Oh, yes," remarked the newspaper ang, "Now take this dress I've had it 40 years, and during that time it has come back in style at least five times."

There was also an exchange between Irvin Cobb and Rupert Hughes. Hughes, it will be recalled, wrote the disillusioning biography of George Washington. Hughes came to the dinner with a cold. His voice was very husky.

"I regret to inform you," said Cobb in introducing Hughes, "that the speaker is very hoarse. He used up his voice hissing on February 22. This is the Boswell, you know, who tried to prove that if George Washington wasn't the father of his country at least he tried to be." GILBERT SWAN.

Firestone GUM-DIPPED TIRES

Firestone Round Tread Balloon

MANY Firestone Dealers are prepared to take in your old tires, offering you a liberal allowance on a new set of Gum-Dipped Balloons.

Firestone Dealers are given the advantages of attending Tire Educational Meetings held throughout the country, where tire design and construction are discussed. The sections of used tires reproduced here are a part of this program. Study these two sections and you, too, will understand what Firestone means by tires built for service and tires made to sell.

The Firestone
Gum-Dipped Balloon with its scientifically designed tread permits free flexing, extra riding, extra comfort and safety.

The balloon tire with heavy, flat tread design is obviously stiffer and rides harder. The excess rubber, placed for appearance at the edges of the tread, is not only wasted but produces binding action causing ply separation and "shoulder breaks."

Firestone designed and manufactures Oldfield Tires and Tubes, distributing them direct to Firestone Dealers only, through 148 Factory Warehouses. This efficient and economical distribution assures fire buyers everywhere, clean, fresh stocks of Firestone and Oldfield Tires in all types and sizes, and has helped to make possible today's remarkably low prices—the lowest in tire history. See the Firestone Dealer today.

STEPHEN CHURCHILL'S manner, once fatherly and deferential, was now almost condescendingly kind. "Why do you tell the jury you left Dr. Mullins, Cherry?"

"Because I felt that I had had enough experience to command more money. I was then getting eighteen dollars a week. I got a position with the Prudence Insurance Company, at twenty dollars a week, and I left there until about the first of last May."

"Why did you leave the Prudence Company, Cherry?"

Color flamed up in Cherry's pale face. "I—because my employer was too fond of me, and I—I didn't like him."

"Did you encourage his attentions, lead him on?" Churchill asked gently.

"I certainly did not!"

"Go on, Cherry," Churchill encouraged her.

"Then I went to work for Mr. Adolph Behn, and worked for him until July."

"And why did you leave Mr. Behn's employ, Cherry?"

"He—he asked me to marry him and I—I could not do so, because I was in love with somebody else," Cherry uttered, her cheeks like popples.

"And that other man was?" Churchill prompted gently.

"Mr. Christopher Wiley," Cherry answered in a voice so low that the jury strained forward to hear her.

"The man you are now married to?" Churchill cleared his throat apologetically.

"Yes, sir."

"I wish you would tell the jury, Cherry, whether you are still in love with Mr. Wiley, your husband?"

"The matter started at Churchill's amazing tactics, gasped audibly and cupped their ears to catch her low answer.

"No, sir, I am not!" The color died out of her face suddenly leaving it as white as paper.

"Can you tell just when your feelings toward your husband changed?"

"I worked first for Dr. Charles H. Mullins, who paid me fifteen dollars a week. I was his receptionist and secretary, though he did not have much correspondence. I left his employ January a year ago."

I Thought of Suicide

Spur, Texas, May, 1927.

Dr. Leach,
Care Davis Drug Company,
Sweetwater, Texas.

Dear Doctor:—

Since October, 1923, I have suffered the agonies of death from a complication of stomach troubles. I spent two years and all the money we possessed trying to find relief at Mineral Wells, Marlin and several doctor's clinics, without success.

During that period I lost exactly 39 pounds, dropping from 131 to a mere 92 pounds, and looked precisely like I felt—decidedly rotten and very miserable. I developed a cloudy, muddy complexion and this, coupled with the fact that we were forced to take our children out of school on account of expense, caused me to entertain the sickening thought of—

Then a local druggist—bless his very soul—told me of your wonderful Laxatone. I took two bottles and, Doctor, my complexion cleared, my stomach began to behave, my appetite returned and for the first time in over three years I can retain my food. I just know I am going to get entirely well, thanks to your great medical discovery. God bless you, too.

MRS. ROXANA GOOCH.

MEMORIAL DAY
IT IS a mark of respect that is assuredly due one who has left this world. It is a duty that unless performed by the living, cannot ease their conscience, for in these modern times to leave a grave unmarked shows a neglect of a sacred duty.

Memorial Day is the time designated for the decoration of graves, and on that day, how well you have performed your duty to the dead, is exhibited to the world at large.

Do not let this Memorial Day pass without marking the grave of your loved one. For those who have not yet placed their order, we have a number of beautiful monuments finished and carved and complete with the exception of the inscription, and can make prompt Memorial Day delivery of a limited number.

SCHOOL WORK GIVEN PRAISE

Nearly 100 Students To Be Graduated From County Schools This Year

A milestone in achievement is being passed by near a hundred students who are graduating from high schools of the county, and who have received, or will receive their diplomas during the next few weeks.

Most of these students will either transfer to Lubbock and take the senior year's work in the local high school, or will attend normal college, according to W. M. Pevehouse, county superintendent. While a large number of rural students drop out before completing their high school grades, fully two-thirds of those who graduate, continue their education, he said.

Graduation exercises were held at Acuff last Thursday evening, with Dr. G. C. Granbery of Tech college, delivering the address, and one of the best classes of graduates receiving diplomas that has attended in several years.

Graduation exercises were held at Liberty Friday evening, with B. Sherrod giving the address of the evening.

Friday McCreary held a picnic celebration in honor of their graduates, and had basket dinner at the high school, along with 12 gallons of ice cream, and followed with an appropriate program.

Graduation exercises will be held at Hardy Friday, and at Woodrow, and Pecos Monday, June 6.

Chapman will complete its school term three weeks from today, and Carlisle and Shallowater will hold class exercises on June 10.

'Aid To Tourist' Campaign To Be Waged By Service Stations Here

AUTO CLUB WILL HELP IN PLAN TO BOOST CITY'S NAME

"Aid the tourist" will be the motto of a campaign now being planned by local filling stations and service stations and the Automobile Association, with the object of preparing themselves to read information and general "Sales talk" concerning Lubbock to furnish tourists passing through this city.

Service Stations and dealers will be requested to call in at the Automobile Association in the Chamber of Commerce office once a week for general road information, or to direct tourists to the office where they can secure maps and detailed road directions.

Many Parties Through
From fifty to sixty cars per day are now passing through Lubbock enroute west to mountain resorts and the coast recreation grounds. Numbers of local people are also getting information in preparation for vacation trips.

Floods now existing in the Mississippi valley will have a definite effect on the passes of Lubbock dealers, as all roads south of St. Louis over the Mississippi are blocked with from fifty to a hundred miles of the approaches under water. All traffic is being directed around by St. Louis, with the result that a large per cent of the motorists who customarily cross the continent head south on the southern trails, will go north by Denver or the Lincoln highway this year.

Governor Tells Solons His Views; More Speed Is Needed, He Says

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, May 23.—Addressing both houses in joint session Governor Moody today urged the legislature to speed up "All parties concerned," he said, "would like to avoid the necessity of more than a 30 day session."

Mr. Moody defined the administration's proposed institution of civil service competitive efficiency examinations for subordinate state employees; urged revision of high way law to facilitate construction of improved highway; declared the prison board should be given plenty of power to manage prison properties, and suggested six amendatory measures to the judicial system.

Moody Urges Action
"The legislature had been in session two weeks," the governor said, "but the appropriations bills have not yet reached the conference committee. The time of the session is rapidly passing and as speedy consideration of the bills as possible and consistent with public good is important. The session cannot last longer than 30 days and all parties concerned would like, if possible, to avoid the necessity of more than 30 day session."

"There are other matters which merit legislative attention and which the people of Texas expect to be considered. It is to be hoped that all of the time of this session will not be dissipated in the con-

ONE MAN DEAD IN HOTEL FIRE

Several Others Injured As $30,000 Is Lost In Galveston

(By Associated Press)

GALVESTON, Texas, May 22.—One man is known to be dead and several persons were slightly injured in a fire which swept through the Crystal hotel, 2216 Market street, early this morning. Damage is estimated at $30,000, part of which was sustained by the Victoria Army store, which occupied the ground floor. The store loss was caused by water.

Guests of the hotel, scantily clad, were driven from their beds when a pot of tar exploded on the second floor. A man was boiling the tar to waterproof a fishing net. Some of the guests jumped from the third story of the building to the awning over the sidewalk.

The dead man was found by firemen on the third floor where he had probably been overcome by smoke. Several other persons, slightly injured, were removed to hospitals for treatment. Efforts to identify the dead man so far have failed.

About 100 wards were added to the English language during 1934.
