Texas Population Shows Increase Of 1,147,455

SOUTH PLAINS HAS BIG PART IN INCREASE

TOTAL IS GIVEN AS 5,810,683 TODAY BY ASSOCIATED PRESS

DALLAS, July 16.—The 1930 population of Texas is 5,810,683, an increase in the last decade of 1,147,455, or 24.62 per cent, according to figures released by census supervisors of the various districts in the state and compiled by the Associated Press today. The 1920 population was 4,663,228.

All sections participated in the growth, but the greatest increases were recorded in the Panhandle, West Texas, the Rio Grande valley and a number of coastal areas. The growth in the Panhandle where oil fields and agricultural developments attracted many, was tremendous.

Petroleum Aids

Petroleum developments in the western area apparently as the chief reason for its great growth as most counties in which fields were brought in during the decade more than doubled their 1920 output. Similar increases were noted in the Rio Grande valley, where fruit and vegetable growing made a big stride during the past 10 years, and along the Gulf coast where many were attracted by increased shipping activities and other large projects.

Decreases were reported by 66 of the 254 counties in the state. None of the declines, however, was great except in the case of Eastland county, in north central Texas, where a population of 23,981 compared with 36,508 in 1920 was reported. Decreased oil activities were blamed largely for the diminution of 24,524.

Northwest Texas, with 14 counties, registered the most declines.

DAMAGES ARE ASKED IN SUIT

JOHN WILSON FILES ACTION IN COURT HERE TODAY

Asking a total of $5,000 for alleged damages to his person, John Wilson, of Lubbock, filed suit in the 99th district court here today against Sharp Islar, of Collingsworth county. The suit grew out of a collision sometime ago at the intersection of Avenue O and Sixth street in this city.

The plaintiff declares in his petition that his automobile was struck by another driven by the defendant and that it was overturned, spinning his left hand beneath the top and pavement, causing a compound fracture to bones of the left hand which rendered him unable to use it for manual labor. He alleges that the bones, muscles and ligaments were badly torn and that the amputation of the middle finger at the second phalanx was necessitated.

Injuries Permanent

He further charges that the wrist and joint of the left arm and hand, together with the finger joints are such an extent that it is impossible for the plaintiff to use it in performance of ordinary tasks of a workman. All of the injuries are said to be permanent.

Plaintiff charges that the accident was caused by the carelessness and negligence of the defendant in driving at a reckless rate of speed.

ALL THREE OCCUPANTS FLOAT SAFELY TO EARTH

BOSTWICK, Ga., July 16. The Monoplane "K" of New Haven crashed here today but the occupants escaped by use of parachutes.

The plane was enroute to South America. Jimmy Garrison, one of the pilots, said the ship got beyond control after it consumed all its gasoline and that he and his companions decided to desert it. All three floated to safety one mile from here.

The ship was demolished. "We will return to New York and try to fly over again," Garrison said. He said they flew through "heavily" weather last night and that the ship used more fuel than they had anticipated.

"We just had to jump," Garrison said. "We didn't know where we were exactly and the ship was out of control. The visibility was bad, so we took to the 'chutes and let her fall."

Help reached the fliers soon after they landed about a mile west of Bostwick.

Miss Corinne Warner, executive, directed the party, and explained all details of Camp Wo-ho-lo, which is to be held at Two Draw Lake August 5-15. The gathering was opened with familiar Camp Fire songs sung by the group, and several new songs were introduced.

She announced that the charge for the ten-day session would be $10, and that for girls not belonging to the organization an additional fee of $2.50 would be charged.

Green And White Stressed In Bridge Function Given By Mrs. Heard Jones

Nineteen tables of bridge were in progress when Mrs. Heard Jones entertained Tuesday afternoon in the home of her sister, Mrs. R. L. Slaughter, Jr., 2222 Broadway. Lovely white cut flowers and fern were used to adorn the entertaining rooms, and the colors white and green were reflected in table covers, space-shaped tallies and score pads, and the ice course which was served following the games.

Mrs. Wesley Read was favored for high score. Mrs. Ernest Conley was given a consolation prize, and Mrs. Howard Pearson received the prize for low score.

Bridge Party Held As Club Courtesy

LOVINGTON IS TO INCREASE CORPORATION

MORE AREA IS TO BE TAKEN INTO CITY LIMITS SOON

(Special To The Journal)
LOVINGTON, N. M., July 16-
 The citizens and city council of Lovington have decided to enlarge the corporate limits of Lovington in order that those who have been building on the fringe of the present city lines may become part of the corporation and be taxed as such. At a meeting last week, many of those who have sub-divisions signified their willingness to enter the city, and thus assist in paying the largely increased expenses due to the rapid growth of the town the past six months.

Lovington has more than doubled her population since January 1, of this year, and finds her city treasury inadequate to meet the increased demands on it. From a peaceful village of 800 souls the county seat of Lea county has, in a short time, become an exciting town with a population of over 1,700 persons, and growing so fast that many predict 2,500 population by January 1, 1931.

To Start Improvements
 Contractors have shipped in sewer and water pipe and the coming week work on a sewer and water system will start. This will be followed by a gas line to be laid from the field, to be finished some time early in November, just before cold weather.

There is a dearth of rent houses as well as apartments, though a fair sized building boom is on. The hotels have long since been unable to take care of the late arrivals, and there is a crying need of people with capital who can assist in stemming the present tide of population. Some flattering offers have been made for a first class hotel. Both location and considerable cash await the right party able to finance a 100-room hotel, that will do credit to the city for some time to come. Not only local oil men would take advantage of a good hotel here but being at the intersection of two great highways tourists would make of this point a stop-over on their way to Carlsbad Cavern as well as going north and south way leading men here.

Need Industries
 Though a town approaching the two thousand mark Lovington has neither dentist, photographer or wholesale house. In the old days citizens were content to travel 100 miles to some town when the services of a dentist was needed. An itinerant photographer would take care of the wants of the people, and the prospects of a wholesale house hardly entered into their probable before the railroad came. All this has now changed and the ambitions of Lovington are in keeping with her growth.

There is reason to believe that when some of the large oil companies establish more permanent quarters in the Hobbs field, Lovington will be selected as the point where the main offices will be located. This is in keeping with the usual policies of the big oil companies who select a more standard town for their office forces, rather than in the field towns, where social conditions are more or less not what could be desired. For this reason a business block is talked of that will accommodate a number of oil

Says It Was A Great Help To His Brother

My Brother Has Taken One Bottle of Argotane and Improved Immediately He Says

"Yes, Argotane has certainly helped my brother, and he just took one bottle of it and improved immediately," said T. F. Mathews, a dairyman of San Angelo, while talking with the Argotane man recently.

"My brother, J. H. Mathews, lives on the Cedar Hill ranch at Sterling City, and is very well known there," continued Mathews. "He suffered from stomach and digestive troubles for several years, and was in a very bad condition. He lost his appetite and hardly ate enough to keep him going, what he did eat disagreed with him, his food soured and formed gas, and he would be in misery for hours. He would have severe pains in the pit of his stomach, was badly constipated and had to take strong laxatives. He had frequent headaches, and was going downhill every day."

"Argotane was advertised so highly, and so many people had recommended it, he got a bottle and began taking it. He has just taken one bottle and anyone can tell he has improved greatly. His stomach trouble is relieved and all his digestive pains are gone, now he can eat anything he wants without the slightest touch of indigestion. The gas has stopped forming on his stomach and, in fact, his general condition has improved. Argotane has certainly helped my brother and I am glad to give this statement for him for he thinks Argotane is a grand medicine."

Building Is Orderly
 Building in this city is more orderly than in oil field towns. Fire proof buildings are required within a prescribed area, which makes for greater expenditure of money thus less but more costly buildings. No shacks are being constructed here, and this class of structure is discouraged, even in outlying districts. Newspaper reports telling of the large area of irrigable lands surrounding Lovington have brought many people into the district and the local chamber of commerce reports over one hundred inquiries about farming possibilities in the past two weeks. Many well posted men predict that hundreds of farmers will be located on the more desirable lands the coming year and make of this place one of the best known shipping points in the state for fruits, vegetables, wool and cattle.

BEN ALLRED SPEAKS HERE

WICHITA MAN SPEAKS IN INTEREST OF HIS BROTHER

In this city for a brief period yesterday in the interest of his brother's candidacy for attorney general, Ben P. Allred, Wichita Falls attorney, spoke before a small gathering in Lubbock last night on Avenue K, between Main and Broadway.

Allred spoke in part: "Most of you will remember I am sure, that in the campaign for this same office four years ago James V. Allred was defeated by Claude Pollard of Houston by only 4,000 votes out of more than 700,000. At that time, although some of his friends suggested that he demand a recount, he congratulated Mr. Pollard upon his election and announced that he would be a candidate this year. Two years ago, when it was rumored that Pollard was going to resign, his friends in Young county, where he served as district attorney, put his name on the ticket; but he refused to oppose Pollard upon his assurance that he did not intend to resign.

"Governor Moody saw fit at that time to appoint the present attorney general, the gentleman from Laredo. I have no right to criticize the governor for that action and I do not. No doubt he owed that plum to his political friend. But I do feel that since more than 350,000 people had endorsed my brother such a short time before, they should have had some consideration."

MILLER TO SPEAK FOR YOUNG HERE

Claude Miller, of Waco, prominent campaigner, will speak in Lubbock tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the interest of Jim Young's candidacy for governor. Definite location for the speaking has not been made.

Miller took the stump in Young's behalf Monday at Midland and since that time has appeared at Big Spring. Today he is scheduled to address gatherings at Lamesa and Brownfield.

Following his Lubbock visit the Waco man will be in Crosbyton Friday night and Post Saturday night.

TEXAS FACING CRUDE CRISIS, REPORT SAYS

DONOGHUE SAYS 76,000 BARRELS DAILY IS OVER PRODUCED

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, July 16—A report submitted Tuesday at a meeting here of directors of the Texas division, Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, asserted that a grave emergency existed in the Texas oil industry, with production about 76,000 barrels a day more than the present capacity of the actual market.

The report was prepared by David Donoghue, technical adviser, and submitted by R. R. Penn, vice chairman of a committee named to study the new state pipe line law. J. D. Collett is chairman of the committee. A joint one representing the Independent Petroleum association, the Texas division of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association, and purchasers of crude oil.

Edward T. Moore, president of the Texas division of the association, presided.

Vote Approval
 The directors voted approval of the report and authorized appointment of a committee to begin negotiations with the Texas Railroad Commission.

Belief was expressed by speakers that if the railroad commission would take charge of production, the over-production problem in Texas would be solved.

The report recommended that small or marginal producing wells be preserved and protected, that flush fields and flush wells be cut down; that distribution of output between producers of such fields be made equitable; a balance should be maintained between the various pools, with supervisors working out individual problems for each pool.

"All right chum, Shake hands. We are the best of friends," were the last words of Walter Bennett to Albert McKay after he had been knocked down and fatally injured by the bicycle ridden by McKay at Edmonton, England, recently.

Thought For Today

Boast not of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.—Proverbs 27:1.

The insignificant, the empty, is usually the loud and after the manner of a drum, is louder even because of its emptiness.—Carlyle.

A Queer Rule

The small boy's right to any perquisites he can collect at a ball game seems to have been upheld definitely by high legal authority now. Everybody, probably, will be very happy about it except the owners of baseball parks.

In Chicago the other day a youngster went out to watch the Cubs play. He was perched high in the bleachers, along the foul line, when some batter smacked a foul ball into his territory.

The ball landed beside the youngster and he promptly pocketed it.

An usher, thereupon, appeared and demanded the ball. The boy refused to give it up; the usher, accordingly, went away, to return a little later with three policemen. Together they descended upon the youngster with the ball.

But there is an esprit de corps, or whatever you want to call it, among bleachersites. The enraged fans arose en masse and fell upon the policemen with their fists. The upshot of it was that the small boy, baseball, wounded policemen, usher, and a dozen or more belligerent fans had to appear in court.

The judge disposed of the case in short order. The usher, he said, had no right to go after the ball in the first place. When a citizen in a ball game has a right to pocket any ball that falls into the stands in his vicinity—provided, of course, that he can lay his hands on it. As soon as he does, the ball becomes his property. So the usher was settled, and every went home happy.

All of this is very encouraging, setting, as it does, the long-disputed question "who owns a foul ball?" But one must admit that the club owner may not be inclined to rejoice about it. After all, baseballs cost money, and a good many fouls get knocked into the grandstand during an afternoon's play.

The fan, however, is just that much ahead. Furthermore, the thing raises some fascinating speculations. Do footballs that get kicked into the stands belong to the lucky chaps who catch them? Do sliced golf balls go to the nearest hole? When a boxer gets knocked out of the ring and lands in some body's lap, does he—but let's not make this thing absurd.

Gangland

Chicago's gangs do not seem to tame easily. Their latest outbreak marks a new step in insistent daring—the attempt to kill a rival gangster while he was riding in a police squad car, after he had been questioned by detectives in connection with the Langie murder.

The gangster escaped unhurt, but an innocent bystander was killed, and the killing emphasizes once more the futility of saying that these gang wars do not really harm the city since the victims are all gangsters. In this case, a law-abiding citizen, strolling along a downtown street, was shot dead.

To be sure, the gangsters didn't mean to kill him. But the episode shows clearly how dangerous it is for any city to harbor unrestrained gang warfare in its midst. The deaths of the murdered gangsters are not lamentable, of course; but law-abiding citizens have a right to look for safety on downtown streets.

Your Servant

It is interesting to read that the American State Department has sacrificed a time-honored custom of diplomacy to modern efficiency.

Up to this time, all official State Department letters have ended with the flowery old phrase, "I have the honor to be, your obedient servant." Now, however, by an official order, they are to end with the modern "Very truly yours."

All of this is as it should be; but it does one wonder what diplomacy is coming to. The very essence of it is high-flown phrases and flowery language. What will ever become of it if it is stripped down to plainness? Can our diplomats

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says the modern dance is wonderful exercise—for everything except the discretion.

TOMORROW at noon The Plainsman will make another of his infamous public addresses, this time journeying to Littlefield to confront the Rotary club upon the all-important subject of gawf, its uses and abuses. In case you hear the ambulance tearing out of town along about 4:45, you'll know the worst has happened. We'd appreciate violets, if you don't mind.

The Littlefield Rotarians requested that The Plainsman appear in his gawf pants (especially constructed) but we had to refuse. We only appear in them for the benefit of the Milk and Ice fund.

SERIOUSLY, we expect to PUTT-OR around over there before DRIVING the subject home to the NINETEENTH hole, providing, of course, that we don't get STYMIED during the disertation. A GREEN-horn at public speaking, you may be sure that The Plainsman's SHORT game will be functioning nicely although he intends to slip the civic clubbers a lot of BUNK-er stuff as he goes along. The worst part about the whole thing is the MENTAL HAZARD, because anyone can escape unscathed from a speaking if he stays out of the ROUGH. All one needs to do is to take an easy STANCE, start with a PITCH shot and play for the MEDAL. Then he is in a FAIRWAY to SCORE favorably, and that's that. Editor's note—The Plainsman can't play gawf but he sure knows all the words!

Speaking about knowing all the words of gawf, The Plainsman heard Dr. Sam Dunn ask Walter Myrick, Jr., the other day, how he got to play in a threesome with Ellsworth J. (Jack) Parsons and the Rev. Dr. Jack M. Lewis, pastor of First Presbyterian church.

"Oh, I get along, all right," Walter told the Doc, "by doing like the other fellows. I'm just one I just print, that's all!"

INCIDENTALLY, John T. Smith, minister of the Broadway Church of Christ, and Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist church, are also gawf players but like Doctor Lewis they're rarely, if ever, found on the links on Sunday morning.

The wag about town are telling a yarn to this effect, and we'll let you judge whether or not it's true. As the story goes, the three ministers, Messrs. Smith, Campbell and Lewis, went out to play a threesome one afternoon, and Doctor Lewis, trailing a stroke on the third hole, sliced into the rough.

"Cisco, Cisco, Cisco!" his astonished co-players heard him shout as he dug out for another shot.

"Waddya mean, 'Cisco, Cisco,' Mr. Campbell and Mr. Smith asked in chorus.

"Well, they tell me that's the biggest damn in the state," the Doctor returned, "and I need it here now worse than anything!"

The benefit of Jerry Clements, Nell Wright or Dean J. M. Gordon, who are all deacons in Dr. Lewis' church and might be a little thick between the ears. The Plainsman will now acknowledge that the story about the "Cisco" business is just a yarn. Incidentally, The Plainsman isn't afraid of making Doctor Lewis sore, because he's not that kind of a preacher. He's the type of minister who can see a joke and enjoy it.

Any man who can fill a pulpit for fifteen years and then, without a minute's notice step onto the ball diamond and catch an errorless game behind the bat is too good a sport to object to a yarn, even if it is at his own expense.

That Man on Avenue Q says there's nothing in a show window to so enrapture the fair shopper as the mirror in the back.

YOU know, sometimes a subject becomes so popular that it is discussed even when there is no particular reason for its discussion, and The Plainsman feels that that's times is one of them. As we have pointed out in this column before, people of this day and time—and particularly people who reside in this section—don't know any more about "hard times" than a hog knows about Sunday.

The idea struck in The Plainsman's mind again, and from a new angle, just the other afternoon. "Plumb out of soap" for something to write about, he climbed into a car and rode around town, just looking for something to comment on. The neighborhood where a bridge party was being given offered a topic and here it is—as a refutation against "hard times."

Parked next to the house where more than half a hundred Lubbock women were engaged in bridge and gossip, were approximately thirty automobiles. With but three exceptions, these automobiles were of the "middle class" of cars or of the "finer class." Three of the machines were purchased for less than $1,000. The rest of them ranged in price from about $1,450 to $2,500. None of them were old or dilapidated. They were serviceable and, in most instances, what you might describe as "spiffy."

Any way you figure it, those

"Without-Or-With, Offense To Friends Or Foes, We Sketch Your World Exactly As It Goes"—Byron

Mr. Hoover Is Still Fond Of Fish And Fishing But Fish Will Not Be Photographed With Him Any More, He Rules

BY RODNEY BUTCHER NEA Service Writer WASHINGTON, July 16.—Fish are still welcomed at the White House if they are not too dead, but no more fish need apply to have their pictures taken with the president of the United States.

Mr. Hoover is partial to fish like to catch them and he likes to eat them. But he isn't fond of posing with them any more.

Some weeks ago a very fine salmon came down here from Maine for the Hoover table. Congressman Donald Snow of Maine made the presentation and other Maine congressmen stood by to assist him in case he dropped the fish or something as well as to be photographed during the presentation.

A Headline Trophy At the last minute Congressman Snow made the appalling discovery that the salmon had been taken into the White House kitchen and decapitated in preparation for serving. That threatened to ruin the photograph and probably would have done just that except for the Show's stroke of genius. He dashed into the kitchen and sewed the head back on again so that it might be fit to pose with Mr. Hoover and the donors.

But the story got into print and it seems that the president thought it looked rather funny for him to be posing with a fish which realized that the poor fish looked funnier than anyone else concerned. But at any rate that was the last fish picture at the White House.

The saddest victim of the new fish policy was T. Joe Cahill of the Dude Ranch Association, who had fish flown here by plane for Mr. Hoover, only to find that the president wouldn't even pose with such obviously very special and extraordinary fish.

Washington has a soft spot in its heart for Amos W. Woodcock, the new prohibition director in the Department of Justice. Woodcock for years had charge of prohibition enforcement in Maryland as U. S. district attorney in Baltimore.

But the capital's favorite liquor has always been Maryland rye whisky of all ages. And it still is. Despite efforts which were almost prodigious, Mr. Woodcock never made any apparent inroads on the production of Maryland's many stills, with the result that Washington has never had to go on a gin basis as so many cities have.

In Washington the Hon. Smith Wildman Brookhart senator from Iowa, seems rather harmless. He does not rank as one of the big guns of the Senate and has been getting into the newspapers lately when presenting evidence that someone served hooch at a party.

But in Chicago, where things are always nice and quiet and peaceful and folks are easily had by the head out off and then sewed back on.

esrs sold for a total of around $40,000, which certainly doesn't hint anything about hard times. There is no such thing as hard times in this day and age and as applied to the public generally, it's just a lot of hokum.

True, money may be loose or tight and business may be 'on' or 'off.' But hard times—those hard times like folks used to have a generation ago are gone forever. One needs only to look around to realize it.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D. Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children" famous educators of the world, Dr. Charles Eliot, had a large tumor on one side of his face, so that it pulled his upper lip down markedly on one side. (Such tumors are now cured by the use of the lower jaw has nothing to do with the intellect. Not infrequently underdeveloped chins are due to errors in feeding in childhood, to finger and thumb sucking, to adenoids, and to teeth that haven't developed properly. Even the position of the baby while nursing or having its bottle is important in the molding of the chin!

You don't mind, if I give a little advice to young mothers here, do you? The right physiologic position for a baby while getting its nourishment is with chest upright and the neck extended so that the chin moves forward with each suck of sucking. This helps to develop it, while if the baby takes its nourishment lying down, there is a little backward displacement of the jaw in front, which may bring other bad results (choking, etc.) besides underdevelopment of the chin.

CONSTRUCTION OF FIVE LIGHTHOUSES OFF THE LOWER CALIFORNIA COAST IS PLANNED BY THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT.

In New York With Swas Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, July 16.—About this time of year, when the "visiting firemen" begin to pour in from every section of the land, the New Yorker gets to see his own town. Left to himself, the average dweller in this metropolis does very little sight-seeing unless some visitor bestirs him. The New Yorker will talk for hours upon the thousand-and-one attractions of his town, but he hasn't seen half of them.

It's an old story that thousands of the town folk have never crossed Brooklyn bridge, and only the other day I went into the Woolworth building for the first time in two years.

And speaking of this quality in New Yorkers, several of us were sitting at lunch the other day when someone piped up with: "And what-er became of the Flatiron building?"

Yes, I'm still there—a thin slice of a building cat-a-corner from Madison Square. But you don't hear much about it any more, do you?

When I was a youngster, long long before I even had to get to New York, I came to look upon the Flatiron as something of a New York symbol. All the naughty cartoons of the day showed the girls petticoats being whirled about in the famous wind that swooped around that corner. Johnnies in derbies would stand at the corner twirling their waxed mustaches and waiting for the wind to blow. The records show that one young man actually was arrested for such peering.

Today an endless parade of cuties, with skirts close to the knees, troop past and seldom is an eye lifted.

The old building itself stands as a picturesque marker of the late past.

It is like a watching at a crossroads, for below it the old Fifth Avenue hurries down to Washington Square dotted with the aristocratic brownstones of yesterday and constantly invaded by the tower of new apartment turrets. In this new architectural sea, the Flatiron looks singularly old and alone—just waiting for time and change to get it!

A padlock pendant in the very heart of New York's own Central Park, might not be such a fantastic symbol of this funny town's rebel attitude.

By this time most of the nation knows that dry officers swooped down on Manhattan's famous park the other evening and raided the ritzy diners at the very swanky Park Casino.

In almost any other town in this land, the notion of drinking going on freely in the biggest public park would cause no end of scandal and civic head shaking. Not Manhattan, however! Quite the contrary. All the who's who are quite indignant that the mean old reverse men raised so much ruction.

And one of the most amusing sights I can conceive, would be that of a padlock swinging from the Casino door.

Speaking of strange sights of the town, the latest is the young lady of 18 who wrestles with the garbage cans of Times Square. Her name is Anna Semenzack and her father owns a pig farm over in New Jersey. Anna and her sister do most of the "hard chores" and bring the garbage in for the pigs.

Just another one of those little rural touches to the heart of the city.

Walking On Grass Doesn't Help It LAMESA, July 16. (Special)—Evidence the walking on grass doesn't help it to grow is shown with the unhealthy appearance of the Dawson county courthouse lawn here which has seen more feet this summer than any previous year, according to R. F. Randle, janitor.

Crowds passing over the lawn included the Dairy Short Course gathering, over 3,000 people; the McKee and Aiken murder trials, over 3,000 each; the July Fourth celebration, over 2,500; the county agricultural club meet, over 800; and crowds running from 500 to 2,000 that assembled to hear various candidates this summer.

Farm Wages Level Reveals Decline

WASHINGTON, July 16. (AP)—A two per cent decline in farm wages was reported today by the agricultural department from April 1 to July 1 as against "the usual seasonal farm wage advance of 6 per cent for the period."

The decline brought the farm wage index to the lowest July 1 level recorded since compilation of records began in 1923.

The report attributed the recession to a decline in business activity with a resultant increase in industrial unemployment.

Konjola First Medicine That Brought Relief Grateful Lady Declares That New And Different Medicine GaGve Her New Lease On Life

MRS. L. STOCKTON

No wonder the record of Konjola, the new and different medicine for stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and for rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness, fairly overflow with enthusiastic endorsements, for Konjola does make good even in the stubborn cases that have defied all else. Consider, for instance, the happy experience of Mrs. L. Stockton, 2108 North St. Paul Street, Dallas, Texas, who says:

"Konjola quickly proved to me that it is a fine medicine. I had indigestion and constipation; was generally run down, tired all the time and had no ambition. All that I tried gave only temporary relief. I actually thought there was nothing to help my case. To my astonishment I noted a great improvement after starting on Konjola. Now I can eat anything without suffering. Konjola ended constipation and has given me a new lease on life."

Konjola does work quickly, for all of its 32 ingredients work as one. But a full treatment of from six to eight bottles is highly recommended for best results.

Konjola is sold in Lubbock, Texas, at Bowen's Drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section. Adv.

WACO CUBS CLIMB TO WITHIN TWO GAMES OF TEXAS LEADERSHIP

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS
With Collier Parria
Journal Sports Editor

Sammy Mandell, the champion and Al Singer, the challenger, called out at their training camps in Pennsylvania and New York, and prepared for the trek to Yankee Stadium where they meet tomorrow night in a fifteen-round bout to decide the next king of lightweights. Getting is light, with Mandell getting the benefit of six to five odds Monday, although it was in the minds of many that Sammy would enter the ring at even money. Mandell is confident of victory, and goes about his training in a leisurely fashion, while young Singer, seeing a heavy job ahead, has prepared earnestly and steadily for the battle. There is little to choose between the fighters, when it comes to apparent physical ability, the boys are well matched, and the prospective fans are not going to be hooked by "Once a champ, always a favorite."

The Waco Cubs continue to hold a second spotlight in the Texas League. It is not likely that they will surpass the Spudders any time soon, but if there is a play-off for the title, the Prattmen are in a line to furnish the opposition. Several reasons are given for the rise of the heretofore lowly Cubs, but the main one is that they have shown the individual improvement on the part of a few favorites of the team has about as much to do with it as anything else. The Ows, Night-hawks, Bats, or after-supper smokers have been doing most of their climbing under cover of darkness, but when opportunity has offered itself, they have not slumped too far under old Sol. Following the series with Shreveport, the Cubs had a record of fourteen wins in fifteen games. The heavy hitting of Gene Rye and the fine work of a pair of rookies, Molesworth and Pip, have aided the Cubs in their run of victories.

Wichita Falls retains the league leadership promise of making a play-off unnecessary. Considerable honor would come to the club who won both ends of a split baseball season, but not nearly so much as a win. It's a wise team who can lose the second half and win the play-off, but that's what every league winner has done so far. It has always been the case of first half winner, league winner even though the first copper did not take both sides. The Spudders did it two years ago, and are in a fine way to repeat. Waco may continue their winning spree and come out on top this half, but it will take hard digging to stay ahead of the Houston club for the remainder of the half. Fort Worth's Cats are in the race, too, and just a little tough right now.

A new column is about to be added to the baseball average sheet—that for stolen bases. An ambitious scribe has tabulated the stolen base records of the Texas, American, and National leagues, and the result is interesting. According to the tabulation, the Texas League teams lead the majors in base running ability, or stolen bases. Maybe that's a compliment, maybe not. Cautioning fielding would prevent a lot of the base rustling. Beaumont leads every team in the three leagues with 101 stolen bases since the beginning of the season. Shreveport comes next with 92, and Houston is third with 80 pilfered sacks. On the roster of the latter team appears the individual leader, Joel Hunt, of former Texas A. and M. fame, now hitting the pill readily for the Buffs. Hunt's record shows he has stolen 30 bases, four less than the entire Fort Worth team has stolen this season. He is a fine petta ahead of his nearest rival, Tom Holley of the Beaumont club, and far ahead of any major leaguer. Boston leads the National league with 46 stolen bases, and Washington of the American with 34.

In this democratic commonwealth a king, fully crowned, sits back on his gilded throne and greets the masses of worshipful admirers who pass by. King Bobby of the House of Jones made a splendid entry into his home stomping grounds after a most successful campaign against ambitious usurpers, and is more firmly established than ever. There's the little matter of a national amateur championship to win yet this year, which if successfully done, will make his fourth major win for 1930 and his 13th in all. Three of the 1929 blanks were filled within seven weeks of each other, and he has nearly two months rest before the national favorite, and is almost certain of the victory, and it will be a tough battle, but the King will be tougher to down.

There are vague rumors that King Bobby will denounce the throne at the end of this year, and go vagabond to be barely susceptible to the naked eye. The prospect of Jones doing a Gene Tunney is dim indeed, though his close friends are accused of circulating rumors that he will quit after winning the national amateur. Bobby is ambitious, though modest, and will qualify no claimant such as those rumored. After winning the national open last week, his conversation went something like this: "I'm pretty happy. I'll play in the amateur."

Manager Dutch Luenberger's Lubbock club, local South Plains League champion, will play the Wichita Falls club at the local park this afternoon. The game is being played in the woods, and will be a hot one. It is likely to be a long one, with the home team leading, but the away team is expected to win. The game will be played at 4 o'clock, and the home team is expected to win.

THIRTEENTH VICTORY AT NIGHT GAINED

HOUSTON DOWNS SPUDS; STEERS, INDIANS ARE WINNERS

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Continuing their remarkable string of victories under the arc lights last night at Shreveport while the Houston Buffs were knocking off the leading Wichita Falls Spudders in their home lot, the Waco Cubs advanced within two games of the Texas League pinnacle.

Bill Harris limited the Sports to four scattered hits and blanked them, 2 to 0, for the Cubs' thirteenth triumph in fourteen starts after dark. It was, as well, the Prattmen's fifth straight win on the road, having swept a three-game series at Fort Worth before invading Louisiana.

In downing the Sports last night, Harris bested no less doughty a warrior than old Oscar Turo, the league's leading twirler, who had won thirteen games and lost only one up to the time of his collision with the slim Waco star. Turo owed his downfall directly to the bat of the veteran Jodie Tate, who drove in both Waco runs with a double and triple. Harris whiffed six batters.

The Spudders rally on a typical six-run rally in the ninth, but fell short and Houston squared their series, 11 to 7. Young Allyn Stout limited the leaders to three hits until the closing frame, when he went haywire and was relieved by Joe Brown. The Buons pounded three Spud hurlers for 13 hits, Morrow leading with a home run and single. Storti, Wichita second baseman, had a big day after hitting 12 perfectly handed chances.

When Grover Alexander failed to appear at the Dallas park to face Beaumont, apparently having forgotten the engagement, Manager Jakey At entrusted the assignment to another patriarch, Walter Kinney, and was rewarded with a 14 to 12 victory over the Shippos. Kinney, a chunky southpaw who went up to the Boston Red Sox from Dallas in 1918, only to jump the big show a few years later, showed up at Steer stadium a week ago and asked for a chance. He held the Exporters to five hits for eight innings, but tired in the ninth and was whaled from the hill. The Steers pounded Vaughn and Green for 21 hits. Kinney and Leo Götter getting four apiece.

Sam Leslie, the San Antonio Indians' new first baseman, smacked two home runs and two doubles to lead the tribe to a 12 to 10 victory at Fort Worth. Cox of the Cats also parked a pair in the free hitting contest. The Panthers pounded three Injun chunkeys for 18 hits, while the visitors bunched 12 off four Cat moundmen.

entry is not going to be always in fourth place, or we miss our guess. They played the veteran Lamesa team to a standstill for about five innings Sunday, showing improvement as the game progressed, only to be beaten out by a strange turn of fate, or the failure of a hit to be a hit. Luenberger has considerable faith in Sam Scott, mound ace, who was with the team in the beginning but who has been in El Paso, N. M., for the past several weeks.

FIGHTING TO FACE TEST IN GOTHAM BOUT

FANS - STILL FEELING STING OF FOUL IN JACK-MAX BOUT

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 16.—Al Singer of the Bronx and Sammy Mandell, king of the lightweights, meet in a 15-round title battle at the Yankee stadium tomorrow night. Still feeling keenly, apparently, the sting of the Sharkey-Schmeling fiasco, New York's fandom seems a bit bored by the whole affair. Madison Square Garden is hoping that a last minute rush will swell the total "gate" past the $250,000 mark. Frank Bruen, the garden's general manager, announced today that the advance sale had exceeded $125,000.

Odds Shortened
The odds against Singer have shortened to 6 to 5 with the possibility that the boxers will go into the ring at even money. Expert opinion that Mandell has weakened himself by his strenuous battling to get down to 135 pounds is reflected in the shortened odds. Reports are that Sammy still has a pound to "boil off" before he can hope to tip the scales at the class limit.

Singer has had no trouble at all with weight. He is a natural light-weight now and had no need of wasting energy in getting rid of excess adiposities. A fast and fairly clever boxer with a heavy sock in his right and, Singer has won considerable betting support in the last few days. Against the Mandell of two years ago, the Bronx youngster probably would not be conceded a chance. But the experts are convinced—some at any rate—that Sammy has lost much of the speed that enabled him to give Jimmy

FERNANDEZ KNOCKED OUT BY BATTALINO

EAST HARTFORD, Conn., July 16.—Ignacio Fernandez, brown skinned little warrior from the Philippines, has made his bid for the featherweight championship of the world and suffered the first knockout of his career. He went down for the final count in the fifth round of his 15-round battle with the titleholder, Christopher "Bat" Battalino, while many of the crowd of 9,000 booed. Fernandez a year ago knocked out Al Singer in three rounds. During his long career he has taken the punches of the hardest hitters among featherweights and lightweights without suffering a knock-

VET HURLER FAILS TO SHOW UP YESTERDAY FOR DALLAS

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, July 16.—Old Grover Cleveland Alexander, idol of major league baseball fans for two decades, appeared today to be at the end of the long trail. His arm still possesses much of the cunning that established him among baseball's immortals, but the old master no longer has the will to keep himself in even pretty good condition. Unless some Texas league club claims old Pete at the winter price of $15,000 by sundown tonight, he is through in this circuit. Very probably he will be through in organized baseball. Baseball men were doubtful any minor league club would be willing to give Alex another opportunity such as was afforded him by the Dallas Steers when the Philadelphia Nationals

Something New In Hazards Is Offered

LOS ANGELES, July 16. (AP)—Beari Spott, operator of a miniature golf course, today offered his customers something new in hazards—a Cinnamon bear cub. Players must put through the bear's cage to the green and the bear has been trained to stop golf balls. Spott says it takes a clever golfer to put one past the bear.

P. O. Dames,

PAST WEEK IS TOUGH ONE ON CATTLE SALES

DOWNWARD REVISION OF PRICES CONTINUE AT FORT WORTH

(By Associated Press) FORT WORTH, July 16.—The past week has presented unsatisfactory conditions for sellers of cows and steers on the Fort Worth livestock market. Daily downward revision of prices has been the rule. Except for these classes, others have sold about steady to a little stronger, particularly calves.

The supply has not been excessive in Fort Worth. Cattle only showed about two-thirds as many as here for the corresponding week last year, calves practically the same, hogs about two-thirds the 1929 supply and sheep about a decrease of around four thousand head. Steers and cows dominated the carload lots.

Trading Is Slow Each day produced a fair supply of slaughter steers and trading was without exception very slow. They showed a loss for the six-day session of 50 to 75 cents and most calves took the full decline. Even the good kind of cattle did not escape. The top price for steers was on Monday when a load of good choice heavy steers sold at $25 and a second load from the same feed lot sold at $23 and a second load from the same feed lot sold at $23. Sales later in the week included well finished beefs in the 1,100 pound range that sold at $25 and down. Plain and common steers of considerable weight sold at $20 and $25.

Good fat cows arrived in carlots and sold early in the week at $5.50, but toward the close they stopped around $5.00.

Yearlings Score Slaughter yearlings rather scarce during the week. Values about steady with no extra good carlots offered. Some packages sold up to $10.25 but most of the carloads sold at $3.00 to $2.50.

Quality considered, slaughter sheep were a little higher.

Elevators are handling the movement steadily and plenty of tonnage is in sight to move out to the grain shipping men say.

New Schedule Given To Mexico Capital

ST. LOUIS, July 16. (AP)—The Missouri Pacific railroad today announced a new passenger train schedule between St. Louis and Mexico City, effective July 20, that will save nine hours and forty-five minutes each way. The improved service is warranted, President L. W. Badger said, because of rapidly increasing travel between the United States and Mexico for pleasure and business.

Under the new schedule the Sunshine Special will leave St. Louis at 6:30 p. m. daily, arriving at San Antonio, Texas, at 8:30 p. m. the next day; at Nuevo Laredo on the Mexican side at 2:30 a. m. the second day, and at Mexico City at 7:35 a. m. the third day.

HE JUST DIDN'T LIKE THE DUMP

HUMBLE QUARTERS JUST TOO MISERABLE FOR PRISONER SO HE IS ALLOWED TO GO

(By Associated Press) EVANSTON, Ill., July 16.—To men who are in jail and want out, the method of William E. Young is herewith recited for what it may be worth.

Mr. Young was in jail because he couldn't post bond after being arrested for driving recklessly. He is a person easily irked by incarceration. After a few hours he demanded an audience with the officer in charge, Sergeant Weidling.

To the sergeant he said: "Sir, this jail is unbearable. I am unable to read the newspaper, the light being out. To call the contradiction in my cell a bed is to label a noble piece of furniture. The atmosphere is dank, damp and dismal. I certainly do not intend to catch cold in a dump like this."

To which the sergeant made reply: "Mr. Young, I had no idea our humble quarters were so miserable. You run along home. I would be most unhappy if your health should be impaired."

And so Mr. Young got out. Of course, it might not work for everybody in jail, but it worked for Mr. Young. The only thing is, he'd better not get caught again.

PLAN GIVEN FOR LIVESTOCK

ASSOCIATIONS TO BE ALLOWED CONTROL ON VOLUME

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 16.—A plan which would give livestock marketing co-operatives representation in the management of the National Livestock Marketing association in proportion to the volume of their annual business, was decided upon at a meeting of the association's stockholders Monday.

The plan is expected by stockholders to satisfy co-operative agencies which have declined to join the association because of dissatisfaction over the previous plan of choosing directors. It was decided on at a meeting attended by Alexander Lege, chairman of the Federal Farm Board.

To Allow Votes

Marketing agencies which receive a total of 2,500 carloads of livestock annually are entitled by the new plan to one director in the national association. For each 5,000 carloads handled in excess of 2,500 cars, agencies are entitled to an additional vote.

There are 26 livestock co-operatives doing a volume of business which entitles them to representation on the directorate of the national association, stockholders said. Fifteen agencies are now members of the association.

H. L. Kokenot of Fort Worth, Texas, president of the meeting, E. F. Forbes, president of the Western Cattle Marketing association, was named to succeed Roy Hagen, who resigned from the Federal Farm Board's livestock advisory committee and as a director of the association. W. W. Woods, Chicago, president of the Institute of American Meat Packers, was elected to fill the vacancy on the marketing board, succeeding Thomas E. Wilson, Chicago packer, who resigned.

BONDS SALE IS UP TODAY

COMMISSIONERS ARE CONSIDERING BIDS THIS AFTERNOON

With the sale of $30,000 worth of bonds for improvements of the municipal airport as its chief consideration, the Lubbock City commission is in session this afternoon at the city hall.

According to announcement this morning a local buyer has offered $200,000 for the bonds, indicating that the commissioners will have little trouble in disposing of them. Other bids will be opened at today's assembly and sale probably consummated late this afternoon.

Delay Has Resulted

Since voting of the bonds more than a year ago considerable delay has been occasioned due to depression in the bond market, according to members of the commission. A site was purchased about two miles north of the city at a cost of $40,000, the whole issue amounting to $75,000.

Several weeks ago the commission employed architects to make plans for a hangar and contract for the building was let shortly afterwards. To date good progress has been made on the structure and plans at this time call for its completion by about August 22, when the women's national air derby is scheduled to stop at Lubbock.

BOUNDARY OF NATIONS UP

CHANGES CAUSED BY RIVER'S SHIFTING TO BE RULED ON

(By Associated Press)

MEXICO CITY, July 16.—Members of the International Boundary commission and their consulting engineers today plunged into the work of preparing an engineering report on the proposed straightening of the Rio Grande river between El Paso, Texas, and Quitman Canyon, which is hoped will eliminate boundary disputes caused by the river's shifting course.

A joint report probably will be ready by the end of the week. L. M. Lawson, American commissioner, said satisfactory progress on it was being made. He added that the commissioners would be occupied most of the week by supplying certain data to supplement the work of the engineers.

Mr. Lawson said rapid progress was being made on the engineering report because there was no controversial matter in it.

Both American and Mexican engineers are handling the questions that arise, purely from the technical point of view, outlining for the commission what land will have to be cut off and at what points, in straightening the river.

In addition to cooperating in the engineers' work, Mr. Lawson and Gustavo Serrano, Mexican commissioner, are meeting daily to discuss the form that the commission's recommendation will ultimately take.

PRESIDENT TO MAKE JOURNEY

HOOVER PLANS TO BE ON TRIP SOON AFTER SENATE CLOSURE

WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Hoover has decided definitely to make his trip to the west this summer unless unforeseen circumstances develop.

He hopes to be able to leave soon after the senate adjourns.

The trip will be considerably curtailed, however, from the extensive swing planned originally which would have taken him into six national parks in the Rocky Mountains and to his home at Palo Alto, California.

Under the tentative itinerary, it was believed he would start the swing at Glacier National Park, near the Canadian border and then travel southward, possibly visiting Yellowstone and Grand Canyon Parks and Texas.

Practically the entire mining industry of Bolivia, upon which the prosperity of the country depends, is now severely handicapped by the unfavorable prices prevailing for silver, copper, tin, lead and zinc, but hopes are expressed for an early recovery.

HIGHWAY 9 TO TAHOKA TO BE MADE SHORTER; SHALLOWATER WORK TO BE LET IN FALL; SLATON ROUTE RUSHED

Judge Robert H. Bean stated Tuesday afternoon that State Highway No. 9, between Lubbock and Tahoka, will be shortened one mile by the new route when bids for drainage and grading in Lubbock county are opened by the state department at its July meeting.

"The distance to be saved will not be in Lubbock county but in Lynn county," he explained. "The new route south of Woodrow school will go to the west instead of the east avoiding that unhandy detour. It will cross the county line into Lynn county at a point that will save more than a mile of road in that county."

To Be 30 Miles

Distance of the contracts to be let when the board meets on July 30, 31 and August 1, will be approximately 30 miles.

North of Lubbock there will be a change in the route that will call for an underpass in about section 38, sending the road west of the Santa Fe tracks there instead of at Monroe.

The present route north from Lubbock for about six or eight miles will be used, Judge Bean said. Then the highway will be sent under the railroad and will go directly north, just a short distance south of Abernathy. There it will swing west to join with the present Hale county paving now complete to the Lubbock county line.

To Let Another Contract

Plans are under way by the state highway department to let contracts for the grading and drainage of Highway No. 7 from Lubbock northwest to the county line through Shallowater at the September bidding of bids. Judge Bean, county judge, said yesterday.

This work is to be completed this fall and paving work is not expected to be started until next spring.

Here Miles Ready

Because of unexpected delays in the central part of paving on Highway No. 7 between Lubbock and Slaton, will be opened to the public within the next two or three weeks, according to announcement yesterday by Judge Robert H. Bean.

At present the paving north of Slaton for about two miles and another stretch north from Posey for the same distance also is open.

The slab in between these two points is now completed, it is reported. As soon as the necessary 21 days for "setting" is complete, the road will be thrown open. Work is now being started on the portion of the road between Posey and Lubbock.

HOBBS AREA TO GET $750,000 PLANT IN SHORT TIME

(Special to the Journal) HOBBES, N. M., July 16.—Actual construction has been started by the Phillips Petroleum company on its 50,000 gallon casinghead gasoline plant in the Hobbes area, it is announced here.

The plant, the 49th of its kind to be started by the company, will have a capacity of 40,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas per day. The plant will have two units and will cost approximately $750,000.

Location is in the north half of the northwest quarter of 4-19-38. It is three miles west of Hobbes on an 80 acre tract of state school land.

Contracts for acreage construction for a large acreage of gas, consisting of both production and potential reserve. The supply is said to be sufficient to take care of expected expansion.

"Our plant will be constructed in units consisting of two distillation units, one a natural well pressure installation and the necessary compressors will be provided to handle that volume of gas (40,000,000 cubic feet) which cannot be processed at natural gas pressure," the announcement of the company said.

To Produce 50,000 gallons
Production will be 50,000 gallons per day. The original installation will be completed on a major scale, the plant being built on the unit plan permitting the advantage of later multiple unit construction at correspondingly lower costs.

Location of the plant is a short distance from the Texas-New Mexico railroad, recently extended into Lovington.

The gas production of the Hobbes field is estimated at more than enough to supply the Phillips plant's initial capacity. Only a small portion, just enough to supply the town's domestic requirements, is being used. The remainder is going to the air. Both New and Old Hobbes, are now receiving their gas supply from the field.

SCOUTS WORK ON INCREASE, REPORT SAYS

TOTAL OF 572 BOYS IN SOUTH PLAINS ARE IN ACTIVITIES

Report received this morning by the Lubbock Community Chest from the local boy scout organization reveals that activities of the group have been increasing steadily with each month.

This report is the regular monthly statement of each organization which is filed with Chest headquarters that work of the participating agencies might be checked.

New Members Enrolled

Month after month, since organization of the Chest, the boy scout organization has shown steady increase in enrollment of new members. During the month of June 32 boys were added to the rolls, making a total of 572 boys under training in the South Plains Area council. Of this number 139 are Lubbock youths.

During the month of June, a total of 137 merit badges were awarded for suitable proficiency in scoutcraft. At this time officials are in charge of the scout camp at Post, with 114 boys and a number of adult leaders in attendance. Thirty-six of those registered at the camp had from this city. The camp allows an opportunity to more fully put into practice the scout training which has been received during the other periods of the year. A splendid vacation is offered as well as an opportunity to associate with other scouts of the area.

Contributors to the Lubbock Community Chest have made the scouting program possible. It was through the Chest drive staged last fall that funds for the work were raised.

MODERN UTOPIA IS REVEALED

NEW YORK, July 16. (AP)—Helen Flint, actress, came back to Broadway today after six weeks on the island of Majorca, off the coast of Spain, where one can live for $5 a week.

"I met a young American who had been living there a year," she said, "and he told me that as long as his father continues to send him $5 a week he'll never leave the island.

"You can live in luxury there for $5 a week. Why, a beautifully furnished villa can be rented for $15 a month, and a servant only costs $4 a month. Clothes cost almost nothing, I wore puttees, breeches, a simple blouse, and native rope sandals that you buy for 15 cents a pair.

SOCIETY GIRL BACK AT HOME

MARY McCLENNY SAYS SHE WENT AWAY ON HER OWN ACCOUNT

(By Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Va., July 16.—Mary Frances McClenny, 20-year-old Richmond society girl, was at home today, exactly two weeks after she disappeared with Harry Dickenson, her "garage man" companion.

Miss McClenny returned home yesterday from a small rooming house at Waynesboro, Va., where she and Dickenson had posed as Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jones, of Lynchburg, Va., since their secret departure July 1. They were found by an attorney and a newspaper reporter.

Dickenson surrendered to police who held a warrant charging him with "abducting and secreting" the missing girl. He was released in bail of $1,000 for appearance July 18. The bond stipulated "he must not attempt to communicate with Miss McClenny either directly or indirectly until the case has been disposed of.

Miss McClenny in a signed statement said she went away with

"Back To Nature" Stuff Is Her Reason

PITTSBURGH, July 16. (AP)—If there's one thing Miles Bishop likes, it's this back to nature stuff. But his enthusiasm is not shared by the Mrs. That's why she was in divorce court yesterday.

"Why he made me take long trips in the woods with him and sleep out under the stars and eat from the trees" she said.

The Tinymites all felt real proud and thankful that they were allowed to sleep within the Persian home. 'Twas quite a treat, they thought. Said Coppy, 'We'll sleep real sound until the morning comes around. I'm going to close my eyes and by the Persian I'll be caught by the Travel Man then abouted. Oh, there's one thing you don't seem to know. Before you enter Persian homes, you should take off your shoes. That you forgot to do it now. Then Scouty said, 'We didn't know about it. That news.' Off came their shoes, and then they went to bed. The Travel Man sat up at a table and then he turned in, too. The night slipped by. At breakfast the bunch were up and on their way. 'We'll eat some breakfast. Cloway said. 'And then, what will we do? 'Ah, I have a surprise in store,' the Travel Man said. 'What is it?' 'I'm going to get some donuts and we'll take a nice long drive. Before this cheerful day, I know you'll have a beautiful day. And then they found a restaurant where Persian food was served. Right after breakfast they went out and found some donuts. Mid about of merriment they hopped aboard and rode right out of town. 'We'll find another place, near the Travel Man exclaimed, and I feel sure you'll all be tickled when you start to look around. They traveled on two hours or so, and then the Travel Man said, 'Whoo! Now look ahead. What do you see?' 'A big wall, some one cried. Then he explained that it was and all the bunch were thrilled because they suddenly found out a great big city was inside.

(The Tinymites meet a Persian spy in the next story.)

During an all-night session of the English House of Commons recently the members ate three sides of bacon and nearly 1,000 eggs in the Commons restaurant.

They are planned solely for the purpose of complete clearance and without thought of profit or promotion. These things are readily apparent to the most inexperienced shoppers when they make comparison of values. They explain in a large measure why our sales have gained the reputation for being different.

DETAIL PRICE QUOTATIONS WILL APPEAR IN A FOUR PAGE AD IN THE NEXT ISSUE OF THIS NEWSPAPER.

CURRENT EDITION OF THE COURTROOM "VANITIES" TO SHOW AGAIN THURSDAY

NEW YORK, July 16—The current edition of the courtroom "Vanities" of Earl Carroll will play another committee Thursday. The state has finished its case against Carroll, Jimmy Savo and eight chorus girls, accused of participating in an indecent show, and Magistrate Gottlieb will decide Thursday whether to dismiss the charges or hold the defendants in trial.

He ordered counsel to submit briefs Thursday morning and said he would hand down a decision Thursday afternoon. He said he would hold the defendants for trial unless the defense motion for dismissal was overwhelming.

Captain Coy said he was inexpressibly shocked by the show and that he noticed a woman in a seat next to him blushing.

Defense counsel subjected him to a severe cross-examination about what he saw when he watched Faith Bacon's fan dance, and his reactions to the window undressing scene.

Carroll, Miss Bacon, Savo and the seven other chorus girl defendants were in court.

Police Captain James J. Coy, was the state's only witness.

Defense counsel asked, "I had a big job. I used to watch elephants in a circus," Coy replied, which ended that line of questioning.

Carroll, Miss Bacon, Savo and the seven other chorus girl defendants were in court.

SIMPLIFICATION OF PLAN ASKED

AUSTIN, July 16. (AP)—Plans for simplifying automobile insurance policies were presented to the state board of insurance commissioners at a meeting here today. Companies writing insurance in Texas were urged to simplify their policies instead of adding technicalities that befuddle the mind of the average person.

Protest of newspaper officials of the state against the proposed increase in insurance rates on newspaper delivery trucks also was heard by the commission. The newspaper representatives stated the increase would raise the insurance premiums on this class of vehicles 140 per cent.

The hearing was on application of certain insurance companies to place newspaper delivery trucks in classification number 2 instead of No. 3 which carries greatly reduced rates. The newspapers charged the insurance companies were attempting to subject Texas newspapers to the same rates that are charged in eastern cities where the operation of newspaper delivery trucks is hazardous.

ELECTROCUTION SET LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 16 (AP)—Electrocution of W. P. (Bill) Howell, aged triple slayer of Crawford county was set by Governor Parnell today for Friday August 15.

GOOD PITCHING

(Continued From Page 6) Cardinals yesterday to take their twentieth beating in their last 25 games. They used three hurlers ineffectively while Burleigh Grimes went the route for the Cards. Chicago and Boston played a similar game, the Cubs winning 5 to 3 as young Bob Osborn outlasted three brave pitchers although each team made nine hits.

Shogers Predominate Cincinnati and New York didn't give the throwers a chance in their slugging match, which went to the Reds by a 14 to 8 count. The winners made 15 hits off four pitchers while Larry Barton finally had to rescue Ray Kopy as the Giants started hitting home runs late in the game.

The pitching contrast in the American league comes principally from Washington and St. Louis. The Senators have won fame as a high place through the ability of their hurlers to last the full distance. They have suffered a bit since starting west, losing a series to Detroit, but Fred Marberry got them back into their stride yesterday, holding the Tigers to five hits to win 3 to 0.

Braves Equal Phillies The St. Louis Browns, weak both in hitting and pitching, have a record almost as bad as that of the Phillies although they are keeping out the league cellar by a few points. The Athletics made it 20 defeats in 27 games for them as Walberg and Rommel bested Blasholder and Stiles 11 to 6 in an odd game. Walberg did not yield a hit but wildness drove him out in the third inning, and Rommel continued the hitless performance until the sixth inning when the Browns made all of their four blows.

BRUNDIDGE TO LEAVE FOR CHICAGO TO TELL GRAND JURY OF ACTIVITIES

CHICAGO, July 16 (AP)—Harry Brundidge, a reporter for the St. Louis Star, cabled from Havana, Cuba, last night that he would leave for Chicago to tell the grand jury what he learned in an independent investigation of the Jake Lingle murder.

Brundidge, in articles published in his paper and reprinted here by the Tribune, told of reports involving several other Chicago newspapermen, as well as Lingle, Tribune reporter, in shady practices involving police, politicians and gangsters. He previously offered to tell a grand jury what he had learned, but he balked at the demand that he talk with the state attorney before he appeared before the grand jury. Under the present arrangement, he will appear directly before the grand jury. Today's Tribune said Lingle murder investigators had learned the identity of the Chicago newspaperman who Brundidge referred to as having made a pleasure trip to Havana with Al Capone, the gang leader. This man, the Tribune said, was Harry Read, city editor of the Evening American.
