CHURCHILL RESIGNS AS PRIME MINISTER

City Requests Bids On Paving Projects Here

Bids were asked by the city council last night for paving about 25 blo[illegible]ets under this year's city street paving program.

Petitions requesting city pavings which would cover a total of about 30 blocks have been received by the city, but many of the petitions contained such fragmentary coverage that city officials fear they can not be paved this year. The city requires 100 per cent landowner cooperation in the paving.

The council called for the bids to be in for a special meeting of the council called for April 25.

City participation in the paving projects was set by the city council at 33 per cent of the paving costs. The city will pay one-third, property owners on each side of the street wil pay one-third, and the property owners will also pay for curb and gutter.

If all the petitions received can be worked out so that the streets can be paved the program would include 30 blocks, or a total of about 7,800 running feet of paving, and the city's participation would cost about $11,800, based on paving costs for a similar program last year.

It is believed cost of paving this year will be slightly lower than last year's cost, however.

Streets included in petition requests for paving this year are: Seventh Street from Avenue R to Avenue S; Avenue T from Twenty-fifth Street north to the junction with the Lubbock Highway — a total of about 5,900 feet of paving; Twenty-fourth Street between Avenues F and H; Thirty-first Street between Avenues B and C; Thirty-third Street between Avenues B and C; Thirty-first Street from Avenue Y west for one block; and several blocks in Belmont Park in north Snyder, none of which had signatures of the necessary number of property owners.

Bids for seal coating of several blocks of Snyder streets to preserve present paving were called for last week and are to be ready for opening April 13.

The city's participation of one-third of the cost of the paving is the same as city participation last year, and would be the amount required if the city were to vote bonds for paving projects.

Councilmen last night discussed the possibility of calling a paving bond election later this year or early next year for a project which would be similar in scope to the 200-block paving program carried out here about four years ago.

A special meeting of the council was called for 7:30 o'clock tonight to canvass returns of today's city election in which three seats on the council are at stake with only one candidate for each of the offices.

The council granted permission to the U. S. Army Recruiting Service to park an advertising vehicle on the west side of the square tomorrow to do recruiting work here. The truck will require about four parking spaces.

C. E. McGaw, attorney, appeared before the council to request the city to lease about 12 city-owned lots in the W. L. Gross subdivision in northwest Snyder for oil drilling. The council discussed the proposition but took no action. McGaw said that he represented several other property owners in the area who wish to combine their properties into a lease of at least 40 acres to provide a drilling site He said the property owners are negotiating with drilling companies, but that no drilling company has offered a bonus for the lease.

Grand Jury Returns Six Indictments

Six indictments against seven men were returned late yesterday by the grand jury.

Ivory Seaton, a Snyder Negro who was recently released early from the state penitentiary after several convictions, was indicted with burglary, the indictment alleging a particular previous felony for purpose of enhancing punishment.

James Floyd, also a Negro ex-convict from Snyder, was indicted with felony theft of five large pads of trade stamps from the service station of Rex Fields, where he worked.

Lemuel Levy Perkins, Plainview, who told a reporter and officers at the time of his most recent arrest that he had previously been convicted three times of drunken driving, was indicted with driving while intoxicated as a repeated offense.

John Roy Yates and Floyd Gilbreth, Snyder youths who have previously been convicted and have previously been charged numerous times with both felonies and misdemeanors, were indicted jointly with felony theft of a check and billfold from S. E. Nall. The property is alleged to have been stolen from an oil well doghouse.

Yates was also indicted with burglary of the Parker Food Store. The burglary was alleged to have been committed on Jan. 31.

Also indicted with the same burglary was Clarence D. Welker, 26, Plainview. He was arrested in Plainview in February on another felony charge. Hearing for him was tentatively set for this afternoon in district court here.

The indictment against Seaton alleges he was previously convicted for stealing a car from Marsene Holt at Pollard Motor Co. Seaton served a term in the prison for this offense, having been convicted under the name of Ivory Rose. The prison system booked him correctly, however, under the name of Seaton. He was arrested at the rural home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Melton by Mrs. Melton the day after her home was burglarized.

Mrs. Melton saw the Negro return to the home and arrested and held him at gunpoint until the sheriff arrived.

Punishment may be enhanced on proof of previous felony conviction, in the case of which the maximum for the primary offense for which he is being tried must be assessed. In this case, the maximum would be 12 years.

The grand jurors were Lindy Clark, Hollis Fields, P. W. Cloud, Marvin Key, J. P. DeShazo, Clyde Godwin, Curtis, Corbell, W. D. Sims, Paul Keaton, Lloyd Devenport, Tinsley Rainwater, and Wilson Bright.

NO. 10 DOWNING WILL HAVE NEW TENANT—Sir Winston Churchill, who submitted his resignation today as prime minister, stands in the doorway of his official residence, London's No. 10 Downing Street, with his protege and reported successor, Foreign Secretary Sir Anthony Eden.

Eden Slated To Step Up

By DAVE MASON

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill, flashing his famous V-for-victory sign, drove to Buckingham Palace today and resigned the prime ministry.

Shouts of "Good Old Winnie" sped the 80-year-old statesman from Downing street to an audience with Queen Elizabeth II, and back to the home of British prime ministers. Britain's leader in peace and war, he had served nearly nine years as Prime Minister.

Sir Anthony Eden, 57-year-old foreign secretary in Churchill's government, is to be the new Prime Minister. An announcement to that effect was expected tonight or tomorrow.

Churchill spent 41 minutes in audience with his young Queen. Wearing top hat, polka dot tie and a shining gold watch chain, he went to the palace by limousine accompanied only by his son-in-law and private secretary, Christopher Soames.

Eden stayed behind. A lone figure was seen peering from the window of his suite in the Foreign Office as Churchill left Downing St. on his momentous ride.

ANNOUNCEMENT MADE

Soon after Churchill returned to No. 10 Downing St. at 5:15 p.m. Buckingham Palace issued this formal announcement:

"The Right Honorable Sir Winston Churchill had an audience of the Queen this evening and tendered his resignation as Prime Minister and first lord of the treasury, which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to accept."

More than 2,000 persons pressed into old Downing street as he left for the palace at 4:22 p.m.

Churchill was playing out his last role in the prime ministry he loved. A gray day had brightened into pale sunshine.

He posed for a full minute in the doorway of the historic home of prime ministers, so that photographers could record the scene.

The shouts and excitement seemed to catch some Britons by surprise. London newspapers were strike-bound and firm news of Churchill's impending retirement had come over the British Broadcasting Corp. only today.

Churchill reached the palace only a few minutes after young Queen Elizabeth II arrived there from an engagement on the Thames estuary Isle of Grain. The royal standard of gold and crimson fluttered up in the soft breeze as the Queen sped through the palace gates.

Churchill's pennant as warden of the Cinque Ports fluttered from his limousine as he whisked through the gates. Guards mounted near their sentry boxes came to the salute.

MOOD CHANGES

The Old Man's mood changed frequently while the black limousine carried him to the palace. At one point he looked serious and thoughtful, but he responded quickly to the loyal cheers of the crowds.

At each shout of "Hurrah, Winnie!" and "Good Old Winnie" h's face lit up in smiles. Some yelled with American accents. Dozens of American tourists and servicemen, with their familiar cameras at the ready, milled among the crowds at both Downing street and the palace.

Last night Churchill held a farewell dinner at No. 10 Downing St. for his Queen and for political leaders of the realm, including Eden and the chief of the opposition Labor party, Clement Attlee. Today he met with his Cabinet—apparently his last Cabinet meeting as Prime Minister of Britain.

Churchill and his ministers—Eden as foreign secretary has been his right hand man—posed for a photographer. They sat in a semi-circle of chairs with Churchill at the center.

Associates said Churchill thanked the Cabinet members for loyalty and cooperation. They reported he wore a brave smile and looked relaxed and assured.

Men and women of every rank and station stood waiting in tiny Downing street hoping for a glimpse of Churchill leaving for Buckingham Palace.

The old stateman decided unexpectedly to spare himself the ordeal of a valedictory appearance in his beloved House of Commons, where he has served 55 years.

In two terms, Churchill has served almost nine years as Prime Minister. He was at the helm from May 10, 1940, to July 26, 1945. Then his Conservative party was defeated in national elections. They regained power in 1951 and he resumed the prime ministry Oct. 26 of that year.

Eden was among those at the Cabinet session.

Now 57, Eden has long been Churchill's chosen successor to head the government and the Con-

Only 32 Vote In Election

Only 32 persons had cast ballots in the city election to elect three members of the city council by noon today, H. C. Callis, election judge, said.

The lack of interest in the election results from the fact that there is only one candidate for each of the council seats.

They are Walter Hales, owner of Walter Hales Lumber & Builders Supply on the East Highway, only incumbent, who is seeking re-election to place No. 5; Hollis H. Fields, owner of Snyder Steam Laundry & Dry Cleaners, who seeks a first term in place No. 1 to succeed Eugene Harper, former owner of the Pal-O-Mar Cortel, who resigned recently; and G. W. Parks, Jr., co-owner of Snyder Meat Co., who seeks place No. 3, now held by C. N. von Roeder, who is retiring from the council after having served two terms.

Death Claims Elza C. Rollins

Elza C. Rollins, 53, Scurry County stock farmer for many years, died at his home southwest of town at 5:45 this morning following a lengthy period of illness.

Funeral services are to be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the First Baptist Church. Arrangements will be directed by Bell Funeral Home.

Mr. Rollins was a member of the first board of directors for Cogdell Memorial Hospital, resigning because of his ill health. He had previously served on the school board here.

Stamford Hit By High Wind, Two Are Hurt

A noisy thunderstorm left Snyder .21 of an inch of rain early this morning, the first shower in this month of traditional showers.

Some hail was reported south and east of Snyder and in the south part of town. The stones were said to be small but covered the ground in some places. Very light showers were reported in the north-central part of the county, with some thunder and lightning.

A maximum temperature of 80 degrees was recorded here yesterday afternoon, David Strayhorn, weather observer, said. The overnight low was 47 degrees, with 50 degrees recorded at 7:30 this morning.

By The Associated Press

Tornadic winds ripped through Stamford in northwest Texas Tuesday, damaging buildings, utility lines and trees, and two persons suffered minor injuries outside Stamford.

Mrs. C. M. Latham, about 60, had a finger almost severed by breaking glass at her home east of Stamford. C. M. May, about 80, was blown out of his house on the Avoca highway and suffered shock and cuts about the head.

Reports of other injuries were unfounded—the reported victims had the measles. Five children of the A. D. Greene family were taken to a hospital because their doctor feared they would suffer because of damage to their home.

A vast area of Northwest Texas reported damaging winds, heavy hail and some rain.

The Weather Bureau warned that severe thunderstorms and locally damaging winds were in prospect most of the day for a 100-mile wide path of Texas from Abilene to within 50 miles of Fort Smith, Ark.

At Stamford, observers said it definitely was not a tornado.

An insurance man, C. F. Upshaw, gave a preliminary, tentative estimate of damage as ranging from $100,000 to $200,000.

The twisting winds hit about 6 a.m. Lightning cracked, thunder boomed and hail danced across rooftops and covered the ground like snow.

Heaviest damage was to the southwest section, where the winds first struck. The corrugated iron building that houses the Stamford Compress had a wall smashed in. A small grain elevator was badly damaged. So was an unoccupied camp for migratory farm workers. An abandoned roundhouse being converted to a business house suffered damaged.

Almost every home in town was damaged to varying degrees, as were a number of downtown business places.

The highway patrol at Abilene said road blocks were set up on highways leading into Stamford to turn back sightseers. Legitimate traffic was expected to continue. Highways around Stamford were termed extremely dangerous because of debris and fallen power lines.

The winds whipped from Stamford into a half dozen other cities and towns.

Bowie reported trees uprooted, plate glass broken and some buildings damaged when a windstorm hit a little after 9 a.m.

Snyder reported hail. Haskell and Anson had rain and some hail.

Names of the injured were not immediately determined. None required hospitalization.

Electric power was disrupted for a time at Stamford. Some telephone poles were blown down.

The hail ranged from marble-size down. At a point 5 miles south of Snyder, it completely covered the ground.

Jacksboro was another northwest Texas town that reported hail. There it reportedly was as big as bird eggs.

Near Abilene, an oil well drilling rig was damaged. A farm house and some buildings were also reported damaged by wind.

Gray, gloomy skies promised rain and thunderstorms for north, east and south central Texas Tuesday. Temperatures were due to skid, but no freezing weather was predicted.

West Texas had partly cloudy skies with local thunderstorms expected in the lower Pecos Valley eastward.

Hearing On Custody Of Children Is Set

HOUSTON (AP)—A hearing has been set for April 14 after the mother requested custody of the children of Harry L. Washburn, under indictment for the San Angelo car-bomb slaying of Mrs. Harry Weaver.

Washburn's former wife, Mrs. Helen Allen Willcockson, asked yesterday for nullification of a court order awarding custody of Gregory Allen Washburn, 6, and Margaret Diane Washburn, 4, to Washburn.

The youngsters have been living with Washburn's sister, Mrs. Lawrence Douty, since their father was arrested.

Soviet Admits Purge Fizzles

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet government admitted today that its purge of collective farm bosses has bogged down.

"The work of strengthening collective farms with executive personnel is making unsatisfactory progress," said Pravda in a dispatch that Radio Moscow broadcast to the Soviet Press.

The broadcast, monitored here, revealed that the Central Committee of the Communist party decided in January to clean out the collective farm managers and set July as the date when the purge should be finished.

Today's broadcast also revealed 30,000 jobs were at stake.

The campaign to weed out inefficient and corrupt managers of collective farms was aired last week by Nikita S. Khrushchev, Soviet Communist party chief, in a speech to farmers and party workers in the Voronezh area.

He said "tens of thousands" of particularly qualified workers in the party and other organizations were being sought to take over direction of lagging collective farms.

In reporting the bogging down of the purge, the radio said:

"It must be noted that heading a number of collective farms there are still unsatisfactory officials who do not come up to the standard required by the present exacting demands.

"This more than anything else explains the continuing lagging behind of some collective farms."

Annexation Of Two Areas Set

Ordinances to annex two areas adjacent to the present city limits of Snyder were passed on first reading by the city council last night.

The areas are the one combined area of Bootheland and Bootheland West additions in the north part of town, and a five block area lying east of El Paso Avenue and between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Streets to the west property line of the Thirty-seventh Street Church of Christ.

Both areas are being annexed after petitions containing the names of the owners of a majority of the property in the areas were turned in to the city council requesting the annexations.

The petition of persons in the north annexation has been considered by the council several times, and at least two public hearings have been held to work out details of the annexation. In last night's action, the motion made by C. N. von Roeder, councilman whose tenure of office expires today, included that the areas be served with water facilities this year. In the negotiation for annexation it had been determined that the city could offer water to the area this year, but that sewer facilities could not be offered until some future date. There are 97 residences in the areas which contain 570 residential building lots.

WATER PROBLEM

Many of the residents of the area have had to carry water in buckets for cooking and drinking because of the failure of private wells in the area to produce even enough water for cooking and drinking.

The area includes all of the Bootheland and Bootheland West from the Old Post Road east to the Clairemont Road.

The second annexation ordinance passed on first reading was on petition of Harrie Winston and Wade Winston, who requested replatting of the area along with the annexation. One entire block of the area is being donated by the Winston Brothers to the Colonial Hill Baptist Church as a site for a new church building. Other blocks will be used for residential development according to the plat approved by the council.

Replatting of the area had previously been considered and approved by the city planning and zoning commission.

STREET OFFER MADE

In another action relating to the development of Snyder last night the council instructed the city manager, B. J. Shelley, and city attorney, W. W. Park, to prepare a written letter to J. D. Scott, 3600 Avenue U, and G. M. Heinzelmann, 1108 Twenty-sixth Street, officially offering to pay $800 to each of the men for strips of property 30 feet wide and 181 feet long which combined could provide area for extending Thirty-fifth Street from Avenue U east through to Avenue S. Opening of the street would relieve much of the traffic congestion on other streets leading to southwest Snyder and the schools in that area.

A committee of citizens had been appointed earlier to appraise the property which the city wishes to acquire from the two property owners. The committee appraised the total property at $1,600, and a council committee had made the offer to the property owners verbally earlier, but the offer had not been accepted.

Fred Cullum, developer, has requested the opening of the street to provide outlet for traffic to and from a shopping center he says he proposes to build in the area from Thirty-fifth Street to Thirty-seventh Street on the west side of Avenue S. He has already had groundwork done in the area to level it for buildings.

Dr. Blasingame To Speak Here

A large crowd of Snyder civic club members is expected tomorrow at the Hilander for a luncheon and joint club meeting.

Speaker at the luncheon will be Dr. F. J. L. Blasingame, president of the Texas Medical Association.

Most of the clubs in Snyder will consider the luncheon their regular meeting. At the meeting, which will be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, those attending will include members of the Downtown Lions, Evening Lions, Rotary, Optimist, and Junior Chamber of Commerce organizations.

In addition to heading the state medical group, Dr. Blasingame is a member of the board of trustees of the American Medical Association, for which he has served as a liaison representative to the executive and congressional branches of the federal government. He is an officer in the World Medical Association.

A private practitioner from Wharton, Blasingame has for years fought trends toward socialized medicine.

Tomorrow evening, the Canyon Reef Medical Society here will honor Dr. Blasingame in a dinner at the Country Club. About 50 out-of-town physicians are expected for that affair.

Heads Roll As Red China Cracks Down

TOKYO (AP)—China's Communist masters cracked down with harsh new discipline in party ranks today in the wake of their first purge of top men since they took over the country in 1949.

Peiping radio announced the startling story to the world today. It said the Communist party had purged Kao Kang, the "Manchurian Stalin," who bossed Red China's faltering five-year plan, and Jao Shu-shih, a Shanghai stalwart who ruled six big eastern provinces in the early days of the Red regime.

Kao committed suicide, Peiping said. Jao, former party secretary for east China, "has never shown any signs of repentence and now persists in an attitude of attacking the party," Peiping said.

That seemed to indicate that Jao is alive.

Peiping charged the two with conspiring to seize "leadership of the party and the state" with Red army help.

Peiping announced the immediate creation of "party control committees" at all levels to "strengthen discipline and prevent a recurrence of so serious a case as the Kao Kang-Jao Shu-shih antiparty alliance."

"The remnants of counterrevolution and the reactionary bourgeois elements," Peiping said, "are accelerating their conspiracy to restore the counter-revolution."

"The enemy will use a thousand tricks to try to destroy our party," Peiping said in a broadcast of the text of a Communist party resolution. "Its greatest hope is that the Communist party of China might be split and degenerate."

"Party organizations at all levels must continue to fight against the tendency toward personal dictatorship and fragmentation which undermines the principle of collective leadership," the resolution continued.

"The party absolutely cannot allow these vicious tendencies to remain anywhere in the party."

The action was taken Thursday at the close of an 11-day party conference in Peiping. Mao Tze-tung, party chairman and ruler of China, presided.

The new control committees replace "discipline inspection committees" which the Communist ukase said "are no longer suited to the task of strengthening party discipline."

The party will control the membership and work of the new discipline committees at every level, Peiping said.

The resolution said party members were obligated to report "all suspected violations of party law and discipline to party control committees."

Senate Okays House Changes In Securities Control Bill

By JOE DENHAM

AUSTIN (AP) — The Senate today accepted House changes in the securities control bill and sent it to Gov. Allan Shivers for his almost-certain signature.

The bill aimed at curbing unsound stock sales by putting them under strict state scrutiny has been strongly urged by the Governor. He had said opponents included "greedy promoters."

The securities bill would bring trust company securities not now regulated under control of the secretary of state. House opponents had complained it would make a business czar of that official.

The Senate also passed and sent to the governor's desk 26 local and minor uncontested measures that have already been approved in the House. It passed another batch of 32 Senate bills and resolutions, sending them to the House for further action.

Both houses apparently are aiming for early adjournment for the Easter holiday and adjournment somewhere near on time when the 120-day regular session ends. After 120 days, pay for the legislators drops from $25 per day to zero.

A few more bills than usual gained approval in both houses yesterday as the House worked during the afternoon and Senate worked past noon.

The House gave preliminary approval to the bill creating the Trinity River Authority, after first stripping it of its controversial provision for a barge canal from the mouth of the river to the Fort Worth-Dallas area.

As engrossed the bill would allow development of water conservation, flood control and irrigation projects along the river. Funds for such projects would come from the sale of bonds, to be retired by proverty taxes in counties within the authority and sales of water.

The Senate approved another insurance bill in the series of reform measures offered by Sen. Searcy Bracewell, Houston. The measure, which met no opposition, would require the 3-man insurance commission to act as a unit on matters affecting the commission's divisions.

An insurance reform bill by Rep. R. H. Cory, Victoria, passed by the House, would help investors get their money back from bankrupt insurance companies by strengthening the liquidation division of the Insurance Commission. It would also bring such firms as county mutuals and "Lloyd's" type companies under the law.

Passed by the Senate were two other bills: one by Sen. Jep Fuller, Port Arthur, limiting the tandem axle loads of concrete mixing trucks to 36,000 pounds, and one by Sen. Ottis Lock, Lufkin, raising the maximum weekly compensation for unemployed workers from $20 to $25 and making workers idled by a labor dispute ineligible for aid.

The Trinity River Bill gained passage after backers agreed to remove the provision allowing development of navigation. Rep. Barefoot Sanders called the decision a concession to railroad interests which had opposed the bill heavily.

AREA OIL ROUNDUP

Wildcat Set For Southeast Scurry

R. S. Brennand, Jr., and F. D. Hefren of Midland have announced plans to drill a 3,500-foot wildcat in the extreme southwest corner of Scurry County.

The well will be the No. 1 Hewett & Autry, and is to be 990 feet from north and 330 feet from east lines of the southwest quarter of 95-97-H&TC. It is four miles northwest of Cuthbert, which is in the northwest corner of Mitchell County. The drillsite is on a lease of 160 acres.

TO TEST REEF

Trice Production Co. of Longview will set casing at its No. 1 T. J. Good, southwest Borden County wildcat, to test a section in the Pennsylvanian reef lime which has developed oil, gas and water.

The project topped the reef at 7,867 feet, on a datum of minus 5,340 feet. It deepened to 7,892 feet and ran a one hour drillstem test at 7,865-892 feet.

Recovery was 50 feet of slightly oil and gas cut drilling mud. Another test was taken at 7,892-912 feet. The tool was open two hours.

Gas surfaced in three minutes and there was a good blow of gas for the remainder of the test. Recovery was 300 feet of free oil which unloaded and 2,200 feet of salt water.

Flowing pressure during the test was between 300 and 1,025 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure after 20 minutes was 2,450 pounds.

The prospector is 18 miles south of Gail, one and one-eighths miles northeast of Pennsylvanian reef production in the Vealmoor field and in 22-32-t3n-T&P.

MAKES NO SHOWS

No shows of oil or gas were made on a drillstem test from 7,820-833 feet at Ada Oil Co. No. 1 R. H. Odom, central Scurry County wildcat.

The test lasted two hours, with recovery in the tube 100 feet of drilling mud.

The well is six miles northeast of Snyder in 234-2-H&TC.

GARZA COMPLETION

The Roy-San Andres field of Garza County has gained its second producer and a one and an eighth-mile west-northwest extender with the completion of Curtis P. Inman No. 1 W. V. Roy.

Western Drilling Co. opened the field with the completion of the No. 1 J. S. Boren.

The No. 1 Roy pumped 63 barrels of 37-gravity oil plus 50 per cent water on the final test. Production is from open hole at 2,548-650 feet which had been fractured with 10,000 gallons and acidized with 500 gallons.

The new producer is 330 feet from north and west lines of 119-5-H&GN, seven miles northeast of Justiceburg. It is about two miles north of the Justiceburg field.

Inman has filed an amended drilling application to change the location of his No. 1 Roy. The new location, five miles northeast of Justiceburg, is 330 feet from north and 990 feet from east lines of 113-5-H&GN.

KENT LOCATION

Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. of Fort Worth No. 3-D S. M. Swenson & Sons has been staked for drilling in the SMS-Canyon sand field of Kent County.

The location is 660 feet from south and west lines of 22-2-H&GN, 19 miles from Clairemont. Contract depth is 6,300 feet.

SPRABERRY SHOWS

A show of oil and gas was made in a Spraberry zone at Forest Oil Corp. No. 1 W. E. Love and others, southeast Dawson County wildcat 12 miles southeast of Lamesa.

The interval at 6,491-640 feet was tested for two hours, recovering 120 feet of heavily oil and gas-cut drilling mud estimated to have been 30 per cent oil. Another test was taken from 6,640-779 feet. The tool was open one hour. Recovery was 95 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water.

The prospector was making hole below 6,911 feet in shale and lime at last report. It is contracted to 8,500 feet to test the Pennsylvanian lime.

DRILLING REPORT

Sun Oil is rugging up at the No. 1-D Shannon, projected wildcat about 11½ miles northwest of Snyder.

Magnolia No. 1 York, east Borden County wildcat, has moved off the rotary rig and run rods. Operator is preparing to put the well on a pump.

Corporation Court Verdict Is Appealed

A corporation court conviction was appealed to county criminal court yesterday afternoon.

It is the case of Eddie Ruth Spears, a Negro woman who was tried by jury on April 1 and fined $50 and court cost in the city court for theft of a billfold valued at $3.

The charge alleged she stole the item from Antone Daniels, a second-class airman, on March 25.

An appeal bond was filed with the appeal yesterday. Sureties on the $150 bond were listed as her attorney, Garland Armstrong, and A. E. Dennis.

CHURCHILL

servative party. The party has a clear 21-vote majority in the House of Commons.

Churchill is expected to stay on in Commons in the role of an elder statesman.

The Prime Minister's announced schedule for today read like routine — Cabinet meeting at noon question period opening the House session at 2:30 p.m. and an audience with the Queen in the evening.

But Churchill's historic stepdown from power was expected to be woven within this regular prime ministerial work day.

Queen Elizabeth had an engagement keeping her away from the palace until 4 p.m. Churchill usually calls on the monarch at 7 p.m. on Tuesdays. But he could go earlier today to present his resignation.

There was a good possibility that the Prime Minister's office would announce the change in time for the 6 p.m. Britsh Broadcasting Corp. (BBC) newscast.

NO NEWSPAPERS

Unless the London newspaper strike is settled today, the BBC alone could bring the news to the British capital's eight million residents. The city's nationally-circulated papers have been shut down for 12 days by a walkout of maintenance men.

The BBC last night said the resignation of Churchill and the succession of Eden were "believed in Parliamentary lobbies to be extremely imminent." The government-sponsored radio and television service previously had carried only passing references to the expected changes.

Last night Sir Winston and Lady Churchill entertained the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh at a resplendent dinner party for 50 persons at No. 10 Downing St. It was the first time if Elizabeth's reign that she has attended such an affair.

Rumors that Churchill's retirement was imminent—heard several times in recent years—popped up again last month when it was announced that he would take his first real vacation in 18 months. He is to leave for Sicily April 12.

The reports gained prominent play in London newspapers before the strike. Not once has Churchill unequivocally denied them. Day after day on the green-carpeted floor of Commons, he has responded to pointed Laborite questions about the reports with cryptic witticisms and rapid-fire repartee.

Once he offered the advice that people should not be "misled by all the chatter in the press."

Athough there need not be a general election until October, 1956, it is widely felt that a new Prime Minister should seek a mandate from the country soon. May, June and October have been mentioned as likely dates.

A retiring Prime Minister also offers the queen the resignations of all of his Cabinet. This customary move gives the new Prime Minister a free habd in selecting his ministers. Eden, however, was expected to make few changes immediately.

No Depression Is Expected By Economist

DALLAS (AP)—No depression in foreseeable future and continued inflation of the dollar for 15 years was seen here by Dr. Arthur A. Smith.

Smith, economist and vice president of Dallas' First National Bank, spoke here yesterday at an opening session of the 48th annual convention of the Texas Cotton Ginners Assn.

In another address, R. Buford Brandis, economist for the American Cotton Manufacturer's Institute, warned that a growing import of foreign cotton fabrics is threatening the domestic cotton textile industry.

Smith, formerly a professor of economics at Southern Methodist University, said the rise in the stock market cannot be compared to its rise in 1929 which resulted in a crash.

In 1929, he explained, the world was at peace and little money was spent on armaments. Today, he continued, because nations are suspicious and jealous, billions are spent each year on defense.

"I see little chance for international tensions to let up," he said.

Today, he added, the nation does not seem to believe in balanced budgets. Despite political promises, he continued, "it looks like we are going to have more cheap money."

American people don't think the way they did in 1929, Smith said. "Then there were no bank deposits laws, no social security agricultural price supports, Fair Labor Standards Act, and no federal housing mortgage insurance."

He added that business leaders could now make decisions to keep the nation out of depressions whereas in 1929 it was generally believed that "boom and bust" cycles must follow each other.

Brandis cautioned that any U.S. policy that would make American cotton available to foreign mills and prices cheaper than domestic mills could purchase the lint would be dangerous. It would only speed up the trend toward cheap textile imports, he said.

The real solution to cotton's world trade problem, he said, lies in increasing textile consumption in the textile-short areas of the world.

Half the people on the face of the globe are in rages today," he said.

Brandis warned cotton men further that if the trend toward cheap fabric imports continued, American mills would lose their markets, cease buying raw cotton and have to convert to synthetics.

Annual synthetic output, he said, has in 10 years increased from the equivalent to two million bales of cotton to about 3,400,000. Synthetics, he said, now are replacing the cotton that some 5,800,000 acres of land once grew.

New Cub Pack Is Organized

A new Cub Scou pack has been organized under sponsorship of the Central Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association, Mrs. George Whitted, president of the unit, announced today.

This is the fourth unit organized under a program headed by the scout district's organization and extension committee, with Dan Warren as chairman, and under a new unit effort headed by Nolan von Roeder. Plans are to organize 17 new units in the district this year.

About 20 boys will be members of the new pack. Joel Griffin, Central Elementary principal, served as organizer. The pack committee includes D. R. Ainsworth, chairman, J. W. Browning, and Pete Whitley.

This committee named F. R. Guinn as cubmaster. Two dens have been organized with Mrs. B. L. Roderick and Mrs. D. R. Ainsworth as den mothers.

The pack set its planning meeting for each third Monday in the Central Primary cafeteria. The pack meeting will be held on each fourth Monday.

Immunity Law Is Upheld By Court

NEW YORK (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals has unanimously upheld the new law designed to compel witnesses to testify under immunity from prosecution in cases involving the national security.

There were notes of reluctance in the three judges' decision, however, as the law passed its first test of constitutionality.

Chief Judge Charles E. Clark said in a separate opinion:

"I concur, but regretfully. For the steady and now precipitate erosion of the Fifth Amendment seems to me to have gone far beyond anything within the conception of those justices of the Supreme Court who, by the narrowest of margins first gave support to the trend in the 1890s."

The unanimous opinion, written by Judge Jerome N. Frank, suggested that the case should be heard by "18 other" ears—the nine-member U.S. Supreme Court.

Separate concurring opinions were written by both Clark and Judge Clarence Galston.

The case, decided yesterday, is expected to reach the Supreme Court ultimately.

Specifically, the Court of Appeals affirmed a six-month jail term imposed on William Ludwig Ullman, former Air Force major and government civilian employe, for contempt of court.

Ullman twice refused to testify before a grand jury here investigating a Washington wartime espionage ring after immunity from prosecution had been granted to him under the new law by U.S. Dist. Judge Edward Weinfeld.

Ullman, 47, has been accused a number of times of being a former Soviet spy inside the Pentagon.

In refusing to answer questions before the grand jury, Ullman contended the government was invoking the new immunity law as a device to entrap him into a perjury charge, even though the immunity granted would make it impossible for him to incriminate himself as a spy.

Sentenced last March 8, he began a legal assault on the law, designed to draw information from suspected subversives. The law, passed by Congress last year, concerns witnesses before both grand juries and congressional committees in cases involving national security.

Clark's opinion yesterday said: "There is much in the defendant's contention that, at the end of the road is a charge of perjury supported by the oath of a renegade or paid informer."

Stevens Feels Shooting War Is Not Near

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—U.S. Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens said after a two-day visit on Formosa he did not feel a shooting war is near.

He was given the latest intelligence briefing on the Red buildup near the offshore islands opposite Formosa. Later he told reporters he personally did not think a shooting war was imminent but "that's only an impression and I can't document it."

He left for Hong Kong today.

He said he saw no need for American ground forces to defend Formosa or outlying islands but that an increase in the size of the American Military Assistance Advisory Group by possibly one third is under consideration.

The feeling that war is near is stronger in the United States than on Formosa, he said.

A Nationalist spokesman described as without foundation a report carried by the English-language China News that a fleet of Chinese Red gunboats and junks was hovering off the Matsus. He said the Nationalist navy and air force would have attacked any such concentration and had not done so. He expressed the opinion that the report was a natural speculation following the disclosure that the Red Chinese Luchiao airfield about 100 miles north of the Matsus was being finished sooner than expected.

The only report of action today was that Nationalist planes strafed two small gunboats in Meichow Bay 90 miles south of the Matsus.

Stevens completed a quick inspection of Nationalist military establishments on southern Formosa and said the Chinese troops appear to have excellent morale and health. Their weapons are good, he said, but they need more artillery and vehicles and he will try to speed up vehicle delivery.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today that if there is war in the Formosa area it will be entirely due to Chinese Communist provocation and initiative.

He said the United States is trying to deal with Communist China on a civilized and peaceful basis.

Dulles discussed what he called the dangerous Far Eastern situation at a news conference. He said the United States would of course like to have Allied countries brought into a single Far Eastern security system — which would mean broader support in the defense of Formosa.

But he indicated this is a general policy objective rather than a specific diplomatic purpose under negotiation.

School Vote Canvass Set

Returns of the elections of trustees to the Fluvanna school board and the county school board had not yet been opened for canvassing this morning, but unofficial reports were that the unopposed candidates in the county race were elected and that Leo Beaver, O. M. (Jack) Martin, and Dee Pylant were elected to the Fluvanna board.

The only candidates for the county board were Perry Echols [illegible] school trustee commissioner precinct 3, and Hess represents commissioner precinct 4. There are five trustees on this board, one for each commissioner precinct and a trustee for the county at large.

Other candidates in the Fluvanna race were James Stansell, Ray Fulford, Clay Reeder, Bunyan Evans, Robert Jones, Bobby Warren, and C. D. Burrow.

The case of the Hobbs election was similar to that of the county school board, the only candidates for the Hobbs board being Claude Weems and James Nettleton.

Returns will be announced after canvassing.

Charge Is Filed In County Court

A charge of driving while license was suspended was filed in county court late yesterday afternoon against Jeff Henry Dowell, 41, formerly of Alice.

Dowell was recently charged here with the same type offense and given time to appear at an indefinite date, later coming to the court and pleading guilty. His license was suspended previously on still another charge at Big Spring.

He was arrested on the most recent charge by city police.

Forest Fire Still Raging

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP)—Fire fighters and military personnel battled today to halt the largest forest fire in North Carolina history. It has destroyed more than 250,000 acres of timberland in two eastern counties.

The fire, possibly the largest ever to burn in the South, swept past the village of Ponzer yesterday but no homes were lost. Another Hyde County village, Scranton, was threatened.

The fire broke out in the swampy [illegible] Fuel [illegible] County last week.

A Washington, N.C., National Guard unit of two officers and 45 men was dispatched to the scene by Gov. Luther Hodges. Marine authorities at Camp Lejeune sent a big pumping outfit and 50 men. From Ft. Bragg came four pumpers. Three pumpers were sent by Coast Guard installations.

Asst. State Forester P. W. Tillman estimated the fire had burned a distance of about 20 miles. He said it was the "largest fire we've ever had."

No estimate of the damage was available.

Meanwhile, 16 forest fires were reported yesterday in the Rocky Mount area, Tillman said. One blaze near Bethel had burned over 8,000 acres.

In 1955, Tokyo reported a population of 7,784,122, an increase of 289,842 in 1954.

Jimmie Ethel Barrett became the bride of Bobby Lynn Taylor in a double-ring ceremony read at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd William Barrett, near Simms, Tex. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Taylor, Big Spring highway.

The Rev. E. J. Davis, pastor of the First Baptist Church in De Kalb, read the wedding vows. The bridal party stood before a fireplace decorated with white gladioli and candles. Mrs. Earl Lewis, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Choice L. Barrett, sister-in-law of the bride, lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street-length dress of white lace with a small white hat and other accessories of white. Her bouquet of white carnations was bound on a white Bible belonging to the mother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Cadar Parr of Maud, Tex., a sister of the bride, was her attendant. She wore a suit of beige and a corsage of white carnations. Jay Taylor of Snyder served his brother as best man.

At the reception which followed the wedding, Mrs. Choice Barrett and Mrs. Lewis served the wedding cake and punch. More than 40 guests signed the register.

Following a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., the couple will be at home at 3300 Avenue U.

The bride, a teacher here, was graduated from Simms High School and East Texas State Teachers College. Mr. Taylor, a Korean War veteran, was graduated from Snyder High School and attended Texas Tech. He is associated with G. S. Taylor & Son Drilling Co.

Long a stand-by for dessert is prune whip. It can be varied by substituting other fruits, of course, all just as good. Using the prepared fruit saves preparation time.

PRUNE WHIP

2 egg whites
Dash of salt
1-3 cup sugar
1 jar (8 ounces) junior food prunes
½ cup heavy cream

Beat the egg whites and salt until peaks that curl over slighty are formed. Gradually and thoroughly beat in sugar. Without washing the beater, beat the cream until stiff. Fold the prunes into the beaten egg whites, then fold in the cream. Turn into sherbet glasses and chill until serving time. Makes six servings.

Good with this fruit whip is a soft custard sauce, made by beating the 2 egg yolks remaining from the whip with 1 cup milk. Beat just until combined, then add 1 tablespoon sugar and a dash of salt. Cook and stir constantly over hot (not boiling water) until the sauce coats a silver spoon. Cool, stirring often, adding ¼ teaspoon vanila.

Sinatra Completes Return To Top In Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A year ago, Frank Sinatra stepped onto the Hollywood Pantages stage to accept an Oscar for his supporting role in "From Here to Eternity."

Today the crooner, once considered a faded star, has completed his return to the top rung in show business. In recent months he won new critical praise as a crazed assassin in "Suddenly" and snagged the coveted role as Nathan Detroit in "Guys and Dolls." He can virtually name his price in any night club in the land and is dickering with two networks for a TV show. And he proved with "Young at Heart" that he can still sell a million records.

How does he feel about his recent success? He discussed it as he lunched on meat balls, salami, sliced ham and cheese in his dressing room on the Goldwyn lot. He said he had made no comeback.

"I don't mind the term," he remarked. "It doesn't hurt my feelings, and it makes my story sound more dramatic. But I don't think it's true. Maybe I wasn't active in pictures. But I was still making money. I could draw as much salary and in some cases more than I had before in night clubs.

"They've used the same term with Judy Garland. But she didn't make any comeback. The talent was always there. She just wasn't working."

Sinatra feels that his career troubles started during his contract at MGM.

"I knew I would never get out of sailor suits and Army uniforms unless I left there," he said, referring to the many service musicals he made. "So I took my money and got out. They owed me $250,000. I settled for half."

He admitted that his personal problems had an effect on his career. He underwent a stormy courtship and a stormier marriage with Ava Gardner.

"Nowadays I hear records I made three or four years ago and I wish I could destroy the master records," he said. "It was all because of emotion. No doubt about it."

When his turmoil with Ava was over, his outlook improved. He looked better, sang better and felt better, he said.

As he did when he left Tommy Dorsey's band, he made a clean break. He changed agents and recording companies. He campaigned hard for the role of Maggio in "From Here to Eternity," won it and an Academy Award.

Many hailed Sinatra's new triumph, including onetime bobby soxers who swooned over him a decade ago. Now wives and mothers, they have remained loyal to him, still writing fan mail although in more subdued tones.

Many others were irked by the crooner's new fortune. During his dozen years as a star, he has made an uncommon amount of enemies, especially among the press. Much of this was due to his behavior during his hectic days with Ava, when he resented any intrusion on their affairs.

But he has always had an ability to arouse antagonisms. The cause [illegible] in Hoboken. He has always been a scrapper.

"You can't realize now what life was like in those days," he said, speaking of his boyhood in the depression. "We've had good times for many years. Besides, parents have entirely different ideas on raising children. That's all to the good.

"In my neighborhood, you literally had to fight for survival. The town was divided roughly into four sections — Italians, Irish, Jewish and Negro. Heaven help an Italian kid who wandered into the Irish part of town.

"I had my first big fight when I was 9. I can remember rolling on the floor in a pool hall. I had plenty of other fights after that."

It will soon be time to make fresh fruit cobblers. To obtain best results, have your fruit mixture piping hot before adding your biscuit topping. For a shortcut, use ready-to-bake biscuits.

Churchill's Life Spent In Conservation

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nothing symbolized the life of Sir Winston Churchill better than the clothes he wore and the way he acted last night just before, as Londoners believed, he was ready at last to retire as prime minister.

He had on the traditional full court dress at his dinner party for the Queen: knee breeches, silk stockings, frock coat, ruffled shirt. And, hatless in the rain, he bowed low in the traditional way as the Queen stepped from her car.

Although he was the real head of government, and the Queen only a figurehead, the monarch represents continuity in government. Churchill's clothes and his bow were for this symbol of stability: continuity.

The two greatest revolutionaries of the 20th century, Lenin and Hitler, rose and died during Churchill's 80 years. He had no sympathy with either. He fought both. He was neither a revolutionary nor a social planner.

He was the great conservative of the 20th century. His life and his energy were spent in conserving the British Empire.

For the British people he was a vivid and sturdy bridge between the past and the present and, perhaps, the future.

No man of his time had a greater sense of history. It was fortunate for his countrymen in their time of troubles. He could make them feel through his language, which was rooted in history, a direct connection with their ancestors.

He was not an architect of a new world. He may have dreamed of being one before he got too old. He had hoped for a big conference, which might have brought peace, between himself, President Eisenhower and the Russians.

Time marched over him and the dream faded. But if he could not remake the world at least he did his best to hold together the one he knew until other men came along who had more time to try to improve on it, if they didn't destroy it first.

Regular Tests Help Slow Cancer Rate

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The most immediate hope of reducing the cancer mortality doesn't lie with science. It lies with you.

"How can I cut down the death rate of cancer?" you ask. Simply by taking periodic tests to see if you have cancer.

"But why should I go to all that trouble?" most people inquire. "If I had cancer, wouldn't I at least suspect it?"

In many instances, yes; in [illegible] signals, but often they are masked. A thorough physical checkup, however, will usually disclose them.

But are such physical examinations statistically worthwhile for people who have no real rearon to suspect they have cancer? The answer to that, of course, lies strictly with the individual. How important is it to him to be sure he is free of cancer?

Here are a few figures from the American Cancer Society that might affect your own decision:

There will be about a half a million new cases of cancer in the United States this year, and some 700,000 people will be under treatment for cancer.

During the year 235,000 Americans will die of cancer, or about one every two minutes.

But—note this figure—every seven minutes last year an American died of cancer who might have been saved if properly treated in time. The estimated needless deaths for 1954—75,000.

Ironically, as medical men learn to quell other diseases, your chances of getting cancer increase. They used to be one out of every five. The American Cancer Society this year says they are now one out of four.

Here are a few figures from the based on the current situation:

More than 40 million Americans now living will develop cancer, 24 million will die of it.

Cancer will strike in two of every three families.

It isn't merely a disease of old age, as many people still believe. Half the cancer deaths are in people under 65 years of age. Cancer kills more children between 3 and 15 years old than any other disease.

There are about 250 cancer detection clinics in America where for a payment of around $20 you can find out in two hours whether you have any cancer symptoms.

Cancer experts would like to make every physician's office a cancer detection center. But many overworked doctors naturally are somewhat reluctant to take the time to put a person who looks and feels healthy through an exhaustive physical examination. They feel they should concentrate on patients who are obviously ill.

The remorseless fact still remains: Those alert to the danger of cancer, who discover it in time, are most likely to survive.

Stock Prices Rise Faster Than Profits

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock prices rose much faster than corporate earnings or dividends last year. But profits show good signs of increasing at a better rate this year. And some see in this a vindication of the big bull market in stocks which worried some economists and puzzled some senators.

The Associated Press average of the price of stocks of 60 leading and typical industrial corporations [illegible] rose 43 per cent during 1954.

At the same time, combined earnings after taxes of these 60 companies rose 7.6 per cent. Prospects for increasing the rate of profit climb in the first half of 1955, however, are excellent.

The stock price index—in spite of some sharp breaks on the stock market in the first three months of 1955—further rose 2.3 per cent from Jan. 1 to March 31 of this year.

During the first half of 1954, when business was slower and earnings declining, the AP stock price average, reflecting confidence instead of gloom, rose 17 per cent. In the second half, as business began to pick up, the stock price index rose 22 per cent.

According to the experts, investors in stocks have been expressing confidence in the future of business, and looking beyond last year's profit reports, and even beyond just this year's prospects.

Many in the market, however, have been interested less in future earnings prospects than in the expectation that the bull market momentum would keep prices rising, so that they could get in and out and make a fast buck.

But for the long-term investor the cheering thing is that business activity quickened in the final months of 1954 went zooming through the first quarter of this year, and is pulling earnings up with it.

Dividend payments by all corporations showed a total gain of 5 per cent last year. And generous ones are anticipated this year.

The bulls boast that this is just what they had been forecasting.

Sweden has one passenger automobile for every 13 people.

Mathews Gets Ready For More Homeruns

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Now that Milwaukee's County Stadium is within hailing distance, Eddie Mathews, the Braves, muscular young man with the powerful wrists, is warming up for a robust introduction to the park's reduced confines.

With opening day just a week away, Mathews didn't have a ..... to his credit until yesterday. Then the 23-year-old third baseman, who led the National League with 47 homers in '53, cut loose for three, although the Braves lost the game to Brooklyn 10-8.

The Braves management revamped County Stadium last winter with just such things in mind. It was the second toughest home run park in the league last season. A mere 72 home runs were hit there. Only Pittsburgh's Forbes Field had fewer, 84.

But most disheartening to the management was that the Braves, who hit 96 home runs on the road, were able to swat only 43 out of their own backyard.

Now the property line in left center and right field has been moved in, lopping off 15 feet.

Hank Aaron contributed a homer to the Milwaukee attack yesterday too, but the Brooks ... it in stride, ganging up on Jim Wilson for nine runs in the first two innings.

Baltimore's Orioles out-homered Pittsburgh 4-3, but the Pirates won their exhibition 9-8. Toby Atwell and George Freese hit home runs in a five-run Pittsburgh first and Frank Thomas hit one with two on as the Pirates scored four in the fourth. Bobby Young, Les Moss, Vern Stephens and Gil Coan unloaded for Baltimore.

Mickey Vernon's two-run homer carried a five - run Washington rally in the seventh that beat Cincinnati 8-5.

Two three-run innings gave Boston a 9-7 victory over Philadelphia.

Cleveland beat the New York Giants 9-5 as Wally Westlake and Vic Wertz homered. Westlake's good for three runs, came off starter Marv Grissom. Larry Jansen gave up the Wertz homer with one on.

Chicago's White Sox paired Sandy Consuegra and Mike Fornieles, who relieved in the eighth, to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 4-2.

Doak Walker's Time For Contract Is Due

DALLAS (AP)—Doak Walker faces a tough decision today.

Will he play his 20th season or call it quits on a fabulous football career?

The little man who was three times All-America at Southern Methodist then carried on for five years in professional ranks with the Detroit Lions has reached contract signing time again.

Nick Kerbawy, general manager of the Lions, comes here today to talk it over with The Doaker. They'll announce at a press conference this afternoon if Walker is to continue in football or retire to private business. Walker already has some highly remunerative business interests.

The Doaker says he doesn't know himself. "I don't know if they even want me," he declared. "But if they do I have this decision to make: I can't play football the rest of my life. I am 28 years old and I must get started in a profession.

"Sure, I have loved my football career. The game has been good to me and the people have been wonderful. I have been fortunate not to run into a crippling injury. I have a few more years left in which I can play football. But should I take them or get into something that I can make my life's work?"

It sounds like Walker is leaning toward retirement but Doak talked like that two years ago before he signed his last contract.

Walker made it plain he didn't plan a coaching career. "I'd lose too many friends," he said.

Walker was adding up last night as he talked to a sports writer friend. He figured he had played in at least 75 football games in his ward school, junior high school, college, service and pro football career.

"I've been in organized football 18 years," he said. "If I cared to fudge a little I could say 19 because I played on the fifth grade team when I was in the third grade. That's a lot of miles running up and down a football field isn't it?"

Players Debate On Spring Drill Time

CINCINNATI (AP)—Sixteen major league players sat down today to discuss spring training.

Specifically, the players as representatives of all major leaguers debated the March 1 starting date for spring training.

The clubs instituted the date at the request of the players. Commissioner Ford Frick had objected but when he observed the rule was being evaded, he fined the Milwaukee Braves and the Kansas City Athletics.

Ted Kluszewski, home run leader and Cincinnati player representative, was reportedly ready to ditch the March 1 date but anxious to keep the March 10 mark which permits the beginning of exhibition contests.

Turner Says He Is In His Best Shape

NEW YORK (AP)—"Yes, sir," said Gil Turner today, "I'm in the best shape in a long, long time."

Nobody will dispute the hard-punching Philadelphian, who last night handed Gene Fullmer the first defeat of his professional career at Eastern Parkway Arena.

In the process of winning a 10-round unanimous decision, Turner floored Fullmer in the sixth round, the first time Gene has been on the canvas

"I beat Joe Micell on March 7," said Turner, "then knocked off for six days and went back in training. I fight best at this weight. I had strength and speed."

He weighed in at 151 pounds. Fullmer, who had run up a skein of 29 victories, weighed 154.

At St. Nicholas Arena, Tommy (Spring Breeze) Jackson, 189, the ex-Hurricane, won a unanimous decision over Archie McBride, 187½, of Trenton, N.J.

Tulsa Doesn't Have Finished Lineup Yet

By JACK CHARVAT
Sports Editor, Tulsa Tribune

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The Tulsa Oilers will open the 1955 Texas League at Houston tomorrow night with a lineup far from set and probably a roster studded with speedy youngsters optioned down from Cleveland's American League champion squad.

When the Indians took almost 50 players to their Tucson, Ariz., training base March 1, they set the plan for a late assembly of the Tulsa team.

Manager L. D. (Dutch) Meyer, making his debut at the Oiler helm, has announced:

"I may not be able to draw up a lineup until 7:55 p.m. April 6.

"I've worked with some fine looking youngsters at Indianville (Cleveland farm system training site at Daytona Beach, Fla.) but I don't know which players will come from that group or how many we can expect to be lopped off the Indianapolis or Cleveland rosters for our use."

As of now, the Tulsa holdovers from 1954 are outfielder Mike Lutz and general handyman Joe Macko. Both were owners of disappointing seasons as the Oilers finished in a tie for fifth place last year.

Ziggy Jasinski, regular shortstop for the last two years, suffered a knee injury in February and has not taken a day of spring training.

Ed Barr, a fair hitter who can cover worlds of space in the center field slot, has joined the Oilers but is far behind in conditioning. He played for Tulsa in 1953 and spent last summer with Shreveport.

The catching probably will be handled by young Frank Biskup and Earl Averill Jr., son of the former American League outfield star. Both are trying to make the Double A grade from Class C ball.

Manager Meyer indicated he might go with Macko at first base, Steve Jankowski at second and Don Mallott at shortstop.

Lutz and Barr probably will get starting roles in the outfield.

You can't name names when there are none on the roster. The answer to the question of a Tulsa finish is anywhere from first to eighth. It depends entirely upon Cleveland.

Some Feel Athletics, Yankees Too Close

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Among baseball men, as they gathered this spring in Florida and talked off the record to their friends of the press, there was evident a growing feeling of disquiet over the interlocking relationship between the owners of the New York Yankees and the Kansas City Athletics, both of the American League.

This feeling, close to fear, will not be dissipated to any extent by the latest offering of Arthur Mann, an author who has had long experience in the game's inner circles. In an article entitled "How to Buy a Ball Club for Peanuts," appearing in this week's Saturday Evening Post, Mann supplies the previously unpublished details of how Arnold Johnson, owner of the new Kansas City franchise, purchased Yankee Stadium from Del Webb and Dan Topping late in 1953.

After declaring that the sale of the stadium, together with the Kansas City park, netted Webb and Topping each a capital gains advantage of more than one million dollars, Mann continues:

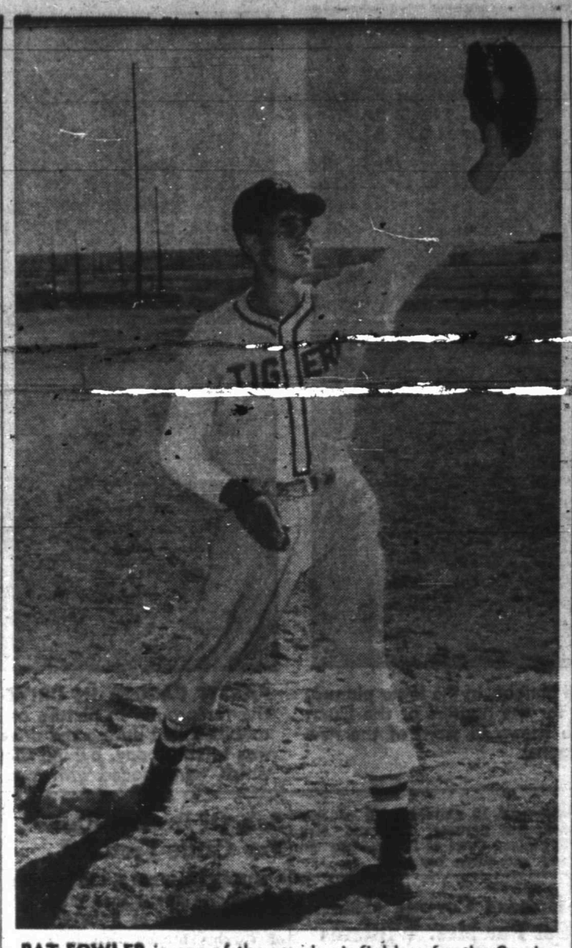

"Webb and Topping not only sold their property to Johnson's especially created New York corporation and then rented it right back but also lent them much of the money he needed to buy it.

"A rundown on the ways in which Arnold Johnson raised that $6,500,000 purchase price will give a good index as to how he operates. First, he sold the New York property to the Knights of Columbus for $2,500,000 and then leased it back for 28 years at annual rentals of $125,000 for the first four years and $181,250 for the last 24—a total of $4,850,000.

"Meanwhile, the rentals Johnson would be receiving from the Yankees over the same period started at $600,000 a year, winding up on a descending scale at $350,000—a total of $11,500,000. Net rent profit to Johnson for the 28 years: $6,650,000.

"Second, Johnson obtained a 10-year loan of $500,000 from a co-partnership identified only as Atwell & Co. Third, Johnson negotiated a 20-year second mortgage for $2,900,000 with Webb and Topping themselves. Finally, he obtained a $100,000 mortgage on the Kansas City property.

"These four items added up to a total of $6,000,000 which left only a comparatively modest balance of $500,000 to be assumed by the Johnson corporation. Later, even the $500,000 was more than recouped by Johnson through selling his Blues Stadium to Kansas City in the course of the Athletics' deal.

PAT FOWLER is one of the regular infielders for the Snyder Tiger baseball team, which is scheduled to play in Rotan at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Fowler shares time on first base with Ronnie Baker. The Tigers hold a 4-7 record.

Trotters Do Well Without Goose Tatum

By JOE MOOSHIL

CHICAGO (AP) — The fabulous Harlem Globetrotters are turning a fast basketball dollar these days even without their Golden Goose.

Abe Saperstein, pudgy owner-coach of the Globetrotters, is not a bit worried over the fact that Goose Tatum, clown prince of basketball, might never play again.

Saperstein suspended Tatum for a month after the Goose pulled one of his famous disappearing acts and is now prepared to release his star. Tatum was last reported visiting relatives in Arkansas.

"I haven't heard a single word from Goose," Saperstein said after Sunday's appearance at Chicago Stadium. "His suspension will be over April 12th and frankly, if I don't hear from him I'll just have to release him."

Belief that the Trotters could not draw as well at the gate without Tatum has proven wrong.

Near capacity and some record crowds have packed stadiums throughout the East and the Midwest on the present whirlwind tour with the College All Stars.

Ron Jackson May Become Outfielder

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Ron Jackson, towering Chicago White Sox first baseman, is going to get a chance to become an outfielder.

Manager Marty Marion, eager to capitalize on manpower, wants to find out what else Jackson can do since the Sox must carry the bonus player until June 15, 1956.

Jackson will have little opportunity to play first base with Walt Dropo and Phil Cavarretta around.

Jackson, 21, batted .280 last year as a rookie. "I don't believe I did so badly," says Ron. "If I had been pinch hitting, I'm sure I would have hit .300."

Nebraska vs. Houston

HOUSTON (AP)—Nebraska, with a three-game winning streak, hoped to make the University of Houston No. 4 today after tripping the Cougars 8-4 yesterday.

Nebraska scored all its runs in the first four innings, tagging the loss on lefty Ronnie Zeller.

Lawrence Will Hurl Opener For Cards

LONGVIEW, Tex. (AP) — Brooks Lawrence has been tapped by manager Eddie Stanky to hurl the opening game of the 1955 season for the St. Louis Cardinals.

He will oppose Chicago's Cubs at Chicago next Tuesday. He rolled up a perfect 3-0 record against the Cubs last season and had a 15-6 overall mark. Lawrence has been hit hard in three of five exhibition appearances this spring.

Rush Set For Opening Day Pitching Monday

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Bob Rush, the Chicago Cubs' ace right-hander, Monday showed he is all set to pitch Opening Day at Cincinnati Monday.

Rush worked seven innings against Beaumont and held the Explorers to three singles and one run as the Cubs nailed a 2-1 decision.

Rush fanned five, two coming with the bases loaded and one out in the second inning when Beaumont scored its only run.

Cincinnati Manager Birdie Tebbets already has announced that Art Fowler will be his Opening Day choice.

Longhorns Take Hogs

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas golf team rolled up big margins in defeating the University of Arkansas here yesterday 5-1.

Only Phil Rogers of Arkansas managed to win a match. He edged Raymond Leggett, 1 up.

Old Veterans Likely To Lead In Masters

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Since the Masters is a golf tournament that puts a premium on achievement and a strain on credibility, it isn't too hard to imagine one of the old ... like Byron Nelson or Lloyd Mangrum winning it this year.

It's even easier to believe that ... have copped the big prize in five of the past six years, will come back to take the honors from the brash youngsters who have dominated tournament golf this winter.

This is a tournament that "unknowns" just don't win. For one thing, it takes some outstanding accomplishment in golf to earn an invitation. Then the big, demanding Augusta National Course can't be mastered without a lot of savvy to go with good shots.

Nelson, the picture-swinging golfer who retired from the tournament circuit at the peak of his career, could be the one to come up with his third Masters victory. He won in 1937 and again in 1942 and he has scored consistently well here in spite of his lack of steady competition.

In addition, Byron says he's driving better now than he has been in several years. A shoulder ailment which interfered with his swing, causing him to hold back almost unconsciously, has cleared up. Practice rounds of 70 and 68 indicate he's back in the groove of a decade ago.

Nelson's 68 wasn't the best score turned in during two days of official practice rounds. Hogan, winner in 1951 and 1953 and loser to Snead in last year's playoff, fired an eight-under-par 64 Sunday.

Snead almost duplicated that with a 65 Monday.

A good many others have shattered par of 36-36—72 for the 6,950-yard Augusta course. One all-amateur fivesome went out Monday and the only one who scored over 70 was Billy Joe Patton, the sensation of last year's tournament. Top performer in that group was dynamite Billy Goodloe, the rotund Valdosta, Ga., clouter. Goodloe shot a 38 on the front nine and remarked ruefully, "I don't get many of those."

Nobody, least of all the golfers, expects such scoring to continue when the tournament begins Thursday.

The field of about 80—there were 65 contestants registered Monday night—is expected to include three two-time winners, Nelson, Hogan and Horton Smith, and one triple winner, Snead. Jimmy Demaret, the only other golfer to win the Masters three times since it was inaugurated in 1934, is recovering from a recent operation and ... in the winning department this season; and ... Billy Maxwell, who took top honors in the Wilmington, N.C., Azalea Open last week.

The young challengers who'll be trying to snatch top honors from the old guard include Bob Toski, leading money winner of 1954; big Mike Souchak, the outstanding performer on this year's winter tour; Gene Littler, runner-up to Ed Furgol in last year's National Open and ...

DeMarco Will Meet Basilio

NEW YORK (AP)—Confident he can beat anyone in his class, welterweight Champion Tony DeMarco has signed to defend his four-day old crown against patient Carmen Basilio in Syracuse, N.Y., June 10.

"I promised to meet Basilo if I won and this is my answer," said the 23-year old Bostonian after he signed an official contract yesterday before Julius Helfand at the State Athletic Commission offices. Helfand is chairman of the commission.

"He'll knock out Basilio," said Manager Bobby Agrippino, who has been with the champion since Tony's amateur days.

Water Is Preferred Over Uranium Strike

KANAB, Utah (AP)—This southern Utah desert community was in a tizzy today over a strike made by a uranium drilling crew not far away.

Uranium? No. Water—flowing at 100 gallons a minute from an artesian well. As one old-timer put it:

"With this kind of water, that area would be better than a uranium claim."

The well was discovered on uranium claims owned by Standard Mining Co. of Salt Lake City and being drilled by Boyles Drilling Co.

Mary Pickford Is Top Bidder On Studio Lot

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Top offer for the old United Artists Studio lot has been submitted by Mary Pickford, court appointed referees have disclosed. She bid $1,525,000 and hopes to acquire the property April 20 unless higher bids are made in open court at that time.

Superior Judge Paul Nourse ordered the property sold in connection with a partition suit between Miss Pickford and Sam Goldwyn. Yesterday he set April 20 for confirmation of the sale.

Radioactivity In City Water Is Negligible

CINCINNATI (AP) — Radioactivity that got into drinking water in Cincinnat after the 1954 hydrogen bomb tests in the Pacific was "much less than you'd find any time in pa l at a bi e radioactive spring waters," a U.S. Public Health Service researcher said today.

But Dr. L. R. Setter declared this situation could change for the worse in the future in any area where there might be "greatly increased" radioactivity in the atmosphere as a result of any "grandiose-scale" explosions of bombs.

He added, though, that government radioactivity sleuths have now developed quick techniques for figuring radioactivity in surface amount of such activity in rainfall.

And this, he said, would come in handy in monitoring drinking water supplies in the future.

He made the comments in an interview after a report to the American Chemical Society's 127th national meeting in which he described periodic analyses of both rainfall and the water of a cistern and an impounded pond in the Cincinnati area—in the heart of the United States—over a period of eight months after the Pacific tests.

Fred Martin To Retire

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—Ace relief pitcher Fred Martin of the Shreveport Sports has announced his retirement from baseball.

Martin, who bolted to the Mexican League in 1946 from the St. Louis Cardinals, was a key factor in last year's pennant drive by the Sports. He pitched in 44 games, posting a remarkable 1.67 earned run average.

The sinker-ball specialist won nine and lost three for Shreveport after giving up his job in May as manager of the Temple club in the Big State League.

Martin came to the Cards in 1941 from Houston and after his jump south of the border, came back to the United States and was reinstated in 1949. He played two more years for St. Louis before returning to the minors.

Martin said his restaurant business in Fort Wayne, Ind., would keep him from returning. The 40-year-old pitcher yesterday told Bonneau Peters, president of the Sports, he could not get anyone to manage his business while he played baseball.

Giammalva and Johnny Hernandez, 1954 Southwest Conference singles champion, defeated John Zimmerman and Clayton Williams in doubles, 4-6, 6-0, 6-3.

City League Getting Set

The City Baseball League is being re-organized this year to start play on May 1, president F. G. Fisher said.

Fisher said that after the last part of May, when Pony League play starts on the baseball field in Towle Memorial Park, the city league will be able to field only four teams, since it can use the diamond only two nights each week.

Before that time, however, the league wants to start play with several teams, eliminating all but the top four when it becomes necessary to cut down playing time, Fisher said. He asked that all persons who have teams and wish to play under those conditions be at a city league meeting to be held at 7:30 o'clock Friday night in the office of Forrest Beavers in the courthouse.

Three teams have already entered the league. They are Hermleigh, Tri-Service, and Sun. Entrance fee has been set at $50.

Giles Due To Face Four More Counts

AUSTIN (AP)—Four more felony charges were filed yesterday against former land commissioner Bascom Giles, bringing the total to eight in less than a week.

Identical charges were also filed against J. Paul Little, a Crystal City attorney whose name has been frequently linked with veterans land deals under investigation.

The pair was accused of four counts each of theft totaling $377,344 in connection with four Zavala County land transactions last year under the veterans land program.

Dist. Atty. Les Procter had the charges filed in justice of the peace J. H. Watson's court.

Questioned by reporters, Procter was non-commital on why the new charges were filed without grand jury action. He denied there was any connection between his reasons for filing new charges and those filed last week.

Procter had said the previous felony theft charges against Giles, L. V. Ruffin and B. R. Sheffield resulted from his "growing alarm" that something might happen to hamper criminal prosecutions. He pointed particularly to a statute which says a penalty of two to ten years for felony theft convictions can be barred by voluntary restitution prior to prosecution.

Restitutions have been made in several suits brought by the state for recovery of veterans land program funds in allegedly fraudulent transactions, the most recent of which was made yesterday.

The eight new complaints allege Giles and Little in 1954 illegally took $164,786 on Aug. 3, $50,250 on Aug. 21, $81,348 on Oct. 11 and $80,960 on Oct. 11.

The four theft charges filed against Giles last week accused him, Sheffield and Ruffin of taking illegally $688,344 in state funds in four veterans land deals in Kinney, Dimmit and Zavala counties.

Giles also faces two grand jury indictments, one accusing him of conspiracy to commit theft of $83,500 in a land deal and the other charging him with accepting a $30,000 bribe in another land deal.

Restitution made yesterday was by the Byrd Cattle Co. of Dallas, paying back $85,068.15 in return for land it sold the state under allegedly fraudulent circumstances in a veterans land program transaction.

The company made the offer of restitution in a written answer in 53rd District Court to a civil suit filed recently by Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd. A check for the full amount was tendered with the answer.

Shepperd said the offer was promptly accepted by the veterans land board.

The payment brought to $293,000 the total paid into the clerk of the court by defendants in civil land suits brought by the state.

Meanwhile, a new Travis County grand jury was empaneled to continue the veterans land scandal probe started by its predecessors.

In other investigations of veterans land dealings, Shepperd left for Laredo to help the Webb County grand jury and Asst. Atty. Gen Horace Wimberly met with the Lavaca County grand jury. Wimberly will meet Thursday with the DeWitt County grand jury at Cuero.

A water works school for water department employes from cities in this area will begin at 7:30 o'clock here tonight.

The school will be instructed by Leon R. Holbert of the Texas Engineering Extension Service of Texas A&M College, and is being sponsored jointly by the city of Snyder, the Permian Basin Water Works Association, and the State Health Department.

Course for the classes, which will be held at the city hall, will be determined by the members of the class.

Eligible persons who satisfactorily complete the course will receive 20 hours credit toward the requirement for certification under the Texas Sanitary Law.

Tax Collections Are Above Budget Estimate

City taxes collected from Oct. 1, 1954, when current taxes became payable until April 1 totaled $166,530.08, B. J. Shelley, city manager, reported to the city council last night.

In the city budget approved by the city prior to Oct. 1 for this fiscal year, it was estimated that total tax collections would probably total $159,600, or 90 per cent of the total assessment.

Current taxes collected total $160,989.20, delinquent taxes collected total $4,786.47, and penalty and interest on delinquent taxes total $754.41.

Comeback Of Lanza In Doubt

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The comeback of tenor Mario Lanza remained in doubt today after he failed to show for his fabulous $50,000-a-week night club debut at the Hotel New Frontier.

Was it a hot throat or cold feet?

Dr. J. R. McDaniel, who forbade Lanza's appearance a half hour before the premiere last night, said the singer was suffering from an "acute upper respiratory infection and acute laryngitis."

The Las Vegas doctor added: "I felt he might impair his voice permanently if he went on."

The first-night audience, which included film stars and a heavy turnout of press, was alive with rumors that Lanza failed to get enough nerve to perform.

The gala crowd in the plush Venus Room was audible in its disappointment when Jimmy Durante came onstage and announced that Lanza could not appear. "He is a very sick boy," the comedian said. "I went to see him but he was unconscious and in an oxygen tent."

At a press conference, Durante's statement was denied. Lanza's press agent said that a tank of oxygen had been taken to the singer's suite, but Dr. McDaniel did not want it administered.

Sammy Lewis, entertainment director for the hotel, said he believed the Lanza deal would be canceled if the singer missed the show tonight. The $50,000 fee is the largest ever paid for a weekly date here.

A hotel official said he was calling Margaret Truman in New York to see if she would replace Lanza —"and she can name her price." She has heretofore refused Las Vegas offers.

Durante, Ray Bolger and Mindy Carson went on for Lanza at the first show.

X-Rays Seem To Slow Some Lethal Cancer

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — X-rays blasting the brain's switchboard of human emotions seem to be slowing some lethal cancers and easing cancer pain, a neurosurgeon said today.

This switchboard is the hypothalamus, the size of a prune, located right under the brain.

Your emotions — fear, anger, love, hate—flood into it from your senses. Out of it come chemical or nerve reactions to make you run, punch, blush, swear, or take other actions.

The hypothalamus sits atop the pituitary gland, often called the body's master gland. The pituitary sends out hormones to control your sex glands, adrenals, thyroid and other glands.

But recent research indicates the hypothalamus is really the top man, that it even may make hormones which are stored in the pituitary for use later, said Dr. Arthur Arnold of the University of Illinois College of Medicine.

[illegible] hypothalamus to the benefit of some cancer patients. They are using X-rays to short-circuit some of the activity of this emotional switchboard.

Some cancers'—like breast cancer in women and porstate gland cancer in men—feed upon sex and other hormones. A remedy is to remove the sex glands or other glands which stimulate these cancers or to remove the pituitary to prevent those other glands from making damaging hormones.

X-ray or other radiation is one way to knock out the pituitary without surgery.

But Dr. Arnold finds the pituitary is very resistant to X-rays. The hypothalamus will bring short-circuits to stop production of hormones which make cancer [illegible]

Name For No. 12 Creates A Problem

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Florencio Garcia now have a dozen children but the matter of a name for the youngest, who arrived yesterday, is quite a problem.

The Garcias have a habit of giving their children first names starting with the letter E. The children, other than the newborn, range in age from 2 to 17 and are named: Eduardo, Enrique, Ernesto, Elena, Edmundo, Everardo, Esteban, Esren, Eugenio, Elizabeth and Elias.

Mrs. Romelia Garcia, 39, gave birth to a boy at Lincoln Hospital yesterday. Hospital officials inquired about a name but the Garcias say it is quite a problem to figure out another suitable boy's name starting with E.

The Case Of The Dangerous Shoe

OMAHA (AP)—Barbara Chliupek lost her shoe while here with her Staplehurst High School class. This is what she wrote police: "It's a pink flat with two pearls on one side and it has two different shades of green inside. But, if it would be too dangerous please don't try to get it. I wouldn't want anyone to get hurt."

TESTING—The glittering bell of the big tuba was too much of a lure for two-year-old Josef Westerhorstmann when a tired bandsman parked the horn on the Washington Monument grounds during Cherry Blossom festival music competition. Josef leaned over and gave the mouthpiece his biggest "blow." Then, without making any more noise than he did on the tuba, Josef trudged silently and proudly away.

Observers Feel Legislature Operating Ahead Of Schedule

EDITOR'S NOTE — Robert R. Patterson, who represents the 90th district in the Texas House of Representatives, has written for The Daily News a brief summary of some major actions during the first 10 weeks of the current legislative session.

by ROBERT R. PATTERSON

As the 10th week of the 54th Session of the Legislature closed, with six weeks of the Session remaining, general concensus of opinion among experienced observers was that the body was well ahead of schedule in its operations.

Both the House and the Senate have passed appropriation measures which are now in the hands of a Conference Committee for further study. The next few weeks will see the development of a tax program to cover the expenditures of the State for the next two years.

On the desk of the Governor, awaiting his signature, are revisions of the Probate Code, the Corporation Code, and an Act governing the sale of Securities in the State.

Recodification of the Probate Code, which has to do with the estates of descendant and the business affairs of minors and incompetents, has been a much needed change in the statutory law for many years. The new bill, which is the result of study of the Judicial Council, the State Bar, and many Judges throughout the state, collects statutes scattered throughout seven volumes of the statutory law, and rearranges them in an orderly and logical fashion. The code provides a uniform method as to how notice, or citation, in probate matters shall be given. This technicality has resulted in many lawsuits. It also brings the legal representatives of descendants, and of minors and incompetents under the same set of rules.

Reorganization of the Corporation Code, another much needed change, is also the result of many years work on the part of interested lawyers. The principal change permits corporations to be organized "for any legal purpose" rather than limiting organization to specific purposes.

The Securities Act strengthens the old "Blue Sky Law" permitting the Secretary of State to pass on securities offered for sale in the state so as to eliminate speculation, particularly in fly by night companies.

The Election Code has been amended in several particulars by the House and has been reported favorably to the Senate by a committee. The new bill eliminates the dual method of marking the ballot and reinstates the scratch method; permits exempt persons over 60, required to obtain exemptions, to obtain one exemption to be used at every election; and changes the date of the first primary to the last Saturday in April, and the second Primary to the last Saturday in May, among other changes.

A bill passed by the House and awaiting consideration by the Senate amends the Jury Law so as to make it conform with the Constitutional Amendment permitting women to serve on juries. Women who have children under the age of 16 are allowed to claim exemption under this act, separate quarters are provided for, and the law relating to householders and freeholders is clarified so as to include women living in rented houses.

An important measure defining and regulating the profession of "Life Insurance Counsellor" has been passed by both houses and signed by the Governor.

A bill abolishing common-law marriage in the State, which was presented by the Judicial Council of the State Bar Association, has passed the House and been favorably referred to the Senate by a Committee.

"Cross-filing" by candidates on the ballot has been abolished in a bill already signed by the Governor.

Full and fair disclosure of the character of Insurance Securities sold in the State, an important step in the tightening up of the insurance laws, has been passed by both houses and awaits the signature of the Governor.

The House has passed a bill calling for a 90 day waiting period in divorces, which the Senate amended to a 60 day waiting period. The bill is now in a Conference Committee for further consideration.

The Senate is considering a bill passed by the House which would extend the provision providing for "good-time" by prisoners in the penitentiaries, to those prisoners serving time in jail for misdemeanors.

A tremendous amount of committee work has already been done on other important pending legislation, and most members believe that session will be ended within the 120 period provided in the Constitution.

Hoover Cites Police Needs

WASHINGTON (AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said today the nation's large cities have not increased their police strength to keep pace with a higher crime rate.

Noting that statistics show heavily populated areas to be the favorite hunting ground of criminals, he said:

"The average 1.5 police employes per 1,000 inhabitants in the 10,000 to 25,000 (population) category increases to only 1.7 in cities with a maximum of 250,000, and to 2.3 in those over that population figure.

"Assuredly, police and other auxiliary forces to guarantee the welfare of the citizens under their jurisdiction. Certainly it is sound strategy to take up the challenge presented by the growing problem in the major cities of the country."

Hoover expressed his views in a signed editorial in the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin, which is circulated to police agencies throughout the country.

"The average citizen runs far greater risk of being victimized by the vicious or stealthy criminal in the heavily populated cities than in the smaller urban communities," he said, asserting that a principle reason is "that the number of police officers in the large cities has not kept pace with the higher crime rate."

Prize Is Found In Frozen Chicken

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Robert Wimberly, 50, first thought he had an old Crackerjack-style prize when he found a diamond ring in a package of frozen chicken.

But he contacted the firm where the chicken was bought and found that no prizes are included in the regular packaging.

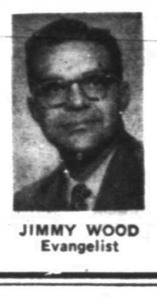

Wimberly was happy anyway. The ring's owner delivered a $200 reward for the diamond.

No Shortage Of Vaccine Is Expected

NEW YORK (AP)—A polio authority expects drug firms to make enough Salk vaccine before June 30 to immunize 30 million persons. Earlier estimates called for 18 million.

Dr. Hart Van Riper, medical director for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said yesterday this additional production should satisfy the demand for vaccine and keep shortages from developing.

tendency recently to build up scares about shortages that I don't believe are going to materialize," he said.

The official report on whether the vaccine is effective will be made April 12.

If this report indicates that the vaccine provides protection against crippling polio, Van Riper said, there "might be a day or two" of rush on supplies.

"But the situation will adjust quickly," he added.

The polio foundation has ordered enough vaccine for nine million persons and will use it to inoculate mostly first and second-grade children throughout the country. Remaining supplies will be distributed through drugstores to doctors for private use.

Van Riper said polio authorities hope special consideration will be given to children in age groups most likely to be stricken.

There are 61 million Americans under 21, the group considered to be in the polio danger zone. Most susceptible years within this group are from 5 to 8.

A recent study indicated that many top business executives have the ablity to read only at slow speed.

Legislator Breaks Prolonged Silence

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — For three months of the Nebraska legislative session, 68-year-old Sen. William Purdy, of Norfolk, never said a word on the chamber floor.

He broke his silence yesterday to ask revival of a bill of his that was killed.

He quickly told what he wanted —the bill banned sale of alcoholic beverages in drug and grocery stores—then said, "I leave it to you."

The Legislature refused to raise the bill.
