"He has quit his hollering," said the office, "and now when we speak to him he replies intelligently. He used to refuse to say a word. A few interested persons were dropping in now and then to see him. Shepard exhausted the law's every recourse in attempting to defeat the jury's verdict. The child fell into the well near sundown Wednesday, his tiny body wedging in the hole at a distance of about 40 feet from the surface and about 60 feet above water level. A rope which was dropped down around his shoulders last night failed to bring him to the surface, so tightly did the earth hold him in its clutch.

As the Madam posted bond she told Dillon her business had been dull in telling customers what the spirits say and she thought dispensing the real spirits would be more profitable.

The old-time Muleshoe boy who had a head for figures, now has a son who has an eye for them, observes Jess Mitchell in the Muleshoe Journal.

The only reason a great many American families don't own an elephant is that they have never been offered an elephant for a dollar down and easy weekly payments. Jack Suits in the Lorenzo Tribune points out.

Just paid a short visit to a farm in Floyd county the other day and near the barn, in fact all over the place were machines of all descriptions. There were parts of ten tractors, one worn-out Ford truck, four combines, plows, and tools—all outside exposed to sun, wind, and rain, the cowhand scribe of the Hesperian reports.

W. M. Curry offers the following tip in the Crosbyton Review: We are practicing false economy when we are trying to do without some kind of a trades day program. Call it by any name you want to but ask the people to come to town on a certain day in the week and induce them to come by giving away something. If we want to carry on we must meet competition, for people just naturally like to go some place where they will have a chance to draw something.

STATE COURT'S TERM OPENS ACTIVE

APPROXIMATELY 175
CASES ACTED ON WEDNESDAY

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 16.—Acting on applications for writs of error in approximately 175 appeals from decisions of the courts of civil appeals, the supreme court Wednesday made the first decisions of its 1930-1931 term.

The accumulation of the summer, added to applications already before the court, made the day's work one of the largest in months.

Many Writs Refused
In a majority of cases, many of which were small damage suits, writs of error were refused or dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

Suit of the state to recover back taxes since 1908 from the City of Dallas on its reservoir site in Denton county was definitely ended when the court denied application of the state for a writ of error.

Whether a corporation organized without capital stock, the charter of which does not specify its purposes concerned with the general welfare of a community, would be subject to payment of a franchise tax was taken under advisement by the court in granting a writ in the case of Jane Y. McCallum, secretary of state, against the Retail Credit Men's Association of Austin. This association obtained an injunction barring collection of the tax, although admitting the corporation was for the benefit of members and the secretary of state contended it should pay a tax.

Road Cases Up

The court took action on several road cases. Writ of error was refused in an appeal by Morgan Camp and others from lower court decisions adverse to their attempt to restrain the commissioners of Jones county from expending any portion of $750,000 road money appropriated for paying highway 30 on a new route, six miles east of the original route.

A writ was granted in the case of C. S. Fletcher and others against W. B. Howard, in which Fletcher sought to restrain the county judges and commissioners of Childress county from changing the location of highway 4.

Ends At Limits

The important question of whether a county has the right to obligate itself to expend money for improvement of a state highway within a city limits was presented in the case of the City of Breckenridge against the county of Stephens. The lower courts held that the contract the county made to reimburse the city for improvements on the Breckenridge highway, running through Breckenridge, was invalid since the commissioners' court was without authority to make the contract. According to the brief, the appellate court held that county commissioners' jurisdiction ended at a city's limits, this in spite of rulings of the attorney general that a county might reimburse a city. A writ was granted by the court.

Test of rule 37 of the state railroad commission, by which oil wells are required to be 150 feet apart and 150 feet from a property line, was presented in the case of the State vs. Jake Jarmon, from Guadalupe county. Constitutionality of the rule, however, was not directly involved, although it was considered possible the court might pass on this mooted point in its final determination of the case.

Writs Refused

Petition for a writ of error filed by M. D. Cerf against John T. McElroy of El Paso to review of Cerf's suit against McElroy for $500,000 commission on the sale of a ranch, was refused. Cerf claimed he and his associates entered into an agreement with McElroy for the sale of the property whereby they were to receive all over $2,000,000 brought by the property. It later was sold for $2,500,000 but McElroy denied making the contract.

Echo of the failure of the First State Bank of West in Dewitt county was heard when the court granted the application of K. F. Carrons, and others for a writ of error. The suit grew out of Carrons' liability on a bond covering deposits of county funds in the bank. It being claimed the bond covered only special. The trial court gave the county judgment of $100,000 on the bond, which decision was upheld by the court of appeals.

The Lone Star Gas company was granted its application for a writ of error in a suit from Clay county involving royalties on oil and casinghead gasoline under a contract with J. H. Stine. Stine lost in the trial court but the court of civil appeals reversed the decision and rendered in his favor. Stine leased his property for gas development purposes and sought to hold the company for one eighth royalty on all oil and gasoline produced.

NEW YORK (AP)—Approximately 133,000 passengers and 3,000,000 pounds of mail were carried during the first six months of this year by 29 major American airlines, says the aeronautical chamber of commerce of America. The total distance flown during that period is estimated at nearly 11,000,000 miles.

The driver of the car was arrested. He said he lost control of his car trying to turn a corner.

King Boris And Royal Fiancee

The betrothal of Princess Giovanna of Italy and King Boris of Bulgaria has just been officially announced in Rome by her parents, the King and Queen of Italy. For years the impending union of the two royal European houses has been expected but religious differences until now have proved a stumbling block. Boris belongs to the Orthodox Greek Church and Giovanna is a Catholic. The Vatican is said to have sanctioned the marriage.

"Science is revolutionizing all forms of manufacture. The manufacturers of LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes have extended me the courtesy of an invitation to their factories. I was not able to accept but have taken the opportunity to read the reports of scientific men as to the achievements in their factories.

"It is clear that in no line has science been more intelligently applied than in the making of cigarettes."

LUCKY STRIKE—the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so TOASTING removes harmful irritants that cause throat irritation and coughing. No wonder 20,679 physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating! Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why TOASTING includes the use of the Ultra Violet Ray.

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

Consistent with its policy of laying the facts before the public, The American Tobacco Company has invited Mr. Clark Howell to review the reports of the distinguished men who have witnessed LUCKY STRIKE'S famous Toasting Process. The statement of Mr. Howell appears on this page.

TALBOT HEARD HERE IN APPEAL FOR REPUBLICAN CANDIDACY

DALLAS MAN IS OUT TO SAVE STATE FUNDS

SEVERAL HUNDRED ARE PRESENT; BONDS ISSUE PLAYED

Col. W. E. (Bill) Talbot, of Dallas, Republican gubernatorial candidate, speaking before an assembly of between 400 and 500 people in Lubbock last night, brought his campaign for "What Texas Makes, Makes Texas" to the South Plains. The speaker built his entire address around the idea that Texas is being "milked" of her richest cream of wealth by the north and east.

His address dealt but briefly with any political issues. He stated at beginning that "this will be different from any political speech you ever heard." He characterized his appearance in Lubbock as being made to talk "common sense." Toward the close of his address, however, he ridiculed in a few words the Sterling road bond issue, efforts at prohibition enforcement and the Terrell election law.

"Time To Think"
"It's high time for Texas to start thinking about its own welfare," the speaker declared, "and stop acting as a warehouse for the rest of the nation."

Texas' main trouble, as explained by the speaker, is that it produces more raw material than any other state but sends it out to be manufactured and then has it shipped back in for high prices.

"This money should be kept in Texas," he said. "Texas should manufacture its own raw products, and keep some of the cream at home. We will have jobs, better business, prosperity, if the people of this state will start patronizing Texas industries and start utilizing the resources and raw materials at hand."

Would Change Ends
"We are in a position of a cow whose front legs are in Texas and whose tail is in the north and east. They milk her and get the cream while all we do is the feeding. Let's grab that tail and bring it around into position where we will get some of the cream."

Talbot explained that property cannot be legislated, rather the farmer must be given a price for his products while labor must be given the right to work. "We are merely in a mental panic now," he said. "At this time there is more money in the United States than ever before. What we've got to do is put it in circulation. Buy the things we need, pay up some of our debts and give it a chance to circulate. This cannot be done by politics or promises. We must apply sound economic principles."

Says Farmers Robbed
"Every year we hear the cry that the price of cotton is falling, but the law of supply and demand, but I'm here to tell you frankly that is not so. The farmer is being robbed by a bunch of speculators. Why? During the period between 1890 and 1928 only ten years showed a surplus of cotton, but every year we heard the same cry. Between 1915 and 1928 there were four years when there was a surplus but, in each of those the average price of cotton was one and one-half cents higher than in the other years. Now, if you send me down to Austin I'm going to try and find out why that is going on and I'm going to put a stop to it if possible."

Switching from agriculture, Col. Talbot declared that the independent oil operators and the wildcaters, those who have meant more to the development of Texas than any other, are being slowly but surely squeezed out. Independents of Texas, Oklahoma and California agreed on a proration program, he explained, the other states, however, did not and a vast amount of oil was brought in from Venezuela. "The Big Six," he described the larger companies. "Are stifling the independent. And program and a protective tariff."

"Too Much Hypocrisy"
"Let's be honest with ourselves," Talbot said in speaking of prohibition. "There is too much hypocrisy. If we really want prohibition, then let's give it a fair trial. If we don't want it, then let's get it out of the way. If you send me down to Austin you are going to get a square deal. I'd find out whether the people of Texas wanted prohibition. There are sheriffs, deputies and constables in all of the 253 counties. There should be an honest

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The wind kept tossing waves up high till frightened Clowdy shouted. "I have had enough of this wild stuff. I'm going down below. The cabin is the place for me. I won't be washed into the sea." Then Scouty answered, "If you're scared, that is the place to go." "But I am going to stay up here. I hardly think there's much to fear. The ship is large and, I am sure, can ride the waves all right." And then, amid a sudden roar, the boat arose up high once more. And then it dropped down with a wave till almost out of sight.

The Travel Man looked worried. Clements and a brief response from the candidate.

Go To Courthouse
Immediately after the four course dinner, the men went to the courthouse with Colonel Talbot, where the latter addressed local citizens in the interest of his campaign.

Those present at the banquet included J. E. Vickers, Francis Baker, C. E. Mandgen, W. H. Bledsoe, J. J. Clements, W. A. Jackson, Charles A. Guy, Roscoe Wilson, I. E. Barr, Harley D. Woods, J. S. Edwards, Nell H. Wright, John L. Vaughan, Colonel Talbot and G. A. Guthrie.

Edwards Presides
Colonel Talbot was introduced by Dr. W. A. Jackson, head of the department of government at Texas Technological college. The meeting was presided over by J. S. Edwards, of Slaton, a member of the State Republican committee.

Immediately following his address here, the candidate boarded a train for San Angelo where he will speak tonight, returning to Big Spring for an address Friday night.

With Postmaster John L. Vaughan, local Republican leader, as host, 14 local citizens gathered at Hotel Lubbock Wednesday night at a private dinner honoring Col. W. E. Talbot, GOP candidate for governor of Texas.

The banquet, held in the private dining room, was informal and was devoid of speeches save for Mr. Vaughan's introduction of Colonel Talbot, a welcome by Mayor Jerry.

HIGHWAY WORK IS RUSHED IN AREA

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO HAVE ROADS IN SHAPE SOON

Following the heavy rains of the past week-end, every available man on the maintenance department of the district highway force is at work grading roads, according to announcement by Joe Caldwell, division engineer.

"We have an average of 85 or 90 men regularly on our maintenance work and they are all at work," he said. "We also have nearly all of the 60 or more farmers who do part time work, grading the roads. There are ten districts in this division with an average of six extra men to the district."

Asks Forbearance

Mr. Caldwell asked the traveling public to bear a little until three very bad places in the district could be reconditioned.

Probably the worst, he said, is a place south of Southland, on highway No. 7. There the water is over the road for a considerable depth. They had a six inch rain between Pleasant Valley and Southland and the water is deep over the road," he explained.

"Another bad place is in Parmer county on No. 33, near Friona. There the road is almost impassable. I was advised Wednesday. We are doing everything we can."

"Still another bad place is about three miles south of Abernathy. It is between Monroe and Abernathy and is on a county road. The dump across the lake is hardly wide enough for two cars to pass in good weather and now it is almost impassable. There is also another bad place on the east and west road on this detour."

ROME (AP)—Archaeologists are disputing whether ruins discovered last year in the heart of the city are those of the markets of Trajan or the barracks of the Praetorian guards. When found, Mussolini dedicated the ruins as Trajan markets.

Knoxville Replaces Mobile In Southern Baseball Association

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 16. (AP)—Knoxville entered the Southern Baseball association and Mobile left today by vote of the league directors at their annual meeting here.

President Jimmy Hamilton's troubles with Mobile fans, the drop in attendance at Mobile park when he began selling players "to meet expenses," and his offer early in the season to transfer his franchise to Knoxville, led to disunion which culminated in the change.

My Friends: Correct Your Eating Faults and Lose Your Fat With Kruschen Salts

Yes, I'm forty-five today—built like a race horse, my friends say—and I know I feel 10 years younger than I did three months ago—and I'd hate to tell you how much fat I lost with Kruschen Salts. I call Kruschen Salts the "magic salts" because when I was fat and wretched, dependent and half sick all the time—it took only one bottle that I bought for 85 cents at Bowen's Drug, Bowen's Hilton Pharmacy, the City Drug or the Lubbock Drug to give me up-put ambition and energy into me—make me feel years younger and with the help of a change in diet show me how to lose the fat I was so ashamed of.

Cut out pastries and desserts—go easy on potatoes, cream, cheese, and butter—eat lean meat, chicken, fish, vegetables and fruits and never fail to take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning. Every drug store worthy of the name in the World sells Kruschen Salts—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—not much to pay for buoyant health.

JOHN AND THEOPHILE GET IN MIX-UP OVER C NOTE AND LAND IN COURT FOLLOWING FIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Oct. 16.—John Silvinakas and Theophile Shilakes were both musicians, but they couldn't harmonize.

John was number one tenor in St. Anthony's Lithuanian choir. Theophile, also a tenor, sat in the family pew, awaiting his chance.

John reached for high C, mezzo forte, one night, and gargled a note. The next night he wandered off the top of the treble clef, groped for a high one, and his voice sounded like the cry of an iceman.

The choirmaster put Theophile in John's place, and John sat in the pew. It may have been Theophile's straining for high C that caused him to look that way, but John thought Theophile was making faces at him and his danger rose to a crescendo.

When the choir filed out of the church, John, walking pianissimo, followed until he caught up with Theophile. He aimed sharp at Theophile's larynx. The blow landed an octave high and Theophile went flat, coming up fortissimo with a black eye.

Members of the choir ended the duet before it reached the finale. Theophile got out an assault warrant, in six-eight time.

"Music," said Judge J. P. Seallen yesterday in recorder's court, "plainly had its harm." But there has been a lot of discord here, and I want you fellows to do a little harmonizing, or I'll have to use another well-known method of soothing the savage beast."

John and Theophile went away, singing the blues.

GREEDY THIEVES

Twenty-Three Thousand Trout
Are Stolen

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 16. (AP)

—Trout filching—not fishing—has come to pass. Twenty-three thousand trout, eating size, have been filched from a small pond on the Nokona golf course.

The trout, of the brown and rainbow variety which are so succulent when browned in butter and garnished with parsley, had been placed in the pond for later transplanting in other waters from which they might be fished, one at a time.

Somewhere with a mania for trout and too impatient to take them out one by one with a hook and line apparently has seized them out.

The Isaac Walton league, which planted them, is indignant.

ALL ELSE TRIED FAILED, THEN KONJOLA WON

Past President of Woman's Relief Corps Strongly Recommends New Medicine for Stomach Disorders

MRS. MINNIE KRUEGEL

"For quite a long time I suffered from indigestion," said Mrs. Minnie Kruegel, 2509 Thomas avenue, Dallas. "Gas formed in my stomach after meals and the pressure against my heart caused severe heart palpitations and shortness of breath. At times I could scarcely breathe and I suffered from attacks of heart-burn."

"I tried many medicines but they all failed to bring relief. Then a friend who had received wonderful benefit from this medicine induced me to try Konjola. Almost immediately after I began the treatment I noticed improvement. In two weeks I was completely relieved of all stomach disorders. I am thoroughly convinced that Konjola is a wonderful medicine and I heartily endorse it."

On such victories—and this is not an unusual case by any means—rests the fame of this master medicine. Konjola makes good—that is why it makes friends by the thousands.

Konjola is sold in Lubbock, Texas at Bowen's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section—Adv.

Pecan Bayou Goes To Highest Peak

AUSTIN, Oct. 16. (AP)—Water in Pecan Bayou in Brown county yesterday was the highest since 1900, according to reports received at the highway department by division engineers. Highways 7 and 10, closed because of the high water, were reopened today. Damage was tentatively estimated at $500.

Highway 33 in Parmer county, division 5, was flooded in several places and was reported impassable. All dirt roads in this division, especially in northwest Texas, were reported to be in bad condition because of heavy downpours. Improvement was expected within the next 24 hours, advises the highway department said.

Florida showed the highest per capita consumption of gasoline in the sixth federal reserve district—82.3 gallons.

BAD FOR NERVES

Texarkana Man Suffers Attack As Agents Appear

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 16. (AP)—Federal prohibition agents observed today that the presence of a "moonshine" plant near a person's home is apt to aggravate an attack of "nerves."

When the agents appeared today in the vicinity of James O. Clark's home in Miller county, officers said he became extremely nervous. His apparent elation as they prepared to leave further aroused their suspicions. They decided to search Clark's home. No liquor was found there but a path leading from the barn terminated at a large distillery in nearby woods. Clark was arrested and held under $2,000 bond on a liquor law charge.

NEW TRAIN WHISTLE WAILS WARNING DOWN RIGHT OF WAY, NOT TO SIDES; TEXAS MAN IS INVENTOR OF NEW WHISTLE

DALLAS, Tex., (AP)—Speeding locomotives in the quiet of the night... screaming whistles... interrupted sleep...

This soon may be a thing of the past as the result of successful tests with a new train whistle, built like a megaphone, which throws sound directly down the right-of-way so no one close to the tracks can fail to hear it.

On the other hand, the whistle diminishes sound on either side of the track.

The new warning device has been designed and built by employees of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad. Officials and mechanics have spent several years perfecting it.

Work was started by C. T. McElvany, for years superintendent of machinery on the Katy. His son, C. T. McElvany, Jr., now general roundhouse foreman at Dallas, continued the experiments and through his efforts the whistle has been perfected to a point where tests now are hailed as successful.

McElvany's whistle, which has been placed on two fast passenger train locomotives on the Katy line, has an amplifier and sound director which looks much like a headlight.

Warning notes are produced by six pipes, with low and high notes, so blended that they produce a maximum warning with a minimum of annoyance.

Getting steam from the steam dome to the whistle without too much condensation during cold weather is one problem still being carried out this winter.

Because of softer tones and the fact that sound will not be heard all over the countryside the whistle is expected to benefit not only train passengers, but also thousands who live along the right-of-way, especially in large cities.

This engine is equipped with a new style of whistle designed by C. T. McElvany, Jr. (above). It is built to produce a maximum of warning with a minimum of annoyance.

GREATER ERA IS SEEN FOR NATION

OFFICIALS COMMENT ON NEW AIR MAIL LINE INAUGURATED

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Oct. 16. (AP)—Increased security for the nation was foreseen by Postmaster General Walter F. Brown, and other high officials, in the creation Wednesday of another trans-continental airline, of which planes, bearing the official inauguration party, were here for the night on their way from Atlanta to Los Angeles.

Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley, who was here for an hour Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by Walter Harrison, managing editor of the Daily Oklahoman, saw in the new line another element of defense and preparedness and predicted "the complete conquest of the air is at hand."

Hurley Gets Present
Hurley, whose parents lived in South Texas before they moved to Oklahoma, was presented by Amos G. Carter and Sheriff J. R. "Red" Wright with a ten-gallon hat, a 45 caliber pistol belt and holster and was made a deputy sheriff of Tarrant county.

Postmaster General Brown, who also was given a ten-gallon hat, as were others in the three inaugural planes, said "the postoffice department is not merely setting up a system for the movement of mails but is trying to develop a transportation system to serve the whole nation by carrying passengers as well as mail."

People Interested
"The venture here, we think, is going to be a most important contribution to aviation. Winter weather over the entire route is mild and the topography of the country over which the planes will fly is uniformly flat. The people of this state through which the new air line is routed also take a kindly interest in aviation."

Night flying over this route is anticipated soon after the first of the year by Col. Clarence M. Young, assistant secretary of the department of commerce in charge of aviation.

Graham B. Grosvenor, chairman of the board of the aviation corporation, who punched cattle near Fort Worth, 26 years ago, foresees the time "not far distant when air lines, carrying mail, passengers and commodities, will form a network over the southwest as the railways do," and with depot facilities equaling those of the rail lines.

The first of the three inaugural planes landed at the municipal airport here at 5:33 p. m. and the third plane of the trio of west-bound planes landed about 20 minutes later.

DAILY MARKETS

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT
NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP)—Stocks sagged in the earlier hours today, but met a dull market on the decline and considerably reduced extreme losses of 1 to 3 points. Trading was slow. Difficulties met by the bears recently in borrowing seemed to have dampening effect on short selling, while the support given leading shares at the lower levels also tended to discourage operations for the decline.

U. S. Steel, after breaking below 130 for a net loss of 25-8, recovered all but a fraction of the drop. American Telephone and American Can firmed after early heaviness. General Motors was sold rather persistently and dipped a point. There were 2 to 3 points declines in Atchafalaya, Johns Manville and Air Reduction. Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, International Business Machines and Auburn Auto lost more than 3. Gillette was strong on announcement of the Autostop merger, rallying nearly 5 points. Call money renewed at 2 per cent.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 16 (AP)—Cotton had rather an irregular opening through Liverpool came in much better than day. First trading showed a gain of five points on October bid later months were one to two points down. The market rallied moderately after the start on buying by ring traders induced by good cables but mainly by predictions of frost for Oklahoma and West Texas and a general cold wave for the belt. December traded to 11.93 and January 10.34 and March to 10.83, or 3 to 6 points above the opening figures.

At the end of the first hour the market was quiet, but steady. The market ruled very quiet all morning, there being little disposition to trade until the weekly statistics due tomorrow became known. Some selling by ring traders caused December to ease off to 10.46 and March to 10.99, or 7 to 8 points down from the early highs.

At noon the market was quiet and steady and at the close.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 16 (AP)—Cotton opened steady at an advance of 4 points to a decline of 3 points. There was some southern selling at the start but it was readily absorbed by trade buying and covering.

The latter may have been prompted by the official forecast for probable frost in the northwest portion of Oklahoma on Friday and in the Texas Panhandle tonight, although there were differences of opinion as to whether any particular damage to the crop was threatened.

Prices eased off during the middle of the morning under a little more southern selling which appeared to bring out some scattering liquidation. New December eased off to 10.46 and March to 10.99, making net declines of about 2 to 3 points on the active months, but trading was quiet at the decline and the market was fairly steady within a point or two either way of yesterday's closing quotations at mid-day.

course of self-starvation when lodged in the death cell. He declined to wear clothing and lay on the cold floor screaming "Jones, oh Jones," until he got an examination from two alienists who reported him temporarily insane. An effort was made to cure him, but his shouts went on.

Recovered Once

Finally a sanity hearing resulted in a verdict of insanity. Once in the Rusk state hospital, Shepard recovered, or so the superintendent reported, and a second hearing, at Anson, found him sane and settled the issue forever. Several prisoners, meanwhile had been issued by Governor Moody.

Barring anything unforeseen, Shepard will be executed first, shortly after midnight, and Jackson, the negro, convicted killer of E. C. Cornelius, Simonton, Fort Bend county, night watchman, will follow. This latter of the two condemned, the warden reported, was "just sitting there waiting."

able unharvested crops: Wheat in the Judith basin country could not be threshed because of the sudden weather change.

Wyming, particularly in the southern part had a heavy fall of snow, the storm bearing proportions of a blizzard at Lamarie. Air mail planes and two army fliers were stormbound.

Hunters in Colorado and Montana anticipated easy deer kills with snow and warmer temperatures, probably accompanied by rain, were forecast.

The storm broke with winter intensity over the Cascades, hampering automobile traffic through the passes, particularly Snoqualmie pass, principal gateway between eastern and western Washington.

The snow probably will be in the passes for several days, weather observers said, and heavy frosts also may be experienced in extreme low lands for a few mornings.

Train service between Cascades was hampered to such extent that all lines were able to maintain their schedules without serious difficulty.

CANADA HAS WILDEST BLIZZARD IN YEARS

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 16 (AP)—One of the wildest fall blizzards in years, sweeping across the prairies, threatens to delay already belated movement of northern Saskatchewan wheat.

Hundred of thousands of bushels of wheat must remain in the bins until the effects of yesterday's first blow of the winter disappear. Roads were under a foot of snow and it was considered highly improbable that farmers could make deliveries for days.

Vast amounts of grain in northern Alberta also are tied up and temperatures have dropped below the freezing point.

DYING PROFESSOR STIPULATES SWEETHEART MUST FIND AND MARRY HIS BROTHER IN ORDER TO INHERIT ESTATE

ELDORADO, Ill.—Many stories have been written with love of brother for brother as the central theme.

Miss Frances Weaver, formerly of this city but who now lives in East St. Louis, is one of the central figures in such a drama.

Miss Weaver is the "dearest possession" bequeathed to a lost brother of a man who has died.

And strangely enough, Miss Weaver is the beneficiary in his will, that, in the last analysis was written for the brother.

Last December 22, in Chicago, Professor Daniel P. Brooks, of the biology department of North Park college, died. He and Miss Weaver, not many weeks before, had pledged undying love. So, when death interrupted him at his studies, it was she, his closest to him, who attended to the details of the funeral and burial.

The Will

Recently a member of the Cook county coroner's force came across a will hitherto unknown, of Professor Brooks. It was perhaps one of the strangest documents of its kind that has ever been published.

In the will it was stipulated that Miss Weaver was to inherit the entire estate on one condition: That she locate and marry the brother of the dead man.

Continuing, the will said in part: "Should a marriage between my brother and my fiancée not be consummated, my entire estate, consisting of property in Illinois, monies in bank and personal belongings will revert to Cook county, Illinois, to be used for the good of the commonwealth."

The estate includes a palatial home on the Lake Shore Drive in Chicago and other real estate.

Starts Searching

Miss Weaver, actuated not so much by a desire for the estate as by her wish to carry out the wishes of her dead lover, has started a search for the brother named in the will.

Who he is, or where, she does not know. Nor does she know his first name. Having heard her fiancée speak of him, she knows that he probably is a veterinarian and probably lives on a farm in northern Illinois.

Whether he is known as Brooks she does not know. The brother came to the United States from Austria and are believed to have changed their names when becoming citizens.

Meanwhile Miss Weaver has appealed to the authorities in Chicago to go and start searching, asking their aid in solving the mystery.

Her lover is dead, it is possible that in his brother she may find his counterpart.

She wants to meet him first. Then she will know.

TEXAS CATTLEMEN ACT ON NEW PLAN IN DALLAS MEET

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Oct. 16.—A new marketing agreement more favorable to member producers of livestock was adopted at a meeting of the Texas Live Stock Marketing association here Wednesday. By its terms a live stock raiser has to agree only to ship all his marketable livestock to the association and its affiliated agencies at terminal markets and the marketing contract may be terminated at the will of the producer.

Details of operation of the National Finance Credit Corporation of Texas, composed of the same membership as the live stock association, were worked out and announcement was made that applications for loans at interest rates of 5-12 to 6 per cent might be filed at the Fort Worth office.

New Man Appointed
George W. Barnes, on leave from Texas A. & M. university, was named as secretary of both organizations, and John C. Burns, manager of the enterprises, was elected in his stead. TEN EMPLOYEES IN LOUISIANA OUSTED

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 16 (AP).—Ten employees of the state department, including the widow and brother of the late Secretary of State James J. Bailey, were dismissed last night by Miss Alice Le Grosjean, recently appointed secretary of state.

Assistant Secretary R. H. Flower and six others were retained in the reorganization, no comment being made on the dismissals either by Miss Grosjean or Governor Long. Those dismissed were: Charles F. Bailey, chief of the motor vehicle license bureau and brother of the late secretary of state; Mrs. James J. Bailey, the widow who held a clerical position; Duncan Conrad, Fred Conrad, Miss Anna Weber, Miss Liza Weber, N. B. Aucoin, Mrs. M. B. Carter, Mrs. Fannie Samuels and Mrs. John Ralston. Miss Grosjean assumed office last Thursday and announced that a preliminary audit of the records revealed a shortage of $20,000 in accounts handled personally by Mr. Bailey. The audit is still in progress.

Messenger Puzzled In Robbery Mixup

CHICAGO, Oct. 16 (AP).—For twenty-eight cents Martin Naiman, a messenger boy got a perfectly good watch, but he isn't sure that he knows just what to do with it. He was held up and robbed of the 28 cents the other night by a robber who yesterday sent him a package containing the watch and a note which read:

"Thanks for the life your 28 cents gave me. It helped me to bigger things."

'HATE MONUMENT' TO WOMEN IS FRUIT OF LIFE STUDY OF IOWA MAN; "WOMANLESS LIBRARY" FOUNDED BY HIS WILL

My intense hatred of women

We were ideally happy

LE MAR, Iowa, (AP)—T. M. Zink's last thrust at women in general—the provision in his will for a "womanless" library—was not born of a momentary whim or personal grievance.

It was the fruit of mature deliberation, a life-time of study. In the document which seeks to set up a monument of hatred, the Le Mar lawyer attributed "my intense hatred of women" to his "experience with women, observation of them and study of all literature and philosophical works."

His will provides that the estate, valued from $35,000 to $50,000 is to be held in trust for 75 years before the "men only" library can be built.

The municipality which accepts the bequest—the will provides alternatives—may not impose taxes upon it during the trust period.

Zink's widow, whom his will permitted to live in their home, provided she paid a $40 monthly rental, said "we were ideally happy" and she intends not to contest the will.

She knew her husband disliked women in business but said he always was "most gracious to them socially."

Zink's private and professional life was stormy.

An Iowa judge once threatened him with a jail sentence for contempt of court but the matter was dropped after Zink promised to spend his time behind the bars in writing a digest of the cases in which the jurist had been overruled by the supreme court.

After the death of his first wife and before his second marriage, the lawyer was threatened with a breach of promise suit. Hearing of this in his office, he became enraged, lashed a blacksnake whip on a blanketed couch, shouting:

"That's what I'll do to that woman."

Charges were filed but settled privately.

In a column which he wrote for a local newspaper, Zink frequently gave expression to his hatred philosophy in comments such as these:

"Nature created a woman to nag man so he cannot forget her."

"Love a woman and the instantly becomes your tyrant."

Zink had never embraced a religion but five ministers were pallbearers at his funeral.

BARBERS BARTER

Farmers Allowed Tonsorial Work For Wheat

SPARTA, Mich., Oct. 16 (AP).—Barbers of Sparta have agreed to cut hair for wheat. For one bushel of wheat any farmer can obtain an artistic haircut and 27 cents cash farm relief.

Decision to accept wheat instead of money was reached at a meeting of all Spartan tonsorial artists at which the present plight of the agricultural industry was discussed. Wheat is selling here for 87 cents a bushel and a trim is valued at 40 cents.

Chickens belonging to Sparta barbers will benefit by the offer.

CROWD GETS THRILL NOT ANTICIPATED AT DALLAS RODEO

DALLAS, Oct. 16 (AP).—The audience assembled to witness the rodeo at the State Fair of Texas got a thrill it hadn't paid for last night when the performers "walked out" for an hour because one of their number was whacked over the head by a policeman who sought to prevent him from entering the arena by the main entrance.

Male performers were supposed to use the rear gates.

Performers awaiting their turn in the arena were sitting on the railing when policemen entered the ring to clear it. The cowhands resented this. Harsh words followed. Guns were drawn. The performers refused to go on with the show. They opened the gates to the steer pens and let steers into the ring, resulting in noisy confusion and the hasty retreat of policemen.

The cowhand who had been whacked over the head was brought back to arena from the city jail his head bandaged, he assured his co-artists that everything was all right and the rodeo performance was resumed. Most of the audience, which appeared to sympathize with the cowhands, remained until the disturbance was settled.

MRS. DAVIS SAYS SHE WON'T SERVE

WACO, Oct. 16 (AP)—Mrs. F. S. Davis of Dallas, for 24 years president of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of Texas, announced to the executive board of that body meeting at Baylor university today that she would not permit her name to be presented for re-election when the annual state convention assembles at Amarillo the second week in November. The announcement came as a surprise to the members, but Mrs. Davis said her decision was final.

The W. M. U. has had only three presidents in its 30 years existence, the first being Mrs. Fannie Breddlove Davis of Independence, Washington county, and the second Mrs. W. L. Williams of Dallas, who is still living and is president emerita of the organization.

To nominate a successor to Mrs. Davis and representatives of the various other offices a committee of one member from each of the seventeen districts was named to report at the Amarillo convention.

Two new buildings costing $75,000 will soon be completed at the State Teachers' College, Murray, Ky.

SLATON, Oct. 16 (Special).—

The Slaton High Tigers and the Brownfield High eleven will meet on Friday, but whether they will play at Slaton or at Brownfield had not been determined late Wednesday. It will be the Tigers' second conference tilt this season. They defeated Idalou, 34 to 0, here two weeks ago.

Brownfield recently downed Tahoka, 7 to 6, and Tahoka, then lost to Lamesa, 19 to 6. Slaton fans are interested in the Brownfield-Slaton tussle, seeking to compare the Slaton and Lamesa teams for their annual Armistice Day battle at Lamesa on Nov. 11.

Announcement has been made that after the Fort Worth trip a concert will be given when the band will dedicate the new uniforms. Those who have bought red band
