First Cavalrymen Take Main Approach To Taegu

Chapman Election Held Valid In County Commissioners Race

The election contest case of Cullen H. Toombs vs. F. J. Chapman for county commissioner of Precinct No. 2 was won by the defendant in district court late yesterday when A. S. Mauzey, district judge, declared the election valid in favor of Chapman on grounds of insufficient evidence.

The contest concerned the run-off primary of Aug. 26, in which Chapman defeated Toombs by 4 votes, according to the canvass of the County Democratic committee.

The case was for awhile apparently won by the plaintiff because of an order from Judge Mauzey declaring all votes cast in the Arah voting box, No. 17, void because it was believed then that none of the ballots cast in that precinct box were signed by the presiding election judge. In the Arah box, 10 votes were cast for Chapman and 2 for Toombs.

This order was later rescinded by the judge when it was discovered that the court had inspected the election box used in the first primary of July 22 instead of the box used for the second primary, Aug. 26, which contained ballots signed by the election judge.

FIRST WITNESS

Testimony began about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the plaintiff's first witness, Mrs. Enid Sears Turner, an election clerk at the Arah box on the date of the second primary, testified that none of the ballots were signed on that date by the election judge, Richard Parks.

Mrs. Turner further testified from the stand that Parks left the polls during the time of the election, carried unused ballots with him to the homes of six persons whom she named, allowing them to mark the ballots in their homes, and returned to the polling place where he cast the ballots.

ONE PERSON TO POLLS

Mrs. Turner also testified that only one person other than the election officials came to the official polling place to vote, this being Owen Miller, who she said was allowed to vote for his wife. The remaining four votes cast in the election, she testified, were polled by the election judge, his wfie, and herself. Mrs. Turner stated she cast a ballot for her husband. Mr. Richard Parks, wife of the election judge, was also a clerk at the election.

The testimony of Mrs. Turner was not refuted by other witnesses, and no attempt was made during the trial to deny the testimony she gave from the witness stand.

Other witnesses testifying in the case were the Rev. E. P. Gonzales, 2208 Avenue T, who testified as to the residence of a person alleged by the plaintiffs to have voted in Precinct No. 2 while living in Precinct No. 3.

Sid Reeder, sheriff and tax assessor-collector of Borden County, who testified as to the residence of a couple alleged to have voted in Precinct No. 2 while residing in Borden County.

RESIDENCE

Lloyd Devenport, who testified concerning the residence of a family also alleged to have voted in the county while residing elsewhere; and Henry Arnold, who testified concerning the same couple.

It was not proved, however, that these persons living outside of Precinct No. 2 actually were the same persons who were said to have voted in the election.

The only witness put on the stand by the defense counsel was Charlie Bley, election judge at the Fluvanna box, who testified that he did not administer the oath required of election officials to those helping in the election.

OVERRULED

Judge Mauzey overruled a request of the defense to declare the Fluvanna box void on this ground.

Fluvanna voted 40 for Chapman and 97 for Toombs.

Following the testimony, Judge Mauzey ruled that the Arah voting box be opened and the votes counted and deducted from the official results of the election to determine the winner of the race. Then it was discovered that the box opened was used in the first primary rather than the second.

After opening the second primary box, all the votes were found signed by Parks, the election judge. Then Judge Mauzey ruled that the ballots cast in the Arah box not be counted void, and he then ruled the election valid in favor of the contestee, Chapman.

The plaintiff's attorneys, Renal B. Rosson and Ross Hemphill, accepted the court's ruling and gave immediate notice of appeal.

Attorney for Chapman were E. T. Brooks, of Abilene, and John Sentell.

Seven Primaries Over Nation; Maine Remains In G.O.P. Camp

(By The Associated Press)

Seven scattered states held primary elections today, but chief national interest remained centered on New England where Maine voters ran true to form yesterday and kept Republicans in all major offices.

The Maine voting, always first in the nation, was the initial statewide election since the war broke out in Korea. Democrats, despite their traditional decided minority, put up an unusually stiff campaign.

But the voters returned to office Republican Gov. Frederick G. Payne and three sitting GOP House members, Reps. Robert Hale, Charles P. Nelson and Frank Fellows. It was the state's eighth straight Republican sweep.

With only a few small and scattered precincts uncounted, the GOP polled the same percentage of votes—6 per cent—as it did in 1946, also a non-presidential year. Payne's margin fell off compared with two years ago when he drew 65 per cent of the vote.

Attracting most interest in today's primary voting was New Hampshire. Republican Sen. Charles W. Tobey was opposed for nomination for a third term by Wesley Powell, an attorney and former administrative assistant to Tobey's colleague, GOP Sen. Styles Bridges.

The race was regarded as close.

Emmet J. Kelly, national committeeman, was unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

Tobey was one of only two senators who faced opposition in today's primaries. The other is Sen. Carl Hayden, Arizona Democrat, who had two opponents for his party's nomination.

Without opposition in their states were Sens. Eugene D. Millikin (R-Colo), George D. Aiken (R-Vt) and Warren G. Magnuson (D-Wash). No senatorial seats were at stake in Michigan and Minnesota, which had gubernatorial and House races.

The lineup:

Arizona—Hayden, seeking a fifth term, was opposed for the Democratic nomination by Cecil H. Miller, Phoenix cattleman, and Robert E. Miller, Phoenix druggist and a 1948 backer of Henry A. Wallace. Bruce Brockett, Rimrock rancher, had no opposition for the GOP nomination.

Vermont — James Bigelow of Bellows Falls had no opposition for the right to oppose Aiken in November. Five men, including Gov. Harold J. Arthur, sought the GOP nomination for the state's lone house seat, being vacated. Three were after the GOP gubernatorial nomination.

Colorado—Rep. John A. Carroll was assured the Democratic nomination to oppose Millikin in November. The Republican contest for governor attracted most interest. Former Gov. Ralph L. Carr contested it with Ray H. Brannaman, former Veterans of Foreign Wars national commander. Gov. Walter H. Johnson was unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

Minnesota — Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl had four opponents for the Republican nomination. Eight Democrats sought the right to oppose him.

Stephen Early Quits Defense Leader Post

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. (AP) — Stephen Early resigned today as deputy secretary of defense.

President Truman accepted the resignation, effective Sept. 30, saying he did so reluctantly.

The White House said Early has been trying to quit since he completed the one year of duty he agreed to serve when he accepted the appointment in May, 1949. He is to return to his post as a vice president of Pullman, Inc.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross, who announced Early's action, declined again to comment on a report by a highly placed presidential adviser that Secretary of Defense Johnson is on his way out of the cabinet.

Asked whether Johnson is planning to resign, Ross said that he was "not a mind reader." Pressed further, Ross said "I have no information to give you on that point."

Johnson has been under fire in Congress and elsewhere in connection with the Korean war situation. His critics have contended he did not have the defense establishment in proper shape. President Truman has stood by the secretary consistently, however.

McCarran Bill May Pass Over Truman Veto

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. (AP)—The Senate refused 45 to 29 today to knock out the Communist registration section of the McCarran anti-subversive bill and replace it with a provision giving the government power to intern Communists in time of war or national emergency.

The substitution move was made by Senate Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois who told the Senate that the McCarran bill "doesn't go far enough."

INDEPENDENT MOVE

Lucas, with the backing of other administration Democrats, made his move independently of Sen. Kilgore (D-WVa), author of a "concentration camp" substitute for the McCarran bill. It came with virtually no advance warning.

The Senate will vote later in the day on the Kilgore substitute. If that is also batted down, as expected, it will vote on the McCarran bill itself.

Mr. Truman has announced he will veto the bill, sponsored by Sen. McCarran (D-Nev).

The Senate added to the McCarran bill, on a voice vote, an amendment banning the picketing of federal court. It was proposed by Sen. Ellender (D-La).

LONG SESSION

The Senate remained in sesion until almost midnight last night to finish up the pre-vote oratory.

Friend and foe alike predicted that the Kilgore substitute would not get more than 20 votes. It would permit the attorney general to toss Communists into concentration camps in time of war or declared national emergency.

Hurricane Out To Sea After Coastal Brush

BOSTON, Sept. 12. (AP) — A powerful Atlantic hurricane whistled out to sea early today after brushing the New England coast with winds up to 70 miles an hour.

The blow smashed small boats at moorings, endangered coastal shipping, snapped power lines and toppled trees before it turned seaward 80 miles east of Nantucket Island, off the Massachusetts coast.

BOAT IN TROUBLE

One fishing vessel was reported in trouble off the Massachusetts coast and another made port at Provincetown after sending out a distress call.

The 67-foot fishing vessel Muriel M. Russell of New Bedford, carrying about a dozen men, reported she was fighting terrific seas 12 miles south, southeast of Pollock Rip lightship.

She radioed that something had caught in her propeller. Two Coast Guard craft—the Legare of New Bedford and the Hornbeam of Woods Hole—headed for her position. A Quonset, R. I., based Coast Guard plane also was alerted.

SHIP DOCKS

Earlier the Boston fishing dragger, Eugenie J., radioed she was having trouble 25 miles southeast of the tip of Cape Cod. She reported later, however, that she had docked at Provincetown.

Western Ministers Deciding Germany's Fate As War Power

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. — The big three western foreign ministers began a series of major strategy talks here today beamed at reinforcing the defenses of western Europe against Russia and ironing out critically important problems of Germany's future.

British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, arriving this morning on the Queen Mary, told reporters that Germany must be brought back as a great nation but that development of German military units is not the way to do it. He indicated, like French Foreign Minister Schuman, a sharp difference of opinion with Secretary of State Acheson over arming German divisions as part of a European defense force.

While the first formal session of the three was set for this afternoon, an American informant disclosed that discussions actually began when Acheson called on Schuman at 10 o'clock this morning, and then went around to Bevin's headquarters at 11. All three men and their principal advisers are in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Bevin strongly indicated he is opposed to Secretary of State Acheson's idea of forming German units as part of a western European defense force. One of Bevin's top advisers, talking in greater detail, added that Britain does favor organization of a strong central West German police force to deal with Communist uprisings.

LITTLE DESIRE

But this official, Sir Ivone Kirkpatrick, Britain's high commissioner in Germany, said the German people have no "passionate desire" to rearm. While he would not answer the question directly, he made clear that Britain has no strong wish to rearm them.

Kirkpatrick said West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer had proposed an increase in West Germany's police power of 20,000 to 25,000 men at present and an eventual increase by a total of 60,000. Kirkpatrick said he thought Adenauer's figures were not unreasonable.

Three Agencies Investigating Train Wreck

By REED SMITH
(Associated Press Staff)

COSHOCTON, O., Sept. 12. — Three separate agencies launched investigations today into a tragic train wreck that claimed the lives of 33 persons —most believed to be soldiers.

And, less than 24 hours after the crash, a United States senator demanded a nationwide inquiry into railroad safety practices.

Investigations were begun by the Pennsylvania Railroad, whose streamlined "Spirit of St. Louis" crashed into the troop train at nearby West LaFayette; the Ohio Military district, and the National Guard.

QUESTIONS

The investigators want to know why the streamliner passed flares and crashed into the stalled troop train.

Two National Guard officers from Washington — Col. C. F. Sawyer and Lt. Col. H. J. Bersace — arrived last night to conduct the Guard's investigation. The dead soldiers were guardsmen.

The counter intelligence division of the Ohio military district began its investigation earlier, as did the railroad.

As the investigations proceeded, the Army still was struggling to complete identification of 11 of the 33 dead, also believed to be Pennsylvania National Guardsmen.

500 ABOARD

Their train, carrying 500 guardsmen to Camp Atterbury, Ind., stalled with a broken airhose on a foggy stretch of the Pennsylvania Railroad near this eastern Ohio town at 5:10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Five minutes later, despite red flares placed on the track, the Pennsylvania's streamlined "Spirit of St. Louis" crashed into the rear of the disabled train.

Army Major Is Jailed Over Funds Charge

(By The Associated Press)

RENO, Sept. 12. — A handsome Army major—located at an isolated ranch—was jailed today for questioning about alleged misapplication of more than $250,000 in Germany.

The Army identified him as Maj. Harold Dean Banning, 39, a finance officer in a Berlin army post. He is here on 60-day leave—and, he said, to divorce his wife, Willie Lee Ramsey Banning, formerly of Arkansas. She remained in Germany.

WELL DRESSED

Dressed nattily in civilian clothes, Banning firmly denied he had "stolen anything or absconded with any funds." The Defense Deparmtent had broadcast a nationwide pickup order for him, saying he was wanted for investigation of "misapplication of public funds in excess of $250,000."

The U. S. command in Germany had asked Washington to find and question Banning about "certain alleged irregularities in financial matters."

Banning told Army agents and sheriff's deputies he had $100,000 when he arrived in the U. S. by commercial plane Aug. 25. He declared it was money he had saved —"my own personal fund and it has nothing to do with the Army."

The ranch where Banning was found last night is 30 miles northeast of Reno. It caters to men and women establishing six weeks Nevada residence for divorce.

As the jailer searched him, the suave major looked at the main lookup cell and remarked:

"You don't mean you are going to throw me in there with all those characters. The Army should provide for me—I haven't killed anybody, stolen anything or abscond ed with any funds."

SEPARATE CELL

He was locked in a separate cell He is held without charge—book ed "for questioning by Army authorities," presumably at Sixth Army Headquarters, San Francisco.

Party Harmony Threatened At Mineral Wells

By DAVE CHEAVENS
(Associated Press Staff)

MINERAL WELLS, Sept. 12. — The State Democratic Convention headed for an early showdown today between liberals and conservatives in a test vote over seating the right wing Harris County delegation.

Following an agreed procedure, Atty. John Cofer of Austin moved to amend the executive committee's report which recommended the conservative delegation. Cofer's motion was to substitute the liberal delegation.

Also by agreement, this was to be the first real test of Gov. Allan Shivers' party harmony program.

The convention started more than an hour late and quickly approved a temporary slate of officers who had Shivers' nod.

Wardlow Lane of Center, president of the State Senate, was named temporary chairman and Wendell Mayes of Brownwood secretary, Leroy Jeffers of Harris County was named keynoter.

The first test will come in a challenge to the seating of the conservative Houston delegation. Belligerent left and right wing Democrats challenged Shivers' party harmony program.

All-night maneuvering by both factions sharpened the outlook for a convention show down between liberals and conservatives. The conservatives held the edge.

Houston rightwingers last night offered Mrs. Sam Davis — who is not on Shivers' approved list —for state executive committeewoman from that congressional district.

DEFIANT GESTURE

That was regarded as a challenge to Shivers' leadership in view of Mrs. Davis' past affiliations with the States Rights faction. It was also a defiant gesture toward the liberals.

The Houston caucus acted after the executive committee — with Shivers' approval — recommended that the conservative delegation be seated. Both Shivers' middle-of-the roaders and the liberals are expected to fight the selection of Mrs. Davis on the floor.

Shivers has let it be known he wants the States Righters back in the party if they will behave. He contemplated passing out no top party posts to either extreme faction. The States Righters left the party in 1948 to support J. Strom Thurmond for President.

Mysterious Submerged Object Tows 2 Ships Off Portland, Maine

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 12. (AP)—Crewmen of two Portland fishing draggers have returned from a mysterious ocean tow ride which, they say scared them to death off Brier Island, N. S.

Skippers of the 110 foot Cherokee and the 86 foot Evzone, told a strange story of how their vessels were towed helplessly last Wednesday night by an underwater object they could not see.

Was it a submarine? Probably, say Skippers Arthur W. and Thomas Jordan. They told a newsman it might have been a Russian sub but added that their surmise was based only on their understanding that no American subs were in the area and that Canada has none.

Could it have been a whale? No, the skippers say, because whales can not stay submerged for such long periods.

The tow rides followed each other. The Evzone was towed an hour and a half, the Cherokee about 25 minutes. Both craft had their sterns dragged beneath the water by a terrific haul. They were freed when their cables snapped from whatever was tugging them. "It was a nightmare," said the skippers.

Rubinoff Thrills Children Of County Schools This Morning

Children of county schools were delighted today by strains from the violin of Rubinoff, internationally famed concert artist, who commanded complete quietness and respect of audiences to try to give them sound advice.

Calling his $100,000 Stradivarius a "fiddle" because he was in Texas, Rubinoff rendered parts of the concert numbers he will play in tonight's 8:15 concert at the high school auditoruim.

Speaking to the children between numbers, the short, dark violinist told them they should appreciate their opportunity to be in good schools under well-educated teachers.

HUNGRY FOR MUSIC

Casting glances at principals and teachers after playing for the students, Rubinoff said "These children are hungry for music; what they need is a good concert once in awhile."

Taking little pay for his concerts, Rubinoff explained that he enjoyed playing for such a worthy cause as the Youth of America, and wanted to encourage children to appreciate the things they have and their free education.

A Texan himself, the Russian-born Rubinoff has a son of six in his home in Wichita Falls taking music at Midwestern University.

Sponsored by the Lions Club, Rubinoff will play such numbers as Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," Chopin's "Polonaise," DeBusse's "Claire de Lune," and the "Warsaw Concerto."

Rubinoff played 20 minute concerts today at Ira and Hermleigh schools, in addition to attending the Lions Club meeting at noon today at the Country Club.

Seek To Trap 3,000 Reds Near Pohang

Situation On Yongchon Front Much Improved Army Reports State

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Sept. 12. — American First Cavalrymen stormed uphill through a withering day-long barrage of Red Korean gunfire and at dusk won a peak commanding a main northern approach to Taegu.

The troopers in battalion strength—1,000—won Hill 314, eight miles north of Taegu, at heavy cost.

They knew their job was to check what was officially called "the main threat" to Taegu, northwest anchor of the allied line.

The hill had been held by an outpost of some 40,000 Red Koreans, massed for a fresh assault upon the South Korean provisional capital. Another outpost remained on a nearby peak.

STEEL CURTAIN

Allied big guns and warplanes hurled a curtain of steel at the Reds before the assault.

Then the troopers hit the slopes. They fought two-thirds of the distance in five bitter hours.

But the Reds, throwing a barrage of artillery, mortar and ma-Chinegun fire from the two peaks, stalled the drive at that point throughout most of Tuesday afternoon.

Their shells set fire to part of Chilgok town, five miles north of Taegu.

AP Correspondent Jack MacBeth, who was pinned behind a brick wall by Red gunfire for more than one hour, said capture of Hill 314 gave the allies a strong right anchor commanding the Taegu-Tabu road.

TRAP SET

Inland from the east coast port of Pohang, a secret allied task force struck swiftly westward seeking to trap 3,000 Communist troops blocked from retreat northward by a South Korean column.

The Reds were strung along a corridor between high peaks. The task force, led by a famous West Point football star whose name cannot be disclosed now for security reasons, fought to close the corridor's southern gate.

It inflicted heavy casualties on two Red battalions dug in on bare and rocky slopes.

This drive increased the already difficult supply and communication problems for Korean Reds.

REDS FLEE

AP Correspondent Bem Price, with the South Korean First Corps, reported observation pilots had spotted "hundreds" of Reds fleeing toward Angang. Allied planes blasted the fleeing Reds. A U. S. pilot [illegible]

An 8th Army spokesman said a partial withdrawal was indicated.

To the west, the South Korean Eighth Division drove within eight miles of Angang on the Yongchon-Angang road. Angang, nine miles southwest of Pohang, was seized by the Reds last week in their massive breakthrough.

The spokesman said the South Korean Eighth dove ahead nearly 10 miles in two days. He described the situation along this front as "tremendously improved."

MENACE REDS

The three-pronged drive on the northeast front menaced two large pockets of Red troops deep within allied lines.

The South Korean Eighth Division seized huge quantities of Red supplies. In two days, American officers with the division reported, they grabbed 31 field guns and heavy mortars and one carload each of heavy and small arms ammunition.

On the U. S. Second Division front west of Changnyong, a U. S. company of a "flushing expedition" killed 72 Reds and captured two and one-half tons of small arms.

The action took place in the Communists' Naktong River bulge.

Allied warplanes, striking five miles west of the river, destroyed or damaged four of 11 Red tanks.

The Weather

EAST TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday. A few showers in the northwest portion. A little cooler in the northeast portion this afternoon. Moderate mostly southeast winds on the coast.

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Wednesday with a few scattered showers. Warmer in the Panhandle and South Plains this afternoon and tonight.

Detroit Stays At Home While Yanks, Red Sox Hit The Road

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

The two-team American League pennant race roars into the west today with the pressure heavier on the invading New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox than on the Detroit Tigers.

Casey Stengel's Yankees, leading by a half-game, begin a nine-game tour of the west with a two-game series in Cleveland tonight. The third place Red Sox, a game and a half out, open an eight-game road trip in Chicago. The second place Tigers begin a ten-game home stand with the Washington Senators.

The Yanks, who forged to the front yesterday by sweeping a doubleheader from Washington, 5-1 and 6-2, face no easy task.

However, the Indians, virtually knocked out of contention over the weekend when they dropped four straight games to the lowly St. Louis Browns, are out for blood. They are smarting under a spanking by their general manager Hank Greenberg, who blasted them for "not hustling and playing stupid ball."

LOPAT UNAVAILABLE

Besides, the Yanks' top Indian killer, Eddie Lopat, probably will not be available for duty. Lopat, who holds a 27-6 life-time record over the Indians and a 5-0 record against them this year, worked nearly five innings in relief yesterday.

Allie Reynolds (13-11) is slated to oppose the Indians' Early Wynn (16-7) tonight. Wynn has beaten the Yanks three times.

The Red Sox, installed by New York odd-makers as 7 1-2 or 8 1-2 to 5 favorite to win the pennant, are the hottest team in the race at the moment. The Sox have won 23 of their last 26 games but are known as a poor road club.

Boston's record in the west this year is a so-so 19-17 and was built up primarily at the expense of the St. Louis Browns. The Sox have knocked off the Browns eight straight in St. Louis but elsewhere they have not fared so well. Their record at Chicago is 5-5, at Cleveland, 5-4, and at Detroit 4-7.

The Yanks have a schedule advantage over the Yanks and Red Sox. They have 17 games remaining at home where they have won 44 and lost 19 for an impressive .698 pace.

CLIMAX THURSDAY

The crucial games of the western trek begin on Thursday when the Yanks invade Detroit for three games. The Red Sox follow the Bronx Bombers with a two-game series beginning on Sunday.

Lopat and Young Ed Ford were the winning pitchers for the Yanks yesterday in the rain-swept doubleheader at Washington, only activity in either league.

Ford pitched a brilliant three-hitter in the opener to post his sixth victory without a setback. The young lefty held the Senators hitless over the last five innings.

The game was a nip and tuck affair until the eighth inning when the Yanks hopped on Al Sima for three runs to take a 5-1 lead. Rookie Jackie Jensen led the Yanks' ten-hit attack with three safties including his first major league home run.

Lopat relieved erratic Tommy Burne in the fifth inning of the second game and allowed only two hits the rest of the way to gain his 16th victory.

In the National League, the question appears to be not so much who will win the pennant but when will the Philadelphia Phillies clinch it?

The Phils, leading the runnerup Brooklyn Dodgers by 6 1-2 games, begin a ten-game home stand tonight with the stumbling St. Louis Cardinals as the opposition. The Dodgers engage the revived Cincinnati Reds at Ebbets Field.

Philadelphia has 19 games left to play and if the Phils win only ten of these games the Dodgers have to win 20 out of their 24 to come out on top. Boston would have to win 20 out of 23 and New York 21 out of 22 to bag the pennant.

The only scheduled game in the National League yesterday, a night affair between Brooklyn and New York was rained out.

Southwest Put Secret Signs Out On Fields

DALLAS, Sept. 12. (AP) — The secret practice sign was going up in Southwest Conference football today.

With opening games less than two weeks away, some of the coaches got the boys down to brass tacks.

Coach Harry Stiteler of Texas A&M said his gridders would work in solitude beginning today.

Coach Jess Neely of Rice began practice in private yesterday.

Stiteler's Aggies showed the railbirds some fine passing in the last public work-out yesterday with Dick Gardemal, Delmer Sikes, Darrow Hooper and Ray Graves all laying them down with gratifying regularity.

Rice takes off today for registrations but the Owls will be at it hot and heavy again tomorrow—sans public. In an effort to strengthen the fullback post, Neely has brought Sophomore Bill Frazier up from the fourth string to spell regular George Glauser.

Texas Coach Bapir Cherry was disinheartened by missed blocks, spotty tackling and faulty timing in yesterday's practice. Ken Jackson, regular tackle, is favoring a twisted knee but will be ready for work again in a few days.

Texas Christian Coach Dutch Meyer took steps to plug a weakness at tackle as he shifted Keith Flowers, big fullback, to the line post.

Southern Methodist tried its hand at coping with the Georgia Tech T. Tech is the team with which SMU opens the season next week. Coach Rusty Russell didn't have the ragknots using the T against the regulars but had his top backs running the Tech formations.

Coach George Sauer of Baylor worked against Wyoming plays in yesterday's drill and said his defensive team stopped them as run by the B team, "very well." Baylor opens the season against Wyoming next week. Larry Isbell, a quarterback, had his first hard shoulder injury eceived in baseball.

The Arkansas Razorbacks tuned up on field goal kicking and got in a lot of work on punting. Tommy Britt and Sammy Furo sparkled in kick returns.

Favorites Remain In Women's National Golf Tourney In Atlanta

ATLANTA, Sept. 12. (AP) — The first round of the Women's National Amateur Golf Tournament was a shakedown cruise in which no great favorites were shaken out but today's lineup looks like trouble for some of the best.

Polly Riley's job today was to whip Mary Agnes Wall, rough work for any golfer. Miss Riley, of Fort Worth, is southern and western champion. Her Menominee, Mich., opponent is a veteran of the women's circuit.

Polly, who came to Crackerland's famed East Lake Course hunting her first amateur title, had an easy first round victory over Allee Chatham of Greenwood, Mass., 8-7.

Mary Agnes defeated Atlanta's Anne Twilley 8-6.

Musial On Way To 3 Batting Championships

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. (AP) — Stan Musial, the master mauler of the St. Louis Cardinals, is well on his way toward becoming the third batter in National League history to win more than three batting championships.

Musial is banging away at a .359 clip while the Red Birds' fourth-ting crown. Honus Wagner and Rogers Hornsby are the only National Leaguers who ever won more than three batting titles. Wagner won eight and Hornsby seven.

The cardinal star enjoys a commanding lead over his nearest rival, Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers, hitting at a .331 gait through games of yesterday.

Aggies Have Great Hopes For Might Comeback This Year

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 12. (AP) — The Texas Aggies list three big reasons why they expect to climb from the Southwest Conference football basement before next Dec. 1.

They are:

1. A vast improvement in line play.
2. A sharper passing attack.
3. The return to school of Andy Hillhouse.

Last season, the Cadets lacked weight and experience up front. Now they have both — guard and tackles who can match nearly any linemen they'll face in these two departments.

In 1949 the Cadets had the most impotent aerial game in the league. They connected on but one touchdown pass all season. Before the 1950 campaign ends, the Aggies fully expect to complete five times that many pay-off pitches — maybe more.

Sophomores Darrow Hooper and Ray Graves are the rifle-armed boys being counted upon to improve the overhead game. Each of these has it all over Letterman Dick Gardemal in size and passing ability, but they must improve their ball-handling to replace the pint-sized Port Arthur boy at starting quarterback.

Hillhouse's return is credited with doing more for team spirit than anything that has happened at Aggieland in several seasons. The ham-handed, fun-loving six-foot, three-inch, 212-pounder is blessed with a world of ability. He is the surest passreceiver on the squad. He's a fine blocker and excels at knocking down blockers and making behind-the-line tackles.

REJECTED PROS

The Cadets are counting on Andy to be the best end in 1950 Southwest Conference play. He was a stand-out near the close of the 1948 campaign, then he dropped out of school and didn't compete in 1949. Now he has rejected pro offers to play one more season with the Aggies.

There are 30 lettermen in camp at Aggieland and 13 of them are seniors. The Cadets can start a senior letterman at any position on their line and one backfield post.

Also available are some highly promising sophomores including Walter Hill, 220, of Ballinger, and Jerry Crossman, 205, ends; Jack Little, 217, and Alvin Langford, 215, tackles, and Marshall Rush, 205, and Dick Frey, 211, guards.

TOUGHER DEFENSE

Defensively, the Aggies expect to be much tougher. Some opposing teams may be faced with trying to gain against this kind of a combination:

Hillhouse and Dorbandt Barton, 212, at ends; Rus Hudeck, 235, and Little or Langford, each weighing around 215, at tackles; Frey, 211, and Murry Holditch, 215, or Mickey Spencer, 210, at guards, and line backers Hill and Jimmy Flowers, 212, or Jim Fowler, 195. Langford and Little are the only members of that group who have not won college letters.

Stiteler and his aides are pushing hard to have the Aggies ready for their Sept. 23 opener with Nevada, which started work-outs Aug. 14.

Odessa, Big Spring Hold One-Up In The Longhorn Playoffs

(By The Associated Press)

Odessa and Big Spring held one-up leads today in the Longhorn League play-offs.

Odessa edged Vernon 2-1 last night in the opening round while Big Spring was whamming Roswell 8-0.

The clubs play at Odessa and Roswell again tonight.

Ray Knoblauch was the hero in Odessa's triumph. He not only pitched a six-hitter but it was his double in the fifth that drove in Ebelio Ortega with the winning run.

Gil Guerro let Roswell down with eight scattered hits as Big Spring won easily. Big Spring pounded 12.

Harlingen Stays In The Running Of The Rio Grande Valley League

(By The Associated Press)

Corpus Christi waited impatiently today while Harlingen and Brownsville wound up their Rio Grande Valley league play-off.

Corpus Christi got into the finals Sunday night by eliminating Laredo but Brownsville last night beat Harlingen 4-2 to remain in the running in their series.

Harlingen leads three games to two as the clubs go to Harlingen to finish the series. They play there tonight and tomorrow night if needed.

Brownsville pushed four runs across the plate in the second inning to take a lead Harlingen never could offset. John Knoke pitched tight ball in the clinches and Joe King and Juan Perez each clouted a home run.

LaMotta, Dauthuille Asked To Post Money On Ray Robinson Bout

DETROIT, Sept. 12. (AP) — The middleweight championship may be cleared today at the National Boxing Association convention if Champion Jake LaMotta and Laurent Dauthuille each post a $10,000 guarantee to fight Ray Robinson in six months.

Dauthuille, underdog in tomorrow night's title bout at Detroit's Olympia, will put up the cash through Max Waxman. In case he wins he promises to give Sugar Ray, the welter champ, a title shot before March 13. But he will ask to be allowed to go through with a return bout with LaMotta before he meets Robinson.

LaMotta already has signed a contract to fight Robinson at Chicago Stadium in the second week of February if he successfully defends his crown. Truman Gibson, International Boxing Club secretary, disclosed that match yesterday. However, Fred Saddy of Milwaukee, NBA president, wants to see a $10,000 forfeit posted by Jake — just in case. Jake says "I got enough worries with Dauthuille I don't want to talk business."

The NBA members probably will go along with the new proposal after loud discussion and permit a return LaMotta-Dauthuille before a Robinson match. Of course, there will be no return if LaMotta wins. Jake can solve their dilemma by taking care of the French challenger.

Yestreday the NBA directed both Dauthuille and LaMotta to assure the convention they would fight Robinson within six months "disregarding any previous contracts."

Texas Has Lost a Great Coach In The Passing Of Paul Tyson

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff Writer

DALLAS, Sept. 12. — A birth and a death have accentuated the passing of time in our sports life.

A grandfather is looked upon as ancient regardless of his age. That's what we became last week when our athletic son, Vernon, became the father of a girl—our granddaughter. It wasn't that we felt so badly about getting old but it marked another generation in our time and brought forcibly to mind that the greatest sports period we were to know was history.

A few days later the grand old man of Texas coaching, Paul Tyson, died. Tyson was a fabulous figure. We first came to know him while a schoolboy football player in the Twenties when Tyson's Waco Tigers were the scourge of Texas. Tyson coached ahead of his time; brought the spin play with dazzling variations to high school football. It is doubtful if any coach ever will attain the record of Tyson at Waco—six times in the finals and four state championships in a six-year period.

We played against Tyson's greatest team—the 1921 Waco eleven that was undefeated, untied and unscored on and rolled up 526 points. Waco beat us only 41-0 and we called that a moral victory.

* * *

TYSON WAS A HEARTBROKEN

man in 1941 when Waco let him out as coach.

He tried school teaching in Dallas for a year but couldn't give up coaching. So he went to Beaumont to tutor South Park High School for three years, developing a winning team there for the first time in the school's history. He tried Jesuit High School of Dallas for a year but didn't like the set-up, so he became a college professor at Westminster of Tehuacana. But coaching was his life and he could not be satisfied with anything else. He was named mentor at Daniel Baker College last year, and took probably the state's weakest material and played a rugged schedule. The team won only one game but it showed possibilities.

The last time I saw Tyson he was quite happy and contented. He was optimistic about 195.

But he died a week before the season was to open. I know he died happy. That's the way he wanted to go—coaching a football team.

NOW ABOUT THIS GRAND-

It makes me feel sympathetic toward other people. We wish they could have beautiful babies, too. . .

* * *

A couple of friends of Jake Russell, Kingsville Record sports editor, were commenting on reports from Waco that the new Baylor University Stadium would have 8,000 more seats than first anticipated by using the place "where original plans called for a sodden embankment."

Bob McGlamery, Record advertising manager, looked at his friend, Jim Fincher, and remarked:

"At last, a special reserved section for all characters who must take a bottle to the football games."

Two Detroit Tigers After Batting Title

CHICAGO, Sept. 12. (AP)—Two Detroit Tigers, one of them really snarling, are chasing pace-setter Billy Goodman of the Boston Red Sox in the American League batting race.

Goodman's mark through last Sunday's games was .361, sixteen points ahead of runner-up George Kell of Detroit, who had .345.

But the man Goodman well might fear is Kell's Tiger teammate, Hoot Evers, who zoomed an amazing 22 points last week, from .318 to a third-spot .340.

Light Up...

...FOR Better LIVING!

Now that students are starting another school term, it is vitally important that they have enough of the right kind of light for easy seeing.
All lamps used by students for home study should have at least a 100-watt bulb—150 watts in many cases—to provide good light to make their home-work easier and to prevent undue eyestrain. Lamp shades, too, are important—they should be wide enough to spread the light evenly and keep glaring, unshaded light from striking the eyes.

World Mourns Passing Of Marshal Smuts

PRETORIA, South Africa, Sept. 12. (AP) — South Africa today planned a military funeral for her greatest soldier and one of the democratic world's foremost elder statesmen —Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts.

The spade-bearded Smuts, a leader in three wars and two world peace movements, died last night in his 81st year. He had been ill since a back ailment forced him to bed May 28, four days after his 80th birthday.

RITES FRIDAY

Funeral services will be held Friday in Pretoria's leading Dutch Reformed Church, the "Groote Kerk." Burial probably will be at Smuts' farm, "Doornkoof," where he died. It is 10 miles from Pretoria.

A military funeral was being arranged at the request of Smuts family.

The field marshal's physician said death resulted from a heart collapse following a cerebral embolism, or settlement of a blood clot in the brain. Pneumonia, influenza and heart strain had complicated the old fighter's condition.

From around the world, expressions of sympathy poured in to the family of the field marshal—twice prime minister of the Union of South Africa, statesman, philosopher, counselor of kings, and an organizer of both the League of Nations and the United Nations.

CONTRAST

The messages reflected the ironic contrast in Smuts' varied career, which started with his leading commando raids against the British in the Boer war and ended with his being a bulwark of the British Commonwealth of nations. It was Smuts who in 1917 first suggested a British Commonwealth as a part from the empire.

This, and British honors, helped earn him the resentment of some of his embittered, die-hard countrymen. Shattering political defeats in the past two years left their physicial mark on "the boss," as Smuts once was known at home.

Two Who Escaped Have Set Abilene Sentence

Three youths who pleaded guilty to burglary charges and received district court prison sentences of five years each here Aug. 31, and who the same day disarmed a deputy sheriff and escaped his custody for about an hour, were sentenced by the Forty-second District Court in Abilene yesterday to serve five years each in similar charges.

The sentences given in Abilene are to run concurrently with those given here. The youths, who then faced felony charges in eight West Texas Counties, are Dewey C. Newton, 17, of Midland, Elmo Coleman, 18, of Athens, and J. D. Martin, 17, of Abilene.

Charges of escaping custody of law enforcement officials were filed on the trio after they were sentenced here on charges of the Aug. 2 burglary of a Texas Electric Service Co. warehouse. They will be brought before the grand jury here at its next session when an investigation of their escape will be made, Eldon Mahon, district attorney said.

Delta Gulf No. 1 Eiland topped the Ellenburger at 8,180 feet on an elevation of 2,467 feet.

A drillstem test was run in that formation at 8,135-99 feet. The tester was open two and one half hours.

The water cushion was flowed in one hour and the progress project then flowed 60 barrels of fluid in the last 90 minutes of the test.

That fluid was estimated to have 20 barrels of oil and 40 barrels of water.

Operators then deepened to 8,230 feet and had a repair job. That work is now completed and the pipe has been run. As soon as the plug cures it will be drilled out and the exploration will be tested in the upper zone of the Ellenburger.

$4 Billion Aid Bill Slated To Get Approval

(Associated Press Staff)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. — Senate appropriations committee approval of a $4 billion foreign arms program was forecast today as lawmakers pushed new proposals to bring Turkey and Spain into the North Atlantic pact.

The military aid fund was part of a $16,711,000,000 emergency defense bill expected to get the committee's OK after disposal of some relatively minor controversies—such as President Truman's request for $139 million to move key bureaus out of Washington.

Some senators frowned on the dispersal proposal; already shelved in the House. They argued any such move now might be regarded as panic in the face of possible atomic bomb attack.

The big emergency bill carries cash for 5,333 new war planes and other equipment to build up American military might. President Truman asked for the funds after outbreak of war in Korea.

The $4 billion foreign arms fund will bring this year's total outlays in that field to $5,222,000,000 and some senators said Spain and Turkey—now outside the North Atlantic mutual defense setup—ought to share in it.

Sen. Cain (R-Wash), back from a two months' trip to Europe, told the Senate yesterday that only Turkey and Spain are prepared and willing to fight now if Russia moves on western Europe. He urged quick American aid to strengthen other nations, which he said are reduced practically to "bare hand" and "sling-shot" defenses.

Scurry Delegation At Democratic Convention Votes to Seat Harris

MINERAL WELLS, Sept. 12 — (SPL) — The Scurry County delegations, voting under the unit rule, today voted to accept the report of the credentials committee which accepts the Harris County delegation, according to a report received at 2 o'clock today from Bob Davie, delegate from Scurry County.

Later this afternoon, the twenty-fourth senatorial district was to elect a committeeman and a committeewoman to the state executive committee, and several delegations had pledged their support to C. T. McLaughlin of Snyder. Among the delegations which had indicated they would support McLaughlin were populous Taylor County, and Mitchell County.

McLaughlin stated to fellow delegates that he was not seeking the post, but would serve if there were a vacancy.

The Scurry delegation, which included, besides McLaughlin and Davie, Frank Bavousett, Haskell O. Beard, Edgar Taylor and Frank Sentell, chairman.

The group was seated with the other twenty-fourth district delegations in the balcony nearest the stage.

In voting to accept the credentials committee report, the Scurry Democrats were voting with the majority.

Mangled Wreck Of Train

Two Are Fined For Gun and Knife Play At Local Dance Hall

Two men were fined $100 each yesterday in city court after being found guilty of offenses alleged to have occurred about midnight Saturday at a Mexican dance where one man was knifed in the neck during a disturbance in which a pistol was also discharged.

The man who admittedly shot the pistol was charged in city court with disturbance of the peace, and the one using the knife was charged with simple assault, Edwin O. Basinger, assistant chief of police, said this morning.

Basinger said the victim of the knifing suffered a gash in his neck which narrowly missed the jugular vein. No one was wounded in the shooting.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Trussell are in Monahans visiting this week.

Ban On Sirens Slows New York Policemen, Firemen, Ambulances

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. (AP) — Sirens no longer scream through New York City streets. As a result, police, firemen and ambulances are having trouble speeding through traffic.

The ban on their sirens effective yesterday was imposed by civilian defense officials, who ordered sirens used only as an air raid alert.

Police radio patrolmen reported they were slowed down in answering emergency calls.

The head of the hospital department's ambulance service said ambulances needed some kind of noise gadget to help them buckle traffic and the use of bells was being considered.

Fire trucks already have bells, but one officer said, "You almost have to stop for lights now. Drivers hear our bell for maybe a half block ahead. A siren is heard from two to three blocks. A siren commands respect.

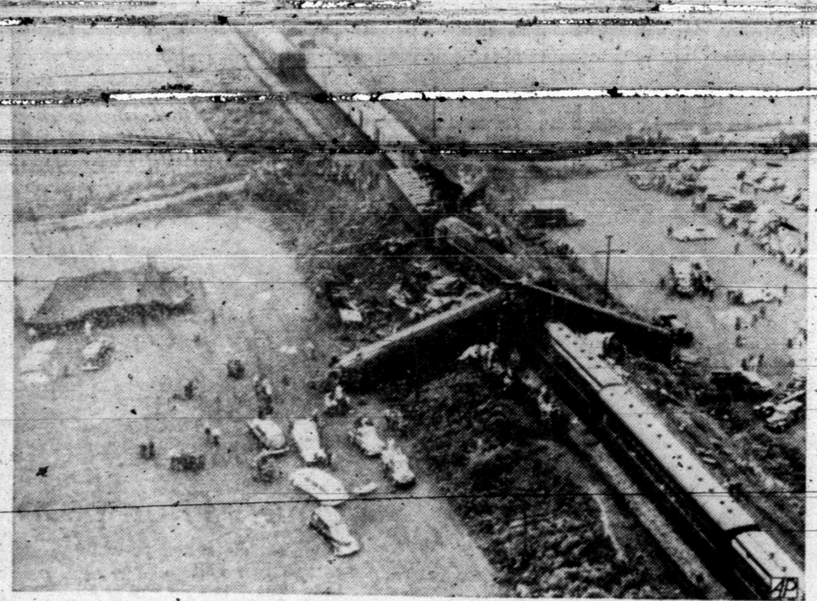
Air View Of Ohio Train Crash



This is an airview of the collision of a troop train and the Pennsylvania Railroad's New York-St. Louis train the Spirit of Saint Louis near Coshocton, Ohio. Some 25 members of the Pennsylvania National Guard's 28th Division, enroute to active service at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, were killed. Note the blanket-covered bodies and the first aid tent that is being put up.

Stunned Relatives Prepare To Receive Train Victim's Bodies

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Sept. 12. (AP) — Stunned residents of the Wyoming Valley prepared today to receive the bodies of 33 soldier relatives killed in an Ohio troop train wreck.

In a region where death sometimes is as close as the nearest hard coal mine, no underground disaster — no, not even any of the major battles of World War II — cast a shadow over so many homes as yesterday's crash of a troop-laden train and a Pennsylvania Railroad express.

Beside those killed, 50, or more were injured — all but a few from the Wilkes-Barre area.

BID GOODBYE.

The tragedy struck scant hours after parents, wives, brothers and sisters, sweethearts and children had bid goodbye to the citizen-soldiers boarding the train for active duty with the Army.

The wreck victims and their companions were members of Pennsylvania's 28th National Guard Division, recently inducted into federal service. They were bound for Camp Atterbury, Ind. to train and probable duty in Korea.

In the first few frantic hours after the initial report, newspaper and radio station telephones were flooded by calls from anxious relatives.

Hundreds went to their places of worship to kneel in prayer. Others gathered on street corners, seeking some word of encouragement.

Gradually throughout the day, the grim facts trickled in. The families of the victims received their official notifications from the Army. Some miners who had gone down into the coal shafts before hearing of the crash did not learn until they returned to the surface that they had lost brothers or sons.

HALE MAST

Gov. James H. Duff ordered flags flown at half mast over state buildings.

The wreck victims, the governor said, "died in the line of duty."

A rally in Oil City, Pa., where Republican leaders had planned to open their state campaign last night was turned into a memorial service.

William S. Livengood, Jr., candidate for state secretary of internal affairs, told the crowd:

"In Pennsylvania tonight there is no room for politics. There are no Democrats and no Republicans, there are only Pennsylvanians to pay tribute to those who lost their lives in the wreck."

Man Charged With Old Slaying On $4,000 Bond

CARRIZOZO, N. M., Sept. 12. (AP) —Leon Todd, Mineral Wells, Tex. man charged with murder in a 10-year-old slaying at Ruidoso, has been released under $4,000 bond.

Todd posted cash bond yesterday after Dist. Atty. Tom K. Campbell agreed to cut the bail from $10,000.

He left immediately for his home in Mineral Wells.

Todd was arrested last week after an Arizona prison inmate, Glen Thornton, said that he (Thornton) had been hired to do away with William Henry Hewitt, 30.

Todd has said that he did not recall ever meeting Thornton.

Eleanor Roosevelt Is Urging Stronger U. S.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12. (AP) — The United States "can achieve peace through strength," Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt told more than 1,500 persons at a Democratic Party rally last night.

Mrs. Roosevelt flew here in behalf of the candidacy of her son James, Democratic nominee for governor of California, and Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas, seeking a seat in the United States Senate.

Man Sues For Divorce Says Wife Taught Son To Give Him Hot Foot

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12. (AP) — Carpenter's helper James Hays, 44, complains in a divorce suit that his wife taught their son, James Marion, 17, to apply lighted matches to his father's bare feet while pop was asleep.

Hays also alleged that Mrs. Ruth M. Hays, 42, encouraged the boy to torture cats, dogs and other pets, and that she once tried to induce the boy to shoot his father. The couple, married in Oklahoma City Oct. 11, 1933, separated last Aug. 17. Mrs. Hays has a divorce suit pending, charging unspecified cruelty.

Odessa Man To Marfa

ODESSA, Sept. 12. (AP) A. T. Brown, former Odessa mayor, is Marfa's new city manager. He replaces E. W. Marlow, who quit to become city manager of Del Rio.

White Attends First State Party Meeting

By TIM PARKER

MINERAL WELLS, Sept. 12. — John C. White attended his first state Democratic convention today. He said "I'm green as a gourd."

It's all new to the 25-year-old Wichita Falls redhead who brought joy to many members of his party in the Aug. 26 second primary by defeating J. E. McDonald for agriculture commissioner.

"Like I said in my campaign, I'm not a politician," White said in an interview. "I've always been a Democratic voter. But this is my baptism so far as politics is concerned."

LOTS OF FUN

He was enjoying it.

"It's lots of fun, but it's serious business, too. The maneuvering gets pretty terrific sometimes. I'm not always sure exactly what is going on. It's like in a chess game—you side off in one direction when you're really intending to go another."

The big, stocky North Texan was something of an oddity at the assemblage of old-timers versed in the ways of politics.

INTRODUCED

State Chairman John C. Calhoun interrupted yesterday's meeting of the state executive committee to announce "we have in our midst a young giant killer I want you all to know."

White blushed.

And everyone looked at the uncomfortable young man who removed what Loyalist Democrats considered a big thorn from the side of the Texas Democratic Party.

The thorn, of course, was McDonald, an almost-legendary Texas political figure who held office 20 years while voting independently.

V. A. Asks Hiring Of Disabled Veterans

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2. (AP)—The Veterans Administration appealed to defense industries today to hire disabled war veterans.

The agency said in a statement that a federally-sponsored training program is at the disposal of the veterans "but they need a place to train."

"Survey after survey disclosed that these men, when properly placed, proved to be at least as good workers as their able-bodied fellow employes," the agency said.

"Yet today, five years after V-J Day, thousands of disabled World War II veterans everywhere still are looking just for an opportunity to prove themselves."

Mrs. B. W. Huggins of Dallas, and Mrs. Pete Cotton of Monahans, visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trussell, 808 Twenty-eighth Street.

Now the Hard of Hearing Can Help Themselves to Hearing

Here is sensational news for the Hard of Hearing of Snyder and surrounding community. Science has overcome a major type of deafness. Now sufferers from middle ear deafness need no longer wear a Hearing Aid in either ear. No EAR BUTTON—NO HEADBANDS, NO PRESSURE IN EITHER EAR. A FREE Hearing Clinic will be held on Thursday Sept. 14, Manhattan Hotel from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M., by Mr. J. C. Hammer ("Specialist in the problem of the Hard of Hearing") at which time he will check the hard of hearing for their individual problem, and discuss with each the new scientific correction that may be theirs. He will also demonstrate to each sufferer of the middle ear deafness that they no longer need to wear a hearing aid in either ear, thanks to a discovery made by Acousticon, the world's first and oldest manufacturer of electric hearing aids. If you have "middle-ear" deafness or if you don't know what type of deafness you have, you are invited to visit, examine and try this sensational new discovery without cost or obligation — ABSOLUTELY FREE—

Think of it, if you now wear a hearing aid and have this type of deafness, you can take your hearing aid out of your ear forever, say goodby for life to ear buttons and head bands. If you have been too embarrassed to wear a hearing aid in your ear, you may now HEAR AGAIN with thrilling clarity and comfort with absolutely nothing in your ear. Only a limited number of this Acousticon invention are available, so come in to this Clinic for one of the great thrills of your life.

This may be the answer you have waited for a thrilling, exciting, new way to hear, science's astounding victory over middle ear deafness. Prove now that you can HEAR AGAIN with nothing in your ear. Attend this free clinic.

TALK OF THE TOWN

BY FRANCES BIOW

For amateur gardeners and plant growing folks, here are some tips from ROLAND BELL, JR., who is always ready to discuss flowers, yards, fungus, green and growing things.

"As frost date (the average date is November 10 in Snyder) approaches and water should be gradually cut down to quantity applications so as to somewhat harden off the new growth of plants as well as lawns so they may not freeze back as severly.

"Suculent growth damages readily on plants. Lawns and trees should have an application of organic or chemical fertilizer and this watered in to replace food in the soil for next year's growth. By applying fertilizers in the fall and winter, more even application can be had from action of rain and snow to carry it down more deeply into the soil. Shaping and shearing of plants and trees should be carried on in the winter after the sap has gone down. Rose bushes should be sheared in the month of February.

Those inteested in strawberries should prepare the beds now, applying four barrows of well rotted manure per 50 feet of row and 5 pounds of vigoro; work deeply and plant sets the last of October." (Note: Many housewives are playing with strawberry crops on tiny scale in window boxes or small beds. Strawberries are wonderfuly absorbing and productive if cared for.)

"As seed dealers have just picked up all package seeds from the stores to replenish and renovate, seeds of perennials cannot be sewn just now. Seeds should be back on the counters in some three or four weeks. At that time, poppies, larkspur, pansies (if you are successful with them) and related plants may be sewed. Coming in with the seeds will be the favorites of many —spring flowering bulbs such as daffodils, hyacinths, tulips and iris. These are the major flowering bulbs but also can be had Easter lilies and lilies of all kinds. . . amaryllis, freesias, and crocus. More should be done in growing lilies as flower bed plants in this section.

"They do equally as well as any other plant mentioned. Planting directions for bulbs is essentially the same with depth of planting alone different. For lilies, planting depth is by rule of thumb three times the size of the bulb. Bulbs should not be planted after Christmas if you expect nice plants and blooms.

"At this time of year, when your thoughts turn to party decorations or just plain brightening your home here are the flowers available to work with. Blooming profusely now are marigolds, zinnias, periwinkles, coxcomb, dahlias, and chrysanthemums, among others. An arrangement of orange-berried pyracantha and yellow or orange marigolds would be attractive, with the smaller berries accenting the large flowers. Big heads of coxcomb might be accented by the smaller berries of the red berried pyracantha. Nandina leaves are beginning to turn different hues now with the weather change and lend themselves well to being placed on the tables out of water and among china and silver.

"An exoctic flower arrangement, which you can achieve if you are clever and persistant, and which will have the guests all talking, is the red hot poker or tritoma. It lends an air of Chinese pagoda and can be blended into most unusual effects.

The standard or greenhouse mums will flower soon and to the gardner who loves plants and has the patience and time to pinch off the side buds, these plants may be made to have flowers some eight inches in diameter and by obtaining the earlier varieties, to have them bloom before frost date here. Home grown mums have been known to keep in a average room temperature for up to five weeks."

MRS. ELEANOR O'HARE, another Snyder florist, who designs those clever and much-discussed table arrangements at bridges, breakfasts, and get-togethers suggests some fall flower arrangements which should challenge anyone loving entertaining in nice style.

"For $2.50 I designed a cornucopia, of Horn of Plenty, for a woman's party last week. The outside of the Horn was chartruese, the inside bright yellow. I arranged cat tails and yellow marigolds in profusion pouring from the horn. I sprayed huckleberry leaves with a chartruese paint and trimmed the whole job with brown oak leaves." A nice autumnal touch, much complimented.

Mrs. O'Hara suggests using dried materials now, mixed with your seasonal flowers. Love apples, wood roses, bittersweet and dried wheat all blend nicely with present easy-to-get pon pon mums in their gay bronzes and yellows and reds. With an accessible spray gun, I can convert ordinary greenery into complimentary trim for any type of corsage or table decoration."

All local florists and hostesses in the know remind us that fruits, fresh or dried, may be adapted to bouquets for your table finery. The lowly lemon, unbelievably, has been known to pinch hit. Surrounded by greenery, perhaps a banana, a whole pineapple or cocoanut and a cluster of fall flowers, piquently stuck in a frog to form a pleasant design, that old lemon is at last a lady.

Mrs. Addie Payne To Speak For B. and P. W. Club Women Here

Mrs. Addie V. Payne will speak to Business and Professional Women's Club when it meets at the Town and Country Store tomorrow night for a business session. She is an executive of the club.

Convening at 8 o'clock, the women will receive their membership cards which have just arrived. This will be the first club meeting since the group has received its charter, so it is especially important that all members attend.

Refreshments will be served during a social hour, following business, said Mrs. Betty Wendell Snyder, president.

Security Council Back Today For Milestone Meeting; 500th

By MAX HARRELSON

LAKE SUCCESS, Sept. 12. (AP)—The United Nations Security Council approved its annual report to the General Assembly today. A threatened Soviet veto failed to materialize.

Soviet Delegate Jakob A. Malik had vigorously opposed any reference to the Korean conflict in the report and had argued it was subject to the veto, but when the ballot came he abstained. The vote was 10 to 0.

The action was taken at a closed door meeting of the council, the 500th since the 11-nation body first met in London in January, 1946.

PUBLIC MEET

A public meeting was scheduled for this afternoon to hear the United States argue that the council should set up quickly an India-Sweden commission to investigate charges U. S. planes have strafed Red China territory north of the Korean border.

But Jacob A. Malik, Soviet delegate, was certain to demand priority for his resolution asking the UN to condemn the United States because, he says, its planes have violated Chinese territory.

Yesterday's vote was the closest Malik has come to winning, after almost a year, some kind of victory for the Chinese Communists. He had demanded that Red Chinese emissaries be permitted to sit voteless in the council and make statements during the debate on charges against the U. S.—both on the plane charges and on a complaint to be taken up later that the U. S. is guilty of aggression against China because of its Formosa policy and action.

DRAMA

There was a sense of drama in the 49th meeting after France announced late yesterday that it would vote to let the Communist emissaries come here during debates on the plane incidents. It was the first time France had gone that far in recognition of the Peiping regime.

Soviet Norway, India, Yugoslavia and Britain were already in the lineup in favor of admitting a spokesman. All have recognized the Mao Tze-Tung regime. France has not.

The United States, China and Cuba all had announced in policy speeches they would oppose seating the Communists in any form.

Ecuador said it would abstain. Only Egypt remained silent.

Allowance Checks To Come In December

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. (AP)—The armed forces said yesterday that dependents of servicemen covered by the new allowance laws will start receiving payments early in December.

The new law provides for government allowances of $45 to $85 a month to dependents of enlisted personnel, who must sign over a part of their pay to their families.

The first Army checks will go out from the Army Finance Center at St. Louis, Mo., about Dec. 5. They will cover allowances for November.

Shenker Won't Accept Party Committeeship

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. (AP) — Morris A. Shenker, St. Louis attorney for persons involved in a Senate gambling investigation, indicated today he may take a senator's suggestion to stay clear of a Democratic committee post to avoid embarrassing the party.

The invitation to Shenker to resign as a member of the Democratic National Finance Committee came from Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn) of the Senate Crime Investigating Committee.

"How can I resign from something I never accepted?", Shenker replied from Jefferson City, Mo.

STATEMENT LATER

He declined further comment, but said he would have a statement later. There were indications he would turn down the position, to which he was named last Friday by Democratic National Chairman William M. Boyle, Jr.

Denying any connection with gamblers, Shenker said he never associated political activities with the practice of law and "never solicited or accepted a political contribution from any of my clients."

Kefauver said in a statement last night "it will not set well with the public and certainly may be embarrassing to the Democratic party for the attorney for principals whom the Senate Interstate Crime Committee is investigating in St. Louis to be represented by an official of the finance committee of the party."

NO NEED

At the same time, Kefauver said he sees no need to follow the suggestion of Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), a committee member, for an investigation of Shenker's appointment as a member of the Democratic fund-raising committee.

Calling Shenker the "attorney for some of the largest gambling interests in America," Wiley said in a statement that his presence on the finance group might make some law enforcement officials loath to prosecute his clients.

Shenker replied in a telegram to Wiley that the senator's statement was "an insult to every law enforcement official in the United States." He accused Wiley of violating legal ethics in an attempt to gain "political advantage."

"It is a matter of public knowledge that I do not know and never have represented 'gambling interests,'" Shenker said. "I am not now and never have been on a retainer of any person, group or association engaged in unlawful activities."

Queen Takes Relation With King Seriously

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12. (AP)—A divorce-seeking husband says his wife, elected "queen" of a lodge in fun, took her association with the lodge "king" much too seriously.

The husband, Maurice N. Meyenberg, 43, aircraft engineer, sued Mrs. Marcella Q. Meyenberg, 37, and named Theodore A. Baker, 45, aeronautical engineer, as the lodge "king."

The complaint said Mrs. Meyenberg and Baker were elected to their royal posts in the Santa Monica lodge last March, began associating secretly and then spending nights together. The complaint added that the affair disturbed other lodge members so much that they declared the offices of "king" and "queen" vacant Sept. 1. Meyenberg said Baker's wife, Muriel, 38, also has sued for divorce.

Hospital and School Budget Will Be Given Another Going Over

AUSTIN, Sept. 12. (AP) — The state board of hospitals and special schools will give its 1952-53 budget another going-over Oct. 16, after members failed to reach final agreement here yesterday.

The board gave tentative approval to $28,478,617 for 1952 and $27,335,444 for 1953 but agreed to the next month meeting to reconsider the increases. The current fiscal year budget is $19,259,000.

Doomed Reds Spend Night Making Noise

By JACK MacBETH

(Associated Press Staff)

WITH U. S. FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION IN KOREA, Sept. 12.—Some 300 trapped North Koreans chanted drunkenly last night as they waited for the American attack they knew was coming.

Surrounded in a gully north of Taegu they already were getting mortar and machinegun fire from doughboys high on the ridges on either side of them. Throughout the night the chanting could be heard whenever firing died down.

TELLS STORY

Lt. George W. Petersburs, Milwaukee, told the story.

Sunday night his company assaulted and secured a high ridge. Between it and the next ridge, also held by Americans, the 300 North Koreans were cut off by fire.

Soon after nightfall the weird music could be heard coming from the gully.

It got louder and louder.

"Where they got that music," said Lt. Petersburs "I don't know. It was the darndest thing I have ever heard. They had some kind of phonograph. It sounded like one of our American records played about 10 times as slowly as it should be."

STILL LOUDER

About midnight the chanting got still louder. The Americans dropped more mortar shells into the gulley "to shut them up." The Reds kept on singing.

"They must have been having one last big sake (rice beer) party," said the lieutenant. "They kept that noise up until daybreak. I guess we will be going in after them soon."

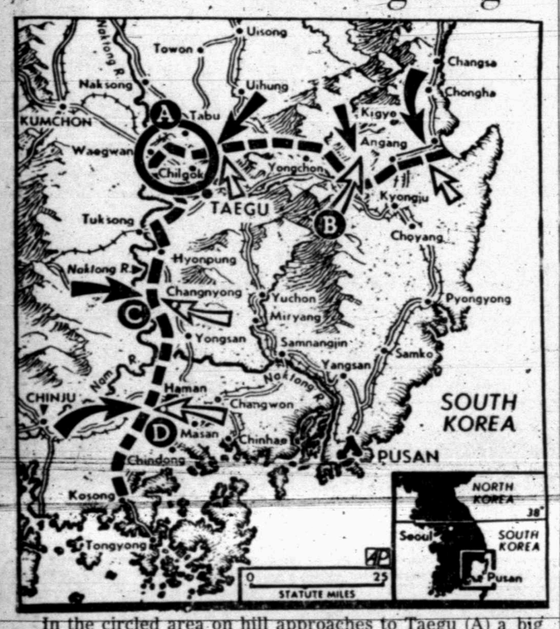
Their Men Have Gone To War

These women wept as they leaned against station train gates in Philadelphia and watched their men go off to war. The picture was taken as Pennsylvania National Guardsmen left for Camp Atterbury, Ind. for training after being called to active duty. The Philadelphia units were aboard a special train which was ahead of the train involved in a wreck in Ohio in which 33 men were killed.

Critical Area In Fighting



In the circled area on hill approaches to Taegu (A) a big gun duel was in progress with American artillery credited with knocking out a large number of North Korean field pieces. Between Yongchon and Kyongju (B) South Korean patrols reported penetrating seven miles into enemy territory. West of Changnyon, in the Naktong River bulge (C), pilots reported the Reds were withdrawing in front of the U. S. 2nd Division. It was quiet in the Masan (D) area, the other gateway to the port of Pusan.

Man Handcuffed To Tree Makes Escape

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Sept. 12. (AP) — Five red-faced officers of the law would appreciate reports of the whereabouts of an escaped prisoner handcuffed to an uprooted tree.

Walbridge Vanderhoof, 25, charged with burglary and larceny, was taken from the county jail here yesterday to point out the location of a still.

Sheriff Arnold Ladd, two officers of the state alcoholic beverage commission, and the police chiefs of Rockaway and Randolph Townships accompanied the prisoner to Boonton Township. There he pointed out a barn, and said it contained a still and possibly some stolen loot.

But he feared to go inside, he said, because members of his former gang might be in the barn, ready to ambush him.

So the five peace officers handcuffed Vanderhoof to a small tree, and stealthily entered the barn.

They found nothing inside.

When they came out, Vanderhoof was gone. So were the handcuffs and the tree.

Birmingham Tries To Get Rid Of Rubble On Streets From Storm

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 12. (AP) — Commissioner James W. Morgan wants to get rid of 1,000 trees blown down by the August hurricane and now piled in four huge heaps.

Morgan first tried to sell the trees. No buyers. Then he tried to give them away. No takers.

Next he thought of burning them, but feared he'd run afoul of the city's smoke abatement law.

To haul the trees outside the city limits and burn them would cost about $25,000, and Morgan says the city's budget can't stand it.

There's one possible solution—that Morgan wait for autumn and burn the trees when homeowners burn piles of leaves.
