Bob Krueger Campaigns In Ozona Tuesday

Bob Krueger, candidate for U.S. Congressman of New Braunfels, was in Ozona campaigning Tuesday afternoon and evening.

He flew in to the Ozona airport with about fifteen volunteers and the afternoon hours were taken up with street campaigning. The group met with Ozonans Tuesday night at the Hiway Cafe where Mr. Krueger emphatically denied that he was a labor candidate.

Krueger will face Senator Nelson Wolff of San Antonio in the June 1 run-off for the Democratic nomination for Congressman. The winner of the run-off will have competition from Doug Harlan, the Republican candidate, in the general election in November.

REV. JOHN BERKLEY

Rev. Berkley To Leave Methodist Church Pastorate

Rev. John Berkley, pastor of the Ozona United Methodist Church for the past five years, announced to members of the church's congregation Sunday morning that he will end his pastorate here at the end of the present Conference year in June.

Rev. Berkley said that until a few days ago he had anticipated there would be no change in the Ozona church charge, but "one of those musical chairs developments common to the Methodist church" occurred, he said, and he was offered a post he "could not decline." The offer came in a telephone call from Bishop Eugene Slater resulting from the series of pastor changes.

Rev. Berkley, who has made his influence felt not only in the church but through extensive community participation, will assume the post of pastor of the United Methodist Church at Beeville, a town in central South Texas. Moving date will be June 20.

Rev. Berkley has exerted community leadership as a member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, has served as president of the Rotary Club, and is now a representative of the District Governor of Rotary. He has served on the board of directors of the Community Center here, on the board of the Salvation Army, the American Cancer Society and the local Ministerial Alliance. Expanding his service to the church, Rev. Berkley is presently serving as chairman of the District Council of Ministers, a program planning group.

Official announcement of the pastor to be assigned the Ozona church will come from the Annual Conference in June, or from the Bishop at an earlier date.

Mrs. Berkley is a music teacher aide in the Intermediate School. The couple has two children, Rachel and Mark, both Ozona High School students.

THE SELF GOVERNORS

During the last session of Congress, a measure was approved which will grant to the residents of the "Federal City" of Washington, D.C. partial self-government. Those residing in the Nation's Capital will be permitted to elect a city council, a mayor and a school board; but since the city is supported by Federal funds, Congress will maintain control over the purse strings.

The first big public affair to take place after the citizens voted to approve the new city charter was a "Human Kindness Day" on Saturday, May 11, held on the Washington Monument grounds and featuring "soul" and rock and roll music. The idea was to have a big, all-day family picnic style affair.

What happened was told in the Washington Star-News. Four refreshment stands were broken into and vandalized, the cafeteria on the government grounds, which is run by Government Services was looted of thousands of dollars worth of food, novelties and souvenirs; windshields in a number of cars parked near the grounds were broken and other cars were damaged when people began jumping on the roofs; roving gangs of thugs beat and robbed a number of victims, some of whom were injured seriously enough to require hospital treatment; in addition, windows in downtown Washington business stores were broken. Cleanup work alone by National Park Service crews to pick up tons of garbage, debris, broken glass and rocks left by the crowd has been estimated to cost $15,000.

Who will have to pay the bill? You will — even as you pay most of all other costs of public affairs in Washington.

In all fairness, it must be said that the Washingtonians have not yet held their first election, and the violence which took place is similar to that which has occurred after other "soul" concerts in other parts of the country.

Still, this was a "local" affair for "local" people, and it is not enough to say as did one official, that "it doesn't take but a few people" to ruin such affairs. Irresponsible and savage behavior on the part of "only a few" can also wreck the best-laid plans for self-government.

FALL OF A CHANCELLOR

There is great irony in the reported dismay of East Germany and other Communist nations over the resignation of West German Chancellor Willy Brandt. Brandt quit, ostensibly over the discovery that one of his best friends and top aides, Gunter Guillaume, was a long-term East German spy.

Guillaume had entered West Germany as a supposed East German refugee in the mid '50s. He then infiltrated and worked his way through the ranks of the Social Democrat Party until he became virtually the right hand man of the chancellor. In this position he had access to such material as the highest level diplomatic correspondence between the U.S. and West Germany and no doubt passed this and other sensitive information to his East German bosses.

Thus, as an espionage coup it ranks among the more notable feats in that age-old profession. It should serve as a sobering reminder that the Communists are long-term players in this field. Where there is one such "sleeper" as Guillaume there are undoubtedly other agents in other countries patiently biding their time until opportunity strikes.

But both sides play in this game and there is no cause to engage in any hypocritical moralizing. The irony in this case is that Guillaume's unmasking not only ended his career but also brought down the man whose policies the Communists had every reason to favor.

Brandt's so-called "Ostpolitik" (Eastern Policy) was aimed at "reconciliation" with the East and formally recognized the post World War II European boundaries established by the Soviet Union. The Kremlin and the other Communist regimes of Eastern Europe regarded Brandt as a good friend. His successor, Helmut Schmidt, may not be quite so much in that category.

COMMUNISM IN PORTUGAL

Reports out of Washington have it that the U.S. is very worried over the possible consequences of the takeover of Portugal by a military junta on April 25. The previously outlawed Portuguese Communist Party has emerged from its underground status and may play a prominent role in a promised new government.

The Portuguese Communists evidently see themselves joining in a popular front with the also legalized Socialist Party. Their platform suggests withdrawal from the NATO alliance and the ousting of the U.S. from its base in the Azores. The Communists also favor immediate independence for the colonies of Guinea, Mozambique and Angola in Africa.

Some U.S. experts are very concerned over more than just the specifics of the Portuguese situation, which could be damaging enough in itself. They also fear that the sharp turn to the left in Portugal could spill over into Spain and possibly into Italy. Many in Spain are chaffing under the relative lack of political freedom in that country and signs of unrest have increased since the Portuguese coup.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams

AUSTIN, Tex. — The end may be in sight for the historic Texas Constitutional Convention which began last January.

Delegates have been zipping along since they came back to work after the May 4 primary election, and only one major article — the catchall, controversial General Provisions — was left to complete on tentative passage at mid-week.

After that, of course, lawmakers-delegates must go back through the whole package on final consideration. And only those articles receiving a two-thirds majority vote can be submitted to voters.

Actually, the convention has until the end of July to complete the entire revision effort.

However, President Price Daniel Jr. has expressed hope for a much quicker windup. Daniel, of course, pushed successfully for agreement on a proposed revision before the primary election then had to settle for a month's recess during April.

Convention leaders debated whether to submit a $1 million budget — enough to last until mandatory July adjournment — or to budget piecemeal, hopeful of getting through within a few weeks.

Daniel expressed a preference for budgeting through July, then giving a lump-sum "it back" on earlier adjournment.

However, Administration Committee Chairman Sen. Jack Hightower of Vernon said he was concerned that appropriating through July would tempt delegates to stay that long.

Meanwhile, Louisiana Gov. Edwin Edwards gave delegates some practical advice on how to get new constitutions adopted. His own state has just approved one.

PRIMARIES CANVASSED — Executive Committees of both Democratic and Republican parties canvassed returns of the May 4 primary.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe is officially the Democratic gubernatorial nominee, having won over Frances "Sissy" Farenthold 1,024,335 to 438,564. W.H. Posey of Houston got 31,498 votes and Steve S. Alexander of Waco 26,889.

Republicans certified James H. (Jim) Granberry as their candidate for governor. Granberry defeated Odell McBrayer of Fort Worth.

Raza Undia again is running Ramsey Muniz of Corpus Christi for governor and Fred Garza for Railroad Commissioner. Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby will be opposed in the general election by GOP Gaylor Marshall of Dallas; Atty. Gen. John Hill by Tom Cole; Bob Bullock by James N. (Nick) Rowe of McAllen.

Agriculture Commissioner John White by Zack Fisher of Memphis; Treasurer Jesse James by Robert G. Holt of Amarillo; Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong by Mary Lou Grier of Boerne; Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon by Joe P. Cain of Houston and Railroad Commissioner Mack Wallace by Dale W. Steffes of Houston.

FUEL SHORTAGE CONTINUES — Once more, the statewide oil allowable (for June) has been set at a wide-open 100 percent — for the 27th straight month — amid warnings that fuel shortages may last through summer.

Railroad Commissioner Langdon commended Texans for their conservation efforts. He noted that crude oil stocks in the state are up two million barrels over a year ago — to 93.3 million — and that U.S. supplies are up 8.1 million barrels.

Langdon credited voluntary energy-conservation efforts with the improved inventory picture, but he warned that heavy summer vacation travel may cause more lines at the pumps.

Nominations to purchase crude oil for the next month totalled 3,879,449 barrels, an increase of 18,684 barrels over May.

COURTS SPEAK — A Dallas man won a reversal and new trial of a murder conviction because the state placed in evidence an obituary of his slain wife.

The Court of Criminal Appeals also reversed the assault to murder sentence assessed a Harris County man due to introduction by the state of a marriage annulment petition purporting to show he had a violent temper.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals upheld a state savings and loan commissioner's order backed by an Austin court allowing Equitable Savings of Fort Worth to set up a branch office in Lubbock.

The State Supreme Court set a June 12 hearing in a suit over whether Day and Zimmermann Inc., which operates Lone Star Army Ammunition plant at Texarkana, must pay $112,668 in state sales taxes.

The taxes were paid under protest on materials bought by the munitions maker. Day and Zimmermann claims the purchases were non-taxable, since they were made for the U.S. government.

AG OPINIONS — An 18-year-old public school student may legally serve on a school board of trustees if otherwise qualified, Attorney General Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

• A tape recording of an open meeting of the Texas Board of Private Investigators and Private Security Agencies is public information.

• A court-appointed counsel for an indigent defendant is entitled to compensation even if he spends only a fraction of a day on the job.

• The Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, lacks power to revoke approval for programs offered by the Texas State Technical Institute (except for teacher training programs).

• The judge of the Court of Domestic Relations of Nueces County may act as presiding judge, but he gains no authority beyond the jurisdiction given him by statutes relating to juvenile and domestic relations matters.

• Marl, gravel and shell sales by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department are subject to state and local sales taxes.

SHORT SNORTS — Sen. Wallace has been selected by the Senate as its new president pro tempore.

Texas State Teachers Association voted overwhelmingly against unification with National Education Association.

Forty-five House members petitioned for an investigation of Texas Water Quality Board and Director Hugh Yantis due to granting of a permit for a toxic waste disposal site in Live Oak County. Yantis said he would cooperate with any investigation.

Washington News Letter

by Congressman O. C. Fisher

A Senate-approved bill to allow voters in federal elections to register by postcard, was sidetracked in the House last week. The House action was a big plus for clean elections because the postcard technique, while appearing to be useful, would open the gates for fraudulent registrations, and would impose an insuperable task on a federal bureau which would administer it.

Will big labor gain firmer control over the Congress in the November elections? Much concern is being shown, particularly in view of labor's claim to have played trump cards in recent special Congressional elections to fill vacancies in Michigan, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. Three of the winning candidates, all Democrats in normally Republican districts, received a total of $70,000 from the Unions.

If this trend continues, as George Meany hopes, the next Congress could be very lopsided in favor of labor. AFL-CIO's Meany has publicly announced a mammoth drive to elect a "veto proof" Congress.

Expanded welfare. You've heard about welfare "from the cradle to the grave," and "from the womb to the tomb." Well, that's more than a cliché. The other day a Federal judge in Ohio ruled that a pregnant woman can now collect aid to dependent children (ADC) for her unborn child. The Mansfield News-Journal reports that under his Honor's ruling an expectant mother is entitled to aid from the time of verification of pregnancy to the time of delivery, and she can collect more than $700 in ADC payments. What a judge!

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mayfield recently returned from a three-week tour of Europe. They visited Germany, France, Austria, Belgium and Holland.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

You don't like venison?

Trace the events that take place from the crack of the rifle to the time of cooking and you may learn that the fault is not with the deer but with the hunter. So states Gus Albright, news editor for Arkansas Outdoors. He makes these points — and they make sense.

In the first place, accurate shooting provides the best venison. When a wounded animal runs off to die at a distance, his physical exertions send blood flowing fast through his body and into his muscles. This makes the meat tough and coarse.

Secret is to get the meat to the table in good eating condition. Many thousands of pounds are wasted, allowed to rot, or are so poorly cared for that few people will eat it. And this should not happen.

Proper field dressing is important. Without that, regardless of later care, the cooked meat will not be as it should. A deer must be bled as soon as it is killed. In most cases an accurate shot will take care of this. But if it doesn't then a knife should be inserted at the base of the neck and the artery cut. Keep the wound open and free of clot.

With the insides removed (not difficult if done in a proper and orderly fashion) prop open the chest cavity and wipe with a clean cloth. Trim away any gunshot damaged flesh and allow to cool.

Flies are often a problem, says Albright, but black pepper applied to exposed flesh will keep them away. A common practice out West is to skin and wrap the deer in clean cheese-cloth.

All blood and hair should be washed from the animal before transporting it home. Water won't hurt the meat if allowed to drain off.

Much meat spoilage occurs while moving the carcass from the hunting area to its final destination. Albright warns to never transport the carcass on the hood of your car or even on the fender. This subjects it to undesirable heat and dirt.

Upon reaching home the deer should be hung immediately and the cooling process continued for several days. An ice house or other means of artificial refrigeration may be necessary. If you wish to make it prime-let the venison hang for about three weeks.

Before processing, trim away all fat.

Once these basics are accomplished, you will have plenty of good venison — one of the choicest of all meats.

Never miss a chance to see a grocer Hawkins put up no resistance as the youthful robber cleaned out his cash register. To Hawkins, the young man's pistol was all too real.

But in fact, the pistol was a toy. When the robber was later caught and brought to trial for "armed robbery," he insisted that the charge would not stand up.

"The simple truth is," he told the court, "that I was not armed at all. That gun I had couldn't hurt a flea."

Nevertheless, the court decided he was guilty as charged. The court said what mattered was not the actual character of the gun but the way it looked to the victim.

Most courts agree. That is, they view the holdup weapon "through the eyes of the beholder." They reason that the essence of the crime is putting the victim in fear, which can be done as effectively with a gun that only looks deadly as with one that really is.

There have even been cases of "armed robbery" in which the robber had no weapon at all. Thus: another holdup man terrified his victim merely by showing a menacing bulge in his coat pocket.

Yet, a court decided this was enough basis for a charge of armed robbery. The court said the fear that the robber had a gun, plus the fear that he might use it, was all that the law required by way of intimidation.

Still, the fear must be at least of physical harm — not of a lesser form of pressure. Suppose A says to B:

"Unless you hand over $500, I'll get you in trouble with the Internal Revenue Service."

If B pays off, A may be guilty of some offense — but not robbery. As one court put it:

"There can be no robbery without violence. The menace must be of a sort to excite reasonable apprehension of danger. Threat of prosecution for a crime is regarded as insufficient (because) a man in the hands of the law is not legally presumed to be in danger of bodily harm."

Mrs. Snively Solicits Heart Fund Memorials

"In accordance with the established custom of year-round memorial giving to the American Heart Association, the public is being encouraged to consider memorial gifts at this special time of year as a particularly appropriate means of observing Memorial Day, according to Mrs. G.W. Snively, chairman of the Crockett County American Heart Association.

"On Memorial Day, we honor those who have died defending our freedom," Mrs. Snively said. "They have died for a noble cause and we should never forget their sacrifice. But what of those millions who have died needlessly of heart attack, stroke and related heart diseases? We should also remember them with a gift of love that helps in our day-to-day fight against our nation's Number 1 Killer, heart disease."

"Group memorials can be made by groups such as office personnel, unions, clubs and organizations," continued Mrs. Snively. "Scrolls inscribed with the names of all donors participating in group gifts are sent to the next of kin."

Mrs. Snively went on to explain that memorial giving is a dignified means whereby individuals and groups may pay lasting tribute to the memory of loved ones. It is also a Gift of Life in that memorial contributions are used to support programs of research and education. Memorial gifts may be sent to: Mrs. G.W. Snively, Drawer 190, Ozona, Texas.

All the efficiencies of local loan service.

What do you expect from an agricultural loan? Long terms? Reasonable charges? These traditional advantages have been offered by the Federal Land Bank for over a half-century. But the Land Bank also provides personal attention and prompt service. We're the local lender who understands local needs. Come to the Land Bank... for many good reasons.

Do you want the San Antonio political machine to own your next U.S. Congressman?

Or do you want a congressman like Bob Krueger who will represent all the people of the 21st district?

Unlike NELSON WOLFF, the handpicked candidate of the San Antonio political machine, BOB KRUEGER is a man who believes that it's time for government to represent the great majority of the American people.

Bob Krueger is the only candidate who has taken stands on every major issue.

He has spoken out:

- For a balanced budget
- For the right to work on a national level
- For a strong military
- For an agricultural policy which encourages rather than discourages agricultural production
- For a freer market system
- Against forced busing
- Against general amnesty
- Against gun control
- Against metro-government
- Against wage-price controls

Have you been sewing machine shopping lately? The shopping may be more complicated than operating the machine. The small-sized appliance is a large, long term investment. You need to think out what you need before you go out to buy. Before you shop, answer the question "What do I need a sewing machine for?" Consider the points:

1. Will it be used to make most of the family's wardrobe? In that case, versatility as well as endurance is important.
 2. Are most of the sewing jobs limited to mending rips and tears? A basic straight or zig-zag stitch appliance may be satisfactory.
 3. Will upholstery fabrics and other heavy materials be used on the machine?
 4. Are knit fabrics favored over cotton, wool, linen, and other nonstretch fabrics? Many machines have the stretch stitch.
 5. Is sewing occasional and is table or floor space limited? A lightweight portable may be suitable.
- With so many styles and features available, there is a wide range of prices. But remember, a high price is no indication of how useful a machine will be to you. One general rule says that if you plan to make most of the family's clothing, you should save enough on clothing bills in two or three years to pay for the machine. The cost of a versatile machine may be worthwhile, although the initial cost is high. When you discuss price with a dealer, make sure you understand what the figure includes. Some items like the carrying case, foot control, or attachments are priced separately. Before any sale is final, ask for a written guarantee and study it. Find out if the machine must be returned to the manufacturer for service, or can the store selling it make repairs. When you visit stores, take fabric swatches of various weights and textures with you for testing. Most machines produce a good stitch on fairly stiff material, but some will fail on nylon tricot or a bulky woolen. To test the smoothness of the feed dog teeth, sew on a polyester knit fabric. Rough teeth snag this material.

Tips For GardenersFrom the Ozona Garden Club
by
Mrs. Bailey Post

Since this is near Soil Stewardship week, there is a long-range challenge for creative conservation. This nation has been blessed with abundant resources, but in this day of expanding population and growing industry only the wise use of these resources will assure us of continuing growth and prosperity. The following poem, which was enclosed in our church bulletin, may help us all to assume the responsibility to attain a nationwide goal.

"It's the will and the skill of responsible man
To protect and use wisely
The treasures of land.

The waters, the wildlife,
The forests and fields,
Plus the bounty of beauty
God's countryside yields.

It's the fight against ignorance, waste, and greed
To save the resources that all men need.

It's the foe of erosion, forest fire, and flood--
Three agents of ruin, pollution, and mud.

It's the vision and work to add something good
To the home, to the farm, to the whole neighborhood.

It's new lawns and new gardens;
a lake built to please;
It's roadsides with grass and hilltops with trees.

There's a lot to be done for the state of our living
But each gain requires your share of self-giving.
