Westgate Receives $50,000 Grant For More Additions

Westgate, the Methodist home for older adults at 430 Ranger in Hereford, has received a $50,000 grant from the Hill-Burton fund for the building addition to include 16 new beds in eight semi-private rooms, according to administrator Manson D. Waits.

The grant was applied for last May, Waits said, and Westgate has just been notified that it will be forthcoming. However, the funds are not going to be available until June.

"This time," Waits explained, "the funds have been slow in coming because of the financial condition of the country — the war in Vietnam and the Korean crisis."

The present Westgate building was constructed from Hill-Burton funds and opened in 1964. It is a federal fund for hospitals, in which the federal government underwrites the building — "or in our case, adding to" the building facilities.

Architect Oscar A. Schilling of Amarillo, in charge of the new building plans, has already been in contact with Kenneth Nuhn, director of hospitals at Austin, with the specifications, etc., according to Waits. The addition will be located directly south of the present Westgage site.

"Due to the many changes in the laws since last May, we have had to make changes in our original application," Waits pointed out, "but I believe we will be all ready to go when the funds are released in June."

There is a tremendous need for the added space, he said, "T. E. Seigler, administrator of the Deaf Smith County Hospital, in a letter to the Hill-Burton office in Austin has given a comparison just released from Blue Cross - Blue Shield of Texas, giving the experience of Deaf Smith County Hospital in average length of stay."

According to Seigler's letter, on regular cases the average length of stay of patients in Deaf Smith County Hospital is 4.6 days. Whereas, in the average of the Amarillo area, the stay is 5.5 days, and over the state the average is 5.3 days.

"The average of the Medicare patients stay in our hospital is 11.1 days, with an area average of 10.9 days and statewide of 10 days. In other words, we are having to keep our Medicare patients an average of one day longer than those in the state, simply because many of them have no place to go to receive the care that they need," Seigler's report concluded.

Waits pointed out that the new addition to Westgate would offer more convalescent space for the Deaf Smith County Hospital patients. "We have 30 resident patients at Westgate now, and a waiting list a lot longer than that total. With the addition of new facilities, we will give the DSC Hospital a relief on older patients — a relief of convalescence for their more critical type of patient."

He said there were not enough beds and convalescent space available now in Hereford.

WILSON PLANT SITE — Workmen have been busy this week preparing a paved road which will connect all parts of the proposed Wilson meat packing plant with the Santa Fe Railroad. The plant site is located 3½ miles west of Hereford and is just south of U.S. 60 across the railroad track. The county commission is financing the road.

Heart Fund Drive Termed A Success

Returns from the 1968 Heart Sunday Appeal in Hereford totaled $1,951.55, as compared with the $560 in the mail-in campaign of 1967.

This total includes donations received in the Heart Sunday drive as well as donations received in the Memorial Fund. The $1,951.55 is not the final total for this year. It was announced that checks are still being received and that they will take funds all year.

Waldo Baxter, the local Heart Fund Campaign Chairman, said, "The splendid response from the people of Hereford to the 1968 Heart Fund Appeal is dramatic evidence that they understand the seriousness of the heart problem. It also demonstrates their strong convictions that the Heart Association's program of research, education and community service constitutes the most effective way of combatting and eventually controlling this leading health menace."

The Young Mothers Study Club who served as group Heart Sunday Chairmen and the many other Heart Fund volunteers who joined with them "are to be commended for their efforts in making this our most successful Heart Sunday Appeal." Baxer said, "Our many thanks to all the people who donated their time and money in support of the Deaf Smith County Heart Association."

Further memorials to the fund may be sent to Baxter, it was announced.

Firemen Prevent Street Damage

Hereford Volunteer Firemen prevented what could have been costly street damage Monday night when they diluted a powerful cleaning solvent which had accidentally been spilled in the 500 block of Park Avenue.

An estimated 30 gallons of the cleaning fluid was accidentally spilled at a nearby cleaners and began running down Park Avenue to the west.

Hereford firemen were alerted by the owner of the cleaners and fire plugs were opened in the immediate area to wash the solvent into the sewer system, diluting it at the same time. Traffic was detoured around the area for some two hours.

Karen Blackwell

Hereford Girl Is Named Queen

Karen Blackwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blackwell of Rt. 3, Hereford, was named 1968 Homecoming Queen of South Plains College in Levelland during half-time activities Saturday at the new Texas Dome there.

Mis Blackwell was sponsored by the Rodeo Club, of which she is a member.

She received her crown from Betsy Crowder of Morton, the 1967 Homecoming Queen. Dennis Hardee, student council president, presided at the coronation.

Alcohol Council States Purpose

The Deaf Smith County Council on Alcoholism held a meeting in the Hickory Log last Tuesday with a discussion of the purpose of the group being the main topic.

Before a gathering of about 20 persons, Francis Hardwick defined the purpose of the council and things which can be done to win the fight against alcoholism.

"The council, not a political group and not a wet or dry group, is rather an information, educational, and referral group to help those who have a drinking problem and their families," Hardwick stated.

Slogan for the council was set as being "An alcoholic is a sick person. An alcoholic can be helped. An alcoholic is worth helping." Hardwick also explained that the council's purpose is also that of finding help and to inform the public that alcohol is a disease which can be cured.

Stressing the fact that the local council is not affiliated with the Alcoholics Anonomvous but rather with the state board of alcoholism, the group consists of ministers, teachers, businessmen, and ex-alcoholics.

Amarillo Youth Accident Victim

An Amarillo youth was listed in improving condition at St. Antony's hospital in Amarillo Wednesday afternoon suffering from gunshot wounds sustained accidentally Sunday afternoon near Wildorado.

Barb Hinnant was shot just below the heart with a rifle by a friend while four youths were hunting rabbits about 5 miles south and east of Wildorado.

Deaf Smith County Sheriff's deputies, who assisted in investigating the accident, said Hinnant, Sanford Christian, Jackson Givin and James Denton were shooting near a lake when they noticed a steer lying in a pasture.

Unable to tell whether the animal was dead or not by using the telescope on his rifle, Hinnant walked to where the steer was. He checked, found the steer to be alright and was walking back to join his friends.

One of the other boys was watching Hinnant through the rifle telescope when the gun discharged and struck Hinnant just below the heart. The boys got help from a farm house and Hinnant was rushed by Vega ambulance to the Amarillo hospital. Officers took no action on the incident.

Arson Case Is Postponed; Change Of Venue Overruled

By MARSHALL DAY
Staff Writer

The trial of Edward Wesley Hartsfield, charged with arson in the Feb. 5, 196, fire at the Butcher Boy Market, was postponed in 69th District Court Monday morning after defense attorneys earlier had been denied a change of venue.

Attorneys for Hartsfield explained to Judge E. C. Nelson that they had been hired by the Amarillo man in early January and had not had time to prepare the case. Judge Nelson told George McCarthy and Bob Carnahan that he was allowing the postponement "as a matter of grace and not of law."

Judge Nelson, who was substituting for 69th District Court Judge Archie McDonald, explained that the regular judge would have to set a future date for the trial. Judge McDonald, who recently broke a leg in a fall, set the trial for April 22.

Hartsfield is the third person to appear in district court in connection with the fire. Floyd Lebow, 18, was given a five-year probated sentence on June 9 of last year when he pleaded guilty to a charge of arson, and Joe Floyd Umsted was sentenced to nine years in the state penitentary after he was found guilty of the arson charge. All three live in Amarillo.

Umsted, who is appealing his sentence, and Hartsfield were co-operators of the Butcher Boy Market here at the time of the fire. Lebow testified two previous times that the two men told him they were in financial difficulites and offered to pay him $200 to burn the market. Lebow was caught in the fire and spent several months in the hospital at Amarillo.

Judge Nelson began the trial with the explanation of punishment for the conviction of such an offense being not less than two years and not more than 20 years. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty to the charge.

The first witness called by the defense in seeking the change of venue was Tom Porter, news editor of the Hereford Brand, who was questioned concerning articles in past issues of the Brand about the trial. The defense then asked that the Feb. 9th, 1967, issue of the Brand be marked as exhibit No. 1 because it contained lengthy coverage of the fire and the assumption that there was the possibility of arson in the case.

The June 11th, 1967, issue of the Brand was entered as exhibit No. 2 because it held a court account of the testimony of Floyd Lebow who was charged with the actual arson. The defense stated that the statements in the paper were damaging to the defendant and could have a definite bearing on the selection of an impartial jury. The October 12th, 1967, issue of the Hereford Brand was entered and marked as exhibit No. 3 because the defense felt that it also was damaging to the defendant. That issue contained a story on Umsted's trial.

The main objective of the defense at this time was to determine whether or not the defendant could get a fair and impartial trial in the county. Porter was asked whether or not his was one of the leading crime stories of the year and he answered that it ranked among the top.

Porter was then asked by District Attorney Bill Hunter whether or not he felt the defendant could get a fair trial in the county and when his answer was stated as positive, the defense questioned him as to an earlier conversation they had held with him. They stated that he had stated otherwise prior to the question in court, and to this Porter said, "I don't recall to having said otherwise."

The defense, still bringing up the question of newspaper coverage, asked Porter if he believed that the persons who read the accounts of the fire and trial in the paper believed what was written there and could perhaps draw an opinion from them. To this, Porter's answer was a flat negative.

After minor questioning, Porter was excused and the defense then introduced applications for the change of venue along with accompanying affidavits from persons who felt that the trial could not be carried out in Deaf Smith County due to the intense amount of coverage by the news media in the area, and it's influence on the peoples 'thinking. The court then adjourned for lunch at 12:10 and set a reconvening time for 1 p.m.

After re-convening at 1 p.m., the court called upon J. F. Messer, owner of Messer Construction in Hereford, to be sworn in and take the stand. Messer re-

Ervin Ward of 130 Ranger and Johnny B. Pool of 150 Centre have filed for Place 4, in the spot now held by Lloyd Sharp.

Both Sharp and Maxwell have decided not to seek re-election. Each man has served four years.

Dr. A. T. Mims and Hillery Aven are the two trustees seeking re-election to the Hereford School Board.

Bill Gentry is not seeking re-election, as his term has another year to run, it was announced, contrary to previous reports.

The School Board election is set for April 6, with the deadline for filing on Thursday, March 7.

UNUSUAL TRIBUTES — Mrs. E. O. Barton of Houston, president of Texas Garden Clubs Inc., smiles broadly as she accepts unusal gifts from her Hereford hosts at the district garden club convention here Tuesday. She holds a package of Holly Sugar from the local plant, and the Hereford Bull award reserved for distinguished visitors to the city is set on the table before her. The latter tribute was presented by Chamber of Commerce Manager Bill Thompson as he welcomed some 225 visitors here for the two-day meeting.

Fuel Bids Are Let By Commissioners

Deaf Smith County Commissioners accepted low bids on their fuel, adjusted the salary of the assistant County Attorney and approved hiring of an employe for the sheriff's department in a busy session Monday. The Texas Company (Texaco) was low bidder to supply county fuel, submitting a bid of $.1219 per gallon on regular gasoline; $.1459 per gallon on ethyl gasoline; $.1105 a gallon for diesel fuel, and 85 cents a gallon in 55-gallon drums for oil or $1.03 a gallon in quart cans.

Five other companies submitted bids on the fuel. They included Gulf Oil Corp., Mobil Oil, Allred Oil Company, Phillips 66, Continental Oil Company, and Humble Oil and Refining Co.

Commissioners voted to change the salary of assistant County Attorney Hazen Woods from $750 to $2400 a year, the salary increase becoming effective March 1. Woods has replaced Tom Burdett, who is serving in the Armed Forces. John Aikin is County Attorney.

The Santa Fe Fipeline Co. was granted permission to run a pipeline under a county road connecting Precincts 1 and 2. The five-inch line will run from Amarillo to Clovis and will be used to transport jet fuel.

A check for $450 was received from the Hereford Kiwanis Club to purchase a coffee maker for the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn. Several local organizations have donated money toward furnishing the kitchen at the Bull Barn, and commissioners said only about $5000 more was needed to complete the project.

Chili Smith, district supervisor with the Texas Highway Department, updated commissioners on the construction projects now underway and the plans for later projects this year. Smith said power lines at the project sites will be during the winter.

The City of Hereford was granted permission to place an island on the southwest corner of the courthouse property. Signal lights will be placed at the intersection of Sampson and Third streets. The island will be the site for one of the four-way stop signals.

Deaf Smith County Sheriff Ed Roberson was given permission to hire an employe for his department to help with the paper work. It was decided by commissioners that the employe should receive a salary of $1.75 an hour and work no more than 40 hours a week.

DISTRICT COURT last Tuesday morning saw the courtroom filled with Hereford High School government students as they witnessed the court procedures of the morning. The students were transported to and from by a school bus.

lated the fact that he had met Hartsfield about four years ago and described his as a "close friend."

McCarthy, the attorney for the defense, then questioned Messer concerning his having read the accounts of the fire and the Umsted trial in the local newspaper, and whether, in his opinion, Hartsfield could get a fair and impartial jury in the present county. His answer to this question was negative.

The prosecution then cross-examined Messer and asked, "Do you recall when you last discussed the trial with someone who outwardly expressed an opinion as to the innocence or guilt of the defendant."

Messer then replied to this question with a direct answer of "Well, I haven't heard anyone express their ideas as to whether or not Hartsfield was guilty, but I don't believe he could get a fair trial on the basis of the amount of publicity from television radio and newspaper." Following this question, Messer was dismissed and the defense called Troys Carmichael to the stand.

Carmichael, who claimed of having no knowledge of having ever met Hartsfield, was confronted by the defense with the question concerning the publicity of the case in the Hereford Brand. He was asked if he could recall the extensive amount of publicity by the paper and when he answered no, they produced exhibits one, two and three to "refresh his memory."

The attorneys for the defense then repeated the question they had asked the previous witnesses about the opinion of getting a fair and impartial jury.

"I think, in my opinion, that the chances of getting a fair and impartial jury here would be against the defendant," Carmichael stated.

The defense then allowed Hunter to cross-examine the witness and Hunter began with the question, "Is your contention that the defendant is guilty-based on the newspaper coverage?" to which Carmichael answered, "Yes, that and the fact that it happened."

Carmichael was then dismissed and Alex Schroeter was called to the stand and sworn in by the judge.

The defense brought out the fact that Schroeter was aware of the publicity given to the case and the fact that he had occasion to discuss the case on numerous occasions with people who were, in the words of the defense, "the pulse of the community."

Schroeter explained that he had discussed the case "over coffee" many times with various persons and related the fact that many of the people he had talked to had already reached the opinion that the defendant, Edward Wesley Hartsfield, was guilty of the alledged arson, and explained that due to things of this nature it would be difficult to "select quite a few persons and then narrow it down to get an impartial jury."

Ed Roberson, Deaf Smith County Sheriff, was sworn in as the next witness and expressed his opinion that he felt that the defendant could get a fair trial in the present court.

The prosecution then cross-examined Roberson and asked what he found to be the opinion of the general public towards the case from the beginning. Roberson stated that the persons he had come in contact with had expressed more concern about the Lebow boy who was burned in the fire. "I don't remember hearing anyone, other than those directly involved in the case, express their opinion of guilt or innocence toward the defendant." he commented.

A heated discussion then followed by the defense attorneys because they stated that Roberson had signed an affidavit that stated he felt that Messer's affidavit was invalid due to the fact that he did not come in contact with enough of the towns citizens to be able to say whether the public expressed an opinion on the case.

Roberson was then dismissed and the defense entered it's plea of a change of venue because of the amount of publicity in the Hereford Brand. The two councels argued their side of the case and then the judge overruled the change of venue application set forth by the defense.

Martinez Brothers: Radio Announcer, Medal Winner

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

Three years ago, a 21-year-old man with heart trouble was sent to the Deaf Smith County Welfare office. He had been sent by Dr. Clarence E. Hicks, who said that the condition was serious and his patient would never be able to perform manual labor with any safety.

All this patient had was an ambition — to be a radio announcer — but due to his condition, he had never had the opportunity to finish high school. Could the welfare program help him? He was placed in Vocational Rehabilitation.

The patient's name is Mario Martinez. He is now a radio announcer with both a Spanish-language and English program daily on station KDHN at Dimmitt. He also serves as interpreter on District Court cases in Hereford. Further, he is now married and soon expects to have a "little radio announcer" addition to his family. And he says he feels fine now — takes his exercises every day.

Mrs. Jewel Smith, the County Welfare administrator, reported that each time she feels discouraged over some problem in her office, she remembers the story of Mario Martinez and "I'm ready to start all over again!"

Martinez is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Amadeo Martinez of Hereford. He has two brothers, Oscar and Raul.

Oscar Martinez has been awarded the Silver Star for his recent combat actions in Vietnam two weeks ago. It has been learned that he has been recommended for the Congressional Medal of Honor, this nation's highest military decoration, which is given for meritorious performance over and above the line of duty. When further details are released, the Brand will present his story.

When Mario had seen Jewel Smith in 1965, he was referred to John Fenoglio, then counselor for Vocational Rehabilitation in this district. "He got in touch with a school for radio announcers, who did not take non-high school graduates," Martinez said. "A high school diploma was essential. Mr. Fenoglio wanted me to go to the best possible school and he talked them in to taking me."

Martinez was enrolled at the Elkins Radio School and Electronics at Dallas. According to Mrs. Smith, Mario "passed it when some college students did not."

Mario Martinez

Afterward, he went to Tucson, Arizona, and went to work for Spanish-language radio station KEVT, where he served as engineer for eight months. While there he married a Tucson girl.

"I could never have had a job or gotten married as I did, if it hadn't been for the help of Vocational Rehabilitation," he said proudly.

Mrs. Smith pointed out that Martinez was a young man of real, earnest ambition and had the courage and ability to make the most of the advantages offered him. "Mario is still taking his advantages to the best of his ability," she said.

Mario returned to Hereford and Dimmitt because of the poor health of his parents. He felt that it was best to be back here near them.

The Martinez family are members of the Methodist Church.

(Tom Morrison is now the Vocational Rehabilitation counselor who is in the Deaf Smith County court house each second and fourth Friday of the month. The story of Vocational Rehabilitation appeared in the Sunday Brand on January 14, 1968.)

More Than 225 Attend Convention Programs

Attendance passed the 225 mark at the 22nd annual meeting of District I, Texas Garden Clubs Inc., before it closed with a lecture demonstration by Mrs. Ross Ferrier of Fort Worth Tuesday afternoon. Hereford Garden Club and Bud To Blossom Club were hosts Monday and Tuesday to representatives of 45 clubs in the Northwest Texas district.

Pleasant weather and a program which mixed entertainment with educational talks brought the large attendance of delegates and visitors who praised hospitality shown them in Hereford.

Presence of the head of Texas Garden Clubs, Mrs. E. O. Barton of Houston, and a former state president who is now chairman of the state board of trustees, Mrs. David Buchanan of Temple, added interest to the meetings which began with a tour of the city Monday afternoon.

Flower Show Judges of the district had their annual meeting during registration hours Monday with Mrs. Dick McGuire of Amarillo as speaker and Mrs. W. C. Rhodes of Amarillo presiding.

Mrs. Barton was honored at the pre-convention dinner in the Caison House that evening and the crowd applauded patriotic readings by Mary Rando, Friona school girl who lately won a Freedoms Foundation award for giving this program dozens of times over the area. Songs by the Windjammers, high school girls group, and organ-piano duos by DeeAnn and Sandy Caison supplied entertainment.

Hereford Garden Club was hostess and a committee headed by Mrs. W. C. Hromas arranged decorations in a Spanish theme of red, gold and black with candles, carnival masks and sequined frills on the tables.

Mrs. Benedean Hammock of Lubbock, district horticulture chairman, spoke and demonstrated methods of propagating plants at the Tuesday breakfast. Bud-To-Blossom Club was hostess at the Caison House and Mrs. W. H. Gentry headed the arrangements committee.

Mrs. Lee Coil, district president, recognized club presidents who were the honorees. Music was a solo, "Have You Ever Been To Texas In The Spring?" by Miss Lynda Jacobsen, and a springtime theme in decorations was carried out with mock forsythia branches, their "blossoms" made of popcorn dyed yellow.

Tuesday morning was taken up with business meetings at Community Center, featuring election of officers and presentation of awards and followed by a luncheon in First Christian Fellowship Hall.

Giant red paper roses were placed down the luncheon tables and rose trees were set about the room by the hostess committee of which Mrs. Ben Childers and Mrs. R. N. Yarbro were chairmen.

Music was by another girls singing group, the Spiritual Swingers. Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, district program chairman, introduced Mrs. Ferrier, an authority on flower arranging who demonstrated new trends in that art.

Mrs. Ray Johnson and Mrs. Bruce Brown, presidents of the two host clubs, were co-chairmen of convention arrangements.

Look Who's New

Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. McDowell of Friona are the parents of twin boys, born Feb. 2. Jerry Lee weighed 4 lbs. 14 oz. at birth, while Terry Lee's weight was 5 lbs. 4 oz.

Autograph Party Slated For Author Of New Book

Author of a book just off the press, Gladys Miller, Hereford writer, will be honored at an autograph party from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday at the Christian Bookstore, Main and Fourth.

The public is invited, her friends to congratulate Mrs. Miller and others to meet her. She will autograph copies of the book sold that afternoon and will present a copy to a lucky registrant. Those who register must be parents of a "Junior, Dear," which is the book's title.

It is the story of a boy growing up in a small-town West Texas family during the 1930's, depression years when lack of money limited some things, but not the activity of a lively boy. Humor and pathos of the life she recalls from those years are incorporated into the story by the Hereford author.

Mrs. Miller actually began writing the book about 16 years ago, and had worked on it occasionally until the last two years, when she was assisted by Mrs. Charles Bell in preparing it for the publisher. Mrs. Bell will be honored with her at the Saturday afternoon party.

Hostesses to greet visitors will include Mmes. Earl Springer, Hubert Stoerner, Martin Wagner, Glen Osborn, Weldo Groneman and R. A. Frye. Mrs. George Tiefel, manager of the store, will also assist.

Funeral Rites Conducted For Thomas S. Robbs

Funeral services for Thomas Stoke Robbs, 77, were conducted in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon by Gene Fooks, Central Church of Christ minister. Mr. Robbs had been a member of that church.

He was a retired farmer-rancher whose home was at Lewis and South Jackson Streets. His death occurred Monday in a local hospital after a long illness. Born Dec. 13, 1890 in Clay County, he came to this area from Floyd County in 1934.

He married Ellen Howard April 7, 1912 at Lockney. She survives him, with a daughter, Mrs. Cleta Reeves, and a son, Dean Robbs, both of Hereford. Also surviving are three sisters, Mrs. Olive King and Mrs. Nancy Ross of Plainview and Mrs. Elizabeth Goodgeon; 41 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Burial was in West Park Cemetary. Acting as pallbearers were Lynn Robbs, Larry Robbs, Glenn Reeves, Holman Owens, Jimmie Hill and G. W. Duncan.

Church Prepares For Homecoming

Homecoming Day at the Central Church of Christ has been announced as Sunday by Gene Fooks, pastor of the church at Plains and Sunset Drive.

"March 3, 1968, is the tenth anniversary of our move into our present location," Fooks said.

The Central Church has set a goal of 600 for Bible classes, which begins on Sunday at 9:30 a.m. "This is 100 more than our previous goals this year. And after the morning worship service is over, everyone will be urged to stay for a lunch at noon.

"Members of the congregation," Fooks said, "have been urged to bring lunch for their family and maybe a little extra for guests. Lunch will be spread and all will eat together."

It is expected that many former members of the church will return to Hereford for the Sunday homecoming.

A religious singing in the church building is planned at 2:30 p.m., to round out the activities of the day, with the regular evening worship service at 6 p.m.

Recent stories in the Amarillo daily concerning UFO's (Unidentified Flying Objects), in the vicinity of Wellington, have given some of the Collingsworth County exes a few chuckles and a lot of "coffee conversation."

In polling the exes however, we find a majority who figure the gentleman reporting the sightings and the ride in the Martian ship, had either been sipping the moonshine along Buck Creek or had spent too much time watching "The Invaders" on television — and perhaps a combination of the two.

Now Tom Draper, who really doesn't hail from that neck of the woods but who has adopted it, seems to think that the young man in question actually lives across the county line in Childress County. Tom married a Wellington girl and takes a dim view of anyone who insinuates that a Collingsworth County product might tell a fib. And since this bird obviously flunked the lie-detector test, he surely must live outside the bounds of Collingsworth County, reasons Tom.

We suppose we'll never change Tom's opinion about all this, but it does appear that someone is stretching the truth, regardless of which county he lives in. But the whole thing makes good reading in the paper — and after all, it isn't nearly as fantastic as some of the proceedings of the Amarillo City Commission.

Now that's really "science fiction."

Our friend Will Harris, from out Summerfield way, is still digging up information about the county's namesake, Erastus (Deaf) Smith. Will of course, is responsible for the engraved plaque with Deaf Smith's picture, being placed in the Deaf Smith County courthouse. The latest story he has brought around comes from the Texas TEMPO, which appears to be a Sunday supplement magazine. The article, along with one of the best portraits that we have ever seen of the old gentleman, gives a few of the little known facts about Deaf Smith.

Smith had intended to be a neutral during the Texas revolution it seems, because his wife, Guadalupe Ruiz Duran Smith, was a Mexican. He changed his mind, according to the article, when a Mexican soldier in the command of Gen. Martin Perfect de Cos fired at him, knocking off his hat. Smith promptly joined Sam Houston's army, serving as a spy with the rank of private. By the way, on April 23, Smith captured Gen. Cos at a deserted farm near the Brazos. Cos, attempting to escape on horseback, had ridden to Vince's bridge, and found it destroyed.

Interest in HemisFair '68 is picking up daily. The Hereford State Bank has been showing movies of the upcoming event, and Jeff Carlile, chief projectionist reports that in two days of operations, he only brokedown once. Actually, that's pretty good for Jeff.

By the way, the bank is handling tickets for the HemisFair and they can be purchased there at a savings.

Charles Frye and the folks at Hereford Aero Inc. plan to run charter flights from Hereford to San Antonio and return.

The package deal will include accommodations in San Antonio, an auto while you're there and first tank of gas free. For information and reservations, call Hereford Aero Inc., 258-7305 or 258-7505.

—HB—

Many state associations, including the Texas Press Association, will be having their meeting this year in San Antonio because of HemisFair. Some are even having their meetings at neighboring cities and running busses to the fair on one or more days. And that may be the wisest idea yet. Hotel and motel accomodations in San Antonio not only are scarce at this time, but higher than the hair on a cat's back.

Latter-Day Saints Will Host Leader

Elliott C. Howe, president of the Texas Mission of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, will be in Hereford Monday and will speak at their chapel to the general public at 7:30 p.m.

The Hereford Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints is located at 500 Country Club Drive.

Howe will speak on "The Revelation of the Book of Mormon and the Holy Bible."

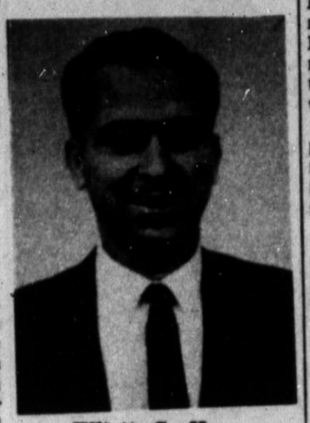

This is the first time that President Howe has visited in the Hereford area. He heads the Texas Mission which comprises the northern half of Texas, with about 200 missionaries under his direction. Howe, his wife and eight children reside in Dallas. They were called to direct the mission for three years, without pay.

All the church's missionaries serve without pay and there is no paid ministry. They have about 16,000 missionaries in the world today.

Howe came to Texas from Pleasant Grove, Utah. He was on the Stake High Council of the Timpanogas Stake in that area. He worked with the Educational Department for the State of Utah. He also speaks Spanish fluently, having served as a missionary as a young man in Texas among the Spanish-speaking people.

President Howe is well-versed in the Bible and the Book of Morman, and has held many responsible positions in the Church.

The local church has extended an invitation for all people to come out to the church and learn of its teachings.

Club Thanked For Fund Drive

Appreciation for their work in conducting a canvass for the Heart Fund was expressed in person to Young Mothers Study Club members Tuesday evening by Waldo Baxter, county chairman for the 1968 fund drive. He presented a souvenir book, Leaves Of Gold, to the club.

Another guest was Dr. C. E. Rush, who made a report on effectiveness of community programs of measles immunization. The club discussed sponsoring such a program here, and voted to conduct a survey to determine how many pre-school children there are in Hereford.

Immunization for pre-school children and those of the first two grades in school would be the aim of a city-wide program if it were conducted. Mrs. Ray Simpson directed the business hour.

Speaker on the club program given in the home of Mrs. Al Hunter with Mrs. David Honea as co-hostess, was also a guest. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, had the subject, Budget Tricks. She outlined principles of making a family budget and gave suggestions for keeping spending within its framework.

Present were Mmes. Charles Brown, Jerry Hodges, Chesley Johnston, Joan McPherson, Homer Rudd, Bud Thomas, Lynn Pittard, Howard Hunter, Raymond Gerk, Don Brush, Larry Dobbs, Jim Arney and David Brumley.

Greenwood Baptist Church Plans To Hold Missionary Conference

Rev. Al Baum, pastor of the Greenwood Baptist Church at Mooreman and Greenwood, announced that there would be a Missionary Conference beginning Wednesday night and continuing through March 10. Services will start at 7:30 p.m.

"We have made plans and preparations to make this the most successful Missions Conference to date," Rev. Baum said.

He said that missionaries would be present from old Mexico, New Mexico and India. Slides will be shown and special reports made from fields in the other side of the world. Accompanying these meetings will be a special missions cantada on the theme "To the Regions Beyond."

"If the weather permits," Rev. Baum said, "one day during the week we will have a native lunch with an Oriental taste."

He announced that among the missionaries appearing at his church are Clifford Fishcrab of New Mexico, Graham Jarrell of Old Mexico, and Bill Tarter of India. "Possibly there will be other speakers."

Rev. Baum said that it has been learned the Communists have closed out India to missionaries. Because of this, Rev. Tarter has plans to distribute portable radios there and then broadcast the Word of God to them from the border.

Last year, the mission support amounted to a little over 18 per cent given directly to missions beyond the regular church offerings, Rev. Baum pointed out. "We hope to have a substantial increase this year to at least 30 per cent."

Rev. Al Baum

The Greenwood Baptist Church partially supports nine missionaries, Rev. Baum reported, plus a portion to the Baptist college at Springfield, Missouri.

Golfers Meet Tough Teams At Andrews Golf Tourney

When Coach Cuby Kitchens and his linksters traveled to the Andrews Invitational Golf Meet last week, they were met by tough competition and bowed out gracefully to the more powerful schools of higher classifications.

In the meet which lasted two days, Steve Hendon lead the local team in scoring as he shot a 79 through the entire 18 holes of play. Through the first half of the meet on the first day Hendon had shot a 40, then hit for one less shot on the second half of the course.

Marsh Pitman was second man on the team with a score of 80. He shot a 42 the first half of the match then hit for a low of 38 on the remaining half of the course. Following Pitman was Russell Phillips with a 45 on the first half and a 40 on the second half of play for a total of 85 for the entire course.

Terry Albracht and Paul Hendon ended up the meet with an 18-hole total of 96 each with Albracht setting 51 in the first half and a 45 in the second half while Hendon shot a 48 on both occasions.

Second day play got underway last Saturday morning as Paul Hendon took low shot honors for the local team when he shot a 38 on the first half of play and then was totaled with a 40 on the second half for a 78 course tally. Pitman again took second place on the team as he shot an 18-hole total of 80 with a 42 on the initial half and a 38 on the second half of play. Not far behind Pitman was Steve Hendon and Russell Phillips as they shot 86 and 88 respectively. Terry Albracht had a total of 89 as he shot a 44 and a 45 for his 18-hole total.

The linksters will next participate in their own Invitational which is to be held Friday at the Hereford Country Club course.

Bi-District Tilt Played Tuesday

In the Class B Bi-district playoffs which were held in the La Plata gymnasium Tuesday night, the Happy Cowboys rolled to a 59-49 triumph over the Tigers from Hartley after a close contest was played up until the final period.

While the night's scoring was paced by Charles Webb of Hartley who had 24 points, the Tigers could not hit for the much-needed points in the final stanza as Happy exploded for 23 points while allowing their opponents only 15.

The Cowboys trailed in the first two periods of the first half by one point as each period came to a close, but fought back to take a two-point margin lead as the third quarter ended by a score of 36-34.

Pacing the Cowboys was Wicky Culp and Steve Vernon who had 15 and 14 points respectively. The Happy team will now enter the regional tournament which is to be held in Canyon Friday and Saturday.

Bill Watts . . . receives football letter.

Watts Receives Football Letter

Bill Watts, a 1967 graduate of Hereford High School, was one of 28 players to receive athletic letters in football at Eastern New Mexico University, it was announced by Dr. Joseph Dickson, director of athletics at the university.

Watts, who lettered two years for the Whiteface football team and three years for the school baseball squad, received a permanent neck injury during the football season at Portales and had his scholarship cancelled due to his injury.

He transferred to Amarillo Junior College at the semester break this year and now plans to play baseball there. While he enrolled too late to receive a baseball scholarship at Amarillo this year, he will get one next year.

Female Basketball In Three-Way Tie

Zula Arney poured in 30 points to lead the Double J's in the first game of women's basketball Tuesday night, and Ann Penner hit for 8 points to lead the team of Lani's Lovelies to their win, in the second game of the night.

The Double J's took a 48 to 36 decision over the Gay Granny's as Mrs. Arney hit for her 30 points and Daisy Huntsinger collected 19 for the losing Granny's. In the second contest, Ann Penner collected her 8 points to lead Lani's Lovelies past Dooleys Dollies 19 to 16 with Diana Dooley getting 8 for the losing squad.

Referees for the first game were Johnny Fuston and Ed Schroeter while Fuston and Joe Gaznertsfeller called the shots and fouls during the second game.

Tuesday will be the next scheduled meeting for the four teams as Dooley's Dollies meet the Gay Grannys at 7:30 p.m. in the Hereford High School Gym, and the Double J's go against Lani's Lovelies in the second game at 8:30.

Standings to date show that three teams share the lead in league play as the Gay Grannys, Lani's Lovelies, and the Double J's all have records of two wins and one loss. Bringing up the latter part of the standings is Dooleys Dollies who own a record of no wins and three losses.

Adrian Contest Is Re-Scheduled

The high school volleyball game which was to be played last Thursday was postponed due to a conflict in the scheduling and the Adrian tilt has been set for Tuesday, March 5th, it was announced by Jean Schumacher high school volleyball instructor.

The second game with Adrian, which is set for Thursday night, will be played as scheduled and the first game will begin at 5:30 p. m. Members of the varsity team which will see action against the Adrian team are Judy Mason, Nancy Howard, Jan Miller, Judy Lookingbill, Suzanne Hart, Sharon Cash, Shelly Rush, Gail Rusher, and Cecilia Packard.

Members of the "B" team who will see action include Karen Bain, Vicky Brownlow, Kay Williams, Cecilia Packard, Linda Merrill, Linda Paetzold, Mary Ann Vogler, Jo Ann Coffee, Janice Edmunson, and Ann Mims.

The records of both the varsity and "B" teams show that the "A" team sports the best record as they have won 4 and lost none. The 'B" team stands at two wins and only one loss and that one loss came in the Canyon Tournament at the beginning of the season.

"We would like to invite everyone out to watch the games Thursday night," Jean Schumacher stated.

Cindermen Nab 6th Place In Brownfeild Track Meet

The Hereford Whiteface cindermen collected a total of 43 points in the Brownfield Invitational Track Meet last weekend to nab the 6th place position in the meet out of a field of some 20 teams.

Leading team scoring in the meet was Lubbock Dunbar as they ran away with the meet, totaling over 100 points. Second in the meet was Seminole while Andrews, Sweetwater, and Colorado City took third, fourth, and fifth places, respectively. Colorado city nudged the locals out of fifth place as they collected one lone point more than did the Whitefaces. The team totals between the third, fourth, and fifth place teams was slight and did not total over 15 points difference.

WHITEFACE HOPEFUL — Bobby Burwick, who grabbed fourth in the State Track Meet last year in the 440, is one of the prize hopefuls that is expected to help the track team this year. Burwick was a member of all three relay teams which placed in the Brownfield Meet last weekend.

Placing in the meet for the Herd were three relay teams, a first in the high hurdles, a second in the 330 intermediate hurdles, a sixth in the discus, and a fourth in the broad-jump.

The 440 yard relay team, which grabbed a 6th place spot with a timing of 44.7, consisted of Gary Goodin, Bobby Burwick, Elgen Williams, and Steve McAndrews.

In the Mile relay, Burwick, Jim Childers, Tony Malouf, and Percy Mays took sixth place as they were timed at 3:38.5 while Burwick, McAndrews, Willie Holmes and Charlie Inman took the mile medley with a 3:53 timing.

The mile meldley, which consists of a 220, another 220 ,a 440, and an 880, had Burwick and McAndrews running the 220's, Holmes running the 440, and Inman running the 880.

In the field events, Donnie Fangman placed sixth in the discus with a toss of 134 feet. Childers nabbed the fourth place spot in the broad-jump as he sailed 18" 8' down the pit.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I read your article in the Sunday Brand on the subject Litterbugging in Hereford will stop. I agree with Mr. Bayne one hundred percent when it comes to the subject of garbage. I don't have to explain that anyone with common sense could understand.

I do not agree with Mr. Bayne on a junk car. I have one in my yard. I haven't any idea how many boys 16 and 17 years of age works on their ole junk cars. Some of the boys get their cars in running order. It is a comfort to look out my window and see my son quite busy, working on a motor or transmission.

I have seen four or five boys working on this pile of junk. At least the Police aren't hunting them. They aren't stealing, they have their minds pretty well occupied. They aren't hunting something to do, which that can be pretty serious, it leads up to trouble when they have nothing to do.

I seriously believe Judge Williams would agree with me.

Think it over. What had you rather your son to do, run the streets hunting for something to do, or working on a ole pile of junk!

J. Rogers

TOP BOY AND GIRL — Jerry Sublet and Susan White were chosen as the top boy and girl at the First Baptist Church Youth Banquet held Friday night at the Jim Hill Hotel. Some 60 young people attended the banquet. Joe Provence was speaker for the evening.

County Delegates Named To District THDA Meet

A change in the method of selecting the Home Demonstration Club Woman of the Year in Deaf Smith County was approved by the County H. D. Council at its February meeting Monday afternoon, and the proposal will be submitted to each club for a vote of members.

It calls for choice of the honoree to be made by a panel of judges, or by an advance secret ballot in which all members in the county may vote, rather than by vote of those members present at the luncheon where the award is given. The Woman of the Year is selected from nominees chosen by the various clubs.

Mmes. Jimmie Bradley, Paul Hoff and Paul Corbett were elected delegates to a district meeting of Texas H. D. Association, to be held in Spearman April 4. Alternates are Mmes. Charles Packard, John A. Smith and S. N. Thweatt. These county delegates were named from club nominees.

Mrs. A. E. Hodges, THDA treasurer, will attend the district meeting, also other district conventions over the state and the state convention at McAllen in September. Mrs. Hoff, County THDA chairman, and Argen Draper, County H. D. Agent, were in Vega recently for a planning session in preparation for the district meeting.

Recommendations for 1968 from standing committees on recreation, education, finance, reporters and yearbook were read and approved. Mrs. John A. Smith, treasurer, reported results of the successful cookbook sale in December, fund-raising project for the year.

Mrs. A. J. Bezner reported on 4-H Club activities in the county, announcing dates for the annual Favorite Food Show, March 23, and county contests, March 30. She said subject matter groups are under way with child care care and bedroom improvement as new subjects in addition to public speaking, livestock care and foods.

Four-H Club girls and boys have exhibited livestock in Hereford, Amarillo and Houston shows, she reported. Rita Huckert, assistant County H. D. Agent, has given programs to each H. D. Club in the county recently, telling of 4-H work here.

Mrs. Hoff read the THDA Creed to open the program. Mrs. O. L. Williams presided.

Others present were Mmes. Frank Brorman and W. A. Carter, Ford Club; Mmes. H. L. Hershey, J. D. Gilbert Jr., Tom Nance and Dean Stallings, Progressive; Mrs. Andrew Kershen, Westway; Mrs. Carl Armstrong, Young Homemakers; Mmes. Carlos Vaughn and Blanche Hardin, West Hereford.

Also Mrs. Viola Williams, North Hereford; Mmes. Leroy Johnson and Richard Golden, Dawn; Mmes. Elmer Northcutt, and J. E. Sorrells, Messenger; Mmes. Louie Olson and Grady Parsons, Cultural; Mmes. Wayne Sifford and C. F. Homfeld, Bippus; Mmes. E. C. Hewitt, Leroy Bodkin and Charles Packard, Wyche.

CONVENTION NOTABLES — Mrs. A. L. Manjeot, standing, was presented the only award for individual achievement given at the convention of District I, Texas Garden Clubs Inc., here the first of this week. A member of Hereford Garden Club and garden columnist for The Hereford Brand, Mrs. Manjoet was program chairman for the annual convention. She is pictured with Mary Rando, Friona high school girl who gave patriotic readings at the dinner Monday and, at left, Mrs. Audrey Rhodes, Friona teacher who introduced the young reader. Almost out of the picture at right is Jo Whitten, piano accompanist for the dramatic reading.

—Small Talk—

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A real neighborly gesture was made by Pioneer Study Club this week, returning a favor given in the same neighborly spirit a couple of years ago by Hereford Garden Club.

WHEN PIONEER Club was one of the hostesses for a district convention of Federated Women's Clubs here, women of the garden club helped out with decorations.

It was the garden club's turn to be one of the hostesses for a district convention the first of the week, and an opportunity for Pioneer Club to be the helper.

Members served coffee to convention delegates at a break in the Tuesday morning business session, and also supplied some courtesy cars for the Monday afternoon tour. Just good West Texas neighborliness.

NAME OF ONE of the efficient staff members at Kings Manor was somehow left off the list in a story I wrote recently featuring Ola Davis, supervisor. It didn't take long for me to find that Jame Hughes' name was missing, and that the omission was of concern to residents and fellow staff members at the Manor.

Several of them called my attention to it in a way that indicates the affection they hold for her. Jane has been on the nursing staff of the Manor since she became a resident there in 1964.

Often the people at the Manor refer to themselves as a family, and they don't want some of the family left out when a listing is made!

IT ISN'T OFTEN that there is occasion for an autograph party for Hereford people, so the one planned for Saturday afternoon honoring Gladys Miller and Margaret Bell is quite an occasion, one that calls for a turnout of their friends and others who are interested in Mrs. Miller's new book in which Mrs. Bell was assistant on its final draft.

The party is set for 2 to 5 p.m. at the Christian Bookstore, where copies of the book, Junior Dear, have been on display this week in advance of the formal publication date, today.

A CHANGE IN DATE had to be made for a recital of sacred music which Music Study Club will sponsor March 17 at First Methodist Church. It was first planned for March 10 but had to be postponed a week. It will present Mrs. R. C. Godwin, soprano soloist, with Mrs. Joe Hacker and Don Baugous, organists. Time is 3 p.m. and the public is invited.

MR. AND MRS. P. B. Sowell returned Sunday night from Arlington, where thery visited their son and his family, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Buck Cunningham of Amarillo. They found the folks at Arlington excited about the snow which just kept falling in a way quite strange in that downstate city.

Member Honored By Music Club

Honorary membership was voted for Mrs. Ray Coneway by Music Study Club, of which she is a longtime member "for faithful, loving service given the club."

Members honored Mrs. Coneway at their meeting Monday afternoon in Mrs. J. C. McCracken's home. Mrs. Wesley Fisher was hostess with Mrs. McCracken. The program, second in observance of February as Parade of American Music Month, was given by Mrs. Bob Wert.

Announcement was made that a recital of sacred music by Texas Composers, to be sponsored by the club in First Methodist Church, has been postponed from May 10 to May 17. Mrs. R. C. Godwin, Mrs. Joe Hacker and Don Baugous will present the concert beginning at 3 p. m., with the public invited.

Mrs. Wert discussed Negro spirituals and jazz as types of American music, both evolving from folk songs of the Negro. She read a poem, O Black And Unknown Bards, by James Weldon Johnson, to preface her talk.

"The one outstanding contribution America has made to modern music has been in the field of popular music," she said. "American popular music has had a far-reaching effect on the world." She traced the development of jazz from folk music through the minstrel song, comic operas, ragtime songs and dances, then the blues songs and real jazz.

Mrs. Wert sang spirituals, I Want Jesus To Walk With Me and Ride On, Jesus, accompanied by Mrs. McCracken, who played Juba Dance as a piano solo. Mrs. Paul Lyons played Twelfth Street Rag, by W. C. Handy, and Mrs. Bill Devers played one of Stephen Foster's lively pieces, Camptown Races.

A Gershwin number, Clap Yo' Hands, was sung by the club chorus and the program ended on a contrasting note as Mrs. Wert, Mrs. Clifford Trotter and Mrs. Dick Jackson sang a religious composition of Mozart, Alleluja.

Others present were Mmes. Godwin, Wilton Green, Glenn Snyder, S. O. Wilson, A. O. Thompson, C. J. Mountz, W. E. Dameron, Bill Dameron, B. Y. Crosthwait, Eugene Brink, J. R. Allison, Bill Bradly, W. T. Carmichael and Miss Frances Dameron.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Family, City In Touch

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Lives of her forbears have touched in Hereford since early years of the city's history, so although Mrs. Jack Allen is a relative newcomer she has the feeling of being rooted here.

ACTUALLY SHE is a native of Hereford, the former Beverly Morgan, daughter of the James Morgans. But the family left here when she was six years old and she grew up, went through school and was married in El Paso, living there until the return in 1962.

Her mother was also born in Hereford, the former Evelyn Jackson, whose parents were Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Jackson, residents when the town was new at the turn of the century. Her father grew up here, too.

Farther back, a great-grandfather, the Rev. John Sherman, was for a time pastor of the Methodist Church here, so the entire history of ther family has been dotted with returns to Hereford.

SINCE HER parents left in the 1930's, when depression and dust storms had ravaged this part of the Panhandle and forced many residents to seek livelihood elsewhere, they considered Deaf Smith County a very poor place to live and were horrified when the Allens decided to come here a few years ago.

It was with great surprise that they found it not at all like the place they had left some 30 years before. The Allens are enthusiastic about living here although they had some doubts when they came from the larger city. Allen had spent practically all his previous life in El Paso.

Beverly met Jack Allen in Texas Western College while both were students. He went on to complete his college work in New Mexico State.

THEIR FAMILY consists of four daughters, Leigh Ann and Elise, in the early teens, Laurie, 10, and 7-year-old Leslie.

That fact explains the involvement of both parents in the Camp Fire Girl program here; Allen is new president of the City Camp Fire Council and Beverly is leader of a group of fifth-graders. All the girls are Camp Fire members.

They are active in First Christian Church, too. Mrs. Allen is currently president of the Christian Women's Fellowship and works in the church nursery. Through the CWF she became interested in volunteer work at Casa de Amigos at the Labor Camp, and she spends one morning a week assisting in the pre-school prgram there.

A FORMER GARDEN club member, she likes to do the work of growing flowers, as well as flower arranging. Reading is another favorite pasttime and the Allens have been "attempting to learn to play bridge", Mrs. Allen says with a rueful shake of her head in deploring her lack of progress.

With her outside activities for variety, she enjoys homemaking chores the more and likes to cook, "also to eat". As her daughters are growing old enough to help with housework and in the kitchen, she is pleased that they like to join her and says it is fun when the work can be shared.

One of her favorite recipes is for a cake that her husband likes especially. She got the recipe from her mother and enjoys making it because it is easily mixed, delicious, and requires no icing.

DATE-NUT CAKE

½ lb. butter
1 cup sugar
3 eggs
1 pkg (8 oz.) dates
2 cups boiling water
2½ cups flour
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts.

Pour boiling water over dates and let set while creaming butter and sugar and adding beaten eggs. Stir dates and water together and add to mixture, then add sifted dry ingredients, vanilla and nuts.

Mix well and cook in loaf pan in 350-degree oven from one to one and a half hours. The mixture will be quite thin when it is ready for the oven.

Political Rally Date Is Fixed

Date of a community political rally which Messenger Home Demonstration Club will sponsor at Walcott School was set for April 20, at a recent meeting of the club in Mrs. Elmer Northcutt's home. Candidates for office will be invited to meet voters of the western part of Deaf Smith County at the rally.

The program topic was Flowers For Home Gardens. Mrs. N. A. Brown discussed selection and cultivation of perennials and Mrs. Bill Page spoke of growing annuals. Mrs. J. E. Sorrells presided.

Correspondence with Mrs. J. E. Rouse, chosen as the club's "senior citizen of 1968", occupied part of the afternoon. A guessing game which opend the program was won by Mrs. Gene Bradley. Mrs. Jerry Northcutt held the floating prize and Mrs. Roy Duncan received a hostess gift; both were guests.

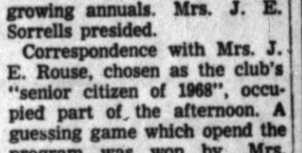

After the program, refreshments were served and a grab-bag sale was held to benefit the club treasury.

Church Youth Members Meet

Young people of Summerfield Baptist Church met for an informal social period in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Christie after church Sunday evening. Sandwiches, dips, pie and punch were served.

In the party were Elease Beene, Reese Jr. and Mike Downson, Randy and Barbara Allmon, Cynthia McMinn, Gene Streun, Mary Jo Clearman, Valarie and Jimmy Christie, Vicky Jacks and Jimmy Arnold; the leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jacks; the Rev. James Arnold, pastor, and Mrs. Arnold.

As a general rule, when a recipe calls for shortening, the solid white variety that does not have to be refrigerated should be used.

Brick Company Modernizes To Meet Growing Demands

By MARSHALL DAY
Staff Writer

Since a great deal of building is dependent on the manufacturing of bricks and tiles, it is no wonder that Hereford Tile and Brick Co. Inc. started modernizing and mechanizing its facilities back in 1962 in order to keep up with the rising demand of building materials.

Established in 1957, the company began to expand its furnishing facilities to meet the demand, and is now manufacturing up to 75,000 bricks a week. These bricks are manufactured in 19 different types and the clay that is used is obtained from a point 14 miles north of Vega.

M. H. Richie, manager, has been with the company since 1962 when he came to Hereford from Lubbock, where he worked with Acme Brick and Tile Co. for a period of five years.

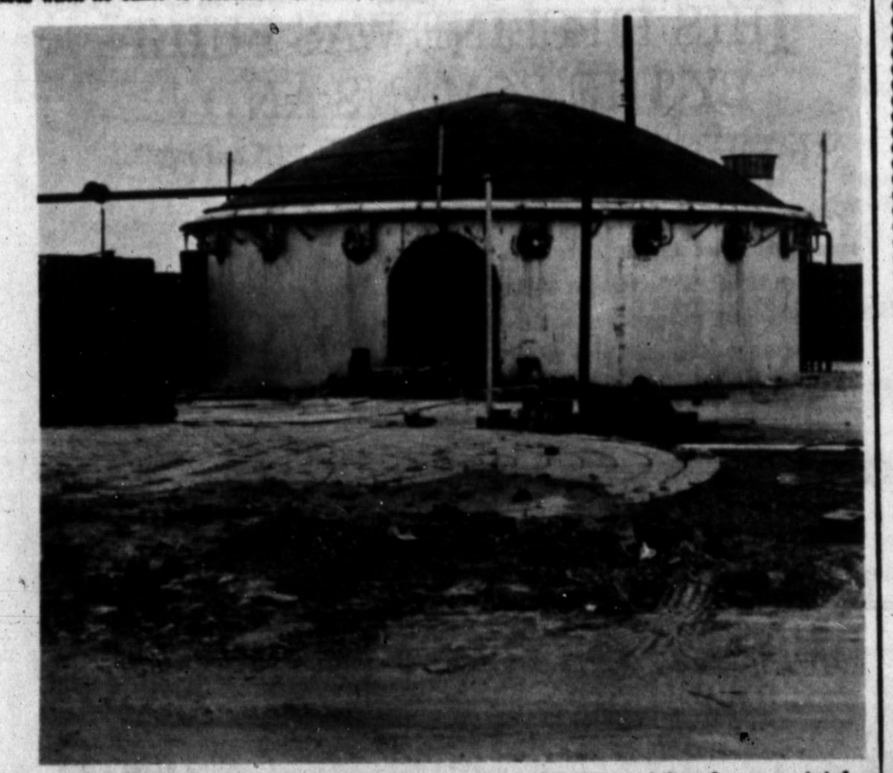

Assisting Richie is Gerald Turner who has been with the company four years. Turner was employed with Great Bend Brick and Tile Co. in Great Bend, Kansas and then with Kansas and then with Kansas Brick and Tile Co. for about 15 years in Hoisington, Kansas before coming to Hereford.

With the help of 11 skilled laborers, Hereford Brick and Tile Co. Inc. is able to produce 75,000 bricks per week. The entire cycle for manufacturing bricks takes 65 hours and they are baked in kilns at a temperature of 1940 degrees. The company has three kilns with one being able to bake 80,000 bricks at once, another baking 43,000, and the smallest one 20,000. The time required for the production of a quanity of bricks takes about two weeks starting from the raw clay to the shipping stage.

Covering a radius ofa bout 150 miles, the company has a present inventory of about 1,200,000 bricks on hand. "We try to keep that amount of inventory on the yard at all times," said Turner.

To haul the shipments of bricks, the company has at its disposal two trucks which are able to haul anywhere from 5,000 to 10,000 bricks at one time.

As they have already met the expanding demand in the brick and tile industry once, Hereford Tile and Brick Co. Inc. is sure to keep pace with the ever-rising demand in that industry.

BRICK KILN — This is just one of the three kilns used to bake bricks in at the Hereford Brick and Tile Company. The three kilns have a total baking capacity of 143,000 bricks.

Dallas Speakers Discuss Importation Of Fresh Water

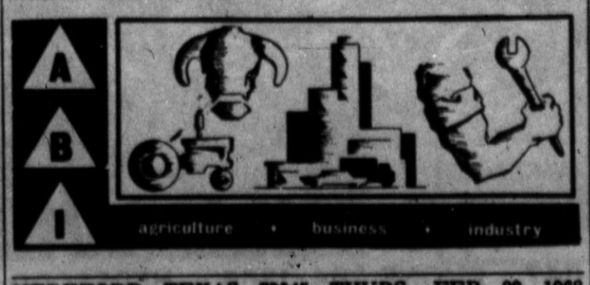

Movement of fresh water for irrigation to West Texas from the Mississippi River System was the subject of considerable comment in Dallas last Thursday and Friday at the 24th annual meeting of the Texas Water Conservation Association.

Encouraging remarks were made by Judge Guy C. Jackson, Jr., President Emeritus of the Assiciation, and Floyd E. Dominy, Commissioner of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, according to Deaf Smith residents.

Local men representing the Texas High Plains at the TWCA meeting were R. C. Godwin, Wilburn Axe ,Austin Rose, Jr., Andrew Kershen, and Frank Ford, Jr., all of Hereford, and Bruce Parr of Parmer County. The predominate emphasis of speeches and conferences was that of unity in developing a state-wide water plan and in maintaining cooperative relations with neighboring states involved in plans for trans-state water diversions, Godwin said.

All aspects of water resources were explored during the two days of sessions in the Statler-Hilton Hotel. The principles to which members of the Texas Water Conservation Association are committed were expressed by Judge Jackson at the evening banquet Thursday as, "We are dedicated to conserve and develop the water and soil resources of Texas for the benefit of all its people.." The mutual coordination of all areas and interests of the state is necessary to develop a state-wide water plan, according to Jackson, who stated that a plan will be developed, and "if we do not do our part it will be done from the Federal level, and we probably won't

Strictly A Cattleman Says Active Summerfield Youth

By TYLER VANCE
Staff Writer

Charles Atchley, an 18-year-old Summerfield resident, describes himself as "strictly a cattleman."

The description has proven true over the past four years that Atchley has been raising and showing cattle since he has won awards ranging all the way up to the First Place Heavyweight Angus at the State Fair of Texas.

The local Hereford High School senior is a member of the Happy Hustlers 4-H club. "I have learned a lot as a result of the projects and demonstrations I have carried on, and I think my 4-H career has been most rewarding," Atchley said.

Since joining 4-H five years ago, Atchley has gone to the 4-H Roundup for two years, attended Electric Camp in Cloudcroft N. M. has been elected Gold Star Boy, shown cattle in Dallas; Tulsa, Okla., El Paso, Houston, Amarillo and Hereford.

Also, he has been elected a director of the Hi-Plains Junior Angus Association, been active on the high school committee of the American Field Service and taken third, ninth and tenth places in the Wheat King contest at the Tri-State Fair. Atchley has been a member of the National Honor Society and Tri-Hi-Y organization at high school, has been chairman of the local vegetable show for the past few years, won first place in Field Crops and also a blue ribbon in sugarbeets at the local vegetable show.

Along with these accomplishments, Atchley has found time to raise and show nine of his own cattle, and help his sisters raise and show 18 other animals.

Raising and showing cattle is hard, according to the young cattleman. Atchley says he works for an hour before, and three hours after school each day with his entries. He also noted that he works with his animal for about one year before entering it in a show.

"It does take a lot of time, but the rewards are wonderful. I enjoy taking the animals to the show, and if I win I really feel I have achieved something. The best feeling is knowing I did the work myself."

Atchley says the highlight of his career so far, was showing the 1st Place Heavyweight Angus at the State Fair in 1966. The Angus weighed 1055 pounds. Other awards Atchley has won include the Reserve Champion Angus in the Amarillo-1967 Fat Stock Show, the 16th place Heavyweight Angus at the El Paso show, and most recently the Reserve champion Angus of the show at the Hereford Stock Show.

Both Atchley and Joyce Bezner, (who showed the Grand Champion at the local show) were born on Oct. 5, 1949. "That's the first time that ever happened," said Atchley, commenting on the odd occurence of both Champion and Grand Champion being the exact same age.

Atchley says he has won about $200 in prize money over the years, and has spent somewhere in the area of $3,600 on feed and supplies. But he figures he cleared about $1,000 profit by selling his animals at the show.

like it."

Jackson went on to point out that supplemental water supplies must be brought in from out of the state and that the development of such resources for farmers "free or at a very nominal cost" will be demanded by the increase of population and decrease of food supplies, continued Godwin.

Commissioner Dominy of the Bureau of Reclamation explained that in planning the transfer of water from surplus areas to needy ones, beneficial uses which may arise in areas of origin must be given primary consideration, He further stated that great accomplishments can be made in water resources development "if all concerned interests work vigorously and harmoniously together toward that end."

State Representative Bill Clayton, who is chairman of the House Interim Water Study Committee, visited extensively with those present from the Texas High Plains. According to Godwin, President of the Deaf Smith County Water Association, "Clayton is particularly sensitive to the water needs and interests of the High Plains and is quick to find a place for those needs and interests within the framework of a truly state-wide water plan."

On several occasions, mention was made in conferences and informal conversations that local areas must deal with their own problems in the conservation of water before counting on state and federal assistance in water importation. Wilburn Axe referred to the "numerous tasks" the people of the High Plains have before then which are in need of immediate attention. Axe commented on the importance of time, in that within the next three years master water district legislation and approval by an election among the people of the areas to be included, along with proposed legislation in the Congress for a final analysis of an important project, should take place.

"Many people seem to think there is no hurry now in working on the import project," Axe stated, "but what they fail to realize is that we have a lot to do before construction can begin, or for that matter, before we can present a bill in Congress. Most importantly, we must work harder to conserve our remaining underground water supplies to show the state and nation that we deserve imported water, and to prepare the way for as much local control as possible in the forthcoming master water district organization."

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I want to extend my respect and admiration to you, Mr. Melvin Young, for having the courage to express yourself on such controversial issues as the Sunday Blue Law.

We all recognize that we live in a world of rationalizations and controversies. And it takes sincere, honest men of integrity to come up with positive solutions to the problems backed with honest principles.

The complex history of the Sunday Blue Law is indicative of the type of lobbyists and pressure groups behind it. . As Mr. Melvin Young put it "Politicians who were speaking out of both sides of the mouth," yielding to political pressures. No law could stand the test when it is based on hipocricy; and the Sunday Blue Law is no exception. . . time and time again; it proved itself ineffective and discriminatory and furthermore encroaching on personal freedom as guaranteed by our constitution.

To those hypocritic agitators, I say: If they really are as concerned about the interest of our community as they claim to be, then I suggest they concern themselves with more genuine problems such as crime, gambling, narcotics, alcoholics, divorces, corruption, etc. And maybe they ought to allow their fellow merchant to run his business as he sees fit, under the circumstances. If a farmer finds it necessary to harvest his field on Sunday for some reason or another, then no one ought to interfere with him. . . not even the Federal Government. . It is enough that they tell him what to grow and how much of it!

Yes, I am aware that the Bible says: "Everyone should observe the Sabbath." But then the Bible also listed other more critical commandments for us to observe and in short let's not be hypocrits and allow ourselves to be judges of our neighbors when we ourselves are not perfect.

Thank you,
George Masso

Stock Trailer Bought By FFA

The Hereford FFA Chapter bought themselves a 14-foot stock trailer, for the use of members in hauling their livestock and for the advisers, when they go after show animals.

The FFA members sold citrus fruit last December to Hereford citizens in order to raise the money for the trailer.

'With the help of the Hereford citizens, this project was a great success," the chapter announced.

"The members of the chapter would like to express their appreciation to the Young Farmers who put on the Hereford Stock Show, and to the businessmen of Hereford and other surrounding towns for their participation in the sale February 17."

The Hereford FFA Chapter are participating in the Houston Livestock Show this week. Those who had commercial calves and show animals entered were Charlie Stone, Harry Voglar, Steve Robbins, James Simpson, Steve Olson, Jimmy Mize, Mike Stone, Ken Lang, Tommy Bezner and Otis Robinson.

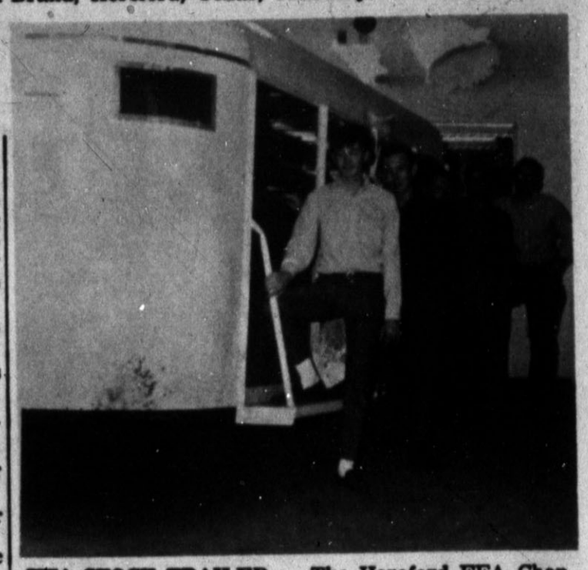

Richard Robinson and Charlie Stone were the supervisors.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ

Last year Internal Revenue sent 987,000 refunds amounting to more than $136 million to Northern Texans. Unfortunately thousands of these checks were delayed due to simple errors.

1. 1706 omitted or erroneous social security numbers
2. 7000 had missing signatures
3. 5000 were missing a W-2
4. 2600 were missing a statement or shcedule
5. 12,000 made a math error in the tax computation
6. 10,500 miscalculated their standard deduction
7. 19,500 had other arithmetic errors
8. 55,000 (astounding) took their tax from the wrong tax table, or used the wrong line or column

If you don't want to delay your refund, keep your number off the computer's error tape.

THIS PIPELINE WAS BUILT BY THE ROMANS AND SERVED FOR 2,000 YEARS

This photo, from the Smithsonian Institute in Washington D. C., shows a section of the original aqueduct that served the water needs of the conquered city of Cologne, Germany. It was constructed in 80 A.D. by the engineers of Fabius Sabinus Titus, Emperor of Rome. The aqueduct extended 56 miles underground between Cologne, and Eiffel and served as the main artery for the Cologne water supply until the late 1920's.

THIS PIPELINE IS EVEN MORE DEPENDABLE!!

Because of modern materials and manufacturing techniques, Gifford-Hill-Western's LOCK-SEAL provides an even more pependable underground pipeline. The close tolerance design makes the pipe more suitable, and joint flexibility eliminates the effects of expansion and contraction due to soil conditions and temperatures. By combining a superior product with modern day design and installation know-how, you have an underground irrigation system that serves dependably year after year . . . generation after generation. LOCK-SEAL is the product, Gifford-Hill-Western is the Company . . . depend on them!

ANYONE FOR ICE cold water? Frozen water forms a mountain of ice as it emerges from the water hose, and just goes to prove that winter is still around.

Gladys' Garden

By Gladys Howton Manjeot

NEW INTRODUCTIONS

The seed catalogues, the rose books, and garden magazines are really full of many interesting, enticing, and enhancing plants, bulbs, and seeds. Many of them are playing up the new introductions which have a great appeal.

For instance I picked up a magazine and was thumbing through it and found this about the THUMBELINA. The caption was "you will fall in love with the Tint THUMBELINA famous All-American Gold Medal Winner. Remeber the charming "Thumbelina" of the Hans Christian Anderson fairy tale? — The tiny girl who was born in the heart of a flower? Now she has a new namesake, a delightful dwarf zinnia, a colorful little flower who's story is both remarkable and true. This is an excellent zinnia. It is superb for edging or borders. Is extremely dwarf, and stays small without pruning. There is no need to pinch off the buds either because they are soon covered with fresh new ones. Has continuous Brilliant Blooms. Is a rugged plant, and will grow in practically any garden soil. I urge you to plant and grow this pretty dwarf zinnia. Check the seed when making purchase and try to get them rust and disease resistant. They are dainty and lovely and grow well in our local.

Another plant we have received notices on are the climbing strawberries. They are to be planted, and a trellis erected at the back of the plants, or they can be trained to fences or a pole. Are easy to grow, and simple to plant. However, do not plant strawberries (if you have not previously planted them) without conferring with someone who knows how since there is a special way to plant them. They must not be planted too deep, or below the crown, These are recommended to have large, extra sweet and large berries.

The ROSE is a legend. Mythology has it that when Venus, the Goddess of Beauty was born of the sea, a rose was created in a garden on earth — to be the fairest of all flowers. Change the letters about and you have the name EROS — the god of LOVE. A rose is for painting and for poets — and for arranging, but first it must be GROWN. Whether it is called a rose or any other name it is still sweet and one of the all American favorites. When planning your new plantings for this season, am sure you will want to include some roses. It is well to add new ones each year. Included in your list should be some of the new introductions, and there is a wide range of selection in these. Hybrid teas, floribundas, and grandifloras. I recommend "Bewitched." It is a beautiful hybrid tea, and is a charming pink, beautiful in bud and full bloom. Excellent keeper for flower arranging.

It is well to plant both the bare rotted roses, and the ones grown in containers. Mrs. Roy L. Wilson, our Garden Club Horticulturist, prefers to plant the bare rotted roses, and she grows beautiful roses. Other rosearians prefer the potted plants and they too have success. So it is then a matter of choice. In the selection of plants, get them from a reputable source, and it pays to check on the roots and the canes. Always purchase name varieties and those that have been treated to be disease resistance.

In making plans for the new season, it is advised that the shrubs and trees should be checked. Do you have some old varieties that have spent themselves, and should be replaced with newer stock? Holly is becoming a favorite and there has been some varieties that have been planted and are doing well. While visiting at the Raymond White home, I noticed the holly they have planted. It is doing well and the red berries are so pretty with the beautiful glossy, green leaves. Care should be exercised in the selection, as many varieties do not grow here. A variety that has done very well here is the AZUSA HOLLY. This plant was grown and propagated in California. Later it was offered here and it is a real find for the gardener. This last year has been unusually good for berried shrubs and other plants. We cannot expect our berried shrubs to bear every year, just as sometimes our favorite flowers do not blossom well.

Appie Stark Splendor is a new fruit introduction. They are red with golden under-color. Large and sweet. Can be purchased both in the dwarf and regular.

Marigold "Golden Jubilee" is another much mentioned new introduction. Giant golden yellow flowers 4½ inches in diameter, very compact plants. Another marigold, "Spanish Brocade" (doesn't that name sound fantastic?) French marigold golden double tipped with red. Grows fast and soon produces an abundance of bloom.

Many new vegetables are receiving special attention. One that might be a real answer for the gardener is the 'Supersonic" hybrid tomato. It features vigor, is resistant to both fusarium and verticillum wilt, Large, firm, smooth and ripens in midseason."Popsicle" carrot is a uniform productive variety. Sweet, brittle, and an excellent grower. "Bonus "Bean is another commercial development, recommended for snaps and has bred-in resistance to many bean diseases. Two new radishes, the "Provider" and "Red Devil," are number one selections for radishes. Provides good eating, and the foliage is extra large and leafy, which could be used for mixed greens. Radishes are recommended for persons who are interested in dieting. I heard a TV personality say that she had RADISHES for lunch, and nothing else except some liquids. She often eats 30 or 40 at a meal. She is now trim and slim.

To have something new is always thrilling, so everyone select some of the new introductions and find out if they are good — and grow well in our area.

HAVE YOU SEEN: The crocus which was even blooming in the snow at 303 Westhaven Drive. They are as yellow as gold, and as pretty as lovely butterflies flitting from flower to flower in the sunshine.

To Do: SPADE, Ruth Undergaff ,a garden columnist recommends that we call March SPADE month. This is the month when we want to do outside gardening yet we know patience must be exercised. don't get in too big a hurry to plant. This is the time to do the deep spading. All flower beds and vegetable gardens should be spaded. Before you do the spading sprinkle over the ground a control for weeds, and manure or other fertilizer. After it has been spaded, then water well and wait for seed sowing time.

Peonies will soon be making their appearance with their tender growth, so give them some attention now. Sprinkle one of the bordeaux mixtures to control botrytis, generously over the peony beds.

Glad — With spade in hand.

When you are French-frying potatoes, use a wire basket and cook only one layer of potatoes at a time.

When making muffins, fill the muffin-pan cups about two-thirds full.

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

A CONTRACT

A contract is a promise ... a compact ... an agreement between two or more persons. It simply binds the contracting parties to abide by the conditions set forth therein. It could be a marriage contract, or a business contract. It may be a contract with your church and your God. A contract is a serious piece of business. Do you fulfill the terms of the contracts you make? You promised to be true to your life partner until death. You signed to discharge your financial obligations on a certain date. You contracted to be a faithful member of your church ... to attend regularly and support its work. Are you doing that? Do you honor your contract ... your word? The integrity of your own soul determines the value of all the contracts you make. They are as good as you or as bad as you.

Church attendance will help you prove yourself worthy of the confidence of both man and God. Attend every worship service.

CARD OF THANKS
Please let us take this means to express our thanks and gratitude to all of our friends and neighbors who were so concerned for Paul's welfare. Words cannot tell how comforting were the many visits and phone calls and especially the prayers offered in Paul's behalf.
Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hagar and Family

Leron B. Gough, whose father was Hereford's first full-term mayor, set up a bootblack stand at the town barber shop in 1905 when he was fifteen. During the summer he shined the cowboy's boots when they came in from the range to get cleaned up and make "Whoopee."

After paring parsnips, you can cook them whole or quartered in boiling salted water. Mashed, with lots of butter added, they're delicious to serve with meat or poultry. Popular in an earlier day, this good vegetable should be reinstated in menus.
