MRS. TREDWAY DIED SUNDAY

Buried Here Sunday Afternoon; Had Been Ill For Long Time; Well Known Over Section

A great concourse of friends and acquaintances crowded into the Church of Christ at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon until even standing room was at a premium to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Porter Tredway, whose funeral was conducted from this church, followed by burial in the City Cemetery. Elder L. J. McCarty, pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church here, of which Mrs. Tredway was a devoted member, conducted the services. He spoke felingly of the life and character of the good woman who had been so faithful to her church and her God. Dr. W. K. Johnston, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, also made some brief but appropriate remarks.

Mrs. Tredway died at 3 a. m. Sunday morning in a sanitarium at Lubbock, after an illness of several months. On Friday an operation was performed in an effort to save her life; but the skill of surgeons and nurses proved inadequate to stay the hand of Death.

Mrs. Tredway was born at Gonzales on January 3rd, 1888, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Colwell, her maiden name being Mamie Colwell. On December 24th, 1905, in Runnells county, she was married to Porter Tredway. Twenty-three years ago the young couple moved to Borden county, coming to Tahoka several years ago.

Mrs. Tredway left surviving her the husband, Porter Tredway, and five children as follows: Miss Euna Tredway, Mr. Ruby Krebbs, Marie and Iris Tredway, daughters, and Vance Tredway, son. Surviving her also are her father, R. D. Colwell of Wichita Falls; two sisters, Mrs. E. C. Tarter out northwest of Tahoka and Mrs. R. C. Owens of Wichita Falls; and two brothers, A. B. Colwell of Abernathy and Douglas Colwell of Wichita Falls.

Business Men Offer Prizes To Athletes

W. W. Nicklaus, coach of athletics in the Tahoka High School, announces that the following prize have been offered by the following business men of Tahoka:

Thomas Bros., druggists, will give a $7.00 fountain pen to the student in the Tahoka High School who makes the highest number of points in the various athletic contests this season.

Levine Bros. will give a pair of shoes to that student in the Tahoka High School who makes the highest number of points in the county interscholastic meet to be held here soon.

The May Drug Company will give a shaving set to that student in the Tahoka High School who makes the highest number of points in the athletic contests to be held at Snyder next Saturday.

Hull Expected To Accept Call Here

The pulpit committee of the Baptist Church had a letter this week from Rev. O. J. Hull indicating that he would tender his resignation as pastor at Gatesville next Sunday and would then definitely accept the call here. He indicted that he would be ready to begin work here about April 1. Of course, there is a possibility that his resignation at Gatesville will not be accepted and he might yet be prevailed upon to remain there, but the committee feels reasonably sure that he will come to Tahoka.

The Church here should indeed feel forturate, for Rev. Hull is one of the really outstanding preachers of Central Texas and could fill with credit the very best pulpits in Texas. If he comes to Tahoka, he is expected to immediately take his place as one of the leaders of the denomination in this entire section of the state, and it is doubtful if there will be a stronger preacher on all the plains, cities included. For five years he was pastor at Midland and for seven years he has been at Gatesville. It is hoped and believed that he will likewise remain here for a long time and do a wonderful work in Tahoka and throughout this section.

Jonsy Walker and Spurgeon O'Neal Wed

Spurgeon O'Neal and Miss Jonsye Walker were married at Clovis last Sunday and are residing temporarily at Muleshoe, where Mr. O'Neal is engaged in the construction of some residences.

Mr. O'Neal is the son of D. O'Neal and brother of B. H. O'Neal of the Wooldridge Lumber Company of this city and is a splendid young man.

The bride is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. B. Walker of this city and has been reared here. She is one of Tahoka's most brilliant and popular young ladies.

Both these young people have hosts of friends who wish them the sweetest joys that life may bring.

Murday Men Buy Insurance Agency

Messrs. P. G. Barton and F. L. Grider of Munday have purchased the insurance business of A. J. Glasgow & Co. of this city. Mr. Barton is already here in charge of the business and Mr. Grider and family will arrive Saturday. Mr. Glasgow we understand, will remain here. Mr. A. F. Martin, who has been connected with the business here, has formed a connection with an insurance company at Pecos and will locate in that city. His family will remain here, however, until summer.

Mr. Barton has been connected with The First State Bank of Munday for the past twelve years, a portion of the time as cashier. He resigned this position the first of the year to go into the insurance business with Mr. Grider. Mr. Grider has been in the insurance business at Munday for several years.

"We have taken a good deal of time in selecting a location," Mr. Barton stated to the News Monday. "We decided on Tahoka because we regard this the best section of this great South Plains region. Please say to the people of Tahoka that we want to meet all of them just as soon as possible. We invite them to come to our office and get acquainted. I have already met many of them, and I want to say that I am impressed that you have the finest bunch of people here I have ever met anywhere."

Mr. Barton also stated that in connection with their insurance work the new firm will do auditing work and installing systems of bookkeeping. They are experienced and capable in these lines of work.

New Water Well Very Light Producer

The new well recently completed for the City will yield only about twenty-five gallons of water per minute, according to Sid Sanders one of the city councilmen, and it is a distinct disappointment to the mayor and council. The mayor and the council have been giving much thought and time in an effort to procure an abundant water supply for Tahoka and their efforts should be highly appreciated even though they have not met with the success which they had hoped for. The present supply will probably be sufficient at all times of the year except when a real drouth is on. It may become necessary for the City to vote bonds some time in the near future to provide an additional water supply. Many believe that water in abundance can be procured two or three miles north of town, but the council naturally hesitates to spend much money on further tests unless there should appear a very strong probability of getting water. This is a problem for the entire citizenship of Tahoka to think about and the council doubtless would be glad to have your opinion in the matter.

J. V. Dyer Seriously Sick in Lubbock

J. V. Dyer was taken to a sanitarium at Lubbock Tuesday in a rather serious condition, suffering from erysipelas. It has been Mr. Dyer's custom for years to come in on this date, March 4, and renew his subscription to this paper, being the first subscriber to the paper. He was unable to show up in this office this time on account of the above mentioned affliction. The News sincerely hopes that medical skill may successfully combat the disease with which Mr. Dyer is suffering and that he may speedily be restored to health and to his home.

TEAM TO ENTER SNYDER MEET

Track Squad Will Be One Of Twenty-Seven In Big West Texas Tournament

Sixteen students of the Tahoka High School will participate in the big track tournament to be held in Snyder next Saturday, according to Coach W. W. Nicklaus, who will accompany the team to Snyder. Twenty-six other West Texas schools will have teams present to participate in the various events.

Tahoka has the best team in her history and Coach Nicklaus is expecting the boys to make a good showing. They may be expected to win at least a few points, in spite of the fierce competition they will encounter. Last week the team won over Lamesa High School in a dual meet at Lamesa by a score of 52 to 1, taking eight out of a possible twelve first places.

Moffitt is putting the shot well over forty feet, Fox broad-jumping more than twenty feet, Miner running the 100-yard dash near ten seconds, and Vance Tredway running the mile in less than five minutes. Other outstanding members of the team are D. Short, discus; George and Keiner, quarter mile; Benson, shot and discus; Grider, mile; and Cowan, pole vault.

James Patton Given Damage In Death

Damages in the sum of $500.00 were awarded James Patton by a jury in the district court Tuesday in a suit against Drs. Collins & Head, physicians, alleging negligence in the performance of an operation upon a child of Patton's resulting in its death. The cause of action accrued in 1926. Doctors Collins and Head were practicing physicians at O'Donnell at that time. Dr. Head has since moved away.

Plaintiff was represented by Judge E. L. Klett of Lubbock and Hon. Carl Runnels of Lamesa. Representative of this district in the legislature. Defendants were represented by Judge G. E. Lockhart and Tom Garrard.

Little Donnie Eugene Gryder Passes Away

On the evening of March 2, 1930, the Death Angel visited the home of Mr and Mrs. S. H. Gryder and took their little darling Donnie Eugene. Little Donnie Eugene was born January 10, 1930, and lived only one month and twenty-two days. His death was caused by pneumonia. The little one leaves a father mother, two sisters and three brothers besides hosts of other relatives and friends to mourn his untimely death.

The remains were quietly laid to rest in the City Cemetery. The family has the tenderest sympathy of many friends.—A Friend.

MRS SLATON ENTERTAINS

Informal games of contract bridge were played at the home of Mrs. W. B. Slaton Tuesday afternoon when she entertained a small party of friends. Two tables were in place and high score went to Mrs. E. E. Callaway.

The hostess served a salad course. The guest list included Mesdames E. E. Callaway, Otho Thoma, L. E. Torrentine, Stephens J. H. Powell, Elbert Boullion, Chas. F. Shook and Robert H. King.

J. C. Jordon arrested in Chicago for intoxication, had in his pockets two herrings, two camphor balls, a brush and comb, six hairpins and two bars of soap.

"MINUTE MEN" ORGANIZE HERE

Waging Fight Against So-Called "Chains"; KWKH Men Speak On Program

Following a public meeting held in the Lavelta Theatre last Friday night at which Messrs. Jack Casey and W. M. Caraway of the "Hello World" broadcasting station spoke against the chain stores, some of the independent merchants of Tahoka and surrounding communities met and organized a local "Merchant's Minute Men" club. There were twelve charter members of the organization, according to information given the News by one of the members.

Quite a good-sized crowd heard the speakers of the evening. Both speakers took pains to make it plain that they had no criticism to offer of the local individuals who were operating the chain stores. Their criticisms were directed at the "higher-ups" in the business. They claimed that unfair methods were being employed to drive the independent merchants out of business so that the big combinations of capital might have the entire field to themselves and they predicted the most dire consequences when this should be accomplished. Caraway exhibited articles of merchandise which he said had been purchased at a chain store in Lubbock on the preceding Friday and similar articles purchased at an independent store on the same day, and showed that the articles purchased at the chain store were of less weight and smaller content than similar articles purchased at the independent store though the difference in size was not easily discernible and purchasers might be easily deceived thereby. His inference was that the articles had been put up in smaller packages for the chain stores for purpose of deception.

Both speakers were accorded a liberal amount of applause. Judge G. C. Gryder presided and introduced the speakers.

Presbyterian Revival Begins March 16th

The News is requested to again announce that revival services will begin at the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday, March 16. Rev. W. M. Elliott, pastor at Colorado, will conduct the services. He is an able minister of the gospel and will doubtless bring some soul-stirring messages.

This is part of a revival program being conducted by the Presbyterian synod. Many revivals of like nature will be conducted throughout the state at the same time, the various pastors being used to carry out this evangelistic campaign.

The general public is earnestly invited to attend the services to be conducted here.

Dixie Man Buried Sunday Afternoon

William Allen McCasland, 42, residing on the Hallmark farm near Dixie, died Saturday and the remains were interred here Sunday afternoon. The body was prepared for burial by Harris & Applewhite undertakers. Rev. E. L. Naugle of Wilson, pastor of the Dixie Methodist Church, officiated at the funeral.

Death is said to have resulted from pellagra and cancer of some of the vital organs. Deceased had been sick for a long time. He had been a resident of this county only a few months, coming to the Dixie community last June. He left a wife and several children, who have our sincerest sympathy in this trying hour.

LUBBOCK, March 4.—Champion's Pretty Cora 683576, a purebred Jersey cow in the herd of the Texas Technological College at Lubbock, Texas, has completed her first official production test in which she yielded 539.98 lbs. of butterfat and 8,707 lbs. of milk in 365 days. Cora was started on this test when she was just four years of age and with this record qualified for the Register of Merit of the American Jersey Cattle Club. Her sire is Champion's Tormentor's Duke, and her dam is Rosemary of Simmons Farm.

Old Winter Stages Come Back Sunday

Real winter weather prevailed Sunday and Monday following one of the mildest Februaries within the recollection of oldest of old-timers here. On Sunday morning the thermometer at the St. Clair hotel registered 20 degrees above zero while on Monday morning it indicated a temperature of 16 degrees.

A few of the fruit trees were in bloom and it is believed that the fruit on these trees has been destroyed. It is not thought, however that a large per cent of the fruit has been damaged, and unless old winter should stage another comeback later, it is believed that a big fruit crop will be raised.

Mrs. Phebe K. Warner Attends Club Meeting

One of the most enjoyable and interesting social events of the season took place February 27th at the American Legion Home, when Mrs Phebe K. Warner of Claude, Texas honored her only namesake, The Phebe K. Warner Club of Tahoka by her presence at an entertainment given for her.

To many citizens of Lynn County Mrs. Warner needs no introduction. Her wonderful personal charm, her rare intellectual gifts, and her inimitable presentation of any subject inspire universal admiration among her friends and acquaintances.

Most of the guests had gathered when Mrs. Warner arrived with Mrs Slaton in whose home Mrs. Warner was a guest during her visit here. The program which was then given was as follows:

"America The Beautiful" (Federation Song) led by Mrs. Breedlove with Miss Binnion at the piano.

Welcome Address: Mrs. Slaton president of Phebe K Warner Club.

Laymen Speak At The Baptist Church

A service that was different was held at the Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The Euzelian Sunday School class, of which Mrs. J. B. Walker is teacher, had been asked to render a program. The class arranged a program and Mrs. Walker presided during its rendition but the program was not rendered by the class itself. Three laymen had been asked to speak, and they did so to the great delight of the congregation. Mr. G. E. Hogan conducted the devotional service and made one of his characteristically instructive and interesting talks. It was in fact a sermon—a splendid exposition of the Scriptures chronicling the Transfiguration.

Dr. K. R. Durham spoke briefly but with clarity upon Some Forms of Worldliness, and Judge B. P. Maddox discussed forcefully Some Remedies for Worldliness.

A vocal solo was rendered by Jim Jackson and a quartette by Mmes. Ruby Wells, Skip Taylor, Ovid Lusllin and K. R. Durham.

The entire congregation greatly enjoyed the service.

BOOTLEGGER IS TURNED LOOSE

Un-Married Couple Caught With 51 Jars Liquor; Man Given Suspended Sentence

A tender-hearted jury gave a bootegger a suspended sentence in the district court here Wednesday afternoon. The defendent was one W. B. Miller of Fort Worth, who was arrested here by Sam Sanford and W. M. Lee on Wednesday night of last week on a charge of unlawfully possessing for the purpose of sale, 51 half gallon jars of whiskey.

Miller and a woman companion were placed in jail on the charge. The grand jury promptly indicted Miller and the case came on for trial Wednesday morning of this week. The defendant represented to the Court that he was not financially able to employ an attorney and the Court appointed L. C. Heath to represent him. The State was represented by District Attorney T. L. Price and County Attorney G. H. Nelson.

The defendant pleaded guilty to the indictment and filed a plea asking for a suspension of the sentence. The jury assessed the penalty at five years in the penitentiary but granted his plea and recommended a suspension of the sentence, which is mandatory upon the court, and hence the prisoner walked out of the court house a free man.

The evidence in this case showed that, acting upon a tip, Sanford and Lee were watching for this man. They saw him and his woman companion drive into the business portion of town and stop, get out of the car and enter a confectionery about midnight. The officers immediately instituted a search of the car and found 51 jars of whiskey, a 38. calibre pistol, fully loaded and lying in the seat just back of the woman's place and in easy reach of Miller, the driver. The evidence al-

Kiwanians Enjoy Program of Music

The Kiwanis Club was entertained with a program of music given by Miss Bessie Mae Binnion and some of her pupils at their luncheon Wednesday.

Piano solos were rendered by Misses Lottie Jo Townes and Mary Jane Weathers. Boswell Edwards gave a vocal solo, and Miss Binnion and Miss Lucille Slaton sang a duet. The entire program was much enjoyed.

W. S. Anglin made a plea to the Kiwanians for better support of the Boy Scout Organizations here. Troop No. 21 has had no place to meet for some time and Mr. Canaday, the scout master, has been having them to meet at his home. Rev. R. T. Breedlove Wednesday tendered the basement of the Methodist Church as a meeting place for this troop, and they will likely meet there hereafter. Members of the committee present promised to look after the interests of this troop hereafter.

O'Donnell Bank Wins In Lawsuit

In the case of the Cooper Cotton Company of Abilene vs. The First State Bank of O'Donnell tried here in the district court this week, the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the bank.

This case has been on the docket for almost ten years. It was tried once soon after it was filed, but the judgment rendered on that trial was reversed on appeal. Since that time the case has been continued from time to time for various reasons.

The controversy arose over a cotton transaction made ten years ago.

The Cooper Cotton Company was represented by Messrs. Oliver and Haynie, Abilene lawyers, while the bank was represented by Judge G. E. Lockhart.

ANDERSON INFANT BURIED HERE MONDAY AFTERNOON

The baby of Mr and Mrs. A. A. Anderson of the Edith community, eleven months of age, died Sunday and the remains were interred here Monday afternoon, Rev. R. T. Breedlove officiating. Death resulted from pneumonia. The grief-stricken parents have our deepest sympathy.

NORDYKE ANNOUNCES FOR COMMISSIONER

Levi M. Nordyke requests that we announce that he is a candidate for commissioner of precinct No. 2. His announcement comes too late for us to place his name in the regular annuncement column this week but it will appear in this column next week.

Mr. Nordyke resides in the Midway community. He first came to this country in 1915 and has made his home here practically ever since. He has been engaged in farming and drilling wells, having left the county a few times to work in the oil fields.

He is a man of the strictest integrity and enjoys the confidence of a large number of friends. Many influential men have solicited him to make the race for this office and have promised him their support, he says.

We bespeak for his candidacy the earnest consideration of the voters of the precinct, which includes the southeast quarter of the county.

Konjola Makes Good After All Else Had Failed

St. Louis Lady Glad to Relate Her Fine Experience With New And Different Medicine

MRS. DORA BAUER

Konjola is a different medicine simply because it scores victory after victory in cases that have defied and resisted all medicines and treatments tried. This is not a boast. It is a fact established and proved in thousands of cares like that of Mrs. Dora Bauer, 3403 St. Vincent avenue, St. Louis. Read her grateful words:

"How I wish that every sufferer from neurities could know what Konjola did for me. For ten years I endured agonies from this awful ailment. I had to keep my arms wrapped tightly to eare the pain. My digestion was bad, too, and this weakened me, making me still easier prey for neuritis. I cannot remember how many medicines and treatments I tried, but found nothing to give relief, until I found Konjola. In just five weeks this remarkable medicine restored digestion, rid my syetem of poisons and impurities, and then the neuritis left me as if by magic. What a boon Konjola proved to be to me. No wonder Konjola is known as the medicine with more than a million friends. It should have a billion."

Konjola is sold in Tahoka at Tahoka Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

COUNTY INTER-CLUB MEET

Almost 100 members from twelve women's Home Demonstration Clubs met in the District Court Room last Thursday afternoon and listened to Mrs. Phebe K. Warner. Members from the following clubs were present: New Home, Wilson, T-Bar. Edith, West Point, O'Donnell, Midway, Three Lakes, Dixie, New Lynn. New Moore and Grassland.

Mrs. Warner talked in terms of Lynn County. She asked this question: "What is standing in the way of the progress of the country women?" The answer was a keener conception of her own importance. She doesn't realize this obligation. The farm woman is a more necessary woman than she realizes.

The factional feeling between town women and country women Mrs. Warner stated, is ninety-nine per cent imagination.

Mrs. Warner also stated that when farm women organize and awake to their possibilities in marketing they will accomplish more in that thing than the farm board will ever do.

"The Farm women are the foundation of the homes that make the nation," she stated.

"When every business man realizes that he must help the farm youth have the same advantages a the city youth, only then will his business progress as it should Whenever, a business man puts a lion on the progress of the farmers, he cuts off the own business.

"There are only two difference between town and country people educational opportunity and economic conditions. When there is a readjustment of these things there will be no cleavage between the people of the town and country."

She also says, "If you want to build up business in town build up the farm home."

Dairy Ration

3 lbs. MORE of milk per day make it cost less than "cheap" feeds!

A cow requires about one ton (20 bags) of RED CHAIN Dairy Ration per year.

An increase in milk of ONLY 3 LBS. PER DAY (at $2.00 per 100 lbs.) amounts to $18.00 in 300 milking days.

This will allow you to pay as much as 90c per bag more for RED CHAIN than for "cheap" feeds.

THERE'S no doubt about getting more milk from your cows when you feed RED CHAIN 24% Dairy Ration. It is safe because it contains less cottonseed meal than any other 24% dairy feed on the market, and its variety of proteins make it highly palatable, digestible and efficient.

When only three lbs. more of milk per day pays the difference between RED CHAIN and "cheap" feeds, can you afford not to feed RED CHAIN 24% Dairy Ration?

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

The fact that the salary of a state official is inadequate is no justification whatever for graft or peculation on his part. Yet the pitiful inadequacy of salary which we pay many state officials does conduce to petty graft and dishonesty on their part. We believe that the State of Texas should pay its officials decent salaries. No man is going to work in your store for a dollar a day unless he expects to steal from you. We have never been able to understand how any honest man can afford to run for a state office that pays only $2,500.00 per year when it costs him possibly twice that amount to get elected. Of course, if a man has plenty of money, or desires the office for the honor that attaches to it, or wishes to use the office as a mere stepping stone to something better, then we can understand how he might be willing to make the financial sacrifice which election to the office entails. We can understand how a man would like to be elected governor or attorney general and to some other offices for the honor or the opprtunity to serve that goes with them. But there is no special honor in being state treasurer or comptroller, for instance. Why do men seek these offices when the pay is so pitifully small. Why will the people vote down proposed constitutional amendments that would make it possible for honest men to hold these offices without losing money on the job?

The House of Representatives at Austin has voted to adjourn on March 15th. It has done little but wrangle and the chances are that it will do nothing even if it should remain in session indefinitely. With a crying demand for court reform, for rebuilding of the penitentiary system, for funds with which to conduct the summer schools of the State's educational institutions, and many other matters needing attention, the legislature fusses and quarrels and fritters away its time and the people's money and accomplishes nothing. In last week's Forum Jim Ferguson published a stinging editorial calling upon the legislature to "Quit and Git." The House has decided to do that very thing. It seems that Jim Ferguson's whip is more potent than Dan Moody's. What this state needs is a new legislative system as well as a new penitentiary system. The membership of the House should be cut down at least fifty per cent, the members should then be paid a decent salary, and the body should be kept in session long enough each year to transact the people's business in an orderly and intelligent manner.

At a meeting of leaders among so-called "Hoovercrats" held in Dallas last Friday it was decided to defer action as to he course they should pursue until the supreme court of Texas passes on the question raised by Tom Love in his mandamus suit filed recently to compel the State Democratic Executive Committee to have his name printed on the ballots to be used in the primary elections this summer. If the supreme court should sustain Love's contention, then of course practically all of the "Hoovercrats" will go into the Democratic primaries. If the Committee's action should be sustained, then most of the "Hoovercrats" perhaps will stay at home on primary election day. With them it is not a question as to Tom Love's merits as a candidate for governor but it is a matter of principle.

The state prison board Monday instructed the penitentiary worden and the transfer agent to receive no more prisoners into the main penitentiary at Huntsville until the number of inmaes is reduced to the normal capacity of the institution. It was built, the board says, to care for 650 men. It now has within its walls 950 men. The legislature refuses to do anything about it. At the legislature and the governor can not agree. In such a situation, Governor Moody ought to adopt Jim Ferguson tactics for about a day and a half and send about three hundred of these prisoners home. Most of the sick and a lot of those who are serving for light offenses and a bunch of the most worthy should be told to "go and sin no more." If the State cannot or will not humanely provide for its prisoners, let it turn them loose, and let the people take care of themselves.

CITY ELECTION

To be held first Tuesday in April; two aldermen and city secretary to be elected.

For City Secretary:
MRS. J. B. WALKER (Re-election)

Representative Clyde Warwick of Canyon calls attention a startling degree of neglect of official duties by members of the legislature. Why should a man desire to be elected to the legislature if he does not intend to attend its sessions? Why will the people elect a man to the legislature who has not sufficient concern for the interests of the people to look after their business? If we had fewer and better law-makers we might have fewer and better laws.

Some of our farmer friends have sought to kinder pour it on us of late, and love to ask us how our crop is coming along, because we dared suggest some things to them of late. They sometimes suggest to us how to run a paper, and some of their advice is good and taken; all of us advise the merchants, and our pastors advise us all how to live. We are our brother's keeper, and if the southern farmers are fools enough to raise a big cotton crop this year contrary to the advise of the Federal Farm Board, the bankers and merchants of the nation, he'll wish a million times that he had taken some one's advice.—Terry County Herald.

Editor Hill of the Lynn County News sent us two copies of his first and last pages last week, which also included two and seven, leaving out the four inside pages, which always contains his editorial pages. We always read his editorial page if we do not have time to read the rest of the paper, therefore felt lost in not having his editorial page to assist us in getting out this week's Claude News. If Editor Hill does this again we will have to go over to Tahoka and teach him how to run a printing office.—Claude News.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT
(Christian Science Monitor)

The slogan usd during a Swiss dry campaign, "The drinking worker does not think; the thinking worker does not drink!" furnishes food for thought.

You do not have good American blood in your veins if you are weak enough to say America cannot enforce her laws.

The trouble with the Canadian system of Government control is that it does not control the liquor business.

Wets say crime and drunkenness have increased under prohibition. The United States Census Bureau says they have decreased. Which do you believe?

Remember, it is Uncle Sam who drives the national wagon with a flag floating over it.

The very best proof that prohibition does work is the loud protests against it from the wet camp.

The fellow who uses booze has a greater interest in his cellar than he has in the Constitution of the United States.

Mississippi Lady Says She Felt Stronger, Better After Taking Cardui.

Greenwood, Miss.—Mrs. W. D Taylor, of 1313 Carrollton Avenue this city, has written of her use of Cardui as follows:

"About five years ago, I was in ill health. I suffered a great deal of pain in my sides and in the lower part of my body. I was weak and nervous, and at the least noise I felt like I must scream.

"At times I would have to go to bed. My head would ache. It would take me three or four days to get over these spells.

"A friend told me to take Cardui, which I did. After my first bottle, I saw some improvement. When I had taken three bottles, I felt stronger and better than I had in some time. I did not have any more of those bad spells.

"I certainly recommend Cardui."

Thousands of other women recommend Cardui, after having found it of valuable assistance to them in building up their health.

Cardui is a purely vegetable medicine, and contains nothing harmful. The medicinal value of the herbs from which Cardui is extracted have been well-known in the history of medicine for more than six hundred years.

Try it for your troubles. NC-220

WHAT OTHERS THINK

THE FIFTH CALLED SESSION

The difficulty in obtaining a quorum again reveals the fact, which has been self-evident for a long time, that the House is entirely too large, and the number of members should be reduced. There are 150 members in the House. It takes 100 to make a quorum. During the entire life of the 41st Legislature there has been a bare quoroum present; the average roll call amounts to only about 105. This means that fully 22 per cent of the members of the house are away from Austin all of the time. It is usually about the same members who are absent. One member has never come to Austin during the regular and the four called sessions. One member has not been present since the third week of the regular session. One member is said to have not attended a dozen days during the entire sessions of the 41st Legislature. Others are away more or less all of the time.

The West Texas members stay in Austin most of the time as this section is so far away that the members cannot make the trip home unless in case of extreme nesessity. The writer missed only two half days during the regular session, being laid up with a cold. During the First Second and Third called sessions he did not miss a day. He was glad to be able to secure an excuse from the Speaker for a few days at the end of the Fourth and the beginning of the Fifth Called sessions in order to look after very urgent business Every West Texas member has an equally good record of attendance.

The 41st Legislature has broken all records for the number of days to be in session. No other legislature has gone into a Fifth Called Session. It is charged that the 41st Legislature has loafed on the job to a great extent. Maybe that is true, but legislation cannot, and should not be rushed. The difference of a legislature of today and twenty years ago, or even ten years ago, is the difference between the problems of today and those of ten or twenty years ago. Time was when the only thing the legislature had to fight about was liquor and railroads. Both of these questions have been settled, but a multitude of problems have taken their place. The time is not far away when Texas will be forced to have longer sessions of the Legislature and pay the members better in order to accomplish all of the business which comes before the State.

The members are weary on account of the great amount of time which the 41st Legislature has caused them to be away from home and away from their businesses. They see no hope for the Governor to win his fight to remove the penitentiary system to a location near Austin, although the Governor is spending a lot of time in appealing to the people of the state over the radio in hope that the voters will influence the members of he Legislature to vote for the executive's plan. Owing to the fact that the Governor lost so heavily in the last called session for a new location for he system, it is very doubtful whether there will be a change of heart in such a short time sufficient to put over the Moody plan.—Clyde Warwick in Canyon News.

TERRELL RESIGNS

Te result of the Terrell impeachment trial is certain to be of lasting good to Texas. The state capitol is infested with inefficiency. Departments refuse to co-operate with other departments. No one is in charge of that fine capitol building, and every department seeks to grab and hold all the space it can without regard to any other department.

Perhaps the lack of system is more to blame than anything else. If there has been misappropriations those guilty should be punished. If the system is old and out of date, here should be a change so that state officials in the future should not be charged as Mr Terrell has been charged. Terrell resigned, but that does not prove his guilt. All hope that he may yet straighten out his affairs wih the state in order to avoid criminal prosecuion.—Clyde Warwick in Canyon News.

BURKETT OF CLYDE

We Texas voters haven't established any endurance or high flight records when it comes to picking the right man for the office, but perhaps it is because we don't often have the chance. In the wild scramble of candidates every two years it isn't often easy to pick out the man to fit the office.

Once in a while, however, along comes a candidate about whom there isn't any sort of doubt. He fits the office he seeks like a glove.

J. H. Burkett of Clyde is out for commissioner of agriculture. Here is a man who knows something about agriculture in its various moods and aspects. He is the patriarch of pecans, for instance—daddy of the celebrated Burkett pecan which has a standing in well informed pecan circles just about as high as a pecan can go. On his place at Clyde, in Callahan county, he has 52,000 growing plants of every description, some of which he Burbanked into existence by multitudinous experiments. Take the Americanization of the English walnut, for instance. That is one of Burkett's ideas. He is making it a superior nut with a thinner shell, and teaching it to enjoy the Texas climate. The pinon pine ,also, is yielding some of its age-old characteristics under the Burkett tutelage. He is teaching it to subsist on less water, thereby fitting it for a life of usefulness and decorum in the semi-arid regions of our West.

Texas has the opportunity to make use of the wisdom and established efficiency of this man Burkett. It can vote him into the commissionership of agriculture—where, goddress knows, a little efficiency and understanding of farmers' needs wouldn't be amiss. If anybody knows the the ins and outs of farming it is Burkett. He has been at it half a century or more, and his influence on the agriculture and horticulture of his state is well-defined and important.

It may be something of a novelty to pick a man for office who really knows something about the work of that office. But Texas can stand a little novelty of that sort. Let's elect him.—Abilene Reporter-News.

ANALYZE THE ALLOWANCE ON YOUR USED CAR

If a dealer pays you more than the true worth of the car he must make up the difference by extra charges on the new car or re-sell it to some one else at too high a price

PERMANENT value is always better than a temporary bargain in the purchase of an automobile. It pays to look ahead and consider reliability and ultimate up-keep costs, as well as comfort, safety, speed, and beauty of line and color.

Since most automobiles are bought for replacement, the value set on your used car is a factor in almost every purchase. Frequently it is given an importance beyond its true worth.

Used cars have a definite market value and you are justly entitled to an allowance based on that value. It is not fair that you receive less. It is not to your best interests to receive more.

IF a dealer pays you more than the true worth of the car he must either re-sell it to some one else, at too high a price or make up the difference on the new car. This he cannot do unless he is allowed an excessive profit on the car or on financing, extra equipment and other charges. In either case, you pay the bill, for no way has yet been found to give something for nothing. The money must come from somewhere.

You may not get the largest used-car allowance from the Ford dealer, but that very fact should give you confidence that you are receiving full value in the new car. Ford charges are not marked up or increased to cover a high trade-in allowance on your old car.

Because there is no waste, extravagance or undue profit in manufacturing, distribution or selling, every dollar you pay for a Ford brings a full dollar in return. In lower first cost, in reliability and long life, in the low cost of operation, service and replacement parts, the Ford will save you much more than the seeming difference in trade allowance.

FURTHERMORE, at least $75 extra value is given to you in the new Ford in the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, the Rustless Steel, the five steel-spoke wheels, and the four Houdaille hydraulic double-acting shock absorbers. The unusually large number of ball and roller bearings, and the extensive use of fine steel forgings instead of castings or stampings, are other features that show the extra quality built into the Ford car.

Man Says He Took Black-Draught After Each Meal and Soon Got Relief.

North Charlotte, N. C.—In telling how he was benefited by Thedford's Black-Draught, Mr. John M. Creps, of 902 Charles Avenue, this city, writes:

"I had three spells of indigestion, one after another. I suffered a lot of pain. My back ached and I had pains in my stomach frequently. It felt like my breath was cut off in my chest.

"I was bothered this way for about a year. A friend whom I told about my condition asked me to try Black-Draught.

"I began by taking a pinch of Black-Draught after each meal and found that I soon got relief.

"I have been taking Black-Draught for fourteen years, and I find that it prevents headache and constipation. We keep it in the house all the time. I have told a lot of people about it, and gladly recommend it to others."

Many people have written that they found relief from pains after eating by taking Black-Draught in the manner described above.

Composed of selected medicinal herbs and roots, finely powdered, accurately combined and packaged in a thoroughly modern, scientific way. Price 25¢. NC-221

OPINIONS

(R. T. BREEDLOVE)

The big fellows who are passionately against the eighteenth amendment are having their inning at Washington. They may think they are attracting the attention of the country. They are! They are making "mule papas" of themselves!

Pierre S. Dupont, one of the national figures in industrial and financial goings-on in the country has told what he thinks ought to be done. We already knew that. A sober nation would not appeal to Dupont. He is a maker of munitions, powder, chemicals, etc. War for him means immense prosperity. Yes, we know where to place his kind. A sober nation is not likely to be plunged into war, as is a drunken and besodden people.

And then there was Brother H. H. Curran, president of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, who brayed out this information: "We all know that this mistaken law is opposed, despised and cheerfully violated by an overwhelming majority of the American people. There never was a chance for a nationwide prohibitory law." Well now, that's news to me. My observaion is that it's getting harder and harder to get liquor, and that that is what is pinching these boys. A lot of things are about to happen ,and indeed some of them have already happened in Washington, which explains why President Hoover's administration is finding so much rabid opposition. The lid is going to pop off some of these days if a few more big bootlegging rings are uncovered.

The rabid wets are continually howling that conditions are worse now than before prohibition. Conditions are worse—for the wets! The liquor is worse, harder to get ,higher in price. Yeah, times are worse—for the wets. They say Prohibition doesn't prohibit, that there is more drunkenness than before the enactment of the eighteenth amendmnt. The United States Census says not so.

Government control in Canada has resulted in the increased consumption of liquor, and, strange to say, has increased the number of bootleggers. It has made ten drunken drivers where there was but one under prohibition, resulting in an enormous increase in accidents due to those drivers, a condition and a result that we will not abide in this free country. Accidents in industrial pursuits have increased seven per cent.

From a study of conditions in high schools with reference to drinking among students it appears that a census of 1,000,000 high school students shows that drinking in that group is on the decline. This study is being made on behalf of the Wickersham Commission and was announced by C. W. Crabtree, secretary of the Nation Education Association.

And yet the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment thinks that the people are so asinine as to believe all the rotten propaganda put out by that bunch of Bolshevicks. When will America wake up to the fact that truth is being suppressed and error flaunted on the front pages of great daily newspapers?

H. L. Mencken, editor of American Mercury, says in the concluding paragraph of his editorial in the February number that "It is at least still quite plausible and comforting to hope" in arguing that all amendments to the constitution have been ineffectual. When we remember that Mencken is the inveterate hater and scorner of the South deriding it as the "Bible Belt," "The Stronghold of Prohibition," and that he is ardently wet, an athiest, and an especially passionate church hater, we can easily place him. Of course he wants the amendment to be nullified or repealed. His kind always do.

There are and have been many eminent Catholic divines who have favored prohibition of intoxicating liquors, among them Cardinal Mercier, Bishop Spalding and others, but it remained for the Rev. Mr. Ryan to call prohibition enforcement "tyryism." Such statements and such tactics as his kind of Catholic priests and officials will get the Roman Catholic Church no friends among the real, patriotic law abiding American people.

The worn-out argument that prohibition was foisted unfairly upon the American people is still being used in all its ridiculous absurdity. The trouble with such puerile argument is that they always find a lot of gullible people to believe them. The truth of the matter is that thirty-three of the states had adopted prohibition before the eighteenth amendment was adopted. The amendment was adopted by the Senate in August, 1917, by a vote of 65 to 20, a rather substantial majority that did not unseat any considerable body of senators at the next election. It was adopted in the House in December of the same year by a majority of 282 to 128, and there were no alarming disorders in the country. It appears that the people were overwhelmingly in favor of the amendment when it was adopted. If there had been as much resentment as the wild-eyed wets assure us there was civil war would have broken out, and our troops would have been exceedingly busy at home. Before we entered the war sixty millions of our people were under "the terrible curse of tryanny", and eight-five per cent of our land area was affected by prohibition. Evidently the people knew all about it, and there was no foisting or underhanded methods in the matter of national prohibition. "That's the bunk" about the unsuspecting public being imposed on by a heartless and tyrannical body of senators and representatives. A man who will swallow that and sincerely believe it would buy the Woolworth building for a kindergarten.

A. L. Dunagan returned Thursday from Hillsboro and Corsicana, where he spent several days visiting relatives. Mr. Dunagan says that so much rain has fallen in that part of the state that farmers have had little opportunity to plant corn. The oat crop was killed out by the cold weather and he fears therefore that there will be no reduction in the cotton acreage in that part of the state this year.

Quite a number of Tahoka Baptists attended the Workers' Conference of the Brownfield Association which was held at Central Church east of Tahoka Tuesday. They report a good program and a large attendance. The next conference will be merged with the Fifth Sunday meeting to be held at Wells on the fifth Sunday in this month.

We are informed that the names of Georgia Frances Eubanks was inadvertantly omitted from the first grade honor roll of the Central Ward school published last week. We gladly call attention to this omission.

GEMS OF LITERATURE

THE GREAT UNLOVED

Napoleon is the world's greatest example of the Will-to-Power, perhaps without an equal in his individual mystery over conditions and over men.

It has been said of him that "he leaped the Mediterranean; he dashed across the desert; threw himself against the gate of the Orient, and its hinges, rusted by five hundred years of disuse, were shattered. He smote slothful Europe, and its medieval systems crumbled to dust. He infused armies, lawyers, artists, builders with the electric force of the revolution, and, at his command, codes were formulated, arches and bridges were built, roads were made and canals wre dug. The ruler of Italy at twenty-six, the despot of Egypt at twenty-eight, the dictator of France at thirty, the master of Europe at thirty-two," and for twenty years thereafter the central figure and the most dramatic of the world's history.

His dispatches are filled with the words: Success, Riches, Glory, Fame—these were the talismanic words of Napoleon, and yet there is in all the he tragic story of man no sadder der failure. Even in the days of his ower, he was called "The Great Unloved." Though master of the world ave only one little island lying off n the fog of the North Atlantic—'that wart on the nose of Europe" e persisted in calling England—though master of the world, yet of him his friend could only affirm: "Napoleon, grand, gloomy and peculiar, sits upon his throne a sceptered hermit, wrapped in the solitude of his own ambition."

Made dizzy by his own power, drunken with his own success, he attempts to stride the world like a Colossus. And in an evil hour, more by his own failure, than through the strength of his foes, he falters and fails, as power always does and always will, for it is certain, sooner or later, to encounter a greater power or perish through internal dissension and corruption.

Now turn for a moment to the Man of Galilee. What is the heart of his philosophy—"so simple", as Canon Farrar used to say, "that a little child can understand it—so profound that all the wisdom of the world can not exhaust it!"

Jesus taught that all men are children of one Heavenly Father, and that, therefore, the natural condition of men is one of mutual helpfulness and of universal friendship. He conceived of the race as one human family. He refustd to recognize the gulf the leaders of his people had fixed between the Jew and the Gentile or between the righteous and the wicked. That man is great, according to the Nazarene's gospel, who has the strength to serve and the patience to suffer—one who conquers not the world but his own selfish heart and lives to bless his fellows.

Jesus was the incarnation of the spirit that allays strife, changes animosity to friendship—his was the spirit that helps and heals. Jesus was the Prince of Peace as between man and man, nation and nation, race and race. Jesus was the Prince of Compassion. He saw the multitude poor and distressed and said, with infinite tenderness, "I have compassion on the multitude." Jesus was the Prince of Forgiveness and taught the deadliness of hate to the one who hates. Jesus was the Prince of Love and, because of this, as a great Frenchman said the "arch-seducer of souls." His royal proclamation was 'Come unto me and I will give you rest." He last benediction was, 'Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you."

Napoleon, on the other hand, was he Prince of War, the incarnation of its spirit and examplar of its cruelty—he was the Prince of Destructive Energy of Devastating force. His empire was builded upon the sorrows of his fellowmen and cemented by their blood and tears.

He was the Prince of Hate and sowed seeds of lasting hate and bitterness. And lastly, he was the Prince of Unrelieved Despair, "The Great Unloved," therefore most miserable.—William Day Semonds.

BOOTLEGGER IS GIVEN SUSPENDED SENTENCE

so showed that Miller resisted arrest, declared he would not go to jail and had to be handcuffed and taken to jail by force. The evidence further showed that the couple were not husband and wife but that they occupied the same hotel room at Palo Pinto, that they claimed to Sanford to have been recently married and occupied the same cell in the jail here for two or three nights. The defendant testified in court that he bought the liquor from a man whose name he could not give because he could get it cheap and he needed the profit that he figured he could make on it. The evidence further showed that he had some money and his father and mother, who had come out to Tahoka from Johnson County to assist their son, did not appear to be poverty-stricken by any means. Also it was shown that application for a marriage license for him and his woman companion had been made since he was arrested and placed in jail.

Not only was he a confessed lawbreaker but he apparently perpetrated a fraud on the court by claiming that he was not able to employ an attorney and got his legal services free. After his attorney had obtained a suspended sentence for him, it is our information that he did not pay the attorney anything for the services, making only a verbal promise to pay some time in the future. Thus he appears to have been not only a bootlegger and a criminal but also an ingrate. But twelve good men said by their verdict that he ought to go free, and he went.

As Mrs. Helen Rowland of Evansville, Ill., stepped down six inches she heard her leg snap and found she had suffered a fracture.

Mrs. Warner was then introduced by Mrs. Slaton, who in fitting terms expressed the admiration of the Club for their patron. Mrs. Warner's address followed. To those who were present words of praise of this address would be wasted. Suffice to say once again Mrs. Warner held her audience spell bound and with force, logic and native wit impressed her views of national and international problems on those present. At the close of her talk, refreshments were served by the ladies of the club to the following numbers and guests: Mrs. Elliott, Calaway, Tunnell, Slaughter, Shook, Stokes, Fenton, Caveness, Law, Stewart, Baze, Stevens, Slaton, Phebe K. Warner, Breedlove, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, Chester Connolly, Hayes, Summer Knight, C. C. Williams, Buster Fenton, Powell, Larkin Weathers, Nelson, Finch, Hood, Story and baby daughter, Misses Helen Applewhite, Dottie Turrentine, Sybil Torrance, Greenwade, Binnion and Mr. Queener.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY RECEIVES OLD PRINTING PRESS

CANYON, Texas, March 4.—The Panhandle-Plains Historical Society has received for its Museum here, what is thought to be the oldest George Washington press in the region.

The old press began its career in Canyon in 1893 as a part of the equipment of The Stayer. It was used constantly until last week when Clyde W. Warwick, editor of the Canyon News, presented it to the Historical Society.

Mr. Warwick states that he thinks this is the only press of the kind left in the Panhandle. It is of a style no longer manufactured.

This old press was brought to the Plains in the early '80's. It was used to print weekly newspapers in a number of towns before its arrival in Canyon.

During recent years the press has been retained for use as a proof press.

Members of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society hope that by this time next year the old press will be resting in a new Museum building, along with hundreds of other objects no longer used in this region.

Andrew Farquhar of Barry, Wales, left his $60,000 estate to charity, cutting off his wife and four children.

SCRAPPING THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Whether or not the Ten Commandments are being junked will be discussed at The Methodist Church Sunday morning. If the ease and safety with which these basic laws of God and man can be violated by the few while the great masses of the people look helplessly on is right, why not go all the way with Russia, junk every Christian principle, have no Sabbath, no Church, no morality, no old-fashioned home, no religion, no God? Certainly that is what modernistic and worldly tendencies of this day are tending toward. Can right be adulterated with wrong and still be Righteousness? Should the Christian Sabbath, human life, the character of growing, developing youth be sacrificed to a godless commercialism and conscienceless greed for personal gain? These and other vital, pertinent questions that touch every man and woman in the land whether they agree or not will be fairly, honestly, fearlessly discussed at the eleven o'clock service.

The public is cordially invited to give a hearing to some of the truths that will never grow out of date, for they were truths before God said: "Let there be light, and there was light."

The Choral Club of the high school under the leadership of Miss Bessie Mae Binnion will furnish all the music for the evening service, while the preaching at that hour will be done by the Rev. R. A. Bickley, presiding elder of the Lubbock District.

Brother Bickley is one of the most popular lecturers and preachers of the Northwest Texas Conference, having finished a five-year pastorate at Vernoon before being appointed to his present position. He deserves a good hearing in Tahoka.

Quarterly Conference will probably be held following the service, or on Monday. Announcements will be made at the beginning of the service.

R. T. BREEDLOVE

Texas has 970,000 milk cows, increase of 19,000 over January 1st, 1928, figures. Of all kinds of cattle Texas had 5,667,000 head on Jan. 1st, 1930—almost one-tenth of the 57,967,000 in the entire United States.
