MAN KILLED IN ROBBERY ATTEMPT

WILL WED ANYONE WHO HAS $10,000

"Any respectable white man, regardless of age," provided he has $10,000 to keep her destitute parents, may marry Miss Mary H. Clowes, 21, of Monongahela, Pa., below. She has worked in a restaurant as a waitress to help support her parents, who are ill, but now Miss Clowes is unemployed. That's why she is offering to wed any respectable gentleman who has the necessary sum.

Jap Army Sends Reinforcements

West Texas Area Is Blanketed By Snow

COLD WEATHER SLATED FOR TOMORROW

SNOWFALL OF TWO AND HALF INCHES HERE BEGINS MELTING

Lubbock's first snow-blanket of the season melted this morning but at noon most of it remained in the residential districts. Snowfall here measured two and a half inches and gauged .24 of an inch as precipitation, Don L. Jones, superintendent of the state experiment station, reported.

Near-freezing temperatures and unsettled weather were forecast for Wednesday in West Texas. Temperatures did not drop below the freezing-mark here last night, Jones said. Early this morning the mercury stood at 36 degrees.

Streets Slushy Today

Melted snow on Lubbock streets last night gave way to slushy ice, which became coated with thickly falling flakes after midnight. Intensity of the fall dwindled by daybreak, although flakes so few as to be hardly visible continued to fall through the morning.

Last night, snow was reported northward to Plainview and southeastward to Post and Snyder. At midnight, snow was from four to six inches deep at Lamesa and the blanketed area was reported unbroken from Caprock Lea county, N. M., to Lubbock.

Snow was reported at Lamesa, Tahoka, Brownfield and Post, and overcast skies and chill winds at Levelland, Littlefield, Olton, Tulia and Floydada. Clear but cold weather was reported at Muleshoe.

Sleet Turns To Snow

After a day of cloudy skies and a biting wind from the north which Monday afternoon swept the huddled figures at Tech field the light sleet which began falling about 4 o'clock here turned to snow at nightfall and by 12 o'clock the air was filled with snow which clung to parked automobiles and buildings.

In Lubbock last month with nearly an inch and a half of rainfall or melted snow is fourth wettest Nov-

DRY LAWS ARE FAVORED IN NEW POLL

PROHIBITION CHIEFS PRESENT PROOF OF SUPPORT OF LAW

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1—A half finished poll of congress on a referendum of the Eighteenth amendment was cited today by a group of prohibition leaders as proof that the dry laws were here to stay.

The utterance came in the form of a statement from the National Prohibition board of strategy. It was based on the announcement by Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, for the women's organization for prohibition reform that of 47.3 per cent of the members of congress who replied to the poll 59.3 favored 19.5 opposed and 21.2 per cent were non-committal regarding a referendum.

Majority Opposed

"She reported less than one-third of the members willing to vote for a referendum," the board said "and not all of these favor repeal or modification. There must be a two-thirds vote in both houses of congress to order a repeal referendum, and then three-fourths of the states must ratify any such repeal or modification.

"It is no wonder that the nosiest of the wets, disgruntled ex-federal Enforcement Officer Maurice Campbell, pessimistically admitted yesterday that it would be 1939 and probably 1941 before the wets could hope to get a hostile vote upon prohibition through congress.

"The drys do not concede wet success then or at any time in the future."

GANDHI REJECTS BRITAIN PLEAS

LONDON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Mahatma Gandhi, breaking suddenly out of his Monday silence period this morning turned thumbs down on all pleas for a compromise at the round table conference and insisted on his construction of liberty or death for India's millions.

The Mahatma, from whose lips no word fell during a long day and night in which nearly a half million words of oratory flowed through the conference rooms in St. James palace, began his speech as historic Big Ben, high in the parliament building tower, rang out 1 a. m.

He will renew his civil disobedience campaign, he said, with joy and consolation, if Great Britain fails to grant India what he demands as "real freedom."

REMOVE CITY MANAGER

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 1 (AP)—A. R. Losh, city manager, was removed today by the council and Albert McRill, municipal counselor, was elected in his place. Losh, former state highway engineer, held the manager's post for less than four months.

GOLD FOOTBALLS AGAIN ARE OFFERED WESTERNERS FOR SANDIE WIN; EVERY LETTERMAN AND COACHES TO GET ONE

As the cry "Thump Those Sandies" is heard on every corner and people have forgotten everything else to talk football, a group of Lubbock business men have again succumbed to "Gold Football-itis".

Headed by The Plainsman, erstwhile janitor and Journal columnist, 44 men who offered gold footballs for a Westerner win over Amarillo on Thanksgiving Day have renewed their offer. And if Lubbock wins on Thursday 22 high school gridmen and their two coaches, Weldon Chapman and Burl Huffman, will be recipients of a gold trinket each.

Necktie Offered, Too

In addition to the footballs Jerry Jarett announced that he stood ready to buy some Westerner a crack-up good necktie—win or lose. He'll ask Coach Chapman to pick out the outstanding Westerner player of Thursday and he'll furnish the tie.

The list of men offering gold footballs includes:

Homer Grant, John Dalrymple, both of the Panhandle Construction company; Jerry Jarett, Cinderella shop; Roy Furr, M-System Grocery stores; Spencer Wells, Hemphill-Wells company; R. J. Keller, Carter-Houston company; Gust Kallas, Tech cafe; Parker Prouty, Avalanche-Journal; Ellsworth J. Parsons, J. C. Penney company.

H. H. Shell, Shell Construction company; Durwood H. Bradley, district attorney; T. E. Crites, Mistletoe Creameries; Ray F. Hinchey, West Texas Gas company; membership of the American Business club; Marlin D. Ratliff, Ratliff-Rogers Buick company; Dick Smith, Bell Ice Cream company.

Pipeliners Are On

Dick White, Lubbock Poultry and Egg company; The Plainsman, Avalanche-Journal hired hand; Clarence Miner, superintendent of the South Plains Pipeline company and the following members of his staff: H. E. Kimbell, J. M. Sickels, J. Cooley, Edward Rogers, J. F. Leach, F. F. Kral, Clinton Lackey, Walter Ford, R. H. Spikes, R. D. Wadkins, V. H. Venable, Watson Spears, V. J. Jordan, G. H. Spears, T. S. Heath, Z. A. Kimbro, M. C. Bradley, H. O. Dalton, T. J. Sutherland, C. L. Hafer, R. E. Bird, M. Lackey, B. V. McBride, O. L. Ellis and Albert Kimbro.

Win those footballs, Westerners!

PARTY FORCES DIVIDED BY HAIR LINE

CONGRESS WILL MEET MONDAY; TO TRY TO EASE STRAINS

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. — The burden of the congress which meets next Monday will be legislation to ease the economic strains on the country, but the product clearly will be one of compromise between contending interests.

With political factors what they are today, substantially no chance appears of either Republicans or Democrats putting through a program of law-making entirely in accordance with their respective ideas.

Forces Divided

The party forces in senate and house are divided by a hair line. The presidential campaign of 1932 is on the horizon and President Hoover faces the near-certainty of an opposing house, led by Representative Garner of Texas, as Democratic speaker. The Republicans expect to continue control of the senate, but the restless insurgents hope to force their legislative ideas into the statute books.

The long session will continue until time to adojurn for the national conventions in June. The records to be made by the Democrats in the house may have a vital bearing on their party's chances in the national election to supplant President Hoover in the White House.

The Democrats expect no quarter from the administration nor from the congressional Republicans, except on legislation obviously demanded by the general public. However, their leaders have asserted that as far as their program goes, they plan to put patriotism above partisanship.

Business in the house this session probably will not get under way to any definite degree until after Christmas. It requires about two weeks for new committees to adjust themselves and prepare for hearings.

ANGELO WOMAN WOUNDED IN GUN FIGHT

TWO MEN SOUGHT AS HIJACKERS AFTER HOLDUP ATTEMPT

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANGELO, Dec. 1.—One man is dead, a woman is in a local hospital suffering from a bullet wound in the shoulder and police are seeking one and perhaps two men as would-be hijackers as the result of an attempted robbery here shortly before midnight.

Tom McAfee, until yesterday night operator at the central fire station here, died instantly when shot by Terry B. Sterrett as the latter stopped his car in his garage here last night. Carrying approximately $1,600 in cash and checks from the day's business, Sterrett pulled his gun as he stopped the car. As a man aproached, Sterrett said he yelled "hold on there" but the man came on and he fired. The bullet entered above the heart of McAfee, identified later by a fireman.

Wife Is Wounded

Mrs. Sterrett, who came out of the house at the sound of her husband's cries, was shot under the left shoulder. She was in grave condition this morning and thought to be hemorrhaging internally. She said that the man struggling with her husband shot her. Sterrett is manager of the Sterrett and Funk pharmacy here.

Sterrett said a second man charged him as McAfee slumped to the ground. Neighbors said two men fled from the place.

Husband's Right To Dodge Upheld

CHICAGO, Dec. 1 (AP)—A man's home is his castle and when things therein begin to fly in his direction he has a perfect right to dodge.

This was the ruling of Judge John Eberhardt yesterday in the case of C. E. Tracey, sales manager of an electrical concern who was accused by his landlord, Joseph Lisoroweth, of malicious mischief.

The story, as related in court, was that when Tracey tiptoed into his home one day during the early morning hours, his wife cut loose with a vase, a radio, a golf trophy and a few other things, all of which he successfully dodged.

His landlord claimed the damage was $250 but Tracey said it should be charged against his wife, now presumably in Reno. Judge Eberhardt agreed with Tracey, but the latter agreed to be liberal and pay Lisoroweth $100.

ACTION TAKEN WHEN CHINESE TROOPS BEGIN MARCH

BY GLENN BABB
Associated Press Correspondent

MUKDEN, Manchuria, Dec. 1 (AP)—Japanese army headquarters here announced today it had sent reinforcements "from somewhere inside the South Manchurian railway zone" to Tsitsihar, scene of the defeat of General Mah Chan-Shan's army two weeks ago.

The action was taken, the announcement said, because of a "dangerous situation" in the district where the Japanese garrison had been reduced to "a comparatively small detachment."

Threat Is Claimed

The principal present threat at Tsitsihar, the headquarters communique said, is a movement of about 3,000 Chinese troops from Hailun, under general Hsu-Pao-hsing.

The region west of the Liao river, the announcement added, has been completely evacuated except for a small detachment guarding the Japanese consulate at Hsinmin. This was done, it said in spite of reports that Chinese troops in the Chinchow region are being heavily reinforced.

TURN TO JAPAN FOR MANCHURIAN PEACE

PARIS, Dec. 1 (AP)—The League of Nations council turned to Japan today in an effort to remove what council circles believed is the last obstacle to Manchurian peace.

Yesterday league leaders hailed with eager optimism China's announcement she is ready to accept the council plan if Japan's evacuation of the Chinchow area is established as definite.

With China announcing her acceptance of the council's proposal, the council today sought to overcome Japan's insistence on its right to continue to police the area against bandits. On this point Japan's position is at variance with the league plan.

TO ASK TOWNS TO PAGEANT

LOCAL DELEGATIONS TO VISIT PLAINS TOWNS TOMORROW

Seven or more South Plains towns will be visited Wednesday by members of the chamber of commerce public relations committee on extended invitations to a Christmas pageant and parade here Friday, December 11. An attempt will be made to visit virtually all South Plains communities, before the day of the event here.

About 15 committeemen attended a meeting of the public relations group at chamber of commerce offices this morning and arranged for the Wednesday. Charles A. Guy chairman C. Meinecke, Bert Pinson, and possibly others will go to Abernathy, Hale Center, Plainview and possibly other towns north of here. Leading city officials of the pageant are inviting townspeople.

To Go In Cars

A similar mission to Slaton, Ropesland, Post, and possibly other points southeast of here will be performed by E. H. McKinney, C. A. Canfield, and perhaps other delegates. Both groups will leave here in automobile early Wednesday morning.

Short jaunts probably will be made Thursday and Friday. The committeemen will attempt to align towns for participation in the Christmas parade. Neighboring towns also can have floats in the

Four Jurors Named In Yarberry Trial

BEEVILLE, Dec. 1 (AP)—A cabinet maker, a retail salesman, a farmer and a ranchman had been selected today for service on the jury which is to retry Newton Yarberry as the accused slayer of his sweetheart, Dorothy Dorcas Symons, 18-year-old Aransas Pass choir singer.

At a previous trial in Sinton a jury deadlock resulted.

The body of Miss Symons, attired in a bathing suit, was found on the beach near the Aransas Pass breakwater.

Tom Mix "Luckiest Man Alive" Today

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 1 (AP)—Tom Mix, film and circus cowboy, was "the luckiest man alive" today, to use the words of his physician. The actor was reported well on his way to recovery from peritonitis. When he was operated on November 23 for a ruptured appendix, doctors had given him only a fighting chance.

A bulletin issued at the hospital said Mix probably would be a patient there for only a couple of weeks longer.

GRAVES RETURNED

Alvis Graves, Lubbock man awaiting outcome of his appeal from a 99-year sentence dealt him in 72nd district court here for murder, was placed in the new county jail here this morning. Sheriff Wade Hardy and Deputy Sheriff Will Earnest escorted him from the Hale county jail at Plainview, where he had been confined pending completion of the new structure here.

MOONEY FIGHT IS OPENED

MAYOR WALKER GOES TO COURT TODAY; PARDON ASKED

By The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1—James J. Walker, the lawyer, went to court today to plead for freedom for Tom Mooney, convicted 15 years ago as a bomber of a parade.

The mayor of New York, Frank P. Walsh, Mooney's counsel, and Aaron Sapiro were told by Governor James Rolph, jr., to take three hours and a half "and more if necessary" to present the application for pardon.

First Hearing

Today's proceedings marked a new chapter in California procedure. Although a pardon for Mooney has been sought at intervals since his conviction of murder, never before has a formal public hearing been held.

Governor Rolph, with a mind he said was "entirely open," summoned three San Francisco lawyers, Matt I. Sullivan, Theodore J. Roche and John L. McNabb to sit with him as legal advisers. Daniel J. O'Brien, state director of penology and U. S. Webb, attorney general, completed the court of review. The decision, however, will rest with the governor alone.

No immediate decision was expected. Governor Rolph said he first would consult his legal advisers. It was suggested Money's fate might not be known before January 1.

"NO MORE MUDDY GAMES", IS CRY OF WESTERNER FANS; SNOW IS CLEARED

While staunch supporters of the Westerners raked snow off the Tech gridiron this morning, others were scurrying over the city in search of more tarps to cover the field and prevent a recurrence of a muddy battle between the Lubbock and Amarillo high school teams when they meet here Thursday for the championship of District One.

Several hundred more sheets are needed to cover the field, school officials said today. About one-third of the grid was covered last night and the rest will be covered this afternoon after the snow is removed, it was said. Anyone having a tarp that they are willing to loan as a cover for the field is asked to get in touch with E. J. Lowrey, business manager of athletics, at 830-J. Mr. Lowrey promises to be responsible for the sheets.

The field will remain covered until the afternoon of the game, Lowrey said today.

Interest in the game continued to mount today as the tickets went on sale at the Hilton Drug store. Seats will be reserved in the west stand and the Lubbock student body will sit on the east bleachers. There will be seats for more than 6,000 persons, it was said.

Another Suffers Of Hiccoughing

MT. VERNON, O., Dec. 1 (AP)—Persistent hiccoughing was sapping the strength today of Carl Horlacher and his condition was reported serious.

Horlacher, who today entered the 12th successful year of hiccoughing, took a turn for the worse yesterday. He was unable to sleep, eat or talk undisturbed and his physician said he would be taken to a Columbus hospital for observation if he does not improve by tomorrow.

TWO FREED ON BONDS TODAY

DALLAS MEN CHARGED WITH BURGLARY OF STORES, BANKS

WAXAHACHIE, Dec. 1 (AP)—Schuyler B. Marshall, jr., former Dallas county sheriff, and Herbert Scales, Dallas clubman, were at liberty from the Ellis county jail today under bonds totaling $30,000.

A third charge was filed yesterday against Scales, accusing him of participating in the burglary of a hardware store at Red Oak. Marshall previously was charged with the burglary.

The two men also were charged with robbery with firearms and burglary in connection with the robbery of Bob Cunningham, night-watchman at Ferris, the burglary of the Farmers and Merchants bank at Ferris and Marshall with the looting of a hardware store at Red Oak.

Signatures of the men who signed bonds for Marshall and Scales reputedly represented fortunes amounting to nearly half a million dollars.

Scales and Marshall were brought here Sunday after making bonds at Fort Worth on charges of kidnaping and robbing Elbert Parr, power plant engineer at Mansfield.

STEAMERS COLLIDE

Drama Of Death Enacted By Youthful School Boy

YOUTH SHOOTS GIRL TO DEMONSTRATE OTHER DEATH

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Dec. 1—A drama of death was enacted last night by Joseph Wilson, 16-year-old school boy.

He shot to death Constance Trohatos, also 16, in an effort to demonstrate to her just how their schoolmate, Henry Sio, killed Ruth Wicklund, 12, and then himself. Sio, a 16-year-old school boy, shot the Wicklund girl yesterday as a result of a childish romance which the parents of the children had tried to break up before it became too serious.

Students Together

Constance was killed in the Wilson home where she and young Wilson and Constance's sister, Cleo, were discussing the Wicklund-Sio tragedy. Sio was a student at the same high school attended by Miss Trohatos and Wilson.

"I'm glad I played hookey," remarked Constance in referring to the double shooting of their young friends. "Maybe he would have shot me."

Young Wilson left the room and returned shortly with a pistol to make his demonstration.

"This is loaded with wooden bullets," he said. "See?" he exclaimed as he pressed the pistol against Cleo, and pulled the trigger. It snapped harmlessly. He then walked over to Constance who was sitting in a chair, put the weapon against her head and pulled the trigger. Again it snapped without doing any harm. He pressed the trigger again.

There was an explosion, and Constance slumped over in the chair—dead.

The police said Constance's death was accidental.

Sterling Changes Mind About Slash

AUSTIN, Dec. 1 (AP)—Governor R. S. Sterling today had changed his mind about reducing the allowable in the East Texas oil field to 110 barrels per well daily.

After announcing that a military order making a further cut in the output of the field would become effective Wednesday morning, he decided to postpone making a reduction in the existing 125 barrels per well allowable.

Says Congress Is Business Menace

CHICAGO, Dec. 1 (AP)—B. W. Snow, director of the federation of American business, told the American Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers annual convention today that the coming congressional session carried a menace to all citizens, "from industry's leaders down to the humblest place on the payroll."

Snow asserted congress long had been "a growing menace to business, and this time it meets with a certainty of attempted legislation which will serve only to add to the governmental burdens under which business is staggering."

CHRISTMAS CHEER WILL BE WRAPPED IN BARGAIN PACKAGES THIS SEASON

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Dec. 1—Christmas cheer this year will be wrapped in bargain packages. The stores are showing gifts marked lower than ever.

Even the homely dish rag has been dressed up in holiday colors to add a new note under the yule tree. One of these is wrapped around a kettle mop with a copper brush, the base of which is painted like a doll's face. Two bright red flannel pan holders from a double cape a la mode.

Gaily colored boxes hold a dozen or more wash cloths, each in a different color. Tiny linen finger towels for very special guests have daintily appliqued designs. One of these towels is bright red for the lady who applies lip rouge with her finger tip.

For bachelors there are clothes bags, laundry bags and shoe bags in brown figured chintz, and brush holders fashioned of

Agreement Near On Parole For Fall

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—The parole board is near a decision on the application of Albert B. Fall for parole.

The former secretary of the interior, serving a year and a day in New Mexico state prison for accepting a $100,000 bribe from Edward L. Doheny, oil man, became eligible November 20.

"The case is under consideration," Chairman Wood of the board said. "We have not completed it."

SCORE HOOVER RELIEF PLAN

PINCHOT DEMANDS AID FROM GOVERNMENT TO HELP THE NEEDY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—A new spearhead of attack on President Hoover's relief policies fashioned itself today from a demand by Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania for federal aid to the needy.

Pinchot last night assailed the president's theory of local relief for the unemployed as utterly inadequate and reached towards the pockets of the rich—his own among them—for the tax funds which he demanded be used for support of the destitute.

The Pennsylvania uttered his challenge almost at the door of the White House, speaking at a gathering of the District of Columbia's league of women voters. He drove down from Harrisburg just for the speech, returning to his own executive mansion immediately.

Speaking in a steady, even tone, Pinchot asserted "local relief means making the poor man pay." From it, he contended, would come an increase in property taxes, either now or very shortly.

"That program can start no factory wheels," he remarked. "Yet in the absence of congress, it is to that program we have been committed. Federal relief is demanded by every principle of justice of humanity, and of sound economics."

Germany Has Power To Raise Customs

BERLIN, Dec. 1 (AP)—In one of the shortest decrees he ever issued, President Von Hindenburg today gave the Bruening government almost unlimited power to raise customs duties to a prohibitory point.

During the reichstag recess, until next February 23, it empowers the government "in the event of stringent economic necessity" to change the present customs schedule and to enter into a system of bilateral treaties with foreign countries.

Silver Tea Is Given Monday Evening In Connection With Exhibit Of Prints

Art Exhibit Is To Open During Week

Art patrons and lovers of Lubbock called at the engineering building auditorium of Texas Technological college Tuesday evening, saw an exhibit of prints of famous pictures, visited the department and were served tea.

This was a silver tea that had been planned in connection with the opening of an exhibit of paintings by contemporary artists. The pictures were held up, however, in Galveston, and will not arrive until later in the week. The exhibit opening will be announced definitely when the pictures arrive. The money received at the tea will be used in helping to defray expenses for the exhibit.

Although the paintings did not arrive, those who attended viewed prints of paintings that hung in the engineering auditorium. Those who attended registered.

Those who sponsored the tea were Mesdames James H. Goodman, R. A. Mills, F. A. Kleinschmidt, Edgar Shelton, C. M. Ballenger and Earl Hunt. A number of women assisted in serving the tea and receiving those who called.

Mesdames J. A. Rix, W. B. Price, Roscoe Wilson and Miss Delia Wilkinson poured tea. Others who assisted were Mrs. E. M. Calder, Misses Virginia Bacon, Ima Baker, Elva Grisham, Blanche Bean, Mary Lee Bardwell, Johnnye Gilkerson, Zella Riegel, Sylva Wilson, Doris Baugh, Edna Houghton, Rudelle Davis, Margaret Robertson, Louise Jen-[illegible], Mesdames Hugh Field, Geo. [illegible], W. T. Milam, Mr. Kleinschmidt and W. J. Miller.

Go East, Young Woman, For Your Late Fashion Themes

Nearness and spirit. Reminiscent of the harem queen's costume (upper left) and the dancing favorite (upper center) are the Persian printed crepe silks shown in the two "westernized" costumes illustrated here. For Southern wear, a formalized Persian print (left) makes the stunning blouse for a pastel colored suit with hat to match. For a Sunday evening or tea-time party, a rich green outfit (right) has its body and sleeves made of a new and rich Persian printed silk in lively greens and deep browns.

By NEA Service

NEW YORK, Dec. 1—Smartly Smartly gowned, sophisticated women this fall are not so far from the harem as they might think.

For the Persian influence on this winter's mode is subtle and tremendous. The chic woman doesn't have to have a Persian printed blouse or trimming to her dress to show this Eastern feeling. Patou's basic colors, now copied far and wide, his green and his brown, both came from the rich, deep, satisfying tones of old Persian tapestries.

Some of the smartest pajamas are strictly Persian in their design. And, considering that the harem costume was pajamas, this is very appropriate.

Since the International Exhibition of Persian Art in London, many costume jewelry pieces show Persian motifs and some are direct copies of the gorgeous pieces that harem favorites used to wear which were set in the loveliest precious gems seen anywhere.

Of course it is in the glamorously lovely Persian printed silks that the Eastern influence is seen most obviously.

Variety in Persian Mode

One of the smartest new dinner gowns has full sleeves of Persian brocade cuffed with the material of the gown. It is a neat thing nowadays to have a soft Persian blouse to match up in tone with your rich colored jacket and skirt suit for winter-time. Pajamas made of Persian prints are new and a chic change from the predominating monotone garments worn in early fall. For a regal evening gown, brocades in Persian design are exclusive and smart as can be.

Romance comes in any of these materials that hark back to another age and another country. The traditional background of the Persian women differing so totally from our own, contributes designs for new silks in the way of modified domes and minerats, worked in the colors of the tiled doorways enriched with traceries of metal and slender blue pillars. New Persian printed silks bring some of the flavor of this exotic existence into our midst.

Designs Are Persian, Too

There is another Persian influence in this winter's modes. Girdles, evening turbans, sash arrangements and the cut of garments often get their inspiration from the Persian. A famous couturier establishment recently exhibited what seemed to be a brand new cut to a [illegible]nky evening coat. It was a rich Persian brocade, and it flared at the shoulders like one of the new broad effects, pinched in at the waistline and then flared again. And its sleeves were romance personified. It actually was an invaluable antique coat, worn by a famous Persian woman centuries ago.

A new afternoon dress of green crepe has a princess overblouse made of rich Persian printed silk with a tiny bolero of the plain crepe and the short sleeves of plain crepe joined to the long-shoulder-ed Persian blouse. One of the new beige suits has a tricky short-waisted, long-sleeved blouse of a formalized Persian print that comes in beige and black design, with green touches.

Both of these are modern, new and very chic. They carry with them some of the elusive charm of the old harem costume and of that of the dancing girls who made life gay on old Arabian nights.

Mrs. Joe Penney Is Named President Of Federation Of Church Auxiliaries

Meeting for the last time in 1931, members of the Church Women's Federation elected officers Monday afternoon; heard reports from general welfare committees; heard a talk on "Opportunity", given by Mrs. Walter P. Jennings of First Christian church, and joined in a fellowship hour.

Mrs. Joe Penney of St. Paul's Episcopal church was elected president of the union, with Mrs. George R. Bean of First Methodist church as secretary-treasurer. The vice-president and new committee chairmen are to be appointed by the incoming president and presidents of the auxiliaries holding membership in the federation.

Mrs. R. D Moxley, retiring vice-president, presided at the meeting Monday in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. H. Hankins. Mrs. Fred Sparks is retiring secretary-treasurer. This meeting was at First Methodist church.

Reports Are Given

Mrs. A. T. Biggers as chairman of general welfare called on committeemen for reports.

Mrs. Temple Ellis, in reporting for the hospital committee, stated that at the beginning of this year there was a total of $16 in the treasury for hospitalization purposes. During the year donations have increased the amount to $229 and payments for operations and fitting of glasses have depleted the sum to $13 at present.

This committee during 1931 has paid for 20 tonsil operations and for the fitting of ten pairs of glasses for children.

A report on the work of the committee on missions was made by Mrs. J. J. Clements, chairman. She said that the committee had fostered the Sanders Aid society, attended by an average of twelve women during the year, meeting each Friday afternoon. Only two meetings have been postponed within the last twelve months. Mrs. C. A. Bickley is teacher of the Bible lessons which are studied.

In addition to their mission study, the women in the aid visited 306 persons who were new in the community or ill; took 68 trays to the needy and sick, sent 79 bouquets of flowers and spent $41 for charity through clothes, sewing and cash.

Mrs. A. V. Weaver reported for the committee on charity. Eighty garments have been given to the needy through this committee; 39 visits have been made; 31 meals have been furnished to invalids or the needy; one bed has been donated and linens supplied and 12 baskets of groceries furnished. In addition 25 days of work were given the unemployed through committee members; one individual gave $50 which was sent to aid a widow; 30 quarts of milk were donated and several families cared for.

The committee on work in the Mexican quarter had as chairman, Mrs. D. K Bondurant. Her report read that for several weeks prior to the closing of the last spring school term half-pints of milk were furnished to school children. Members of the Sans Souci club fostered this bit of charity. In addition most of the school supplies magazines and some clothing were donated through the committee directed by Mrs. Bondurant.

Mrs. C. M. Ballenger was in charge of the program that was given following the business meeting.

Harrison Munroe Sings

Harrison Munroe, Texas student, sang a vocal solo, "There's a Beautiful Land On High", accompanied at the piano by Miss Myrtle Dunn.

Mrs. H. A. Davidson led a brief consecration service. Her talk was based on lost and wasted opportunities and she chose her scripture reading from Luke 10.

Mrs. Jennings, wife of the pastor of the First Christian church, spoke on the challenge of a changing world to church women of America.

Christian womanhood must make for honorable industry, sound learning and pure living in this beginning of a new era," she said.

The hope of America lies in the churches and homes, the speaker stated. The opportunity of women may be found in placing the proper valuation on beauty, religion and morals in rearing children, she said.

South Side Baptists Visit Members

Women in the South Side Baptist Women's Missionary society met at the church for a devotional hour Monday afternoon and later visited the shut-ins and sick in the congregation.

Sanders Aid Society To Have Election

Officers for 1932 will be elected Friday afternoon when the Sanders Aid society meets at 3:30 o'clock at the Sanders school.

Committee Meets On Monday Evening

The entertainment committee of the Asbury Methodist Epworth League met Monday evening with Miss Arvella Wells at 1820 Avenue K and planned a play to be given soon. Proceeds from the play will be used in financing the League budget. A party was planned for Friday evening of this week, also.

Those who attended this meeting were the chairman, Joe Lane, the secretary, Miss Wells, and Miss Beatrice Padgett, Bill Freeland, Johnnie Williams and Ray Jackson.

Miss Johnie McCrery has returned from Corsicana and Dallas where she visited during the week-end.

New Song Plates

A brand new gift for the homemaker who is an inveterate hostess is a set of new French peasant plates that have a little tune for their center design.

They come in the gayest color and each plate of the four, eight, or twelve sets, has a different French air on it, each labelled so you will know well what song you must sing when you finish eating, quite the reverse action from little Tommy Tucker who had to sing BEFORE he ate.

For a bridge table or a luncheon these plates are most decorative and highly entertaining, and mother, a fussy aunt, a bride or almost any woman would love them.

DR. MYERS

Doctor Myers' Daily Column On Child Welfare

BY GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D. Head Division Parental Education Cleveland College, Western Reserve University

NAIL BITING HABIT

A MOTHER writes:

"Dear Sir: I have read so many requests for a cure for nail biting that I am impelled to make known the method by which I cured myself and my two little daughters, in turn.

"After biting, the nail feels ragged and uncomfortable. I bought a little file and gave it to the child. Whenever I saw her lift her finger to her mouth, I handed her the file and showed her how to smooth the ragged corner or edge. In a few days the habit was broken."

Answer: For this excellent suggestion we all are grateful. Girls may be given an effectual incentive to cease nail biting through a visit or two to a manicurist. For boys between 8 and 14 the aesthetic factor may not appeal; it may repel, indeed.

As I have said before in these columns, nail biting, as a rule, is a symptom of nervousness. If, therefore, the mother's fine suggestion does not work, proceed to build the child up physically and to develop a program of rest and quiet for him. Her suggestion is the more likely to work when accompanied by such a program.

—STARS—

From another mother comes this letter:

"My dear Dr. Myers: Your articles have been very helpful to me and I am seeking aid on some special problems.

My four-year-old daughter is developing a temper. If things don't go exactly her way she picks up the nearest article and throws it at the nearest person who displeases her. What shall I do to curb her. You advocate punishing a child by making him sit in a chair for a certain period of time. My daughter gets off the chair as fast as I put her there, and I have to spank her to make her stay. How shall I handle that situation?"

Answer: "I observe that your child will not stay on the chair when put there. She obviously is not yet prepared for so mild a punishment. In my pamphlet, "Punishment and Rewards," I describe in detail a way to make this preparation. Bear in mind, as you read this pamphlet, that your child is four and that your problem of teaching her regard for authority and respect for property will not be an easy one. Nevertheless, it will be much easier now than later.

In the meanwhile, better talk over with her father a definite plan of action now for teaching her not to throw things. Provided you can gain dad's cooperation, and that both of you can make a program and execute it to the letter, do as follows: Next time she throws an object at a person, immediately pull down her clothes, bare her bottom and give her several, good vigorous slaps on her fat thighs. Make it hurt. Say nothing. She will know what it is for.

Let her yell. Go about your business and allow no one to pity or comfort her. It was a serious offense which, to continue, may prove disastrous. If she goes on at this rate she will prove a dangerous creature to herself and others; by and by it may be her husband toward whom she vents her rage, and she may have in her hand at the time a hammer or a knife or gun. A good deal of murder is nothing more than the consummation of such habits learned in early childhood. Good luck, mother.

WTCC SESSION SCHEDULED

LEADERS MEET HERE MONDAY TO PLAN FOR CONCLAVE

A meeting of directors and committee chairmen of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce at Sweetwater, Monday, January 11, was called at a meeting of officers of the regional chamber here Monday.

At the Sweetwater gathering, leaders of the organization will adopt a budget for the 1932 fiscal year and consider work done since the Lubbock convention. Houston Harte, president, said at the conclusion of yesterday's conference.

Drive Simultaneous

It is the plan to hold a united membership campaign in every town in West Texas on the week of January 18. This drive is to be conducted by the unit directors in each community under the supervision of the ten district directors.

Houston Harte, San Angelo, will have charge of the large membership list; Wilbur Hawk, first vice-president, Amarillo, will have charge of the affiliated town membership drive, and Spencer Wells, second vice-president, Lubbock, will have charge of the membership campaign in West Texas towns which are not now affiliated with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Four Campaigns Going

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce has four section-wide campaigns under way at this time, which are requiring the work of more committees and more different groups than at any time in its history.

The Public Expenditure and Tax committee under the chairmanship of C. N. Bassett, El Paso, with 65 affiliated local committees is waging a campaign in cities, counties and through the state government for the elimination of unnecessary and excessive expenditures, which the organization thinks will have a very marked effect upon the total amount of tax money required to support the various governmental agencies of Texas.

Stress Beautification

The Five Year Beautification Campaign with sixty towns at this time cooperating, is under the direction of Lee M. Jenney, landscape architect. During December and January it is believed that thousands of trees and shrubs will be ordered through these committees for the beginning of a program which the organization hopes will result in the complete change in the landscape of West Texas.

The Trade Mark Slogan contest, launched under the direction of a committee headed by John M. Gist, of Odessa, is calculated to stimulate greater feeding and greater use of Texas raised and fed meat. This campaign is already bringing into the Stamford headquarters hundreds of entries in a trademake slogan contest for Texas fed meats. It is believed that this will result in aiding the breeder-feeder movement in Texas.

Jones At Work

With the view of supporting the county agent and home demonstration services, the Agricultural Committee, Clifford B. Jones, Spur, chairman, is calling upon all West Texas counties to create an agricultural county council. This council is to cooperate with the home demonstration and county agents with a view of laying out a new agricultural program made necessary by the cotton reduction acreage legislation passed by a special session of the legislature.

WTCC officials here yesterday were President Houston Harte, San Angelo, Wilbur C. Hawk, Amarillo, and Spencer A. Wells, Lubbock, vice-presidents, D. A. Bandeen, general manager, Stamford, and Maury Hopkins, assistant general manager, Plainview.

Thought For Today

Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?—John 12:5.

THERE can be no Christianity where there is no charity.—Colton.

Columbus' Maps

IT is interesting to learn that the map which Christopher Columbus used on his third voyage to America has come to light in a Turkish museum, and will shortly be given to the world.

There is a world of romance in maps, especially in very old ones; and the map which carries great blank spaces along its borders, indicating that the cartographer did not know what lay behind the horizon, can call forth endless dreams.

That, of course, was the kind of map Columbus used. On his first voyage maps were of little use to him. He expected to fetch up against the Asiatic coastline somewhere, and he probably had such charts of China, Malaya and India as 15th century Spain could provide. But all the way thither was as mysterious and unknown as the other side of the moon. What good is a map to a man who charts a course due west into a shoreless sea?

By the time he made his third trip, of course, he probably had a more or less makeshift set of charts. He knew, at least, that sooner or later he would make a more or less familiar landfall. Somewhere ahead there were islands and channels he had seen before.

But all the rest was darkness. To the north and south stretched almost infinite reaches of empty ocean, which might conceal anything from the lost Atlantis to the Happy Isles that Ulysses sailed for. What, one wonders, did the old navigator think, what sort of speculation took hold of him, as he sat in his dim-lit, creaking cabin, a chair braced against the bulkhead for security, and studied his incomplete map?

We shall never know, of course. Seafaring men are seldom communicative, and Columbus was no exception. But since that is a closed book, the next best things is a glimpse at the map he used, and the man who could not pore over it by the hour, lost in dreams, has no appreciation of romance.

One trouble with our world today you see, is that our maps are too complete. Around the poles there are dwindling white spaces, and Asia and South America still have small areas that are unknown. But for the most part every headland has been charted, every mountain range has been filled in, every river bed has been traced. What wouldn't we give for a map that was half empty!

Unwritten Law

A recent well-publicized shooting has raised anew the question of the "unwritten law," by which a brother is held justified in killing a man who has betrayed his sister, and the comments of Judge Ben B. Lindsey are, perhaps, worth a little of your consideration.

"I have never yet," says Judge Lindsey, "seen a case of that sort which could not be settled around the dinner table, or before some person who could act as advisor. The girl might be persuaded to discontinue her associations with the man. If she loves him, or will not stop seeing him, the couple should marry. But there's never an excuse for gunplay in a problem of that kind."

Paying

D. B. ROBERTSON, chairman of the Railway Labor Executives' Association, adopted a point of view that will find plenty of supporters in his recent communication rejecting the proposed 10 per cent railway wage reduction.

"More than one-third of the employes of this industry are idle, and more than one-third of the capital in this industry is idle," he said. "You are taking nothing from the earnings of capital to support the unemployed workers. You are asking that the employed workers take 10 per cent of their earnings to support idle capital."

Seldom has the workingman's point of view in time of financial depression been better expressed.

That Girl on Broadway says an optimist is a man who goes into a phone booth with only one nickle.

Wearing a toupee would keep some men from being chilled to the bone.

EVERY time you turn around you see an article or hear a speaker extolling the medical profession for the wonderful strides it has made in the past few decades and that's no more than right.

But what has always puzzled The Plainsman is, if those guys really are improving so much, why doesn't one of them invent or concoct a pleasant substitute for castor oil?

Say what you please, the fame of the Doctors Mayo would pale before the doctor who could turn that trick. There would be monuments erected in every juvenile center to his everlasting memory.

The Lubbock County Medical society is meeting tonight.

We offer this subject for serious consideration.

THE CAT CAME BACK!

Two little girls who unintentionally carried off a Persian kitten, belonging to Elaine Henry, returned the pet late yesterday after The Plainsman broadcast an appeal.

All thanks to the two little girls.

WELL, well—and well! Playing against psychological odds yet throughout the hustling, fighting and smart club they are, the Lubbock Westerners are back on the trail of the Golden Sandstorm of Amarillo High. The black clouds of defeat are rolled away and the silver lining is in plain view from horizon to horizon.

The Westerners did yesterday just what their friends knew they would do—they picked themselves up by the bootstraps and lunged, full force, back into the pennant chase

It is The Plainsman's personal opinion that they'll thump the Sandies Thursday—especially if the game is played on a dry field.

But whether they do or whether they don't, they should go down in Lubbock football history as one of the gamest of Westerner elevens. They have battered their way, against odds, into the local hall of fame.

AT least a hundred people have urged The Plainsman to seek another freak bet with Colonel Tack on the Thursday game and ordinarily he'd be glad to add to the merriment by so doing. But such a thing is out of the question.

Those who have followed the writings of Colonel Tack know that in addition to brains, humor and ability to write, he also has one of the kindliest of hearts. But his big heart—which has resulted in aiding thousands of unfortunates over the Panhandle section—is heavy now following the death of a very dear friend, to whose bedside he was unexpectedly called late Thanksgiving evening.

Colonel Tack is sport enough to co-operate even under conditions because, to use the parlance of the day, "he's the kind of a guy who can take it on the chin."

But The Plainsman has too much admiration, respect and friendship for Gene Howe to even consider another freak wager at this time.

To which everyone else will say "amen."

* * *

FOUR Lubbock men went to Austin, planning to protest against letting of an asphalt hardsurfacing project in Lubbock county today but they were too late. The contract had already been signed before they could lodge their objections. It's too bad they didn't get there sooner—and it's too bad there weren't 400 protestors, instead of four.

Several months ago this column advised the public that the state highway commission was planning asphalt construction in Lubbock county although the commission wouldn't come out and say so then.

Several weeks ago, when the announcement was made, this column again urged public protest but to no avail. Very few people seemed to care enough to cry out against the Three Mussolinis who use public funds to build public roads, but don't seem to care two whoops about whether the public is satisfied, or not.

One must employ noise and numbers when one tries to combat politicians or office-holders for it is in the noise and numbers that those holding public posts continue to hold them.

Four hundred protestors, The Plainsman imagines, would even make an impression upon W. R. Ely "West Texas" member of the highway commission.

"Without-Or-With, Offense To Friends Or Foes, We Sketch Your World Exactly As It Goes"—Byron

John Raskob Is Responsible For Many Queer Things In Political Happenings, Especially In Money, Wet Issue

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. — Queer things are happening in politics.

1. The Democratic party, always broke in other years this far in advance of an election, is well heeled. Thanks, of course, to one man—John Jacob Raskob.

2. The Republican party, accustomed to rolling in comparative wealth at all times, can't collect any contributions to speak of and, according to report, barely met its payroll the first of November.

Dutcher

3. The Democratic party, under Raskob's chairmanship, hose the time when the country was girding itself for a mighty program of unemployment relief drives to announce a campaign for contributions whose first objective is to pay off Raskob.

4. Raskob, who bravely created a great furore by calling the national committee together and urging it to declare for a wet platform, now circularizes 90,000 past contributors to the party treasury and demands that they vote in a party poll for or against a referendum on prohibition.

Little Johnny Raskob, you observe, is responsible for most of those queer things. Little Johnny Raskob, in fact, is himself about the queerest thing that has happened to American party politics since the Republicans stole the election of 1876 from the Democrats. His party never before had an angel to finance it between campaigns while nearly all others kept their hangs in their pockets. Or a chairman who undertook to guide it on a very controversial issue in the way he thought it should go.

You either admire Raskob for his bold statesmanship and his liberality or for his nervy, egotistic, obstinate cussedness. If his party straddles the prohibition issue next year it must also stand astride team of the institution.

Although Dr. P. W. Horn is as academic as any other college president, he never-the-less is a football fan, especially where his own boys are concerned. He is, therefore, making it a personal matter to urge all interested business men to attend tomorrow's convocation so that the Matadors may know that downtown Lubbock is still behind them even though their playing schedule has been completed.

Take time off to do this good deed.

It is imperative that all the Tech gridsters of this year come back to Tech for 1932—which looms as the most successful football year of the college thus far.

Help bring them back by giving them good support tomorrow.

TIMES DO CHANGE!

"In my youth," said Briggs, "I used to sit on my high stool dreaming of the day when I should have a business of my own and be paying salaries to other people."

"And now what has happened?" asked his tender-hearted listener.

Briggs closed his account books wearily.

"Now I find myself wishing someone else had the business and I was back on a salary," he said.

Diet and Health

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D., Author of "THE HUMAN BODY"

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets and six articles by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin for each pamphlet and 2 cents in coin for each article, with a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1443 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are "Reducing and Leaning," "Feminine Hygiene," "Indigestion and Constipation," "The Care of the Hair and Skin," "Infant Feeding," and "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes." The articles are "Normal Diet," "List of Books for Mothers," "Bed Wetting," "Diet of the Expectant Mother," "Ear Troubles" and "Tuberculosis."

BROKEN BONES

EVERY MAN views nature with the eye of his own self-interest. When the streets are covered with a mask of ice or the sleet is coming down, the surgeon begins to rustle around in the closet where he keeps his splints so he will have them handy. Good fracture weather, he calls it.

Dr. Clendening

A grim point of view but let it be a lesson to you. Cheat the doctor and walk carefully and avoid this winter. Do not decrease rubbers. Don't force yourself to take exercise the day the sleet is on the ground. You may pay for that little bit of exercise with a two months' period of inactivity in bed.

The orthopedic surgeons have two periods when they expect fractures—icey sidewalk weather, and when the apples are beginning to get ripe. The latter season is signalized for them as the time the boys fall out of the trees and suffer broken arms.

If you should be unlucky you may be comforted in knowing that surgery has become skilful in the treatment of fractures. The X-ray and anaesthesia have made an entirely new science of it.

In the days before the X-ray the difficulties of setting a fracture were gigantic. Here were two broken ends of bones covered by muscles and skin. Many bones are surrounded by a thick mass of fleshy parts. To attempt to approximate the ends of a broken bone using in such a position is like attempting to put together the two ends of a broken broomstick in the middle of a pillow. It is really harder for the muscles attached to the ends of the broken bones keep pulling the broken ends apart.

But with the X-ray the part can be put on a screen and the ends of the bones seen as plainly as if they were dissected out. The muscles can be quieted with an anaesthetic. The approximation of the two broken ends can then be made and held in place while a cast or splint is put on. The next day the part can be put on the X-ray screen again to see whether it is still in place. And so on until full recovery is assured.

The number of deformities thus prevented is impossible to calculate. Fifty years ago certain kinds of fractures hardly ever were set without deformity. Frequently healing was so slow and poor that amputation of a limb was preferred to the result obtained. It is rare to see cripples nowadays where deformities are due to fractures. Not so long ago they were common sights.

Success has been even more striking with what are called compound fractures. A compound fracture is so called because a portion of the broken bone has protruded through the skin. This, of course, means that it has become infected. Such cases were the first examples of the antiseptic method in surgery as practiced by Lister. Before his time they usually become gangrenous and amputation was necessary even if life were saved at all.

England has imposed a 50 per cent luxury tax on such "abnormal American importations as silk stockings. Probably regard them as sheer nonsense.

Will Durant says the home has been destroyed by science. Well, science will have to fight that honor out with prohibition.

IN NEW YORK with Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Santa Claus who visits Park and Fifth Avenues, Manhattan, has gone in for antiques.

It may be all very well for your child to play with an old-fashioned top and a mechanical train and a football, but the lads and lassies of New York's rich and swanky set are going to have "museum pieces."

In upper Fifth Avenue there is a toy shop of that particular Santa Claus who drives around in a Rolls-Royce rather than a reindeer-powered sleigh. And in this shop they are showing at the moment quite the last word in stylish toys. And stylish toys, dear children, must have a history.

The toy experts to the modern Fauntleroys have been rummaging through the old and quaint shops of Europe and have gathered together a considerable number of "period" toys. They are, if you please, "collector's items." When the child is as old as his banker-and-broker father, the toy—if still intact—will have a great collector value.

FOR instance, there are clockwork toy sets from old Nuremberg, and some of them are a hundred years old. There are sets of buildings and carvings and little soldiers and assorts of things that are guaranteed to have been prized by the youngsters of a century ago. And even more. The older, the more expensive. Several hundred dollars taxes from this or that, and for a thousand or so, the Christmas stocking can be filled with items worthy of a museum.

BUT the neatest little package for the poor-little-rich kid is a complete pigmy radio set.

Perhaps I had best explain to remember those tiny chesas and tables and bureaus and things that we used to call "children's furniture." Well, baby radio sets have been installed in little desks and what-more, they work. They are miniature midget-radios. And the cost is in proportion.

The mechanical devices are proportionately amazing, also, even. For the shop of which I speak is America's swankiest.

SPEAKING of children reminds me that radio has just made one of its most novel and interesting discoveries.

Her name is Sally Bene Cox and she hails from Boston. For some time Sally Cox tried to crash into radio as a pianist. But it seems that Sally, while guarding over a children's vacation camp, entertained the youngsters with baby stories. To make her stories more realistic she would cry like a baby, and became more than passingly proficient.

Now there are a number of acts on radio in which a baby appears and never had they been able to get someone who could imitate a crying baby. Peter Dixon of the "Raising Junior" act had spent two years experimenting. He had tried out nearly a hundred persons and a score of mechanical devices. He heard of Sally and signed her immediately. Now she's practicing up on baby talk for other programs.

And now they're developing a plane to go 1000 miles an hour. Getting so a man won't have any excuse for not getting home in time for supper.

An astrologer says Tunney's son will like wine, women and song. Goodness. And with the country dry, too.

AUCTION CASE SET TODAY

DECISION PROBABLY TO BE MADE HERE THIS AFTERNOON

A decision in the case of a Lubbock jewelry company against the City of Lubbock, in which an ordinance regulating auction sales is attacked, probably would not be reached before this afternoon, Judge Clark M. Mullican indicated this morning. The hearing began before him in 99th district court, Monday.

The case is R. J. and P. E. Steagall vs. the City of Lubbock et al, in which the plaintiffs seek a temporary restraining order to restrain city officials from enforcing the ordinance. The petition attacks all but sections 11, 12 and 13 of the 16 sections of the city's law regarding auctions. The plaintiffs, as Steagall Bros., have been conducting an auction sale of jewelry.

The ordinance, in effect, requires 30 days notice of an auction sale, itemized account of the articles to be sold and cost price of each, a bond of $1,000, and payment of a $5 fee per day during the sale. The plaintiffs allege unreasonable restriction, "confiscation of their property without due proceeds of law," discrimination and that the city is "endeavoring to assume a paternal attitude toward any person who might purchase any jewelry at auction."

The petition sets out that Chief of Police John Lemond has arrested P. E. Steagall and P. L. Wilson, the latter an employe of the firm, and that they were placed under $400 bond each.

Defendants are Mayor J. J. Clements, Commissioners D. N. Leaverton, J. P. Bacon, J. E. Roach and G. E. Benson, City Manager W. H. Rodgers, J. L. Holt, secretary-treasurer, R. A. Holland, city tax collector and assessor, and Chief Lemond. Representing the plaintiffs is the firm, Lindsey & Berry. E. L. Klett is city attorney and Jess Levens, assistant city attorney.

TECH MATADORS ARE TO RECEIVE GOLD FOOTBALLS

Miniature gold footballs from the fans and certificates of athletic letters from the school will be presented members of the 1931 Texas Technological college football squad on Wednesday.

In a program, at 11 o'clock at the college gymnasium, the Matador players will receive these rewards of a season ended in victory Thanksgiving when the Simmons university Cowboys were defeated, 6 to 0. Announcement of the program was made Monday from the office of President P. W. Horn.

All friends of the school and members of the Matador club are invited to attend. J. H. Henry, secretary of the state Y. M. C. A., will speak and the Tech band will play. All students and faculty members are urged by President Horn to attend.

To Study Benefits Of Legalized Beer

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Secretary Hyde now has before him all material for a study of what benefits, if any, legalized beer would bring on farmers.

With a new congress convening and callers dropping in hourly to discuss agriculture's problem, it may be him a long time to reach any conclusions. It will not be before January 1.

The secretary dropped word last December that he was planning a quiet inquiry to satisfy his own mind whether the return of beer would bring any more money to the farmers' pockets. Since then his own aides have been digging up all manner of facts and he has received much unsolicited aid.

Two Children Die; Blame Poison Food

ENGELAND, S. C., Dec. 1. (AP)—Two children are dead here and five other members of their family are critically ill as the result of eating canned food.

The dead children are Alice Jordan, 14, and her two-year-old brother, Joe.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jordan, and three other children are said by attending physicians to be at the "point of death."

Pads have been observed to set on the legs of injured companions as a kind of plaster.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1 (AP)—The cotton market today opened rather irregular. Although Liverpool was better than due, sterling exchange was decidedly weak. Prices here opened unchanged to one point up but soon started to ease off slowly owing to a weak opening of the stock market.

January dropped to 6.05, and March to 6.21, down 5 to 6 points from yesterday's close. There was very little disposition to trade and near the end of the first hour the market was dull and near the lows.

The market was easy most of the morning along with weak stocks and grain. January dropped to 6.01 and March to 6.17, or 9 to 10 points under yesterday's close.

Later in the morning the market rallied on fair trade buying on the scale down and shorts covering and recovered all of the previous loss. January advanced to 6.10 and March to 6.28, 9 to 10 points above the lows and even with yesterday's close.

At noon the market was steady and at the highs.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 (AP)—Cotton opened steady today at a decline of 1 to 4 points on commission house selling and some selling from Liverpool. January sold off to 6.12.

There also was selling here by brokers with continental and Japanese connections and offerings increased after the call as if stimulated by the weakness of the stock market. January sold off from 6.12 to 6.01, while May declined from 6.45 to 6.35, making the active months about 8 to 12 points net lower by the end of the first half hour. Additional December notices were issued amounting to only 1,500 bales but December eased off to 5.97, making a net decline of 10 points.

Liverpool cables reported local and foreign buying in that market on the weakness in sterling but reported a fair demand for cotton cloth from India and South America.

The decline carried the market off to 6.00 for January and 6.34 for May but a better trade demand developed at those figures. This was sufficient to absorb offerings, but the market showed no rallying power of consequence and at midday was quiet, within a point or two of the lowest, showing net declines of about 8 to 11 points.

NEW ORLEANS OPEN

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1 (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today. Dec. 6.04; Jan. 6.09; March 6.28; May 6.45; July 6.62; Oct. 6.84.

NEW YORK OPEN

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 (AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady today. Dec. 6.06; Jan. 6.12; March 6.28; May 6.45; July 6.61; Oct. 6.90.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 1 (AP)—Grain prices underwent sharp early setbacks today, affected by sensational fresh breaks in British exchange rates and by New York stock market weakness. The collapse in sterling was to 3.29 1-2, an overnight fall of 10 points. Opening 5-8 to 1 5-8 cents lower, wheat afterward held near the initial range. Corn started 3-8 to 1 1-4 off and then steadied.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 (AP)—Fresh offerings turned the stock market downward today and yesterday's gains, in most instances, were more than canceled. Trading was fairly active during the first hour but activity slackened considerably in the second.

Weakness of sterling and a heavy grain market, as well as an apparent impairment of the technical position through Monday's short covering, were factors in the retreat. U. S. Steel and American Can made new lows on losses of more than 4 points, while Allied Chemical, Santa Fe, Norfolk & Western dropped 5. General Motors was actively sold, losing nearly two points and coming within a fraction of its minimum. Johns-Manville was weak, reflecting the dividend reduction. Net losses of 2 to 3 points were numerous.

Call money renewed at 2 1-2 per cent.

New Jersey Voters Will Elect Solon

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 1 (AP)—New Jersey's fifth congressional district, comprising Morris and Union counties balloted to elect a congressman today after a campaign in which support or repudiation of President Hoover was the chief issue.

The special election, called to choose a successor to the late Rep. Ernest R. Ackerman, Republican, had drawn national attention. A Democratic victory would further increase that party's margin in the house of representatives.

Donald H. McLean, Republican, and Percy H. Stewart, Democrat, are the candidates.

DEATH CAUSE NAMED

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 (AP)—Oedema of the brain and a slight disorder of the heart were given today by Dr. Alexander O. Gettler, city toxicologist, as cause of the death last Friday of Robert Ames, stage and screen actor.

Lubbock Markets

These prices are furnished by the following Lubbock firms: Poultry — Lubbock Poultry and Egg company, delivered Lubbock; Dairy Products—Bell Ice Cream company; Grain—S. E. Welfare Conclave Postponed Again

Postponed again, a meeting of the executive committee of the United Welfare association, county-city charity agency, was to begin at 2 o'clock this afternoon in County Judge E. L. Pitts' office in the courthouse. B. Sherrod is president of the association and last night announced the session would be at 10 o'clock this morning.

The session, to perfect the constitution of the association and to make arrangements for an old-clothes campaign, was to have been held Monday but was postponed because of the football game.

Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of Texas Technological college, has reported it will be represented in the parade by the Matador band, a national guard unit, a girls riding class, and an agriculture school float.

The Camp Fire Girls are planning a float and other organizations, although their arrangements are incomplete, have assured the chamber of commerce that they will be represented by floats.

The finance committee for the Christmas pageant will meet at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at chamber offices.

Public relations committee members are B. Sherrod, E. L. Robertson, L. E. Grimes, E. H. McKinney, R. J. Kellar, J. Parsons, E. C. Henley, Dwight Hale, R. C. Smith, Floyd Bowen, Luther Bynum, R. P. Prophet, W. L. Daniels, E. C. Hatton, J. R. Newman, A. C. Webb, C. M. Hawes, A. Sansom, Hub Jones, G. P. Kuykendall, C. W. McLeod, Truman C. Meinecke, T. R. Pirdeaux, M. D. Ratliff, Charles H. Read, J. R. Dickey, S. C. Wilson and Carl Patton.

John Halsey and J. C. Anderson, co-chairmen of the floats committee for the pageant, sponsored by the Avalanche-Journal, met Monday morning with 21 representatives of schools, luncheon and women's clubs and character building organizations.

Mason King, manager of the extension and trade department of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, and R. E. Foster, advance man for the pageant, attended.

More than 180,000 people saw the pageant last week in Dallas, Foster said. After appearing here next week the group will go to Abilene and then to St. Louis. They appear at Amarillo immediately before coming to Lubbock and Mr. King, who directed the pageant there last year, discussed methods of handling the affair.

Border Funeral To Be Held At Austin

Funeral services for Wade Border, about 80, father of Mrs. Robert Bean of near Lubbock, probably will be conducted at Austin, relatives here said this morning. Definite arrangements had not been reported here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bean and Mrs. Border left Lubbock by automobile on receiving word that Border had been injured Monday morning when run over by an automobile at Austin. He died at about noon Monday. The three did not know of his death until reaching Austin.

Another daughter, Mrs. Milton Dunshie of Beaumont, also survives Border.

The Borders had lived in Austin for many years and he had been nightwatchman at the Capitol for several years.

experiment station.

The temperature reached a maximum of 40 degrees Monday and ranged downward to 29. At 6 p. m. the reading was 37 degrees. Don L. Jones of the experiment farm said. The mercury fell slowly during the early part of the night.

The Panhandle region, which was struck by a winter storm a few days ago, continued to have unsettled weather. Amarillo had low temperatures, but no rain. Pampa and vicinity were cloudy. A cold north wind was reported. Plainview had a low mercury reading of 32 degrees. Santa Fe railroad officials reported eight inches of snow at Slaton.

San Angelo reported drizzling rain. Precipitation there amounted to about .75 inch. Wichita Falls had a low temperature of 37 degrees and .20 inch precipitation. Brownwood had .86 rain. The mercury dropped to 35 degrees.

NO REVISION IN TARIFF EXPECTED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Senator Smoot expects no tariff revision at the coming congressional session.

The chairman of the finance committee, which would handle such legislation, said if the Democrats undertake revision "it will simply be a gesture for the 1932 presidential campaign."

Smoot contended the tariff commission was acting promptly on requests for lowering and raising rates and said any attempt to tinker with the present act at the session starting next Monday would be "foolhardy."

He voiced strenuous objection to the proposal of Representative Rainey, Democrat, Illinois, that the United States initiate reciprocity agreements looking to downward revision of rates throughout the world.

Need Courtesy Cars For Amarillo Fans

The Hilton hotel has been selected as headquarters for the Amarillo football team and special delegation, according to an announcement made today.

Lubbock courtesy cars will begin arriving at the hotel at one o'clock to take the Amarillo visitors to the game, M. H. Duncan, superintendent of schools, said. The cars will come from the north on Texas Avenue and go to the west of the hotel on Main to receive visitors.

Mr. Duncan said more cars were needed to carry the visitors to the game. He asked that those having cars get in touch with him at the high school.

TRIALS POSTPONED

Postponement of trials of between 15 and 20 women in corporation court for vagrancy by prostitution this morning was attributed to inability of city prosecutors to appear because of other activities. The women were arrested by police in raids Saturday night.

Extortion Plot Is Frustrated Today

CORPUS CHRISTI, Dec. 1 (AP)—An alleged attempt to extort $25,000 from L. T. Ayres, cashier of the First National bank at Aransas Pass, was frustrated today when officers arrested Joseph F. L. Boring, 20, at Ingleside on a charge of sending a threatening letter.

Ayres informed officers he received a letter through the mails threatening his life and members of his family if he did not leave the money in a package at an Ingleside grocery store. The officers set a trap and arrested Boring.

Boring had lived in Ingleside about one year, moving from Robinson county.

Missing Flier Is Found Safe Today

EL PASO, Dec. 1. (AP)—A rescue plane piloted by C. H. Chidlow, Western Air Express pilot, landed at the airport here shortly after 10 o'clock today with Al Cabana, Pueblo, Colo., flier missing since yesterday.

Cabana spent the night in his airplane and was found an hour after the rescue plane left here this morning.

SENATOR APPOINTED

TRENTON, N. J., Dec. 1 (AP)—W. Warren Barbour, former mayor of Rumson and wealthy thread manufacturer, was appointed today by Governor Morgan F. Larson to succeed the late Dwight W. Morrow as United States senator from New Jersey.

PLAN SCOUT NIGHT

The intermediate orchestra of the First Baptist church will present a 15-minute program there Friday night preceding revival services at which Rev. W. Y. Pond, Waco evangelist, will speak on scouting. Lubbock Boy Scouts will attend in a body as guests of honor, the night having been designated Boy Scout night. Agreement on so designating the program was made at a meeting Monday of the Lubbock Ministerial alliance.

KING FUNERAL SET TODAY

LAMESA MAN DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED IN CAR ACCIDENT

The funeral of Talmage King, 39, Dawson county farmer, was to be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Lamesa at the First Methodist Episcopal church, of which he was a member. Rev. W. H. Wallace, the pastor, was to officiate. Burial was to be in Lamesa cemetery.

King suffered a crushed chest Sunday night when an automobile he was driving left state highway No. 53 and crashed in a culvert about nine miles from Lubbock. A companion, Earl Dickey, 50, of Lubbock suffered minor injuries and possibly will be dismissed from Lubbock sanitarium today. King died at the sanitarium at 11 o'clock Sunday night.

King is survived by his widow and eight children, Jim, 15; Talmage, 12; Ronald, 9; Elmer Lee, 5; Edgar Allen, 3; Evelyn, 13; Wilma, 10, and Edna Ruth, 8. He also is survived by six brothers and three sisters. Brothers are J. M. and Dr. A. R. King of Fort Worth; T. W. King of Roanoke, L. T. King of Quanah, E. H. King of Marfa, and B. L. King of Lamesa. Sisters are Mrs. Walter Carter of Childress, Mrs. R. C. Jones of San Angelo and Mrs. Posy Cunningham of Earth.

WESTERNERS WILL MEET SANDIES HERE THURSDAY FOR TITLE

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

SO THE SANDIES are coming to town! As a result of yesterday's struggle on the local gridiron, Lubbock and Amarillo will tilt for the title at the same place Thursday afternoon. Coming mighty close together, these games, and it's going to be mighty tough on Lubbock.

Yesterday's good ball game was more typical of football than any in which we have seen the Westerners play this season. In other games the score has been so one-sided, one way or the other, that a certain element has been missing. We like to see a close ball game, and that one yesterday was close.

• • •

We had some visitors yesterday whom we would mention as fellows in that brotherhood of sports writers. Harry Hoare was representing the Pampa News. He's the one who said Captain Crawford weighed 218 instead of 183 pounds when the Westerners whipped Pampa the first time. Adrian Odom (no he's not Mike) covered the game for the Amarillo papers. De Witte "Judge" Landis did a nice job of announcing the game, we thought, and the fact that, he was unprejudiced, being from Amarillo, made for a more interesting broadcast.

Leaving football for the nounce. even for a couple of nounces while we regain our scattered wits and try in secret to figure out how this football mess is going to end, we would call attention to the fact that Lubbock is being represented somewhat successfully in another sport.

Some of you may have heard of him, others here know him personally and so far as we know he is well liked. We remind you of one Sailor Jack Lewis, heavyweight wrestler originally of the U. S. navy and champion along the Pacific coast. We had a letter from Sailor Jack the other day in which was enclosed a clipping telling of his victory over Adam Mauck, Kansas heavyweight of no little note. Jack needed only 7 minutes to gain a big decision over his opponent and the reporter states in his story, "He (Lewis) still ranks as one of the best heavyweights."

Lewis is billing himself out of Lubbock henceforth. Interests in business have been transferred from New Mexico to Lubbock and as the big sailor stages his tour through the north and east this winter he will be labeled, "Jack Lewis of Lubbock, Texas." He is under contract to meet some of the worlds outstanding heavies in the east, to wrestle twice monthly in Madison Square garden.

Still skipping around, we think it nothing but just that we pass along a bit of information given us through the columns of Bill Brancher, our favorite sport columnist, NEA service sports editor of N. Y. We'll just let Bill ride for a few paragraphs:

"Babe Ruth will not lead the American League in home runs next year. Neither will Lou Gehrig. The man who will lead the circuit in homers is named Earl Averill, and the reason why I know he will do it is because he told me so himself. To go into the thing scientifically, here is why.

"When the Snohomish Rockhead came to play center field for the Cleveland Indians in 1929 he told General Manager Billy Evans he would bat better than .315. His batting average at the end of the season was .330. Before the start of the 1930 season he announced he would better that .330. He came up at the windup with .339. In his first year in the American League he made 18 home runs. He forecast that he would beat it in 1930. Just before the end of the 1930 season, in fact with only three more games to be played, Averill had 15 home runs. Before the first game I reminded him of his promise.

"Gosh, I almost forgot," was the reply. "Guess I'd better get three or four today." He got three that day, missing two more by inches. And on the last day of the season he went over the top with one more. How are you going to argue with a man like that? In 1930 Eddie Morgan led the Cleveland team in homers with 26. Last spring Averill said he felt sure he would beat that record. He smacked 32 home runs. And one of those home runs was made with a toy bat, with a piece of blue ribbon around it, the gift of Cleveland school kids to whom he is an idol.

"Ruth, of course, is the most colorful player in the majors. Pepper Martin has it, too. But Averill has a charm of a different sort. It is the Rockhead's utter nonchalance that attracts admirers. Imagine a man lugging a 10-cent bat to the plate in a regular league game and driving the ball over the fence with it! And voicing all those rash predictions and then making good on every one of them!"

MATADORS SIGN TO MEET MUSTANGS

LUBBOCK HIGH WINS OVER PAMPANS

HARVESTERS REMOVED FROM RACE BY 7-0 DEFEAT MONDAY

By sheer power and contemplation the Lubbock High school Westerners yesterday defeated the Pampa High school Harvesters, 7 to 0 eliminated that team from the District 1 title race and narrowed the championship chase down to a tie between themselves and the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm.

The Amarillo Sandies, overwhelming victors over Lubbock on Turkey Day at Amarillo, will invade Lubbock Thursday for the second of the series of two play-off games to decide the standard-bearer of the district for 1931.

Immediately at the close of yesterday's triumph at Matador Field, preparations got under way for the Lubbock-Amarillo game. The local gridiron was the scene of activity last night when workmen attempted to cover the field with strips of tarpaulin against the snow and subsequent moisture, hoping to provide a reasonably dry field for the Thursday's tilt. The first game with Amarillo was played on a sloppy field, giving the Sandies some advantage, and it is planned that the second clash between the teams shall be on a dryer field.

Second Pampa Defeat

Yesterday's victory was the second of the season for Lubbock over the charges of Coach Odus Mitchell. Exactly one month earlier, the Westerners invaded Pampa and won a 32 to 6 triumph. That first victory came on the heels of a 13 to 6 win by Pampa over Amarillo.

While the score of yesterday's game was indicative of the type of football played out at the Texas Tech field, it must be made clear that the Westerners played a defensive game after taking the scoring lead. For the last half they were outplayed by a desperate Pampa outfit, but Coach Chapman chose to play a conservative game of football, taking no chances with the ball in their own territory. The Westerners kicked on the second and third downs nearly all afternoon, giving Pampa the possession of the ball for most of the second half.

Individuals Shine

The game was featured individually by the fine playing of Cotton Welch, guard; Will Ed Watson, end, and Cecil Merrill, halfback. This trio stood out in Lubbock's attack and defense, though it was Fullback Gene Barnett who lashed at the Pampa line from the opponents' 10-yard stripe to carry over for a touchdown, and it was Barnett who tossed a long pass to Watson for a gain of 40 yards and scoring position.

The line-busting tactics of Captain Chastain, "Red" Bost, big Hill and little Jody Kahl featured the Pampa offense which ran up 13 first downs to Lubbock's 8. The heavy Pampa line ran good interference for the fleet-footed backs of Coach Mitchell and made Lubbock look ill during most of the second half. When it became necessary, however, the Westerner forward wall closed up like a man with lockjaw and the Pampan's never once got inside Lubbock's 20-yard line on the offense.

Watson, elongated end, made all-district yesterday so far as the critics who watched him are concerned. To keep Welch off the mythical team would be treason. Merrill made up for every fumble he fumbled last Thursday against Amarillo and blasted himself a name across the front of Lubbock's new high school building. Bert Williams played like a demon at right tackle.

Fullback Gene Barnett of the Westerners was removed from the game and supplanted by Scoggin when the former sustained a sprained ankle. The injury, though more serious at first, may heal in time for him to do his turn in the Amarillo game Thursday. It was thought at first that the foot, broken in a game three weeks ago, had been broken again but an x-ray revealed the bone intact. Captain Bob Crawford was found to have a severe thumb injury after the game. The member will be x-rayed today for possible fracture.

In the Westerner backfield, Quarterback Britton generalled his team in his usual fine style, kicked goal for extra point, intercepted a pass that looked like another sure thing for the pay-line and was never caught off guard. Mack Scoggin did not play the entire game, going out early and coming back in late, but the husky lad was not extended. He had no great responsibility yesterday. Bill Davidson went in for him and turned in a creditable game, though he was bottled up considerably. He never had a chance at the art in which he excels—kicking field goals from placement after touchdowns.

STEWART RESIGNS POST

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1 (AP)—Allan Stewart of Oakland, Calif., Monday announced his resignation as president of the Arizona-Texas Baseball league, effective at the next meeting of the board of directors scheduled soon in Tucson, Ariz., Pat Nathan, Globe, Ariz., vice president, automatically becomes head of the circuit, Stewart said.

Football Will Share With Unemployed This Week

DOZEN GAMES AND A ROUND-ROBIN MEET ARE SCHEDULED

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Football will share with the unemployed this week to the extent of an even dozen games and one round-robin tournament.

So hearty has been the response of the colleges to the appeal for help that an original slate which called for only seven big games Dec. 5 now lists 20.

The eastern slate will include the battle in the Yankee stadium here between unbeaten Tennessee and New York university; the round robin tournament at New Haven involving Yale, Dartmouth, Holy Cross and Brown; and the duel at Pittsburgh between Carnegie Tech and Duquesne.

To Pick Teams

In the south, Alabama will meet Chattanooga and South Carolina will face Centre. A picked eleven from Duke and North Carolina will play a team selected from among North Carolina State, Davidson and Wake Forest.

The clash at San Francisco between the undefeated Southern Methodist Mustangs and the Gaels of St. Mary's of Oakland heads a far western charity program that will include games between Utah and Oregon State and Nebraska and the Colorado Aggies.

In the midwest, four other Big Six teams have contributed their services. Kansas will play Washburn at Topeka, Kansas State meets Wichita at Wichita; Missouri tackles St. Louis at St. Louis; and Oklahoma battles Oklahoma City at Norman, Okla.

Of the regularly scheduled contests, perhaps most interest will center on Tulane's clash with Washington State at New Orleans and Southern California's fancie with Washington at Las Angeles. Southern California must win to clinch the Pacific coast title. Tulane's principal incentive against Washington State is a probable bid to play Southern California in the annual Rose bowl game at Pasadena.

COLLEGE PROTESTS WHEN ANNOUNCER CALLS FOOTBALL GAME A "RACKET"

BOSTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—The Boston College Athletic association has sent a formal protest to Lowell Thomas, radio news broadcaster against his alleged statement that the Boston college-Holy Cross football game was a "racket." The statement was alleged to have been made by Thomas in his broadcast over a nation-wide hookup last Saturday night.

The college association charged Thomas made several disparaging remarks in reference to the game which was played Thanksgiving day and which was planned to aid Boston's unemployment fund. John P. Curley, graduate manager of athletics, asserted Thomas ridiculed arrangements for the game, commenting on the disappointing attendance.

The protest was the second in the last month against a radio announcer to be made by a greater Boston institution. Harvard protested Ted Husing's use of the word "putrid" in describing the play of Barry Wood, Harvard quarterback, in the Dartmouth game. Harvard barred Husing from the stadium as a broadcaster.

SEEK TO LAND NEW PLAYERS

MAJOR - MINOR LEAGUE SKIRMISH STARTED AT CONCLAVE

WEST BADEN, Ind., Dec. 1 (AP)—So far there has been plenty of sparring but not knockouts in the big major-minor league skirmish to land better players or more desirable playing combinations for the 1932 baseball campaigns.

All the major league clubs had their camps pitched today and while rumors floated about the hotel lobbies, all the owners remained silent as if waiting for more favorable deals to turn up.

The Chicago Cubs, here with a big bag of William Wrigley's gold to tempt Boston Braves, the Phillies and the champion St. Louis Cardinals, intimated they were making good progress and almost ready to break the monotony with an anouncement. Rumors involved their huddles and one of them included Burleigh Grimes, star pitcher of the Cardinals, who may wear a Cub uniform next season. Ed Brandt, star hurler for the Braves, and Whitey Klein, home run producer for the Phillies, also are mentioned as probable Cubs for 1932.

Meanwhile, the minor leaguers held various meetings of no great importance to the outside baseball world.

ALBIE BOOTH IS TO TAKE A REST

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 1 (AP)—Albie Booth, dynamic and versatile Yale football leader, is going to a sanatorium for a period of rest with his brilliant career as one of Yale's greatest all-round athletes unfinished.

Making its first official announcement on the condition of the little three-sport star since he was taken to the college infirmary last week, the university's health department today described Booth's illness as "pleurisy with effusion."

"It seems wise to treat him conservatively," the department announced, "and within a short time he will go to the Gaylord Farm sanatorium in Wallingford, Conn., for a period of rest."

The statement added there was no evidence of any trouble with Booth's lungs.

Booth, captain of the basketball and football teams and regular infielder on the baseball nine, was ordered to the college infirmary last Tuesday when he reported for practice with a fever. The next day, he was removed to New Haven hospital.

ALL-AMERICAN TEAM CHOSEN

LOU LITTLE, COACH AT COLUMBIA, HAS HIS SELECTIONS

BY LOU LITTLE
(Head Football Coach, Columbia University)

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 (AP)—After looking the field over and talking with other coaches who have come here from all parts of the country, these are my selections for the 1931 all-America football team:

Center—William McDuffie, Columbia.

Right guard—John W. Baker, Southern California.

Right tackle—John M. Price, Army.

Right end — Gerald Dalrymple, Tulane.

Quarterback — Eugene McEver, Tennessee.

Right halfback, Ernie Pinckert, Southern California.

Fullback—Ernest Rentner, Northwestern. Perhaps I should explain why I picked McEver instead of either Barry Wood of Harvard or Bill Morton of Dartmouth for quarterback. It's simple enough to me: he is a better all-around back.

Wood is a fine field general, but neither he nor Morton compares with McEver as a runner and blocker. The Tennessee boy also can pass and kick if necessary, and he has had great experience, in my opinion, calculated to make him a first-rate field general. Besides he came back after a years layoff to play great ball.

Race Tracks Swell Fund For Jobless

BOWIE, Md., Dec. 1 (AP)—Bowie has swelled to $125,000 the contribution of Maryland's four race tracks to the unemployed.

A final charity day program yesterday poured approximately $28,000 into the fund despite the fact the attendance was less than 8,000.

The four previous charity day meets, one each at Bowie, Laurel, Pimlico and Harve de Grace provided $96,000. A fifth day was arranged to bring the fund to the $100,000 mark.

Eight per cent of all bets, the state's daily $6,000 tax, gate receipts, revenue from sale of programs and even the major part of the salaries of the track employes went into the pool for the needy.

The first automobile was equipped with pneumatic tires in 1892 by Panhard and Levassor, French manufacturers.

CONTRACT FOR THREE GAMES IS SIGNED

SCHEDULE FOR NEXT YEAR MADE MORE ATTRACTIVE

Carrying out his pledge to offer Lubbock and South Plains grid fans better football games in the future, Head Coach Pete Cawthon of the Texas Tech Matadors announced today that he had signed a three-year contract with Southern Methodist university for games in 1932, '33 and '34. The first game will be played at Dallas, October 1, 1932.

One of the games will be played in Lubbock, either in 1933 or 1934, Coach Cawthon said. The date will be decided upon later.

The signing of the S. M. U. game makes the Tech schedule for the 1932 season more attractive, a number of other colorful teams already having been contracted to meet the Matadors. The list includes three Southwest conference teams, A. & M., S. M. U. and Baylor. A. & M. will be met in Amarillo, Sept. 24, the Mustangs in Dallas, and the Bears here, Armistice Day.

Notre Dame's Ramblers will be here October 28, and negotiations are under way to bring the University of Arizona to Lubbock on October 15.

The University of New Mexico, Louisiana Tech, Colorado Mines and possibly Austin college of Texas university also appear on the Tech schedule for next season.

NINETEEN MATADORS TO RECEIVE LETTERS

Nineteen wearers of the Scarlet and Black during the grid season have been selected as outstanding lettermen by the Texas Tech athletic council, according to an announcement made today. One honorary letter and six reserve letters were awarded.

The council approved the selection of Coaches Pete Cawthon and Dutchey Smith.

Bill Teal, Enoch stellar end who received a broken leg in the game with the Haskell Indians at Dallas, was awarded an honorary letter, having participated in only 9 quarters prior to his injury. Regular letters were awarded to Harlon Howell, Brownfield, end; Whacker Barton, center, Lubbock; George Cowan, end, Seymour; Carl McAdams, quarter, Sherman; Merrie Kayser, guard, Weatherford; and Lefty Sollis, fullback, Sherman.

Regular letters were awarded to Lester Trobbe, center, Sherman; Milton Moffett, quarter, Stanton; Yancy Price, end, Lubbock; Lawrence France, halfback, Levelland; Bonnie McWilliams, tackle, San Benito; Harold Cotter, tackle, Lubbock; Edgar Cox, halfback, Shamrock; Murray Nichols, fullback, DeLeon; Ross Aten, guard, Wheeler; George Lankford, tackle, Frankell; Matt Hitchcock, end, Cameron; Walter Fuller, end, Moody; Dyers Owen, guard, Sherman; Jack Durham, guard, Hamilton; Eli Harris, tackle; Rails Clarence Young, tackle, Rails; Toby Greer, guard, Comanche; Elva Baker, tackle, Abilene; and Leo Turner, guard, Cisco.

Tex Williams, student manager from Comanche was awarded a letter for his managerial work during the season.

The boys will be presented official emblems, them sweaters and gold football awards in a convocation of the students at 11 a. m. Wednesday. The gold football will be presents of Lubbock fans in appreciation of the victories over Simmons.

To Select Players For East-West Tilt

EVANSTON, Ill., Dec. 1 (AP)—Coach Dick Hanley of Northwestern who, with Andy Kerr of Colgate directs the eastern team in the annual New Years day Shriners benefit football game at San Francisco, will issue invitations to Big Ten and Midwestern stars this week.

Only seniors are eligible and each section, the midwest and east will send eleven men each to battle stars from the Pacific coast.

LONGVIEW, Dec. 1 (AP)—Prizes of six hundred dollars and trophies lured 26 players to the links of the Longview Pine Hill country club today for the final 36 holes of the first annual southwest professional golf organization tournament.

The starting field was all that was left of many who tried to conquer the sand greens yesterday and failed. But the field was rich with professional and amateur talent, each capable of blistering the course with under par golf.

With 36 holes behind, Tony Butler, Corpus Christi professional, started today in the lead. He cracked one under par on the first 18 yesterday for a 69 and then shot home in 72 for a card of 141. Butler, on his way to winter tournaments in California, stopped here for a round or so but his rounds gave par such a jolt that he decided to stay.

Metz In Race

Trailing Butler yesterday was Dick Metz, unattached, and Texas Professional Golf association star champion. Metz was in the lead until late in the afternoon when he started slipping and let Butler, who was playing with him, crowd to the front. Metz shot the best nine of the day when he toured the first turn of the links in 32, three under par, and finished the first eighteen in 71 and a 75 in the afternoon gave him a total of 142.

Only one amateur was high in the running when the contend teed off today. He was Jimmy Demaret of Dallas who turned in a 73-71 yesterday to tie Ted Longworth, Fort Worth professional, for third place with 144.

Three Favorites

Three heavy favorites at the finish yesterday were Bud Clark, Minnesota; George Aulback of the Dallas Country club and "Chick" Stader of Rochester, New York. Clark finished with a 74-71—145. But Aulback was off, scoring a 78-76—154 and Stader a pair of 75's for 154.

The gallery threescore today were Dick Metz, Tony Butler and Ted Longworth.

CONTRACT LET ON HIGHWAY

COUNTY DADS EXPECT TO OPPOSE ASPHALT PAVING PROJECT

Although a contract for asphalt paving of 17.2 miles of state highway No. 7 from Lubbock westward to the Hockley county line was awarded Monday, Commissioners L. Denton and J. T. Pinkston of Lubbock county were to confer with the state highway commission today and discuss this county's highway improvement problems. They had intended to object to asphalt on highway No. 7 in Lubbock county, declaring bonds were voted with the understanding that concrete would be used.

Coke & Branden, contractors of Marshall, were awarded the contract for asphalt paving in this county on their low bid of $108,130.

Contracts for road and bridge construction totaling $1,045,334 were awarded yesterday by the Texas highway commission, according to Associated Press reports. The Lubbock and Hockley county award was to have been protested Tuesday by a delegation of two local men and commissioners L. C. (Claude) Denton of Lubbock and J. T. Pinkston of Slaton. J. R. Hankins, chairman, and Joe Bowman, a member of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce highway committee, went to Austin Monday.

Others Authorized

Construction awards authorized Monday called for 20 miles of concrete paving, 46 miles of grading and drainage, 61.3 miles of other types of hard surfacing and base work, 37 miles of jetting and ponding; 11 bridges and two grade separation projects. One project, 8.3 miles of shell surfacing on highway 16 in Calhoun county, was not awarded due to a lie bid.

West Texas contracts included Crockett and Pecos, 6.9 miles grading and small drainage structures from Sheffield to Liveoak creek on highway 27 to L. J. Miles, Ft. Worth, $31,427.

Concho bridge over Concho river on highway 4, Jensen Construction company Kimball-Town, Iowa, $68,-; roadway approaches, Childs Building Star, $11,892.

Pecos, Sheffield creek bridge on highway 27, to Dozier Construction company of Austin, $25,419.

Preacher at 5

Although only old enough to be in kindergarten, Arthur McCaffrey, Jr., five, above, is telling amazed adults what a sinful world we live in. He recently made his debut as an evangelist before a large gathering at Evansville, Ind. He knows 600 Biblical quotations and his favorite is "Repent, for the Kingdom of God is at hand."

Noted Army Flier Is Married Monday

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 1 (AP)—Lieut. Lester J. Maitland, noted army flier, of Kelly field, and Miss Kathleen McManus, daughter of Mrs. William Francis McManus, were married last night.

No announcement had been made of the ceremony, which was performed at the home of Rev. Paul F. Hein, pastor of the Grace English Evangelical Lutheran church. Miss McManus was attended by Miss Jeanne Bonsal Maverick and the groom by Lieut. Gordan K. Cusak of Kelly field.

The College of Cardinals, which is the senate of the Catholic church, is composed of 70 members when complete.

NEW YORK—New York, rarely surprised, has been taken back by the enormity of the estate left by the late Payne Whitney, capitalist and sportsman, who died on May 25, 1927. The valuation of the Whitney estate, just filed and made public, is the largest in the history of America—$239,301,017, even though Mr. Whitney gave millions during his life.

New York of course, realized that Payne Whitney was an extremely wealthy man. But, due to benefactions or distribution of estates prior to death to avoid inheritance taxes, the estates of wealthy folk have not been so much as surmised.

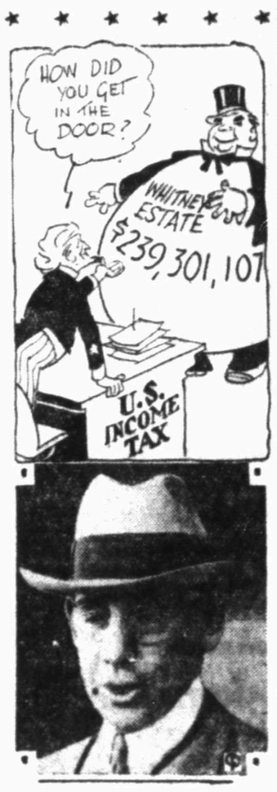

A remarkable feature of the Payne Whitney estate was the fact that, of its own accord, it increased $52,721,270 in value in the two years following his death, the estimate having been made as of 1929. But, due to the collapse of the stock market, this gain was lost in the two years following the appraisal.

Mr. Whitney's brother, Harry Payne Whitney, likewise a multimillionaire, to whom he left two valuable stallions, died last year of pneumonia. (Both men had racing stables.)

Generation Passes

Thus, within a few years, the two sons of William C. Whitney died, and the vast fortune moved on to a new generation, less inheritance taxes. Inheritance and estate taxes on the Payne Whitney estate amounted to $22,179,274, of which the state of New York received $17,364,013, the federal government $4,280,013. Maine, $353,886, Ohio, $26,376, and other states $44,385.

To gain an idea of the immensity of the Payne Whitney estate, one has only to compare it with other record estates previously appraised in New York state. That of Mrs. Stephen V. Harkness (oil) led with $107,082,494. Then came in order: Colonel John Jacob Astor (real estate), $87,217,691; J. Pierpont Morgan (banking), $78,149,024; Anthony J. Brady, $77,042,443; Henry C. Frick, $74,826,226; William Rockefeller (brother of John D.), $67,647,660; John S. Kennedy, $67,-137,735; Russell Sage, $64,153,800; Charle W. Harkness, $60,000,000; Edward H. Harriman, $58,000,000; William K. Vanderbilt, $54,530,966; William A. Clark, $48,017,157; James Stillman, $40,338,121; D. Ogden Mills, $35,000,000; Jacob H. Schiff, $34,426,288, and Oliver H. Payne, $32,000,000.

Ryan Estate Next

The estate of the late Thomas Fortune Ryan, not yet appraised, is estimated at $125,000,000, this being second to Mr. Whitney's.

Chief beneficiary of Payne Whitney's fortune was his wife, Helen Hay Whitney, daughter of the late John Hay, secretary of state under President Roosevelt. Mrs. Whitney received $311,282 in personal property, and a residuary share in trust amounting to $63,102,816.

John Hay Whitney, a son, received a residuary share in trust amounting to $31,551,408; while Joan Whitney Payson received $31,551,408 in trust, and her husband, Charles S. Payson, $3,286,605.

Three friends were left $500,000 apiece: Finley Peter Dunne (creator of "Mr. Dooley"), Eugene Hale, Jr., former member of the New York Stock Exchange, and Samuel A. Clark, architect and member of the New York Racing commission. Nearly a million in smaller sums was left to other legatees.

Charitable and educational institutions were given $67,704,063. The largest sums were to New York hospital, $21,691,593; New York Public library, $7,220,531; Cornell university, $3,286,605; Yale university, $3,286,605; Groton school, $1,-314,642; and Nassau hospital, $657,-321.

His Holdings

Chief holdings of the Payne Whitney estate were: Northern Finance corporation, $124,196,097, and Northern Finance 6s, $7,531,-250; Liberty, New York state and New York City bonds, $15,692,806; Vanadium corporation $6,513,600; R. J. Reynolds Tobacco, $5,109,375; Great Northern Paper, $10,242,048; Nash Motors, $3,318,750; Liggett & Myers Tobacco, $1,256,464, and Corn Products Refining, $1,450,000.

The Northern Finance corporation, a holding company, was organized by Mr. Whitney's uncle, the late Oliver H. Payne, long a director of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, who made Mr. Whitney the chief legatee under his will. Chief increase in the value of the estate was due to rise in the holdings of this finance corporation.

Over-Exerted

A few hours prior to Mr. Whitney's death, he had been playing tennis at his country home, in Manhasset, L. I., with Philip Boyer, son of Mrs. Philip Boyer, who was a house guest. After the first sets Mr. Whitney complained of feeling ill and retired to a lounge adjoining the court. In less than half an hour Mr. Whitney died of heart trouble and exhaustion.

Mr. Whitney was born in New York and educated at Yale, but studied law at Harvard. Mr. Whitney entered business soon after his marriage to Miss Helen Hay. By 1924 his paid income tax of $2,041,-951 was exceeded only by that of Henry Ford and John D. Rockefeller.

Mr. Whitney gave many benefactions during his life, millions going to the New York hospital in addition to the large sum left in the will.

Mr. Whitney's most valuable horse was Fleeting Dawn, a filly bought by him for $30,000 at Doncaster, England, in 1926.

Executors and trustees of the estate received approximately $8,000,-000 commissions on principal and income of the estate.

TOWN OF SANTA CLAUS LIKELY TO CHANGE NAME

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 1 (AP)—Wide publicity given the town of Santa Claus, Ind., resulting in the postoffice there being swamped yearly with letters from children to the patron saint of Christmas, has caused government officials to seriously consider changing the name.

John J. Fields, superintendent of mails here, said such a move was planned.

Fields said direct-by-mail advertisers throughout the nation have notified the postoffice department they plan extensive mailings from there this year so the letters and packages will be postmarked "Santa Claus."

A mechanic from the department's division of supplies is on his way from Washington to Santa Claus, Ind., to install two electrically operated machines capable of postmarking 40,000 letters an hour.

Greet's Protege

PETER DEARING

To Peter Dearing, above, falls the task of carrying out the orders of Sir Ben Greet of the Ben Greet Players who will appear in two Shakesperian dramas at the high school auditorium Wednesday afternoon and evening. He is assistant director of the company. He also plays the part of Fabian in "Twelfth Night", the play to be given at the Wednesday matinee. "Julis Caesar" will be the night performance. The plays are being presented under the sponsorship of officials of Texas Tech.

Playing "Theater" Turns To Tragedy

NEW YORK, Dec. 1 (AP)—They were playing "theater."

Clarence Hitchcock took the part of the philander-home-wrecker. His best friend, John Tilker, portrayed the role of the husband who comes home at the end of the second act and finds his wife in the arms of another man.

Just a play, of course, but it was jolly entertainment.

Tilker entered. He saw his make-belief wife in the arms of her make-believe betrayer. He pulled a pistol from his pocket, aimed dramatically—and fired.

It was all in fun.

The bullet in Hitchcock's neck may cause his death.

Tilker is held for felonious assault.

Sir James Barrie recently unveiled a bronze statue of his old friend, Thomas Hardy, at Dorchester, England.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The balloon which took the little pup out through the air kept going up. Said Clowny, "What are we to do? We can't stand 'round and stare. That balloon might burst and then crash down and drop the dog upon the ground. We'll have to find some way to get it down out of the air."

"I have a hunch," brave Coppy cried. "When we walked 'round this town I spied a dandy police department plane. I'll try and borrow that. If I have any luck at all and do not take a sudden fall, I may turn out a hero in a little policeman's hat."

So to the station house they tore and shortly they let out a roar when Coppy was allowed to use the dandy little plane. Said Coppy, "I'll hop right in. A thrilling ride will then begin. I hope that my attempt to save that dog is not in vain."

He took his seat and cried, "All right! Now watch while I sail out of sight." The motor then began to hum. Into the air he sailed. The other Tinies, with a sigh, watched him as he sailed through the sky. "If he succeeds," said Scouty, "a real hero he'll be hailed."

It wasn't long till Coppy found the wee dog floating all around. "My goodness," he said to himself, "the poor dog's mighty scared. I'm tickled that I came up here, 'cause now there's not a thing to fear. When he is rescued he will know how lucky he has fared."

Just then the plane swerved 'round about and almost threw poor Coppy out. He hung on tight, however, while the plane dipped down and up. It seemed a real unfriendly breeze was tossing it around with ease. Thought Coppy, "Gee, it is no cinch to save that little pup."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lubbock County, Greeting

You are hereby commanded to summon O. H. Mundy by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the 99th District Court of Lubbock County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Lubbock, Texas, on the 2nd Monday in January, A. D. 1932, the same being the 11th day of January, A. D., 1932, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 19th day of November, A. D., 1931, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 4908, wherein Henley Cunningham Mundy, is Plaintiff, and O. H. Mundy, is Defendant, and said petition alleging, This being suit for divorce upon the grounds of three (3) year abandonment. That the address of plaintiff's attorney is Max Coleman, Lubbock, Texas. Wherefore Plaintiff prays for judgment dissolving the marriage relations between plaintiff and defendant, etc.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Lubbock, Texas, this the 21st day of November, A. D., 1931.

CHAS. B. METCALFE, Clerk
99th District Court, Lubbock, County.
(Seal)
By OLIVE FLUKE, Deputy.

SHERIFF'S SALE
THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF LUBBOCK.

Whereas, by virtue of an execution, issued out of the 17th District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, on a judgment rendered in said Court on the 8th day of October, A. D., 1931, in favor of Cities Service Oil Company, a corporation, and against J. E. Roberts, No. 91877 on the Docket of said Court, and to me, as Sheriff, directed and delivered, I did, on the 18th day of November, A. D., 1931, at 11 o'clock a. m., levy upon the following described tracts and parcels of land situated in Lubbock County, Texas, and belonging to J. E. Roberts, to-wit:

Lots Number One (1) and Two (2), Block Number Twenty-eight (28), Original Town of Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, on the 5th day of January, A. D., 1932, being the first Tuesday of said month, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. on said day, at the Court House door of Lubbock County, Texas, in the town of Lubbock, I will offer for sale and sell at public auction, for cash, all the right, title and interest of the said J. E. Roberts in and to said property.

Witness my hand, this the 18th day of November, A. D., 1931.

SALARY CUTS FOR FILM STARS SEEN

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 1 (AP)—Indications that the stars of the cenematic firmament will be asked to take less money for their services came to a head Monday when Warner Bros.-First National notified their contract players they would be asked to agree to 20 to 30 per cent salary cuts.

This major studio has on its roster such high-salaried stars as Richard Barthlemess, George Arliss, Dorothy Mackaill, William Powell, Douglas Fairbanks, jr., Bebe Daniels, Edward G. Robinson, Ruth Chatterton, Joe Brown, and Winnie Lightner.

These people, many of whom draw $7,500 a week, and the lesser knows, whose pay checks start at $100 and go up, have been asked, it is reported, to agree to cuts as high as 30 per cent.

All other non-union non-contract employees in the studio received notice that the reduction would be effective this week.

There was some consolation, however, for the Warners-First National employes today. Soon after they had been told of the salary cuts notices were distributed that the studio cane's 60 cent luncheon had been lowered to 50 cents.

BILLY RICE IS BURIED MONDAY

Funeral rites were read for William Garrett Rice, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Rice, 1901 Nineteenth street, at the Methodist Episcopal church Monday afternoon. Burial was in Lubbock cemetery.

The boy died of a fractured skull Sunday night, more than five hours after he had fallen from a makeshift bridge over a small cess-pool near his home. Cause of the death was determined by a post mortem X-ray examination. The boy's parents were unable to explain his death. A playmate told of the fall but said the Rice boy did not seem hurt at the time.

Two sisters and a brother also survive.

Post C.-C. To Hold Membership Confab

POST, Dec. 1—(Special)—The annual membership meeting of the Post Chamber of Commerce will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. in the city hall.

A report of the organization by the secretary, George Samson, will feature the program. Eight new directors are to be chosen as are officers for 1932.

The Netherlands East Indies produce more than 90 per cent of the world's supply of cinchrona bark, from which quinine is derived.

'Love Me, an' You Gotta' Love My Dog."

When Betty Robinson went to the dog show at the Crystal Palace, London, to choose a pet, this was the one she selected. And it must have been love at first sight, because the huge St. Bernard, for whom Betty might have been just a couple of good mouthsful, allowed her to lead him about. When this picture was taken the big fellow was warning the cameraman that the big black box had better not threaten any harm to his newly-adopted mistress.

NOW is the time to save FREEZE-UP WORRIES

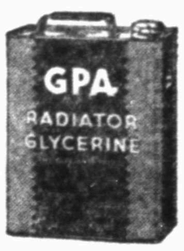

you're safe with radiator GLYCERINE

Volatile anti-freezes evaporate, and when too much evaporates it's just too bad. The trouble is that you never know when you're safe.

G. P. A. Radiator Glycerine does not evaporate—can't evaporate! One filling lasts all winter. No doubt, no worry—with G. P. A. you know you are safe.

And because the first cost is the last cost, G. P. A. is really more economical than cheaper "fade-away" anti-freezes. G. P. A. is odorless, too. And it won't injure your cooling system or mar the finish on your car.

HOLLY MEANS CHEER TO MANY, BUT IT MEANS FOOD, CLOTHING FOR FARMERS

GEORGETOWN, Del., Dec. 1 (AP)—The green-leaved, red-berried holly means yuletide cheer and festivity to the dwellers in the cities. To many farmers of south Delaware who have suffered crop reverses, it means actual food and clothing.

The farmers and their entire families will go into the woods this week to start cutting the holly which grows wild on their carefully protected preserves. The thousands of dollars the crop brings will be clear profit.

The holly is found only along a 500-mile stretch of the Atlantic seacoast from Delaware to the Carolinas and only for a distance of about 50 miles inland. When other crops fail, farmers of this region are able to make enough money from holly to tide them over the winter.

Forty years ago the farmers and timber men regarded holly as a nuisance. No steps were taken to preserve it and residents who owned cattle actually destroyed large tracts of it.

But it's different now. Farmers fortunate enough to own growths of holly have protected them with fences and "no trespassing" signs and the state has enacted a law providing a fine and jail sentence for cutting holly without permission of the owner.

William Buell, of Milford, Del., is credited with having started the holly industry. In the early '90s he shipped 3,000 cases to Chicago on consignment and received $1 a case.

Turns Bandit

Suffering from a serious bullet wound, the Rev. Orville C. Rutledge, above, 39-year-old evangelist of Van Wert, O., has been arrested at Fort Wayne, Ind., charged with attempting to rob a filling station. Police who shot the minister in the act of holding up a gasoline station, say he explained the depression had cut down his income from the pulpit and he had to get money some way. The Reverend Rutledge has preached in Van Wert for 15 years.

Mrs. Judd's Trial Is Delayed Again

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 1 (AP)—The trial of Winnie Ruth Judd, admitted slayer of Mrs. Agnes Le Roi and Miss Hedvig Samuelson, originally set for December 15, was continued Monday until January 19.

Herman Lewkowitz, associate defense counsel, told Superior Judge Howard C. Speakman, in whose court the case was assigned, that the defense, now engaged in taking depositions in Ohio and Indiana, "could not possibly be ready before the middle of January."

County Attorney Lloyd J. Andrews informed the court the prosecution would be ready December 15, but he offered no objection when Lewkowitz pleaded for delay.

MELVERN HUNTER ILL

Melvern Hunter of Plainview, who has been very ill for several days at his home, was brought to the Lubbock Sanitarium Monday. He rested very well Monday night but the nature of his illness has not yet been determined, it was stated this morning. Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Sammons, parents of Mrs. Hunter, went to Plainview Saturday and returned to Lubbock yesterday with the Hunters.
