The Bell Curve—The Most Dangerous Book in America?

BOSTON, MASS.—About every twenty years one of these books comes along. This time it has the disarming title of The Bell Curve. But like others before it, the basic argument of The Bell Curve is that blacks are intellectually inferior to whites. And the book is receiving substantial national media coverage and is being quietly pushed by the conservative wing of the Republican party. The authors of the book are the late Harvard University psychologist Richard Herrnstein and conservative social scientist Charles Murray. Murray is an effective promoter of his book because he does not present himself as a rabid racist but as a well-meaning intellectual who discovered something which he has to expose even though it is unpopular. The thesis of the book is based on the assumption that IQ tests adequately measure intelligence. The book shows that blacks consistently score lower on IQ tests than whites and jumps to the conclusion that the reason for the lower scores is genetic or that blacks are just naturally less intelligent than whites. Murray, in effect, argues that there is little that can be done to help blacks and other minorities because they have lower intelligence. There is every indication that the book will become a best seller, at least in part as a result of heavy media exposure. Harvard Medical School psychiatry professor Aivin Poussaint says of the book, "It's hurtful. It puts black people...in a defensive position and gives ammunition to those who would attack them."

Jesse Jackson Attacks The Bell Curve

WASHINGTON, D.C.—National black political leader Jesse Jackson last week issued a scathing attack on the new best-selling book—The Bell Curve. The book by conservative political scientist Charles Murray and the late Richard Herrnstein argues that blacks are mentally inferior to whites and that there is little government programs can do to help them. Despite its controversial thesis, The Bell Curve is receiving widespread media attention and is being supported by the conservative wing of the Republican party. Jackson said of Murray, "the conservative polemicist will pocket a small fortune huckstering a pseudo-intellectual justification for the affluent to feel no responsibility for the wretched." Jackson labeled the book "dishonest pseudo-science" and "racist tripe" comparable to Adolf Hitler's rationale for killing millions of Jews. Jackson predicted that as a result of Republican party support for some of Murray's recommendations, there will be further attacks on the welfare system, affirmative action programs and the voting rights bill.

Clinton Placing Large Number of Blacks on Federal Courts
WASHINGTON, D.C.—A review of President Clinton's judicial nominees shows he is putting a record number of blacks and other minorities on Federal courts. During the first two years of his administration he has made 143 judicial appointments. Of that number 98

It Is Madness In The Criminal Justice System, And The Public Has Been Misled!

by Gerald P. Monks, American Bail Crime Control Research Institute

Imagine the taxpayers paying $500 to get a person out of jail unsupervised on bond to further harm more victims. Did it happen? Was a police officer killed in Louisiana by a criminal white out on a Harris County Pretrial Release Agency bond? Of course, and who will take the responsibility?

Dr. Beth Peavey, daughter of a marvelous all-American family and high school friend of my two attorney sons, was brutally murdered at 2:00 P.M. on May 15th in her car at a service station when she stopped for gas. She was shot four times by a killer who was an allegedly mentally-retarded defendant out of jail on personal bond recommended by the Harris County Pretrial Release Agency. These bonds are unsupervised and have no responsibility at all. These bonds cost the criminal nothing, never pay off, and the taxpayers foot the bill. This is madness and should frighten all of us!

The promoters of this criminal welfare agency once claimed it would help the indigent, reduce jails, and reduce the use of court-appointed attorneys by eliminating the fee the defendants had to pay for private bonds. Yet these free bonds cost the taxpayers approximately $500 each.

Empirical research now conclusively proves that the Harris County Pretrial Release Agency does not reduce the jail population. In fact, they may increase the jail population. The judges who overuse this criminal welfare release agency have the most defendants in jail pretrial. The judges who overuse the Harris County Pretrial Release Agency also have the most court-appointed-attorney fees—much to the detriment of private attorneys.

Research proves that private bail agents have a much better appearance rate and 75% fewer people on private bonds commit additional crimes. Research shows this county criminal welfare agency actually benefits the more affluent criminals and only by accident helps the indigents.

Why? When Big Brother gets someone out of jail the defendants just high-five one another and laugh how they fooled the judge and the Agency. Defendants don't have to listen to Mother, Dad, or anyone else because Big Brother will take care of them. They say, "Go to hell, Dad. I don't have to listen to you. The county is taking care of me." The county in effect is eliminating the opportunity for family rehabilitation that is so critical to true crime control.

No one in the world has researched bail and pretrial release as much as I have. I have railed for nearly ten years to the Harris County Commissioners Courts and Judges that this criminal welfare agency is promoting crime and it is detrimental to victims and taxpayers. I am guilty of being too timid because of the possible retaliation against me by some politicians and judges.

Now this madness has hit me personally. I realize this tragedy of my friends, a great all-American family, and this wonderful girl might have been saved had I been more courageous in demanding the elimination of this terrible county criminal welfare agency. I knew. I tried. I'll do better.

The distinguished professor of Economics from Texas A&M and senior scholar to the Joint Economic Committee of Congress, Dr. Morgan Reynolds, in his paper, published April 8, 1994, entitled "Using the Private Sector to Deter Crime," specifically recommended the elimination of Pretrial Release Agencies. He is right.

Senior Scholar Pat McGuigan (Judicial Specialist) of the prestigious Free Congress Research Foundation in his scholarly article, "Rethinking Bail," recommended that the Pretrial Release Agencies be eliminated.

Gary Barrett, Criminal Justice coordinator for the American Legislative Exchange Council in the 1993 Source book sent out to all state legislators in the United States recommended that the Pretrial Release Agencies be eliminated. It is important to remember an indigent is anyone who is not a criminal indigent. The Criminal Indigent is a criminal who has lied, murdered, raped, mistreated, harmed, his mother, father, sister, brother, other relatives, friends, employers, fellow employees to the extent that they do not trust him enough to pay and guarantee his bond. They believe he should stay in jail. This is the best natural protection the public has against further crime.

The real proof is that in a small community where everyone knows everyone and is aware of everything that is going on, this criminal welfare agency does not and cannot exist. The politicians who would dare put it in place would immediately be eliminated then tarred and feathered. William the Good of the Netherlands was called "the Good" because he executed over-zealous tax collectors. I wonder if he would do the same thing to elected officials who misuse our tax dollars by allowing such a pro-crime taxpayer-paid agency to exist.

The bottom line is that elected officials and judges who promote this criminal welfare agency must either change or be eliminated. In the same manner we have eliminated communism. Responsible pretrial release is our first line of defense against crime. We have failed to recognize this truth. Only fully responsible private sector bonds are capable of handling pre-trial release bonds effectively. Private bonds should be encouraged using innovative techniques. It is bad public policy to make it convenient for people to break the law.

Gray, Glynn & Jones Sentenced To Prison Terms In Drug Cases

Rita Gray

Corey Lerone Jones

Tony Glynn

Three persons were sentenced in last week to serve time in federal prison for their participating in drugs in Lubbock.

Rita Gray, 38, was sentenced to five years in federal prison in connection with a 1993 airline flight that she made to California to purchase crack cocaine for distribution in Lubbock.

According to authorities, she pleaded guilty August 18 to interstate travel in aid of racketeering enterprises.

She admitted that she traveled to California on March 14, 1993, with two men. She took $3,509 in cash and they brought 170.10 grams—about six ounces—of crack cocaine, according to the federal document.

Court records revealed she returned to Lubbock on March 18, 1993.

Tony Glynn was given a 15 year sentence, and Corey Lerone Jones was assessed a six years and six months sentence.

Glynn, 35, was sentenced for a 1992 offense of distribution of five grams or more of crack. Jones, 24, was sentenced for possession of five grams or more of crack in 1993.

Ruby Jay's Corner

The New Hope Baptist Church, located at 2002 Birch Avenue, is the "Church Where The People Really Care, and Rev. Billy R. Moton is the proud pastor."

Services were great last Sunday.

beginning with Sunday School through the morning worship hour.

Sunday School began at 9:30 a. m. with Sister Sandra Henry, teacher of the Primary Class, presiding. Supt. Thelma Brown was absent.

Services began with the singing of a song and prayer. A song, and the classes marched to various classes for the study of the lesson of the week. After 30 minutes, the classes reassembled. High points of the lesson were very good. They were given by Brother Henry High and Brother E. Swain. There were two visitors in Sunday School.

The secretary's report revealed that the Youth Department had as the Attendance Banner going to the Juniors and Intermediate who had a tie. The Offering Banner was presented to the Intermediate Class.

Adult Class No. 1 retained the Attendance Banner and Adult Class No. 4 received the Offering Banner.

The devotional period was held at 10:45 a. m. with Brother E. Swain and Brother R. J. Givens in charge.

The 11:00 a. m. worship hour began with the procession of the Male Chorus who marched in singing "God Is Already Here." Sister Jackson was organist. Altar prayer was given by Brother R. J. Givens. A song, "Happy Day," was sung. Scripture was read by Sister Winnie Jackson, 146th Psalms. Prayer was given by Sister Cooper. Another song,

"Jesus, I'll Let Nothing Separate Me For The Lord," was sung.

The responsive reading was led by Sister Ida Johnson, with the congregation standing. The morning hymn was "Love Lifted Me." Pastoral observation words from Pastor Moton were read by Brother Givens. As usual when Pastor Moton is absent, there is always communication, via letter, from him. His mother was funeralized in Alabama on last Saturday. Our prayer and sympathy go out to his entire family. Pray for them to have a safe trip home this week.

Another song, "Life Is Like A Mountain Railroad," was sung by the Male chorus. They really sung out of their souls on last Sunday morning.

Rev. B. Johnson preached out of his soul last Sunday morning. The Lord was with him. His scripture was St. Luke 8:22-24. His subject was "Riding Through The Storm." Rev. Johnson carried us through. Thank God for Rev. Johnson. Also, a thank you to Sister Jackson for filling in for Brother Garnett Lee on the organ. God always has somebody.

Mrs. S. R. Roberts wants to say "thank you" Brother Hood for your visit last week. It was so sweet as you made her day.

Sister Florenza Stokley lost an uncle in Houston, Texas last week. She attended the services. You have our prayers and sympathy.

Word comes last week that Rev. S. M. Wright passed away in Dallas, Texas. He was one of God's warriors, and he is gone home.

Keep praying for our shut-ins. Remember Sister Winnie Knighton and Sister Precious Brown with our prayers.

The public is cordially invited to attend the "Mission In White" fellowship dinner which is set for Friday night, November 11th, at 7:00 p. m. at the KoKo Palace. Cost is $7.00 per ticket. have been white, 31 black and 12 Hispanic. In addition, 44 of the new appointments are female. Clinton has been praised for the diversity of his appointments but ideologically he has maintained a middle of the road stance and has thus done little thus far to reduce the large number of conservative judges appointed during the Reagan and Bush administrations.

Youngest Son to Head Martin Luther King Center
ATLANTA, GA.—The youngest son of slain civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. has been selected to head the nonviolent social change center named for his father. Dexter King, 33, takes over from his mother who has been heading the center since 1968. The decision was somewhat of a surprise because five years ago Dexter King resigned as president of the center following conflicts with his mother and older members of the center's board of directors. Mrs. King told a news conference in Atlanta that the differences had been fully resolved. The center promotes King's memory and ways to bring about non-violent social change.

Hispanics Outnumber Blacks in Four Major Cities
LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Hispanics now outnumber blacks in four of the nation's ten largest cities and appear on the verge of overtaking blacks in the nation's largest city New York. These are two of the major conclusions of a recently released Census Bureau report on the growth of America's Spanish-speaking population. The reasons for the rise in population appears to be that Hispanics are having children at a faster rate than any other ethnic group and increasing numbers of middle income blacks are leaving the cities for the suburbs. The four major cities where there are now more Hispanics than blacks are Los Angeles, Houston, Phoenix and San Antonio. According to the 1990 Census, there were 29.9 million blacks in America—a 13 per cent increase from 1980. Meanwhile, there were 22.3 million Hispanics—a 53 per cent increase since 1980.

Black Wealth Seminar Set for December
WASHINGTON, D.C.—A day-long workshop designed to show blacks how to form wealth building clubs has been set for December 2 in Washington, D.C. The seminar is the brainchild of the black economic empowerment group known as the Better Life Club. Wealth building clubs are designed to enable small groups of blacks to pool resources and talents to buy businesses, real estate and engage in other wealth building activities. Interested persons can call 1-800-748-1821 for registration and additional information.

Pentecostals Move Toward Racial Unity
MEMPHIS, TENN.—The Pentecostal church split along racial lines about 70 years ago. But last week black and white Pentecostal groups met in Memphis and agreed to form a nationwide association. They said the effort was designed to end racial division. The new executive committee will be composed of six blacks and six whites. The Pentecostal movement started in 1906 with emphasis on "talking in tongues" and tangible manifestations of spirit. At first all racial groups were invited but by the 1920's the movement had been divided along racial lines.

WHAT IS HAPPENING LOCALLY To Complete The Unfinished Work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

AOIP is a networking process for organizations engaged in an overall community-building approach to addressing the root causes of all types of life among Black and similarly-situated minorities. AOIP's overall objective, via this interorganizational coalition, is to begin immediately to transform the discrete communities within Black America, through pride-inspiring "togetherness," into such Shining Cities of Hope that all therein not only will be motivated to want to learn and become productive parts of our then-wonderful communities, but also there will be a greatly lessened desire, or "felt need," to abandon support for Black-led organizations that opened economic and other doors. Black-owned businesses and professional entities, Black churches, etc. by inordinately integrating and/or invading the communities and social and other institutions developed by (and for) other ethnic groups. AOIP has a redemptive mission of completing the "unfinished work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr." The information listed below about your organization should (as best possible) be focused on what your group is doing to help complete that "unfinished work."

This is a public service courtesy of the Southwest Digest. We will list your meeting date, time and place; special activities, annual meetings, etc. Anything else will be considered advertisement and will be charged as such. NOW THAT IT IS OVER

by Eddie P. Richardson

The election has come and gone. Hope your candidates won, but if you voted your conscience is clear. If you did not vote you have no reason to complain.

But now that it is over, it is time for all of us to come together for the good of all of us in America, Texas and Lubbock, roll up our sleeves and go to work for the good of all of us in a positive manner. The election is too early and soon behind us to really evaluate the results and try to figure where we are going and how we are going to get there.

Remember we have to work with the winners for the next 2, 4 and 6 years, so we have to make the best of it, no matter who or what. More next week as we digest the results.

IN CINQUE

by Renetta W. Howard

We often talk about the "good ole days," when we refer to times past that we consider to have been wholesome in our lives. One songwriter, Tyrone Davis, even wrote a song about "Turn Back the Hands of Time." Yet on the other hand, we often speak of "progress." Can we make progress if we turn back the hands of time to the good ole days?

Our progress OR lack of it is evident in a great cultural lag. Our society has peaked in the use of hands-on technology, especially the electronic kind, and yet we have more trouble getting along with each other than ever before.

It is rare these days to find a person who cannot drive some type of motor vehicle. Just about everyone who can see above or through a steering wheel drives a car. Drive in any way that annoys another driver, whether you are right or wrong, and listen to the obscenities that they yell at you or the vulgar gestures made to you and thank the Lord they did not shoot at you.

It seems that everyone who can talk has a telephone or a beeper. It is difficult to imagine that so many people have business which cannot wait for them to get to the office or home where they can have a private conversation. The rings and beeps in public can be annoying and especially hazardous to people driving cars. It is time for us to get "in cinque" and prioritize our values so we can look back one day and call these times "the good ole days."

CHURCH DIRECTORY

from the Desk Of Parson D.A. Smith

"The cup which my father hath given me, shall I not drink it?" John 18:11.

James L. Kelso, a Professor of Old Testament History and Biblical Archaeology, says the 'cup' was widely used in Bible times in figurative language. The cup was symbolic of the kind of life experience which God the Host pours out for his world. For the saints there was the cup of the blessing of God (Ps. 23:5). For the wicked there was the wine cup of the wrath of God (Ps. 11:6). The cup also represents drunkenness and other illicit pleasures (Prov. 23:31; Jer. 51:17).

In Jeremiah 16:7, we read of a cup of consolation, taken from the Jewish custom of sending it to those in mourning or condemned prisoners (Amos 2:8). There was the cup of salvation (Ps. 116:13) or of deliverance that was used solemnly in the temple by the priests or privately in the family. In Psalm 9:6; 75:8 and Jeremiah 25:15, we read of the cup of tribulation. It was to this cup that our Lord referred in John 18:11.

Christ Jesus took a well-understood figure and applies it to Himself and His word are invested with deep and tender meaning by the fact that only several hours earlier He had given a cup to His disciples, and in the drinking they should commemorate for ever His dying love.

With the Upper Room experience fresh on the disciples' minds, they were able to grasp the import of His words. They now understood why He did not want any physical violence during the hour of His betrayal and arrest. They perhaps also understood why He would not accept the defense of the sword or Peter because of the fact that He recognized deep-seated hatred of men as a part of His inevitable destiny which He had joyfully accepted when He took on Himself the burden of the world's sin and the task of the world's redemption.

If Jesus would have faltered at this point or received human aid in the inevitable last struggle, this would have been a denial of His Father and a violation of filial love. So in that dark hour Jesus did not accept the will of His enemies, but the will of His Father.

All of us have our cup. Shall we not drink it? God puts a bitter cup into our hand, we must not refuse it; for we have the example of Christ. It is profitable for God's people to endure willingly whatever God lays on them. He never puts more on anyone than they can bear.

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast

The Outreach Prayer Breakfast met in the home of Delbert and Dorothy Hood the first Saturday of this month. Because of guests we will have a business meeting Friday the 10th of November at 6 p.m. at 2132 E. 30th. Please come.

On Saturday the Devotion was by Sister Christine Burleson and the scripture was by Sister M. Wolfe. Prayer by Sister Nash. Several testimonies and remarks by several.

The morning scripture lesson was by Sister Ardella Harwick on Luke 22:35.

And he said unto them, when I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye anything? And they said, Nothing. This speaker said, if you have Jesus in your life, he's always enough. They would have trials; that was soon to come. He is the one that will bring them out. There's not a time that we don't have to face something, but he tells us to put on the whole armor of God and we can stand when the going gets rough. We're victorious, we're winners, we're the head and not the tail. We can do all things through Christ. No weapon formed against you will prosper. Speak the word at all times. Speak faith. We all are overcomers. Christ has already paid the price on the cross. We don't have to take what the enemy's dishing out. Everything he's taken from us, let's take it back in the name of Jesus.

Thank you, Sister Harwick, for a lesson that gave us strength at the right time. We love you and God does too.

Breakfast was served nice and hot. "Come," God uses ordinary people sometimes. We eat spiritually and physically; you're welcome to both.

Thoughts:

Put others before yourself and you can become a leader among men. Matt. 20:25-27.

Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death. Heb. 10:39.

Never pass up a chance to keep your mouth shut. Prov. 17:28.

It isn't hard to make a mountain out of a molehill. Just add a little dirt. Prov. 17:14.

To all those sick in your body, it's God's will that you be well. II Chronicles 7:14-Mark 11:22-26 is what you need to do according to the word. Do it, please do it.

Keep smiling and lifting your sisters and brothers up while loving them. It helps your body to heal. Hate releases a venom that will destroy you and everything around you.

We want to thank our guests for coming Saturday: Sister Lela Gilmore, Maryon Wolfe, J. Hopkins. You're so special to us. Come again. If you feel the need, please write us. Outreach Prayer Breakfast.

We Thank God for Jesus The Church Like Samson; Weak

Part I

Genesis 2:16, 17, THE LORD GOD commanded the man, saying, of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou shalt surely die.

We know man is disobedience; every since the beginning of mankind, Adam knew the will of GOD; for GOD put his words into his mind.

But man wants to do his own thing, and do it his own way, And its happening in some CHURCHES, IN THE LAST AND EVIL DAYS.

Isaiah 58:1a THE LORD SAID, Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression.

Even from the beginning: Samson knew what he was sent out to TO DO. But he and some CHURCHES, are not ABOUT THE LORD'S BUSINESS, LIKE IT'S SUPPOSED TO.

Judges 13:5c; 14:2, And he (Samson) shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines. And he (Samson) came up, and told his father and mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me to wife.

(Samson knew HIS JOB; KILL THE ENEMY, not to go WHORING around with them, THE CHURCH IS SUPPOSED TO BE A PLACE FOR PRAYER, PRAISE, AND WORSHIP. And not A SOCIAL CLUB, OR DATING PLACE, NOR A MONEY FUND RAISING PLACE. NOR IS SUPPOSED TO BE STYLE SHOW OFF PLACE. NOW ITS BECOMING HYPOCRITES CENTER.)

Exodus 34:14-16, For thou shalt worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a Jealous GOD: Lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a-whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; And thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a-whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a-whoring after their gods.

Instead of going on THE MISSION, TELLING OF WHY JESUS WAS KILLED, SOME CHURCHES ARE WEAK; THEY'RE OUT TO GIVE THE PEOPLE A THRILL.

JOHN 12:31, 32, Jesus said, Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

Many CHURCHES ARE LIFTING, BUT IT'S NOT GOD'S HOLY NAME, THEY'RE LIFTING; THE MONEY FROM THE PEOPLE, SHAME, SHAME, SHAME. (A GAME!)

Judge 14:12, And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty change of garments.

Many PREACHERS will get up and say: I am GIVING $100, UP FRONT HE GIVES, BUT HE JUST PRIMED THE PUMP; IN THE BACK ROOM, HE RETRIEVES HIS.

Mark 11:17, JESUS SAID, It is written, My house shall be called of all nations THE HOUSE OF PRAYER; but ye have made it A DEN OF THIEVES.

Then there's THE PREACHER: WHO PUT PEOPLE IN, $20, $50, $100, PRAYER LINES, THEN SAY: GOD WANTS THEM TO GIVE EVEN THEIR RENT MONEY; BUT HE'S LYING.

Acts 5:3a, 5, Peter said, An-a-ni-as, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to THE HOLY GHOST, And An-a-ni-as hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost (DIED); and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

(THE PREACHER that give $100.00, this is to BRAINWASH THE PEOPLE, whosoever was going to give $20, will up it to $25, from $10 up to $15, and THE DOLLAR MAN is to move up to $5. THE GAME SOME CHURCHES PLAY. And THE CONSCIOUS IS WORKED. NOW THE PREACHER: ask you to give YOUR RENT MONEY; WATER AND LIGHT MONEY, THAT'S NOT OF GOD. THAT'S FROM THE DEVIL.)

Revelation 2:7a, JESUS SAID, He that hath an ear, let him hear what the SPIRIT saith unto THE CHURCHES.

Isaiah 56:10, 11, His watchman are blind; they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand, they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter (four quarters equals to A YEAR AND THEN ANNIVERSARY.)

Guest Editorial Bi-Partisan Religious Views

As the debate between the two major political parties in this election year invariably cranks into a shouting match, perhaps it will do us some good to note that Republicans and Democrats are pretty similar in their views concerning that other controversial topic: religion.

During the 1992 presidential election, the Gallup Poll interviewed over 40,000 registered voters of both party affiliations, of representative national cross sections, age 18 and older, asking them questions about theology and religious convictions. Someone has complained that polls are like bikinis: while what they reveal is suggestive, what they conceal is vital. But these revelations do seem to point to something interesting and hopeful, namely that we enjoy more rational consensus on religious matters than certain (loud) quarters would admit.

- Four in ten of both Republicans and Democrats report that they are born-again Christians.
- About equal numbers of Republicans (91%) and Democrats (89%) claim traditional Judeo-Christian beliefs.
- About equal numbers of Republicans (63%) and Democrats (65%) say religion is very important in their lives.
- 79% of Republicans and 71% of Democrats hold membership in a local church.
- Six in ten of both Republicans and Democrats think religion is relevant in seeking answers to modern problems.

Fundamentalist views were not well-represented among either party. As a matter of fact, more Americans of both parties are more concerned about the threat of the Religious Right to our societal well-being (50%), than who are worried about "secular humanism" (36%). This finding led George Gallup, Jr. to comment, "While some campaign strategists seem to operate under assumptions that there are denominational majorities of ultraconservative Protestants and Catholics, surveys in recent years have shown the Religious Right to be few in number."

Perhaps all of this means that the things that unite us in our national life are more than the things that divide us. Listening to the shrill voices of the media opinion shapers—especially those of talk radio—would lead us to believe that the person next door is somehow our philosophical enemy, rather than our neighbor. Get to know that person better...even if she is of a different political party! You have more in common with her than you might think.

AT&T has the answer - AT&T TrueUSASM Savings!

Some calling plans are so complicated. Take MCI's Friends and Family Plans. First, they want a list of people you're close to. People they can call and try to sign up. Then, when you call anybody who's not on that list, you don't get the discount at all. Hey, you may even have to pay up to $36* a year in fees. Doesn't sound so easy, huh? At AT&T, we've got a plan to make it simple - AT&T TrueUSASM Savings. Just spend $25 a month on qualifying AT&T Long Distance and we subtract 20% from your AT&T domestic bill to *anyone, anytime, anywhere in the U.S. No lists. No fees. Nothing but savings.

So, save yourself a lot of confusion. Call AT&T now and save 20% on whomever you please, 24/7, 365! What could be easier!

Call 1 800-TRUE-USA

*$3 per month fee for Friends and Family II and $1 per month for Best Friends.

Available in most areas. Savings off AT&T basic residential rates. Certain conditions and exclusions apply.
