31 Years Ago

Uncle Josh Morrison, B. H. Baker and I. V. Addington have organized a real estate firm. Always room for one more.

W. K. Breeding has let a contract for a home—a seven room residence near the Methodist church.

Mr. Johnson, wife and 10 children and two young men left Sweden on the 6th of June and arrived in Portales on September 2 to become permanent farmers. Fifteen minutes after arriving he had rented a house and was house keeping.

Bishop Key will preach at the Methodist church Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Turner is visiting with friends in Amarillo.

Harve Baker, who is pronounced one of the best cutters and saddle makers in the west, where the best saddles are made, has concluded to reenter business in Vernon, Texas. He has a host of friends here who wish him success. His sons, Tommy and Lee, preceded their parents to Vernon, going on with their grandfather. These little boys are industrious little fellows, being always at work.

A PARTY
Last night a party of young people and others of doubtful age, had a watermelon feast at the homestead of Ida Humphrey. The guests were W. G. Page and Miss Greer, H. A. Dohman and Ida Washam, John Alford and Lena Washam, Lee Carter and Lizzie Turner, Dave Townsend and Dona Culbertson, E. S. Whitelaw and Edith Prall, Elma Baker and Miss Jessop.

Complete Work of Checking and Adjust Compact

The County Allotment Committee of the Roosevelt County Corn-Hog Control association has completed its work of checking and adjusting contracts, which were submitted by the producers. Information contained in these contracts has been posted to listing sheets which have been sent to the state board of review for final adjustment and approval. County totals must come within the limit set by the government officials and, if necessary, a blanket cut or adjustment in corn and hog figures must be made.

After adjustment and approval by the state board of review permanent contracts containing the adjustments will be prepared for final signature by the producer. As soon as this work is completed the contracts are then sent to Washington for final approval and disposition.

President MacKay Returns From Tour

President MacKay of the Eastern New Mexico Junior college has just returned from a tour of the north and central part of the state and of Southern Colorado.

Mr. MacKay states that at all points visited there was a favorable sentiment towards the Junior college and many students were planning to attend either the summer or fall term.

He stated further that he found that there was a question as to Portales being able to take care of all students, but accommodations had been secured for all who wish to attend.

The citizens of Portales have been liberal in opening their homes and no student will be denied comfortable quarters.

College Building and Grounds Being Prepared for Opening June 2

A large crew of men are at work under the public works plan getting the Junior college building and grounds ready for the opening June 2.

The walks and driveways are being caliche, the football field has been sodded to bermuda grass, and 600 Chinese Elms have been set out.

Shelving and counters have been built under this program, and are a credit to the college.

The residence property of the college has been remodeled and will be used as a music studio.

Many registrations are now opening in and on June 2, a full attendance is expected.

Deputy Roy Kincade Captures Stolen Goods; Arrest Five Men

Also Seize 150-Gallon Capacity Copper Still

Monday Deputy Sheriff Roy Kincade discovered a quantity of stolen goods on the Huffman farm three miles east of the CCC camp. The goods consisted of 100 chickens, a barrel of gasoline, a large lot of hard oil, a cream separator, dishes and a quantity of clothing.

A man by the name of Quillin was arrested and placed in the Clovis jail. Later in the day he went back accompanied by revenue officers, and arrested Bill Cagle, Klem Sutton and two Hamilton brothers on a charge of theft.

Further search of the premises revealed a large still hidden in a cellar 14x24 feet, covered with cinder ties and dirt.

Three hundred gallons of mash and a 150-gallon capacity copper still was captured.

Federal charges were filed against all five men, before U. S. Commissioner J. R. Shock.

Tuesday morning Arthur L. Hamlin plead guilty before U. S. Commissioner J. R. Shock. Klem Sutton waived preliminary and their bonds were set at $2,500 each.

Bill Cagle and Walter C. Hamilton plead not guilty and asked for preliminary hearing, which was held at 2 p. m. Tuesday.

At the preliminary hearing Cagle was dismissed, and the three others were bound over to await action of Federal grand jury.

Rev. Lorts To Celebrate Eighth Year as Pastor

Rev. Claude A. Lorts is beginning his eighth year as pastor of the First Christian church Sunday. In honor of the occasion there will be an all day service with basket dinner at noon.

The subject for the service Sunday morning will be Through the Years. In the afternoon there will be a musical program with a sermon by Owen W. Reece, pastor of the Broadway Christian church at Albuquerque.

When Rev. Lorts came to Portales the church building was a small one-room stucco building. During his pastorate here the annex which doubles the seating capacity of the auditorium has been built. A two-story administration building has been completed, fitted with Sunday school rooms and a well-equipped kitchen in the basement.

Rev. and Mrs. Lorts are very much beloved by the people in general, both in town and vicinity.

Jno. W. Ballow to Accept Appointment

John W. Ballow has been authorized by Clovis Production Credit association to accept applications for farmers in Roosevelt county who desire a loan for crop or livestock production purposes.

Since Mr. Ballow has been authorized to write these applications for a charge of but 50 cents, local farmers are saved the necessity of going or writing to the headquarters of the PCA at Clovis, which at present is making these loans available to those with the proper security at 5 per cent interest.

Memorial Day Services to Be Held

The American Legion will hold a Memorial Day service on the court house lawn on May 30.

They will hold a short program, consisting of speaking and a musical program, after which a salute will be fired by the firing squad, followed by taps.

They will then repair to the cemetery, where the graves of the ex-service men will be decorated.

Jack Turner and O. W. Carr are fishing on the Rio de la Casa this week.

DIRECTOR

MRS. CHAS. M. HOWE, who, when the revival opens at the Christian Church, will be in charge of all music.

Employ Russell Kinney, Elida, As Supervisor

The County Allotment Committee of the Roosevelt County Wheat Production Control association has employed Russell Kinney of Elida, as supervisor to visit the farms under wheat contract and to check them for compliance.

Each wheat field is measured and also the acres rented to the government are measured, and a record made as to whether any crops are growing on the rented acres. This check insures full compliance of the contract.

The points of compliance are as follows: Each farmer must have seeded at least 54 per cent of his base acreage and not more than 85 per cent, which means a 15 per cent reduction in acreage. This 15 per cent is the amount rented to the government and is known as the contracted acres, and it must be taken entirely out of production. The regulations say that the contracted acres must not be used in any way which will increase the surplus of any other crop, either directly or indirectly.

Old-Time Resident Returns to County

W. A. Palmer who lived in this county in the early days and moved away has returned to make it his home again.

Mr. Palmer taught school when the three-month term was all that could be afforded in the territory of New Mexico. At the close of each school term, the teacher was expected to have the pupils prepare a program for the entertainment of the community and to give the pupils lessons and training saying speeches and acting parts in dialogues.

This old settler is now living near where he first settled. Methods of transportation have changed considerably and his distance from Portales will be shortened when the time fact is considered.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Hunt left Monday for Canyon, Texas, where they will spend the summer.

PROCLAMATION NOTICE POPPY DAY

TO THE CITIZENS OF PORTALES, NEW MEXICO:

You are hereby notified, that Saturday, May 26, 1934, will be and is hereby proclaimed "Poppy Day." On this above date Poppies made by disabled World War Veterans, will be sold by the American Legion Auxiliary, Carl McDermott Post, No. 31, on the Streets of Portales. The entire proceeds of this sale will be used in aiding disabled ex-service men and their families.

You are further notified that May 30, 1934, will be observed as Memorial Day. All business houses are requested to close their doors from 10:00 to 11:00 o'clock A. M. Memorial Services, arranged by the local American Legion Post and Auxiliary, will be held on the Court House Square, during this hour. After this program the graves of ex-service men will be decorated at the Cemetery.

ADOPTED AND PROCLAIMED by the Mayor of the City of Portales, on this 22nd day of May, A. D., 1934.

R. G. BRYANT,
Mayor, City of Portales.

Approval of Portales Post Office Assured

The following letter from Senator Hatch in regard to a postoffice building for Portales is encouraging and it now only awaits the action of the treasury, post office department and Public Works administration to get this work under way.

The United States senators from New Mexico should be contacted and urged that this matter be given immediate consideration:

Hon. R. G. Bryant,
Portales, New Mexico.

My dear Mr. Bryant:

I have your letter of the 14th inquiring as to the status of the Public Works application for the Portales post office.

I am keeping in close touch with this application and endeavoring to expedite it as much as possible. I am informed that the project has been approved by both the post office and the treasury departments and that it was sent, on April 30, to the Public Works Administration. I am advised that it is now being considered by the interdepartmental committee of that administration, composed of representatives of the Bureau of the Budget, the treasury and post office departments and the Public Works administration. I understand that a report may be made by this committee very shortly. At any rate, I will continue my efforts in behalf of this application and do my best to secure its early approval.

Assuring you that it is a pleasure to be of every possible assistance in this connection, and with kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Carl A. Hatch.

Band Concerts to Begin June 2

The first of the summer concerts by the Portales school band will start on the evening of June 2, on the court house lawn.

This concert is being dedicated to the opening of the Junior college and towards making the incoming students and faculty feel welcome to Portales.

Many of the old band boys will be home by this time and assist in this concert.

Dr. Goddard Talks to Seniors Friday Evening

At the commencement of the seniors of the Portales high school, last Friday evening Dr. H. C. Gosard, president of the New Mexico Normal University, Las Vegas, urged the seniors to study the problems of mankind.

The problems that he discussed were first the continual attempt of man to control his environment, second, the control of individual self, both mentally and physically; and third, the problem of men living together.

Under the third problem he mentioned race hatred, the problem of international relations and the economic conditions.

The speaker was not sure that the trouble with our present economic organization was not maldistribution instead of over production.

He estimated that there are 700,000 seniors of the various high schools of the country and it is required of every one of them to adopt a philosophy of life that will help solve the problems of the modern world.

Fifty-six seniors were presented with diplomas by C. M. Compton, president of the school board. Floyd D. Golden presented the awards, the university medal for the best all round senior went to Collin Hilliard and Della Mae Brown, valedictorian, received the five-dollar bill given by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sledge.

A string ensemble composed of Belle McCall, Sarah Lucille White, Winnifred May, Mildred Carr, Mary Evelyn White, Ruth Carr, Mildred Lyons, and Marie Neer played Melody of love.

The invocation was given by Rev. J. T. Redmon and the benediction by Rev. J. C. Garland. Mrs. Ernest Pogue was pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Smith of Rush Springs, Texas, will be in Portales this week, making arrangements to attend the Junior college. Mrs. Smith is a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Hemphill and she and her husband are both teachers.

Mrs. M. J. Hunnicut came down Monday from Clovis for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Watson.

Saturday's Primary Election Tame; Vote 1,000 Short of Two Years Ago

MUSICIAN

MR. CHAS. M. HOWE, A noted musician, who will appear daily on the program in connection with the revival at the Christian church.

Ralph R. Will Resigns His Post As County Agent

Ralph R. Will has resigned as county agent to accept a position with the extension department of the state agricultural college as state wheat supervisor.

Mr. Will will remain in charge of the county agent's office until his successor is appointed.

Mr. Will came to Roosevelt county as county agent in June, 1921 and has served the farmers of this county for 13 years.

He is recognized as one of the leading county agents of the state and his resignation will be regretted by the county as a whole. In his new capacity he will continue to serve this county as well as the state at large.

Revival Begins Christian Church Sunday, May 27

A revival meeting begins next Sunday, May 27 at the First Christian church in Portales. The meeting will continue for three weeks with services each evening at 7:30, except Saturday. The minister, Mr. Claude A. Lorts, will do the preaching. Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Howe of Oklahoma City will have charge of all the music. Mr. Howe will play a different musical instrument at each service during the first week of the meeting. Also at every service a beautiful painting will be unveiled and an impressive pantomime will be given before the sermon.

This will be the revival that is different. Every one is invited to come and enjoy these meetings.

Miss Carolyn Bradley, who has taught at Tatum for the past several years returned the last of the week to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bradley in Portales. Miss Bradley plans to do some summer school work at the University at Albuquerque.

J. W. Maupin and Frank Shaw returned Wednesday from a business trip to Astec.

All County Officers But One Reelected for Another Term

Saturday's Democratic primary election was rather tame. The vote was light compared with that of two years ago, about 1,000 less votes being cast in the county.

Floyd T. Kennedy received the nomination for representative without opposition. J. H. Bond was reelected for sheriff with a small majority over Geo. Chumbley.

Mrs. Paul E. Morrison, reelected for county clerk, with a lead of about 2 to 1 over her opponent, S. E. Kerr.

Homer Barnett was elected to the office of county treasurer without opposition.

In the race for Tax Assessor, Cass Lyons received a small majority over Geo. Johnston, as was the county school superintendent race, which gave A. C. Woodburn a small margin over W. A. Stephenson.

J. Harve Baker had no opposition for probate judge.

Tom Haislip received the nomination for commissioner, district No. 1; R. L. Allen in district No. 2; and in district No. 3, O. C. Herbert won over Commissioner D. A. Gordon.

E. T. Hensley Jr. was elected to precinct chairman of Precinct No. 1, without opposition.

Cotton Contracts Approved; Sent To Washington

The cotton acreage contracts for Roosevelt county have been approved and adjusted by the county allotment committee and sent to Washington for final approval. Benefit payments under the terms of these contracts are expected within the next few weeks.

Sometime during the coming season all farms under contract will be carefully checked for compliance. It is probable that cotton contracts will be checked in a manner similar to the wheat contracts, whereby inspectors visit each farm and measure the field where the crop is planted, and also measure the land rented to the government and taken out of production. For this reason farmers should be very careful to comply with their contract in every respect, that is, not plant more cotton than they are allowed under the contract, and to leave out of production the full amount rented to the government.

If these provisions are not strictly adhered to on the part of the farmer his contract may be canceled and said payments suspended.

Regional Clearing House Group to Meet in Portales

The Regional Clearing House Group No. 5, bankers of New Mexico will meet in Portales May 30. A luncheon will be served in the Woman's club building at noon after which the business session will be held.

It is estimated that there will be 30 visiting bankers here on that day.

Miss Muriel Galloway who teaches at Clovis has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galloway for the summer.

Portales Business Men Who Contributed to State Park Finance

The following business men of Portales contributed to the fund to purchase the lands for the state park between Portales and Clovis. The preliminary camp is now on the ground with a crew of men erecting necessary buildings for the permanent camp.

A well has been sunk for camp water and also to supply the lake with water.

On the 30th of May, 200 boys will arrive for this camp, when actual work on the park will begin. Dr. E. T. Hensley, W. W. King, First National Bank, Lee Carter, Portales Valley Sweet Potato Growers Association, J. C. Penney company, J. B. Sledge, Wood Garage, United Dry Goods company, Burl

Johnson, Portales Hardware company, M. System, Plains Co-operative, Inc., Elliott-Waldron Abstract company, Portales Motor company, Portales Pump & Supply company, Portales Valley News, Piggy Wiggy, Carr Lumber company, Portales Lumber company, Kemp Lumber company, Gas Company of New Mexico, New Mexico Utilities company, New Mexico Drug company, C & T Service Station, Ed J. Neer, J. H. Bond, L. A. Little, Midwest Dairies, S. M. Finney company, Homer Barnett, Fields & Bonner, Home Furniture company, W. H. Seefeld, J. N. McCall, Waffle (Continued on page five)

This will give church goers of Portales an idea of what to expect in the way of music when the revival begins at the Christian church. Mr. Chas. M. Howe of Oklahoma City, will play a different musical instrument at each service during the first week of the revival. The public is invited.

MARGINAL LANDS

The News is heartily in accord with the Secretary of the Interior in the government buying up marginal lands and turning them back to the federal government use.

These lands will be reclaimed as grazing and forest lands.

In Roosevelt county there are many thousands of acres of this class of lands that are worthless for agriculture and of very little value for grazing and in the past year or so, this has been a bone of contention when it comes to tax assessing.

Those opposed to this move on the part of government claim that the county will suffer from the loss of this land from the tax rolls.

But on the other hand, the owners will be recompensed, for their lands, in cash, or given more productive lands in exchange.

Grazing under government supervision will prevent over grazing of these lands and where practical, the lands will be planted to trees.

In the Black Water Draw, there are thousands of acres suitable for the growth of trees, and if this is brought to the attention of the forest department, which will help control the soil erosion, give employment to many men, and provide windbreaks that will be of great value to the farmers of Roosevelt and Curry counties.

Forests have been proved a means of increasing rainfall and conserving moisture.

It is much better to have these lands under federal than state control, as state politics are too uncertain when it comes to administration of such lands.

In fact the News is opposed to the bill to turn over to the states all public lands.

CRITICS OF PUBLIC WORKS PROGRAMS

Those who are free to criticize the public works programs of the government lose sight of the fact that so much money is going to be spent for this work, and the community that throws a monkey wrench into the machinery will only lose her portion of the improvements and at the same time have to help pay for that which goes to more progressive communities.

The Federal administration has set out to relieve the unemployment situation and is going ahead with this program regardless of local critics.

The News is impressed with the plans of the heads of these works, that they are coming more and more into the plans suggested by the News just before the election of President Roosevelt.

Coast to coast highways will be built, and much local improvements will be done.

It is up to us to outline every project possible and get our share.

THE EASTERN NEW MEXICO JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Junior College, which will open its doors June 2, is not a Portales institution, but one of the state.

It is the duty of every citizen of Portales to do their part so that this college may become an outstanding success, as it means much to the future of Eastern New Mexico.

Talk up the college, write to your friends about it, and help provide living quarters for students and faculty members that are being drawn here for the college work.

This is your college, no matter whether you live in Portales or some other part of the state, and if you help make New Mexico a great educational state, you will be doing something worthwhile for humanity.

The success or failure of the college depends largely upon the attitude of the citizens in the county where the college is located, but guard against considering it a local institution.

ROOSEVELT COUNTY COULD BE TURNED INTO FISHING GROUNDS

With the proper cooperation of the people of Roosevelt county, the State Game commission and the Federal government, there are several lakes in Roosevelt county that could be turned into fishing grounds.

With a little dredging and other work the Portales Springs could be made an ideal lake for this purpose, as it is fed by springs, and could be made a great fishing place.

While Uncle Sam is turning his attention it would be wise for the local Nimrods to bring this to their attention and get in on the public improvements while the getting is good.

SAFETY, NO LAUGHING MATTER

Wars, and rumors of wars, always arouse the public to intense excitement, but peace-time casualty lists are, it seems, scanned hastily and passed over as a matter of course news.

Despite efforts of newspapers continually preaching safety, accidents continue to pile up a staggering total of killed and injured.

Bare facts, and not fancy phrases, are most striking to the mind, so the public can stand to be shocked by the information that six people are killed every day, and one accident happens every 12 minutes on the highways of this state of ours.

Give thought to that, and to the fact that in the last six years there have been 250,000 accidents in which 11,300 people were killed and 226,000 injured, by automobiles.

That is the cost paid in human life. Property damage in the same period of time amounted to over $31,000,000, a staggering sum to be sacrificed because of carelessness.

The state, automobile clubs, safety leagues, insurance companies, and other agencies are doing all in their power to cut down this casualty list, but these organizations, no matter how much they legislate, and no matter how hard they try, cannot accomplish what they would like to without the full cooperation of every hand that is laid to a steering wheel.

Inspection campaigns and the new financial responsibility act are doing a great deal to curb this appalling catastrophe, but unless the individual motorists, and the pedestrian shoulders his share of the responsibility, death and injury will continue to hold sway.

Until we learn to cut down speed and out taking chances, the accident rate will not be lowered, and sooner or later the fellow who laughs this off may pay the penalty personally.

But then, when tragedy strikes home, sympathy is supposed to supersede criticism.

Be cautious, and criticism and casualties will not come your way.—Free Press, Quakertown, Pa.

THE VICIOUS CIRCLE

High tariff rates have destroyed our foreign commerce. The destruction of foreign commerce has resulted in vast, unsalable surpluses. Unsalable manufacturing surpluses have closed factories in part and, in many cases, wholly closed them. Reduced factory outputs and closed factories spell unemployment.

Unemployment, in turn, has greatly reduced our domestic commerce. Severe reduction of domestic commerce has made it impossible for banks to collect what they have loaned. Frozen assets have closed the banks and thereby depositors have lost their deposits.

Unsalable farm surpluses have led to the foreclosure of farm mortgages. The mortgagees who have been forced to take over farms do not know how to operate them at a profit and so, the vicious circle goes on, leaving naught but disaster in its wake.

Any increase in foreign trade always produces, sooner or later, a like increase in domestic trade. Likewise, any decrease in foreign commerce is, sooner or later, always followed up by a corresponding decrease in versal, law of trade. No panic or depression can long endure when international commerce flourishes.

There is another law of trade—high tariffs beget nationalism. Nationalism is the handmaid of communism and dictatorship, and the implacable foe of individual liberty.

Our present dreadful plight compels the government to bond its resources, and its future, to keep down riots and forestall revolution.

But what has brought on our present dreadful plight? There is, there can be, but one answer—the selfish laws of man that are strangling and preventing free trade, which means unhampered commerce, and nothing more.—Farm News, Colorado Springs, Colo.

THE MEANING OF LIFE

By

LEONARD A. BARRETT

What is the driving force which motivates life? Doubtless the answer is as varied as are the temperaments of those who compose our citizenship. Certain fundamental motivating forces, however, are common to the majority of people, such as faith, hope, and love. "The greatest of these is love." This trinity of motives is basic to our Christian civilization.

The motivating force is not so easily understood when other definite experiences are challenged with the question, what is the driving force of life? No one has yet given a satisfactory explanation as to why the criminal pursues his crime. Is it for greed of gold, or to get rich quickly by obtaining what he desires; or is it the daring spirit of adventure? Crime involves risks which only a criminal would be willing to take. He is urged on by an impelling force which must be something else than mere necessity. In the public parks of every large city can be found men and women who to all appearances are the victims of the economic disorder. The motivating force which makes them "choose to live" rather than voluntarily flee to other lands they know not of, is difficult to explain, unless it be the cruel irony of fate.

A stone's throw from the slums of our large cities are the mansions of the wealthy class in which are lavishly displayed all the possible luxuries of life. What is the motivating force which drives one to the accumulation of money beyond the point of possible expenditures, unless it be the thirst for power.

Perhaps the answer of many persons to the meaning of life is the acquisition of power that "they should take who have the power and they should keep who can." Power, like dynamite, may be used for constructive as well as destructive purposes. Power in the hands of love regenerates society, and reduces to a minimum degree the irony of fate. Every person, however, must answer for himself what is the meaning of life? Why go on living?

Congressional Reflections

BY DENNIS CHAVEZ

Congressman From N. M.

Realizing the necessity of protecting the large number of small mine claimant throughout the west who, due to the economic conditions over which they have no control and for which they are in no wise to blame, are in danger of losing their property, Congress has passed and the President has signed S 2313, providing for the suspension of annual assessment on mining claims. Certain provisions were added, however, such as the non-application of the Act in the case of any claimant not entitled to exemption from the payment of a Federal income tax for the taxable year 1933; every claimant of any such mining claim, in order to obtain the benefits of this act, shall file, or cause to be filed, in the office where the location notice or certificate is recorded, on or before 12 o'clock meridian, July 1, 1934, a notice of his desire to hold said mining claim under this Act; and that such suspension of assessment work shall not apply to more than six mining claims held by the same person, nor to more than 12 mining claims held by the same partnership, association, or corporation.

Decoration day, May 30, at 2 p. m. has been the day and hour set for the dedication of the new Gallup post office. The ceremony will be in charge of a committee composed of Mr. Dominic Rolfe, chairman, Mayor H. T. Watson and Mrs. Vincent Jaeger. The program is to be varied and imposing. Mrs. Jennie Kirby of Albuquerque will represent the congressman, who, because of pressing legislative duties, is unable to attend. The ceremonies have been prepared in keeping with the occasion and the following program has been tentatively arranged: Music, invocation, welcome by Mayor or Postmaster, address by Mrs. Jennie Kirby. The Navajo Indian Medicine men, address by the Honorable Charles T. Hanson, benediction.

The spacious south lawn of the White House were veritable "no man's lands" on yesterday when the First Lady entertained some 1,200 ladies at a garden party. The guests were the "key" ladies in the governmental departments and secretaries in the offices of senators and congressmen. Miss Adelma Jacheco of Albuquerque was a representative from my office and Miss Louise Oestreich of Albuquerque was the representative from the office of Senator Hatch. The affair was unique and not only displayed the resourcefulness of Mrs. Roosevelt but established a precedent which will undoubtedly be followed by succeeding President's wives and will be greatly anticipated by feminine workers in the government annually. Mrs. Garner, wife of the vice president; Mrs. Rainey, wife of the speaker of the house, and wives of cabinet members received with Mrs. Roosevelt and accorded warm welcome to the happy guests.

The President has nominated and the senate has confirmed to date the following postmasters in New Mexico: Beatrice C. Melton, Mountainair; Jesse L. Truett, Artesia; Ray S. A. B. Hill stated the first of the week that he would have to wait for further moisture to finish his planting.

Robert Compton, one of the broomcorn farmers of the Floyd community plans to have 200 acres of broomcorn this year.

John Clem whose wheat farm is in the Rogers community states that crops are needing rain in his part of the country. The wheat crop is already cut to 7 to 8 bushels, unless it matures better than is indicated at the present time.

Jack Pipkin and Earl Vigus who live west of Elida were in Portales Tuesday. They estimated the rainfall since the snows less than one inch. The farmers who are going ahead with their planting do not expect to get a stand with this season.

W. O. McCormack of the Rogers community says that the need of rain in that community is dire. However, some of the crops are coming up and looking fine.

PERSONAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Atkinson received a telegram week before last telling of the sudden death at Boise, Idaho, of their brother, Steve Atkinson, who, in the early days lived south of Portales. Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Garne Atkinson left at once to attend the funeral which was held and the body buried at Garfield, Ark. They returned Sunday and report things looking fine in the east.

Mrs. J. B. Priddy and Mrs. Carl Yocum spent Sunday in Boyina with Mrs. Priddy's sister, Mrs. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yocum went to Wayland Tuesday to attend the Alumni banquet celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of Wayland college.

Saturday, Wat Stewart took Mr. and Mrs. Hebe Stewart and Mrs. Stewart's nurse, Mrs. Hyatt to Amarillo, Texas, for a stay with Mrs. Stewart's sister, Mrs. Tollison.

Misses Ora Lee and Vera Walker came over from Las Vegas Friday and their sister, Miss Fay Walker, a teacher in the grade school, returned with them to spend the summer.

Miss Louise Robinson left Saturday for Austin, Texas, for a visit with her mother and sisters. Miss Robinson is a teacher in the Portales high school.

Miss Etta Tucker, of Oklahoma, is visiting in the B. M. Schumpert home.

Harvard Students as Nursemaids

Many students at Harvard university, finding it difficult to make both ends meet, are accepting house work jobs, to enable them to defray expenses. Caring for babies, cooking, sewing and housecleaning are all in line in the jobs sought by more than 1,000 undergrads. In the above photograph Anthony Small (left) and W. B. Berssenberger are two of the students working as nursemaids and are shown at one of their duties, keeping baby amused.

Bankhead Act to Limit Number of Bales '34-'35

The Allotment committee of the Roosevelt County Cotton Production Control association has received some preliminary information concerning the application of the Bankhead Act, the purpose of which is to limit the number of bales of cotton in the crop year 1934-1935.

The purpose of the Act is to place the cotton industry on a sound commercial basis, to prevent unfair competition and practices in putting cotton into the channels of interstate and foreign commerce, and to more effectively balance production and consumption of cotton. It should be borne in mind that the world's supply of American cotton for the 1933-1934 season was 24,774,000 bales, while world consumption of American cotton has never exceeded 15,700,000 bales in any one season. Even though there were no more than 10,000,000 bales of cotton produced in 1934, this added to the carryover of any of the last three seasons would give a supply of 18,000,000 to 33,000,000 bales, which would still leave a surplus. Thus it will be seen that even after effective operation of the Bankhead Act there will be more than ample supplies of American cotton to supply the normal world's trade. The purpose of the Act is merely to discourage the production of a surplus for which there is no market and which in the past has bankrupted the cotton farmers of the South and many others depending upon the cotton industry. The Bankhead Act will not change in any way the position of the contract signer who has voluntarily

Asked to Apply for Bale Tags for "Old" Cotton

All producers who have cotton in their hands produced prior to the 1933-1934 season should apply for bale tags for this cotton. These applications will be in the hands of County Allotment Committees before long. It will be necessary for all cotton to have these bale tags in order to move in commerce but they can be secured easily by the producer by his making application under oath, stating his name and address, the number of bales, and location of such cotton. Those producers who desire to secure exemption certificates for the 1934-1935 cotton crop will have fairly agreed to reduce his 1934 and 1935 cotton acreage for which he is to receive benefit payments. The Bankhead Act is designed to reinforce and make more effective the voluntary acreage reduction program and not to supplant it. The purpose is to discourage the non-cooperator from increasing his acreage, thereby offsetting the reduction made by the cooperator. However, the producers who have not signed acreage reduction contracts may apply for exemption certificates based upon the past production of cotton upon the land which they are farming.

opportunity to make application for the same in the near future. Application is made to the County Cotton Production Control association in each case. An exemption certificate is a certified statement indicating the quantity of cotton a producer may gin or have ginned exempt from the tax. These exemption certificates are issued by the County Allotment Committee to the producers after his statements in his application have been checked for correctness, and after the county and individual allotments have been computed. Each state and each county will receive a certain number of allotted tax-free bales out of the 10,000,000 provided for in the law, and no county or state may exceed its allotment. Therefore, it will be to the interest of all producers for individual allotments to be made up on the basis of facts, because if one producer receives more than is justly due him other producers will receive less. Bale tags will be issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the treasury department upon surrender by the producer of exemption certificates or upon payment of the tax, which is 50 per cent of the market value of the cotton, and not less than 5 cents per pound. Bale tags are not required at the time of ginning but will be required when the cotton is sold or transported without the boundaries of the county in which it was produced, except for storage or the bales opened. The bales of cotton ginned from the 1934-1935 crop will be stamped with the date of ginning and this cotton will be taxed when sold even though it is held for sale until subsequent years.

The allotment of exemption certificates to individual farmers will be made to the county allotment committee after applications from all producers have been received and approved. Producers who have signed voluntary acreage contracts will be allowed amounts of cotton equivalent to the average production per acre shown in their 1934-1935 contract. The intent of the law is to permit as nearly as possible contract signers to gin free of the tax all cotton produced on the acreage permitted in the contract. Producers who did not sign the 1934-1935 cotton contract may also make application for exemption certificates and their allotment will be based upon the past production of the land they are farming. These producers who have not signed voluntary reduction contracts should endeavor at once to get the information as to how much cotton has been produced on the land in question in past years and insofar as possible supporting evidence, such as gin tickets, should be assembled to present to the allotment committee when application is made. Even though the application forms have not yet been received in Roosevelt County, producers desiring to make application should begin at once to get the necessary information and evidence regarding past production, because the application cannot be made out until this is done. The tax will be collected on all cotton not exempt by the Bureau of Internal Revenue of the treasury department, and the allotment of tax-free bales will be made by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration working through County production control association and county allotment committees.

J. Z. Hartzell of Minneapolis, Minn., was in the office Monday and visited for a while. Mr. Hartzell has taken the News for years, as he has property here. Mr. Hartzell owns the irrigated farm across from the Allen Saunders place, the farm with the big brick barn.

Expect Report on Freight Traffic Case Very Soon

The traffic case now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission in which certain citizens of Roosevelt county are endeavoring to secure more favorable freight rates for farm products moving from Roosevelt county railroad points should be heard from before long.

Attorneys for the Roosevelt county shippers and for the Santa Fe railroad filed their briefs in the case on January 30, and since that time the commission has had the case under advisement.

This is the first time a constructive attempt has been made to adjust discriminatory freight rates on the part of Roosevelt county shippers and much interest has been manifested in the case by people of Roosevelt county, especially the farmers. At the hearing held on the case in Clovis last November 27, a large number of Roosevelt county farmers were present and some of them testified in the case.

Following is a list of those who contributed toward the expenses of this suit. Without these contributions the prosecution of this case would have been impossible: R. L. Yochum, $5; John Skinner, $12.50; Stone's Variety Store, $5; Portales Drug Store, $5; Esther Clevering, $5; T. E. Mearns, $5; J. N. McCall, $5; Mrs. Paul Morrison, $5; Homer Barnett, $5; Floyd Kennedy, $5; J. H. Bond, $5; W. W. King, $25; Portales Lumber company, $25; First National bank, $25; Craddock Grain company, $25; J. C. Penney, $25; Ralph R. Will, $25; Priddy Footsies, $25.

Testers, Cream Buyers Will Hold Meeting Here

All cream testers and cream buyers of Roosevelt County have been instructed to meet in Portales at the court house on Thursday, May 24 at 7:30 p. m. for the purpose of receiving instructions in cream grading.

This meeting will be in charge of the State Dairy Commissioner, J. R. Poe. Cream samples representing the different grades of cream will be on hand, and each station operator and tester will be required to grade these samples under Mr. Poe's supervision.

The purpose of this meeting is to show the station operators what their duties will be when the cream grading plan goes into effect on June 1.

Under the terms of the program outlined by creamery managers and the State Dairy Commissioner in Portales May 22, beginning on June 1, all cream must be graded and paid for on grade. There will be 2 cents per pound difference paid to the farmers between first and second grade; third grade cream must not be bought at all.

This program will have the backing of the state dairy law, and will be enforced by the state dairy commissioner. A program is being adopted in Texas beginning June 1, and both programs are in line with the national movement to improve the quality of butter. This is being brought about by the activities of the Federal Food and Drug administration, in carefully inspecting all butter moving into the markets, and confiscating that which is unfit for human consumption.

Miss Lucy Stinnett, who has taught home economics in Fort Sumner high for several years returned Saturday to Portales. She will teach again in Fort Sumner.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROOSEVELT COUNTY

AND TO MY FRIENDS I TAKE THIS METHOD TO EXPRESS MY GRATITUDE

I thank you one and all for the splendid vote you gave me in the primary and your untiring efforts in my behalf. Of course I am disappointed in not getting the nomination, but am not sore at anyone. I enjoyed the campaign, and intend to campaign the rest of my life, though I will probably never run for office again.

Yours truly,
GEO. E. JOHNSTON

NO FOURTH OF JULY PROGRAM WILL BE HELD

Wednesday the entertainment committee met in regard to the holding of a July Fourth celebration.

The committee after canvassing the business interests decided to concentrate all efforts on the fair this fall and not put on a Fourth of July celebration.

It was thought that the fair is of greater importance, to the county as a whole.

Hold Meeting of Managers of Creameries Here

A committee of creamery managers who operate in New Mexico was held at Portales on Tuesday, May 22. The meeting which was held at the office of the County Agent was presided over by J. R. Poe, state dairy commissioner, the purpose being to outline a plan or code for the purchase of cream on grade. This committee was appointed at a general meeting of the creamery heads, station operators, and producers held at Clovis Monday, May 21.

At the Clovis meeting the following firms were represented: Midwest Dairies, Inc., Portales and El Paso; Plains Cooperative, Inc.,

Portales and Plainview; Lubbock Poultry and Egg company, Lubbock; Swift & Company, Lubbock and Denver; Farmers Creamery association, Hereford, Texas; Raton Creamery company, Clovis; Trinidad Creamery company, Trinidad, Colo.; Meridian Creamery company, Hutchinson and Liberal, Kansas; Albuquerque Cooperative Dairy association; Clardy's Creamery, Roswell; Farmers Marketing association, Clovis. There were also quite a number of Roosevelt and Curry counties cream station operators and dairy farmers present. All of the above concerns manufacture butter from New Mexico butter fat.

Creamery men are endeavoring to adopt a uniform plan for grading cream and for paying for it on a grade basis. The committee meeting at Portales on May 22 adopted such a plan which will be referred back to those concerned, and when it is approved by the creameries, the provisions of the plan will be incorporated in the regulations of the State Dairy commissioner. These regulations will then have the same weight as law and will be enforced as such under the State Dairy law.

The reason for this activity on the part of creameries and producers, and cream station men is that the Federal Food and Drug Administration is about to begin a campaign of rigid inspection of all butter moving on the markets of the country, condemning and confiscating low grade butter that is not fit for human consumption. The Food and Drug Administration is also preparing to inspect creameries and cream buying stations and to condemn and destroy cream unfit for human consumption wherever found, and to pad lock creameries and cream buying stations that do not comply with certain sanitary requirements.

The purpose of the Food and Drug Administration in carrying out this drastic campaign is to take low grade butter off the market in order to protect consumers from an unwholesome and filthy product. This program will also be of immense benefit to the producers in that it will relieve the surplus problem to some extent, will result in a better product being placed before the consumer, and will result in better prices for the producer who does produce good cream. At the present time these farmers who produce good cream do not receive any more for their product than those who produce low quality cream. Under the present system all kinds of cream are mixed together at the cream stations and at the creameries before churning, and when churned the butter is of such low quality that it cannot command a good price on the market. The consuming public does not eat as much of low quality butter as it will of highly quality butter. Many people have turned to butter substitutes because they are unable to secure good creamery butter.

For the reasons above stated, this program of confiscating and taking off the market low quality butter and cream will surely aid the dairy industry. It will improve the market for the farmers who produce good cream, and as for the farmers who produce poor cream, he will either have to change his methods to improve his quality or be forced out of the business. Under the plan that is now being drawn up the producers of poor cream will no longer be permitted to sell his unwholesome product and to ruin the market for his neighbor who produces good cream.

At the Portales meeting the following committee members and others were present who assisted in drawing up the plan for New Mexico: J. R. Poe, State Dairy Commissioner, Roy Davis, manager Plains Cooperative, Inc., Portales and Plainview, C. F. Clardy of Clardy's Dairy, Roswell, New Mexico; Ben Franklin, manager Raton Creamery, Clovis; J. P. Jacobson, Albuquerque Dairy Association, Albuquerque; Ralph Doughtie, manager, Swift & Company, Creamery, Lubbock; W. T. Hinerman, manager, Midwest Dairies, Portales; S. B. Walker, manager, Farmers Creamery association, Hereford, Texas; A. H. Brooks, Lubbock Poultry and Egg company; J. B. Caruthers, Plains Cooperative, Inc., Portales; Ralph R. Will, county extension agent, and B. A. Young, agricultural instructor, Portales. Advising with this committee was Kenneth M. Renner, Professor of Dairy Manufacture, Lubbock Tech, Lubbock, Texas.

It is probable that second grade cream will be bought at 2 cents under first grade cream and that third grade cream will not be bought at all but will be turned back to the producers. Any cream buyer if found guilty of buying third grade cream or paying first grade class for second grade cream, will be prosecuted by the State Dairy Commissioner under the State Dairy law. It must be borne in mind that this action on the part of the state authorities and the creamery men is necessary in order to comply with federal regulations. In the future New Mexico must keep its butter to a certain standard in order to sell it at all in interstate shipments, and to do this it is necessary to establish and maintain certain standards for the purchase of all cream.

Rev. Lorts preached the eighth grade commencement sermon at Elida Thursday afternoon at Elida. On Thursday evening he preached the commencement sermon at Richland.

TO THE VOTERS OF PORTALES AND ROOSEVELT COUNTY

I want to thank the people of Portales and of Roosevelt county for the support you gave me on May 19. I regret very much that on account of illness I was unable to meet you personally.

Even though I was not elected, I feel very grateful for the support I received considering the fact that I was unable to be out for several weeks.

Again I say to each and every one—I THANK YOU.

J. J. PHILLIPS

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank the voters of Roosevelt County for their splendid support in the primary election, and will endeavor to merit their confidence by serving the entire county as commissioner, in a fair and impartial way.

O. C. HERBERT.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROOSEVELT COUNTY

I take this method of thanking each and every one for your loyal support and vote of confidence and will assure you that I will cooperate with everyone and try to show my appreciation by my works.

Respectfully,

CASS LOYNE.

F. H. and U. C. Cast Heavy Vote

Those who had not taken into consideration the Farm Holiday and the Unemployed Council vote received a surprise Saturday by the heavy vote of these two organizations, which came near upsetting the political apple cart.

These organizations were determined to control the county election and had been laying their plans for several months.

Saturday's election showed that they were well organized.

Photograph Business

As every one knows, our line of making a living has been a slow go for the past several years, as people can do without photographs in times like we have been living. We have had to hold on though, as it was all we have to exist on. We lost what few dollars we had in a home three years ago. I have put on my overalls and went to the fields and worked for the past ten years trying to help my mate get a start in life. Now my health is broken, and I can work no more.

We have always tried to live an honest, upright life. Have no enemies as we know of, but have failed in some way it seems. Friends, we wish you well and highly appreciate the votes you gave us. Folks, we will appreciate your photo work in the future as we still intend making Portales our home.

APPRECIATION
We, even at this seemingly delayed date, fall to find words to express our heartfelt appreciation for the kindness, sympathy and love shown us in our latest loss and sorrow caused by the passing of our dear husband and darling daddy. We deeply appreciate every word spoken, every deed done and all those beautiful flowers. We want you to know that we love everyone of you, and without you, we could not bear this heavy cross. May God bless each of you, and us, we pray.

Mrs. J. A. Howard and girls.

• DON'T TAKE TIRE WORRIES ALONG ON YOUR TRIP

Drop them off here before you start out this week-end or next Wednesday

It's a lot safer, more pleasant and cheaper in the end to start out on new tires—particularly since prices are still so low... And because Goodyear makes the most tires—by millions—and so offers the biggest money's worth at every price—it's a lot wiser to choose new Goodyears... Come and see why more people buy Goodyears than any other tire—just name your price and look at the Goodyear it buys!

HERE'S THE NEW SMART Ford Victoria

HERE is the climax of 1934 Ford car design.

From its gracefully-slanted radiator grille to its smoothly-rapier rear, this new VICTORIA says S-T-Y-L-E in every air-streamed line. Its extra smartness of line, and brilliant enamel finish, will let you park it proudly, beside cars costing five times as much—but this car's beauty is not just skin deep.

Consider, for instance, the proved dependability and championship performance of the Ford V-type, 8 cylinder engine:

—Consider its economy. Although the Ford V-8 will outperform most high-priced cars, it is the most economical automobile that Ford has ever built.

—Consider too, the safety and strength of a one-piece, welded steel body and safety glass throughout.

These features do not show in the lines of the beautiful new Victoria, but they show quickly enough from the driver's seat and in your pocketbook.

GREENWALD-WHEELER

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season was solemnized last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Jamie Greenwaldt became the bride of Ernest Wheeler Jr. The Rev. C. K. Campbell of Clovis reading the impressive ring ceremony.

The setting for this happy event was the new home which has just been completed and is now ready for occupancy.

The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers of pink and white carnations. The arch which connects the living and dining rooms was a bower of ferns and beneath this arch the vows which united these two young people were taken.

Proceeding the bride party, Mrs. A. W. Freeman sang "I Love You Truly" and then played Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" as the party entered. Rev. Campbell took his stand under the arch and was followed by Dr. Howard McDonald, L. K. Payne, and the groom.

From the dining room door the bride's maids, Miss Mary Alice Greenwaldt and Miss Ruth Wheeler entered followed by the bride.

The bride wore a charming suit of white with accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds tied with white tulle. The bride's maids were in pink with the bouquet of pink rose buds and pink tulle. The gentlemen were dressed in the conventional dark suits with boutonnieres of carnations. The groom's mother wore a corsage of white and Mrs. Freeman one of pink.

Mrs. Wheeler is a Texas Woman's college graduate and has taught in the Portales high school for three years. She has won the love and respect of all who know her, and by fine Christian character has made herself a power in the town and the church.

The groom grew to manhood here. He was a Portales high school graduate in 1924 and attended Clarendon college. At this time he is a prosperous business man and no couple could be followed by more good wishes than Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wheeler.

After the wedding trip to De Leon, Ft. Worth, Dallas, Missouri and Kansas, they will be at home in Portales.

The guests were close friends of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDonald and Harold, Dr. and Mrs. Howard McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Gragg, Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Disney, Mrs. J. W. McMinn, Miss Beola McMinn, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harve Baker, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Freeman.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Ross, Rogers; Mr. and Mrs. Ross, Gorman, Texas; and Miss Mary Alice Greenwaldt, sister of the bride.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Portales Woman's club met today for the last meeting of the present year. The Junior club was invited for the noon hour and a very savory luncheon was served at that time, the social committee being in charge. We were very glad to welcome Mrs. Donald MacKay, Mrs. Lula McKinney, Miss Lucy Stinnett and Miss Mary A. Johnson as guests.

Proceeding the business session we were favored with a delightful violin and cello duet by the Carr sisters, accompanied by Mrs. Freeman. Mrs. Wollard as chairman of the membership committee introduced the new members, Mrs. Lucy Carroll and Mrs. T. T. McCasland.

Mrs. Greaves, as retiring president, reviewed the work of the club during her presidency, namely the Red Cross drive, the City Park project and the work of the cemetery committee as the outstanding accomplishments of the year. Mrs. Greaves has worked faithfully and untiringly for the best interests of the club. At the close of the business meeting the secretary escorted the officers for the ensuing year to places of honor, surrounding the new president, Mrs. R. A. Young. At this time Mrs. T. T. McCasland accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Pogue sang "A Perfect Year," a beautiful tribute to Mrs. Greaves.

Concluding the installation of officers and another short business meeting, the club was favored with a piano solo by Miss Johnson.

Immediately after adjournment the board of managers went into a meeting to select committees for the coming year.

OFFER PLAN FOR PAYING BACK TAXES

Taxpayers who have found it impossible to pay the heavy taxes of recent years, together with the large accumulation of interest and penalties, have been given an opportunity, under laws passed by the Eleventh Legislature at its special session last month, to make provision for installment payments.

It is important to note the fact that all of 1933 taxes must be paid before June 15, 1934, before the taxpayer can take advantage of the privilege afforded him to pay his 1932 and prior taxes without interest or at reduced interest rates.

Taxes of the year 1933 may be paid before June 15, 1934, without interest. If the 1933 taxes are not paid before June 15, 1934, such taxes will carry an interest rate of 1 per cent on the first half from December 1, 1933, and 1 per cent on the second half due May 1, 1934 plus an additional amount which will be added on October 1, 1934, if any 1933 taxes are unpaid on that date.

If the 1933 taxes are fully paid before June 15, 1934, and not otherwise, all taxes for 1932 and prior years may be paid before October 1, 1934, without interest.

An alternative to this procedure is provided for in the law to the effect that if the 1933 taxes are fully paid by June 15, 1934, the taxpayer owing taxes for 1932 and prior years may pay one-fourth of such delinquent taxes before Oct. 1, 1934, without interest, and the remainder in three annual installments with interest at 6 per cent, provided the current taxes due for each year are paid. If the current taxes for each year are not paid, that portion of the 1932 and prior taxes remaining unpaid will carry all the former accumulation of interest and penalties, according to the laws existing at the time that the delinquency was incurred.

If the taxpayer desires, therefore, he may provide for the payment of all delinquent taxes as follows:

1. Pay all 1933 taxes without interest before June 15, 1934.

2. Pay one-fourth of 1932 and prior taxes unpaid without interest before October 1, 1934.

3. Pay one-fourth of 1932 and prior taxes unpaid on October 1, 1933 with interest at 6 per cent from date of delinquency.

5. Pay remaining one-fourth of 1932 and prior taxes on October 1, 1937, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent from date of delinquency.

6. Pay each year's taxes as they become due.

Whether or not the taxpayer will want to set up a schedule of payment in accordance with the above suggestions, he can not take advantage of the elimination of interest and penalties on delinquent taxes unless he pays his 1933 taxes in full before June 15, 1934.

OWNERSHIP IS CONVINCING:

A California owner of a 1934 V-8 Ford made this remark in our place this week: "I can't see how any one could think of buying anything else but a V-8 Ford, especially after driving one 8,000 miles."

Few people get to drive 8,000 miles before buying the car—but this owner now knows his dealer told him the truth when he said no few miles driving could possibly show him the real stuff that is in any car.

You cannot buy any car under $2300.00 and secure all the features you get in the 1934 V-8 Ford. The safest car on the road at any price.

MIDWEST DAIRIES, INC.

UNITED'S GREAT 6th BIRTHDAY SALE STARTS THURSDAY MAY 17th A CHALLENGE TO LAST YEAR'S GREATEST SALE more emphatically true today than it ever was

Engineering facts prove it. Experience in building nearly ten million cars confirms it. And the record of over 3,000,000 Chevrolet Six owners removes any shadow of doubt about it. The only way to get real economy in a low-priced car is to insist on SIX cylinders and OVERHEAD valves.

SIX cylinders—no more!—because extra cylinders mean extra cost for gas, oil, upkeep and parts. OVERHEAD valves—nothing else!—for the same good reason that airplanes use them. And speedboats. And racing cars. They get the MOST power out of the LEAST gas. That's why overhead valves are the choice of leaders—and champions.
