Norwood Seniors Give Class Play Friday

The seniors of Samnorwood High School will present their class play, "It Walks at Midnight", on Friday night, May 9 at 8 p.m.

"This action-packed play is an exciting mystery-comedy, filled with moments of chilling terror, along with many laughs" said Miss Judy Barber, class sponsor.

The setting is an isolated country mansion where Andy and Sharon Fuller have come to spend their honeymoon peacefully—they hoped.

Events become increasingly surprising, however, thanks to a wide variety of characters.

Others in the cast are Jocko Wiggins, an ape-boy, played by Doug Darrow; Mrs. Wiggins, a housekeeper, Odessa Stice; Betty, a mystery girl, Regina Glazner;

Community Action

Children's Program Set at Care Center

Seventeen children from the Community Action Center will be "graduated" at a program Friday evening, May 9, at 8:30 p.m., County Judge Zook Thomas has announced. These are the boys and girls who will enter first grade in the public school next September.

Plans are for the program to be given by the approximately 35 children who are enrolled in the Day Care Center. All are from four to six years old.

Mrs. James Masten, director, has announced plans for the program, to which the public is invited. Assisting her are the other Center teachers, Mrs. Henry Sullivan, Mrs. James Sessions, and Mrs. W. E. Franks.

The program will consist of songs and other numbers by the boys and girls.

Also during the evening, women who are attending the sewing class offered by the Community Action Center will model dresses they have made. Approximately 15 will participate.

Mrs. Sullivan, who works with the small children, explained that the center is giving them learning experiences to develop listening and comprehension of numbers, colors, use of scissors, and nature study.

The children listen to stories and music, using play-do creatively. These little boys and girls have not had many of the experiences other children have had that will prepare them for the first grade, and the Day Care Center is trying to make up this lack, it was pointed out.

At the Center, the children learn body coordination, personal cleanliness, and care of their teeth. By work and play, they become familiar with other children and in return they broaden their own experiences.

"This will give the public an opportunity to see the work of the Community Action Center, and especially the work that is being done with the children," Mrs. Masten said.

Boys and girls who will "graduate" are James Sango, Maynard Thomas, Willie Mc-

The orchestra has been picked from That Skyrocket Band and includes 25 of its top musicians, directed by Wayne Tucker.

The story swirls around Penny, a high school girl who wants to be in the movies. Her attempts in this direction are varied and original.

Elaine Karnes plays the title role, and almost equally the center of attraction is her boy friend, Kerry, acted by Sam Dyess. It goes without saying that he does not want a movie star for a sweetheart.

Others in the cast are Penny's mother, Lydia, played by Betsy Trapp; her father, Caleb, Eddie Orr; her brother Mark, Barry Johnson; her sister, Mavis, Debbie Lewis.

Sally, the maid, is played by Mickye Kendrick; then there is Norman Porter, a publicity man, Andy Lowe; Joanne, Penny's best girl friend, Sharon Gaston; Greg, Kerry's friend,

In the ministry eight years, Rev. Crosley has been pastor of the Wellington Church of the Nazarene almost four years. He and his wife, Barbara, came here from Neosho, Mo., and their two younger children were born in Wellintgon.

Two to Five Inch Rains Soak Collingsworth

From two to five inches of slow rain, falling intermittently between Friday, May 2, and Tuesday night, May 6, have put Collingsworth farm and grass land in the best condition in several years, operators in most parts report.

Little hail fell during the time, and there was no damage reported.

Although much of the county's wheat acreage is being grazed this year, the remaining wheat is in excellent condition and prospects are good for high production on that acreage, reports from Dodson, and the areas north of Salt Fork and around Wellington indicate.

Altus, Okla., officers sent word to Police Chief Donald Nunnelley that a funnel had been sighted in a cloud about 50 miles northwest of that town which would place it in Collingsworth County. However, local officers were never able to find anyone here who had seen it.

Rain in the Wellington area measured from two to two and a half inches for the entire period.

There has been little if any runoff so far, but in several areas reports indicated that there would be washing in the fields if much more rain falls.

Neither has much real damage to roads been reported at this time, although there are many spots over the county where water is standing in the roadbed, County Judge Zook Thomas said. Chester White,

Haul Trash May 12

Clean-Up Campaign Opens in Wellington

A town-wide clean-up week which started Monday, May 5 will continue through next week, with the City, the Skyrocket Youth Conference and individual citizens joining to add sparkle to Wellington's appearance.

City residents are urged to clean up their premises this week and have all trash and junk ready to haul away.

Jake Leach, outside administrator for the City of Wellington, said that extra clean-up trucks will be put on Monday, May 12, and will haul away anything that people put in the alley except large trees.

The reason for setting the date to haul away trash at this late date comes from past experience, when trucks have had to make a second trip on the same alley.

Special attention is urged for vacant lots, and all local own-

State, National Level

Susan Peters Wins Dual Music Award

State and national honors in the field of music have come to 16-year-old Susan Peters, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Peters.

She has been selected as the state winner in an essay contest for high school students sponsored by the National Federation of Music Clubs.

She then was notified she is a first rating and gold medal winner in the Quadrennial Piano Recording Festival, sponsored each four years by the National Guild of Piano Teachers.

Susan's essay developed the title set for the national contest, "Music Enriches Life." After being judged on the state level, the essay was forwarded to regional judges and the results are to be announced during May.

There were 26 entries in the state contest, and Texas is permitted two essays in regional competition.

The International Piano Recording Competition is judged from tapes recording the students' playing. A score above 90 was prerequisite for the gold medal award.

Her contest music was "Sonatina in G" by Beethoven, "Variations" by Bartok, and "Serenade" by Ole Olsen.

There were 100 entries from 28 states, Susan was told.

The Wellington High School sophomore has grown up with music. She studies piano with her mother, who also teaches guitar and voice, and who was a student at the University of Wisconsin School of Music in Milwaukee.

Susan was not more than two years old when she had her first piano instruction, on a child's level, and her training has been constant. She has participated in the National Guild auditions five years. She also studies voice with her mother and sings in the choir of Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church.

FHA Now Makes Farm Loans for Recreation

The Farmers Home Administration can now make loans to farm and ranch owners or tenants for outdoor income-producing recreational enterprises according to Raymond Hodges, county supervisor.

Loans to individuals can be made to convert all or a portion of their farms to recreational activities. The recreational enterprise may supplement regular farm income or, in some cases, replace farm income by converting the entire farm to recreation.

Public recreational areas are increasing in number each year; however, the demand for such facilities still exceeds what is available. The purpose of this loan program is two-fold in that it will provide more recreational areas and help farmers and ranchers to increase their income, Hodges said.

Loans may be made for camping, picnicking and hiking facilities, swimming, boating, and fishing facilities, golf courses, riding stables or many other forms of outdoor recreation. Funds can be used to purchase necessary materials, supplies and animals, acquire and develop land and water resources, construct or improve modest essential buildings, and to purchase and install needed equipment and fixtures.

Peak Tornado Season Here

AUSTIN.—Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety and state director of defense and disaster relief, today reminded Texans that the peak tornado season has arrived.

Information obtained from the U.S. Weather Bureau's State Climatologist indicates that Texas reported 140 tornadoes during the past year. This figure compares with a record number of 232 during 1967, of which more than half occurred in September in connection with Hurricane Beulah. Since 1951, Texas has reported 1,659 tornadoes.

There were no months free from twisters in 1968. The peak tornado months, April, May, and June, produced 13, 48, and 21 tornadoes, respectively. Other totals included January, 2; February, 1; March(3; July, 4; August, 8; September 5; October, 8; November 11, and December, 16.

A circular of tornado safety rules has been prepared by the Department of Public Safety, and is available through local city and county Civil Defense directors.

This was the coin that commemorated the centenary of the birth of Ulysses S. Grant; a silver half dollar authorized in February, 1922. It depicted a bust of the 18th President of the United States. Governor Issues Proclamation

Thomas Nursing Home Will Hold Open House on Mothers Day

Nursing homes in Texas will participate actively in National Nursing Home Week being sponsored by the Texas and American Nursing Home Associations.

In joining the program, Trusten A. Thomas, Jr., administrator of the Thomas Nursing Home, announced they will be having an open house on Mothers' Day because most of the nursing home patients are women. But the men will be visited too, of course. This year's theme is "A Better Life Through Community Concern."

"All of us in the nursing home profession are going to get the community to come in for a visit. We can provide for all of the needs of our patients but one—we can't show them that the community cares—we cannot relieve their feeling of remoteness from community life unless the community does care and does come in," said Thomas.

"The health care revolution that is occurring in America is probably affecting the nursing home more than any other type facility," Thomas commented. "We want to show people what our nursing home is like."

Gov. Preston Smith has proclaimed May 11-17, 1969, as Texas Nursing Home Week and urged citizens to visit a nursing home and acquaint themselves with the patients, the staff, the facilities, the services rendered, and the progress and potential for the future.

In the proclamation, it was stated that nursing homes have broadened their potential for service and have taken on an increasing role in the health care of the chronically ill, the aged and the convalescent of all ages.

Nursing homes today offer not only medical, nursing and personal care, but also provide rehabilitation, restoration, recreation, physical, speech and occupational therapy, and spiritual programs designed to provide a "fuller life" for senior citizens.

City Listed in Tourist Guide

Wellington has won national recognition in the newest edition of the country's best selling national tourist guidebook, the 1969 Mobil Travel Guide.

Out of all the cities and towns in the U.S., only 4,208 were considered to have enough tourist-appeal for inclusion in the guides. Our town is one of them, A. L. Elliott, local Mobil oil dealer, said this week.

In addition to giving information on where to go, the books list over 23,000 places to eat and sleep with each one rated on a one to five star basis. One star indicateds "good, better than average." Five means "one of the best in the country." Only 35 establishments have five star status in the new edition.

All ratings are revaluated each year. Listings and ratings are based on reports from a corps of trained inspectors, local and regional consultants and an anlysis of the over 100,000 pieces of reader mail received by the editors.

The guide is available at all Mobil stations. It is published in seven 300-page regional editions which contain road atlases, city maps, auto tours, and a wealth of other travel information.

27 Men Report for Physicals June Fifth

Texas Local Board No. 20 has received a call for 27 registrants for armed forces physical and 10 registrants for induction for June 5, 1969.

The June draft call for Texas is 1,366, down from 1,453 for May, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Tuesday.

This is the state's share of a national quota of 25,900 men, 23,900 for the Army and 2,000 for the Marine Corps.

A total of 8,202 men is scheduled to be forwarded for armed forces pre-induction physical and mental examination in June to prepare for future calls, Col. Schwartz said. This compares with a total of 8,234 in May.

State monthly draft calls for the first four months of 1969 have been as follows: January 1,363, February 1,564, March 1,572, and April 1,737.

The order of selection to fill draft calls through June may be from among examined and acceptable men who are (1) delinquents 19 years old and older, (2) volunteers under age 26 in the sequence in which they have volunteered, and (3) non-volunteers 19 through 25 years old, single and married, oldest first, with those married after Aug. 26, 1965, being selected ahead of those married on or before that date.

Tax Refunds To Be Speedy

This is refund time at Internal Revenue Service. A popular question at the Dallas office is "Where Is My Refund?"

The chances are pretty good that it's being processed rapidly by the Internal Revenue Service employees and the computer.

The computer generally sends between 900,000 and a million refund checks to taxpayers in this half of Texas. On a good day when the electricity is flowing smoothly through the computer transistors, 15,000 refund checks will be sent out. If everything goes real well the total may go up to 25,000 or more.

Most taxpayers who sent in their tax returns early in January have already spent their refunds. Some few have been notified that their return needs audit, or they have been audited.

If you belong to the "11:59 P.M. April 15 Club" a little patience with the Internal Revenue Service employees and Internal Revenue Service's digitized record keeper is in order.

CLEAN-UP WEEK
May 5 Through 10

To be prosperous and healthy a city must be clean and attractive and that is the reason for this town-wide clean-up week. We invite all residents of Wellington to clean up all of the premises around their homes and put the trash in the alleys and the City of Wellington will haul it to the dump ground, with the exception of large trees which you will need to dispose of yourself.

Extra Trucks Start Picking Up May 12

The EXTRA CITY TRUCKS will start operating Monday, May 12. The reason for this is that in past years we have needed to go back a second time when we started the trucks before the end of clean-up week. So we urge you to have all of your trash in the alley before May 10.

VOTE to KEEP YOUR COUNTY ON a CASH BASIS

Continuing the 30¢ tax levy will insure the operation of an efficiently operated County goverment.

On May 17 the people of Collingsworth County will go to the polls to vote on the question of authorizing the county to levy a 30c tax on the $100 valuation. We believe the people of the county are entitled to an explanation of the need for such a tax and, what it will cost the individual taxpayer and why we believe it will enable us to operate the county government in the most efficient, practical and economical manner possible.

- This 30c tax is a necessity if the county is to continue to operate on a cash basis as is being done at the present time.
- This levy WILL NOT increase the amount of county taxes any person is paying at the present time since a tax of this amount is in effect at the present time.
- The county has sizable investment in bridges and dirt roads, the value of which can be conserved if repaired and put in good condition when needed. Neglect or postponement could be highly expensive. This tax will enable the county to keep these repaired.
- Within the next year the county will be called upon for the purchase of additional right of way needed for the improvement of existing highways and the building of new ones which will be of tremendous importance to the farmers, ranchers and business men of the county.
- We believe that your approval of this tax will enable us to provide you with an efficiently operated county government and to continue to do it on a cash basis.

Notes from Your County Home Demonstration Agent

By Mrs. Leta Hill

May — Senior Citizens Month

President Richard Nixon and Governor Preston Smith have proclaimed May as Senior Citizens Month for 1969, making this the seventh year the nation will pay tribute to its senior citizens.

On May 1 the Post Office department issued a special 6¢ stamp in honor of older Americans. The stamp reproduces a segment of the July Fourth painting by Grandma Moses, the American artist who began her career after her 79th birthday.

County committees on aging throughout this state will be holding special functions to observe Senior Citizens Month. There will be appropriate programs, receptions, recognitions of outstanding Senior Citizens, fairs, bazaars, reunions, picnics and other social functions and get-togethers.

Do you know what is going on in your county?

Mrs. Haskell Manuel, county chairman of the aging committee, cordially invites all senior citizens and friends to the Collingsworth County Home Demonstration Council's Senior Citizens Tea on Monday, May 12, at 2 p.m. in the Community Building. The home demonstration ladies will present a style show of the last 75 years in fashion. Come by and join us in honoring the senior citizens of this county.

Sugar Consumption

Where has all the sugar gone? Sugar for home use has decreased from about 60% of all sugar deliveries to 27% in the past thirty years.

The sugar has gone into institutional and industrial use. This shift from home use is caused by homemakers buying more convenience foods.

Pre-sugared items and "ready to eat" products lower the needs of sugar in the home. Liquid sugar users by quantities show that over 50% of all liquid sugar goes to the beverage industry.

Next come the canning industry, ice cream and dairy products, confectionery and the baking industry. It is second only to the beverage industry in terms of total sugar usage.

Phone Phonies

Crooked sales pitches via the telephone are on the rise. They trap people into buying things they don't need or into seeing salesmen they don't want to see. Tricks include free gifts, phoney surveys and get-rich-quick schemes.

Here are some tips which may warn you of phonies:

—The caller gives no identification.

—He says he is making a survey and requests a personal interview.

—He assures you he is not selling anything—just wants to interview you as part of an advertising campaign.

—He describes a "special offer" that your common sense tells you is too good to be true.

—He reels off prices, costs, offers and questions so fast that you cannot follow what he is telling you.

What should you do? The Better Business Bureau suggests replying: "Please send me a letter about the matter. I'll consider your offer after I've had a chance to investigate. Thank you for calling. Goodbye."

This way you discourage a gyp artist while not cutting yourself off from someone whose business is perfectly legitimate.

Legitimate callers also can be a nuisance, if they call at an inconvenient time or they refuse to take no for an answer. If you aren't interested—just say goodbye and hang up.

Weekend visitors in the home of Mrs. D. E. Fulton were her daughter, Mrs. Monte Davis of Fort Worth, and Mrs. Oscar Pierce of Poolville. Mrs. Pierce is the sister of the late Mr. Fulton.

Fashions With a French Accent

After-five dresses in Paris collections for summer '69 are young, fresh, and feminine. And white cotton organdy is the fabric most favored by French designers for conveying the look. Here it is used for full-sleeved cocktail dresses re-embroidered with bold peasant motifs on the skirt or sleeves.

Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Rosco Land, Mrs. G. L. Jones, Mrs. Bryan Denley, Mrs. Ethel Lowry, Mrs. Holcomb and a guest, Mrs. Louise Vaughan.

Furs Still Good Business

LA PORTE. — When Game Management Officer Wayne Harrington checked on three men in a marsh near Sabine Pass, he found they each had resident trapping licenses for both Louisiana and Texas.

They also had 860 muskrat hides.

The three were later found to be residents of Louisiana and were fined $25 each. And 681 of their 860 muskrat hides were confiscated. It was determined the other 179 hides were legally taken in Louisiana.

The hides were sold to the highest bidder, with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department receiving $903.36 for the sales.

A Houston furrier says the hides, when they reach the shops as a finished product will have a value of approximately $6,000.

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department says that the marshes of Orange, Jefferson and Chambers counties yield furs worth more than one million dollars each year, about 90% from muskrats.

Hospital Week Observance to Start Sunday

St. Joseph's Hospital and the hospitals throughout the nation will observe National Hospital Week beginning Sunday, May 11.

The theme for the observance —"Your Hospital — Pathway to Progress in Community Health" emphasizes how today's hospital is establishing new pathways to channel health care into all areas of the community, according to Sister Perpetua, administrator of St. Joseph's Hospital.

"The traditional role of a community hospital has been to provide care for patients within its walls," she explained. "However, hospitals are now evolving into centers carrying a broad spectrum of health services out into the community—services aimed at diagnosis, treatment, rehabilitation, education and prevention."

St. Joseph's Hospital is joining other hospitals in the country in marking the observance, held annually during the week of Florence Nightingale's birthday, May 12. The week is sponsored by the American Hospital Association to give people an opportunity to learn more about the hospitals in their community.

It reports the barrels are being painted this week in the agriculture building. The barrels will be red with the lettering "Skyrocket Youth Conference" in white.

Mike Davis led the youth in group discussion on what can be done about the litterbug, downtown, at school and at driveins. The group voted to have an "Anti-Litterbug Rally" downtown Saturday morning.

Camera Taken

Samnorwood School Entered Second Time

For the second time in recent weeks, the Samnorwood School was burglarized Sunday night, May 4, according to Sheriff John Rainey.

Vending machines were broken into, but as far as can be determined, the burglars did not get money or anything belonging to the school, Supt. Robert Dwight told The Wellington Leader. However, a Polaroid camera that was his personal property was taken.

Mr. Dwight emphasized that as a precautionary measure, no money is being left in the school, and it is being deposited each day.

Approximately $180 was taken when the school was entered the first time during the Easter holidays.

Entry Sunday night was gained through a door at the back of the building leading into the library. Two glass panes were broken and the hasp on the inside of the door was broken off.

Although no money was lost, one pop machine was broken into and the front damaged, Mr. Dwight said. There was evidence that the burglars rifled through a lot of things, he added.

Not only has the Samnorwood School been broken into twice, but the Quail School also was burglarized twice within recent weeks.

Rotary Tickets for Barbecue Go on Sale

The Wellington Rotary Club will hold its annual Chicken Barbecue Thursday, May 15, according to President Billy Moseley.

Proceeds from the barbecue go to finance worthwhile projects which the club carries out.

White Hurt in Rodeo Accident

White was working inside the arena while the bull riding was under way when he was cornered and butted several times. The bull then got White over his neck and tossed him out into the arena, where he was trampled before rodeo workers could get the animal away from his victim.

Not until he had returned to Wellington Saturday and saw his doctor was White aware that his leg was broken just below the knee, Mrs. White said. A cast will be put on as soon as the swelling goes down.

Mrs. Hayden Williams and Mrs. Raymond Ford attended the funeral of Mrs. Williams' brother-in-law, Homer Weeks, in Stillwater, Okla., last week.

Other Editors Say . . .

Watch Out, Follows!

President Nixon called for income tax reforms, and other experts like Wilbur Mills and some members of Congressional committees are calling for reform.

They all claim to be concerned about the plight of the middle income taxpayer who is paying the bulk of the taxes these days.

We predict that after they get through with their reforms, the middle income taxpayer will continue to pay the bulk of taxes and probably will be paying more when they rewrite the regulations and take away some of his deductions.

Much is made of the fact that the millionaires and big income people manage to get out of paying taxes. How much of a problem is this?

Last year the government said there were 88 millionaires who didn't pay income taxes because much of their income came from tax-free bonds and they gave most of their income away.

There were 155 persons who earned more than $200,000 annually and paid no income tax because of tax laws allowing charitable contributions and other legitmate deductions.

So in order to rap these 243 people, the entire structure is going to be overhauled. It doesn't take much figuring to see that if these 243 people were rounded up and all their income stripped from them it wouldn't make a drop in the bucket in the billions that Uncle Sam spends each year.

It appears that the rest of us are in for a tightening up on our deductions and will be paying more, not less, in income taxes.

When Uncle Sam says he is going to help you, watch out, fellows! —The Perryton Herald

How About Some Lively Research

The Pentagon's far-ranging interest in non-military research both at home and abroad continues to astonish us. Among the projects being financed out of the defense budget, according to testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee are a $6,462 investigation of "Cold Adaptation of Korean Women Drivers," a $22,840 study of "Upper limits of Safety for Primaquine in Sensitive Italians," and a $14,850 Islaeli inquiry into "Preparation of Potent Polyvalent Antivenin Against Middle-Eastern Snake Venoms."

The pursuit of knowledge is a wonderful thing, but why the Pentagon should pursue it in huch spheres as these, at a cost of 34 million dollars a year, might itself furnish the subject of a lively project.

A Thorough Job

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN.— Strong determination to hold out for a two-year spending bill with new taxes now was voiced by Gov. Preston Smith after a week of conferences on the subject.

Smith took the line that he and legislators have a commitment for teacher pay raises, and that it cannot be done without a tax bill to raise about $100 million a year.

But Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Speaker Gus Mutscher, as leaders of the two houses of the Legislature, will make the decision on whether a one-year or a two-year spending bill will be passed.

"We are considering all factors, and the governor's opposition to a one-year bill is, of course, one factor," Barnes said.

Smith declared, "the House-Senate conference committee is working on a two-year bill. That would indicate to me that it has been pretty well determined."

Conferees did go to work on a biennial bill. House Revenue and Tax Committee has yet to come up with a tax package, although Mutscher privately has sketched out a $275 million revenue bill which includes a $90 million corporate gains tax and increased cigarette levies.

Although rumors increased concerning possible summer special session of the Legislature after Smith took his stand against delayed taxation, Governor insists that will be unnecessary. He thinks lawmakers "if they apply themselves" can get through with all mandatory duties by the June 2 regular session deadline.

Bills Passed

With less than a month of the regular session to go, the House began to out-distance the filibuster-slowed Senate in turning out major bills.

House finally approved measures boosting drinking curfew to 2 a.m. and increasing maximum interest rates on $300 to $1,000 loans from $8 to $12 per $100.

Another House proposal passed and sent to the Senate is a constitutional amendment to permit local governments to contract with each other for services like police and fire protection, streets, waste disposal, etc.

Both Houses completed action on a bill to strengthen the law requiring open meetings and advance notice of government agencies. Legislative investigating committee sessions and consultation with attorneys will no longer be exempt. Both Houses also approved a bill adding four more "Monday holidays" — Columbus, Veterans, and Memorial Days and Washington's Birthday—for state employees effective in 1971.

Legislators also voted themselves a substantial boost in retirement benefits.

House gave final approval to a bill that allows children to transfer from one district to another without permission of the home district, taking State money with them.

House sent to the Senate bills to permit persons 18 or older to teach driver education, provide for occupational drivers licenses for persons aged 15 to 18, toughen the 1967 Consumer Credit Code restrictions on misleading advertising, and bring the state law closer to conformance with the Federal Truth in Lending law. (It gives the State Consumer Credit Commissioner broader powers in enforcing the code.)

House voted to create a six-member committee to promote mass transportation and to make eight changes in the 1943 banking code.

Senators, braving an all-night filibuster, passed a resolution to knock the annual voter registration requirement out of the constitution.

Senate approved a $1.25 per hour state minimum wage bill and sent it to the House.

A bill to halt the flow of unsolicited merchandise that comes by mail passed the Senate. Bill says unsolicited merchandise may be deemed a gift and the receiver does not have to return it or pay for it.

Senate passed a bill to change the requirements for independent school districts wishing to form junior colleges. Contiguous districts with a combined taxable wealth of $30 million—instead of $9.5 million—and a scholastic population of 3,000—instead of 7,000—could establish a junior college.

Among other Senate-passed bills were stiff new controls for forging or altering prescriptions, curbs on obscene movies, a bill to establish a council to study the problems of children with learning defects and a measure which would permit Galveston's Moody family heirs to share in insurance company stock dividends distributed to the $165 million Moody Foundation.

Attorney General Opinions

Federal food stamp program must be operated by State Department of Public Welfare, not county commissioners courts. Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held in an opinion requested by Harris County Attorney Joe Resweber.

In a torrent of other new opinions, Martin concluded that:

—There is no authority in law or the constitution for a constable to form a standby auxiliary force for civil disaster or special police duty.

—Hutchinson County can require relocation of telephone and utility poles and lines (at company cast) which are "airport hazards".

—Senate bill providing for election of presidential electors by congressional districts and requiring them to vote as did the plurality of their district or state is constitutional.

—Collingsworth County commissioners cannot use road and bridge fund revenues from motor vehicle registrations for other purposes.

—Waller County commissioner operating the county hospital cannot legally pay the charge for an autopsy unless ordered by proper authorities.

—Hardine County commissioners court order of March 24 to change county tax roll values is invalid.

Short Snorts

Governor vetoed as too broad and costly a bill to make governments liable to damage suits for negligent acts of employees.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler gave his employees until May 15 to comply with new directives: ladies will wear skirts no higher than top of the knee and men's hair must be neatly trimmed above collar and sideburns no longer than to middle ear lobe.

Texas voter registration dropped off almost a million for 1969 elections, now 3.3 million compared with more than four million in 1968 presidential year.

Texas Air Control Board refused to grant a variance (extra time to clean up pollution violations) for Industrial Salvage Co., Sorpus Christi.

Texas construction industry recorded the strongest March on record ($202.5 million total in permits), but a pause in rate of increase for general state business activity is apparent, UT's Bureau of Business Research says.

CROSSROADS REPORT

I see where Mr. Bud Wilkinson, former football coach and now a water boy in Washington, says free radio and television time for political candidates would equalize the chances for office seekers.

Of course, it costs the broadcasting people real cash money to send noise and pictures out over the air, but Bud thinks they should let anybody use their service for free when he gets an urge to run for public office.

It would also equalize the chances of public job seekers if other businesses were forced to give all candidates free goods and services, like free groceries, free clothing, free liquor, free hair-do's, etc.

Alfalfa Weevil Spreads in Tex.

COLLEGE STATION.— The alfalfa weevil, which was first detected in Texas in four northeastern counties in April 1968 has now spread to Central Texas, says L. Reed Green, assistant survey entomologist at Texas A&M University. Specimens have been tentatively identified in Brazos, Grimes, and Wharton counties.

The rate of spread in other states has been from 50 to 100 miles each year. It is expected that at this rate, the alfalfa weevil will likely be found statewide within the next few years, said the entomologist.

The first crop of alfalfa is damaged most by the larvae of the alfalfa weevil, which appears in early spring and is most numerous from the time the plants are about six inches in height until they reach early flower bud stage of development. An alfalfa field damaged by the weevil appears greenish-gray at first, but damaged leaves dry rapidly and the field takes on a grayish to whitish cast.

The same cotton cloth can be finished to appear as chintz, gingham, moire, denim, matelasse, or pique.

Screwworm Cases Show Increase

Officials of the Screwworm Eradication Program advise livestock producers to "spray herds, doctor all wounds, and collect larvae samples of all worms found within wounds and send samples to the Mission Laboratory for positive identification.

Twelve cases were confirmed in Texas during the first 12 days in April and conditions continue favorable for further trouble.

Soil Stewardship Week May 11 to 18

COLLEGE STATION—In recognition of the importance of our natural resources of soil and water, Gov. Preston Smith has designated the week of May 11-19 as Soil Stewardship Week in Texas.

In many of Texas' 187 Soil Conservation Districts, observances will be held in cooperation with local churches to recognize the duty man has toward preserving the life-giving land.

Soil Stewardship Week gives each individual an opportunity to stop and evaluate his duty to the land, said Gary Reed, work unit conservationist of Soil Conservation Service.

"The earth is the Lord's and all things therein. All people are dependent upon our soil and water for their livelihood," said Gov. Smith.

"The conservation and development of Texas soil and water resources are essential in the maintenance of the economy of the state. We cannot afford the loss of land, water and pollution of water and other abuses to our natural resources.

"Soil and Water Conservation Districts are committed to improving our state through the wise use and development of our soil and water resources and are sponsoring Soil Stewardship Week."

All citizens have a special invitation to attend the Stewardship Week events in their area, Reed said.

Collingsworth County FARM NEWS

By Don Reeves
County Agricultural Agent

In January 1969, hog slaughter in federally inspected plants was running four to five percent larger than a year ago. It is expected to continue relatively large this spring, summer and fall.

This expected increase is due to hog producers in the corn belt indicating last December that they planned to have 4% more sows farrow during December 1969 and February 1969 than in these months a year earlier. They also intended to increase March-May 1969 farrowings by 6%.

Cold storage stocks of pork at the beginning of this year were about 11% smaller than a year earlier. Moreover, no sizable buildup in stocks took place this past winter. Thus, the market situation for hogs likely will be helped somewhat next summer by the smaller stocks of pork in storage.

Hog prices in the first half of 1969 are expected to be under pressure from larger pork supplies and larger supplies of both beef and poultry. Also, hog prices in the second half of the year are expected to average somewhat on the lower side compared with prices in the second half of 1968. This is due to prices reflecting increased marketings. Fed cattle marketings are expected to remain large and supplies of poultry will likely continue large in the second half of 1969.

The hog-corn ratio likely will decline this year from the unusually high average in 1968. However, the relationship will still be rather favorable to hog production. This would suggest that the expansion now under way may continue through the year, although the ratio of increase may slow in the second half.

Maintaining proper fertilization on hay and forage crops this spring can make a big difference throughout the year.

Producers should begin application of plant foods as soon as possible to take advantage of the winter and early spring moisture. Fertilizer will also help raise the nutrient content of the plants.

Many producers have not had time to get a soil test this year and it may be better to raise last year's recommendations for the first application rather than wait for results on a new soil test.

If the hay is to be baled, a reapplication of the first fertilizer rate should be made immediately after cutting. For grazing pastures, the reapplications should come about six weeks apart. The rate for reapplication on grazing pastures can be lowered by about one-third, as the plants will not lose as much nutrient value compared to cutting and baling.

March Bond Sales $3,659

According to a report received from John Forbis, chairman of the Collingsworth County Savings Bond Committee, the sale of United States Savings Bonds and Freedom Shares in the county during the month of March totaled $3,659. Quarterly sales totaled $15,303, or 15% of the 1969 goal of $100,000.

Then at Sacramento, her hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wallace, Tommy and Ceeley. She also went to the California state capitol.

She visited Mr. and Mrs. Dick Taylor, Stacy and David in Livermore, and at Stockton she saw friends, Mrs. Ellis, in a hospital, and Mrs. Watson in a rest home.

Norwood PTA Votes to Retain Status

Members of the Samnorwood Parent-Teacher Association voted recently to retain that designation and to continue its affiliation with the national and state organizations, the Rev. Dick Roehr, president, announced.

Earlier in the year it was proposed that the organization become a parent-teacher organization without PTA affiliation.

Mrs. Robert Baxter was the guest speaker at the meeting, and pointed out the advantages of continuing PTA status.

The installation of officers was set for May 19, when Mrs. John Birkey will take the office of president.

Entertainment was a group of skits from the upcoming senior play, "Walking in the Night."

Refreshments were served by the seventh and eighth grade students.

Good Record Keeping Can Save Taxes

Those who maintain good records are less likely to overlook deductions to which they are entitled, says Ellis Campbell, Jr., district director of Internal Revenue in Northern Texas.

A good system for keeping records is to get a supply of large envelopes or folders, label them according to the types of income and deductions you have, and accumulate the information, Campbell said.

Taxpayers who itemize their deductions on Form 1040 must have available cancelled checks, receipts, statements, and other data to support the claimed deductions.

Campbell said that in addition to saving tax dollars, good record keeping makes preparation of the tax return a much easier task.

PEP OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS ELECTED

Officers and members of the executive committee for PEP (Panhandle Economic Program) were Elected Wednesday, April 30, at a meeting at West Texas State University at Canyon. Left to right are John Henard of Wellington, committee member; Ed Garnett of Amarillo secretary; W. W. Grisham, Jr. of Amarillo, PEP coordinator; Leo Forrest of Hereford, chairman; J. W. Buchanan of Dumas, W. B. Griffin of Borger and R. B. Dawson of Hulia, all committee members; and R. C. (Dick) Cline of Amarillo, vice-chairman. Absent from the picture were Bruce Parr of Friona and R. M. (Morris) Lemon of Booker, both members of the executive committee.

John R. Henard Director

Area PEP Meeting Held in Canyon

CANYON. — Enthusiasm ran high here Wednesday, April 30, as the groundwork was laid to "pep up" PEP (Panhandle Economic Program).

More than 200 key agricultural and business leaders from the 26 Panhandle counties in the program participated in a daylong meeting held on the campus of West Texas State University here in order to revitalize PEP.

PEP, which had its beginning in 1966, is designed to improve the area's economy through planning, in an effort to achieve maximum utilization of natural, human and capital resources in the most efficient manner possible to meet present and future needs for continued growth and development of the area.

Presiding at the meeting was W. W. Grisham, Jr. of Amarillo, agricultural agent for District I of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, and coordinator of PEP.

Featured speakers on the program were Dr. H. O. Kunkel, dean of the College of Agriculture at Texas A&M University, and John E. Hutchinson, director of the Extension Service.

Kunkel, in addressing the group, said that area programs such as PEP are "one of the most dynamic developments to take place in Texas agriculture." He cited the BIG (Blackland Income Growth) program which has resulted in an increase of almost $269 million to that area of the state.

"Since the beginning of PEP, there has been much emphasis on diversification," he pointed out. "This has had an astounding effect on the area as capital input has increased more than any other area of the state, or for that matter, any other area in the nation."

Other information concerning the development of PEP was presented by Ed Garnett, Extension area farm management specialist, Amarillo. Garnett discussed population changes, efficient use of irrigation water, increased corn production and increased cattle feeding as some of the factors playing a major role in the development of the Panhandle area.

In 1960, cattle on feed in the Panhandle numbered about 40,000 head, Garnett added. In January of this year, this figure had jumped to 574,000 or 57% of the total cattle on feed in the state. By 1970, the Panhandle will be feeding more than one million head of cattle, he estimated.

Development of task forces will be the major item of consideration at the first meeting of the executive committee on May 8 in Amarillo.

The 26 counties comprising PEP are Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

Violence and destruction of property on the campuses of colleges and universities have startled the nation before; but guns in the hands of blacks on the campus of venerable and famous Cornell brought the alarm to new heights. This was not the first time guns have been on any college campus for there was gunfire at Texas Southern University in Houston and at South Carolina State College; but these were all negro schools. Cornell is predominantly white with blacks numbering less than five per cent of the student body.

Some members of the faculty at Cornell feel that the terror and tragedy could have been prevented if the proper authority had been exercised in time. One professor says he has been keeping a file over the past two years of incidents that have gone unpunished and issues on which the administration has compromised. "It's really incredible," Prof. Berns said, "but not a single item of punishment has been handed out except the wrist slap (the reprimand) of a few days ago."

★ ★ ★

Anarchy is anarchy, a state of lawlessness, and no just settlement of any problem can be achieved by lawlessness. There is a growing conviction that violence must be met with superior force and promptly. When law and order are restored, life and property safeguarded; then and only then can an equitable solution be sought.

★ ★ ★

There is no person who does not want more of something than he has. There is no minority group in this nation or elsewhere that does not want more than it has. Give them what they think they want today and the demands will be doubled tomorrow. Give every minority only a small part of what they think they are entitled to and a grave injustice and inequity will be visited on the majority.

★ ★ ★

Both J. C. Hartman and Dudley Phipps have called my attention to a letter sent to all county judges and commissioners' courts in 49 counties in the Panhandle and South Plains by Water Inc. They are of the opinion that unless some action is taken, we may find ourselves in a water district, and paying taxes, that will do this county no good. It is my understanding that the Collingsworth Commissioners' Court will consider the matter at its meeting next Monday.

★ ★ ★

This is clean-up week and it is a time when everyone should put their entire premises in neat order. This also seems to be a good time to observe that keeping a town clean and attractive is not just a job for the young people. Every person should see to it that his own yard and alley are neat and tidy. A certain amount of work done weekly and not annually will keep it that way.

★ ★ ★

The extra trucks of the city will start hauling, Monday, May 12, so make sure everything you want hauled away is in the alley by that time.

This coming Sunday is Mothers Day which has been observed in this country on the second Sunday in May since it was started in 1907 by Anna M. Jarvis. However Mothers Day was observed in Western Europe long before it became a quasi-official day in the United States. And then there were the feasts honoring mothers in Grecian and Roman mythology.

Glenn Shelton in The Wichita Falls Record News: "I drove my car into a tree out in California one summer and came out with nary a dent in the family jalopy and nary a dent in my head. It was, of course, the famous Wowona Tunnel Tree, the old Yosemite's redwood that so many thousands have driven their cars through. The tunnel through the huge tree was carved in 1881.

"Well, the renowned old tree collapsed last week to end her 90 years service as a drive-through, as you probably know. It was a sad demise to most of us who enjoyed driving into a tree with impunity and immunity to danger."

Lennon Named Principal of Dodson School

Joe Lennon, a member of the Wellington Junior High faculty, has been elected principal of the grade school at Dodson for the 1969-70 school year, according to T. E. Lennon, county superintendent.

At the same time, Mrs. Joe Lennon, also a teacher in Wellington Junior High, was elected to teach at Dodson.

Only the elementary grades will be taught at Dodson next year, it was pointed out.

Mr. Lennon will emphasize a music program in the school, he said.

He and Mrs. Lennon submitted their resignations at Wellington recently after three years as faculty members.

Prior to coming here, he taught two years at Quail and she taught one year. A graduate of Dodson High School in 1961, Mr. Lennon has a degree from West Texas State University, and his wife also attended that school.

road supervisor, and county commissioners were out Tuesday checking conditions.

Three inches of rain was reported at Quail by Loyd Langley. This covered the Friday to Tuesday night period, and during the same time, four inches of rain was measured at a point four miles west of Quail. At the Bourland and Ross Ranch, 7 miles northwest of Quail, five inches was reported.

Langley said this puts land conditions in good shape.

L. A. Davis of Rolla reported two inches of rain.

"It was just what we needed. Wheat that isn't being grazed looks fine and fields are in good shape to start planting," he said.

Four to four and a half inches fell in the Dodson area, Mrs. Tom Birchfield said.

There was a little hail, but it was not damaging.

Wheat remaining in the Dodson area is excellent, she continued, as is the pasture land. However, a considerable amount of wheat acreage is being grazed.

North of Salt Fork, two and a half inches was measured for the period, and at Samnorwood, an inch and a half was caught in a rain gauge that was set up Tuesday morning.

Suits, caps and socks, costing $13 per player, were ordered.
