Lone Wolf Electric Offers Fun, Business

Refreshment hour from 6 p. m. to 7 p. m. Tuesday evening is planned as a social feature to precede the business and program hour of the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Inc. annual membership meeting.

Members are expected to attend the Tuesday evening meeting, in Lone Wolf co-op auditorium in Colorado City, from six counties — Mitchell, Scurry, Fisher, Nolan, Borden and Howard.

More than 3,000 rural family consumers of electricity from the lines of Lone Wolf Coop have been invited to come to the yearly session for election of three directors to serve three-year terms; reports from cooperative officials; entertainment, music, prizes, coffee, soft drinks and doughnuts; and a speaker-humorist.

Refreshment stand will be closed at 7 o'clock when the formal features of membership night begin.

All members attending the meeting will be presented door prizes. Numerous other prizes, now on display at the Lone Wolf office building, will be given away to lucky members whose names are drawn for prizes.

Susano Landeros, Colorado City musician and orchestra leader will present his "Royal Notes" in a program of lively and romantic music as the program gets underway.

Reports from Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc. will be given by the president of the board of directors, W. H. Cooper of Roscoe; by Gwan C. Strange, Westbrook, secretary-treasurer; and by Raymond Perdue, Colorado City, manager of Lone Wolf.

Western Riding Club Fourth Annual Event

Western Riding Club's second cowboy event of the summer is on the calendar for the week-end of August 15-17.

The fourth annual Colorado City Junior Cowboy Reunion will be sponsored and staged by the Riding Club here at the Western Club rodeo arena, west Highway 80, featuring 3 night shows.

Six events, with 3 for young cowboys up to the age of 19 and 3 for little cowgirls from "under 12" to 19, have been announced for the show.

A trophy will be awarded to each age group. Contestants must, however, enter at least 3 events and place in 2 events to be eligible for a trophy.

Contestants must also, unflag race. For girl riders 13 through 15 and girls aged 16 through 19 riding events will also be contests of barrel racing, pole bending, ribbon roping and the breakaway roping.

All ambitious young cowboys and girls must file their entries by August 13, deadline date for entering the junior rodeo.

Inquiries, and entries may be mailed to P. O. Box 184 or given to Miss Dolores Smith, secretary of the Western Riding Club.

An administration fee of $2 will be charged. In addition to the administration fee, entry fees in each riding event are $5 for the competition between the youngest groups (under 12 boys and girls).

For boys and girls 13 through 15, entry fees in each event are $10.

Girls between 16 and 19 will pay $10 to enter each event. Boys in the oldest class, 16 through 19, will pay $20 entry fees to compete.

All entry fee money will be paid back to contestants who win or place in the contests. Money purses for the Western Club Junior Rodeo will be made up of the entry fee money and presented by check to the winners in each contest.

Contestants, a rule of the AJRA makes clear, can not have reached their 20th birthday to be eligible for taking part in the junior rodeo.

Entries must be accompanied by entry forms. Proof of age will also be required before any contestant takes part.

Western Riding Club members will meet at 8 p. m. Monday (tomorrow) at the rodeo grounds' barn to make final plans for the show and to name judges for its events.

Club members staged the first Amateur Rodeo for adult riders held in Colorado City for a number of years, earlier this summer.

Registration of pupils in the entire school system was started last spring when orientation programs, visitation and counseling was offered children in grades one through twelve.

Monday, August 19, marks the beginning of regular football workouts for senior high school hopefuls. Workouts for junior high football players starts Tuesday, Sept. 3.

Thursday and Friday, August 29-30 have been set aside as orientation days for all Colorado City teachers. Thursday of that same week there will be a safety meeting for school bus drivers, at 4 p. m.

Holidays during the fast approaching 1963-64 school term will be: Labor Day, Sept. 2; Thanksgiving, Nov. 28-29; Christmas, Dec. 20; Jan. 2; Easter, March 27 and March 30.

Wallace school pupils will complete registration Tuesday, Sept. 3.

All regular classes in all schools start Sept. 3. Parents and guardians are requested by school officials to note final registration dates and the regular classes date.

Sale of Herrington Marks End of Era

George Mahoney has bought Herrington's Auto Parts at 256 East 2nd St. here from Aubrey A. Herrington, owner since 1934.

With the sale of the business comes an end to a 56-year era during which there has been a Herrington business in Colorado City. Herrington's father, A. J. Herrington, pioneered the auto business in Mitchell County.

The elder Mr. Herrington, still active at 95, lives in Brady. He was an early-day Ford agency owner here and still holds the distinction of having sold 83 of the first 84 cars bought by citizens in Mitchell County.

His son, A. A. Herrington, has owned and operated Herrington Auto Parts for 29 years. He and Mrs. Herrington live at 842 East 9th St., Colorado City.

Mahoney has been employed by Herrington for the last 13 years. He expects, he said Saturday afternoon, to continue operating Herrington Auto Parts under its old name.

The new owner, Mahoney, makes his home in Lorraine where he was born. He announces employment of Don Hardegree as his assistant in the business and store.

Quarterback Club Elects

Lorraine Quarterback Club has elected Bill Scarber as new president, Loyd Brame as vice-president.

Ray Preston was named secretary-treasurer and John Miles will serve as reporter.

Quarterback Club members in Lorraine have announced as their main project for the coming season, a plan to buy a projector to use for showing films of all Lorraine games during the coming football season.

L. B. Gibson, New Junior Hi Principal

Frank W. Wilson, superintendent of Colorado Independent Schools, announced Saturday the appointment of L. B. Gibson to the post of principal of Junior High School here.

For the past seven years, Gibson has been principal of the Cooper Junior-Senior High school, just outside the city limits of Lubbock. Before that, he was high school principal at Morton for a three year period. His teaching experience totals 14 years.

Gibson holds his bachelor of science degree and his master of education degree from Texas Technological College and possesses necessary administrative credentials required for certification by the Texas State Department of Education.

He is married and is father of two sons — Roger, 9, and James, 7. With his wife, Ruth, and their children, the 42-year-old principal is now in the process of moving to Colorado City where he will assume his duties at Junior High. Mrs. Gibson is a homemaker.

Gibson was appointed to fill the position held by James Trammell who resigned to accept a post as teacher of vocational agriculture in the high school at Clyde.

Hallie Norman Attends Class At University

Hallie Norman, executive vice-president and manager of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, attended a school of instruction for organization managers at the University of Houston last week.

Norman was a student in the faculty taught university classes Monday through Friday for a total of 35 hours. Evening classes were held Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. Daily classes were held each of the five days for 6 hour periods.

Mrs. Norman and the couple's son Brent spent the week as guests of her family in Malone.

Carroll Gets Promotion

A native Colorado citizen, Howard Carroll, has been promoted to Major Carroll. He received his Oak Leaf while with the 36th Infantry Division undergoing active annual duty at Fort Hood.

Major Carroll, graduate of Colorado High School, is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coker and grandson of the late Mrs. Mary F. Smith Buford where he grew up. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University.

The major has been in military service since May 1944, and with the Texas National Guard since Nov. 1947. He serves the 36th Division as head of air operations.

Sandy McSpadden Injured in Wreck

Sandy (Richard) McSpadden was reported by Root Memorial Hospital spokesman to be "better" Saturday morning. McSpadden, injured about 4 a. m. Friday in a freak one-car accident, regained consciousness late Friday. He suffered multiple abrasions and contusions and two broken ankles when the 62 Chevy II he was driving left East Highway 80 and overturned one and one half times.

The flipping car apparently tossed McSpadden, driving alone, away from his wrecked car to land him in a bar ditch. The car was upside down, 40 feet away in the ditch.

State Highway Patrolman

Don Roberts, called to the scene at 4:20 a. m., said Saturday that the impact wrench ed off both the driver's shoes. The car was reported by Roberts to be "an almost complete loss."

Roberts theorized that McSpadden may have gone to sleep at the wheel and lost control of his car when it left the highway to hit deep sand on the highway shoulder. The accident happened in front of the Lone Wolf Drive-in Theater, about 1 1/2 miles east of Colorado City.

McSpadden was driving here to visit his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McSpadden, 628

Essay Earns Writer $800

June Ritchey, Westbrook High School graduate, has a right to read and smile this week. Along with Lone Wolf Electric Coop she was notified Friday that her essay "The History of Lone Wolf Cooperative" has won her another $500 scholarship to add to the $300 her essay won from Lone Wolf in May.

FIRST IN STATE

June Ritchey Wins $500 Scholarship

By Ruth Coffey
Record News Editor

June Ritchey, Westbrook High School '63 graduate, has been named winner of the $500 first prize in a statewide electric cooperative essay contest.

News that her essay, "The History of Lone Wolf Cooperative," was judged best in the Texas contest for scholarship prizes reached her Friday.

Her prize-winning essay won her a scholarship of $500 to be paid to the college or university of her choice. The Westbrook girl, salutatorian of her graduating class in May, will attend Arlington State.

"The History of Lone Wolf Cooperative," as written by June Ritchey, has already won her a first-place scholarship prize of $300. The $300 scholarship was awarded to her by the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative Inc. here in May, when her essay was judged best written by a high school senior girl in the Lone Wolf area.

The Texas State prize of $500 added to the $300 scholarship she won from Lone Wolf here brings her college fund to $800 earned by one essay.

The essay contest presented a challenge to Miss Ritchey on two counts. Her favorite subjects happen to be history and English. She likes to write and excels in English classes.

Miss Ritchey has spent the seventeen years of her life on a farm north of Westbrook. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ritchey of Star Route, Colorado City, are dryland farmers. The Ritchey home receives its electric power from Lone Wolf Coop.

She has attended Westbrook Rural School all her life. In high school she was a member of the National Honor Society, of the Future Homemakers of America, and played a lively game of basketball as forward for the girls' team. She is a member of First Methodist Church in Westbrook, member of the Youth Fellowship, and taught a class in the church vacation Bible school early this summer.

Fishin' Rodeo Prizes For July

Woman from Post Wins in Four Classes

Fishin' rodeo prizes for July went to lake fishing fans from here, there and yonder.

Colorado City National Fishing Rodeo prizes for last month, listed Saturday morning by the Chamber of Commerce, went to 22 lucky — or persistent — anglers.

The local chamber's large promotion committee headed by Dr. R. D. Bridgford, is sponsoring the contest for sportsmen at both Lake Champion and Lake Colorado City.

Prizes are awarded each month in six classes. Prizes, ranging from certificates for merchandise to $20 cash, are given for the largest fish in all six classes. Fishermen are also awarded prize certificates based on the point system.

Again in July, as in May and June, out-of-town visitors to Lake Colorado City and Lake Champion pulled in most of the prizes. Winning catches were made by visitors from Monahans, Andrews, Post, Midland, Odessa, Big Spring, Roscoe, Snyder, and Colorado City.

A woman from Post, Mrs. C. B. Drake, won prizes in four of the six classes.

Largest bass was reeled in M. C. Coston of Colorado City who caught a 6 lb. bass. Winner of the most points for bass caught in July was Mrs. Carl Bell, Colorado City, with 2150 points. Placing second was W. T. Denson, Roscoe, with 1940; third, Berrile Grable, 600; fourth, Jesse L. Smith, Roscoe, 310; and fifth, R. O. Pomroy, Monahans, 250 points.

Sam Hunt of Odessa brought in the biggest yellow cat entered in the July fish rodeo events. Hunt's cat weighed 20 lbs. even. Point system winners in the yellow cat class were Hunt with 105 points; Charles Fannin of Big Spring with 20 points; and George Gray of Colorado City, with 15 points.

Big Spring fisherman T. E. Underwood caught the prize channel cat. It weighed 8 lbs. to take first prize. Mrs. C. B. Drake of Post placed first under the point system with 1760 points. Ben Dingley Jr., was second with 720 points; Archie Mixon, Colorado City, third with 670 points; B. H. Stout, Odessa, fourth with 540; and Howard

Cures All

To a child a band-aid is the quickest cure, and will heal and protect any wound. This is a wonderful trust... how wonderful it would be if we would place the same trust in the Lord. "Ye that fear the Lord, trust in the Lord: he is their help and their shield." Confidence and faith grows greater with practice. Attend church regularly, study God's word and... "they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Costin Implement Shows Ford 6000

Costin Implement Company new Ford 6000 as having of Colorado City announced "more than 100 improvements this week the introduction of and refinements." It is design a new Ford 6000 series tractor, Costin said, to compete in the over-60-horsepower market. The new tractor currently ket. is coming off the production line at the Ford Motor Company tractor plant at Highland Park, Michigan, and is now on display here at Costin's 274 Oak St. Warren Costin describes the farmer's work easier and more productive.

While acceptance of the tractor was good, Ford continued to test, develop and refine it to make it even more outstanding in performance, durability and dependability. The new 6000 is the result, he said.

Last fall, its first major change since 1957, Ford introduced an entirely new line of 13-cylinder farm and industrial tractors.

The new introduction of the new 6000 series which will be available at Costin Implement Company in either a diesel or gasoline six-cylinder engine, completes a program to improve every tractor in the company's line, said the local dealer.

CONVERSATION CORNER

FIND out what somebody dislikes in various degrees and you have a pretty fair estimate of that somebody's outlook on life.

Collections of dislikes indicate things about character, resilience, or the capricious quality known as personality.

Draw up a list of your own dislikes—all the things, big or little, which raise your blood pressure, send you to the corner to pout, or make you feel so rebellious in your soul you feel like kicking a fender.

Tastes can change as the years go by
You look at the world with a more practiced eye—
But some things you'll hate 'til the day you die:
Turnips, hair curlers . . . grown people who lie.

WHILE the list you draw up of your own special irritants may not match that of anybody else in the world, isn't it fun to find a kindred soul who hates some of the things you have a hate on?

Having hates in common is far more likely to make people feel compatible than liking the same things. Disliking in duet draws two people closer, gives a feeling of empathy—or even of that condition described by the overworked and somewhat nauseous phrase, "togetherness."

IF anybody cares, we could live without the everlasting use of that word stupid—specially when it comes out pronounced "stupid." Could live without 99 out of 100 radio and/or TV commercials.

Sometimes feel it would be a much happier world without heat waves . . . fish for Friday . . . this thing called "modern art" which looks exactly like raspberry jam and peanut butter some young man splashed on the linoleum . . . pointed shoes . . . plastic tablecloths.

FAVORITE hate, for now, happens to be a tire that dares blow out when ladies are 50 miles from home. Longer you live, though, the surer you are that the one thing you can count on in a pinch is the human element. The old art of chivalry of courtesy, of helpfulness, and Good Samaritanism is NOT dead. Knighthood is still in flower along many a highway and byway.

BY WAY of proof: three knights, perfect strangers who looked more like good-natured ranchers than Sir Galahads, stopped their station wagon, boat, trailer and all when a tire did dare to blow.

"Got a flat?" they said without preamble. Then, "got a jack and a spare?"

They had that red Falcon back on its feet in nothing flat—and no pun intended. "Don't forget to take the emergency brake off," they cautioned as they sauntered back to their wagon and watched while we took off for a service station in Robert Lee.

SOMEWHERE in Lockney live three gentlemen. Three "true Texans." Didn't exchange names just hometowns along with an invitation to come fish C-City's lakes. They'd been fishing Falcon Dam.

If they hadn't come along—come along and stopped—there's a C-City woman and her daughter who would have been there 'til yet, maybe.

One of the things we admit to not liking the most is the mere thought of trying to change a tire in 101 degree weather. And that, ladies and gentlemen, is a plain, undiluted statement of fact, any day of the week.

BEING GLAD comes, a whole life through, under two labels. One holds all the things people are glad because they didn't happen. The other is reserved for things people are glad because they did.

Ruth Grantland (Mrs. E. V.) of 716 East 5th is being glad for the nicest reason of all. She's grandmother to a baby girl born in Dallas to son James H. Grantland and his pretty wife Janelle (Ball).

The baby arrived July 23, weighs 6 lbs. and is named Jana Lynelle. Jana is first grandchild for both sides of the family. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ball, 2501 High View Terrace, Ft. Worth. Ruth spent last weekend in Big D admiring her son's daughter. She admits it.

SEEN LATELY—Hallie Norman back from a vacation trip . . . Evelyn Bowles (Mrs. Perry) on the shopping scene . . . Virginia Dearen (Mrs. Toby) of the county clerk's office . . . Mallie Lou Wallace (Mrs. Rip) of City Hall . . . Jo Wyatt Bassinger of Col-Tex offices . . . and Rae Ann Hamlin (Mrs. Bin) of City National.

Here from the Erwin Ranch at Stanton, Friday, were Mary Lou (Logan) Erwin, husband Curtis Erwin Jr. and son David. Mary's daughter of the D. M. Logans, 704 East 5th. Curt's mother is Viola (Powell) Erwin (Mrs. Curtis). See CONVERSATION CORNER Page 4

MOVE FROM SILVER

Gilberts Not New To C-City Activities

Mr. and Mrs. A. Paul Gilbert, Jr., former Silver residents, are now living in Colorado City, at 2108 Vine St. Gilbert is chief clerk in Sun Oil Company's office at Silver. He has been with the company for almost 16 years, headquartering the past 12 years in Silver.

The Gilberts are parents of four children, three boys and a girl. With three of the children in school, the family decided to move to Colorado City for the convenience of town schools.

Paul and Helen Gilbert are not newcomers to Colorado City. They are members of All Saints Episcopal Church, where he served on the Bishop's Committee, has been chairman of the Every Member Canvass and is presently an usher.

Gilbert likes to play golf on occasion, and "build things." The hi-fi set he assembled was a project which included wood work on the cabinet as well as piece-by-piece assembly of the inner mechanism.

He is a graduate of the Vernon (Texas) High School, and attended the University of Texas.

Mrs. Gilbert is interested in church work also, and hopes to be more active as soon as the family is settled in their new home. She shares her husband's interest in golf, but admits that she gets to play very seldom. Reading is a treasured pastime, as is bridge, when time allows. With four active children to care for, time for reading and bridge is sometimes scarce, Mrs. Gilbert remarks.

She is a native of Plainsfield, New Jersey, and was

EASY TO FIX, GOOD TO EAT

Cookin' Corner Features One-Dish Casserole Meals

Casseroles and easy-to-fix one-dish meals are being featured in this week's Cookin' Corner.

All recipes are favorites of local residents, have been "pre-tested" in their kitchens, and guaranteed not to flop!

Mrs. G. D. Foster, 806 Vine, donated this chicken recipe. It calls for cooked, or "steamed" chicken which is done on the stove and makes a broth.

Chicken Casserole
2 cups diced cooked chicken

1 1/2 tsp. soy sauce
1 c. chopped celery
1 c. chopped onions
1 can cream of mushroom soup, mixed with 1/2 c. chicken broth

Mix above ingredients together. Spread a portion in bottom of casserole dish, top with cooked chow mein noodles, and continue with alternating layers. Top with cashew nuts. Cook for 20 minutes in a 350 degree oven.

Mrs. Sam Thompson, Plainview Community, often prepares this dish by itself for a complete meal or sometimes serves it with a tossed green salad.

Beef Casserole
1 small onion
1 piece bell pepper
2 Tbs. shortening
1 lb. ground meat
salt, pepper to taste
1 can tomato soup
1 can corn
1 box macaroni
Brown the chopped onion and chunk of bell pepper in pan with small amount of shortening. Add the ground meat, which has been salted and peppered to taste. Cook until meat changes, or lightens in color, but doesn't brown. Add tomato soup. Simmer for 1/2 hour. Add the corn and cook for several minutes more.

Serve over macaroni and top with grated cheese.

Mrs. Wilson Hibcock, 709 E. 6th St., serves this chicken meal at the table in the same dish in which it cooked. She finds it especially good served in the German fashion, over cooked rice.

Barbecued Chicken In Oven
1 2 1/2 lb. chicken, cut up
1 c. catsup
1 c. water

Adventure in Words Proves New World

BY DORIS ANN ALLEN
Record Staff Writer

A month ago, just as the July heat wave hit, three young children began what for them was an adventure in a different world.

The world was our local Primary School. The adventure was instruction in the English language.

These three children, two boys and a girl, have lived in the Republic of Mexico until recently and knew only Spanish. They have been doing fine work in their English studies.

One boy, aged 10, attended school in Mexico and is expected to advance quickly in regular school sessions this fall. The other boy, 8, and the girl, 6, have never been to school.

"They were very shy at first," said Mrs. Swan Cramer, first grade teacher at Primary. "I couldn't get them to open their mouths at all."

The three are members of a class of 19 now enrolled in the school's preparatory English classes. They were even behind the others, who knew some English words, mostly nouns, in varying amounts.

All of the children are having trouble with the verb forms, also pronouns. Until recently, a common mistake was saying — "This is John. He is a boy."

Case, their timidity was quite well. Timidity, however, still seems to be the main problem, even for adventures into a different world, according to Mrs. Cramer.

"They learn very quickly — it seems to me their achievement is far beyond that of the English-speaking child," she said.

"The children are very well-behaved. Even in regular school, I have almost no discipline problems."

Surprising as it may seem, Mrs. Cramer doesn't speak See ADVENTURE Pg. 4

New Ford '6000' is Here

Rugged and ready for the big jobs is the new Ford 6000 series tractor just announced by COSTIN IMPLEMENT COMPANY. The new 6000 has more than 100 improvements and refinements, said Mr. Costin. It is now coming off the production lines at Ford Motor Company's tractor plant in Highland Park, Michigan. The 6000, said Mr. Costin, is designed to compete in the over-60-horsepower market. The engineering improvements in the new 6000 make it even more outstanding in performance, durability and dependability.

there. After high school, she attended Miss Whitman's School for Girls, a junior college in Newark, New Jersey. The Gilberts met through a mutual friend during a visit he made to New Jersey.

The Gilbert children are a versatile group, taking part in scouting, baseball, band, as well as other youth activities.

The oldest boy, Paul, aged 14, is known as "Gil" to his family and friends. Gil will be a 9th grade student in Colo-graduated from high school last June when school begins September 3. He has played trumpet in the band at Silver since the 4th grade, and hopes to resume his band work this fall after being away from it last year. Gil is a Life Scout and a member of Troop 23, C-City. He likes baseball and was a player on the Pony League Athletics team this summer.

Stephen, 13, is also a member of the boy scouts, with the rank of Star Scout. He plays the cornet and will continue with the band this year. Interested in radio, Steve has built radio sets and would like to be a "ham." He also played baseball with the Athletics of the Pony League this year.

Youngest boy in the family is John, 9 years old. He is a Cub Scout and hopes to further his work toward a Bear badge with a local den as soon as school starts. Also a baseball player, John was on the Mets this year, Little League Farm team.

Last, but by no means least, according to her mother, is the five-year old, Elaine. Elaine, following in her big brother's footsteps, is somewhat of a tomboy. Like so many little girls with older brothers, she is expected to grow out of "boy things" and into the ruffles and frills that are the world of girls, sooner or later.

Rounding out the family is a mongrel dog, who bears the proud name of "Lady."

Spanish. She knows only a little Spanish, but that's all right for this class. She reverts to their native tongue only on occasion, to emphasize a point, and her point is to teach them English. Some of the class (about 10) can already carry on a conversation in English.

"If I don't remind them to speak in English, they will talk in Spanish among themselves. I'm strict about their speaking English in class," Mrs. Cramer remarked.

The class program is "highly recreational." Mrs. Cramer uses many simple action songs and talking games to good advantage, such as "This is the way I comb my hair..." Other teaching aids used are film strips and playing of records.

Mrs. Cramer carries various foods, such as potatoes, onions, beans and fruits, to class to demonstrate the meaning of their names. Other articles are used, too. Pencils, a desk or a dress help teach the children their English names.

Since they are learning the pledge to the flag, it is the first thing they do every morning. Two pupils can already recite the pledge. The pledge is followed by questions and answers, which go something like this:

"Whose flag is this?" — "Our country's flag."
"What is the name of our country?" — "The United States."

"They are really quite interested in it," Mrs. Cramer noted. "Of course they don't understand the meaning of the words yet, but they will when they get older. I think this is one of the first things we should instill in them, that it is our (meaning theirs, too) country, our flag, and to be proud of it."

"I also teach them to be proud of their own heritage, too, because they have a wonderful one—in some ways even better than our own," she said.

Do the boys and girls enjoy school or feel it is a chore? Mrs. Cramer reports that they love it. They laugh together when one of them gets mixed up and makes a mistake in his English. The teacher stressed their good attitude, willingness and amazing quickness to learn.

Brooks Teague, Primary principal, is enthusiastic about the program and thinks it is doing better than it ever has before.

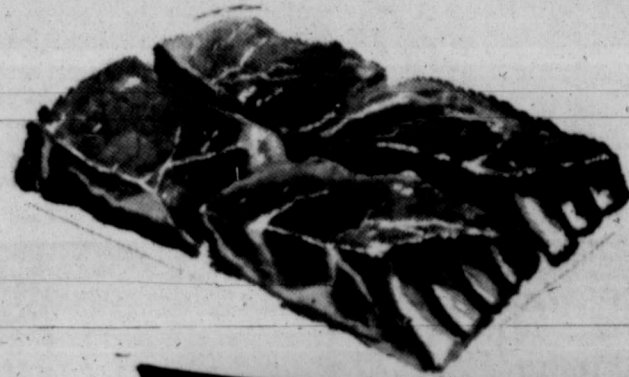

"We're real pleased with the progress they've been making," he said. "I thought that there was a great need to do something for these children. It is one of the most rewarding and challenging things I've ever done."

All students will start school in the first grade this fall and will be able to keep up in a mixed class of Spanish and English-speaking children.
