Cats Claim Baseball Title 2 Weeks Early

Cats have won the championship of Cross Plains Little League. The victors grabbed a second consecutive pennant in Thursday's nightcap by edging the Kilowatts 6-5.

The championship was decided with four games, two weeks, remaining on the schedule. Cats were helped into the throne room when the Beadels upset the second place Buffs 9-7 in Thursday's opener. That coupled with the Cat win decided the championship. The Cats' perfect 14-0 mark lead the Buffs by five games going into Tuesday's action.

Cinch Title Share

Beadels clinched at least a share of the pennant for the Cats in the first game Thursday in upending the Buffs 9-7. Beadels got three runs in the second inning, but Buffs got a 4-3 lead with a pair of tallies in the third and fifth. Eventual winners regained the edge with three in the fifth. Buffs scored three in the sixth for a 7-6 margin, but again the Beadels rallied for the 9-7 triumph.

Ken Hunter got the win in five innings with Sam Koenig getting a save in a relief inning. Loser was Lloyd Corley in two relief frames of Greg Pancake who started.

Cats had to come from behind to defeat the Kilowatts 6-5 and take the loop championship.

Cats earned a 2-0 lead in the last of the third, but Kilos mounted a five-run rally in the top of the fourth. Cats regained form and first four batters scored in the bottom of the fourth. Bill Holland was the winner in going the distance. Losing pitcher was Ronnie Hutchins in a relief inning of Jimmy Green.

Baugh Hurls Shutout

Steve Baugh hurled a four-inning no-hit shutout in Tuesday's first game as the Buffs defeated the Kilowatts 15-0. Baugh struck out six Kilos, but allowed base runners in every frame, issuing nine walks. Buffs tallied eight runs in the first inning and added seven more in the third. Green was the loser in two and two-thirds frames with Bill Reed coming on for the last out.

Cats scored 12 runs in the first half-inning in Tuesday's nightcap en route to a 15-3 win over the Beadels. Winning hurler was Jimmy Crawford who allowed only one hit, but issued nine free passes. Hunter started for the Beadels, but was relieved in the first by Clarence Tennison.

New Election Set In Commissioner Race

District Judge Raleigh Brown invalidated a recent runoff election for county commissioner in Precinct 2 of Callahan County and ordered a new vote to be held July 7. The decree was based upon an agreement by litigants Monday afternoon in a hearing at Baird.

Results of the runoff election June 6 gave Lowell Johnson a two-vote majority over incumbent Glen Swor who was seeking a fourth term.

Spotted Showers Fall Last Sunday

Mid-afternoon showers Sunday dumped up to two inches of rainfall on localities east and northeast of Cross Plains.

In Cross Plains, though, the precipitation measured only .45 of an inch.

Sabanno received two inches as did Lakewood Recreation Center. Rising Star got only .56. W. O. (Doc) Rachels gauged 1.80 at his place in the Pioneer community. Cross Cut received 1.25 inches.

Showers petered out west of Cross Plains with only a trace falling at the Cutbirth Ranch.

2 LOCAL YOUTHS ESCAPE SERIOUS HURT IN MISHAP

Stanley Goble and Benny Free of Cross Plains escaped serious injury in a two-car crash at Coleman Sunday. Goble's car was heavily damaged.

A petition was filed by Tom Gordon of Abilene, Swor's attorney, alleging that the Eula voting box was not within the boundaries of Precinct 2, but was actually a part of Precinct 1, and that ballots polled in the race at the Eula box did not conform with the provisions of Texas Election Code.

Judge Brown also ruled in the case that the people who voted at the Eula box were proper residents and should be allowed to vote in the new election.

"It's no fault of theirs that the box was at an illegal place," Judge Brown said.

Swor lost the Eula box by 10 votes, Johnson receiving 11 votes and Swor 1.

Results of voting at other boxes in Precinct 2 during the runoff election were Denton Valley, Johnson 63 and Swor 58; Oplin, Johnson 45 and Swor 59; absentee, Johnson three and Swor two.

The judge also ordered that cost in employing election judges and clerks should be borne by the two candidates. Expense of printing ballots and meeting to canvass returns would be responsibility of the Callahan County Democratic executive committee, Judge Brown said.

Attorneys for Johnson at the hearing were Bob Hanna and Bill Thomas.

Absentee voting for the election will begin June 29 and continue through July 2.

MOTHER OF 4 LITTLE ONES WILL GET M.A.

Mrs. Ross (Mary Catherine) Rowlett, young mother of four children, oldest of whom are a pair of six-year-old twins, has completed work for a master's degree at Howard Payne College in Brownwood. She will receive the advanced degree at summer commencement Aug. 14.

Mrs. Rowlett, whose husband is a math instructor at Cross Plains High School, has been attending night classes and doing extension work two years. Friends say she filled her double role — mother and student — with no apparent difficulty.

Many Unaware Of New Home Rights

It is estimated that as many as 50 Cross Plains families are probably eligible to buy new three or four-bedroom homes with a down payment of only $200. Many are unaware of their eligibility for the benefits under Section 235 of the National Housing Act, say local lumbermen who are in position to explain the situation to interested persons.

"Financial help is available to enable low income families to buy their own home," according to Tom Yager, president of the Lumbermen's Association of Texas, "but many are not familiar with this program. To get complete details on the provisions of this section of the National Housing Act," Yager advised, "see your local lumber dealer."

The program offers assistance in the form of monthly payments by the Department of Housing and Urban Development to the leading institutions to reduce interest cost on a market rate home mortgage insured by FHA if a homeowner cannot afford to make a conventional loan.

MRS. E. W. RIGGS TO HOSPITAL IN ABILENE

Mrs. E. W. Riggs was rushed to West Texas Medical Center in Abilene by Higginbotham ambulance Tuesday morning.

HOBBLED HAWK POSES A PUZZLE

A hobbled hawk flew into the chicken yard of R. H. Wooten, in the southwest part of town, Tuesday morning and was caught on the limbs of a dead mesquite.

The bird, apparently larger than average for his species, had his legs tied about four inches apart with a strong leather strap. Some believe that the bird had escaped from captivity, where he may have been undergoing training to become a hunter, much as falcons are trained and used. This, though, was merely conjecture. How the strap got there remained a riddle.

Mr. Wooten showed the bird to friends around town.

Spencer has called another meeting to be held in the courthouse the afternoon of July 24 to hear reports from all committee chairmen and finalize any other details which may require attention at that time.

Review Wins First Places In State Newspaper Contests

The Cross Plains Review has won two first places and one third in Texas Press Association contests for newspapers published in towns of less than 2,000 population. Results were announced at an awards breakfast Friday morning at the Astroworld Hotel in Houston during annual convention of TPA.

First place plaques were presented the Review in column writing and in appearance. A third place certificate was won in news feature writing.

The Review had previously won the column writing contest three times, the appearance category once, a first in news writing and 15 certificates.

Jim Gilmore of Houston, editor of Humble Oil Company's magazine Oilways, who began his journalistic career on the Review, picked up the trophies for the home town newspaper when no member of the local staff could attend the Houston presentation.

Peanut Queen Event Open To Local Girls From 17 To 21

Young ladies from counties in the peanut producing area are reminded of the second annual Texas State Peanut Queen Pageant to be held at Eastland Aug. 14 and 15.

Rules and regulations and other relevant information have been mailed to county agents and Chambers of Commerce throughout this section of Texas.

To be eligible a contestant must reside in a peanut producing county, must be single (never married), not less than 17 nor more than 21 years of age as of Aug. 13, 1970, and must have the ability to communicate intelligently with poise and charm.

Contestants will be judged on a two minute oral presentation on the peanut industry, appearances in swimsuit and evening dress, a talent number, and ability to respond to questions related to the peanut in a brief, unrehearsed interview. They should be able to travel when requested and required to travel with appropriate chaperone approved by the TTPB. If attending school contestants must be maintaining average or better grades. If not in school, contestants must have been an average or better student.

The winner will receive the honor of being Texas Peanut Queen, scholarship fund of $500, and travel expenses as determined by the Texas Peanut Producers Board.

3 Are Charged In Assault On Man

Charges of "aggravated assault with intent to do serious bodily injury" have been filed in county court at Baird against three former Cross Plains men and a Rising Star man in connection with an attack on Sherman Daniels of Cross Plains.

The alleged attack reportedly took place June 13 at a lake north of Cross Plains where Daniels was fishing. It was reported that the victim suffered a broken jaw and other injuries in the altercation and was hospitalized for a time last week.

Charged were James Evans, Darwin Cain and Terry Dewbre, and all are free on bond.

FORMER LOCAL MAN IS DISTINGUISHED SCHOLAR

Mike McClure of Baytown, formerly of Cross Plains and the son of Mrs. W. T. McClure and the late Mr. McClure, has been named a distinguished scholar at Lee College for his academic achievement during the Spring semester.

The 1958 graduate of CPHS compiled a 3.5 grade average on a four point system.

2 GIRL SCOUTS ATTENDING WOODLAKE ENCAMPMENT

Cross Plains has two girls attending a Girl Scout encampment on Brownwood Lake. They are Dana Richardson and Betsy Bowden, who will be at Camp Woodlake two weeks. Mary Schaefer of Cross Plains will go Monday for one week at camp.

2 Local Men Play Vital Roles In Archaeological Survey

Two Cross Cut men — Bransford Eubank and D. J. Smalley — have returned from the newly established Guadalupe Mountains National Park, where they spent 10 days with Texas Archaeological Society and participated in a survey of early Indian occupation of that area.

Two hundred and twenty people attended and camped in a canyon at the 6,000 foot level. The group spread about over many sections of the park, probing for signs of early life. Mountains from 3,700 feet to 8,700 were said to have been carefully checked. Crews went out from the camp in 4-wheel drive vehicles, each assigned to a particular portion of the park. Particular study was given to pottery types, artifacts, mortar holes, hearths and pits where aotol heads were roasted and types of stone used to make Indian hand tools.

10 Crews Work

Each day 10 crews went out. The second day was spent in cataloging material brought in. Rock shelters were inspected for signs of occupation as well as for drawings or pictographs. Something less than one-half of those in attendance were wives and children, who remained in the camp. Children were organized into groups and did systematic exploration of a large midden near the campsite. They, too, catalogued findings which were sent to a laboratory for detailed study.

"As barren as the country appears," Eubank said, "there has been considerable, rather remarkably so, occupation of the park country over a number of years. Further study will be necessary to determine how many people were there and for how long."

Latest occupants of the area are said to have been Navajo Indians. Little evidence, though, was left of their stay in the sector.

Old Way Station

Near the camp are the ruins of Pine Springs way station of the old Butterfield Stage line, as well as a soldiers' camp during Indian campaigns.

Many early Spanish explorers used the Guadalupe Pass, archaeologists say, and among them was Jose Maris, who while returning to Mexico in August of 1787 passed down Turkey Creek, spending one night at its mouth on the Bayou.

The two Cross Cut men's roles were described as being most helpful for the survey. Smalley managed the camp and Eubank did plant identification, acquiring for himself a painfully suburned nose.

Burkett Residents Told To Pick Up Dishes Soon

By Mrs. A. H. Carroll

For many years it has been the custom for people in the Burkett Community who receive food from friends for various reasons, especially when there has been a death in a family, to leave the dishes at the post office lobby. Mrs. Burkett has been happy to take care of this service, and many times has made deliveries of these dishes when the names were attached. Since it is mandatory that the post office lobby be kept neat and uncluttered, the public is advised to discontinue taking dishes there to be picked up, as they are never all claimed. The ones there now that have been left for many months and even several years, are being taken to the Community Center to be used there or to be picked up by the rightful owners. Hereafter each person taking food to a bereaved family is urged to put their name on their container, and the recipient of the food shall return the container to you or keep it at their home until you claim it.

Visiting over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Walker was the women's sister, Mrs. McAdams, and Mr. McAdams of Cross Plains.

Week end visitors in the George Johnson home were his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Speck, of Santa Anna and their daughter, Mrs. Jo Greenbauer, and Cliff and Scott of Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Golden of Clifton and Mr. Johnson's brother, Homer Johnson, of Cross Plains. Mrs. Ethel Thate visited her mother, Mrs. Lura Bullard, at Holiday Hills Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Bullard has been on the sick list, but has improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Strickland and family of Coleman visited Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Boyle on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Walker of Lampasas visited in the J. T. Walker home Friday, and left Cathy and Kim to spend two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Walker of Burleson spent from Friday until Sunday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boyle spent the week end in East Texas with their daughter and family.

A. G. Boyle hasn't been well the last two or three weeks. He is staying at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Reese Porter. He is reported some better.

We had a good shower of rain first of the week. It cooled the temperature some.

I wish more of our residents would call in news. It is difficult to try to write the community's news unless I am notified. I thank those who call or turn in news.

Pioneer Community's Peanut Crops Are In Perfect Growing Condition

By Mrs. J. T. Beggs

We are rejoicing over a most timely rain received Sunday. It was just right to help peanuts already started up and will bring up those just planted. J. T. Beggs had one field that was too dry to plant, but the rain solved that problem.

Mrs. Doss Alexander's recent visitors were her daughter, Mrs. D. P. Jones and son, Skipper, of Corpus Christi; her nephew, Jaq Hughes, and family of Crane; her son, James Alexander, and family of Clyde, their daughter, Starr of Corpus Christi, and their son, Jim, and Maria Shahan of Abilene. She reported that her grandson, Mike Fritchlee, who has been staying with her, accepted a job in Dallas and will work there remainder of the summer.

The Fred Zedlets of Tahoka visited the Homer Parsons Saturday and the Cowan Huttons Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Parson visited the Clifton J. Kirkhams in Cross Plains recently. Bryan Sears had supper with the Parsons Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Delma Dean are back from a family reunion in Enid, Okla. It was the first time in a long time they had visited in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Beggs and sons celebrated Father's Day by having Sunday lunch with David Beggs at Carbon. His brother, Sam Beggs, and family were also present.

Billy Zirkle reported planting a field of peanuts, which was too dry, just on faith. It began to rain as they finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Gray have returned from a visit with her brother, Henry Ringhoffer, in Stanton. Visitors with them Sunday were: Mrs. Overa Gray, Mrs. Rudy Towery of Stanton, Mrs. Zada Dixon of Lubbock, Mrs. A. J. Arledge and Nancy of Cross Cut, Mrs. Edwin Schaefer and children of Sabanno, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gray of Rising Star and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Tonne and son, David, of San Angelo. During the week Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ringhoffer of Romney and Mrs. C. B. Hester and granddaughter, Carla, visited them.

Week end visitors in the home of Mrs. W. R. Gibson were: Mr. and Mrs. William Gibson and Marsha of San Antonio, Miss Debbie Gibson of New York City, W. R. Gibson, Jr. and two children of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gibson and two children of Brownwood and Mrs. M. B. King of Cross Plains. Sara Jane Gibson of Houston is spending the week with her grandmother.

SCOTCH FOURSOME SET AT LAKEWOOD FRIDAY

A Scotch foursome golf tournament will be held at Lakewood Recreation Center Friday beginning at 5:15 p.m.

Women will tee off on even numbered holes with men hitting first on odd numbered ones in the nine-hole event. A long driving contest will be held on the number one tee.

Old Family Holds Annual Gathering

Descendants of the late Catherine and J. J. Sikes of Clyde and the late Sarah and Vincent Walls of Altus, Okla., met at Cobb Park in Abilene for 20th annual reunion recently. There were 80 in attendance, coming from Arkansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, California and many parts of Texas.

In August 1950 the children of the late Mary Ann (Mollie) Walls Sikes, widow of the late Watson Sikes of the Rowden community, invited all of the members of the Walls and Sikes families to celebrate the 90th birthday of Mrs. Sikes. At that party it was decided to make the meeting of the families an annual affair.

Of unusual interest at the recent meeting was the attendance of all seven children of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sikes of Baird. They are Norbon Sr. of Portales, N. M., W. Claude of Abilene, J. Anthony of Baird, James Herbert of Roswell, N. M., Mrs. Otis (Eunice) Richardson of Santee, Calif., Mrs. J. P. (Bessye) Smedley of Baird and Mrs. Iva McGowan of Austin.

Plans were made to meet on the second Saturday in June 1971.

LOCAL LADY RE-ENTERS HOSPITAL AT COLEMAN
