TEXAS AND TEXANS

Texas Empires

THERE was a time when Texas had a feeling of pride in being called the "Empire State." Texas development has reached the point when there are empires within empire, and writers and speakers frequently speak of the empire of East Texas or West Texas or South Texas or North Texas. Lately we are beginning to hear of still further empiric divisions, as the "Empire of the South Plains." Speaking of that section, W. A. Thomas, president of the Texas Association of Real Estate Boards ,recently said in a speech at Lubbock: "This vast staked plains section is destined to be the seat of one of the greatest populaces in the entire South." Mr. Thomas thinks that the California and Florida "booms" have had their day, and that those states are suffering from the reaction due to high pressure real estate salesmanship.

Sounds Warning

MR. THOMAS, like many other Texans, fears that Texas may be an inviting for many of the grafters and promoters who have been operating to the detriment of California and Florida, since it is well known that prosperity of a kind that Texas is now enjoying always attracts unethical real estate dealers. He said: "A veritable empire awaits them, and they are almost ready to come in and ply their illegal and unethical tactics, fleecing the property owners and citizens of their fortunes." To avoid this, he urges a thorough organization and cooperation on the part of the responsible real estate dealers of the state

Would Stop Tenancy

FROM 1920 to 1925 there was an increase of 17 per cent in the number of farms in Texas operated by tenants, and in 1925, 60.4 per cent of the Texas farmers were tenants. Three-fourths of the cotton grown in the state is grown by tenants. All agree that this is not best for agriculture or for the centers that depend largely upon farming. The happiest and most prosperous people are homeowners. Landlords recognize this, and most of them would sell their farms if they could, but so long as tenants rely upon cotton as the single farm crop they will likely never make enough financial headway to become landowners. The hope for a change in conditions rests in the encouragement by landlords, bankers, and merchants of diversification on tenant farms, with dairying, poultry and livestock given especial attention.

Conditions Improving

THERE are indications all over Texas that farming methods are changing for the better. For instance, three items in one column of a Sunday paper tell of new interests in three separate places. From Clarendon it is seen that there are more orders being received for baby chicks than ever before and that more dairy cattle are being brought into Donley County than at any time in its history, there being now three times more milk cows than a year ago. At Plainview farmers are putting in large numbers of feed-grinding mills and are using home-ground feed instead of the kind formerly shipped in. At Lamesa 75 head of registered dairy cattle and the same number of registered hogs have been brought in during the past year, there now being 5,000 high grade Jersey cows in Dawson County Both Clarendon and Lamesa report need for creameries, and that the need will likely soon be supplied.

Creameries Being Built

WHEN between 2,000 and 3,000 people attend the opening of a new industry, the people are clearly interested. That number were at the opening of a new creamery at Ballinger recently, and 1,000 went to the court house to listen to an address on dairying and the creamery industry. At Center $15,000 in stock in a $40,000 creamery was subscribed by the citizens in about two hours after a proposition to build was submitted to the people. Ballinger and Center are about 400 miles apart, but interest in dairying is becoming as strong in one part of the state as another.

Profits From Cows

HERE is why Center was so quick to subscribe the money necessary to secure a ready market for dairy products. Some 60 miles from there, at Longview, Joe Goodjoin owns four cows. His feed bill for the cows last year was $414.55. He sold milk and butter produced by those cows to the amount of $1,479.90. The Center people may not have known about Goodjoin's returns from his cows, but they knew something of the profits that the farmers have been realizing from milk they have been shipping to Shreveport.

Short Course to Come to Snyder March 22 and 23

Plans have been under way in Scurry County for some time to bring here one of the most attractive farm short courses ever offered. The committee being unable to secure dates for the International Harvester course for another year, a movement early got under way to secure a program of Texas people, strictly acquainted with Texas conditions and West Texas audiences and to provide a two-day program that should bring thousands to Snyder to hear their messages March 22 and 23.

The short course plan this year will be to separate the men and women at the morning session, later bringing them together for the afternoon and evening meetings Specialists who are experts in their particular line will bring new ideas and plans to this section that will mean for new interest awakened in the various agricultural projects possible in this section.

Aside from the intellectual part of the program, entertainment is to be provided by local and out-of-county talent, together with Snyder High's famous broadcasting orchestra and their helpers, Davis Bros. and Hoyle Bros.

Among those who will appear on the program will be A. K. Short, associated with the Federal Land Bank, Houston, formerly associated with the Agricultural Foundation, and later as an agricultural worker for the Robert Nicholson Seed Company. Mr. Short is familiarly known as "Dad" and has won national recognition for his broadcasting programs. He is considered one of the oustanding agricultural men of the South. Mr Short will talk on "The Ten Commandments."

Phoebe K. Warner, one of the most widely known speakers and writers in the state and known for her articles on agriculture, and now working under the auspices of the Texas Farm Bureau, is another of the high lights of the program.

Another member is Mrs. Carl Hoffman of Denton County, who has made Hoffman's English Leghorns famous, who will bring her story of starting in the poultry business after she was 35 years of age, and now at the head of one of the largest poultry ranches in the country. Advance publicity concerning Mrs. Hoffman relates that it is an inspiration to hear her story and of her efforts in getting to the highest plane in the profession.

The personnel and committees in charge of the Short Course include:

Executive Chairman, C. C. Willis, county agent.

Arrangement Committee: H. G. Towle, chairman, Joe Caton, Henry Rosenberg, T. L. Lollar and W. J. Ely. The duties of this committee are to arrange the hall, see that lights and heat are furnished and to complete all arrangements for stage setting, moving picture screen and various equipment.

METHODIST MEETING TO BEGIN SOON

The meeting at the Methodist Church will begin either March 25 or April 1. We feel the need of a meeting, and we are going to try to present the claims of Christ to the community and to the lives of the people. We rejoice in the growth and prosperity of Snyder, but we are most thoroughly convinced that there is one thing needful with us—a closer walk with God.

J. F. LAWLIS.

NYDER WINS FIRST

The Farm Demonstration Train that was recently in Snyder under the auspices of the Santa Fe system and A. & M. College brought out the fact that of all the towns and cities visited, Snyder won first prize for providing the largest attendance.

A letter from Mr. A. M. Hove, assistant editor of The Orth, Santa Fe publication, said:

"Times-Signal:

'Your letter of the 11th with clippings about the demonstration train is greatly appreciated. We completed the run Sunday night. We had a most successful tour except for one day of real stormy weather. Snyder had the largest attendance of all the stops in the Panhandle & Santa Fe Railway Territory. The total attendance for the entire tour exceeded 10,000.

Signed: "A. M. HOVE."

Snyder Boosters To Accompany Team to Dublin

The Snyder High Tigerettes basketball team continued their season's clean record Saturday night when they defeated Trent High, 29 to 25. It was one of the most bitterly fought and hardest contested games that the locals has been in this year, but a dazzling passing attack in the final quarter with some clever work on the part of the entire team made it possible for Snyder to win, which will enable them to enter the state tournament at Dublin, commencing next Thursday, a decided favorite. Already many local people have stated they will accompany the girls in landing the 1929 meet for Snyder.

The winning record of Snyder High Tigerettes this year has been remarkable, as in but very few cases have they been required to extend their efforts to attain a victory. They have a well balanced team that from the center to the guards, and then forwards, are made up of fast, clean and intelligent players who are operating every minute of the game to attain their goal, a victory for old Snyder High.

Roscoe 27, Snyder 31.
Loraine 14, Snyder 30.
Lamesa 22, Snyder 29.
Dunn 17, Snyder 21.
Lamesa 14, Snyder 22.
Sweetwater 0, Snyder 1 (forfeit).
Post 15, Snyder 28.
Hermleigh 13, Snyder 27.
Colorado 7, Snyder 25.
Ira 22, Snyder 33.
Post 14, Snyder 35.
Trent 25, Snyder 29.
Total, opponents 204; Snyder 338

Twenty cars are needed to go to Dublin, and interested folks should get in touch with Coach F. M. Crouch at the high school building, phone 83, at once, that definite arrangements may be completed by next Tuesday noon. Suggestion after suggestion has been made that Snyder High's famous broadcasting orchestra should be taken on the trip.

Yea, boy! Let's GO!

The Methodist Sunday school of Colorado recently challenged the First Methodist Sunday school of Snyder to a pitched battle on attendance, new pupils, staying at church and collection. Rev. J. F. Lawlis and Sunday School Superintendent A. C. Preuitt accepted the challenge. The contest is to run during March and April, and the winner will be the church scoring the most points during that time.

The contest will be based on a score worked out by committees of the two churches based on four points as given above. The Colorado church was given a slight handicap owing to their having the largest congregation, yet the figures given out last Sunday, the opening day of the pitched battle, gave Snyder three wins and one defeat. On attendance, on a five and six basis, Snyder had 250, while Colorado had 352; Snyder had nine new pupils in attendance and Colorado ten; staying at church after Sunday school, Snyder 208, as against 154 for Colorado. On collection, Snyder had $130, while Colorado had $83.00.

Snyder has entered this contest to win, and every committee of the local church is bending every effort to defeat their Mitchell County brethren.

It looks like old times to see our genial friend, Tom Boren, behind the counter at Stinson Drug No. 2 store. If anyone knows how to treat customers finer or nicer than Tom, brother trot 'em out.

Directors Meet in Good Session at C. of C. Room

The Scurry County Chamber of Commerce held an official meeting Friday in which every member of the board of directors was present. One of their most important duties was the matter of placing proper road signs in order that motor traffic could easily find its way out of town. The Commissioners Court had previously indicated a desire to place road signs at all lateral road crossings in Scurry County. A committee was appointed to work the problem out with the City Council and Commissioners Court. The committee is composed of Judge Horace Holley, chairman, Hugh Boren and Warren Dodson.

President Bullock brought out the thought that Sec'y M. G. Evans had paid $174.17 during the past month for bills contracted previous to the latter's coming to Snyder. Mr. Bullock also pointed out that the new secretary had visited and made talks to 15 community gatherings, attended 12 banquets, sponsored the Snyder Luncheon Club, placed 250 cotton bollers, 13 single and married hands among the farmers and had rented nine farms.

President Bullock also pointed out that Secretary Evans had made a trip to Fort Worth in the interests of a creamery and for a new arrangement on the price of cream. In talking about the cream situation, Mr Evans said: "We owe our produce men every assistance, as they are fighting day and night to get better prices for us, but there seems to be a combination that holds them in a certain margin of profits. Cream buying under the regulations they now have shows very little profit on the ledger sheet. We must help our produce men to wager a fight that will place us under the same rating of the Oklahoma territory. We can get this rating if we will produce quantity and quality. When I left for Fort Worth the lowest quotation was 36 cents, and on Saturday cream was selling for 41 cents."

Continuing, Secretary Evans stated: "I had rather help our produce men make their business more profitable and make our farmers better markets than to do almost anything else at this time. The prosperity of our county hinges around the cream check, our chickens and eggs."

Vice President Joe Caton in speaking of sending the Vocational Agricultural Class to A. M. College, remarked: "Our boys and girls will soon take our place, and it is through them that we expect our farmers to be the best in all West Texas. If we turn a cold shoulder to them and fail to give them every advantage of present progress, then we have failed in our mission."

Continuing that idea, Director N. M. Harpole said: "I hope that every effort will be made and no expense spared to make Scurry County boys and girls to be stimulated to their very finest efforts. Future civilization and prosperous people depend on how we conduct our affairs before them."

J. L. Martin, continuing in the same vein as the preceding speakers, outlined a logical plan of helping the boys when he said: "Many of the boys are partially able to pay their way, and what they lack let us get behind them and help along. If we place our money in the proper channels to help our younger men and women, our return will be more far reaching in the development of our city and county.

Naturally, the recent broadcasting program that Snyder folks put on the air through KFQB came up for discussion. Directors and officers expressed themselves in the following fashion:

A. A. (Pat) Bullock: "We had a great trip. Wonderful boys and girl in the orchestra. The Davis brothers and the Hoyle brothers were great. How did I feel when I was speaking over the radio? In the world war a negro and a white boy were sent from the same town. The negro told the white boy that he was having a good time, but he did not know what to do when the Germans began to shoot at him. The white boy remarked, 'Zigzag like the Indians used to do.' Later the white boy found the negro in a hospital and asked him, 'What are you doing here?' The negro replied, 'I guess, boss, I was zigging when I should have been zagging.' I hope I was zigging or zagging at the proper time."

Joe Caton: "A unique way of advertising us. I was so happy I spoke kindly to Mrs. Caton."

R. H Odom: "This is fine publicity. Snyder is alive."

T. L. Lollar: "I am very happy for our orchestra, Davis brothers and Hoyle brothers. Let's not stop here."

F. T. Wilhelm: "I think we need more of it. Nothing too big for Snyder!"

N. M Harpole: "We cannot stop now. We have blazed a path of progress."

H. J. Brice: "Wonderful! The whole world knows we have a live town."

very good. I appreciate these educational programs."

Bob Warren: "Snyder is a wonderful place in which to live. Now, the whole world knows it."

Dr. H. E. Rosser: "We are on the right road. The finest thing we have ever done."

Roy Strayhorn: "You cannot keep a good town down. Watch Snyder and the Chamber of Commerce do things, and then talk."

H. P. Wellborn: "I am for anything uplifting and upbuilding for us. I do not know of any better way."

S. T. Dozier: "Complete success! We got before the radio world something we have been trying to do for several years. We are just as big as our internal organization."

SCURRY COUNTY WILL HAVE BALL LEAGUE

Scurry County will have a six-club baseball league this year, with three Snyder teams, one each from Fluvanna, Dermott and Ira-Knapp. Delegates met at the court house this week and appointed a committee composed of W. C. Wenninger, Charles Merrill, Pat Bullock, Nolan Von Roeder, Gene Sanders and Clarence Dowdy to iron out all the tangles.

Another meeting will be held next Monday night at Pat Bullock's office to complete the organization. An enthusiastic crowd is expected. The dates will be set and all details completed.

This will be a great baseball year for the fans. Some arrangements should be made to outfit the teams with natty new uniforms.

The City Council consummated a great deal of work Monday night, one of the most important being a beautification project in which every resident of Snyder is invited to join. First prize will be six months water bill free; second prize, four months water bill free; and third prize, two months water bill free. Mayor Towle was instructed to notify the president of every women's club in Snyder to act on the contest committee, inspection s of the lawns to be made every month and a check taken of the various activities of every lawn in the city. Greene, Colorado Chamber of Commerce, and Monte Owens, Board of City Development, Sweetwater, who will make the final awards and declare the official prize winners. The council went further and announced that the special lawn and garden rate will go into effect March 20, application for the lower rate to be made to Water & Sewer Supt. B. INSURANCE SAVINGS

Word from the State Fire Insurance Commission Monday brings the glad information that statements showing that the loss ratio of Snyder for the years 1925, 1926 and 1927 is .499 as filed with, checked and approved by the Fire Insurance Department.

Under the provisions for credit for good fire record of cities and towns this record entitles Snyder to a credit of 6 per cent which local agents are to deduct from the final premiums on all POLICIES WRITTEN ON OR AFTER MARCH 1, 1928 to February 28, 1929, only, and covering property located within the corporate limits of Snyder.

New 12-Ton Ice Plant Will Be Built in Snyder

Snyder is to have a new 12-ton capacity ice plant by May 1. This is the good news brought to the Times-Signal office by Glenn Sample of Sweetwater. Mr. Sample purchased the Commissioners' Warehouse Tuesday at public auction for $5,000 cash and will start at once to tear down the building, which is located directly east of the R. S. & P. railroad, across the tracks from the Dawson coal yards.

Mr. Sample has a reputation of building ice plants and cold storage plants. The new building, in addition to handling 12 tons of ice a day, will also be able to take care of forty tons storage capacity. At the present time he has a plant in operation at Plainview, and one is just being completed at Sweetwater which was started by him but later purchased by the Southern Ice & Utilities Company.

The new improvement to Snyder will mean a new building, a new and complete Baker Ice machine with the newest type ice cans, which, according to Mr. Sample, insure full weight. The slogan that Mr. Sample uses is: "We Freeze to Please You," and he will give his personal attention to the new plant, moving with his family and making a valued and worthy citizen for Snyder.

On behalf of the merchants and citizens of Snyder, the Times-Signal welcomes the new plant, the owner and his family.

The new firm will be known as the Citizens Ice & Cold Storage Company.

LUNCHEON CLUB TO ACCEPT LIONS CHARTER

The Snyder Luncheon Club became affiliated with the International Association of Lions Clubs yesterday noon, the connection to become effective April 1. Henry A. Hill, organizer for Texas, was present and told of what the Lions Club plan was, and of how the local body could assume the charter formerly held here but never given up. When President C. Wedgeworth asked for a vote of the club, it was unanimous. Mr. Hill was given a hearty welcome for his presentation.

W. T. Riheldaffer, newly appoint Maytag district manager for this section, was introduced, and he told of his company's selection of Snyder as an operating base for seven counties. The speaker was heartily welcomed, along with the company he represents, which is one of the largest and best in the United States.

County Agent Willis was introduced and told of the preparations already completed for the Farmers' Short Course to be held here March 22 and 23.

County Supt. A. A. Bullock also told of the invitation of T. J. Bryant of the Pyron school for twelve men from the Luncheon Club to be their guests at a dinner to be given by the Home Demonstration Club today. Pat had no trouble in getting business men to attend, for all 49 who were present wanted to crowd into the 12 invitations. The Luncheon Club's visits to the rural school sections are working remarkable good to all concerned. Sunday's Star-Telegram contained a picture and story of the visit made at the Bison school.

Every man who has attended a Snyder Luncheon Club dinner, and those who have not, should make it a point to get in before April 1, when the club officially becomes affiliated with the Lions Club, at no extra cost.

Judge Harris and his Stringed Demons will demon-strate their musical ability at the luncheon next Wednesday. Guests are requested to bring their own umbrellas with them and to enjoy the first extended public demonstration by this well-known group of entertainers. Members have also been requested to take out accident insurance—for what reason we knoweth not—but don't forget Red and his orchestra.

Seven Counties to Be Served From This Point

Snyder has been signally honored the past week by the selection of this city as the headquarter town of the Maytag Company for their activities in Scurry, Mitchell, Borden, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, King and Dickens Counties. Mr. W. T. Riheldaffer has been appointed district manager for the Snyder district, and Mr. G. S. Hannett, assistant general manager of the company, Dallas, has been here all week getting the details worked out with Mr. Riheldaffer. The offices formerly occupied by the Scurry County Chamber of Commerce will be used, while the latter organization will be moving into the new Towle & Boren suite in the First State Bank & Trust Company building.

The Maytag Company, which was started in 1894, has grown to be the largest concern in the United States, building washing machines. During 1927 this company made and sold more washing machines than all other companies combined, with over a hundred manufacturers in the field. Maytag is one of the largest newspaper advertisers in the world, and has just inaugurated the largest independent radio program ever attempted by any manufacturer. Thirteen complete programs are broadcast each week from the larger stations throughout the country.

The Maytag Shop will shortly be located in the building now occupied by the Chamber of Commerce where Maytag washers will be on display and available for demonstrations at all times. Between twenty-five and thirty salesmen and demonstrators will be on duty and at the service of residents of the district. It is later planned to place sub-headquarters in the county seat towns of the district. The arrival here of this organization and its representatives means an increase of between seventyfive and one hundred people and will materially increase payroll figures.

Maytag employees are recognized as being the best paid organization of any in the United States, and their advent to this community is welcomed with open arms. Upon behalf of the citizenship of the City of Snyder, the Times-Signal officially welcomes District Manager Riheldaffer and his co-workers. The welcome is sincere and wholesome.

Rev. W. T. Rouse Giving Lectures

Rev. W. T. Rouse, Th. D., of Waco, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church of Snyder, has been delivering some masterful sermon-lectures on the Bible this week. His two sermons last Sunday were on the period between the Testaments and on the Book of Exodus.

Interested crowds have heard Dr. Rouse each night on the books of Joshua, Daniel and Jonah, and tonight he will discuss the book of Romans, or "Salvation by Grace." Tomorrow evening at 7:30 he will take his subject of "Justification by Faith" from the book of Galatians, and Saturday evening's lecture will be on the book of James, from which he will discuss "How Christians Ought to Live."

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Dr. Rouse will discuss "The Pre-Eminence of Jesus Christ," and at 7:30 p. m. his subject will be "The Kingdom of God."

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these truly wonderful lectures. Great crowds are expected at both services Sunday.

LEE LESLIE BORN FEB. 29

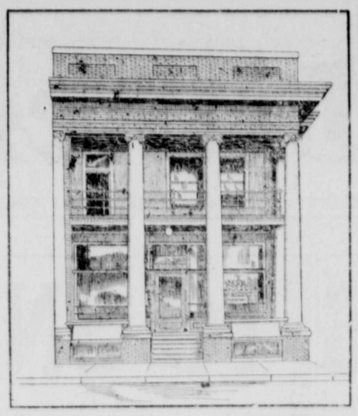

Lee Leslie is a very unfortunate boy. He was born to Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Leslie of Snyder on February 29, and will have only one birthday party every four years. He will will have seen four score and four winters before he can celebrate his twenty-first birthday, and will probably get married before his seventh birthday. In case of war, Lee will be too old to enter service before he is old enough. Greetings to you, Lee, and congratulations to your proud parents!

BEST ROUTE TO DUBLIN

Dublin basketball authorities who have charge of the State A. A. U. tournament at Dublin advise that the best auto route to their town would be via Abilene, Cisco, Eastland, DeLeon and direct to Dublin.

Snyder's championship team must leave here next Wednesday to be ready for the first games Thursday morning. Snyder should send more than fifty auto loads to give the best girls team in Texas a further incentive to win the state championship and bring the tournament here in 1929.

MARCH IS HERE!

This month takes us into the Spring Season.

Plans are being put into operation, and everything is being made ready for the busy months of the coming season.

If these plans are based on safe farming methods and a wise diversification of crops, we have no fear for the outcome of 1928.

It is a matter of common knowledge that the only farmers who really make money are those who divide their efforts in such a way as to assure a safe living, even if the main money crop fails.

We are here to help every man who is willing to help himself by planting wisely and making sure first of a living on the farm.

Like organizations of counties having common interests are being created in parts of the state, usually through the efforts of the Chambers of Commerce and the county farm and home demonstration agents of the several counties.

Fluvanna News Notes

Mr. Jas. H. Tate (V. P.) is the authorized correspondent for Fluvanna, and as such is authorized to receive renewal and new subscriptions. Cooperate with him in building a fine weekly news column for this thriving town.

Business Affairs

On last Saturday D. A. Jones closed a deal in which he and sons together with J. A. J. Jones sold to Joe Ainsworth forty head of fine registered Hereford bulls at $100 per head. As a part of the deal D. A. Jones purchased of Mr. Ainsworth something over 400 acres of unimproved land. The consideration was about $5670. This land lies a few miles south of Fluvanna.. On Monday Mr. Jones was busying himself getting a new tower and windmill up on the place.

Our farmers are quite busy these days breaking and otherwise preparing the land for the rapidly approaching planting season. True the land is rather dry, but that does not seriously hinder breaking. Thorough plowing at this and earlier dates is evidently the wise thing to do. It may be well for farmers, as well as others, to remember that "There is no excellence without great labor." In this connection we are reminded of the fact that some are getting a bit anxious about moisture—about the weather and general outlook for the year. This anxiety is largely due to the dry winter. Several have been asking V. P. what he thinks about the situation. Of course V. P. does not know "what a day may bring forth." Nevertheless, he is quite confident that, so far as seasons or precipitation may be concerned, we will have a good year. The fact that the winter has been dry has but little to do with the situation because nearly all the winters are comparatively dry in this locality. Rains usually begin falling in the latter part of March or first of April. Naturally, someone bobs up to ask a reason for our hope. Well, here it is: There are several reasons for this optimistic view, but the main one is the fact that the far-reaching jupiter period, so largely responsible for drouths, passed out last July. "In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good." "Have faith in God."

We understand that another huge mass of stone was brought down at the caprock road Monday. Thus the good work goes forward. Evidently it will not be long till we will have the long needed outlet to the northward. "So be it."

Church Services

In addition to the usual Sunday schools and young people's meetings, on last Sunday Rev. W. H. Harris filled his pulpit at the Methodist Church, morning and evening. Good services are reported.

Rev. Nipp, pastor of the Baptist Church at Union, preached for the Fluvanna Baptist congregation last Sunday afternoon.

W. G. Sims, C. E. Trussell and Mrs. Will Clawson went the first of the week to Colorado City where they attended the Workers Conference of the Baptist Church.

His many friends will be glad to know that O. S. Wills, while on a recent visit to Bell County, made a profession of faith in Christ and received baptism. The members of the Christian Church of Fluvanna are rejoicing over this addition to their flock.

On next Sunday there will be regular preaching services at the Presbyterian and Fluvanna Baptist Churches at both morning and evening hours.

The Play

According to previous announcement the Fluvanna Dramatic Club put on the play "He's My Pal," at Post last Friday night, the Junior class at that place being sponsors. Prof. McLennan and his orchestra went along and gave several interesting numbers in connection with the entertainment. John and Bos Stavely, Prof. Massey and Wallace Jones sang a quartet. Prof. Massey and Bos Stavely did two pieces which Mr. Stavely accompanied on the guitar. We are glad to note the fact that the Fluvanna orchestra, under Director McLennan, is making splendid progress. This fact should be highly appreciated by all lovers of music—and who is it that does not like good music?

While attending the play at Post last Friday night, a suitcase of considerable value to its owner, Miss Viola Sutherland, teacher in the Hackberry school, was taken from a car. Any assistance that can be rendered in recovering the suitcase will be highly appreciated by Miss Sutherland.

The Snyder High School Orchestra will present an entertainment at the Fluvanna school auditorium Friday night ,March 9.

The Smoothness and Snap That All America is Demanding

There's no longer any doubt about it. America is demanding more and more from its automobiles. More power . . . more style . . . more speed. And above all else . . . more smoothness and snap.

Smoothness that brings to driving new pleasures and new delights. Snap that responds to the traffic signal as a sprinter responds to the gun. Smoothness and snap that you know are the very essence of motoring satisfaction. Smoothness and snap that you find revealed in the All-American Six.

You find them there because of Oakland's big, impressive brute of an engine which starts so easily 'way below zero. Because of its famous GMR cylinder head . . . force feed fuel pump . . . 79-lb. crankshaft . . . generously oversize connecting rods and other vital parts.

Because of its ruggedly constructed chassis . . . its bigger clutch and smoothly shifting gears . . . and the super-precision construction demanded in the All-American principle of design.

Once you've experienced its smoothness . . . once you've witnessed its snap . . . you'll know why the All-American Six is winning such tremendous success!

Special Sport Equipment
Available on all body types. Six wire wheels with tires . . . special front fenders with tire wells . . . two special tire locks and locking rings . . . collapsible trunk rack . . . $100 extra on open cars . . . $110 on closed cars . . . MORE ABOUT FEEDS

Recently in this space we gave a list of Texas feeds and their values in terms of protein and fat productive value. Now comes a good friend and asks if the figures given were theoretical. In reply we say that only as to the value of Sudan grass hay. We did not have the results from actual feeding tests on Sudan grass except as to its palatableness. In the test at Spur, Texas, it was noted that horses would eat Sudan in preference to pea-green alfalfa. The chemical analysis shows that Sudan hay contains 12 per cent crude protein. To get the best hay it must be cut before the seeds form, or as soon as it blooms.

We are talking about feeds at this time for the reason that the time to think of feeds is before it is too late to plant them.

Many people are not making much from milch cows for the reason that they do not have the proper feeds. The first consideration for milch cows is the roughage. Cows should have at least two kinds of roughage. They should have legume hay such as alfalfa, clover, peavine or soy bean hay. With either of these there should be fed sorghum, Sudan grass, Johnson grass, millet or any other good roughage. Prairie hay or corn shucks is not a good hay for a milch cow. When planning the feed for milch cows not less than two tons of hay per cow should be put up, and where there is not sufficient pasture, it will take more. An average cow will eat about twenty pounds or more of roughage per day.

In additon to all the roughage a milch cow will eat she should have a balanced ration of at least three kinds of grain, at the ratio of 1 pound of grain mixture to each 3 pounds of milk produced, or about 3 pounds of grain for each gallon of milk. Cows giving less than 2 gallons of milk per day when given plenty of roughage will not need as much grain per gallon of milk as cows that are heavy producers. In addition to other feeds, cows should receive salt and lime in amounts of 1 pound each for every 100 pounds of grain ration.

MISS TIP MESSIMER MARRIED

Miss Messimer is the daughter of Mrs. Ida Woolley-Ramsour, who has recently moved to Cameron from Snyder. Miss Messimer graduated from the high school here, where she was a popular member of the younger social set. Afterward she attended a school of expression in Kansas City, Mo., and later attended the State Teachers College at San Marcos, and for the past two years has been a member of the faculty of the school at Buckholts. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Woolley, and niece of Miss Leila Woolley of Cameron, where she has frequently visited, and is a lady of beauty and culture, and has made many friends in and around Cameron. She was attractively dressed in a late model of tucked navy blue georgette in ensemble style, with accessories to harmonize, and carried an arm bouquet of sweetheart rosebuds with shower of valley lillies.

W. S. COOPER AND SENATOR SMITH HERE

AIRPLANE COMEDY OFFERS SOMETHING NEW IN FILMDOM

"Publicity Madness," which will be shown at the Palace Theatre for a limited run beginning Friday, is, according to all advance reports, something new, different and entirely intriguing in the way of featured comedies.

Adapted by Andrew Bennison from the original story by Anita Loos, it is one succession of comic situations which go to make up the romance and business whirl of an enterprising soap salesman. Edmund Lowe in this character gives one of the best characterizations of his career of wise-cracking individuals which started definitely with his role of Sergeant Quirt in "What Price Glory."

Lois Moran is co-starred with Lowe as the shy little daughter of the old fashioned manufacturer who believes that the business of his forefather should be run according to the standards set down by them. In this role Miss Moran emerges from a drab little old fashioned Miss into a most flappery flapper—just to prove to the smart salesman that it can be done.

Besides Lowe and Miss Moran the cast includes an exceptionally talented crew of actors. Among them are E. J. Ratcliffe, Arthur Housman, James Gordon, Byron Munson and Norman Peck.

SNYDER HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA ATTRACTS WIDESPREAD INTEREST

The Snyder High School Orchestra here Wednesday for the district meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce attracted unusual attention and drew forth much propotious and complaisant comment, says the Colorado Record. The organization is only a new one, but it certainly has some very able and facile talent.

The Mocking Bird, a young man who is extremely adept at whisttling, gave two numbers, accomponied by violin and using the guitar himself, which drew thundering applause.

TOM McDONALD IN LUBBOCK SANITARIUM

Tom McDonald of the J. Wright Mooar ranch near Snyder was in the Lubbock Sanitarium all of last week. Mr. McDonald had his teeth extracted and was in danger of losing his life from loss of blood. He returned to his home Saturday and will be confined to his bed for a while owing to his weakened condition.

HOME NURSING CLASS WILL SUPERVISE PLAY

The Home Nursing Class of the Snyder High School decided that the girls of the school were not getting sufficient exercise. They thought that by playing games during the latter part of the noon hour more girls would get the needed exercise and feel better. This experiment was first tried Wednesday, March 7. Many of the high school girls were seen playing games. Everyone that took part in the games said that they felt much better and urged other girls to join them in the playing.

The girls in the Home Nursing Class beginning Monday will supervise the play at noon and at recess for the grammar school children. Children at this age need a great deal of supervised play The exercise they get makes them more alert and makes them like school better.

They also expect to do some work to create health interest in the grade school.

This division of the Home Economics Department is doing a great work not only along this line, but along many others.

COWBOY GRID TEAM TO PLAY SPRING GAMES

Simmons University and North Texas State Teachers College of Denton, Texas, will engage in the first spring football contest in the history of the American game in the Southwest, by playing on April 20 at Abilene and a return game in Denton April 30.

The idea for the two games in the spring was originated by Coaches Bridges and Fouts in belief that in future spring football will have its place in collegiate athletic circles the same as other sports.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE IN H. E. LABORATORY

The Home Economics Laboratory of Snyder High School has been painted white; the teachers' desk, the tables and chairs, and the walls and ceilings are all snowy white. The expenses were met by the proceeds from the style show last year and the Womanless Wedding this year.

The draperies are green and pink The home economics girls made the curtains and the machine covers, carrying out the color scheme of pink and green. The girls are going to serve sandwiches during the Interscholastic League meet to meet the expenses of the draperies. They also expect to wax the floors or cover them with linoleum.

The Home Economics Department is making rapid development. The environment is quite different from the regular class rooms.

All hail to the H. E. Girls!

ELECTRICITY--

Product of Individual Initiative

"The legitimate object of government is to do for a people whatever they need to have done, but cannot do at all, or cannot do so well for themselves in their separate and individual capacities. In all that the people can do as well for themselves, government ought not to interfere."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

IN a little laboratory at Menlo Park, New Jersey, our present system of electric light and power was born. There Thomas Edison, working as an individual, accomplished what the world said could not be done. He succeeded in "subdividing" the electric current. He perfected a commercially practical incandescent lamp.

Since that time, almost fifty years ago, every forward step in the march of electrical progress has come through the initiative of individual enterprise working under the protection of the principles on which our government was founded, and which are so clearly enunciated by Abraham Lincoln. It has not been necessary for government to attempt to furnish electric light and power.

The electric utility companies have provided an abundance of electric light and power that has helped to bring American living to the highest standards the world has ever known.

Earnings of the power companies are regulated. Yet sufficient freedom of individual initiative remains to attract the highest type of business and engineering leadership to their management and operation.

The electric age in which we live had its origin in the freedom given to men of ability to plan and develop a system of public service which has been a practical benefit to all. The glowing promise of an even greater future rests on the preservation of those principles of freedom for individual initiative for which America has always stood.
