REPUBLICAN INDIANA HAILS ROOSEVELT SPEECH

Mother Had Access To Poison, Accused Minister's Son Testifies In Court

POEM-PENNING PASTOR WINS DAY'S BATTLE

'Suicide Note' Formidable Evidence for Defense Of Preacher

TELLS OF THREATS

Rev. Berrie Likely to Go On Stand Today In Own Behalf

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Oct. 20. (AP)—Testimony that a bottle containing poisonous tablets used against hay fever by Iliff Berrie, son of the Rev. S. A. Berrie, charged with murdering his first wife, had been missing since a short time before his mother died last spring was introduced in the pastor's trial late today.

The 26-year-old son, a store clerk here, said the bottle was available to his mother. "She told me lots of times she was afraid I was taking too many of them," he said. The startling testimony was a surprise to the state.

Note Introduced

A faded "suicide note" allegedly written by his first wife before she died last spring was a defense exhibit introduced in the trial of the minister, charged with poisoning the 50-year-old woman the state claims he forsook for a pretty 19-year-old Sunday school teacher.

With introduction of the note, signed "Fannie," and its identification by a number of witnesses, some of whom testified the handwriting appeared to be that of the pastor's first wife, the defense had introduced its most formidable evidence thus far in the trial, which opened Tuesday.

Shortly after Dr. W. W. Osgood, who attended the dying woman, testified he believed Mrs. Berrie died of uremia, a disease the physician said has symptoms resembling those of reactions to the poison the state charges the wife took unknowingly, Berrie indicated the trend his testimony will take when he goes on the stand, probably tomorrow.

Defense Testimony

He told newspaper men at least three distinct threats of suicide were made by his wife and said he would explain the threats in detail from the stand. Berrie said his

Wooden Money Makes Nice Profit for Town

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 20. (AP)—The town of Tenino has made a nice profit on its famous wooden money.

The Tenino Chamber of Commerce announced today that 27,000 pieces of the money with a face value of $6,800 were issued and that only about 20 per cent of the money is appearing for redemption due to the fact that most of it was sold to souvenir hunters.

The wooden money was made to relieve depositors of the defunct Tenino bank and was redeemable from dividends paid by the bank receiver. The bank's depositors will get the profit.

'Baering' Down On The News

BY ARTHUR (BUGS) BAER

OLD PAL, WHY DON'T YOU ANSWER ME???

This fast evaporating political week has been loaded with neighborly accusations and retorts.

One candidate makes a speech. The other picks it to pieces like minnows snapping at wet bread.

Roosevelt's Wednesday speech was in answer to Hoover's Monday. Hiram Johnson tossed a philippic at Herbie and blocked a return harangue from Henry Ford.

Mills answered Garner. The Anti-Saloon league answered the bootleggers. And the bootleggers answered the telephone.

There are now two full weeks left before we vote. Every orator will thump out a tune on the other man's drum.

Promises will be the broadcast melody. And threats will be the static.

We'll be glad when Nov. 8 rumbles around. Then the campaign orators fill up on berries and crawl into their hollow trees for another winter.

REFINERS HIKE GASOLINE PRICE

Retail and Tank Wagon Rate Follows Crude Raise

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 20. (AP)—The newly increased tank wagon and retail gasoline prices throughout Oklahoma brought with them today a full quarter-cent hike on all grades in tank cars at refineries.

The rise in refinery prices is a reaction to the price increases for crude oil announced recently. Refinery prices of gasoline started to rise immediately after the Sun oil, followed by other companies, raised crude prices. The new prices on gasoline obtain in group three territory, Kansas, Oklahoma, North and East Texas.

The lowest U. S. motor grade was quoted at 4¼; middle octane, at 4½ and high at 4⅞ to 5⅛.

TWO COMPANIES HERE RAISE PRICE

While refineries and operators in the Wichita Falls area have not received notice of a hike in tank wagon and retail gasoline prices, advances in tank car schedules were reported by the Continental Oil company and American Refining properties Thursday.

The Panhandle Refining company reported no increase in Texas, but announced an increase of one cent on flat wholesale prices in Oklahoma. The Texas company had not received notice of an advance Thursday.

News dispatches Thursday said new gasoline prices were effective in group three territory of Kansas, Oklahoma, North and East Texas, as a reaction to price advances for crude oil announced within the last few days.

The Continental company reported a ¾-cent advance to 4¾ cents on refinery tank car prices with no

Grizzled Cowman 'Pops' Question After 20 Years

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20. (US)—For nigh onto 20 years had Charles A. Caldwell, grizzled cowman of the Llano country ridden almost nightly across the desert to woo Myrtle Minnie Pickens, comely owner of an adjoining ranch.

Now Charley can hold his own against a wildly bucking bronc or bulldog a bloodthirsty steer without blinking an eye, but when it came to poppin' the fatal question to the lady of his heart . . . well, consarnit, that was different.

But last week Charley's cowpuncher pals decided he had gone "sparking" long enough, so they gave him a lift in true western fashion. Charley was roped and at the point of a big .45 was forced to pop the question. Miss Pickens accepted.

A holiday was declared on the range for the wedding and the couple was brought to Los Angeles and were married today by the Rev. Dr. C. A. Wheatley.

IT'S CATFISH AND NOT BASS FOR OKLAHOMA

Murray and Federal Fish Experts in Dispute Over New Ponds

GOLDFISH RULED OUT

Catfish Produce 'He-Men Who Wear Britches,' Governor Says

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 20. (AP)—Catfish produce "he-men that wear britches" while goldfish "produce silk stocking experts," believes Governor "Alfalfa Bill" Murray.

His opinion was given today in a dissertation on "fish as food for the needy," after a federal fisheries official at Washington questioned the governor's plan for building lakes with relief money to provide more food for hungry Oklahomans.

Plan Called Absurd

Few question Governor Murray's knowledge of poke salad and onions but Commissioner Henry O'Malley of the bureau of fisheries in Washington was quoted in a dispatch as saying Murray's lake plan "is absolutely absurd; it's too much for me." By a bit of figuring the bureau chief found that 100 pounds of bass per acre of lake, a record yield, would not go far toward supplying a pound of fish daily to each of Oklahoma's 2,396,040 residents, as claimed by Governor Murray. He was figuring in terms of bass, Oklahoma's best native specie.

Nature Faker, Says Bill

"The trouble with the Washington man," Murray said, "is that he is one of Teddy Roosevelt's nature fakers, that began to infest the country about the time Teddy was president.

"He is a silk stocking fish expert. I wasn't talking about the best fish being bass, but raising fish. The most prolific fish in Oklahoma is the catfish.

"Catfish produce he-men that wear britches. The goldfish O'Malley was talking about would be all right to make these nature fakers and produce these silk-stocking experts."

FEDERAL EXPERTS DERIDE POND PLAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. (AP)—The best fish story of the year is credited by federal experts to Governor Alfalfa Bill Murray of Oklahoma.

"That's the attitude of the bureau of fisheries toward Murray's plan to feed fish to Oklahomans needing relief.

Commissioner Henry O'Malley went so far as to say "the proposi-

Fire Levels Three Petrolia Buildings

Special to The Record News.

PETROLIA, Texas, Oct. 20.—Fire destroyed three frame buildings in the business section and damaged a residence here shortly after noon today. Damage was estimated at $5,000.

The origin of the fire was believed to have been a stove in the rear of the Tom Templeton Barber shop. Mrs. L. A. Wright and Bill McAdams owned the other buildings that were destroyed. Mrs. Wright's building was unoccupied. The McAdams building housed the Roy Woods cafe.

Sparks from the three burning buildings were believed to have caused the home of R. L. Denny, three blocks away, to catch. However, the Henrietta fire department, called to assist, arrived a few minutes after the home caught and quickly extinguished these flames.

Heat from the fire caused minor damages across the street from the three buildings destroyed, causing plate glass to break in three windows.

OIL PROMOTER IN BAD AGAIN

Dr. Cook's Aide Ordered To Leave Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 20. (UP)—Seymour E. J. Cox, one time associate of Dr. Frederick A. Cook in fraudulent oil stock promotion, was ordered deported from Mexico today after a complaint from the United States which alleged he had sold stock in a mining project without owning any mines.

President Abelardo Rodriguez signed the deportation order shortly after Cox was detained by police on a request from the immigration department, which made a technical charge he lacked proper passport papers.

Indicted With Cook

Cox was indicted with Doctor Cook at Fort Worth, Texas, for fraudulent use of the mails and was convicted with him in November, 1923, receiving an eight-year penitentiary sentence and a fine of $5,000. He was convicted in federal court at Oklahoma City last year on another oil stock fraud count and was given a 10-year sentence.

Until arrested here, he was at liberty under bond pending disposition of an appeal in the Oklahoma City case.

Mrs. Cox, who was sentenced to imprisonment for 18 months in connection with the Oklahoma City promotion, and the couple's son are in Mexico City. They have not been detained by immigration authorities.

The newest fraud order issued by the United States government against Cox contains the allegation that although the La Proveedor Mining company has sold thousands of dollars in stocks, it controls no mines.

Associate Indicted

James P. Anderson, said to be associated with Cox in the mining company was recently arrested and indicted in Fort Worth.

At Fort Worth Cox, indicted as chief lieutenant of the man who claimed original discovery of the north pole, was included among more than a score of persons, headed by Cook, who were tried jointly on the mail fraud charges.

In Oklahoma City he was one of 19 persons similarly charged in connection with the promotion of the Universal Oil and Gas company, with which Cox was connected after he had served, with Cook, his sentence on the prior charge.

Tobacco Company's Suit Delayed in Louisiana

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 20. (AP)—The hearing of the injunction suit brought by the Interstate Tobacco company to restrain the supervisor of public accounts from interfering with operations in this state, was delayed today until tomorrow.

The tobacco company is seeking to prevent the supervisor from arresting agents or otherwise preventing the company's operations in Louisiana under the tobacco tax law adopted by the last legislature. The suit was filed following the arrest of three agents of the company on charges of evading the tax law.

It is claimed by the tobacco company that the transactions are exempt from taxation under federal interstate commerce. The state in answer alleges that the company was formed as a subterfuge to evade the tax.

Canada-England Lumber Trade to Grow, Expert Says

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 20. (AP)—George B. Nicholson, member of parliament and lumber expert, said today Canada's lumber trade with Britain should amount to $25,000,000 annually by 1935 as a result of the abrogation of the United Kingdom-Russia trade treaty.

He said even though Britain has to pay more for her lumber, she will receive compensation in large markets for her products.

TROOPS FIRE TO PUT DOWN PRISON RIOT

Inmates of Penitentiary At Portsmouth, Canada, In Serious Outbreak

BARRICADES ERECTED

Men Break Furniture In Institution; Machine Guns Rushed

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 20. (UP)—More troops were rushed in lorries to Portsmouth penitentiary shortly before midnight as the situation created by revolting convicts appeared to be reaching a crisis.

Reports that the rioters had gained possession of the prison power house were given weight by the fact that the prison was in darkness. Every available wireman in the city was called to the penitentiary to string wires outside the walls and a connection with the municipal power plant was soon made.

Hastily erected searchlights were in constant use to illuminate the grim walls of the penitentiary.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 20. (UP)—Forty prison guards are being held as hostages by 210 revolting convicts in Portsmouth prison at Kingston, it was reported here tonight.

The convicts threatened to kill the guards if the 150 militiamen on duty at the prison attempt to rush them, it was said.

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 20. (AP)—Guards and hastily summoned troop reinforcements opened fire tonight to put an end to a serious riot of inmates of Portsmouth prison, where an outburst Monday, lasting several hours, made it necessary for authorities to call on the militia.

Whether the guards and soldiers fired at the rioters or over their heads could not be established immediately.

There was plenty of evidence that the prison authorities were combating an outbreak of major proportions. They had called a detachment of 150 members of the Royal Canadian horse artillery from Kingston, two and one-half miles away. An hour after the soldiers arrived three truckloads of machine guns were rushed to the penitentiary.

Sentries Block Roads

Roads were blocked by sentries and heavy barricades were placed across them. Behind these barricades were massed thousands of Kingston and Portsmouth residents.

A group of 110 inmates of the "overflow population"—who are housed in a dormitory and not locked in cells—was responsible for the riot.

The first intimation of trouble so far as outsiders knew was a muffled explosion late this afternoon, followed by a sharp burst of rifle fire.

Some time after the soldiers arrived there was a brief period of intense gunfire. When this ceased occasional shots could be heard above the din of the convicts, who were shouting at the tops of their voices.

Seized Building

In addition to the men participating in the riot, there were approximately 800 other prisoners in the institution. These, the authorities said, were safe in their cells when the trouble started.

During the Monday disorders 300 prisoners seized the building in which mail bags are manufactured and when troop reinforcements arrived they threatened to burn down the structure unless the soldiers withdrew.

In Ottawa, Hugh Guthrie, minister of justice, announced that the 110 rioters today had broken all available furniture and were trying to get to the cell block where other prisoners were confined.

In the dormitory with the men were about 40 guards, Mr. Guthrie said. "These guards fortunately were not armed, or their arms might have been seized. They were unable to quell the tumult in the dormitory."

Lower Temperatures Predicted for Area

Colder weather was forecast for Wichita Falls and vicinity Friday while the recording Thursday was 69 degrees. Shortly after midnight the mercury dropped to 52 degrees, one degree above the low for Thursday, and a drop of 10 degrees in the seven-hour period since 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Freezing weather in the Texas Panhandle and dropping temperatures in northern Oklahoma indicated definite arrival of winter. The lowest mercury reading was 30 degrees at Texline.

Skies were cloudy here with a northeast breeze reaching a maximum velocity of eight miles per hour. The barometer stood at 29.58 at 5 o'clock.

San Antonio Gambler Gets Term for Murder

HOUSTON, Oct. 20. (UP)—Herschel Gras, 33, widely known Texas gambler of San Antonio must serve two years in the penitentiary for the murder of J. A. (Shorty) Mangum, 41, also a gambler, of Houston.

After deliberating 24 hours a district court jury which had heard the trial testimony returned its verdict along with a recommendation for a suspended sentence.

Garner Quotes Hoover Speeches Of 1928 For Reply To 1932 Claims

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. (AP)—Speaker Garner in a formal statement today asserted "President Hoover must do more than apologize for things as they are—he must answer on his record." The Democratic vice presidential nominee issued his statement through the Democratic national committee. He quoted from the 1928 campaign addresses of Mr. Hoover and from the recent speech by the president at Cleveland.

"Mr. Hoover must say why the promises which he made in other days have not been carried out," he said. "This he very carefully avoided. The general text to which Mr. Hoover should have confined himself was the one which he expounded in his speech of acceptance four years ago.

1928 Statement

"'Every man,' he then said, 'has a right to ask of us whether the United States is a better place for him, his wife and his children to live in, because the Republican party has conducted the government for nearly eight years.'

"In the light of events of the past three years, no comment on that section of his 1928 acceptance speech is necessary.

"At Cleveland, Mr. Hoover said: 'Nowhere do I find the slightest reference in all the statements of the opposition party to the part played in the greatest war in history, the inheritances from it may have had the remotest thing to do with the calamity against which this administration is fighting.'

Another Quotation

"There is a similar lack of recognition of this new-found theory when we review the record of Mr. Hoover.

"In the San Francisco speech of 1928, he said: 'The outlook of the world today is for the greatest era of commercial expansion in history. The rest of the world will become better customers.' Again in his speech of acceptance of that year he very definitely put an end to the postwar period when he said: 'Our problems of the last seven years have been problems of reconstruction. Our problems of the future are problems of construction. They are problems of progress.'

"In that statement Mr. Hoover

800 Women Battle For Debs' Frocks

CHICAGO, Oct. 20. (UP)—Eight hundred women fought 20 policemen today in their battle to obtain debutantes' cast off frocks at 15 cents and up.

The women broke a plate glass window in the Junior League's store on Michigan boulevard, fought among themselves once they got inside, 'ore dresses in small pieces and struggled so fiercely for bargains that one of their sisters fainted. When she was revived by police she insisted upon joining the fray.

Mrs. Catherine Patrick, lost her purse containing $15. The junior league girls took up a collection to buy her several frocks. When the counters had been swept clean, the women had left and the perspiring police had returned to their regular jobs, the empty purse was found on the floor.

Man Shot, Others Hurt, In Altercation at Mexia

MEXIA, Texas, Oct. 20. (AP)—One man was shot perhaps fatally and two women and a man were injured badly at a farm five miles east of Mexia today in a dispute over cattle.

Jasper Easterling, 23, was brought to a hospital here suffering from six rifle bullets in his body and was not expected to live. His mother, Mrs. J. D. Easterling, was treated for severe cuts and bruises and a sister, Lura, was also treated for bruises.

Claud Haddick, at whose farm the fight occurred, was charged with assault with intent to murder. He also was treated for bruises. Charges also were filed in Justice L. E. Lindsey's court at Teague against Easterling. Officers said the Easterlings had attempted to take some cattle they claimed from a cow pen at the neighboring Haddick place. Easterling's pistol was shot from his hand by a rifle bullet, the officers reported.

DUCK, JACK!

Ambassador Edge Calls Garner the Only 'Forgotten Man'

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 20. (UP)—The appelation of "the forgotten man"—tossed lightly hither and yon since first introduced into the campaign by Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt—tonight was pinned on John Nance Garner, Democratic vice presidential nominee by Walter E. Edge, American ambassador to France.

"The only forgotten man at the moment appears to be the Hon. Jack Garner of Texas who has been running away ever since Mr. Hearst and Mr. McAdoo selected him to save the country," Edge declared in speaking here. "He has been kept in the dark room ever since this nomination, over three months ago, at which time he electrified the country with a new version of just how the government should be run."

HOOVER MAY RETURN HOME

President Urged to Visit 'Doubtful' California

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. (UP)—President Hoover is inclined strongly toward a trip home to California to cast his vote and contribute his personal influence in the state which is being listed in the "doubtful" class as the campaign nears its end.

No final decision has been reached. Those who know the president well, however, believe he will return to California on the eve of the election, and possibly take an ocean voyage after the election before returning here. It is likely he might come back by way of the Panama canal.

Odds Rising

The chief executive has received numerous pleas recently to go to California, especially since Senator Hiram Johnson has thrown the weight of his influence against him. Despite straw votes and discouraging reports, Republicans still cannot believe they will lose California to Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt. The odds against President Hoover in California have risen since Johnson's open bolt.

The president is devoting his attention now to his speech in Detroit Saturday night, the third venture into the middle western area. He is contemplating a fourth trip to that territory which would take him to Minneapolis and back through Illinois, Ohio and Indiana. The big stump speech of the East will be in New York, possibly on Oct. 29. If he decides to go to California, he might include a Minneapolis speech on the way west.

Received Returns

The president it was said, may leave for California about the first of November following the trail which he took four years ago to receive at his Palo Alto home the news of his overwhelming victory over Alfred E. Smith.

Four years ago the friends of the Hoovers gathered in the huge living room of the Spanish house on the hill to receive election returns.

Nominee Lashes 'Buccaneers Of Wall Street' In Vigorous Talk

New Yorker Gets Greatest Ovation Since 'Teddy' Stumped in 1912

By EDWARD L. RODDAN

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 20. (US)—Fifteen thousand persons greeted Governor Roosevelt tonight when he passed through here en route to Springfield, Ill., where he speaks tomorrow.

The Democratic nominee spoke briefly from the rear platform, contrasting present unemployment with conditions existing under the last Democratic administration.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 20. (US)—Before a mass of humanity, packed thousands deep in the great public circle here, Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt today excoriated the "buccaneers of Wall street, public utilities and finance, who swept the people's savings into a bottomless pit of speculation."

With his campaign constantly on a rising tempo, the Democratic nominee warned the people against the propaganda of "eleventh-hour political desperation which dangles the ghost of panic before our eyes."

The Democratic campaign, he said, has given the country the hope of a new deal and a real prosperity to come.

Great Demonstration

The welcome accorded Governor Roosevelt in this normally Republican city developed into one of the greatest demonstrations ever seen in the Hoosier state.

He spoke from the balcony of the Old English hotel, overlooking the circle, almost every inch of which was packed with cheering men and women. Police estimates of the crowd varied from 75,000 to 100,000 people.

Old-timers in politics said the only rally comparable in size was the gathering which turned out to hear Teddy Roosevelt on his last stumping tour in 1912, when he spoke from the same rostrum. The weather was ideal.

The nominee was escorted from his train to the hotel by blaring bands and hundreds of marchers, bearing banners and placards hailing the champion of the "forgotten man." In all between 150,000 and 200,000 persons greeted the candidate.

Blizzard in Northwest Sends Mercury Near Zero

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 20. (US)—A blizzard sweeping out of the northwest surged over the country today.

The storm was most severe in North Dakota where 14 inches of snow covered the prairies. Northern Minnesota and parts of South Dakota were also hard hit.

Scores of automobiles were stranded in snowdrifts in western North Dakota but no loss of life was reported. Telegraph and telephone lines were broken by sleet. Power circuits were also broken.

Along both the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific railroads traffic was demoralized by gigantic snow drifts.

The temperature fell to within a few degrees of zero.

Livestock on the range was caught in the blizzard and it was feared tonight that losses will be heavy.

Income Tax Measure Ruled From Ballot

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 20. (UP)—Gov. W. H. Murray's income tax measure cannot legally be included on the Nov. 8 ballot, Atty. Gen. J. Berry King ruled late today.

King announced his ruling after a conference with John Carlock, chairman of the citizens league which is opposing the measure.

The official held that time limits both as to certification with the secretary of state and proper publication notice have expired.

Pelham D. Glassford, Washington's Chief of Police, Resigns Office

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. (UP)—Chief of Police Pelham H. Glassford, who became a national figure when the bonus army invaded Washington last spring, resigned today.

The District of Columbia commissioners accepted the resignation promptly, and when Glassford was so informed he grinned and said:

"I guess I'll go out and play some golf."

Technically he leaves his post because of a difference of opinion over a purely local issue—whether he shall be allowed to reorganize the police force and remove Inspector Frank S. W. Burke from command of the detective bureau. Actually, the threads of the controversy that resulted in his resignation go back to the midsummer days when 15,000 veterans camped at the gates of congress, demanding immediate payment of the soldier bonus.

Those were the days before the federal government had taken official cognizance of the fact that an army had moved into Washington—an army that had to be fed and sheltered. Glassford acted promptly. The course of his action was praised by some, criticized by others.

It resulted in a controversy with the district commissioners and with Atty. Gen. William D. Mitchell. The latter contended there was a high percentage of men with criminal records in the bonus army. Glassford formally denied it and issued his version of the entire incident, disputing virtually every phase of the Mitchell report.

There were reports that Glassford would be relieved of his position or that he would resign. Nothing happened until today when he sat in the living room of his home, clad in a sagging red bathrobe, and said:

"I'm sorry I had to do this. I'd like to have seen the thing through. I'd like to have gone on hammering

Levy On Wealth to Lighten Load Of Debt Proposed By Socialist

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 20. (AP)—Enactment of a capital levy on wealth "for the purpose of lightening the load of debt which, like a millstone about a runner's neck, makes it impossible for us to win the race against economic disaster," was advocated by Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate for president, in a campaign address prepared for delivery here tonight.

The presidential candidate quoted authorities who fixed the total public and private debt of the United States at 200 billions of dollars and the interest and amortization charges at more than 20 billions of dollars.

"No honest political party can promise an automatic reduction of debt," he said. "The failure of the present Republican-Democratic government to balance the budget is piling up debt."

Thomas said: The scientific liquidation of reduction of funded debts by a capital levy is both just and practicable. It is just because it would fall equitably on all members of the owning class as piecemeal confiscation or debt repudiation would not.

"It is the owning class as a whole, not one section of it, which has profited at the expense of the workers by war debts and indeed by the whole debt policy of capitalism. Let it now pay in proportion to its wealth—a wealth derived not from toil or constructive service to men but from speculation, manipulation and control of credit and natural resources."

A graduated scale starting at 5 per cent of the wealth in excess of $25,000 and increasing on higher brackets would raise between 46 and 57 billions of dollars in this country, Thomas claimed. Raising the exemption to $250,000 would provide from 36 to 44 billions, he added.

"Even 40 billion would take care of the national debt, unemployment relief and a considerable part of the reduction of municipal and farm debts," Thomas contended.

HOOVER ASKED TO CURTAIL IMPORTS

TYLER, Texas, Oct. 30. (UP)—An appeal to President Hoover to prevent importation into Texas of oil in greater quantities than the Oct. 15 reduction in allowable oil was made today in a telegram dispatched by Ernest O. Thompson, member of the Texas Railroad Commission.

The railroad commission member recounted the federal oil conservation board's report to the president yesterday that stabilization of the industry depended upon the conduct of management of the East Texas field.

In appealing for curtailment of oil importations to Texas, Thompson wired:

"Read with interest statement of federal oil conservation board that oil industry appeared to be stabilizing, but that real stability depended upon conduct and management of great East Texas field.

"Texas has done her part in real conservation by cutting 131,000 barrels daily from her production, but we notice today 132,000 barrels are being imported. This hardly seems fair. Can you not do something to help?"

HOOVER DISCLAIMS FOREIGN INTEREST

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20. (AP)—President Hoover has no interest in foreign oil business, and did not oppose a traiff on petroleum, he declared in a telegram sent to C. C. Teague, former federal farm board member, who is a leader of the Republican party campaign in California.

In 15 years since he entered public service, President Hoover had "not a dime's interest" outside of the United States, the executive declared.

"I have your telegram stating that Democratic agents, despite all proof to the contrary, are still circulating misleading statements through their fields that I have been opposed to relief of the oil industry because of my supposed interest in foreign oil and that I opposed the tariff on oil," the president's wire said.

"This is usual type of poltitics. I have not in 15 years since I entered public service had a dime's interest outside of the United States of any kind, including oil. I supported the oil tariff in revenue bill and signed that bill. Without support I gave I do not believe it would have received sufficient vote from non-oil sections to have been carried.

"Herbert Hoover."

CANADA REDUCES TARIFF DUTIES

OTTAWA, Oct. 20. (AP)—Dumping duties against gasoline imported into Canada from the United States were cancelled today in orders sent by the department of national revenue to customs collectors. Estimates were that the action meant a cut of two cents a gallon in the import against United States gasoline. The tax now is 2½ cents a gallon.

ASSOCIATION ASKS BUYERS TO HELP

FORT WORTH, Oct. 20. (UP)—In a statement issued through their executive committee, members of the Texas Oil and Gas Conservation association tonight appealed to outstanding purchasing companies to meet recent crude price increases "even if it entails a sacrifice on their part."

"We do not believe that sacrifice will be as great as already incurred by the producers," the statement said. "We do think resulting good to the industry will more than compensate those purchasers for any temporary loss they may incur.

"We believe any failure to maintain the crude raise will be a serious blow to recovery of the oil industry and general business," the committeeman added.

Pastor Wins Day's Battle

wife frequently was despondent. He mentioned a time at Searcy, Ark., where he occupied a Cumberland Presbyterian pulpit before coming to Muskogee, when his wife "had a spell similar to the one that cost her life."

More than a dozen defense witnesses testified today. After Doctor Osgood had finished, Mrs. W. M. Williams, member of Mr. Berrie's church here, when shown the yellowed "suicide note," said:

"To the best of my knowledge, it is Mrs. Berrie's handwriting."

Previously, Iliff Berrie, the pastor's son, said the note was in his mother's handwriting "without a doubt." The son told of his mother's arrival home in an ambulance after she was stricken at a church service. He said several rings were taken from her fingers by himself and his father.

Removed Rings

Ruth Berrie, daughter-in-law, previously had testified she took four rings from the first Mrs. Berrie's fingers and later saw a fifth ring, she also had worn, on the hand of Ida Bess Berrie, the second wife who is the pastor's staunchest defender in the trial. This was after the couple returned from their honeymoon, about two months after the first wife's death.

Several breaks occurred during the day between District Judge Crump, presiding, and M. D. Hartsell, defense attorney. The last one came while the pastor's son was on the stand.

"That's leading," the court told the attorney, after a query.

"Your honor, I don't know of any other way to bring this out," said Hartsell. "I know it's leading."

"To be frank with you, that's what you've been doing all along," the judge answered, and Hartsell entered an objection to the remark.

On cross-examination, Iliff was asked whether he searched for a missing bottle of tablets containing some poison.

Marked "Poison"

"I went to town and bought some more," the son replied. He then charged that officers "tried to get me to say my father did it."

Iliff was referring to a bottle of tablets he said he used against hay fever and which "have been missing since my mother's death." He said the tablets were marked "poison." The bottle was available to his mother, he said.

The witness' statement came as a surprise, being the first revelation that any poison tablets had disappeared.

tion is absolutely absurd," and "too much for me."

The governor announced in Oklahoma he would use part of $181,312 borrowed from the reconstruction corporation to build several small lakes and stock them with enough fish to give a pound to eat daily to everybody in the state.

One fisheries bureau expert, after explaining bass were Oklahoma's best native fish and that they grew very slowly in winter, said 100 pounds of bass per acre of lake would be a record yield.

He added that Murray "could raise goldfish," explaining they would produce about 400 pounds to the acre. But gold fish while ornamental would not be edible.

O'Malley, checking census bureau figures showing a population of 2,396,040 in Oklahoma, found by his own records that the average large mouthed bass in the state weighed four pounds.

"So figure it out for yourself," he said. "It's too much for me."

Another official figured out that the total American catch of edible fish of 3,800,000,000 pounds yearly would allow each Oklahoman only three pounds daily.

Hoover Urged To Visit California

In an adjoining room was a huge blackboard, a chart with the names of the states which President Hoover had prepared himself. The president stood before the board, smoking an old pipe. As the election returns were brought upstairs from a telegraph room in the basement, he marked the board himself. Methodically, he chalked up the figures, giving no outward evidence of his inward feeling as the figures showed the sweeping tide for him.

Urged to Return

Outside of sentimental considerations, there is a very practical reason for the president's return to California as a political gesture. The president has talked with numerous political friends and analysis about his prospects in his own state. They have been frank in urging the need of his visit to the state, arguing that it would be very effective.

California has 22 electoral votes. The state cast the balance in 1916. It may do so again. Republican leaders take the position that nothing can be overlooked.

GARNER CALLS HOOVER'S HAND

Speaker Quotes From 1928 Campaign Promises

positively placed the postwar period behind him yet in his Cleveland speech he endeavors to resurrect it for alibi purposes.

"In attempting to defend Republican ignorance of the advent of the depression, President Hoover in his Cleveland speech said: 'I did not notice any Democratic Jeremiah.'

Doubts Substitute

"The party in power, with all the information and resources of government at its command, cannot escape responsibility by saying that it was not warned from the outside. I doubt any one will accept such a remark as a substitute for sound reasoning.

"The Democratic party contained no false prophets such as the spokesmen of the Republican party during that period. There is nothing in the record to show that any Democrat made a fallacious claim like President Hoover, when, in his 1928 speech at Madison Square, he said:

" 'Prosperity is no idle expression. It is a job for every worker; it is the safety and safeguard of every business and every home. A continuation of the policies of the Republican party is fundamentally necessary to the future advancement of this program and other future building up of this prosperity.'

And at Newark

"No Democrat promises, as Mr. Hoover did, on the very threshhold of the present crisis, that measures had been taken to prevent such a happening. Yet in his Newark speech of 1928, Mr. Hoover said:

" 'As another instance of an action of fundamental importance to labor I might mention the organization of measures in the government to mitigate the violence of the so-called business cycle. That is, the recurrent periods of boom and false hope, waste and extravagance, followed by hard times with their hideous unemployment, decreasing wages, bankruptcy in business, and ruinous prices to the farmer.'

"Are not the American people, especially at this time, entitled to know why or where this program was pigeon-holed?

"No Democrat reported, as Mr. Hoover did in his last accounting as secretary of commerce, for the year ending June 30, 1928:

" 'A record-breaking volume of foreign stocks and bonds was offered to the American investing public last year. American underwriters of foreign securities are now turning to the finance and investment division in constantly growing numbers for data to guide them in foreign financial commitments.'

"These commitments, I take it, are the 'partial or practical repudiation of debt' to which Mr. Hoover now ascribes our difficulties.

Derides Loans

"Nor did any Democrat say, as Mr. Hoover did in his Boston speech of 1928, that the loans which were being made to 'backward or crippled countries' were 'blessings both to the lender and to the borrower' and that they were 'an essential part of the sound expansion of our foreign trade.'

"There is an equally great contrast between the record and Mr. Hoover's version of it when we come to these portions of the Cleveland speech in which the president recited the steps he had taken to combat our existing woes.

"One would not realize from that address that President Hoover gave lip service to a long range building program as early as 1921, but failed to make it an actuality in time for the depression of 1929.

"He did not tell the nation that home loan bank legislation, introduced by a Democrat, had been killed by the Republicans as long ago as 1924."

Montague-Clay Poultrymen To Meet Saturday To Prepare Turkey Market

Special to The Record News.

SUNSET, Texas, Oct. 20.—Members of the Montague-Clay Poultry Producers Cooperative association will hold a business session in the city auditorium in Bowie, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, according to J. H. Miller, a director of the association.

This meeting is to receive new members into the association and for ascertaining the number of turkeys grown by all members this year. At this time members want to find out the number of turkeys that will be ready for the Thanksgiving market, and get everything in readiness for pooling their turkeys again this year. Bids are expected from a larger number of buyers this year than ever before.

Since its organization two years ago, the association has been worth a great deal to the turkey producers in the section which the association covers. Besides getting prices a little above the ordinary market offerings, the members have been considerably benefited in other respects by cooperating. Through lessons taught by experts from time to time, members of the association have learned a great deal about the prevention of diseases and loss of young turkeys. They are also learning more economical methods of feeding than those formerly in use here.

The association has benefited producers in this country who have not become members of it. It has spread useful information beyond its membership and has stimulated local market prices for turkeys every year since its organization.

Best Remedy for Cough Is Easily Mixed at Home

Saves $2. So Easy! No Cooking!

You'll never know how quickly a stubborn cough can be conquered, until you try this famous recipe. It is used in more homes than any other cough remedy, because it gives more prompt, positive relief. It's no trouble at all to mix and costs but a trifle.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Syrup is easily made with 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. This saves two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough medicine, and gives you a purer, better remedy. It never spoils, and tastes fine.

Instantly you feel its penetrating effect. It loosens the germ-laden phlegm, clears the air passages, and soothes and heals the inflamed membranes. This three-fold action explains why it brings such quick relief in severe coughs.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, used for generations for its healing effect on throat membranes. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

STEGALL RITES SET FRIDAY

Court Dismisses Divorce After Farmer's Death

Funeral services for Otis L. Stegall, 30, of the Pleasant Valley community, were tentatively set for Friday afternoon at Iowa Park, Detail arrangements for the services were incomplete Thursday night Mr. Stegall was found shot to death at the rear of a shed on his place Wednesday afternoon. A verdict of death from self-inflicted gunshot wounds was returned in the case Thursday by O. L. Gibbs, justice of the peace.

A charge from a shotgun struck Stegall in the stomach. He had been dead several hours when the body was found. He was found while Mrs. Stegall was in the 30th district court here obtaining an injunction to prevent Mr. Stegall from disposing of community property pending divorce proceedings. Both actions were dismissed by Judge Allan Montgomery Thursday morning.

The Hines mortuary took charge of the body following the inquest.

Survivors are the widow; two children, Lois, 10, and Junior, 8; his mother, residing in Upshur county; two sisters, Mrs. C. F. Brogden of Burkburnett and Mrs. Georgia Willingham of K. M. A.; and two brothers, Clayton Stegall of Iowa Park and Eps Stegall of this city.

Beautiful Parties Given To Honor Bridal Party

Mesdames C. D. Shamburger and her daughter, Mrs. P. P. Langford Jr., were hostesses Thursday at a lovely luncheon and miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Emily Mitcham, whose marriage to Harold Lesley will be an event of Monday evening at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. O. G. Stephens on Kessler.

The lovely original colors chosen by Miss Mitcham were noted in the table covers of tarlatan over purple. The large dining table where the honoree's place was prettily marked, was centered with an enormous bell of purple daisies and tall silver candelabra held lavender tapers. Pretty sprays of the purple daisies were used on other tables in bud vases and rock crystal service made a lovely finishing touch for the luncheon.

The 50 guests who were served a delicious luncheon presented Miss Mitcham with an unusual shower of handsome gifts. The charming hostesses presented her with a clothes hamper in purple and lavender.

Treasure Hunt

Both the pretty bride-elect and Mr. Lesley were honorees at a treasure hunt given Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bradford on Seymour road when clues to the large packages of hidden gifts were given in clever verses.

A dainty refreshment course was served to the honor guests and to Mesdames M. Mitcham, Bill Dailey of Floydada, Charles Armstead of Floydada; Messrs. and Mesdames B. Lesley, E. V. Lesley, O. G. Stephens, Charles J. Tucker, C. D. Shamburger, Dye McCutchen, P. P. Langford Jr., Eugene Clark, Stanley Morgan, J. I. Staley, Louis Hodges, Chandler Crump, Harold Naylor and J. B. Fletcher; Misses Jane Moore, Wenzella Witherspoon, Katherine Weeks, Donna Mitcham, Lena Mae Lesley, Retta Barnard, Alva Ruth Walker, Mildred Sherrod, Joline Wood, Mary Delaney, Hallie Broday, Lucile Collier, Camille Avis, Martha Long of Vernon; Messrs. Al Prater, Ben Langford, Pat Hardage, Harold Thomas, Marvin McCullough, Edward Smith, Faye Hooker, Tom Peery and Gene Costley and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Bradford.

PEEPS AT PEOPLE

By MRS. L. N. CASON

There should be more public speaking taught in the land. We heard magnificent addresses at the Woman's Forum clubhouse Wednesday in the intercounty federation of women's clubs. But every once in awhile, we wished that women men are prone to the same fault (but we are not so particular about men), would learn the art of impromptu speaking without adding "er—and—uh," etc., to their sentences.

We saw at the forum one of the world's most striking grandmothers. We speak of her so because there's a queenly bearing in Mrs. G. D. Anderson. Her white hair makes her clear skin and beautiful brown eyes all the more attractive and one never thinks of her as one thought of grandmothers some 15 years ago.

Then, there sat Mrs. C. D. Shamburger, at the desk with Mrs. Newton Maer, taking care of the forum bookbooks. We had not remembered that she is a grandmother. When we think on the question, we can count so many young and lovely grandmothers in the city. In Memphis, Tenn., the grandmothers were special honorees at the Woman's club once each year. That would be a pretty forum fete.

Federation meetings furnish much information and sometimes, much amusement. There's always a woman who tells funny stories. There's always one who is in deadly earnest and cannot abide the funny stories. There is always some one wearing a perpetual smile upon her face, making her audience wonder what lies back of it. There's always some one who loves to talk and does so at every opportunity. Oh, many of them.

Mrs. P. L. Myers was on the job with decorations for the luncheon table at the convention luncheon. The long tables, where something more than 100 had luncheon, were gay with bowls of golden cosmos; just the thing for the cool day.

And as one looked about the dining room, she saw some of the beautiful paintings done by Mrs. Polly Hoffman during her sojourn in Colorado in the past summer. We remember quite well how we sweltered in the heat yet remained comparatively sane and we think that any one who had the privilege of living in such surroundings as Polly Hoffman pictured should have come home wise and sweet and kind. And oh, how she can paint flowers.

One talk we heard Wednesday dwelt on teaching the children how to read. That is a project dear and near to our own heart. We know the inestimable riches that may come from being acquainted with the wise minds of the world.

More women told of canning activities, and the figures were astounding. In Archer county, where they have no county demonstration agent, they canned 100,000 cans of fruit, vegetables, jellies and jams in the past season and one rural club had a record of 6,000 cans. In their hours of leisure, this same club quilted 50 quilts in the summer months.

Baylor county had a splendid report also. But when we think of Baylor county, we think of Mrs. J. M. Roach, who we heard last year talk on bird life. She has been recognized by the National Izaak Walton league for her work among the birds. She invited us once to come down and spend a day in the fields with her. Next summer we hope we may, though she may have forgotten she asked us.

MINER FINED

McALESTER, Okla., Oct. 20. (UP)—Ott Corn, a nonunion miner, today was fined $25 and costs by Place Justice A. C. Sewell after hearing on a complaint sworn by striking miners.

He was accused of shooting a rifle unlawfully in the town of Dow. The strike situation in this area was quiet today although heavy picketing was in progress at five nonunion mines.

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardui has helped thousands of women: "I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day.

"My mother had taken Cardui, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."

Cardui is sold by local druggists.

"That's Jimmie."

"What in the world is the matter with him. I never heard such a racket. He isn't sick. He can't be just mean. What in the world?"

"There isn't a thing the matter with him. I've asked him what he wanted and he doesn't know. I've offered him everything and he does not want it. He picks up one thing and whines. Then he picks up the next thing, drops that and whines. I don't know what to do with him."

Jimmie presented a sad spectacle. He sat on the floor of his playroom slamming things down hard and howling between slams.

"What's the trouble, Jimmie?"

"I don' wanna."

"You needn't. What is it you don't want?"

"I don' wan' anything. I want somebody to play with me."

"Nobody wants to play with a boy who sits on the floor and howls like an old man of the sea. Get up and come out and play with me."

"No. I don' wanna. You're too big."

"I've got a ball. You ought to see what I can do with this ball. I can throw it and catch it and—"

"So can I. But I don' wanna."

"Aw, come ahead. Don't sit there like a baby howling for nothing."

"I ain't howling for nothing. I want somebody to play with me."

"Didn't I say I'd play with you?"

"Go on away. I don' wan' you. You're too big. G'wan away." And he resumed his slamming and howling.

I bethough me of the small boy across the street. He was busy piling stones in a little barrow and trundling across the garden to a hole he had dug. He was a sturdy little chap in overalls and he had no companion but his barrow. I hailed him. "Hey there. Want somebody to play with you?"

He eyed me suspiciously. "Who? You?"

"No. A chap about your size."

"Sure. Where is he?"

"Wait. I'll bring him."

"Come along, Jim. I found a fellow that wants you to play with him. Hurry up. He won't wait. He's busy."

Jimmie scrambled up and trotted after me, sniffing as he came. I indicated the boy across the way with the barrow. He shuffled over. The two eyed each other for a minute and then the chap in overalls said, "What you crying for? Are they mean to you? Don't you care. Come on and we'll build a garage. I got the stones all ready."

We are not enough for the children. Toys are not much good. The fewer and the more usable the better. What they need is companionship with the children their own age and a few simple things to use in their projects. Most children have too many toys and too few friends of their own group. Loneliness in the midst of crowds is possible, especially for little children.

Barwise P.-T. A. Unit Plans Original Party

Bert King will deliver the address and Tom McCarty will present one of his bands in a concert at the Barwise "Hen" party to be held at the school on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Other entertainment attractions include games directed by Frank J. Creighton, scout executive for the city. Some clever choruses will be presented by the children of the school under the direction of Miss E. Spalding.

Plans have been made to transform the auditorium into a veritable clubhouse for the evening with ample amusement for all.

The invitations, which were written by a member of the publicity committee, indicate the friendly, social atmosphere which will dominate throughout the evening and are in verse.

Each guest is asked by the invitation to present for admittance fee a fat hen. The hens are to be sold and the profit over the amount of 35 cents per capita in attendance at the party is to be placed in the treasury. The main objectives of the party are to swell the treasury; to increase the number of paid membership in the P.-T. A. organization and to create a more social contact between parent and parent, and parent and teacher.

An effort has been made to place a copy of the invitation in the hands of every family represented by the enrollment at Barwise school and every indication favors a record attendance. Every patron of the school is especially urged to be present.

To make Children
EAT

Don't force children to eat! The girl or boy who has no appetite has stasis—which means the child is sluggish. But cathartics have caused more constipation than they ever cured! The "California treatment" is best—just pure fig syrup. Try this for a few days then see how eagerly your youngster will eat.

How to Conquer Sluggishness

Stimulate the colon and that child with a finicky appetite will devour everything set before him. Here's the simple treatment that does more for babies or older children than all the diets, fad foods, or tonics.

Nature has provided the only "medicine" you'll need to stir a child's colon muscles into proper action. California fig syrup. Pure, delicious, harmless. It acts on the lower colon—where the trouble is. It has no ill effects on the intestines.

Begin tonight, with this marvelous "California treatment." Any druggist has California fig syrup, all bottled, with directions. Use enough the first time to cleanse the clogged colon of every bit of poison and hard waste. Then just a little twice a week until the child's appetite, color, weight and spirits tell you the stasis is gone. Whenever a cold or other upset clogs the system again, use this natural vegetable laxative instead of drastic drugs.

WARNING

There are dealers who practice substitution. Be sure to protect your child by looking for the name CALIFORNIA on the bottle.

ROOSEVELT AT INDIANAPOLIS

Demo Nominee Warns Against Panic Propaganda

that a new administration would retard business recovery, Roosevelt said:

"I have described Democratic policies in the course of days and weeks of continuous travel over this country. As I unfold these policies, I observe no fear or hesitation on the part of business.

"I did, on the other hand, observe as I set forth sound policies for conservation and protection and development, a quickening along the channels of trade, so long sluggish with a diminished flow of their essential life blood.

"As these policies we unfolded, the nation stood by and watched the unfolding drama of political contest without fear, without trepidation and without uneasiness. Economic and social life was stirred with the return of hope.

"The public grew sharply aware that the defeat of the present administration was to be the emblem of a genuinely national effort to restore sound and normal currents of trade."

Cites Unwise Policies

Contrasting what he said was the disastrous effects of Republican policies, Roosevelt added:

"Remember that the unwise policies of this administration have made it impossible for the people of this country to profit by the rich products of the richest soil on earth.

"These policies have permitted also the uncounted riches of our mines to lie unused, while those who stand ready to work these mines in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Missouri, Colorado, Nevada, Utah, Montana and Idaho, starve in the very presence of richness.

"A selfish policy of pernicious private monopoly has permitted water power that might bring happiness to millions of homes to remain unused.

"I want to add that the financial system of the United States in October of this year, while badly managed and hideously gambled with by this administration, is still, in spite of the actions of this administration, capable of repair."

Although Indiana was one of the original dry states, the nominee got a big hand when he renewed the Democratic pledge to end prohibition and put a federal tax on beer. He said:

"The Democratic party wants to acquire, through a sound policy of federal taxation on beer, some of the countless wealth now going into the pockets of racketeers and bootleggers. It wants to protect investors to conserve the savings of the people, to maintain the integrity and the soundness of the financial institutions that serve the people."

Scores Doak

Without mentioning him by name Roosevelt hit at Secretary of Labor Doak, one of President Hoover's principle campaigners, when he said:

"We propose a labor department interested in the problems of labor rather than the problems of political advantage, headed by some one who will not be to labor a politician and to politicians a labor leader."

The crush of people on the streets was so great that the delay caused the governor to call off a scheduled talk to 15,000 Indiana school teachers in convention here.

Roosevelt was so impressed by the demonstration that he likened his drive for votes to a "crusade" rather than a political campaign.

The Roosevelt family got a tremendous reception from the crowd in the circle as well as the governor himself. Appearing in turns, Mrs. Roosevelt, who joined the party here, Mr. and Mrs. James Roosevelt, his son and daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Curtis Dall, his daughter, stepped out on the balcony to receive a roar of welcome.

Demos Join Party

United States Senators Barkley and Logan of Kentucky, joined the party here and will continue on to Louisville where the candidate speaks on Saturday.

A misunderstanding on train schedules caused the Roosevelt special to get "lost" for a few hours during the early hours of the morning.

The governor intended to make a brief early morning stop at Springfield, Ohio, but due to a misunderstanding, the train did not stop there, continuing on through Dayton and Cincinnati to arrive here half an hour late.

Roosevelt sent a telegram of regret to the Democratic leaders of Springfield.

away at the reorganization and made our police force what it ought to be. But there was no other way out."

He said a compromise had been offered to him in the reorganization controversy, but he rejected it because it was "humiliating and untenable."

Glassford's action removed the most unusual police chief the capital ever has had. Soldier, lover of fine music and amateur artist, he is widely popular in social circles. Years ago he painted murals in what was then a private home. Recently when the establishment was raided by prohibition agents, Glassford laughed at the joke.

Roosevelt Leads Hoover 3 To 2 And Carries All But Seven States

Roosevelt is leading Hoover by slightly over 3 to 2 in the fifth week's tabulation of the Literary Digest's nation-wide presidential poll for which returns from all 48 states are reported in tomorrow's issue of the magazine.

A total of 2,617,185 ballots is tallied in the current returns, Governor Roosevelt receives 1,473,446 of these, or 56.30 per cent, and President Hoover gets 973,367, or 37.19 per cent. The balance is divided among the five minor candidates with Norman Thomas receiving 4.86 per cent of the total vote cast.

The 10 new states reported in this week's compilation include Florida, Maryland, Minnesota, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Texas, Virginia, Washington and Wyoming. All are votipg for Roosevelt.

Hoover Carries Seven

Hoover is carrying the seven states of Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey. Roosevelt is ahead in all of the 41 other states.

On the basis of an electoral college vote a division of the current balloting would give Roosevelt 474 electoral votes to Hoover's 57.

The voting in New York is closer than in any other state, making the outcome here doubtful at this time. Roosevelt is polling 159,428 votes to Hoover's 148,796.

A close race is also evident in Delaware, where Roosevelt has a plurality of only 202 votes out of a total of 5,682 cast in the state.

Hoover made slight gains in the poll during the week in California and Rhode Island. The voting in all of the other 36 states previously reported has changed only fractionally since the last report. The balloting from the 10 states for which first figures are reported furnish the bulk of the lead which Roosevelt gains this week.

The returns from "state unknown" divide 59.47 per cent for Roosevelt and 33.60 per cent for Hoover, which is slightly in excess of the Democratic candidate's ratio for the country as a whole.

Capital for Demos

The polling of the District of Columbia, which has no official election, shows Roosevelt receiving 4,754 votes to Hoover's 3,577.

In an analysis of "how the same voters voted in 1928" it is indicated that Roosevelt is receiving 37.05 per cent of his strength from former Republicans, 47.98 per cent from Democrats and 14.81 per cent from those who did not vote four years ago. The same analysis reveals that Hoover is obtaining 80.59 per cent of his votes from former Republican ranks, 6.11 per cent from the Democrats and 13.25 per cent from those who did not vote at the last quadrennial election.

It is indicated also that Roosevelt is obtaining more votes from former Republicans than from members of his own party in the 12 states of California, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Washington, Wisconsin and Wyoming, while in Illinois the division is almost even.

Hoover rolls up his largest lead in Massachusetts, where he is ahead of his Democratic rival by a vote of 51,739 to 29,712. Of the seven states which the president is now carrying New Jersey is giving him the smallest percentage ratio. The vote in this state is 63,175 to 53,409 for the Republican candidate.

Governor Roosevelt has a clear majority in 39 states in the voting this week.

Socialist Ratio

The Socialist ratio in the poll has declined from 6.28 per cent in the first week's returns to 4.86 of the total of the current tabulation. All of the other minor candidates are polling less than 1 per cent each of the total vote.

"Our tabulation, incomplete as it is," The Literary Digest will state editorially tomorrow, "gives an enormous sample of the country's voting strength. It represents the present moment, more than two weeks before election day. The sample is growing like a snowball, and public opinion may change as it grows. The ballots are still rolling in.

"By coincidence or fatality, every one of the 12 new states reported this week is for Roosevelt, at this stage of the balloting.

Texas Strongest

"The most imposing Roosevelt majority, of course, is that of Texas, which gives him 69,461 ballots against 13,972 for Hoover. And Missouri evidently thinks that Roosevelt has 'shown' her something, for she gives him 59,959 of this week's ballots, with only 31,333 for Hoover.

"In the 1928 election, Missouri gave Hoover 834,080 against 662,562 for Smith. The figures for Texas, were 367,036 for Hoover and 341,032 for Smith."

The tabulation by states, showing only Democratic and Republican ballots, follows:

Wife Was Fat

No Longer Attractive

Lost Husband's Love

The above headlines appeared in a New York newspaper of April 4 in connection with a divorce trial that has attracted wide attention.

"She was a beautiful woman," one witness testified, "but she got fat and is not attractive any more."

Thousands of women are getting fat and losing their appeal just because they do not know what to do.

If you are fat how would you like to lose it and at the same time gain in physical charm and acquire a clean, clear skin and eyes that sparkle with buoyant health?

And gain in energy and activity?

Why not do what thousands of women have done to get rid of pounds of unwanted fat? Take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast and keep it up for 30 days. You can help the action of Kruschen by cutting down on pastry and fatty meats and going light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar. Then weigh yourself and see how many pounds you have lost.

Kruschen Salts are a blend of 6 mineral salts most helpful to body health. Best of all, a bottle of Kruschen Salts that will last you for 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Ask Allison Drug Store or any druggist for a bottle and start to lose fat today.

It's the safe way to reduce but be sure you get Kruschen—your health comes first and remember this if you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.—Adv.

A Washington Bystander

By KIRKE SIMPSON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—During Calvin Coolidge's years in the White House, listeners the nation over grew well accustomed to his enunciation.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

The former president is meticulous about giving every syllable of a word its accepted weight in pronunciation fashions. And then, as now, his dry, uncolored New England drawl—quite a different thing from the easy-going southern or western drawl that make all sorts of pronunciation short cuts—made his addresses plain in every word.

There may have been doubt and controversy at times about what Mr. Coolidge meant when he wrote or spoke—witness that famous "I-do-not-choose" masterpiece — but not about what he said.

It "Went Over" Big

Yet when the Republican eastern campaign was opened with the biggest available gun, short of President Hoover himself, in the New York City rally addressed by Mr. Coolidge, an incident occurred that listeners found it hard to explain.

What Mr. Coolidge said, in drawing what he evidently intended as a comparison between the humble origin of President Hoover and the fact that Governor Roosevelt had what some might call a "silver spoon" start in life, was this:

"He (Hoover) was never carried into office by way of family influence."

A roar of applause from the assembled Republicans greeted that sally. It must have astonished Mr. Coolidge himself.

Then it developed that the audience in the hall had misunderstood Mr. Coolidge as to one word, due to that very meticulous Coolidge habit of giving every syllable its due weight.

Mr. Coolidge does not favor that lazy short cut of making "family" an easy-going, two-syllable word which would phonetically be spelled "fam'ly."

It is three full syllables to him and would look like "fam-i-ly" in print. And spoken that way it sounds a bit like "Tammany."

That apparently is what the audience in the hall thought Mr. Coolidge said, hence the roar of approval.

It sounded like a good, old fashioned Republican shot at Tammany.

Looking Ahead

At that, one wonders how Mr. Coolidge would feel about having his comparison of the Hoover and Roosevelt start in life recalled if four years from now Ogden Mills, say, should be the Republican presidential nominee.

English-Irish Peace Prospects Go Awry

DUBLIN, Oct. 20. (UP)—All prospects of an immediate truce in the costly economic war between Great Britain and Ireland has vanished since President Eamon de Valera denounced the British government in the dail as a "Shylock to Ireland" and declared "we do not intend to surrender our just claims."

In his first pronouncement since the recent, and apparently final, collapse of Anglo-Irish peace efforts, De Valera accused Britain of seeking relief from a debt "morally and legally due" the United States.

"The present British government is not prepared to admit the claims of our country to simple justice," De Valera continued.

SHOT KILLS BOY

HONDO, Texas, Oct. 20. (INS)—Lloyd Bohmfolk, 13, was instantly killed today by the accidental discharge of a shotgun. He is the only son of Fritz Bohmfolk of the Yancey community. The shotgun was discharged when the lad reached for it to remove it from the back seat of an automobile.

Hambone's Mediations

Now that the football season is well underway, nominations are being received for successor to the mantle worn by the Boston Red Sox.

Move Over, Sir Izaak Walton

WHATEVER else may be said of and about the chief executive of Oklahoma, it must be conceded that Gov. W. H. Murray is original in his plans and practical in their execution. Some call it showmanship. Perhaps that's what it is, but it seems to this newspaper we ought to start admitting that quite frequently Governor Bill does things that make us wish we lived in Oklahoma.

Right at the moment the dejected anglers of this section can consider with envy Governor Murray's program of building lakes with federal relief funds. The first announcement of the governor's plans was not taken too seriously. Now comes the United Press with a lengthy dispatch which reveals that when Governor Murray said he intended to put the unemployed to work building lakes, he meant just that. He has the money. The program is drawn. Oklahoma is going to be dotted with strings of small lakes in every county where federal funds have been provided for the unemployed.

So far as we know, Governor Murray is the first state executive to do anything about the inalienable right of a man to fish and not only to fish but to catch fish. There are others who have talked about propagation and protection and conservation, but Governor Murray is going right out to provide fishing. Every citizen should have the right to fish "for the reason that it is getting so that no one can fish except in private ponds," says Governor Bill. Furthermore, he adds, "it is entirely possible to raise enough fish in Oklahoma by the construction of these lakes to give every man, woman and child in the state a pound of fish a day."

Governor Murray is going to build the lakes. The efficient Oklahoma game and fish commission will stock the waters. Putting the two together, it seems not improbable that eventually Oklahoma will have its pound of fish a day for every man, woman and child. If it does, it will become the greatest attraction in the nation for the followers of old Izaak Walton. The lakes also will furnish water for stock; will become recreation centers in many instances, and will provide boating, bathing and other sports for Oklahomans. They even will provide new freezing places for the duck hunters. These are minor, although commendable, benefits. The great thing is a pound of fish a day for every man, woman and child. Imagine what Governor Murray could do in Northwest Texas with such a platform!

A Campaign Weapon That May Backfire

THE Republican campaign to instill fear into the American voters that a change of administration will retard the return to prosperity is reported to be making headway—such headway that it is now a big factor in retarding the slow recovery from the business depression into which the country had drifted during the Hoover administration.

The fear that a change in administration will retard return to more normal conditions, we believe, is groundless, but such a psychology of fear can be created by Republican campaigners in their desperation to prevent defeat of the administration as to be a real factor in retarding recovery.

President Hoover has pictured himself as a Horatius at the bridge, standing almost alone against the hordes of disaster and despair. Insofar as a measure designed to mitigate and relieve the effects of the depression and to start recovery are concerned they have been effected by both parties and we have heard no proposal for the discontinuance of any of them that have proven effective. They will be continued whether Mr. Hoover or Mr. Roosevelt is elected.

Democrats and Republicans alike want the speediest business recovery possible.

The one chance the Hoover administration has for re-election is for business recovery to be far on the way before election day. It seems to us that in attempting to inculcate fear they are using a weapon that may backfire and knock over Hoover's best chance to win.

Stagg Leaves the Field

THAT part of the country which is interested in football—which is to say, practically everybody—is beyond doubt truly sorry to learn that Alonzo Stagg is in his last season as head coach at the University of Chicago.

Of all the coaches in the land, Stagg is probably the most deeply admired. And the admiration he has won, it seems to us, is of an exceptionally worth-while kind.

Stagg is not famous as a "winning coach." He has turned out some great stars and some great teams, but there are plenty of coaches who have far better winning records. Stagg has won popular affection not so much because of what he can do as because of what he is.

The acclaim that greets him is simply the public's way of showing that it knows him to be an exceptionally fine man to have a bunch of boys under his care every fall, whether he teaches them football or ping-pong. The boast that football "builds character" comes closer to truth in Stagg's case than anywhere else.

Beer "Real" at 3 Per Cent

WHEN the last congress was urged to modify the Volstead act to permit the sale of beer of 2.75 per cent alcoholic content, a number of ardent wets opposed the move on the ground that such beer would not be "real" beer, and hence would not satisfy the hordes of thirsty. It was suggested that, to be palatable to a devoted beer drinker, the beverage must contain no less than 6 or 7 per cent of alcohol.

Now comes Col. Jacob Ruppert, formerly one of the country's leading brewers, to explain that the best beer in the old days had an alcoholic content of just 3 per cent.

The proposed 2.75 per cent beer would fall short of that, but not as far short as a lot of people tried to tell us. And even the 3 per cent variety, it is safe to say, would fall below the kicking capacity of most of the needled alley beer that gets on the market these days.

SO THEY SAY!

Imagine a man being known as "Mr. Garbo"—just that and nothing more! Only a fool or a hero could abide such an anomalous position.—Greta Garbo, film actress.

BABES ON BROADWAY

By JANE DIXON (Copyright, 1932, Jane Dixon)

SYNOPSIS

Tony Brookes was orphaned when she was 18 by an automobile accident in Centerville, her home town. She lost her first job in a New York dress shop, and one in an art gallery because she was too honest about the wares she offered. Leslie (Lee) Moran, a model, was discharged at the dress shop the same day as Tony. Lee had no money and Tony shared her third floor back room at Mrs. Higgins' with her. Lee became a taxi dancer at El Tango where she met middle-aged Adam Leonard, whom she called Uncle Lenny. While the two girls were at a night club with Leonard and Donald Kemp, a lawyer in another city, Mrs. Leonard saw them and made a scene. Leonard, unhappily married, had Kemp arrange a divorce for him. Lee astonished Tony by telling her she was to pose as correspondent. Tony fell in love with Tom Stewart, a young engineer who was in love with Lee. He waited for Tony at Mrs. Higgins' one night just before he was sent to New Mexico, kissed her and seemed to be about to declare his love when the victim of a "ride" was dumped on the sidewalk at their feet. Tom hurried Tony into the house and disappeared, and Tony waited in vain for word from him. Lee moved to an apartment. Tony had been designing dresses for some time now in the studio of Mr. Montieu, a client of Kemp's. Kemp had been very attentive and Tony knew he loved her. Lee tricked Tony into going to a week-end party at fashionable Haven Beach. To escape the attentions of Jock Selden, she kicked the widow out of his car, walked back to her hotel, and caught an early morning train back to the city.

INSALLMENT XX

Tony's limbs were heavy with weariness. Yet sleep was far from her eyes. She undressed mechanically. The cut ankle throbbed. She bathed it in lukewarm water and applied an antiseptic salve. Better to have a bad ankle than to submit to the embraces of Jock Selden. Infinitely better. She stretched her body at length on her narrow bed and found her shoulder was stiff. She must have strained it in the struggle to get out of the car. Her mind raced. She commanded it: Blot out Haven Beach and everything that happened there. Be a blank. Sleep. I'm going to sleep.

She must have dozed for she wakened with a start. She sat up, shaking off the drug of sleep. Mrs. Higgins stood inside the door looking for all the world as though she were seeing ghosts.

"Well, I never—why—so it's you, Miss Brookes," Mrs. Higgins stammered. "Shure an' I thought it was Miss—shure an' I don't know what I did think except it wasn't yourself I'd be expectin' to be home on a foine day as it is."

Tony saw that Mrs. Higgins held a letter in her hand. Her heart leaped. Tom Stewart! Tom had broken his long silence!

"The letter—it is for me?" Tony asked.

"No, miss, I mean ma'am. Shure and it's addled me brain is today, Mrs. Higgins stuffed the letter into the pocket of her apron. "An advertisement. I just happened to be holdin' it. They keep sendin' 'em all the time, the Lord knows why. Are ye sthaying here now, Miss Brookes, or is it just sthoppin' by ye are?"

"I'm staying here, indefinitely."

"Then you'll not be livin' with Miss Lee no more?"

"No, I'll be living here." Mentally Tony added: Mrs. Higgins is sorry the cat came back. I can't blame her. She was collecting rent on this room without wear or tear or bother. She might conceal her feelings a bit, though. She could pretend she's glad. After all, this is the only home I have.

"Then I'll be bringin' up fresh sheets and a pillow-case," Mrs. Higgins said, obviously delighted to have found an excuse to depart in a hurry.

No more sleep for Tony. Impossible. And she had felt so certain that letter was from Tom. "Why?" she asked herself. "It's been weeks since that night he held me in his arms. Weeks. And I feel the warmth of his hands, his lips, as if they had just touched me, were touching me now. Stop it. Stop being a fool about a man who is laughing at you if he hasn't completely forgotten you. It's ignoble to be so weak.

She would work on a sketch. Drawing could absorb her. Another evening gown. Something lively to chase away the gloom. A stroke here, a curve there. No, that won't do. Rub, rub, rub. I'll try simpler lines—Oh heck! How did I ever come to do that!

Tony tore the paper from the board. She had drawn the woman with the fiery red hair and the revealing black sheath of satin. The woman who had sulked all evening at the beach house. And she had meant to do something lively.

At 10 o'clock Mrs. Higgins panted upstairs—the buzzer was out of order—to tell Tony she was wanted on the telephone.

"It's Miss Lee," Mrs. Higgins said.

Tony busied herself gathering together her drawing materials. "Tell Miss Lee I will not answer." She could hear Mrs. Higgins' protesting wheeze.

"But she says as how it's important."

"Just give the message please, Mrs. Higgins. I will not answer."

"Now there ye are, you two girruls have bin an' spatted amongst ye. An' shame it is, you sharin' the same bed and board . . ."

"The party on the phone is waiting, Mrs. Higgins."

"It's sthubborn as an ox ye are, Miss Brookes, and 'tis well ye git over bein' it." Mrs. Higgins gave an indignant flirt to her apron and lumbered heavily down the stairs.

Tony had reached a crossroad. She told herself: It's lucky I've come this far with so little damage. I've got to cut Lee from my life. It's going to be hard—I've come to have a real sister's affection for her. She's drifting—fast. I've tried to stop her. She won't be stopped. She thinks she's riding the crest of the wave. Perhaps she is. Perhaps I am in the slough. Lee and I have different codes, different tastes. She's beginning to hate me because of Tom Stewart, and because Jock Selden . . .

"Miss Lee says please an' to come to the phone. If not she an' the others are coming afther ye." Mrs. Higgins delivered the message through the closed door.

"I'm leaving," Tony called with decision. "I don't know when I'll be back."

"But ye was just afther tellin' me ye was sthayin' . . ."

"I've changed my mind. I'm leaving at once."

"Niver did I see such a stubborn girrul . . ."

Tony had not unpacked her bag. She removed the things she would not need—her evening dress, a single pair of sheer silk stockings, slippers woefully soiled from her tramp through sandy roads back to The Lombard after her escape from the car and from Jock Selden.

Where would she go? There was less than a dollar in her bag. The small side-street hotel near Montieu's studio. She had gone there with David Kemp several times for luncheon when pressed for time. The doorman might remember her. She would take her bag, register, and if the clerk did not demand the price of a room in advance she would call Monsieur Montieu in the morning and ask him to send her enough money to pay her bill.

Funny, waking up in the morning without the remotest idea where one was or why? Chimes were ringing outside the window. Nice to awaken to the chime of bells. Go on ringing, bells—one, two, three—eight o'clock. So late?

Tony whisked out of bed and began to dress hastily. There would not be time for a bath. Here she was with her own private bath after months of sharing the community tub of Mrs. Higgins and she did not have time to use it.

"That secretary of Montieu's must think I'm in jail, being so insistent about the money." Tony laughed. Youth is that way.

It occurred to Tony, then, with a little twinge of conscience, that she had passed the crossroad, had entered into a new travel. And that the way behind her was already blurring. This strange hotel room felt homey. The room at Mrs. Higgins', with the blue painted bed and table, would be unfamiliar. Lee's apartment she had passed through. The details of it were nebulous. She had come to be an adventurer. A ship passing as Tom Stewart passed, from effete East country estates to bridges in New Mexico.

"I wish I could stay here," she said aloud as she closed the door of her haven behind her. "It's friendly and close to the studio." In her heart she knew the real reason for the desire for change was that she might leave behind her associations, which had become aching voids.

"Monsieur Montieu wants to see you in his office." Little waves of excitement vibrated along Tony's nerve wires. It was about her sketch, "Treebloom." She was filling in color for one of the designers but she put down her brushes and hurried to the office with a buoyancy that scarcely allowed her feet to touch the floor. M. Montieu greeted her pleasantly.

"You have done a very good work, ma petite," Montieu said, regarding her from under the shelves of his bristling brows. "You show promise. The 'Treebloom' is—original?"

"Oh, yes, sir—that is, I have never seen it done."

"And the idea? You had, perhaps, an inspiration?"

"I did. It was a chestnut tree in bloom. I saw it in a watercolor in the Modern Galleries, the art shop where I worked before I came here. I've seen chestnut trees in bloom before, real ones, I mean—in the town where I lived—but it wasn't until I came to the city and thought of being a designer that I ever translated trees and fogs and skies, things like that, into clothes. The gray dress for which you gave me a bonus was a fog dress."

"Eh bien. Nature is the truest artist of all. You must commune with her often, petite. She is sympatico with you. I have decided to put the 'Treebloom' sketch into execution immediatement. Also, you will no longer assist the others. You will create for the benefit of yourself and for Montieu. The weekly sum you are paid will be increased. Not so much, at first. More as you progress. And there will be something extra for the 'Treebloom'."

"Monsieur Montieu, you—you really like my tree dress?" Montieu thought he had never seen dark eyes mirror more of gratitude. This young artist was not moved by the material gain he had promised. Hers was the joy of creative talent, recognized and approved.

"Charmante. Now we shall see if the well is deep, or if a few pitchers may dip it dry. Such very often happens. Two or three good things —and then, no more. It will not be so with you, petite, I trust."

At noon Tony went to lunch with a young woman from the studio at the Tres Arts club. The club was an organization for students of the three arts—music, painting, dancing. It maintained its own clubhouse where members could live at a nominal cost and where an atmosphere of congeniality and helpfulness could be maintained. Only one room for residence was available in the clubhouse. The young woman from the studio asked Tony if she would care to occupy it. She was a member of the admissions committee and would vouch for Tony. Ten dollars a week, breakfast included.

"I'd like to come today if I may," Tony said when she had inspected the room, so cozy with its rust carpet and flowered chintzes.

"I believe it can be arranged."

Tony figured: If I have to give Mrs. Higgins two weeks notice about her room I'll be paying two rents. There won't be much left. But I'll have my breakfast, and one meal a day is better than going back there. I'd be so depressed I couldn't do anything with my sketches.

As she hurried along the street of drab brownstone houses that evening, the street wherein she had known those few fleeting moments of ecstasy with Tom Stewart and wherein she had so often felt the defeat of the city pressing upon her, Tony knew the homing instinct in her was tugging at her heartstrings. It was like leaving the white house with the green shutters in Centerville, home of her youth, of her carefree girlhood. Not so poignant, perhaps, except for the memory of a tall lean figure in the dim hall under the wilted red paper shade, and for the comaraderie of Lee in the room with the blue painted furniture. A memory. That was as much as the tall lean figure could ever be to her. And Lee—Lee had gone on into a world where third floor backs were libraries or boudoirs.

In the distance a woman descended a chipped stone stoop. Mrs. Higgins' stoop. And wasn't the woman—Lee?

Answers to Questions

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Many readers send in questions signed only with initials, asking that the answers appear in the newspaper. The space is limited and would not accommodate a fraction of such requests. The answers published are ones that may interest many readers, rather than the one who asks the question only. All questions should be accompanied by the writer's name and address and three cents in coin or stamps for reply. Send your question to The Record News Information bureau, Frederic J. Haskin, director, Washington, D. C.

Q.—How many circulating or rental libraries are there in the United States?—T. S.

A.—It is estimated that there are about 35,000. It may be assumed that at least 4,500,000 borrowers are served, and 8,000,000 books in circulation. Probably $5,000,000 is invested in books by rental libraries each year.

Q.—How much does the postoffice department pay in subsidies for air mail and carrying by ship?—W. D. B.

A.—In the fiscal year ending June 30, 1931, they amounted to $36,000,000 and in 1932 to $41,000,000.

Q.—Can the age of a large-mouth black bass be told by its size?—F. R.

A.—A black bass 10 to 12 inches in length, weighing a pound or a little over, is about 2 years old. At 3 years the bass will be from 12 to 15 inches long and weigh from 2 to 2½ pounds.

Q.—What size rope do cowboys use?—R. R.

A.—It is ordinarily manila rope about one-fourth inch in diameter.

Q.—How do partners carry life insurance on each other to keep the families out of the business?—G. L.

A.—A business protection policy on each partner payable to the other, enables the surviving partner to buy out the deceased partner's interest. The widow gets the cash and the surviving partner gets the business.

Q.—What motion pictures were the most successful last year? S. N.

A.—The "Box Office Champions" of 1931 were Trader Horn, City Lights, Cimarron, Strangers May Kiss, Little Caesar, Hell's Angels, The Man Who Came Back, Daddy Long Legs, Monkey Business, Five Star Final, Susan Lenox, Frankenstein, Politics, A Connecticut Yankee and Reducing.

Q.—Please give the seating capacity of the stadiums at Harvard, Yale and Sailors Field. E. V.

A.—Harvard seats about 40,000, Yale Bowl almost 80,000 and Soldiers and Sailors stadium about 100,000.

Q.—Is John Garner a rich man? G. N.

A.—He is said to be worth a million dollars. He began with nothing, but with shrewd judgment and untiring energy, accumulated a fortune which makes him the leading banker of Uvalde county, Texas.

Q.—When was Navy day first celebrated? T. C.

A.—On Oct. 27, 1923. This date marks the anniversary of the founding of the United States navy. On Oct. 27, 1775, a special committee presented a bill to the Continental congress, providing for the construction of the first ships of the navy.

Q.—How much money did George Eastman leave? H. W.

A.—The estate of the late George Eastman has recently been appraised at $25,561,000. The great proportion of the estate was left to educational and philanthropic institutions.

Q.—Should a person try to return a banded pigeon to its owner? R. P.

A.—Pigeons are generally banded by fanciers who raise them for sale and racing purposes. These persons show little interest in the fate of a bird that fails to return to its proper loft, as they consider such failures indicative of lack of strength or homing instinct.

Q.—Is domestic Angora wool as desirable as the imported variety? F. K.

A.—It is not very popular in the textile industry since it does not last well. Practically all of the Angora rabbit wool used is imported.

RASKOB GIVES DEMOS $25,000

'Debt Can Wait,' Smith's Backer Declares

NEW YORK, Oct. 20. (INS)—John J. Raskob, chief financier for Alfred E. Smith's presidential campaign in 1928, contributed $25,000 today to Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's campaign fund and definitely returned to the Democratic fold.

The Democratic national committee, of which Raskob was chairman until the nomination of Governor Roosevelt as the national standard-bearer, still owes him $120,000 as a hangover from 1928, but the General Motors magnate said today:

"Let that wait. Let's elect our candidates, then worry about money."

National Chairman James A. Farley announced the donation at a luncheon of Democratic leaders attended by Raskob, who had not previously appeared in the political spotlight since he was succeeded by Farley.

Farley also announced that the Democratic national committee had paid off $100,000 of the approximately $300,000 it owed the County Trust company from the 1928 campaign.

Farley said the $100,000 had been paid in four installments and that today's luncheon was in effect a celebration of the fourth payment.

He said the money had been paid off by economies effected in the present campaign.

"We don't owe anybody a quarter for this campaign," he said. "We have paid cash throughout."

Farley made clear that Raskob's donation was in actual money for expenses of the Roosevelt-Garner campaign and was not merely written off from the $120,000 the national committee still owes Raskob from the last campaign.

"I am satisfied that Mr. Raskob is just as keenly interested as any of the rest of us in a Democratic victory on Nov. 8," Farley said.

Insurance Commissioners In Annual Convention

GALVESTON, Oct. 20. (AP)—Delegates to the 63rd annual convention of insurance commissioners adopted a resolution today paying tribute to Arthur E. Linell, deputy insurance commissioner of Massachusetts, who has retired from office after many years of service.

The resolution was introduced by George S. Van Schaick, New York insurance superintendent, who spoke on administrative policies. He declared that administration of laws relating to insurance claims should be governed by "common sense."

The convention planned later in the day to fix dates for the next convention, in New York, and to elect officers. W. A. Tarver of Texas was expected to be chosen president and Garfield Brown of Minnesota was mentioned as the most likely to be chosen for the vice presidency.

Militant Eldorado Pastor Opens Wars On Dances And Sunday Picture Shows

Special to The Record News.

ELDORADO, Okla., Oct. 20.—Sunday night, following an address at the First Methodist church of Eldorado by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Chunn, to a mass meeting of several hundred citizens, a petition bearing signatures of the majority of those present who were eligible to vote in a city election here, was placed in the hands of the city board of trustees asking the board to take such steps as might be necessary to make it unlawful for public dances to be held within the corporate limits of the town.

Boycott Shows

An appeal also was made to all opposed to Sunday night picture shows in Eldorado to boycott the week night shows as long as the Sunday night programs are offered.

The mass meeting Sunday night took the place of the regular services scheduled for most churches here.

Using as a part of his text in a sermon or lecture against evil influences which he declared to be "wide open" in the town the scriptural passage "Render unto Caeser the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's," Rev. Chunn said he believed it the duty of the churches of a community to set the standards of life in the community on a high plane, not only spiritually but morally and mentally.

Pastor Visited Dances

Declaring "I refuse to be silent when I see such corruption as I know exists here in our midst," Reverend Chunn told of what he saw and heard on the floor of a public dance hall in Eldorado, which he said he had attended several times within recent weeks. Among other things he mentioned drunkenness, profanity and other influences which he said should not be tolerated by a citizenship which stands for decency and a clean town.

He told of having witnessed the attempt of local officers to make an arrest in the dance hall Saturday night, when their efforts were thwarted by interference of others present. He said only the coolheadedness of the officers averted an episode that would have been a disgrace to Eldorado for all time.

GOTHAM CUTS BUDGET DOWN

Slash of 72 Millions Is Accepted

NEW YORK, Oct. 20. (AP)—The 1933 New York City budget as accepted at a heated session of the board of estimate today totals $558,406,601.73, a decrease of $72,959,696.24 from the 1932 budget.

At a meeting into which Mayor Joseph V. McKee hurled charges of political racksteering six items totaling $1,785,301.33 were restored to the tentative budget.

Department of hospitals, $1,000,000.

Department of education $600,000.

Museum of the city of New York, $36,000.

Supreme court, all counties $115,263.93.

While the district 5 contenders in the class A realm of the Texas Interscholastic league engage practice foes exclusively today, other teams in Northwest Texas and Southern Oklahoma will be in the big middle of conference warfare.

The Wichita Falls Coyotes, perhaps minus the services of Capt. Ed Greenwood and Charlie Hurd, star ends injured in practice this week, will take on an ancient rival, Grandfield, Okla., at Coyote stadium here. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

Thanks to the injury jinx that made its first appearance in the Wichita Falls camp this week, Grandfield perhaps is the favorite to win. If the invaders accomplish this feat they will add to an already imposing list of victories over Wichita Falls teams. Three times in the last 10 years Wichita Falls and Grandfield have met, and each time the Sooners were victorious.

Boast Good Attack

The teams perhaps are about evenly matched on the defense, but Grandfield has the more powerful attack, built around Creighton, star halfback. Two weeks ago Grandfield suffered an even more severe flock of injuries than the Coyotes have this week, and with a crippled lineup lost to Vernon, 39 to 0. The Sooners now, however, are reported in tiptop shape.

Oklahoma teams will provide competition for all other teams in this class A district. Temple, Okla., will play the Electra Tigers tonight at Electra, with the Tigers favored to win. Childress will play Gould, Okla., tonight at Childress, and the Bobcats should win easily. Quanah gets a breather in Duke, Okla. The game will be played on the Indians' field. Vernon, however, gets a tough assignment in the Frederick, Okla., eleven. The Lions perhaps will have just as much trouble with the Frederick boys as Wichita Falls will with Grandfield.

Olney at Burkburnett

In the outstanding class B attraction Friday, Coach Albert Acker's Olney Cubs will play the Burkburnett Bulldogs in the latter team's second night engagement of the year. Olney will journey to Burkburnett a heavy favorite to win, but the Cubs will not find the going easy. Burkburnett and Olney, along with Chillicothe, are tied for the top in district No. 4, and either the Bulldogs or the Cubs are due to take a fall tonight. If the Cubs tape the rap it will be the biggest upset in that district's recent history.

Three other conference games are scheduled in the district. Chillicothe plays at Archer City. The Wildcats of Archer City have lost two league games to date and there is no reason to suppose Chillicothe will have anything but a tea party in today's fracas. Megargel will journey to Crowell to get roundly thumped by Coach Grady Graves' Wildcats. Megargel has a tie with Archer City to its credit, but Olney plastered them last week 32 to 0. In the fourth conference game, Henrietta will go to Seymour. The Panthers of Seymour took a long ride last week with Chillicothe at the steering wheel. The Panthers had been rated right up there, but the pre-game estimates looked a little funny after Chillicothe had ripped through them 45 to 0. Seymour will be a little more in its class today in the Henrietta game, and should win.

Steers Meet Decatur

In district No. 5, class B, the Graham Steers, victims of two tragic accidents within a week that robbed them of their star quarterback, Nicklas, and his substitute, Turney, will play the Decatur eleven. The game will be played at Graham. Decatur hasn't won a game in three starts and they are due to lose their fourth today. Graham is fortunate in having scrapping reserves to take the place of the injured veterans, and the team, moreover, is determined to "carry on" for Nicklas and Turney and win the district crown despite the injury jinx.

All other teams in the district are engaged today in conference games. Jacksboro will go to Bellevue. Jacksboro is favored to win. They have two victories to their credit, both won by the narrowest of margins. They beat Decatur 6 to 0 and Newcastle 7 to 6. But Bellevue has failed to score a point this season and has dropped three straight. Nocona will journey to Bowie. Bowie may slip up on the Indians and win. Nocona has won three, but in their third game, last week, it took all they had to nose out an 8 to 6 victory over the weak Decatur team. Bridgeport will play at Newcastle in the fourth game. It's a toss-up.

Other games scheduled in this vicinity include Memphis at Wellington, Eliasville at Throckmorton, Albany at Stamford, and the Childress B squad at Estelline.

Oklahoma Games

Four conference games are scheduled in the snappy Southwestern Oklahoma conference, now paced by Clinton, Elk City and Hollis. One of these three will step aside after today, for Clinton and Elk City are matched in a night game at Clinton. Hollis, playing at Sayre, is expected to have an easy time of it.

Other conference games include Erick at Altus in a night game, and Weatherford at Hobart. Practice games include Snyder at Cordell, Frederick at Vernon, and Mountain View at Roosevelt.

Carnegie and Mangum, booked for a conference game tonight, played at Mangum last night, the game having been moved up to avoid conflict with the teachers' meeting at Elk City today. Carnegie won the game, 20 to 7.

LIONS AWAIT FREDERICK FOE

Sooners Renew Rivalry With Vernon

Special to The Record News.

VERNON, Texas, Oct. 20.—Two traditional rivals of the gridiron, one bearing the maroon and white of Frederick and the other the maroon and gray of Vernon, will clash at 3:15 o'clock Friday afternoon at the City park here in what is expected to prove one of the most spectacular exhibitions of offensive football to be witnessed on a Vernon field this season.

With the game fairly reeking with ancient rivalry, the contest is apparently of utmost importance to both events although it is not a conference fray for either team. One of the largest crowds here this year is expected to view the contest, with several hundred expected to follow the Oklahoma gridders across Red river hoping to see a Frederick victory over Vernon for the second time in six games.

Frederick Confident

Plenty confident, despite the loss of four players through ineligibility, and the possible loss of two others including the stellar broken field runner, Eddie Roe, ace of Southern Oklahoma's sprinters, the Bearcats will invade Vernon fully expecting to score at least two touchdowns against the Lions and hopeful of more counters.

Grounds for Frederick's confidence may be seen in the fact that Coach "Skivey" Davis, former Oklahoma University star, will bring to Vernon an eleven expected to be as great offensively as any ever boasted by the Tillman county seat. Even with three outstanding backfield stars possibly out of the lineup, Frederick can still place a fast backfield on the gridiron which causes no lessening of confidence as a fighting, determined, high spirited Sooner crew invades this city.

Have Weight Advantages

The Oklahomans will boast a weight advantage of about seven pounds per player in the contest here, placing both backfield and line on the field which will outweight Vernon's starting array.

Frederick is touted as second to none in the Southwest Oklahoma conference with the exception of Hollis, one of the ranking teams in the state.

According to an announcement from Frederick, Bob McConnell and Frank Earp, star backs, and Prestidge and Miller, linesman, are ineligible for the Vernon encounter. Horace Holloman, linesman, may be withdrawn from school because of scholastic difficulties before the Vernon clash, and Doc Burt may be held on the sideline because of failure to report for practice Monday. Eddie Roe, flashy quarterback, tossed away his crutches Tuesday and his sprained ankle, sustained in the Hobart game, may be conditioned well enough to play a part of the tilt here.

To offset this, a Lion team badly worried over examinations this week which will determine eligibility for the Wichita Falls joust here Oct. 29, and in all probability minus the services of Tarleton "Too Tall" Jones, all-district tackle of 1931, will take the field here Friday. Jones is suffering from an injury sustained in the Grandfield, Okla., game and is not likely to see service unless badly needed. Then, too, T. M. Watson, possibly the outstanding quarterback in this district, may not start the game because of an old injury, and Paul Taylor, fine first year man at guard, may be withheld because of injuries.

Pitted against Frederick's speedy backs will be Head Coach W. C. Weir's fast array of ball-luggers, perhaps the fastest combination in this district and a set which has aided no little in establishing Vernon as co-favorites with Quanah for the district title. If Watson fails to start, Edwin Garner, the fastest player on the squad at 50 yards, will probably take over the spinner position and the signal-barking job; Ed Miller or Guy Wheeler, both track men, will be at the left halfback post; Capt. H. A. Thompson at right halfback; and Paris Grogan, first year man, at fullback. Should Watson start, he will probably call signals but with Grogan in the spinner position.

Bulldogs Determined To Give Olney 'All We've Got'

TEAMS MEET IN NIGHT TILT

Co-Captain Graves of Cubs Ill and May Be Out

Special to The Record News.

BURKBURNETT, Texas, Oct. 20.—Upholding their reputation as a fighting football eleven, the Burk High Bulldogs will go into the game Friday night with Olney's Cubs prepared to scrap to a finish. The squad went through the week's training with a very determined spirit, indicating that they had no intention of being run over by Albert Acker's boys.

Coach Jess Johnson thus expressed his opinion of the Bulldog's chances against the Cubs: "Not so good, but we'll give them all we've got." The probable starting lineup was given as follows: Ends, Walling or Dickerson, and Bailey; tackles, Goodlet and Green or Ellis; guards, Hill and Mathews; center, Smith; halfbacks, Young and Aulds; quarterback, Norvell, and fullback, Byarly.

Intense interest in the game is being demonstrated in Burkburnett, and practically every organization in town will take part in a parade at 6 o'clock Friday evening, giving the team their wholehearted support.

GRAVES MAY NOT START FOR CUBS

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, Oct. 20.—With Co-Captain Graves on the sick list, Coaches Acker and Hayes are likely to have to make further revisions in the lineup that starts against the Burkburnett Bulldogs Friday night, there. In event Graves is unable to start Co-Captain Gilmore will bark the signals. Unless Graves is able to be in the game the Cubs will have to rely entirely on a running attack, and the Bulldogs are strong against ground warfare. With Byarly and Smith leading the defense Acker's boys are going to find the going rough. Offensively the Dogs have plenty of power in Bryarly and Auld and a brilliant midget quarterback.

The local team is well aware of the strength they must face in Coach Johnson's team, and they too know that in order to keep pace with the Eagles from Chillicothe in the district chase they must win.

Starting lineup for Olney will find Sloan and Hennig, ends; Hammond and W. Pyeatt, tackles; Perkins and True, guards; Hoyt Williams, center; Graves or Gilmore, captains at the quarterback post; Rue nad Elmore, halfbacks, and St. John, fullback.

Memphis Journeys To Wellington

Special to The Record News.

MEMPHIS, Texas, Oct. 20.—Coach Walker's Cyclone players are in good spirits over their win over Gould here Friday and are ready for their first conference encounter, with Wellington on the Wellington gridiron Friday. Coach Walker states that the boys are all in fine physical condition and are feeling great about the outcome of the game with Wellington. A few kinks remain to be ironed out in this week's practice and Coach Walker hopes to put a winning team on the grid Friday. That the coach's objective, a strong defensive line, has been reached, was proven by the fact that the Memphis goal post was not threatened during the game with Gould Friday. Wellington won its first game of the season last Friday also, from the Lefors eleven. Wellington and Memphis have both been defeated by Childress. This promises to be one of the best games of the season, as the schools are old rivals.

Estelline to Play Childress B Team

Special to The Record News.

ESTELLINE, Texas, Oct. 20.—The Estelline Bear Cubs will meet the Childress High school B team on the local football field Saturday afternoon of this week for the second encounter of the season. The Cubs defeated the Kittens on the Childress grid a few weeks ago and the battle Saturday is expected to be a real one.

Contrary to all preseason dope Coach T. L. McBride is rapidly developing one of the best football teams Estelline has had in three years. He has been busy with new plays this week. His men are fast, and show perfect team work.

Nocona Indians Play Bowie Rivals Today

Special to The Record News.

NOCONA, Texas, Oct. 20.—The Nocona Indians Friday journey to the home of the archenemies, the Bowie Jackrabbits. All the dope points to a Nocona victory. Newcastle defeated Bowie, 7 to 0, and the Indians whipped Newcastle, 19 to 0.

The Indians may play without "Little Smokey" Zachary, first string end who failed to see service against Decatur last week on account of an injured thumb.

The RAMBLER'S CORNER

By FRED THOMPSON

The strongest high school football teams in the state, on the basis of showing to date, appear to be John Reagan of Houston, Corsicana, Sweetwater and Masonic home of Fort Worth.

Each is either leading its district or tied for the lead, and each has administered some terrific wallops to powerful rivals.

The Sweetwater Mustangs put the skids under the Abilene Eagles, last year's champions, and it is highly doubtful if the Eagles will go places this year. They may not even win the Oil Belt crown. A pretty good slant on whether they will or not will be afforded this week-end when they meet the powerful Ranger team. If Abilene does hurdle the district, it will meet some heavy competition in the bi-district, for they tackle the Amarillo district winner in that game.

Sweetwater looms almost a cinch for the district 3 winner, and the team should have little trouble winning the bi-district, which will be played with the winner of the El Paso circuit.

Corsicana is heavily favored to win in district 11, despite the foam and fulminations of one Jinx Tucker down there at Waco. Paul Tyson is back at Waco coaching the Tigers and consequently Jinx has been operating at a temperature of 199 ever since the football season opened. But Johnnie Pierce's Corsicana team is highly favored to take the Waco bunch, and Waco is reported to be Corsicana's only real barrier to the district crown.

Much has been written and said about the John H. Reagan team of Houston. Incidentally, this is the first time in a long while that a South Texas team has nosed up there among the strong teams in East, West and North Texas. The critics are heralding Reagan as a sure fire semifinalist, at least.

The fourth favorite, Masonic home, has been generally overlooked by most of the experts, the team at first being regarded as just another good class B football team graduated into class A ranks. But the Masons are gradually forging to the front and we believe it will be only a matter of time until Scott McCall and company are rated right up there with the rest. Fans in Northwest Texas at least rate Scott McCall as the greatest backfield man in the entire Texas Interscholastic league. McCall alone has scored something like 80 points already this season. The Masons tidied up their football playhouse by ripping through Bridgeport, 53 to 0 and last week entered conference strife in district 7 by handing the North Side Fort Worth high school a mere 40 to 0 lacing. The Masons now share the top in its district with Polytechnic and Central. North Side will play Polytechnic this week and probably will relieve the Polys of their high rating, leaving the Masons and Central on top. The Masons do not play a conference game this week.

It would not be a surprise to fans in this section to see the Masons not only win their district, but whip the Dallas boys in the bi-district, and romp straight through to the state championship. If the Masons are victorious in their bi-district game, they will go to the state quarterfinals, where they will meet the winner of the districts 5 and 6 bi-district game. Meaning that if Vernon, Quanah or Wichita Falls wins this district's title and beats the Sherman district's winner, it will have the privilege of being whipped to a frazle by the Masons, just as Olney and Clarendon were last year.

If the Masons do take a successful jaunt and Sweetwater does the same thing, these two teams will meet in the semifinals in the upper bracket; while if John Reagan and Corsicana stand the gaff they will clash in the lower bracket match of the semifinals. We have preferences for neither John Reagan nor Corsicana, but we would like to see those Masons play either one of them in the state titular final. And if Scott McCall has anything to say about it, the Masons will be in there.

About Smokey Zachary

When the Southern Methodist university Mustangs went to Syracuse last week and came out victorious for the first time this season, a Nocona product, Smokey Zachary, star gridder and basket ball player there two years ago, was along.

Dispatches to our Nocona operative, C. W. Giles, failed to state whether Zachary saw service in the Syracuse game, but he was good enough to rate the trip, and that's something.

Zachary, teaming with Evans and Cunningham, was the main spring of Nocona's district champion football team in 1930, and also played on the basket ball team of that year that entered the state tournament at Austin.

Smokey's little brother, Burr Zachary, who like Smokey is an end, is playing the Nocona eleven this year.

Shed a Tear Dept.

Brother Giles, incidentally, has a few words to say about the Coyotes' loss to Quanah, as follows:

"Friend Fred: It's been a spell since you have been nourished with food for thought by your humble servant, the 'Nocona Spy,' and I drop everything this beautiful afternoon and dip my pen in the fountain of youth and while perspiring freely in getting my thoughts all collected, I make the attempt to offer you not ironical, sarcasmical and unseemly bursts of rhythmical guffaws and selfish funmaking, in order to embarrass your beloved Coyotes, but a word of consolation. Yes, oh yes, it could have been worse. Your wailings have been heard here in the Indians' reservation.

"I know Quanah was hard-boiled and trampled your trusting Coyotes under foot, and actually got by with it. That's the rub.

"I am sure I speak for the Nocona Indians, what's left of them of two years ago, when they mopped up in first place and were well on their way to the regional championship. But, alas, alack, they met those cruel Olney Cubs here, right on the Indians' own stamping ground and were stopped. Now, it's all to be done over again. They know too well how to sympathize with the Coyotes.

"Yes, in behalf of the Indians, I send a few words of condolence, tinged with consolation. Oh, if I could only break the news to you gently and to those worthy Coyotes, but lacking space I soothingly whisper it was too bad how the Quanah ruffians treated them on that eventful 'opening day' at Wichita Falls."

We are sure the Coyotes appreciate all this sweet stuff, but we think we speak authoritatively when we say the Coyotes neither need nor want sympathy. What they want is a victory over Grandfield today, and one over Vernon next week.

Electra Tackles Temple Tonight

ELECTRA, Texas, Oct. 20.—With their last practice Thursday afternoon, the Tigers were all set for their practice tilt Friday night with the Temple, Okla., Tigers at the local field. Temple has always had a strong team and the locals will have a battle on their hands for when Tigers meet Tigers, anything can happen. Last year Temple was well known on the Texas side due to a big line and fast backfield.

Edward McCracken, R. T. Boutwell, Leonard Foy, and Sidney Smith seem to be the mainstays in the backfield with Bernard Watkins and Babe Curfman also in ranking order. However, the starting lineup has not been announced as a hot fight is going on for regular positions. T. L. McCracken turned in a nice game against Henrietta and may be substituted if Electra should make enough scores to permit substitutions. The regular starters in the line will probably be used. These include Lambdin and Able at ends; Ellis and Hogle, tackles; Minton, O. Stroud, and Torvie, guards, and Cryer, center.

The coaches have stressed the passing defensive phase of the game, both in preparation for the Temple and Quanah games. The punters have been given harder workouts than usual. Since Quanah scouts will probably be on hand, the Tigers will play straight football. The Tigers have a couple of good plays which can be depended upon in a pinch but orders are not to use them unless absolutely necessary.

The Tigers are all eligible for the Temple game. M. Stroud, fullback, who was injured in the Henrietta game, is the only one who will be out of the game. A ticket selling campaign is under way between the Lions and Rotarians, and between high school classes. A large crowd is expected, including Temple fans. The game will be Electra's last home game this season unless plans formulate for Quanah to play here next week.

SEYMOUR HOST TO HENRIETTA

Many Shifts Made in Panther Lineup

Special to The Record News.

SEYMOUR, Texas, Oct. 20.—Coaches Jenkins and Sandlin of the Seymour Panthers sent their charges through long afternoons of practice behind closed gates at Fair park this week. Since the defeat handed the Panthers by Chillicothe last week, many changes have been made in both the backfield and line, as an early season effort to point more toward a scoring machine rather than a defensive squad.

One of the outstanding changes is that of Captain Coy from tackle to quarterback on offense. Heretofore Coy has been directing plays from his position in the line, but the coaching staff is correcting that error so that Coy may be in a better position to determine the plays. Peak, a new member in the squad this year, has received a boost from the reserves to halfback on the regulars. Harrison, end, is now being shifted to the backfield on defense, due to his ability to tackle.

Scrimmage early this week also found Shawver, regular end, playing with the reserves. So was Hughes, regular half. Cooper, a victim of injury early in the season, was again charging with the ball for the regulars.

New plays are being taken up and everything possible is being done to prevent the "has been" favorites of district 4 from finishing completely in the cellar.

The changes will be presented to local fans Friday afternoon when the Panthers entertain Henrietta in a practice game. If the changes do not show for the better then Seymour will have little hopes when they resume their conference campaign with Archer City, Oct. 28.

Megargel Plays Crowell Today

Special to The Record News.

MEGARGEL, Texas, Oct. 20—The Megargel team has been busy this week smoothing out the rough places so noticeable in the game with Olney last week and is now ready for the Crowell game at Crowell Friday. With the showing that both the Megargel and Crowell teams made against Olney's powerful eleven, the Mustangs are due to carry the play into Crowell's territory and keep it there most of the time.

Megargel's lineup for Friday's game will be nearly the same as it was in last week's game with Olney: Kunkel, center; Meade and Teague, guards; Fred and Frank Walsh, ends; Clemet and Cheatam, tackles; Lovern, halfback; Dalton, fullback; Pitts, halfback; Martin, quarterback.

Subs that will be in the game part of the time are Lee, Cockrell, Graham and Horry.

Electra Juniors Beat Zundy, 12-7

A fleet-footed backfielder named Seburne Fisher did some plain and fancy loping on the gridiron here yesterday afternoon to lead the Electra Junior High school team to a 12 to 7 victory over the Zundelowitz Junior High eleven.

Long runs, each of them the length of the field, by Fisher accounted for both of Electra's scores After Zundy had scored in the first quarter by recovering a partially blocked Electra punt behind Electra's goal line, Fisher took the ensuing kickoff and ran it back all the way to put his team back in the game. The extra point attempt failed and the half ended with Zundy ahead by one point.

In the third quarter Zundy was in Electra territory most of the time. The first time they got withing scoring distance, however, they were held for downs and Electra punted out. The second time the Zundy boys tried a pass on fourth down. Fisher intercepted it and made his second touchdown of the day.

Zundy got off to a good start in the first quarter when Jack Smith fell on the blocked punt behind Electra's goal. Charlie Hill converted the extra point.

DUNCAN OPENS RACE TONIGHT

Demons Go Against Strong Purcell Eleven

Special to The Record News.

DUNCAN, Okla., Oct. 20.—Duncan opens the 1932 Southern conference football season here Friday night with a game against Purcell that may reveal whether Coach Dale Arbuckle's Demons have any hopes for championship honors this year.

Purcell has one of the strongest aggregations of the conference. Every man on the first string is a veteran from last year and the squad has played two conference games. The first they lost to Yukon, one of the contenders this year and last year's champions, 7 to 0. Purcell won the second conference match over Anadarko 6 to 0 last Friday.

Duncan has not been idling, although the opening of the season was delayed. The Demons have met two powerful teams, El Reno and Wilson. Both contests ended with the score tied 6 to 6.

Johnson and Weakley, of the Duncan backfield, were the mainsprings in the Duncan offensive that piled up a total of 151 yards in scrimmage last week against 87 for Wilson, and are being groomed for a major share in the offensive against the powerful Purcell squad.

STAMFORD AND ALBANY MEET

Great Battle Expected As Undefeated Teams Clash

Special to The Record News.

STAMFORD, Texas, Oct. 20.—Coach Lee Walker has put the Stamford Bulldogs through intensive training in preparation for the clash with the Albany Lions here Friday afternoon. Defensive workouts have been stressed and the Walker men are in excellent condition to stem the tide of the speedy Lion backs.

The Bulldogs will meet the heaviest opposition in the Albany eleven that they will have to face this season. In four games the Lions have piled up 151 points and as yet have not been scored on.

The teams are evenly matched in weight and both are undefeated to date. Although the Stamford frid team lacked experience at the beginning of the season, it has developed into a strong contender for the district championship in class B football. Its success is due to consistent teamwork rather than to the spectacular ability of any one player.

Carnegie Beats Mangum, 20 To 7

Special to The Record News.

MANGUM, Okla., Oct. 20.—Carnegie defeated Mangum, 20 to 7, in a Southwestern conference football game here tonight. The game had been originally scheduled for Friday night but was moved up due to a teacher's meeting scheduled in Elk City Friday.

Carnegie negotiated three touchdowns and a safety for their margin, all attempts at extra points failing. Carnegie scored first. Fowler sprinting 20 yards around end in the first quarter for a touchdown. In the second quarter, a short pass, Benward to Fowler, accounted for another tally. Late in the same period Mangum registered its lone touchdown. Jones Witcher passed to Hall who ran 50 yards for the counter.

Carnegie was credited with a safety in the third quarter when Hall, attempting to punt from behind his own goal line, was rushed and tackled in the end zone.

In the fourth period Fowler scored his second counter of the night for the visitors, bucking over after power plays had put the ball in position.

RED CROSS TO OPEN DRIVE

Jackson County Workers Get Instructions

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., Oct. 20.—Maps of Jackson county showing an outline of the district which is included in the different sections for committees to work in the annual Red Cross roll call drive were distributed this week to committee members in a meeting at the Red Cross county headquarters here.

Workers to cooperate with the chairmen in each of the districts will be named in the near future and definite plans for the drive will be made at the next meeting of the county unit to be held soon.

The roll call will be conducted in a similar manner to that carried out during the past year, with the drive scheduled to be started on Armistice day, Nov. 11.

FREDERICK, Okla., Oct. 20.—Dwight E. Powell, county engineer, and the three commissioners, Oliver C. Ball, Chas. G. Greever and Frank G. Patterson, returned Wednesday from Oklahoma City where they conferred with state highway commissioners regarding early completion of work on highway 14. The delegation was assured by Sam Hawks, state highway commissioner, that a permit will be obtained soon to enable a crossing to be made over the M-K-T railway tracks, south of Frederick, also that work of graveling the roadbed from this city to Davidson and the paving of the remaining 5.6 miles to Red river, will start soon.

HIGHWAY COPS RULED INVALID

Enforcement Officers Not Entitled to Pay

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 20. (AP)—Attorney General J. Berry King this afternoon in an opinion to State Auditor Frank Carter held that the state highway commission can employ only eight enforcement officers, that they can be employed only the last six months of the year and that they can be paid not to exceed $100 per month and actual expenses.

The opinion by King knocks out the whole enforcement system in the highway department as practiced by the Murray administration. Records of the highway department show that the commission has employed as high as 17 enforcement officers and paid them as high as $125 to $300 a month.

King also ruled that the only way extra enforcement officers can be secured is by formal application in writing to the governor stating that an emergency exists as provided by section 113 compiled Oklahoma statutes 1921.

This section provides that the governor upon receipt of such application must give formal written consent.

Carter said he would turn down the claims of all but eight enforcement officers who have been employed only for the last six months of the year and whose salaries are not in excess of $100 per month and actual expenses.

ENGINEER TRANSFERRED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. (INS)—Maj. Henry Hutchings was assigned today as assistant district engineer at Buffalo, effective Dec. 1. Hutchings has been assistant engineer at Galveston, Texas, for several months.

TEACHERS TO ATTEND MEET

Jackson County Delegates To Go to El Reno

Special to The Record News.

ALTUS, Okla., Oct. 20.—A large representation of Jackson county school teachers are expected to go to Elk City the latter part of this week to attend the southwestern district teachers conference Friday and Saturday.

Altus city schools will be dismissed Friday for the meeting. Most of the other schools in the county are not in session at this time, but are dismissed for cotton picking.

Neff to Speak

Since so many teachers in this county have returned to their homes at other points since schools were dismissed several weeks ago an accurate check on the number who will attend is not available.

Pat M. Neff, president of Baylor university and former governor of Texas, will be one of the principal speakers. He will speak at a general session of teachers Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

C. W. Richards, president of Southwestern State Teachers college at Weatherford, will give an address Friday morning in the general district session. C. M. Howell, secretary of the Oklahoma education association and C. M. Conwill, president of Cameron Agricultural school at Lawton, are scheduled for addresses.

Entertainment Program

A number of special features have been secured for the entertainment of teachers during the teachers meeting. A group of deep river plantation singers will be a special feature.

Miss Clyde Anderson of Hollis, whistler and soloist, will be one of the featured entertainers. The Keys quadruplets, Misses Mary, Roberta, Mona and Leota, also of Hollis, will entertain.

Arrangements have been made for a massed chorus of high school students of this section of the state and a massed band to be composed of more than 100 musicians as well as bands from the different schools to entertain during the convention.

Beware the Cough or Cold that Hangs On

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

"—my skin became clear..."

—and you don't know what a happy day that was in my life." Then why not pause a moment and reason in a common-sense way the cause of many skin troubles. Such common ailments often result because of a lowered resistance below the skin surface—frequently due to lowered blood vitality.

Increase the red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin content and more of the life giving oxygen is carried to every part of the body—even to the skin. "Step up" the ability of the resisting cells to devour infectious pimple germs. Then you will have laid the foundation for a sounder physical condition.

S.S.S., in addition to being a valuable general tonic, has the special property of increasing the red-cells and restoring the hemoglobin content of the blood, when deficient. It is time-tested . . . tens of thousands of unsolicited letters of gratitude over several generations evidence its merit. Don't let anyone "switch" you in your determination to restore your red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin content. Two convenient sizes at all drug stores—the larger size is more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

Cottage Cheese May Be Used In Variety Of Ways

Cottage cheese, so delicious in itself, may be used in a variety of ways that may be unfamiliar to the housewife. It is one of the finest and most healthful foods containing, as it does, the protein part of the milk. For this reason it may substitute for meat or eggs at a luncheon or supper.

There are two ways of buying cottage cheese, unmixed or mixed with cream ready for serving. The unmixed is cheaper, and may be used for some dishes, though usually it is utilized in the mixed form.

Perhaps you have never considered it as a filling for sandwiches, but it may assume a most appetizing aspect, served in this way:

One-half cup cottage cheese.
Two tablespoons catsup.
Two tablespoons pickle relish.
One-eighth teaspoon salt.
Four tablespoons salad dressing.

Mix ingredients thoroughly with a fork and spread on buttered slices of bread. Add a lettuce leaf and cover with the other side.

Cottage Cheese Salad

One package of lemon gelatin, one and two-thirds cups boiling water, one-half cup chopped celery, one-quarter cup chopped pimentos, two-thirds cup cottage cheese, one-half teaspoon salt, four tablespoons salad dressing.

Pour water over gelatin mixture and stir until dissolved. Cool and allow to thicken partially. Fold in rest of ingredients. Pour into a glass mould and chill until set. Cut in squares and serve on lettuce leaves with salad dressing.

Fruit and Cheese Salad

One cup unmixed cottage cheese, two tablespoons thick sweet cream and one cup of fresh berries. Mash cheese and season lightly with salt. Beat in cream and add berries. Place on lettuce leaves and serve with whipped cream dressing.

Whipped Cream Dressing

One-half cup whipping cream, one tablespoon powdered sugar, three tablespoons lemon juice. Whip cream and fold in other ingredients, serve immediately.

Tomato and Cheese Salad

Place large tomato slice on lettuce leaves and top with round of mixed cottage cheese, dot with rosettes of cream cheese and cover with garlic dressing. This is made by beating oil and lemon juice in proportions of two-thirds oil to one-third lemon juice together with salt and pepper in a bowl which has been liberally rubbed with garlic.

Balls of cottage cheese rolled in chopped nuts or minced parsley are delicious served with salads made of pineapple or tomato.

POSSE SEEKS COP'S SLAYER

Girl Confesses Killing Of Deputy Sheriff

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 20. (AP)—A posse of Miller county, Arkansas, and Cass county, Texas, officers sought an identified man this afternoon as the actual slayer of Deputy Sheriff Melvin Brackman last night as he and other deputies attempted to stop a liquor-laden truck.

Five other men and a girl already had been arrested. Officers said the girl, 19 years old, confessed details of the shooting when she was arrested at noon today after a chase through woods a few miles from the scene of the slaying.

Her brother, father, two fishermen and a Cass county farmer were the others under arrest.

Brackman was shot fatally a short time after an occupant of the truck, which contained four gallons of liquor, had fired once at Deputy Sheriff J. C. Crain, who was believed to have been wounded fatally.

The farmer was held in the Miller county jail as a material witness. He said, and his statement was confirmed by the girl and her brother, the group had borrowed his truck late yesterday, claiming lights on their own car had gone out and that they did not possess licenses. He said the girl said they wanted the truck to go to Bloomburg for medicine for a relative who, officers learned, was seriously ill.

Sheriff Nat Curtwright of Cass county made the arrests along a road. The girl confessed details of the shooting at the time, the sheriff said.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish—no danger.

PAIN DEADENED CHEST COLDS LOOSENED WITHOUT DRUGS

Get quick relief from neuralgia pain, sciatica pain, neuritis pain, rheumatic pain, lame back, stiff neck, headache, strains and chest colds by rubbing plenty of Baume Bengué (pronounced Ben-Gay) on the spot. It doesn't blister or stain. Rub it in till it sinks down and soothes the pain or breaks up the chest cold. Take no drugs, for any drug that is powerful enough to "deaden" pain or loosen a chest cold may not be good for you.

But beware of imitations. Ask your druggist for Baume Bengué by name (called "Ben-Gay" in English). There are many analgesic baumes, mostly cheap imitations of Ben-Gay made out of synthetic drugs. That is why they are cheap. That is also why they are ineffective. Insist on Ben-Gay and you will get real results.

JACK COUNTY RALLY OCT. 22

Medallions on Sale Over Entire District

Plans for a county-wide Democratic rally at Jacksboro next Saturday afternoon, Oct. 22, at 3 o'clock with Judge P. B. Cox of this city as principal speaker were announced Thursday through the national Democratic headquarters here.

H. W. Fillmore and Mr. Cox spent Wednesday in Jack county working in the interest of the medallion drive, and for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket in the Nov. 8 election. An organization promising to wage an intensive sale of medallions throughout Jack county was completed Wednesday, it was said. A large number of Wichitans are expected to attend the Jack county rally Saturday afternoon.

Other Democratic rallies throughout the area are being planned, according to Thursday's announcements. Sam B. Spence, district attorney, will head the list of speakers to appear Saturday night at the city auditorium in Vernon before a county-wide gathering of Roosevelt-Garner supporters. At Graham, on Nov. 1, a Young county rally will be held to marshal a maximum vote for the Democratic national ticket.

Information received Thursday from Chairman Dick Collins at Decatur stated that more than 300 medallions already have been distributed there.

Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

If you have catarrhal deafness, or head noises, caused by catarrh, or if phlegm drops in your throat, secure proper treatment at once. Sprays, salves and inhalers may bring you a temporary relief, but permanent results can only come from a constitutional treatment that will expel the catarrhal poison from your system.

Get from Allen's Drug Store or your druggist 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add ½ pint hot water and a little sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day; clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy, tiresome stop dropping. All sufferers from catarrhal deafness or head noises find the simple, pleasant, inexpensive Parmint treatment.—Adv.

Kell Stresses Critical Need For Relief Funds In Chest Address

Workers Told Conditions in Area Improving, But 'Trying Period' Looms for Winter

Approach of a critical winter season for relief work and the necessity of maintaining standards of contributions to community chest work set in past years was described Thursday afternoon by Frank Kell. Mr. Kell spoke to 45 team members of Col. C. E. McCutchen's special gifts division at the Wichita club.

Mr. Kell is chairman of President Hoover's banking and industrial committee for the 11th federal reserve district. "Conditions in the 11th district are better than in most others in the nation, but we still face a trying period for recovery this winter," Mr. Kell said. "It is up to us to contribute this year at least as much as last year, for we will face a serious problem if we do not," he declared.

Six Contribute $5,400

Mr. Kell expressed a belief that should conditions improve in the other federal reserve districts, the 11th area would soon recover normal business activity. The speaker recently attended a federal reserve conference in Washington, D. C., and more recently a meeting of the banking and industrial group of this district at Fort Worth.

Mr. McCutchen reported contributions totaling $5,400 Thursday by six men solicited by his team members. Only one of the group lowered his contribution to the chest below the quota asked, he declared.

Roy B. Jones, campaign chairman, told the division members that the larger givers of the city must be asked for larger quotas this year and in every case at least as much as contributed last year. This is necessary in view of the shrinkage in quota sources from small givers, he said. To substantiate the statement, Mr. Jones added that the 170 firms listed in the group solicitation division are employing 1,900 less persons this year than one year ago. Many of this group were subscribers last year but a possibility exists that some of them may need the assistance of the chest this year, he continued.

Designate Agencies

Mr. Jones explained to the team members that every subscriber must designate on his card to what agency of the chest he desires his contribution to go.

Mr. McCutchen presided at the meeting and short talks on the campaign work were made by J. B. Price, chest president, and Albert E. Kelly. It was explained at the meeting that the large givers in the special gifts division are depended on for 50 per cent of the chest quota.

The Wichita Falls Foundry and Machine company and the J. C. Penney company were added to the honor roll of 100 per cent firms in the group solicitation division Thursday. Other firms reporting near completion of their quotas were the Wichita Mill & Elevator company, Municipal Gas company, Texas Electric Service company and Panhandle Refining company.

TWO HOODLUMS GIVEN 'RIDES'

Bodies of Veteran And 'Punk' Found

CHICAGO, Oct. 20. (INS)—Two hoodlums—one a veteran of the rackets and the other a mere "punk," learning the first lesson of the underworld—were slain on "one-way rides" here today.

Charles "Buster" Brown, a pal of Louis "Two Gun" Alterie, long suspected in the robbery of gambling houses and in kidnaping cases, was the most important victim. He was found shot to death in a small coupe on the south side.

The other victim was Samuel Delaly, errant son of a hard-working laborer. His body, punctured by bullets, was found in a street where it had been tossed from an automobile.

Police said they believed there was no connection between the two killings.

There were two slugs in Brown's head. The back portion of his skull had been crushed by a blunt instrument. The body was crouched head down on the seat of the car. A light tan coat was thrown over him, and a high-priced fedora hat was alongside the body.

Wichitan Who Broke Jail With Tom Shook Killed in Pen Rodeo

H. P. Rich, who died at Huntsville Wednesday as the result of injuries received while riding in a prison rodeo, according to Associated Press dispatches, was sent up from Wichita county last fall for a two-year term assessed after he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault to murder, local officers pointed out Thursday.

Rich gained his liberty from the Wichita county jail about four years ago in a jail break with Tom Shook. He had been jailed on the charge of attempting to shoot officers who were seeking to arrest him for alleged theft of gasoline. After the escape from the county jail, Rich remained at liberty until last summer, when he was arrested at Galveston on a felony charge. He was brought back later to Wichita county, and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Dispatches which announced his death in the state penitentiary indicated that he had been assessed a four-year term at Galveston.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20. (AP)—The Insull family of Chicago today sought recovery of $230,752 from the United States government in three separate suits filed against the commissioner of internal revenue.

Samuel Insull sought a redetermination of deficiency of $156,961 made against him by the commissioner, and also asked for a refund of $21,166.

He, together with the other members of his family, claimed the internal revenue bureau should have treated his profits as taxable net gain instead of ordinary income.

Samuel Insull Jr., sought a redetermintaion of deficiency in the amount of $23,549 and a refund of $8,048 while Margaret A. Insull asked for a redetermination of deficiency in the amount of $17,239 and a refund of $3,805.

Arthur Page, London attorney who came here in connection with the Insull case, returned to London tonight.

THRONGS JAM HASKELL FAIR

Exposition Shows Products Of Fine Quality

Special to The Record News.

HASKELL, Texas, Oct. 20.—Hundreds of West Texans thronged exhibition halls and the amusement midway here tonight at the Haskell county fair. During the afternoon good crowds attended the fair, which opened shortly before noon today with a parade reminiscent of the old west. The exposition will continue through Saturday.

The local post of the American Legion sponsored the morning parade, which was composed of cowboys and cowgirls mounted on horses, an old time range "chuck" wagon, the Haskell and Stamford bands and equipment of the J. T. Tidwell shows.

The legion served free barbecue from noon until 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the grounds, where a rodeo is being held each afternoon and night of the fair.

Interest in Exhibits

Great interest was shown in exhibits, said to be the finest, on the whole, ever displayed here. Agricultural products of exceptional quality was one of the features of the exposition halls. Livestock, including hogs, cattle, horses and poultry, drew widespread attention, as did exhibits of curios, 4-H and women's club work and community booths.

At the rodeo performance this afternoon cowgirls winning prizes were Miss Katheryne Rike, Miss Nina Mae Gay and Miss Lottie Thompson, all of Haskell. They ranked in the contest in the order named. In the calf-roping event first place went to John Lindsey with time of 24 seconds. J. P. Stoker took second with 32 seconds, and J. C. Selman third with 42 seconds. In the cow-milking contest, first place went to Jake Neal, 21 seconds; John Lindsey was second with 26½ seconds, J. C. Selman third with 34 seconds. Johnny Down took first place in the bronc riding event. Jim Umberger was second and Jack Rister third. Louis Blair was first in steer riding, with John Lindsey second and Neal Adams third.

The group returned to Wichita Falls Thursday night, complimenting the fair on entertainment features and exhibits.

Teachers Of Four Counties Plan Institute At Haskell Next Week

Widely-Known Educators Will Be Instruetors at Two-Day Meeting Oct. 27-28; 400 Teachers to Attend

Special to The Record News.

HASKELL, Texas, Oct. 20.—Supt. H. D. Fillers of the Wichita Falls schools will be one of the four instructors to have charge of the first day's program of the teachers cooperative institute meeting here Oct. 27-28. The roll for the two-day session will carry the names of more than 400 teachers of public schools in Haskell, Knox, Throckmorton and Stonewall counties.

Superintendent Fillers will address all teachers of independent school districts in their session on Thursday.

Dr. J. F. Kimball, vice president in charge of Baylor School of Medicine, Dallas, is another of the institute's instructors. Dr. Kimball, whose many years in school work qualify him as an able adviser, will lead section meetings for both high school and intermediate grade teachers. He was, for a number of years, superintendent of the Dallas public schools and was formerly connected with Southern Methodist university. One of Dr. Kimball's topics will be "Fifty Years in High School."

Dr. A. W. Evans, head of the department of education, Texas Technological college, Lubbock, will direct the work of the superintendents and principals in their meeting and will assist with the high school and intermediate sections. Dr. Evans served for a number of years as chief supervisor of the high school division of the state department of education.

Miss Nancy Moseley, primary supervisor of the Dallas county schools, will have complete charge of the work of the primary grade teachers.

Supt. L. A. Woods, Democratic nominee for state superintendent of public instruction, heads Friday's list of speakers, when the entire teacher-membership will assemble for its inspirational program. Superintendent Woods is now head of the McLennan county schools, Waco.

Mrs. R. L. Kincaid, Crowell, appears on Friday's program. Mrs. Kincaid is chairman of the 13th district parent-teacher association. Her address will precede one by Secretary R. T. Ellis of the Texas State Teachers association.

The plan of the cooperative institute has been carried out successfully for a number of years in Haskell and surrounding counties and, according to officials of the organization, it provides for a more extensive program and insures the appearance of the best school men and women on the annual program. County superintendents make up the executive committee of the institute, working under the chairmanship of Supt. C. B. Breedlove of the Haskell schools. Committee members are Mrs. Ethie Lee P'Pool, Benjamin; S. L. Stewart, Aspermont; Miss Minnie Ellis, Haskell and Ewell Condron, Throckmorton.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 20. (AP)—Cotton was quiet and generally lower today under moderate offerings on the slightly easier Liverpool cables, weather news and the heaviness of the stock market.

December contracts after selling off to 6.29 early, rallied to 6.39 but eased again, reaching 6.26 in the late trading and closing at that figure. The final tone of the market was barely steady at net declines of 11 to 18 points.

The opening was 1 to 5 points lower. Houses with Liverpool and continental connections were early buyers, and there was a moderate trade demand and some covering. This was supplied by southern selling and liquidation, with prices working some 7 to 13 points net lower on active months before the end of the forenoon.

After a midday rally which carried prices back to yesterday's finals the market again weakened with hedge selling a little more in evidence toward the close.

Spot house selling was a little more general in the last half hour, though still in comparatively small volume.

Expected rains in the eastern belt failed to materialize with the detailed weather reports showing no precipitation except at a few stations in Texas. It was colder in the western belt with minimum temperatures ranging down to 32 degrees in Texas.

Liverpool cables said that liquidation and some selling on the steadier ruling of sterling had been taken by continental and Bombay buying in that market and reported a maintained demand for cotton cloth from India with an improved business for the British home trade and Africa.

The market declined further late in the day under liquidation by early buyers and southern selling, closing barely steady, 11-18 lower. Spot quiet, middling 6.35.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 20. (AP)—Cotton developed a downward trend in moderate trading today, closing 17 to 23 points net lower under the influence of hedge selling, disappointing cables and easier stocks.

The market opened easier, as Liverpool came in 2 to 3 penny points worse than due and sterling was firmer. Private cables said there was continental and Bombay buying, offset by liquidation on steadier sterling. Manchester cabled the cloth demand from India was being maintained and there was an improvement in the home trade and the demand from Africa. First trades here showed declines of 7 to 8 points and the market continued to ease off during the first part of the morning on hedge selling and weakness in wheat. December dropped to 6.28 and March to 6.45, down 13 to 14 points from yesterday's close.

Later prices rallied in sympathy with firmer stocks and on moderate trade buying which absorbed the hedges and before noon, December had recovered to 6.41 and January to 6.45 up 10 to 13 points from the earlier lows but still 1 to 2 points under yesterday's close. The tone turned easier with stocks, however, during the afternoon and prices made lows for the day right at the end with December at 6.25 January at 6.30 and March at 6.38, or 13 to 16 points down from the highs of the morning. December closed 17 points net lower for the day, January 17 and March 20 net lower.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 2 to 4 penny points down.

Port receipts 36,927, for week 274,064, for season 2,386,550, last season 2,755,624. Exports 35,664, for week 204,673, for season, 1,757,298, last season 1,216,247. Port stock 3,873,131, last year 4,167,843. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 103,831, last year 171,282. Spot sales at southern markets 81,721, last year 46,422.

Futures closed steady at net declines of 17 to 23 points:

Opening was 4 to 9 points off on disappointing cables. Prices eased when grain and securities weakened. The weather was generally dry except light showers in south and West Texas. The forecast was for generally clear and cool weather over the belt except showers in South Texas. Dry goods markets are slow and prices easy. Exports of cotton continue heavy and the spot buying basis is high with heavy sales reported.

Bond List Shows Improvement But Stock Market Registers Declines

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Oct. 20. (US)—Stocks floundered about today, getting nowhere in particular. Any cheer which might have been gleaned from the continued dullness would have to come from the performance of the railroad shares. These managed to show a net gain, but other sections of the list closed lower.

Most of the day the railway issues were inclined toward higher levels and for a time it appeared they would lead the entire market forward, but this hope was soon dissipated in renewed sluggishness. Overnight reception to the Democratic candidate's stand against the veterans' bonus payment was mixed marketwise, with probably an equal division of gains and losses on initial transactions.

It was soon recognized, however, there was no great news to the candidate's stand, since he was reiterating remarks of months ago. At the same time, his attitude was wholly pleasing to those who have been anxious to have such potentially disturbing developments entirely removed from the realm of politics. Anticipation that the most widely known motor magnate would utter exceptionally favorable promises as to wheat was proved absolutely incorrect, and the wheat list sold off on the disappointment. Commodities as a group, however, were relatively quiet. Bond prices moved up.

Each day closer to election brings evidence that the efforts to create a reign of fear over political possibilities are losing their influence.

Tariff changes on a violent scale having been proven entirely foreign to the Democratic intentions, this issue is removed as a possible depressing influence on business. The bonus, too, has now been definitely eliminated by both leading candidates.

Such a pronouncement is likely to prove more effective on European sentiment than on domestic market sentiment. Unbiased domestic observers have known right along that the Democratic candidate favors balancing of the federal budget before any consideration be given ot such large-scale expenditures as the bonus would entail. His emphasis on the necessity and his party's desire for a balanced budget has proven a distinct encouragement to long-term investors.

Bulls and bears were equally disappointed in the market's action; that is, speculators who attempted day-to-day trades. Dullness and limited price fluctuations are quite encouraging to those who want the market to attain a genuine stabilization, free of artificialities.

Prices of steel rails, one of the most important items in the steel industry, were "officially" lowered $3 a ton. This action had been forecast for some time, while of late the talk has spread that the reduction would inaugurate a new wave of buying by the railroads.

Actually, the $43 "official" price has been ineffective for months, most recent business being effected at several dollars per ton lower. Any great amount of new business will be immediately inspired by the price-cut. More directly, the admission of lower prices merely evidences the removal of another artificiality in the situation.

Cigaret stocks continued in supply, despite official denial by the Reynolds company of any intention to market a new 10-cent brand, as had been rumored. Steel preferred held firm but the common sold down more than a point. Lackawanna continued a strong feature among the rails. It was reported that a few railroads previously in the red had just about managed to break even during September, and thus far in October.

Bull pools were not particularly aggressive in their favorites. In large part the market still was responding to the quickly-shifting technical conditions. There was a slight increase in short-selling among small traders.

After the market closed, it was reported in usually well-informed quarters that pressure is being brought to bear against the government to lift the restrictions against wider speculation in the grain markets. Especially are these interests anxious to have suspended or eliminated the requirement of the department of commerce that all substantial positions in wheat, corn and other grains be reported daily to the government.

Grain

TEXAS CASH GRAIN
FORT WORTH, Oct. 20. (AP)—Good demand for wheat continues on the Fort Worth cash grain market with receipts of that grain falling off sharply as inland supplies gradually decrease. Oats are also fairly well taken but other light offerings are slow sale.

Quotations ranged as follows, basis car loads, on track at Fort Worth, freight paid to destination, delivered Texas gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points: Wheat—No. 1 hard, according to protein and billing, 55⅛@58¼c. Barley, No. 2 nominally 31@33c; No. 3 nominal 31@32c. Sorghums, No. 2 bright milo per 100 pounds 62@64c; No. 2 bright kaffir 58@59c.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn, No. 2 mixed 38@39c; No. 2 white 41@42c; No. 2 yellow 38½@39½c.

Delivered Texas common points: Oats—No. 2 red 22½@23½c; No. 3 red 21½@22½c.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Oct. 20. (AP)—Spiking of rumors that Henry Ford was to finance the shipment of a large amount of wheat to China sent grain values spinning downward today.

Wheat equaled the season bottom price record, and corn fell to quotations the lowest since 1897. Rallies failed to hold well in the face of late Argentine reports of rains where needed.

With the market changeable, wheat closed ¼c to ½c below yesterday's finish, corn ¼c to ½c down, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents decline.

Sharpest setbacks in wheat prices came early, influenced by outright denials of big sales to China on long-term credit. Weakness of securities acted also as a bearish influence, together with reports that Canadian wheat farmers had already delivered 48 per cent of their marketable crop, about 100,000,000 bushels more than at this time last year. It was shown, too, that world stocks of wheat in second hands had increased 71,022,000 bushels in September compared with an increase of 12,139,000 bushels during August of this year and only 165,000 bushels increase during September last year.

Cables asserted that at present there was but little demand abroad for wheat of any kind, and that southern hemisphere shippers were reducing price limits on new crop offers. At the same time premiums for United States wheat at the Gulf of Mexico were reported firmer, indicating but little pressure to sell. So-called pegging of wheat quotations at Winnipeg, ascribed to government sponsored sources, tended to curtail speculative interest, traders being disinclined to operate freely with what was regarded as artificial support offsetting hedging pressure.

Vessel charters for upwards of 1,000,000 bushels of corn to Buffalo helped to rally corn and oats after all deliveries of corn had outdone the season's bottom price record.

Provisions were steadied by hog market upturns.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—Dec. 47⅝@48c, 49⅛@¼c; May 53⅝@⅝c, 54⅛@⅝c; July 54⅝@.56⅛c. Corn—Dec. 25⅛@⅛c, 25⅛c; May 30⅛c, 30⅝@⅛c.

LIEPOLD TO GREET PUBLIC

Wichita Merchant to Open New Store Today

Formal opening of his store at a new location will be held Friday afternoon by Gene Liepold, 714 Indiana. Favors of cigars and flowers for visitors to the store between 4:30 and 9 p. m. Friday were announced Thursday.

Eugene Liepold entered business in Wichita Falls 23 years ago and shortly afterward bought his partner's interest and changed the name of the clothing firm to Gene Liepold. The store has been located at 711 Indiana for almost a quarter of a century.

Arch Taylor, employe of the firm for 13 years, is now associated with Mr. Liepold in the business. Mr. Liepold is an active participant in civic undertakings and an ardent fan of baseball and high school athletics.

Boswell to Preside at Commercial Meeting

Manager John Boswell of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce left Thursday afternoon for Dallas where he will attend a meeting of the Texas Commercial Executives association Friday and Saturday. Mr. Boswell is president of the association. He will preside at a board meeting Friday night and the group will be guests at the state fair in Dallas Saturday.

Mr. Boswell will attend a meeting of the national organization of commercial secretaries at Memphis, Tenn., opening Monday for three days. He plans a vacation trip before returning to his duties here Nov. 1.

Men Jailed For Robbing Home Of Electra Woman Who Gave Them Food

Rogers Is Screen's Most Bashful Star

The most bashful and self-effacing of Hollywood's ordinarily spotlight hungry star is Will Rogers. He has made six starring pictures for the Fox Film corporation and has yet to attend his first premiere, his first "personal appearance," and his first studio preview in a public theater. No clamoring throng of autograph-seekers and hand-shakers ever has succeeded in running him down. He is a past master at the art of slip away, hideout and run-star-run.

Friends declare Rogers to be far from unsocial. Quite the contrary is true. But they do admit to his being bashful and ill at ease among strangers. He will talk and joke for hours on end with those he knows.

Owner of a large and beautiful estate not far from Beverly Hills; owner also of a string of polo ponies and several large cars, Rogers himself presents a strange paradox. His customary garb is a slouch hat, leather jacket, blue work shirt, baggy trousers and a pair of battered, heel-worn cowboy boots.

AVIATION FIELD PRAISED

Manager Fulcher Armstrong of the Wichita Falls airport was complimented Thursday on field improvements during the past year. The compliment came after inspection of the local port by J. B. Jaynes of the U. S. department of commerce aviation branch. Mr. Jaynes arrived at the airport early Thursday.

Mrs. Robert Cook of Electra better understands now the aptness of a song which was part of the World war propaganda in this country. It was called "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You." As a result of Wednesday's happenings, Mrs. Cook has less sympathy for transient supplicants for food, and two members of that group are now dining in the Wichita county jail.

Just as Mrs. Cook prepared to drive downtown Wednesday afternoon, Frank Anderson, 18, and D. R. Griggs, 36, came to her door and asked for food. She delayed her departure long enough to prepare a number of sandwiches which she delivered to the pair. As she drove away, the beneficiaries sat on the curb eagerly consuming their lunch.

About half an hour later, Mrs. Cook noticed two men hurrying across a vacant lot, carrying a suitcase and a suit of clothes which looked remarkably familiar. Driving immediately home, she discovered that the house had been robbed of a suit, valise, five dresses, a fur and several ties.

The two men were arrested shortly thereafter by Police Chief J. T. Taylor and Deputy Constable Jim Hart, southeast of Electra. All of the missing property except a suit of clothes was recovered by Constable O. E. Whisnant in a pasture near that city.

Charges of burglary were filed before Justice of the Peace O. L. Gibbs Thursday morning, Assistant District Attorney George W. Anderson taking the complaints.

Fort Worth Physicians To Conduct Free Clinic

Dr. John Potts of Fort Worth will conduct the semi-annual chest clinic of the Wichita County Tuberculosis association in the county Nov. 1-3, it was announced Thursday. The clinic will be conducted in Wichita Falls Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, Nov. 1-2, at the First Christian church. Appointments may be made by calling Miss Mary Quinn, secretary, at 2-5320.

Other clinics in the county were announced for Burkburnett, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 2; Electra, Thursday morning, Nov. 3; and at Iowa Park, Thursday afternoon.

Faith Lodge to Hold Educational Program

A special educational program for the Faith Masonic lodge meeting on Nov. 4 was announced Thursday. The program will deal with Masonic law, burial ritual, relationship to the church and other subjects. Educational programs of this type are required periodically under direction of the Masonic educational bureau.

Out-of-town speakers will be secured for the occasion. Arrangements are in charge of B. C. Wininger, immediate past master; George W. L. Spencer, senior deacon; and C. O. Simmons, secretary.

DEATHS

D. H. WISDOM

Funeral services for D. H. Wisdom, 62, of Fort Worth, will be held in that city Friday. Mr. Wisdom died Wednesday afternoon at the home of a daughter, Mrs. F. M. Lisle, 1406 Bell. He came to Wichita Falls for the jubilee celebration in September, and became ill shortly after his arrival. The widow, three daughters and three sons survive.

JIMMIE R. PONDER

Funeral services for Jimmie R. Ponder, 5, were held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Hines mortuary chapel with the Rev. S. F. Martin, Lamar Avenue Baptist church pastor, officiating. The child died Wednesday at Conroe, Texas, and the body was forwarded here Thursday morning. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ponder, former Wichitans, survive.

BRUCE PRAISES CHEST'S WORK

Fund Is Investment For Community, He Says

Economic and social values of the community chest were extolled before members of the Rotary club Thursday noon at the Kemp hotel by H. J. Bruce, who declared that hearty support of the organization in its charity program is nothing less than a patriotic duty.

While the customary humor of the speaker enlivened his address, he made a strong appeal for a substantial support of the chest. Asserting that it is distinctly a business enterprise, rather than being solely charitable, he pointed out that serious disturbances by the unemployed would be inevitable but for the sustenance provided through the community chest.

"The chest provides protection for our homes, and safety to our people, as well as doing a human service," Mr. Bruce said. He was introduced by Dr. O. T. Kimbrough, director of the community chest's staff of speakers.

Entertainment for those present consisted of two burlesque operatic scenes taken from the Musicians club program last Tuesday night at the Woman's Forum. With stage settings so meager as to leave much to the imagination of the audience, scenes from Verdi's "Il Trovatore," and Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" were presented under the direction of Mrs. Edwin A. Bebb. Miss Minnie T. Baker and Willard L. Underwood impersonated Mrs. Harriet Bradley Truly and Baldwin Montgomery in singing the Verdi scene, using a take-off dialog in lieu of the operatic text. Mrs. Stanley M. Raub and J. W. Akin Jr., sang the "Barcarolle" score, depicting a range romance in which the hanging of a horse thief backfired. Mrs. J. W. Akin Jr., was at the piano. Edwin A. Bebb acted as property man.

EAGLE SCOUT

Wichita Boy to Receive High Honor From Local Court

Joe Witherspoon Jr., is to be awarded the Eagle scout badge at the monthly court of honor Friday night at the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock, according to Frank B. Creighton, Boy Scout executive here.

Numerous other local scouts are to be rewarded with merit badges marking their advance in rank, Mr. Creighton said. Rev. Finis Crutchfield will preside. The board of review is to meet at the church at 6 o'clock Friday evening for the examination of candidates for advancement in rank.

The program for Friday night also will include a story of the American flag.

Negro Given 85 Days In Jail for Thefts

Charles Dixon, negro, was assessed a sentence of 85 days in the county jail Thursday on a charge of theft in connection with a shoplifting raid at Williams Department store, Seventh and Ohio, Thursday morning. Detective Luke Hart and O. A. Roberson recovered three pairs of trousers, valued at $18.65, at 7:30 o'clock with the arrest of the defendant.

KATY SLICES RAIL FARES

Grid Fans Have Chance To See Conference Games

A series of popular low rail excursion rates with special appeals to football fans were announced Thursday by District Agent W. A. Little of the M-K-T lines here. The new rates are effective for every week-end starting Friday and Saturday, Oct. 21-22, through Nov. 18-19. The schedule will allow passengers to leave Wichita Falls Friday afternoon and return leaving the destination Sunday night.

The rates are especially attractive to former students of Southwestern conference schools in Texas. The rates announced for the series are $1.50 to Dallas and return, $2.50 to Waco, $3.25 to Austin, and $3.50 to San Antonio, Houston or Galveston.

An Armistice day rate for the week-end of Nov. 11, of 60 per cent of one-way fare for the round trip to all Texas points was announced by Mr. Little. The tickets will go on sale Nov. 9-10 with return leaving the point of destination by midnight of Nov. 14.

A new low rate to Chicago of $53.25 was announced for the midweek periods starting Nov. 16-17 through Dec. 7-8, with a 21-day return limit and stopovers allowed.

A Thanksgiving rate of 60 per cent of one-way fare to all Texas points will go on sale Nov. 22-23-24 with return leaving the point of destination midnight of Nov. 27. An interstate rate of one fare plus 25 cents for southwestern states was announced for the same week-end. Half fares for children are effective for each rate.

Mrs. Grace Kinard Claimed By Death

Mrs. Grace B. Kinard, wife of George W. Kinard of this city, died at a local hospital at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Kinard had resided in Wichita Falls for 15 years. The body is held by the Dalton-Powell Funeral home pending completion of funeral arrangements. Rites will probably be held Saturday from the funeral home chapel.

Survivors are her father, James W. Robbins of Georgia; her husband; four brothers, Walter and Thomas Robbins of Missouri, John and Roy Robbins of Seattle, Wash.; and a sister, Mrs. C. W. Durham of Collinsville, Okla.

Experimenters at the University of Illinois have found that moderate exposure to x-rays will increase the hearing ability of a dog.

C-C OPPOSES VALLEY PLEA

Mixed Train to Abilene Sought by Road

Decision to oppose application of the Wichita Valley railroad to discontinue a motor train between this city and Abilene was made at a meeting of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce traffic committee Thursday. Announcement was made Wednesday of an application to substitute a mixed train service for a motor train now operating.

Traffic Manager Dudley B. Foy of the chamber was conferring with committee leaders Thursday on plans for presenting a brief at the hearing on the application set by the Texas Railroad commission for Nov. 9. The application declared patronage does not warrant the expense of operation.

Stronger than He Was at Twenty

FIFTY-FIVE years old, and still going strong!

Do you want the secret of such vitality? It isn't what you eat, or any tonic you take. It's something anyone can do—something you can start today and see results in a week! All you do is give your vital organs the right stimulant.

A famous doctor discovered the way to stimulate a sluggish system to new energy. It brings fresh vigor to every organ. Being a physician's prescription, it's quite harmless. Tell your druggist you want a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Get the benefit of its fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and that pure pepsin. Get that lazy liver to work, those stagnant bowels into action. Get rid of waste matter that is slow poison so long as it is permitted to remain in the system.

The new energy men and women feel before one bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin has been used up is proof of how much the system needs this help.

Get a bottle of this delicious syrup and let it end that constant worry about the condition of the bowels. Spare the children those bilious days that make them miserable. Save your household from the use of cathartics which lead to chronic constipation. And guard against auto-intoxication as you grow older.
