BAPTIZED IN FIRE.

THE

Chicago Phenix.

A UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER.

Read the Following:

A popular weekly paper for the times, embracing the leading features of those journals destroyed by the terrible conflagration, and combining just such a corps of writers as will give the public all the news of the week, in a condensed compilation of the leading journals of the nation, and the world.

A TRUTHFUL RECORD.

The Phenix will be the most truthful and reliable recorder of incidents and facts concerning the great fire, ever published.

ACCOUNTS OF THE FIRE.

It will contain only such accounts as are vouched for by reliable witnesses, and will contrast the erroneous and fabricated statements of sensational writers.

CHICAGO AND THE NEWS.

It will, for a time, be devoted especially to the past, present and future of Chicago, besides being the most complete weekly newspaper in the world.

FIRESIDE COMPANION AND NEWSPAPER.

Its columns are devoted to News, Commerce, Science, Literature, Art, Drama, Music, Humor, Pastime, Poetry, Fashion, Society news, and enough of Romance to make it a most desirable Fireside Companion, as well as the most reliable and complete newspaper for the business man in the coming year.

BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS.

It will be illustrated with engravings taken from Photographs of the Chicago Ruins, instead of sketches "By Our Special Artist" who was not "on the spot;" and thus give genuine at nature views, not obtainable elsewhere, and the first number will contain the only correct map of the burned city.

HOURS.

That beautiful literary journal, Home," whose publisher was the first issue a paper to meet the public demand, after the awful fire, has been merged into the literary department of the Phenix, which will embrace the contributions of more than sixty of the most popular writers of the day.

A SPECIAL FEATURE.

The Phenix will contain, as an especial feature, a more complete record of incidents and results of the late terrible fire, than can be found in any book, paper or other publication in the country. So numerous and inaccurate have been the accounts sent forth, that something reliable and readable is a necessity at this time, and The Phenix will fill the bill.

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

The Phenix is the cheapest paper in America, being an eight page, forty column weekly, at only One Dollar a year; in fact it shall be the paper for the people and the times.

THE FIRST NUMBER.

The first number will be issued on Saturday, Nov. 11th, and will be the paper published by everybody, as a record worth preserving as a book and away, and for its accurate illustrations.

ITS BASIS.

It is a substitution of other journals, and therefore on a solid foundation, sustaining their former circulation.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

To any person who gets us three new subscribers, we will send The Phenix for one year free, or one of our beautiful prize, steel plate engravings worth $1.50.

PREMIUMS.

For the purpose of rapidly increasing our subscription list before the close of the year end year, we will give to every person who subscribes for the Phenix during the month of November, a beautiful steel Plate engraving, worth $1.50, half a dollar more than the price of subscription. No such opportunity can ever occur before given, and probably never will be again. Avail yourself of it. Engravings will be promptly and safely sent by mail or delivered at this office, as subscribers may wish.

SUBSCRIBE NOW.

Send in your names and subscriptions at once, and sustain this great newspaper enterprise.

Price of subscription only $1.00 per year. Single copies 5 cents.

GIVE ALL.

The cashmere flies,
Nor asks what cost it glories;
The raindrop lies,
Nor wishes the cup it wears.

Careless whose thirst it slakes;
A flower blows,
Thoughtless what joy it wakes;

You thrush sings,
For song sings not the loss;
So give, O heart,
Nor ask, whom then shall bless!

The public schools are promising, but complaints that the pupils do not advance rapidly.

Fresh sweet and Irish potatoes are sold in town.

PARIS, Jan 27.—The North Texan learns that a corps of engineers of the St. Louis and Mexican Gulf railroad left St. Louis on the 16th for Sabine Pass.

Col Sampson Folsom, a prominent Choctaw Indian, died at his residence on Red River last Wednesday.

DENTON, Jan 27—The Monitor complains that while the school tax is being collected, there is not a free school in Denton, and not a public school house has been built in the county.

The Rauchero says that the cattle stealing on the Texas side of the Rio Grande by Cortina's men still goes on.

The Sentinel says that the Mexican thieves crossed 200 cattle over the river last Friday.

Owing to the blockade from Nuevo Leon, corn is said to be worth $10 per cargo in Matamoras.

A single hair of Napoleon I sold for $100 at a London fair last month.

Minor Mention.

Water reddens the rose, whisky the nose, and tight boots the toes.

Gravity is no more evidence of wisdom than a paper collar is of a shirt.

A man with a scolding wife, on being asked what he did for a living, replied that he kept a hot house.

A country editor says that when he looks at a woman's head he is puzzled to tell which is switch.

A lazy fellow on being reproved for lying in bed late in the morning explained: "I am obliged to do it in order to invent an excuse for not getting up."

"Putty eyed monster" is what appeared in the paper of a Tennessee editor who wrote with respect, "pretty aged minister."

A queer old gentleman being asked what he wished for dinner, replied, "An appetite, good company, something to eat, and a napkin."

A Connecticut rurulist, whose load of hay was found to develop several boulders, remembered that he "drew putty clus to a stun wall."

A Chap to market.

bit off in a fight in Maine his nose had it carefully packed and sent back home, to show his friends one of the American customs.

The boy that was told that the best cure for palpitation of the heart, was to quit kissing the girls, said: "If that is the only remedy, I say let her palpitate."

The following notice printed on colored cardboards, with a nice border, hangs up in a place of business in Rome, N. Y.: Mebbe you don't petter had loaf round here, ven you don't got some pesnis, ain't it?"

A Chinese thus describes a trial in the English law courts: "one man is quite silent, another talks all the time, and twelve wise men condemn the man who has not said a word."

A Frenchman cannot pronounce 'ship.' The word is 'sheep' in his mouth. Seeing an ironclad, he said to a boy, "Ish dish a war sheep?" "No," answered the boy, "it's a ram."

A Boston woman refuses to permit her husband to go on a fishing excursion, "because he was very apt to get drowned when he went upon the water; and, moreover, he did not know how to swim any more than a goose."

Business Law.

1. Ignorance of the law excuses no one.
2. It is a fraud to conceal a fraud.
3. The law compels no one to do impossibilities.
4. An agreement without consideration is void.
5. Signatures made with a lead pencil are valid.
6. A receipt for money paid is not legally conclusive.
7. The acts of one partner bind all.
8. Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced.
9. A contract made with a minor is void.
10. Principals are responsible for the acts of their agents.
11. Each individual in a partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm.

Texas Land Measure.

The original titles to Texas lands, commonly expressed the quantity in Spanish measurement, viz: leagues, labors and varas

36 inches—1 vara.
5,646 square varas—1 acre—4,840 square yards—58,080 square inches.
1 labor—1,000,000 square varas—177 acres.
1 league and labor—26,000,000 square varas—4,605 acres.

To find the number of acres in a given number of square varas, divide by 5,646—fractions rejected.

Qualities Of A Good Collector.

Is on time to a minute when the debtor says "come to-morrow at 9 o'clock."

Sits on the steps and waits for his return when he says, "I am just going to dinner."

Insists on stepping out to make change when the man "has nothing less than twenty."

Will go to an "old stager" every day for a month "about that little account."

Doesn't mind edging into a crowd to ask a fellow.

Will take a dollar in part if he can't get ten in whole, and "credit it" with thankful alacrity.

Always suggest a check when the money is not in hand, as he can get it "cashed" to morrow.

Always has that account "on top," so the man can make no excuse for putting him off.

Don't mind asking for it immediately after being "treated," or pleasantly entertained.

Is never in a hurry, "can wait till you get through."

Cuts off the retreat of the dodger by crossing over to meet him, or follows him into a store where he goes to hide.

Can cough or saints when the "hard case" wants to pass without seeing him.

In fine—is patient at his post, cheerful as a duck, sociable as a flea, bold as a lion, weather proof as a rubber, cunning as a fox, and watchful as a sparrow-hawk.—Columbus (Miss.) Index.

The Murderer Stokes.

Edward S Stokes was born in Philadelphia in the year 1841, and now is in his thirty first year. His parents were people in comfortable circumstances, and moved in the best society in the Quaker City. When quite a lad he came to New York with his family, and many of the citizens will remember the firm of Stokes & Badlong, the principal member of the firm being the father of Edward S. Stokes, who has for the last twelve months been the theme of newspaper articles from Maine to the Rio Grande. Stokes was always in early life fond of athletic sports, and until lately was considered a good gymnast by those who knew him best. He was educated at the High School in Philadelphia, and received a good English and Latin education. He was quick to learn and very proficient in his studies. He was with his father's firm in the provision business on Chambers street at an early age, and manifested great business tact. He had one great fault, however. His blood was hot, and being of a nervous, sanguine temperament, he was liable at any moment to break out when he deemed himself imposed upon or outraged. He had always been sensitive to an insult, and quick to resent an injury. Stokes is five feet nine inches high, is slightly built, but is very versatile on his feet. In combat, the point, and hurricane and to through as rapidly as possible. Stokes is a man of fine personal appearance, of dark complexion, with piercing black eyes and regular features. His hair, which was jet black a couple of years ago, is now partly gray, and were it not for his active movements, he would pass for a man of forty five years. Mr. Stokes married a lady of good family some ten years ago and has by her one child, a very beautiful girl nine years of age.

IT used to be rich sport for impoverished noblemen in Europe to run away from their wives, and come over here for new ones with a rich dowry. There were always parvenues to be found who would pay well for a title. The world moves, however, and women now claim their rights. The Countess Freida Von Etta, nee Buermeister, has just captured a wealthy gold-digger in New Jersey, and taken her wedding tour to the county jail, just because those happens to be one Count Fogany, who[illegible]

[illegible] the Senate:

"Thurman quizzically asked if the Indiana Senator could name the time when the Democracy would govern.

Morton's retort was greeted with great laughter, in which Thurman joined. He said 'all things were possible in the providence of God. Great plagues had come; Chicago was burned; famine desolated Persia, and the Democracy might win.' The Democracy was a kangaroo party; its strength was all in its fore limbs."

THE first census will demolish several favorite theories which have for a number of years been accepted as undoubted facts. The most popular of these is, perhaps, that which ascribes all the ignorance in the country to the cities, and all the virtue and enlightenment to the country. Statistics just published from advance copies of the census show that in our State at least there are more illiterates in the country than in the city. In Cincinnati the per centage of illiterates is 4.1-6, while in the county it is 6.3. Cincinnati is a population of 216,000 has 6,000 illiterates; Ohio with a total population of 2,200,000 has an illiterate population of 173,172.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—The sleeping car conductor, Tracy, on the Memphis & Charleston Railroad, who circulated the story of the alleged Room of Jeff. Davis, was handed down by Gen. G. D. Mowery with an iron yoke, near Huntsville yesterday, and was severely wounded.

[Telegraphic dispatch.

We are invited to hear it. There is no resisting such knock-down arguments. If the hand-hitting Gen. Mowery had only inserted a three-inch bowie-knife into the digestive organs of the luckless conductor, instead of merely making a post-mortem look of the police, no last doubt would have been dispelled.

But we are glad that the truth has been vindicated, even if it is done in the old fashioned way, since our exchange mention, that little speck of chivalry, Sam Davis, was actually born in.—Oh horrors! in Connecticut, and is a since-pure carpet bagger.

Public Schools and Confessional Education.

One of the fundamental principles upon which education in the exclusion of religious instruction from public schools. As much as has been said about this theme, it is still very little understood by the people at large. The combination of the school under the church in former times is still in the memory of the people, and very few have as yet experienced the necessity of a distinct separation of the school and the church. It is natural enough that the priests of all denominations strive to keep the school dependent upon their particular church: the Catholic wants to educate Catechism, the Episcopalian Episcopalism, the Lutheran Lutheranism, and so on. But it is evident that the public school cannot gratify all of them, and so it excludes religious instruction altogether. This does not, of course, drive religion out of the world, as many priests assert. It simply directs it to where it belongs to, to the church.

The school belongs to the State, and the State is a neutral power in regard to religious confessions. The more the State strives to develop her moral character and become conscious of her intellectual power, the more she must endeavor to sway supreme power over all schools. The school is responsible to the State for the endowment with all the necessary requirements, which the State may ask in time of peace or war from her future citizens. One feeling and one spirit must unite all citizens of the State. But how will the State achieve this, when in the institutions, in which her future citizens are educated, religious intolerance is taught instead of political unity? When the children do not recognize themselves as members of one great people and State, but first and principally as believers in a certain creed? And who will vouchsafe that the church in her zeal will not degrade the State and its institution in the eyes of the children and make them contemptible? Do we not see this kind of things go on before our own eyes in Europe?

For this and many other reasons religious instruction has been excluded from our public schools. But we must not stop here, we must not only act according to the letter, but also according to the spirit of the law. We mean that in establishing a school wholly independent of the church, we must select teachers, who in public life are not known as acknowledged representatives of a certain creed or religion, but who feel themselves first as citizens. How for instance would it be compatible with the duties of a catholic priest, who submits to the infallibility doctrine, to teach in a public school without using every opportunity to infuse into the minds of his pupils the doctrines of his religion? And would priests of other denominations act different?

We submit this question to the earnest consideration of the Superintendent of public Education and to his subordinate officers.

San Antonio.

San Antonio has great natural resources; her geographical situation is an immense advantage over other cities; yet her progress has not been equal to that of Waco, Houston, Austin, and other places.

It is railroad communication that has built up these heretofore unimportant villages, as any one who has had occasion to compare the Austin of a year ago with the Austin of to-day, will testify.

Ten years ago San Antonio was the most populous city in Texas, to-day she stands second and it is by no means uncertain that we may awake some fine morning and find our status fixed for all time as a little Mexican frontier town; that our trade has found another market, and that our population has dwindled away.

If we fold our arms in passive indifference, the scepter shall depart from us, forever.

We can yet hold our own, if we but use the means at our command.

We can have immigration, if we will but reach out our hand for it, and now that the Administration has done its duty, is it not time for us to do something?

Is there no one who will take the lead and start an immigration society?

But we need a railroad to bring these immigrants to our doors, and although we have assisted two roads, we have nothing for it as yet but promises.

But there is a third road, which enjoys the confidence of the people and is owned by a live company. We refer of course to the International. This Company could, if it chose to, build the road from Austin to this place within a year if we were to assist in so doing, and this assistance should come from private parties, who would be most benefitted by the road. It would be a matter of no great difficulty to raise $100,000 among our [illegible] for this sum [illegible] could be secured within one year, and that long expected Iron Horse be heard thundering in our suburbs.

Who is the public spirited man that will take the lead?

Mississippi Ku-Klux.

[Correspondence of the Republican.]

OXFORD, MISS., Jan. 20.

We have just been informed of the murder of a colored man by the name of Lucas by the Kuklux, at Salem, in Lee county Mississippi, where he had recently returned from Oxford, he having been a witness before the grand jury of the United States District Court of the northern District of Mississippi, now in session at the latter place.

This murder differs from numerous other murders committed by this hellish organization only in form, they having cut the throat of their victim. We understand that Colonel G. Wiley Wells, the United States district attorney, with the usual energy and promptness displayed by him also in the discharge of his duties, has taken steps to secure the arrest of the parties implicated in the affair.

This makes three witnesses who have been killed at and around Saltillo, Lee Co. during the last 30 days.

Nearly a thousand witnesses have been examined by the grand jury already, and from present indications they will continue until March.

White men of property are applying to Col. Wells, asking protection for life and property. A perfect reign of terror prevails in portions of Lee county. In Tippah county disguised men visit the witnesses who are summoned, before the grand jury, and notify them they must not return if they go to Oxford, or their lives will pay the forfeit.

Several white families who dare not return, have been provided for by Col. Wells, who has procured for them places with Union men in other counties. Not less than fifty men have been whipped in this county during the last year, and nearly that number have been run off their plantations by these bands of lawless desperadoes. Nearly all the colored schools in the county have been broken up and the teachers driven off. In fact, violence and lawlessness is the reigning element in that portion of the State.

CALIFORNIA is a wonderful State. In addition to her gold, fruits, grain and silk, she is now to present us with rice of the first quality. The swamp land of the Lower Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, heretofore regarded as worthless, are now to be turned into rich rice fields. The deposit is proving fruitful.

England.

The opposition papers have always contended that England had gained a great advantage over President Grant's Administration in the Washington treaty.

That this is a mistake is evident, as England now wants to back out of the bargain, and withdraw from the Geneva Conference.

This is not a very dignified course in a great nation like England, but we believe the English mind will undergo a change.

The United States can put a million of veterans in the field.

Canada, already disaffected, would be ours.

The Irish Republic would become a reality.

The communist element, which has shown its teeth so plainly, of late in England, would make it hot for Johnny Bull at home.

Besides, the factories would stop running, and the working class would be hungry and disloyal.

And lastly, we might play the Alabama game on England's commerce.

The only enemy we have in the rear is that puny, double-headed baby, the Democratic party.

The times are not propitious for a war, as far as England is concerned.

THE sufferings entailed upon the Mexican people by their present deplorable state of anarchy are rapidly curing them of their prejudices against religious freedom and inclining them to welcome the coming annexation of the Mexican territory to the United States. We, however, are not yet ready to undertake this job. The time is coming when an American population will occupy in force the whole continent. The annexation will be peaceful. For when the day comes we will be welcomed as deliverers instead of being hated as invaders. The Mexican people have neither ideas nor capacities of national organization. They will, if left to themselves, continue to waste their energies in civil strife and to perpetuate the reign of barbarism. Having no elements of growth in themselves, they will lag behind in the race of progress until the responsibilities of a civilized nation will become so overone that they will spontaneously seek to lay them aside.

A Boston correspondent of the Rutland (Vt.) Herald thus explains the "dark ways" of the lobbyists:

A friend of mine, who has been a member of the Legislature for a number of years, was talking to the principal lobbyist at the State house, a short time since. My friend said to him. "Well, Mr. —, through any of your schemes." "Oh, yes," replied the other, "I always got some honest old farmer to take a seat next to yours and tell you that his particular friends in the country wished it done, that it would be a great benefit to their towns, and you always voted just as I wanted you to."

The Fisk-Mansfield Letters.

A New York correspondent has had an interview with Stokes, the murderer of Fisk, and reports the following conversation concerning the Fisk-Mansfield correspondence:

"By the way, Mr. Stokes," I said, "did you see the letters published in the Herald?"

"Yes," he replied, "and they are all forged, every one of them."

"The letters were once in your possession, I believe, and you are able to judge of their genuineness. Did you ever see these letters, published in the Herald, before they were published?"

"No, nor nobody else ever saw them."

"What became of the letters that were once in your possession?"

"They were burned. I haven't the least doubt of it."

"What makes you think so?"

"Because I delivered them to Peter B. Sweeny, and I know him too well to believe he would let them run the least chance of publication. Yes, I am certain they have been destroyed."

"Were any part of the letters published in the Herald genuine?"

"Well, one of them may have been 'doctored' before they were published, but in the main they were the poorest apologies for Jim Fisk's letters I ever saw."

A young lady at Council Bluffs being informed by her "feller" that he intended to cease his attentions, cowhided him around the room, and as he sprung through the open window, told him, with a parting flirt, that that would teach him to be more careful for the future not to trifle with a gentle and loving heart.

Our farmers and dairymen would swell the size of their purses largely if they would pay more attention to furnishing our people with butter and milk. To think that the people of Texas—a State having more cattle than any other in the Union should send North for Goshen butter and use condensed milk! It is a shame upon us. This must be corrected, and a big fortune is in store for some one who undertakes the work.

Alexander Hamilton, one of the greatest men that America ever produced, gave the secret of success as follows:

"Men give me some credit for genius. All the genius I have lies just in this: When I have a subject in hand, I study it profoundly. Day and night it is before me. I explore it in all its bearings. My mind becomes pervaded with it. Then the effort which I make, the people are pleased to call the fruit of genius. It is the fruit of labor and thought.

IMPROVE YOUR BREEDS.—A fine horse will at all times command a good price at any place. It requires no more feed to keep in good condition a first class animal than it does to prolong the life of an indifferent one. It behooves every stock raiser then to make it a specialty to improve his stock than he may at all times find a ready sale, at the highest figures, for every animal raised on his place. He is not at a dollar's greater outlay scarcely, but the returns for his time and money is sufficient to largely compensate him for the exercise of good judgement in this matter. The man who always has poor stock is always a poor man, and we may say by a parity of reason that the man that has indifferent stock is an indifferent man. This is the way it runs.

An Ordinance

Concerning the running at large of horned Cattle and Swine.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of San Antonio:

SECTION 1. On and after the 20th day of February, A. D. 1872, it shall not be lawful for cows, or horned cattle of any kind, or swine, to run at large within that portion of said city included in the following described boundaries, to wit: Beginning on the San Antonio River at the Southeast corner of the property belonging to, and constituting the homestead of Thos. J. Devine, fronting on South Flores street, thence along his southerly line continuing in a straight line, eastward to Laredo st., thence northward along and including Laredo street, to Center street; thence northward along and including Center street to the San Pedro creek; thence up said creek to the northwest corner of property now occupied and owned by Hector and wife; thence eastward along said Hector's line, across North Flores street, along and including 5th street to the Upper Labor Ditch; thence along said ditch to 2nd Avenue; thence along avenue and inside of the homestead property of Sat Lewis to the San Antonio River; thence up said river to a point opposite 6th street on the east side of the same, thence across said river and along said and including said 6th street, to the Alamo Ditch; thence down the Alamo Ditch to North Fourth street; thence and and including North Fourth street eastward to Pecan street; thence along and including Pecan street south and to Alameda street; thence westward in a straight line to Water street; thence along and including Water street to Mill street, and along and including Mill street to a point on the East bank of the San Antonio River just below Dwyer's mill; thence up the San Antonio River to a point opposite the place of beginning; and any owner of such animal, or any person having rightful possession or control thereof, either or both, who shall permit the same to run at large within the said limits, shall be fined for each such offence, not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 2. The Mayor shall cause to be erected before said date, two good and suitable pounds, one on the east side of the San Antonio river, to be called the Alamo Pound, and the other on the west side thereof to be called the San Pedro Pound, at such places as he may determine convenient, and he shall, by and with the consent of the City Council, appoint for each Pound a Pound-keeper.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of each pound keeper to take up and impound any such animal known to him to be running at large on the side of the river, within the prescribed limits, and also to impound any such animal taken up and delivered to him for such purpose by any person over twenty-one years of age, when such person shall certify to the pound keeper, over his signature, that the same was found and taken up by him running at large within the limits prescribed by this ordinance; and for such failure or neglect so to do, he shall [illegible] Recorder, be fined a sum not less than five dollars and costs, and any person so authorized, who shall take up and deliver to a pound keeper any such animal, shall be paid by him, on delivery, the sum of fifty cents.

SEC. 4. Each pound keeper shall, under the direction and control of the Mayor, take proper care of, and furnish at his own expense sufficient subsistance for all animals impounded by him; and all animals not redeemed within twenty-four hours after the same are impounded, he shall forthwith advertise, by posting four, or more written or printed notices, one of which shall be at the Court House door, another at the door of each of the public houses, and another at one of the most public places on the side of the river where his pound is situated; and if the owner of such animal be known to him, from examination of the records of marks, and brands, required by law to be recorded in the office of the District Clerk of Bexar county, to reasons which it shall be his duty to do, he shall notify such owner of the impounding of such animal to the best of his knowledge; or if the owner thereof shall otherwise be known to him, he shall serve, or cause to be served, either by delivering to such owner in person, if he be a resident of the said city, or by leaving at his or her residence or place of business a copy of the notice which notice shall be in substance as follows:

POUND NOTICE.

Taken up in (Alamo or San Pedro) pound on the ——day of ——, 187—, (here insert the description of the animal, giving marks and brands and name of the owner when known, or when conjectured, stating "believing to be the property of)——which will, if not redeemed before sale, be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash at said pound, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, on the——day of ——18—.

Pound Keeper.

And he shall sell such animal, unless the same be redeemed before the hour of sale, in accordance with the terms of such notice, on the third day after impounding the same, except when the sale day would fall upon Sunday, or a legal holiday, when the sale shall be made on the day following.

SEC. 5. Each pound keeper shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for each animal impounded by him, and to fifty cents for each day, or part of a day, the same may be kept by him; and when any animal shall be sold in pursuance to the [illegible] this ordinance, he shall be entitled to such additional fee or commission; but the proceeds of the sales of all animals sold by him, after deducting the legal fees, shall be paid at the end of each month to the City Treasurer. Each pound keeper shall also render to the Mayor, at the end of each month, a full statement under oath, of all animals received into his pound, giving a description of the same with the marks and brands, the name of the owner, when known, specifying those redeemed, and those sold, giving the name of the person taking up each animal, and also the dates of each of his transactions, and also an accurate account of all monies received and paid out by him as pound keeper, which statement shall be copied from a record book to be kept by him, in which he shall enter, from time to time as they occur, all matters required to be shown by such statement, and upon which he shall take the receipts of the owners for all animals by them redeemed, and of the persons to whom any animal or animals may have been sold, and for all moneys paid by him he shall give duplicate bills of sale signed by him as pound keeper, and reciting the material facts.

SEC. 6. At any time before the sale of any animal, the owner thereof, or his agent, may redeem the same by paying to the pound keeper in charge, such fees as he may be intitled to under the provisions of this Ordinance.

SEC. 7. No person shall purchase, or be interested directly or indirectly, in the purchase of any animal taken up, impounded, or sold by him; and any person found guilty of violating this provision shall, upon conviction thereof before the Recorder, be fined not less than ten dollars, and if a pound keeper he shall be in addition thereto dismissed from office.

SEC. 8. If any person shall hinder or obstruct any pound keeper or other legally authorized person engaged in taking up either city owned or any animal liable to be impounded; or shall break open or shall aid, assist or advise the breaking open of any city pound, he shall, upon conviction therefor, be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

SEC. 9. Any person who shall drive, or shall cause or advise to be driven, from without to any place within the limits prescribed in Section 1, of this Ordinance, any animal liable to be impounded, with the fullest design of having the same impounded shall, upon conviction therefor before the Recorder, be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

SEC. 10. Any pound keeper who shall exact or receive from the owner of any animal he may have impounded, or from the agent of such owner, a sum in excess of his legal fees as provided in this Ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than five dollars and shall in addition thereto be removed from office.

SEC. 11. The owner of any animal which may be impounded and sold in accordance with the terms of this Ordinance, shall be entitled to the proceeds of such sale, after deducting all fees, costs, and fines legally chargeable to him, upon application to the Mayor; who shall upon such application issue his warrant for such excess, to the owner thereof, upon the City Treasurer for reimbursement.

Approved Jan. 20, A. D. 1872.

Those wishing to attend the masked balls will also find at Mrs. Feille's a fine assortment of fancy dresses.

THOSE who have heretofore neglected to pay their State and County tax, should delay no longer, but call on Sheriff Bonnell at once and settle. There exists also a misapprehension in the minds of many, in regard to the school tax, it being generally understood that the Comptroller had directed the Sheriff not to collect it. Such is not the case, it being due and as liable to collection as any other.

DISTRICT COURT.—The case of Fisher vs. Mertz, Joyce, et. als., was decided in favor of the defendant, the jury sustaining every point made by the attornies of Fisher.

The next case that was taken up was that of John C. French et. Sam. Smith, et. als. This was a suit on a draft drawn by Sam. S. Smith and J. M. Devine, and made payable to John C. French, dated March 1st, 1870, for $630. It has not been decided as yet.

DR. McBAINE left day before yesterday, in his traveling tarouche, for fresh fields and pastures new. On getting out into the suburbs, the man with the banjo played a lively dead march, and showed more fervy than a second hand piano, while the M. There is no latitude where such a sudden change of temperature is known as this. On the 5th instant, at 3 P. M., the mercury stood at 70° in the shade, or at 100° in the sun. The weather was in its glory, and just fans around would suffice. At 5 o'clock the thermometer exhibited a minimum of 30° degrees. Here is a range of 70 degrees in six hours. The phenomenon of January has been extraordinarily cold, much colder, in fact, than has been experienced for many years.

We do not keep a thermometer ourselves, but are indebted to our accommodating City Physician, Dr. Pettitjean, who is a Corresponding Member of the Smithsonian Institute, at Washington, and a thoroughly reliable gentleman, for the foregoing.

WE think that any comments we may be graciously pleased to make in reference to the City Council's not planting shade trees on the Plaza, will not be regarded as journalistic thunderbolt, with annihilating proclivities, but rather in the light of the gentle fanning with shingle, which some old cow parrot spreads out on the interal development of his beloved, but forgetful offspring.

A good book in those Old Testament days, when the mothers of the members of the present City Council were being energetically courted by the male progenities, several miles from here, the little Spanish Presidio de San Fernando was adorned by a magnificent Alameda of cotton wood trees, and the natives were then as gallows of railroads as their successors of the present day, who are basking the mild sunshine of the afternoon of the 19th century.

Gentlemen of the City Council, Fortune has refused her features and smiles on you with reckless prodigality; your good looks are passing into proverb, and is hardly regarded by the mature ripeness of your majority, and our pen fails us when we attempt to do justice to your social qualities and glass of beer and kaiser.

SPECIAL NOTICES,

Guard Your Health! and Life.

How inhospitable is human nature. Men carry revolvers to protect themselves against ruffians in well-polished cities, often neglect to fortify their systems against disease in the most unhealthy. Thousands of dyspeptics are now languishing in sick rooms or feebly moving through our streets, who owe their forlorn condition solely to a want of common prudence. For more inimical than the assassin, against whose attacks the timid arm themselves, are the morbid elements that pervade the atmosphere at this time of the year, and although it is an undisputed fact that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters afford a more perfect protection against these causes of disease, than any weapon of offence can afford against lawless violence, the reckless continue to brave the danger with a positive safeguard within their reach.

Every day, however, the number of these martyrs to their own want of love cast diminishes. Each succeeding season demonstrates more clearly the inestimable value of the Bitters, both as an antidote for the causes of disease, and a specific for its consequences. The miasma which generates periodic disorders, rheumatism and other physical disturbances, produces no effect whatever upon systems toned, regulated by this powerful vegetable medicine, and dyspepsia, nervous debility, intermittent and remittent fevers and all the maladies, which the Bitters, if taken in time, would prevent, are cured by the persevering use of the great remedy.

TO THOSE WHO ARE BOWED DOWN by Nervous Debility, and despair of ever recovering the vigor and vim of manhood we earnestly recommend Dr. Walker's CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS. Before they have finished the first bottle, they will feel the restorative principle at work in every portion of their broken-down systems and hope will spring up in their hearts. No case of Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Intermittent Fever, Rheumatism, Gout or kidney disease, can resist the mild but powerful vegetable tonic which is unpolluted by any distilled or fermented liquor. The Importance of Health.

In point of importance, bodily health is second to nothing earthly. Nay, a modern French philosopher has maintained, that to pursue health—bodily health that is—is the main duty of man. This much, at any rate, is certain, that, whether or not the pursuit of health be itself virtue, the attainment and possession of health conduce in a degree most remarkable, if not to virtue, at least to clearness of thought, to soundness of judgment and general prudence of conduct—which are commodities much more marketable than virtue is. Now the two great conditions of health are abundant Nourishment and unobstructed Excretion—the latter removing from the system that which is used up, the former replacing this. It is in accordance with this principle that Dr. Gottlieb Fisch's Bitters acts. It stimulates the digestive and nutritive process, on the one hand, and, pari passu, the excretory, on the other. Ye, who prize health, make trial!

This subject continued next week under "How to have the good of our eating."

AS may be seen by the New Orleans Times and other papers, the Grover & Baker Family Machine took several premium for work at the recent Fair in New Orleans, beating the "Florence", "Wheeler & Wilson", "Singer", "Howe", "Weed", "Wilson", "American" and "Empire" three to one, thus again asserting its vast superiority as a Family Machine. There was no premium offered on Sewing Machines, only on the work, or doubtless the Grover & Baker would likewise have taken it.

OFFICE OF ADJUTANT GENERAL, STATE OF TEXAS, Austin, Texas, January 1, 1872.

General Order, No. 1.

I. The following act of the Twelfth Legislature is published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

AN ACT TO MUSTER INTO SERVICE MINUTE MEN FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE FRONTIERS.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas, That there shall be mustered into the service of the State, twenty-four companies of minute men, for the protection of the frontier from the raids of the Indians and other marauding parties. The term of service to be for twelve months from the day of general muster; each company to consist of one lieutenant, to be elected by the company, two sergeants, two corporals and fifteen men, to be stationed in each of the following counties, to wit: Montague, Cook, Wise, Jack, Parker, Palo Pinto, Erath, Comanche, Brown, San Saba, Hamilton, Lampasas, Burnet, Llano, Mason, Gillespie, Blanco, Kerr, Kendall, Bandera, Medina, Uvalde, Maverick and Webb.

SEC. 2. That the minute companies, organized by virtue of this act, shall at all times hold themselves in readiness to meet and repel an Indian raid, or depredations on the frontier counties of the State.

SEC. 3. That it shall be the duty of the Governor of the State, to arm the said minute companies and provide with arms and ammunition suitable to this service.

SEC. 4. That the minute companies shall not be called into the field at any other time than in this act is provided, unless the officer in command shall receive notice that there is, or unless there is a strong probability of an Indian or other marauding raid, or unless he shall receive notice from the officer commanding on an adjoining post, that his services are required in the field.

SEC. 5. That the minute companies shall receive the sum of two dollars per day, for the time actually taken in the field in guarding the frontier; but the time shall in no case exceed ten days in any one calendar month; and no person shall be entered as on any of the said minute men, unless he be an inhabitant of the county, or the county adjoining.

SEC. 6. That the officer in command of a minute company shall keep up his communications with the minute companies adjoining, and that he shall be allowed to expend no more than thirty dollars per month in this service; but he shall not receive pay, unless he shall present vouchers for the amount per month, expended in this service, therein specifying the party performing service, and the nature thereof, and no county shall be paid from the Treasury of the State unless proper vouchers are had.

SEC. 7. That the pay of the minute companies organized by virtue of this act, shall come out of the balance (after paying off the ranger companies now in service) of the money now in the hands of the Governor, the proceeds of the payment of the bonds issued for frontier defense by an act approved August 5, 1870, and should there be a balance remaining of the said moneys after paying off said ranger companies, and the minute men organized by virtue of this act, for twelve months service, then the remainder of the proceeds, if any, shall be paid over by the Governor into the State Treasury, to be applied to the future protection of the frontier.

SEC. 8. That every minute man shall provide himself with a good and sufficient horse, such as the officer in command of company shall accept as suitable for the service, and if any minute man's horse shall be killed, permanently disabled, or has probably lost in action, the same shall be paid for by the State; the amount to be assessed by the three highest officers in command not interested in the award; that the commanding officer in charge shall forward a monthly report to the Governor of the State, of his command, and the nature of the services performed.

SEC. 9. That should marauding companies of Indians succeed in taking any property of the frontier citizens, the same on identification shall be delivered up to the owners (who shall be required to make affidavit to the loss) and no charge shall be any cost incurred in taking charge thereof, the cost shall be borne by the State. But should there be no owner found to properly prove the same shall be divided among the enlisted men, sworn and share alike.

Approved November 25, 1871.

II. The minute companies will be accepted into the service of the State, and officers commissioned, when the provisions of the foregoing act are complied with.

By order of the Governor and Commander-in-chief:

JAMES DAVIDSON, Adjutant General of Texas.

Policy of the Administration.

In conclusion, I would sum up the policy of the Administration to be a thorough enforcement of every law, a faithful collection of every tax provided for, economy in the disbursement of the same, a prompt payment of every debt of the nation, a reduction of the taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit, the reduction of taxation and tariff to be so arranged as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number, honest and fair dealing with all other people, to the end that war, with all its blighting consequences, may be avoided, but without surrendering any right or obligation due to us, a reform in the treatment of Indians and in the whole civil service of the country, and finally in securing a pure, untrammeled ballot, where every man entitled to cast a vote may do so just once at each election, without fear of molestation or reprocussion on account of his political faith, nativity or color.

U. S. GRANT.

Washington, Dec. 5, 1870.

Newspaper Laws.

We would call the special attention of Postmasters and subscribers to the following synopsis of the newspaper laws:

1. A Postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the Postmaster responsible to the publishers for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the Postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages or the publisher may continue to send it until the payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continue to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it from the Postoffice. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facia evidence of intentional fraud.
