

Stronger animal control ordinance urged

By Ray Mayo
Editor

Animal control warden Richard Caldwell told the Colorado City Council Tuesday night city ordinances are not strong enough to control what he describes as a dangerous situation with pit bull dogs.

Caldwell explained that the number of dog attacks on humans seems to be increasing and cited the number of pit bull dogs in the city as a potentially dangerous situation.

"I've found 123 pit bull dogs and pit building crosses in this town," said Caldwell, who had earlier showed the council members pictures of a Sweetwater resident who had been mauled by a pit bulldog.

He said at one residence on Elm Street, there are "five of the most vicious animals I have ever seen," adding that "it's a miracle someone has not been killed." He said four of the dogs are chained in the backyard and one is kept in the house.

Caldwell said he has been animal control warden since August 28. Since that time, there have been six attacks with two of those cat attacks.

He said that many of the potentially vicious dogs are kept chained in yards, but "when they snap the chains, we have a problem."

He said he is particularly concerned with the area around Kelley Elementary School because of the young children walking to and from school. He explained that there are several dogs in a several-block area that could attack a child without warning.

He asked that the council consider an ordinance "making it tough on an individual to have an animal like that near a school."

He further explained that the present ordinance does not allow him to kill a dog on private property even if that dog has attacked someone or is threatening to attack someone.

"I have to get the animal into the street to shoot it," he said.

"We have too many cats in this town," he also noted. "Overpopulation can lead to rabies."

Mayor Elmer Martin appointed a committee of council members Jesse Munoz, Dee Hearn, Don Webb, City Attorney Pete McKinney, City Manager Brenda Tarter and Police Chief Bobby Sparks to study the possibility of updating the animal control ordinance.

Earlier, the mayor had appointed a committee to study a request from Mr. and Mrs. Don Jordan, 1345 Pine, concerning a situation in their neighborhood. They complained that one of their neighbors keeps trash and junk in the yard and that police have had to be called numerous times because of the noise and fighting.

In other business, the council adopted an ordinance concerning vehicle storage facilities. The ordinance requires that a privacy fence, constructed to standards that do not detract from the aesthetics of the area, be approved by the director of public works. The fence must be inspected each time the license is renewed.

An ordinance was also approved concerning water wells drilled within the city limits. The ordinance requires a $25 permit fee per well.

In other business, the council: -called a city council election for April 5 to decide on three two-year terms currently held by Tom Lovell, Robert Hoback and Munoz.

-approved a subdivision plat as submitted by J. O. Dockrey;

-gave permission to advertise for bids for construction of a new swimming pool at Ruddick Park.

COLORADO CITY residents were greeted with a touch of winter Monday morning when a combination of freezing rain and snow covered the ground and streets. Although the driving conditions were less than favorable, no major accidents were reported and school students failed to get a holiday. Most of the white stuff had melted by Monday afternoon.

County OKs septic tank rules, regulations

Mitchell County Commissioners Monday tentatively approved rules and regulations governing septic tanks at lakes Colorado City and Champion.

County Attorney Pete McKinney, who drew up the regulations, said that the state will have to approve the regulations before the county can start enforcing the new rules.

McKinney explained that basically, the county will be responsible for issuing permits and seeing that septic tanks around the lake areas are installed properly.

Previously, the county and city had discussed the possibility of jointly addressing the problem. The city, which receives its water from Lake Colorado City, and the county have heard complaints that raw sewage is being dumped into the lake from lakeside residences.

McKinney said that if such a complaint is heard, the matter can be investigated by either the state health department or the county's trained inspector or both. McKinney said the county will have to hire an inspector who also will be responsible for issuing permits for new septic systems. He said the inspector will have to undergo a minimal amount of training.

In other business, the commissioners approved the Federal Revenue Sharing Budget for the 17th Entitlement period. Judge

Bill Carter said that the amount of funds, $130,750, is $11,821 less than what originally had been expected. The commissioners agreed to leave the proposed budget unchanged with exceptions of adding $355 for the Westbrook Golden Age Club and deducting the remaining $11,821 from the emulsion fund.

Carter said he had received a request from the Loraine Senior Citizens Center for $500 for a new sewer line, but the commissioners agreed to pay for the project with other funds since the building is county-owned.

The commissioners also sold some surplus equipment to the highest bidders. The equipment, the amount received and the buyer included 1981 Ford pickup, $2,150; J. O. Dockrey of Colorado City; 1981 Chevrolet pickup, $1,280; Averitt Auto Sales of Coahoma; 1979 Ford dump truck, $2,890; Averitt Auto Sales; 1973 Ford pickup, $1,300; Sutton's of Abilene; 1972 International pickup, $1,050; Averitt Auto Sales; and a copying machine, $156.90, Mary Miller of Westbrook.

In other business, the commissioners:

-appointed Jerry Hammond constable for precinct 1 to replace Billy Ray Williamson who resigned. Hammond is the only candidate to file for the $1 a year position;

-agreed to a salary increase loan rate or the national average price received by farmers during the last calendar year. The national average price was 54.7 cents. Since this is smaller than the 57.3-cent loan rate, the deficiency payment rate must be based on the difference between the target price and the loan rate.

Producers who participate in the 1985 upland cotton acreage reduction program are eligible to receive deficiency payments on the number of pounds equal to their cotton planted acres times their farm program yields.

ASCS began making the 1985 deficiency payments on Wednesday, February 13.

Rob Holman is chairman of the local ASCS board with Jim Dockrey as vice chairman and Stan Hackfeld as member.

-approved a service contract with L. H. Office Center of Big Spring for a maintenance service contract for county owned typewriters at $80 annually per machine;

-drew the names of Stanley Moore and Alfonso Mendosa to serve on the county grievance committee, and;

-agreed to a recommendation from Sheriff Wendell Bryant to re-eek bids on a new teletype system for his office because the previously awarded bid did not meet specifications.

CISD trustee election set

The Colorado Independent School District board of trustees Monday night called a school trustee election for Saturday, April 5 to fill four positions.

The four positions include three for three-year terms for the positions presently held by Eddie Piland, Dwayne Harris and Ronnie Aston and for one position to fill the unexpired term vacated by S. L. Morris and presently held by Floyd Lee Ritchey.

Piland, who has served on the board for nine years and currently is president, said he will not seek re-election. Harris, Aston and Ritchey have already filed for re-election.

The deadline for filing, explained Superintendent Charlie Uselton, is midnight March 5 and that absentee voting will begin March 17 at the administration building, 1153 Hickory Street.

The board agreed to have either the high school building trades class or industrial arts class to build table-top voting booths for this year's elections as required by a new law.

In other business, the board:

-agreed to purchase a Dodge 12-passenger van from Anderson Motor Company for $13,300;

-adopted new school board policies concerning compensation and related benefits for personnel, 10-day absence rule for students and the nepotism law for personnel;

-appointed Assistant Superintendent Don Minno as textbook custodian;

-agreed to a 3 percent increase for replacement cost of school-owned properties for insurance purposes, and;

-approved changes in a number of bus routes.

The board went into executive session to evaluate supervisors, managers, directors and principals and to discuss whether or not to continue in the Texas school asbestos litigation suit.

Man given 15 years following guilty plea

A Colorado City man was sentenced to 15 years in the Texas Department of Corrections Monday following a plea of guilty to indeny with a child. 22nd District Judge Weldon Kirk sentenced Joe Salazar, 30, following a plea bargain struck by opposing attorneys. Salazar could have received from 2 to 20 years.

Salazar had been indicted by a Mitchell County grand jury for a July 30, 1985 incident.

March of Dimes Mothers March set

The 1986 Mothers March for the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation will be held in Colorado City on February 22-24 to continue efforts to prevent birth defects, the nation's number one child health problem.

"The March of Dimes has been battling birth defects for over 55 years now," said Dee Phillips, Colorado City's chairman for this year's march. "This extremely important work is needed now more than ever. Mothers and families throughout America will be soliciting door-to-door and by other means of personal contact to help raise much needed funds to continue to fight against birth defects."

The Mothers March began in 1950 in Phoenix, Arizona. The oldest fund-raising drive of its kind, it now takes place each year throughout the country. Mothers March contributions make it possible to conduct programs of research, medical services, public and professional education.

"Not only are the volunteers seeking contributions for the March of Dimes, they are spreading the message about the important work these funds support," Mrs. Phillips said.

"When one infant in 15 is born with a physical or mental defect, I think everyone should feel the need to get involved," Mrs. Phillips urged.

For details about joining the March of Dimes Mothers March in Colorado City call Dee Phillips at 739-5365 or 739-5395.

Lemons honored at reception

Robert Lemons of Colorado City was one of 20 outstanding members of 4-H from throughout the state honored by San Antonio Livestock Exposition officers and members of the San Antonio Kiwanis Club.

Lemons, a Gold Star winner, is an active Texas 4-H Council member.

Chosen by their peers on the basis of exceptional achievements, 10 members of FFA and FFA and 20 members of 4-H are honored annually at a reception sponsored jointly by the San Antonio Kiwanis Club and the Rural Youth committee, an arm of the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, Inc.

Honorees and their guests were welcomed by Livestock Exposition officers, the president of the San Antonio Kiwanis Club, a guest rodeo performer and city and county officials.

"Our purpose in this reception is to encourage these outstanding youth to educate themselves and their peers about agriculture and agribusiness," said T. E. Crumrine, Rural Youth chairman. "After all, these young leaders will till the soil and raise the livestock that will feed America and the world into the next century."

Each honoree received a commemorative plaque, a special badge, a souvenir program book, newspaper clippings and tickets to the Saturday morning rodeo performance. State officers will represent their organizations in the Western Parade, part of the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo.

The Reception kicked off the 37th Annual San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo, which runs from February 7 through the 16 on the grounds of the Joe and Harry Freeman Coliseum.

Tops TX aids weight loss

TOPS Texas Club 001 meets each Monday evening at 5:30 p.m. in the Housing Authority building.

This is a support club for those who want to lose weight. The members encourage one another to lose weight and exchange recipes and ideas to support you during the meetings.

The past week there had been a recorded total 25 pound loss.

There were 13 members present for the meeting.

Couple united in San Angelo

Julie Marie Shawn and Virgil Tab Fowler were united in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, January 4 at 2:30 p.m. at Sierra Vista United Methodist Church in San Angelo with the Rev. Robert Hall, pastor, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shawn of San Angelo and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Keith of Colorado City.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Al Hughes of Kingwood, Texas and Gaylon Fowler of Odessa.

Spiral brass candelabra flanked the altar with a seven branch tapered brass candelabrum behind the altar trimmed with boxwood vines. Floral arrangements of white mums and gladioli and burgandy roses accented the altar and sides of the chancel rail trimmed with boxwood vines. Brass and crystal globed candles trimmed with boxwood and primrose bows accented the aisles.

Organist Linda Silva provided the wedding music. Vocalists were Suzy Makin, who sang, "My Cup Runneth Over" and Eddie Smith who sang, "Theme from Ice Castles."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of organza over taffeta. The open neckline was edged with a lace ruffle trimmed with pearls. Full puffed sleeves with lace appliques ended with a lace ruffle just above the elbow. The fitted lace trimmed bodice featured a dropped waistline above the full skirt with triple lace ruffles sweeping into a semi-cathedral train.

Her laced edged two tiered veil of illusion was attached to a pearl-trimmed lace Juliet cap.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white silk honeysuckle and azalea buds, mauve stephanotis and star blossoms with fresh spring and baby's breath.

In keeping with tradition, she carried the lace and linen handkerchief that her great-grandmother carried in her 1897 wedding to Adam Keith. Her dress served as something new and something borrowed was a diamond pendant belonging to the groom's mother and something blue was her garter. She carried two pennies minted in the bride and groom's birthdates in her shoe.

Joni Hartgraves of Odessa, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Valerie Strasser Hale and Jana Franklin, both of San Angelo.

They were attired in rose-colored tea length dresses of lace over satin with satin cummerbunds ending in a soft back bow. Their flowers were semi-cascading bouquets of stephanotis, azalea buds and star blossoms in shades of rose with accents of baby's breath and dusty rose ribbons.

Junior bridesmaid was Ashley Wilda of Waco, cousin of the groom and flowergirl was Emily Fowler of Dallas, niece of the groom. Their floor length dresses featured wine velvet bodices and rose taffeta skirts ending in a ruffle. Ashley carried a colonial nosegay of rose colored flowers and Emily carried a ribbon basket with similar blossoms.

Ty Fowler, brother of the groom, from Dallas served as best man. Groomsmen were Chris Fowler of Odessa, brother of the groom, and Kerry Holliday of Dallas. Ushers were Eddie Smith of Dallas and Charles Wolda of Waco, uncle of the groom.

Joe Wolda, of Waco, nephew of the groom was ringbearer. He carried a heart-shaped pillow of white linen with wide-laced ruffles. It was made by the bride's mother, from material used in making her own wedding dress.

All the male attendants wore black tuxedos with rose cummerbunds and ties.

The mother of the bride wore a tea length gown of deep rose georgette.

Mother of the groom wore a tea-length gown of pale mauve lace over satin.

Grandmother of the bride wore an aqua gown with a pineapple pleated skirt.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, Suzy Makin sang "A Wedding Prayer." A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church.

Pharmacy Footnotes

by Eddie Piland, R.Ph.

Reye Syndrome

Reye syndrome is a rare but dangerous condition that can develop from flu or chicken pox. It primarily occurs in children under 16 and usually when they appear to be recovering. Parents should watch for signs of persistent vomiting, fatigue, confusion, and belligerence in their children. If these symptoms are displayed, immediately consult a doctor. Some studies indicate that there may be an association between the use of aspirin for flu or chicken pox and the development of Reye syndrome. While further studies are being conducted, the U.S. Surgeon General suggests that when your child has flu or chicken pox, check with your doctor before administering any medication.

EDDIE'S of Colorado City meets the highest level of professionalism in our business and is honored to become your pharmacy. Dr. John Marshall of Big Spring displays his newest addition in the eye care, a state-of-the-art computerized diagnostic instrument he recently installed.

The Eye Associates, Inc. of Big Spring, Tx. are proud to announce the installation of their new Humphrey Field Analyzer. The Field Analyzer is a computerized diagnostic instrument that can detect eye problems much earlier than other techniques and represents the most sophisticated technology on the market today. Under the direction of Dr. John Marshall, a Big Spring optometrist, the instrument will be used to help detect tumors, glaucoma and retinal changes allowing treatment to be started at the earliest possible time. The Field Analyzer provides a printed copy of its findings that could be likened to a neurological map of the back or the eye, pointing out blind spots, and other abnormalities. The analyzer's highly advanced computer programming allows each test to be specifically tailored to an individual's needs greatly increasing to accuracy of the test.

In a world of rapidly advancing technologies, The Eye Associates of Big Spring have consistently demonstrated a desire to bring their patients the most up to date equipment available. To participate in the advancing world of progressive care, call the optometric office of Dr. John H. Marshall at (915) 263-2501, in Big Spring or if you would enjoy seeing this new instrument simply drop by their office at 106 W. 3rd Street in Big Spring.

Meadows presents program

Mrs. Lola Fay Bennett hosted the regular meeting for the North Loraine Extension Homemakers on Wednesday, February 5 at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Bennett, club president, was in charge. The club prayer was led by Jimmie Jacks. The roll call was answered with "One way I communicate with other people."

After the council and treasurer's report were given, the members signed the "buckle up" pledge.

Mrs. Hubert Meadows brought an interesting program on "Improving Interpersonal Communications." The program involved several of the members participating. A skit involved three members—a grandmother, a mother and teenager to prove how lack of communication can result in friction. She also stated the importance of listening and members were involved in a test to see how well they followed instructions in assembling blocks, when they could not see the instructor. Each one took a personal written test on listening inventory—they were thankful the scores were not revealed. To be a good listener one should set erect, be alert, show interest and concentrate on what the speaker is saying. Good speakers should make themselves clear, and the listener should be considering the subject matter, and be prepared to ask questions if the opportunity is given, and be open minded about it. Even though facial expressions and body language reveal much in communication, the main points stressed in the summary were: Listening: verbal cues and unspoken cues. Many times words are not requested to get the message across. The program was enjoyed and willing participation by members was appreciated. Mrs. Bennett served refreshments to the following: Mrs. Jack Linam, Mrs. Roy Wells, Mrs. T. L. Holman, Mrs. Hubert Meadows, Mrs. Effie Wheeler and Jimmie Jacks.

Letters to the Editor

To the editor:

Recently, while shopping in San Angelo, I lost a pocketbook.

This was discovered when I tried to pay for a book I had bought. It did not seem possible I could have dropped it without noticing it. It really was a mystery. After eating lunch and visiting a number of shops we returned to our car.

On our way back to Colorado City, we noticed a piece of newspaper tucked in front of our windshield. We thought it was trash blown there. A day or so later, my husband decided to remove the trash-what to our eyes should appear-the pocket-book, with all contents secure, wrapped in scrap newspaper.

Where did it come from? Who put it there? How can I thank those good Americans?

Finally, I recalled at one time opening my purse and pulling out the contents—trying to find some mints. It must have been then that my pocketbook had slid down by the seat. Later when we got out of the car it dropped to the ground. Those precious people had found it by our car and knew it had been dropped to the ground when we got out.

How can they ever be thanked? Just two old grateful people in some way trying to say, "God bless you." We love you and God loves you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. L. B. Elliott
Colorado City

To the editor:

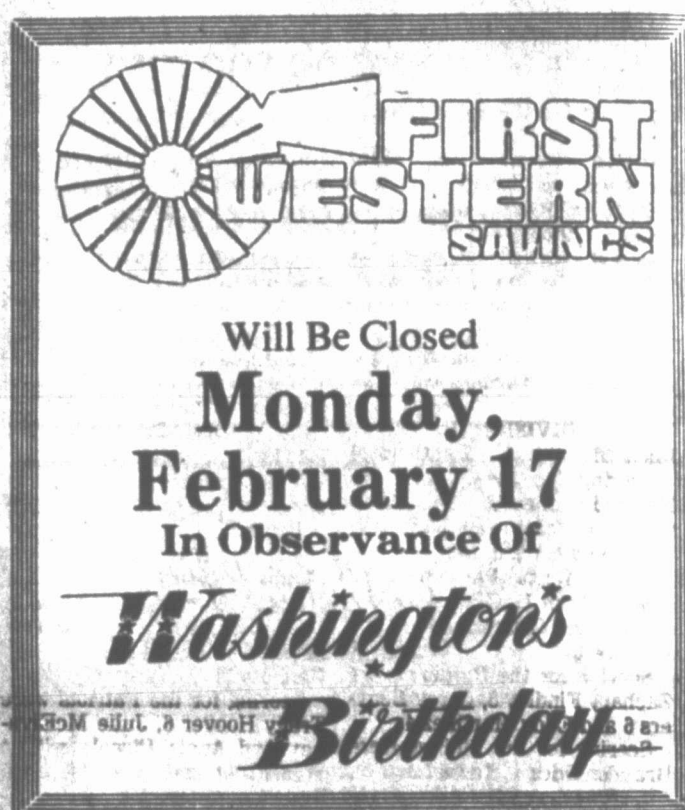

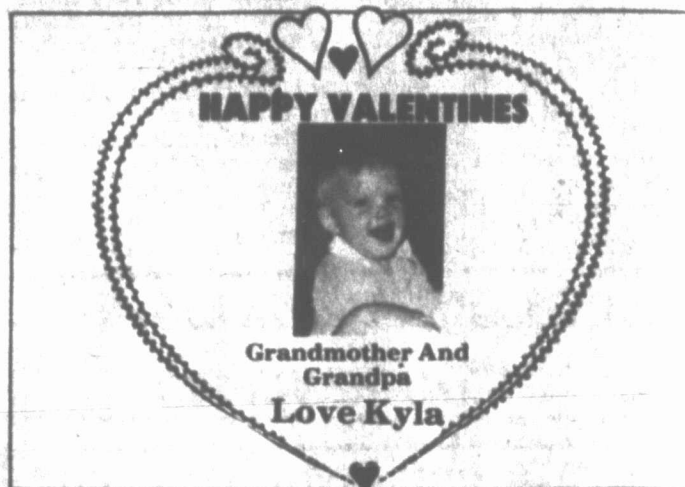

A Loving Tribute
For 65 years, we have lived in Colorado City. So far back as I can remember, Dr. C. L. Root had a hospital here on the south side of town, in what had been a residence, with a nurse, who we know as Miss Nell Scott. I recall visiting a brother-in-law there who had had surgery.

Later, after the new hospital was built and in use, we had two daughters operated on for tonsillectomy the same day. I recall something Dr. Root said. He remarked that he felt like a big bull dog fighting a small puppy in such an operation. He was such a considerate person. He

To remove his name from our hospital cannot remove the loving memories we hold.

His son, Charles Jr., helped carry on the high caliber of work his father established.

The name Root is held in high honor.
Mrs. L. B. Elliott
Colorado City

Tuttle accepts head coach position

Gene Tuttle, Colorado Middle School coach since the 1983-84 school year, has accepted the position of head football coach and athletic director for Bronte High School.

Tuttle came to Colorado City from North Mesquite High School where he was a varsity assistant. Since the start of the 1984-85 school year, Tuttle has been the athletic coordinator for CMS.

"I originally wanted to get close to home and a smaller environment," said Tuttle. "I'm from Lamesa and my wife is from Coahoma."

"I've had a chance to move up here, but at the time I was satisfied here (CMS) because I got more time with my babies. I had a chance to move up to varsity after my first year."

Next year Bronte will compete in region 1 district 6-A along with Eden, Garden City, Menard, Mertzon, Miles, Robert Lee, Sterling City and Water Valley. In addition to coaching the Longhorn football team, Tuttle will teach elementary physical education.

Tuttle, a graduate of Angelo State University, will be taking over for retiring coach Gerald Sanduskey, who is "retiring after some 20 years."

"I heard it was open and felt I had an opportunity to get it. References helped me get it but as far as having a connection in Bronte, I don't know anybody." Sixty-one hopefuls applied for the job.

"I feel extremely honored and excited about being chosen."

"They went 5-4-1 last year and only had three seniors so we're expecting a good group back. The basketball team finished an undefeated season Friday night."

Before North Mesquite, Tuttle taught at Sealy, Ranger Junior College and was a graduate assistant at Angelo State. "I was a varsity coach at all the places and a defensive coordinator at Lubbock Roosevelt."

"Colorado City's been real good to us. It will be extremely hard for us to leave. We have a lot of close friends here—more than anywhere else. I feel fortunate to have worked with such good kids and good folks."

"I won't take over until school's out. I've already taken over some responsibilities like working up some scrimmages and non-district ballgames."

Tuttle's wife Dietra, who teaches third grade at Hutchinson, "as of right now will be teaching third grade at Bronte." Also making the move will be 11 year old sixth grader Stephanie, 4 year old Scot and 2 year old Chad.

Ozona wins both games

Ozona High School proved to be an inhospitable host last Friday night by defeating the Colorado City Lady Wolves 55-37 in the last night of district 7-AAA girls play and taking a 67-36 win in the boys contest to remain alive in the playoff hunt.

The Lady Wolves, who finished 0-5 in the first half and 1-4 in the second half, were led by Sherry Fite with 16 points and Spud Jackson with 14. Jennifer Monroe scored five points and Holly Tarter two.

Ozona's victory in the boys game allowed the Lions—along with the Ballinger Bearcats—to keep the inside track for the runner-up spot behind league-leading Crane. The Wolves, 1-4 in the first half and 2-1 in the second half, still had a chance for playoff action going into a Tuesday night contest here against Ballinger.

The Ozona girls led only 10-8 after one period—gradually increasing it to 23-16 at halftime and 39-28 after three periods. The Lady Wolves were called for 34 fouls and made nine of 15 free throws compared to 16 fouls and 13 of 43 free throw shooting for Ozona. The Lion's Munoz scored eight of her team high 16 points in the final quarter.

Leading rebounders for Colorado City were Fite with 14 and Jackson with 10. Tarter and Denise Lowrance added six each. Jackson blocked eight Ozona shots and made two steals along with Monroe and Robin Edwards. As a team, the Wolves made 14 of 61 field goal attempts while Ozona made 21 of 62 shots with 21 turnovers and got 53 rebounds. Colorado City committed 23 turnovers and had a total of 50 rebounds.

The third quarter in the boys game, which carried the Wolves to victory in their previous contest against Coahoma, was the downfall against Ozona as the Lions blew open a six point 23-16 halftime lead by outscoring the Wolves 23-7 in the period for a 46-23 lead. Ozona had led 14-4 after the opening quarter.

"They ran on us," said coach Mike Hart. "That's where we're hurting (passing and ball control)."

Scoring for the Wolves were Dennis Smith, who got all but one of his team high 13 points in the final period, Ruben Rivera eight, Ken Woods six, Terry Jackson and Marty Cackler four and Albert Rivera and Mark Russell two.

R. Rivera and Woods were the leading rebounders with seven each. Jackson, Woods and A. Rivera led defensively while Jackson led in assists.

The Wolves made three of nine free throws and had no charity attempts in the first half. Ozona's Steve Sanchez led all scorers with 34. "He got hot on us," said Hart. Sanchez's points included eight for eight shooting from the free throw line. Ozona made 10 of 11 free throws.

Hightower added 10 points for Ozona.

Ozona also won the junior varsity contests—28-13 in the girls game and 60-45 in boys play. Scoring for the Wolves in the girls game were Jodi Mitchell four, Christy Mitchell four, Stacie Miles two, Mary Reyes two and Sheila Monroe one. For the boys were Cary Ritchey 14, George Rivera 12, Patrick Ridge 12, Dwayne Jones five and Danny Salazar two.

The boys teams end the regular season district schedule tomorrow at Crane beginning at 6:30 with a junior varsity contest.

PLAYOFF

A Class A basketball playoff game possibly involving the Loraine girls has been scheduled for tomorrow night.

Loraine and Highland, two teams that tied for second in district 12-A with 7-3 records behind 10-4 oscoes, were to have played a one game playoff Tuesday night at Bronte. The winner of the game would go on to bi-district play against Motley County tomorrow night.

"If we win I feel sure we'll play Friday night at Aspermont," said Loraine coach Sandy McSpadden. "If they win, I do not know." McSpadden said Rotan is also a possible site for the bi-district game.

Obituaries

Lindley

Funeral services for James Revis "Doc" Lindley, 91, of Colorado City, were at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Kiker-Seale Chapel. Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home. Mr. Lindley died at 10:35 p.m. Saturday in Root Memorial Hospital.

Born April 14, 1904 in Brown County, he had lived most of his life in Colorado City. He was a retired bus and truck driver. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

He is survived by five nieces and three nephews; two sisters-in-law, Ruthie Lindley and Ida Mae Lindley.

Pallbearers were Wilson Bass, Charles Wood, Raymond Webb, Mack Key, Eddie Williams and P. H. Pace.

Helm

Funeral services for Evelyn H. Helm, 94, of Colorado City, were at 2 p.m. Monday in the Kiker-Seale Funeral Home Chapel. Rev. Tim Temple, of the Ablene Bible Church, officiated. Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home. Mrs. Helm died at the home of her son on Sunday morning.

Born Evelyn Hawkins on July 29, 1891 in Dallas, she had been a resident of Colorado City since 1950. She was married to Stanford Grigsby Helm in 1910 in Brownville. Mr. Helm died November 10, 1961.

She is survived by two daughters, Evelyn Gorham of Austin and Elizabeth Ann Wynne of Allentown, Pa.; three sons, Stanford Helm of Fort Worth, Bill Helm of Colorado City and Dave Helm of San Angelo; 31 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons served as pallbearers.

Johnson

Funeral services for Billie Jean Johnson, 56, of Colorado City, were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Kiker-Seale Chapel. Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home. Mrs. Johnson died Monday morning at her home following a sudden illness.

Born Billie Jean Wingo, May 22, 1929 in Mitchell County, she had lived most of her life in Colorado City. She had lived for a while in Kentucky. She married Homer Buddy Parham in 1947 in Colorado City. He died August 31, 1965. She then married James Clifford Johnson. He died in 1977 in Kentucky. She was also preceded in death by one son, Leroy.

She was a member of the Baptist church.

She is survived by two daughters, Donna Huff and Carla Johnson, both of Colorado City; four sons, Danny Parham, Lynn Parham, Ronnie Parham and Jimmy Parham, all of Colorado City; 18 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Pre-register at Wallace Center Community Education Office by February 14.

Attempted armed robbery charge filed

A 16-year-old Colorado City youth is charged with attempted armed robbery, aggravated robbery and burglary following an incident Friday night.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks said that the juvenile was arrested after a robbery attempt at the Do Drop-in convenience store and the burglary of the Coldspot restaurant, both on Concho Street.

Sparks said someone wearing a ski mask and brandishing a knife tried unsuccessfully to rob the Do Drop-in Friday at 9:50 p.m. by tapping on the drive-in window with the knife. Store employees called police and the suspect left on foot. Later the Coldspot was discovered to have been broken into and a small amount of change taken from the cash register.

Sparks said shoe prints taken from both businesses were found to match the suspect's. The youth has been turned over to juvenile authorities, said Sparks.
