6,457 CITY POPULATION

11,255 For Mitchell In Final Census Tab

Colorado City and Mitchell County edged upward slightly in the final U. S. Census figures, but the gain wasn't enough to yell about.

The final 1960 census report listed Colorado City with 6,457 persons.

This figure is up slightly from the preliminary report of 6,416 released during the summer. But it still is behind the 6,774 population reported for Colorado City in the Snyder oil boom year of 1950. Mitchell County's final official population was announced as 11,255—up almost a hundred from the earlier preliminary report of 11,167. The county has 14,357 credited to the Snyder.

Loraine's official population in the final report moved downward from the preliminary figure. The official count for Loraine was 837 persons—down from the 1950 Census count of 1,045. The preliminary report last summer listed 863 for Loraine.

Westbrook gained 4 persons in the final count—moving from the preliminary 210 to an official 251. This final figure is a loss of only 6 persons from Westbrook's 1950 census count of 220 persons.

Here are the final reports for counties adjacent to Mitchell:

Coke — 3,589 compared to 3,539 preliminary and 4,045 in 1950

Fisher — 7,865 compared to 7,833 preliminary and 11,023 in 1950

Howard — 40,139 compared to 39,778 preliminary and 26,722 in 1950

Nolan — 18,963 compared to 19,226 preliminary and 19,808 in 1950

Scurry — 20,369 compared to 20,151 preliminary and 22,779 in 1950

Sterling — 1,477 compared to 1,186 preliminary and 1,282 in 1950

Final reports of neighboring cities include:

Bronte — 999 (prelim of 994 and 1,020 in 1950); Coahoma — 1,239 (prelim of 1,219 and 802 in 1950); Robert Lee — 990 (prelim of 971 and 1,069 in 1950); Roby — 913 (prelim of 910 and 1,051 in 1950); Roscoe — 1,490 (prelim of 1,832 and 1,584 in 1950); Snyder — 13,850 (prelim of 13,736 and 12,010 in 1950); Sweetwater — 13,914 (prelim of 13,893 and 13,619 in 1950); Big Spring — 31,230 (prelim of 30,880 and 17,286 in 1950).

TB Seals Gifts Adding Color For Yule Tree

Christmas lights are being turned 'on' at the Yule tree on Courthouse lawn.

Citizens of the community are lighting the bulbs by remote control, so to speak.

The tree and lights are an annual project of Mitchell County Tuberculosis Association.

Every time a person or organization contributes $1 for TB Christmas Seals, another bulb is lighted on the tree.

Officials of the TB Association, headed by Dr. John Chinn, are hoping the tree will be loaded with lighted bulbs before Christmas shows up on the calendar. For the more funds there will be to buy out and light tubercuculosis and care for TB patients.

That's the purpose of the annual Christmas Seal sale sponsored here in Mitchell County and across the nation.

The seal sale furnishes the money for the ever-continuing medical and research fight against the crippling disease.

Goal for Mitchell County's Seals this December is $2,000. Eighty-two per cent of each dollar obtained from Christmas Seals remains in Mitchell County for TB case finding and rehabilitation, county-wide health education, and medical work. Twelve per cent goes to the State TB Association for research work which benefits all citizens. The remaining 6 per cent is channeled to national headquarters for key medical research and other nationwide programs.

Seals were mailed to homes throughout the county recently. Persons are urged to accept the seals by contributing to the TB Association, and use the seals for Christmas.

Additional project for association funds is through the sale of the little red TB bangles. Members of Colorado High's Wolverines, the school's pep organization, were downtown Saturday selling the bangles.

The TB Association reports the following persons and organizations have contributed $1 or more so far in the

DON IS UNANIMOUS CHOICE

Vest and Lemons Lead All-District Selections

By RICK TAYLOR
Sweetwater Reporter
SWEETWATER — Colorado City's hard-charging tail-back, Don Vest, was the only unanimous first team choice for all-district in District 3-AAA picked by the coaches and sportswriters of the district announced Saturday.

Named to the first team from Colorado City along with the 170-pound senior full-back was guard Bob Lemmons.

Sweetwater placed the most on the first team with four selections. They are end Buddy Aldredge, tackle Billy Belew and backs Joe Gerald and Ronnie Cox.

Snyder and Lake View each placed two while Lamesa had one named.

From Snyder were tackle Tom Minton and center Reg Scarbrough. Lake View had guard Basil Freeman and back Mike Sanders named along with Lamesa's end Tom Doyle.

The Sweetwater team also dominated the second team selection with a total of five team members named (two on from Sweetwater were tackle Floyd Woods, guard Jesse Alexander (tie), center Kenneth Weaver and backs Larry Durham (tie) and Charles Burnett.

Other second team selections were Snyder's Charles Gladson at end and David Wiman at guard; Lamesa's Graham Addison in the backfield; Lake View's Ronnie Cook at guard (tie); and Colorado City's Alex Campbell at end and Jerry McKay at back. 'Outside' Groups Speak Campaigning picked up Saturday in the Wet-Dry question which faces Colorado City in a local option election Saturday, Dec. 10.

But the spotlight was being focused by the Dry forces—not the Wets, who petitioned for the election in the first place.

And it appeared that campaigning would have to move at a much more rapid pace to match the maneuvering reported in recent local option campaigns in Sweetwater and Snyder.

Only 20 absentee ballots had been cast at noon Saturday in the Courthouse. About 10 more of the absentee ballots are in the mail and expected to be returned for counting in the election.

Two days are all that remain for casting of absentee. The deadline is Tuesday, Dec. 6.

The spotlight flashed on the local option question Saturday included 4 advertisements in the Colorado City Record.

One half-page ad was under the sponsorship of Mitchell County Moral & Civic League, which has organized with Olson Sweat as president, to oppose the move for off-premise sale of alcoholic beverages.

The League also sponsored 2 smaller ads, urging citizens to listen to Radio Station KVMC this week to hear dry announcements.

Another advertisement in this edition of the Record was sponsored by a group of citizens in Loraine.

The Moral and Civic League's larger ad listed the names of groups of citizens in Westbrook, Buford and Payne communities "petitioning" the voters of Colorado City "to vote Dry, that we might have a proper place in which to trade and raise our children."

A Loraine citizen's group, with Rev. H. M. Farrington and Rev. Merrell Abbott as spokesmen, in its advertisement stated that "...The Wets in calling an election for the legal sale of alcoholic beverages have deprived us of our right to vote by calling the election for the city (Colorado City) only."

"Therefore," the advertisement stated, "we petition you, the voters within the city limits, to vote 'Against' the legal sale of alcoholic beverages."

Seventh Grade Officers

Seventh Grade officers at Colorado Junior High are, from top to bottom, Karen Nuckolls, student council representative; Cecilia Correll, vice president; Mike Hillhouse, secretary and treasurer; Sharon Nuckolls, president; Larry Currie, student council representative.

Miss Patricia Raymer Becomes The Bride of Richard Compton

Miss Patricia Ellen Raymer of Coleman became the bride of Richard Lee Compton Saturday, Nov. 26, at the First Methodist Church of Coleman.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin E. Raymer of Coleman.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Compton of Dallas, formerly of Colorado City.

Rev. Lyman McAden, uncle of the bride, read the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with greenery and centered with an arrangement of gold and bronze chrysanthemums. White tapers burned in two pairs of candelabra on both sides of the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length formal bridal gown of silk taffeta accented with Swiss lace. The widely scooped neckline of scalloped lace was re-embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. The lace tapered to points completely around the bodice.

Her short French-length sleeves were of lace and banded with scallops. The full skirt fell to the floor from an elongated waistline, forming a chapel-length train in back. Her shoulder veil of mist illusion fell from a queen's tiara of seed pearl flowers and crown points. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and white feathered carnations atop a white lace covered Bible.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Charles W. Taylor, soloist from Abilene, accompanied by Mrs. John Warren, organist. Mrs. Taylor sang "The Pledge" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Maid of honor was Miss Betty Maberry of Hamlin. She wore a shirtwaist dress of antique gold peau de sole styled with a standing collar, three quarter length sleeves and a box pleated skirt. Her headpiece was a bandeau of gold peau de sole with silk illusion veil. She carried a tall gold taper designed with gold and bronze chrysanthemums and interspersed with gold pom-poms. She wore gold satin shoes.

Pamela Ann Thwing, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was identical to that of the maid of honor and she carried a smaller taper.

Serving the groom as best man was Paul Free of Colorado City. Ring bearer was Tom Moore and ushers were Doug James and Ronnie Giles, all of Abilene.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a beige wool suit with matching accessories and a white corsage.

The groom's mother wore a black silk sheath dress with matching accessories and a white corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was conducted in the home of the brides' parents.

The bride table was laid with a gold cloth and overlaid with white lace. Placed around a silver candelabrum was an arrangement of gold mums and carnations. The tri-tiered wedding cake and punch were served by Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Don James.

Guests were registered by Miss Bobby Thwing, Miss Maberry and Miss Ruth McAden were in the houseparty.

For a wedding trip to Ft. Worth, the bride wore a black wool suit with black hat, gloves and shoes. She wore the gladioli from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 2025 South 16th St. in Abilene.

The bride is a 1958 graduate of Coleman High School. She attended Southwestern University at Georgetown where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. She is now attending McMurry College in Abilene.

The groom is a 1958 graduate of Colorado High School and is a student at McMurry College. He is a member of I. H. R. Social Club and the Indian football team.

IT'S 1965 FOR THIS MAN IN

The Opportunity Frontier OF TEXAS

Our planning engineers are "men who live in the future." They maintain a constant watch over growth patterns in the opportunity frontier of TEXAS—population, retail sales, personal income, vehicle registration, construction, so they can plan effectively and anticipate power needs five and more years from now.

For example, the 240,000 kilowatt steam electric generating unit at our newest plant site near Graham, Texas, was planned in 1955 for operation in December, 1960. It is the eighteenth power generating unit built during the past twelve years at strategically located plants throughout our strong power system. These new units have increased by ten times the company's net generating capability.

Our well-planned power system assures metropolitan-type service throughout the area served by the company. When your firm relocates in this area—or when you open a new plant, warehouse or branch office in THE OPPORTUNITY FRONTIER—you will have a sure source of low-cost power.

Our Deep Development Department will gladly give you all the information in its specific needs.

WE'RE INVITING THEM TO GROW WITH THIS PROGRESSIVE AREA

American business and industry are constantly looking to the future... selecting the location of plants, warehouses and branch offices to keep manufacturing, distribution and marketing operations efficient amid changing patterns of population and resources.

The dynamic growth and rich resources of The Opportunity Frontier of Texas; much of which is served by Texas Electric Service Company, offer many advantages for growth and expansion.

Business and industry executives—the men who decide on plant, warehouse and office sites—will see the message reproduced at left in Business Week, Fortune and The Wall Street Journal.

We are making this investment in area progress to promote the growth of the area we serve—to attract new customers, added tax revenues, and greater job opportunities which will benefit everyone.

Miss Miller, Narrell Exchange Wedding Vows

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday, Nov. 3, at the First Methodist Church in Jacksboro, between Miss Marian Evelyn Miller and William L. Narrell. Reading the double ring the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A.

Narrell of Loraine. Vows were exchanged before a background of greenery with a candelabra, forming an arch with baskets of gladioli with kneeling beach.

The decollete neckline, outlined in leaf and flower design appliques, was studded with seed pearls. Lace gauntlets, tapering to points over the hands, complimented the short sleeves. The bouffant lace skirt terminated in an aisle-wide chapel train. Her circular illusion veil of white tulle fell from a can of sequins and beads with two pearl teardrops. She carried a white orchid atop a white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Pace of Dallas. She wore an emerald green dress of heavy luster satin designed with bell skirt, cap sleeves and scooped neck. She carried a nosegay of bronze pom-poms. Bridesmaids were Mrs. C. A. Young of Ft. Worth and Miss Sandra McDonald of Dallas. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor and carried smaller nosegays of bronze pom-poms.

Serving the groom as best man was Garland Narrell of Loraine, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Billy Williams, both of Irving. Ushers were Eddie Miller, brother of
