Prisoner Beaten

A jail prisoner doubles up in pain after being hit a hard blow in the stomach by the officer with the cigar in his mouth. San Antonio Express and News photographer Bill Goodspeed spotted the officers beating the prisoner and climbed on a table to shoot this picture, as city detective Dave Alsbury shook him in an attempt to thwart the picture taking. Goodspeed was yanked off the table and tossed out of the jailhouse. He later got back in on orders of Chief of Police George Bichsel. The prisoner was one of about 40 who had rioted earlier in the Bexar County Jail in protest against bad food and ill treatment.

Randall Judge Is Disbarred

TYLER (AP)—Dist. Judge Otis Dunagan ordered former Randall County Judge Roy Joe Stevens disbarred today.

Stevens, 37, was the central figure in an Amarillo hearing by the Texas House General Investigating Committee, where stories of connections between the underworld and Randall and Potter county officials were revealed.

Bank Officers Are Re-Elected

All directors and officers of the Security State Bank were re-elected, at annual meetings of stockholders and directors Wednesday afternoon.

The meetings, at the bank offices at 1411 Gregg, were routine in nature. Security State previously had announced a 10 per cent cash dividend.

Re-elected as directors are J. Gordon Bristow, G. W. Dabney, Ted O. Groehl, Robert Hinn of Plainview, Larson Lloyd, C. T. McLaughlin and J. Mark McLaughlin of Snyder, R. L. Tollett and V. A. Whittington.

Officers also continue: C. T. McLaughlin as chairman of the board; Dabney as president; Lloyd as executive vice president; Chester C. Cathey as cashier; and James Eubanks and Oneta McDaniel as assistant cashiers.

Banquet Tickets Still Available

Tickets are still available for the YMCA annual banquet, slated Tuesday in the Student Union Building of Howard County Junior College. All board members have tickets and they are also available at the YMCA.

Most of the charges brought by the bar concerned handling of government money and that of a client, and details of his trial in Wichita Falls on complaints that he sought to bribe a juror.

Stevens is scheduled to go on trial May 1 in Cleburne on charges of perjury and false swearing.

School Loses Money Box

A money box stolen from the Coahoma High School office on Jan. 6 was found in a road ditch near Sand Springs this morning, Sheriff Miller Harris reported. Burglars broke into the Coahoma school office on the night of Jan. 6. They stole $59 in cash, 24 rolls of photographic film and a small camera. The money box had been broken open, looted of the cash it contained and thrown into the roadside ditch. It was reported.

Laos Stages First Air Raid Of Civil War

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Laotian pilots flying hastily armed U.S.-made trainer planes, strafed and bombed pro-Communist rebel forces Wednesday and today in the first air raids of the Laotian civil war.

British, French and other European diplomats in the Laotian capital expressed grave concern the raids would trigger a retaliatory action by the Soviet Union or Communist China.

The Laotian pilots made their raid in four T-28 observation planes armed with rockets, machine guns and presumably with two 100-pound bombs each. The United States had delivered the planes to pro-Western Premier Boun Oum's forces Tuesday as part of the U.S. military support program for Laos.

Boun Oum's government had warned the Soviet government Monday that unless it halted its airlift of arms and ammunition to Capt. Kong Le's pro-Communist rebels in central Laos, it would take "appropriate steps."

"What are we—or the Laotians—supposed to do?" asked a top American official. "Let the Russians keep pouring their guns and ammunition in? And once the Communists are ready, is the Laotian government supposed to lie down and let the Communists walk over them?"

"Now that the first bomb has been dropped," a British diplomat commented, "no town or village in Laos will be safe from air attack."

U.S. Backing Laos Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Department officials said today the United States is backing the pro-Western government of Laos in its use of aircraft as well as ground weapons to defend itself against Soviet-supported rebels.

The possibility of Soviet or Red Chinese retaliation was foreseen here but the State Department insisted the operation being conducted by the government of Premier Boun Oum is strictly defensive. Officials also said that the Soviet Union had been warned in notes sent by the Laos government—and rejected by Moscow—that Laos would defend its frontiers. Soviet planes have airlifted supplies to the pro-Communist rebels.

The United States still hopes for a diplomatic solution of the crisis and welcomed evidence today that Soviet Premier Khrushchev may be thinking along that line also. Khrushchev said the Soviet Union "regards favorably" a proposal from Cambodia calling for an international conference.

But Notes Grave Problems Remain

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told Congress in a farewell State of the Union message today that America has forged ahead in foreign and economic policy in the last eight years, but still confronts grave problems.

The retiring Chief Executive cited the continuing Communist menace to Berlin, in Cuba, and elsewhere in the world. And he spoke of intermittent declines in economic activity at home which he said leave "little room for complacency."

"I do not close this message implying that all is well—that all problems are solved, for progress implies both new and continuing problems and, unlike presidential administrations, problems rarely have terminal dates," Eisenhower said.

"Abroad there is the continuing Communist threat to the freedom of Berlin, an explosive situation in Laos, the problems caused by Communist penetration in Cuba, as well as the many problems connected with the development of the new nations in Africa. These areas, in particular, call for delicate handling and constant review."

JOBS AT HOME

"At home several conspicuous problems remain—promoting higher levels of employment, with special emphasis on areas in which heavy unemployment has persisted; continuing to provide for steady economic growth and preserving a sound currency; bringing our balance of payments into more reasonable equilibrium and continuing a high level of confidence in our national and international systems; eliminating heavily excessive surpluses of a few farm commodities; and overcoming deficiencies in our health and educational programs."

But there were notes of confidence and hope in a message that looked both backward and forward. And there were good wishes for the man who will succeed Eisenhower eight days from now.

The present chief executive did not mention President-elect John F. Kennedy by name. But he said a new president shortly will say before Congress proposals for shaping the future of a great land, and: "To him, every citizen, whatever his political beliefs, prayerfully extends best wishes for good health and for wisdom and success in coping with the problems that confront our nation."

SENT TO CONGRESS

The message, in contrast with Eisenhower's usual practice of delivering it in person, merely was sent to Capitol Hill to be read to the Senate and House.

Eisenhower skipped one other personal presentation, in 1956, when he was recovering from a heart attack.

While Eisenhower had a brief offering of good will to Kennedy, he nevertheless held up the record of his own administration as one worthy of building upon.

And, in effect, he challenged some of Kennedy's campaign pronouncements and some of the findings of task forces which have been advising the President-elect.

Eisenhower said that, even the most optimistic prophets anticipated the production would run as high as ginning figures show.

Jimmy Taylor, county farm agent, who had insisted through out the season that production estimates by the Texas Employment Commission and other agencies were too low, made a gin-by-gin check this week on bales handled.

He said that the 40,750 bale total was the result. Ginnings told him there are still a few bales to be handled—possibly 100 to 150. The final total by the time the gins close down until next season will be very close to 41,000 bales, Taylor was told.

Average price per bale for cotton grown this year on Howard County fields was around $150. This means that the cotton crop has dumped better than $6,000,000 in the pockets of Howard County growers.

Cotton prices were a little lower this year than last season but the consistently higher quality of the staple produced in 1960 made the price per bale average as high as it was in 1959.

Taylor said that the cross-cotton production in 1960 was better than one-half bale per acre. There were 70,000 acres in cotton this past season. Production varied sharply. It ranged from as low as one-third to as much as a bale and quarter per acre on dry land farms, Taylor said.

Best cotton yield shown was in the Fairview community and in the area south of Webb Air Force base toward Elbow. It was in these areas where some fields turned out as much as a bale and a quarter per acre.

Lighter yields from fields were reported most consistently from the northeast section of the county.

The staple was exceptionally good. Some of the county cotton ran as high as 1-132 inch and there was a considerable amount where the staple was an inch.

Generally speaking it was the best cotton year since 1950. It was nearly 7,000 bales ahead of the 1959 crop—generally regarded as good. In 1959 the Howard County total was 34,289 bales.

Grave Robbery Suspect

Jerry Reynolds, 22, airman second class from Creighton, Mo., is held by Arkansas State Police Sgt. Floyd Weaver after his arrest in Jacksonville, Ark., in connection with two grave robberies near Jacksonville. Officers said Reynolds admitted the bizarre thefts, but offered no explanation.

One body was stolen. An attempt to take a second body failed. Weaver is driver and aide for Gov. Orval E. Faubus. State police and local authorities combined on the investigation leading to the arrest.

Best Cotton Crop In Decade

Howard County gins processed 40,750 bales of cotton in the 1960 season for one of the best cotton years in a decade.

The gins reported that the bulk of the cotton handled was Howard County grown—that the relatively small volume from other counties processed by Howard County gins was probably offset by the Howard County cotton which was ginned in adjacent counties.

The crop this past year turned out to be a pleasant surprise to most prognosticators. Early season estimates on production for the county were around 39,000. Later, this was increased, but not even the most optimistic prophets anticipated the production would run as high as ginning figures show.

Constable Gets Justice, Juvenile Posts In Lamesa

LAMESA (SC)—Constable Bill Hollingsworth was appointed justice of the peace and juvenile officer here Monday by the Dawson County commissioners to climax a week-long session on salaries for 1961. The court also authorized four pay raises and payment of library bonds during the meeting.

Hollingsworth's salary was set at $350 a month, $200 of which was established for the justice post in Place 2, Precinct 1.

The salary of the county probation officer, which was a dual role of Bill Brewer's along with the juvenile post, was set at $150 a month.

Small raises in salary and expenses were granted to two clerks, the cemetery caretaker and the county home demonstration agent. The commissioners rejected substantial pay increases for themselves and other officials. All pay hikes were proposed by Judge R. F. Spraberry.

The court authorized payment of $115,000 library bonds from sinking funds of the courthouse and jail, hospital, road and bridge.

Hollingsworth was elected county constable in the general balloting last year and assumed the office on Jan. 1. He automatically relinquishes the post when he takes the oath for the newly created place in Precinct 1, Arthur Stauder currently holds the Place 1 Justice slot.

before university officials and Vandiver acted.

VICTIMS SHAKEN The young Negroes, visibly shaken, reached their homes in a patrol car in the predawn hours. Both declined comment.

Joseph Williams, university dean of students, announced their suspension "in the interest of their personal safety and in the interest of the safety and welfare of the more than 7,000 students at the university."

"They will be withdrawn until such time as the members of my staff and I determine that it is safe and practical for them to return to school," Williams said.

Donald L. Hollowell and other counsel for the students, were to present the suspension order to U.S. Dist. Judge W. A. Boodle with a request that it be voided.

Chief of Police E. E. Hardy called Wednesday night's outburst "organized rowdism, led by strangers from out of the city." It followed shortly after further tension created by Georgia Tech's 89-80 overtime basketball victory over the university team in a disputed decision.

He said outside agitators capitalized on student tenseness built up by the basketball game. Older persons were observed in the crowd, shouting "Come on, let's get them."

The demonstrators threw rocks at the dormitory windows, threw firecrackers starting fires in nearby fields and woods, chanted segregation slogans and yelled "Nigger, go home." Holmes was not a direct target. He lives off the campus.

Police unloosed tear gas bombs at the crowd and firemen hosed down the fires. Some police, firemen and bystanders were hit by flying rocks. One girl was injured slightly.

During the disorder a group of cars pulled up at the scene and occupants distributed copies of a Ku Klux Klan newspaper, the Rebel.

FORCE ALL OUT All 36 members of the police force at Athens, a town of about 20,000, were used in quelling the riot.

The governor also admonished all citizens of the state against any acts of violence and warned all persons to disperse and return to their homes.

Doesn't Mind Age

Dorothy Stickney feels that mulling over your age brings on old age needlessly. "It's not when you're born that is important," she says.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Actress Has Ways Of Beating Age

BY LYDIA LANE

HOLLYWOOD — When I went backstage at the Huntington Hartford Theater in Hollywood to see Dorothy Stickney after "A Lovely Light" matinee, she had a kettle of water boiling on her portable stove.

"Will you have a cup of tea?" she asked. "I always travel with my stove. I pack it with my make-up and other necessities, because nothing refreshes me as a good cup of hot tea."

"I find it is a good pick-up, too," I agreed.

"I need something to help me relax," she went on. "I have a bad habit of doing everything too fast, even when there is no necessity for it. I have to force myself to slow down, such as when I'm sitting in the back of a taxi and mentally telling the driver to go faster, or when I'm ahead of time for a train and wishing it would hurry and arrive."

Rep. James Turman of Gober, Fannin County, holds his son, James Arthur, 3, as he and Mrs. Turman are introduced to members of the Texas House of Representatives at Austin, after he was elected Speaker of the House of the 57th Texas Legislature.

Kennedy Fills 4 Top Interior Posts

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President-elect John F. Kennedy today filled four top positions in the Interior Department. He also announced that the Eisenhower administration's reclamation bureau chief will remain.

The reclamation commissioner is Floyd E. Dominy, 60. A political independent and a veteran in the bureau, he was named director by President Eisenhower last year.

The President-elect also announced selection of James K. Carr, 46, chairman of the California Water Commission, as undersecretary of the interior.

Kennedy announced the selections—all Democrats—after consultation with Rep. Stewart Udall, D-Ariz., who will be secretary of the interior in the new administration.

Kennedy, getting in a final visit at the Atlantic shore home of his parents before taking office Jan. 20, had only one scheduled business engagement today—a morning conference with Gov. Terry Sanford of North Carolina.

The President-elect plans further work on his inaugural address and another round of golf. He played Wednesday with two executives to the Miami News—

Maj. Gen. Harold R. Maddux has been named vice-commander of the Continental Air Command. The announcement was made in Washington.

A significant part of Gen. Maddux's early military training was spent in Texas where he attended flying school at Randolph and Kelly Fields, near San Antonio. Gen. Maddux is originator of the new plan for utilization of Air Reserve Forces, a revolutionary idea which takes reservists out of the classroom and puts them on the job.

Presently commander of the Fifth AF Reserve Region with headquarters at Selfridge AFB, Mich., Gen. Maddux will assume his new duties on Feb. 1 at Robins AFB, Ga.

The general will be responsible for putting the plan for Reserve Forces into effect. To carry out this plan, two new types of organizations were established. They are known as support and recovery units.

Recovery units will be organized at civilian air fields to provide support for returning SAC bombers whose home bases have been destroyed by the initial enemy attack.

It will be the job of support units to assist other active duty bases in their post-attack recovery. Air Force Reserve units, and their commanders, located in Texas are included.

Lt. Col. D. F. Sudduth, 9172d Air Reserve Gp., Lubbock; Lt. Col. J. L. Kethley, 9615th Air Reserve Sq., Abilene; Lt. Col. M. B. Arick, 9816th Air Reserve Sq., Midland.

A former master sergeant of the Ohio National Guard, Gen. Maddux graduated from the U. S. Military Academy (West Point) in 1933. He was commissioned a second lieutenant of infantry and received his pilot training at Randolph and Kelly Fields in Texas.

Physician Dies PILOT MOUNTAIN, N.C. (AP)—Dr. James Meigs Flippin, 97, North Carolina's oldest physician, died Wednesday.

TV Stars Set For Lamesa Show LAMESA (SC) — Three stars of the hour - long television spectacular "Bonanza" will appear briefly here, Saturday in connection with the Dawson County March of Dimes campaign.

In addition to O'Donnell's Dan "Hoss Cartwright" Blocker, Lorne Green and Pernel Roberts, who portray Ben and Adam Cartwright in the western series, have agreed to participate.

The three performers will appear in Andrews early Saturday and will fly to Lamesa for a 30-minute show in the high school gymnasium. From here they go to Midland to star in a television there.

Admission to the show will be contributions to the MOD campaign.

NRA Official To Visit Webb

Helen Dauncey, staff representative of the National Recreation Association, will make a two-day orientation visit to Webb AFB Jan. 30-31 to review, evaluate and stimulate interest in the Dependents Youth Activities Program.

She will also be available to advise Big Spring and area schools, churches, private youth serving agencies, P-TA and civic groups during this period. Local groups seeking the services of Miss Dauncey may contact Glen Barnes, director of youth activities, or the base personnel services office.

During her stay at the base Miss Dauncey will be available to advise Webbs scouts, wives clubs, library, kindergarten, Red Cross, chaplains' office, service club and dependent assistance groups.

To be included in the program, base groups should contact Barnes or the Personnel Service office by Jan. 24.

Miss Dauncey is currently touring 20 Air Training Command and SAC bases in the Southwest over a three-month period.

200 Animals Set For Show

The Mitchell County 4-H and FFA Livestock Show will be held Friday and Saturday in the new Mitchell County Livestock barns, west of Colorado City, according to James Trammell, Vocational Agriculture teacher.

The annual event is being dedicated to the Commissioner's Court and $2,500 in prize money will be awarded the winners in each division by the United Fund.

Trammell estimates about 120 hogs, 50 sheep and 20 steers have been entered in the contest. Judging for the hog division will begin at 2 p. m. Friday; sheep division at 9:30 a. m. Saturday and steer division, Saturday at 2 p. m.

John Russell has been named president of the show and L. M. Hargrave, member of the VA Education Department at Texas Tech, will judge the animals in each division.

Safe Burglar Is In California

Billy Joe Wade, sought since Nov. 13 for the safe burglary at Pinkie's Liquor Store on the Snyder Highway, is in custody at Salinas, Calif.

Sheriff Miller Harris has been notified that California officials have arrested Wade on a traffic charge and are holding him for Howard County.

Harris said steps will be taken at once to remove the prisoner from California to Big Spring.

James Morris Knight, charged in the safe burglary with Wade, was arrested a short time after the crime. He has been released from custody on bail.

Wade fled the scene and had not been heard from until California officials picked him up for traffic violation.

Pinkie's Liquor Store safe was hauled away from the building, looked of a sizeable amount of cash and abandoned under a viaduct in Borden County on the night of Nov. 13.

Cubbing Workers Set Roundtable

DEAR ABBY

TAKE MOM'S ADVICE

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am confused about one thing although I am 16 and have been dating quite a while. When your date comes to pick you up, aren't you supposed to be ready?

I always am and my mother says that is correct. My girlfriends say if you make your date wait a while (say about 15 or 20 minutes) it will show him you aren't overanxious and he will appreciate you more. I'd like your opinion.

ON TIME: Your mother is right. I once knew a young lady who made a habit of keeping her date waiting in the parlor because she wanted him to "appreciate her more." He learned to "appreciate" the company of her younger sister so much that he asked her out and eventually married her.

DEAR ABBY: My wife came home the other day with a purchase that provoked an argument. She bought several pairs of men's briefs with an elastic panel in front that looks something like a lady's panty girdle. When I protested she said, "Don't be silly, if it's all right for women to hold themselves in that way, why shouldn't men? Most men get pear-shaped after 40 anyway."

PAUNCHY: I'm on the side that holds 'em in front.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is so embarrassing I can't talk to anyone about it, so I'm writing you. My husband is 47 and for the past year he has been hoarding the most objectionable pictures of half-dressed and naked women. He carries a billfold full of them and I've found several bunches hidden under the mattress and in his workshop. He promised he'd quit it, but he continues. Now I found he has been trying on my undergarments, I think there is something wrong with his mind. Should I call a doctor? Or will the condition cure itself in time? I am afraid to live with him.

MOTHER OF SIX: DEAR ABBY: Your husband is sick. Ask your family physician and arrange for the treatment your husband needs. This condition is not uncommon and it doesn't "cure" itself.

DEAR ABBY: This might help the little lady who signed herself "TROUBLED CONSCIENCE." Six years ago I was troubled because I found out my husband was lying to cover up for his buddy. But this didn't bother me half as much as when I found out his buddy was lying to cover up for him.

Dies Not Shaken By Wilson Report

LUFKIN (AP) — Former U.S. Rep. Martin Dies said Wednesday the possibility Atty. Gen. Will Wilson may be one of his rivals won't affect his decision on whether to run for U.S. senator.

"The more the merrier," said Dies in referring to recurring reports that Wilson will enter the race.

Dies, who formerly was a congressman-at-large from Texas, promised to disclose Jan. 18 whether he will get into the contest for the Senate post left by Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson.

Ten others already have announced as candidates in the special Senate election, including Sen. William A. Blakley, serving by appointment until voters choose Johnson's successor.

Wright Picks Middle Of Road In Campaign For Senate Seat

FORT WORTH (AP)—Rep. Jim Wright said Wednesday in a statewide television speech he will pursue a "middle-of-the-road" course in his campaign for the U.S. Senate seat vacated by Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson.

He said he will avoid both liberal and conservative tags, and run as an independent-thinking moderate Democrat with a strong appeal for unity.

"I insist on being a senator for all the people, or no senator at all," he said.

The 38-year-old legislator, who has three times been re-elected Tarrant County congressman without opposition, stressed the need for "a broad gauge outlook," criticizing candidates who "attempt to pit group against group, race against race, or religion against religion."

"I want to help carry out a program that would unite reasonable, responsible people," he said. Stressing the importance of the Senate position, Wright called it "far too important an office to be given on the basis of a political pawn and payment of a political debt, far too important an office to be sought simply on a whim of opportunistic nature."

Referring to the critical decisions that must be made by the Senate body today, Wright said experience is needed on the national legislative scene. A veteran of six years experience in the House of Representatives, he said that he never would have "dreamed of thinking of seeking the high position without such vital experience."

Wright will take his campaign to Kingsville and Alice today and to Corpus Christi and Colorado City Thursday. He plans to visit Beaumont and Waco Saturday, and return to Washington Tuesday for inauguration ceremonies later in the week.

Gable Widow Gets $5,000 Monthly

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Clark Gable's widow has a $5,000 monthly allowance from the actor's estate to meet family expenses.

approved in Superior Court Wednesday. Her request stated that Gable's assets exceed $1 million.

Gable died at 59 last Nov. 16. His will bequeathed the estate to the widow, except for a North Hollywood home left to Josephine Dillon, 75, the first of Gable's five wives.

Cuba Keeps Up Call For Workers

HAVANA (AP)—With Cuban sugar production lagging because of bad weather and the call-up of the island's best workers for militia duty, Fidel Castro's press and radio today kept up appeals for volunteers to help harvest the cane crop.

The National Federation of Sugar Workers, many of whose half million members are mobilized against the invasion Castro charges is coming from the United States, urged all available Cubans to volunteer, including retired workers and children.

A group of government textile mills announced it has recruited "patriotic brigades of volunteer workers" to help maintain the output of cloth.

In the 13 days since Castro mobilized workers from farms and factories to serve as citizen soldiers, there has been a slump in sugar and industrial production.

This is the first sugar season completely under government control and less than 35 of Cuba's 161 sugar mills have started grinding cane, industry sources reported. Normally Cuba's sugar harvest—mainstay of the island economy—begins early in January.

The general military mobilization is a major factor in the lag, but experts said heavy rains also have resulted in cane with a sugar content as low as 7 per cent in fields that usually have a much higher yield. If cutting is delayed, the sugar content may increase.

Despite the labor shortage in the fields and the mills, Castro still was occupied chiefly with his defense preparations. The newspaper Revolution published photographs of the prime minister directing target practice with new 85mm antitank guns from Communist Czechoslovakia.

Havana buzzed with speculation that Soviet Premier Khrushchev may be planning a visit. The speculation was touched off by announcement that the Soviet Foreign Ministry news chief Mikhail Khramov, is in Cuba. His appearance in a foreign city usually precedes Khrushchev's arrival.

Cuban Immigration Director Osorio Davila announced that Americans entering Cuba henceforth must have either a Cuban visa issued by the Czech Embassy in Washington or a special invitation from the Cuban Foreign Ministry. Czechoslovakia is representing the Cuban government in Washington because of the break in diplomatic relations with the United States.

Murder Trial Nears Jury Stage

HONDO, Tex. (AP)—The case of Paul Franklin Cole Jr., charged with murder in the slaying of E. L. Gilliam, neared the jury stage.

Cole, 24, a ranch hand, is charged with shooting Gilliam July 29 at the ranch home near Castroville of A. L. Gilliam, brother of the victim.

Cole, despite protests by his lawyers, took the stand Wednesday and told of incidents leading up to the slaying. For more than three and a half hours he related incidents of his life from early childhood to his experiences in mental institutions.

Cole said his father had killed his mother when he was only two. The elder Cole testified that he and his wife were divorced when the defendant was four years old and that the mother died seven years ago.

The state earlier concluded its case by entering into evidence a statement in which Cole admitted shooting Gilliam, 54.

Jackie Prepares White House Role

By FRANCES LEWINE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy is getting ready for her White House role with two secretaries and a public relations aide.

But, she's going to get into it slowly, giving herself plenty of time to recover from the Caesarean birth Nov. 25 of her second child, John F. Kennedy Jr.

The word came from her Palm Beach resort resting place Wednesday that Mrs. Kennedy plans to take part only in the main festivities of her husband's inauguration.

That includes just about everything she'd been expected to attend except a pre-inaugural reception Jan. 18 for distinguished ladies. About 4,500 guests are expected for the reception in the National Gallery of Art.

But, the announcement serves notice that Mrs. Kennedy won't be at any of numerous unofficial celebrations Washington big-wigs are planning.

The future First Lady, 31, has been engaged in a quiet planning operation. Shortly after Jan. 1, she called in her former part-time secretary, Mrs. Raymond Gallagher, a mother of two who lives in nearby Alexandria, Va.

At Palm Beach, the two have been working on correspondence and other chores.

Meanwhile, in Washington, Mrs. Kennedy's social secretary, former schoolgirl friend Letitia Budge, went to work in preparation for the White House moving day.

The latest addition to Mrs. Kennedy's personal entourage is Pamela Turnure, 23, who will help with public relations. A former secretary in Kennedy's Senate office, she has been added to the White House staff of News Secretary Pierre Salinger.

Mrs. Kennedy thus will have as her aides three women who have been close to the Kennedy official family long before the presidential election.

Miss Turnure's appointment came as something of a surprise, since she does not have a news or public relations background. She is expected to work closely under the direction of Salinger.

Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower had no similar aide. Her press relations were handled either by her social secretary, Mary Jane McCaffree, or by presidential news Secretary James C. Hagerty.

The youngest of the trio of Mrs. Kennedy's staff, Miss Turnure worked in the Belgian embassy here before she joined the Kennedy staff in 1957.

Social secretary "Tish" Budge, daughter of a former Republican congressman, has lots of diplomatic training. She worked for Clare Boothe Luce when she was ambassador to Rome, and also learned the ropes in international society from Mrs. David Bruce, wife of the former ambassador to France.

Mrs. Gallagher, wife of an insurance agent, has been working for Mrs. Kennedy on a part-time basis for the past four years. It took her as though her chores may run into fulltime now. She says she's come to feel like a member of the family and considers Mrs. Kennedy the "ideal boss."

The wife of the vice president-elect, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, is getting ready for her new role, too. She's selected one of her close younger friends, Bess Clements Abell, wife of a Washington lawyer, to be her personal secretary. Mrs. Abell is the daughter of former Kentucky Sen. Earle Clements.

Cloudy Skies Dump Rain

By The Associated Press
Cloudy skies dumped rain over much of Central and Eastern Texas early Thursday and the U.S. Weather Bureau predicted the rains to spread through virtually all of the southern portion of the state.

Skies cleared in the northwestern and western sections southeastward through the Rio Grande Valley in the wake of snowfall that dropped up to five inches near Lubbock.

Elsewhere across the state Thursday skies generally were cloudy.

Temperatures near dawn skidded into the 20s at Wink and on up into the Texas Panhandle.

The Lubbock area of the South Plains Wednesday had snow and most other areas had overcast skies and light rain.

Wilson, a small town 15 miles southeast of Lubbock, recorded five inches of snow which forced closing of the schools. Rising temperatures during the afternoon and evening melted most of the snow that lay on the ground.

Up to three inches was reported at Tahoka, Post and other points. The snow extended southward to the Lamesa and Big Spring areas.

Late Wednesday night rain was reported at Abilene, Brownsville, College Station, Fort Worth, Dallas, Galveston, Houston, Palacios, Tyler and Sherman.

Rainfall, however, generally was light for the 24 hour period ending at 6 p.m. Wednesday. Corpus Christi had .98 inch, Brownsville .83, Victoria .56 and other points had lesser amounts.

Christ The Soul-Winner

Read John, ch. 4
Although weary and tired, our Lord found joy in winning the soul of the woman of Samaria. He called this work, "my meat." He reminded the disciples that the fields were white to harvest; that both those who sow and those who reap will rejoice together.

Verses 34-37.

The seed that is sown is the Word of God (Lk. 8:11). The Word cannot be compromised; and Jesus did not compromise with the Samaritan woman.

Love for lost souls should not cause us to "soft peddle" the truth. Love "rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth." I Cor. 13:6.

When the word of truth offers the promise, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved" (Mk. 16:16), we dare not promise salvation on anything less. We would not be your friends if we did.

Welcome to our mid-week service tonight, 7:30. Sermon, "Noah's Ark." Question period follows.

—Adv.

Pastor Denies Answer Was Anti-Catholic

ABILENE (AP)—An Abilene Baptist minister said Wednesday he was one of the 3,000 ministers who answer Dr. W. A. Criswell's call at Fort Worth "to carry back evangelism to our churches"—and not in answer to the Dallas pastor's anti-Catholic stand.

The Rev. J. Lindell Ferguson, pastor of the Belmont Baptist Church, said that news reports of the Fort Worth meeting Tuesday gave an erroneous impression that the 3,000 ministers crowded to the front of the coliseum in response to Dr. Criswell's "Would every minister of the gospel of Christ who is unafraid come down to the front?" immediately after the latter's scathing denunciation of Catholics.

"The first part of Dr. Criswell's speech was on the subject of Catholics, while the second part dealt with the evangelistic campaign in Texas churches during the coming year. It was at the conclusion of the second part that he asked the ministers to come forward," the Abilene pastor said.

The Rev. Mr. Ferguson said the massing of the 3,000 ministers "does not mean the ministers of Texas agree with the first portion or that we stand with him in his beliefs on other religions."

The Abilene minister told newsmen he considered Dr. Criswell's remarks on Catholics "out of place" at the Fort Worth meeting. He said that Dr. Criswell announced that he had been assigned the subject of evangelism but that he was going to speak on a subject of his own choosing.

Dr. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dallas, one of the largest in the nation, previously has attracted national attention for his anti-Catholic, anti-integration, and anti-evolution opinions.

Cotton Rail Rates Studied

AUSTIN (AP)—Applications for proposed changes in rail charges for hauling Texas cotton were heard by the Railroad Commission Wednesday.

One rail carrier application seeks reduction in the rate from South Plains cities to Galveston, Houston and Texas City. In another proposal, the rail lines ask for a uniform reduced transit charge of 15 cents per bale.

The petitioners said, "The rail carriers have for some time been faced with severe exempt motor carrier competition on this traffic from the South Plains area to Galveston, Houston and Texas City and after thorough investigation, have concluded that the rates sought were necessary for them to continue to participate in this traffic."

The rail carriers said they would be on a competitive level with truck companies if the proposed 3/4 to 1 1/2 cent cuts were in effect.

Cotton shippers, in a second application, said they favor a standard transit rate. The rail lines said there has been no uniformity in the transit charges in the Southwest and cotton merchants "were unable to include the transit charge in either of their buying or selling prices."

Oil Company Files Refund Suit

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Suit for a $285,870 refund has been filed in federal court against W. E. Bakke, San Antonio oil producer, by Cities Service Gas Co. of Oklahoma City. The company claims it is due the money under a 1958 U.S. Supreme Court order which voided a minimum price of 11 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas fixed by the Kansas Corporation Commission.

Wind Grandfather's Clock

Mrs. Ken Perry, Martha, at right, and Kathy prepare to wind their grandfather's clock, except it didn't really ever belong to their grandfather. It was bought by the Perrys while they were living in Stuttgart, Germany, while he was serving in the Army. When the clock was bought, its chimes wouldn't chime, but were soon fixed by the owners. It now chimes on every hour and at the half hour.

Floating Island Perfect Dessert

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

It's sometimes superfluous to end a meal with fruit. That's exactly the moment to offer one of France's loveliest creme desserts, cup or a beverage as a first if you plan to serve fruit in a main dish (maybe ham with course, as an accompaniment to pineapple or chicken curry with bananas), or in a fruit salad (perhaps orange with watercress or good old Waldorf), this divine coffee-flavored custard with its puff of meringue is a perfect choice. It's one of those beautiful-to-look-at-and-taste offerings, often served in famous restaurants, that can be easily prepared in your own kitchen.

The restaurant version we've enjoyed is called Oeufs a la Neige ("Eggs in the Snow") and it is made with a satin-smooth vanilla custard sauce and little mounds of steamed meringue. Prepared at home, we find the version called Le Flottante (Floating Island) reassuring because you can forget about the meringue while it's steaming in the oven instead of worrying about how it is getting along as you watch it on the range-top.

Our custard sauce, with its robust coffee flavor instead of vanilla, is a little thicker in consistency than the classic French one because we use a goodly proportion of egg yolk and whole eggs to the amount of milk called for. Our tasters say this is all to the good.

COFFEE FLOATING ISLAND
3 cups milk
4 egg yolks
2 eggs
1.5 cup sugar
1/4 tsp. vanilla
4 tps instant coffee
Soft molded meringue.

Scald milk by heating it in the top of a double boiler over direct heat until bubbles begin to appear around the edge.

In a medium-sized mixing bowl with a whisk, blend the egg yolks, whole eggs, sugar and vanilla; beat as little as possible so eggs won't be foamy.

Stir a little of the scalded milk into the coffee to dissolve; stir vigorously into egg mixture. Now stir into remaining scalded milk in top of double boiler. Cook and stir constantly over simmering (not boiling) water until thick enough to coat a silver spoon—about 20 minutes; do not have water in bottom part of double boiler high enough to touch top.

Place over ice water, stirring often, to cool. Turn into serving dish. With a wide spatula lift soft molded meringue and float on top of custard. Refrigerate until serving time. Makes 6 servings.

SOFT MERINGUE

4 egg whites
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. vanilla
Butter a 1 1/2-quart metal mold; sprinkle with a little sugar; shake out excess sugar. Beat egg whites and salt until foamy; beat until stiff. Beat in 1/2 cup sugar a tablespoon at a time; add vanilla; continue to beat until very stiff and glossy. Turn into prepared mold. Place in pan of hot water (1 1/2 to 2 inches deep); bake in slow (275 degrees) oven 25 minutes or until firm when touched and tinged with tan.
Remove pan from water; place on wire rack to cool; loosen edges with a spatula; turn out on a plate—the sugar coating that runs down is not used in the dessert.

Eighteenth Century Rules Still Apply

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Our 18th Century ladies were skillful pirates.

The first cook books published in America were English ones. Our early housewives appropriated some of their best recipes and made them their own.

Those rules were so good that they've been passed along ever since.

Poundcake is one of these goodies. The recipes we use today are much like those that were in favor with Martha Washington and her friends.

But some differences there are, because flour and sugar have changed—to say nothing about cooking equipment. Modern cooks have evolved poundcake recipes that take these changes into consideration. In the following rule a little milk is added because it helps to make a light-textured poundcake in keeping with present day tastes.

One hint from old cook books should always be heeded: mix the cake batter well. If heaven forbid, your pound cake should be streaky, the chances are that it has been underbeaten.

NEW-FASHIONED POUNDCAKE

2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup (2 sticks) butter
1 1/3 cups sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 tsp. mace
4 large eggs
1/2 cup milk

Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream butter, sugar, vanilla and mace. Add eggs one at a time, beating 1 minute after each addition with electric mixer at medium speed (150 strokes by hand). Stir in dry ingredients, one-half at a time, alternately with milk. Beat 2 minutes with electric mixer at medium speed. Turn into buttered and floured loaf pan (about 9 by 3 by 3 inches). Bake in slow (325 degrees) oven 60 to 70 minutes. Cool cake in pan set on wire rack for 10 minutes. Turn out on wire rack to cool completely.

Note: If sturdy but small portable electric mixer is used, beat eggs at least 2 minutes after each addition.

Frosting: Beat together until smooth 3/4 cup confectioners sugar, 2 tablespoons milk, 1 teaspoon light corn syrup, 1 teaspoon soft butter and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla. Spread over top of cake allowing icing to drizzle down sides.

Use Brown

Use brown sugar, rather than white, when you are broiling grapefruit halves if you want a pleasant change of flavor.

Take Longer

When you are broiling ground lamb patties, you'll find they'll take longer than those made of ground beef.

Music, Bridge Enjoyed By Ken Perry Family

Listening to music and playing bridge are the main hobbies of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Perry, 2103 Alabama. The couple, who are members of the St. Paul Presbyterian Church are the leaders of the Pioneer, junior high school age, Youth Fellowship at the church.

Mrs. Perry is a member of the 1953 Hysterion Club and evening and afternoon bridge clubs. The Perrys are also members of the Cotillion Dance Club.

Other members of the Perry household are six-year-old Martha and three-and-a-half-year-old Kathy. Martha is a kindergartener and she and her sister are dancing students.

Mrs. Perry's hometown is Monahan and her husband hails from Odessa, but the pair didn't meet until they were both attending the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Okla. He is an engineering major from that college and is now employed in the chemical sales department at Cosden.

The Perrys have been residents of Big Spring for three and a half years, moving here shortly after his discharge from the Army.

Four of the Perrys' favorite recipes are for a date nut cake, green beans and almonds, Roquefort dressing and squash cooked in cheese sauce. Try them.

DATE NUT CAKE

1/2 lb. butter
2 cups sugar
6 eggs
1 lb. dates
1 lb. pecans
4 cups flour
1 tsp. vanilla
Cut dates in pieces, chop nuts; set aside. Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each is added.

Sift flour and use part to dredge nuts and pecans. Add remaining sifted flour and vanilla to egg and sugar mixture. Add nuts and pecans.

Bake in greased floured and papered tube pan at 300 degrees for about two hours.

GREEN BEANS AND ALMONDS

2 cans French style green beans
2 cans mushrooms
1 can sliced almonds
1 lb. cream cheese-grated
1 cup milk made into medium white sauce
Boil beans 30 minutes with 2

garlic pods. Drain. Place layers of beans, mushrooms, almonds, white sauce and cheese in baking dish, then repeat.
Sprinkle 1 cup bread crumbs over this and also Parmesan cheese.
Bake for about 30 minutes at 350 degrees.

ROQUEFORT DRESSING

1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 lb. Roquefort mashed with 3 tps. cream
1/4 cup wine vinegar
6 tps. oil
1 tsp. dry mustard
Salt and pepper to taste
Mix well in blender or with mixer. Shake well before using.

SQUASH IN CHEESE SAUCE

3 lbs. squash
1 large onion
Boil in salted water until tender. Drain well.

Make a sauce of:
2 tps. cornstarch
4 tps. butter
1/2 pt. cream
1/2 lb. grated cheese
Place squash in baking dish, add sauce. Saute cracker crumbs and place on top. Brown in oven.

Hot Tips On Cold Soups For A New Crop Of USA Converts

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Cold soups are making their way around the country slowly but surely. Comparatively new to the American scene, they are gaining converts.

The first edition (1896) of Fanny Farmer's "Boston Cooking-School Cook Book" contains many cold-soup recipes. Well over 30 years later, the first edition of our greatest modern cook book, "The Joy of Cooking," gave a recipe for jellied soup. But it did not take the astute Mrs. Rombauer, author of "The Joy, Long to present this summertime boon. In the second edition (1936) there were more cold-soup recipes—but still jellied. The newest and remarkably complete edition of "The Joy of Cooking," co-authored by Marion Rombauer Becker, has a whole section of delightful cold-soup recipes. As you would expect, the greatest of these soups—

Vichyssoise, Gazpacho, Avocado, Spinach, Tomato, and Cucumber—are all there.

The West Coast and the eastern and southern states probably lead in serving cold soup. In some of the recent regional cook books you'll find excellent recipes for this delicacy. "Cooking with the Groundhog," a delightful compilation by the Adrian Hospital Auxiliary of Punksutawney, Pa., devotes a section to it. The older and classic regional, "Charleston Receipts," collected by the Junior League of Charleston, S. C., also has some unusually fine cold soup recipes.

But even modern cold-soup recipes change. Some of us are inclined to take shortcuts, on occasion, and use condensed frozen potato soup as a base for various cold soups. That's what we've done in the following Cucumber Soup, which may be prepared in record time. If you chill it in the coldest compartment of your refrigerator you can also serve it with speed.

QUICK COLD CUCUMBER SOUP

1 can (10 1/4 oz.) frozen condensed cream of potato soup
Milk
1 chicken bouillon cube
1 1/3 cups (one 8-inch) finely chopped cucumber
1 cup light cream
1/2 cup minced cucumber
Turn potato soup just as it comes from the can into a 1-quart saucepan. Fill the soup can with milk and add with the bouillon cube and 1 1/3 cups cucumber. Heat slowly, stirring occasionally, until very hot and cucumber is partly cooked—at least 10 minutes. Put through food mill; cover and chill. Shortly before serving stir in the cream and 1/2 cup minced cucumber. Makes about 1 quart—4 to 6 servings.
Note: The texture of this soup is best if served as soon as it is chilled.

Small Pies Are Big Hits

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

A professional baker had an alluring idea this season. She sent batches of miniature pecan pies all over the country to be sold in specialty food shops.

One taste of these and we were sure home cooks would like to make them because they are a natural for storing in the freezer.

Then friends offered a delightful suggestion: why not vary the pecan filling? So in the following recipe you'll find the nuts teamed with chocolate, pineapple and candied fruit—and each filling delectable.

The miniature pies may be baked in everyday small muffin pans.

"But how do you cut pastry to fit them?" we have heard home cooks ask.

It's a matter of measurement. First invert the muffin pan. With a piece of string measure one of the cups, up one side, across the bottom and down the other side. Now snip off or measure this length of cord; choose a round cookie cutter whose diameter is the same length as the cord. The cutter will make rounds of dough that just fit the cups.

After rolling and cutting the pastry all you do is press the rounds into the cups, patting over the edges in a few places, and taking care not to stretch the dough.

Some southerners insist that pecan pie should be served with a drift of whipped cream. The cream topping won't hurt these miniature pies, but because they are not so devastatingly sweet as the big pies, it's not absolutely necessary.

MINIATURE PECAN PIES

Rich pastry (made with 2 cups flour)

2 eggs
2-3 cup dark corn syrup
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. vanilla
2-3 cup finely chopped pecans

Roll out pastry; cut into 24 rounds with 4-inch cookie cutter; fit into 24 small (each 2 inches by 1 inch) muffin-pan cups.

Beat eggs enough to blend yolks and whites; add corn syrup, sugar, salt and vanilla; beat gently to combine. Stir in pecans.

Spoon into pastry cups allowing about 1 tablespoon filling for each. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven 25 to 30 minutes. Remove from pans and cool on rack.

Variations: Make enough pastry to fit 32 of the 2 by 1 inch muffin-pan cups. The basic pecan filling may be varied the following ways.

Chocolate Pecan: Add and stir in 1-3 cup fortified chocolate-flavored syrup to pecan filling.

Pineapple Pecan: Place a scant teaspoon drained crushed pineapple in each pastry-lined cup; add 2 teaspoons pecan filling.

Fruit Pecan: Place a scant teaspoon chopped candied fruit in each pastry-lined cup; add 2 teaspoons pecan filling.

Storage: Any of the miniature pecan pie varieties may be wrapped suitably for freezing and

Vegetable Fats, Oils

There is an abundance of cooking and salad oils and shortening for all those special Christmas goodies this year.

These items, so essential to texture-perfect food preparations, go under the family name of "fats and oils." They may be of either vegetable or animal extraction.

Right now, the Agricultural Marketing Service points to an especially huge supply of the vegetable fats and oils. These come from such farm crops as cottonseed, soybeans, peanuts, tree nuts and grains, all abundant.

Through the years, we have used about the same amount of fats and oils in our diets—about 45 pounds a year per person—but there have been changes in consumption of kinds of fats and oils within the family. In recent years, with supplies running high, there has been an increase in use of vegetable fats and oils.

But whether we use animal or vegetable fats, they are essential at Christmas time as throughout the year. In fact, we often use them without realizing it in prepared mustard, salad dressings, mayonnaise, sandwich spreads and other common items.

It is difficult to bake pies, cakes, cookies, rolls, tidbits and other traditional Christmas foods without fats and oils—you may think of them as shortenings.

Why is shortening so important? Mostly to make a tender, flaky product. Flakiness is determined by the layers of fat that separate layers of dough. The fat melts during baking. Steam collects and maintains minute "open" spaces. Tender pastry results when flour particles are well coated by films of fat.

Oven-Fry Food

You can oven-fry cut-up chicken, serving-size portions of fish fillets, scallops and French toast. Dip the poultry or fish in bread crumbs and then sprinkle with melted butter before putting in the oven. The French toast should be prepared as usual, then arranged on a well-buttered baking sheet.

Change Flavor

Next time you serve soft puffs of meringue with custard sauce, you can ring changes in flavor by adding chocolate to the sauce.

Two-Way Doughnuts; Anyone For Dunking?

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Did you ever use or see one of the first home doughnut making gadgets?

It was a cumbersome plastic affair with all sorts of parts. It came into being long before our space age but it looked like the shape of things to come.

We were reminded of it recently when we tried one of the sleek new aluminum devices for making doughnuts without rolling out the dough.

To use it all you do is spoon the dough into its cone-like container and press down into the hot frying fat to release the shapes. We found this gadget worked well and was easy to clean.

If you haven't one of these new doughnut presses, you can still use the following recipe. Directions for adjusting the dough for patting or rolling and cutting are given after the rule.

This recipe calls for a special way of adding the flour; don't depart from this method because it is essential!

PRESSED DOUGHNUTS

2 1/3 cups sifted flour
2 tps. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
2 eggs (separated)
1/2 cup sugar
3 tps. butter or margarine (melted)
2 tps. lemon juice
2 tps. grated orange rind
1/2 cup milk
1 qt. corn oil
Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Beat egg yolks until thickened and lemon colored; beat in sugar gradually—mixture should be ivory colored. Add butter, lemon juice and orange rind alternately, beating constantly.

Add 2 cups of the sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk to first mixture. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Fold in remaining sifted dry ingredients. Spoon dough into doughnut presser and follow manufacturer's directions to form doughnuts.

Meanwhile heat corn oil in a 3-quart kettle to 375 degrees or until a 1-inch bread cube browns in 40 seconds. Fry only 2 or 3 doughnuts at a time, turning once—about 2 minutes on each side or until golden brown.

Drain on absorbent paper. Serve plain or roll in confectioners' sugar. Makes about 1 1/2 dozen.

Regular Doughnuts: Increase flour to 3 1/2 cups and baking powder to 4 teaspoons. Turn dough out on lightly floured board; knead lightly until smooth. Pat or roll out to 1/4-inch thickness. Cut with floured doughnut cutter.

More Cheese

Short on grated cheddar cheese to add to a cream sauce? Add dry mustard and you'll find the spice intensifies the flavor of the cheese.

Glamorous Prunes

Pit the soaked or cooked fruit and mold in sherry-flavored gelatin. Serve with a topping of whipped cream.

Add Parsley

Fresh flavor: Add minced parsley when you are making dumplings for beef or lamb stew.

SKINNER Macaroni

A Devotional For Today

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. (Psalms 23:1.)
PRAYER: O Lord, we would entrust ourselves to Thy leading. Forgive us our sins through Jesus Christ our Lord. Deliver us from evil by the presence of the Holy Spirit in our hearts. Help us to grow more and more Christlike. In His name we pray. Amen.
(From The "Upper Room")

More Important Than We Think

In West Texas at least, a good rain falls into the category of "God, home and mother. Who can really be against it?"

We mention this because some not familiar with the agricultural vagaries of this region may not fully appreciate the implication of an ample supply of rain, particularly in the winter.

Though it may sound premature, our good crops are more often made from October through February than in the actual growing season. It is the underground season—the reserve of moisture—that imparts to our crops their starting power during the hot summer months. Without a backlog of deep moisture, many a promising crop suddenly withers, twists and gives up the ghost during July and August.

For practical purposes, the rains have all but assured us excellent pasturage and probably a good yield on our limited small grain fields.

Of equal importance—and even greater from a long range point—is the outlook for our pastures. During the prolonged drought of the early and mid-fifties, the ranges were hardest hit of all. Areas once covered with luxuriant grass were reduced to barren wastes. Even the hardy perennials all but died out, and a few struggling invader plants took their place. But now it appears that our seasoning is giving us the push needed to effect an almost complete recovery of our pastures.

Segments Which Need Priority

Additional units were accepted for paving with the passage of ordinances by the city commission on Tuesday evening. These represent streets where there has been a complete or nearly complete sign-up of the property owners for these improvements.

This is not necessarily the end of the assessment program, for within limitations other blocks or series of blocks may be added as they are signed or made available without collectable skips.

We do hope that some way can be found to include tie-ins of existing paving to FM 700. We are building up a series of laterals which tie into these arteries as they empty into the south by-pass, but so far we have not had a complete tie-in effected.

This is particularly important on Goliad and on Virginia and Birdwell Lane, the points at which city streets now join the south thoroughfare. All of these streets receive a terrific amount of traffic, which present paving projects will help to increase. Under favorable conditions the streets are dusty and sometimes bumpy; in wet weather they are almost intolerable. Hence, we hope that they can be given some degree of priority. When we succeed in paving them, then we will need to talk about extending other streets south to connect with FM 700.

Marquis Childs New Procedures Under Kennedy

NEW YORK—In the two months since the election President-elect Kennedy has gained 10 pounds. His weight at the end of the marathon of the campaign, when he was living on sandwiches and an occasional malted milk with two or three hours of sleep a night, had gone down to 165.

THE INTERLUDE IN Palm Beach, although there was an almost continuous stream of visitors, gave him a chance to rest and relax. Now, he tells visitors with mock sternness, that weight must come off. Showing him through the White House, President Eisenhower explained that the swimming pool room, where the new President will try to work off those 10 pounds, is kept at a temperature of 90 degrees. On the New Frontier that will go down.

Along with the demanding business of putting his official family together, as he has moved from Palm Beach to Washington to New York to Boston and back to Palm Beach, Kennedy has found moments to consult with tailors who have been letting out his clothes and with shirt-makers supplying his needs for the inaugural and all the ceremonial functions that go with it. He gives to such small details the same seemingly unburied attention that he brings to every aspect of his Presidency as he will use the powers of the Presidency as they have not been used in quite a few years.

THE KENNEDY operation will bear little resemblance to that of President Eisenhower's eight years. There will be no Sherman Adams as intermediary. Kennedy's practice has always been to deal directly with those around him.

Theodore Sorenson, his right-hand man—sometimes described as his alter ego—for six years, will be special counsel to the President and indispensable in that role. But Kennedy will deal directly not only with the members of his Cabinet but with others in his official family at lower levels. "The President wishes to speak to you..." That introduction on the telephone will take some getting used to in a Washington in which the President has been insulated for so long. But it will become increasingly familiar.

IN THE WHITE HOUSE Kennedy expects to keep close contact with John Bailey of Connecticut who will be chairman of the Democratic National Committee. The line from the Oval Room in the White House to Bailey's office will be frequently used by a President who has a detailed knowledge of the politics of the 50 states. And while Bailey will handle the patronage the President will be aware of what each move signifies.

This is the way he has put together his administration—the quiet voice on the telephone putting up to the man or woman the question of duty, opportunity, privilege. There have been disappointments.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

As organized labor has grown richer and more powerful, it has been hard-pressed to keep up proletarian appearances. Nonetheless, the myth has been perpetuated that, unless unions enjoy special privileges and immunities, they will be busted overnight.

At last, this anachronistic image may be fading before the facts. A nationwide poll conducted by Opinion Research Corp. of Princeton, N.J., finds 62 per cent of those questioned in favor of tighter union regulation; indeed, union members are more eager for such restrictions than the public at large. Even more revealing is the finding that 57 per cent of union members think unions should be brought under the same antitrust laws now applied to business.

One poll, of course, doesn't reflect all public opinion. But a mounting awareness of the excesses of unrestrained union power is clearly apparent.

The implications of such industry-wide strikes as last year's 116-day steel walk-out may be coming home to more and more rank-and-filers. They may well ask whether any "work rule" is worth that much lost pay. And from this question it is but a reasonable step to ask whether union monopoly power is, in fact, a blessing to the worker.

The image of unions in the public mind is changing; what needs changing now is the union position of special privilege.

James Marlow Sweeping Up Adlai's Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—President-elect Kennedy is going through Adlai Stevenson's law firm like a vacuum cleaner.

He has already picked three members of the firm—including Stevenson—for top jobs in his administration, is expected to name another shortly, and gave a key post to a former Stevenson law-associate.

All were long-time friends of Stevenson and his backers for the Democratic presidential nomination. But when Kennedy got it this year, they worked for him. And all know him personally, too.

IT COULD BE assumed Kennedy was paying off a political debt to them and/or Stevenson for the help they gave him this year or was acknowledging his debt to the liberal view they represent and represented in the campaign.

But this writer contacted a number of people who know all the men given these choice assignments and they prefer to think Kennedy did his picking because

Hal Boyle Let's All Listen

NEW YORK (AP)—Film producer Joe Pasternak has launched an open-ear campaign to save mankind.

"If people would just listen," he said, "think how much better the world would be! It could be a wonderful world."

"But nobody listens any more. In our vocabulary there is a period at the end of a sentence. But who listens until anybody finishes a sentence? Nobody. We don't hear each other any more."

Pasternak, who is quite serious about his open-ear crusade, came here in 1921 as an immigrant youth from Hungary. He had a high school education, but knew no English.

His uncle, a factory worker, met him at Ellis Island and said: "You should have come 20 years ago. There was opportunity then. Now it is gone."

"He was a fine man," said Joe. "But he was wrong. Opportunity is always here—if you know what you want to do, and love to do it."

Starting as a busboy in a studio commissary, Pasternak tried to be an actor and failed. He then worked his way up from a fourth assistant director to become one of the world's top producers.

"I got good advice—and I listened to it," he said.

In 25 years his 75 films have grossed a quarter of a billion dollars. Joe is a genial, sandy-haired, blue-eyed little man whose own struggle has left him with a deep sympathy for the underdog.

These friends of Stevenson are brainy, distinguished men.

These are the three members of the firm already tapped: Stevenson, as ambassador to the United Nations; Newton W. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission; and W. Willard Wirtz, undersecretary of labor.

KENNEDY SHORTLY is expected to name another member of the Stevenson Chicago law office—William Blair—as an ambassador. Blair, rich in his own right and able to pay an ambassador's bills, is a long-time Kennedy family friend.

Kennedy chose George W. Ball, associated with Stevenson in a Chicago law firm back in the early 1940s, as undersecretary of state for economic affairs.

Minow 34, served as law clerk for the then Chief Justice Fred Vinson and was administrative assistant to Stevenson when the latter was governor of Illinois more than eight years ago.

WIRTZ, 46, has a long experience in the labor field and has known the man who will be his new boss, Arthur Goldberg, secretary of labor, a long time. It's Goldberg who may have done the actual picking of Wirtz.

Besides being a professor of law at Northwestern University, Wirtz is also an arbitrator in labor disputes. During the war he served on various government bodies. Like many others called to Washington, Wirtz went to Harvard—the law school.

Ball at 51 has an international law practice, has crossed the Atlantic perhaps more times than he can remember, and is member of a law firm which has offices in Washington, New York, Paris and Brussels.

Back in the New Deal days of President Roosevelt, Ball worked in the Agriculture and Treasury departments and, during the war, in the Lend-Lease Administration.

Blair, better known to newsmen than any of the others, was a constant companion of Stevenson in his presidential bids and traveled abroad with him.

To Your Good Health Different Types Of Diabetes—Different Conditions

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

"Dear Dr. Molner: Please write about diabetes insipidus. My husband has diabetes mellitus and takes insulin for his kind of diabetes, but I do not.—Mrs. J. H."

In spite of the similarity of names, and, in one respect, a similarity in a symptom, diabetes mellitus and diabetes insipidus are entirely different conditions.

Diabetes mellitus, which is what we refer to when we say "diabetes," is a disturbance in the body's sugar metabolism. The body just cannot make proper use and disposition of sugar.

The result is that sugar concentrates in the bloodstream, and we call it "high blood sugar." Excess sugar is excreted by the urine, to be discharged from the body. That's why urinalysis is such a useful way of testing for diabetes, and why measurement of the blood sugar levels gives an even more precise diagnosis.

Along with this piling up of sugar, a person with untreated diabetes becomes unusually thirsty, and urination is equally increased, both in frequency and total quantity.

Diet (to keep the sugar intake within necessary limits), and the use of insulin, or in some cases the new "diabetes pills," or sometimes a combination of all three, get the patient back in balance so that his system can make proper use of the amount of sugar he takes in.

Now let's consider diabetes insipidus: It has nothing to do with sugar. Instead, it's a disorder in water metabolism. That is, the body cannot keep the use of water in proper balance.

There is the urge to pass large amounts of urine at frequent intervals, many quarts in a single day. As a result the patient is extremely thirsty, as nature insists on replacing the water which has been lost from the system. In cases of diabetes insipidus there is no sugar in the urine, and the amount of sugar in the blood is normal, not excessive as in diabetes mellitus.

In sugar diabetes, the flaw is in the pancreas, which does not produce the required amount of insulin needed to make use of sugar.

In diabetes insipidus, the basic disturbance lies in the pituitary gland, and the patient is given pituitary substance, or extract, to correct the flow of water through the system.

Diabetes insipidus is far less common than sugar diabetes, but it does appear often enough for people to realize the extreme difference between the two.

"Dear Dr. Molner: My doctor says one ought not to use hard or nose sprays because they destroy the natural bacteria. I used antiseptic tablets for nose and throat for more than 30 years (you can't get them any more) but I always felt that they helped me.—F.C."

Tell your doctor to move over and I'll sit beside him, as another M.D. who might as well save his breath so far as you're concerned. But answer me this: If these anti-septic tablets were really as good as you think, why did they disappear from the market?

"Dear Dr. Molner: Can you tell me anything about the coming of a 'third set' of teeth on a child of 7? Regarding significance, dangers, etc.? There is no history of this on either side of the family.—K.S."

I plead ignorance. There are cases of "third sets" at various ages, but I believe that at least some of these cases are based on instances where just a few extra teeth were grown — not complete sets. Extra teeth, also known as supernumerary teeth, are not too uncommon. This isn't so much a matter of heredity as an oddity of unknown origin.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Dr. Molner answers readers' questions in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim 'Mimsy Were The Borogoves ...'

"... mimsy were the borogoves..."

When Alice read "Jabberwocky," she decided that it didn't make a lot of sense, which was quite an apt appraisal. I think most of us deal with situations every day that make little sense, but unlike Alice, we pretend that they do.

For instance, we complain about high prices. A pound of such-and-such steak was only two-bits in 1902 but today it is $1.75. Then someone says "But remember, the value of the dollar has changed and pay scales are much higher." This is considered the perfect answer. The argument stops.

BUT IT REALLY isn't an answer. Something that clears the air a bit would be to break down prices into the number of hours a man works in order to buy the commodity. For instance, how many hours did the fellow work in 1902 to earn enough to pay for a pound of such-and-such. Then, compare that with figures computed today.

R. E. Howie, who is in this country representing Canada's efforts to encourage Americans to immigrate, gave me a booklet that lists prices of commodities in Canada. This method of costs is used.

Besides listing the prices in Canadian dollars and United Kingdom pounds, a third list shows how much time would be required to earn the commodities at the average pay scale.

CANADIAN DOLLARS and U.K. pounds

mean little to me, but the fact that I would have to work 16 minutes to buy a pound of hamburger meat does. At the same rate, I would work 21 minutes in order to earn enough to ride a taxi, one mile.

Other interesting figures, since I'm on the subject, include working 2 1/2 hours in order to pay the telephone bill; 39 weeks, 16 hours for a car; 12 minutes for a pack of smokes; 15 hours, 17 minutes for a ton of anthracite coal; 13 minutes for a gallon of gas; 31 hours, 54 minutes for a new suit; 35 minutes for a haircut; 23 minutes for a pound of coffee; 13 minutes for a weekly newspaper.

BACK TO THE subject, this is a better comparison between wages and prices between 1902 and 1961. It makes little difference how many dollars a fellow can earn; it's what that money will buy that counts.

But regardless what we may decide among ourselves, an election will come around and some "defender of the people" will assure us that things have never been better. He will say prices are lower and wages are higher than any time in history.

All comparisons aside, we will march down and vote him in. For, like Alice, "it all is so confusing."

Inez Robb Telling The Truth About Cuba

The United States has made grave errors of policy in Cuba and Latin America. We Americans need to know where we went wrong, where our policies were unwise and what we can best do to befriend and to aid our neighbors to the south.

We need detached, scholarly judgments to show us where we got off the track and how we can get back on. But C. Wright Mills' "Listen Yankee, The Revolution in Cuba" is not that book. It is neither detached nor scholarly. Indeed, it is the antithesis of both. It shows neither research nor any concern with that ultimate of scholarly attributes, the truth.

IN THIS BOOK, in which the author says, "My major aim in this book is to present the voice of the Cuban revolutionary, as clearly and emphatically as I can" there is no gray. There is only black and white. The United States and all its works are completely, unvaryingly Stygian. The Cuban revolutionary is just as completely and monotonously snow show white and pure.

Prof. Mills, who teaches sociology at Columbia University, and his protestations that all he does in his book is give voice to Cuban revolutionaries fall short of conviction in his foreword and postscript ("Note to the Reader, I" and "Note to the Reader, II").

THE BOOK ITSELF reads like one of Castro's especially long, windy and tedious diatribes on teevee. But Prof. Mills felt impelled to print it because the American press does not tell the truth about the Cuban situation.

It is here that the professor gets in footwork so fast, slippery and unevaluated as to equate with the hate spouted by the unnamed Cuban revolutionaries he quotes. "The American people never read the truth about Cuba because, to quote Mills, "it is true that if U.S. businesses adversely affected by the revolution do not coordinate our news of Cuba, business as a system of interest (which includes the media of mass communication) may nonetheless be a controlling factor in what you are able to know about Cuba today."

SO HERE WE salute, in the professor's own words, the good, old party line about the American press—a line so time-worn, if not time-honored, as to be threadbare today for everyone but Mills and the Cuban revolutionaries.

However, it is in his postscript that Mills is most revealing. "Let me say at once," he writes, "that the Cuban argument presented in these pages, I find on the whole compelling. It does not seem to me very useful to take up each point in it, expressing agreement or disagreement. Why search for truth? Let the libelling of Uncle Sam roll!"

NOW, GOD HELP US, the professor, inspired by America's savagery in Cuba, is tempted, he says, to further expose the U.S. iniquity in a book called "Cuba, Latin America and the United States." He goes on to point out—in words astounding like those of the unidentified Cuban revolutionaries he quotes—just how awful we have been in all of South America and, ergo, our responsibilities for its failures and miseries.

Is it any wonder that Mills, revolted by his fellow citizens and their crude, power-mad government, finally asks in his postscript, "Is it any wonder, then, that in the minds of many intelligent Latin Americans, the United States of America more often than not stands for political tyranny, economic exploitation, continued impoverishment, and military domt nation?"

OR THAT HE finally says, "I am for the Cuban revolution."

Or did the professor actually think, in the first 179 pages of his book, that he had fooled the reader, stupid though we Americans be, into believing that he is anything more than propagandist? (Copyright, 1961, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

David Lawrence Can't Ignore The Wage-Price Problem

WASHINGTON—What shall one think of a 9,000-word report to President-elect Kennedy by a special task force studying the current economic situation that doesn't throw any light on the basic causes of the current recession?

What shall be said of a report which recommends that the federal government increase the amount of personal income available to the citizens through temporary tax reductions when the American people today continue to save a large part of their disposable income anyhow instead of spending all of it?

wages and price formation. Will it not be possible to bring government influence to bear on this vital matter without invoking direct controls on wages and prices? Neither labor, nor management, nor the consumer can gain from an increase in price tags. Just as we pioneered in the 1920's in creating potent monetary mechanisms and in the 1930's in forging the tools of effective fiscal policy, so may it be necessary in the 1960's to meet head-on the problem of a price creep. This is a challenge to mixed economies all over the free world and is not to be met by government alone."

WHAT ENCOURAGEMENT can there be for the development of a formula to solve the nation's economic ills when today—as in the 1930's—there is such conspicuous indifference to the problems of the heavy-goods industries?

Temporary measures in New Deal days failed for seven consecutive years to bring the unemployment figure below 8,000,000 as "leaf-raking" and other crackpot schemes were adopted while the heavy-goods industries were not able to begin their important task of job creation until the second World War started.

HIGH-SOUNDING statements like the above are often heard, but nothing concrete is ever done about the wage-price problem. Government controls could only worsen the situation and bring on a controlled economy. What is needed is some "task forces" to get at the reasons why big labor-union monopolies are as shortsighted as the steel union was in 1959 in forcing a strike and increased wage benefits at a time when the workers were getting very high incomes and when the economy, to use Prof. Samuelson's phrase, was "tired and sluggish."

NOT A SINGLE sentence in the report issued by Professor Samuelson of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology discusses the all-important subject of tax allowances on depreciation which, if adjusted on a replacement-value basis, would do so much to renovate and modernize America's plants and create millions of new jobs. It is estimated that $96 billion is required to replace obsolete equipment in American industry over the next several years.

Toward the end of the report is a rather significant confession that a solution for the wage-price spiral is really vital. The report says:

ON THE WHOLE, the Samuelson report is not as radical as might have been expected from politically motivated economists. But the document is noted for its contradictions. It warns against "a massive program of hastily devised public dole that of making jobs and getting money pumped into the economy." Then it turns around and advocates "expansions and accelerations in expenditure programs that are desirable for their own sake." The politicians on Capitol Hill usually interpose what is desirable for their own sake in their own congressional districts. Included in these proposals is a sizable item for teachers' salaries. Adding it all up, it might mean the biggest deficit in peacetime.

IT IS IMPORTANT though to realize that there are some problems that fiscal and monetary policy cannot themselves come to grips with. If, there is indeed a tendency for prices and wages to rise long before we reach high employment, neither monetary nor fiscal policy can be used to the degree necessary to promote desired growth.

"What then may be needed are new approaches to the problem of productivity,

There's one lesson which has yet to be learned by the theorists. It's that a "planned economy" will not overcome the hard facts of a free market and that, if America refuses to tackle her wage-price problem, none of the remedial measures being suggested in the Samuelson report will help this country out of its recession. ## Lyndon Has Navy Gripe

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Vice President-elect Lyndon B. Johnson, a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve, Wednesday night voiced a complaint against the Navy that has been heard before.

Here as a surprise guest to attend the banquet honoring John B. Connally, new secretary of the Navy, Johnson spotted Rear Adm. F.B. Warder, commandant of the 8th Naval Dist.

"Admiral, I have a gripe about the Navy," Johnson said solemnly.

Warder looked a bit startled, but both grinned broadly as Johnson continued.

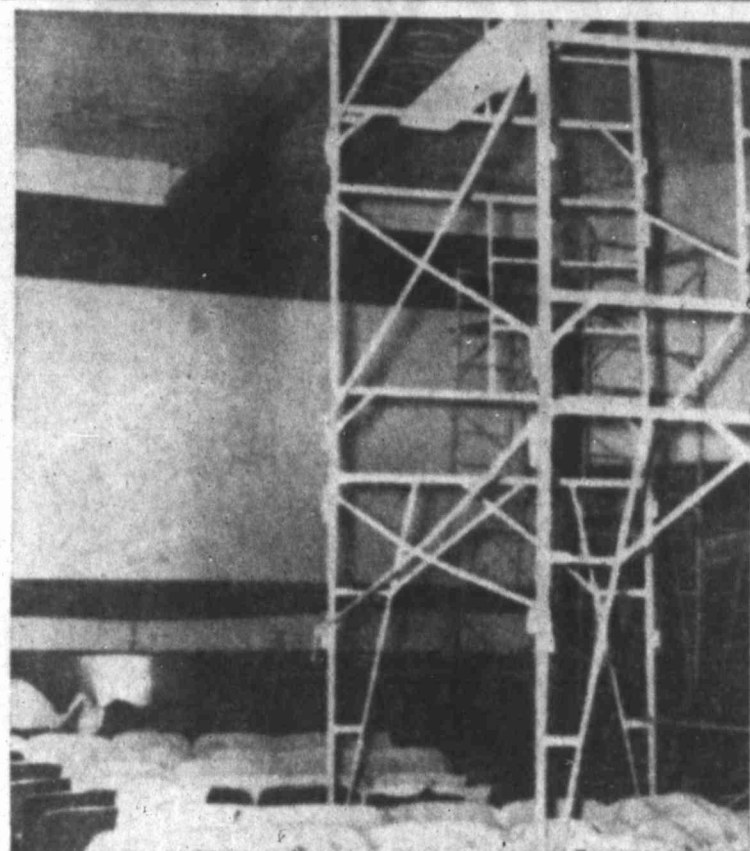

"When I was discharged from the Navy, I was a lieutenant commander. I am still a lieutenant commander in the Naval Reserve, and I am the oldest man in the rank of lieutenant commander in the reserve. Can you help me?"

Bystanders said they heard no direct reply from the admiral.

PAINTER IS LOST IN SCAFFOLDING
As theatre is readied for 'Ben-Hur' showing

State Theatre Is Given Renovation

"Ben-Hur" has gladdened the hearts of many Christians, and it also is bringing about a major face-lifting for the State Theatre.

The film, given a management screening Wednesday night, has its Big Spring premiere this evening. A special section will be roped off for the 7:30 p.m. show, and specially invited guests will be seated there.

First nighters will see a sparkling new theatre. The building was closed Monday and workers painted and cleaned to make ready for the "Ben-Hur" epic.

"It's not as if we had torn down the building and put in a new one," said Ike Robb, manager. "But we have cleaned up and spruced up the old one."

The renovation and redecoration was primarily in repainting "practically everything that could be painted," he added.

A new floor covering hadn't arrived Wednesday but was expected today. The floors and rest rooms were given the spring cleaning treatment and new lighting fixtures were placed in the rest rooms.

Seats were re-cushioned where necessary.

Oddly, no new screen was added this week. Robb explained that the new wide screen was placed in position some time ago, but that for conventional films, "maskers" are pushed over the flanks of the wide screen. For such films as "Ben-Hur," the maskers are pulled back.

"Ben-Hur," by Gen. Lew Wallace, has been read by millions the world over, and was written as an act of faith following a conversation between Wallace and an atheist acquaintance. It is the story of Judah Ben-Hur, a young man whose adventures in a cruel and debased Roman Empire lead him to follow after the Man from Galilee.

Another factor that may have shaped the story of Judah Ben-Hur in the mind of Gen. Wallace was the fact that Wallace headed a court-martial following the Civil War that was later dramatized in the Broadway play, "The Andersonville Trial."

It was at this court-martial that the question was raised whether a soldier is morally bound to blindly and unquestioningly obey the orders of his superiors. The defendant, commandant of an infamous Confederate military prison, was hanged on the then-revolutionary concept that a soldier is morally bound against inhuman acts.

The story of "Ben-Hur" has as one of its many moral themes the proposition that a man has a higher duty than his earthly vows. "Ben-Hur" is scheduled to play at the State for two weeks.

Kennedy Panel Critical Of U.S. Space Prestige

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A study committee report sharply critical of the Eisenhower administration's space program calls on the Kennedy regime to recognize America's prestige is at stake in the race with the Soviet Union.

The report, made public by President-elect John F. Kennedy Wednesday night without comment, says the odds are heavily against the United States beating the Soviet Union in the contest to put a manned space ship into orbit around the earth.

The committee, appointed by Kennedy, urges determined effort and the spending of more money on the space exploration program generally—and particularly on development of more powerful rocket thrust for launching of spacecraft.

The group mentioned no specific

The current Soviet advantage in firing vehicles into space stems from superior booster rockets.

The study committee asserted there is "overriding necessity to provide more efficient and effective leadership" for the U.S. space effort.

President Eisenhower has stated repeatedly that America's prestige is not at stake in the space exploration race.

The Kennedy committee's report said: "Space exploration and exploits have captured the imagination of the peoples of the world. During the next few years the prestige of the United States will in part be determined by the leadership we demonstrate in space activities."

Port Arthur City Council Holds A Confused Session

PORT ARTHUR (AP)—The Port Arthur City Commission, demanding the firing, hiring, reinstating and resignation of various city officials, wound up yesterday about where it began—in confusion.

Police Chief G. B. Douglas, 57, set off the first of two chaotic commission hearings Wednesday by submitting his resignation.

Here's what followed:

1. The commission voted to accept Douglas' resignation.
2. The commission sought to fire the assistant chief, D. P. Moore, but failed.
3. The commission then voted to accept Moore's resignation.
4. Moore said he had not resigned, and under the city's ordinances, neither the commission nor the city manager could fire him.
5. The city manager, Jack Brazil, announced appointment of Detective Chief Glenn Hammons as acting chief of the department.
6. Brazil said he would see that Moore is suspended until an investigation is made.
7. The commission, in a night session, heard City Atty. Jack Voyles rule that the resignation of Douglas was not legal and would have to be resubmitted.

8. Voyles said the appointment of Hammons was null and void.

9. Some of the numerous speculators demanded that the commission resign.

The commission took no action other than to ask Brazil to request that Douglas resubmit his resignation in proper form.

Douglas, described as "resting" at his camp near Deweyville since last week's probe by a House investigating committee of crime conditions in this area, submitted his resignation by phone.

The call was taken by a clerk who made a notation of Douglas' statement that he resigned.

Voyles said that Douglas would have to resign in person or submit a written resignation.

The action here followed the firing earlier in the week of Beaumont Police Chief Jim Mulligan, 64, for failing to enforce the law as directed.

Year Of Decision For Adult Movies?

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Will 1961 be the year of decision for Hollywood and its apparent determination to make movies more adult than ever?

High industry sources talk officially in cliché-coated denials. But unofficially they are seriously worried about charges of the Roman Catholic bishops and influential Protestant and Jewish clergymen.

One top studio executive sees 1961 as the most critical period in Hollywood since the early 20s when the Patty Arbuckle scandal almost killed off the then infant industry.

"The shock appeal of such raw films as 'Butterfield 8' and 'The Apartment' have brought millions at the boxoffice and now we have 'Lolita' with us," he says.

The producer isn't against sex per se but believes that Hollywood has ill-timed its accent on adult, homosexuality, dope and other frank screen themes.

"These are adult themes, but go to a movie house and try to find adults. The theaters are filled with impressionable teen-agers. They're the bulk of the audience."

The executive started in the business as a theater owner and recounts a personal experience.

"My theater did a nice business on family pictures such as 'Andy Hardy' and the like. Then one day we got greedy and bought a shocking exploitation picture on marijuana. It did double the business our family pictures had done, so we booked more of the same.

"It didn't take long for the shock appeal to wear off. BUSINESS dropped to nothing. Even worse, our cashier quit because her pastor had asked her to. We soon found that it became a major crisis just to hire a popcorn girl. Nice girls just didn't want to work for us.

"Finally, we lost so much money that we boarded up the theater—and last I heard it was still boarded up."

"Hollywood," says another executive, "is a cash register factory, not an art museum. We only give the public what it wants. If our pictures aren't good for kids, then it's up to the parents to keep their kids away from them."

Trial Date Sought For Edinburg Priest

AUSTIN (AP)—Efforts probably will be made in late February to secure a trial date for Father John B. Feit, an Edinburg priest charged with intent to rape, the district attorney's office said Wednesday.

The 27-year-old Feit is charged in connection with the attack on a 20-year-old Latin American code in Sacred Heart Church last March 23. The case was transferred here.

Asst. Dist. Atty. David McAnus said the trial probably would be set for several months later than February.
