Christmas Trade Days Extended

Longer pre-Christmas Trade Days for Wellington merchants were approved by Chamber of Commerce directors in their meeting Monday, November 11.

There will be an increase in the amount of money to be given in script also, with a total of $375 for adults and $100 for children's gifts, according to Mrs. Margaret Vines, secretary.

The first Trade Day drawing will be Saturday, November 30, a week earlier than in the past. Other drawings will be December 7, 14, 21 and 24.

During the coming week all Wellington merchants will be contacted regarding their participation in the Trades Day Program.

In other business, C-C directors heard a report on a new federally funded low-interest housing program. This would be directed toward persons in the $4,000 to $10,000 income bracket.

President Charles Floyd appointed a committee composed of Mayor Bill

Bill Reeves, 77, Longtime Area Merchant Dies

W.C. (Bill) Reeves, a Collingsworth County merchant for almost 50 years, died in Collingsworth General Hospital at 8:20 p.m. Saturday, November 11. His death was attributed to a heart condition and followed an illness of about 10 days, coming unexpectedly to his many friends.

Mr. Reeves was 77. He came to Collingsworth County in 1928, and for the next 30 years he operated a grocery store and service station in the Shinnery Community, on State Highway 203. At that time, he and Mrs. Reeves moved into Wellington, and he again operated a grocery store and station, located at the southwest corner of the town section. He retired from business only in June.

Throughout his long residence at Shinnery, Mr. Reeves was a leader in affairs of the eastern part of the county, especially the school, and others that give stability and strength to an area.

In Wellington, Mr. Reeves had an active part in the First United Methodist Church. William Coker Reeves was

Lon Wellborn, 72, Found Dead Near His Home Monday

Lon Wellborn, 72, who spent almost all of his life in the Roundup community southeast of Lutie, was found dead in a pasture about a mile from his home at noon Monday, November 11. It is believed he died in the early hours Saturday, November 9. He was last seen Friday evening. Mr. Wellborn lived alone.

Mrs. Beatrice McKinney, Justice of the Peace, ruled his death due to natural causes. Sheriff John Rainey, who has land near Mr. Wellborn, said he had not been in good health lately.

He was reported missing Sunday at mid-afternoon by two other neighbors, Doug Johnson and his son, Randall. Unable to find him at home, they came into Wellington to see if he might be in town. When they learned he was not, they 10:00 a.m. The art auction is scheduled to start at 7:00 p.m.

At the bazaar, a country store filled with foods, canned goods, sweets, candies, cakes, pies, and booths filled with handwork, sewing, crafts and Christmas decorations will be featured.

Mrs. Bill Spillman and Mrs. John Henard III, together with their waitresses, will invite those attending to come by, relax and refresh at the Greenwich Village Sidewalk Cafe. A light lunch will be served from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Coffee and dessert will be available all day.

"You may register any time during the day for the painting by Mrs. Hubert Bowen (Corky) which will be given as a door prize at the close of the auction Saturday evening," said Mrs. Barney

Glenn. It is emphasized that the holder of the winning ticket must be present to be eligible to receive the painting, although registration will continue through the day.

All paintings which will be included in the auction are donated by Wellington area artists.

Music during the art auction will be provided by Earl Lynn Bartlett, organist. Heading the various committees for the bazaar are:

Handwork, Mrs. Carthel Lewis and Mrs. Tom Lewis; crafts, Mrs. Earl Lynn Bartlett; Christmas decorations, Mrs. Barbara Williamson; foods, Mrs. Bob McAlister and Mrs. Billy R. Long; sweets, Mrs. Gorman Owens and Mrs. Fred Covey. Luncheon chairmen, Mrs. Spillman and Mrs. Henard.

Overall chairman is Mrs. John Holton.

Rockets-Rockettes Open Basketball Play Nov. 19

Football for 1973 will be only four days in history when the Skyrocket basketball team, along with the Rockettes, take to the court in the Wellington High School Gym.

The double header will be Tuesday, November 19, with the Samnorwood Eagles and Eaglettes as opponents. Game time will be 6:30 p.m.

Robert Hicks is coaching the Skyrockets, while the Rockette coach this year is Bruce Dollar.

Samnorwood teams have been playing for a month. The Rockettes began practice October 15 but have played no games. The Rockets, on the other hand will have only Monday and Tuesday afternoons to practice before taking on their opponent.

The Skyrockets have four lettermen back, who also were starters last year, Neal

Cochran, Edward Thomas, Kelly Cook and George Brewer. Cook is the only senior.

Four other men come into the 1974 season with considerable experience, Dan Ford, Shane Tarver, Sammy Gonzales and Tony Martinez. All four started on the B team in 1973, then worked with the varsity quite a bit.

"We will compare well with other teams in District 2-A," said Coach Hicks. "We will be about equal in height. Shamrock may be a little taller, but we are going to rely on speed and quickness more than anything."

Coach Dollar has only three letter players on this year's Rockette squad, Kathy Kersten, a guard, Lucy Sullivan and Renee Mitchell who play both positions.

Free Speech, Hearing Clinic For Young Children Saturday

Plans are complete for the speech and hearing clinic to be held in Wellington Saturday, November 16, for all children of the county four, five and six years of age.

Free to all children, the clinic will be in Wellington High School from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

Nine staff members of the Panhandle Regional Speech and Hearing Association will be members of the team holding the clinic, according to Miss Rita Lowrie, EPCO teacher in the Wellington Schools. Working with her on the plans is Mrs. Thurman Atkins of Shamrock, speech therapist in the Wellington and Shamrock Schools.

La Paisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is sponsoring the clinic.

"Through this clinic, we are hoping to locate every child in the county who has a speech or hearing problem, either known or heretofore undetected," Miss Lowrie said. "Problems discovered at the age of the children to be detected often can be corrected altogether, or the child can be started on a course of therapy that will improve his condition and enable him to advance normally in his classwork."

It is emphasized by both Miss Lowrie and Mrs. Atkins that many problems children have in school are traceable to difficulty in hearing adequately, although neither the parents, teacher, or the child may realize that anything is wrong.

The Amarillo team will bring with them diagnostic equipment not available in schools the size of those in Collingsworth County. In addition each member of the team is both trained and experienced in the field of work. Some are recognized nationally.

All are donating their time to come to Wellington, Miss Lowrie pointed out.

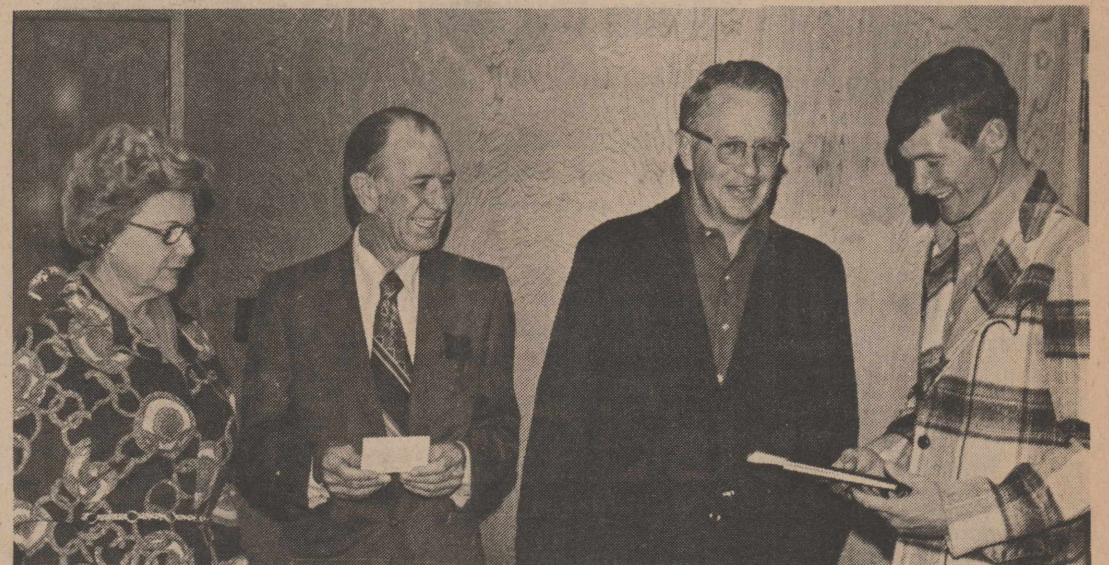

Members of the team include:

Evelyn Hunter, a teacher in the Amarillo Speech and Hearing Center. She has a B.A. degree from Trinity University in education of the Deaf. She recently co-authored a paper on the structure and success of a communication development class at ASHC.

Carolyn Price is in her sixth year as speech therapist with the Amarillo Public Schools. Prior to that she taught pre-school children and was in private practice of speech pathology.

Rockets to End Season Against Clarendon Friday

Wellington Skyrockets play the final game of their 1974 season Friday, November 15, at Clarendon against the Bronchos.

"I just can't say enough about this year's football team," declared head coach James Williams as the team went into the final days of practice.

"I've been a coach 10 years and this is one of the best young groups I've ever worked with. With their record as it stands, they have the best record posted since 1967. If we go over to Clarendon and win on their field, we will have had an outstanding year with a young bunch of boys."

"We would wind up 7-3, and it's been a long time since we had a record like this."

"I think the boys have done an outstanding job of coming back and winning after they lost their first district game. Most teams would have given up but the Skyrockets played to win from there on out."

This closing game will be a tough one for the Rockets, for traditionally Clarendon is a tough rival.

They have one of the better running backs in Texas in Kenneth King. He equally outstanding is Randy Crosslin. These two boys, probably most experienced on the team, carried the Bronchos to a State Class A Championship one year and District 2-A championship another year.

Also on this team is another outstanding player, Danny Monroe, all-state at tackle position.

"They do have a lot of kids back. They have lost some games due to King's injury but he will be back at full strength against us this week.

They have good size in the line, and in the backfield Crossland weighs in at 200. King weighs 190 and has 9-8 speed.

"If he ever gets outside and turns a corner, it is almost impossible to catch him," the Wellington coach conceded. "They had to forfeit the Shamrock game due to an ineligible player, but for us to win, we are going to have to play one of

Blood Program Head Appeals for Donors

The Rev. Roy Collins, overall blood program chairman, reminds that the visit of the Bloodmobile from Red River Regional Blood Program is less than two weeks away. On Tuesday, November 26, this county will be asked to provide 118 units of blood. It is the means by which Collingsworth General Hospital is able to remain in the Red Cross Blood program and secure blood needed in the treatment of its patients.

He has issued this appeal to every Collingsworth resident:

"Statistically only three percent of our entire population will ever give blood during the publicized drives, or at any private gathering facilities. Part of this 'three percent' give because they are aware of the tremendous need within their community; the remainder give because they are 'paid' on each visit. The blood which is gathered by volunteer methods have proven to be at least ten times safer for use than that which is gathered by other procedures, therefore the best plan for you and me is the one we are now working with through the Red Cross.

"Every year we will face a new challenge to meet the growing blood needs here in Collingsworth County. These needs are not private... for they will one day touch every person, either directly, or indirectly."

"It is my hope that every person in our area will become aware of their personal responsibility during this one-day drive. The Bible states: 'For the life of the flesh is in the blood...' Without death, for truly our 'live is in the blood.'"

"I would make a personal appeal to every pastor, or priest to urge their congregations to support this appeal with their time, energy, and especially their blood, and to every person in this county to make a special effort this year to give."

"I'm going to be part of that 3%... How about you?"

Skyrocket JV Ends Season at Home Thursday

The Skyrocket Junior Varsity takes the home spotlight Thursday, November 14, with Clarendon B team as their opponent at Powell Field.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. Coach Robert Hicks considers Clarendon to be of fairly good size and capability for a B team, along with quite a bit of speed. There is no outstanding player, but the team works well as a unit.

The Rocket JV had an open date November 7, and with two weeks to prepare for the Clarendon game, Coach Hicks believes his boys will be ready for whatever their opponents may have for them.

All sports fans are urged to attend this game and see next year's Skyrocket varsity in action.

4-H Gold Star Winner to Be Honored Sat.

Forty-two outstanding 4-H'ers will be special guests of honor at the District 1 Gold Star Award Banquet held at the Hilton Inn, Amarillo, Saturday night, Nov. 16.

Pam Vines, Collingsworth Gold Star award recipient, will be one of those honored. Attending with her will be her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Vines, and Extension Service Personnel and their spouses, Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Felts and Mr. and Mrs. Don Reeves.

The program begins at 6:00 p.m.

Announcement of the event was made by Paul Gross and Sue Farris, district agents with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

A boy and girl from each of the 22 counties in District 1 receive this highest county award each year. It is based on outstanding achievement, leadership and contribution to the county 4-H program.

Speaker for the special occasion will be Bill

Senator Sherman in Energy Symposium

The Honorable Max Sherman, member of the Texas Senate from Amarillo, served on a panel, "Pricing and Distribution of Oil and Natural Gas" during the University of Houston's Energy Institute symposium titled "Energy Management: Federal-State Relationships," held on the UH

Sarpalius, vocational agriculture teacher at Boys Ranch. He will speak on the theme of this year's banquet "The Impossible Dream."

Leslie Garnett, chairman of District 1 4-H council, will be mistress of ceremonies. The District 1 4-H Gold Star committee of the district council will direct the program. Each Gold Star winner will present the highlights of his or her 4-H career, with views on leadership development, management of personal resources, and personal satisfaction.

Special guests will include parents, adult leaders, Extension Service officials, representatives of electric Central Campus October 31-November 1.

The two-day meeting brought together top experts in the fields of government, education and industry.

Eight panel discussions, each moderated by a prominent person in law, industry or government, explored numerous facets of cooperatives, county judges and commissioners and other friends of 4-H.

The event is being sponsored by Deaf Smith, North Plains, Rita Blanca, Hall and Swisher electric cooperatives.

To qualify for the special award, a 4-H'er must be at least 13, must have completed at least three years of club work, must be currently active in 4-H, and a member can receive the award only one time.

According to Gross and Farris, the Gold Star Award is intended to stimulate winners toward higher achievements and to encourage other young people to participate in the county 4-H program.

the current national energy crunch. Topics included: Energy facility siting and related questions; capital formation; pricing and distribution of oil and natural gas; taxation, solar energy R&D; energy conservation; tooling up state and local government; human resources; and tooling up state and local government: data collection, retrieval and analysis.

Major addresses were delivered by George P. Mitchell, Mitchell Energy & Development Corp.; Texas Lt. Governor William P. Hobby, Jr.; U.S. Representative Bill Archer (D-Texas); and U.S. Rep. Bob Eckhardt (D-Texas).

A major emerging issue was the need for other areas of the nation to bear their fair burden of production and distribution costs of energy. Texas, which produces more petrochemicals and refined petroleum product than any other state, bears disproportionate burdens of cost, according to Hobby and others.

Seventh Grade Ties Memphis Here Thursday

Wellington Junior High Seventh Grade tied Memphis Seventh Grade 6-6 in a game at Powell Field Thursday afternoon, November 7, a turn-around from the loss the team suffered earlier in the season.

All the scoring took place in the first ten minutes of play, while each team was in its first possession of the ball, according to Coach Ronny Glenn.

Wellington got the ball on kickoff, and on the second series of plays, James Thomas got loose and ran all the way in for the score -- a sprint of about 40 yards. The try for the two points failed.

Memphis, upon receiving the ball, drove to the Wellington 30, then broke it loose and went in for a score. They, also, went for the two-point conversion and they also missed.

During the remainder of the first half, Wellington couldn't move the ball and had to punt. Memphis worked it down inside the 10 yard line, Coach Glenn's boys put up a good goal line stand and recovered the fumble.

The halftime score was 6-6.

There was no scoring in the third period.

In the fourth, the Wellington defense stiffened and Memphis couldn't advance.

With less than a minute to go, Wellington had a drive going, and again Thomas got loose on a long run and reached the 7 yard line before he was brought down. The team was out of times out, and the clock ran out on them.

Boys cited by Coach Glenn for their work on offense were Thomas, Marty Warwick, Kevin Needham and Baldo Nevarez. Named on defense were Dane Dodge, Robert Powell and Haskell Bonaparte.

Mrs. Vertie Watts Honored On Her Nintieth Birthday

With all of her children, and a number of other descendants around her, Mrs. Vertie Watts observed her 90th birthday at a two-day reunion Saturday and Sunday, November 9 and 10.

The occasion took place in the home of a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomason.

Mrs. Watts is one of those few remaining pioneers who came to the Southwest-Oklahoma, Eastern Panhandle area before 1890, having made the journey from her native St. Louis, Mo., with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. B.R. Knowles, when she was five years old.

With the exception of three years in New Mexico, this area has been her home since -- 82 years altogether.

Visiting, reminiscing and taking pictures filled the two days her family shared with her.

The children included Mrs. Thomason, Eugene Jenkins of Spur, Mrs. Clyde Hardin (Edith) of Moore, Oklahoma, Mrs. Eunice Lewis of Moore, and Mrs. Joe Vick (Joyce) of Oklahoma City.

At ninety, Mrs. Watts continues to worship each Sunday at the Wellington Church of Christ, although she now has some difficulty walking. She has been a devoted member of the Church of Christ for many years.

She still does embroidery, a handicraft in which she has seen drop in popularity, to be followed by the present upsurge of interest. Her present hobbies also include making baskets and fur dolls.

Mrs. Watts was the former Vertie Knowles and was born in St. Louis November 11, 1884.

After the family moved to Harmon County, then a part of Old Greer County in the Indian Territory, her mother taught school in their half dugout home. Later Mr. Knowles filed on land in the OM Community, near Salt Fork River. Mrs. Knowles died when her daughter was nine.

In 1902, Vertie Knowles was married to Robert E. Lee Jenkins. They operated a grocery store in Wellington for a time, then went to work on the Mill Iron Ranch. He died a few years later, leaving his wife with two young children. They continued to live in the Kelley community until she was married to J.L. Watts in 1902.

Except for a few years in New Mexico, they made their home in the Madge Community, just across the Oklahoma State line in Harmon County, until he died in 1948.

Since then, Mrs. Watts has divided her time between her daughters.

Besides her children, Mrs. Watts has 11 grandchildren, 30 great grandchildren and 8 great great grandchildren.

The five children and their families here to share her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jenkins of Spur, with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs.

William O'Rear, Kathy, Laura and Richard;

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hardin of Moore, Oklahoma, with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Johnson, Sandra, Ricky, David and Susan of Denver, Colorado;

Mrs. Eunice Lewis of Moore, with her children, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Atkins, Brandon, Leah and Karen of Moore; Mrs. Cheryl Manley, Sharon, Donna and Matthew of Heavener, Oklahoma;

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vick of Oklahoma, with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Vick, Jason and Jennifer of Oklahoma City, Miss Vicki Vick, an Abilene Christian College student, and a guest, Terry Penn of Abilene;

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomason, their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Gene Thomason, Terri, Jannon and Tommy. Other relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Thomason of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Thomason.

Fix-It Tip

There's a right way and a wrong way to handle any tool and the right way is never more important than when using a ladder.

First of all, learn to carry the ladder properly. Find the center of gravity, the point at which the weight is the same at each end. Pick up the ladder and hang it on your shoulder at that point.

Once you have the ladder to the site, the job is to put it up and most people do that task wrong. The trick is to "walk" the ladder into position.

Place the ladder on the ground at the point you wish to put it up. Brace the foot of the ladder against the base of the house or a step or curb. Lift the other end. When you have that end up to your own height, start walking forward under the ladder. Advance your hands from one rung to the next.

PUBLIC NOTICE

F. M. ROAD 338
COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY
From F. M. 1056, to West City Limit of Wellington

NOTICE AFFORDING OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLIC HEARING CORRIDOR (LOCATION) AND DESIGN (COMBINED HEARING)

The Texas Highway Department is planning the improvement of F.M. Road 338, extending from F.M. 1056 to the West City Limit of Wellington, in Collingsworth County.

The proposed work on this project will provide an improved vertical alignment, a widened and strengthened base section, longer drainage structures for increased safety, and a 24-foot width asphalt roadway surface.

The proposed route will generally follow the existing location on a usual right of way width of 100 feet, except in the vicinity of the cemetery where the right of way width will be 80 feet. There will be no relocations, or displacements, on the project. Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and geometric design, environmental studies, and any other information about the proposed project are on file and available for inspection and copying at the office of O.V. Johnson, Supv. Resident Engineer, Wellington, Texas. Also, the drawings showing the proposed geometric design have been placed on file in the office of the County Judge of Collingsworth County.

Information about the State's Relocation Assistance Program, the benefits and services for displacees and the relocation assistance office, as well as information about the tentative schedules for acquisition of right of way and construction, can be obtained at the Texas Highway Department District Office, P.O. Box 909, Childress, Texas, 79201. Any interested citizen may request that a public hearing be held covering the social, economic, and environmental effects of the proposed location and design for this highway project by delivering a written request to the Resident Engineer's office, or to Mr. Lewis H. White, District Engineer of Childress, on or before November 29th, 1974.

In the event such a request is received, a public hearing will be scheduled and adequate notice will be publicized about the date and location of the hearing.

Deck's Didactics

—by Deskins Wells

THE LARGEST potential field of thermal energy in the United States is a vast region lying along the Texas and Louisiana coast. There are others but scientists say this is the largest. The University of Texas has received a grant to make a detailed study of the feasibility of making use of this vast reserve of internal heat that is near enough the surface of the earth so that it can be used by mankind.

THE THOUGHT of developing energy from thermal and solar sources and from the winds and the tides seems much safer than our present dependence on oil which will be used up some day anyway. Energy from these sources also means a cleaner world as well as a safer one.

THESE GIANT oil carriers that carry black gold all over the world fill me with dread. Noel Mostert has written a book called "Supership" that tells about these carriers. They are 1,200 feet long, a football field wide, with each of its tanks capable of holding enough oil to pollute a whole coast.

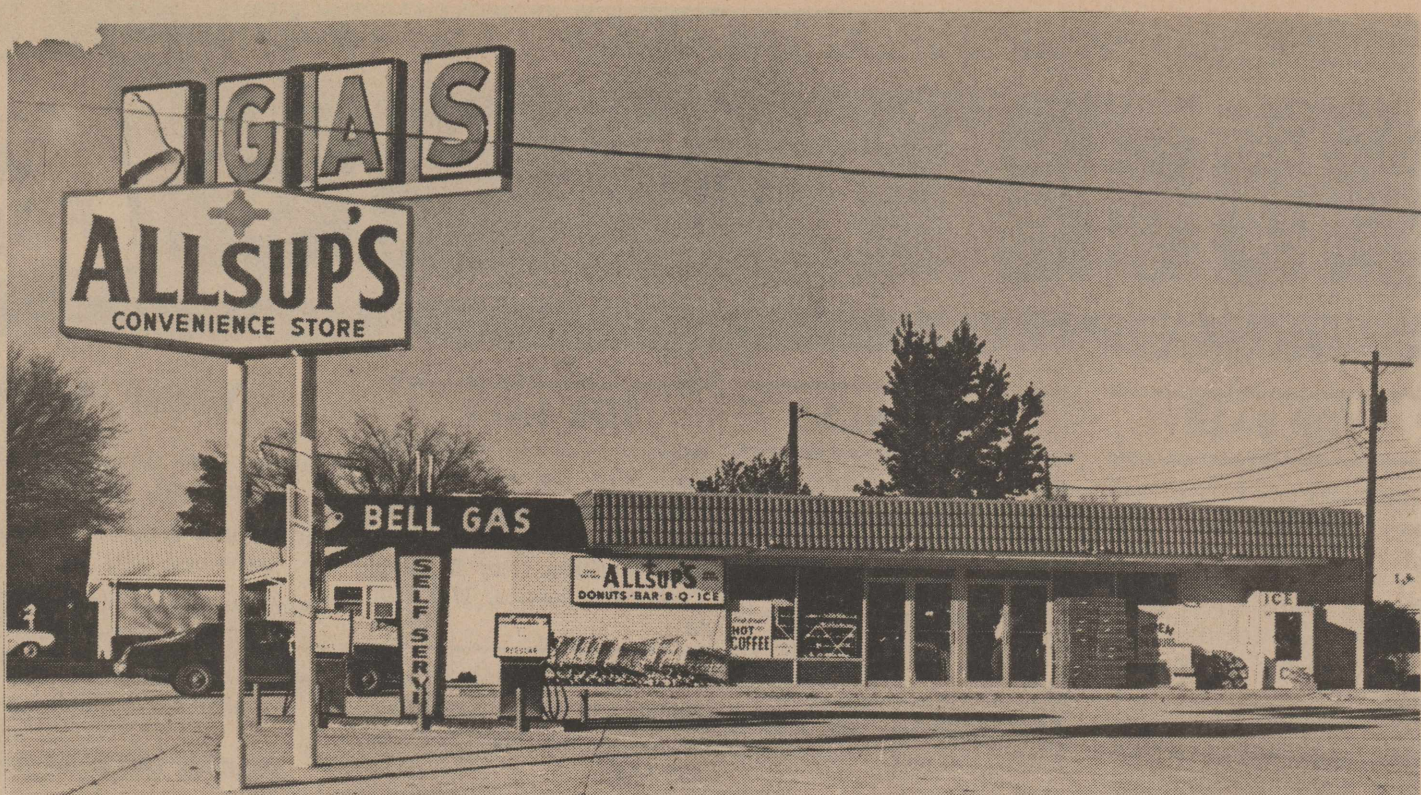

MOSTERT writes that a Canadian board of inquiry once reported "The standards of operation of the worlds tanker fleets is so appalling and so far from the safety which science, engineering and technology can bring to those who care that the people of the world are demanding more oil. Mostert's book is published by Knopf.

MRS. TOM Draper (Argen Hix) retired as Home Demonstration Agent for Deaf Smith County last week and was honored for her 37 years of service with a special ceremony on the Campus of A&M. Her work has been outstanding through the years. The longevity of her tenure of office in the same county speaks for itself as a testimony to her energy, efficiency and her friendliness. Jimmie Gillentine, in the days when he was publisher of The Hereford Brand, often said she was superb and Editor Gillentine was not in the habit of superficial or unwarranted praise.

NATURALLY I would have taken Jimmie Gillentine's estimate of character and public service at face value. In the case of Argen Draper, I was already convinced before the former Hereford editor started talking, for I grew up on a farm bordering the Godfrey land that later became the Hix land. Congratulations Argen on a job well done.

AN EXHIBIT of the work of Kenneth Porter will be on display in the Heritage Room of The Wellington State Bank on November 22 and 23 from 9 in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening. Kenneth is a graduate of Wellington High School and is the son of J.K. Porter, former foreman of The Wellington Leader, when it was a letterpress newspaper.

THE Southwest Conference race has returned to a scramble that is a reminder of other days when the Cotton Bowl representative was decided in the last two weeks of play. The purpose of this paragraph is to record the smug looks that I saw on

GRAND OPENING THIS WEEK

The Grand Opening of Allsup's Convenience Store, Wellington's newest business, will be held Thursday through Saturday, November 14, 15 and 16. This is one of forty-two stores owned by Lonnie Allsup of Clovis, New Mexico. This completely new building is located at the corner of West Avenue and 15th Street, a site that has had a grocery, a service station or a business where prepared foods are sold, or a combination of these, continuously for almost fifty years.

OWNER AND MANAGERS

Lonnie Allsup of Clovis, N. M., owner of Allsup's Convenience Store, is in Wellington this week working with Mrs. Marie Black, right, store manager, and Mrs. Tony Hunter, left, assistant manager, preparing for the big Grand Opening event which will be Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 14, 15 and 16.

Allsup's to Hold Grand Opening November 14-16

The Grand Opening of Allsup's Convenience Store, Inc., Wellington's newest business, will be held Thursday through Saturday, November 14 to 16, Lonnie Allsup of Clovis, N.M., owner, has announced.

Located at the corner of West Avenue and 15th Street, it is on a site acquired from Cal Sugg early in the year, in a building designed and constructed especially to meet the needs of Wellington customers.

Allsup's Convenience Stores, Inc., operates 42 stores with the home office in the face of Frank Anderson on Sunday morning and Paul Spillman Monday. SMU defeated A&M 18 to 14 with SMU leading all the way and Baylor came from behind to beat Texas 34 to 24 for the first time in 19 years.

LET the old boys smile. They are entitled to a few hours of satisfaction once in a while. Anyway the Southwest Conference for this season has returned to its old unpredictable ways that made it interesting. Even Rice that is far down on the list by now, played bowl bound Notre Dame one of that teams closest games of the season and was tied 3 to 3 at the half with the Irish finally winning 10 to 3.

DWIGHT D. Eisenhower is quoted as saying: "An atheist is a guy who can watch a Notre Dame-SMU football game and doesn't care who wins." I don't know how religious this makes me; but I always rooted for SMU since my neighbor I.D. Russell played for the Mustangs.

THANKS to all of you, especially the younger business men, for saying you were glad to notice that Henry had returned to Wellington to work on the paper.

Sign-up for Rural Water System Lags

Signing up for the rural water system has been lagging behind schedule. Tommy Lewis has reminded residents of the area south and southeast of Wellington. "Seventy people have put up their $100 meter fee and yet have not signed the data sheet and easement forms necessary to set the Red River Water Authorities in motion," said Mr. Lewis.

"Many of the 70 unsigned no doubt need the water badly. We urge these to complete the forms necessary so we can send them in by Monday, November 18."

Forms and information are available at the Wellington State Bank.

Mr. Bill Marsh of Abilene visited his mother and sister, Mrs. Dora Marsh and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Christian.

Student-Led Revival to Be At Friendship

A student-led revival will be held at Friendship Baptist Church (Buck Creek) beginning Friday evening, November 15, and continuing through the Sunday evening service, November 17.

There will be a dinner and fellowship beginning at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, and on Sunday, services will start at 10:00 a.m., followed by dinner and fellowship. The evening services on the three days will be at 7:30 p.m.

The Revival will be led by Baptist Student Union members from Clarendon College. The speaker will be Burton Melancon from Clarendon and the music director will be Earl Hartman of Wellington, a CJC student.

"We would like to invite everyone out to worship the Lord with us," said Mrs. Marshall Peters, who is helping with arrangements.

Florist Names Prize Winners

Winners of the three prizes given at the Open House of Wellington Florist Sunday, November 10, were announced by Mrs. Cecil Shanks, owner.

First prize, a floral arrangement, went to Mrs. Kyle Lindley, while Mrs. H.L. Jenkins won the second place arrangement, and Mrs. R.C. McNett third place, a poinsetta.

Mrs. C.E. King, Jr., of Elizabeth, Pa., and her mother, Mrs. Oma Wright of Ft. Sumner, N.M., visited relatives and friends here early this week. Mrs. King, who grew up in Wellington, will be remembered as Dorris Dukeminier.

The Donkeys Got the Laughs But the Girls Took the Money

The donkeys were stubborn and the riders had problems with both their mounts and the basketball, and the 400-person standing room only crowd loved every minute of it.

The hilarious event was the donkey basketball game sponsored by the Wellington Fire Department Auxiliary Tuesday evening, November 5, in Skyrocket Gymnasium.

Each individual player had to concentrate in getting his donkey to go close enough to his own goal post for a toss -- and each player was confident his mount was secretly aiding and abetting his opponents.

Those players so unfortunate as to drop the ball had to get off their donkeys and without ever turning loose the bridle, chase the ball (if possible) until able to pick it up. All other action had to take place with the player on the donkey.

Playing on the women's teams were four high school girls, Pam Ingram, Carol Daves, Kathy Trimble and Connie Daves, along with the Connie Daves, along with these Auxiliary members, Mrs. John Henard, III, Mrs. Jerry Lee, Mrs. Jackie Gunnels and Mrs. Jerry Settle.

Men playing for the Lions Club were Marlin Felts, Jack Campbell, Jim Chanslor, Harold Price, Johnny Mote, Dan Henard, Bill Colson, and Marshall Peters.

On the FFA team were Bart Patterson, Kelly Cook, John O'Rear, Ricky Ford, Bill Havens and Don O'Rear.

This was followed by a Hobby Donkey Derby, a new event in the field of Donkey gymnastics.

Riding mechanical donkeys, Tanya Watson won the high school girls event and others participating were Denise Archer and Jenny Ernest.

Final Game Due Thursday for Seventh Grade

Wellington Seventh Grade Junior High football team will close out its season against Clarendon Seventh Grade in a game here Thursday, November 14. Play will start at 5:00 p.m.

This will be the second meeting of the teams this season. The first time, Wellington seventh graders won 8-0 at Clarendon, and they have improved considerably since then.

"We think we will have a real fine game this week," said Coach Ronny Glenn.

high school boys race, with Jim Bob Nall and George Brewer competing.

The faculty race saw Rodney Myrick the winner, with Mrs. Lonnie Roberson and Mrs. Gary Brewer competing.

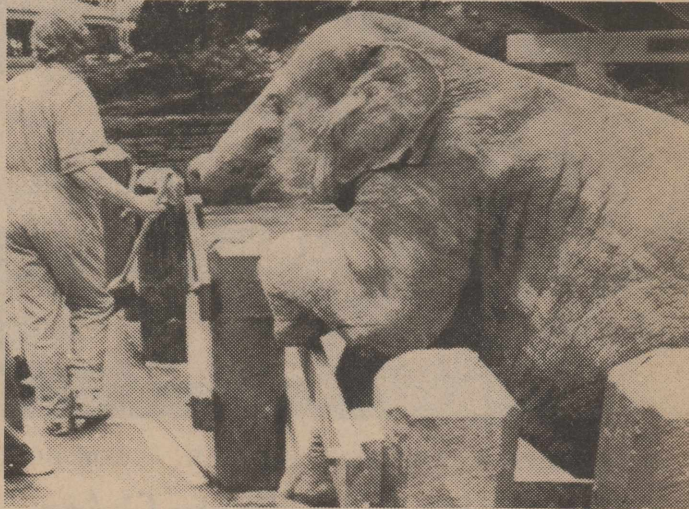

Third of the fun-making events was the Donkey Cracker race, three high school girls vs. three of the live donkeys.

Lynn Jeffrey was able to ride her mount from one end of the gym to the other, dismount, persuade her donkey to eat a cracker, remount and get back to the starting point, before either of her opponents, Rhonda McClendon and Debra Wood.

The Donkey events were staged by Godfrey Donkeys, Inc. of Crescent, Oklahoma, which bills itself as the oldest donkey basketball company in the world.

The Auxiliary's part of the proceeds will go to finance a number of their projects in the coming months ahead.

Members helping with the games, in addition to those on the basketball team, were Mrs. Bill Anders, Mrs. David Peters, Mrs. Carol Reynolds, Mrs. Kenneth Patterson, Mrs. Danny Greenway, Mrs. Leon Martin, Mrs. Dan Langford, and Mrs. Elmer Green.

1975 Superlatives Named by Students

Selection of the Superlatives, those high school students whom their classmates consider outstanding in a number of departments, were announced late last week.

This year the choices were made by the students themselves by secret ballot. It was felt that in this way, the largest group of eligible boys and girls could be included without too much overlapping.

The Superlatives will be featured in the 1975 yearbook, The Skyrocket. Those honored include:

- Most Likely to Succeed: Lucy Sullivan and Jim Bob Nall.

- Most Valuable: Renee

Mitchell and George Brewer.

- Most Dependable: Jenny Earnest and Steve Emmert.

- Most Versatile: Kim Goforth and Randall Sims.

- Most Talented: Betty Burba and Freddie Chambers.

- Most Courteous: Linda Coffee and Sammy Gonzales.

- Mr. and Miss WHS School Spirit: Renee Taylor and Edward Thomas.

- Most Intellectual: Suzy Castleberry and David Null.

- Mr. and Miss Nit Wit: Suzy Patrick and Tony Cox.

- Friendliest: Janee Taylor and Richard Sims.

- Most Handsome and Most Beautiful: Kelly Cook and Lucy Sullivan.

- Mr. and Miss WHS: Jim Bob Nall and Lucy Sullivan.

COMPANY CHICKEN CASSEROLE -- FOR HOLIDAY FEASTING

Something Different in Party-Giving Ahead for Collingsworth Hostess

By Arla Felts
Home Extension Agent

It's the party season again and everyone's getting into the swing. This year many conditions are different, and party-giving is surely affected.

One unfortunate reality is inflation. Food costs have risen to the point that women don't know what they can truly afford to serve for parties. They're busier, too, and many party hostesses have joined the army of employed women. But the answer to the party dilemma is easier than most women think.

Probably the most important rule to remember is to simplify the menu. Nobody cares about fancy foods any more and everyone will request the recipes. Forget the appetizers as everyone is dieting anyway. Who needs those excess calories? Select a main event such as Curried Chicken Casserole. Since it contains noodles as the starch of the meal and the poultry main course, a green salad and hot buttered rolls are all that are needed (plus dessert of course) to complete the menu.

The next rule for easy party giving is to do everything in advance -- one or two evenings before the gala gathering. Flavors will blend in the casserole, promising even more compliments than a difficult dish that requires the cook's attention all through the party. Salad greens may be washed and torn, then sealed in a pretty bowl and refrigerated.

At party time, the casserole and the rolls are slipped into the oven, the dressing (also made ahead and sealed in a small plastic container) is tossed with the salad greens and the guests are encouraged to come right up to the table. A party isn't sensational without dessert, and an Angel Creme with Melba Sauce will be memorable. Luckily, it can be prepared the night before the party, sealed in dessert dishes and refrigerated or frozen. When it's time to serve coffee and dessert, it's ready to be admired then devoured.

Giving a party the easy way makes a hostess more relaxed and gracious. She has little to do on party night, and she hasn't even broken the budget. And the part that the cook likes best?

Fix-It Tip

There's no such thing as a universal size in screwdrivers. You need several sizes. Pick a screwdriver that fits the particular job. The blade tip should fit squarely in the screw slot so that it is seated against sides and bottom. A loose fit chews up the slot. A tight fit causes the blade to slip.

You will hurt yourself and eventually ruin the screwdriver if you try to use it for a chisel or a crowbar. Never hold work in one hand, screwdriver in the other. Eventually you will slip and the result can be a severe puncture wound.

Her guests enjoy every morsel of food -- all have a very special time.

COMPANY CHICKEN CASSEROLE

- 8 ounces medium noodles
- 1 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 6 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 6 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 4½ cups chicken broth
- 3 cups diced cooked chicken
- 6 slices bacon, crisp-cooked and crumbled
- 2 hard-boiled eggs, chopped
- ¼ cup toasted slivered almonds

Cook noodles according to package directions; drain. In saucepan cook onion and celery in butter until tender. Stir in flour and salt. Slowly add broth, stirring and cooking until mixture thickens and bubbles. In 12 x 7½ x 2-inch baking dish, layer in half the noodles and top with half the chicken, bacon, eggs and sauce. Repeat layers. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes or until heated through. Sprinkle with almonds. Makes 8 servings.

Volunteer Blood Programs Remain Safest Available

A nationally televised broadcast concerning abuses in blood donor programs for medical use came ironically at the very time the plans for our own volunteer blood program drive were being announced. A few people have asked questions.

First, everything in the program has been printed in newspapers for months, or in some instances years. Second, this program concerned blood bought by unscrupulous commercial blood banks from poor donors who should never have given blood at all. Such operations as this give all commercial blood banks a bad name. Most are highly reputable.

Revealing such conditions is, in fact, the most compelling reason for the operation of a volunteer blood donor program, where thousands of people like we in Collingsworth go to the Red Cross Bloodmobile and give a unit of blood two or three times a year.

Not only are donors screened at the time of giving to eliminate anyone who should not give blood, either at that time or permanently, it is further screened at the time of processing, using the most accurate equipment medical science has available.

Any blood given a patient in a hospital serviced by the Red River Regional Red Cross Blood Program is going to be choice blood indeed.

As to the claim made that blood is allowed to spoil on hospital shelves, that is possible in some hospital operations. Whole blood that becomes outdated is still fine for separating into components, packed red blood cells, serum albumin, and the other forms that doctors are using more all the time. No blood given in the Red River Regional Red Cross Blood is wasted.

Lawmakers Won't Be Idle

The new state legislature has been picked and its members do not have to report for work until January.

But they had best be about their homework now. They face an agenda which necessitates them doing some advance thinking and planning.

Public school financing just has to be at the top of the list of things to be accomplished. The matter has been too long ignored and to meet and adjourn once again without coming to grips with the problem will be to fail Texas school children.

And right up there near the top of the list is the matter of a new state constitution. The outgoing legislature tried to write a new one but couldn't. Now it is time to turn the matter over to a citizen's constitutional convention.

Then there are other important matters -- such as completing single member legislative districts across the state, deciding whether a public utility commission is needed, deciding on a super port off the Texas coast, pushing mass transit system proposals for urban areas, to mention some.

The 1975 legislature won't have to worry so much about money, as some other legislatures have, since there will be a sizable surplus. Still, the money will have to be spread to cover rising costs and to finance new programs. And the legislature will have to think about holding on to some of the surplus for some of those rainy days which surely will come to state government just as they no doubt will to individuals and businesses in these troubled economic times.

Vanishing Americans — Us

At the present rate of births, the nation will achieve ZPG — zero population growth — in about the year 2040, with a stabilized population of some 320 million Americans.

It could come sooner, for according to the latest federal statistics, the rate has dropped to 2.08 children per family (replacement level is 2.1) and there are indications it may drop further.

But the two-child family is too little and too late, warns a new group called Negative Population Growth, Inc. Only the one-child family, it declares, can save us from our environmental crisis.

To retain "a decent quality of national life," says NPG, the U.S. population must be stabilized not at 320 million but at no more than half its present level. That would be about 100 million.

STATE CAPITAL

Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Atty. Gen. John Hill, viewed as a likely gubernatorial candidate in 1978, emerged from the November 5 general election as the top statewide Democratic vote-getter.

While all the statewide incumbent Democrats won landslide victories over Republicans and minor party candidates, Gov. Dolph Briscoe ran last on the ticket.

But last was good for 62 per cent of the total vote cast in the governor's race (nearly a million) and an apparent sweep of all but five counties by the governor.

Hill was followed closely by Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong in the vote-getting statistics.

While the attorney general received more than 74 per cent of the votes over two opponents, Armstrong was less than a percentage point behind.

All but two of the statewide Democratic contenders topped well over one million votes, and most had more than 70 per cent of their contest totals.

Treasurer Jesse James ran down the list and just ahead of Briscoe, but he still managed to finish with 64.7 per cent in his race.

The turnout of just over 1.6 million was, percentage-wise, perhaps the worst in recent Texas history—about 31 per cent.

While there were only 1.4 million votes in the 1966 general election and 1.5 million in 1962, there were far fewer than the present 5.4 million registered voters then.

GOP HOPEFUL — Republicans, in spite of the drubbing they took in statewide elections, already are talking hopefully about rebuilding for the future.

GOP Chairman Jack Warren of Tyler said the state party will be zeroing in on 1976 legislative races and looking for a strong U.S. Senate candidate to challenge for Sen. Lloyd Bentsen's seat. GOP's from Texas will also want to have a say in the next big presidential effort, Warren emphasized.

There were bright spots in the darkness for the Republicans this year, Warren noted. He pointed to victories of Jon Lindsay for Harris County judge, John Whittington's upset of longtime Dallas County Judge Lew Sterrett and Nathan White's victory for the Collin County judgeship. The party had a net loss of one congressional seat (U.S. Rep. Bob Price in Panhandle-North Texas district 13) and two state House of Representatives places in the November 5 general election.

ONE PRIMARY LESS — Raza Unida Party, which held its first primary this year, won't be conducting any more in the near future.

Under new election law, parties which receive two to 20 per cent of the vote for governor must nominate in conventions. Raza Unida falls in this bracket, with about a six per cent showing November 5.

Only Democrats and Republicans will nominate in primaries next time out, since both received more than 20 per cent of the gubernatorial vote.

The American Party and Socialist Workers Party, if they get on the next ballot, will have to submit about 16,000 signatures on petitions. They needed 34,000 signers to qualify this year.

COURTS SPEAK — The Court of Criminal Appeals refused to reconsider its September 24 decision upholding convictions of former House Speaker Gus Mutscher and two aides for conspiracy to take a bribe.

The high court reversed and directed new trial for a Houston woman convicted of slaying her husband.

In another husband-killing case, the same court affirmed the 20-year sentence given a Dallas housewife.

The State Supreme Court ruled in favor of the state in a tax case involving liquor served by a Taylor County country club.

AG OPINIONS—Atty. Gen. John Hill held material supporting the agenda of the University of Texas Board of Regents meeting is public information insofar as it reflects factual matters.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

- A grand jury has no authority to employ aides to investigate crimes.

- A bail bond board may consider felony convictions of applicants for a bail bond license in passing on their eligibility.

- A city mail carrier is eligible to run for city council.

- A traffic safety film produced by Texas Education Agency can be reproduced and distributed by a private concern for profit.

CONFERENCE SET—A national conference on economic problems and energy consumption forecasts is set here November 14-15.

Economists and mathematicians from over the nation will meet to discuss mathematical techniques used in economic analyses, supply and demand forecasting, governmental program planning and constraints on development.

The governor's office is host for the conference. The session will produce papers and reports to help state and federal government analysts in evaluating modeling and analytic techniques and data requirements.

FEW BLACKS HIRED — A Dallas legislator has complained that 54 state agencies (most of them small) have no black employees.

Rep. Paul Ragsdale of Dallas, a black, said only one agency has more than 10 per cent black employees. That is the Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

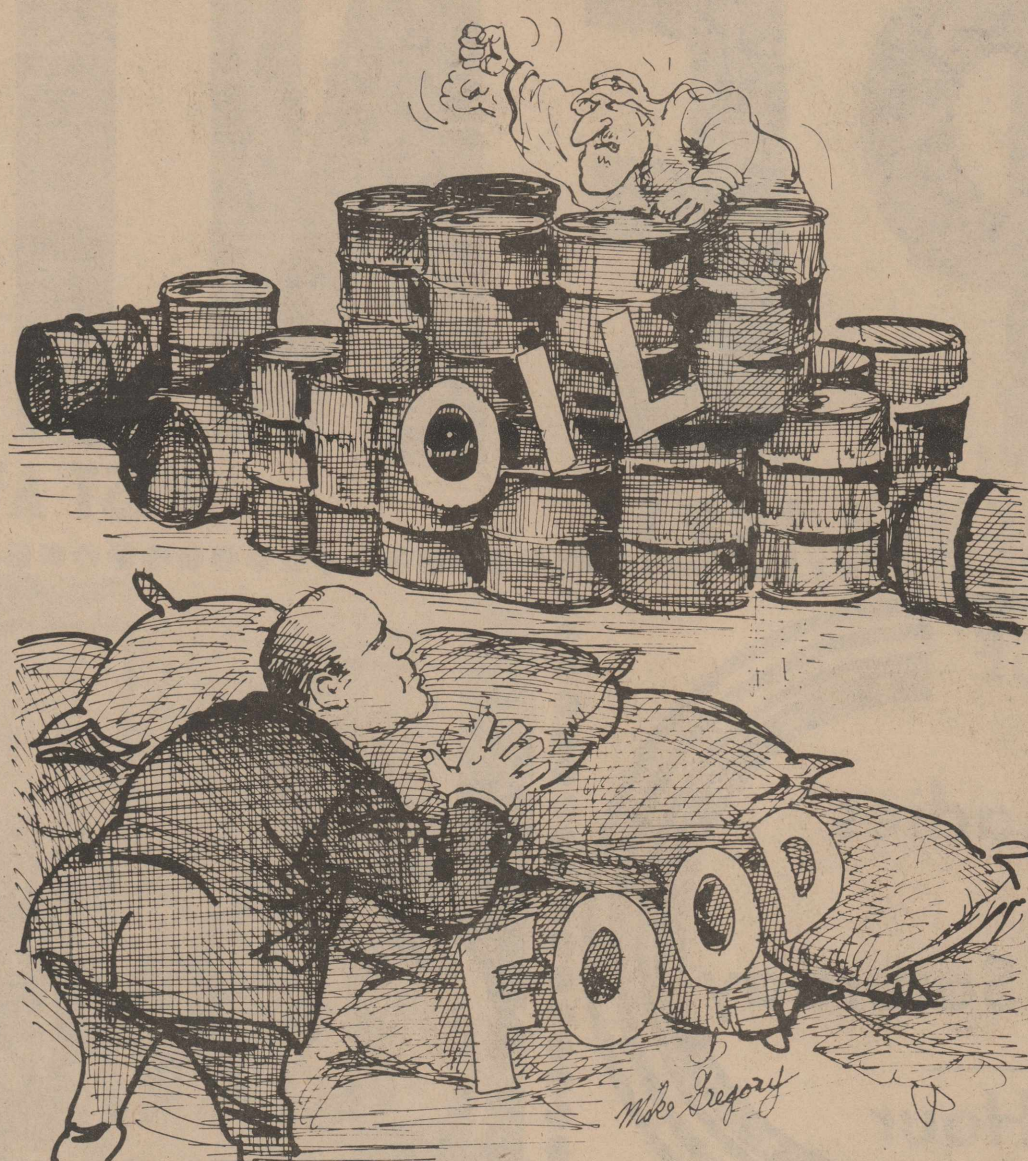

Compared with a state population which is 12 per cent black, there are fewer than nine per cent black state employees, and only two per cent hold state jobs which pay $10,000 or more annually.

Ragsdale said Texas population is 18 per cent Mexican-American, but only 11.6 per cent of state jobs are held by Mexican-Americans.

SPEED CHECK URGED — Department of Public Safety Director Wilson E. Speir has urged Texas drivers "to make a greater effort to observe the 55 miles per hour speed limit."

Speir said surveys indicated more than 60 per cent of all vehicles are exceeding the limit, including trucks. Speed-

Short Takes

Milk Line

In Switzerland plastic pipelines bring milk down from high mountain pastures to villages below. One line can move hundreds of gallons of milk an hour across seven miles of slope.

It Adds Up

Ahmes the Moonborn, an Egyptian temple scribe, produced a handbook on arithmetic, written on papyrus and showing examples of fractions, linear equations and basic geometric measurements, almost 4,000 years ago.

Salt Talk

If the salt in the oceans and seas could be removed and spread evenly over the earth's land surface, it would form a layer more than 500 feet thick.

Expanded Coverage

The Eiffel Tower, made of bolted iron girders and standing 984 feet high, grows seven inches on a sunny day.

An Odd Fact

An even number of rows usually grow on an ear of corn. It may have 8, 10, 12 or more rows of kernels.

Deadly Fish

The piranha is a deadly native to South American rivers. A school of piranha can reduce an animal to a skeleton in a few minutes.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where many people are complaining about how the cost of mail service has gone up more than anything else we buy except beans.

But my underspirous neighbor says we should remember that handling and storing a letter for one or two weeks is bound to cost more than for one or two days.

And on the bright side, he reminds that life is more exciting when you don't know whether it will be three days or three weeks before you get that check you need right now.

Strictly Fresh

First sign of fall: trucks taking produce out to the country to sell at those homey-looking roadside stands.

Give some folks an inch, and they'll want to be the ruler.

'Gateburgers: baloney and canned corn, served on crisp subpoenas with tape garnish.

If the shoe fits, it's probably too expensive.

If gasoline prices rise sharply enough, the highways will automatically become safer and less crowded.

People who speed with bald shoes on their jalopies are tired of living.

We wouldn't say our neighbor drinks too much — it's just that he's been warned not to try and blow out candles on a birthday cake for fear of an explosion.

There's no housing shortage — it's just that we have a people overaged.

NATURAL GAS For Years To Come

With all the talk about conservation, many might believe that we have only enough natural gas for a few tomorrows. We'd like to assure our residential and other high priority customers that Lone Star has an adequate supply. Not only for the present, but for years to come.

We were actively engaged in exploration programs long before the energy crisis. And since the crisis, we're exploring even harder to insure your continued supply of natural gas.

Conservation is one way to extend the supplies we now have on hand. And they can last much longer by avoiding wasteful uses of energy. By making it last longer, more time is allowed for new forms of energy to be developed.

Of course new supplies are going to cost more. But natural gas is still the best buy for your energy dollar!

Conserve natural gas. Conservation will help keep the cost as low as possible.

Rockets Victorious In Homecoming Tilt

By Charles Waugh

The Wellington Skyrockets closed out their home season Friday night at Powell Field with a 46 to 0 homecoming romp over the McLean Tigers. The victory pushes the Rockets season record to an impressive six and three mark while they are now five and one in district action. A win this Friday night at Clarendon can assure the Rockets of second place in district play behind the undefeated Memphis Cyclones.

A chilly evening kept the homecoming crowd to a relatively small turnout, but it did not dampen the spirits of the Skyrockets and their boosters. Both McLean and Wellington fielded very young teams but it was evident that the young Rockets were more superior. The Rockets co-captains for homecoming were Jim Bob Nall and George Brewer. Upon winning the toss of the coin the Rockets elected to receive with McLean kicking off.

Kicking off for McLean was Eddie Estes, perhaps the best kicker Wellington has faced this year. Estes kicked the ball into the end zone bringing the ball out to the Rockets twenty yard line where action began. The Rockets put the ballgame away very early by moving the ball down the field for an eighty yard scoring drive in ten plays. Sparking the drive were two runs of thirteen and eleven yards by Jim Bob Nall, fourteen yards by Jessie Davis and the final sixteen yard touchdown run by George Brewer. Kelly Cook converted the point after attempt giving the Rockets a 7 to 0 lead with 9:18 left in the first quarter.

Following the Wellington kick off McLean started play from their own twenty-nine yard line. Quarterback Ricky Lowry put the first play from scrimmage into action with a beautiful pass to wide receiver Morris Haynes who dropped the ball. This was to be indicative of the Tigers all night as they fumbled the ball away five times and were intercepted once. On the second play Gary Dannar fumbled the ball and the Rockets recovered at the twenty-eight yard line.

The fumble did not escape the Rockets in this series either. Following nice gains by Nall and Davis quarterback George Brewer's pitch out at the five yard line of McLean was fumbled and the tigers recovered.

However, three plays later running back Gary Dannar fumbled for the second time and the Rockets recovered at the McLean fourteen yard line. Shane Tarver took over at quarterback and carried seven yards to the Tiger seven yard line where Dan Ford carried the ball into the end zone for the second touchdown of the evening. Kelly Cook's point after attempt hit the uprights and fell off no good. Wellington now led 13 to 0. Shane Tarver was the Rockets' leading rusher of the evening with ninety-seven yards on ten carries. Eleven Rockets carried the ball against McLean as everyone got to see considerable playing time.

McLean tried to mount a drive following the Wellington kick off but were forced to punt before picking up a first down. The Tigers had just five first downs for the night. The snap from center on fourth down went over punter Curtis Simpson's head and out of bounds at the McLean eleven yard line.

The Skyrockets quickly put their third score on the boards with Bobby Cantu carrying the ball across the goal line on a fourth down and two situation from the Tiger three yard line. Jessie Davis converted on the point after attempt putting the Rockets out to a 20 to 0 first quarter lead.

In the second quarter of play Wellington moved for another early score. Highlighting the Rockets fourth touchdown was a twenty-nine yard run by Shane Tarver and a twenty-three yard touchdown pass to Sammy Gonzales from George Brewer. The point after attempt was blocked leaving Wellington on top 26 to 0.

McLean who was out-matched was just unable to mount any kind of a threat all evening. They tried a few quick plays in an attempt to catch the Rockets off guard but failed.

The Rockets fifth touchdown came following a McLean punt. On third down and five from their own thirty-seven yard line quarterback George Brewer hit wide receiver Edward Thomas in the flat and Edward carried the ball untouched sixty-three yards for the score. Kelly Cook converted the point after attempt giving Wellington a 33 to 0 lead.

The final score of the first half came following a McLean recovery of a Skyrocket fumble. Center Scott Haynes fell on the fumbled punt at the Rockets forty-four yard line. On the first play from scrimmage defensive back Paul Hanna intercepted a Ricky Lowry pass at his own twenty-seven yard line and went seventy-three yards for the score. Ricky Ford's point after attempt failed leaving Wellington with a commanding 39 to 0 lead going in at the half.

Following a fine performance during intermission from the McLean and Wellington bands, the Skyrockets kicked off to McLean to begin the second half. The Tigers started from their own fourteen yard line and following a fumbled hand-off from Tiger quarterback Lowery, Wellington's Danny Morris recovered the ball at the Tiger twenty-one yard line.

Quarterback Shane Tarver immediately hit end Kelly Cook for an eight yard pass play to the Tiger thirteen yard line. On second down and two the Rockets lost five yards on a pass play to Richard Sims bringing up a third and seven. An incomplete pass on third down brought up a fourth and seven from the eighteen yard line. Kelly Cook attempted and missed a thirty-eight yard field goal try. The kick was long enough but wide.

McLean's only scoring attempt came on a field goal try in the fourth quarter. Eddie Estes did not get to attempt it, however, as the snap from center was too high.

Wellington's scoring spree came to a close in the fourth and final quarter with Shane Trver sprinting thirty-one yards and Kelly Cook converting the point after attempt. The final score was 46 to 0.

The Skyrockets close out their 1974 football season this Friday night with a game at Clarendon. Let's take another good crowd to back the Rockets.

First Baptist Members Attend Annual Meeting

A group from First Baptist Church joined 2,500 messengers and visitors at the Baptist General Convention of Texas' annual meeting in Amarillo recently.

These included Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harbin, Mrs. Rolan Bryan, Elmer Carter, Jim Forrester, John Barton, John DeVoss, Raymond Hodges, Truman Estes, Alvin Horton, Dick Pendleton, the Rev. Roy Collins, Garner Altom, Dan Langford, T.P. Belew and Dee Burba.

Speakers such as Dr. Ralph Smith, pastor of Hyde Park Baptist Church, Austin, and president of the BGCT, and Dr. James H. Landes, executive secretary of the 2-million member organization, sounded the note of evangelism.

Smith called on Texas Baptists to win at least 100,000 converts to Christ during the coming church year, to support the $20.6 million budget and to be missions minded.

Landes called on Baptist Christians to involve themselves in the fight against gambling, obscenity, pornography, selfishness and racial snobbery.

The ringing cries for evangelism were coupled with sticky social issues: The growing charismatic movement, the Equal Rights Amendment, and abortion. Messengers to the 89th annual meeting also re-elected Smith to his second term as president of the organization which includes 4,200 churches and missions across Texas.

Also elected were the Rev. Carlos McLeod, pastor of First Baptist Church of Plainview, first vice president, and Dr. L.L. Armstrong, pastor of Denton's First Baptist Church, second vice president.
