

Brother of Local People Doing His Share

Mrs. A. F. Fox, of Fillmore, Calif., a regular reader of the Herald, remitted for another year recently, and sent us the following clipping from her local California paper about her brother, A/R Warren W. Boyer. Boyer is also a brother of G. V. Boyer of Rt. 5, and Mrs. Olan Herring, Rt. 3, this city. The article follows:

"Aviation Radioman 3/C Warren W. Boyer, of Fillmore, flew as a gunner aboard a carrier-based dive bomber in recent strikes against the Philippines by Adm. William F. Halsey's Third Fleet, it was revealed here today in a delayed dispatch from the Third fleet.

"Boyer's squadron of helldivers attacked enemy ships and swept in over Jap airfields, knocking out parked planes and buildings and pounding shore installations. Many of the strikes were pressed home through heavy anti-aircraft fire, the dispatch said.

"In one attack on Manila harbor planes of the Third fleet sank eight cargo ships. On another occasion, they intercepted a Jap convoy attempting to reinforce Jap ground forces and sent six destroyers and four transports to the bottom. This blow almost cost the enemy 13 planes and most of the 8,000 troops aboard the transport."

Meadow Teacher's Husband Killed in Action Overseas

Mrs. Elsie White Davidson, a teacher in the Meadow schools, received a message early this week, that her husband, Reggie Davidson, was killed in action, Jan. 30th, while with the 90th division, under Gen. Patton on the German-Belgian front.

Mrs. Davidson and their three year old daughter left Wednesday to attend Memorial services, at Hemphill, in east Texas, the home of his parents.

Mrs. Davidson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. White, prominent citizens of the Meadow vicinity.

Bernice Blevins, who has been with the navy for the past year, in the South Pacific, is here this week on leave, visiting his family.

ERNEST WARREN TRAINING IN NEBRASKA

Staff Sgt. Ernest S. Warren, 23, recently visited his mother, Mrs. W. A. Warren here. He is now training in the aviation air corps, at Lincoln, Nebr. He was here one week.

He has been in the service since Sept. 1940, or about four and half years. He is now training as flight engineer.

Sgt. Bearden Gets 3rd Oak Leaf Cluster.

The War Department, Public Relations section, has notified the Herald, that Staff Sgt. James L. Bearden has been awarded the 3rd Oak Leaf cluster to go with his air medal for "meritorious achievement in aerial combat over Germany and enemy occupied Europe." Sgt. Bearden is with the 467th Bombardment group.

These awards were recently announced in England by Major General William E. Kepner, commander of the 2nd division. Bearden is a waist gunner on a B-24 Liberator. He took his first training at Lubbock, after entering the air corps Feb. 10, 1943.

He attended Brownfield high school, Wayland college, and Baylor University.

R. B. (Sonny) Walls, S 1/C, wrote his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walls, that he was on the seas again. His wife, the former Patsy Ballard, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Brothers, in Los Angeles, before returning to Brownfield. The couple has been in Bremerton, Wash., a waiting repairs on the ship that Sonny had been assigned to.

The Bates' Hit the Oregon Trail

Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Bates hit the trail for Oregon, not the original Lewis & Clark trail, but rather the northern route to California. Thence north to Oregon. People here call the northern route, the one through northern New Mexico and Arizona, instead of the southern part of those states.

Of course the Herald hated to see them go, as they had been our mainstay for help for the past several weeks of this year, and a lot of last year. But it was their intention to go to Oregon, where they formerly lived, the first of January, but remained here simply to help us in a tight.

But the army and navy seem to have all the younger linotype men, and right now the few older men who are left, already have good jobs, in the larger cities, where perhaps they can get their daily schooner, or they are right now afraid to change jobs, if they have one.

It therefore, has left just the family, the Old He, and the Mrs. and the Junior Mrs., assisted by Mrs. Hord and Judge Neill as news gatherers, to get out the Herald, which we will do if our health permits, until the war is over and the Junior Editor comes home, as well as other printers.

In the meantime, we promise the advertisers as well as the reader to get out the very best paper our limited facilities permit. The Herald had the unusually bad luck of having all young men when this war came up, and have had four operators drafted. These men were deferred on dailies and some weeklies.

These departments are destined to have an important part in the future employment, and procuring jobs for returning service men, as well as aiding employers in securing help.

Terms of County Court Changed

The Commissioners court, in session Monday, changed the lengths of terms of the County Court, from three weeks each, to an continuous term. This is in line with recent legislation providing for such, and is highly favored by attorneys, as it gets quicker service on trials.

The regular term of county court is first Monday in February, May, August and November, and each term continues till Saturday before next term begins. The new term begins with May 1945 term.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Simes and son Tommy, returned home Friday after visiting Mrs. Simes' mother and other members of her family, in Stroud, Okla., for a week, after receiving word that their brother and son had been killed in action in the South Pacific.

Junior C. of C. Again To Sponsor Calf Show

The Jaycees at their meeting last Thursday, decided to again sponsor the Fat Calf Show which is now an annual affair, with the FFA and 4-H club boys participating.

However, they are to make it a bigger and broader, and give prizes to be announced later. One of the new features is to pay more for second and third prizes, and arrange so that all showings may get something out of it, instead of paying so much for the grand champion. The rules of feeding and showing will be the same as last year.

Saturday, April 14th, is the date set for the show, Brownfield to be the place. Sales of prize winners may be right after the show. Purchases may be made in groups of four or more.

Theft Ring Broken; Property Recovered

Sheriffs departments of Lamesa and Tahoka, arrested five Mexicans last week, and recovered quite a lot of property, ranging from kitchen utensils, clothing, guns, furniture, radios, and even an ice box, gathered from some six counties in this area.

Sheriff Joe Price reports that Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cabe, of south side of this county, identified a lot of clothing that had been missing from their residence, sometime back.

Local Future Farmers Win Scholarships

Billy Joe Snodgrass and Earl Sears, Future Farmers of Brownfield Chapter, were awarded scholarships to the Agriculture school at Texas Tech College by the Sears and Roebuck Company. These scholarships were given for outstanding work in agriculture, scholarship, leadership, and general character.

Billy Joe was given a one hundred dollar scholarship and started to school in January. These boys were outstanding students in agriculture at Brownfield school and both are former presidents of the local FFA Chapter. Waste Fat Drive Saturday

Mrs. Roy Crosby chairman of the Waste Fat drive for the three Brownie Scout Troops, 4-5-6, says her Brownies, the weather permitting, will call on each housewife Saturday morning, beginning at 10:30. Mrs. Crosby asks that you have your fat ready and if convenient, on your front step.

Mrs. J. T. Griggs and Mrs. Ackers are the other two women who are chairmen of two of the Brownies. All three women are to be highly commended for this necessary work, and right now our war plants are asking for all the waste fat you can spare to be made up into vital explosives, sulphur drugs and various other items so necessary for the quick ending of the war. HAVE YOUR WASTE FAT READY.

Thanks Those Helping in Christmas Seal Sales

With the closing of 1944 Tuberculosis work we wish to express our appreciation to all who have had a hand in helping in any way. To the Girl Scouts and their leaders, we thank the different places of business who gave the Girl Scouts a place for the booths for selling Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. We also thank the school teachers who have cooperated heartily with us in this work. They and the Girl Scouts turned some $200 on seal sales, which we think is very, very good.

Our total Seal sales up to now have run to $44.11, which we think surprisingly good for our beginning year. Thanks to each one for their donation, whether it be large or small.

The Eastern Star and Maids and Matrons turned in a special donation, thank you very much ladies.

As we have explained before, 20 per cent of this money will go to the state office, and the rest will remain here in our county to be used as seen best toward tuberculosis control. A record is kept on how the money is used and is open to the public.

We feel like tuberculosis control should be everybody's work, and we believe all are going to cooperate more and more as the time goes on. All who have donated as much as $2.00, are now members of the Tuberculosis Association and we want you to feel that you are a part of it. The work is new to all of us, but, we will learn it together—feel free to go to Mrs. Griffith, our County Health nurse, for advice, who has done such good work and is so willing to help at all times.

We are sure much good has already been accomplished. A hearty cooperation from all will mean everything to our progress and we believe we are going to get it.

Mrs. O. L. Jones, President

Warning—Mad Dogs In the County Again

Mr. G. E. Laney, of west of Wellman, was bitten by a dog recently, and the head of the dog was sent to Austin by the Health Office here. The report is that the dog positively had rabies. Mr. Laney also believes there is a cat near his place that has the rabies.

The Health Department is now warning everyone to be on the lookout for stray dogs, and to kill all that have not been vaccinated. Since last spring rabies have been worse here than any other section of the United States. So this warning is for all to keep up their dogs and cats.

43,867 Bales Ginned Up to Feb. 8th

A. L. Hartzog phoned us last week too late to get the article in that issue, 43,867 bales of 1944 Terry county cotton had been ginned up to that time, Feb. 8th.

This is a considerable increase over the final ginnings of last year. Cotton men still believe that final ginnings of Terry county cotton will be near 50,000 bales.

LADIES NIGHT AT THE LOCAL LIONS CLUB

The local Lions feted their ladies and guests at a banquet at the Methodist church, Thursday evening. The occasion was the annual Ladies Day of that club, and to honor the 13 new members recently added.

The Lions have been very active in civic affairs the past year, and has become one of the largest and most aggressive clubs in west Texas. Guests were invited from Seminole, Seagraves and other nearby towns.

Calves Being Fed By Future Farmers A.

The Brownfield FFA boys are doing their part in producing high quality beef for the war effort. Eighteen boys have 29 Hereford and 2 Shorthorn steers on full feed, these boys are Willard Brock, Kenneth Burke, Jerry Alexander, Bill Benson, Alfred Bond, Carol Brigrance, L. G. Chambliss, Douglas Gibson, Billy Green, D. A. Key, Douglas King, Ernest Stevens, Lavoyde Wright, Nelson Brigrance, George Henson, Charles Stewart, Charles Wade, and Talma Harben.

These calves should weigh from 900 to 1200 pounds by April 14, when they are shown at the Terry County Calf Show, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The calves were bought in the summer and kept on sudan and grass pasture as long as possible. They were then started on cottonseed meal, ground bundles, and grain. This feed is all home grown except the cottonseed meal. The calves are now gaining 2 or more pounds per day and are being fed 2 pounds of cottonseed meal, 8 to 12 pounds of grain, and all of the bundles they will eat each day. The boys are gentling their calves for the show and looking forward to placing them in the choice grade.

Five boys have 9 Hereford heifers which they are feeding and keeping for the raising of calves. The boys who have heifers are: Joe Bartlett, D. A. Key, Arville Patton, Billy Winn, and Douglas Gibson. These heifers are not being fattened, but only kept in good condition and will be shown in the heifer class at the calf show.

Pfc. Wm Zachary at McClosky Hospital

Mrs. A. R. Baldwin was in from the Forrester community this week, and had the Herald sent to her son, Pfc. William M. Zachary, who is a patient at the McClosky General Hospital, Temple, Texas. Zachary was wounded in Germany during the drive, Oct. 10th, last. He was sent to a hospital in England, and arrived in the Texas hospital, Feb. 3.

Zachary belonged to a tank crew, when either a bullet or a piece of shell hit him in the knee. Evidently, according to his mother, the limb was, when it was found that it would not heal, amputated above the knee. Since arriving at Temple, he has written his mother, that the place has never fully healed.

He has to undergo another operation, soon, he stated, not stating the nature of the operation.

Elder Doyle Kelsey Called to Post Church

The Post Dispatch stated last week that the Church of Christ at Post had employed Doyle Kelsey, who for the past year has been working for the Main street church here, to work for them. He will move there as soon as housing is available.

Doyle and wife, whom he married after he came here, she being a native of Brownfield, have a host of friends who will wish them well in their new surroundings. The Post stated the congregation there were highly pleased with his sermons.

Mrs. S. T. Miller left Monday to visit her mother, Mrs. E. McGinty, in Comanche. Mrs. Roy Collier also left Monday to visit her mother, Mrs. Jess H. Harris, who also lives in Comanche.

Boy Scouts Take Over the Town

Celebrating their 35th anniversary over the nation, the three local Scout troops took over the county and city offices, Wednesday. They enjoyed the holiday and got much training in legal work and court procedure.

The local officers graciously stepped aside and rendered all aid possible. The boys got on the job quickly and were energetic in "pulling" many offenders of the traffic rules.

Each troop designated an officer who alternately served as follows:

County Judge: Alfred Bond and Willis Black.

County Attorney: Dalby Wilgus, Sonny Treadaway, Edwin Bryant.

County Clerk: Harold Henson and Jackie Worsham.

County Supt.: Euland Beck.

Tax Assessor - Collector: Gerald Price.

County Treasurer: Bill Garby, Jerry Worsham.

Justice of Peace: Donald Price, Harley Sterns, Pete Rowden.

Constable: Sam Hobby and Joe Vernon.

Mayor: Odell Quanté and Larry Bailey.

City Marshal: Donald McMahon and Johnny Bailey.

Quite a lot of deputies and patrolmen were kept busy all day, and many fines were assessed, which the Scouts appropriated to buying cigarettes for their Big Buddies overseas.

Drive For Unused Musical Instruments

(Tag Day Tomorrow)

The National Federation of Music Clubs of America are making a drive for all musical instruments that are not in use, to be donated for the service men in the army camps, hospitals, navy, here in the states and on the ships, and in all branches of the service of Uncle Sam.

Brownfield Music Clubs are taking a great part in this drive. The clubs include the Cen-Tex Harmony club, and the Treble Clef Junior Music Club.

If you have an old Victrola, think how it would help in a hospital ship, that has no other means of music; or if you have wind horns or string instruments be ready to donate when members of the club start the drive tomorrow, Feb. 17. If you have no instrument, a cash donation will be used to buy something that is needed for this cause.

Let us all help keep up the morale of the servicemen by doing our part. Be ready when called upon.

Girls taking part in "I Heard a Voice," were Charlene Weigle, as the Statue of Liberty, Louella and Willie Johnson, Bobbie Helen Brian, Anna Grace Nicholson, and Juanelle Greenfield.

The play had a patriotic theme, the story of foreigners coming to the United States, and of first seeing the Statue of Liberty, and their feelings; what the United States has done for them after 10 years.

WPB Investigates Housing Needs in Brownfield

Through the efforts of the Terry County Board of Development, in stressing the housing needs for Brownfield, J. A. Raley, Jr., Lubbock District investigator of the FHA, met with O. L. Peterman, J. V. Burnett and others of the local board, Wednesday, and took evidence of the need of housing here, with the view of prorating such with many other towns in Texas.

It was pointed out that with the great increase in farm population, the increasing oil field population nearby, the Chemical Plant, Carbon Black plant now nearing completion, and many others in the offing, all of which are permanent industries, the need for more and more housing is obvious.

There is over 200 applications for houses on hand. All realty dealers say they have calls every day for several houses. Two or three times per year Geophysical, and other oil development crews, some of as many as 20 families, seek housing here.

There is ample local capital to supply the housing demand, if they had the permits and could procure material.

Judge C. L. Lincoln's County Court ground out a busy week, trying two civil cases with a jury and disposing of several criminal cases.

City Night Officer Dies Suddenly

John A. Lewis, 56, who for the past year has been on the city night patrol, was found dead, sitting in his car, down town, early Wed. night. Presumably he died of heart failure.

Frank Jordan chanced to pass the car and noticed him, and gave the alarm. He has resided here about ten years. He is survived by his wife who is prostrate from the shock. Also six sons, four in the military service, Clyde, Elbert, Ronnie and Kenneth, and Hubert and J. B. who live here. A brother, O. G. Lewis and a sister, Mrs. J. B. Sons, both of whom reside here, and three brothers and three sisters in central Texas.

Final funeral arrangements had not been announced as we go to press.

The head of the "master race" after advising his dupes to shed all their blood for the faderland, betakes himself, including every drop of his precious (?) blood to some hideout. That shoe brush mustached guy is not going to make any sacrifices for Nazidom—the rest of the krauts are those he's taking to.

Awake after tire rationing, the comedians on the radio had this and the other gag about the matter, some laughable. That has all been forgotten, and right now it is cigarettes. We understand that some are wondering why Gen. Dug. McArthur hangs onto his old corn pipe. Is it because butts are scarce in the Philippines? We'd rather think that "the man who came back" just likes the draw on that old Missouri merchaum.

The results of the meeting of the Big Three at Yalta on the Black Sea, is surely a bitter pill to the war criminals. It was rather more severe than "the law west of the Pecos." At the same time the German people, if they have the guts to do so, may come out of the mess with some face saving grace. Will they do it? The Herald is inclined to think that the people of Germany have had a boss too long to take matters into their own hands and eliminate a lot of the sons of so-and-so, who have gotten them into this pickle. In the meantime, another meeting is called for April at San Francisco, and by then the time will be up for the Russian-Jap agreement. Russian papers have often denounced the Japs as part and parcel of the aggressor pact; Stalin has hinted as much, as well as some of his lieutenants. Will Russia refuse to renew the non-aggression pact with Japan? Will Russia join US and Britain in a war against Japan when the Nazis are eliminated? We believe that it will. What do you think?

If we are allowed just now to contribute our little mite, we'd say this is no time to talk about or even think about raising the salary of the president of the University of Texas from $17,500 to $25,000 per annum, plus a lot of other things, such as a mansion with all expenses. Nor, have we ever got around to thinking that their football coach is worth $17,000 of Texas taxpayers money. Our governor, with a lot more responsibilities, don't get but about half the $25,000 proposed by Texas legislators, who evidently was setting a precedent for a general salary hike for state paid folks from janitor up, and of course including the legislative members.

Now we know the source of some of the root beer that a lot of us drink. In the old home town paper in Tennessee last week, appeared an ad, offering $12 per ton for sassafras roots and stump (cut even with the ground line.) It was to be delivered to a factory at Hickory Valley, Tenn. In our adult years, we kinda like that foamy stuff that fills a big brimming mug, and ice cold. But in our childhood the concoction, hot as blazes, known as sassafras tea, we simply abhorred. At that time we considered the stuff medicine as the older ones said it was good for our blood. And no disguising with cream or sugar made it the less offensive to our taste. Kids are funny. We always loved raspberries, but mother said the more abundant blackberry was better for our "summer complaint." We almost hated blackberries except in those old cobbler pies.

LABOR DRAFT WOULD APPLY TO VETERANS

Washington, Feb. 10.—There is no specific exemption for ex-service men under the work-or-jail bill which the House passed and the Senate is now considering in committee.

But there is a loophole favoring war veterans and it works this way:

Draft boards, in assigning men to war plants to remedy manpower shortages, can pass over ex-service men. The power to decide is placed in the hands of the director of Selective Service. But the bill does not say that draft boards must exempt veterans from the labor draft. The board can suit themselves.

WEST TEXAS GIN TAKES SERIES OF ADS

Beginning this week, the Herald is starting a series of ads for the Educational Service of the National Cottonseed Products Association. The West Texas Gin is underwriting this whole series of eight ads.

While the above gin is not, in this section at least, interested in cottonseed products, they are very much interested in the production of cotton, and we have always found that this company is willing to go any reasonable length to put cotton production on the map.

This is done in many educational ways, such as the introduction of more prolific and earlier maturing cotton, and at this time, storm-proof cotton that may be harvested by machinery.

W. P. Brigrance, prominent farmer of the Gomez community, was in Saturday to renew for the Herald and Lubbock Avalanche.

Lee Bartlett of the Meadow area, was in town Saturday, and called to get his name up another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis and son, Don, of Odessa, visited friends here Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

Why of Live Cattle Ceiling Prices

COLLEGE STATION, FEB. 6. —Placing ceilings on live cattle will make it possible to hold meat prices rigidly to present ceilings, says Price Administrator Chester Boles in a statement received by the A. and M. College Extension Service giving primary reason for this action. "Only by fixing producers ceilings could black markets be checked and retail prices held firmly," it explains. When "choice" cattle prices moved up to $17.95 at Chicago, the statement continues, many legitimate packers lost money selling the beef at ceiling prices. They continued slaughter of such cattle only to meet the needs of their most valued customers. Ordinary retailers found supplies reduced or cut off unless they patronized the black market. But if they did that they had to charge above ceiling prices for beef.

To meet the situation OPA recommended, and Economic Stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson approved, a five-point program. In substance the plan provides an over-riding ceiling of $18 a hundredweight, Chicago basis, through June 30 next to permit feeders to dispose profitably of cattle now in feeding lots. From July 1 onward it will be $17.50.

Maximum prices and subsidy payments for "choice" cattle will be increased by $1. The minimum in the "Stabilization plan" range will be increased by 50 cents. After July 1, the $1 increases in maximum prices and subsidy payments will be reduced to 50 cents. The minimum then will be reduced by 50 cents to present levels. Maximum prices and subsidy payments for "good" cattle will be increased by 50 cents and continue after July 1 1945.

The approved program makes it a violation of price regulations for a slaughterer to pay more for live cattle on the average during any month than the revised maximum prices he is permitted to pay under the subsidy price schedule. At the same time black marketeers will be banned from bidding the prices of "choice" and "good" grades of cattle above legal ceiling prices.

Through this plan, Mr. Boles says, retailers as well as wholesalers will be helped in obtaining their rightful shares of all grades of beef at prices which will allow them to sell profitably at ceiling prices.

Hugh Cook, stock man at Pig-gly Wiggly started the Herald six months to his dad at Snyder, last week.

A. G. Brantley, one of our valued Tokio readers, was in to renew, recently.

KNOW TEXAS

By A. Garland Adair, Commissioner, Texas Centennial of Statehood.

The advent of 1945 sees Texas approaching her centenary of membership in the United States of America. A serious and momentous observance is now being planned, statewide in its scope and century wide in its duration. The revitalization of agriculture and implementing the movement to make available modern technical conveniences to bring added security, comfort, and happiness to the population of farm homes and small towns, and villages in Texas is to be the keynote of the centennial campaign as sounded by Karl Hobbeltzelle, Chairman of the Statehood Commission.

Dates memorable in history which culminated in statehood and reached the climax of its coveted goal on February 19, 1846 when the Lone Star Republic of Texas was proclaimed by President Anson Jones to have served its national destiny will not be forgotten during the observance. The schedule of these respective dates will serve to call attention to the high spots on the calendar of events 100 years ago.

They will, it is fervently hoped also serve to stimulate to success the practical and patriotic ends of this challenging farm program which is being applauded by the rank and file of Texas people and planned by a group of outstanding authorities and leaders in the field of agriculture and related small industries.

Timely it is always to turn back the pages of history before they become musty to re-discover just why it happens that, under wise planning and far sighted

Notice to Contributors

On account of being short of efficient help, we will have to ask contributors to get all matter for that week in by Wednesday noon. Otherwise we will just have to take such articles and run them the following week. Also, to conserve space, make articles as brief as possible.

We are asking our friends to bear with us in this perhaps for the duration, or at least until we are lucky enough to get a hand. One man in Alaska writes that he can start back to Texas in April 1, and work for us, but by boat that is a month's trip.

Don't misunderstand us, we want your news items, and will be glad to take them up to Wednesday noon.

Jean Knight accompanied the M. G. Tarpley family to El Paso, the first of the week.

Mrs. R. L. Hamm visited her daughter, Mrs. Ed Horner, of Seagraves, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Durbin and small son, spent the weekend at Sanatorium, Texas, where they visited Dixie Lee Burson, the daughter of Mrs. Durbin's, who is a patient there. They report Dixie Lee doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hudson were pleasant callers Saturday, to renew for the Herald going to their son, Pfc. Aaron P. Hudson, somewhere out in the wide southwest Pacific. The Hudsons are pioneer Terry county folks.

vision, the future beckons Texans onward and upward as they emerge from their first and enter upon their second century of statehood.

Year-in and year-out, Cotton and Cottonseed provide more income and more dependable income than any other crop you can grow. Some years, some crops bring very high yields and revenues—but we all know what happens to these crops in other years of reduced demand and disastrously low prices.

You can count on Cotton—it's your best bet for sure sale and dependable yields, plus a price that is guaranteed by the government.

Plant good 'and, and enough acres of it, to Cotton this year, and give your land and your crop the care that brings higher yields, not only today but in the future. Cotton, your best "pay crop," deserves the best land and best care you can give it.

Can't Keep House Without the Herald

T. E. Hobbs wrote in recently enclosing the two "bones" for another year of the Herald, and stated that he can not keep house without the Herald. He is not sure whether it is a good paper, or has poisoned his system, like Brown Mule or some other bad habit. He has moved too, from paper, T. E.

Hollis to Vinson, in the Sooner state.

Now we are not saying that T. E. had to move, for he is a pretty good stayer. He came to Terry a few years after we landed here in 1909, and remained until three or four years ago, when he sold out. All joking aside, T. E. will make any community a mighty fine citizen.

Yep, you got your name in the habit. He has moved too, from paper, T. E.

Tax Collections Coming in Nicely

Tax Collector, J. V. Burnett, announced this week, that up to Feb. 1, he had collected 94 percent of all county and state taxes and that since then quite a lot had paid up. He pointed out that the penalty for February collections, is 1 1/2 per cent, and 1 1/2 per cent added for each month after delinquency, being from February 1st, to June, then flat 10 per cent penalty and 6 per cent interest will be added as well as some costs.

He also calls attention to the fact that car license tags are now on hand, and may be issued from now until April. He stated that quite a number are paying in, so as to avoid the last minute rush.

Mrs. Roy Figley and daughter, Myrna Kay, or Electra, came Monday to visit about ten days in the P. N. Figley home.

"I Am An American"

I am an American. I am the richest man on earth. I inherited from my forefathers a fortune so colossal it can not be expressed in figures: FREEDOM. The right to toil how, when and where I please; the right to make of myself what I please—my attainments limited only by my will and ability to do; the right to enjoy the fruits of my labor how, when and where I please.

In this dark hour my fortune is in jeopardy. My fellow American is spilling his blood to lie in an unmarked grave somewhere "over there" to protect my fortune. I am therefore charged with two solemn and sacred obligations: The one, not to reason why, but to do—to stand four square behind that "man over there;" to toil and sacrifice and yield up my all to him to the end that his job may be well done. The other, to see to it that when this job is done he may come back to a land where he and his posterity may forever enjoy his heritage.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. P. R. Cates has been quite ill at the local hospital. Her sister, Mrs. A. W. Enderson, of Fort Worth, extended her visit a week in order to be at her bedside.

SCHOOL BOYS FOREGO FOOTBALL GAME TO HELP FARMERS

College Station, Feb. 12—When school boys voluntarily forego a high school football game to pull cotton for a farmer you know it could happen only in America.

This demonstration of patriotism occurred in Stephens county last fall during the critical stage of the cotton crop. According to delayed reports to County Agent J. M. Cooper, 38 of them abandoned the excitement of the football field for the C. C. Keith farm where they pulled two bales of cotton. Their ages ranged from eight to fourteen, and Cooper believes that many of them never had been in a cotton field before.

During the Christmas holidays another group of Breckenridge school youngsters went to the Harpersville community and cleaned up the cotton crop of I. L. Griffith for which no labor was available. "Those kids were a life saver to me in saving my crop," Mr. Griffith told Cooper. Working Saturdays and holidays until the job was finished, these youngsters saved the crops of a number of other farmers in the county, Cooper said.

Mrs. F. E. Calvary of Tahoka, and J. K. Woolsey of Lubbock, visited in the homes of their sisters, Mesdames Daniel Davis and Mrs. Spencer Kendrick, Sunday.

Ernest Ashley and Carl Ashley of Dickens county, visited in the home of their brother, Ward Ashley, several days last week.

Mrs. Frank Ballard left last Thursday to be with her mother who is ill in an Amarillo hospital, with pneumonia.

Geo. A. Wright was in from the Willow Wells section, and dropped in to renew, Saturday. George gets his mail on route 1, Seagraves.

GET YOUR FREE COPY OF THE "FURROW"

Many farmers of the Brownfield vicinity in the next few days will receive a copy of the Golden Anniversary issue or the "Furrow", national farm publication, published by John Deere, Moline, Ill.

Marking fifty years' continuous publication, devoted to the interest and advancement of agriculture, "The Farrow" has been read by several local farmers for several years.

Articles in this special anniversary issue, bring to the reader discussions on progress and achievement made in agriculture during the past half century. Modernization of farm implements through the years, leading to present day power farming, and development of farm practices and methods relative to soil culture, planting and harvesting of crops, are featured.

Also appearing in the farm publication are several articles, which are reminiscent of farms and living conditions of the "Gay Nineties."

"The Furrow" published six times a year, is mailed free to local farmers with the compliments of the local John Deere dealer. Many educational farm articles, written by authorities in the farming industry, are published in each issue.

Joe Stutts has agreed to help the Herald each week with the newspaper press work, after his working hours with the local telephone company.

Troy Noel and W. L. Bandy left Sunday to take the baths in Marlin.
