'IDEAL FATHER'

Widow Calls Kiser 'Perfect Husband'

Jack Kiser's widow stood on the front porch of her modest Colorado City home late Tuesday evening and her eyes brimmed with tears as she called her husband an "ideal father."

"He was the most perfect husband and ideal father that you could find anywhere in the world," she said as her small red-haired daughter played on the living room floor, just inside the front screen.

"Jackie loved his little girl like she was his own child," Mrs. Kiser said. The child was Kiser's stepdaughter.

Kiser, a 26-year-old service station attendant, died Saturday night here after a scuffle in the local police station involving city patrolman Roy Barker.

She said that Kiser served for about eight years in the U. S. Marine Corps and was awarded the purple heart and several good conduct medals.

Among the campaigns in which he served while on duty in the Korean War was the plight of the Marines at the Chosen Reservoir in the winter of 1951.

When questioned, she said, "I have no comment to make at present" on the events leading up to her husband's death.

"Everytime I try to talk about it, I break up," she said.

She had been married to Kiser for 15 months and one day, she said, and both of them called Colorado City their hometown.

"I haven't eaten or slept since it happened," she said. "I haven't been able to."

Kiser received his discharge from the Marines on Jan. 17, 1956.

The family had lived in Colorado City for three weeks in a small house at 430 West Seventh St.

Funeral services were held for Kiser at 4:30 p. m. Monday at the First Baptist Church in Westbrook with Rev. L. P. Lee officiating.

Burial was in the Westbrook Cemetery under the direction of Kiser and Sons Funeral Home of Colorado City.

Kiser was born in Sherman on June 5, 1931. He married Dottie Elaine Bond in Minneapolis, Minn., on March 28, 1956.

He is survived by his wife.

his stepdaughter, Rodee Bond, 5; his mother, Mrs. D. C. Colburn of Westbrook; five brothers, A. T. Kiser of Dallas, Harold Kiser of Odessa, Bill Kiser of Amarillo, Alton Kiser of Sherman and Bob Kiser of Corpus Christi.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. R. W. Allen of Dallas and Mrs. Fay Blythe of Whitesboro.

Palbearers were Arlie Moore, Leroy Miller, Clarence Taylor, Leroy Gressett, Russell Bird and Willie Brooks.

Two National Awards Won By Jaycees

Colorado City Junior Chamber of Commerce this week won national awards in agriculture and Americanism.

The awards were won in competition with hundreds of other Jaycee clubs in Division I for towns under 10,000 population.

The awards are:

First place in agriculture and conservation.

Second place in Americanism.

Presentation of the plaques came this week at the National Jaycee Convention in Milwaukee, Wis.

Accepting the awards on behalf of Colorado City club was Bob Deegan of Abilene, state vice-president.

Deegan presented the plaques to the local club Wednesday at regular weekly luncheon in Civic House.

Scrapbooks, on which the awards were based, were prepared by Elmer Martin in agriculture and Bob Ratliffe in Americanism.

Both scrapbooks won first in state competition this year.

Main speaker at the awards luncheon was Vice President Richard Nixon.

Texas led the nation in awards, receiving 54. Utah was runner-up with 23.

Following Colorado City in the agriculture division was Dewitt, Iowa and Prosser, Wash.

Beating C. City in Americanism was Fort Madison, Iowa. Third place was Mineral Wells, Tex.

Martin's scrapbook last year won second in the nation.

The agriculture scrapbook this year cited a six-point program by the local Jaycees. It involved securing 22 acres for a range.

ONCE A HERO—Patrolman Roy Barker, charged in the Saturday death of Jack Kiser, is shown here two years ago after he had, almost singlehandedly, captured Thomas Shaw, one of the nation's 10 most-wanted men, sought by the FBI and authorities in 11 states.

FOR ROY BARKER

Officer's 'Slapper' Holds Two Stories

A policeman's "slapper" is a sort of heavy leather blackjack with a chunk of lead wrapped in the leather at one end.

It is standard equipment for officers in almost every town and city across the nation and its most frequent use is in subduing rowdy, drunken or otherwise uncontrollable prisoners.

For Colorado City patrolman Roy Barker, his "slapper" is now both a friend and an enemy.

Almost exactly two years ago, in the dark, early-morning hours of Wednesday, July 13, 1955, rookie patrolman Roy Barker eased his prowl car out of a service station driveway and onto a Colorado City street.

On a hunch, Barker swung in behind a new Chrysler sedan headed east on U. S. Highway 80.

Pulling closer to read the rear license plate, Barker discovered that the Chrysler was the same one on which a pickup order had been issued earlier by New Mexico authorities.

The car's owner had purchased the automobile a short time before in Gallup, N. M. He had paid for it with a $1,750 hot check.

Barker flashed his red light and the big Chrysler pulled over to the side of the highway. The driver offered his operator's license freely, but balked when Barker told him he would have to come to the Colorado City police station with the officer.

The man behind the wheel of the car jammed the Chrysler into gear, but Barker reached into the car as it began to move and grabbed the man by the collar.

After pulling the driver, 6' pounds heavier than himself from the car, a struggle began and patrolman Barker reached for his pistol.

The two men grappled for possession of the gun and the driver of the car growled, "I hate to have to kill you, fella."

Barker, frantically struggling for his life, felt for his "slapper." His searching fingers found it and he began hitting his assailant about the head.

They continued to struggle.

and Barker, severely bitten several times by the larger man, continued to use the "slapper" until help arrived in the form of a bus driver and other city officials.

Jack Kiser Dead Following Struggle

City Patrolman Roy Barker, 23, was free here Wednesday on $2500 bond after murder, without malice charges were filed against him Tuesday in Justice court.

Barker was charged, on a recommendation by the Mitchell County grand jury, in connection with the Saturday night police station death of Jack Edward Kiser, 26.

Kiser, employee of Fuller's Truck Terminal, was pronounced dead at 11:31 p. m. Saturday after a scuffle developed between Barker and Kiser as Kiser was being booked at the downtown Colorado City police station.

In the fray, in which Barker was reportedly wrestled or knocked to the floor, Kiser was struck about the head with a "slapper"—a flat leather-bound blackjack carried by all police officers.

Dr. W. Kenneth Cowan was called to the station by police. He pronounced Kiser dead after artificial respiration and oxygen failed to revive him.

Barker was suspended from police duty, pending an investigation, early Sunday morning.

Murder without malice charges were filed by County Attorney Frank Ginzell in the absence of District Attorney Eldon Mahon, on vacation in Las Vegas, Nev.

The charge alleges that Barker "voluntarily and while under the immediate influence of a sudden rage and passion, did unlawfully strike and hit Jack Kiser about the head with a leather slapping stick, and did then and there, by the use of such means, kill the said Jack Kiser."

Mahon was contacted by phone Tuesday night, Ginzell said, and stated he would return to Colorado City Friday.

The district attorney also emphasized that "the fact a policeman is involved will make no difference in the investigation."

Mahon backed Ginzell's current investigation into the case and declared the investigation would be continued and all facts in the case placed before the Mitchell County grand jury.

The grand jury, called into special session Monday afternoon at 2 p. m. to consider the case, in unique action recommended that a charge be filed.

The grand jury will convene again July 15 to determine whether an indictment should be returned or the policeman notified.

Barker made news headlines here two summers ago when in a life-and-death struggle across Highway 80 he captured badman Thomas Shaw, fugitive wanted in a dozen states and listed by the FBI as one of the 10 most wanted criminals in the nation.

He joined the Lubbock police staff Sept. 17, 1955, two months after the Shaw capture here. And he served as a Lubbock police man until resigning Oct. 28, 1956.

The Lubbock police department informed the Record Wednesday that Barker submitted his resignation to Lubbock Police Chief Bill Lamb "to go into another line of work."

Barker's service record in Lubbock includes a letter of commendation for his police work on a burglary case. The commendation was issued Oct. 11, 1956, 17 days before his resignation.

The 23-year-old policeman re-joined the Colorado City force this year.

Events leading to Kiser's death and the charges against Barker began late Saturday night when a wheel of Kiser's auto dropped into a cellar at the edge of the parking lot at Starr's Drive Inn, located on East Highway 80.

The cellar opening was reportedly covered with logs at the time.

Kiser went inside the cafe, where witnesses said he walked through the dining room and into the rear of the restaurant where he confronted cafe man

MRS. BURT SMITH DIES IN DALLAS

Mrs. Burt Smith, 69, died Wednesday at 12:30 a. m. in Baylor Hospital in Dallas after undergoing surgery there Tuesday morning.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Kiser and Son Funeral Home.

STILL RECUPERATING—Mrs. Ocie Norton of La Puente, Calif., who was injured two weeks ago in a one-car collision west of here, was still in Root Memorial Hospital Tuesday. She and her five-month-old son, Tommy, were recovering from neck injuries. They were scheduled to return with Mrs. Norton's mother (standing) to their California home this week. (Record Staff Photo)

FULL DAY THURSDAY

Community Service Launches Activities

Colorado City's second annual July 4 Celebration was launched Wednesday night with religious services at Ruddick Park's amphitheatre.

Principal speaker for the community-wide services was Dr. J. Chess Lovern, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Lubbock. Thursday will offer a full day of activities as the holiday celebration continues here.

Fishing contests, sponsored by the Mitchell County Sportsmen's Club, will be held all day Thursday at Lake Colorado City.

Awards will be given for the largest crappie, the largest bass, the largest catfish and the largest string of rough fish.

Fish will be weighed at the Sportsmen's clubhouse on the lake.

Swimming and diving contests for junior and senior boys and girls are on tap for 2 p. m. Thursday afternoon at Ruddick Park Pool. The contests will include free style, sidestroke and backstroke swimming.

Awards will be given to winners by the sponsors of the event, the Chamber of Commerce merchants committee.

Climaxing the round of activities, a street square dance will be held at 7:30 Thursday night on Elm Street in front of the Civic House.

The dance, which is expected to draw about 150 dancers and a number of callers from all over

Services Held Here For Infant

Graveside services for James Eddie Gaddis Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Eddie Gaddis Sr., were conducted Tuesday afternoon in Westbrook Cemetery.

The infant died early Monday morning in his parents' home.

He was born May 12 in Midland.

Rev. Ollie Bell, pastor of the Pentecostal Church, conducted final rites.

Survivors include his parents; a brother, Lyndon Gaddis; a sister, Carolyn Gaddis; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Gaddis, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F.Y.E. Tutwiler.

ON U.S. 80 NEAR BIG SPRING

Services Held for Child, 10, Killed in Monday Auto Crash

Rites were held here Wednesday for a 10-year-old Colorado City child, Minnie Lee Hill, who was killed instantly Monday night when the car in which she was riding was struck from the rear by a milk truck two and one-half miles east of Big Spring on U. S. Highway 80.

The child was thrown from the car and was killed when she struck the pavement. Other members of her family, who were also in the car at the time, escaped serious injury.

Highway Patrol officers said that the truck plowed into the back of the Hill car as it slowed down behind a trailer.

The truck driver, James Gregory Wells, 19, of Coyanosa, topped a rise behind the Hill automobile and was upon the car before he could slow down.

Wells attempted to avoid the car but was unable to pass because of oncoming traffic. Both the truck and the car lurched into a field on the south side of the highway, officers said.

Mrs. Lewis J. Hill, the child's mother, was driving the car at the time of the crash. The family was en route to their home in Colorado City from a family reunion at Midland.

The Hill car, a 1952 Ford, was totally demolished.

The family was taken to Cowper Clinic in Big Spring where the child was pronounced dead on arrival.

Her body was transferred Tuesday morning to Kiser and Son

Funeral Home here.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Pentecostal Holiness Church with Bro. C. S. Franklin officiating.

Burial was in the Colorado City Cemetery.

Minnie was born in Boise City, Okla., Oct. 24, 1946 and came to Colorado City with her parents five years ago.

The family lives at 319 East 16th St. Mr. Hill is a driller for Melton-Krug Drilling Co. of Colorado City.

Besides her parents, she is survived by a younger brother and sister, Lewis J. Hill Jr. and Jo Ann Hill.

Palbearers were six boys from Minnie's elementary school class.

Auto Drags Woman In Collision Here

Mrs. Eldon Grisham of Rt. 2 suffered bruises, dislocated neck and nose in an auto accident here Monday, 4 p. m.

Mrs. Grisham, 31, was injured when the auto she was driving collided with an auto driven by Mary Belle Stockton, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stockton, 1944 Locust.

The wreck happened at corner of 20th and Vine St.

Impact of the collision knocked open the door of the Grisham auto.

Mrs. Grisham's body was thrown outside of the car, but her foot caught on the brake pedal, trapping her as the car careened down the street.

She was dragged approximately 25 feet before the auto came to a stop in a vacant lot.

The injured woman was taken to a local clinic for emergency treatment and then transferred to Root Memorial Hospital. She said Wednesday she didn't know when physicians would release her from the hospital.

Miss Stockton apparently escaped injury.

Damage to the Grisham auto, a 1952 Studebaker, was estimated at $250 by City Policeman Lawrence Powell. Damage to the Stockton auto, a '57 Ford, was estimated at $125.

FARM FUEL KICK-BACK

Farmers May Ask Return on Gas Tax

Farmers are reminded by C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist, that they may now apply for a refund on the 3-cent Federal tax on gasoline used for farming. The amount claimed must be based on the quantity of fuel used for farming purposes on individual farms and ranches during the period from July 1, 1956, to June 30, 1957. Bates says that all claims must be submitted to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, and claims for the past year must be in by September 30, 1957. Only one refund claim per farm operator will be permitted and each tax claimant is cautioned to make certain that his refund request includes all eligible fuel used.

Each farm or ranch operator who applied for tax refunds in 1956 will be mailed Form 2240 for filing the 1957 claim. An instruction sheet for preparing the application will also be provided, says Bates. For new fuel users or those who failed to file last year, copies of the filing form may be obtained from the office of the local county agent.

Too, Bates suggests, that a copy of Publication 368, Farmers Gas Tax Refund, prepared by the Internal Revenue Service, be obtained from the county agent's office or from the nearest District Internal Revenue Service Office.

The specialist advises agricultural producers who used an appreciable amount of gasoline last year in their farming or ranching operations to check into their eligibility for a refund. The legislation which makes possible the refund was passed by Congress in the spring of 1956 and farmers unfamiliar with the procedure should contact their local county agent or Internal Revenue Service for details.

State-Wide Irrigation Meet
An estimated 3,000 miles of concrete irrigation pipe is now in use on Texas farms. Because of the widespread interest and requests for information on the subject of concrete irrigation pipe, a meeting has been set for July 16. It will be held in the Aggie Auditorium on the Texas Tech campus at Lubbock with a 9 a. m. starting time.

R. V. Thurmond and D. W. Sherrill, irrigation specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, say the meeting is open to any person who is interested in concrete pipe for irrigation or in problems relating to the installation of such systems. Featured speaker on the one-day program will be A. F. Pillsbury, professor of irrigation, University of California. The extension specialists point out that between 25 and 30,000 miles of concrete irrigation pipe are used in California and that Prof. Pillsbury, because of his work in the state, is recognized as one of the nation's authorities on the subject.

Another feature which is sure to get a lot of attention will be the announcement of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers standards for design and installation of non-reinforced concrete irrigation pipe systems. Thurmond says this is the first effort to put uniform standards in effect all over the nation. A new film, "Concrete Life Lines", which was released only a month ago by the Portland Cement Association will be shown just prior to the noon recess.

Other speakers will include Tom Cowan, area engineer, Soil Conservation Service; M. P. Hammond and Bruce Spencer, Gifford-Hill-Western; John Koester, Portland Cement Association; Charles Richter, real estate loan officer, Farmers Home Administration and Lester Young, State ASC Office.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Extension Service.

12 KILLED LAST YEAR

10 Texans Expected to Die in Traffic on State's Highways During July 4 Holiday

By VERN SANFORD, Texas Press Association.

State Highway Patrolmen are on the lookout for careless drivers. Ten Texans are scheduled to die on the highways during the holidays, according to Homer Garrison Jr., Department of Public Safety Director. Twelve died on July 4 last year.

DPS traffic predictions usually are frighteningly accurate. However, state law enforcement officers are doing their best to cut the traffic toll and thereby prove themselves wrong in their estimates.

Gov. Price Daniel has made a personal appeal to Texans to join together to "curb the senseless slaughter on our streets and highways."

Colonel Garrison reports 120 extra units will be added to the patrol for the holiday "Operation Deathwatch." Their job will be to spot the speeders, drunken or reckless drivers and take them off the roads before accidents occur.

Texas Safety Association has joined in the push for better citizenship on the highways. TSA says last year's traffic accidents in Texas cost $275,000,000 took 2,611 lives and injured another 115,000 persons.

Grand Jury Digs In
Travis County grand jury touched off a rash of speculation by issuing subpoenas to a new group of witnesses.

What they found out about the affairs of the bankrupt ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas and former Ins. Comm. Chm. J. Byron Saunders will not be known until later in the summer when the jury reports.

Colorful ex-Ranger Manuel T. (Lone Wolf) Gonzallus was the headliner witness. Gonzallus once was vice president of a Ben Jack Cage enterprise, making purse-size alarms for women to summon help. He said he had nothing to do with ICT, also managed by Cage.

State Capitol NEWS

Others called to testify were Mrs. Mae Swaidner of Dallas, longtime secretary to Saunders; Paul B. Kelly of Austin, personal friend of Saunders; and Dick Matfield, Tyler CPA who was asked to bring Saunders' financial records.

Cage Promises to Return
Meanwhile, Ben Jack Cage, kingpin of the controversy, announced from Brazil that he'll come back to Texas "in about a month" and straighten everything out.

Cage, former manager of ICT, is under indictment in Dallas for embezzlement of the firm's funds. Governor Daniel had tried to get Cage forcibly returned to Texas for trial, but found the U. S. has no extradition treaty with Brazil.

Cage terms the Texas talk "hysteria," blames his successors at ICT for the company's collapse. But he said he plans to set up a corporation under which 75 per cent of his earnings for the rest of his life go to repay ICT shareholders.

'New Look' Launched
Texas' long-heard "clean slate" Insurance Commission is finally a reality.

The "New Look" was officially launched with the appointment of Assistant State Auditor William A. Harrison as Commissioner of Insurance. Under the reorganization law passed by the last legislature, the commissioner is to be a $20,000-a-year executive who will run the department.

Although it will be one of the highest-paid posts in state government, Harrison is serving without pay. Through oversight the legislature neglected to make the commissioner's salary effective until Sept. 1.

Harrison, who was named "temporarily" until September, is reportedly serving "on faith" that the Legislature will make some adjustment when it next meets.

Teacher Money Assured
Teachers, who've had state officials scraping and scrambling for months, are now apparently assured of receiving their $399 a year raise beginning next fall.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson ruled that $4,000,000 can be made available for this purpose on Aug. 22. A bill authorizing transfer of this amount from the permanent school endowment fund becomes effective 90 days after adjournment, said Wilson.

Earlier doubts had been raised whether wording of the bill would permit the transfer before the end of this fiscal year, Aug. 31.

First With The Worst
Cost of Texas' severe weather damage in 1957 will probably top $100,000,000, says William L. McGill, Official total is already more than $91,000,000.

McGill, director of Texas Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Headquarters, said this year has brought the "most far-reaching and widespread destruction the state ever has known."

Texas always has had the "dubious distinction" of leading the nation in catastrophes he said, recalling the Galveston flood, New London school explosion, and the Texas City disaster.

But 1957, he recounted, brought, in just four months, 120 tornadoes that hit the ground; major floods in 13 river basins; and, for good measure, the worst blizzard in history in the Panhandle.

As McGill spoke at a statewide Civil Defense Advisory Council conference in Austin, hurricane warnings were posted on the Gulf Coast. "That," said McGill, "is all we need."

Highway Plans Explained
State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer is trying to soothe riled East Texans who learned that a proposed new interstate highway would bypass them.

Plans show that "Interstate 2" designed to extend from Shreveport, La., to El Paso, would miss both Wood and Upshur Counties.

Greer promised that present U. S. Highway 80, which runs through those areas, will be improved to a 4-lane artery. It will serve the purposes of the area better than the controlled-access interstate road which does not permit easy cross-traffic, said Greer.

the little flame
that freezes . . .
secret of today's most amazing refrigerator

Thirty years ago came the first "electric ice boxes" . . . costly, complicated, noisy, and glutted for current. Two Swedish chemists decided there must be a better way and discovered The Little Flame That Freezes. A tiny gas flame made all other refrigerators old-fashioned! No noise! Nothing to wear out! They had discovered the refrigerator that was 30 years ahead of its time! It still is!

Mrs. Thompson Speaks to Fairview Club

Mrs. Charles C. Thompson, Friday afternoon was guest speaker for a meeting of the Fairview Home Demonstration Club at the lake cabin of Mrs. C. C. Berry. Mrs. Thompson spoke about mental health.

She told of the great need to study and practice mental health. The speaker used highway signs to illustrate her talk.

"Tolerance, sense of humor and work are things we need for good mental health," the group heard.

The meeting was opened with the club prayer by Mrs. P. H. Pace. The birthday song was sung for two members, Mrs. E. T. Strain and Mrs. R. E. McMillan.

After the program refreshments of punch, cookies and nuts were served to Mrs. Rollin K. Snethen and Mrs. Thompson, guests: Mrs. Pace, Mrs. James Cox, Mrs. Ed Bodine, Mrs. Preston Morris, Mrs. W. C. Berry, Mrs. J. L. Strain, Mrs. O. L. Simpson, Mrs. E. T. Strain, Mrs. McMillan, Mrs. Earl Hunter, Mrs. Lon Strain and the hostess members.

Next meeting of the club will be July 11 in the home of Mrs. Bodine.

"Choosing patterns" will be the topic of program by Miss Elinor Harvey, county HD agent.

GA's Have Business Meeting in Church

A regular meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary of Oak Street Baptist Church was conducted Monday morning in the church basement. Monette Lewallen presided to the business session. Vonita Cawthron said the opening prayer.

Those present were Monette Lewallen, Sue Philipp, Vonita Cawthron, Carolyn Sprott, Peggy Hazard, Linda Sprott and Mrs. Welda McMillan.

Rev. Jack Selcraig, pastor of First Baptist Church, last week served as camp pastor for an intermediate Girls' Auxiliary camp at the Baptist camping grounds in Big Spring.

CANDLELIGHT RITES

Violet Schafer, James Hargrove Are Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Violet Schafer and James H. Hargrove were married Friday evening in a double ring ceremony in Oak Street Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Schafer of 1816 Locust Street and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hargrove of 429 Oak Street.

Rev. V. F. Love, of Slaton, a former pastor of the Assembly of God Church here, read the wedding vows.

Church altar was centered with a large, tall basket of white majestic daisies. A smaller basket of majestic daisies and candleabra accented each side of the altar. Candelabra were banked with emerald foliage.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a street-length gown of white velvet stephenotis which were centered with seed pearls.

The bride carried a glabella, showered with white satin ribbon, with a white Bible.

Her wedding attire served as the traditional something new, the Bible, something borrowed. She had a penny in her shoe for good luck.

Mrs. Velma Lindsey, pianist, presented traditional wedding music and accompanied Miss Rhettia Biggs as she sang "Always".

Miss Mary Jane Rutherford, maid of honor, wore a pale blue dress of poplin. The fitted bodice was covered with a jacket which was styled with a high rounded neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her full gored skirt was street-length. The costume was completed by white accessories.

She carried an arrangement of pink carnation on a white lace fan.

Candles were lighted by Sue Thomas and Lee Schafer, brother of the bride.

Wendell Miller served as best man.

Ushers were Don Baugh of Lovington, N. M.; Donald Clark, L. J. Brown and Bill Robertson.

Acceptance in the church's Fellowship Hall following the ceremony honored the wedding couple.

Bridal table was covered with a lace cloth over pink-centered with the three-tiered wedding cake. Punch bowl was encircled with pink carnations and plumed fern.

Miss Martha Davis registered guests, Miss Carolyn Lou Brown cut cake, Miss Judy Dixon laid punch.

For their honeymoon trip to points in East Texas, the bride changed to a blue linen sheath dress, complimented by white accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

They are residing at 153 Oak Street.

The bride is a student at Colorado High School. Her husband, a 1956 graduate of local schools, is employed by Texas Electric Service Company.

Out-of-town guests attended the wedding from Roscoe, Wichita, Kan.; Snyder, Westbrook and Loraine.

Mrs. Craddock Is Leader for Circle Study

Mrs. J. S. Craddock Sr. was program leader Monday morning for the Belle Bennett Circle of First Methodist Church in the home of Mrs. R. J. Wallace.

Program for the regular monthly meeting included the study of foreign missions and schools.

Mrs. Clarence Collins reviewed her activities last week while attending a church study session at Mt. Sequoyah, Ark.

Mrs. Luke Long was elected as new church activities chairman. She replaces Mrs. Sue Johnson, who was unable to serve in the position.

A birthday gift was presented to Mrs. H. P. Allmond, the circle's sunshine mother.

During the business session, members reported visits to three prospective members and 30 shut-in friends.

Guests for the meet were Beth Wallace, granddaughter of the hostess, and Cindy Bloomer, granddaughter of Mrs. Jesse L. Bradley.

Frosted orange drinks were served to guests and members.

Mrs. R. S. Bremman, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Claude Hooks, Mrs. J. L. Pigeon, Mrs. Craddock, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Myrtle Wulfen, Mrs. R. H. Ratliff Sr., Mrs. J. W. Ratliff.

Mrs. D. H. Davis, Mrs. Leslie Costin, Mrs. Tom Grant, Mrs. W. W. Rhode, Mrs. I. W. Terry, Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Wallace.

Next month's meeting will be Aug. 5 in the home of Mrs. Collins.

Adocks Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Adcock and children of Victoria are visiting in the home of Mrs. Adcock's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ed Boatright this week.

Committees Prepare For Open House Fete

Committees for preparation of open house at First Presbyterian Church's new Fellowship Hall were named Monday during a monthly meeting of women of the church.
Mrs. Roy Davis Coles, president, appointed the committees which will prepare decorations and refreshments for the Sunday affair.
Mrs. Frank Ramsdell and Mrs. Gerald Gordon will be in charge of decorations. Mrs. Oscar Sherman, Mrs. B. McQuerry, Mrs. Frank Glitzel and Mrs. Bernie Grable will prepare refreshments.
Mrs. Jerold Riordan and Mrs. W. M. Elliott will preside at the refreshment table. Miss Nellie Riordan will register guests.
The public is invited to attend the open house from 4 p. m. until 6 p. m., according to Mrs. Coles and Mrs. Riordan, women's group reporter.
The regular general and business meeting in the church was opened with prayer by Mrs. Riordan.
In the absence of Mrs. Earl Clary, secretary, Mrs. Bernie Grable read newsletters from Mrs. J. R. Wright, Presbyterian president, and Mrs. L. Rogers Synodical president.

Mrs. Coles directed the general program, "Roots of Democracy," taken from the group's year's study, "Christian Citizenship." Devotional thoughts were taken from Matthew 7:12-30. Mrs. Coles also read an article, "The American Ideal," by Herbert Hoover. Miss Nellie Riordan reviewed the article, "Foundation Stones of Freedom—The Creed of America."
Mrs. Elliott spoke about the Presbyterian heritage in connection with the signing of the Declaration of Independence.
The meeting was closed with the mizpah.
Members attending were Mrs. Coles, Mrs. Grable, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Fielding Lee Sr., Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. McQuerry, Mrs. Sherman, Miss Riordan and Mrs. Riordan.

Blue Sox Whip Eagles In Protested Game

The Blue Sox overcame a six-run Eagle lead, coming from behind to win, 9-8, at Farm League Field last week.
The game was finished under protest. Eagles' manager Ernie Lelek protested the use of an ineligible player by the Blue Sox.
After the game, Lelek appealed to Farm League President Earl Taylor for a ruling on the use of players over the legal Little League age. If Taylor rules that the Little League Rules apply to the Farm League in this case as Lelek contends they should, the game will be re-played at a later date.

Mrs. Hickman Speaks to Church Group

Mrs. A. O. Hickman was guest speaker for a recent meeting of Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints' Episcopal Church in Parish House.
Mrs. Hickman spoke about the painting of "The Last Supper" under the general theme, "Religion Through Art."
Mrs. Laurence Rudd, who assisted Mrs. Hickman, reviewed the historical background of the painting by reading Biblical scriptures. She displayed an arranged communion table during her talk.
Mrs. W. R. (Jinks) Powell, hostess for the evening, served fruit punch and cookies.
Members and guests attending were Miss Martha Earnest, Mrs. R. J. Walther, Mrs. Lois Prude Bennett, Mrs. E. H. Richardson, Mrs. Stewart, Cooper, Mrs. Frank Ramsdell, Mrs. Harry Logsdon, Mrs. R. H. Ratliff Sr., Mrs. E. L. Dorn, Mrs. Sam L.

Presbyterians Schedule Open House Sunday

Open house will be held Sunday at the new educational building of the First Christian Church from 4 until 6 p. m.

The public is invited. The new building houses primary rooms, fellowship hall, a kitchen, pastor's study and the church parlor.

All rooms will be shown by Sunday School teachers and committee members.

Mrs. Gerald Riordan and Mrs. W. M. Elliott will serve punch to guests in the fellowship hall.

Land on which the new structure was built was purchased by the late Tommy Dawse and given to the church in the name of his son, Ben Dawse Van Tyle.

Ground-breaking for the building was begun on the 75th anniversary celebration of the local church in 1956.

The receiving line will be composed of Rev. and Mrs. Earl Clary, Jerold Riordan, senior elder; Oscar Sherman, president of the men of the church, and Mrs. Roy Davis Coles, president of the women of the church.

Miss Nellie Riordan will be at the register.

scuffle developed. Kiser became violent and struck officer Barker, wrestling him to the floor from where Barker, in defense of himself and to restore order, arose and struck Kiser with his slap- per (a form of blackjack in common use by all police departments), Kiser falling to the floor and striking his head.

"Artificial respiration and oxygen failed to revive him (Kiser) and he was pronounced dead by Dr. W. Kenneth Cowan, who was called by police, at 11:31 p. m.

"Officer Barker and all witnesses voluntarily submitted themselves to county authorities for questioning and action immediately in complete disregard of the fact that Officer Barker was performing his official duty as a police officer."

"Officer Barker was placed on suspension early Sunday morning," the police statement concluded.

'SLAPPER'

The driver of the Chrysler was taken into custody. He was identified as Thomas Bradford Shaw, among the 10 most-wanted criminals in the United States, sought by the FBI and authorities in 11 states on charges ranging from white slavery to hot check writing.

Roy Barker was a hero in Colorado City then, and his "slapper" had helped not only to bring in a desperate criminal, but to save his own life.

Roy Barker's "slapper" was in the news again this week, but this time, a man was dead.

ager Bill Parrot. "He was disturbing the peace and using profane language," Parrot said.

Patrolman Barker and a friend, Don Seale, were in the cafe when Kiser entered. They heard the commotion in the rear of the cafe and went back to investigate.

Kiser was complaining about the cellar and the predicament of his car.

Barker accompanied Kiser and Parrot outside, where Kiser continued to swear at Parrot in a loud voice, Parrot said.

Witnesses said that Policeman Barker repeatedly warned Kiser to be quiet or he (Kiser) would be taken to the police station.

The cafe manager said Kiser continued to curse, telling Barker: "You s.o.b., I don't have to shut up."

Then, after a brief struggle, Kiser was placed in a police patrol car.

The gears on Barker's car jammed in front of the restaurant and another patrol car driven by Jack Bunch was called.

During this time, Kiser continued to swear at officers, it was reported.

Kiser was finally taken to the Colorado City police station for booking. He was joined there by his wife and stepdaughter.

Also at the station were Seale's wife, Mrs. Joy Seale, a police radio dispatcher; Officer Bunch, who had come to Barker's aid after gears on Barker's patrol car had jammed; and several bystanders, including cafe manager Parrot; Arlie Moore, an ex-policeman, and Seale.

During the booking process a scuffle developed between Barker and Kiser. Officer Bunch, the only other policeman on duty, was in an adjoining room questioning a transient at the time.

Witnesses reported that Kiser resumed cursing when Parrot entered the station.

Policeman Barker told Kiser to shut up, but he continued the disturbance.

A melee followed with the patrolman reportedly hand-slapping Kiser, who either knocked or wrestled Barker to the floor of the police station.

During the struggle Barker regained his feet and struck Kiser with the "slapper".

Kiser fell to the floor and died almost immediately.

Witnesses reported Kiser intoxicated when he entered the cafe.

According to County Attorney Ginzle, a blood test, taken with the written consent of Kiser's wife, substantiated the fact that Kiser was "well intoxicated."

Early Sunday morning, Barker was suspended from duty pending results of the investigation into Kiser's death.

Barker was placed in the Mitchell County Jail Monday night. He made bond of $2500 and was released shortly before noon Tuesday.

According to Barker, he will retain an attorney, but has not yet done so. He has left the retaining of a lawyer up to his father thus far, he said Tuesday.

An attorney has been approached as special prosecuting aide.

Barker issued the following statement: "I regret what has happened more than I can say. I certainly didn't intend to injure anybody and I have tried to give my complete cooperation in the investigation made."

Chief of Police Leon Yeager, who was out of town at the time of the incident, said that "Patrolman Barker was officially on duty and in the line of duty" at the time of his action against Kiser.

Yeager was notified immediately of the occurrence and returned to Colorado City Sunday. He had been visiting his mother in Collier County.

ATHLETICS PRESSING

Cards Keep Lead In Pony League

Cardinals still maintained a two-game lead over the Athletics in Pony League play this week as the White Sox cooled off.

Cardinals beat the Sox 7-1, Friday night, but lost a close one in the nine innings Monday night to the Athletics, 7-6.

Athletics, winner of their last two games, stand a chance of winning or tying for the league. Only three more games remain on the schedule and if the Athletics win those three games and the Cards drop one or two, the Athletics could possibly win.

The deciding game may be the final tilt of the season, Friday, July 12 when the two teams meet.

But the Athletics are the only ones standing a chance of side-tracking the potent Cards.

The Monday game between the Cards and Athletics was a thriller. A run by the Athletics Charles Lindsey in the top of the ninth inning was the win.

Dogs Win Two From Missions

Missions lost two games to the Bulldogs, both by lopsided scores, in Farm League the past week.

The first game last week found the Bulldogs ripping the Missions in a 2-1 affair.

The game was called at the end of two innings.

Pearson, pitching for the Dogs, limited the opposition to two hits.

The Bulldogs picked up seven hits, off several Mission hurlers.

In the second game Monday, Bulldogs won by a score of 23-1.

The Dogs used eight hits and 18 base on balls for their runs. The Missions touched the winning Dog pitcher Campbell for four hits.

Pharmaceutical chemists are not only creating new, man-made synthetic medicines, but are also perfecting better ways of improving their action.

We now have "delayed action" drugs. Special coatings that dissolve at exactly timed intervals permit part of the medicine to act first and the rest of it at later hours. This gives us divided medication in one dose. Your physician is entirely familiar with the progress being made and knows that as soon as each new discovery is available we stock it in our prescription department.
