Socialists Overthrown In Iraq

By ALEX EFTY
Associated Press Staff Writer
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—President Abdel Salam Aref and the leaders of the Iraqi armed forces overthrew their country's Ba'ath Socialist government today and took control.

Aref in one of his early proclamations indicated that he hoped to revive the agreement to merge Iraq with Syria and President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic.

The president, an admirer of Nasser, said he would cooperate closely with all Arab nations, "especially with the United Arab Republic."

Aref, who has been Iraq's provisional president since the military ousted Premier Abdel Karim Kassam's dictatorship in February, assumed full powers as head of a new revolutionary council.

He ordered dissolution of the National Guard, a semi-military unit of Ba'ath Socialist party youths loyal to exiled Deputy Premier Ali Saleh El-Saidi, leader of an extreme left faction of Ba'athists. All guardsmen were ordered to surrender their weapons to the armed forces. Those who refused were to be executed on the spot.

Baghdad Radio said the armed forces had captured National Guard headquarters and taken a number of guardsmen prisoner.

The armed forces also were reported to have encountered some resistance in sections of Baghdad, but appeared to have gained control by mid-morning. A general curfew proclaimed at 6:40 a.m. was eased to allow bakers and others in essential services to go to their jobs.

Aref said in a statement broadcast over Baghdad Radio today that he would use full powers to safeguard the unity of the Iraqi people.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the First Christian Church in Raymondville. Burial will be in the Raymondville Cemetery.

County, City To Widen Two Roads

City Manager George Patterson met with the Scurry County Commissioners at their regular meeting this morning.

Patterson presented a proposal that the city and county share in the costs of widening two highways.

The first road under consideration is Highway 180 (Twenty-fifth Street) from Avenue Z west to the city limits. The city limits are located just east of the Burdell Oil Co. offices.

The second road under consideration is the Clairmont Road. The original proposal was to widen the road to a 56-foot pavement from Thirteenth Street to the new by-pass. However, the commissioners court said they would be glad to cooperate on the project all the way out to the city limits at Huffman Avenue.

Cost to the local governments of the Highway 180 project would be approximately $16,500. The Texas Highway Department would be in charge of the project which would include widening the road to a 70-foot width, designing a protective turn at El Paso Street, and widening of the bridge.

The Clairmont Road project, by the by-pass only, was estimated to cost local governments $10,500, and from the El Paso Street, and Huffman Avenue, an additional $10,000.

The court approved the 56-foot widening of the road, but left the west terminus of the Clairmont Road project indefinite until Chorn, Marcel Josephson, Arkansas Highway Department, and Adams and Marvin Force, Arkansas Highway Department, could be consulted.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Fire swept through a block of hotels and rooming houses near the famed Atlantic City Boardwalk today, killing at least three persons and leaving 20 missing.

Earlier police reports had 25 persons unaccounted for but family out. I woke up my wife; she grabbed a dress, and then we woke up our three sons and my mother. We all jumped through a back window about 15 feet to the ground.

"In another minute or two the whole building would have collapsed on us."

Rauer said he had heard that about 12 of the guests escaped, but that he saw only four of them.

Mrs. Rauer said 30 guests were registered and all were in the building Sunday night, along with the Rauer family of six and the night watchman, Philip Johnson.

"We couldn't get out the front door. We got out through a window in our living quarters," Mrs. Rauer said.

Johnson got out uninjured. Police said at least five of the 30 guests at the Surfside got out of the building.

A heavy wind from the ocean fanned the flames from the Surfside to seven other buildings on either side of it along Maryland Avenue, which intersects the Boardwalk. Three more buildings on Virginia Avenue behind the burning ones also caught fire but were quickly extinguished.

Seventeen of those in the building escaped, including all three employees on duty, seven guests, and a family that owned the hotel.

Milton Rauer, owner of the hotel and another 10 were there on short vacations from New York, Philadelphia and other cities.

"I'm fearful to say a number did not escape," Rauer said. "It went so quickly. A number of them were mostly elderly persons." The building was engulfed in flames in about five minutes, he said.

Atlantic City Hospital said 22 persons were treated there, two of them admitted.

Of the 22, about eight were firemen and policemen. Also

On his 60th birthday today, Vinson said he will retire from Congress when his term ends on Jan. 3, 1965. He will complete 30 years in the House on Nov. 14, 1964.

Last July, Vinson passed the record of more than 48 years held by the late Speaker Sam Rayburn, D-Tex.

Vinson is chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, and one of the most powerful figures in Congress. Vinson, apparently in excellent health, was enjoying a cigar in his office when he made his announcement this morning.

Among other actions today the high court:

—Retained to review and thus let stand a lower court ruling that residents on a federal reservation at Perry Point, Md., may not register as voters in Maryland elections.

—Agreed to review a case involving seizure and destruction of 1,715 books in Kansas as obscene. The Kansas Supreme Court approved the destruction of the books published as "This Book."

President Begins Tour

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Staff Writer
TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy flies to Tampa today at 500 miles an hour to predict that the time is within sight when men will fly routinely through space at more than 15,000 miles an hour.

Kennedy produced this Buck Rogers vision at the start of a two-stage speech-making tour which he hopes will help him capture the South's most populous states—Florida and Texas—in 1964.

Flying to Tampa from his weekend headquarters at Palm Beach aboard his jet transport, Kennedy readied heavy futuristic forecasts for a ceremony marking the 50th anniversary of the first scheduled air service.

In his prepared text, the President contrasted the first commercial flight from Tampa to neighboring St. Petersburg, at a price of $5 a head, with current jet travel.

And, looking toward the decades ahead, he said that "within our grasp, it is the day when men will routinely fly through space at 25 times the speed of sound."

That would be more than 15,000 miles an hour.

Even by 1975, Kennedy said, "metroplanes" will be able to take off directly from the crowded center of one city and fly to another—even as airliners cross oceans and continents at 1,400 miles an hour.

The President said that the "pioneering spirit is still burning bright in this state and nation," and that America is ready to venture down a path "through the dark unknown that lies ahead."

Kennedy arranged a busy Florida itinerary, starting with a visit to the headquarters of the strike command at MacDill Air Force Base near Tampa. The President flies from Palm Beach to MacDill in late morning.

Many Honors Are Earned By Bands

SAN ANGELO — Snyder bands took a bag full of honors, including the 11th consecutive Division I rating by the high school's Black and Gold Band, at Regional Interscholastic League marching contests here Saturday.

The Snyder High band also rated Division I in inspection, had four Division I twirlers and a Division I twirling ensemble.

The Black and Gold Band drew raves from the three judges, each of whom took the trouble to submit personal comments.

"I wish I knew enough superlatives to adequately describe this band, but they've never been invented. It was truly a thrill to witness this magnificent demonstration. Congratulations on a fantastic performance," said one of the judges.

"This is the type band every town and school deserves, but only a chosen few are fortunate enough to have. It was a great pleasure to watch and hear you. The marching was fine and the playing was like fine cream on cake," said another judge.

"Members of the band should be very proud of belonging to an organization capable of this fine performance. . . a very outstanding job. . . enjoyable and inspiring to watch and listen to," the third judge declared.

Twirlers Carol Young, Phyllis Smith, Janice Fowler and Jodie Snyder were rated Division I, and Evelyn Starnes was rated Division II in solo twirling. The quintet rated Division I as an ensemble.

Travis Junior High Band rated Division I in inspection and Division II in marching, while Lamar Junior High rated Division I in marching and Division II in inspection.

In twirling Lamar's Barbara Stevens, Linda Hall and Diana Clements rated Division I, while Kathy Keller, Janice Cushmanberry and Letta Ewing rated Division II. The sextet rated Division II as an ensemble.

Travis twirlers Sharlotte Ross, Linda Schattell and Dianne Lehman rated Division I, while Karen Burton and Barbara Banks rated Division II. The Travis group did not compete in the ensemble competition.

The Black and Gold Band is directed by Melvin Montgomery, assisted by Charles Shaw. Don Eiring directs the Lamar band. Black and Jerry Pickens the band.

Rockefellers Laugh At 'Baby' Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. and Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller have laughed off as rumors reports they are expecting a baby.

Columist Betty Beale wrote that there are rumors in Republican circles that Mrs. Rockefeller, whom the governor married earlier this year after they were divorced, was expecting.

When the Rockefellers arrived here Sunday night for a two-day social and political visit, Rockefeller, a candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, was asked about the column.

"These rumors have been flying ever since we have been married," Rockefeller commented as both he and his wife laughed.

The governor has four living children by his first marriage. His wife also has four children by her first marriage.

County, City To Widen Two Roads

City Manager George Patterson met with the Scurry County Commissioners at their regular meeting this morning.

Patterson presented a proposal that the city and county share in the costs of widening two highways.

The first road under consideration is Highway 180 (Twenty-fifth Street) from Avenue Z west to the city limits. The city limits are located just east of the Burdell Oil Co. offices.

However, the commissioners court said they would be glad to cooperate on the project all the way out to the city limits at Huffman Avenue.

Cost to the local governments of the Highway 180 project would be approximately $16,500. The Texas Highway Department would be in charge of the project which would include widening the road to a 70-foot width, designing a protective turn at El Paso Street, and widening of the bridge.

The Clairmont Road project, by the by-pass only, was estimated to cost local governments $10,500, and from the El Paso Street, and Huffman Avenue, an additional $10,000.

Misprint Stamps Assure Education

NEW YORK (AP) — A college student has assured the financing of his education by selling 50 misprinted United Nations postage stamps for $10,400.

The unidentified Bronx youth purchased 50 of the misprints for $2 on the first day of their issue, Feb. 28, 1962. Several weeks ago, he sold them to wholesale stamp dealer Julius Stolor of J. & H. Stolor, Inc. for $208 each.

Stolor said Sunday the young man "knew right away what he had" when he returned home from the U.N. with the stamps.

The misprinted stamps commemorate the U.N.'s housing and community facilities. But they are minus the black-imprinted words "Housing and Community Facilities," which should be corrected on the left side, then continued halfway across the top.

Also missing from the seven-color misprints are several areas of black shading on houses that make up most of the stamp's design.

H. Alexander Frankel, who publishes a journal for stamp dealers and collectors, said: "The misprint is the greatest error since the Dag Hammarskjöld (stamp) case."

"It's even greater for stamp collectors and dealers, because this error cannot be corrected by the U.S. Post Office Department."

"The stamps were printed by Harrison and Sons of London, and screened by its personnel in accordance with the usual right, careful British standards."

Stolor said he sold most of the stamps to dealers for $275

Gem Theft Is Comedy Of Errors

NEW YORK (AP) — With the city still laughing about Manhattan's comically abortive gem robbery two weeks ago, another masterpiece of jewel theft buffonery took place Sunday.

Unlike the misprized $3 million holdup of Nov. 8 in which the loot was left behind, two bandits escaped with $55,000 in gems Sunday. But the intruders found themselves overrun with hostages.

Toward the end, things got so crowded in the plush East Side apartment of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gurian that the two badmen had all they could do to maintain order.

As a result, Gurian said, the thieves left behind more jewelry than they took.

Police estimated that the jewels left behind are worth $100,000. Gurian estimated his loss at $55,000.

The invaders, one carrying a gun, collected an elevator operator and a delicatessen deliverman en route to the apartment.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurian had just settled down to a wedding anniversary breakfast served by their maid, Mrs. Gurian rushed to a telephone and shouted "Help — Help" before it was slammed down by one bandit.

The call brought another elevator operator on the run. He was ushered into the apartment at gunpoint.

Sometime during the rapid-fire activity, the bandits managed to find the gems.

Their foraging was cut short, however, when Mrs. Gurian again broke loose and darted into the hall, the robbers in hot pursuit. They met head-on a doorman, and a brief scuffle ensued before the robbers broke away and scrambled down 12 flights of stairs to the street.

They commandeered a taxicab and forced the driver to take them several blocks away where one debarked. A few blocks beyond, the other robber left the cab. Neither bothered to pay the fare.

Aid Fails To Buy Friends For Reds

By STERLING F. GREEN
AP Economics Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russian trade-and-aid offensive, launched a decade ago to try to sweep new and neutral nations into the Communist camp, is a growing disappointment to the Kremlin.

Even in Moscow confidence has dimmed, American government analysts report, that the emerging countries of Africa and Asia soon will reject capitalism in a great "national-liberation movement."

And comparisons of 1962 trade data now available confirm that Russia remains a puny commercial rival of the United States in all but a few limited areas of the non-Communist world.

Two-thirds of Russia's trade continues to be with its captive market, the Communist bloc in Europe, but its goal of "burying" the United States as the foremost trading nation depends on the penetration of the vast and swiftly growing Western markets and the developing nations.

Russian progress has been substantial, considering that the Soviets started virtually from scratch. But Washington's pessimism is less with the trade volume — as an entire bloc the Communist group generates only 5 per cent of world commerce — than with the political and propaganda impact of the Soviet economic warfare.

Officials suspect that Russia gets more political mileage per ruble of foreign aid than the United States gets per dollar. Soviet aid programs are inexpensive, shrewdly aimed at the West's worst trouble spots, designed for maximum pay-off in political or military advantage and magnified by adroit propaganda techniques.

But analysts who advise the State Department and Congress now note rising skepticism toward the Marxist promise even in the under-developed lands where Russia has poured out Rubles and promises.

The U.S. expert, Leon Herman, Soviet economic analyst for the Library of Congress, told an interviewer that Russian leaders "realize matters are less promising than they had hoped," but have not altered their plans or diminished their efforts.

"They feel they can create hostility for the developed countries among the underdeveloped — can convince them that they are the victims of capitalist exploitation," Herman explained.

Cases Are Heard In County Court

Luther Tucker of Snyder pleaded guilty to one charge and not guilty to two charges this morning in county court.

Tucker changed a plea of not guilty which had been entered on July 12, to a plea of guilty. He had been charged with unlawfully carrying arms. The charge had been filed by Snyder city police. Tucker was fined $100 plus court costs of $26.35.

Tucker then pleaded not guilty to a charge of DWI and to a charge of aggravated assault on an officer. Tucker had been arrested Sunday by officers of the Snyder city police. Bond was set at $500 on each of the charges.

Also in county court this morning Mildred Blanton of Snyder changed an earlier not guilty plea to a guilty plea. She had pleaded not guilty on Nov. 5 to a charge of illegal transportation of alcohol.

She was fined $200 plus costs of $26.35 and sentenced to 15 days in jail. The charges had been filed by the sheriff's department.

In another liquor law violation case, Gene Boyd of Snyder changed a not guilty plea of Oct. 26 to a plea of guilty. Boyd had been charged by the sheriff's department with illegal sales.

Boyd also received a $200 fine plus costs of $26.35 and was sentenced to 15 days in jail.

Also pleading guilty in county court was Gerardo Yanez Gonzalez of San Antonio. He had been charged with driving while his license was suspended by the Texas Highway Patrol.

Gonzalez was assessed a fine of $25 plus costs of $26.35.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 25, single and people tell me I look like a "young Alice Faye." I've worked in this office for two years. My boss (married) tried to kiss me once last year but I wouldn't let him. He hasn't tried it since. He keeps telling me that if I ever need money he'll give me an advance on my salary without any obligation on my part — no notes to sign or interest to pay. I could use about $300 to buy Christmas gifts for my family. Should I ask my boss for it? Or do you think it would be a mistake?

for the father who called the police and reported his own son for drunken driving. I would like to invite the "brat" son and his friend, who criticized the father, to sit outside an emergency operating room and watch the broken-hearted parents being told their teen-agers "didn't make it."

I invite them to stand beside the surgeon as he works for hours trying to restore a mangled mess of torn flesh and crushed bones to some semblance of human anatomy. I invite them to explain to little children that Daddy and Mommy have "gone away."

I know the law doesn't read this way, but I think every drunken driver who slaughters an innocent person on the highway should stand trial for premeditated murder. I am a young nurse in a small hospital on a major state highway. Come visit me, fellows. But come sober. You'll need a few drinks afterwards.

WANTING A MERRY CHRISTMAS
DEAR WANTING: I hate to spoil your Christmas, Honey, but there "ain't" no Santa Claus. "If you need money, borrow it from the bank and sign the note. At least you won't have to worry about wrestling your banker for the interest."

JOYE
What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

DEAR ABBY: My 15-year-old daughter happens to be an exceptional student. She made straight A's for three consecutive years, and has been the recipient of many honors. Naturally I am a proud mother and have told several people of her outstanding marks and accomplishments. My daughter has now asked me not to say another word to anyone about her marks or any of her honors. She says the other mothers are bored stiff with my boasting and that, since she herself never mentions her marks or achievements, I should not either. Abby, has the whole world gone daffy? It is a sad state of affairs when people are so jealous and small that you can't say a good word about your self.

Father Of Snyderite Dies In Gorman
Funeral services were to be held today in Gorman for Mr. Tobee Lee Johnson, 88, of Desdemona.

DEAR ABBY: Three cheers

DEAR BEWILDERED: Your daughter is both brilliant and humble — a rare combination. Her qualities speak for themselves and need no amplification from anyone — especially a proud mother.

Taxpayer's Cash In Solons' Hands

WASHINGTON (AP) — Appropriations bills move to center stage in Congress this week, with more than $19 billion of the taxpayers' cash involved.

While the Senate and House consider measures to pay for military construction, public works and a variety of government agencies, some interesting side attractions are scheduled in committees.

The Senate Investigations subcommittee resumes its probe of the controversial TFX warplane contract and the Senate Finance Committee takes up a House passed bill to raise the temporary debt ceiling to $115 billion.

Separate House hearings look into the recent trip to Cuba by U.S. students, medical care for the elderly and the government's vast research programs.

The House starts its week by considering today a bill calling for $1,582,984,000 in appropriations for military construction programs.

On Tuesday's House docket is $4,726,116,400 measure to foot the bill for federal public works programs.

Neither measure has been acted on by the Senate.

Scheduled for consideration in the Senate this week are House-passed bills to appropriate some $14 billion for more than a score of independent government agencies, the District of Columbia government and Congress itself.

The sudden spurt of appropriations activity is part of a drive to clear the decks of all money bills in the hope that Congress might be able to adjourn before Christmas.

That hope was brightened when it became apparent that the Senate would not act this year on a House-passed major tax bill and that the House itself might not act on the administration's civil rights measure.

JUST ANOTHER SCRAP OF PAPER!

Impulsive Russian Actions Hazard Dire Consequences

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Russians, trying to be tough, have become a cause for worry in a way they never intended. They have created doubts about their judgment, even in their own interests.

In three separate episodes in the past 13 months they have tried to stiff-arm the United States in ways indicating they didn't think their actions through. In short, they have been erratic.

In two of these cases, by failing to anticipate the possible American reactions, they suffered international embarrassment. In the third neither the United States nor Russia came smelling like a rose.

They put missiles in Cuba, stopped American military trucks on the Autobahn in East Germany, and arrested Yale Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn, a 32-year-old expert on Soviet affairs who has made six trips to Russia.

Barghoorn, back home Sunday, put it this way to explain the unexplainable Russian performance in arresting him: "The Soviets 'will embark on a policy, more or less, feeling their way, even playing it by ear, so to speak.'"

This is a disturbing realization for in all three cases events could have become a dangerous turn with terrible consequences. The missile adventure or the blockade could have progressed into shooting and then into war.

For instance, if President Kennedy, instead of telling Premier Khrushchev to yank his missiles out of Cuba or else, felt the missile danger was too immediate even for this short delay, and ordered action at once against Cuba.

Or, if, when the Russians blockaded the Autobahn because American troops refused to leave the trucks to be counted, Kennedy, fed up, sent tanks to smash the blockade, even if it meant a fiery showdown.

Khrushchev withdrew his missiles. It was an ignominious defeat. The Russians let the trucks through even though the Americans persisted in refusing to descend to be counted.

The Russians claimed they counted the troops anyway, when they got out to walk around. Nevertheless, they backed down from the principle of their demand. Kennedy, on the other hand, did nothing to break the blockade.

Neither side could claim any

Small World Except At Lunch Time

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody knows it's such a small world that you're likely to have an unexpected encounter with your old college roommate while on an African safari, 900 miles from civilization.

But try to meet a friend for lunch on a designated day, at an appointed time, in a special place—and chances are the two of you will never get together.

No matter how carefully I arrange a luncheon date, something goes awry. I'm either at the right place at the wrong time or the wrong place at the right time.

I really thought I had licked the odds, though, the last time I agreed to a friendly get-together. Three of us were in on it, so I figured I had twice as good a chance as usual to make connections.

Arriving a smug 10 minutes early, I took up my stand by an indoor waterfall in a modern building, where we had decided to meet at 11:45 a.m. before going to a nearby restaurant.

At 10 minutes to 12 I was still keeping a lonely vigil. Noon arrived—but my friends didn't.

With sudden inspiration I decided to call my husband at his office and inform him that he might be having the pleasure of my company for lunch.

The nearest phones were outside the subway entrance, two flights below. Down I scooted to ask him not to leave until he heard from me again.

Then I went back to my post. At 12:15 I revisited the phone booths to call my friends. No answer at either place. Once more I trudged up to the waterfall for another wait. Finally, mindful that my husband was immobilized until further word from me, wearily descended to the depths again. He gallantly invited his poor abandoned wife to join him for lunch.

When I got home I telephoned one of the no-shows for an explanation, but as soon as she heard my voice she demanded indignantly: "Why didn't you let me know you couldn't make it?"

It seems she had also waited more than half an hour—but in the restaurant instead of by the waterfall. And the third member of our party had called her that morning to say she wasn't able to come.

Well, we're trying it again next week. My husband has already been put on standby alert for that day.

Junior Editors Quiz on PIRATES

QUESTION: Where did the Spanish Main get its name?

ANSWER: During the 1600's, lawless men, living in the West Indian Islands, began to steal cattle, smoke the meat and sell it to ships which passed by. The French word "boucan" means "a place for curing meat," and these freebooters became called "boucaniers." They became pirates, seizing, robbing and sinking ships, attacking towns and even cities such as Panama. Spanish galleons, carrying gold, were a favorite prey. The pirates often saved the swiftest ships they captured so they could overtake other ships and escape from men-of-war sent out to capture them. Our picture shows a low, raucous and very fast pirate ship catching up with a merchant vessel it will attack.

The pirates' activities centered in the Caribbean Sea, including the coasts of Colombia and Venezuela. English pirates referred to this coast as the "Spanish Mainland," which became shortened to "Spanish Main."

Although pirates are often thought of as having lived romantic lives, they actually were a desperate, drunken lot, usually ending up their lives at the end of a rope.

FOR YOU TO DO: Color the picture, trying to catch the drama of the sea by gold colors on the ships and deep blues in sea and sky.

(John Laver of Skokie, Ill., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, and you may win a set too.)

Lincoln High Wins Two Of Three Games

The Lincoln High Trojans and Sweetwater basketball teams met in a triple-header here Friday night with Lincoln winning two and losing one.

The Trojan varsity lost a close one to Sweetwater 60-53, while the boys B Team won 27-26 and the girls team won 45-38.

In the B game Langston Powell was high point man for Lincoln with 10 points. Brady Cobbs had seven, Curtis Clay five, M. C. Powell three, and Billy McClain two. The game was tied 26 all as the game ended, but M. C. Powell was fouled just as the buzzer sounded. He hit his free throw to win the game.

Robert Jones was high point man of the game for Sweetwater with 13 points. Clay grabbed off 10 rebounds for Snyder to be high in that department.

In the girls' game Pearl Jo Scott and Mary Goosby of Lincoln tied with 17 points each. Emma Garrett bucketed 9 points, Cathrine Williams got two, and Johnnie Goosby got one, Evelyn Brazier led the Lincoln girls in rebounding with 12. Wanda Gooden led Sweetwater with 18 points.

Linwood Durr led all scorers in the A game as he hit 25 points for Lincoln. Lonzell Brown hit for six, Vernon Clay five, Joseph Crayton, Billy Cobbs, and Howard Cobbs four each, and Curtis Clay two.

Clay led the rebounding department with 15. Sweetwater's Raymond Attaway hit for 19 points.

That would be Texas vs. Navy in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, pitting the No. 1 and No. 2 nationally ranked eleven against each other. The mighty Longhorns already are in, but Army might put a crimp in the hopes of the Cotton Bowl officials by upsetting the Middles in their traditional service game at Philadelphia Nov. 30. At this writing that is doubtful.

Texas kept its status as the nation's only major unbeaten and untied team by beating Texas Christian 17-0 last Saturday, leaving just Texas A&M barring the way to a perfect 10-0 regular season for the Longhorns.

Once-beaten Navy kept pace by taking Duke 38-23 for its eighth victory. All the other teams in The Associated Press top ten also won on a generally formful Saturday. UCLA, Kentucky and Wake Forest supplied the only major surprises.

UCLA, winner of only one previous game, dealt the Washington Huskies a stunning 14-0 defeat, dimming Washington's hopes to play in the Rose Bowl. Halfback Byron Nelson scored both UCLA TD's.

The Wake Forest Deacons came through with a 20-19 victory over South Carolina on Brian Piccolo's conversion and thus ended the longest major losing streak at 18 games. Kentucky upset Baylor 19-7.

Mississippi, No. 3 ranked in the nation, whipped Tennessee 20-0; Michigan State, No. 4, took Notre Dame 12-7; Oklahoma, No. 5, beat Missouri 13-3; Pitt, No. 6, drubbed Army 28-0; Alabama, No. 7, defeated Georgia Tech 27-11; Illinois, No. 8, out-fought Wisconsin 17-7; Auburn, No. 9, downed Georgia 14-0 and Nebraska, No. 10, edged Oklahoma State 20-16.

In some of the other major games Oregon pulled out a 28-22 victory over Indiana in the last 11 seconds; Princeton thumped Yale 27-7; Dartmouth edged Cornell 12-7; Harvard downed Brown 24-12; Northwestern whipped Ohio State 15-8; Purdue nipped Minnesota 13-11; Michigan and Iowa tied 21-21.

Penn State took Holy Cross 28-14; Southern Methodist defeated Arkansas 14-7; Texas A&M bested Rice 13-6; Washington State beat Stanford 22-15; Louisiana took Utah 35-22.

North Carolina whipped Miami of Florida 27-16; Mississippi State edged Louisiana State 7-6 and Memphis State stayed on top of the major independents by defeating Chattanooga 13-0.

Another field goal by stock-footed Tony Crosby helped Texas to defeat TCU. Roger Staubach, Navy's all-around back, ran 12 times for 72 yards and threw 14 passes for 122 yards, but it took John Sal's 93-yard run in the closing minutes to stave off Duke.

Another long run, this one for 85 yards by little 152-pounder Sherman Lewis in the last quarter, put Michigan State over the top against Notre Dame.

Papa Bear Calls Simple Shots As Packers Fold

By JIM BECKER Associated Press Sports Writer
The best laid plans of generals and football coaches sometimes... work out right to the letter.

Take the "war plan" of the Chicago Bears against the Green Bay Packers. Papa Bear George Halas drew it up, and his troops executed it flawlessly Sunday to chase the enemy Packers from the field — and possibly right out of the National Football League title race.

Halas wrote out his order of battle against the defending champs on a sheet of lined notebook paper headed: "Our War Plan against the Packers."

The text, examined by a correspondent after the battle, proved to have two key points: "Control the ball." "Smother their offense."

The Bears took care of the first with a crushing ground game that outgained the Packers 248 yards to 71. On the second, they intercepted five Packer passes and recovered two fumbles.

The result was a 26-7 Chicago victory that put the Bears alone on top in the West with a 9-1 record. The Packers are 6-2, with both losses coming at the hands of the Bears. There are four games left.

In the East, the New York Giants trampled San Francisco's futility 48-14 to take over first place in the East with an 8-2 record.

The St. Louis Cardinals dumped the slumping Cleveland Browns 20-14, knocking the Browns out of a tie with the Giants. The Cards and Browns are tied for second with 7-3 records.

The Giants met the Cards at New York next Sunday. The Pittsburgh Steelers, hobbled with a hard-luck early season tie, kept their title hopes alive with a late touchdown and a 24-20 victory over the Washington Redskins. The Steelers are 6-3-1.

In other NFL games, Baltimore skinned past Minnesota 37-34 on a touchdown in the last five seconds, the Los Angeles Rams upset the Detroit Lions 28-21, and the Dallas Cowboys edged the Philadelphia Eagles 27-20.

In the American Football League, San Diego stopped the Buffalo Bills 23-13, the New York Jets tripped Denver 14-0 and Kansas City and Boston played a 24-24 tie. Houston and Oakland were idle.

The Bears showed 49,166 home fans right away that they were loaded for Packer. They took a 13-0 lead in the first period before permitting Green Bay to make a first down.

Two field goals by Roger LeClerc and a 27-yard touchdown on a twisting run by Willie Gail kicked two more in the second half, and quarterback Bill Wake, who moved the team beautifully, scored a touchdown. Packer Coach Vince Lombardi said afterwards that the Bears were a better team than the one that whipped Green Bay 10-3 in the opener. He said his team was a little better, too. "Last time they held us to a 14-0 field goal. This time we got a touchdown," he said, smiling through the bruises.

The Green Bay coach said he would like to try one more time against the Bears. He could get his chance in a playoff, since the Bears meet the tough Steelers next week.

The Giants-49ers game looked like a mismatch. The Giants had a little trouble getting started, but the 49ers never got going at all.

Once he was rolling, bald old Y.A. Tittle threw for four touchdowns and 281 yards against the team that traded him away before the 1961 season.

San Francisco Coach Jack Christiansen was incensed after the game, apparently because he thought the Giants ran up the score needlessly. "I hope the Giants lose every game left this season," he said.

It was the Giants' high total for the season, but they have hit 33 points or more in their last five games.

The Browns, who now have lost three of their last four, jumped off to a 7-0 lead when Jimmy Brown burst through the line for a 59-yard touchdown on the second play of the game. But Charlie Johnson hit on 25 of 34 passes for 276 yards to engineer the Cardinal victory. Johnson threw for two touchdowns and Jim Bakken kicked two field goals before the Browns could score again.

Brown gained 154 yards in 22 carries for Cleveland and became the NFL's foremost ground gainer in history. Brown has accounted for 11,353 yards in less than seven seasons, surpassing Ollie Matson's career total of 11,317 in 11 seasons.

The Steelers led the Redskins 24-14 going into the wild fourth quarter. A Washington touchdown and Lou Michaels' second field goal made it 27-14.

With less than three minutes left, Norm Snead connected with Pat Richter on a 21-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-27. Gary Ballman then ran the kick-off back 92 yards for the winning touchdown.

Johnny Unitas pulled the Minnesota game out in the last five seconds with a 13-yard touchdown pass to Jimmy Orr. Unitas had pitched Baltimore to a 16-0 lead in the first quarter, but Fran Tarkenton led the Vikings back to leads of 27-16 and 34-23 before Unitas came on again.

Quarterback Roman Gabriel had his best day of a pro, as he hit end Carroll Dale with touchdown passes of 65, 42 and 51 yards for the Rams. The last one came after Detroit had fought back to tie the score.

Don Meredith led Dallas to its third victory of a disappointing season, over the Eagles, who have only won two. The Cowboys had a 17-0 halftime lead and stood off a late flurry by King Hill of the Eagles.

There are five teams with perfect records left in Class AA, including the Dallas Cowboys, the San Antonio Spurs, the El Paso Tornados, the El Paso Patriots, and the El Paso Stars.

Only one game matches unbeaten teams in Class A as San Augustine rolls against Hallsville. San Augustine is undefeated and Hallsville has a tie on its record.

Katy meets Livingston, which hasn't lost any games but has one tie.

Albany's lone defeat this season was to Class AA Olney in the first game. Goldthwaite had the fewest losses and to 351 points in 10 straight victories.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

The Snyder (Texas) Daily News, Mon., Nov. 18, 1963

Woman, Son Are Killed

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — A Louisiana woman and her son were killed Sunday when their car and the Southern Pacific's Sunset Limited collided at a grade crossing.

The impact derailed 13 of the 15 cars and overturned one of the three diesel engines of the train, which was en route from San Francisco to New Orleans. None of the 40 to 60 persons on the train was apparently injured. However, a small child who had undergone plastic surgery in Houston and was a passenger on the train was taken to Memorial Hospital in Orange, Tex., for observation. He was later released.

Killed were Mrs. Ramona S. Lemke, 35, of Morgan City, La., and her son, Benson, 13.

Their car was torn in half as it was dragged 175 yards down the track. Mrs. Lemke, her son, and the family dog, which also was killed, were thrown from the car.

"I felt the train jolt, looked out the window and saw smoke," said Bill Varyan, a former Houston newspaperman who was on the train with his wife. "The train then started to tip over on its side."

The crash occurred at Terry Crossing on Farm Road 1135.

Caprock Materials Concrete Is Used For Many Purposes

If any one company could be singled out as having provided a good foundation for the city and to city folks, but to area ranchers and farmers as well. Ready-mixed concrete has actually been delivered as far away as 50 miles west of Jayton.

Caprock has literally provided the foundation for most of Snyder's growth since formation of the company in 1950, and they have provided a good base on which to build.

As a matter of record, almost a quarter of a million yards of cement have been furnished to area residents and firms since 1950. Caprock cement is found in Snyder's schools, churches, homes, gas plants, roads and highways.

And not only has Caprock been a friend to the oil industry and to city folks, but to area ranchers and farmers as well. Ready-mixed concrete has actually been delivered as far away as 50 miles west of Jayton.

Currently two large projects are Caprock customers—the new Highway 84 by-pass, and the new fire-police-civil defense building which will be started soon.

Caprock has furnished more than just ready-mixed concrete to the building of Snyder. Still blocks, concrete building blocks of all sizes, and stepping stones are all products of Caprock

NEW USE FOR CONCRETE—Gene Best, owner of Caprock Material Co., stands beside one of the small houses which the firm is building to be used as protection for school children while waiting for the school bus. Built entirely of steel and concrete, the little houses weigh nearly three tons. Soon to be built of similar construction are rat-proof cake storage houses for farms and ranches.

Annulment Fails To Stop Pumping

By FRANK MANITZAS
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—American and other foreign oil companies still were pumping oil in Argentina today amid indications President Arturo Illia's government would agree to keep the operations going under foreign supervision.

The companies, whose contracts were annulled by Illia Friday, began sounding out the Argentine oil agency Sunday on the possibility of new contracts.

Unconfirmed reports said the agency had offered the foreign firms adequate fees to keep the oil flowing. The agency sent its own men into the oil fields but they did not seize any foreign operations.

Agency President Facundo Suarez said "in no way do we pretend any deprecatory action against the companies."

He told newsmen the contracts were annulled "to repel a juridical failure" but "steps have been taken to keep operations running normally."

Suarez conferred with foreign oil company executives, as did U.S. Ambassador Robert McClintock.

"We feel our company has a legal contract and we will continue operating until we are made to stop," one executive said.

Ex-President Arturo Frondizi who negotiated the contracts in 1958, deplored the annulment.

There also was a sharp reaction in the U.S. Congress and a clamor for cutting Argentina from U.S. aid rolls. But Secretary of State Dean Rusk said he hoped the companies and the Illia government would reach agreement on compensation.
