Rural Delivery and Trade Building.

Postmaster H. H. Andrew spent first of the present week circulating in the Lingleville country, partly on an outing and partly in the interest of a new rural delivery route, which he hopes to have established out of Dublin in that direction. In this regard it might also be mentioned that Dublin is in position to secure a half dozen more of these routes if a concerted effort should be made to get them. They are a great convenience to the people and incidentally are business getters for the town out of which they operate. This class of service is going to be rapidly extended until the whole country is a net work of rural routes, reaching daily practically every family in the more populous communities. Any town showing the most enterprise in advancing the service will be the ones that will get the most routes and there is a chance for Dublin to either secure more territory by inertion or secure more by prompt action.

Rural Brakeman's Skull Crushed.

John Doshier, a brakeman of only a few days on the Texas Central, had an accident that may end his life last Wednesday near Alexander. He was standing on a box car as the train passed over the bridge, the top of the bridge striking him in the head and crushing his skull. He was not discovered until the train reached the station one mile west of Walnut when another brother passing over the train found him, several hours having elapsed since he was knocked unconscious. He was taken to the infirmary, where he received medical attention and a piece of the skull one inch by two and one-half inches was taken out. He is doing very well at present although hopes are slight for recovery. During intervals he is conscious and says that he saw the bridge and ducked his head but not sufficiently low to miss it. We understand the people live near Houston, his brother was on the train with him and was hurt and has been with him since. We sincerely hope that the favorable hopes held out for his recovery may be realized.—Walnunt Springs Leader, Sept. 4th.

Peculiar Electrical Effects.

During a rain and electrical storm at Hamilton recently the farm house of Julius Onstad, a few miles west of there, was struck by lightning. He tells of the catastrophy thus: "Just after dark I was seated in the front room of my house with my children around me. The room I occupied was near the fire place. One little girl was on my lap talking about coming to town with me the following day. It was raining a little and thundering and lightning incessantly. All at once a crash came and I knew nothing for several minutes. When I came to my senses all was darkness. The one light in the kitchen, where my wife had been preparing supper, having been extinguished by the effect of the lightning, which seemed to have struck the top of the chimney and ranged downward. A pair of link shell cuff buttons in a tin box on the mantle was found next morning across the room with the wire links and the box burned to a crisp. Myself and two of the children were knocked insensible, but soon came around all right. The chimney and building sustained some small damage, but nothing of a serious nature. Excitement prevailed in our home during the remainder of the night, and I am a better man now than I was before this occurrence."

A Human Ostrich.

Dr. Monnier, chief surgeon at St. Joseph's Hospital, Paris, told the London Academy of Medicine a remarkable case which had come under his notice recently. The patient was a stunted, half-witted youth of twenty-two years. He complained of severe pains in the abdominal region, and an operation revealed the presence in the stomach of no less than eight silver teaspoons, a large three-pronged fork, a metal name-plate, two drilling pins, a horn comb, several keys and nails and a variety of other small articles, weighing altogether 230 grammes. Although it was afterward ascertained that this miscellaneous assortment of ironmongery must have been swallowed fully six months ago, the stomach had been practically uninjured. The articles were all removed and the patient is now able to take food, his general condition being excellent.—New York Commercial.

Pranks of Sunny Italy's Companion.

A family in North Waco was recently scared into hysterics while at supper by the sudden appearance in the window of a monkey dressed in scarlet. Before the household recovered from the consternation created by the invasion the monkey leaped up on the table, filled his pockets with cut loaf sugar and darted out, ascended a tree and disappeared.

He had escaped from a wandering organist, who reported his loss to chief of police and was unconsolable until his favorite was restored to him on the following day after wandering about the city all night and giving more than one scare to the residents of the houses visited by his monkeyship.

Dr. E. W. Hall St. Louis: Dear Sir—I have used Hall's Texas Wonder and will say that it cured my little two-year-old boy of serious kidney trouble.—Rev. J. Woodson, formerly of Marshall.

Farmer J. H. Newborn of near Dublin is the kind of a farmer who always has some products of his ground to sell instead of buying them for his own use. He was here Wednesday in search of a number of hands to gather his large acreage of cotton. The Progress editor had been figuring on buying some shelled oats for his buggy horse from Mr. Newborn at a price of thirty cents per bushel previously quoted by him. Wednesday he informed us that he did not care to sell any more, having a few days since disposed of all he had set aside for that purpose at the present time to a Ft. Worth concern, which sent a buyer to his farm, who took them all at thirty-three cents per bushel. He was away after his cotton pickers before we could regain our breath and ask him if he knew of any other good oats for sale at thirty cents, the limit of our bank credit.

Jno. P. Vickers, a prosperous farmer who has resided for two or three years past on his farm a few miles south of Dublin, died yesterday morning with hemorrhage of the lower intestines resulting from typhoid fever. The deceased came to this section from Hood county a few years back and purchased the B. P. Sandefer place near town, where he has since resided. He is a brother-in-law to our fellow townsman J. B. Crutcher and has a number of other relatives here abouts to whom we extend our sincere sympathy in this bereavement.

Zack Jones, an aged citizen of the Lowell country, is in a dangerous condition as a result of a wound accidentaly inflicted in the left knee a month ago with a pocket knife. He has been steadily getting worse and on Wednesday Dr. Miller of this city was called in consultation by Dr. Snodgrass of Desdemona, who has charge of the patient. The wound was operated upon and now results are being awaited. It is probable that the leg may have to be amputated.

A. E. (Bud) Oates was over from Stephenville the first of the week shaking hands with his numerous friends and incidentally feeling the puse of the general public on the question of his probable candidacy for county treasurer. Bud is very popular with the people of Dublin and this popularity extends to every section where he is intimately known. He has, so far as we have been able to learn, two prospective opponents in the persons of the present incumberent of the office Major J. T. Starr and our own Geo. F. Parker.

Prof. W. H. McClanahan and Miss Fannie Weeks were married at Dublin Sunday afternoon. The professor is a retired school teacher and is well known to most of our readers as a high toned young man. At present he is connected with a big mercantile firm at Brady. The bride is the oldest daughter of Jas. Weeks, a well-to-do farmer of the Clairette community, and she is a great favorite where she is known.—Hico News Sept. 4th.

South American Jaquer at Golthwaite

A late issue of the Golthwaite Eagle tells of an exciting experience of some of the local nimrods in the capture of a rare wild animal in that section a few days ago. The Eagle says:

Thursday night Homer Brown and Henry Morris were hunting about two miles south of Center City when the dogs treed some kind of a varment, animal or beast which proved too much for the dogs to manage. The hunters did not have much ammunition, and having fired one charge into the animal with no apparent effect one of them went to Center City for assistance, while the other remained to watch the game. A large crowd surrounded the thicket in which the animal was at bay and they finally succeeded in killing it, not, however, until it had killed three dogs, injured three others and badly wounded Wm. Morris' horse.

There is little doubt that the animal is a jaguar or South American lion. It is described as being of a yellow color, spotted with black rings. It's head resembles that of a bulldog and measures twenty-six inches around. The animal was six feet and six inches from tip to tip, measured twenty-one inchs around forearm and nine inches around ankle, and the foot was six inches wide. The entire body weighed 140 pounds.

The carcass was carried to Center City and placed on exhibition and it was thought it would be bronght to this town yesterday afternoon.

Negro Passed for White

A press telegram from Hilsboro under recent date says:

A story which almost included a lynching, comes from a south of town community. Some gentlemen who are operating a thresher, employed a man whom they took to be a white man, but who was afterward discovered to be a negro. They treated him to the best of everything, setting him down to the table with themselves, sleeping with him, etc. At one place where they stopped over night there was not room for all the hands, so he was sent to a neighbors, where the best bed was spread for him. The next day the discovery wa made that he was a negro. He was in the field forking wheat on a wagon at the time and scented the coming storm. He saw a crowd of men start toward the wagon and at once had urgent business across the country. He made such remarkable good time that his pursuers could not overtake him and made good his escape.

TRIP THAT PAID.

Ten Miles to Get a Package of Postum

Some sufferers won't turn over a hand to help themselves, but there are others to whom health is worth something. A Geman woman living in the country made a ten mile trip to get a package of Postum. She was well repaid for it getting health and happiness in return.

A transiation of the good frau's letter says: "From a child I have been used to drinking coffee daily, but the longer that I continued drinking it the worse I felt. I suffered with heart troubles, headaches and dizziness. Then I had such an uneasy feeling around the heart that often I thought death to be near.

"I gave up drinking coffee and tried hot water but that did not taste good and I did not get well. Then I read some letters from people who had been helped by Postum Food Coffee and I determined to try it.

"I had to go ten miles to get a package, but I went. I prepared it carefully according to directions and we have used it now in our family for nearly two years, drinking it twice a day. It agrees well with all of us. My heart and bowel troubles slowly but surely disappeared, it is seldom that I ever have a headache, my nerves are steady and strong again and I am otherwise strong and well. My husband has been lately cured of his sick headaches since we threw coffee out of our home and have used Postum." Name furnished by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ferd Brown and George Abbott of the plains country, both former residents of Erath county, arrived in Dublin last Saturday to spend at least a few days in this section and possibly to remain a month or more. They express themselves as well pleased with their new location.

Geo. W. Stancil, the jeweler, recently received an elegant present from the wholesale jewelry house of Joseph Linz & Bro., at Dallas. It was a heavy solid gold watch charm in the design of an emblem of the Knights Templar degree of the Masonic lodge. Mr. Stancil is justly very proud of his present.

The cut and fit of the Buckskin Breeches alone, make them better than any other pants. When you consider good wear and workmanship, then these pants are so much better than any other make that they'd be cheapest even if they cost double as much as the common goods. Best of it is they cost the same as poor pants.

W. A. Nash, who has for some time been lineman for the Southwestern Telephone Co. at this point, has resigned his position and accepted a similar post with an independent company at San Antonio. He is now adjustig his business affairs to leave for that place as soon as possible.

The county board of teachers examiners for Hamilton county was in session at Hamilton last Friday and Saturday week. Twenty-five applied for second grade certificates and seven for the first grade. The board is composed of Prof. Lane of Hamilton, Smith of Carlton and Miss Cornelius of De Leon.

Mark Edward, the four year old little boy of J. W. Currier and lady, residing a few miles south of Dublin, was painfully injured last Saturday afternoon. The child was playinng with an old wagon truck and one of the wheels, which had no tap to hold it on, fell over on the boy, cutting an ugly gash in his face. His injury was very painful, though not of a serious nature.

The farmer who gets his cotton in first will in all probability realize the best price for it. The staple may advance in price of course, but it is not very probable and the advice of the Progress is not to wait for a raise, but gather the cotton as fast as possible and sell it as quickly as it is gathered. The present price is fair and the farmer who wants to take chances on futures can make more money, if any is to be made, by selling his product and going into the future business right, if he must take chances.

Dr. W. H. Henthorne has purchased the dental business and office fixtures of Dr. S. C. Morgan, and has removed from Hico to this place with his family. We learn that Dr. Morgan will go to Birmingham, Alabama, or to his old home near Atlanta, Georgia. We regret to lose Dr. Morgan and his estimable family from our midst, but welcome the arrival of Dr. Henthorne and his family. Mrs. Henthorne formerly resided in Dublin, being the daughter of Mr. Tolar, who was one of the early settlers in Dublin

The following notice of our former fellow townsman, T. J. Morris, is clipped from the last week edition of the Carbon Herald, where Mr. Morris is now residing engaged in the general merchandising business, and it appears also in truck raising. "T. J. Morris has experimented some this year in truck growing. He raised one hundred and seventy-five bushels of Irish potatoes on one and a half acres and got a good price for them. This week he showed us one of his onions, which weighed two pounds and measured sixteen and a half inches in circumference."

A fourteen year old son of Jim Steward, who resides two and a half miles from Purves, was dangerously injured by an accidental cut across the top of the head with an axe while chopping wood on the first day of this month. From the effects of the wound the boy has several times had convulsions and he is completely paralized on the right side. An operation was performed on him last Tuesday by Dr. Weaver of Hico, assisted by Drs. R. A. Miller of Dublin and Tull of Carlton. Latest reports are to the effect that he is still in a precarious condition, though in a general way slightly improved after the operation.

Consumption

People are learning that consumption is a curable disease. It is neglected consumption that is so often incurable.

The use of Scott's Emulsion at once, has, in thousands of cases, turned the balance in favor of health.

Owes His Life to a Neighbor's Kindness.

Mr. D. P. Daughtery, well known throughout Mercer and Summer counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little if any relief; when a neighbor learned of his serious condition and brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than 24 hours. Mr. Jyles, who operates up on Jack Wood's place, dropped into our office yesterday with a stalk of June corn which was eleven and a half feet in height, having upon it a well filled ear of corn eight feet up the stalk. A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Overton Drug Company.

A Woman's We

Paine's Cele Compound

GIVES VIGOR AND STRENGTH TO DEBILITATED RUN DOWN WOMEN.

It is maintained by many distinguished writers that the greatness of a nation depends much upon the physical condition of its women. The general conditions which contribute to health and long life, are those which do not imply a rapid and unequal exhaustion of those powers by which life is supported. While we assert that the women of our land stand peerless for beauty and the virtues which make them lovable, we cannot hide the fact that there are thousands in our midst who, owing to overwork, worry, household cares, and an unequal exhaustion of life powers, have become weak, nervous, sleepless, and dissipated.

We bring to the attention of all such despondent, hopeless, and sickly women earth's great rescuer and health builder, Paine's Celery Compound. Thousands of healthy women around us owe their present vigor, activity, and robustness to the use of Celery Compound. Mrs. Stephen Smith, St. Paul, Minn., tells how she was snatched from the grave; she says:—

"I had a bad attack of la grippe, which left me very weak and was at death's door, and no one in the house expected me to recover. I was so weak that I could not as soon as they brought me out of one faint spell I was in another. I could not take any nourishment, and doctors' medicines did me no good. A friend advised my husband to get me a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, which he did, but had no faith in it helping me. The second day after taking the Compound I began to get real hungry and took more interest in things. I had everything that money and loving care could supply, and with the use of Paine's Celery Compound, I am now able to do my own work, while three months ago I was almost in the grave. I know that I owe my present health and strength to Paine's Celery Compound, and shall always recommend it."

National Civic Federation Will Meet Next Month at Chicago.

New York, Sept. 7.—Changes in the organization and methods of the National Civic Federation have been decided on by the executive committee which will be discussed at a conference of the federation in Chicago on Oct. 14 and 15. The president has been authorized to appoint several committees including those on "hours of work," "methods of payments," and "employes' welfare work." The latter committee will arrange for a conference of employers in this city in November to discuss ways of bettering the condition of employes.

The general work also is to be divided into sections such as "building trades," "metal trades," "textile industry," "transportation," "mining" and "miscellaneous," to further the work of the federation.

SHOT HIS WIFE.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 7.—Colonel Griffith, a millionaire resident of this city, and a member of the board of park commissioners, has been arrested on the charge of assaulting his wife with murderous intent. Mrs. Griffith is in a hospital suffering from the effects of a pistol shot wound in the head and a compound fracture of the shoulder. She was shot in her room at a Santa Monica hotel. In her statement to the district attorney, Mrs. Griffith said her husband shot her after forcing her to answer, at the pistol point, some irrational questions as to her faithfulness and also acknowledge an attempt to poison him. When he shot her she was on her knees. She ran to a window, out of which she jumped, falling on a roof some fourteen feet below, fracturing her shoulder blade. Mrs. Griffith wanted a charge of insanity preferred against her husband.

Colonel Griffith insists that his wife was wounded accidentally. He was bending over a trunk, according to his story, when he heard the report of the revolver. The weapon, he says, was one of his own which Mrs. Griffith came across in gathering together their effects for packing.

TURKISH ATROCITIES.

Accounts Received State That They Are Dreadful.

NUMBER MASSACRED.

The Plight of Those Who Survive Is Truly Pitiable, They Having to Satisfy Their Hunger by Eating Grass.

London, Sept. 7.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Monastir telegraphs: "There is no doubt that a Turkish war of extermination is proceeding in the Okrida district. The massacres of a century ago are as nothing compared with those occurring daily in the vilayet of Monastir. I have obtained substantial evidence to prove that the Turkish Nizamas (Turkish regular troops) are in most cases, committing unheard of atrocities, which are not solely the work of the Bashi Bazouks, as the authorities are seeking to prove. The plight of the survivors is terrible. Not daring to leave their houses, and subsisting on grass and water, they resemble people in the last stages of famine. The Turks are also losing heavily, judging from the number of injured arriving here. Among the instances he gives in support of his statement, the correspondent relates that a priest's son in one village was flayed alive and kept in this horrible condition for several days, to the delight of his tormentors, until a merciful Turk shot him dead.

Reports have reached the revolutionary headquarters at Constantinoople of atrocities by the Turks in the village of Velmosti in the district of Debre. The troops and Bashi Bazouks are said to have surorunded the village and part of them entered and began plundering the house and assaulting the women. The other soldiers remained outside and killed those inhabitants who tried to escape. The Turks then set fire to the village in four places, burning twelve women and children. One child was hanged. Altogether sixty peasants were killed and their bodies were left lying in the streets.

Rigorous Treatment.

Constantinople, Sept. 7.—Private advices from Adrianople report that the troops in the Kirk-Kilisse district are treating the inhabitants with greater rigor. Every Bulgarian village furnishing recruits to the insurgents has been bombarded and destroyed, the inhabitants being given barely time to escape.

Guarded by Sailors.

Constantinople, Sept. 7.—The interiors of most of the embassies here are guarded by armed sailors from their respective guardships. The German embassy, in the absence of its guardships, the Loreley, which is cruising in the Black sea, is guarded by Turkish soldiers.

The engineer and fireman escaped unhurt. While the wrecking crew was clearing the track in the afternoon a chain broke, the recoil hurling it into the crowd that was watching the proceedings. Samuel Oliver received a broken thigh and is in a serious condition. Victor Kauffman, aged thirteen, was badly injured in both legs, and Charles Ahlwine, aged ten, was seriously injured.

"JIMMIE THE BUM."

Died as He Lived, Without Revealing His Past Life to Anybody.

New York, Sept. 7.—Dying, as he had lived, a mystery to the denizens of Mulberry Bend and Chinatown, "Jimmie the Bum," who gave his name to the police a few days ago as James Murray, but who is believed by his closest cronies to have been the scapegrace son of a former judge of the supreme court, who once lived in Brooklyn, was buried by those among whom he lived. It is not their contributions alone which paid expenses of his funeral. As his body lay in a casket in a Mulberry street undertaking shop, the past of "Jimmie the Bum" was wrapped still further in mystery when two well dressed women, heavily veiled, who declined to give any names or addresses, joined the mourners, and when they left dropped two bank notes into the battered cup which stood at the head of the casket. No one could be found who knew "Jimmie" by any other name, although for a dozen years he had spent his life in the space of two or three blocks. Once he received an income from some source, but of recent years his income was irregular. When the news of his death spread through the Bowery hundreds of his miserable comrades visited the room where his body lay, and as each one passed pennies, nickles and dimes fell into the cup to pay for the funeral.

TO REFORM FEUDISTS.

Members of Salvation Army Will Go to Kentucky.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7.—A deputation of Pittsburg Salvationists, under the leadership of Staff Captain White, will leave for the feud district of Kentucky and undertake the work of reforming the feudists. The objective point will be Breathitt county. The party will be made up, outside of a few officers in the work in this city, of members of the local army, who volunteer to give their time to the work.

The reception which the members of the army will receive in the counties to be invaded is a matter of grave doubt to many interested in army work, but those who are going seem to have no fear of the manner in which they will be treated.

YACHT RACES.

New York, Sept. 7.—Finding spiritual lessons in international yacht racing, the Rev. John L. Scudder of the First Congregational church, Jersey City, said, in the course of a sermon on the subject:

"The Bible has much to say about racing, and it is evident St. Paul was familiar with the field and the arena, for his epistle abounds with references to foot races, boxing matches and gladiatorial contests. In appealing to this racing instinct the Bible touches sympathetic chords in every breast, for the desire to demonstrate one's superiority to others is universal.

"These repeated yacht races between England and America conducted in such a brotherly fashion are a valuable object lesson of true sportsmanship, and hold up to the world the ability of true men to enter the severest competitions and yet exhibit the proper spirit.

"Another result of these races is the fostering of international good will. one good natured race is worth one hundred sermons. These rivalries, although involving the lively element of antagonism, develop fellow feeling between England and America and bring up Anglo-Saxons still closer together. In the great movements of the nations, they will help John Bull and Uncle Sam to pull together and set the fashions, moral and political, for the rest of the world."

Three soldiers were wounded and one killed, while one Christian was killed and one wounded. These figures are evidently incorrect, as the rioters must have lost more heavily than the military.

The British consul at Beirut immediately after the riot called upon the vali and threatened to ask Admiral Cotton to land marines from the American squadron in the event of the renewal of disturbances.

In official circles here the disturbances are attributed to the arrival of the American squadron, and the belief is expressed that Christians at Beirut are endeavoring to bring about the landing of marines from the warships.

This is the first information received here showing a really serious condition is prevailing at Beirut. It caused much apprehension in official quarters as being an indication of the spread of disorder in the Turkish empire. The presence of the United States cruisers Brooklyn and San Francisco at Beirut is regarded as a fortunate circumstance. It is expected that a number of other foreign warships will gather there. Official reports further show that Beirut is one of the three places which are now centers of great animation.

Smyrna, which has hitherto been comparatively quiet, is on the eve of an outbreak. Great excitement prevails there. Authorities are in constant fear of an outbreak, but fortunately they have been able thus far to... an encounter betwee... prevent Mus... Christians and ...ans.

Salonica advices are also again very disquieting. It is expected that a general revolt throughout the province of Salonica will occur next week. It is the understanding among foreign officials at Salonica that a general insurrection will shortly be announced by the Macedonian committee. In view of this expectation, rigid police measures have been taken by the vali, who is showing much energy.

Reports from Monastir say the insurrection in that district has been practically curshed by the extreme measures taken by the Turkish troops.

The officials here attach significance to the report showing a number of Serbes have crossed the border and joined the Macedonian revolutionists.

Reports from various points throughout Bulgaria show there is a strong feeling against Prince Ferdinand, owing to the fact that he left the country during the crisis. It is not expected, however, agitators will succeed in carrying out plots against his life.

FOUGHT FIERCELY.

Paris, Sept. 8.—Official advices received by the foreign office here give brief details of the outbreak at Beirut. The killed number five or six and many persons were wounded. The city is in an intense state of excitement. The outbreak occurred during the night of Sept. 6 between Christians and Mussulmans. The fighting was furious, firearms and knives being used. The Italian consul rescued one Christian who had been stabbed and who had fallen in front of the door of the Italian consulate.

FROM LEISCHMAN.

He Says a Flag Lieutenant Sent by Cotton Is Investigating.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The state department received a cablegram from Minister Leischman at Constantinople in which he says a riot occrred at Beirut in which seven Christians were killed and several wounded. Two houses occupied by Christians were pillaged by soldiers. The panic is general. An officer and signal man from Admiral Cotton's fleet are now in the consulate and an investigation of conditions at Beirut is being made by a flag lieutenant.

Consul Ravendal and other consular officers say the origin of the trouble is not distinctly stated by our consul. He further says it is claimed by the sublime porte that conditions at Beirut are again quiet and the force now there is sufficient to guarantee safety to the city. Additional instructions have been sent to Minister Leischman along the lines of those already forwarded him looking to the protection of American citizens. Lieutenant Hussey is Admiral Cotton's flag lieutenant and it is presumed that he is the officer making the investigation.

LEGIONS WERE IN LINE

Greatest Observance of Labor Day Ever Known.

THOUSANDS PARADE.

In Every Portion of the Union the Laboring People Had Processions of Greater Magnitude Than Ever.

New York, Sept. 8.—Never before in the history of the United States has Labor day been more generally observed than on Monday. From cities and towns throughout the length and breadth of the Union come reports of an almost total cessasion of business, long lines of trades unionists in parades and prominent men making addresses. In several cities the processions were entremely long and the marchers in numerous instances uniformed.

President Roosevelt addressed fully 25,000 people at Syracues, N. Y. There were 5000 persons in the parade. In the two parades at Boston about 25,000 persons took part.

Conditions were never better in this city than to-day for the celebration of Labor day, clear skies and cool breezes giving ideal weather for parades, excursions and other outings and recreations.

Several large political outings were arranged for the day and there were many special events on the athletic programme. The central feature of the celebration in this city was the parade, which took place in the morning, representatives of unions in the board of building trades marching under the leadership of Samuel Parks, walking delegate of the Housesmiths' and Bridgemen's union. Behind Parks and his associates walking delegates came an open carriage containing William S. Devery, former chief of police.

Parks is under conviction on charges of extorting $200 from a contractor for calling off a strike, and was last week released from Sing Sing pending appeal proceedings. His progress from 59th street and Washington arch was attended with chering and hissing, applause and jeers, insulting remarks and plaudits. At eight or ten different points women standing at the curb hissed while Parks was passing and then turned to cheering the rest of the parade. On such occasions there was cheering on one side of the avenue and hissing on the other.

At Chicago over 100,000 people paraded. Pittsburg turned out 20,000. At Cincinnati it was the longest Labor day parade ever known there. At Cleveland, O., the parade was a monster one. Three thousand turned out at Little Rock. More than 6000 workingmen were in the Denver parade. Forty thousand men were in the procession at St. Louis and 15,000 at East St. Louis. Ten thousand men marched at Wilwaukee. Birmingham, Ala., had the longest parade in the history. Mobile, Ala., had her greatest labor parade. Floats beautifuly decorated and thousands of uniformed men was the Labor day feature at Louisville, Ky. At Indianapolis it took two hours for the procession to pass a given point. Samuel Gompers spoke. All departments were closed at Washington. Fully 30,000 unionists were in line at New Orleans. Five thousand men marched at Atlanta, Ga. Every city in Pennsylvania observed the day. At Kansas City there were 20,000 marchers and at Detroit the parade ... as long one. The day at San F...ncisco was celebrated with unprec...dented enthusiasm, 40,000 people ... the first time Vicksburg ... day parade. ...ass., had a Labor ...

...teen hundred men took part in the parade at Fort Worth. At Dallas it required a half hour for the procession to pass a given point. There were about 4000 in line of march. At Galveston 4000 paraded.

In the parade at Tyler there were 600 farmers, and every labor union had a large turnout.

Thirty-seven unions paraded at San Antonio, there being over 3000 in line. Forty decorated floats were in the Denton parade. Houston celebrated the day on a grand scale.

All cities in Oklahoma and the Indian Territory duly observed the day.

GOMPERS AND PARRY.

Former Challenges the Latter to Debate Labor Question.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 8.—In his address here Samuel Gompers among other things said:

"I have never yet challenged Mr. Parry to joint debate, but I say I will challenge him to a debate on the labor question and the labor movement, not necessarily before a great public gathering, although I will do that if it pleases him, but I am willing to meet him in debate befor any economic association that he may select. I will meet him before the Indianapolis Ministerial association, or the Manufacturers' association of that or any other city in America. I challenge him to submit the report that he prepared for the last convention at New Orleans to the next convention of the national association, and ask the convention to endorse all he said in that report. He knows that the National Manufacturers' association will not be committed to such unjustifiable and unreasonable attacks on organized labor."

After dispersing the force returned and captured their camp, together with a large amount of supplies and ammunition.

DIGNIFIED PATIENCE.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The state department received a routine message from Mr. Beaupre, the American minister at Bogota, acknowledging the receipt of Secretary Hay's cablegram of Aug. 26, stating that the Washington government would enter into no agreement which would hamper the president's freedom of action under the law. This was all the cablegram stated, although it has been the basis for speculative reports about Mr. Beaupre's ideas of the Bogota situation. The state department's atttitude is one of dignified patience.

WITH WEDDING GIFT.

Lady Takes Her Life With Present Given Her When She Married.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Mrs. Helen Worthington Purinton, wife of Colonel Holman Greene Purinton, prominent in Masonic and National Guard circles, committed suicide at her home by shooting herself in the mouth Despondency over continued ill health, coupled with the dread of a dangerous surgical operation, which her physicians had told her was inevitable, is thought to have been the cause of her act. The weapon with which she took her life was a heavy army revolver of 38 calibre, and was a wedding present given her by her husband's Knight Templar comrades on the eve of her departure for the Philippines with Colonel Purinton three years ago.

SEEMS A SURE THING

Turkey and Bulgaria Almost Certain to Clash.

FEAR OF MASSACRES.

The Terrible Accounts Received of the Conduct of the Troops of the Sultan Not Surprising to Many Europeans.

Constantinople, Sept. 8.—War between Bulgaria and Turkey is now regarded as inevitable. It is believed even that the outbreak of hostilities will occur before the end of September when the reinforcements from Asia will have been concentrated in Macedonia and the vilayet of Adrianople. It is not thought that there will be any formal declaration of war in view of the Bulgarian vassal status but that some frontier incident will precipitate hostilities.

The Bulgarians and Macedonians residing in Constantinople are in terror of massacre. A large number of them were arrested a few days ago as a "preventive measure" and they have not yet been released. The fear of a massmacre is probably exaggerated although in view of the present excited state of Mussulman feeling an insignificant incident might perhaps lead to a massacre.

The terrible accounts received regarding the conduct of the Turkish troops have not surprised European circles here but many who have been hitherto optimistic in their views now accept the prevailing belief that Turkey is on the eve of a catastrophe.

Consular dispatches from Salonica says that according to authentic information the insurrection in the district of Monastir has been practically stamped out. Bashi Bazouks assisted the regular troops in the work of repression which is said to have been carried out with sanguinary ruthlessness, the object of the Turks being apparently to exterminate not only the Bulgarian inhabitants but all the Christians of whatever nationality.

FROM COTTON.

Rear Admiral N...tifies Navy Department of Turkish Situation.

Washington, Sept. 8.—The navy department has made public the following cablegram from Admiral Cotton regarding the Turkish situation, dated Beirut, Sept. 4: Vice Consul shot at, but uninjured. The Turkish officials have informed consul that four men have been placed under arrest. It is suspected that they had attacked the vice consul. I cabled Friday afternoon to the American minister at Constantinople the arrival of the United States squadron. The American minister had nothing to communicate; I have strengthened the American representatives' position by pronounced recognition. The American consul and the vice consul accompanied me in my call on the Turkish government representatives and on the Turkish general, and were present when they called on board the Brooklyn. The Turkish officials were very cordial. The Turkish admiral is here. The following Turkish ships are here: One small gunboat; one armored crusier. Usual courtesies unchanged. Have conferred with consul freely; will confer with other prominent American citizens Sunday and next day. I shall require a full statement in writing of the situation at Beirut. The presence of the American squadron inspires a feeling of security in all foreigners and Christians. COTTON.

The cablegram has been communi... ...ecretary of the President and to the state department, but no final instructions have yet been sent to Admiral Cotton.

The navy department was informed of the arrival of the Machias at Port Said. Her orders when she left Genoa were to proceed to Port Said, coal and await further orders.

Child Was Cured by Prayer.

"A little son of A. C. Page and lady of this city, has been suffering for several days with sore eyes and was blind. The attending physician expressed in the presence of the child that he feared the sight would never be restored. After this the child's father went away to get a prescription filled and while he was gone the child prayed to have his sight restored. In a few minutes he sat up and called his mother to witness that his eyes were open and the swelling and soreness had greatly subsided. The parents marveled at this sudden restoration, but he explained to them that upon hearing that human agencies could likely do nothing for him, he appealed to the Lord and his prayer was immediately answered. His pastor, Rev. W H. Lathrop, vouches for this remarkable story and says the child has not been treated with medicine and is well."

You know what you are taking when you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay, 50c.

Every Edition a Special.

We note in several of our exchanges the announcements of forthcoming special editions to be shortly issued by those papers, as trade getters for their particular home towns. In most cases the number of copies to be printed range from one to two thousand, an average number of less than the regular issue of the Progress. We do not mention this in a spirit of disparagement to the papers referred too, but to direct the attention of our readers an especially those of our readers who are or should be advertisers, to the extraordinary extent of the regular issue of the Progress, considering it as a country newspaper. Every issue of the Progress is therefore in point of circulation a special edition and these papers are not printed and allowed to lie about until they are yellow with age and finally sold for wrapping paper, nor are they sent out helter skelter to a list picked up here and there, many of whom have removed from the addresses to which they are listed. On the other hand they are mailed in the post office as fast as they are printed on fast machinery and they go to people who have subscribed for the paper because they want to read it and rely upon it to furnish them the news. Advertising in a special edition of a home paper is money well spent, but advertising in a regular edition of a home paper that has a large circulation, is money still better spent.

Because of an unexpected demand for advertising space this week the Progress is a little bit late, though most of the mails on the day of publication are being made. In order that we may not cut out any of our news matter we are giving two extra pages, which to some extent accounts for the paper being a little late. We are sure that our patrons will not criticise us because of these matters when they consider that our main source of revenue is from the advertising pages and that without them a newspaper like the Progress could not be published at the price without the income from this source.

More than six hundried miners walked out on a strike at Thurber last Wednesday. Most of the number were Italians, who had gone to Mineral City, five miles from Thurber on Labor day and joined the United Mine Workers' Association of America. The following day after their return but few of them went to work and all during the day they sat about in small clots talking the situation over, resulting Wednesday in almost a general strike because their demand for higher wages was not granted.

The new school books recently adopted by the state text book board are slowly arriving at the book dealers establishments in this city. DOCTOR SAID.

"Quit Wrong Food and Eat Grape-Nuts."

An Illinoisan who has been through the mill says: "Last spring I was so bad with digestion I could not digest even soft cooked eggs and doctor said that I must eat predigested food and prescribed Grape-Nuts I changed for the better before I had used one package, eating it three times a day.

"My improvement on Grape-Nuts food was so wonderful that I concluded to use your food Postum in place of tea and to make a long story short I have not been without Grape-Nuts and Postum since and my present health proves my doctor's wisdom in prescribing Grape-Nuts. I have got strong as a horse and well and I owe it all to your delicious food and Postum." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

In the making of Grape-Nuts food all the indigestible starches of the grain are transformed into Post sugar. Every particle of Grape-Nuts is digestible in the weakest stomach. Physicians have never found a stomach too weak to digest and assimilate it.

THE FIRSTBORN.

Why is it that the firstborn child is so often the healthiest of a family of children? The reason seems to suggest itself. As child follows child the mother has less and less vitality; often not enough for herself and none, therefore, for her child.

Expectant mothers who use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription find that it keeps them in vigorous health. They eat well, sleep well and are not nervous. When baby comes its advent is practically painless, and the mother is made happy by the birth of a healthy child. If you would be a healthy mother of healthy children use "Favorite Prescription."

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. P. S. Douglas, of Mansonville, Brome Co., Quebec. "During the first four months, when I looked forward to becoming a mother, I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting, and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce, and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each, and when I had taken them a few days, I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble (I could not do anything before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine, and I tell all who tell me they are sick, to get these medicines, or write to Dr. Pierce."

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

What is Life.

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in constipation, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Overton's.

HAZLE DELL.

Regular Correspondence.

Sept. 8th—Cotton picking is becoming the order of the day. Throughout a large territory surrounding this section the crop will generally be very light, notwithstanding conflicting reports. Worms have hurt the crop in places and dry weather in places. According to Hester's report the present crop will exceed the crop of last year a few thousand bales, but according to general reports the crop will not equal last years crop by several thousand bales. Now if the farmers want to take eight cents a pound for their cotton, it will be an easy matter, and if they want 12½ cents, they can as easily get it. Farmers are in better shape this year for hoiding a part of their cotton back than they have been for a number of years.

Mrs. Nannie Haggard is visiting relatives in Eastland county.

The Baptist Association met at Gustine Thursday and closed Sunday at 11 o'clock. A large number of delegates were present and all went away highly pleased with the meeting and the hospitality shown them by the citizens of Gustine.

Miss Emma Long will teach the Swan Hill school this year. She taught that school last year and the patrons were so well piaesed with the way she conducted the school that she has been employed for the second term.

Leaving Dublin Wednesday morning, the 2nd, your correspondent took the road to Highland, ten miles west. The country through which we passed is very broken and in time has been a fine stock country. Some farming is done in the valleys, though crops are short this year: corn very light and cotton will not make more than one-fourth to one-sixth of a bale to the acre. At Highland we turned north and traveled for several miles through farms and pastures. Here we found crops some better, but not good. We stopped at the home of Mr. Jones, known as "Corn" Jones, a short time. He informed us that his wheat and oat crop was fairly good, corn not so good, and cotton unusually poor, that not more than one-fifth of a bale to the acre will be made this year on his farm. Mr. Jones certainly deserves the title of "Corn" Jones, for here we saw corn that was cribbed six years ago. Ricks of oats and other kinds of feed stuffs sufficient to supply the wants of Dublin for one year. From here to the Lingleville and Desdemona road the country through which we passed is almost entirely a stock country, with here and there a farm. We reached Lingleville at dark and found in progress a Holiness meeting. Between Lingleville and Stephenville is a fine farming country. Here we found another failure in cotton, corn very good. In the Bunyan country we found both corn and cotton very good. To take the country through which we passed as a whole farmers will make plenty of corn to do them, but cotton is not as good as it was last year, so we were informed by the farmers.

The Cotton Market and Trade Center

OF WEST TEXAS!

That's the claims that are put forth for Dublin this season. The special reasons for this special claim this year is that we know Dublin at the present time has every advantage over competing points as a Cotton Market and a Trade Center.

OUR COTTON MARKET

Is supplied with Exchange Quotations, not each day only, or each hour, but every day and every minute of the day, and the slightest variation of the market is noted here through our Local Cotton Exchange, hence, we always know the state of the market and are fully prepared to pay the full valve in cash for every bale. We have more regular buyers than any other town in Texas west of Waco and many of our merchants supplement the regular buyer. Every great cotton concern in the world have buyers here.

THE TRADE CENTER

With a big THE because we have more merchants with heavier stocks than any competing town, or in fact, than any other town in this section of the state. We have many Department Stores where you can get anything you want, and others on an equally large scale carry exclusive stocks of one line full to over-flowing with good things for the buyer. Our home competition is close and when it's a Cash Proposition it's still closer. This year all our merchants have bought even much heavier than usual and the big stocks on hand and the train loads rolling in, mean low prices and ample variety for the producer who comes to Dublin to trade this season. Never before has there been such a world of merchandise shipped and shipping into Dublin. You will miss much and lose money if you fail to do all your trading at Dublin this year. It will pay you to come a long way, bring your products and buy your supplies.

THE UNDERSIGNED MERCHANTS

Invite you to come and to visit their respective stores when you get here, promising you will not be disappointed in your search for bargains:
