TWINKLES

If you are tired of man's inhumanity to man, and the complex, cruel struggle of the modern business world, drive over to Panhandle Friday and see the "prominent" horses in their own track meet.

Maybe, if Texans turn their minds from politics to boxing, we can have more dignified campaigns. We have had a great confusion as to what make up a good lawmaker—ability to think or ability to shadow-box with all the real and imaginary woes of the people, thus:

They don't think much of bankers in the east, and with ample reason. An easterner tells us that a young bank clerk met a hometown acquaintance, who asked him: "I hear you are in the banking business now—is that right?" "Yes," the bank clerk replied, "but please don't tell my dear old mother; she thinks I am still playing a piano in a speakeasy."

Of course, King George spoke with a great deal of force but you should have noted taht his voice lacked the ring of complete authority we hear in our own dictator, Mr. Roosevelt.

FEATHERED ORCHESTRA

Mrs. Pampan speaking, for a change:

Locust trees are locust trees to most birds in our neighborhood, but there is a certain feathery orchestra in the personage of one mocking bird which prefers a tree in the family's back yard. "Not every tree," it chirps, "has a pole towering through and above its branches." So, perched above the fragrance of the locust, that little bird, singing from daylight 'til dark, is sitting on top of the world—and so is the neighborhood as long as the concert continues.

ALL HAVE MENACES

Depression comes and goes. Trouble is visited upon man, beast and bird. It's inevitable. It came to our mocking bird as he perched and sang upon the radio aerial in the form of two small boys with B. B. guns. But he merely moved to a less dangerous abode and somewhat sheltered, subdued his song for several days; then, when the trouble passed, he moved back to the pole and lifted his voice louder than ever.

A TIP TO YOU

A suggestion for renewing optimism: Plant a tree in front of every business house. Let a pole extend above it to entice a cheerful mocking bird. Surely, everyone who stops to look and listen will be "sitting on top of the world."

WILL BE, OR NOT?

We do not mean the above statement to be taken literally, of course but indeed a spark of the care-free

CONFEDERATE PENSION CUT BILL VETOED

ECONOMY NOT WANTED 'AT THE EXPENSE OF SOLDIERS'

AUSTIN, June 15. (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today vetoed a bill to tighten the confederate pension law and lower the amounts paid to veterans and widows of certain classifications.

The bill would have reduced withdrawals from the fund by aprroximately $27,500 a month. It provided that no widow born after January 1, 1870 should receive a pension. It reduced the amount paid widows under 75 years old from $25 to $12.50 per month and the amount paid inmates of confederate homes from $12.50 to $7 per month.

"I am unwilling to compel veterans and their widows to surrender or reduce their pensions at a time when it is most needed," the veto proclamation stated. "While I am for economy, I do not want to have it at the expense of the school children or the confederate soldiers and their dependents."

The governor approved a bill to permit insurance companies to invest in bonds issued by the Harris county navigation district and a bill to permit organization of fraternal benefit societies on a limited basis.

Scout Camporal Near Guymon To Draw 80 Scouts

Scout Executive C. A. Clark will go to Guymon, Okla., tomorrow to assist at a district camporal to be held at Shady Beach, 6 miles from Guymon.

About 80 Scouts and 25 Scouters of the northern district of the Adobe Walls council will attend the camporal, which will be similar to the one recently held near Morse. Steve Durst of Optima, Okla., will be in general charge, with C. L. Mathewson of Guymon as chief judge and W. W. Nelson of Hooker as chairman of the court of honor.

The towns of Tyrone, Hooker, Optima, Guymon, Texhoma, and Keys, Okla., and Perryton and Booker of Texas will send Scouts to the outing and training course.

Much interest in the summer training camp in New Mexico is being aroused by these two-day camporals.

Landers Named President Of McLean Lions

M'LEAN, June 15.—The McLean Lions club elected officers for the fiscal year at the regular weekly luncheon held Tuesday.

The election was in charge of Boss Lion Jesse J. Cobb, and the following were elected:

President, T. A. Landers, first vice-president, C. O. Green; second vice-president, John W. Cooper; secretary, Reep Landers; Lion tamer, Claude Williams; tail twister Floyd B. Roberts; directors, Boyd Meador and Ralph Caldwell.

The McLean club was organized July 3, 1928, and the new president has not missed a meeting of the local club since that time.

Goodrich Hikes Earners Wages

AKRON, O., June 15. (AP)—B. F. Goodrich company today announced a 10 per cent increase for all wage earners and salaried employes. The action follows similar announcements by Goodyear Tire & Rubber company; Firestone Tire & Rubber company; General Tire & Rubber company, and Mohawk Rubber company, and a five per cent increase last week by Seiberling Rubber company.

The Goodrich order affects 17,000 persons employed at tire plants in Akron and Los Angeles, cotton mills at Silvertown, Ga., and branches scattered throughout the country.

With addiiton of Goodrich to the list, it is estimated that 52,000 residents of the United States receive pay boosts from the rubber companies.

COX NAMED HEAD OF MONETARY COMMITTEE

Compromise Effected With Frenchman; A Candidate

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—The United States achieved a great and hard-won victory in the world economic conference with the election of James M. Cox as chairman of the vital monetary committee by the steering committee today.

The designation of the American was unanimous. His name was presented by the Frenchman, Georges Bonnet, who had himself been a candidate. Bonnet had bitterly opposed Cox's election until a compromise was effected among warring groups.

Opposition to the American had been based on grounds that the chairman should come from a gold standard country.

Finance Minister Guido Jung of Italy was given the vice chairmanship and M. Bonnet, the French finance minister, was elected reporter to the conference.

Prime Minister Hendyk Colijon of Holland, who had been suggested as a compromise chairman of the monetary group, was elected to head the important economic committee.

With this happy outcome of the imbroglio Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain and other members of the steering committee rushed from the private room where they met to the assembly hall to break the good news to the general assembly.

The elevator in which the entire party was descending got stuck and for some time delayed proceedings. Mr. MacDonald and the steering committee were stalled in the elevator for ten minutes before they were finally released.

Ten Farmers Ask For Crop Loans In Final Week

County Agent Ralph Thomas today was completing preparations of crop loan applications for action by the loan committee tonight. Today was the last day to make applications.

About ten farmers asked for federal aid during the last week, five of them appearing before Mr. Thomas yesterday.

Several recent applications have been returned for minor corrections. Many checks have been received by farmers for use in summer fallowing and fall planting.

W. D. O'Brien, field inspector with the crop production loan branch, was here yesterday en route to Hemphill county.

The 72 wheat loans already submitted totaled 18,035, and 18 row crop loans aggregated $3,295. Waivers obtained on 8 additional wheat loans amount to $1,640.

Fatheree Is Made Lions President

Clyde Fatheree was elected president of the Pampa Lions club this noon to succeed John Sturgeon. Mr. Fatheree was vice-president during the last year. Mr. Sturgeon will automatically become vice-president under the constitution.

Other officers elected were: Secretary, A. M. Teed(re-elected); tail twister, Roy Wight; Lion tamer, Ed Damon; directors for 2 years, John Osborne, J. A. Meek, H. L. Polley; director for one year, Ben Williams.

These officers will be installed at a ladies' night program June 29.

Today's program, arranged by Miss Jackie Jones, club pianist, included vocal solos by Miss Dorothy Harris, accompanied by Miss Josephine Lane.

PANHANDLE IS 'BOWLED OVER' BY INFLUX OF 80 HORSES, JOCKEYS AND FANS—RACES BEGIN FRIDAY

DEAHL SAYS SITUATION IS REMINISCENT OF 'DERBY DAY'

PANHANDLE, June 15. (SP)—Panhandle this morning was seething and boiling with excitement, turf fans and horses, and enthusiasm for the Southwest Race Meet which will open tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock was at a high pitch. There was something in the air that was missing before the opening of previous meets. It was comparable to the hurry and general excitement that prevailed in Borger during its oil boom hey dey.

The town was crowded with jockeys, horse owners, turf fans who have been pouring into Panhandle from all over the Southwest for the last two days. The general impression out of state was that wagering will be permitted, although the certificate system of betting on horse races will not be permitted nor will become legal at Panhandle until the fall meet. But that fact did not keep a number of flashily-dressed, poker-faced gentlemen from "making Panhandle" this week.

Ed C. Deahl, Panhandle banker and one of the sponsors of the meet, has worked assiduously for two years to make the meet preeminent in the Southwest. "I tell you," he said today. "Panhandle this morning reminds me of Churchill Downs at Kentucky derby time—certainly I've never seen anything like it in Texas."

Horses, jockeys and horse-owners simply swamped the town yesterday. Race meet officials expected only 75 horses because they refused to accept "hick" horses, and last night 80 fine horses had been entered. The influx started again this morning. Horses came from California, Louisiana, Nevada, Colorado, Missouri, Kansas, Texas. It was reported that the Arlington Downs Waggoners would send up animals for the Sunday races.

"You can bet your life that every race will be better than anything we dreamed could possibly happen this year," Mr. Deahl said. "We have been working to gradually improve our races, but heck, one look at those horses and you know that the races will be thrilling."

Scores of people and horses thronged the stable grounds and race track early this morning.

Panhandle is preparing for a record crowd on the opening day tomorrow. The grandstand will seat 1000 people. It is roofed and has just been completed. The track, says Judge Asbery A. Callaghan, is as fast as any in the country.

Four races will be held tomorrow—one-fourth mile, three-eights mile, one-half mile, three-fourths mile and a Roman race of one-half mile and 70 yards.

OIL PRICE RAISED

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—The Tide Water Oil company today increased the price of crude oil in the Conroe field, Texas, 10 cents a barrel. The new quotation is 40 cents.

LATE NEWS

CHICAGO, June 15 (AP)—America's railroads today notified their union employes an additional cut of 12½ per cent in wages would be made effective next November 1.

PITTSBURGH, June 15 (AP)—A second suit, charging that William L. Mellon, president of the Gulf Oil corporation, evaded payment of $2,602,662 incomes taxes, was filed in federal court today.

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The senate today adopted the conference report on the $3,600,000,000 emergency appropriation bill and sent it to the White House. The house approved it yesterday.

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Billie Woods and Clifford Dopson, two of 11 convicts who escaped from the Kansas state prison at Lansing Memorial day, told a newspaperman they summoned to their cell today that they had robbed a bank at Porgue, Okla., of $1,500 on either June 6 or 7 in their flight from Kansas to Texas.

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull told newspaper men of all nations tonight that he was "more hopeful of substantial progress" by the world economic conference than at any previous time.

Wheat Loans Are Being Discussed

Roy Bourland, chairman of the wheat loan committee, B. E. Finley, Jess Wynne, and I. B. Hughey went to Amarillo this morning to discuss loans made in this territory with federal officials.

Mr. Hughey is connected with the Houston land bank.

I HEARD—

Bonnie Rose and Ivy Duncan backing up each other in the stories they were telling about the fish caught at Red river and Pearl lake in New Mexico. They returned last night.

More golf stories this morning than ever before. Pampa has some real golfers. The biggest raconteur of the bunch was Sam Fenberg, who was undecided whether to give seven or eight to one odds that he would win the fifth flight.

the Weather

DECATUR, June 15 (AP)—An inscription on the headstone of a child's grave in the Aurora cemetery, near here, reads: "I was done so quick for I hardly know what I was begun for."

DROUGHT-STRICKEN FARMERS MAY ASK FOR LIVESTOCK FEED LOANS

WASHINGTON, June 15. (AP)—An invitation to farmers in the drought stricken areas of Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico to apply for feed loans has been issued by Henry Morganthau, Jr., of the farm credit administration.

The credit-setup, Morganthau said, has available a $1,000,000 fund, formerly administered by the department of agriculture. The maximum loan to any individual has been fixed at $250, to be made available at the rate of $2.50 a head per month for horses and cattle, $1.20 for sheep and $4 for brood sows.

Security will be first mortgages on the livestock.

Initial loans are to be made for one month only, with additional installments to be made on a monthly basis if necessary.

MATTERN OVERDUE AT NOME ON STORMY FLIGHT OVER OCEAN

FINAL HOUSE VOTE LIKELY TO BE CLOSE

BYRNS MORE HOPEFUL THAT PRESIDENT WILL WIN

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—A conference of house democrats voted 171 to 31 today to sustain President Roosevelt's compromise on veterans compensation in the tally of the house of representatives itself, which was scheduled soon to ensue.

The conference vote was not binding on the party membership, however. It was explained by democratic leaders that it merely voiced the sentiments of a majority of the democrats. The Tammany delegation threw its support behind the president's proposal.

Although 202 members voted at the democratic conference, they have 313 democratic seats.

Republicans said they were going to vote for the Steiwer amendment as a unit and with 100 democratic votes could put over their proposition. The amendment provides for more liberal payments to veterans, and will cause President Roosevelt to veto the appropriation bill if it is finally included. He has a veto message ready.

Indications were that the vote to defeat the Steiwer amendment would be close.

Representative Byrns of Tennessee, the democratic leader, said "we are more hopeful than ever that the president's proposal will be insisted upon by the house."

Rejection of the disputed amendment will merely instruct the house conferees to insist upon the president's proposal. The next action in this case will be in the senate.

Firemen To Hold Convention Here August 1 And 2

Pampa will be host to members of the Panhandle Firemen's association of Texas August 1 and 2. Clyde Gold, chief of the Pampa fire department, announced this morning. The date of the meeting was not named when Pampa was voted the convention city several months ago. It will be the sixth annual convention.

John Ray of Memphis is president of the association and Charley Stewart of Claude is secretary. Firemen from every town and city in the Panhandle will come to Pampa for the convention. Many officials of the Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma firemen's association will be speakers on the program being arranged.

Pampa firemen will act as hosts to the visitors during the two days they are in the city. The program will be of interest to every one, Chief Gold said this morning. It will include talks, demonstrations, contests and entertainment for firemen and their families.

IS THREE HOURS BEHIND GATTY-POST TIME

Expected To Arrive In 17 Hours; On Way 19 Hours

NOME, Alaska, June 15 (AP)—All eyes in Nome turned toward the Bering sea sky again today as the hardy sourdoughs took up another anxious vigil for Jimmie Mattern, the globe-girdling airman, who was overdue from Khabarovsk, Sibera, on the perilous 2,500-mile ocean lap.

The lone aviator tackled the treacherous water stretch in the face of severe weather on this side, although the winds were not as strong as on Tuesday when he was forced back to Khabarovsk. He left the Siberian town at 2:30 p. m. (E. S. T.) yesterday and was expected to reach Nome in 17 hours—7:30 a. m. (E. S. T.) or 1:30 a. m. (Nome time) today.

It was Thursday night at Khabarovsk, however, when he hopped and by losing a day crossing the international dateline he would arrive here before he started, by the clock, provided he landed today.

No word came of the progress of his flight since he left the Asiatic coast but none was expected as he carried no wireless and was traveling north of the regular shipping lanes.

At 10 a. m. (E. S. T.) Mattern had been on his way 19½ hours. Wiley Post and Harold Gatty covered the same leg on their record round-the-world flight in 16 3-4 hours.

Medical Kit And Fishing Tackle Stolen From Car

A medicine kit and a quantity of fishing tackle were stolen from Dr. A. Cole's car last night. Dr. Cole doesn't know where the car was parked when the articles were stolen because the loss was not discovered until this morning. The car had been parked several different places last night while Dr. Cole was making calls.

An emergency bag containing medicine and instruments, a flash light and fishing tackle including rods, six reels, box of fishing tackle, flies and bait were included in the list of stolen articles. City officers received the report this morning.

The Phillips service station in White Deer was entered Tuesday night and two truck casings and 12 inner tubes stolen. The loss was reported to city officers this morning. It was estimated at $75.

Morgan Partner Gives Testimony In Mitchell Case

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—George Whitney, J. P. Morgan partner, was called as a defense witness in federal court today at the income tax trial of Charles E. Mitchell, former chairman of the National City bank.

Through Whitney, Mitchell has testified, he completed the transaction whereby he borrowed from the Morgans in Oct. 1929, nearly $10,000,000 about $5,000,000 of which he still owes. It was through Whitney also, he said, he arranged for W. D. Thornton, mining man who preceded the Morgan partner as a witness to borrow $229,500 to buy Mitchell's 8,500 shares of Anaconda copper stock in 1930.

Briefly Whitney testified that in October, 1929, Mitchell borrowed from the firm of J. P. Morgan and company a sum "up to $12,000,000," putting up National City bank stock as collateral.

JURORS STILL BEING QUESTIONED IN BOWERS DIVORCE SUIT TRIAL

ATTORNEYS in the Bowers divorce suit in 31st district court today were slowly going down the list of prospective jurors, inquiring into the latters' length of residence, relatives, marriage relationships, attitude toward divorce, previous retaining of attorneys, and many other subjects.

With 27 men on the panel, it appeared doubtful whether any testimony would be heard today, although more rapid progress was being made today than yesterday. Frequent exceptions taken by attorneys delayed the routine of questioning.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowers were married January 5, 1931. Petitions cite that the final separation was on March 6 of this year. Mrs. Bowers is receiving $300 monthly alimony pending settlement of the suit. She asked $500 monthly. She seeks half interest in the community property, about which an extended legal battle is expected. Her petition asks a divorce on grounds of extreme cruelty, infidelity, and personal injuries. Mr. Bowers filed a cross action for divorce, denying her accusations and setting up a long list of charges in rebuttal.

FOUR NATIONS PAY PORTION OF WAR DEBTS

FRANCE AND 4 OTHERS DEFAULT; FOUR IN DOUBT

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—It became apparent today that American collections on the $144,000,000 war debt installments due would aggregate less than 9 per cent of the total.

The amounts to be collected either announced or indicated were:

Great Britain $10,000,000; Italy about $1,000,000; Czecho-Slovakia $200,000, possibly less; Finland $148,592.

Definite defaults were: France $40,738,000; Belgium $6,325,000; Roumania $1,000,000; Poland $3,559,000; Lithuania $132,073.

Defaults were indicated by Yugoslavia, $275,000, and Estonia $284,322. The following were in doubt: Hungary $28,260; Latvia $118,961.

Thus, if collections were made from all the countries still in doubt the total will be less than $13,000,000. With Yogoslavia and Estonia defaulting, as is probable, the total would be $12,187,000.

Meanwhile, the administration kept its eye on congress for any further outbursts of disapproval at the debt developments. Regular republicans yesterday accused the administration of breach of trust, while democrats and independent republicans defended President Roosevelt.

BUYING RIGHT-OF-WAY

Purchase of right-of-way on the route of highway 33 through South Pampa is gradually being completed to make possible completion of this road through the county. The city and county are jointly furnishing the right-of-way.

QUEST FOR PERFECTION IS DEMOCRACY'S SPUR

It was a fine new definition of the democratic philosophy of government that Raymond Moley, assistant secretary of state, gave the other evening when he went back to his home town of Olmsted Falls, Ohio, to address the village high school graduating clas.

"The principle of democracy," he said, "is not in arriving, but in seeking. It is not the objective, but the quest; it is indistinct dreaming, but also it is moving, trying for perfection.

"It is being willing to take a chance, to try new things even if all the voices of the past cry out, 'You can't do it.'

"Perhaps we may make mistakes in democracy. Perhaps we don't govern as well as if we set up an emperor, but out of our mistakes we are building something of permanent and substantial value.

"On with the quest! That's democracy. That's the spirit of America."

There is something peculiarly appealing in these words, coming as they do at a time when we are wading straight into some of the deepest and most turbulent experiments any people has ever made. Most of us are not quite sure where we are going, and even fewer of us are satisfied that we are acutally going to get there; but all of us can take hope from the fact that we are actually on the move, that we have resumed the magnificent old American habit of keeping our eyes on the future and seeing the towers of dream cities just over the horizon line.

If one had to name any single thing as the typical American characteristic, it would probably be just that habit of looking ahead, of forever going on with the quest. We have often been a proud and boastful people, but we have seldom been satisfied with a present moment. One era has suceeded another in our history, but never have the people as a whole been content to relax.

Always there has been that sense of future acomplishment, that feeling that all of our actions were parts of some vast plan which would result, in some far-off day, in making a fairer and happier land than the world had ever seen before.

* * * *

We don't know how and when we shall make that dream come true. The road ahead of us is long, twisting and rocky.

But what of that?

"Not in arriving, but in seeking"—that is where we must truly find our soul.

Somebody reveals that "Pecora" means "sheep" in Italian, which probably explains why he has been such a champion of the lambs shorn in Wall Street.

So far, we have seen no signs of Mr. Hoover's dire predicition that "grass will grow in the streets" this summer, but the man who has to cut it can testify that there is plenty growing on his front lawn.

Kansas convicts made a wild dash for liberty while watching baseball game. It's a wonder that fans in the Philadelphia National League park wouldn't be tempted to do likewise.

OUT OUR WAY ..... By WILLIAMS

Earle Mayfield Satisfied With Law Practice

AUSTIN, June 15. (AP)—Robert Lee Bobbitt of Laredo, former attorney general of Texas, facetiously told Coke Stevenson, speaker of the house of representatives of the 43rd legislature, that his chances to be governor of the state were slim.

"Of course, I'm for you, Coke, but you let them pull form 38 on you and that's deadly," Bobbitt laughingly told Stevenson. Bobbitt served as speaker of the house at one time himself.

"Why form 38?" inquired Stevenson.

"You made the mistake of letting the employes and members of the house present you with a gift with a few side remarks that you ought to seek the governorship," Bobbitt explained, adding:

"They did that same thing to me, to others before me and to my successors, and none of us, save Pat Neff, ever got elected governor and Neff waited twenty years until they had forgotten."

Earle B. Mayfield of Tyler, former United States senator, has had his fill of politics.

"I've learned more the three or four years I've been out of office about politics than I absorbed the 22 years I was in politics," Mayfield said.

Mayfield said he was perfectly happy, contented and had no idea of again returning to active politics.

"When I quit I owned $32,000," he said. "Since I have been out I have been able to make enough to pay off every nickle. The practice of law is too attractive. I never realized that it was so fascinating."

Germans Arrest Austrian Chief To Get Revenge

BERLIN, June 15. (AP)—Dr. Erwin Wasserbaeck, chief of the press department in the Austrian legation here, was arrested today by a detachment of Prussian secret police.

This was a reprisal for the arrest in Vienna of Theodore Habicht by Austrian authorities.

Dr. Waserbaeck, a Catholic priest, was sleeping when police knocked on his door and informed him he was to be arrested by orders of Prussian Premier Goering.

He asked police to remain outside until he telephoned the Austrian minister in Berlin and Chancellor Dollfuss of Austria in London.

Chancellor Dollfuss advised Wasserbaeck to yield only to force. Wasserbaeck finished his call and surrendered.

It was said that immediately after Wasserbaeck's telephone conversation with the chancellor, the latter got in touch with Baron Von Neurath, German foreign minister, also attending the Economic Conference in London, and informed the German statesman Wasserbaeck's arrest was in violation of diplomatic rights and demanded an energetic investigation of the affair.

BICYCLING SLIPS

Young New Yorkers who have taken to roller skating and bicycling with such enthusiasm are wearing chardonize slips especially designed for these sports. They have bifurcated skirts and plenty of room at the waist for stretching. The soft chardonize fabric has a two-way stretch which allows the slips to be moulded to the figure and yet give as easily as a well knit sweater.

A New Serial by Ruby M. Ayres

SYNOPSIS: The one bright spot in Nicholas Boyd's tragic fall from stardom in the movies to loneliness and oblivion has been the kindly attentions young and pretty Georgie Baucroft has forced upon him. And he has dismissed them with a shrug. Nicholas has played the hero once too often, and a scarred face, a limp and canceled contract are his reward. Even Bernie Boyd, his wife, has left him to sail for his native England alone, and in his gloom Georgie's well-meant ministrations on the boat have made no impression. But now he has turned up at the inn in the village where Georgie lives with her dissolute and violent uncle.

Chapter 11
GEORGIE'S CALL

IN the morning Georgie took a walk down the village.

She had offered to help Mrs. Lovelock about the house as she had always done before she went to America, and had been bluntly repulsed.

"I've managed without you all this time, and I can go on managing," was all the thanks she received.

"It hasn't been very long," Georgie reminded her. "Six weeks is no time at all."

"It seems like six years when you're left to do everything for an ungrateful man who's never sober," Mrs. Lovelock retorted. "Not that I'm complaining Heaven knows."

"It sounds rather like it," Georgie said. She slipped down from the table where she had been sitting swinging her legs, and walked out of the house.

It was a dull morning, with a suspicion of mist hanging about the trees and fields which seemed to speak of heat to come later in the day. Georgie walked along slowly, her eyes very thoughtful.

Nicholas Boyd would probably still be in bed, she decided. She hated bed herself, it always seemed such wicked waste of time; besides she was always afraid that if she overslept herself she might miss something good.

Not that anything very much ever happened in the sleepy little village, but all the same perhaps some day it might and then if she was asleep in bed, how would she be able to participate in it?

She wondered which room Mrs. Spears had given Nicholas at the Boar's Head; Georgie knew all the rooms. There was one where Queen Elizabeth was supposed to have slept; it was all old rafters and still contained a high four-poster bedstead.

Georgie's uncle said it was all rot about the Queen having ever slept there; he said that if she had occupied half the beds she was supposed to have done, she must have spent her entire life going from one inn to the other. At any rate, the Boar's Head was very old; it had a secret passage (blocked up now) and one or two old fireplaces.

Mrs. Spears had done her best to preserve its antiquity; most of the furniture was antique, and last year when increase of custom had made it necessary to build out the old dining-room, she had insisted on having it done "in keeping," as she expressed it.

Georgie thought it was a pity Nicholas had not told her where he intended to stay; she might have helped him by telling him which was the best and most comfortable bedroom, and they might have travelled down together and shared the same cab up from the station, which would have been cheaper. She wondered what he would say when he discovered that he had walked right into the enemy's camp, herself being the enemy.

Perhaps would at once pack up and go somewhere else, and that again would be a pity.

She sighed and quickened her footsteps.

Trouvé was lying on the flagstones outside the Boar's Head when Georgie turned the corner.

MRS. SPEARS had told her that years ago old stage coaches had rattled up over those flagstones and had deposited be-powdered dames and be-ruffled gentlemen at the door of the Boar's Head. She declared also that Nelson had once spent the night there on his way to Portsmouth, accompanied by Lady Hamilton.

As she drew nearer, Trouvé raised his head and looked up, then when she spoke his name he waved a welcoming tail and rose slowly to greet her. Georgie went down on her knees and put her arms round him. He wasn't much of a dog if one was particular about points; his head was too big and his legs too long, but Georgie loved him.

"Some day, when I have a home of my own, I shall keep a dozen dogs," was one of the things which Georgie promised herself.

When Trouvé had licked her all over, they went into the Boar's Head together and straight across the low-ceilinged, black-raftered hall to Mrs. Spear's own sitting-room.

Georgie opened the door without knocking.

"I've come back," she said, by way of apology.

Mrs. Spears rose from a paper strewn desk. She was certainly as Mrs. Lovelock had described her "one of the painted ones," for even at this early hour of the morning she had a complexion the like of which could not even have been rivalled in Hollywood, and her hair was of that brassy shade which the unenlightened mistake for gold.

But she was a kindly soul, as Georgie knew well enough, and if she was blunt, she was at any rate unaffected and honest.

"Well, I am glad to see you," she said, and bending from her superior height she gave the girl a resounding kiss.

"I heard you were back," she said. "Your uncle was in here last night. Well, and how are you?"

"Very well, thank you. I had a lovely time."

"I'll bet you did," Mrs. Spears said heartily. "You're looking fine. And have you lost your heart to anyone?"

Georgie shook her head.

"And nobody has lost theirs to me," she said quaintly.

"Which is all to the good," Mrs. Spears declared. "Time enough for you to think of a husband in another ten years. By the way, I've got a gentleman staying here who must have come over on your boat as you both arrived yesterday. Mr. Nicholas Boyd."

Georgie nodded. "Yes, he was on my boat," she said. "Is he going to stay long?"

"HE'S taken the rooms definitely for a month, becroom and sitting-room. Funny he should come here of all places," she said; her eyes searched the girl's face with sudden suspicion. "He hasn't come after you by any chance, I suppose?" she asked with a twinkle.

"Not by any chance," Georgie said firmly. "I don't think he likes girls very much, and anyway he's married."

"As if that makes any difference," Mrs. Spears mocked her. "The married ones are always the worst, in my opinion."

"Well, he isn't," Georgie said. "He's been ill, you know."

"I know, and a fine mess he's made of his face, hasn't he. And him that was so handsome."

"It's the sort of scar that fades in time," Georgie said quickly. "And anyway I never mind scars myself."

"That's because you haven't got any," the landlady of the Boar's Head asserted. "If your face was all smashed up like Mr. Boyd's, you wouldn't be too pleased about it, you mark my words."

To change the conversation she asked how her uncle had been behaving during her absence.

"Just the same," Mrs. Spears said comfortably. "It's a marvel to me he isn't dead. Last night he was here till we closed, and then I had to get Alf to walk home with him."

"I know. I heard them come in," Georgie said.

"It's a thousand pities," Mrs. Spears went on. "And your uncle quite the gentleman. It's hard on you too."

"Oh, I don't mind," Georgie said. "It's no use worrying—it's no use worrying about anything; it doesn't help. Which room has Mr. Boyd got?"

"The one you like—that looks over the garden," Mrs. Spears told her. "And the sitting-room next door. He said he wanted to be quiet, and he'll be quiet enough there; a bit too quiet, I should say, after the life he's led. Are you going to wait and see him?"

"Oh, no," Georgie said in sudden fright. "He doesn't know I live here. I don't think he'd be very pleased if he did so I hope you won't tell him."

"Not me, I've enough to do to mind my own business, but I thought as you'd called in, perhaps you wanted to see him."

"I want to see him right enough," Georgie told herself with a sigh, as she walked home again. "But that isn't the point."

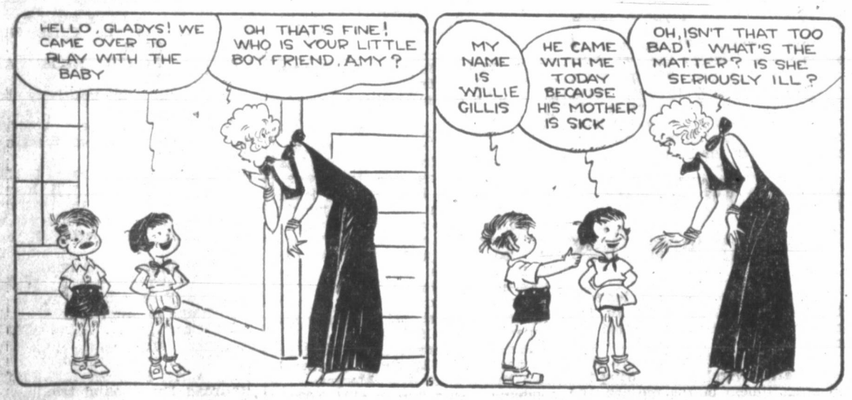

Of course they would be bound to meet sooner or later, and then he could not be rude and pretend that he did not know her. Her hand went deeply into her coat pocket and closed over his cigarette case.

In the meantime she could wait.

Spinning Wheel Return Urged By Tech President

LUBBOCK, June 15. (AP)—Return to the spinning wheel and the hand loom is recommended to West Texans by Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college.

With abundant cotton and wool available to everyone throughout this section, Knapp has proposed that inhabitants make their own clothing.

Instructions in spinning and weaving have been offered free to interested persons through the textile engineering department of the college. An individual it is said, after brief instruction can weave a yard of cloth an hour, suitable for the manufacture of suits, overcoats, and other articles of clothing.

The hand loom is recommended as a community project rather than for home use. To encourage the movement Knapp arranged for a loom to be built here and has exhibited it throughout the territory. The total coast was about $65, which Knapp said could be lowered by constructing it at home. Harness, reed and shuttle equipment may be bought for $10, he said.

"A whole community could buy a hand loom cooperatively and instruct one or two individuals in its operation," Knapp said. "If the householders don't care to spin their own cotton and wool there are mills which will accept raw material and return a per cent of thread and yarn."

Knapp said the plan gave promise of a new industry to a territory principally devoted to agriculture and livestock.

MOST OF SUM WILL PAY FOR ACREAGE CUT

MILLIONS OF ACRES IN COTTON AND WHEAT TO BE 'LEASED'

By ROY F. HENDRICKSON,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

Copyright, 1993, by Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The administration intends to raise $250,000,000 by processing taxes on wheat and cotton which it will levy at their maximum size in a bold program aimed to better long-range farm prices by cutting down production.

The government's plans provide that most of the sum will be used to reward farmers who agree to reduce their output in concert with the federal drive to halt the piling up of surpluses, long a price-depressing problem for growers of the two chief cash crops of the United States.

President Roosevelt has approved a program, devised under powers provided by the new farm act, which Secretary Wallace will make publice tomorrow. A comprehensive acreage curtailment program will be launched immediately for cotton, to take out as much as 10,000,000 acres of the crop now growing.

No effort will be made to cut production of the wheat now nearing harvest. Winter-kill and bad weather have cut the prospects for this crop down to approximte domestic needs for the first time this century, although there is expected to be carry-over of about 360,000,000 bushels on July 1, beginning of the new marketing year. The wheat program, however, is to be put into effect on fall planting.

Wallace has completed details of both programs except for a few elements still open. One, subject to change, is the exact time the taxes will go into effect. He is authorized by the farm act to levy them at the beginning of the crop year for each commodity. That would be July 1 in the case of wheat and August 1 in the case of cotton. Both may be delayed until August.

The tax on cotton is expected to be four cents a pound, that on wheat, 28 to 30 cents a bushel. If prices of either drop before collection of the tax begins, the rate could be boosted, while if prices rose as a result of the prospect of a smaller future supply, the tax could be smaller, since Wallace's power authorizes him to levy a tax which, at its maximum represents the difference between the current price and the "parity price" which is based on pre-war average levels.

Gable Ordered To Quit Movies For Six Weeks

LOS ANGELES, June 15 (AP)—Clark Gable, film actor, is in the same condition as the boy whose life was all work and no play, his physician, Dr. Franklin Thorpe, said today in announcing that the screen star had been ordered to retire from motion pictures for six weeks.

"Mr. Gable has been placed on a diet for at least four weeks and has been ordered to forget pictures, to rest and to get plenty of sunshine and a moderate amount of exercise," Mrs. Gable said. "He may undergo an operation for the removal of his appendix."

Old-Time Branding Irons Might Be Replaced By A Painless Chemical

AMARILLO, June 15. (AP)—A chemical which tests have proved will successfully replace hot irons in branding cattle, and without damage to hides, has been discovered by O. M. Franklin of Amarillo.

Franklin claims the more humane method of branding has been tested over a period of several years, and the brands first applied have not become effaced on either horses or cattle.

The same branding iron can be used, but instead of applying it white hot so it will burn through the hair and skin of the animal, it is dipped into the new fluid and applied cold. The chemical gradually eats away the hair and leaves its imprint on the hide without pain. It is visible soon after being applied and eveintually leaves a permanent white mark on the skin, Franklin said.

Franklin said the new method leaves a brand without making a sore or searing so deeply the hide will break in tanning as often results from branding with hot irons. The animals lose less weight during the branding operation because they are not treated so roughly.

The hot iron has been the range method of branding since the cattle business began in the United States and Mexico. It was intended as a protection against rustlers. Thieves, operating trucks, probably steal as many cattle today as the old-time rustlers did when they picked up mavericks and altered brands. Protection offered by a brand still is essential.

RADCLIFF ELIMINATES HEATH ON 22ND HOLE; AUSTIN BEATS TOM PERKINS

KAUFMAN WILL MEET AUSTIN FOR FINALIST

JET BRUMLEY TO PLAY JIM WHITE IN SEMI-FINALS

Extra hole matches were in vogue yesterday afternoon in play during the Country club golf tournament, but it took Mark Heath and R. L. Radcliff to give a large gallery the thrill of the tournament when Radcliff won on the 22nd hole. Both played steady golf from the first hole.

Grover Austin had little trouble defeating Tom Perkins 6 and 4 with his 69, which was second low score of the tournament. Austin will meet Bus Kaufman to see which player will go into the finals to be shot Sunday. Kaufman made the course in 67 his opening round and, being older, holds a slight advantage. However, Austin has played under fire repeatedly and the match should be a good one. The other match in the first flight will see Radcliff and Tom Darby playing at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Jet Brumley had to go 19 holes with Dr. R. M. Johnson to win his match in the second flight quarter-finals. Jim White won from R. G. Allen, 2 up, and will meet Brumley in the semi-finals. Marvin Harris won from Clyde Fatheree 2 and 1 and will meet the winner of the John Moyar-Art Swanson match to be played this afternoon.

The third flight also had its extra hole match when Tom Rose defeated Gilmore Nunn on the 20th hole in one of the best played matches of the day. Rose will play Dan McGrew. W. T. Fraser won from R. B. Mitchell, 1 up, and will play the winner of the Roy Marshall-Warren Cretney match, scheduled for this afternoon.

Howard Buckingham won 5 and 4 from Ernie Voss and will play W. M. Mumford in the semi-finals in the fourth flight. Max Brown won from L. C. Peddicord by default and will play the winner of the Watkins-Goldston match.

Good scores continued to be shot in the fifth flight with Sam Fenberg winning from A. H. Doucette, 3 and 2, to meet the winner of the Ed Vicars-J. B. Austin match. W. A. Tacker won from Dr. A. B. Goldston to go into the semi-finals with G. C. Austin Sr., who defeated J. M. Dodson, 5 and 3.

Dodgers Trade Clark And Lefty O'Doul To Giants

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—The New York Giants today announced they had traded Sam Leslie, reserve first baseman, to the Brooklyn Dodgers for Watson Clark, left-handed pitcher, and Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, outfielder.

The transaction was a straight player trade, said Secretary Jim Tierney of the Giants, and no cash was involved. The players will join their new teams today.

The acquisition of Leslie, a reserve player only because he is on the same team with Manager Bill Terry, acclaimed the best first baseman in the major leagues, plugs a weakness in the Brooklyn outfield.

O'Doul was the leading batter of the National league last year but has been playing erratically this year and several days ago was benched by Carey in favor of Hack Wilson.

Clark, a regular with Brooklyn since 1927, was one of the leading pitchers of the National league last year with 20 victories against 12 defeats.

CHICAGO—Johnny Pena, New outpointed Varias Milling, Los Angeles, (15); Marty Sampton, New York, outpointed Joe Reguzzoni, Detroit, (8); Jackie Sharkey, Minneapolis, outpointed Jimmy Lamberson, Valparaiso, Ind., (6); Carlos Herrera, El Paso, outpointed Eddie Smith, Muncie, Ind., (4).

ASHTABULA, O.—Sammy Mandell, Rockford, Ill., outpointed Ray Collins, Erie, Pa., (10); Marty McHale, Lorain, O., and Joe Brown, Erie, drew, (10).

INDIANS WIN SECOND GAME FROM LEADERS

STEERS BEAT SHIPPERS 4 TO 2; MISSIONS WHIP CATS

By The Associated Press.

Call it what you will but the fact remains that the Oklahoma City Indians, league cellarites, have knocked off the leading Houston Buffaloes twice in succession. Wednesday it was the 6-hit pitching of Otho Nitcholas, right-hander, that beat the pace setters. Nitcholas clicked with a shutout until the seventh, but it never mattered at this late stage for the Indians had their 7 to 2 decision wrapped up. Euller, shortstop, had a busy time at the plate for the Indians with four hits, but it was Sam Langford, with two hits, who drove in four of Oklahoma City's runs.

Sal Gliatto, diminutive right-hander, and Fred Bennett, husky outfielder, teamed to give Dallas a 4 to 2 victory over Beaumont. Gliatto stopped the Exporters with six scattered hits. Bennett stepped to the plate in the tenth inning and clouted a home run with two out and one on to break the 2-all deadlock.

The San Antonio Missions transported their hitting power into Fort Worth to defeat the Cats, 10 to 4. The Missions collected 17 hits off the combined pitching of Whitworth, Moore, and White. Five runs came in the first inning—enough to chase Whitworth to the showers. Abe Miller limited the Cats to eight hits and struck out nine.

Hitting in the pinches, the Galveston Buccaneers grabbed a ten-inning, 9 to 7, victory from the Tulsa Oilers. Three of the Buccaneer runs were homers, two by English and one from Hufft. Governor's triple and Fausett's sacrifice fly broke the 7-all deadlock. After this, Hufft hit his homer.

TERRY TALKS ABOUT GIANTS

Manager Avers Team Leads Because It Is A Well-Balanced Club

By EDWARD J. NEILL,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—The baseball world may wonder what's holding the Giants up in first place in the National league. The experts walk suspiciously around behind looking for props. Even Bill Terry grins as he stoutly maintains:

"It's a well balanced club, that's why."

The young first baseman who took over the management of the last place Giants when John McGraw, ill and disgusted, dropped the reins after 30 historical years, is a harsh realist. He tore the club apart last winter in a series of trades that left the faithful gasping, won from a large part of the experts a tail end nomination for 1933, laughed at them, then pulled his team to the top of the league.

"We've been winning ball games, haven't we?

"We've been getting fine pitching, timely hitting. Young Hal Schumacher has pitched six winning games already. Last year he won four all season. Carl Hubbell has won nine. The rest of the staff is standing up.

"You can put your finger on two vital spots in our infield and find the reason for most of our improvement over last year. The first is Johnny Vergez, a great third baseman again. The other is Hughie Crtiz. They've both come back after tough seasons.

"Johnny Moore in left field is playing marvelous ball. Gus Mancuso has handled the catching in beautiful style. The defense, but for a couple of bad days, has been great.

"Add to those things the finest morale of any ball club in baseball and you've got the reasons for the Giants being in first place. We're hustling. We've been better than the rest of them so far. There isn't any reason why we shouldn't continue to be."

SUIT SETTLED

WINTERS (AP)—The suit of "the United States vs. 175 bushels of apples" was settled out of court here when A. W. Billingsley, deputy U. S. marshal, spread the apples out on the ground and turned them under with a plow.

The apples were condemned November 9 in a suit filed on the law docket of federal court in San Angelo under the pure food act. They were allegedly poisoned by a spray, having been shipped here from Roswell, N. M.

GIRL GOLF STAR IS FAVORITE JUDGING BY TELEPHONE CALLS

Miss Gorczyca's Golf Game Is Tournament-Sound; She Won Two Titles Easily

By BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Miss Aniela Gorczyca, slender Fort Worth Northside girl, has demonstrated that her golf game is tournament-sound. Her victory Saturday in the Southern Women's Golf championship at Albank, Ga., brought the title west of the Mississippi river for the first time. Scoring a one up victory over Mrs. Ben Fitzhugh, defending champion from Vicksburg, Miss., one of the really fine players in the southern states, Miss Gorczyca continued the winning streak that started a month ago at Galveston where she was medalist and winner of the annual Women's Texas Golf association title.

Miss Gorczyca's game has developed to where she is never over 85 and seldom that high, extremely good scoring for a woman in tournament competition. Her favorite score apaprently is 79 because she clicks off more of them than any other.

Fairway Artist

Several stars can hit off the tee with Miss. Gorczyca but few can compete with her through the fairways. She has a brassie second that is amost as long as her tee shot. She is extremely long with her No. 1 and 2 irons, and a consistently good putter. All this has been developed through six years of hard work on the practice range. The following paragraph from Flem Hall's "Sport Tide Column" in the Star Telegram reveals the interest Fort Worth is taking in Miss Gorczyca:

"Not since the Dixie series days of the Cats has there been such a telephoning for sports information. Football games, big fights, horse, auto and foot races create a lively demand, but they can't compare with golf—not when a local favorite is in the finals of a big tournament. Miss Gorczyca won Saturday's telephone derby hands down. There were twice as many calls about her as about all other things (regular business included) together."

Memphis Golfer Is Favored Over Childress Ace

CHILDRESS, June 15 (AP)—Regnal Greenhaw, 19-year-old Memphis, Texas, star, ranked as a slight favorite today in his 36-hole match with C. P. Sanders Jr. of Childress, for the championship of the Green Belt Golf tournament.

Sanders reached the finals yesterday by defeating Jack Parr of Electra, 3 and 2. Greenhaw, who was runner-up in last year's tournament, defeated Thomas Hampton of Memphis, two up.

P. B. Gentry of Clarendon and C. A. Blanton of Childress meet in the secod flight finals. Gentry defeated E. C. Pryor of Childress, and Blanton defeated R. B. Gibson of Vernon, in the semi-finals.

The third flight was won by M. P. Gentry of Clarendon, who trounced Ed Foxall of Memphis, 3 and 2. J. W. Phillips of Frederick, Okla., defeated L. G. Raney Jr. of Clarendon, to win the fourth flight, 7 and 5.

Mrs. R. B. Thompson underwent a major operation at the Pampa hospital this morning.

Seven Golfers From Dallas In Quarter-Finals

By BILL PARKER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Dallas sent seven aces to the starting tee today in quarter-finals of the Dallas Country club invitation. Only one visitor, Jack Tinnin of Paris, remained to meet Gus Moreland.

David "Spec" Goldman, defending champion of Dallas, was a favorite to go to the finals of the upper bracket. Goldman started this tournament by being medalist with a 72. He continued by defeating Johnny Avon of Dallas in the first round, 6 and 5. He breezed thru the second round with a 4 and 3 win over Bobby Burns of Wichita Falls.

The only upset yesterday was the elimination of Johnnie Dawson of Chicago. He got through his first round by stopping Fred Johnson of Dallas, 5 and 4, but in the second round he suffered elimination when O'Hara Watts of Dallas, former Southwest conference champion, fired a 69 for a 2 and 1 victory.

Moreland, three consecutive times Texas champion, remained the lower bracket favorite with a 6 and 5 win over Norris Russell of Denton, and a 5 and 4 decision over Louis Nowlin of Dallas.

The feature quarter-final match featured Dennis Lavender, former state champion, and Reynolds Smith, current Dallas champion.

Pairings for quarter-finals:

(Upper bracket) David Goldman, Dallas, vs. Jack Jackson, Dallas.

Charlie Dexter, Dallas, vs. O'Hara Watts, Dallas.

(Lower bracket) Dennis Lavender, Dallas, vs. Reynolds Smith, Dallas.

Jack Tinnin, Paris, vs. Gus Moreland, Dallas.

HALLAHAN HAS BEST RECORD IN NATIONAL

PITCHES CARDINALS TO 3 TO 2 VICTORY OVER PIRATES

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

To William Anthony Hallahan, who no longer has much of a claim to his old nickname of "Wild Bill," belongs a large share of the credit for keeping the St. Louis Cardinals in the thick of the National league race.

It used to be that Bill either struck them out or walked them. This year his strikeout record isn't so high but neither has he given out so many passes and after a 3-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday he stood at the head of the National league's pitchers with a record of eight games won and only two lost. He has passed only 36 batsmen in 96 innings of flinging.

The victory gave St. Louis a 2½ game margin over Pittsburgh but failed to reduce New York's lead. The Giants beat the Boston Braves 8-5, after Leroy Parmalee's wildness had given the tribe all its runs in the first inning.

The Chicago Cubs regained their hold on fourth place by defeating Cincinnati 7-0 behind Charley Root's two-hit pitching and Brooklyn captured sixth by trouncing the Phillies 6-3 with an 11-hit attack behind the effective flinging of Ray Benge.

After a day in fourth place, Cleveland returned to the second division of the American league by taking a 13-2 pasting from Detroit. They dropped a few points behind the idle Philadelphia Athletics.

To complete a triumph for the second division, the St. Louis Browns turned on the Chicago White Sox, pounding out 14 hits, to win 14-1, while Hadley held the Hose to four safeties and the last place Boston Red Sox made it three straight over the New York Yankees, lacing out eight runs in the seventh and eighth innings to win 13-5 after the Yanks had scored all their runs in the first half of the seventh.

PRICE RISE DEPLORED

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Judge S. A. Lindsey, director of the federal land bank of Houston, told the Texas Independent Telephone association today that the country would emerge from the depression if "we don't spoli it by upping prices too high."

C. K. Dawson of Ponca City is visiting with friends in Pampa.

ILLNESS OF PLAYERS FORCES CANCELLATION OF GIRLS GAME

Champ Basketball Team Not To Play Here Saturday Night, Wire Says

Illness of three players, due to terrific heat encoutered in Idaho and Wyoming, has caused S. F. Babb, coach of the Durant Cardinal girls' basketball team, to call off the game scheduled for Saturday night here. A telegram received from Green River, Wyo., yesterday afternoon stated that the team would probably have to remain at that point until the ill members were able to travel.

The North American championship team was scheduled to play at the local gymnasium Saturday night, half the game against a team of girls and the other half against the Harvesters. Pampa fans were looking forward to seeing the team that will represent America in England in the international tournament.

A stop will be made in Pampa when the team reaches this point so that Miss Lahoma Lassiter, star forward, may visit her sister, Mrs. Lawrence Spencer and Mr. Spencer.

The Cardinals are returning from Canada where they won the North American title. All members of the team are students at the Oklahoma Presbyterian college at Durant.

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt today issued a call to American women to follow London economic conference events which she described as being of vital importance to theim in their homes.

A COMPANY, THIRTY YEARS OLD

This week Friday the Ford Motor Company completes 30 years of automobile making.

It is also my fortieth year at the same job. I made my first engine in 1893, and it still runs. This is the engine that won the Selden Patent Suit——which took the motor car out of the exclusive class, and opened the automobile industry to hundreds of manufacturers who started during the last 30 years.

Some of the men who began with me that June day in 1903, are working here yet. All of the principles we laid down then, are still operative; we find that they have great survival value for the future. To date they have produced and sold over 21,000,000 Ford cars.

Although we created the automobile market we have never thought it was good for anyone to monopolize it. We have always believed that before business could be good for one, it must be good for all. Our discoveries and improvements have always been open to other manufacturers without patent restrictions.

Of course, there is one thing we cannot share——everyone must get it for himself——and that is experience. Money could duplicate our buildings and machines, but it cannot duplicate 40 years of experience. And it is experience that makes a motor car.

But the past does not especially concern me; it has all been a preparation for the future. For myself, I feel that I have just been gathering the tools to do something worth while, and that my real task is still ahead.

Great changes are upon the world. False ideas of every kind are vanishing in the general upheaval. Those who built truly on principle will survive——their service will carry over. Business integrity and commodity honor will be fully justified. And newer and better ways of living will appear.

That is the outlook for this young thirty-year old Company of ours.

PRIVATE BANKS AND OFFICERS TO BE CURBED

MUST CEASE FLOATING STOCKS OR QUIT TAKING DEPOSITS

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP) — Radical revision of the country's banking methods after years of agitation to correct conditions leading to bank failures and contribution to financial booms and crashes, will begin to take shape immediately.

Senator Carter Glass' bank reform act, possibly the greatest piece of permanent legislation enacted by any recent congress, yesterday became law. President Roosevelt, promising his signature, called it "the best piece of banking legislation since the reserve board act."

In the flurry of getting the act through congress, its main provision has been obscured by the one insuring people's checking and saving deposits, but its far reaching arms may alter the course of American finance.

Under it, private banks such as the recently investigated J. P. Morgan and company will have to quit taking deposits or stop floating securities.

All national banks must separate themselves completely within one year from their securities corporations. Among the best known are such as the National City Bank of New York and its National City company, which figured extensively in senate investigation, but hundreds of banks all over the country have such affiliates.

The federal reserve system, greatest single channel for massing credit, is now given the power to shut off this stream of money from members lending it to assist market speculation. That will keep the public's billions from being lent to brokers for financing margin operations in a booming market.

The reserve board is given the power to remove from its member banks, no matter where or how small, officials whose policies are illegal or even regarded "unsound."

The practice, fostered by sharp competition, of paying interest on checking accounts is stopped. Reserve member banks may no longer make loans to their officers. National banks may operate branches in states which permit their own banks to do so, reducing an advantage held by non-national institutions and allowing branch-maintaining institutions to enter the national fold.

Again curbing the power of the private bankers, directors or partners of these must get off the boards of all commercial banks. Only the other day it was shown that the Morgan firm's partners alone were directors in fifteen banks with total assets just under four billion dollars.

The deposit insurance provision will protect customers of all banks deemed sound, from January, 1934, until 1936. After than only reserve member banks will have the privilege, a provision that is expected to bring state banks generally into the closely regulated system.

Davis King of Reydon, Okla., was here on business yesterday.

Woodul And Purl Always At Outs In Upper House

AUSTIN, June 15. (AP)—Surprising as it seems, there is wide-spread confusion as to the difference between the available school funds and the permanent school funds of Texas.

William Pierson, associated justice of the supreme court, who wrote the opinion recently in the cases involving title to valuable oil lands in West Texas, pointed out that even some legislators are confused as to the meaning of the two funds.

Some one had erroneously said that the land decision involved $3,000,000 in available school funds that would be released for the benefit of boys and girls attending the public free schools. The fact was the money immediately available was much less than $3,000,000 and would accrue to the permanent fund, and not the available fund.

Interest on bonds purchased by money held in the permanent school fund goes to the available fund and therefore can be used. None of the principal of the permanent fund can be used, however except to be invested in securities for the benefit of the available fund.

Senator Walter Woodul of Houston was a stern persiding officer in the upper branch. He was chosen president pro tem during the long session. Presiding over any legislative body is hard work. It wears the metal of the strongest man. It is a nervous strain and Lieutenant Governor Edgar Witt and Speaker of the House Coke Stevenson, as a matter of self-preservation, required occasional relief. The burden of the pinch-hitting in the senate fell on President Pro Tem Woodul, although the lieutenant governor called on other senators at intervals to wield the gavel. Speaker Stevenson had 150 members to choose from, but Witt had only thirty-one.

Woodul and Senator George C. Purl of Dallas often tangled when Woodul was in the chair.

One day Purl was trying to get recognition from the president. Woodul did not want to recognize him.

"Sit down and I'll recognize you," Woodul shouted at Purl.

"I thought one had to stand up to get recognition," Purl retorted.

Immunization To Bring New Era, Physician Says

By F. B. COLTON,
Assbciated Press Science Editor.

MILWAUKEE, June 15 (AP)—The physician of the future will be an "immunizer" treating the sick largely by injections of foreign materials that will call out all the body's defense forces against disease, the American Medical association was told today.

"At present we are just at the dawn of a new era" in treating illness with injections of substances that are not specific remedies for the disease the patient has, but stimulate the body to fight the disease with its own weapons, said Dr. Clyde Brooks of New Orleans.

Medicine is passing beyond the idea of treating each disease with a specific remedy for that disease, he explained, to the use of remedies that have no connection with the disease. Chief among these are proteins, such as are obtained from egg white or milk used as treatment for ailments for which there is no specific vaccine.

"Lengthening life and strengthening body vigor may be in store for man," said Dr. Brooks. "We look to the future expecting great progress in non-specific protein therapy (treatment). "Experiments on young puppies indicate that it is possible to stimulate growth with increase of body weight and muscular power by injecting non-specific protein at an extremely early age."

Fair Trippers May Choose Own Side Journeys

Persons who have friends to visit or special points of interest to see in Chicago will find the Pampa Daily NEWS special train to the world's fair ideally suited to their needs.

Whereas the planned tours hold visitors to a routine on pain of forfeiting specified trips, the Pampa NEWS trip will leave the trippers free to choose their side-journeys as they desire. However, The NEWS staff members and Chicagoans will be glad to help plan special tours and make any special arrangements desired.

Details of the trip are printed in the box at the bottom of Page 1. The NEWS needs the names of all who think they can make the trip.

The millionth person to visit A Ceutry of Progress—the Chicago World's Fair—was Miss Eleanor Frost, Syracuse, N. Y., a 1933 graduate of Syracuse university.

Miss Frost entered the Twelfth street entrance of the fair at 10:45 a. m. Monday, and was met at the turnstile by Major Lenox R. Lohr, general manger of A Cenutry of Progress, who presented Miss Frost with an official medal of the fair.

Miss Frost is a fine arts graduate and plans to teach art and do water color work. She expects to remain in Chicago at least two weeks during which time she plans to spend most of her time at A Century of Progress and study art exhibits.

"The fair is the most marvelous thing I have ever seen," Miss Frost said.

...OMEN AND GIRLS OF ENTIRE COUNTY TO BE HERE

WOMEN and girls from home demonstration and 4-H clubs over the county will be in Pampa tomorrow for an all-day event that brings one of their major projects of the year to an end. Their annual clothing contest and dress parade will be held at the First Baptist church.

Starting at 9:30, judging will be completed in the morning. Luncheon will be served at noon, each club making a contribution to the picnic spread, and a public program is scheduled for the afternoon.

Girls In Contest.

Dresses and girls' pajamas entered in the contest will be displayed in a parade that will feature the program. Prizes given by Pampa merchants will be awarded to the winners in each division.

Club women will enter cotton street dresses in their contest. Entries will be made in two divisions, one for the club wardrobe demonstrators who have kept personal clothing budget records for this year, and one for those who kept records for their entire families.

Nine women are entrants in the first group, and five in the second. More than 25 4-H club girls are expected to submit wash dresses or pajamas in a third contest division.

Merchants Give Prizes.

Merchants offering prizes include Murfee's, Unittd Store, Doak's, L. T. Hill Co., J. C. Penney Co., Stein's, Gordon Store, Levine's and Montgomery Ward.

Mrs. C. A. Tignor acted as chairman of the committee on awards, and Mrs. W. D. Benton of the exhibit committee. The latter group will act as hostesses at tomorrow's event, welcoming visitors.

Judges in the various classes will include Miss Bessie Sikes, Roberts county agent; Miss Mary Sitton, Potter county agent, and Mrs. Jack Neaves of Pampa.

Women Like The Model Kitchens At World's Fair

CHICAGO, June 15.—Model kitchens, houses, utilizing the latest developments in building materials, appliances designed to make house work simpler, splendid and novel designs in furniture, drapes, and decorations, are among the attractive features of the home and industrial arts group and the electrical group at Chicago's World's Fair which opened Saturday, May 27.

Thousands of women who attended the opening day of the fair were enthusiastic in their praise of the labor-saving devices.

When Ali Baba wished to open the door of the thieves cavern he spoke two words—"Open Sesame." Not even that slight exertion is necessary for the modern housewife. At the exposition are shown doors that open at her approach and close after she has passed through them. The marvel is accomplished by the "electric eye," the photo-electric cell. It is part of a model home exhibit.

Eleven kitchens, in as many model houses, show the latest improvements in electrical and gas appliances, such as refrigeration, automatic heat control for ovens, dish washing machines, mixing machines, and well planned kitchen cabinets which bring everything within easy reach of the housewife at her work.

Many of the implications of scientific advance are outlined in the social science exhibits.

Club Woman Gives Contestants Aid

Mrs. G. P. Bradbury, wardrobe demonstrator in the Bell Home Demonstration club, conducted an all-day program at her home recently, to assist other members of her club.

She made foundation patterns for members without them, and assisted others in planning and fitting dresses for the county club contest. She also assisted the contest dressmakers with fitting problems.

Mrs. Frank Cook and Mrs. Owens were among the visitors here from Canadian this week.

CROCHETED BEACH ACCESSORIES

The well turned out beach costume should have at least two accessories hand crocheted in cotton. The smartest and most comfortable beach shoes are espadrilles made of white crochet cotton with rope or cil cloth soles and tied at the ankles with ropes of the cotton yarn. A halter which ties around the neck and waist, a belt or a beach bag crocheted to match the espadrilles makes a set fit to adorn the beach of any smart bathing club.

Double Up Your Chic With Soft Frills

There's so much tea table gossip about "period" fashions lately, that some of us are beginning to wonder just how far they are going to go. But for smart women who refuse to go about looking like a belle of the mauve decade dressed for a costume party, a careful review of the newest fashions brings complete reassurance. There are Gibson Girl and Lily Langtry styles in abundance for our lighter moments, but so many of the newest frocks are not so much Victorian, not so much Edwardian, but thoroughly 1933.

It's true that frills and puffs are quaint, but they are being used in a way that's typically modern and very, very flattering. There's never been anything like this easily-made model with its double collar, deftly buttoned down with a tab. Even the puffed sleeves have the benefit of sprightly flyaway tabs. In daisy printed crepe with organdie it is irresistible. For fabric requirements see pattern envelope.

Pattern No. 5240 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 bust.

KIDNAP PLOT FIRMLY DENIED BY ROOSEVELT

REPORT INVOLVED THE GRAND-DAUGHTER OF PRESIDENT

RYE BEACH, N. H., June 15 (AP)—The family of James Roosevelt, son of the president, was staying at the home of relatives today as the result of a fire which forced them to move from their summer place.

Flames which started yesterday in an upper story gained headway before firemen from Portsmouth, Rye Beach and North Hampton could bring them under control. Although part of the furniture was carried from the 15-room house by firemen and servants, damage from flames and water was estimated at $5,000.

Mrs. Roosevelt and her 14-month-old daughter, Sara Delano Roosevelt, were not endangered. Roosevelt hurried here from Boston, where he is in the insurance business, and it was said they would go to the summer home of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Cushing of Boston. Mrs. Roosevelt is their daughter.

After the fire there was a report—quickly denied from the White House—that threats had been made to kidnap the child, that a secret service agent had been assigned as a result of the threats, and that the fire might have been intended as a screen for the kidnapers.

Stephen T. Early, presidential secretary, said at the White House that James Roosevelt had called his father and declared there was "absolutely no truth in the report."

The president's son telephoned a denial to New York, saying "reports of any kidnaping threats are simply crazy and without the slightest foundation."

"It is true," he said, "that a secret service man was sent to the house, but it was purely a coincidence. I was making ready to join my father on his cruise up the coast, and the agent was assigned to the house because of my impending absence."

Prisoners Escape From Archer City

ARCHER CITY, June 15 (AP)—Texas and Oklahoma officers were on the lookout today for Ed Parish and Horace Cozart who escaped from the jail here last night after overpowering Joe Kitchens, jailer, and taking his keys.

Parish, under a 4-year burglary sentence, escaped during the winter but was recaptured in Oklahoma. Cozart had been sentenced to two years for forgery. Both were awaiting transfer to the penitentiary.

R. B. Saxe of Borger was a Pampa visitor today.

R. S. Van Hook of Chicago is a Pampa visitor for a few days.

Buffaloes Were Killed In Two Years, Says Man

WINTERS, June 15 (AP)—Buffalo in herds of thousands roamed the Runnels county area when J. M. Johnson arrived from Gonzales in 1876 to begin riding the range for Tom Matthews. But hunters depleted the animals to such an extent that by spring only a few scattering herds could be found. By 1878 the buffalo was almost extinct.

Johnson, president of the Ex-Open Range Cowpunchers' association several years ago, now lives in Winters.

"It was one of the greatest slaughters I ever saw. The eastern men came here bringing 10 to 15 hunters to a crew and combed this section. Thousands of tons of good meat went to waste under their gunfire. One crew hunted the buffalo while another skinned them. Hunters could walk upon a herd peacefully grazing and open fire before the unsuspecting game had time to start a stampede," he said.

Johnson said cowboys seldom shot buffalo and then only for food.

Johnson rode for Matthews in this section until 1881 when he went to Wyoming. He returned a few months later to join the J. H. Parremore ranch where he became foreman and remained until 1889. Then he got a section of land near Winters.

There were few rustlers in the section then, although cattle often drifted away to distant sections, he said.

"The greatest loss during my riding days occurred in the winter of 1884 when the cattle drifted south because of the extreme cold. We found some of them as far south as Del Rio."

Rail Men And Employes Face Wage Decision

CHICAGO, June 15 (AP)—This city today was the battleground again for another railroad wage dispute as both executives and employes began moving on it for conferences to effect and resist a 12½ per cent reduction in pay checks.

The former, represented by the Association of Railway Executives, and including presidents of all the roads in the country, said they would apply for the cut which, combined with a 10 per cent reduction now in effect, would lower the basic wage scale 22½ per cent.

On the other hand, A. F. Whitney, chairman of the Railway Labor Executives Association, said his organization would meet in Chicago Friday and "we have decided not to take a cut."

Whitney said the meeting was not for the purpose of discussing the proposed cut, but to study the administration's railroad bill.

The impending struggle between the operators and employes brought to mind their prolonged conference last fall when the latter succeeded in a postponement of a permanent downward revision in wages by agreeing to a continuanon of a temporary 10 per cent reduction in basic contract rates to next November 1. The original reduction was effected February 1, 1932, for a period of one year.

When the compromise was effected last fall the carriers agreed not to press their case under provisions of the railway labor act before June 15.

'THE ONLY WAY'

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—Prime Minister R. B. Bennett of Canada told the world economic conference today that the only way to deal with the vast wheat surplus is by international agreement.

Skellytown Man Dies; Funeral To Be Held Friday

John Alexander Wyatt, 63, of Skellytown, died in a local hospital yesterday afternoon following a brief illness. He had been a resident of Skellytown for six years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the chapel of the G. C. Malone Funeral home. Services will be preached by the Rev. C. E. Lancaster, pastor of the First Baptist church. Burial will follow in Fairview cemetery. Mr. Wyatt was a Baptist.

Mr. Alexander is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. J. A. Whitchurch of Waico, Okla., Mrs. George Haverkamp of Joplin, Mo., and Mrs. F. C. Platt of Skellytown, and four sons, Samuel of Bartlesville, Okla., Wesley of Sunray, William and Laverne of Skellytown. Other survivors are his father, I. A. Wyatt of Green Forest, Ark., and two sisters and four brothers.

New Price Change In Pla-Mor Dance

A new plan will be tried at the Pla-Mor tonight when Ted Price and his Texans play for the regular Thursday night dance. The admission charges will remain the same and dancing will be allowed free until 10:30 o'clock. After that time, however, dancing will be 5 cents for each dance.

Ted Price and his band are making a hit with local dancers. Shirley Kuhn, accordion player, is especially popular. She is well known as a radio performer.

Mrs. C. E. Lancaster and son, Melvin, are visiting this week in Wichita Falls.

Penney Sales In May Bigger Than Month Of 1932

Gross sales of the J. C. Penney company for May 1933 were $14,432,845.34 as against May 1932 sales of $12,645,443.84. This is an increase for the month of $1,787,401.51 or 14.13 per cent—the largest percentage of increase shown by this company since April 1930.

Cumulative gross sales from January 1st to May 31st, 1933 inclusive, were $56,402,697.47 against $57,255,271.30 for the same period in 1932, a difference of $852,573.83 or 1.49 per cent.

Commenting on this striking increase in May sales, E. C. Sams, president of the J. C. Penney company, said:

"It is gratifying to note that this increased volume has been shown by stores in all sections of the country. Since retail prices had not yet been advanced by our company during May, but were actually lower on the whole than those existing a year ago, the increased sales reflect a definite and marked increase in customer buying. Reports from our stores indicate that people are actually feeling better and during May were replenishing, in part, depleted wardrobes."

Infant's Funeral Set For Tomorrow

Funeral services for the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ray will be conducted at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the family home on the Merten lease. Services will be in charge of the Rev. E. G. Barrett and burial will follow at Fairview cemetery in charge of the Stephenson Mortuary.

Besides the parents, survivors are a twin brother and two other brothers, Billie and Wayne.

Mr. Ray has been a resident of this community for a number of years. He is with the Gulf Production company.

Markets

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—The gleam of a soaring dollar blinded the eyes of rampant stock market bulls today and losses of 1 to 4 or more points were suffered by many of the recently fast moving share leaders. It was the dullest session in several weeks, however, notwithstanding at last-minute liquidating rush. Approximately 4,000,000 shares changed hands.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, June 15. (AP)—Cotton had an active but rather easier opening today. Prices continued to ease owing to an accumulation of over-night selling orders, a somewhat easier opening in stocks and expressed fears of ill-effects of the proposed processing tax to provide for leasing of cotton lands.

The market ruled quiet later in the morning and prices kept within the earlier range, gradually improving from the lows on short covering and in sympathy with steadier stocks. October rallied to $9.42 and December to $9.56, or 11 to 12 points up from the early lows but still 6 to 8 points under yesterday's close.

At mid-session the market was steady with very little disposition to trade pending more details from Washington o nthe acreage-leasing program.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 15. (AP)—Wheat underwent a quick tumble of two cents a bushels early today, unsettled by prospects that maximum processing taxes would be applied to wheat and cotton August 1. Leading traders said the outlook placed the immediate market situation in a fairly doubtful position. Opening ⅝-1½ lower, wheat soon dropped further.

Wheat closed nervous 1-1⅝ under yesterday's finish, corn ½-¾ up, oats ⅛-½ advanced, and provisions varying from 7 cents decline to a rise of 2 cents.

TELEPHONE LINES CUT

VIENNA, June 15 (AP)—The newspaper Strunde reported today from Semmering, Austria, that unidentified persons cut the main telephone cable connecting Vienna with Italy. Two previous attempts to sever communication between the two points were made in recent weeks.

Private messages recevied in New York today said Italy is supporting a move for restoration of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy. This, it is held, would quash the current Nazi agitation in Austria for union of that country with Germany, which Italy opposes.

CHILDRESS, June 15 (AP)—Rengal Greenhaw was 2 up on C. P. Sanders Jo. for the title of the Green Belt Golf association today.

youthful spirit symbolized by the mocking bird might well be caught in modern business. Men both old and young are prone to accept the lazy, fat-stomached ultra-conservative philosophy of life and business which formerly was attributed only to middle age. We need men, young in spirit, who are willing to take an adventuresome attitude toward financial stress.

IDEAS VS. MONEY

A scarcity of money should not necessitate a scarcity of ideas. Many clever ideas can be transformed into realities with little or nor money. There has been little initiative displayed in the last year or two. Young men have taken a seat with their elders in the easy-going philosophy that "what will be, will be."

OPPORTUNITY LINGERS

Yet behind us lies a foundation strengthened by each geenration of American citizens and before us looms a future which would be deemed the height of opportunity to those hardy forefathers. And we know that zeal, optimism, and new ideas have not been lost permanently during the depression. The spirit of youth will bring them back and those who acquire them first will profit most.

No New Hikes In Prices Of Crude

The hike in the price of crude oil in the Panhandle field announced yesterday by the Bell Oil & Gas company, had not been met by other purchasers this morning, but it was felt in oil circles that the raise would come soon.

The Bell company is a large purchaser in the Panhandle field and particularly in Gray county. Head offices of the company are in Tulsa, but an office is maintained in Pampa with A. M. Martini in charge. In announcing the hike, officials said that the Panhandle was due to come to the front again and that an increase in the price was the only way.

The company placed the price of crude oil back on a gravity basis and set the top price at 50 cents a barrel. The old price was 20 cents a barrel, flat rate.

Father Charges Pastor Mailed Obscene Matter

SHREVEPORT, La., June 15. (AP)—Federal officials today expected the Rev. E. L. Thompson of Dallas appear here voluntarily to answer a charge of sending obscene matter through the mails.

The Rev. Mr. Thompson, formerly pastor of the Central Christian church here, was released from his contract last February and became pastor of Mount Auburn Christian church at Dallas, Tex.

No capias had been issued for him, but J. Fair Hardin, assistant United States attorney, said the preacher was coming of his own will to answer a federal indictment.

United States Attorney Philip Mecom, announced the federal grand jury this week indicted the Rev. Mr. Thompson on the charge.

The indictment carried two counts. One count charged he was responsible for the mailing of an alleged obscene letter to a Louisiana youth from a Shreveport postoffice.

Officers said the alleged obscene letter was intercepted by the youth's father.

ENGINEER DIES

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—The death was announced today of Sir Ernest William Moir, eminent engineer, at his home in London. He was 71 years old.

Silver Favored By Mexican In Conference Talk

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—Alberto J. Pani, head of the Mexican delegation to the world economic conference, advocated the rehabilitation of silver in a speech today before the conference to which the United States delegates listened with great attention.

"The rehabilitation of silver and the stabilization of its price," Senor Pani said, "is a question which is of interest to all silver producing countries and to those holding large silver stocks on account of their monetary circulation being or having been based upon silver, and also to those countries that, while on the gold standard, are nevertheless interested in the rehabilitation of silver to establish their international trade.

"Mexico, being the principal silver producing country in the world, earnestly advocates such rehabilitation."

United States delegates present when the speech was delivered, included Secretary of State Hull, Rep. Sam D. McReynolds, Ralph W. Morrison, and Senator Key Pittman. Senator Pittman, a specialist in silver especially followed the speech closely.

As the Mexican spokesman descended from the rostrum and passed down the aisle, the Americans, led by Mr. Hull, arose and shook hands with him.

You don't have to tell me a thing about "Toasting"

Now, don't misunderstand me. I probably don't know just how the "Toasting" process works... but I certainly know enough about the good it does. To me my cigarette is personal, so when I light a Lucky and taste its fine, pure tobacco fragrance... when I smoke Luckies in any number and still find them cool and mild ... do I have to know how "Toasting" works? Frankly, I don't care much... just so long as I can keep on saying —and mean it—"Luckies Please!"

because "It's toasted"
