Count-Down Begins For Series Of Nuclear Tests

Shot Is Due 'Any Time'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. nuclear count-down is under way. The first explosion of the new test series could thunder out in the remote Pacific at any hour.

President Kennedy gave his final approval Tuesday for the series of test shots in the atmosphere. The Atomic Energy Commission announced the tests would begin "as soon as operationally feasible."

This meant, said an AEC spokesman, the first shot will be triggered any time in the next few days, as soon as the weather, the weapons and the elaborate experimental facilities are "go."

Kennedy's authorization for the tests to proceed came in a day of appeals and warnings against resumption of testing. U Thant, acting Secretary-general of the United Nations, and India's Prime Minister Nehru urged the great powers to refrain from testing. In Moscow, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko repeated Russian warnings that the Soviet Union would conduct new tests unless the United States relented.

On Capitol Hill, Kennedy's go-ahead announcement was greeted with general approval, with several members of Congress saying that the President had no alternative.

The U.S. Information Agency said today it has found strong support in the Philippines, Thailand and Latin America for the resumption of U.S. atmospheric testing. It reported that opinion in areas including the Middle East, South Asia and Africa is opposed to testing.

Japan's leftist Zengakuren student federation said it would demonstrate at the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo every day U.S. tests are conducted.

It has been almost four years since the United States made its last nuclear tests in the atmosphere, although it has reported firing 29 small (as nuclear gadgets go) devices underground in Nevada since last fall.

It has been almost eight months since the Soviet Union set off a series of powerful nuclear blasts on her arctic proving ground—to shatter the moratorium observed by the two countries and Great Britain since 1958.

GEN. EDWIN A. WALKER was honored at a coffee this morning in Snyder. Shown with the candidate for governor are Mrs. Bill Brown and Mrs. Charlotte Etgen. In Gen. Walker's remarks he reminded the group that Florida's problem of Castro's communism just 90 miles away was Texas' and every other state's problem as well. He also stated that his platform of opposition to the federal government is not unreasonable since governors represent the 90 per cent of the rights of the people as guaranteed by the Constitution.

Showers In Texas Are Tapering Off

By The Associated Press

Showers appeared to be tapering off over soggy Texas Wednesday, but the weather man said another rain-triggering cool front was on the way.

There were still a few light showers in Southeast Texas early in the day. Fog cloaked parts of Northeast and North Central Texas before the sun rose.

Forecasters said the next front was approaching from the Pacific Northwest but won't arrive for another two to three days.

Skies cleared over western areas of the state while the eastern half remained partly cloudy to cloudy.

There was fog at Abilene, Mineral Wells, Childress, Wichita and Corpus Christi.

Rain fell in torrents Tuesday afternoon at Longview. The East Texas city measured 1.70 inches in an hour. It rained hard about the same time around Decatur, Boyd and Rhome in North Texas.

Forecasts called for a few more thundershowers in Northeast and Southeast Texas, mostly cloudy skies in central sections of the state and clear to partly cloudy weather in the west.

Temperatures early Wednesday ranged from 43 degrees at Dalhart up to 69 at Galveston.

Great Saturn Performs Well

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The great Saturn booster was launched successfully for the second time today and was deliberately blown up after the trial to dump 95 tons of cloud-forming water into the upper atmosphere.

With a tremendous roar and spurt of flame, the world's mightiest known rocket rode 1.3 million pounds of thrust to an altitude of 65 miles. There a signal from the ground detonated dynamite charges which ripped the vehicle apart spilling the water into the near-vacuum of space in a bonus experiment.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced several minutes after the 9 a.m. launching that the flight was completely successful.

Observers saw the water quickly form a huge cloud of snow-like ice particles which spread several hundred feet across a clear sky.

The great mass—higher than any natural cloud has flown—remained seemingly motionless in the air for only a few seconds, then spread apart and quickly vanished.

As on the first flight of the Saturn last October, only the first-stage performance was being checked. And once again it was a remarkable performance by what is believed to be the largest and most complex rocket in the world—a forerunner of a rocket designed to carry American astronauts to the moon later in this decade.

By the time the explosive charge was ignited 160 seconds after launching, the 162-foot Saturn had completed its main mission—a check-out on the booster itself.

The eight powerful engines in the first stage functioned for about 115 seconds, pushing the 463-ton vehicle to an altitude of 35 miles. The engines then shut off as planned and the rocket coasted up to the point of explosion—which occurred some 50 miles southeast of Cape Canaveral over the Atlantic.

Two dummy upper stages were filled with water to simulate the weight of the upper assembly to be carried on future Saturns.

It was this 23,000 gallons of water which was spilled into the icy ionosphere in a secondary scientific experiment dubbed "Project Highwater."

By tracking the cloud and recording its action scientists hoped to gain further knowledge of the upper atmosphere.

Officials were jubilant. Two straight successes in the program have given added impetus to America's plan to race the Soviet Union to the moon.

Richard Canfield, Saturn project officer, reported the good shots show that a vehicle such as Saturn certainly is feasible.

Canfield said primary purposes of the flight were to evaluate propulsion, aerodynamic characteristics, guidance and other systems in the first stage.

CG Rules Boat Sunk Purposely, 5 Killed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The U.S. Coast Guard ruled today that the ketch Bluebelle was intentionally sunk at sea by Capt. Julian A. Harvey and that he killed five passengers prior to the sinking.

The five were Harvey's wife and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Duperrault and two of the Duperraults' children.

A Coast Guard report on its investigation into the tragic sinking last Nov. 12 said Terry Jo Duperrault, 11, survived only through "five fortuitous circumstances."

The report said Harvey did not harm Terry Jo or her sister, Renee, "probably in the assumption that they would drown when the vessel sank."

Renee drowned when the Bluebelle sank but her body floated because of a life jacket she was wearing, the report said.

It concluded that Harvey recovered Renee's body and kept it to lend credibility to the story he would later tell after being rescued.

These are the circumstances the Coast Guard listed as probably having saved Terry Jo's life:

1. Harvey was prevented from assuring that she did not survive because a dinghy had gone adrift and Harvey had to retrieve it.

2. Terry Jo knew of a small balsa life float, was able to free it from the sinking ketch and climb into it.

3. Harvey was unable to locate the girl after the vessel sank.

4. The weather was mild enough to permit the 11-year-old's survival with no food, water, shelter, and with scant clothing.

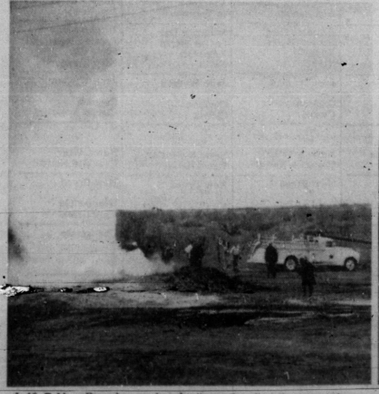

5. She was almost directly in the path of the rescue vessel, the Captain Theo, on the morning of Nov. 16 when the small life float was spotted.

The Coast Guard said circumstances would not permit determination of how the lives of the four Duperraults and Mrs. Harvey were taken or the order in which they died.

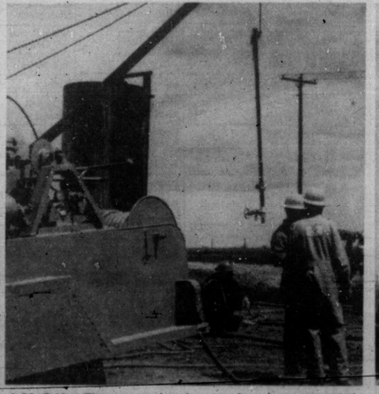

The Coast Guard said the probable cause of the casualty was the state of mind of Julian A. Harvey at about 11:30 p.m. Nov. 12, 1961.

The report added: "The motives for the acts of Harvey cannot be ascertained. However, the fact that he was the sole beneficiary of his wife's insurance policy and that he was sorely in need of funds must be considered."

Here's How To Put Out An Oil Well Fire . . .

1:42 P.M.—Regular and volunteer Snyder firemen place hoses from the three Snyder fire trucks to spray the fire area with cooling water. Two Holcombe and one Devers tanker stand by with water and two tanks of salt.

1:50 P.M.—The new valve is seen hanging suspended from the "stinger" on an E. L. Farmer truck. When the fire is extinguished this open valve will be placed on the well head and then closed. The pipe on the valve is to facilitate handling only.

1:53 P.M.—Snyder firemen flood the super-heated area with water to cool the metal pieces there to prevent re-ignition when the flames are extinguished. Putting the fire out was not regarded as half of the job that keeping it out was to be.

2:06½ P.M.—Fire fighters of BJ Service Inc. join Snyder firemen in spraying fire control chemicals. Jim Wooldridge, BJ field supervisor directs the operation. Two BJ firefighting trucks stood by, although only one was needed. (Continued on Page 2)

2:08 P.M.—Flames out! One minute and 35 seconds after the carbon dioxide was turned on the last flame was gone. The chemical was sprayed around the base of the fire and up the plume of flame as well. Firemen continued to spray foam and water to prevent re-ignition.

2.13 P.M.—Bob Page leads the crew in positioning the new valve over the hole. Firemen continue to soak the area around them as a precautionary measure. The small white paper tag attached to the valve handle with cotton twine waved bravely through it all.

2:26 P.M.—A two-inch line is now shown attached to the valve and salt water is being forced into the well by a BJ pumper truck under pressure greater than that of the wild well. Yellow gas still sprays from ruptures in the casing.

2:42 P.M.—After 25 hours of uncontrolled fury the D. M. Cogdell Winston No. 1 has yielded to man's control. In the background is the $85,000 Brooks Oil Well Servicing rig destroyed by the fire. Total loss will be determined after tests are made on the Winston No. 1.

Screwworm Precautions Are Urged

County Agent Billy Roach reported today that over 200 new screwworm cases developed in southern Texas last week, with outbreaks ranging from Brazoria County on the Gulf Coast to the Pecos River in Terrell County.

Although Sterile flies are being released in all infested areas, the continued cooperation of local livestock producers is essential, Roach said. Animals should be checked often and specimens of larva found in wounds should be submitted to the county agent who will have them analyzed and identified.

Ranches and farms where screwworm larvae are found will not be quarantined, but a survey will be made to determine the extent of the infestation and if necessary male sterile flies will be flown into the area to combat the infestation.

Anyone who has not contributed to the screwworm eradication program in Scurry County may do so by contacting Rex Robinson, secretary of the association.

In addition, Roach said all livestock owners should spray animals with an approved insecticide to hold down the screwworm population and permit better use of the limited number of sterile flies available. Fly production now is about 15 million per week. Authorities say that this week they will be producing 20 million per week. A target date in early July has been set to have the 75 million per week capacity sterile fly plant open in Mission.

Revenues Of CRMWD Up For Quarter

The Colorado River Municipal Water District is off to a good start, first quarter reports show.

Revenues for that period amount to $507,799 as compared with $461,866 for the first quarter of 1961, and most of this increase is due to the addition of Standard Oil (and Sinclair) as an oilfield repressuring customer.

During March revenues amounted to $109,933 from sale of water to the member cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder, plus a small amount to rural users. Oil companies used $26,825 for water representing a decline after an early acceleration in the first two months. This is normal, however, for the companies are under minimum contracts and make sure in the early months that the year's contract minimum will be used.

Recreational revenues for March amounted to $3,754, mostly from permits.

March expenditures included $234 for supervision labor, $577 for operating labor, $262 for repairs and supplies, $1,267 for maintenance labor, $448 for electric power, $2,407 for water purchases, $687 for automotive expense, $41,181 for pumping expense, $7,476 for administrative and general expense, and $2,181 for recreation expenses. For the first quarter total expenses stood at $155,223, a gain of $12,000 over the same time a year ago. Power requirements in March and equipment for the recreation department accounted for most of the gain.

The $352,575 excess of revenue over expenditures was marked for debt service and other indentured funds.

Liz Treated After Tiff

ROME (AP)—Elizabeth Taylor, the troubled Cleopatra, was treated Tuesday night at a Rome hospital after an Easter seaside idyll with Richard Burton that reportedly ended in a violent quarrel.

Attendants at Salvator Mundi Hospital said the 30-year-old film queen had come there for treatment and had returned home several hours later. They said her condition was not serious but wouldnt say what was wrong.

A secretary at Miss Taylor's villa said she went to the hospital for a personal matter. He said she did not have food poisoning, for which she had been treated at the same hospital two months ago.

The secretary also denied a report by an Italian news agency that Miss Taylor had stopped to see a doctor in Orbetello after she left Burton at Porto Santo Stefano and drove back to Rome alone Monday night.

The secretary said Miss Taylor was perfectly well today.

Rome newspapers reported that Miss Taylor stormed out of Porto Santo Stefano and raced back to Rome after a violent quarrel with Burton, her leading man in "Cleopatra" and her constant companion since the announcement that she would divorce singer Eddie Fisher.

Burton returned to Rome alone Tuesday.

'62 Called Year Of Payoff For ICBM

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Thomas P. Gerrity, chief of the Air Force ballistic missiles program, says 1962 is the "year of the big pay-off" in development and availability of intercontinental ballistic missiles.

"This year we will triple our operational ICBM force and in 1963 we'll triple it again," he said Tuesday at an Overseas Press Club Luncheon.

He said the United States had started five years after the Russians and within a decade had "wiped out the discrepancy between our missile forces and those of the Soviet Union."

Critic's Candid

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Is there a subtle way for a man to let a woman know he does not like what she's wearing?

Maybe, but Douglas Fairbanks Jr., with three daughters and a wife to keep him in practice, still thinks there is nothing like the direct method.

"Where did you get THAT?" may not go over big at first, he admits. Still, the blunt inquiry does give a woman what she desperately seeks, an honest male point of view.

Fortunately, Mary Lee Epling Fairbanks whom he married in 1939 and daughters Daphne 22, Victoria 20, and Melissa 15, are endowed with enough good fashion sense to spare them from much criticism by the handsome, gray-templed man of the house.

What's Wrong?

"Man judges the whole costume together," observes the busy actor, writer and businessman, in analyzing masculine reaction to feminine frippery. "Either it is right, or it isn't. If it isn't, he misses something without quite knowing what."

Still when the omission is a hat, Fairbanks is sharply aware of this infraction of good dress. As far as the lady's man of the screen is concerned, such a woman is as incompletely garbed as a man without a tie.

Surrounded by the distaff sex as he is, Fairbanks is aware that today's bouffant hair styles often defy any millinery topping. Even so, he'd rather see a pretty female pecking coquettishly from the depths of some chapeau than all that unhatted business.

Certainly, he points out in that famous resonant voice with perfect English diction, he is astonished at certain fantastic hat creations, even possibly to the point of saying "Where did you get THAT?"

Talent at Home

But for the most part he believes that today's hats when well chosen do exactly what they are supposed to do — embellish both the woman and the fashion.

Just occasionally he may express puzzlement over a certain feminine Fairbanks hat. But for the most part the proud father and husband claims, "The ladies do a remarkably good job of choosing them."

When Fairbanks is selecting his own wardrobe, do the distaff members criticize?

"I get samples of materials which they sometimes comment on," says the swashbuckling son of a swashbuckling silent screen idol.

But even though 85 per cent of American women are supposedly influence the sartorial decisions of men, Fairbanks goes to his tailor by himself.

An estimated 2 million types of animals have been classified since the 18th Century.

Power and Civilization Political Thought in the Twentieth Century by David Cooperman and E. V. Walter.

"Power and Civilization" is a study of patterns of thought and action since the end of World War I, which marked the decline of faith in the ultimate triumph of reason, liberty, and progress. Interpretive and critical essays by the authors are supplemented by forty-five readings representative of the period. The range of viewpoints is comprehensive: from social scientists to men of letters, from political leaders to philosophers, from Reinhold Neibuhr and George Santayana to Sigmund Freud and Nikita Khrushchev.

By guiding the reader through the maze of recent political writing, the authors' essays provide a perceptive framework for the study of the major political themes of our age.

"The Little Tear Gland That Says Tic-Tac"

One of the most fascinating chapters in George Flanagan's book "Understand and Enjoy Modern Art" is the one in which the author discusses the titles given to pictures in modern art and the light they shed on the artist's works. Mr. Flanagan shows that, nevertheless, the type of title used throws light on the artist's intent in painting the picture and on the school of modern painting to which he belongs.

Picasso' pictures are derived, or "abstracted," from real objects or models. His titles—such as "Seated Woman" or "Guitar" indicate the original inspiration for the picture, even though the subject is no longer recognizable in the finished painting.

On the other hand, Kandinsky, whose pure abstractions are made without reference to any models, can quite properly give his pictures such names as "Improvisation No. 30" or "Scherzo". A geometric abstractionist describes his painting quite simply, "Composition in Gray."

Mr. Flanagan points to the humorous titles of Paul Klee ("She Moos, We Play") as adding whimsical literary overtones of meaning to an otherwise purely abstract picture. And he ventures into the realm of Dadaist philosophy to explain the Dadist's facetious and irreverent titles such as "Mask for Insulting Esthetes" and "The Little Tear Gland That Says Tic-Tac".

Finally, he points out that the effects of shock and incongruity characteristic of Surrealist painting are paralleled in such Surrealist titles as "Two Pieces of Bread Expressing the Sentiment of Love."

We suggest the following flower colors for ladies selecting their own corsages and wishing to accent their hair: white and vivid colors for brunettes; yellow, blue and pastels for blondes; blue bronze (bronze chrysanthemums and cymbidium orchids) and chartreuse (cypripedium orchids or fugi mums) for redhair; and pink, blue and purple for gray hair.

A DAILY VIEW
From me to you

Rev. R. Charles Spivey

"And the people bowed their heads and worshiped".

Exodus 12:27 (read verses 21-28 and 40-42)

The people of Israel were deeply grateful for all that God did for them. The great festivals they held were almost entirely times of thanksgiving for some special time, or event, in the history of Israel, when God had blessed them.

As Christians we should especially be grateful for what God has done for us. And he has surely blessed us beyond our wildest dreams. That he should love us and forgive us is simply amazing. That he should love us so much that he would send his Son, Jesus, and would allow him to suffer and die upon the Cross; this is also amazing. That he would love us so much that he would even offer to us eternal life, and the sharing of his eternity with him; well this almost defies our comprehension. Yet it is all there and so very true. Ought we not, then, give our grateful, heartfelt, thanksgiving, each and every moment of every day?

'Old Blues' Are Really Blue Over Coed Proposal At Yale

BY INEZ ROBB

The Old Blues are definitely that color at the moment, especially in the face. The recommendation of a special faculty committee that women undergraduates--GIRLS--be admitted to their university has convinced Yales of my acquaintance that the world is coming to an end without any assist from H-bombs.

"The Wiffenpoof Song was not written for sopranos!" cried one outraged Yale alumnus whom I polled. "Ba-a-a-a, ba-a-a-a, ba-a-a a," he added and slammed the phone back on its cradle.

"For years I have been proud to rally to the cry, 'For God, for country and for Yale,' " said an emotional, middleaged Yale. "But when they change it to 'For God, for country and for girls,' I shall ask that my name be stricken from the alumni role."

I reminded this Yale that Radcliffe had been an integral part of Harvard for ages and that within another year or so, Radcliffe graduates are to receive Harvard degrees.

"If I'd wanted to go to a coed school in the first place, I'd have gone to Harvard," he sneered. "How many women do you suppose we'll have in the Cabinet once Harvard begins handing out degrees to Radcliffe women? I'm going out and buy a Barry Goldwater button!"

Another Yale, apprised of the news, gasped--or, maybe, gagged--and raged, "I'd see my sons in Princeton first!" In the Ivy League, this is a curse more terrible than that of Cain.

"Yes, but the committee officially told the Yale Corporation that 'we think Yale has a national duty, as well as a duty to itself, to provide the rigorous training for women that we supply for men.' " I pointed out to this man. "Don't you believe that Yale should do as much to elevate the women of the nation as it has done to exalt its men?"

"Hell, no!" he exploded. "the trouble with this country now is that women have already been elevated beyond their capacity, GOOD-bye!"

Undeterred by mounting Yale anger, I called another alumnus and asked for his reaction.

"Men have no place left to go," he said sadly and thoughtfully. "Once we were all Flintstones and lords of all we surveyed. But we have been pushed out of house, home, office and profession. And now, out of our university.

"Let me tell you something," he continued, "if the time ever comes when I have to fight my way to the bar of the Yale Club through a bunch of twittering women ordering grasshoppers and other noxious brews made with cream, I'll resign and go find myself an old, hollow tree.

"I'm not a misogynist," he added. "I've just got a weak stomach."

Another Yale, whom I polled, instantly cried, "I'm going to wire the President!"

"What good will that do?" I asked. "He went to Harvard."

"Not THAT one," he yelled at me. "MY president! A. Whitney Griswold of Yale. He can't do this to me!"

It wasn't until I had worked my way to the end of my list that I found a Yale who took the news calmly.

"Why not?" he asked. "In fact, if and when they enroll the girls, I might go back for post-graduate work myself. Yales have to learn to live in the world. Sooner or later, they'll have to stop running around to Vassar, Wellesley, Bennington and Sarah Lawrence and meet real-life girls.

"They will have to learn to take the bitter with the better, and they might as well get their indoctrination in their undergraduate years.

"Yes, I am in favor of girls at Yale," he went on. "And it wouldn't surprise me if this isn't a smart move to get better material for the football team."

Truck Tumbles Near Actress' Bedroom

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— A seventon dump truck tumbled down an embankment Tuesday and stopped just short of the Hollywood Hills home of actress Janis Paige, narrowly missing a bedroom where Miss Paige was dressing.

Columbus Bryant, 32, told police he had left the truck parked on a drive above Miss Paige's home. He said he had no idea how it broke loose.

Refresher Course In Doubletalk

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It's time we had another brush-up drill on double talk, the modern art of saying one thing while you're thinking another.

Double-talk has one great social advantage: it enables you to use your mouth and your brain at the same time—but without getting yourself into trouble.

Only the very young or the very old ordinarily have either the ignorance or courage to say at all times exactly what they mean. Most of us must temper our conversational valor with a little judicious fudge. We rarely utter what our minds mutter.

For those wishing to polish up their skill in double-talk, here are a few typical examples—followed by their literal meanings:

"Oh, what a lovely new mink stole!" (Those poor rabbits sure dyed in vain.

"Mother says she never worries about me when I'm out with you, John." Mother would rather have me bored to death than thrilled to pieces.

"There's no doubt of it—that boy of yours really has a head on him." Too bad he doesn't have another one just like it; then he could at least count on steady work with a carnival.

"Don't tell me you made that pretty dress all by yourself!" I'd swear nobody could turn out anything that awful with only 10 thumbs.

"It must have been a terrible blow to you when your dear aunt died." Particularly when you read the will, and found out the old girl left her money to her other niece.

"How did a child her age ever learn to play the piano like that?" With a hammer, or by wearing roller skates on her hands?

"No, Jim, I could never bring myself to marry a man just for his money." Not for the kind you make anyway.

"I'm not very hungry, Bob. I think I'll just have a club sandwich." I'm starved, but if I order the steak the chumpskate is likely to faint.

"Frankly, I've always regarded her as one of my dearest friends." She doesn't like me either.

"Why, Mabel, darling, your hair looks so lovely. Whatever did you do to it?" Pour molasses over it, and run it through a clothes dryer?

"No, let's be sure to keep in touch with each other." Don't call me—and I won't call you.

Galveston's Police Train

GALVESTON (AP) — Galveston County officers are receiving instruction in riot control as a precaution against repetition of last year's Splash Day events.

Texas Ranger Capt. Bob Crowder is holding the school for all officers from constable up in advance of Splash Day this weekend.

Riots broke out last year when police sought to halt a fight among youths. Visitors to the island city attacked police and filled streets with broken bottles. Officers arrested 500 of the rioters, who were fined.

Police Chief W. J. Burns said up to 200 officers will be on the streets at all times during the celebration this year. It begins Friday and continues through Sunday. Police dogs from Houston will be present.

Junior Editors Quiz on CUSTOMS

QUESTION: How did the handshake originate?

* * *

ANSWER: The handshake was meaningful from the beginning. Men have almost always done quite a lot of fighting. At first they used only their hands. Then they became clever and used rocks and small weapons, some of which could be easily concealed in the hand. By the time of the Middle Ages men had advanced to using swords, along with smaller weapons. Therefore, when men wanted to show that they had friendly feelings toward each other and did not plan to harm one another, they would extend their hands. By grasping hands they proved that neither man held a weapon. As most people were right-handed, the right hand held the weapon. Thus, that was the hand to be grasped in a friendly gesture. Today, few people carry rocks clutched in their hand but the handshake has lived on as a simple and colorful way of saying "I like you and I trust you. Let's be friends."

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: When men are introduced to each other, they always shake hands. Women sometimes shake hands with each other and sometimes they do not, depending upon whether they choose to do so. When a man is introduced to a woman, he waits for her to extend her hand. Men shake hands rather heartily; while women simply hold the hand of another woman or a man for a moment. Try these rules out with your friends. Practice them until they become a habit.

Safety Mechanism Study Is Major Goal Of U. S. Tests

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scientists who will conduct the U.S. nuclear tests in the Pacific will be searching for new ways to safeguard atomic weapons from accidental firing or sabotage.

Pentagon officials said today improved safety mechanisms form one major goal in the new round of atmospheric tests ordered by President Kennedy.

Since the United States began developing atomic weapons in World War II, safety has been a prime consideration.

The Defense Atomic Support Agency claims it has a perfect record in 17 years of storing, transporting, flying, overhauling, inspecting and working with nuclear weapons in other ways.

There have been crashes of planes carrying nuclear weapons. Although the fuselages sometimes were heavily damaged or burned the weapons did not explode and there was only what the agency called "insignificant contamination."

While they are proud of this safety record, U.S. atomic weaponeers are anxious to develop even more assured precautions.

Safety mechanisms built into U.S. nuclear weapons are intended to prevent explosions through accident, human error, sabotage or what the Atomic Support Agency called "the possibility of a paranoic or psychotic among our own people."

Nuclear weapons have many detonators. To fire, all the detonators must function simultaneously. If only one detonator goes, the weapon will not explode.

Sources said it is considered virtually impossible for all the detonators to be tripped [illegible] in a crash of a bomber, for example.

In storage an atomic weapon is inert. It is isolated from the battery needed to provide the electric power to trigger the explosion.

To prevent firing through error or sabotage, nuclear weapons are fitted with various control devices.

Some switches are placed in hard-to-get-at places, so that a person literally must tear a bomb apart to get at them.

Another [illegible] involves locked and sealed controls mounted in series, but in different locations. Thus, one important switch could be activated only by two separate and independent actions [illegible] the breaking of a seal.

Then there is what is termed the "two man rule," meaning that two or more persons must be present when anyone has access to the warhead.

Castro Ired By 'Rumor'

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro today branded as a cruel counterrevolutionary rumor the persistent report that his regime plans to take children from their parents and send them to the Soviet Union.

"It's an absurd, illogical idea," he told a nationwide television and radio audience in a post-midnight address.

Castro appeared as the final speaker in a panel discussion of Cuba's system of nurseries for children of working parents. He said the nurseries prove the concern of his regime for children because they make it unnecessary for working women to choose between having jobs and rearing families.

Hazards Possible In Hair Sprays

By The Associated Press

Possible hazards in hair sprays, polio vaccine and tooth banks are topics of medical reports:

Hair Spray Hazard?

A medical study raises suspicions that hair sprays may causa lung diseases in some women, and men who work as hair-dressers.

There is no proof this happens, and thousands of women have used the sprays without any apparent harmful effects, says a team of doctors.

But they tell of 15 women and men who possibly suffered lung damage from breathing in particles of resins used in hair sprays. They found evidence of lung damage [illegible] X rays, in examinations of bits of tissue, and in autopsies of three women.

It is known, they say, that people can breathe in the resin particles, but they didn't find the particles in the lungs. Animals exposed to the hair sprays haven't shown lung damage.

Nonetheless, Dr. Martin Bergman of St. Louis, Mo., and six associates say they think the study raises a strong assumption that breathing in too much of the hair spray material can cause trouble in susceptible persons.

Polio Vaccine

The new live-virus polio vaccine now is becoming available, but a committee of the American Academy of Pediatrics sees no emergency or urgency to give it to persons who have already had the full series of killed-virus of Salk vaccine shots and boosters.

Most paralytic polio occurs now among persons who didn't get Salk vaccine, it says. The specialists urge more effort to use the Sabin or live-virus vaccine in persons who as yet have had no vaccination. The Sabin vaccine offers several advantages, and "is best used on a community wide basis whenever an epidemic of polio strikes an area."

Extra Teeth

One day you may be able to call on a tooth bank to replace missing teeth.

As an initial step, teeth have been preserved and grown outside the body in research by Dr. Robert Gerstner at the New York University Dental Center. Teeth in early stages of growth can be treated with an anti-freeze, glycerol, and then freeze-stored for years. They grow normally again after quick thawing.

Tooth buds from experimental animals have been grown in nutrient flasks up to the time when they are ready for formation of hard enamel. Dr. Gerstner now hopes to find enzymes which will start the formation of the enamel.

The lowest surveyed level in Meramec Caverns, Stanton, Mo., is 4,200 feet.

Cage Czar Bares Retirement Plans

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Maurice Podoloff, the roly-poly czar of professional basketball, is going to retire at the end of next season because, he said today, "there are a great many things I want to do."

The cigar-smoking Podoloff, born 71 years ago in Russia, has been the president and the bellwether of the NBA and its predecessor, the Basketball Association of America, since 1946.

"I have had over a quarter of a century as an administrator in professional sports," he said. "Now I'll have the opportunity to realize some of my unfulfilled desires."

Podoloff made the announcement of his pending retirement Tuesday at the opening session of the two-day board of governors meeting of the NBA. No one was surprised. There had been talk of Podoloff quitting for a long time.

There was no talk of a successor.

"But," sighed one of the owners at the meet, "he'll be hard to replace."

Podoloff, who packs 170 pounds on his 5-2 frame, probably was responsible more than anyone else in developing professional basketball into an organized spectator sport.

"I don't want to take credit for the improvements and accomplishments that have made the NBA a big league outfit," he said. "the best way to say it is that some good things have happened during my regime."

Among the factors that made the NBA a going concern were the merger with the old National Basketball League, pulling the games out of high school gymnasiums and armories, standardizing officiating, hiring permanent referees, the six-foul and 24-second rules, the bonus foul, the 12-foot lanes and the television game of the week.

Podoloff flatly refused to have any dealing with players even remotely connected with the gambling scandals.

Seasoned Duo Gains Colonial Golf Berths

FORT WORTH (AP)—Veterans Lloyd Mangrum and Ernie Vossler were named today to the final two berths in the $40,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

They complete a 54-player lineup for the May 9-13 event.

Mangrum has played in all but one of the 15 previous Colonial tournaments. Vossler, a Fort Worth native, has been in the last seven.

Mangrum now lives on a ranch at Apple Valley, Calif. Vossler recently became professional at the Quail Creek Country Club in Oklahoma City.

Tiger '9' Unleashes 20-Hit Attack; Drubs Ponies, 14-5

Snyder's Tigers amassed 11 runs in the first three innings, then coasted in to a 14-5 district victory over Sweetwater here Tuesday.

The triumph was the first of the 3-AAA campaign for the Bengals after two losses, and plunged the defeated Mustangs into the league cellar. They are winless after three attempts.

In the other district conflict of the day, Colorado City climbed into undisputed possession of first place with a narrow 4-3 victory over Lamesa behind southpaw ace Steve Hillhouse. The Wolves are 3-0, while Lamesa was relegated to the second slot at 2-1.

In posting the victory, the Snyder nine unleashed its most devastating platter attack of the season against righthander Larry Hardin, pounding him for 20 base hits as he went the distance to absorb the loss. In the meantime, Bengal righthander Leonard Matthews hurled effective ball to gain credit for the win, allowing only one earned run before being relieved in the sixth by Dalton Walton, who finished out the game.

Off To Good Start

Snyder stepped out on the right foot in the home half of the first when Spencer Dyer reached base on a fielding bobble by shortstop Ronald Dement and was moved to second on a scratch single off the bat of Keith Moreland. Both advanced a base on a passed ball, then scored when Bob Smith slammed a double to deep center. Smith tallied himself on a one-base blow by Jim Marcum.

In the second inning Matthews and Dyer led things off with back-to-back singles and were doubled home by Steve Free. Free and Harley Bynum, who had garnered a free ticket to first, also scored with the help of a Pony fielding lapse.

Sweetwater fought back with a pair of runs of their own in the third when Hardin drew life on an error by Free, took second on a wild pitch, and romped home when Dement rapped a double to right center. It was the only extra-baser of the contest for Sweetwater. Dement scored when Ronnie Wright smashed a single past third.

Their scoring appetite by then sufficiently whetted, the Tigers retaliated with four more dentings in the bottom of the third. Matthews dropped in a baseline Texas League double to left to ignite the onslaught and came home when Dyer drilled a triple to deep right. Moreland lined a single to right to platter him, then took second on still another single by Free, at which point Tim Marcum was inserted into the lineup to run for Moreland.

Both advanced on a sacrifice fly to right by Bynum and scampered home when Jim Marcum golfed a single up the middle.

The Ponies marked up their final three tallies in the fourth. Clyde Wagner led off the frame by drawing a pass and moved on to second on an infield single by Raymond Armstrong. Tommy Olvera walked to cram the sacks, and Wagner came across on a sacrifice fly by George Butts. Armstrong and Olvera scored on a throwing error by Dyer on a grounder hit by Lance Hall.

Tiger bats cooled off somewhat in the fourth, when one run was scored. Dyer singled and was eventually driven home on a single to right by Tim Marcum.

Checked In Fifth

Only in the fifth frame were the Tigers held scoreless.

Jim Marcum popped a blooper single into left to set the sixth inning wheels in motion and raced to third on a single by Kenny Wellborn, his third safety of the day. Eddy Kirby next appeared in a pinch-hitting role and brought both runners across with a single to deep left.

The victory was Matthews' second of the season as compared to three losses. The decision was his first in district play.

Snyder next takes on league leading Colorado City in a 2 p.m. Saturday clash in Colorado City. Hillhouse decisioned the locals 3-2 in the first meeting of the two clubs.

Oilers Regain Top Spot In Texas League

By The Associated Press

Tulsa's Oilers are back on top in the Texas League, where they've spent most of the young season.

The Oilers scrambled back into first place Tuesday night behind the five-hit hurling of Bill Wakefield, whosshut out El Paso 2-0.

But Tulsa wouldn't hold a game and a half lead without help from San Antonio. The fifth place Missions blasted the Albuquerque Dukes out of first place by sweeping a doubleheader 8-7 and 2-1.

Austin's Senators scored six runs in the first inning and coasted to a 9-5 victory at Amarillo as they pulled into a third place tie with El Paso.

Trojans Felled In Sweetwater

SWEETWATER—S'water powered its way past Snyder's Lincoln High Trojans here Tuesday, parlaying 10 hits, six bases on balls and six errors into a 13-4 triumph.

Aaron Wilson went the distance for the victory, relinquishing eight hits and whiffing seven. Cornelius Davis suffered the loss for Lincoln. He struck out 10.

George Blueford uncorked the big blow of the contest for Sweetwater, a two-run homer in the fifth.

Leading the way at the plate for the victors was Raymond Attaway, however, who slammed a double and two singles.

Outfielders Mack Taylor and Raymond Johnson carried the big sticks for the Trojans, collecting two singles apiece.

Sweetwater travels to Snyder Monday for a return game scheduled that afternoon on the Winston Park diamond.

Tech, ACC Split

LUBBOCK (AP)— Texas Tech split baseball games with Abilene Christian Tuesday.

Reliever Sam Carpenter fanned three Tech batsmen in the 11th inning and the visitors won the opener 2-1. He was knocked out of the box in the third frame of the nightcap, which Tech won 7-1.

Moss Urged To Give Up Racing Game

LONDON (AP)—The parents of badly injured racing driver Stirling Moss said today they want him to quit the sport that has made his name a legend.

"You can't go on seeing your son have accidents without wanting him to give up," said Alfred Moss, the driver's father, who has been with him constantly since Mondays' crackup at the Goodwood track.

"Stirling knows that I have felt like this for a long time."

Her son is unconscious in a South London hospital which specializes in brain surgery.

Moss suffered serious head injuries in a 100 miles per hour smash at an Easter Monday race meeting watched by 100,000 fans. Early morning bulletin on his condition said he had maintained his "slight improvement" of Tuesday throughout the night.

Amateur Golf Field In For Big Trimming

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Danger signals were in order today as the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament field headed into a treacherous double round.

By late afternoon only eight players will remain of the 114 who set out hopefully two days ago in the qualifying round. The Wednesday double round traditionally extracts a toll of greats. The pressure of playing two 18-hole rounds when there is so little margin for error usually results in a generous share of upsets.

The initial round Tuesday produced no major surprises.

Fifty Pros In Pro-Am Prelims

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Fifty touring golf pros joined 150 amateurs today in a $3,500 pro-amateur preliminary to the $30,000 Texas Open.

Seven former Texas Open winners were expected to draw the largest galleries for the event at the Oak Hills course, where the Open will be played Thursday through Sunday.

Arnold Palmer, 1960 and 1961 winner and the favorite, Bill Johnston, Jack Burke Jr., Mike Souchak, Gene Littler, Jay Hebert and Chandler Harper were the former champs in the pro-am.

Claude King fired a 66 for low score in another pro-am Wednesday at the Ft. Sam Houston course.

Pro Bob Verway and amateurs William Hubiak, Benny Marshall and Tom LeBleu made up the low team with a best ball net of 59.

Rice Still Leading SWC Baseball Race

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas University has taken over second place without dispute in Southwest Conference tennis standings.

The Longhorns gained a share of the second spot under kingpin Rice last week when they blanked Texas Christian 6-0, but they had to share it with Southern Methodist.

Texas whipped SMU 5-1 Tuesday although Longhorn ace Mac White lost to Tom Howorth, 6-1, 6-3.

A KISS FOR THE WINNER—Bobby Nichols of Midland, Tex., gets a big kiss from his wife, Nancy, after collecting $9,000 first place money in the Houston Classic golf tournament. Nichols beat Dan Sikes of Jacksonville, Fla., when he sank an eight-foot putt for an eagle three on the 19th hole of a scheduled 18-hole playoff. The $9,000 check jumped the young pro from 18th place to fourth place among the money winners on the 1962 PGA tour with $17,874.67. (AP Wirephoto)

Koufax Fans 18 As Dodgers Maul Cubs

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

One of these days Sandy Koufax will strike out 20 batters in a nine-inning game and people may recognize that the Los Angeles Dodgers southpaw is the greatest strikeout pitcher of modern times.

For the second time in his comparatively brief major league career, Koufax equalled the major league strikeout mark when he fanned 18 Chicago players Tuesday as the Dodgers routed the Cubs 10-2.

That gave the 26-year-old Brooklyn native a career total of 992 strikeouts in 980 innings, an average of better than one strikeout per inning.

No other pitcher in the history of baseball averaged a strikeout an inning. Not even Walter Johnson, the all-time whiff king of the majors, or such other strikeout artists as Bobby Feller, Rube Waddell, Lefty Grove and Christy Mathewson did it.

Pittsburgh won its 11th game in 12 starts, defeating San Francisco 7-3, the same score by which Cincinnati downed the New York Mets. Milwaukee defeated Philadelphia 2-1 and Houston shaded St. Louis 4-3.

In the American League Cleveland edged the Los Angeles Angels 3-2, Chicago's White Sox defeated the New York Yankees 3-1, Detroit blanked Kansas City 1-0, Baltimore nipped Minnesota 5-4 and Boston defeated Washington 4-1.

Tommy Davis and Duke Snider drove in seven runs between them as the Dodgers clubbed loser Don Cardwell and three relief pitchers for 12 hits. Davis drove in four runs with a home run and single, Snider batted in three with a home run and triple.

Koufax, fanning eight of the first nine batters he faced, finished with a flourish, striking out the side in the ninth for his third victory in four decisions.

Sandy's 18 strikeouts matched the record set by Cleveland's Bob Feller against Detroit on Oct. 2, 1936 and later equalled by Koufax against San Francisco on Aug. 31, 1959. This is a National League daytime strikeout record since Koufax' 1959 effort was achieved at night. Feller accomplished his feat in an afternoon game.

It marked the 32nd time in his career that Koufax fanned 10 or more in a game. Feller and Waddell share the record, each having struck out 10 or more 54 times.

The league-leading Pirates put five of their seven hits together for a five-run fourth inning against loser Juan Marichal as Al McBean registered his second triumph. He needed ninth-inning help from Elroy Face. Catcher Don Leppert homered for the Bucs.

The Reds scored four runs in the first against New York starter Craig Anderson and went on to inflict the 10th defeat on the Mets, who have won only one game. Cincinnati rookie Sam Ellis allowed only one hit but was replaced by Moe Drabowsky in the sixth after walking his 10th and 11th batters. Wally Post hit two doubles and a home run, Vada Pinson also homered and Eddie Kasko had three hits for the Reds.

Warren Spahn scattered nine Philadelphia hits and doubled home the Braves' first run. Eddie Mathews' fifth home run accounted for what proved to be the winning run. Three straight hits after two out in the ninth ruined Spahn's bid for his 56th lifetime shutout but he tossed out the final Philly batter himself to preserve his second victory of the season and 311th of his major league career.

Southpaw Hal Woodeshick pitched a six-hitter for Houston against St. Louis and ex-Cardinal outfielder Don Taussig homered in the sixth, off loser Larry Jackson, for the clincher.

Cub Backstop Returns Home

WOODRUFF, S.C. (AP)—"My family means more to me than baseball," says the Chicago Cubs' suspended catcher, Sammy Taylor.

After returning to his home Tuesday, Taylor said he will quit baseball if he is not traded.

Earlier Cub Vice President John Holland said in Chicago that Taylor was suspended for failing to show up for Tuesday's game with the Los Angeles Dodger.

Taylor said he was not making enough money to keep up two homes, in Chicago, and in Woodruff, where his wife prefers to live with their daughter, 4.

Top Teams Triumph In American Assn.

By The Associated Press

Home runs and a stout relief pitching job marked American Association games Tuesday night as the three first division teams posted victories.

Denver pounded five Ranger pitchers for 14 hits, including three home runs, as the Bears belted Dallas-Fort Worth 10-3.

A three-run homer featured a six-run outburst in the ninth as Indianapolis beat Oklahoma City 13-9.

Jack Smith's fine relief work stopped a Louisville rally in the ninth and league leading Omaha chalked up a 6-5 victory.

Two Organizations Carry Dooley Fight

By JUNIUS GRIFFIN

NEW YORK (AP)—A legend in his lifetime, the famed "jungle doctor" Thomas A. Dooley fought against disease in remote areas of the world.

His battle is being continued by two organizations—Medico, Inc., and the Thomas A. Dooley Foundation.

Known by millions as "Dr. Tom" Dooley died of cancer at Memorial Hospital in New York, Jan. 18, 1961, one day after his 34th birthday.

His tradition lives.

His ambition and goal in life was to bring badly needed medical treatment to afflicted peoples in impoverished lands—but on an individual basis, not as a representative of the U.S. government.

Dr. Dooley started his personal fight against diseases in 1956, in the small village of Vang Vieng, in central Laos.

His assistants at the time were Dennis Shepard of Salem, Ore.; Norman Baker of Berlin, N.H., and Peter Kessey of Port Arthur, Tex.

Two years later, he was back in the states organizing Medico, (Medical International Cooperation Organization). His work had become so well known that the organization had, as its honorary patron, Dr. Albert Schweitzer.

Dooley was the heartbeat of Medico. He wrote two books, "Deliver Us From Evil" and "The Edge of Tomorrow," both of which described conditions in Southeast Asia. He made many personal appearances, appealing to the American public to support his fight.

The success of his personal campaign is now evident in the growth and effectiveness of Medico.

The organization has projects and teams in Kenya, Cambodia, Viet Nam, Gabon, Afghanistan, Malaya, Haiti, Jordan and Nigeria.

Just as "Dr. Tom's" personal popularity accounted for the rapid growth of Medico, it also contributed to its lack of adequate administrative soundness after his death.

His brother, Dr. Malcolm Dooley, once described Medico as "an upside-down organization," adding: "It got along on what Tom called begging, bumming, borrowing and, from time to time, stealing just a little bit."

The problem of keeping the organization intact after Dooley's death was met head on by his professional associates, including Dr. Peter D. Comanduras, who cofounded Medico with Dooley.

The ideal solution to this problem, thought some of Dooley's followers, was to merge Medico with CARE, (Cooperative for American Relief Everywhere) one of America's most respected voluntary agencies concerned with international assistance.

The merger was announced last January and made in February.

This merger gave Medico a logistic and administrative arm that relieved its physicians and other medical personnel of a tiresome burden, and in turn gave CARE another service to offer internationally.

The Medico-CARE marriage, a proven success, was not without its critics.

Criticism of Medico did not come from outside sources, but rather from those persons close to Dr. Dooley within Medico who thought his founding principles should be followed to the letter.

His brother, Malcolm, said foremost of these principles was that "Medico must be an organization which is not a government outfit or church outfit, which is not proselytizing for God or proselytizing for state."

"A government must ask for Medico's aid and help support its program, and a patient must pay something, for unlimited giving away of things can rob a man, and perhaps a nation, of self-respect," he said.

Vowing to carry out this conviction, many of Dr. Dooley's followers—including Malcolm who was executive director of Medico—founded the Thomas A. Dooley Foundation, Inc., in September 1961.

The foundation was formally announced Sept. 5 in San Francisco by Dooley's mother, Agnes W. Dooley.

Its president is Eugene Burdick, coauthor of "The Ugly American" who, with William J. Lederer, another coauthor; Agnes W. Dooley; Dr. Carl Wiedermann, and Dr. Verne E. Chaney, serve on its board of directors.

Unlike Medico, the Thomas A. Dooley Foundation carries his name, and the mention of the name Tom Dooley is magic throughout the Far East.

Although a mere six months old, the foundation is now operating one of Tom Dooley's former hospitals at Ban Houei Sai, Laos, and had been invited by the royal government to expand its medical assistance and health services over the entire province of Nam Tha, near Red China.

With headquarters in San Francisco, the foundation is geared toward a grassroots type of aid program for Asia. Its support is being derived from persons who volunteer their time after working at full time jobs.

In New York, the foundation's head is Teresa E. Gallagher, a secretary for an insurance firm. Her assistant is Edna Fannon, an administrative aid.

They spend many hours each week speaking to women's clubs, youth groups, and civic organizations.

Miss Gallagher said, "Perhaps we take up where Medico leaves off, but there is certainly room for both organizations without duplication of effort."

Through the efforts of these two organizations, both inspired by the memory of Dr. Dooley, thousands of underprivileged peoples are receiving modern medical treatment.

Early Fallout From Tests Confined To A Small Area

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The early fallout from the forthcoming U.S. nuclear tests in the Pacific is expected to be limited mainly to a belt some 2,000 to 3,500 miles wide in tropics latitudes.

All indications point to it being relatively small in quantity at any one place. Virtually none of this early fallout is expected to reach the United States.

Weather Bureau fallout specialists said that prevailing wind patterns in the equatorial regions are such that the tropospheric fallout from the tests would very likely be limited essentially to areas around the earth which lie between 15 degrees north or south of a line passing through either of the two main test sites.

These sites are Christmas Island near the equator, and Johnston Island, some 1,200 miles northwest of Christmas Island.

Tropospheric fallout is that part of the fallout which remains in the troposphere—the layer of atmosphere from the earth's surface up to 35,000 feet, over the tropics. Its ceiling is lower over polar areas—35,000 feet.

This kind of fallout is to be distinguished from stratospheric fallout—the fallout that rises higher, going into the stratosphere (above 35,000 feet in the tropics).

Tropospheric fallout sifts to earth relatively quickly after a nuclear blast. Half of it falls in about 20 to 30 days.

Stratospheric fallout takes anywhere from six months to several years to begin to come down, depending on where the burst is fired. From the Russian tests in polar latitudes, it comes down

From weapons of the big megaton class, practically all of the radioactive debris is carried up into the stratosphere because of the great force of the explosion.

Smaller weapons, of the kiloton class, would deposit virtually all their debris in the troposphere—except in the cases where they were hurled by rockets high into the stratosphere and exploded.

Presumably many of the American tests, whether involving kiloton or megaton weapons, would be of this high-lofted variety.

U. N. Tourist Rate Sets Daily Record

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Tourists visiting the United Nations set a new daily record Tuesday—5,021, compared with a 7,203 total set May 12, 1961.

The figure brought to more than 250,000 the number of persons who have toured U.N. headquarters since the first of the year.

4 Die In Stampede

ODEMISH, Turkey (AP)—Fears that the roof was about to cave in under a heavy rain set off a panic in a small movie house Tuesday. Four persons — three women and a child—were killed and more than 100 injured in the ensuing stampede.

Sharp Exchanges Punctuate Activity On Campaign Trail

By The Associated Press

Tart words flew on Texas' sprawling political fronts Tuesday.

There were several sharp exchanges among rivals in the governor's race, and the scrap for lieutenant governor continued to simmer merrily.

Gov. Price Daniel, answering criticism about land holdings near his Liberty County home, told a farmers' meeting at Wharton: "I still have my ranch in Liberty and I want to keep it for my children." He continued to campaign in the Houston area Wednesday.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson asserted in Dallas that Texans are "beginning to resent the million-dollar campaign by Washington influence peddlers to put John Connally in the governor's office."

"The people of Texas haven't swallowed the LBJ-Connally plan to merge Texas and Washington into a giant political machine," Wilson added in a reference to ties between Connally and Vice President Lyndon Johnson.

Connally, trekking through the Lower Rio Grande Valley, called at McAllen for steps to "put Texas back on the path of progress."

"Five years ago the state had a $55 million surplus and now it is more than $96 million in the red and has a sales tax," he said.

Concerning statements by opponents that President Kennedy and Johnson asked him to run for governor, Connally said: "Nothing could be further from the truth."

Don Yarborough went into Fort Worth, Connally's home town, declared Tuesday night that Connally was a traitor to the Kennedy administration. Both a liberal Americans for Democratic Action leader and the conservative Wall Street Journal have said 'the ex-secretary of the Navy has repudiated the entire Kennedy program,'" Yarborough said.

Two other Democrats in the governor's race, Marshall Formby and Edwin A. Walker, campaigned at widely separated points.

Formby moved to Dallas after a day in Fort Worth.

Roy Whittenburg, one of two Republicans running for governor, asserted Wednesday that steps by the President in the steel dispute "clearly demonstrated the willingness of John F. Kennedy to assume dictatorial powers."

Whittenburg again took issue with the U.S. Supreme Court, declaring in a Dallas interview that it "has a slick way of doing away with our Constitution." He added:

"The best thing the people can do is amend the Constitution and require that all judges, including federal judges and especially Supreme Court justices, be elected for a limited term instead of appointed for life."

Jack Cox, the other bidder for the GOP nomination, followed Whittenburg from Houston to Dallas Wednesday. Cox planned a radio broadcast during the day and a rally in the evening.
