chase for the trophy at the Fair-

in the first important basketball tournament in this district. The Burkburnett quintet has entered the play, and will meet its first matched opposition of the year.

The tournament will start at 4 p. m. Thursday afternoon and will run through 9 o'clock Saturday sented a handsome trophy for their victory in the meet.

The opening game will match the Holiday and Fairview fresh-at 5 o'clock will bring the Burkburnett boys into action in a contest with the Valley View Harvesters. The games will continue at the rate of one each hour through out the evening.

The other teams matched in or-of the district in competition. The opening of the regular season in the cage sport will be January 5 when the county teams meet in active competition.

As Ripley would say "Believe
It Or Not" Fannie Marie Ashmon
of Burkburnett has a cartoon idea
Last Saturday she had her 12th birthday on the 12th day of the 12th month of the year. However, it is reliably reported that she is a 12th child.

Mrs. Frances Spearman returned to work Tuesday at Owens and Brumley after several days absence due to illness.

Charlie Kollman, of Wichita Falls, has accepted a position with the Corner Drug store as prescription druggist.

Burk Basketball Team Starts For Long Season Play

23 Men Answer Coaches First Call For Practice

ENTER COUNTY PLAY

Twentythree boys answered the first call for the practice in the basketball courts this week, and coach Polk Robinson started the long seige of training that will ultimately lead to the county tournament in February.

The team will have one man of the starting lineup from last year, and three lettermen from the squad. The single starter is Marshall Teal who gained a wide reputation this fall for his excellent play in football. The other two lettermen are D. R. Peevey
Jr. and Fred McPherson. Peevey started playing a good brand of ball at center last year as the chief substitute for the team. He is expected to improve rapidly in the center position this year and be one of the leading scoring threats.
Teal played a solid game at guard, and he probably will be in better physical condition after a season of football than any other member. Fred McPherson will have the advantage of a heavy season in football training.

The team will enter the Fairview tournament Thursday night for the first matched competition this year. The material is very green, but the coach expects to have the squad whipped into shape by the end of the county round robin. The ten games will give the team an excellent training for the county tournament.

Games outside of the matched county conference games are as follows: Wichita, there Jan. 8, here Feb. 10. Games are expected with Vernon and several other fast teams in this area.

The regular season will start
Jan. 5 with a game with the Clara team. The Clara team defeated Fairview for the Wichita Valley conference. This will make the Clara Greyhounds one of the most feared teams in the district. It is possible that the team may emerge from the round robin as victors of the district.

full array of attractive gifts for the buyers in this area, and have issued invitations to all the people to inspect their merchandise

working funds for the next year and a membership for the year's activities, the Chamber of Com-

Under the direction of Leonard Mattingly, recently installed pres-at the city hall to complete the plans.

Each committee was assigned 10 prospects for the drive, and the committees met briefly Tuesnary survey. The town was hastily canvassed for the members.

Generally speaking the new pledges were 25 percent higher than last year, and when the group met at noon Tuesday for the report as successful completion of the work was indicated.

The out of town firms and members will be contacted after Jan.
1 for the additional pledges. The committee is expecting to be able to raise at least $3,500 for the program before the close of the drive.

Groups working this week included: Harold VanLoh, Henry Prinzinger, H. D. Smith, J. M. Alexander, A. H. Lohofener, Chas.

reports and direction of the drive.

As soon as the membership drive is out of the way, the group will meet for the completion of the plan of activities for the next year. Several important projects have been adopted by the organization in an ambitious program for this year.

Mrs. R. J. Kelly

Fire Auxiliary

Mrs. R. J. Kelly, prominent member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the fire department, was elected president of that organization in a meeting of the group at the home of Mrs. Curtis Matthews, Wednesday night. Mrs. Kelly is one of the charter members and has had an active part in the work of the group since its organization last year. Mr. Kelly is fire chief.

The other officers selected at the meeting and Christmas party were Mesdames: N. R. Allen vice-president; Robert Dunn, secretary and treasurer; Bill Stapp, chaplain; Fred Brookman, historian; and J. J. Blackstone, reporter.

The officers will assume the leadership in the active organization next year. The group plans a program that will assist in the important civic duties of the department.

Eleven members of the organization were present for the business session and party Wednesday. Gifts were exchanged by the members, and work was planned of the quilt that will be sold in the near future. Lovely refreshments were served to Mes-

Thursday Planned As Big Day For Visitors
To This City.

The greatest day in the year next to Christmas itself for the children of the area will be next Saturday afternoon when old Santa Claus himself, in person, will parade the streets of Burk-burnett distributing candy and sundry other good luck gifts to the youngsters.

The merry old Saint will march down the street, enter the store, and greet every child, listen to his wishes, and check up on the records, good and bad.

It will be a great event for the children, and the merchants are preparing for the biggest crowd of the year to lineup and see the great man.

Throughout the day there will be other attractive features that will bring many visitors to the city. The merchants have prepared special events that will make the Saturday profitable and enjoyable for the grownups and children of the area.

On the following Thursday the regular trades day events will be held, and featuring music and other entertainment of regular days, the merchants and business men will again be the hosts of the people of the area.

Bulldogs Bow To Indians In Game For Region Title

Burkburnett Scores First In Wild Melee Coyote Stadium Crain And Goodspeed Score

M'KOWN LEADS ATTACK

Indians Get Revenge For Early Season Defeat At Hands Of Local Team

After a noble start the Bulldogs bowed to the high geared machine of the Indians in the 46 to 14 victory for the red skins at the Coyote stadium last Friday afternoon of the regional battle.

The local gridders started with a 7 to 0 lead that faded as soon as the Indians secured possession of the ball. The Indians scored the second time, and again McKown dashed for 55 yards to place the Burkburnett team in the lead. After that the Indians held sway in the game and only twice did the local lads threaten the goal line of the rambling tribesmen.

Like a flash before the eyes of the Indians whom he had defeated more than two months ago, Tolly McKown slashed down the field and then ripped off 25 yards and a touchdown on a sneak play. A pass to Finch over the goal line gave Burkburnett a seven point lead on the champions of districts 11 and 12.

Guns Cut Loose

The guns cut loose. Never has such nonchalant football been seen on Coyote stadium, or in any other stadium. Crain and Tom King, and David Beck and Foley Goodspeed all opened up, first one running and then passing, and then the other running and passing. Down to the Burkburnett goal line they worked with no trouble at all, and then little Crain shrugged over for a touchdown.

The game was on—very definitely.

Nearing the end of the quarter Nocona took the ball after Burkburnett had had a try at her luck, and when those whooping Indians had shovel-passed and tricked their way to within 41 yards of the goal, little Crain cut back and around and about through end, shook off the line, and then shook off McKown and Avis Finch and marked off the distance to the goal line before the officials could get a good grip on themselves.

McKown Paces Field
Wearing the spectators to a nub and giving them their money's worth all in 50 seconds, McKown then dashed out a 55-yard run around his own right end for a touchdown, including Crain and Goodspeed in the bargain. A good kick left Nocona behind again, 14 to 13.

Up and down the field they both ripped and tore during the rest of the second quarter then, sporting freak football and offensive that were as violent as the shrieking orange jockey satin suits the Noconans wore.

When the timekeeper's gun crack was drawing night, Crain King, Beck, Goodspeed and company straightened out their ragged journey and charged down the field for an aggregate of 83 yards to another touchdown just as the two pep squads hit the field.

After the half period the game turned into just another touchdown after another for Nocona while McKown and other Burkburnett stars gave the afternoon a sprinkling of long runs that kept the championship tilt a wide open, cut-throat thing in spite of Nocona's ever-mounting score.

Burkburnett Surprises

Marshall Teal, Avis Finch and McKown sprung surprises of their own throughout the game but none could ever equal, in any football game, a lateral behind the goal line like Nocona pulled.

Finch had punted out of bounds only two yards from the Indian goal. On the first play, instead of punting in the orthodox way, Beck took the ball, scooped it over to Crain, who dashed up almost to his goal line, and then turned around and threw back to Goodspeed, who had been hiding behind his own goal post. The play was stopped on the 20-yard line. It was called back so that Nocona could be penalized, but that did not make any difference. Five minutes later Goodspeed cut inside right end for another touchdown, only to have it called back, the second such ruling of the afternoon. But even having two touchdowns voided didn't fraze the Indians. King strolled over two or three minutes later. The third quarter ended with the score Nocona 33, Burkburnett 14.

The rest of the game was limited to only 30 yards, and no one took it upon himself to score.

Tolly McKown was the star sprinter of the day, gaining 200 yards from scrimmage by himself. Crain made only 193 yards. Goodspeed marked up 139 yards, and King picked up 70. Others ran the totals of 220 and 424 yards, respectively.

And thus two teams began and ended a season on opposite ends of scores, and the Indians of Nocona defeated Burkburnett for the highest honor available to a class B high school football team.

Methodist Church

BURK METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY, DEC. 20, TO BE RED LETTER DAY FOR BURKBURNETT METHODISTS.

The day's worship will begin with every class in the church school meeting promptly at 9:45. The last 30 minutes of the church school hour, the entire school will assemble in the auditorium where the children's division and the intermediate department will lead the entire school in a devotional period. This, we confidently expect, will lead us to high levels in the way's worship.

At 11 a. m. the pastor will preach on why did Jesus choose to be born in a manger? Did he know these things before his birth?

At 7 p. m. the Wesley Bible class will sponsor a pageant as a closing service for the day. They will bring the day to a closing climax appropriate for the Christmas Sunday. No Methodist should miss any of these services. We cordially invite you to attend and enjoy these fine programs of worship, made possible by the membership of our church.

Operetta Presented Two Programs On High School Stage

Children Give Annual Musical Festival For Book Fund

DIRECTOR HONORED

The fall operetta, presenting approximately 85 children in a fall extravaganza of music and speaking, was given in a double performance at the high school auditorium stage last Tuesday afternoon and night. The evening performance was the climax of many weeks of diligent training on the part of the students of the Central Ward school for the benefit of the book fund of the reading room.

In addition to be a demonstration of the musical and dramatic talent of the children, the play, "Way Out West" was a financial success, adding to the library fund.

The play definitely abandoned the fairy story background that has usually provided the motif for the annual plays and presented a story based on the wild and open West.

The afternoon performance was presented for the benefit of the children of the schools who attended in a body. In the evening another packed house, mostly of adults attended the show.

The show was directed by Miss Ethyl Virginia Allen of the department of music in the schools, and Miss Allen was assisted by the teachers of the other departments in the training of the various acts. The decorations were sponsored by the art department. Many of the costumes were made and decorated by the same department.

Lions Adjourn For School Operetta

Members of the Burkburnett Lions club met for luncheon and a brief business session Tuesday night, and the meeting was adjourned without formal program in order that the members could attend the operetta of the Central Ward School. The members expressed a desire to cooperate with the school in the benefit project.

Jack Vaught Arm Broken Wednesday

Jack Vaught, 13 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Neeley Vaught, received a fractured left arm playing football at the noon period on the school ground. The arm was broken between shoulder and elbow. He received treatment at the Burkburnett Clinic immediately. The boy was playing in an informal game at the time and was to receive the injury.

ought to be some sort of a record. I know about it because they set him down on top of me, score pad, pencil, camera and all. The best blocking on any play was when McKown started around the end for 22 yards during the Chillicothe game. I counted nine Eagle men on their backs when the play was completed. Great Season.

HEADLINES

The big headline of the past week was the abdication of the King of England. A story or play written about the same situation and achieving the same climax would be denounced by critics as absurd. The great renunciation of writing is the recognition of the fact that human beings do not often make great renunciations. A story which would make its hero do such a thing would be called unbelievable. It would be classed as a fairy story. This is just exactly what has happened "a fairy story come true". The story has all the elements of such a tale a prince, a beautiful lady, an orge in the Archbishop of Canterbury, and a people that loved their prince.

Arms Embargo

In the meantime news that will ultimately mean more to the whole world has been pushed into small headlines. Among these items is the recommendation of an arms embargo by the Mexican government. The proposal was surprising in that it came from the Republic of Mexico. There hasn't been any more consistent violators of arms laws of the world than this republic in modern history. The plan would create an inter-American court of justice and pass an arms embargo against the aggressors in each conflict involving American nations. The treaty would prohibit the exportation of all war materials to the aggressor. These materials include, steel, coal, armaments, and chemicals of manufacturing processes. More important would be the stopping of the credit to any aggressor. The lack of honor among the European nations has forced the American people to adopt a plan of their own for international peace. The Monroe doctrine went into discard, and the nations will solve their problems as equals.

Income Taxes

There was one especially interesting angle to the report of the income tax department of the national revenue bureau. The report showed that the national income had increased during the last year to a new high since 1929, but that the number of persons making more than one million dollars a year had decreased. The increase in the income was in the lower bracket. The huge fortunes producing more than one million dollars were cut down, and the salary and income of those in the class of clerks and workmen was increased to bring the total even higher than any year during the depression. The lopsided condition that existed in 1929 when 513 persons made the charmed circle of the million dollar income naturally produced the financial disturbance of later years. It is a more healthful thing for the men of the lower classes to have greater amount of money to distribute.

New Department

It has been several years since a new member has been added to the national cabinet, and the suggestion of the president that a new post be created and called "Public Welfare" is a timely one. The bureau would have the direction and supervision of the four major money spending agencies created in the emergency of recovery. The new department would include the social security board, the works progress administration, public health service, and federal bureau of education. These departments have spent and will spend more money than all of the rest of the government. The creation of the new cabinet would require that the question be submitted to the American people as a constitutional amendment. It is possible that it would pass with little or no opposition.

Spanish War

The Spanish war was pushed right off the front page by the King of England. The status of the conflict now is that Germany, Russia, France, and Italy are sending troops "unofficially" to help each side. Several thousand Russians and French went to the aid of the loyalists, and Italians and Germans are aiding the rebels. However, the fact that nations are struggling to keep prestige in the face of the doubtful outcome may be of value. It may give these powers an opportunity to burn out their hatreds on the theatre of Spanish landscape.

Local Boy Out For Basketball College Team

(SPECIAL TO THE STAR) Miles Hays of Burkburnett is among the 31 candidates out for the Baylor university freshmen basketball team, according to coach R. E. (Bill) Henderson, frosh pilot. Hays is being used at forward and center, and is one of the outstanding prospects on the Cub five, Henderson says.

Review Of Season

I wish to take this last visit a little review all of my own personal reactions during the 11 weeks that were played. Every moment that the Bulldogs played they have given me some memories that will make this the outstanding year in my experience of coaching a single football team.

Greatest Disappointment

I would like to start off with the greatest disappointment of the season. One thing ranks above all other things in this department. The complete fizzle of the Archer City club. Pre-season dope had ranked Archer City as one of the best in the conference, but the discovery of five ineffectual players made them the immediate occupants of the league cellar. I was expecting a great game with Archer City until the coaches placed a "no" bet on the names of five stars. The ranking disappointment was to Iowa Park. After fighting to almost standstill the club seemed to become victim of the conference with the exception of Archer City.

Most Satisfactory

The greatest satisfaction of the season was in seeing the Bulldogs beat up Chillicothe 42 to 0 to recapture the score of the previous year in reverse. That was a great thing. The victory over Crowell was pretty close to the one at Chillicothe in this department. It helped me forget Todd's long runs.

Greatest Thrill

No doubt about that. McKown's yard dash in the Nocona game was at a time when we were set for excitement. The fact that he ran through the line then through the end, Goodspeed, King, and back, added to the thrill. Especially since only a few moments before the scribe from Nocona had me about the long run of the season.

Biggest Scare

That's easy. In the last two minutes in the bidistrict with Sanford leading 3 to 1 on penetrations. Incidentally that was the highest jump that I ever made. I wish I could have jumped that high during my school days when I was trying to keep up with Leo Baldwin.

Best Pass

In the Stamford game also. McKown to Teal, lateral to Finch, 22 yards to make the winning play a few moments later possible. The one to Tom Spray across the goal line ranks a close second in the Crowell game.

Comeback

The best come-back in the year was in the Seymour game when the boys made the four touchdowns in the last quarter. That was very satisfactory after a tie game.

Biggest Laugh

Every game almost throughout the season, McKown's sneak play where he hid the ball behind him and wandered nonchalantly toward the goal for a touchdown with a smile about four yards on his face, always brought the crowd more fun than any other play.

Best Punt

Avis Finch, even with a "bad" kicking out on the two point line in the Nocona game. That would have been a stunt that would have been good even for perfectly normal college play-

Best Blocking

Whitton and Montgomery took Seymour man out and sent him on the pep squad bench during the Seymour game. That

The New Deal Marches On!

The New Deal at the Duncan Coffee Company marches on, in step with the momentous times in which we live.

The human element in any problem comes first with Duncan. Three years ago, in the unemployment crisis that rocked the nation, and in the face of economists' opposition, the company discarded a series of machines and replaced them with human labor. Public approval, expressed in increased sales of Duncan coffees, was so marked that in spite of increased payrolls, no increase of prices to the consumer for his coffee was necessary.

The number of the Company's employees has been steadily increased, and will continue to be increased as the volume of sales requires. Yet... there has been no increase in the hours of each person's labor nor has there been any decrease in their wages. Not only that, but the Company has been required, in those three years, to do extensive re-modeling and new building—including a new roasting plant at Corpus Christi which will soon be under construction—to accommodate the increased business.

Each year, from the beginning, the Company has earned a bonus for its employees. And again this year the bonus will be not less than 10% of their year's earnings.

Consumer acceptance of those two fine coffees, ADMIRATION and BRIGHT & EARLY, is the force that makes such policies possible.

Plymouth No. 2,000,000 Sets Record In Industry

One California motorist obtained delivery of a new automobile in Detroit this week a full year sooner than expected.

The motorist is Mrs. Ethel Miller of Turlock, California. She is now enroute back to the Pacific Coast in the 2,000,000 Plymouth car, for which she has her order on file since 1934.

The order was placed at that time when she drove here in the first Plymouth ever built, and turned it in on car No. 1,000,000, just six years after the original Plymouth was produced. After her first ride in the 1934 model she predicted that the two million mark would be reached in half the time, and placed an order to reserve the two millionth car for expected delivery late in 1937.

Plymouth officials advised Mrs. Miller last month, when car No. 2,000,000 appeared on factory schedules for November, a year ahead of time. The California woman again drove across country and turned in her Plymouth No. 1,000,000 at the factory the same day the two millionth car came off the assembly line.

In brief ceremonies at the auto plant here, executives announced a new record had been set for the automotive industry.

The production of 2,000,000 Plymouth cars, within eight years after the introduction of the first Plymouth model, is an achievement without parallel in the history of the industry, said H. G. Moock, vice president.

The two-millionth mark has been reached in less time than it took any other manufacturer, or the entire industry, for that matter to build the first million cars. It took the whole auto industry 12 years to reach the million mark and no single producer ever before built its first million cars in less than 9 years. Yet here is the two-millionth Plymouth only two years after No. 1,000,000 was built, and that came six years after the first model was introduced.

At the ceremony in the Detroit auto plant, officials of the Michigan State Highway department were represented by the chief of the Detroit Bureau, Karl L. Heinemann, to congratulate the industry on the rapid technical progress that has widened the scope of daily human contacts and brought about the modern network of roadways linking every hamlet and town.

Plymouth officials in the factory, as the two millionth car came off the line, included D. S. Eddins, president; K. G. Pound, director of distribution; A. H. Patterson, factory manager, and Mr. Moock.

The millionth car returned by Mrs. Miller will be kept for display beside the original model in the permanent exhibit of the Chrysler Corporation.

Big Rabbit Creek

December 13, 1936.

Well folks we are still having dry weather. Lots of it and its beginning to show up especially with the oats and wheat pastures. There is less underground moisture at this time of the year than its been for years past. Quite a few farmers are predicting another drouth for 1937.

Through the Rabbit Creek News this community wishes to send their sympathy to the Branson family of the passing last week of their father and husband. May God console and comfort them in their great loss.

W. H. Martin, John Owens, his brother Hawkeye motored up to the county seat, Walters, Monday morning to transact some business.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Alexander, Alvin, by some cause got his right hand infected and blood poison set in, and he has a very bad hand on him. It is hoped that no seriousness will set in and it will soon be well.

Well, last Saturday Hawkeye finally slipped off from his better half and went to Burkburnett, as it had been over 2 months since he had been over in the city to see his host of friends. The first place he visited were his old Burkburnett Star staff friends. He found Bro. John Brookman, Bro. Curtis Cook and all of the other boys. In a few minutes Bro. Fred the editor and the owner of the Burkburnett Star came in and Hawkeye had a real good time while visiting with the boys.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ashton was shopping over in Burkburnett Saturday.

Burkburnett is one of the liveliest towns in North West Texas. It sure has got the Christmas spirit. The streets are full on both sides with Christmas trees of all kinds and sizes and shapes, and every store is just chuck full of toys, candies and everything that's good to eat. Everything that is sold in the city in line with any city twice the size of Burkburnett. All business firms motto is "Live and let live."

After the big cash drawing was over and before Hawkeye left for home he called on his old friends the Boyd Bros who owns and conducts one among the largest wholesale and retail stores in North West Texas. So when Hawkeye entered the place of business he walked back through their big shoe department and on through the big Philco radio department and hardware and aluminum department. Say Hawkeye was greatly surprised to see the wonderful change which Mr. Tom Boyd, the manager had made in the big store. They have a long table built in the center of this big room especially for the display of their fine line of wares, and all around on each side of this table in the center of the room is placed on display their fine line of Philco radios. Every article which is sold in the large sales room is easy to get by the clerks, it has added $500 more to the appearance of the big store. All of the boys are live wires.

Mr. Tobe Hardin, Mrs. Martha Nails and her son Charlie were among all of the big Christmas shoppers. They were sure buying their part of the Christmas goodies.

Hawkeye, while in the big oil city called around to visit his old

Thursday, December 17

WE ARE STILL PROUD

The season ended with the Burkburnett team defeated in the first conference game of the year, but the fans of Burkburnett are still proud of the excellent record that the team made this year, and it constitutes a record that was never before made by local teams. The small lads that wore the high school uniforms this year did something that made history. They carried the school's colors into the regional finals for the first time.

This record was gained in spite of many obvious handicaps, and it speaks for itself as a direct compliment of the efficiency of the coaches and the boys who played. With that optimism that always rests in the hearts of fans we say "wait 'till next year."

MORE TOYS NEEDED

The people of Burkburnett have been generous in their response to the request of the Christmas tree committee for various funds and toys for the community tree. However, many more toys will be needed as well as additional funds for the completion of the plans of the organization. Surely almost every household in Burkburnett has some slightly broken toy that could be repaired by the high school industrial department or the members of the fire department.

A large number of metal toys that need only slight repairing and a number of dolls have been given. Wooden toys that need repair will be especially welcome. Those who have such have been requested to phone the fire department and the toys will be picked up immediately.

HURRY WITH YOUR MAIL

Once before the Star has warned the people that the time for mailing the Christmas package was several days in advance of the rush season. The season is practically on us now, but it would be a help to the authorities at the postoffice if these who mail packages should do so as soon as possible.

The advantages are obvious. The mail will reach its destination sooner and safer. The employees of the postoffice will not be hurried by a last moment rush. The customers of the office will find a more courteous and efficient reception.

SIMPLY A RACKET

In a larger city an organization similar to that one which is in the process of formation in this small town of ours would be called nothing else in the world but a racket. Just because the organization is formed in the name of the "farmers" makes it none the less just another means of extracting a tribute from the merchant. The farmers have received little attention during the history of our nation until recently, and the elusive siren of credit in the organization formed has made them all fall for the line of the organizers.

The result is that coercion and pressure is brought to bear on the merchant until he has to pay tribute to the organizers—not the farmer.

The thinly veiled idea that the organization has helped the farmer in its national legislative program closely approaches a flagrant falsehood. The influence of this organization in national farm program is almost positively nil. And their claims are grossly exaggerated.

So far as we can determine, the group does not violate any specific law. As long as the local units do not cross the state line, they are safe from prosecution. But we would like to warn the organizers, the merchants, and the farmers who have accepted the cares, that if they cross a state line, the federal government will probably become interested.

Since Oklahoma is so close, it is possible that the membership should have close scrutiny. Furthermore, the unwillingness of the organizers to print and show a list of the farmers who have joined indicates that they are afraid to do so.

A few in town, so far as we can determine had courage enough to turn the proposition down. They have been boycotted by the group, and a whispering campaign has been started against them. We admire their courage. We think that the straight thinking people of this city should stand by them, and keep such a racket that literally prostitutes both the name of the farmer and the merchant from becoming more powerful.

Doctor of Laws John Garner cut his vacation short to hurry back to Washington. Perhaps he wants to get an early start practicing his new profession.

A young Italian boasts he can increase his blood pressure by mental effort. Pooh—Mental effort on the part of most men would induce apoplexy.

advances into 1937 with the LOWEST PRICE IN YEARS
and new operating economy

THE ADDITION of a new 60-horsepower engine to the Ford line for 1937 brings you a new, low price and gives you a choice of two V-type 8-cylinder engines. 85 horsepower for maximum performance, 60 horsepower for maximum economy.

The 60-horsepower V-8 engine was originally developed for use in England and France, where fuel costs are high. It has been proven there for two years with brilliant success. Now, brought to America, it creates an entirely new standard of modern motoring economy!

The "60" engine, available in five body types, is built in exactly the same body size and wheelbase — to the same advanced design — with the same comfort and convenience as the "85." And it delivers V-8 smoothness at speeds up to 70 miles an hour.

Two engine sizes—but only one car and one purpose—to give you more miles and more satisfaction for your money in 1937.

TAKE A TIP FROM SANTA—

Santa, wise old fellow that he is, says that Burkburnett citizens have more money to spend on making this a happy Christmas as a direct result of the Municipal Light Plant. He estimates that the citizens here save $15,000 per year by owning their own plant. Take a tip from Santa and support the home owned concern.
