FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Little League Faces Monday's Make-ups

Little League's Major League championship still hangs in the balance, with two make-up games to go.

Until Friday night, the Yankees were leading by one game with 8 wins, 6 losses. Dodgers were a notch behind with 7 wins, 6 losses.

Friday night's make-up between the Yankees and Dodgers changed that temporary Yankee triumph into a tie when Dodgers took the Yankee boys 12-8.

That score put Dodgers even with the Yankees on wins with 8 each. It added, however, one loss to the Yankee Record making it read 8 wins, 7 losses.

Dodgers face another battle Monday evening at 6 p. m. when they have to play the Tigers a make-up game for one that was rained out. The Tigers and the Indians are breathing down the neck of the top teams with 7 wins, 7 losses each.

Indians meet the Giants at 8 p. m. Monday night. After that and some flouring the Major League playoffs will be known. All Star schedule starts at 6 p. m. Friday night July 5.

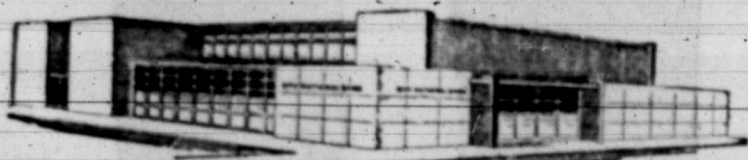

In the Friday night make-up game between Yankee and Dodgers, Dodgers scored 2 runs in the first inning, 20. The winners scored 6 runs in the second to keep their edge to 8-0. Yankees picked up 5 runs in the third but Dodgers plucked 2 more to make the total 10-2.

Neither team scored in the fifth, but the stubborn Dodgers batted in 2 more in the sixth, the losing Yankees, 1. Final score 12-8, in favor of the Dodgers.

Court of Honor Awards 5 Scouts

Court of Honor for Colorado City Boy Scout Troop 20, Lone Buffalo District, presented five Scouts with their second class awards.

The boys, Johnny Trulock, Johnny Carver, Charles Stevens, Dana Baker, and Bill Crummett, were recognized at the Court of Honor meeting held at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the Boy Scout Hut at Ruddick Park. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Trulock, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Baker, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crockett, Jr., in that order. Parents of the Troop 20 Scouts were guests.

Speaker for the affair was Larry Smith of Snyder, Scout Executive of the Lone Buffalo District.

Larry Marks, scoutmaster, also commented briefly to the group on the remarkable activity of the troop. Pointing out that the troop has only been chartered 40 days, he noted that it has already attended two camporees, four camp-outs and two hikes. Camporees are camp-outs attracting area troops, sponsored by various Boy Scout units. The Troop Committee was introduced to the parents. Its chairman is Judge Elmer Martin; members are O. B. Trulock, Jr., Charles Stevens, Curtis Baker, and R. W. Harman.

Troop 20 consists of two patrols and is sponsored by the First Methodist Church. Its assistant scoutmaster is Tommy LeMaster.

MIDLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Vows Repeated Saturday At Ivy, Mackey Wedding

The wedding of Miss Elsie Ann Mackey of Midland and John William Ivy of Pecos was solemnized at 8:00 Saturday night in the First Presbyterian Church of Midland.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Graham Mackey, Sr., 1510 West Indiana, Midland. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. P. K. Mackey, 705 East 8th St. here, and the late Mr. Mackey. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Majors, Sr., 104 East 8th St., Colorado City.

The groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Earnest Schneider of Jackson.

Rev. R. Matthew Lynn read the double-ring vows before a background of tiered cathedral taper arrangements on each side of the communion table banked with Woodwardia fronds, Magnolia and Salsal foliage.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Mackey wore a gown of light ivory silk organza over silk taffeta which featured a fitted empire bodice. Appliques of fine ivory imported Swiss embroidery enhanced the square neckline and flaring elbow length sleeves, complemented by short ivory kid gloves. The slim controlled skirt veiled with the embroidery was floor length and behind it a wide chapel length train extended from the wattleau train attached to the neckline. Her veil of light ivory silk illusion fell to the length of the train from an embroidery crown complemented by a circle face veil.

She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and butterfly roses, and in carrying out tradition, wore for "something old" a gold pin belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Mackey.

The matron of honor and sister of the bride, Mrs. James Tom of Midland, wore a gown of ivory silk satin and silk organza over taffeta. It featured a fitted basque bodice, sabrina neckline, brief sleeves complemented by short ivory kid gloves, and a floor length silk organza controlled skirt. She wore a hat of ivory marline enhanced with a shaped bow of ivory velvet.

Bridesmaids wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor. They were Misses: Janis Wilbur, of Canadian, Mary Beth Cash, of Waco, Suzanne Martin, Betty Black both of Midland, Margo Isaacs, of Ft. Worth, Judge Dodge of Houston, and Mmes. James Boldrick of Midland and James Nelson, Lubbock.

The bride's attendants carried closed parasols of butterfly-embroidered tulle, filled with yellow sweetheart roses, fleur d'amour and Florida fern. The matron of honor's parasol was filled with yellow begonias, fleur d'amour and California ivy.

Best man was Woodland Ivy of Pecos. Groomsmen were John Teegerstrom Lloyd Lane, Ralph Carr, and Tommy Turner, all of Fort Worth, Bob Williams of Houston, Bob Hughes of Pecos, Bill Pruitt of Albuquerque, N. M., and Duane McDaniel of Wichita, Kan.

Among the ushers was Sam L. Majors, Jr., of Colorado City, uncle of the bride.

A reception following the ceremony was given at the Midland Country Club.

Attending the wedding from Colorado City were Mrs. P. K. Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Majors, Jr., and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Witten and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Majors, Sr.

For her honeymoon trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. Ivy wore a suit of emerald ing program.

Cash purses were to be handled to winners in all events — bull riding, bareback and saddle bronc riding, roping, bull dogging and barrel races — after the third and last performance in Western Riding Club arena Saturday, along with the fancy saddle for the Mitchell County special roping event.

First rodeo for adult contestants put on in Colorado City in a number of years the three-night event was sponsored by Western Riding Club. Members hope to make their Amateur Rodeo an annual event. Roy Henderson is president, Dolores Smith, secretary, Tom Neff vice president.

Here for the shows were Betty Woolley, rodeo secretary, Smokey Woolley, arena director, Bennie and Jack Cox, rodeo clowns from Roton. Joe Boyd was time-keeper.

Things happened so fast that when the pipeline job was advertised in January, the CRMW and Engineers had to lay out the pipeline route from topographic maps, then hastily staked it in the field for contractor's inspection.

There were no right-of-way field notes, and these had to be drawn. By March, Ivie and R. A. Schooling, the District's Lake Superintendent, were spending night and day in the field with Harry Ratliff, Colorado City Attorney, signing easements. Most came readily. In a few instances, negotiations were long and drawn out, yet in every case an amicable agreement was reached with out resorting to condemnation.

A project of this magnitude meant that the pipe manufacturer (United Concrete Pipe Corp., Odessa Texas) had to obtain supplies of steel, but during the week ending March 29, the first 200 joints of 18-inch pipe were manufactured. The first load of pipe reached the right-of-way at Silver on April 3, and on April 11, the first ditch was cut. Four days later, the initial joints of pipe were laid. Working ahead, contractor first bored under state and federal highways, inserting conduits through which the pipeline would be inserted later. Right-of-way was cleared, and fences were re-enforced where they would have to be cut.

Production of the 24 inch line began in Dallas by United Concrete Pipe Corporation, and in early May the contractor commenced laying this section. The District awarded a $31,625 contract to Bruce Construction Company of Dallas, Texas, for a trestle crossing over the Colorado River, and another to J. D. Jones Construction Company of Big Spring for $33,040 for a pump station at Lake Thomas.

On June 17 Fulton laid the last joint of pipe, connecting the 24-inch and 18-inch sections, and at noon June 26 first water from Lake Thomas reached Sun's Filter Plant at Silver. Charles B. Perry, Odessa, President of the CRMW, signed a letter officially dated June 27, 1963, tendering water to Sun Oil Company on July 1, and Robert Beggs, Sun Superintendent of Production, said that water injection would be started on that date in the Jameson Reef and Southwest Nina Lucia Units.

CONVERSATION CORNER

HOW does the Average Man spend his time? Just took to wondering in light of the facetious figures advanced by that medical magazine concerning the Average Woman's years on the telephone and extravagance in dressing herself.

How does the Average Man's activity record stack up against that of the Average Woman?

A SURVEY with wives doing the answering might come out with some doozies in several categories. The Average Man spends 183 hours each year of his adult life shaving. He spends approximately 3,650 hours griping about shaving.

THE AVERAGE MAN hits 49 dozen golf balls before he dies. Eats 600 eggs a year. Smokes 730 packs of cigarettes annually.

He reads hundreds of thousands of sports pages, along with the comic section, and watches countless games of the week.

The Average Man forgets his wedding anniversary at least four times before somebody takes steps well in advance to remind him.

HE TURNS off the alarm and goes back to sleep some 1,600 mornings before he retires from his job. He writes an average of two letters a year—if somebody makes him do it.

The Average Man spends at least 88 years of his life hunting things like the bank statement, the hammer, the thermos jug, the beer opener and his hat.

THE AVERAGE MAN uses up one day each year hating having another birthday.

The Average Man also wastes one hour a week hating calf liver, buttered carrots and chocolate pudding.

He loses his temper about not more than 5 times a year, but finds time to pout some 36 to 40 times a year.

The Average Man gets sicker with a head cold than the Average Woman gets to be with double pneumonia and an attack of phlebitis.

THERE'S no way to estimate total time the average man spends asleep during any given period.

He takes at least one long nap every Sunday, then goes to bed just as soon as the exciting 10 o'clock news wakes him up from his after-supper easy-chair napping. His idea of a fine holiday is snoozing as late as he can coax his eyes to stay shut.

THE AVERAGE MAN, bless his stout heart, wastes little or no time at all caring what the neighbors think. He is, mostly, fairly dependent on what his wife and kids think for his share of life's happiness.

He is dependent on his mate in dozens of little ways—food he likes, a smooth, clean bed, companionship, hole-in-the-sock-and-barber-shop reminding.

The Average Man is a strange mixture of dependence and dependability.

Rodney Lees Parents Of 8 lb. Baby Son

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rodney Lee are parents of an eight-pound son born to them in a Waco hospital at 1 a. m. Saturday.

The baby has been named Ralph Norman Lee. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Norman of 128 West 10 St.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Lee of Vine St. are paternal grandparents.

The Lees who live in Waco also are parents of a daughter, Rebecca Ann.

The Average Man,
Young or grown older,
Wears many times
A tear-splattered shoulder.

The Average Man,
Most all of his life,
Spends most of his money
For things bought by his wife.

HERE from Grosbeck for an extended visit is Mrs. J. T. Cox, mother of our Ruth Latham (Mrs. E. L.) of Hickory St. Ruth, by the way, is recently back from visits in Dallas, Austin, and Grosbeck. She plans, a bit later, to take her mother to Hobbs, N. M., to see the Louis Lathams Jr.

In Dallas she visits the Johnny Lathams, in Austin, daughter Mary Ann who is Mrs. Tom Bradford.

IN TUCSON, Arizona, for a stay of two weeks is Lucille Tralock (Mrs. Oren) of West 10th St. She's guest there of son Captain C. A. Wilkens, his wife, and children Cecelia and Walter.

Captain Wilkens, USAF jet pilot, is to be transferred from Tucson to Omaha, Nebraska in July and will attend university classes to complete work toward his degree.

THE PARR HEARINS have moved back to C-City from wasn't it Midland? The couple and their sons Walter and Jimmie are living in the big rambling white house, corner of East 3rd and Locust, and will operate the floral shop which adjoins.

Mrs. Hearin is the former Virginia (Puddy) Whipkey.

CHS and Baylor U. grad—and a native C-Citizen.

OFFICE visitors include Martha Earnest who was saying that another native girl born here as Jesse Person, (daughter of an early-day postmaster) is mother of the author Spencer Crump.

Crump's classical history "Ride the Big Red Cars" and the story of California's early interurbans has been adopted as a textbook to be used by Long Beach junior high schools.

His mother Mrs. J. N. Crump, now of Long Beach, lived as a little girl in the beautiful old red brick cottage which is the Oscar Majors home on Chestnut St. now.

SEEN LATELY—were Lela Price (Mrs. Oscar) back from a Houston stay... Jay Craddock returned from a family vacation trip to the Texas coast with wife Marian and daughters Roberta and Dana... Dora Winn (Mrs. E.H.) and her sister Nina Wallis (Mrs. S. H.) of Tucson back from a trip to New Orleans and a visit to niece Louise Wulfinj Geisenberger (Mrs. Sam) in Natchez, Miss.

At the rodeo desk in the hotel lobby, found attractive Mrs. Corley Rogers (nee Glenna Harwell) sitting in for a while as Western Riding Club secretary. Saw Hunter Mann, son of Hiram and Catherine (Conaway) Mann there, too.

AND wasn't this weekend fun? Cowboys to the left of us, cowboys to the right of us, cowboys at the coffee bar and milling around the rodeo grounds. These were the days of boots and saddles and plaid shirts. Not in this whole wide world is there a sight more colorful than a West Texas rodeo.
